VOL. 15.

BROWNFIELD, TERRY COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY JUNE 4, 1920

NO. 46

THE FIFTH SUNDAY MEETING

Terry county was well represented at the meeting of the Churches of Christ with the local congregation last Sunday, and a most enjoyable day was had. There were several on hand from Tahoka as well as from Gomez, Meadow and Tokio, and it planned to make the next meeting with the church at Meadow, the fifth Sunday in August an even better day, as their protracted meeting will be in full swing on that date. Gomez made a strong bid for the next meeting, but when Meadow mentioned that their protracted meeting would be on at that date, Gomez conceded the meeting to her sister church.

The utmost harmony and good will prevailed throughout the day, and the evidence of brotherly love that prevailed, and the spirit of cooperation that was outlined, goes to show that great results may be expected to follow the meeting.

Dinner was served on the ground at the noon hour, and that was one of the best feeds that has been spread here in many days. At 2:30 a business session was held, and many things for the betterment of the three churches were brought up and discussed.

J. P. Kimbrell preached at the 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. services, and R. T. Harris, of Tahoka preached at 3 o'clock p. m. Between times good song services were enjoyed, and never in the history of the town did so many people gather around the Lords table.

All members are looking forward to the next meeting.

BROTHERS & Brothers buys the best canned food put up to protect their customers.

Mrs. Fred Smith and baby left on Thursday for El Reno, Okla., where she will visit her sister for the next two weeks.

BROWNFIELD PEOPLE ENJOY WEEK OF CHAUTAUQUA

The five day program for the Cadmean Chautauqua has passed and the people of the town are well pleased with the program of the entire entertainment with the exception of one day, and some liked it very well. Taken as a whole, there is no occasion to grumble, for some of the entertainers were real artist in their lines, and gave the people all they promised.

The citizens were pleased enough that they decided to sign up for another five day program in 1921, providing that Jim Lewis would do all the work next year. Our genial and good natured Sheriff did about do all the work this year, and the only pay he got was a hearty cheer from the audience the last night, and he says he enjoyed that much evidence of appreciation better than any thing else that could possibly have been given.

NOTICE TO CANDIDATES

This is to notify those that wish to get their names on the ticket for any county or precinct office that they must do so on or before the Saturday before the 3rd Monday in June, and that means that you must file your application this year with the County Chairman on or before the 19th day of June.

Application blanks for this purpose may be had at the office of the chairman at the Herald office.

A. J. Stricklin, Co. Chair.

Fred Smith, manager of the Cicero Smith Lumber Co. of this place, informed us one day this week that his company was putting in a yard at Meadow. He shipped a car of lumber up there Thursday, and went up in his auto to see about laying out the yard. That portion of Terry county is developing very fast, and this company proposes to take care of the wants of the people.

GRADUATING EXERCISES AT HIGH SCHOOL

The 1919-20 term of the Brownfield High School came to a close on Monday night, May 31st, and seven young people received diplomas, having finished in a satisfactory manner the course of study.

The program as announced in last week's issue of the Herald was carried out to the letter. The highest honor went to Miss Jewelle McBurnett. The next, that of being Salutatorian, to Miss Lorelle Brownfield. Those receiving diplomas were Everett Winston, Lorelle Brownfield, Emily Miller, Mary Hudson, Jewelle McBurnett, Patsy Caudle and Minnie Lee Cardwell.

D. J. BROUGHTON

We have been authorized to announce to the voters of Terry County that D. J. Broughton is now in the race for County Judge, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries on the 24th day of July coming.

D. J. is one of the oldest citizens in the county, in the number of years spent in its border, and during his entire residence here has stood for the best interests of the county, and its people, and we believe that no man in the county stands better with the community in general. Ask any of the old timers, and they will be glad to speak a good word in his favor without an exception. In making out your ballot July 24th, don't forget to consider this excellent citizen.

While at Dallas last week the Herald man purchased a folding machine which will be installed in the near future. This is another great labor as well as trouble saving machine and when it is installed, we want our many friends to come around to see 'er navigate.

FOR SALE: Three head GOOD work horses. See T. R. Darden, 4 miles south town. Phone 104.

MARRIAGES

KEY-RODGERS

S. H. Key and Mrs. Susan Rodgers, both of Gomez, were married at that place last Sunday at high noon.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Baughman, of this place.

Mr. Key is one of the best known farmers of this county, and a splendid citizen in ever sense of the word. Mrs. Key is a splendid lady as were all the pioneers of Terry county, for like her husband few people preceded her to Terry.

JONES-BARTON

We learned this week that Mr. Earl Jones, of Gomez, and Miss Ethel Barton, of Lubbock, were married at the latter place last Sunday.

Mr. Jones is one of the most highly respected young men of Terry county, and has only recently been discharged from the army artillery.

Mrs. Jones also has many friends here, having formerly lived in Brownfield with her parents. She is a young lady of refinement and beauty.

PARISH-FLEMMING

Mr. Parish of Erath county, and Miss Letha Flemming of the Dumas community were married at the court house Wed. afternoon of this week, Judge R. L. Graves officiating.

While we are not acquainted with Mr. Parish, his wife is regarded as being a lady of refinement.

Herald extends congratulations to the three happy couples at once and the same time.

Rev. J. T. Bryant, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church at this place was here this week looking after business matters connected with his church in this town, which he still calls home. He said he was returning to Abilene for his car, and would then return here.

IF YOU want a span of big mares or gentle work mules see, W. M. Parks 3 miles west of town.

BARRIER BROTHERS SELL STORE AT PLAINVIEW

The firm of Barrier Bros., dry goods retailers, well known over the South Plains, have recently disposed of their store at Plainview. The sale was made to Cecil & Copany, merchants of that city. In conversation with G. C. Barrier, manager of the store in Lubbock, we find that this progressive firm is concentrating its efforts in Lubbock and the Lubbock trade territory. He informed the Avalanche representative that soon they would bring the store now being operated at Brownfield, to Lubbock, and remain in this city as a point of concentration until at least the market conditions assume more steady and favorable proportions—Lubbock Avalanche.

SENTENCED TO 99 YEARS;

CATES APPEALS CASE

The jury which heard the evidence in the case where the State of Texas charged Sam Cates with the killing of Judge J. W. Barton, well known Crosby county attorney, turned in a verdict last Thursday evening of guilty, and assessed punishment of ninety-nine years in the penitentiary. The case has been appealed and will be heard again in the Criminal Court of Appeals in Austin.

He was brought to the Lubbock jail Monday morning of this week and will be held here indefinitely.—Lubbock Avalanche

YOU Need insurance and we have what you need. Ingle & Green, Agents for Southland Life Insurance.

E. M. Flemming left Tuesday morning for College Station, where he will take a summer course at the A. & M. college in cotton grading, and will return here this fall to buy that staple. His wife and Miss Gladys will stay in Dallas during the time he is away.

FOR SALE: Good Jersey milk cow See Mrs. John Raymer, City.

Miss Ina Howard, granddaughter of Uncle Bill Howard of the Needmore community happened to a very painful accident one day last week that cost her one of her fore fingers. It seems that she was dropping watermelon seed while planting cotton on a riding planter, when the planter passed over a rough place and she decided that she was about to fall, and of course caught the first object in sight, which happened to be a cog wheel. The finger was so badly crushed that the local physician decided to take it off when she was brought to town.

A quarter inch rain fell here Tuesday night.

SEED Peanuts for sale. Enquire for C. C. Handley at Holgate-Ender-sens Hardware Store.

John Dooley was up this week from Post looking after business matters.

Mrs. A. E. Morgan and little daughter, Evelyn came in yesterday to visit Mrs. Morgan's sister, Mrs. A. J. Stricklin and family.

Mrs. J. T. May went up to Lubbock one day this week and returned with her daughter, Mrs. Boyce Cardwell.

We understand that Miss Mary Barow underwent an operation at El Paso last week and that she is getting along nicely and was able to leave the hospital Wednesday of this week.—Balmorhea Herald.

We guess her brother, Raz Barlow remained at Hogville.

Since the big sale started at Barrier Brothers about three weeks ago they have sure sold lots of goods, and their stock is running rather low. We understand it is their intention to move the remainder of the stock to Lubbock.

BROTHERS & Brothers delivers your groceries to your kitchen.

We had rumors of another wedding late this week but decided to get a little more definite information about the matter.

BROTHERS & Brothers will appreciate your grocery orders.

J. M. Shields and wife left last Saturday for Topeka, Kans., where he will undergo treatment at the Santa Fe Hospital.

LOST: A boy's coat on the ball ground. Finder will please return to W. A. Bell.

The Brownfield baseball team was to have played the Lamesa team on Tuesday, but for some reason or another the Lamesa boys did not show up.

FOR SALE:—One two-row sod planter. E. W. Harlan, Gomez.

Martin & Son, the bootmakers, received several hundred pounds of sole leather, this week, but it takes lots of it to keep four good bootmakers going.

GOOD Milk Cows for sale. See Bob Glover, Gomez, Texas.

Mrs. Claud Criswell and children, of Plains, are here this week visiting with Mrs. Criswell's brothers, J. A. and C. R. Darden, and families, and their many friends here.

A protracted meeting will begin at the Church of Christ next 2nd Sunday to continue one week, or over the third Sunday. The local minister, J. P. Kimbrell will do the preaching. Everybody invited to attend.

The farmers of the Plains country are just about up to their usual time with their planting, but the people of Central Texas are at least a month behind with their farming. While their corn and feed is larger than on the plains, their cotton is just about like it is here. In fact, when we left there last week, they had more cotton in the ground than above it.

Mrs. C. S. Cardwell, and daughter, Miss Minnie Lee left this week for Wichita Falls, Byers and other points in Texas and Oklahoma.

ALL leather gloves 65c. Apron gingham 25c. while they last. Only two croquet sets left at the Racket Store on the north side of the square.

Dr. M. E. Burgess, of Lamar, Ark., is here this week visiting his brother, I. C. Burgess and family. He shipped two coyote pups to his son, Thursday morning.

ALL KINDS of fruit and vegetables in season, at Bros. & Bros.

Miss Webell Hargett of Seagraves visited all last week with her sister, Miss Robena, and attended the Chautauqua.

BROTHERS & Brothers will pay the highest market price for your poultry, eggs and cream.

Miss Baughman, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Baughman, of this place, who has been attending school at San Antonio, came in last week to spend the vacation with home folks.

AN S.O.S. CALL FROM BUCKNER ORPHANS HOME

When a ship is at sea and all is well there may be many days during which there is no communication between it and the rest of the world, save news items of passing interest. Storms may be weathered, engine troubles of minor importance may develop and yet there is no call for help. A day finally comes when wireless stations along the shore and on vessel within a thousand miles pick up the wireless call for help: S. O. S. Save Oh Save!

We have had no epidemic: The children are enjoying the same good health as usual here. Typhoid nor measles, nor "flu" nor anything else untoward calls for extra sacrifices upon the part of surgeons and doctors and nurses, or extra liberality upon the part of the people to meet the extra expense at such a time.

We Have Had No Fire: Our buildings stand firmly on strong foundations, and every door and window, floor and ceiling, stairway and casement is in place. Buildings nor contents, furnitures nor fixtures, neither properties nor persons have been burned; nor can we call for extra giving upon the part of our friends to repair or replace such loss.

We Have Not Lost Confidence In Our Friends: They are everywhere in great numbers, and they believe in the work and workers here. We are sure that there are many of them who would gladly share a last dollar or a last crust with these children. We believe that they are ready for extra giving at every time extra giving becomes necessary. Yet—

We Have No Money For Current Support: We saw it coming; but the bank sees it now and has notified us formally that it is so. We shall need one-hundred-thousand dollars for the rest of the Convention year; but a circumstance that is more to the point is that we need twenty-five-thousand dollars right now as soon as it can possibly be sent in. Bills already rendered and outstanding obligations amount to that much.

We have no fear but for the proneness of some to feel that the other fellow will make it all right. It cannot be made right unless you, beloved reader, make it right. So, if you believe in the work, send us your personal check for a liberal amount, and then use your influence to get others to come to our help.

WINE MOVES ON EAST

The three cars of California port wine moved out of Canadian for the east Monday. It is said that the atmosphere on the Plains is conducive to a high degree of evaporation, and the wine in the car that was tampered with showed a line seventeen inches from the top of the tank. At least if it had been allowed to stand in the hot sun much longer in the metal tanks, it would have beaten twenty per cent considerably.—Canadian Record.

Rev. Durham of Gatesville, came in last week and went over to Plains where he received a call from the Baptist church at that place, and in addition will likely accept the principalship of the school at that place. Rev. Durham and family formerly lived at this place and latter moved to Tahoka, being pastor of the Baptist churches at both places, and has many friends here who will be glad to see him return to the plains. He informed us that his wife was not having good health in the Gatesville country was his chief reason for returning to the plains.

The teachers in the Brownfield public schools left this week for their several home, all except the superintendent, G. L. Farrar and Mrs. Oscar Adams, both of whom are residents of this city. Most of them will return for the next term. It might be mentioned that tears were shed at the parting, for it is a well known fact that Brownfield people treat their teachers in such a way that they hate to leave, even for a few months.

A quarter of an inch rain fell here Tuesday night, and the prospects are bright for more.

When the editor and family got home last week the Herald was out, and being very tired and sleepy, we were very thankful to find it so; and believe us, the substitutes got out a real good Herald to. We have heard many compliments passed on the boys for the good paper they gave the readers last week.

B. W. Stinson and little daughter returned this week from a trip east. It was announced from Dallas last Saturday that Joe Bailey is in no condition to continue a two months campaign. We believe it. What has been done to him would make anybody sick. His symptoms, political bellyache, have been more or less manifest, however, for a dozen years past.—Midland Reporter.

While in Dallas last week we fell in with a fellow being from the good old South Plains of Texas; we knew he was from the plains the way he looked, and he said we looked the same way to him. In other words, the plains people all look optimistic. Each of us got hungry about the same time out at the Fair Auditorium (they call it a colley-see-him at Dallas) and started to town after our supper (and they call that dinner down there.) We had not gone but a few blocks till one of us smelled the printer's ink on the other, and we found we were walking and talking to Editor G. R. Scott of the Hale Center Record. It is indeed strange how good folks will get together.

We used to get our styles in France and lately we have decided that the painful economy in the amount of goods used was due to the war, and so great was our sympathy that we have seen an occasional lady with so little on that we nearly wept, but all this is changed, for now we know where the styles come from. We were at a picture show and the scene was an African jungle, and the ladies wore more abbreviated clothing than we have yet seen. If the eating of one apple made grandma Eve put on one fig leaf, we would suggest a bushel every morning for a few cases we have seen.—Lamesa Reporter.

Rage on Bro. Smith, but let us file this notice with you. Your ragging is going to do you very little good, for the ladies are not going to let mere man, unless he be a fashion dictator, even suggest the styles they wear. But honest, where is the line of abbreviation going to meet?

We do not believe we ever saw a building put up any quicker than the Bradley-Brownfield garage. It was started less than three weeks ago, and the walls are all up; the floors are in, the roof is just about complete, and the carpenter work on the interior is progressing nicely.

E. Brown is adding two rooms to his residence in the west part of the town; also two galleries. Let the improvements go on.

A large crowd attended the services at the school auditorium last Sunday to hear Rev. Graves of Lubbock, preach the baccalaureate sermon to graduates, and is said to have delivered a very fine discourse. The Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian and Christian denominations held their Sunday Schools together, the whole making a huge class of about 250.

Says Watoga Lady, "As To What Cardui Has Done For Me, So As To Help Others."

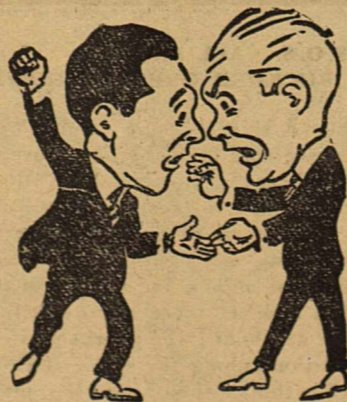

Watoga, W. Va.—Mrs. S. W. Gladwell, of this town, says: "When about 15 years of age, I suffered greatly . . . Sometimes would go a month or two, and I had terrible headache, backache, and bearing-down pains, and would just drag and had no appetite. Then . . . it would last . . . two weeks, and was so weakening, and my health was awful.

My mother bought me a bottle of Cardui, and I began to improve after taking the first bottle, so kept it up till I took three . . . I gained, and was well and strong, and I owe it all to Cardui.

I am married now and have 3 children . . . Have never had to have a doctor for female trouble, and just resort to Cardui if I need a tonic. I am glad to testify to what it has done for me, so as to help others."

WINDY EDITORIAL FROM LAMESA EDITOR

East Texas is just beginning to get in good shape for a crop. Too much rain will prevent some parts of the country from making some crops at all. Stay in this county and wait for the rains. It will come. If it don't come this year, it will next and you will make more in the one than our east Texas friends make in three. You will see that the Herald at Big Springs and the News at Tahoka, and the Herald at Brownfield saying come to their county, but the main thing is don't pay any attention to them. Come to Dawson.—Lamesa Reporter.

Why put it in this form Bro. Smith? Why not give them their right choice in the matter? What right have you to tell them not to pay any attention to the Howard, Lynn and Terry Co. editors? Our county is just as good as yours, and maybe in some respects, better from a farming standpoint. Your windy editorials give us a case of the gripes for the simple reason that we are next door neighbors, and should stand side by side in boosting our part of the country. Your shots should be directly fired at Lubbock or Slaton, whose land agents tell all the prospectors who are headed in this direction, that they will find nothing but sand and catclaws in Lynn, Dawson and Terry counties.—Lynn County News.

We are all prone to be selfish, and all think our particular counties are the best—but the south plains country as a whole should be boosted at all times, for the upbuilding of any part of it is a direct benefit to the whole, whether we can see it that way or not. But Haynes, if Smith's editorials give you the belle-yache, for the love of Mike quit reading them and get the paragoric bottle.

A. P. Moore the Gomez merchant who happened to the grave misfortune of being burned out last week, was a pleasant caller at the Herald office on day this week. He is one of the oldest residents in the county, and has utmost confidence in its future, and of course will build better than ever on the ashes of the old store.

Will Adams has sold his interest in the Bownfield Hardware Co., to W.B. Downing and they are at present invoicing the stock preparatory to the transfer. Mr. Adams has been in the hardware business here for several years and has made good. We did not learn what he intends to follow in the future, but believe he has no intention of leaving old Terry. Mr. Downing was already engaged in the implement business, and the hardware business is only another step in this business. Mr. Longbrake will hold his interest in the store, and of course be actively engaged in the business.

One of our readers had a good article in the paper a few weeks ago about a singing convention for Terry county, and we believe the move ought to be encouraged. Let's have the singing convention by all means.

Dr. Homer Hughes, dentist of Dallas, arrived recently, and has again opened offices over the State bank. He is certainly well qualified, and he will make us a dentist second to none in this part of the west.

ANCIENT PREHISTORIC CITY

There has been considerable discussion of the activity that has been noticed on the Wolf Creek forty-five miles northwest of Canadian by a party of scientist who have been excavating the ruins of a lost city of prehistoric days, and the Record has taken the effort to secure the data of the activities and we are certain that all our readers will be interested in the story.

The lost city has been known to the people of Canadian for perhaps forty years, and Prof. T. C. Irely, who was formerly an instructor in the Canadian Academy, visited the place and made explorations with some of his pupils, among whom was F. V. Studer of the First National Bank, who has made a study of archaeology and who now has one of the finest prehistoric collections of relics, including implements, bones, teeth, etc., found outside of a museum; and some museums do not contain as good a collection as he. He is well informed on the storehouses of the Panhandle where relics may be found and he makes of archaeology a study. He has one tooth in his collection that is eight inches across its surface. But his work is altogether another story.

Prof. Irely wrote a scientific article on the Lost City on Wolf Creek. He is now a noted archaeologist. The article came to the attention of Prof. Warren K. Moorehead, curator of the Museum of Philips Academy, of Andover, Mass. Mr. Moorehead is the author of the "Stone Age in North America," and other scientific works. He is perhaps the leading scientist of the United States.

He is preparing the manuscript on the Archaeological Survey of the Arkansas River Valley, and he came to Canadian with a full force of men and a complete camping outfit and has spent two weeks making a detailed survey of the Lost City on Wolf Creek; this survey will occupy three chapters in his new book.

His camping outfit is very complete and the personnel of the party, should we be privileged to name them, would furnish names prominent before the nation.

The Lost City of Wolf Creek means nothing in general appearance to the average person, but under the guidance of a scientist reveals many marvelous things.

Prof. Moorehead has identified the ruins of 36 buildings in this Lost City, which is located on the banks of Wolf Creek in such a way that the erosion of the soil has covered it in the natural march of time. The buildings are 15x40 feet in size and are built of stone, which is found there in unlimited quantity. The stones were placed without mortar, and occasionally a little adobe mud.

Four complete skeletons were uncovered and numerous other bones. One skeleton was found in a squatting position and there was no evidence that it had been buried or that it had been killed by a blow. Mr. Moorehead found hundreds of articles of immense value to science. There were needles, drills, scrapers, pottery, gems made of mussel shells, etc., but no beads, for these people lived before the time of beads.

The articles were not made of flint but were made of jasper, and the only spot where jasper can be found in the Panhandle is a place on the Canadian river about 50 miles west of Canadian.

The most valuable of the collection found by Mr. Moorehead is a scarificial bowl about 20 inches in diameter with the ashes of the last offering still in it. He has not determined yet whether the ashes were human or animal. The bowl was about five feet under the ground and resting on the dirt floor of the hut. It was made of a poor grade of clay.

The Record editor has seen several interesting photographs of the find at Lost City as taken by Mr. Studer.

The skeletons prove that the inhabitants of Lost City lived there at least five thousand years ago. They were not the Pueblo Indians but a tribe with a much lower state of civilization, as they used bone and rock implements. The probably became extinct through a pestilence or else through being destroyed by the Pueblo Indians.

Mr. Studer's collection of archaeological relics is a very valuable one, and he is willing to place them in some public building that is fireproof and where they will not be molested or destroyed. The importance of such a place can hardly be overestimated.

He has also explored places in this section where, he says, skeletons of huge prehistoric animals can be secured by one who has the time and inclination to follow that line of research.—Canadian Record.

FOR SALE:—160 acres of land, five miles east of Seagraves, as good as there is in Texas. Has improvements amounting to good house, wind mill, good fences and cross fences; 60 acres in cultivation. Price $20, per acre. Possession given Jan. 1, 1921. Address L. T. Baldwin, Brownfield.

THE PEOPLE SHOULD HELP

A bill is pending before the called session of the legislature appropriating an amount which will add about $3. per capita to the school apportionment for next year. As this money will come from a surplus already existing in the State Treasury and will not add in any way to the taxes next year there can not be raised any forceable objections to this appropriation being made. And even if the money had to be raised by a special levy, we believe we know the people of Texas, especially the people of West Texas, well enough to warrant the statement that no dissenting voice will be heard against any proportionment that has for its purpose the betterment of our schools.

The people everywhere should write their representative and let them know what they want, and that they want to save the schools of our state for the children—our most valuable asset.—Snyder Record.

J. T. Stricklin, a Lubbock county farmer who recently sold his land 12 miles east of the city, returned last Friday from an extended visit to Washington and Oregon. According to Mr. Stricklin, reports of decreased prices in lumber was not spoken of in the timber country.—Lubbock Avalanche.

HOGVILLE LOCAL NEWS

By Dunk Botts.

Dan Hocks, blacksmith, who also does barber work on Saturdays, now has two pair of scissors, a dull pair and one pair sharp. He has established two prices on hair cuts—25 cents for a hair cut with the dull ones and 30 cents for use of sharp ones. A traveling man was in town Saturday and chose the sharp shears and Dan raked in an extra nickel.

Dag Smith, in looking over some statistics yesterday noticed that every third baby born in the world is a Chinaman. Dag has nine children. He will now endeavor to find out something about the pedigree of the other six.

The Postmaster left this week for a three days hunting and fishing expedition and closed the postoffice right at a time when Miss Petunia Belcher was expecting a letter from her unknown correspondent. The Postmaster says if he stayed on duty all the time Petunia was expecting mail, a great many of his share of the fish would go uncaught.

Zero Peck, expressing his opinion of things generally a few days ago, said he had never done any singing himself but had heard a great many others sing and believed if he were to try he could do as well as Miss Begonia Allsop, who always manages in some way to get on the program where singing is to be done. Begonia has heard of this unkind remark and Zero is now hiding out.

Human nature is still doing business at the same old stand—the Postmaster putting on a disgusted look when certain people call for their mail more than once a day.

Sile Sims got his second-hand auto to run a short distance a few days ago but says he got no pleasure out of the ride, as he imagined all the time the thing was running that he was sowing the road behind him with bolts, springs, broken cogs, etc., and his mind was laboring as to how long it would take him to gather up all the loose parts and get them back into the machine.

Mistakes

We made some mistakes yesterday and a few the day before; We wouldn't be at all surprised

If today we made some more. Should we ever reach the point Aslant life's rocky hill Where we never make mistakes Right then we'll make our will.

SOME INTERESTING FACTS

Ques. If a hole were dug through the earth, passing through the center, and a steel ball dropped in it, where would the ball stop? Ans. At the center, which is also the earth's center of gravity. Of course the ball would at first pass by the center, due to its own momentum, and would oscillate for awhile before coming to rest at the exact center of the earth.

From records in the War Risk Insurance bureau it appears that there were enough Smiths in the American war army to make 15 regiments. The Johnson's made 11; the Browns 8 while the Jones, Williamses and Millers furnished more than seven each. Next in order came the Andersons, Davises, Wilsons, Moores and Taylors.

Kit Dalton, 78 years of age, the last surviving member of the famous Jessie James band, and also of the Quantrell's guerrillas, recently died penniless in Memphis. He participated in the holdup of 36 trains and eight stage coaches and in the robbery of 22 banks. Latter he was thrown in with the Bass gang of desperadoes in Texas, where he continued his career of robbery. When the federal government granted amnesty to all civil war raiders Dalton went to Memphis and took up gambling. Years latter he "hit the sawdust trail" and became an evangelist, telling the story of his misdeeds in the churches.

J. H. Messer, of El Paso, representing the daily Herald, of that city, was here this week looking for new readers. He called on the Herald and informed us that he had succeeded in getting a good line of readers here, and that Master Jack Dumas would act as local distributing agent.

R. G. Wood was down from Meadow one day this week. He has been in southern Arizona for the past several weeks trying to recuperate his health.

EL PASO TIMES SAYS NEFF IS STONGEST MAN

The following excerpt in regard to the Governor's race in Texas, is taken from an editorial which appeared in the El Paso Morning Times of April 28th, 1920:

"The campaign for the governorship will really begin in earnest after the precinct conventions of Saturday. There are five candidates in the field, but up to date only two of them, Pat Neff, of Waco, and former Senator Bailey, of Gainesville, have made any considerable progress with the voters. Mr. Neff, if opinions of trained political observers are worth anything, is reasonably certain to receive the support of the so-called progressive element, which is backing the Wilson administration, while Senator Bailey is everywhere recognized as the champion of the old-fashioned Democrats who believe in the maintenance of the traditional doctrines of the party, and who would call a halt to the latter day mania for the centralization of authority in Washington.

"Messrs. Looney, Thompson and Lewelling, the remaining three candidates have climbed upon the administration band wagon, but there is reason to believe that they are generally regarded as excess baggage and may be invited to step down and out and make way for one man who will have a chance to defeat Senator Bailey."

Parks Withdraws From the Sheriff's Race

W. M. Parks has asked us to say in this week's paper that he is no longer in the race for Sheriff and Tax-Collector of Terry county, for various reasons, most of which he will not make known through the paper. He is thankful to his many friends for their consideration, and for their help and encouragement in any way, and that he will long remember them for any favors shown his candidacy.

IF—YOU could buy a car that looks like an automobile, rides like an automobile, and is so easily handled that anyone without previous experience can drive it—and yet requires no more care or cost of upkeep than a flivver—wouldn't you dig right down in your pockets and lose no time in buying one? We'll say you would. Then tell J. F. Winston to get you a new model Overland!

MAIDS AND MATRONS

This club was most delightfully entertained by Mrs. Ray Brownfield at her hospitable ranch home, Tuesday afternoon, June 1st. The ride out was very enjoyable.

The lesson on Scott's Manian was conducted by Mrs. Bell, after which much business was transacted. It was decided that the Maids and Matrons give a picnic Sat. afternoon in the courthouse yard to the children who have worked so faithfully piling trash for clean up day. It is hoped that each one will come and have a happy afternoon.

We were then asked out under the big, inviting green trees, where a table was set on the beautiful green grass, adorned with delicious chicken patties, sandwiches, ice tea, olives, etc. There the members ate and chatted and were loathe to leave until a late hour.

Mrs. Brownfield was assisted in serving by her charming sister, Miss Bit Pyeatt.

Those present were Mesdames King, Randal, Dallas, Stricklin, Scud-day, A. M. and M. V. Brownfield, and Mrs. Fred Smith.

Mrs. Chesshir and baby, of Meadow, were here this week visiting the family of P. F. Bruce.

The Campaign Is On

Brownfield is seriously handicapped in growth and development because of a shortage of Homes.

Many families are living in camped quarters or hunting a place to live.

Every patriotic citizen should lend his efforts to this campaign to build more homes. If you are a renter build a home of your own. If you own a vacant lot improve it with a house for rent or for sale.

We cannot hope to attract additional families to Brownfield unless we can provide comfortable housing.

Our modern home plans will help you to decide.

THE EDITOR'S TRIP TO THE STATE CONVENTION

You folks up here on the Plains of sure enough west Texas that think it has been hot for the past week or so, just ought to try central Texas for a few days, and you would think some big scoundrel had stuck you in an oven—but you will also catch it when you get back to the "ballies" for the editor and family like to have frozen it seemed to us, last Friday morning before the crew on the Santa Fe north bound decided it was cool enough to turn on the steam in the coaches. But that is another tale.

We reached Fort Worth one hour late, and that was extra well considering that we were trying to get there on the Tay & Pay—say that road is a big joke if there ever was one. They switch the "Sunshine Special"—especially slow, we guess—to let freight trains by, as high as three at a time. And then they ran a "hot box" about ten miles this side of Fort Worth, but how they did it we could never discover, as we did not see anyone around with a blow torch, and we know they did not run fast enough to get one.

Of course we were too late to get a train on the Katy, for they go and come on time, and instead of going to Grandview on the railroad, we took an interurban for Cleburne, and that being only eleven miles from where our brother lives, and the fact that their roads are good and he has a new Dodge, we were soon among our kindred and friends anyway. After living on the plans as long as we have, their little farms look awful small, but they are still very productive, and the people are in good shape, and they are very highly developed in that country, away ahead of us, but our days are comng. You cannot only go almost any place on their interurbans almost any hour of the day, but a big concern known as the North Texas Light and Power Co. has high tension wires upon big steel towers all over that country, and every villiage and hamlet has electric lights and electric power.

Upon arriving at the home of our brother, we found many of our old friends and acquaintance awaiting our arival, and the rest of the Sunday afternoon was spent very pleasantly together, considering the fact that we were very tired and sleepy and made them poor company. Of course we were asked many questions about the glowing west, and you may just bet your last dollar that we gave the information gladly, and to their entire satisfaction, as we believe that many of them will visit old Terry this summer to look.

On Monday night the farm home of our brother was literally surrounded by autos, and we got to meet many new people, as well as renew the friendship of former friends. Two violins, a guitar and the piano were brought in play by local artists while the younger set romped on the grass out in front, and the hours were getting near the high point when the visitors began to leave. We forgot to mention that most of Monday was spent on the banks of the old creek, under the pecan trees, and in the berry patches and in the plum thickets, and we might also mention that our boy had the time of his life as this was all new to him, and Sunday night, May the 23rd was probably the first night he ever slept all night without covering in his life.

As stated above, the people down there are prosperous, and most of them are laying by something for a rainy day, but they are just the same good souls they were years ago when we left them for the bounding west.

The Convention

On Tuesday morning the 25th, we left Grandview for Dallas to attend the State Democratic Convention, to cast the vote of old Terry, and this was probably the first time in the history of the county that she was personally represented in a State Convention.

This district, the 18th Congressional will be represented at the San Francisco National Democratic Convention by Messrs. W. A. Palmer, of Canadian and R. A. Underwood of Plainview. The alternates are H. B. Hill, of Shamrock and Mrs. R. S. Thompson, of Amarillo. Among the delegates at large will be found such war horses as Gov. W. P. Hobby, Tom Campbell, M. M. Crane, Barry Miller, Hugh N. Fitzgerald, and other equal or lesser light. Thos. B. Love, the man that the old guard put out at San Antonio four years ago, was re-elected to his old place as National Committeeman. We might mention the fact also, that the old guard was conspicuous at this convention by their absence, and we bet this is the one convention that J. U. Watson, of Houston has missed in a decade.

We had the pleasure of not only hearing the governor speak, but all the candidates for governor as well. The sensation of the day came when Mr. Lewellyn, of Dallas withdrew in favor of Pat Neff, and we came back from the convention even stronger for Neff than before we went. We had the pleasure of shaking his hand again, and he enquired if "we are still running good in old Terry. He seemed pleased when we informed him that he was still way ahead, and going good. There is not the least doubt in our mind that Neff is the man that will fill the governor's mansion next trip, and that was the opinion of the great majority of folks we talked to on our trip, except the delegations from Cooke and Hunt, the former of which we went over to Dallas with on the same car.

The convention was a very tame affair, for their was not enough opposition to cause a wave of resentment, or a motion of the steam roller.

They have more things to see and hear than we, but we are never bothered with ugly dreams out on the ballies wherein we are trying to dodge an auto, catch a street car and keep from running into something or some one all the same time. Give us old Terry every time.

To the Voters of Terry County

I wish to state that the reports that are being circulated throughout the county as to me owing so much property are untrue.

Asa Proctor Withdraws From Race For County Treasurer

We are authorized to announce that Asa Proctor who recently entered the race for County Treasurer, has formerly withdrawn his name from the list of candidates.

Through the columns of the Herald he wishes to thank his many friends for their interest in his candidacy, but he feels that it is not the proper thing for him to continue in the race.

The following statement was given us by him for publication:

I also wish to express my deep appreciation to the citizens of this town and county for their generous donation and very kind consideration and assistance to me during my illness. I believe I am rapidly recovering and though a cripple for life, will try to earn my living by work I can do.

Very Respt.
