

CITY AUDITORIUM PROJECT GIVEN AXE DUE TO LAXITY REGISTERED BY WPA CHIEF

Little Hope Of Financial Aid In Sight Sadler Outlines; Bonds Not Be Utilized As Undertaking Is Junked

Proposal to build a city-county auditorium at Colorado went under the axe Monday after members of city commissioners' court and city council determined it would be useless to further prosecute the objective.

Ever changing policies of the government as affecting public improvements have carried the Mitchell county project into such a state of uncertainty that it would be unwise to even consider the matter further.

Sadler explained that the long gauntlet of red tape through which a project now has to pass practically eliminates any promise of aid in the end.

The city made no announcement as to disposition of the $12,000 bond issue authorized in an election February 26.

Under provisions affecting the filing of project applications now the sponsor must employ a competent engineer and have detailed plans and specifications, along with blueprints and construction cost estimates drafted for filing with State WPA office in San Antonio.

The building was planned as a county community center to contain large auditorium and compartments for use of the Boy Scouts, band, library, a museum, the county home demonstration agent and probably others.

INCREASING FATALITIES ON TEXAS HIGHWAYS CHARGED TO NEGLIGENCE OF PUBLIC

'It Is Up To You If All This Killing Is To Be Stopped,' Official Of State Patrol Tells Colorado Lions

The growing death toll being exacted by the drunk and reckless driver who gets under the steering wheel of a motor car and speeds along the highways of Texas offers the citizens of this State one of the most serious problems with which they must deal.

"Lets stop this killing," Vance appealed after detailing some of the gruesome experiences that have been his as a patrol officer.

Speeding and reckless operation of motor vehicles on the highways have become so commonplace that the average citizen reluctantly witnesses any of his loved ones leaving home in a car.

Every citizen in Colorado should accept that it is his duty to "take a drunken driver out of an automobile every time you see a person in such condition get under the steering wheel."

Thoughtlessness upon part of the driver many times jeopardizes the property and lives of others, the speaker continued.

The first car of wheat to be shipped out of Colorado to market left here Thursday and the second load is billed to be started over the Texas & Pacific Friday.

Both cars were produced in Hyman community and sold through John A. Thompson, local grain and feed broker. The first car to be shipped was grown on the W. E. Jackson place and the other is from the field of J. C. Davis.

The grain tested fine quality, weighing 62 pounds to the bushel, Thompson stated. He estimated that four or five cars of wheat would be shipped from Colorado during the season.

'These Texas Gals,' Sighs Andy-'Oh, Me'

When oil business brought Charles Correll flying to Texas, a welcoming Texanita of the Pan American Exposition prompted him to repeat the sigh that, as Andy, of Amos and Andy, has given on the radio networks many nights lately—"These Texas gals, Oh, me!" Victim of a "Texas gal" and her father in an oil promotion in the radio skit continuity, "Andy" gave out no details of reason for his hasty trip. He was greeted at Dallas airport by Eleanor Akers, pretty hostess of the international fair opening June 12, in Dallas.

Mrs. Dozier Hostess To Daughters Of King

Hostess to the Daughters of the King class of the Methodist church last Thursday evening was Mrs. Sallie Dozier, who entertained fifteen members at the home of Mrs. Q. D. Hall. Scripture was read by Mrs. J. G. Merritt and a prayer offered by Mrs. W. H. Garrett, who made special mention of the Van King family. Current events were given during the roll call. Mrs. A. D. Kiker read an article on the Christ picture in the Kiker funeral chapel.

Report from McCall Mission was made by Mrs. W. H. Garrett, who told of magazines donated by Mrs. E. C. Tunnell and of house and yard cleaning being carried on. Letters of sympathy were ordered sent to Mrs. J. A. Sadler, Mrs. Van King, and Mrs. D. N. Arnett.

Mrs. Roy Dozier was a guest at the social hour. Mrs. Tunnell will be the next hostess.

WILL ANTELOPE RETURN AGAIN, IS THE QUESTION

Will the pronghorned antelope return to this section of the Southwest again, is a mooted question going the rounds of some citizens who are watching with interest reports of the government giving details on development of the species in some of the Rocky Mountain states. Old timers at Colorado easily recall days when antelope were plentiful in all parts of the section.

Protection by State laws, control of killers—mostly hunters and coyotes—and establishment of Federal refuges, says the Bureau of Biological Survey, has saved the pronghorn. In the Nevada, Oregon and California antelope sections, it is estimated there are at least 10,000 pronghorns, compared with the dwindling 1,000 that existed there in 1921. Of this number, about 4,000 range in the Hart Mountain section of Oregon. Wyoming probably has the most antelope—about 15,000.

For several years pronghorns have faced serious food shortage as a result of subnormal rainfall and overgrazing of their range by livestock. To provide more adequate feeding grounds and protection for antelope, a 275,000-acre Federal refuge, and a near-by 539,000-acre Federal range, have been established in Southeastern Oregon and Northwestern Nevada. The new refuge in Oregon is to be known as the Hart Mountain Antelope Range, and the new range in Nevada as the Charles Sheldon Antelope Range. This new range adjoins and supplements the 34,280-acre Charles Sheldon Antelope Refuge established in Nevada six years ago. The Biological Survey will administer both the range and the refuge.

LUCKY FISHERMEN HOME FROM TRIP TO MEXICO

Road Killing

along the highway, but that one-half is not in the middle of the road," he explained. He gave instructions in signaling when about to stop, turn to the right or left and indicated that but few drivers understood and made use of this safety principle.

"You read in the paper every day where someone or a group of persons were killed in traffic crashes on our highways. Perhaps they are not known to you and their passing brings small concern, but just stop and consider if they were members of your family. The responsibility in checking highway killing on our public thoroughfares is yours and mine."

The speaker was introduced by Captain W. W. Legge of the Lubbock district who was here with other patrol officials to conduct safety lane Friday and Saturday. Other members of the party were W. E. Renfrow, Lubbock; W. E. Alder, Lubbock; Jack Reeves, Lubbock; Weldon Lawson, Lubbock; L. P. McCasland, Big Spring; J. C. Ferguson, Big Spring, and Tom Gidmore, Austin. Gidmore and Vance are special officers in charge of safety lane tests being conducted in various parts of the State.

Captain Legge suggested that now was fitting time to have such defects as were found in the family car repaired. "You men will be planning to take your family on annual vacation now that Summer is here and every precaution against accident on the road should be taken," he suggested. "Be careful on the road. It would be much better for your friends, after your trip is over, to greet you on the street with a slap in the back and congratulate you on a pleasant vacation trip than to march along the aisle and remark, 'well, he looks natural.'"

All of the visiting officials were guests of the Lions Club. McCasland was appointed as a special tail twister by President Whipkey and elicited considerable laughter as he judiciously went about the duties involved. He refused alibis when fining a Lion and impressed all offenders that he meant business in announcing that a fine had been imposed. The club's blind fund was helped considerably through his efforts. E. A. Nippold of Atlanta, Ga., and Julian Hammonds of Colorado were other guests.

That the people of Colorado were extending every cooperation to the officials was pointed out by both

Captain Legge and Mr. Vance. "It is like coming back home for me to be in Colorado," Legge stated. "I have worked with the public and the officers here several years and have at all times received their full cooperation." Vance praised Mitchell county car and truck operators for their courtesy in the safety lane. "So far not one citizen has objected to our stopping his machine and announcing the purpose of our presence on your streets," he concluded.

Mitchell 4-H Club Boys Cop Leading Role In Contests

First In Practically Every Feature Goes To Them At Annual Camp

Thirty-six Mitchell county 4-H club boys attending annual camp on the Cam Lawhorn ranch near Mertzon Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week captured first place awards in practically all contests arranged. Along with capturing distinct honors in the varied competitive events, the boys also registered largest delegation of any county represented and traveled the longest distance.

Accompanied by Ben J. Baskin, county farm agent, and H. Williams, bus driver, the delegation left here Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. They returned to Colorado late Saturday.

Seventy boys representing the local club units and those in Coke, Irion, Tom Green and Sterling counties were present for the three days. Included in the events were swimming, boxing and baseball, in which Mitchell county boys were superior. In the other events were range and dairy cattle judging, hog judging and other features about which projects of most of the boys are built.

Lawhorn and other ranchers in the Sherwood-Mertzon section extended every courtesy and cooperation in making the boys camp enjoyable and successful, Baskin stated. Barbecued goat furnished by Irion county ranchers, beans, pickles, bread, bacon, eggs and other good things to eat were served in abundance to the boys and their club leaders.

The chamber of commerce here advanced cash to defray expenses of sending Mitchell county club boys to the camp. In other counties commissioners' courts donated the necessary finances.

The thirty-six boys attending from this county were Lloyd Adams, Merlin and Wayland Bennett, Douglas and Lee Brown, Howard Bynum, M. D. Cheek, Jr., James Colebank, Cecil Collier, Jerald Compton, T. W. Daugherty, Jr., Douglas Duffer, Lowell Duke, Garland Emfinger, Kenneth Ezell, Bill Glass, Billie Joe Hale, B. L. Hall, Jr., Darrell Hammons, James Hart, Johnnie Hines, Charles Holman, Wayne Holt, B. B. Mills, Jr., James John, and Thomas Nunn, Chester Reynolds, Russell Saunders, R. B. Sweatt, Raymond Uzzell, J. W. Vanzant, Clem and Dillard Yarbrough, L. A. Strain, Jr., and Wallace Hestand.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Ed Richardson had as guests Wednesday night Mrs. Richardson's brother and family from Gatesville.

FATE OF TEXAS JACKS, STALLIONS UNCERTAIN

The fate of $100,000 worth of state-owned jacks and stallions, used since 1933 to improve the breed of Texas stock, hangs in the balance today.

When repeal of certificate wagering on horse races becomes effective in September the State's "take" on track operations will end, bringing with it cessation of revenue for purchase and maintenance of stud animals. About $100,000 annually has been derived for this purpose.

Scattered in 200 counties, the 258 jacks and stallions, with an average value of $400, must be disposed of in some way. The same Legislature which recently repealed race track gambling is considering proposals to sell the studs to counties or private interests or maintain them jointly with the governmental subdivisions.

Stockmen generally have expressed a desire for continuation of the experiment which they say has bettered the quality of horses and mules in Texas.

The State Department of Agriculture, which administers the fund, searched far and wide for choice stock when the plan was instituted. From Missouri and Tennessee came finest jacks available, among them General Linden, three times grand champion jack from Tennessee. He cost $1,100, and the department refused an offer of $2,500 six months after he was purchased.

The fertile farms lands of Kansas and Iowa yielded dray stallions. Saddle stallions were purchased mostly in Texas.

Serviced to farmers and ranchmen at nominal fees under the direction of state-appointed caretakers, the stud animals were in constant demand. Last year breedings totaled 8,000 and the value of colts produced was between $275,000 and $300,000.

One effect of the plan, officials said, was to cause farmers to purchase good brood mares, replacing those whose average age was 12 years and too old for propagation of good stock. In many instances chambers of commerce purchased the brood animals.

Agriculture Department officials say the plan is still in its early stages and should be continued.

Indian Lore, Life And Dance To Be On Club Program

Charles Eagle Plume, Gifted Interpreter, To Attend Meeting Friday Noon

Charles Eagle Plume, ambassador of good will for the Fort Worth Frontier Fiesta, and interpreter of Indian lore, life and culture, will present a program, "The Indian as an Artist," in Colorado at the Lions Club at Colorado Hotel on June 18th at 11:45.

The program is to be a varied one. Accompanying himself in minor tones, Eagle Plume dances the humming bird and eagle steps of the Plains Indians, and explains tragic differences between the thought of early American governments and of the Indians.

With the bells of his long feather headdress tinkling in complementary cords, he will dance the ghost dance of the southwestern Indians, in which they trample underfoot the ghosts of their hates.

As a forerunner of the new and larger Fort Worth Frontier Fiesta of 1937, opening June 26, Eagle Plume will give an oral preview of Billy Rose's new and mammoth entertainment features which are being produced to make Fort Worth and Texas the amusement center of America, from June to October.

Standard Oil Club Maintains Lead In Softball Marathon

Col-Tex Wins Over Gulf For Second Place; Shell Is Out Of The Cellar

The Standard Oilers who last week were sitting on top in the Lions Club softball league, have maintained that coveted position as another week of play has passed. They have their first contest to lose out of four games played.

Shell is seeing better days just now, the scoreboard at Cantrill Field indicates. Last week, due to rain and probably other hindering causes, this aggregation was perched along side of Little Sulphur in the cellar with a zero batting record. Today the pipeline crew is rating a .333 per cent after defeating their bed fellows Thursday night.

The tie between Gulf and Col-Tex for second place has been broken with the refinery boys ahead with .667. Young Business Men stepped ahead during the week to occupy third rung in the league standing and Little Sulphur remains where it started—in the zero column.

Interest continues good in the games as first half of the series nears an end. Final contest in the first half is to be played Thursday night of next week between Col-Tex and Young Business Men. Play-off to determine winners of this series is to open June 28.

RANDOM SHOTS

Shell Oilers managed to get started last Thursday night by winning over the Sulphur Farmers in weather that was suited to football playing. The fans shivered while the players alternated between hot and cold.

The Sunbeam Grocery team from Sweetwater came over to play what the Y. B. M. called a practice game. Y. B. M. practiced their pitchers to and from the sidelines. Sunbeam won handily.

The hard-working umpires were given well-deserved recognition Monday night when the J. C. Penney company store of Colorado presented them with bright green and orange caps.

Thompson of Standard Oil seems to be the class of the pitchers at the present time. Four victories and no defeats look pretty good from this corner.

When Willbanks, pitcher for Col-Tex, decides to slip a fast one by the batter he should inform Red Black. It appears that Red was gazing at the grandstand when the ball bounced off his chest and rolled around the infield as it did in the game with Shell Monday night.

Joe Cooper was the hero in the free scoring game between Y. B. M. and Shell Tuesday night. He hit the longest ball of the season to date down the left field foul line with the tying run on third and scored the winning run by circling the bases for a homerun.

Col-Tex is the only team with a mathematical chance of tying Standard Oil for first half leadership and they will need the cooperation of the Shell Oilers. Shell has the only remaining scheduled game with Standard Monday night. Should Shell win Standard and Col-Tex win over Little Sulphur Thursday night of this week and over Y. B. M. Thursday night of next week each team would end the half with four games won and one lost for a percentage of .500. All the other teams have already lost as many as two games.

Renny London, ex-West Texas leaver is playing a bang-up game at shortstop for Standard Oil.

Warning to all teams: A player leaving a game cannot re-enter that

GRASSHOPPER INVASIONS FEARED BY A-M CHIEFS

Entomologists at Texas A. & M. College predict grasshopper infestation this summer in Texas farm fields will be worse than expected and may equal the terrible plague of 1924.

A State grasshopper committee, with R. R. Repper, Extension Service entomologist as head, has been formed to combat the pest. Repper has received discouraging reports from county agents and has asked the committee to request the Government to give 150 carloads of poison mash for control purposes. Congress recently set aside $1,000,000 for grasshopper control.

Texas farmers were saved more than $7,000,000 thirteen years ago by a poisoning campaign.

The Federal material for the mash, which is composed of bran or mill run feed and sawdust, an arsenic compound, and water, would be delivered in infested centers and distributed under supervision of county agents.

Reports to Repper show that the worst centers are Northwest and Central Texas. He is making a tour to examine eggs not yet hatched and to investigate conditions of the State.

RURAL ELECTRIFICATION IN TEXAS GIVEN BOOST

The Texas grasshopper control committee has been advised that the State has been allotted 250 tons of mill run feed, 750 tons of sawdust and 10,000 gallons of sodium arsenite from Federal sources, R. R. Repper, extension entomologist and state leader in the grasshopper control work has announced.

When any cooperative organized under the act borrows money from any Federal agency, obligations issued to secure payment of such money will be exempt from the provisions of the Texas securities act. Existing cooperatives may take advantage of the act. Membership is open to all persons in rural areas and in towns of under 1,500 population who are not now receiving central station service.

ATTENDANCE RECORD GOES HIGHER AS SECOND SERIES IN PARK ATTRACTION HELD

'Standing Room Only' Said Of Amateur Offering On Friday Night; Hundreds At Church Rites Sunday

Registering growing appreciation of the open air attractions at Ruddick Turk, hundreds of Mitchell countians attended the second weekly amateur hour program Friday evening and the religious services Sunday evening.

R. H. Barber, director of the attractions, told this newspaper Monday afternoon that standing room was in demand Friday night as one of the largest aggregations of citizens seen at the park in months converged to overflow the amphitheatre seating capacity. Sunday evening another record crowd was present to attend religious services.

Round after round of spirited applause Friday night indicated that the entertainment features offered were entirely pleasing to the hundreds present. Barber again stressed his ambition to make the programs outstanding in quality and reiterated previous invitation that the public continue its support, with special reference to the importance of aiding him in contacting artists to appear on the program.

The Rev. Sam H. Young of Sweetwater, presiding elder of the Sweetwater district, M. E. Church, South, delivered sermon address Sunday evening as four of Colorado's congregations united in the second of co-operative religious services for the summer.

Barber stated that another good program would be on amateur hour bill for Friday night of this week. The worship service Sunday evening is to be conducted under direction of Rev. W. M. Elliott, pastor, delivering the sermon address.

Best Wheat Crop In History Brings Smiles To Hyman

Harvest Started There With Good Yields and Good Prices In Prospect

Harvesting of the best wheat crop in history of the community is bringing smiles to farmers of Hyman section and will in a few days be the source of profitable income to residents of that important Mitchell county settlement.

A new combine, purchased and being operated by Bob Scott, is taking the golden grain from the fields and preparing the commodity for market. Several days will be required in which to conclude the harvest.

Soil conditions in Hyman section are especially adapted to small grain production. Due to cooperation by the Federal government last Fall in advancing loans to purchase seed wheat a large acreage was devoted to the crop. Rains of the past few weeks have advanced the crop materially.

No arrests in connection with the alleged theft was announced, neither was identity of owner of the animals indicated.

THIRTY ONE PER CENT CARS PASSING SAFETY LANE GET DEFECTIVE TAG BY PATROL

Total Of 1,506 Given Test By Officials Friday and Saturday; 467 Found In Need Of Repairs

Thirty-one per cent of the cars and trucks passing through safety lane of the State department of public safety here Friday and Saturday were found defective, Hammett Vance of Austin, in charge of the tests, stated Saturday at noon just before leaving for Wichita Falls.

The lane, one of the last to be conducted in the Lubbock district of which Captain W. W. Leuge is chief, opened Friday morning. A total of 1,052 cars and trucks were run through the lane during that day, with 322 receiving official pink labels indicating that control appliances or lights were in need of repairs. Owners of 156 of the defective machines followed suggestions of the officials and had the defects fixed and later came through the lane again, this time to receive the blue label, carrying official OK of the department that the driver was complying with all rules of the road in so far as safety appliances on his car were to be reckoned.

During the Friday test there were a total of 187 brakes found in defective condition, mufflers on ten were out of order and 164 of the number were equipped with defective horns. Loose steering connection was found on two of the machines and windshield wipers on 85 were not working. Four hundred and fifty-four machines were tested Saturday morning between the hours of 9 and 12 o'clock.

Seventy-one of the cars and trucks previously indicated as in need of repairs Saturday morning were later driven through the lane a second time after the defects had been put into order and these machines had the pink tag supplemented for one of blue. Ninety-seven bad brakes were detected Saturday morning, 63 had bad lights, 22 either had no horn at all or the signaling equipment badly in need of repairs or replacement. Only one loose steering connection was found. There were 52 windshield wipers out of order.

Patrol officers closed the test Saturday at noon and most of them left for their respective homes. They expressed keen satisfaction in cooperation given them by owners of cars and trucks and the general public. "I cannot recall the instance in which one person became unpleasant in his dealing with us," Vance stated.

The men came to Colorado early Friday morning from Big Spring where Wednesday and Thursday before a safety lane had been conducted. Monday and Tuesday they were working in Plainview, in Littlefield Wednesday and Thursday, and Friday they were to have conducted tests in Lubbock. The Lubbock safety lane is to be the last one in the district this season.

A supply of the blue tags, denoting that owner of the machine has met conditions to have his car or truck classed in the safety list, were left with Constable Jack DeLaney. DeLaney stated Saturday afternoon that persons having the pink labels on their cars may exchange for the blue ones after needed repairs or replacements as indicated on the sticker have been acquired.

City Contracts For Delivery New Fire Fighting Apparatus

International Chassis With American LaFrance Built Equipment Specified

A new, modernly equipped fire truck has been purchased by the city and is to be delivered early in September, it was stated at the city hall Wednesday morning. The job will cost approximately $4,500.

The city council contracted for an International D-40 truck to be equipped with American LaFrance equipment. The chassis will be taken direct from the International factory where the job is to be assembled.

The equipment will assure Colorado adequate fire protection under unusual conditions and serve to place the city in better standing with the State Fire Insurance commission. Contract to purchase the equipment was authorized at meeting of the council Tuesday night.

Sadler and members of the council continued in executive session Monday night until after 12 o'clock, hearing proposals from representatives of five Texas dealer concerns. Sleggy-eyed and tired the mayor suggested to the council that they return to their chamber Tuesday night for further consideration of the purchase proposition.

Doc Wimberley and Pay Richardson, Colorado distributors for Dodge Bros. chassis, were the first to be heard. Their proposal was to sell the city a Dodge truck and have the fire fighting equipment installed at the factory.

Next came R. P. Price of Price Bros., resident dealers for International trucks; F. K. Keetman, assistant manager of the Sweetwater branch, and F. R. Johnson, field representative for the Sweetwater house, with proposal to sell the city an International chassis with such equipment as the council's specifications might indicate.

A. H. Busby, representing Dallas branch of the American LaFrance Company, was next to be heard. Busby offered proposal to sell the city its new fire fighting equipment on commercial truck chassis or an American LaFrance job complete.

C. H. Frossier of Dallas, representative of General equipment, and R. S. Anderson, also of Dallas and representing Boyer and Hale fire equipment agencies, met with the council in the order named.

Law Violations In County In Vanishing Role, Suggests Report Filed With Court Monday Afternoon

The grand jury empaneled Monday morning, May 31, by Judge A. S. Mauzey of 32nd district court, offered its final report to the court Monday afternoon and was dismissed after indicating the voting of seven felony bills of indictment.

Actual hours spent in deliberation by the twelve men is believed to have set a new record for briefness here, especially during the past several years. Court attaches estimate that the jury was not in session over 10 hours during the term.

The jury was recessed May 31 a few hours after taking up their work and reporting the finding of one bill of indictment. The body reconvened Monday morning of this week, deliberated for a brief time and recessed until 3 that afternoon when all matters on their calendar were cleared. Six additional felonies were voted during Monday.

In the indictment voted May 31, Roy Lambert of Nolan county was named defendant in a cow stealing charge. He is alleged to have taken the animal from a Loraine farmer.

Five of the indictments returned Monday were based on alleged recent check forgeries on Colorado produce dealers. T. C. Hollender of Colorado is one of the men charged. He is accused of having raised amounts in two checks received in payment for produce and abetted in alteration of a third.

Six criminal cases, for the most part representing bills of indictment previously reported by the grand jury, were called and disposed of during session of the court Wednesday morning. Defendants in all of the causes entered pleas of guilty.

A. T. Watson was sentenced to two years in prison for burglary of the A. V. Hale residence in Colorado. Roy Lambert received a like sentence as punishment for theft of John Seaver's cow.

Hollender, after admitting his guilt to three forgery charges, received two year penitentiary sentences under each offense. Benito Martinez, Mexican, was meted a six months suspended sentence for driving a motor car while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

SEVERAL THOUSAND WILL ATTEND SONG GATHERING ASS'N OFFICIALS STATE

BROWNFIELD, Texas.—A crowd of from 6,000 to 10,000 people are expected here Saturday and Sunday, June 19-20, when the Panhandle-Plains Singing Convention stages their fifth annual convention. This is said to be the largest regional singing convention in Texas, and probably anywhere else. It embraces the area of the entire Texas Panhandle and south Plains to the T. & P. Railroad, and includes 18 Texas counties.

Preparations are now under way to care for this huge multitude, especially those from a distance. The business and professional men, as well as the public in general are responding liberally in cash donations as well as in other ways, to provide for the thousands of visitors. Around 8,600 attended the convention at Lamesa two years ago.

Committees of every description, under the direction of Clyde Lewis, who is the Vice-President of the convention, is working with clock like precision, that there may be nothing lacking toward entertaining the visitors.

Individual singers of wide reputation, as well as trios, quartets, etc., are expected from far and near, among which will be the Stamps aggregation from Dallas, as well as many others almost equally as well known.

Colorado To Have Delegates At Annual Convention To Open July 20th

CHICAGO.—Ten thousand Lions and guests will assemble in Chicago for the annual international convention July 20-23, according to estimates of association officials, based on the large advance registration. Registrations already total nearly 3,000, and three of the city's largest hotels have been reserved to accommodate the conventionists.

Following an unusually successful year members of Lions Clubs on the American continents and in China are planning to attend in large numbers, traveling by special trains, boats and automobile caravans.

A special Lions convention train will originate in nearly every part of the United States.

New England Lions will travel on an All-Lions Special leaving Boston July 18, it has been announced by Daniel Y. Rose, Providence, Rhode Island, chairman of the New England convention committee.

New York will arrive in Chicago over the New York Central, leaving New York Sunday, July 18, headed by George T. Elder of Eltingville, S. I., New York, state district governor.

Texas Lions will travel on their special over the MKT, picking up other state delegations en route to Chicago. Burris C. Jackson of Hillsboro, Texas, is in charge of these arrangements.

West Coast Lions, always a strong delegation at these conventions, have arranged a Fourth District (California and Nevada) special over Southern Pacific lines, and the northwest states and western Canada have named the Chicago and Northwestern railroad as their official route, with W. L. Mansfield, St. Paul, Minnesota, in charge.

Among the automobile caravans that will converge on the midwest metropolis for the Lions convention will be a fifty-car cavalcade from Florida, every machine painted in the royal Lions colors of purple and gold.

A four-day program including a major league ball game, moonlight lake cruise, city tours, juvenile band contests, and a full two-hour mid-summer ice carnival has been arranged by Chicago Lions, in addition to the regular business sessions.

SCOUTS TO EXPLORE UNDER OWN EXPERT
Boy Scouts of Worcester, Mass., are embarking on an experimental exploration program this summer that would satisfy most boys' craving for adventure.

The program will be led by its originator, Paul Siple, who was chosen in 1928 from the Boy Scouts of the entire nation to accompany the first Byrd Antarctic expedition. Mr. Siple was in charge of biological work of the Second Byrd Antarctic Expedition and leader of its Marie Byrd Land Exploring Party.

Using Treasure Valley, the Worcester Scout camp at Paxton, Mass., as their base, Scouts will try to solve definite problems of geography, geology, botany and other sciences that have to do with man and his environment. Older Scouts will maintain communications, be map makers, while others will stay-at-home workers furnishing the necessities of exploitation—food and shelter—to the field workers.

As Mr. Siple envisages the new adventure program: "Imagine the value of having a million trained Scouts and Scouters all over the entire nation who could on short notice, supply the basic statistics for any survey of natural phenomena. Suppose we wanted to know the approximate number of hardwood trees of more than a foot in diameter which exist in the nation. Who better than our Scouts could be trained to gather this information in comparatively short time. But the purpose would not be to stand by to help in such matters—rather it would be "to be prepared" by having recorded such information continuously over periods of years. Every Scout and Scouter would be an important part of one of the greatest scientific quests for knowledge."

Mr. Siple believes there are many exploration opportunities virtually in every boy's "backyard." The program will be carried out on scientific lines just as though an expedition was leaving for work in a remote area. The National Office of the Boy Scouts of America has approved the program as an experiment and is watching it for possible adaptation in its program for older Scouts.

GROWTH OF COTTON IS SPEEDED UP BY RAINS; SOME FIELDS INFESTED

Growth of cotton responded favorably to recent heavy rains which practically drenched the Texas Cotton Belt, caused spotted damage from erosion and will encourage spread of weevils, flea hoppers and leafworms, the latter reported from Nueces county, the summary of The Dallas News for the week ended Friday indicates. Two extremely dry months have given way to excessive humidity which suddenly changes the picture.

The Texas cotton crop lacks uniformity this season. Considerable late planted cotton has failed to germinate and it is now too late to plant safely in the face of highly favorable insect weather. In spite of that, however, thousands of acres are now being replanted to cotton since the rains in Central and North Texas.

North, Northeast and East Texas report about 75 per cent chopped out, with stands fair to good, 15 to 20 per cent squaring and just beginning to bloom. Central counties report 50 per cent chopped out, 20 per cent squaring and blooming somewhat later than normal. South Texas cotton is all chopped to average stands, but squaring and blooming are very irregular, due to heavy flea-hopper damage in much of the lower Gulf Coast and in the Rio Grande Valley, where farmers are using both sulphur and calcium arsenate to fight pests.

ATTEND EXPOSITION
Mrs. E. A. Durham of the Modern Beauty Shop left Saturday for Dallas to spend a few days. She took her daughter, Dorothy, to Dr. Carroll's hospital for treatment and also planned to visit the Texas Pan-American exposition. The two made the trip with Mrs. Durham's sister, Mrs. A. Mclear of Pharr, Texas. Another sister, Mrs. S. A. LaRue, visited in the homes of Mrs. Durham and Mrs. L. E. Jordan the latter part of last week.

Reduced Tire Cost Brings Patrons To Store, Dealer Says

New Goodyear Casing Will Assure Safety On The Road, Thomas States

Amplified last week was the fact that Colorado motorists appreciate the courageous action of the world's largest rubber company in its effort to combat steadily increasing prices on consumer goods, according to Luke Thomas, local dealer for the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company.

"Goodyear several months ago accepted the challenge of rising prices by directing its development engineers to produce a tire that would provide the motorists with top quality at a price he is accustomed to pay," Mr. Thomas continued. "The result was the sensational new Goodyear R-1, made available to car owners a week ago."

"The R-1 was an immediate success, as any quality product that fills a definite need is bound to be. And with summer, the heavy driving season, at hand, the R-1 filled a very definite need for many local car owners in every section of the United States, according to information I have received from Goodyear's home office in Akron, Ohio."

"With vacation and holiday trips in the offing, safety should be uppermost in the mind of every car owner—and old, worn, smooth tires certainly do not come under the heading of safe equipment. The burning heat of summer highways is bad medicine for tires worn thin by thousands of miles of travel. Motorists realize that thin tires are susceptible to blow-outs and that smooth tires offer no protection against dangerous skids."

"The R-1 enables car owners to equip their automobiles with tires having top quality construction features formerly found only in higher priced casings. Important among its stand-out advantages are wider, flatter tread, 12 per cent more rubber in the tread, higher shoulders, center traction, Supertwist Cord carcass construction and handsome, streamlined sidewalls for smart, modern appearance. These features mean just one thing: quality.

"Goodyear's answer to rising prices is being received with enthusiasm."

Strength During MIDDLE LIFE
Strength is extra-important for women going through the change of life. Then the body needs the very best nourishment to fortify it against the changes that are taking place. In such cases, Cardul has proved helpful to many women. It increases the appetite and aids digestion, favoring more complete transformation of food into living tissue, resulting in improved nutrition and building up and strengthening of the whole system.

Grain Crop Valued At $4,000,000 In 12 Area Counties

Harvest Is Going Night and Day In Scores Of The Favored Communities

Farmers and ranchers in 12 counties in this section of West Texas are harvesting a small grain crop estimated to be worth $4,000,000 to them in immediate cash returns. In scores of communities combines and other harvesting machinery is being operated day and night.

Mitchell county has 20,000 acres of wheat, conservatively expected to produce 200,000 bushels. Much of the crop has been harvested and sold. There are 8,000 acres of oats in this county that should yield 150,000 bushels. Many farmers planted last Fall for Winter pasture, saw prospects for a good cash crop and allowed the grain to mature rather than plow under.

Other counties in this section in which an unusually large acreage was devoted to wheat and oats are Taylor, Coleman, Runnels, Callahan, Shackelford, Jones, Haskell, Stone-wall, Fisher, Scurry and Nolan.

IT IS GOOD BUSINESS TO SPEND WITH COLORADO MERCHANTS

Commodity prices are now on an upward trend—a sure sign of more prosperous conditions. It is obviously good business to buy now in anticipation of future requirements if possible, and it is a matter of self preservation to spend what you do spend with Colorado stores.

Too many of us realize that Colorado stores buy in the same markets with the very stores in other cities that we are tempted to patronize. We do not stop to recognize and analyze the universal human tendency we have to think that the fields are greener elsewhere.

Our retail establishments have worked for years to make us proud of Colorado stores. Their stocks are adequate, their prices equitable. When we think carefully instead of obeying our impulses we realize these things. And it is important that we do think, for our continued success and prosperity hinge thereon.

As we have said before, twenty five per cent of our people depend on Colorado stores for a livelihood. They have an annual payroll that runs into tens of thousands of dollars and they spend huge sums locally in other ways. If they sometimes fail to have what we want, they will gladly get it for us—and from the same source patronized by the merchant from whom we are tempted to buy in some other city. On a thousand other occasions they will have what we want, when we want it.

Let us, then, patronize Colorado stores. They are not only more efficient than we may have realized, but more essential. Quality and price being equal Colorado stores afford a wonderful opportunity to keep Colorado money in Colorado. Money spent elsewhere doesn't help that twenty five per cent of our people who depend on Colorado stores for their daily bread, doesn't build any schools, pave any streets or accomplish any other civic improvements.

Pay your bills promptly! A good credit record is your greatest asset—Guard It.

SUPT. WATSON AND HIS ENGLISH CLASS

What is the longest word in the English language? That is a hard question to answer, as writers have from time to time coined words of extraordinary length which have never gotten into general use. The longest in Webster's International Dictionary is honorificabilitudinitatibus, defined as "honorableness," a pedantic nonsense word, used by Shakespeare in "Love's Labor Lost," and containing twenty-seven letters. But in chemical treatises may be found even longer words more wonderfully compounded than the chemical products which they describe. For example, tetrahydroparamethyloxquinoline, with thirty-one letters; also paraoxymetamethoxyallylbenzene of thirty letters, and others. English must yield the palm to some foreign languages, however, when long words are considered. In German, schutzengrabenerziehungsmotiv, of thirty-five letters is as formidable as the war engine it describes. In English this machine is commonly designated by the four-letter word "tank," a saving of thirty-one letters going to the credit of our mother tongue. Longest of all so far discovered is a Greek word of 181 letters which appropriately enough is the name of a dish, containing many ingredients. We call it simply "hash."

The word tank seems to be slang. The word used by the Germans may be the proper form. All of us who stand by the classics abhor short cuts in speech, and a word of thirty-five letters is more proper to be employed. A tank is something to put water in, not to put guns and soldiers in. A tank may be of wood or of earth, but one of those thirty-five letter things is made of hard steel and lined with iron. The tank as employed in warfare is trained to overcome all obstacles. It runs over trees, cows, ditches and sometimes other tanks. With both sides using tanks neither side gains much. This is the way modern war inventions go. Both sides have the same equipment, when well matched, so the women and children who are poorly equipped, are utilized for targets.

Hydroxyethylapocrepine is the name of the new form of quinine which is said to be a cure for pneumonia. They say no pneumonia germ can live when this medicine is administered. Can you spell and pronounce Hydroxyethylapocrepine? Try dividing it into syllables: Hy-drox-y-e-thyl-a-poe-u-preine! Accent on "droxy" ethyl-poe. But the word is too long for anybody to pronounce except a doctor. When the new medicine comes into general use, folks are likely to call it "hy" for short.

"Since you are the custodian of pure English, please tell us why some women school teachers insist upon using the phrase 'old adage' when there is no such word?" As a rule it is wise to avoid all controversies with women teachers on questions of syntax, orthography and the parts of speech. The term "old adage" may be redundant but it isn't error. An adage is a maxim, proverb, apothegm or maybe an axiom handed down from a prior generation. Its name indicates age, but ages are comparative, therefore there may be old adages and young adages. Most of us have a weakness for adjectives and like to attach one to most of our nouns. Sometimes, when we are worked up a bit, we go in for redundant, tautological and compound adjectives. We have the idea that they make our affirmations more positive. Usually they do not. Mostly they spoil our argument, for readers or listeners get more interested in the luridity of our remarks than in our logic. Let us take a lesson from the Bible. It spares the adjective, builds the meaning.

Prof. Watson says he wishes it to be understood that he had nothing to do with the above as the whole thing is a fabrication by the columnist.

WHY

So few people understand anything about financing the government that we would like to ask and have answered the following questions:

Why does Administrator Harry Hopkins ask the Appropriation Committee of Congress to tax the American people $1,250,000,000 (billion) more for this fiscal year's Government relief work, and at the same time our Government has twelve dollars' worth of gold lying idle in vaults?

Why does our Government pay millions of dollars to American farmers not to raise corn, and then at the same time millions of bushels of corn are shipped here from South America and sold right in the heart of our Corn Belt?

Why does our Government collect hundreds of millions of dollars in taxes, and then pay it to our wheat farmers not to raise wheat, and then allow millions of bushels of wheat to be shipped from foreign countries into our Nation?

Why does our Government pay our farmers for killing and destroying the hogs, and then at the same time foreign packing companies, in foreign lands, using foreign workers, stock our American grocery and meat shops with foreign cured hams?

Why does our Government give millions of the taxpayers' dollars to commercial sugar companies not to produce sugar in this country, and at the same time import sugar every week from foreign ports?

All this produces labor, money and employment for foreign countries and results in the tying up of money, the spread of idleness and the accentuating of want and need on the part of the citizens of our own country. What is the hand behind all this?

Why add another billion and a half to the already thirty-five billion-dollar national indebtedness, to be paid by the taxpayers, when Congress might enact a law that would release our own vaulted wealth (the largest amount of any Nation on earth) and start our own factories operating, feed our own underfed millions and put our own 10,000,000 idle workers to work? If Congress does not enact such a law, what can it expect from the American workers, who have already had their properties and souls taxed to the limit, but revolution? Does Congress want revolution in this country, the destruction of democracy and the establishment of a dictatorship, with all its attendant evils? Then in the midst of this Nation-wide economic turmoil, unsettled political state and constant labor upheavals, portended from center to circumference with Old World political, moral and economic ideals, it will not be hard to get. Just a little more coasting and we'll be there.

THE WORLD IS NOT SO LARGE AND LIFE IS LIKE THIS:

My Dear Uncle Fred:
Complying with your request to furnish you with a little something for your column, I submit the following to prove the above captioned.

In the memories of long ago I had two boy friends in the heart of the Blue Grass region, one was a schoolmate of mine, finished in law from the same school the next year after I did, returned to his home town, Paris and is practicing his profession there today; the other filled with the spirit of his native land followed the King of Churchill Downs for his career—yes, he became a turfman—for many years I kept in touch with him and with joy and pleasure watched him in his career as he leaped from easy success unto victory until he had reached the very pinnacle of his calling, yes at one time, in the play world, an associate with the Prince of Wales—afterwards the Crown Head of the greatest kingdom on earth—King George V.

For many years I lost track of my friend and never knew what became of him. There came another period in my life. It was when I was assisting a noble and great friend, "the grand old man of West Texas for the good of the country" to disprove the unwarranted idea of the oil fraternity that "West Texas was the oil man's graveyard," and instead prove to the greatest industry that petroleum could be produced in commercial quantities from the great basin of the once Permian Sea that I met a rugged character from the mountains of Nevada. As our acquaintance grew he learned that I was a Kentuckian. One hot summer afternoon while seated on the South side of the Baxerott Hotel watching the fireflies as they began to light their candles around in the dim shadows of the approaching twilight my friend from Nevada came up to where I was seated and handed me the following paper.

The abundant life does not come to those who have all obstacles removed from their paths by others. It develops from within and is rooted in strong mental and moral fiber.

He who rebels against existing evils must make up his mind to arduous toil, to ridicule, to misconception and to hatred. It tests the courage of young men to throw the gauntlet bravely in the face of existing abuses and to say, "This thing is wrong and I will combat it."

There is not among our laws or in our constitution a single principle which we cherish, and to which we owe our civil liberties, that did not cost some brave woman her tears and some brave man his blood. The very principle that the individual citizen should have some hand in making the laws and in shaping his government cost the life of Angermon Sidney, one hundred years before Thomas Jefferson wrote it down amid the plaudits of all intelligent Americans.

THE LAYMAN

By Edgar A. Guest

Leave it to the ministers, and soon the church will die,
Leave it to the women-folk—the young will pass it by.
For the church is all that lifts us from the coarse and selfish mob,
And the church that is to prosper needs the layman on the job.

Now a layman has his business and a layman has his joys,
But he also has the training of his little girls and boys,
And I wonder how he'd like it if there were no churches here,
And he had to raise his children in a Godless atmosphere?

It's the church's special function to uphold the finer things,
To teach that way of living from which all that's noble springs;
But the minister can't do it, single-handed and alone,
For the laymen of the country are the church's cornerstone.

When you see a church that's empty, though its doors are opened wide,
It is not the church that's dying. It's the laymen who have died;
For it's not by song or sermon that the church's work is done,
It's the laymen of the country who for God must carry on.

—Michigan Christian Advocate.

The Usefulness of Bank Loans

—goes further than merely helping the borrower who obtains the loans.

BANK loans provide business enterprises with immediate cash for payrolls. They make possible the purchase of raw materials to keep manufacturing activities going. They enable merchants to buy goods to serve the public and thereby earn deserved profits. They help the farmer to finance his crops and livestock during the growing season and to make wise purchases of needed material and equipment.

Because these credit functions are necessary not only to profitable operation for business but also to the comfort, welfare and health of all the people, the banker deems it a part of his professional obligation to grant sound loans to qualified borrowers.

PICKED UP ALONG THE NEWS PATH

If you saw a slender, cultured looking woman with prematurely gray hair and two handsome sons resembling the O'Brien twins—only they weren't—twins—on Colorado streets early this week, you were probably seeing Mrs. Mauritz Olson of Louisville, Kentucky, wife of the man who died at Candler courts Saturday night. . . . Coloradans who were associated with Mrs. Olson during her tragic stay here found her to be a refined, educated person, profoundly shocked and grief-stricken over her husband's death. . . . She substituted as a teacher in the schools of a town of 15,000 across the Ohio from Louisville, Kentucky, all last winter. . . . The Olson home was under water for three weeks during the Ohio flood. . . . You'll read elsewhere in The Record that exposure and long work hours experienced by Mr. Olson during the flood were credited with hastening if not actually bring about his death. . . .

Tragedy such as that which struck the Olsons is hard enough to bear when one is surrounded by friends and loved ones. . . . One can only imagine how awful the bearing must be when one is a stranger in a strange land, with not a friend or relative near. . . . Ironic fate saw it that Mrs. Olson's brother, the only relative who could have come to her, was out of reach, being somewhere east of his California home en route to Chicago. . . .

Incidentally, an orchid to one of my already favorite people, Pink Wade Hodde, for the way she "adopted" the Olsons and took their sorrow right to her own heart. . . . And I write the foregoing sentence in the full knowledge that Pink will beat my ears down next time she sees me for doing it. . . . While passing out the orchids I mustn't overlook Lawrence Candler and all the others who did their best to keep Colorado from being a cold and unfriendly place as well as a strange one to the Olsons. . . .

After the above paragraphs were written a family of Mrs. Olson's relatives did arrive, but too late for the funeral. . . . A cousin living in Wichita Falls read a news story about Mr. Olson's death and hurried here. . . . Mrs. Olson and the boys returned with them, planning to go on to Jeffersonville, Indiana, later. . . .

It's a shame that Mitchell county 4-H club boys and club boys from three other counties didn't have anything to eat during their encampment near Mertzon last Friday and Saturday. . . . On Saturday morning for breakfast all the 70 boys had to eat was 23 dozen eggs, a side of bacon, 33 loaves of bread, two gallons of syrup, and a washtub full of coffee. . . . Thirty-six of the seventy were Mitchell county boys, so it appears that there's nothing wrong with Mitchell county appetites. . . .

Kindergarten pupils of Mrs. Bill Coffey did a rather cute thing with the money their Rhythm band won at week before last's amateur hour in Raddick Park. . . . Mrs. Coffey had divided the prize money equally among the children, each child receiving his allotment of shiny nickles. . . . The children conspired behind her back, put the money back together again, and bought teacher a nice piece of lingerie and two linen handkerchiefs. . . .

Curses! I didn't get to predict Frances Beal's approaching marriage last week because I learned about it after this column was all "made up" and closed. . . . And me needing another curiosity-teaser so darned bad, too. . . .

MEET THE WINNAHS!

A column dedicated to this and that about those who win high places on the Chamber of Commerce amateur hours at Ruddick park each Friday evening

Winning first places on amateur hour contests may become quite commonplace in the young life of 8-year-old Bobbie Barber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Barber, if this goes on. . . . Bobbie won first place on an August program last summer, and placed first again last Friday night on this summer's second amateur hour program. . . .

She was a pickaniny in her most recent amateur appearance — so blacked up that no one knew who she was until after she had been awarded first place by popular applause. . . . That was just the way her father, who's director of the amateur hour programs, wanted it to be. . . .

When Bobby was "written up" in this column last year, she was in the midst of a Shirley Temple and Quintuplet craze. . . . Now, a whole year older, she playing jacks and trying to learn tennis. . . . Dana Merritt and Doris Ann Coffey are her most frequent playmates. . . . She'll be in the third grade next year. . . . Since sister DeVada married Marvin Majors she's "the daughter of the house" at the Barbers'. . . . Still loves her dolls, but rather spasmodically. . . . Still is a born mimic. . . . Likes to sing. . . . Was thrilled when guests at a recent "kid" party demanded three songs before they would let her quit. . . .

The winning habit also seems to be a characteristic of Porter Richardson, whose musical comedy number won second place last Friday night, repeating his winning of another second place last summer. . . .

The toplevel, Model T Ford which is Porter's favorite mode of conveyance probably changes colors oftener than any other car in Colorado. . . . In fact, of late it's been changing colors with every change of pictures at the Palace theater, where Porter's artistic ability is being applied these days. . . . One day it's green and red, the next yellow and blue, nearly always with some picture title painted on the vivid colors. . . . But one thing it never is, and that's some ordinary, dead color like black or grey. . . .

Porter's the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ed Richardson. . . . He plays anything—violin, guitar, ukele, bass horn, trumpet. . . . His mother said when Porter was being put in this column last summer that he's "always acting the fool." . . . He seems to be right good at it, carrying off prizes the way he does. . . . But he's a hard worker, a talented painter, and a young man of rather serious ambitions in spite of all his clowning. . . .

CREEP-FED CALVES MAKE RAPID GAINS IN NURSING PERIOD

Creep-fed calves, between birth date and weaning date, gained about fifty pounds and were enough fatter at weaning time to be valued at $1.50 per 100 pounds above similar calves not creep-fed, according to results of tests conducted over an eighty-four-day period by Bruce Taylor and O. S. Williams of the Oklahoma A. & M. College experiment station. . . . Creep-fed calves consumed an average of 5.6 pounds of grain per head daily, with total value of the feed consumed at $8.38 per calf; but the fifty pounds increase in weight and the $1.50 per 100 increase in price, would bring 91c per head more than the calves not creep-fed at the time of marketing. . . . A mixture of half ground shelled corn and half whole oats was used during the first week of the experiment, and cottonseed meal was added at the rate of one part meal to ten parts grain on Aug. 4, when the pasture became very dry. . . . "No trouble was experienced," Taylor says, "in getting the calves to eat from the creep. All calves were definitely known to be eating regularly from the creep after a few days in the creep run." . . . However, further tests, conducted with the same calves after the weaning date, showed that at the end of a 149-day feeding period the noncreep-fed calves sold for the same price on the market. The creep-fed lot started the experiment fifty pounds heavier than the noncreep-fed calves, but, due to slower daily gains, were only four pounds heavier at the close of the test. . . . After weaning, both lots were fed a mixture of half shelled corn and half oats. Cottonseed meal also was fed twice daily. During the finishing phase, alfalfa hay was fed at the rate of two pounds daily. Prairie hay also was fed according to the appetites of the calves. . . . The results of the after-weaning test indicate that for calves that are full-fed on grain five or more months after weaning, creep-feeding doesn't pay, but up to weaning time the calves can be creep-fed profitably. . . .

Signal Lights Will Solve Traffic Ills Capt. Legge States

Colorado Should Install The Equipment, District Chief Tells Lions Friday

If Colorado is to make material stride toward eliminating traffic hazards, especially as may be reckoned by through tourist motorists, signal lights should be installed at street intersections along Highway One through the city, Captain W. W. Legge of Lubbock, divisional chief of the Texas Highway Patrol, stated during an address at the Lions Club Friday.

The through driver realizes the fact it is in violation of law to run a signal light and also that he should not stop his car and turn around in center of the block between such traffic controls, Captain Legge said.

I WILL OIL-PLATE YOUR ENGINE

in next to no time

And even quicker I can plainly state how it saves your oil and your engine to change to Oil-Plating. After I put in Conoco Germ Processed oil, which is the only oil that forms Oil-Plating, let's say you run a bit and then want to park—a few minutes or maybe hours. But every drop of Germ Processed oil will not drain back down into your crankcase like an everyday oil. Instead of that, a definite amount of this oil is always left closely plated all over the pistons, cylinders, bearings and other parts, from the bottom clear to the top of your engine. You'd say that the oil is united for good, to every working surface. I don't know of anything that will make Oil-Plating let go, no matter if you want to stop and start at every doorway, or make 500 miles a day across the mountains. Staying in place and not just splashing on and off, Oil-Plating can't leave the usual openings for friction and wear. Your smooth, quiet, cool-running engine will certainly make you notice that, and of course, your own eyes will see, Conoco Germ Processed oil staying up around full.
