"LANCER SPY"
Palace—Friday and Saturday
November 19 and 20
Despite its rather hackneyed theme espionage and counter-espionage during the world war—this action drama emerges as exciting entertainment which will engross the thrill fans and prove satisfactory entertainment to the average audience. The cast is generally competent. Dolores Del Rio has little to do—but does it well.
The picture is not as good as the
"The Firefly" which is being shown at the same time at the same place.

"THE FIREFLY"
Palace—Saturday Midnite, Nov. 20
Sunday and Monday, Nov. 21 and 22
The typical lavishness of a Hunt Stromberg musical production, Robert Z. Leonard's masterful direction, a stirring screen play based on the popular operetta and the litling airs of Rudolf Friml combine to furnish Jeanette MacDonald a vehicle in which she easily reaffirms her place as one of the screen's most accomplished actresses. In perfect voice, she wins new laurels for her dramatic ability and, further, scores tellingly as a dancer. Many will judge this her best picture and its success as an outstanding hit is assured. The picture, portraying the adventures and romance of a young dancer who is taken into the service of the country as a spy against the French during the days of the Napoleonic invasion of Spain, offers a wide range of unusually acceptable entertainment.
Players are Jeanette MacDonald,
Allan Jones, Warren William, Billy Gilbert, Henry Daniell, Douglas Dumbrille.

and slapstick abound, with Jane in her usual role of an in-out-of-mischievous kid. Production standard is of a higher calibre than that usually associated with a Withers picture, and the Hartmans—burlesque ballroom dancers, ventriloquists and magicians which should net them more film work. Jane, an orphaned daughter of an African explorer, is adopted by

FAIRVIEW CLUB TOLD OF NEW YEAR'S WORK;
OFFICERS ARE NAMED

By Mrs. O. L. Simpson, Reporter
"As you know we are going to continue kitchen improvement and include poultry production in our work next year," said Miss Vera Crippen, county home demonstration agent, at the Fairview Home Demonstration club meeting with Mrs. Preston Pace last Friday.
It is necessary for every family to have sufficient poultry to supply meat and eggs for the immediate family. Miss Crippen pointed out.
Each member is urged to complete the four kitchen goals which are as follows: Pipe water into kitchen and sink, have sufficient storage in kitchen, add one cooking utensil, and add one kitchen stool and ladder.
The goals for poultry are to get ten laying hens, brooder and sanitary feeding places, green feed and other correct feeding rations, wire egg baskets, storage for eggs, and the learning of two new egg recipes.
Miss Crippen gave an outline of the 1938 year book. The following officers were elected for next year:
Mrs. O. L. Simpson, president; Mrs.
L. A. Strain, vice-president; Mrs.
Claude Willis, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Preston Pace, reporter; Mrs.
C. C. Berry, council delegate; Mrs.
J. C. Womack, poultry demonstrator.
Mrs. J. A. Ferguson, president of the County Federation, was a visitor and spoke on cooperation, stressing yard beautification. The club voted to join the County Federation.
Mrs. Will C. Berry, Mrs. Preston Pace, and Mrs. O. L. Simpson were appointed as delegates to the County Federation.
There were eight members and Miss Crippen, and two visitors, Mrs.
Ferguson and Mrs. L. D. Robertson, present. The next meeting will be Nov. 26th with Mrs. Claude Willis.

Whether or not Mitchell county is

Six Or Eight Are Projected After Conference Held By Shillingburg Citizens of Buford community are interested in the trench silo and from six to eight of the earthen feed containers will be dug and put into service there within the near future, F. C. Shillingburg, director of the vocational agriculture department in high school, stated after attending a mass meeting of farmers there last Thursday night.
Eighteen farmers attended the meeting, called by the local farm technician. Most of the citizens present expressed interest in the trench silo and Shillingburg is of the opinion several of the silos will be in use here before time for harvesting the next feed crop.
Farmers of any community interested in discussing the trench silo and other farm improvement projects should confer with Shillingburg.

PICKED UP ALONG THE NEWS PATH

Any Colorado old-timer who kept up with the doings of the Texas Baptist convention in El Paso last week probably remembered G. P. Putnam, described as "one of the leading Baptists of the west and a leading citizen of El Paso" in news articles about the convention. . . . Mr. Putnam was superintendent of Colorado schools for four or five years over 40 years ago. . . . He became superintendent at El Paso 40 years ago, and held the position 20 years. . . . Eight months ago he was run over by an automobile, according to Jeff D. Ray's column, and had to spend months in bed, being left a probable cripple for life. . . . "If you will ask anyone who has done the most for religion and education in El Paso," the Rev. Mr. Ray wrote, "the almost unanimous answer would be G. P. Putnam."

A wish: That "Heidi" could be brought back here and shown on Christmas Eve night. . . . The Christmas Eve sequence in that picture is one of the most beautiful things this writer has ever seen on the screen. . . .

Another wish: That I had the gardening ability of J. M. Terry. . . . Everything he touches seems to grow and thrive. . . .

Just one more short month and Christmas will be coming right at us again. . . . Funny how much closer these Christmases get as the years zoom by. . . .

Otto Jones and Shorty Northcutt of the Rendon ranch are in the market for Christmas pecans, I hear. . . . Enough pecans for the whole ranch, mind you. . . . It's all because they were the first ones on the ranch force to break down under a non-shaving endurance contest. . . .

Probably not very many of them think about it, but John E. Watson, superintendent of Colorado schools, always likes to hear from C. H. S. students after they've gone out into college, or into the world in general. . . . Among those from whom he's heard recently are Lucille Bodine at the University of Texas, Nina Laura Smith at T. S. C. W., Myra Brown at U. C. L. A. in California, Hiram Duffer in Howard Payne, Irene Dossey at McMurry, and Mary Elizabeth Fidgeon at T. W. C. . . . He reports all of them getting along nicely and about to get fully accustomed to the strange ways of college life and college study. . . .

Jack Frost's advent Monday and Tuesday nights was variously received hereabouts. . . . Farmers welcomed it to hasten the opening of their cotton. . . . Ranchers hated to see the young grass nipped, but those who have many young calves to brand are glad that this work can now be started safely. . . .

Something that seasoned football fans never saw or heard of happened during the Albany-Colo game Friday night. . . . At least, I've heard Thos. R. Smith and some others who are considered seasoned fans say as much. . . . This highly unusual something was the interception of seven consecutive passes, six of Albany's and one of ours. . . .

Meet "Farmer" Ford Merritt. . . . He was in the printing office Thursday morning, armed with a really unusual radish, and demanding "his rights" in the way of publicity. . . . The radish measures 12 inches around and is about 4 inches long—a rather large-like radish, you will admit. . . . But, if the truth must be told, we're mighty afraid—and so is Ford—that the thing is only good to look at and no good to eat, since it gives every indication of being "pithy" (that may not be the way to spell it, but if you're a radish-fancier you get the idea.)

DRUNK WHO CALLED FOR COPS IS COMPLIMENTED

An Abilene man voluntarily called police Sunday after realizing that he had taken on too much liquor. After his arrest he appeared in corporation court the next morning and told the presiding judge that he did not wish to get into any trouble through driving his car or otherwise while under the influence of liquor.

The man was excused of the offense after being complimented by the court. "I wish all persons who get drunk would do the same thing," the court is quoted to have announced.

CHURCHES

CHURCH OF CHRIST
SUNDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY
Solomon gave the wise instruction, "Train up a child in the way he should go and even when he is old, he will not depart from it." In order that this may be done, parents must realize the opportunity that is theirs in training children for service and salvation. Daily Bible study must be encouraged. "Study to show thyself approved unto God," is the biblical command. Daily Bible study should be coupled with Sunday morning Bible study. One should encourage the other. Attend Bible classes at the Church of Christ, and thus encourage others to come. "Let us follow on to know Jehovah." Come next Sunday. The time of meeting is ten o'clock, and your welcome is sure.

Consider the following services also and plan to come.

SUNDAY
Preaching and worship, 11 a.m.
Young folks meeting, 6 p.m.
Preaching, 7 p.m.

MONDAY
Ladies' Bible class, 3 p.m.

WEDNESDAY
Mid-week service, 7 p.m.

MISSION MEETING
The Church of Christ is now engaged in a mission meeting in South Colorado with Minister Woodie Holden doing the preaching. Services are being held daily in the Southside Community Tabernacle, at 7:30 p.m. Consider this your invitation and attend. You are always welcome at a gathering of the Church of Christ.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH
There will be a special Thanksgiving service Sunday night at 7:00. There will be special numbers in reading and music. The church will be decorated in keeping with the occasion. The cross will be the center and at the close of the program all who will be requested to bring an offering, either of money or food, which will be laid at the foot of the cross. "Freely ye have received, freely give."
Bible school 9:45.
Morning worship 11:00. The minister will bring a Thanksgiving message on the subject, "Thanks-Giving."

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Mr. Roger W. Babson quotes the following significant words from a British correspondent on the religious situation in Britain: "The churches still throw their doors wide open, the people pass them by as they rush to their pleasures. Millions live through Sunday as they do through the rest of the week and never think of God at all. . . . Twenty years ago Sunday schools filled with children; now in British cities we are surrounded by children and young people in their teens who have never been to church or Sunday school."
What is true in Great Britain is true in our own country and community. You who are Christians go get some of these and bring them with you Sunday.

The 11 o'clock hour will be a Thanksgiving service. "Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men." "Come for all things are now ready." God has prepared every good thing for his people.
The Intermediary Camp will have their program at 5 p.m.
The Senior young people will have their meeting at 6:30. We want all our young people to attend all these services.
W. M. ELLIOTT, Pastor.

Fight On Liquor Declared Anew By Baptists of Texas

Truceless War Against Traffic Declared During Sessions Of El Paso Convention

Baptists of Texas declared a new war on liquor Friday at their final session in El Paso and moved to Carlsbad, N. M., where at night they held a fraternal meeting in Carlsbad Caverns with Baptists of New Mexico and Arizona.

The fifty-second annual convention of Texas Baptists closed with passage of resolutions declaring war on material gain and declaring truceless war against the liquor traffic. Dr. Wallace Bassett of Dallas told messengers they only were to blame for moral conditions depicted in a report on civic righteousness. He predicted a return of prohibition.

Dr. Bassett blamed relegalization of whisky for a great portion of juvenile delinquency and said cocktail lounges and children had replaced saloons and old soaks.

"These young people," he said,

"get in their automobiles and go zig-zagging up the highway at sixty miles an hour looking for a place to spoon."

"When they leave road houses they are exceedingly light-headed and amorous. Some of them go to hospitals or morgues instead of to spooning grounds."

Dr. Bassett said the home was partly to blame for the prevalence of gambling.

"The Nation-wide spread of the popularity of bridge both for pleasure and profit has only added fuel to the smoldering fires lying dormant in the hearts of inexperienced youth," he asserted.

The Rev. Walter H. McKenzie of Austin was elected year and urged them to "remember those on our side in the Legislature." The civic righteousness report had praised Governor Allison for calling a special legislative session to repeal horse-race betting.

L. J. Burdine, who has been working in Midland for the past several months, is here at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Gary, recovering from injuries received in a car accident near Big Spring Friday night.

Burdine suffered a fractured collarbone and a severe eye injury. Five companions escaped with minor hurts. The car swerved into a post when crowded off the road by another machine, occupants of the car said. Burdine will be here for several days, perhaps weeks.

APPLE PUDDING WITH OATMEAL IS NEW DISH

Some cooks are firm believers of the old saying, "An apple a day keeps the doctor away." And they're forever introducing the new in the realm of apple cooking. One particularly good and nutritious dish is apple pudding with oatmeal.

It is made of the following ingredients:
Apples (cut in eighths) 1 pint
1/2 cup sugar 1 egg
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon vanilla

1/3 cup shortening 1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup Quaker Rolled Oats
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 cup brown sugar 1/2 cup flour
1/2 teaspoon salt

A range apples in bottom of greased baking dish and sprinkle them with white sugar and cinnamon. Cream brown sugar and shortening, add well-beaten egg and vanilla. Beat well. Mix Quaker Oats, flour, baking powder and salt. To the creamed-shortening add the dry ingredients alternately with the milk. Pour over apples and bake in a 350 degree oven for 40 minutes.

PEACE IS FURTHER FROM THE EARTH NOW THAN IN 1914, SPEAKER DECLARES

Thos. R. Smith Pictures An Alarming State Of Affairs During Delivery Address Before The Lions Club

World peace is further removed today than during those troubled times of 1914 when events that turned leading powers of the earth into conflict were staged, Thos. R. Smith, Colorado attorney and a leader in affairs of the American Legion, declared during an Armistice Day address at the Lions Club Friday noon.

"We were drawn into the world war in 1917 because a foreign-owned ship carrying American citizens in her passenger list was sunk by a German submarine," Smith recalled. "Conditions carrying stronger insults to some of the powers of Europe are being reported today, but due to insistent policy of Britain and France to stay out of war, the incidents are being passed.

"The wanton sinking of British and French ships, killing citizens of those countries, the machine gunning of the British ambassador to China by a Jap airplane, as that official drove along the highway in his car flying the British flag, would have precipitated war in other days.

"In taking stock in our own America we note that war has come to our people during every generation since the day in which this republic had its inception," Smith continued. "The 23 years elapsing between closing of the Civil War and opening of the conflict with Spain was the longest period of peace the United States has ever known."

The speaker charged broken treaties with responsibility of war and unrest around the globe after stating that conflicts were then being staged in half a dozen parts of the world.

Several Coloradoans were in Loraine Thursday afternoon to attend funeral rites for Mrs. C. M. Thompson, pioneer citizen of that community who died Wednesday night before at the family residence following a lingering illness.

Among friends attending the services from here were executives of the Chamber of Commerce, of which C. C. Thompson is president; officials of the City National bank, of which the Coloradoan is a director, and of the Lions Club, of which he has been an active member and past president several years.

Deceased was born Annie Margaret Altman in Arkansas on April 29, 1871. With her family she came to Texas early in life and was married to C. M. Thompson in Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson established their home near Loraine in 1905 and had resided there since.

The rites were held from the Loraine Methodist church Thursday afternoon at 3:30 with her pastor, Rev. Hamilton Wright and Rev. C. E. Jameson of First Methodist church, Colorado, officiating. Burial was in the Loraine cemetery.

Taylor and Miss Rilla Thompson of Loraine and Mrs. Floyd Griffin of Colorado. One sister, Mrs. Ada Pierce of Loraine, two brothers, Mayor W. F. Altman of Arlington, and S. W. Altman, Cisco, 12 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren also survive.

Funeral plans were directed by Jones, Russell Company of Colorado.

REMINISCENCES OF EVENTS CLOSING WAR PICTURED AS ARMISTICE DAY OBSERVED

Legionnaires Of County Attend Celebration Starting With Reveille At Sunrise And Closing That Evening

Mitchell county Legionnaires Thursday staged one of the most colorful programs in commemoration of Armistice Day since institution of the annual patriotic holiday on November 11, 1918. It was first time since organization of Oran C. Hooker Post that veterans of the county in such large number had gathered at the Legion building to attend reveille.

With Post Commander Howard Rogers in charge of affairs for the day, the men began gathering at the Legion building at six o'clock on Armistice Day morning. Several of them had been aroused from sleep by the noisy blaring of trumpets as a corps of buglers under direction of Harry Ratliff drove about town to sound reveille.

Captain John Watson and Sergeant Bun Pritchett took charge of the approximately fifty veterans and formed the company at attention in Chestnut street facing the flag pole. As the band, directed by Ratliff, played the National Anthem, the men stood at attention and lived over again in their minds those days overseas and in American cantonments when "colors" was in order.

The men were then marched through town to the Colorado hotel where breakfast was served. The men were called to attention by Captain Watson while acting Post Chaplain James Herrington offered the invocation. The meal was made more reminiscent of war-time days as the men marched in single file to be served cafeteria style.

After the breakfast program was over the commanding officers again assembled the men in formation and marched them back to the Legion building where after a brief ceremony the day's activities were suspended until 7:30 that evening when a bean feed with J. Ralph Lee in charge, was served the veterans and their guests. A pleasing entertainment program, arranged and staged under direction of Floyd Quinney, was given.

J. W. McGuire, J. B. Pritchett, J. H. Everetts, H. H. Herrington, L. B. Elliott, T. E. Burrus, V. J. Richardson, E. L. Strain, G. B. Vaught, G. Jett, Gordon Coe, Thos. R. Smith, R. A. Williams, Clarence Cook, James Herrington, J. L. Strain, W. C. Davis, Hall DeGarmo, Bob Rose.

ROBY ELEVEN WILL INVADE CANTRILL FIELD FOR LAST LOCAL GAME FOR WOLVES

Visiting Class B Club Seen As Offering Threat For Giving Colorado Plenty Worries Friday Night

The Roby Lions, a schoolboy eleven in District 6-B that during early stages of the conference failed to go places but has shown marked improvement in recent grid contests, are to invade Cantrill Field Friday night for the last home game.

The Lions offer a much stronger club than did the Albany boys in game here last Friday night and in event the visitors continue to register improvement they may be counted upon to give the Wolves plenty to worry over, so local school officials are admitting. The Roby club has won over Colorado in conference games of the past few years.

The splendid record made by the Wolves during the season, should bring out a large fan aggregation to witness them in their closing fight at Cantrill Field, Superintendent J. E. Watson of the local schools, suggested Monday afternoon. "We have good reason to accept that this is going to be a most interesting game and certainly one sprinkled with sensational thrills," Watson continued.

This is to be the first conference affair gone into by the Wolves with Charles Carter, flashing end and a power in the Christian machine, out of uniform, so local school officials during scrimmage broke his left arm during scrimmage play here several days ago.

The band and pep squad in uniform will be present to sustain moral support for the Wolves and add color to the evening's program. Both organizations are among the largest and best trained ever prided in by the school.

Probable starting line-up for Colorado will be as follows: Burl Ballard and Duff Chesney, end; J. W. Blasingame and J. W. Hodges, tackle; Van King and Joe Smallwood, guard; Boone Jackson, fullback; Jack Smith and Earnest Smith, halfbacks; Thomas Chadwick, quarterback.

Colorado is to close the season on the afternoon of Thanksgiving Day in game with the Snyder Tigers at Snyder. The Tigers, former district champions, are expected to present a stubborn resistance. School officials both at Colorado and Snyder are agreeing that the game will be one of the best in the district for that week.

The band and pep squad, both organizations in uniform, and a large fan delegation, will accompany the Wolves to Snyder for the game. C. D. Foster, high school principal, stated Monday afternoon that time for the kick-off had not been determined. School officials, however, will agree on that feature of the contest several days before Thanksgiving.

Call Of The Deer Country Claiming Many Coloradoans And Mitchell Countians Now

Answering the call of the deer country, many a car loaded with hopeful hunters, guns, ammunition, and a week's camping-out provisions sped out of Colorado in the dark morning hours of Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday.

Bound for Brewster county was a group including Charley Farris, Dale Warren, Brady Warren, A. D. Kiker, and Ivan Barber. These were joined by a Snyder group headed by Mayor H. G. Towle. They left Colorado early Sunday, and planned to do most of their hunting on some Brewster county land leased by Towle and Dale Warren.

Seven Coloradoans and a man from Monahans made up the largest single group leaving Colorado Sunday. The Coloradoans were L. C. Scarborough, Jack DeLaney, Swede McGill, Pinkie Fuller, E. B. Willbanks, E. B. Ellis, and L. H. McLarty. Their destination was more or less indefinite, but they left Marathon as their temporary address in case "anything happens."

Plans to leave for the Fort Davis country some time after the twentieth are being made by Sheriff Dick Gregory, Bronson Gregory, K. Morris, Wilson Gregory, and Dick Hickman, chief of Colorado police.

Other Mitchell countians who had been issued hunting licenses through the office of James Herrington, county clerk, in the few days preceding the opening of the deer season Tuesday were E. H. Wright, T. E. Reed, S. O. Givens, John Wood, A. C. Coburn, A. F. Feaster, Algia Daniel, Leonard Alexander, D. M. Womack, Aaron Feaster, and Earl Hunter.

Chalk-Snyder Area Continues To Hold Oil Interest Here

Probable Extension Of Four And One-Half Miles Is Seen By Fraternity

Local oil interest continues to be centered about the Chalk-Snyder pool in southeast Howard county, with special consideration of the Johnson & Bruce No. 2-C Hyman, one and one-half mile extension to the Chalk field pointing to probable connection with the Snyder pool four and one-half miles further north.
 The Johnson & Bruce well yielded only 15 barrels of oil hourly when pumped for two hours Friday after pumping and flowing 27 barrels hourly earlier following treatment with 2,000 gallons of acid at a total depth of 2,906 feet. Tubing was to be pulled and the hole cleaned out. It was reported from the well late Friday.
 Shell No. 1 T-P Land Trust in the Snyder pool, 1,650 from the north, 330 feet from the east line of section 33-30-1s-T&P, topped the first pay at 2,640 feet Friday and had 150 feet of oil in the hole when drilled to 2,708 feet. Shot with 660 quarts, Iron Mountain No. 2 (formerly No. 5) Snyder, bridged 250 feet off bottom at 2,800 feet and was fishing. It is 990 from the south, 2,310 feet from the east line of section 28-30-1s-T&P, Iron Mountain No. 3 Snyder, 990 from the south, 330 feet from the east lines of section 28-30-1s-T&P, was building derrick.
 Magnolia staked No. 3 O'Daniel, 1,650 from the north, 330 feet from the west line of section 34-30-1s-T&P, an east offset to Shell No. 1 T-P Land Trust.

THE NEW CARS

Each year it seems impossible that the American automobile can be much improved, but the new models always offer something added in the way of performance, comfort, and safety; the cars for 1938 are no exception to the rule; truly they are marvels of the engineering art.

The Humble Company, with its policy of continuous improvement, greets the new cars with motor fuels and motor oils ready for their use. In the new 1938 models, as in those for many years past, Humble motor fuels and Humble motor oils will deliver full performance... We invite you to test this statement: Stop at a Humble service station or at a Humble dealer's, fill the tank of your new car with Humble motor fuel, its crankcase with a Humble motor oil—then, note performance!

Keeping Up With Mitchell Girls At TSCW

By Nina Laura Smith
 (Editor's Note: These items were compiled by Miss Smith, a journalism major in T. S. C. W. (C. I. A.), at Denton, as part of her class work. They are printed in The Record because of their interest to the families and friends of Mitchell county students in the college.)
 Rushing, pledging and initiation have held the spotlight at T. S. C. W., Lenton, recently for the members and prospective members of the eleven campus literary social clubs. Mabel Earnest Cooper, granddaughter of Mrs. C. H. Earnest, has pledged the L'Allegro Club, which rushed over seventy girls before choosing fifteen by unanimous vote. Miss Cooper, a sophomore religious service major, is a member of the Y. W. C. A. and is vice-president of the St. Barnabas Club.
 Elizabeth Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dozier, has been initiated into Alpha Lambda Delta, honorary scholastic sorority for freshmen. Only those who have a B average may receive this honor, which was given to twelve girls this semester.
 Eloise Cooper, daughter of W. S. Cooper, spent the week-end with her roommate, Bonnie Shivers, in Keller. They were accompanied by their other roommate, Helen Pasteljovsky of Stamford.
 The Colorado students were very much surprised to see their former teacher, Miss Octavine Cooper, now of Decatur Baptist College last Saturday. She was taken on a tour of the campus.
 Walene Stevens of Loraine and Mary Alice Gunn of Cuthbert are roommates in Travis hall. Miss Gunn is a vocational home economics major, and Miss Stevens is a kindergarten-primary education major. She is a member of the department club and the Y. W. C. A. Miss Stevens visited in Dallas last week-end.
 Another Colorado pair of roommates are Frances Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Elliott, and Edna Earle Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cox. Miss Elliott is a member of the Y. W. C. A. and Miss Cox is a member of the newly formed Intermediate-Grammar Grade Club.

 Mabel Majors, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Majors, is a member of the organization committee of the Inter-Gr. Grade Club. She is also a member of the Philomathia Club. Friday Miss Majors attended a senior picnic at Lake Dallas.
 The other Colorado sister is Laura McKinney of Iatan, a clothing major and a member of J. H. Lowry Club. Her two roommates are her sister, Nota, a business administration major, and Melba Slaton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Slaton, another clothing major, and a member of the college choir. Miss Nita McKinney and Miss Slaton went to Dallas last week-end.
 Seen at the sophomore barn dance were Mabel Cooper, Melba Slaton, and Nita McKinney, all escorted by cadets from A. & M.
 Erna Lou Merrill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Merrill, and Elizabeth Taylor form still another pair of roommates at T. S. C. W. These two live in Sin Ciudadado with three other Coloradans, Misses Elliott, Cox, and Eloise Cooper.
 Nina Laura Smith lives in near-by Lowry. She is a member of the Y. W. C. A., the Journalism Club, and the St. Barnabas Club.

Health-Wracking Functional PAINS
 Severe functional pains of menstruation, cramping spells and jangled nerves soon rob a woman of her natural, youthful freshness. PAIN lines in a woman's face too often grow into AGE lines!
 Thousands of women have found it helpful to take Cardul. They say it seemed to ease their pains, and they noticed an increase in their appetites and finally a strengthened resistance to the discomfort of monthly periods.
 Try Cardul. Of course if it doesn't help you, see your doctor.
