SPORT SCRIBE THINKS WOLVES WILL HELP TO MAKE GRID RACE TOUGH

That the Colorado Wolves are regarded as one of the teams which will make the race "tough" in the new Class B football district next fall is indicated in the following paragraphs from the "Second Guess" column of Bob Cooke in the Sweetwater Daily Reporter:

"From present indications there will be a tough race this fall in the new class B football district in this section. The area is to have one new coach, Jack Christian, who will take over the duties at Colorado High school this fall, succeeding Jim Reese. "Christian, a member of the Abilene coaching staff for several seasons, will have some pretty fair material willed to him by Reese. Working with the freshmen and junior teams at Abilene, he has demonstrated he knows how to coach, how to get his candidates to give their best."

"To my way of thinking Doyle Williams is doing an outstanding work among the boys of this county. They are being taught to put their eggs in more than one basket and the technical and practical education they are now obtaining is going to reflect in a better Mitchell county during the next generation," Baskin went on to say. "One of the best investments that you gentlemen could make would be to cooperate fully in their projects in that their deserving ambitions not be written in failure."

Spring Season's Ensembles Have Gay Color Splash

Vivid Colors, Bold Stripes To Be Seen On Men During The Coming Spring

Adjective bottles can be popped loose this Easter as far as men's clothing is concerned. Keeping up with the feminine world's splash of color, men are beginning to know the meaning of line and color, of freedom, comfort, and good looks in their clothes.

For a change men deserve all the superlatives that can be used upon them. Business and professional men and collegians, too, are paying stricter attention to fabrics.

Chalk stripes, window-pane checks in soft-finish worsteds, and two-color stripe suits are gaining attention of more conservative-minded men while old Glenurquharts—not ordinary glens—have been evolved as the outcome of the sport tendency and have a direct appeal for the men who seek "different" styles.

For the annual parade men have as wide a variety from which to select as have women. Stripes, small and large checks, and plaids—bold or not as the man fancies—are to be found in men's shops here.

Simple lines are now being featured in sports suits, trousers, being given a casual air and coats treated with Gusset sleeves or a few pleats to lend supreme comfort. But sports backs continue in their high spot for news.

Increasing interest in this section of the country are the mixed suits, that is, sports coats with odd plaids with plaids, growing larger and grayer.

Correct ensembles in every conceivable color combination are worked out and displayed, aiding the conservative buyer in his groping toward brighter things.

Deep toned shirts have found an unusual favor, and will be decidedly the smart touch for summer suits as well as for spring models. Ties are highly colored, being shown in bold stripes, in plaids, and in both small and large prints. Duke of Kent colors—meaning those that are buttoned—are vying with the traditional styles.

VOCATIONAL AG STUDENTS MAKE GOOD INCOME

STEPHENVILLE.—Vocational agriculture students in Area IV made a total labor income of $100,533.38 from their home projects for the year 1934-35, according to a recent summarized report by Roy B. Mefford, professor of vocational agriculture at John Tarleton College and area supervisor.

The report was compiled from the records of 52 vocational agriculture departments. It does not include records of the eleven new departments that have been installed this year.

The records show that 2,857 different projects were completed, involving 320,498 hours of labor in addition to the regular time spent in class. In addition, there was a cash outlay of $112,635.99 and a return of $199,104.07, showing a net profit of $86,468.08. Included in the cash outlay was $14,065.30 for student self labor, which would make a labor income of $100,533.38, or a total of more than 70 cents for each hour that the student devoted to his project, as an average for the area.

The list includes 48 different kinds of projects, ranging all the way through livestock, poultry, field crops, orchards, and living-at-home enterprises. The five leading enterprises chosen by the students are as follows: cotton with 465 projects, grain sorghums with 319 projects, corn with 242 projects, pigs for pork production with 226 projects, and dairy cattle with 176 projects.

CENTENNIAL YEAR EVENTS STIMULATE TRAVEL IN TEXAS

DALLAS.—Centennial year travel in Texas is underway in rapidly increasing volume, according to reports received from all parts of the state by the department of information for Texas Centennial celebrations.

More out-of-state motor cars are reported on Texas highways today than at any time in the past. All travel agencies report greatly increased demands for service. In addition Texans are traveling in increased numbers, stimulated to do so by the many Centennial celebrations being held each month.

Record breaking crowds have attended all Centennial celebrations held to date. As the vacation season arrives thousands of Texas families are expected to take to the highways to "travel Texas" this summer. These travelers, augmented in number by thousands of out-of-state visitors, will make 1936 the greatest travel year in the Lone Star State's history.

Texas Beauty Presents "Blue Bonnet Blue"

A new high note in fashions was struck last week when the Texas Centennial Celebrations presented beautiful "Blue Bonnet Blue" to the fashion world in a style show at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel in New York City. Scores of leading stylists, designers, and fashion editors applauded when lovely Janice Jarratt, San Antonio girl known to the nation as America's most photographed girl, appeared in this striking Blue Bonnet gown designed especially for the occasion by Vogue. Decorating the luxurious lounge were 250 flowering Blue Bonnet plants gathered near San Antonio and Corpus Christi and air-expressed to New York.

Official adoption of "Blue Bonnet Blue" by fashion authorities has caused the lustrous State flower of Texas to be introduced into spring and summer fashions throughout the nation. Thus enthusiasm for the Texas Centennial Celebrations, already evident in many fields, motivates progress in the fashion world.

Time Turned Backward 10 And 20 Years In Browsing Through Old Files This Week

Time is turned backward ten and twenty years instead of the customary fifteen and twenty-five in browsing through old Record files this week.

TEN YEARS AGO

Ten years ago, in the Record for Friday, April 2, 1926, there was recorded the death of the 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Winn. The boy was known as Everett, Jr.

Tom Goss, then district highway supervisor for Mitchell and Coke counties, had been praised by the Lions club for his work. Over in South Colorado a group of boys had found the body of an infant in a small box. The body had, authorities said, been there about a year.

Dan Becman was in Temple to undergo a delicate operation. Colorado ministers, Rev. M. C. Bishop, J. D. Harvey, Rev. J. F. Lawler, Rev. J. E. Chase, and Rev. W. M. Elliott, were vigorously protesting a Washington permit issued to the Bush brewing interests.

Homer Martin had sustained a fractured leg while wrestling with a friend at the Spade ranch. Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Price had visited the Jay Ingrams in Sweetwater. The City was advertising for sale the old City Hall and fire station property.

Miss Orlena Elliott was quite sick at her home in South Colorado. Juliana Smith, Hettie Adele Hutchinson, Dorris and Conrad Gaskins had the mumps. The Toler Motor company, with Lewis Collier as manager, was in new quarters. Col. C. M. Adams had returned from attending a brother's funeral in Selma, Alabama.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

The war in Europe was beginning to make the front pages of the Record twenty years ago. "French at Verdun Launch Heavy Attack" was the headline of a front page article in the Record for March 31, 1916.

W. W. Porter had leased his wood yard to A. D. Conner. A column headed "Livestock Activities" recorded that Edwin Fowlkes and family had left for their ranch in Jeff Davis county, planning to spend the summer there and return to Colorado in the fall. That Judge Looney was in Dawson and Borden counties looking after his ranch interests. That Ed Dupree had shipped five cars of fat hogs to the Fort Worth market.

It was stated in an editorial that "the possibilities of the moving picture show for elevating standards of life and conduct are growing upon the public consciousness."

Taking part in the senior class play of that year were Claudia Smith, Katie Buchanan, Alfred Fuller, Willie Doss, Eva Davis, Annie McMurry, Ethel Dyas, Lula Mae Dulaney, Harry Ratliff, Paul Terrell, Raymond Smith, Pauline Root, Mary Watson, and Courtney Formwalt.

A package tea had been given by the Christian ladies at the home of Mrs. Ben Morgan. Those assisting in serving were Misses Lorena Smith and Bennie Morgan, Messdames Allan Soper, A. S. Beckner, and Pickard.

The Loraine items recorded that Mrs. Hubert Toler and little daughter, Mary Louise, had returned from Abilene. That the declamation contest at the school had been won by Charley Thompson and Nellie No. 2 man. That the little C. H. Thomas boy had been sick of pneumonia.

Over in Westbrook the Jim Moores had a boy, the D. A. Neels a boy. Mrs. Jack Smith and children of Colorado had visited Mrs. C. B. Hooper. Mr. and Mrs. Spadke Moore of Fairview were visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Helton.

F. M. Burns had begun the improvement of his lots lying north of the Stockman's club on Walnut street. He was having a concrete sidewalk laid along the Third street side and was to build a two-room brick building on the alley corner. Rev. R. A. Clements had gone to conduct a meeting in Snyder.

The Methodists were to build a new parsonage. Mrs. Marcus Snyder and babies of Pecos were visiting Judge and Mrs. R. H. Looney. A. J. Hagler had been visiting in Anson. Sam Majors and Guy B. Duff were building new homes on "Silk Stocking" nob.

L. C. Dunree had been killed in a railroad accident in Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Johnson had returned from San Antonio, where they had been for Mrs. Johnson's health. Miss Hatt McKell had returned from a visit in Mississippi.

A rabbit drive is to be held in the Longfellow community next Tuesday. Citizens of the community are requested to gather at the Longfellow school house by 8 o'clock Tuesday morning. A basket dinner will be served at Padge's place at noon.

Contract has been let for the first cases and exhibit stand at the first unit of the Centennial Museum to be built on the campus. The University of Texas. The cases will be used in the University Centennial Exposition and will then be transferred to the first unit of the Museum upon its completion.

New Federal Soil Control Bill Will Be Launched Soon

Competition To Be Launched On Pre-War Basis In 1937 Is Federal Plan

COLLEGE STATION.—Base figures used in the 1935 AAA program in Texas will be used in the 1936 farm program, being set up under the new Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, according to a statement issued here by Jack Shelton, Vice Director and State Agent of the Extension Service.

In preparation for putting the program into effect the Extension Service staff spent two days studying the plan for the Southern Region as explained by R. H. Rogers, senior agricultural economist from the planning division of the AAA who flew here in company with A. L. Smith former chairman of the Texas Cotton Allotment Board. Smith has been in Washington for the past two weeks helping to work out details of the new program as they affect Texas and the other Southern States.

Following the conference at College Station, extension agents in the counties will be called to gather in group meetings at convenient points in their districts and district agents will lay the general plans for organization and soil conservation before them to take back to their farmers.

At meetings in the counties the county agricultural agents will explain the terms of the Act and the proposed organization to be set up under it. Election of committees of farmers to administer the work will be the next step.

The organization will begin with a "community" committee of three members who will represent approximately 500 farmers. Committeemen from all communities will constitute a county board from which a county committee will be elected to have special responsibility for administering the Act in the county.

"Every farmer in Texas will have an opportunity to hear the Act explained and to cooperate in making the new farm program a success," Shelton stated. "It is their program. It was passed by Congress at their urgent demand, we believe that they will want to understand it very fully and that they will want everybody else to understand it too, because the old saying that 'what you are not an on, you are apt to be down on' is still true."

Shelton further emphasized the fact that the old program and the organization that went with it are completely out; that this is an entirely new set-up; that it is a soil conservation and soil building program.

"The blowing sand in the air right now and the floods which have made thousands of people homeless in cities and towns as well as on farms give a rather dreadful emphasis to the fact that America is fifty years late with a soil conservation program. For better late than never, I think we will all agree."

DR. BRABHAM TO FILL PULPIT AT WESTBROOK

Thousands Of Texans Will Gather At San Jacinto Battleground April 21st

San Jacinto Battleground, the rolling, lowland shrine of Texas independence, will be the gathering place on April 21 for 100,000 state patriots.

On that date 100 years ago, a desperate band of pioneer Texans under command of Gen. Sam Houston defeated a superior army of Mexicans and captured their chief, Gen. Santa Anna.

The defeat of the Mexican tyrant and perpetrator of the historic slaughter of 100 Texans at the Alamo gave rise to the Republic of Texas.

with General Houston as the first president. The celebration of the famous battle will be one of the biggest during the Texas Centennial year...

Tramping of 1,000 soldiers' feet and the rolling of military drums will echo on the battlegrounds as the entire coast artillery unit of Fort Crockett, Galveston, participates in a Catholic military mass...

Adjutant General Carl Nesbitt, commander of the Texas National Guard, announced a large complement of guardsmen also would take part in the celebration.

Gov. James V. A. Reed of Texas will make the only address of the day. Other honor guests of the celebration, including state officials, judges of the state supreme court...

Marching in a huge parade to the battle site will be the Coast Artillery, National Guard units, reserve officers, American Legion posts, Sons and Daughters of the Republic of Texas, Boy Scouts, school children...

W. E. Kendall, vice-president of the San Jacinto chapter, Sons of the Republic of Texas, will read General Houston's famous report on the battle.

Crews of the state highway department were put to work several weeks ago, widening all roads to the battleground to 40 feet to carry for heavy traffic on San Jacinto Day.

General program arrangements and preparation for the celebration was in charge of John C. Townes, president of the San Jacinto Centennial Association.

Zollie Steakley Of Sweetwater Asks Dist. Post

Announces His Candidacy For The Position Of District Attorney

Zollie C. Steakley, Sweetwater attorney, announced Saturday he would be a candidate for the office of district attorney, 32nd judicial district, which includes Nolan, Mitchell, Sperry and Borden counties.

Mr. Steakley, a native West Texan, was graduated with an A. B. degree from Hardin-Simmons University, after which he attended the Law School of the University of Texas, being graduated from that institution with a LL.B. degree.

While a formal announcement is to be made later, Mr. Steakley, among other things, stated that in his judgment "four of the most important characteristics of an able prosecuting attorney include aggressive prosecution, economy in the expenditures of money incident to investigation and prosecution, thorough and effective assistance to the grand jury, and a vigorous execution of all grand jury indictments."

"The district attorney's office must assume the major responsibility for law enforcement," Mr. Steakley said in asking the voters of the district to place that responsibility upon him.

Senate Has Plan To Override Veto On Seed Measure

Fifty Million Dollar Loan Bill Involved As Leaders Demand Forced Vote

In two swift surprise moves the Senate Agriculture Committee voted Saturday to attempt to override the President's veto of the $50,000,000 seed and loan bill and to demand from Secretary Wallace a full report on big AAA benefit payments.

So unexpected was the decision to force a Senate vote on the seed loan veto that leaders were chary of public predictions as to the outcome. Privately it was argued that either the Senate or House would sustain the President.

Thirty-nine days have elapsed since Mr. Roosevelt refused to sign the measure. The same Senate group that Saturday favored a vote to override had decided weeks ago to let the veto stand. The reversal was attributed to what some Senators termed the failure of farmers to obtain loans, despite a $30,000,000 fund promised by the chief executive.

Townsend Leader Paid High Salary During Last Year

Over $12,000 Cash, Along With Grocery, Other Bills Allowed Pension Chief

Robert E. Clements, resigned secretary-treasurer of the Townsend pension movement, testified at Washington Friday that he got $12,585 in salary in 1935 and in addition had his rent, grocery bills, and other major expenses paid.

Clements refused to estimate how much more than his salary he received for traveling and other expenses, but a detailed account read into the record by James R. Sullivan, counsel for the Bell committee investigating old age pensions movement showed that it was ample for $1.40 breakfast, 50-cent tips, and $10 hotel rooms.

The money that gave Clements a life of comparative luxury was contributed in nickels, dimes and quarters by millions of aged persons attracted by the idea of a 200-month pensions for everybody over 60. These small change terms rolled in, during the 26 months OARP has been in operation, in quantities sufficient to total almost $1,000,000.

For the second day Clements turned up without certain records the committee wanted and a special subpoena was issued for information on the quarterly income of the organization last year. The committee recessed until Wednesday to give Clements time to gather his information from points as far away as California.

"Now," said Sullivan, "isn't it a fact that all this money, in terms of the street, was 'velvet'?" The lean, unsmiling witness glared at him and said: "I don't deal in that kind of terms. This money was salary."

"But isn't it a fact," went on Sullivan, "that your apartment rent was paid by OARP?" Clements admitted it was—130 a month—and that grocery bills, maid hire, and incidental expenses all were paid by the Townsend movement.

Under questioning he admitted his wife, Mrs. Thelma Clements, drew a salary of $1,475 in 1935. "By the way," he added, "she is a competent legal secretary."

Clements, who has maintained cold politeness toward Sullivan throughout the inquiry, appeared annoyed when the young Kansas City attorney read off the expense account of a trip he took from August 2, to Oct. 27, last year, during which he visited Rochester, N. Y., Cleveland, Denver, Chicago, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Minneapolis, and other cities.

The total for the trip was $838.19, but it was the individual items that seemed to make him wince: Breakfast, $1.40; tips, 50 cents; collect telegram, $7.95; hotel room, $16; meals (2 days), $17.50; laundry, $1.50.

JR. HI TATTLER

EDITORS CATHERINE SLAGEL, FREDDIE WATSON, NANCY PRICE

WINNING ESSAY Catherine Slagel, Jr. Hi's entry in the Ready Writer's contest, won first place in the County Meet with the essay printed below. Recently her essay on "Beauty Advertisements," the winning essay in the Jr. Hi eliminations, was printed in the Tattler.

Having a photograph made is, to me, quite an ordeal, but probably the photographer has a very different view of the entire situation. He is making money; he enjoys his vocation; he doesn't have to go through the lengthy procedure of trying to look sweet (and then wondering if you really are succeeding) with the hot lights searing your throbbing head and with torturing, unanswered thoughts chasing through your befuddled brain.

When at last you are ready for the camera to click, a sweet but dumb smile playing about your lips, the staid black camera suddenly becomes a glaring monster lying in wait to seize your pictured image helplessly held in the dark depths of the walls of the camera. In your imagination you can vividly see the angered camera violently twist your sweet smile until the tiny gold filling on a front tooth seems to fill the whole foreground of the picture; you can see it stretch the plate to alarming proportions, making your thinness stand out—every bone trying to pierce the skin of the gaunt image gazing from the disfigured plate.

But, oh! the joy of living when the agony is finally over and you find that your photograph only enhances your best points, pushing back into the shadows the gold filling and your young thinness, making the photograph lovely enough to grace the front page of the society section in the Sunday R—N—Y.

COMING ELECTION Friday, April 10, another big school election will be held. The ballot will probably be rather long since there are several positions to be filled: A new chief patrolman will be elected. Candidates for this are: Party A—Leroy Myers (reelection), Party B—Ray Elliot, and Party C—Clifton Haggard. Other patrol positions will also be filled. An amendment to the Safety Constitution voted. This is to decide whether or not the girls will be privileged to run for patrol positions. Election returns will be given next week.

EASTER SEALS The Junior High student body is now selling Easter seals. The fund will be used to correct the handicaps of the crippled children of our State. The cooperation of the general public will be deeply appreciate.

INTERSCHOLASTIC LEAGUE RESULTS Following are the results of the Interscholastic League held Friday and Saturday at the High school: Catherine Slagel won first place in the Ready Writers contest, her subject being "Posing for the Photographer." The fifth grade spellers, Jan Lee and Sue Hardigre, received first rating certificates. Picture memory participants were awarded with second place. Sara Guitar and Mary F. McCordle, the seventh grade spelling entries, placed second in the county.

SURPRISE! SURPRISE! Tuesday in chapel the boys basketball team of Jr. Hi surprised Mr. Glover by presenting to him a small gold basketball as a token of their appreciation of his training this year. It was presented by Junior Cox, representative of the team.

Ford Building to House Pageant of Transportation

Building operations are under way on the Ford Exposition Building, model of which is shown above, for the Texas Centennial at Dallas, according to officials of the Ford Motor Company. The Central Contracting Company of Dallas, Texas, has been awarded the general contract for the Ford Exposition Building, it was announced today. The same firm was previously given the foundation contract. The plumbing and ventilating contract will be let later this week. Excavation for one hundred twenty-one column footings and the pouring of approximately eight hundred cubic yards of concrete for the foundation will be completed this week. Erection of three hundred sixty-three tons of steel will be started immediately, according to officials of the Mosher Steel Company of Dallas, who were given the steel contract. It is estimated the steel frame work will be completed April 13th. The building will be of steel, concrete and sheetrock. It will be completed for the opening of the Exposition June 6th. The structure which will have a complete air cooling and humidifying system, will contain 55,000 square feet, of which forty-three thousand square feet will contain an interesting group of exhibits showing manufacturing and testing processes used by the Ford Motor Company at its River Rouge plant at Dearborn, Michigan. There will also be a pageant of transportation, dioramas showing the progress of raw materials from the soil of the Southwest to the finished parts of Ford cars and an exhibit from the Henry Ford Trade School. An outdoor court adds thirty-six thousand square feet to the exhibit's total space. The court will be attractively landscaped with trees, shrubs and flower beds. There will be comfortable chairs and benches distributed in the court where visitors may relax in the shade under colorful umbrellas. There will also be a display of passenger and commercial cars and trucks in the court. On one side of the Ford Building will be a group of nine reconstructed historic roads and trails known as the "Roads of the Southwest." Each unit of the series will be surfaced with an exact duplicate of the original paving material used on the roads which played important roles in the development of the Southwest. Included in the roads will be San Antonio Road, Fort Worth Pike, "Chisholm Trail," Butterfield Stage Road, Santa Fe Trail, Pan American Highway, Yuma Road, Magazine Street in New Orleans, and Main Street in Dallas.

'OPEN WIDE THE DOOR' IS SLOGAN OF CAMPAIGN FOR AID CRIPPLED BOYS, GIRLS

Annual Sale Of Easter Seals Being Conducted Under Sponsorship Of Roy Coles, County School Supt.

Directed by the Texas Society for Crippled Children, a unit of which was organized in Mitchell county last year under direction of Minister Jim Harvey, the third annual sale of Easter seals is being conducted this week through the office of County School Superintendent Roy Davis Coles.

Plans for placing the seals on sale in this county were mapped Saturday by officials of the State society and Mr. Coles. The appeal to buy the seals and thus aid in a State-wide child rehabilitation program is extended to the general public.

Sold at a penny each, these seals pay a steadily increasing share of the cost of discovery, care, cure, education, training, placement, and prevention of crippled children.

This year's seal pictures in a frame sitting patiently before the "Door of Opportunity," which stands slightly ajar, but must be given a hefty push if the lad is to pass through beyond. Each seal purchased helps widen the door.

Seals, it has been found, do more than raise money, important as that is; they widen and deepen interest of the general public in the whole problem of crippleddom. Where a few people of unusual means once gave comparatively large sums to support the work of the handicapped, now many times as many with limited income, buy crippled children seals, and therefore rightly consider themselves co-partners in the great humanitarian enterprise which the seals represent.

No one is too poor to buy a few seals; no one is too rich to make an investment in these tiny, attractive shares of "Crippled Children, Limited," it was suggested.

Every year more States and communities participate in the sale of crippled children seals; and by the same token, more people not only become buyers of seals, but they also develop a new or keener interest in what the seals stand for, and what they make possible.

Ninety per cent of the proceeds remain in Texas to help maintain and extend the established program of work for physically handicapped girls and boys. The remainder goes to the International Society for Crippled Children, Inc., which sponsors the seal sale and spurs world-wide interest in the whole problem of treating and preventing crippleddom.

Friends In Large Number At Rites For S. H. Bedford Friday Afternoon

Attesting their appreciation of his life, Mitchell countians in large number gathered at the Church of Christ Friday afternoon to attend rites for S. H. Bedford, late grocer and church leader who died at a local hospital Wednesday night of last week, from influenza and complications.

Minister Willis Kreeger of the church delivered an impressive sermon at the address in which splendid characteristics of Mr. Bedford were pictured. The extensive and attractive floral offering was pointed out as another gesture of esteem.

Several hundred Coloradans and citizens of other communities of the county were stricken with the influenza as the malady assumed proportions of an epidemic a few weeks ago but Mr. Bedford was the only person to succumb from ravages of the disease up to time of his passing.

The department has handled 800 children since September 1, three cases of which were from this county, the representative stated. That there are scores of crippled boys and girls here to whom the service should be given was asserted.

ANNUAL DISTRICT MEETING OF LEGION AND AUXILIARY ATTENDED BY 250 PEOPLE

State and District Leaders In Organizations Have Part In Sessions Held Saturday And Sunday

Two hundred and fifty men and women, representing the American Legion and Women's Auxiliary in the 19th Texas district, department of Texas and other units of the veterans' organization were in Colorado Saturday and Sunday for sessions of the annual district convention.

Color to the meeting was given by presence of several outstanding leaders in the district and State departments, including Ernest Goens of Tyler, commander of the department of Texas; Mrs. Tillman Jones of Post, president of the State Auxiliary; Wynne Goode of Austin, State service officer; Fred Young of Austin, State departmental adjutant, and others.

Keynote addresses outlining principles of the veterans' organizations and the objectives being sought in uniform program of the Legion and Auxiliary were delivered by Commander Goens and President Jones. Inspirational messages were also brought to the Sunday afternoon meeting by the State adjutant and service officer.

"I am wondering if you men, who followed the Stars and Stripes into the trenches of Europe seventeen years ago, fought in vain in the will that Democracy should be safe for the peoples of earth," Commander Goens said after reviewing the unsettled conditions in Europe today. "We thought that our mission had been realized and that the world would not come to war again as guns on the Western front were stopped and the Armistice went into effect," he continued, "but I am seriously thinking now along the lines that such might not have been true."

The State commander outlined that rehabilitation and child welfare work were the two important objectives now being considered by the Legion and Auxiliary. The former was given special emphasis in address by the State service officer.

Mrs. Jones spoke of the patriotism and principles of American citizenship that dominate activities of her organization. She outlined that work in interest of children orphaned by casualties resulting from the war should receive the unselfish support of every citizen claiming the name of Legionnaire.

C. E. Quanti of Brownfield, prominent in affairs of the Legion for several years, was elected district committeeman during the executive session Sunday afternoon. J. E. Dye of Tahoka was elected assistant district committeeman. Dr. H. Birdwell, commander of the Lubbock post, was elected National delegate and County Judge B. L. Templeton of Colorado assistant.

The convention opened Saturday morning with registrations at the Colorado hotel. Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock the convention parade was formed at the Legion building and passed through the principal business district. Annual ball was given that evening at the Legion building. Sunday morning at 10 o'clock a service officers' school was held at the Colorado with Jack Thomman of Levelland, acting district adjutant, in charge.

At 11 Sunday morning the visiting Legionnaires and Auxiliary members joined with Colorado members of those organizations in attending special religious services at First Methodist church. The Rev. Cal C. Wright, chaplain of Oran C. Hooker Post, delivered the convention sermon.

Due to unfavorable weather conditions the barbecue dinner at noon Sunday was moved from Ruddick Park to the Legion building. The executive session was convened shortly after with C. E. Quanti in the chair. Invocation was given by Chaplain Wright and the visitors were welcomed to Colorado by W. S. Cooper, speaking as representative of the host units. State Commander Goens delivered the address of response.

"It was one of the best conventions the veterans of West Texas have ever held and I am confident that every visitor was impressed that Colorado was sincerely trying to entertain them in a pleasing and profitable manner," Post Commander Quinney declared.

The post commander recalled Monday that no drive was made to raise funds to pay expense of the convention. "Our registration fees did that and we will have money left," he concluded.

The American Legion building at Colorado is outstanding in this part of the State and reflects with credit to the men and women who made its construction possible, officials of the State Department declared while here Saturday and Sunday for the district convention. "The fact that you have an attractive $20,000 property clear of debt is remarkable and lends stress to the generally accepted fact that Colorado veterans and members of the Auxiliary are doing their work in a big way," to quote State Commander Earnest Goens of Tyler.

"I was sincere in that Soy bean speech made some time ago," Baskin retorted after having been introduced under the pseudo title at the C-C luncheon club meeting Tuesday by O. H. Majors, president.

Two Gatherings, One A Tea, Feature Women's Part Of Legion Convention

Two gatherings, one social and the other business, featured the auxiliary division of the 19th district convention of the American Legion of Texas here Saturday and Sunday.

First of the two gatherings was the social affair, a Centennial tea given at the Legion hut Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock with women of the local Legion auxiliary as hostesses.

Baskets of bridal wreath, with red tulle bows on the basket handles, were featured in the decorative scheme for the spacious entertaining room. A white bowl filled with cornflowers was arranged on the piano. Two red, white, and blue welcome banners were hung in prominent places.

Guests were received by Mrs. Benton Templeton, president of the hostess unit; Mrs. C. C. Thompson, Mrs. Albert Hiser, and Mrs. Floyd Quinney. A special guest was Mrs. Lillian Jones of Post, state president of the Legion auxiliary.

Children of Legionnaires were featured on a program arranged and introduced by Mrs. W. R. Martin of Lorraine after guests were seated.

Sara Guitar, Weldon Hunt, and Jack Herrington, pupils of Mrs. J. H. Guitar, were presented in a violin trio, "Going Home," with Mrs. Guitar at the piano. Irvin Terry, Jr., played an accordion solo.

Dance numbers were by Dana Merritt, Frances Rose Ratliff, Nina Katherine Quinney, and Tommy Ratliff. Rosgan Martin and Gloria Martin gave vocal numbers. Piano selections were given by Virginia Whipple, Mary Ann Latham, Theda Howell, and Frances Elliott. Leta Marie Dobbs, Wanda Mae Smith, and Billie Tuff Templeton gave readings.

Coffee was poured by Mrs. J. G. Merritt from a silver service at one side of a long table covered with lace over red. Bluebonnets in a bowl centered the table and white tapers burned at either end. A chicken salad course and angel food squares-centered with red stars were served with the coffee to about 60 guests.

After accompanying the Legionnaires to special services at the First Methodist church Sunday morning and after eating lunch with them at the hut Sunday noon, the women held a brief business session. Mrs. E. W. Anderson of Big Spring, 19th district committeewoman, presided.

Outstanding among business executed was the endorsement by the district body of Mrs. Will Benton of Amarillo as a candidate for the office of state president at the state meeting in September. Mrs. Benton is at present a member of the Legion auxiliary's state board on child welfare.

After the business session the women joined the men for Sunday afternoon's program, on which their state president, Mrs. Jones of Post, was one of the principal speakers.

Among prominent auxiliary members attending Sunday sessions were Mrs. Larry Daniels of Abilene, commander of the 17th district and state chairman of emblems; Mrs. Lance Thompson of Sweetwater, 17th district committeewoman; Mrs. Van Stewart of Perryton, past state president.

STOMACH SUFFERERS

If you are suffering from indigestion, atonic dyspepsia, sour stomach, gas pains, "raw stomach," inflammation of the intestines (enteritis), gastric acidity and sick headaches, due to excessive acidity, you can't afford to ignore these warning signs. You should try at once the Doctor's Prescription, known as Gasa Tablets. If you allow these conditions to become worse, the acids may eat into the delicate mucous membrane of your stomach and intestine and possibly cause dangerous ulcers. Gasa Tablets soothe the raw, inflamed lining of the "acid stomach" and help convert starchy foods into dextrose, which is so essential to energy of the body, and preservation of health. Take just one or two Gasa Tablets and see how they help your stomach to "tackle a hearty meal." The first bottle must produce results or money back. On sale at

Newspapers Will Be Used In Drive For Selling Cars

Oldsmobile Finds Such An Outlet Better For Talking Points Over With Public

Newspapers of the nation have been selected as the principal medium to carry an extensive Oldsmobile advertising campaign, now under way, it was announced today by V. C. Havens, Oldsmobile advertising manager.

"We are convinced that the message of Oldsmobile's high quality and outstanding value can best be told by the use of newspapers," said Mr. Havens. "Expanded production facilities in 1936 have made possible the manufacture of more Oldsmobiles this year than were ever before built in a twelve month period.

"The lower prices of the 1936 Oldsmobile Six and Eight, together with the increasing popularity of the cars, and the fine records they are making in the hands of owners, point to the existence of a greatly expanded market for Oldsmobile again this year.

"So we have launched a newspaper campaign, not only in the large metropolitan dailies, but likewise in smaller dailies and in weeklies, to carry the story of Oldsmobile's style, safety, comfort, economy and performance to millions of American newspaper readers.

"More than 3300 newspapers are being used, and the expenditure of a much larger sum than ever before has been spent by Oldsmobile in any single year in newspapers has been authorized."

AM SEVENTY-SIX

This columnist is 76. They tell it down at the office that I have retired, but the truth of the matter is I was pushed out to make room for a younger man.

I'm seventy-six of age today and so I have to go. This job is for a younger man—I've grown a trifle slow. They want a youth who hasn't learned the things I've come to know.

But this is wisdom I presume that business cannot use. At seventy-six love for constant strife a man is apt to lose. And so to keep a faster pace a younger man they choose.

Old age when men usually look back upon a life of many mistakes and a few achievements and look ahead with either a veiled or a frank dread of death, is generally considered an unhappy condition. An environment of younger, still hopeful and less disillusioned folks doesn't help matters, perhaps makes them worse. But the last few years can be like a rosy sunset, given the right environment and health.

I used to think that growing old was reckoned just in years. But who can name the very date when weariness appears? I find no stated time when man, obedient to a law, must settle in an easy chair and from the world withdraw. Old Age is rather curious, especially to the poor. I know old men at forty and young men at seventy-six.

So much to do, so much to learn, so much in which to share! With twinkling eyes and minds alert some brave both time and care. And this I've learned from other men, that only they are old. Who think with something that has passed the tale of life is told. For Age is not alone of time, or we should never hick. Men old and bent at forty and men young at seventy-six.

From birth to death is a journey through the world, whether long or short. The only paying investments are salvation through faith and treasure awarded for righteous conduct. Pride, wealth and temporal power are delusions through which multitudes pass to destruction.

Yes, this columnist had a birthday this April. Seventy-six years ago this month we were born among the hills of southern Illinois, in what is known as Egypt, at the old homestead. It was a beautiful place beside a stream, or as we called it, "erick." It was said my birth was the cause of the breaking out of the Civil war, April 1860, and also Abe Lincoln chose my birthday on which he issued his emancipation proclamation. Be that as it may, 76 years is a long time to live, 27,740 days, and since our advent into the world, many things have happened. Yes, 76, still a kid, full of fun and vigor and meanness. You know, we would kinder like to live a little longer to see when we would get the Townsend pension.

I'm seventy-six year old today. Just seventy-six years over. And life is just as sweet to me As when it first begun. I can not say I look as young As forty years ago. Because I've had experience Which leaves its mark you know.

When I get old, if e'er I do, I ain't a going to die; I'll take a long lease residence. In a mansion in the sky, Where I can watch the friends I've left. And guide them o'er life's sea, So when they're old and want to quit, They'll find a home with me.

Almost daily I take long walks of miles alone, and then, believe it or not, I meditate.

As I stand in the glow of life's sunset, things look different to me from the time of 50 years ago. In my meditations I build air castles and go into solitude. The human machine needs oiling with the lubricant of rest and solitude. Goethe knew it and declared: "No one can produce anything important unless he isolates himself." It was Wordsworth who wandered lonely as a cloud that he gained his vision of the dancing daffodils the light which brought to him repeated delight, as afterwards the golden flowers glanced upon his inward eye which is the bliss of solitude.

When I was seventy-five I said to my wife, "I have no sense of age." She flashed back, "You have no sense of any kind if you go around telling your age." But I am getting rather cheery about my age, so much so that I scarcely speak to men under seventy, and don't think very much of them until they are seventy-five.

The amazing thing to me is that anybody thinks I'm old. When I was a lad, men wore long, unkempt hair and beard, and looked old at fifty. Now a man reasonably sane never gets old. He may get feeble, but youth is a state of mind, rather than a badge of younger years.

I never thought I'd live this long and my lengthening years have brought me perennial surprises. As a boy, I thought all old men were good. At seventy-six, I know that age never helped a man to goodness. In some ways, I am not as good as I was when I was younger. Having reached a high estate of wisdom, I am less patient with the callow youths, who at ages twenty-five to seventy, think themselves wise when, from my vantage-ground of seventy-six, I know they haven't much sense. How does it feel to be seventy-six years old? Not a whit different from how it felt to be twenty-six years old! One of the disillusionments I enjoy is that the man is the same, no matter how young or how old he is.

The body grows old, the eyes grow dim, there comes inevitably the time of tottering step and slow, but the spirit is immortal and it is the soul of man that craves the love and affection of his friends, of his helpmeet and of his fellow Christians. When I was young, I thought old people were out of the game of life. had lost their youthful cravings and inclinations, and were waiting expectantly and eagerly for life's end, desiring the while of shuffling off just as soon as they could. Nothing could be further from the truth. Solomon speaks of the time when "the grinders are few" and when "the grasshoppers will be a burden." Solomon evidently was referring to men with false teeth and the early days in Kansas. I have as many grinders as ever and the grasshopper has never been a burden to me. This leads me to say that my resilient and persistent youth is quite largely dependent upon my persistent sense of humor. Of Pennsylvania Dutch ancestry I assimilated to that psychology and have laughed off many a burden and many a care.

I know it would be traditional to say that as I have grown older, all my sins and follies have faded and died, that I feel a sublimated sanctity; that I am almost free from sin, and am just ready for the installation of my wings; that I never have any mean thoughts or think any bad words; that I never lose my temper any more, and that I am singing that grand old song, "I would not live always, I ask not to stay."

Where storm after storm riseth dark o'er the way? But if I professed any of these things I would be a hypocrite. Truth to tell, I constantly try to be a better man and labor to conquer all my weaknesses, but my weaknesses persist and, while I hope in many ways I am a better man, I'm not the kind of good man I thought I would be if I lived to be this old.

And I never liked the old song about not wanting to live always, because I do. I've never envied Enoch and Elijah, but I do congratulate them. I know I'm not good enough to be taken up in a chariot of fire, and I haven't walked long trips with God, like Enoch did. But if I could get out of this fleshly tabernacle without dying, I'd yell "Hallelujah!" so loud it would shake the pyramids.

I've never been afraid to die, the fact being I've never been afraid of anything except to do wrong. I look across the western hills with expectant heart, and yet, at seventy-six, I no more want to die than I did at sixteen, and I never did want to die.

I could go on talking about myself here until I was black in the face and your eyes were tired with reading, but I forbear. When my next birthday comes, which will be in April '37 I will be 77 and they have promised me down at the office that they will put my picture in the paper.

Yes I work in the garden. A garden is an outer room. Where mortals labor to express in vari-colored bits of bloom Unspoken thoughts of loveliness. At seventy-six, it is not all of life to live nor half of death to die. O, I am wise in sorrow now, I know how close are tears. I know the joy that is worth while, the false when it appears— Then man or woman learns a lot who lives through seven ty-six years.

I've acquired in 76 years the calm which age bestows. I know what disappointment is and how it comes and goes. I've also learned not very much divides our friends and foes. F. B. W.

Chevrolet Setting Record In Output Of Autos, Trucks

Over Half Million Already Delivered From Factory, President Announces

DETROIT.—Chevrolet has already built more than 520,000 1936 model cars and trucks, it was revealed here by M. E. Coyle, president and general manager of the Chevrolet Motor company.

Mr. Coyle's statement was made in answer to a question as to whether the earlier announcement of 1936 models had succeeded in leveling out employment to a greater degree than in previous years.

"Using the case of Chevrolet as an example," said Mr. Coyle, "we have already produced over 530,000 1936 cars and trucks. These were built during the winter months when employment would normally have been low.

"We have delivered cars to those financially able to make their purchases during the winter months. We have supplied our dealers with adequate stocks of new cars in various models and colors, so they are prepared to make immediate delivery. During the Spring months we shall build sufficient cars to maintain dealers' stocks at proper levels.

"Therefore, as originally planned, this production and its consequent employment—formerly concentrated in the Spring months—has been spread over late fall and winter, with results highly beneficial to all labor connected with the automotive industry."

Troop 21 of the Boy Scouts were presented in a comedy skit on entertainment program at the Lions Club Friday. The cast depicted a court trial in which a street waif was on trial under the charge of stealing a bottle of milk from the milkman.

The court, sheriff, attorneys, jury and other officials of the tribunal marched in and took up their respective positions in the court chamber with dignity. The accused was discharged after he told a story of being hungry and took the milk only because he had had nothing to eat in two days. His sentence was requirement that he join the Boy Scouts.

The troop is sponsored by the club. The play was staged under direction of Miss Louise Bradford, member of the school faculty, and Marvin Majors, assistant Scoutmaster.

QUESTIONS THAT ARE ASKED ABOUT BANKING

"What obligations do I have to my Bank?"

Your bank assumes important obligations when it accepts your money for deposit. In return it asks for you:

- Your confidence—for without the confidence of depositors no bank can operate successfully.
- Your support of its policy of making only sound loans of your money and that of other depositors.
- Your understanding and endorsement of the fundamental banking principle that in order to give you and the community a sound, well managed bank it must avoid operating losses in conducting its accounts. It does this through moderate service charges where circumstances require.

A bank is primarily a community enterprise. While good management and good service are essential it cannot operate successfully without the confidence and aid of its depositors.

'Horse Sense' Goes Long Way In Care Of Average Motor

Gulf Refining Is Stressing Needs For Proper Grade of Oil During This Season

Good old horse sense goes a long way in the proper care of an automobile motor and in obtaining maximum mileage at a minimum cost, say the laboratory scientists of Gulf Oil Corporation. Stressing the needs for a proper grade motor oil and a gasoline especially refined for the Spring season, Gulf urges motorists to heed these simple facts:

To begin with, it has been necessary to use a very light oil in the crankcase during the extreme winter weather just past. Even if this winter-grade oil were in prime condition, it might not lubricate properly in warm weather. Moreover, frequent use of the choke, when practically pure gasoline has entered the cylinders, has tended to thin out the oil ready light lubricant.

During cold weather when the motor has been running, the crankcase has contained warm, moist air which has condensed when the motor has cooled off. In extreme cases ice has formed on the bottom of the crankcase, or frozen in the oil pump. In ordinary cases sludge has formed from the mixture of water, dirt and oil. Sludge is nothing more nor less than a thick gooey mass which tends to block the screen on the oil pump and clog oil lines.

The need for changing motor oil with the changing seasons has been pretty well impressed upon the motoring public, but few car owners are aware that the Gulf refineries in various parts of the country, keeping an eye on the calendar and weather condition, automatically change the properties of gasoline to insure the best and most economical performance according to the season. The properties of Gulf gasoline are changed several times a year. Hence the term, "Kept in Step with the Calendar," used in Gulf advertisements currently appearing in the Record.

LOCAL PEOPLE FEAR FOR MISSISSIPPI RELATIVES

News of the destructive tornado in Tupelo and other Mississippi towns Monday brought apprehension to several Coloradans who have friends and relatives living in that part of the state.

Miss Hattie McKell was reassured by wire soon after the storm that her relatives in Guntown, Mississippi, situated about 30 miles from Tupelo, were safe.

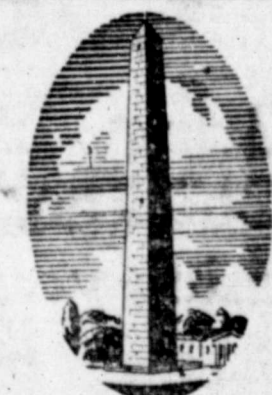

R. H. Towery of Seven Wells was still worrying Wednesday about a number of his half-brothers and half-sisters who live in and near Tupelo, which was practically demolished by the storm.

One of Mrs. Clara Smith's daughters, Mrs. DeSpain, the former Lillian Smith, lives in Amory, Mississippi, about 30 miles from Tupelo. The O. M. Mitchells, who recently moved away from here, live in Aberdeen, which is 18 miles farther from Tupelo than Amory is. They are all thought to be safe.

IF YOUR ELECTRIC SERVICE BILLS WERE DELIVERED THIS WAY...

If you paid for electric service each day, just like you buy groceries, this is about the way your daily bills for electric service would look. The cost of electric service in the average home is very similar to the amounts shown in illustration above, but will vary according to the daily use of electricity.

But it is impractical to divide the cost of electric service for each appliance. Yet at the end of the month, your electric service bill accounts for these few cents worth of electric service you use each day.

When you receive your electric service bill, think back over the many times you have used electric service during the month; divide the total by the number of days and see how little electric service costs in comparison with other expenses.

HYMAN HD CLUB STUDIES CENTENNIAL AND SHRUBS

The Hyman Home Demonstration club met last Friday at the home of Mrs. Otto Shuster for a program in honor of Texas Centennial. All present took part in the singing of Texas songs among which were "Texas, Our Texas" and the "Eyes of Texas."

Mrs. Frank Andrews gave a talk on "Texas History Under Six Flags." Mrs. Harry Hyman also gave a talk on "Historical Things of Texas."

The council report was given by the council delegate Mrs. Frank Andrews.

Miss Emma Gunter, county home demonstration agent, discussed the most exhibit at Lubbock and then gave some names of native plants that can be used to a good advantage in yard improvement. Some of these were algerita, chaparral bush, baregrass, false willow and wild plum which has fine foliage and can be used in a corner of the yard or perhaps in a straight row in the back yard. Salt cedar is also a good shrub to use as it can be transplanted any time of the year. Lilac is a good cultivated plant to use and will withstand cold or dry weather.

Plans were made for the linen exhibit that is to be held from April 30 until May the 4th. Mrs. W. G. McAlpine and Mrs. Frank Andrews are on the exhibit committees. Members are to give their linen to be exhibited to one of them at the next club meeting.

Members present were Mrs. Carl Lowery, Mrs. Edgar Andrews, Mrs. Walter Averitt, Mrs. Frank Andrews, Mrs. W. G. McAlpine, Mrs. Vest and the hostess, Mrs. Otto Shuster. There were two visitors, Mrs. Harry Hyman and Mrs. James Harkins. The County Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Emma Gunter, also attended.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. W. G. McAlpine April 17th.

NATIVE SHRUBS BEING TRIED OUT AT IATAN

An application of the rules for using native shrubs is being worked out on Mrs. T. L. McKinney's farmstead since water is not available and the soil is of a tight clay nature. Mrs. McKinney is a cooper in the yard improvement work being done in the Iatan home demonstration club.

Scouting trips to find suitable young shrubs for transplanting were made and the following material was found to be available in the county: Two varieties of cedar; two varieties of algerita tamarix; buckbush; grease wood; chaparral bush; false willow; wild plum, wild castor beans and numerous other shrubs not identified by name. These shrubs afford material that can be used by every farm home owner in making hedge, screen and specimen foundation plantings at no cost except the labor involved in securing the plants. Since they are acclimated to weather conditions and soils it is doubly an incentive to use them.

Losing interest in the world does not qualify one for Heaven.

INDIGESTION— GET QUICK RELIEF

Millions of men and women are suffering from disturbances of their digestive systems, due to acidity and this is often the real cause of ill health, tired-out, run-down feeling, loss of "pep" and zest for living. If you are suffering from indigestion, atonic dyspepsia, sour stomach, gas pains, "raw stomach," inflammation of the intestines (enteritis), gastric acidity and sick headaches, you can't afford to ignore these warning signs. Take Gasa Tablets, the Doctor's Prescription, which are intended to soothe the raw, inflamed lining of the "acid stomach," and to help convert the starchy foods into dextrose. Because of this remarkable success in many cases of acidity and digestive troubles resulting from acid conditions, Gasa Tablets are offered to sufferers under a guarantee that the first bottle must produce results or money back.
