ROSCOE IS BOOTED OUT OF 6-B CONTEST FOR GOOD AS FURTHER PENALTIES GIVEN

Scheduled Battle With Lions Thursday Called; Contest Here Expected Determine District Champion

The Roscoe Plowboys, stopped in their broken parade to district pennant a week ago by mandate of the 6-B executive committee on grounds the Plowboys played an ineligible man in the Sweetwater and Spur games, Tuesday night were given additional punishment by being tossed from the district arena. The games, contested were non-conference affairs.

The district executive committee met in Sweetwater to give further consideration of the charges against Roscoe. The penalized school had petitioned that a new hearing of the ouster proceedings be considered. Not only were the Plowboys held disqualified in all four conference games played before the charges were considered, but this time the governing group went beyond that. The school was barred from further participation in any conference play and the Roscoe-Roby game set for Thursday afternoon, to determine winner of the district, was cancelled.

Elimination of Roscoe puts Snyder in front rank for the coveted pennant. In event the Tigers win over Colorado here Thursday afternoon the Scurry county schoolboys will be entitled to claim the first place honor. With a win by Colorado, Snyder and Roby would be tied for the crown, a dispute to be settled by the district committee.

Vote on the question of putting Roscoe out of the district was reported confidential, although it was learned that the severe punishment did not become effective through unanimous mandate of the seven schools.

ONE THOUSAND PEOPLE TO BE AFFECTED BY FEDERAL PENSION ACT IN COLORADO

Distribution Of Applications Starts Tuesday Through Postoffice; 209 Employers Registered By Fraser

Employees' application for account number forms were delivered Tuesday to one thousand industrial and commercial workers in Colorado by the postoffice, marking another step in setting up of the Federal social security program.

Postmaster J. Y. Fraser stated that a total of 209 employers of these workers were supplied with social security forms SS-4 last week and these were due to be returned not later than Saturday. Eighty-three of these employers had failed to make returns, he said.

For convenience the workers' forms, known as SS-5, were delivered to employers for further distribution by them to the employees. These must be returned to the local postoffice by December 5. Employers may elect, however, to obtain forms direct from the postoffice.

Fifteen simple questions intended to identify the employe will be asked by form SS-5. They are: full name, street and number, postoffice and state, business name of present employer and the signature. Detailed instructions are given on the back of the card, with a suggestion to consult the local postmaster if more information is wanted.

Detachable by perfection, another card explains what workers are ineligible, under the social security act, how the pensions will range from $10 to $85 to qualified individuals after 1942, and that the card can be returned by any of five ways: Handed to employer, or to any labor organization, or to letter carrier, or delivered to postoffice, or mailed in an envelope to "postmaster, local," with or without postage.

Her husband died in July of a rattlesnake bite. He was working in a field near Three Rivers when a big rattler struck at him. As Branstedder stooped and turned to avoid the strike, the snake buried its fangs above his left kidney. Death resulted in a short time.

Needle-Peddling Children Are Held As Delinquents In Jail At Lubbock

(Editor's Note: Chances are that the needle-peddling children told about in the following Lubbock Avalanche-Journal story are the same ones who canvassed Colorado streets and business houses a few weeks ago. But even if they aren't this story, written by Gordon Webb of the Avalanche-Journal staff, gives interesting sidelights on the life and actions of such children.)
Bedraggled and only a little perturbed, five girls whose ingratiating voices have pleaded with South Plains residents to buy needles have been charged in 99th district court as delinquents.

Ranging in age from 7 to 16 years, the children were placed in county jail Saturday afternoon.
There they will find warm bunks—not the pallets they have in their one-room tourist camp cabin. They will have wholesome food. At "home," if the cabin room they, their parents, and five other brothers and sisters share can be called that, they "mostly eat sandwiches."

"We have a skillet and can fry eggs to put in our sandwiches," one told police.

They will be kept in custody pending a hearing before Judge E. L.

If they are adjudged delinquents, they may be committed to a state training school for girls or paroled to some individual or institution able to take them from the streets.

The girls are not naive. They are worldly-wise. Obviously they have been coached on what to tell policemen. Questioned at length Saturday morning they were evasive. Later they said they were unable to tell where they lived.

When Chief of Police H. L. Johnson took one child in custody Saturday

urday morning, she asked him to produce witnesses that he was the chief.

Only one, the 7-year-old, admitted she didn't like to sell needles. But she reiterated no one would "spank" her if she refused. Police wanted to determine whether the children were being forced to the streets.

The children estimated their "daddy" was about 45 years old, their mother about 35. "Daddy," they said, has "TB." Their mother has been sick. They give the money they make, "two and three dollars a day," to "mother."

"We don't walk down town," said the 10-year-old. "He (her father) brings us down town in the model-T Ford truck. We meet him at the parking place, over there on the trading lot."

"He leaves the car there every day. We go back to the block at 12, go home and eat dinner, and come back about 2 o'clock. We come down about 9 or 10 o'clock in the morning, and stay until about 7 at night."

She had five nickels in a sweaty, grimy hand. The money, she said, was from sale of two 5-cent packages of needles and from "money people gave me."

"We all stay in one cabin; we ain't got but one bed," she related. "We sleep on pallets."

"Some times we get hungry; some times we don't."

The 13-year-old girl, who had 40 cents, explained the purchase of needles, although her story was denied by others.

"We buy them here in town, at . . . (a five-and-ten store)" she said. "We go down there and get them ourselves. We pay a nickel for the whole thing and sell them for 20 cents."

The packages the children carried had six small containers of needles in each. These small packages, they said, were sold for 5 cents. Thus, if they sold each small container separately, they received 30 cents.

"Mama would spank us if we spent the money for something we couldn't eat or use," she said.

The youngest said her father gave her the needles she carried. The others denied their father had given them any needles to sell. She said she had "sold" some needles, giving the money to an older sister.

"We have to sell needles because we ain't got any other way to make a living," said the 13-year-old child.

The oldest child said they left Lubbock about three weeks ago to pull bolls at Lamesa, had stayed there until rains stopped the harvest, and had returned to Lubbock to sell needles. At least two of her sisters declared they did not pick cotton at Lamesa; only sold needles.

The children said they had been denied the privilege of selling needles in Abilene.

However, one of them said, "We've been picked up (by officers) the mostest here."

Chevrolet Thanks America For Fine Record Achieved

New Car Deliveries Passed One Million During Year, Officials Recall

The Chevrolet Motor Company today offered its thanks to the American people for having given the company the greatest year in its history by buying 1,130,000 new 1936 Chevrolets.

In display advertisements printed in newspapers throughout the country, Chevrolet expressed its appreciation for the warm friendship of the American people, which enabled the company to break all previous marks for domestic production and sales.

The Thanksgiving offering is considered unique in industrial advertising, but Chevrolet has done it in the past. The company has depended largely on the newspapers of the country in establishing its all-time records in selling not only an unprecedented number of new passenger cars and trucks during 1936, but also in moving two million used cars at the same time.

The advertisement, appearing today, declared, in part: "The builders of Chevrolet are thankful for many things, but most of all for the warm friendship of the American people.

"All we can say is, 'Thanks a million' for more than a million cars in 1936; and all we can do is offer you the still finer Chevrolet of 1937 in return for the finest friendship ever bestowed upon any motor car manufacturer."

"POOR LITTLE RICH GIRL"

Palace—Friday and Saturday November 27 and 28

Little Barbara Barry, pampered daughter of a young widower, soap manufacturer, is lost in a railroad station after her nurse disappears. As her father believes her to be away in school, no alarm is sent out. Barbara takes up with Dolan and Dolan, performers trying to get a break on the radio. They discover that the kid can sing and dance and take her in their act. On the strength of Barbara's performance, they get on a radio show sponsored by a rival of the child's father. Barry discovers his daughter is not in school and recovers her. Players are Shirley Temple, Alice Faye, Jack Haley, Gloria Stuart, Michael Whalen, Paul Stanton, Claude Gillingwater.

"I'D GIVE MY LIFE"

Palace—Saturday Midnite Only November 28th

Tom Brown turns in the best performance of his career as the boy who is willing to give his life to save the reputation of his mother. Tom kills his gambler-father in a struggle after the latter reveals that Tom's mother is the governor's wife. At the trial, Tom refuses to defend himself, as his only defense will involve his mother. Through a letter, read prematurely, the boy and his mother are reunited. The governor promises a pardon. Players are Tom Brown, Sir Guy Standing, Frances Drake, Janet Beecher, Robert Gleckler, Helen Lowell, Charles C. Wilson.

"PICCADILLY JIM"

Palace—Sunday and Monday November 29 and 30

Another swell comedy with plenty of what it takes to make the turn-stiles click. Director Robert Leonard has squeezed the last drop of entertainment value from a snappily adapted Wodehouse yarn and a notable cast. Jim Crocker, London caricaturist, loses his job and falls in love simultaneously. To regain the job he creates a comic strip based on the antics of a newly-rich American family. The strip is a hit and puts Jim and his father, ex-ban actor and Public Mocker No. 1, in clover. But difficulties begin when Jim discovers that the heart throb is a member of the family he has ridiculed and, further, the niece of the lady his father is pursuing. He follows her to America and everything is squared with a general reconciliation. Players are Robert Montgomery, Frank Morgan, Madge Evans, Eric Blore, Billie Burke, Robert Benchley, Ralph Forbes.

"MY AMERICAN WIFE"

Ritz—Sunday and Monday November 29 and 30

Smartly paced film that should prove highly amusing. The story, with many novel twists and sprightly dialogue, is adopted from the Elmer Davis original, being the reversal of the familiar yarn about the American heiress who marries a foreign title. When a native daughter of Smelter City marries the Count Ferdinand von und zu Reidenach the parents of the girl are delighted, but her wealthy grandfather sternly objects. The count proves to be a sincere young chap interested in Americanizing himself. Later he and Granddad become great pals, while the young wife seeks society. Lederer plays a tailored role with earnestness. Stone and Burke do notably in typical characterizations. Players are Francis Lederer, Ann Sothern, Fred Stone, Billie Burke, Ernests Cossart, Grant Mitchell, Hal K. Dawson.

Financial And Social Aspects Of Local High School Discussed At CC Luncheon

The financial and social phases of the Colorado high school in particular and the entire local system in general were discussed in addresses at the chamber of commerce luncheon club Tuesday by J. E. Watson, superintendent of the schools, and C. A. Wilkins, principal of high school.

Outstanding bonded indebtedness of the school district totals $172,000, Watson stated. Valuations in the district for taxable purposes have jumped from $8,000,000 "during the boom days" down to $4,625,000 at the present, he said. Delinquent taxes due the schools, dating back to 1919, aggregate $45,000, "enough money to more than operate the system for one year."
The high school plant, including building, grounds and equipment, represents an investment of $200,000—a business enterprise that every citizen of Colorado should reflect pride in, Wilkins declared. He outlined that the enrollment of 431 students in high school at the present is almost 100 in excess of the number at the same time last year.
"We are all certainly proud of the fact that the Colorado high school is listed on official records of the State department at Austin as one of five perfect high schools in Texas," the principal declared. Wilkins gave credit for phenomenal progress of the school to efficient leadership of Superintendent J. E. Watson.

Annual Drive To Sell Tuberculosis Health Seals Being Launched Thanksgiving Day

Plans are in readiness for the launching of the annual drive to sell tuberculosis health seals for Christmas use on Thanksgiving day. The drive will continue until Christmas.
Mrs. Jeff Dobbs, chairman of the Mitchell County Tuberculosis association and health chairman of the Mitchell County Federation of Women's clubs, announced early this week that she has named Mrs. J. A. Sadler, president of the county federation, as chairman of the drive to sell seals in this county.
One of the main objectives of the county federation under Mrs. Sadler's leadership this year is to promote health work. The organization plans to make the sale of health seals a part of their health work for the year.
Letters explaining the drive are being mailed out to Mitchell county citizens this week. A percentage of the proceeds from the drive remains in the county for tuberculosis work. The remainder goes to the state for use in combating the disease on a larger scale.
Seals are to be mailed out to Mitchell countians by the various club women later on. It is hoped that most of those mailed out will be bought.
Through courtesy of Ross Dixon, Palace theater manager, a 15-minute picture show dealing with tuberculosis is to be run at the Palace theater each evening for the remainder of the week. The picture is released by the National Tuberculosis association.
ON THEIR ANNUAL DEER HUNT
The county's and city's two chief law enforcement officials are leaving Thursday morning on their annual deer hunt near Fort Davis. Dick Gregory, Mitchell county sheriff, is taking along his son, Clarence. B. H. Gregory and Dick Hickman, chief of police, complete the group. They are due to return about Sunday.

Beware The Cough From a common cold That Hangs On

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Creomulsion not only contains the soothing elements common to many remedies; such as, Syrup of White Pine Compound with Tar, fluid extract of Licorice Root, fluid extract of Ipecac for its powerful phlegm loosening effect, fluid extract of Cascara for its mild laxative effect and, most important of all, Beechwood* Creosote is perfectly blended with all of these to reach the source of the trouble from the inside. Creomulsion can be taken frequently and continuously by adults and children with remarkable results.
Thousands of doctors use Creomulsion in their own families as well as in their practice knowing how Creomulsion aids nature to soothe the inflamed membranes and heal the irritated tissues as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled. Druggists also know the effectiveness of Beechwood Creosote and they rank Creomulsion top for coughs because you get a real dose of Creosote in Creomulsion, emulsified so that it is palatable, digestible and potent for going to the very seat of the trouble.
Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs, chest colds and bronchial irritations and especially those stubborn ones that start with a common cold and hang on for dreadful days and nights thereafter. Even if other remedies have failed, your druggist is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund every cent of your money if you are not satisfied with results from the very first bottle. Don't worry through another sleepless night—phone or go get a bottle of Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)

Morning worship 11:00.
Evening service 7:30.
The pastor will preach at both services. A hearty welcome awaits you.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

If Truett Barber, our general superintendent and his family, had not missed Sunday school on Nov. 15 we would have reached our goal of 400 with one to spare; and if the pastor and his family had not missed last Sunday we would have had exactly the same number in attendance. I suppose the logic of this is that the pastor and the superintendent and their families should never miss Sunday school. I hope the superintendent will keep this in mind.

We greatly enjoyed the fellowship of old friends at Floydada last Sunday morning, and were thrilled by the union song service in our church here Sunday evening. This is the first opportunity we have had to express in print our welcome to Pastor Jameson and his family to Colorado and to our neighborhood. I have known him for several years and do not know a Methodist preacher in this section whom I had rather have as a co-pastor than he.

All regular services will be held on schedule next Sunday with the pastor in the pulpit at both preaching hours. Strangers and visitors always welcome at our services.
DICK O'BRIEN, Pastor.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

If you have no church home, try us. We are always glad to have visitors. If you are a Presbyterian who has moved into our city we would like to know you. Come to church or call phone 426-W. We will be glad to come to see you. We give all a cordial welcome.

W. M. ELLIOTT, Pastor.

METHODIST LEAGUE NEWS

What a party those Leaguers did have Friday night! The games were supervised by Mr. Mason, and the seniors, ex-graduates and all jumped right in for a big time. Refreshments of cake and hot chocolate were served.

Last Sunday the subject for the service was "Friendliness." Walter Grubbs, Letisha Crabtree, and Robert Haley and Frances Elliott gave talks on friendship, what it means to us, what a vital part of us it is, and how friends developed one's character. Most of the Leaguers have gone out hunting new friends after the inspiration they get.

It was decided that each member of the League should bring five cents (5c) every Sunday toward sending two or three members to Assembly in Abilene next Summer. It was agreed upon unanimously because the inspiration and high ideals that result from such an assembly is realized by everyone.

Oh, yes! The Leaguers did not forget their food for a Thanksgiving basket either; at least, most of them did not. Those who did forget brought it the following day to Brother Jameson's to be delivered Wednesday. Good work, Leaguers!

Buys Texas' First 1937 Ford V-8

When Faye Cotton, known as Texas Sweetheart No. 1 and star of the Fort Worth Casa Manana Revue, saw the new 1937 Ford V-8's, she became Texas Owner No. 1. In these photographs she is shown, above, in a close-up pointing proudly to her new Ford, and in the lower photograph she is shown about to take off on her first trip in the new model, a de luxe Ford touring sedan, delivered to her in Dallas.

Meet the winners!
Gloria Martin—Fred Null—Donna Lee... Gloria tied with a Sweetwater girl, Edwina Walker, for first place in Monday night's amateur program at the high school. Fred Null and Donna Lee did a number together, winning second place.

Nobody wonders where 10-year-old Gloria Martin gets her stage talent—not anyone who knows her mother, Mrs. W. R. Martin, and her father, musical-minded Bill Martin of Lorraine... Monday night marked Gloria's first appearance on any Mitchell county amateur hour, though her mother's other pupils carried off prizes regularly all summer... Mrs. Martin simply didn't feel that she should promote her own child, and Gloria appeared Monday night only at the insistence of the program sponsors... Gloria reads so much that her mother sometimes gets worried about it... She reads everything, anything she can get her hands on—and has a swell time while making straight A's in the sixth grade of Lorraine schools... She's never cared much for dolls, would rather act out a play any time... Always liked being in story-telling contests... Likes dancing least of any of the things her mother teaches, but is a dutiful pupil... And if you think she gets home coaching you're wrong because all the training she gets is in her mother's regular classes... Is very fond of her 5-year-old brother, Reagan... And he's so fond of her that he went home from Monday night's program and went to his bank to get "Sister" an additional prize... He gave her all he had over his Santa Claus fund, that being two pennies... Two pennies plus a lot of pride and love...

Federal Survey Indicates Reduction In Fed Cattle During Another Year

Range and soil conservation projects will be the greater factors in determining the condition of beef cattle production throughout the next two years, the Department of Agriculture states in their outlook survey for 1937.

Sounding a doubtful note in an otherwise optimistic report, the Agricultural Economics Unit expects there will be fewer cattle for 1936-37 than were fattened for 1935-1936. There is a distinct shortage in present grain feed supplies and consequently cattle feed prices will receive less grain per acre than last year and feeding to the production of short fed cattle. Hay and roughage will constitute a greater than usual proportion of cattle fattening rations.

Grain price ratio will be unfavorable, during because of this shortage, feeding this winter and early spring, but by next fall a shift is expected into a more favorable ratio. Every effort is being made to make range and pasture conditions better, especially in the areas most severely affected by the 1936 drought.

Quantities of cattle are now lower than a year ago because of drought liquidation and will remain small during 1937. They will be numerous enough to furnish an inspected slaughter of cattle and calves in no amount greater than the 10 years average of 1924 to 1933. The general trend is expected to be in an upward swing during the next few years.

Dependent upon range and pasture conditions in the drought area, there will be a strong tendency on the part of cattle raisers in those sections to restock and increase their herds.

Little if any reduction in cattle numbers is probable in areas where quantities have decreased but slightly during the past three years.

The cattle industry will be in a rather favorable position, even though slaughter requirements are exceptionally large, because of the reduced hog supplies in prospect for the next two years.

Total slaughter of both cattle and calves is expected to be smaller in 1937 than it was in 1935 or 1936, but will be larger than the average of the five years preceding 1934. Because of reduced supplies and high prices of feed and the unfavorable returns from cattle feeding operations in 1936, the number of grain-fed cattle in the slaughter supply is expected to be considerably less than that of a year earlier.

The decrease will be the most marked in supplies of the better grades. Because of the relatively small decline in the prices of feeder

Prices of cattle are expected to rise to much higher levels.

The advance probably will not be so great as that which occurred in late 1934 and early 1935, following the 1934 drought. Prices of lower grades of slaughter cattle during the first half of 1937 probably will advance at least as much as is usual for the period.

The front page was taken up by the ads of Doss & Johnson, J. H. Greene (The Furniture Man), and the Colorado Electric company and by stories on the lynching of a negro at Clarksville and the sudden appearance of an island in the sea off the coast of Venezuela.
Prohibition had been retained in Maine. The Abilene chief of police gave his version of the shooting to death of E. Miller when he tried to arrest the latter on a charge of disturbing the peace.
The Hesperian club had met with Mrs. W. L. Doss, the Bay View with Mrs. Jim Smith. In the latter's illness her sister, Miss Claudia Rogers, and Miss Bernice Terrell had been the real hostesses. The G. F.

C's had met with the Misses Wulfin and were to meet next with Mrs. Floyd Bond.

The state was to spend about $85,000 in the location of a state tuberculosis hospital at Carlsbad. Secretary Wilson had resigned again from the United States cabinet.

Forty-two players of Colorado had defeated those of Lorraine in "hard-fought" games at the J. C. Prude home following dinner at the St. James. Playing from Lorraine were Dr. W. H. Henthorn, Robert Henthorn, Hubert Tober, V. D. Payne, W. T. Mullin, C. B. Reader, J. Stone Rives, W. J. Dixon, Harry Hall, Jerry Walker, J. E. Stowe, and Mit Cranfill. Colorado's title was defended by O. M. Mitchell, C. H. Earnest, R. E. Dolman, J. W. Smith, C. T. Harneis, S. Gustine, A. Cooksey, R. L. Looney, J. C. Prude, Jake Minser, J. L. Allen, C. M. Adams, R. L. McMurry, and A. J. Coe.

Mrs. Thos. Dates of Albany was visiting her sisters, Mrs. J. J. Jackson and Mrs. Mary Mann. Lela Whiskey was home from her music teaching duties at Roby for a week. J. R. Ledbetter was raising some fine hogs.

Huron Costin, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Costin, had received severe face cuts while riding his bicycle and holding onto a "speeding auto". Rufus Morgan was to clerk in D. L. Buchanan's grocery store. Miss Nell RJordan was home from a visit to California.

There was a rumor that Dr. Willis R. Smith and family might return to Colorado to live. Billie Butler and Sam Gamble, "billbroilers," were "bitching" while Charley Jones was away for the winter. Miss Eva Terry reported her elocution class in Roscoe doing nicely. Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Snyder of Georgetown were visiting their son, Litram, here and their son, Marcus, in San Angelo. Mrs. Charlie Taylor and son had gone to Fort Worth and McKinney to remain until after Christmas. Ina Wulfin was home after a visit in Fort Worth. Madeline Shepherd was suffering a sprained ankle sustained while she was playing basketball. Mrs. Mary Mullin had gone to her new home in Weatherford. Dr. W. M. Merrill had helped examine some Simmons university students.

In H. C. Doss' advertisement a gentleman in a longish coat was pointing out the advantages of an elaborately carved coal stove to a lady whose full skirt swept the floor and who wore, apparently, a bustle in front—and maybe one behind. Her hat, very flat and wide brimmed and set squarely on top of her head, a little forward, wasn't so much different from the sailors worn last summer—only the tilt made the difference.

Another ad, that of the Colorado Electric company, stated positively: "The best tenants demand electric light." Gertrude Schroeder had celebrated her birthday with a party. Judge P. F. Brewer had died in Snyder. About 4,000 bales of cotton had been ginned.

15 YEARS AGO
Hila Morgan, "the doll comedienne and her excellent company," were to play in Colorado for a week fifteen years ago in a tent which was to be located "in front of the Winn & Piddison garage." A two-column, page-length ad on the front page of the Colorado Record for November 11, 1921, announced that fact. School children of Colorado were to assist in Armenian relief under direction of Dr. P. C. Coleman. W. M. Green reported that people of the Rogers community were organizing a Sunday school. Bonds for the erection of a new high school building were to be voted on on December 8.

The 1921 Study club had met with Miss Ewell Gary, the Bayview with Mrs. C. T. Harness, the Hesperian with Mrs. J. A. Sadler, the U. D. C. with Mrs. G. W. Smith. Mrs. Bert Robertson and her baby, Joe, had left on Saturday for their "future home" in Dallas.

The Colorado Bargain House filled two pages with its advertisement of "A Wonderful Sale." Mrs. Nelson Vaughan had been hostess to the Merry Wives. Officers of the Civic League had been elected as follows: President, Mrs. A. L. Whipple; vice-president, Mrs. P. C. Coleman; recording secretary, Mrs. Stewart Cooper; treasurer, Mrs. Boyd Dozier; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. G. Merritt; committee chairman—Mrs. Coleman, Mrs. W. A. Dozier, Mrs. Marcus Snyder, Miss Byrd Adams, and Mrs. Merritt.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Chesshire had left for their new home in Corpus Christi. Fannie Bess Earnest had spent the week-end in Big Spring with Mrs. Westerfelt. Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Coffee were living at the Judge Bullock place. C. C. Barnett had a new Dodge car. Miss Martha Earnest had entertained with a sewing party honoring Mrs. Royall Smith of El Paso. Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Moody had gone to visit his brother in Fort Worth, and from there to their future home in Dallas. Rupert Womack, Fube Hart, Jim McClellan and Dock Simmons had led a fishing crowd from the Womack garage. W. R. Charters announced that he was retiring from the drug business. Charley Farris, recently of Sweetwater, was to have charge of the drug store which he and his brother, Tom Farris, had bought from Charters.

W. W. Jeffers was reported doing nicely following an appendicitis operation at the Colorado sanitarium. R. L. Spalding had received a car of oak stove wood and blocks. Long-fellow school patrons were to build a teachersage.

FARM INCOME RAISED 57 PER CENT SINCE 1932

COLLEGE STATION.—Cash income from farm production in 1935 in Texas was $461,050,000, an increase of 57 per cent over the 1932 figure of $294,358,000. Cash receipts for sales of principal Texas farm products constitute about 94 per cent of that. During the first seven months of 1936 these cash receipts were 19 per cent greater than during the same period in 1935, thus indicating a continued rise in Texas farm income for 1936, according to figures just released from Washington.

The extent to which the economic situation of Texas farmers has improved since 1932 is indicated in part by comparing the 1932 and 1935 production volume of certain commodities, together with the cash income from those commodities.

Texas farmers produced approximately 4,500,000 bales of cotton and 2,008,000 tons of seed in 1932 for which they received a cash return of $152,463,000. For their 1935 cotton crop, smaller than that of 1932 by about 1,344,000 bales and 690,000 tons of seed, they realized a cash income of $238,492,000, including about $9,617,000 in price adjustment payments and $47,411,000 in rental and benefit payments. The 1935 income was, therefore, larger than the 1932 income by $86,029,000 or 56 per cent.

Beef producers in this state likewise saw a substantial rise in their cash income from 1932 to 1935, in spite of a marked decrease in production. In 1932, their net production of cattle and calves amounted to about 1,235,930,000 pounds, their income totaling $34,363,000. Their net production in 1935 approximated 901,625,000 pounds, or about 334,305,000 less than their 1932 production; yet their 1935 cash returns totaled $51,627,000, or $17,264,000 more than their 1932 returns. Government cattle purchases from Texas ranchmen account for $2,785,000 of this 1935 income.

Dairymen in Texas profited by marked income increases, along with stockmen and cotton farmers among others. Net milk production in this state was only one per cent greater in 1935 than in 1932 but cash income was 52 per cent, or $13,620,000 greater.

The position of Texas corn-hog farmers in 1935, as measured by the increased cash returns from production, is much improved over what it was three years earlier. Their 1932 cash income was $8,939,000 for a corn crop of about 102,726,000 bushels and a net hog production of approximately 434,290,000 pounds. Their 1935 income was $20,749,000, including $2,371,000 in benefit payments, for a corn crop of about 89,368,000 bushels and a net hog production of 324,260,000 pounds. The 1935 income of corn-hog producers in Texas was $11,810,000 or 132 per cent more than in 1932.

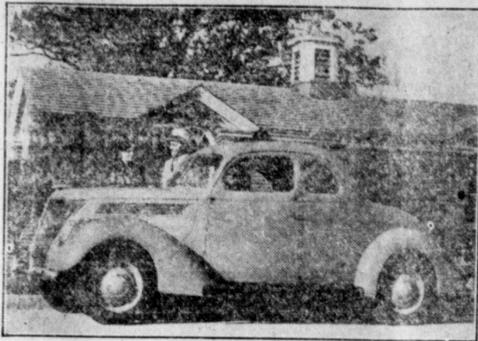

The 1932 wheat crop in this state amounted to approximately 28,293,000 bushels, for which producers received a cash return of $6,928,000. The 1935 crop of 11,473,000 bushels, about 60 per cent smaller than the 1932 crop, brought them $6,265,000 at the market and $12,503,000 with rental and benefit payments included. All told, wheat producers in 1935 received 80 per cent more cash than they did in 1932 when the crop was more than double the 1935 crop.

Cash income from many other important farm products of Texas also showed encouraging upturns from 1932 to 1935. Income of rice producers more than doubled, rising from $1,847,000 to $7,095,000, including $1,903,000 in benefits on 1935 production. Income from oats rose 127 per cent, or from $1,763,000 to $4,179,000. NORMAN V. PARKER, 51 FOUND DEAD IN ALAMO BATHROOM LAST FRIDAY

Apparently having been dead for several hours, Norman V. Parker, about 51, was found dead in a bathroom at the Alamo hotel Friday morning about 6 o'clock. Death was attributed to natural causes.

Parker was still fully dressed and his bed had not been occupied, so it is thought that he died shortly after going to his room Thursday. He was employed as night cook at the Broadway cafe.

Nothing could be learned of his relatives, if any. He had been in Colorado about 7 or 8 years, coming here from Dallas. He had always been a cook. He was not known to have ever married. During the World War he saw a long period of service overseas. He suffered from shell-shock.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock from Kiker Chapel, the Rev. A. D. Leach officiating and members of the American Legion acting as pallbearers. Kiker & Son had charge of arrangements.

HUNDREDS ATTEND COUNTY ATTRACTION STAGED HERE BY FFA CHAPTER AND C-G

Livestock Exposition, 'Turkey Day' Features Participated In By Citizens From Large Part Of Territory

Hundreds of Mitchell counties thronged Colorado streets Saturday for two gala events of the fall season—the county's first horse and mule show and "Turkey Day."

The horse and mule show was sponsored by the Colorado high school chapter of the Future Farmers of America with Doyle Williams as director. Only Mitchell county animals were eligible for prizes. Entries were listed in nearly all of the show's 20 classes.

The "Turkey Day" event was at 3 o'clock. Business came to a momentary standstill while business men climbed to the roofs of their buildings with turkeys which they released at a signal from the city fire siren. About 65 birds were turned loose, for the crowd.

Judging of the horse and mule show entries was by Milton Templeton, director of vocational agriculture in Sylvester high school.

Awards were as follows: Best Jack—Lee Kidd; best mule colt—M. A. Webb; best team of draft mules over 2,400 pounds—T. W. Daugherty; best team of mules under 2,400 pounds—J. P. Smith; best mule over 1,200 pounds—Archie Kidd; best mule under 1,200 pounds—J. P. Smith; best draft colt foaled prior to January 1, 1936—George Bynum; best team of draft horses—Price brothers;

Wolves And Tigers, Rivals Of Several Years Standing, On Thanksgiving Card

The Colorado Wolves and Snyder Tigers, rivals in Class B football circles through several years, are to furnish one of the Thanksgiving Day football attractions as the teams meet at Cantrill Field Thursday afternoon in their last conference engagement of the season. The game is to be called at 3 o'clock.

The Wolves and Tigers have met and fought through one grid contest during the season but it was a non-conference affair. The Tigers won by the marginal lead of one point, coming through at end of the fourth period with a 13 to 12 lead.

Colorado Wolves Win In Secondary Bout With Devils

Score Of Thirteen To Nothing Posted During Game With Big Spring Eleven

Pushing across a touchdown in the second quarter when Miller took a pass across and adding another in the third period, the Colorado Wolves handed the Big Spring Devils their second licking of the season here Thursday, 13-0.

Red Cunningham, dreadnaught of the Daniels' secondary, gathered in a Colorado kickoff after the first Wolf touchdown had been scored and faced some 80 yards for a score but the play was called back and Big Spring penalized when a Devil was charged with clipping. Cunningham left the game in the third quarter when he received a charley horse and the Big Spring eleven lost their biggest threat.

The second Colorado touchdown came as a result of a short pass.

Colorado, Anson Lions Offered As District Governor

School officials here are urging Coloradans to remain at home during the afternoon and attend their annual Thanksgiving Day football game as boosters for the Wolves. Snyder, it was stated Monday morning, plans sending a large delegation here for the pigskin melee.

The two teams are rated as practically evenly matched in the district, although Snyder leads the Wolves in conference victories. The Wolves are in excellent condition for the affair and are joining with school officials in the promise that one of the area's best games will be offered customers.

Deputy Governor Joe Pond And Judge Burleson Given Support For Office

Two Lions who during the past several years have been prominent in affairs of the service organization are being popularly mentioned as candidates for election to the office of Governor of District 2-T, at annual convention next Spring. Both were present at a group meeting held here Thursday night.

One of the proposed candidates is Deputy District Governor Joe Pond of Colorado, past president of the local club and active in the local, district and international organization several years. He was appointed deputy soon after Elmer Elliott of Dalhart was elevated to the governorship last year.

The other is County Judge Omer Burleson of Jones, among the active Lions in the club at Anson. Member of the Anson delegation attending the meeting here presented the Anson citizen as "the next governor of district 2-T."

ANOTHER ENROLLMENT OF CCC BOYS WILL BE HELD DURING JANUARY

There will be another enrollment of boys for the CCC camps during the month of January, according to information just released by C. J. Sweeney, District Administrator of the Texas Relief Commission, with headquarters at Abilene. The announcement was made in a letter received by Mrs. Bonnie Burt of the Mitchell county welfare and relief desk.

To be able to give the War Department information as to the numbers of boys that will be available, it is requested that all who desire to attend immediately call at their county relief or welfare office and leave their names and addresses. Reports on the number of men available must be sent to Washington on November 30, although applications will be taken until December 21. However, some idea must be had as to just how many will be ready to leave when the time comes. This will possibly be the last opportunity for boys to make application for this training, and it is hoped that all who have a desire to attend will lose no time in registering with the least possible delay.

BROTHERHOOD OF LIONISM DEPICTED AS AGENCY THAT WILL BRING WORLD PEACE

High Ideals Of Service Clubs Pictured By Speakers Here Thursday Night Before 2-T Group Conference

The brotherhood of Lionism, a definite influence for peace and good will under eight flags, Thursday evening was pictured as an agency that would effectively lead men into such an understanding around the world, as West Texans prominent in affairs of the service organization addressed delegations attending group 5, district 2-T, Lions International, at the Colorado hotel.

Principal address was delivered by Elmer Elliott of Dalhart, governor of the district. He painted a vivid mental picture of better citizenship, stronger character and the opening of shutters in darkened lives of humanity to admit sunshine of joy, because there were Lions, 85,000 strong, supporting the principles upon which the organization was founded.

"To be a good Lion naturally means that any man will be a better citizen," Governor Elliott declared. "The code of ethics inspires and the major work programs leads him into an appreciation of the higher attributes of life that, in many instances, he would never know."

Governor Elliott referred to the Man of Galilee as the first great Lion who "went about doing good" to lay the predicate upon which Lionism in its true application is reflected today. He quoted from the memorable address of President Lincoln at Gettysburg, charging that Lions were honor bound to sustain the policies so impressively enunciated there.

Joe Pond, deputy district governor, called the meeting to order. The invocation was given by Rev. C. E. Jameson of First Methodist church. Delegations from the Midland, Big Spring, Snyder, Anson, Sweetwater and Colorado clubs were presented.

Five minute addresses by representatives of some of the visiting groups were next in order. Cecil Collins of Big Spring spoke on the subject, "History of Lionism." "The Meaning of Lionism" was subject of an address by Claude Crane of Midland. Walter Pope of Anson spoke on "The Colors of Lionism" and William Haynes of Snyder addressed the group on "Activities of Lionism."

Ross Covey, superintendent of the Sweetwater schools and Lions governor of district 2-E, was heard in a humorous and inspirational address, depicting some of the major objectives that were building popular approval for the service clubs. Dr. Harold McEntire of Sweetwater, president of the club there, spoke briefly.

The Rev. C. E. Jameson, transferred recently from Shamrock as pastor of First Methodist church, and E. A. Harrell of Austin, associated with the State Comptroller's office, were others to speak.

With adjournment of the banquet program an executive session was called to hear reports from the several clubs represented. All of the reports reflected growing clubs and increased activities. Attention to work of the blind committee was stressed by speakers.

Midland was selected as host for the next group meeting to be held on a date in February designated by Midland Lions. Motion that the gathering come to that city was made by Claude Crane of Midland and seconded by Gib Smith of Anson and Cecil Collins of Big Spring.

President Walter Whipkey of the local club took the chair during closing minutes of the meeting. He expressed appreciation in behalf of the Colorado Lions Club for "outstanding Lions such as you to come here tonight and bring us the inspiration you have. Such has made of me a better Lion and I feel that the same is to be reflected generally through our membership."

PENALIZED ELEVEN WINS IN FREE SCORING BOUT

The Roscoe Plowboys, severely penalized last week by the District 6-B executive committee, defeated the Rotan Yellowhammers in a free scoring contest at Roscoe Friday afternoon. The score was 35 to 26. The Plowboys two days before were ruled out of the district race on grounds they paid Sweetwater and Spur in non-conference games with an ineligible man.

FATHER AND SON SENT TO PEN FOR LIFE ON CHARGES OF ROBBING BEER PARLOR

Fair Well Known To Officers Here End Colorful Career In Crime As Confessions To Charges Are Made

Bob Lamb, 45, and his son, "Sonny" Lamb, 25, were assessed a total of 114 years each in the State penitentiary Monday after the pair had entered pleas of guilty in district court at Guthrie to charges of robbing a beer parlor and assault with intent to murder.

The 99-year sentences were a punishment for robbery of a beer parlor east of Guthrie on the night of August 1. The 15-year terms were based on their confession to shooting operator of similar place north of Guthrie on the same night.

A wrist watch, clothing and other personal articles, identified as having been taken during the beer parlor hijacking, was found a few days later in residence of a Colorado citizen. He was placed under arrest in connection with the job.

Thursday night before at Menard and Coleman the pair signed confessions to a series of robberies and one murder, left in wake of one of the boldest crime records in this section of the State. One of the robberies was that of a package store on Highway 1 near Coahoma several weeks ago.

The men were well known to Colorado officers. These aided authorities in other parts of the State in running the Lams to ground. They were arrested in North Little Rock, Arkansas, last month and returned to Texas.

THANKSGIVING

On the last Thursday in November in the midst of her huge black cities and on her tiny farms America turns to celebrate her own great national holiday. But the skyscrapers and silos are no longer there; back across the miles and centuries the American is sitting with his Pilgrim comrades in the dark New England wilderness. The turkey and the mince pie are but symbols; beneath the jollity of Thanksgiving the heart beats high with a love of country not to be expressed in words. It is a very real thing.

zine, "Pathfinder," was being sent to the Payne school. A called meeting of the county federation was announced for Tuesday afternoon of next week.

The club will not meet this Friday. Mrs. George Mahon is scheduled to be hostess on Friday, December 4.

Customs of Mexico was the general study topic of the Zetagathians during their meeting Friday with Mrs. Troy Patrick.

Mrs. Bob May was leader and papers were read as follows: "Marriage Customs," Mrs. Bob May; "Funeral Customs," Mrs. Adrian Clark; "Mexican Family Life," Mrs. W. B. May.

After a sketch of the life of the poetess by Mrs. Sam Wulfjen, the volume, "Wine From These Grapes," was reviewed by Mrs. Coffey in a very impressive manner. In the review Mrs. Coffey also read some of the earlier Millay poems and some of the Millay love sonnets.

Miss Mary Broadus and Miss Eva Robinson were guests. Peach salad, wafers, cookies, fudge squares, and coffee were served. The club's next meeting will be on Dec. 4 with Mrs. Willis Shropshire at the V. V. Shropshire home. At that time Mrs. Coffey's Rhythm Kindergarten band will be presented in a special program number.

5A ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

Friday, November 20, Miss Crosthwaite's room presented a Thanksgiving program. The stage was artistically decorated with autumn leaves and flowers.

Betty Brown, dressed as a Pilgrim maid, and Larry Dorn, dressed as an Indian, announced the following numbers:

A Thanksgiving Hymn by the 5A class.

A Thanksgiving Reading by Betty White.

Piano solo by Frances Hardison.

Thanksgiving Story by Betty Lee Phenix.

Violin number by Ralph Mann and Billy Wayne Marsh.

Reading by Gwendolyn Graves.

The final number was a Thanksgiving song by the student body.

FIFTH GRADE GOOD WRITERS

There are sixty-nine new members in the Good Writers Club this month. Fifteen pupils in the fifth grade passed the writing test. Last month 5A and 5B tied for the honor banner, and this month 5A and 5C tied for the banner.

In 5A, 38.94% of the pupils are members of the Good Writers Club. The new members are: Frances Hardison, Hugh Jean Nixon, Betty Brown, Bonnie Jackson, and Betty White.

In 5B, 39.94% of the pupils are Good Writers. The new club members are: Betty Jo Farquhar, Fayrene Pickens, Imogene Rogers, and Alice McCorcle.

There are six new members in 5C: Vivian Crow, Margaret Gray, Phynus Shurtlett, Iestine Phillips, Leora Porter, and Geta Mints. In this room 38.23% of the pupils have passed the Good Writers test.

THANKSGIVING HOLIDAYS

Everyone is looking forward to the Thanksgiving holidays. Most of the pupils are thinking about two days vacation from school and about good food for the Thanksgiving dinner.

All of the teachers are planning to go to the Texas State Teachers Association which meets in Fort Worth during the Thanksgiving holidays. Miss Crosthwaite will also visit in Dallas and Weatherford. Miss Yates will go to her home in Grapevine before returning to Colorado. Miss Bradford is planning to visit in Dallas, Austin, and San Antonio, during the holidays.

BEING THANKFUL

Let us look back to the time of the landing of the Mayflower and the first Thanksgiving in Plymouth. Did these colonists have good roasted turkey, candied cranberries, and pumpkin pie to eat in a warm dining room? No, they did not have such comforts.

They did not have newspapers; the children did not have a school paper to enjoy. In fact, they did not have public schools and therefore children did not have the advantages that we have today.

Now, after all, we have much to be thankful for. We have good homes and many comforts. We have public schools and churches. Let us think of some of these blessings on Thanksgiving.

topic for the Shakespeare club as it met Friday with Mrs. J. Max Thomas. In the illness of Mrs. Thomas the home was decorated with chrysanthemums and autumn leaves by Nettie Sneed, who also received the guests and served refreshments when the lesson was over.

Mrs. D. H. Snyder was leader. Thanksgiving quotations were given during roll call. Mrs. Jerold Riordan read a Thanksgiving poem in Mrs. J. H. Greene's place and Mrs. Frank Lupton told a Thanksgiving story, "Cold Turkey."

Refreshments served by Nettie Sneed after the Shakespeare lesson included a salad course, pie, and coffee. Mrs. Lupton will be hostess at the club's next meeting on Friday, December 4.

Standard

Hostess to the Standard club Friday was Mrs. L. W. Sandusky and leader was Mrs. Roy Buchanan.

The lesson was on Act 3, Scene 3, and Act 4, Scene 1 and 2, of "Julius Caesar." The only paper was read by Mrs. R. B. Terrell for her daughter, Elizabeth, on "Interpreting the Orations of Brutus and Anthony."

The week's meeting will be with Mrs. Y. D. McMurry at the new meeting time, 3 o'clock.

CHATTER

Let's not eat too much Thanksgiving dinner. We would like to have everyone present at school next Monday. Junior High is to be represented on the amateur program Monday night by Mr. Glover, Mr. Bass, Mr. McLaughlin, and William Venable. They are going to give a negro skit, "Eye's Love Apple." What is the secret of those giggling girls and boys? Did something funny happen Monday? ... Some have the Christmas spirit already. We have heard "Jingle Bells" several times this week. ... A showed a great interest in the Good Writers papers this month. ... Balloons. Will they ever cease to exist? When one bursts another one always appears.

WOLVES OF '37 DOWN BIG SPRING DEVILS 13-0

The Wolves of '37 defeated the Big Spring Devils 13-0 here at Cantrell field Thursday afternoon. The game was packed with thrills from start to finish. Both touchdowns extra points made by passes from Chadwick to Carter. The first was a startling fifty yard sprint. The second touchdown was a ten yard pass over the goal line. The Devils started a drive toward the Wolves' goal line but fumbled on the two yard stripe, Smallwood recovering. Inspiring runs for the Wolves were made by Chadwick and Carter. The Wolves playing head-up football outplayed the Devils from the start. Big Spring Devils fought a hard game but were unable to stop the Wolves aerial attack.

ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

The high school student body was impressed by a talk on "The Effects of Smoking" delivered by Mr. Harvey Childress, minister of the Church of Christ, last Thursday. The talk was timely and well taken. After this address, Mr. Wilkins complimented the Junior class on winning the play tournament. He then called to the stage Bula Frances Robertson, the Freshman class president, and Betty Hodge, the Junior class president. Bula Frances was presented $14.85, the amount due the Freshmen for having a larger crowd than the Sophomores in the play tournament. Betty was presented $6.40, the amount due the Juniors for surpassing the Seniors in crowds. Both presidents showed their gratitude in the remarks they made.

Following this part of the program, Mr. Jim Greene made an announcement concerning the amateur program given Monday night. The variety of this assembly program did not end here. A surprise then came. The football captain, Walter Rankin, accompanied with June Cox, presented Coach Christian a baby blanket for his little daughter, Jewel Louise. Blushing the coach thanked the football boys for their gift.

Tuesday morning in assembly the Junior class made an effort to show to the high school faculty the impression they have been making on the student body. It is a great benefit for anyone to see himself as others see him. It was indeed amusing to see each teacher impersonated by some pupil.

H. E. III A NEWS

The Third Year Home Economics girls have been studying nutrition for several weeks. They have studied the minerals and vitamins in foods, where to find them, and how much of them they need of them each day. They are now studying the causes and signs of mal-nutrition. The girls hope to give their mothers a buffet supper in the near future.

H. E. NEWS

Thursday the cooking girls made a somewhat sad attempt at waffles and griddle cakes. The batter looked like cake dough, but Miss Hargrove came to the rescue. The girls made some syrup to go on them and most of it was candy. Several teachers ate some and insisted that they were being spoiled but really they seemed pleased.

SONGSTERS

The high school songsters are still trying to learn how to read music. They are working on their program that they plan to present on their tour in East Texas sometime before Christmas. After Christmas, they plan to present a program in Big Spring and other West Texas towns. They have learned several songs and are very proud of their work this year.

PEP SQUAD

The pep squad is very regretful that football season is nearly over. The members have enjoyed going to all the games and yelling for the Wolves of C. H. S. For the last formation of the season the girls plan to make a C for Colorado. The mascot, Gloria Lee, is going to lead in a yell. Then with the help of the boys the squad is going to make an S for Snyder. The twelfth man will be backing the Wolves until the final whistle blows. More power to the Wolves.

SOPHOMORES PLAN AHEAD

The Sophs were indeed delighted to win second place in the play tournament. Even though they can't get their names on the cup, they are going to try next year to keep the Senior class of '37 from getting their names on the cup. The class wants to thank Miss Barrett for being so willing to help, for without her the class could not have done so well. Also thanks to everyone who helped to make up the good crowd.

LOCKER KICKERS

A word to you, locker kickers. How many of you felt guilty when you read the first sentence? There were not very many who didn't.

There are three reasons why you should not kick your lockers. One reason is the terrific uproar caused by the simultaneous clatter of the hundreds of lockers in all parts of the building. The second reason is that you are shortening the lives of the lockers; the hinges or handles may be broken by your unnecessary roughness. The third reason concerns you. Should you be caught doing this, it will mean staying in after school. So be considerate of others around you, of your locker, and of yourself.

JUNIORS WINNERS AGAIN

The Junior class is winner again! As Sophomores last year they won the trophy, and as Juniors this year, they win again. We want to thank especially Miss Gladys Miller for her splendid work as director and Miss Hargrove and Mr. Cline for their help and work on the scenery. Especially do we wish to thank the cast for their fine work.

The Junior class is a member of the Red Cross, as are all the classes in high school. Our goal was to make the whole high school a member of the Red Cross. We reached it. Each teacher became a member as well as each class.

We just want to warn the other classes that they are going to have to work very hard if they think they are going to beat us.

IT WILL BE NEWS WHEN:

1. Betty Hodge isn't powdering her nose
2. The Seniors are dignified.
3. Our football boys don't give us our money's worth of thrills in a game.
4. Mr. Coffman isn't teasing some one in his class.
5. Mr. Wilkins' third period chemistry class learns some chemistry.
6. Three girls stop talking in Mr. Mason's study hall.
7. Virginia Gurney stops rolling her eyes.
8. Kathryn Hodges doesn't have her hair curled.
9. Mary Frances Smith gets all of her propositions out of her folder.
10. A group of Fish girls aren't talking about whom they had a date with.
11. Fae Porter isn't talking.
12. A number of Junior and Senior girls aren't sitting across the streets on the boys' side.
13. Mr. Brazel keeps a quiet study hall.
14. Lucille Goode doesn't say "for heaven sakes."
15. Robert Stell isn't saying "my precious good gosh."
16. Etta Fern Harkins does not look cute as pie.
17. Miss Miller does not talk with her hands.
18. Shirley Kiker's dream comes true.

BAND TO STRUT COLORS

The Colorado Hi Band will surely strut their stuff when they get those new red and black uniforms. It won't be long before each horn-tooter in the band will have a full suit of dear old high school colors. The band members nearly ran the business men crazy trying to persuade them to buy a ticket to the Chamber of Commerce Amateur Hour Monday night. But one thing, they will be crazy if they didn't do it.

COMMERCIAL STUDENTS ADVANCE

Well if anyone is wondering what has happened to the shorthand class—we'll let you know the inside dope. We are actually learning some shorthand. At least we are diligently plodding away; and if our results aren't satisfactory, I don't know who will be responsible. We have had a little variety in our class though, with two teachers since school has started. I guess these shorthand teachers "can't take it." We regretted to lose Mr. Edwards but we were equally glad to have Miss Payne. I think Miss Payne is wondering if certain individuals will ever learn anything. We try out every method; we read shorthand, we type it, and we write it but it still looks a little like Chinese. And as for typing, there are some students who can type exceedingly well, but there are also a great many who still make zero on their speed tests. Well, give us time. We'll learn, even if it does look doubtful.

Upper Colorado River Project To Give Better Chance Of Area Flood Control

Flood control on tributaries of the Colorado River in this area is more nearly a possibility by reason of the Upper Colorado Authority. As a state agency, it is ready to co-operate with any federal or state measures that may be taken to this end, Culberson Deal, of San Angelo, secretary of the Upper Colorado Authority and secretary of the Central West Texas Conservation and Flood Control Association, said Saturday. The powers given in the state act fit into that by Congress approved June 22, 1936. Thus West Texans are in position to get first consideration and quicker action than are those flood control associations now being organized.

With tax remission in Coke and Tom Green counties estimated to provide about $80,000 annually, the Upper Colorado River Authority is in position to issue bonds to purchase lands and rights-of-way for any control projects that may be authorized and to operate and maintain them as required by congressional enactment. First thing West Texans hope to get is a survey, then recommendation of army engineers for a control project, with subsequent appropriations to be devoted to the building thereof.

THANKSGIVING

Another Thanksgiving day has come and gone and we are prone to write our THANKS.

The Puritan Fathers as of record had no faith in Santa Claus. There is no extant account of a first Christmas or Thanksgiving day in the vicinity of Plymouth Rock. There was an austere piety and the God to whom they knelt in reverence they saw as a stern God. There was rejoicing but not merriment in that first harvest occasion that survives today in our revived Thanksgiving celebration. They would, one thinks, have been horrified at the thought of shrieking thousands jammed into football stadia. They might even have been baffled by our habit of overeating on this particular day.

As has become almost invariably the case with other holidays, modern America retains the celebration, contributes the merriment but forgets the cause. Solemnity has long departed from a day that the Puritans set aside to thank merciful Providence for a bounteous harvest and a foothold gained in a country where they were free to observe the forms of their own faith. Later there was less cause for others to be thankful, Quakers and the like, for Puritan sufferings had not brought the sunlight of tolerance into their severe hearts.

There is something of a lesson for all of us in what has happened to Thanksgiving Day or for that matter in what has happened to the Puritans. Their strain is still with us. Many are proud to trace their lineage back to the refugees of the Mayflower, though the pride does not always extend to perpetuation of principles. The Puritans did not know that no particular set of manners and morals or even a particular kind of worship long survives the original observers. It was a New England poet, Holmes, who poked fun at the Puritans and in epic lines on "Lending a Punchbowl" hinted that all of the forefathers were not above warming the inner man with something stronger than faith.

Today the chief survivor of the Puritan Thanksgiving is the turkey.

Memory constrains us to voice our deepest gratitude for our gracious heritage of blessings, for the priceless blessings of our homes, for friendships old and new, for days of challenge and struggle, for the privilege and glory of work, for sorrows that come to refine us, and to make us more helpful to others, for the golden dream that selfish war will one day be finally hushed throughout the earth and all mankind shall keep step by the law of love, and in all life into highest meaning, both for today and for unending tomorrow.

At this Thanksgiving Season, may the gentleness of the Prince of Peace touch us to a more considerate helpfulness for all humanity, for little children and for the lonely aged, for the poor and needy and underprivileged and discouraged, for those who keep punctual tryst with grief and wakeful vigil with pain, for those whose faith falters in the midst of mysterious providences, for those who watch with wearied eyes for ships that do not arrive, and for those whose cheeks are flushed with victory, let us not fail to pray that they may be given the grace to carry the full cup of their prosperity, with becoming humility. Through all seasons may we be experts in helping all mankind, remembering that in due season, the bread of kindness cast upon the waters of human need, will return after many days, with a wonderful increase.

While many voices may be heard in these perplexing days, proclaiming their various panaceas for the world's ill, may we go on with profound and ever deepening conviction that there is no complete and abiding solution to be expected of the world's problems, whether personal, social, racial, economic, political, national, international, moral or religious, save as we are faithful to the teaching of the Prince of Peace, and are ready to fulfill all the requirements of sacrificed love. May we increasingly realize that the whole world is now one vast neighborhood, that neither nations nor individuals can live to themselves, that pagan ideals and methods cannot save our civilization, that a persistent pagan civilization will perish as completely as the fabled Atlantis.

As we journey on may we be given an ever-enlarging reverence for the sacredness and the indefensible rights of every human life, everywhere. May we wisely realize, that the way of selfishness is like a blind alley which gets narrower and darker the longer it is traveled. May we turn from all broken cisterns wherein there is no water, to Him who is the Living Water, and within the sanctuary of whose heart there is ever an adequate shelter for all baffled minds and burdened hearts. May we go on in the confident faith that He has a gracious purpose for our little lives, and that He will bring such purpose to a glorious fruition, if we will follow where He leads. Let us evermore dare to live for the supreme things of life, faithfully remembering that in the long last, nothing counts but character, integrity, love, sacrifice, service. If life's trail shall sometimes take us into the night, may we know that it is better to walk with Him in the dark than to walk alone in the light. Anchored to Him, may we go bravely on, triumphant in the faith that the trail of our mortal years runs out at the threshold of the House of Many Mansions. And when the trail dips down into the Valley of Shadows, may we fear no evil, because he shall company with us, our Redeemer, our Pilot, our Companion forever.

Let us Return Thanks.

BE BAPTISED

In reply to editorial last week on the subject of baptism our good friend Baker sends in this letter.

"Uncle Fred in his usual fine editorials last week had an article headed "Salvation Not Baptism," that is misleading inasmuch as he has it reversed to the way the Bible puts it. The Bible way is baptism then salvation. Mark 16:16 says he that believeth and is baptized shall be saved. Uncle Fred had that turned the wrong way. Note there is nothing said in that text of repentance but Uncle Fred will agree with me that repentance is essential. John 3:16 and many such texts of scripture says nothing of baptisms. John 14:21 says, "He that hath my commandments and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me."

All of his commandments are not in one text. So the Bible method, baptism then salvation. The editorial went on to say that baptism was for initiation into the church and not for salvation. No inspired writer ever gave any instructions on taking church membership. Separate from becoming a Christian the church of the Bible is a blood purchased church. Acts 20:28, so to be under the blood is to be in the church. I want to say the Bible is addressed to the living and not the dead. Many thousands of them that are dead and gone acted much wiser than we of today.

H. L. BAKER.

A LAY SERMON

Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion . . . a sure foundation. Is. 28:16.

Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock; and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock. Matt. 7:24-25.

Now what are these saying that one must hear and do to have his house on a rock, a sure foundation. Here are some of them:

Be not angry; Agree with thine adversary quickly, look not on a woman to lust after her, swear not at all, just answer yea and nay; that is, just tell the truth; resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also; love your enemies; bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you; be ye perfect; forgive men their trespasses; lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth; ye cannot serve God and mammon; take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; seek ye first the kingdom of God; judge not; first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; enter ye in at the strait gate; beware of false prophets; therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them.

Now Jesus said if ye hear these sayings and do them you will have your house on a sure foundation. But most of us say, "Yes, but you can't do these things; it is not practical; these things are ideal but not real." One day Jesus said, "Whom do ye say that I am?" Peter said, "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the Living God." Jesus began to tell them that he must suffer and be killed. Peter began to rebuke him and tell him this shall not be. One moment he was affirming that Jesus was the Christ, the son of the living God. The next he was telling Jesus that he did not know what he was talking about. That is about the way many of us do at this day and time. We make great professions of loyalty to him but when it comes to placing our lives by the side of his teachings we soon decide that Jesus did not know it all, that his teaching amounts to little and as it will not work we will do about as we please. Our main trouble is that we do not want to live according to his directions and just will not do it.

"Religion is not a system of doctrine, an observance of modes or a form of words; it is a frame and temper of mind; it shows itself in a life and in action conformable to the Divine will."—Jones.

One that has religion is unselfish and wants to do something for others, at a sacrifice, if a sacrifice is necessary. He wants to do right even if he is driven into doing wrong sometimes. A man without religion is selfish and does nothing save from the standpoint of, "What will it profit me." He wants to do wrong even if the force of circumstances force him to do right. The religious feel elated when the righteous prevail; the irreligious feel elated when evil prevails. A religious man does not take counsel from the ungodly, nor lend his influence to the wicked.

The government is issuing smaller bills, but bills from our grocer are just as big as they ever were.

"THANKS A MILLION" FOR MORE THAN A MILLION

America has bought 1,130,000 Chevrolets during the past twelve months, thereby giving Chevrolet the greatest year in its history and the greatest measure of buyer preference it has ever enjoyed.

The builders of Chevrolet are thankful for many things, but most of all for the warm friendship of the American people.

And so again at this Thanksgiving season we say, "Thank you, America," for you have given Chevrolet a measure of good-will without parallel in the annals of modern industry.

Consider, for a moment, all that you have done to inspire Chevrolet's appreciation during the past twelve months:

You have purchased 1,130,000 Chevrolets; you have made Chevrolet your favorite car for the seventh time in the past ten years; you have given Chevrolet strong preference in every section of the country; you have conferred this same high honor upon Chevrolet trucks by purchasing more than 205,000 commercial units; you have made 1936 the most successful year in all Chevrolet history.

And now, to climax these expressions of friendship, you are displaying even more marked preference for the new Chevrolet for 1937.

It is difficult to express adequate appreciation for gifts so great and so generous as these.

All we can say is, "Thanks a million" for more than a million cars in 1936; and all we can do is offer you the still finer Chevrolet of 1937 in return for the finest friendship ever bestowed upon any motor car manufacturer.

Refreshing Relief

When You Need a Laxative

Because of the refreshing relief it has brought them, thousands of men and women, who would afford almost more expensive laxatives, use Black-Draught when needed. It is very economical, purely vegetable, highly effective. . . Mr. J. Lester Robinson, well known hardware dealer at Martinsville, Va., writes: "I certainly can recommend Black-Draught as a pleasant medicine. I have taken it for constipation and the dull feeling that follows, and have found it very satisfactory."

[QUESTIONS THAT ARE ASKED ABOUT BANKING]

"Why do banks return overdrafts checks?"

To put the question another way, we are occasionally asked, "Why can't you hold up a check of mine for a few days until I can make a deposit to cover it?"

We are naturally anxious to accommodate customers whenever we can, but to hold up checks is not sound banking practice. If we cashed a check for a customer when he had insufficient funds to cover it we would, in effect, be giving him money that belonged to someone else. If we did this for him, other depositors of our bank would be entitled to the same consideration.

Banks are required to list all overdrafts checks on their books as overdrafts. Such overdrafts are discouraged by all banking authorities and banks which permit them are subject to censure by the bank examiners. Conscientious, fair service to all customers, is the basis of all bank rules.
