

'RAIN IN JANUARY' BRINGS OPTIMISM TO THIS COUNTY

SOAKING MOISTURE DURING LAST WEEK-END REACHED 1.65 INCHES; JANUARY TOTAL IS 2.25

"Rain in January" seems to be one of the most optimism-producing things that can happen to the farmers and ranchmen of this section, judging from expressions overheard during and since last week's soaking rainfall.

A total of 1.65 inches fell during Friday and Saturday, bringing the total for January to 2.25 inches—the same, incidentally, as the total for January, 1937.

Because the moisture was accompanied by continued mild weather ranchmen and other stock raisers of the county are counting on it to supply excellent winter pasturage. Growth of weeds and winter rye had already been well-started by the 60 inches of rain that fell earlier in the month.

Another result of the rain, is expected to be one of the largest wheat harvests in the history of Mitchell county. Last year's harvest was the largest to date, and weather conditions this year have been very similar to those of last year, except for the fact that this January has been the mildest that many Mitchell countians can recall in recent years.

Idle fields waiting for spring plowing were immeasurably benefited by the soaking moisture, farmers say. January's 2.25 inches of plowing season is augmented by .76 inches that fell in December.

LUNCHEON CLUB PLANS TO DISCUSS CC WORK AT MEETINGS OF YEAR

A 1938 program involving the discussion of some phase of chamber of commerce work at each meeting of the Colorado chamber of commerce luncheon club during the year was adopted at the club's regular meeting Tuesday noon.

A novel feature of this meeting was the giving away of three attendance prizes, which were furnished by J. Ralph Lee, Truett Barber and W. S. Wimberly. They were won by Rev. W. M. Elliott, Dr. Oscar Rhode and L. J. Taylor.

The giving away of attendance prizes will be continued in future meetings. The prizes for the next meeting will be furnished by L. J. Taylor, Oscar Rhode and Rev. W. M. Elliott, winners of this week's prizes. J. Ralph Lee, who presided at Tuesday's meeting, together with Earl Bibby, and Marvin Majors, will continue as the membership committee for the month of February. Marvin Majors was appointed chairman of the committee, while J. Ralph Lee will act as chairman of the luncheon club meeting.

INTERSCHOLASTIC LEAGUE CAGERS TO PLAY IN FEBRUARY

Both the rural and independent divisions of the Mitchell county interscholastic league will play their basketball games in February.

The four independent schools in the county league—Colorado, Loraine, Westbrook, and Roscoe—are to complete a round robin series by the week-end of Feb. 11-12, according to Robert Coffman, basketball director.

COLORADOANS TO MIDLAND BANQUET

Among visitors at annual banquet of the Midland chamber of commerce Friday night were three Coloradoans—Carl Blasig, manager of the Colorado chamber of commerce; Truett Barber, president of the chamber; and Dell Barber, WTCC director from Colorado.

John Suman, president of the Humble Oil & Refining company, was the principal speaker at the banquet.

Preparations For Colorado's Birthday Celebrations Saturday Near Completion

Preparations for Colorado's part in celebrating the President's Birthday Saturday night are practically complete, according to Harry Ratliff, chairman of Mitchell county celebrations.

The celebrations here, as everywhere over the nation, will be for the benefit of crippled children. Present plans of the Mitchell county committee are to divide the funds raised here between some worthy local cause and the Scottish Rite hospital in Dallas, where so many crippled children of Mitchell county are taken for treatment.

Colorado will have both a dance and a bridge party. Campaign to sell tickets for these celebrations has been underway all this week with Marvin Majors in charge. Tickets have been selling unexpectedly well, according to Harry Ratliff. The ticket committee has founders' tickets to sell for $1 to those not wishing to buy either a bridge or dance ticket. Tickets for bridge are $1 per couple, those for dancing $1.50 per couple. The dance will begin at 8:30 at the Legion hut, where decorations are to be arranged by Mrs. Frank Ramsdell of the Colorado Floral company. Mrs. Ramsdell plans to use a profusion of ferns and palms around the room, and to arrange red, white, and blue roping and bunting on the ceiling and around the windows.

Jack Helton, Floyd Quinney, and Jake Merritt are in charge of the dance. Music is to be furnished by Jack Armstrong and his nine-piece orchestra.

Bridge at the Colorado hotel will begin at 8 o'clock. Those who wish to play should contact one of the following before Saturday night: Mrs. C. C. Thompson, Mrs. Ed Majors, Mrs. J. A. Ferguson, or Mrs. Pink Wade Hodge.

Mrs. R. J. Wallace is vice-chairman of the county celebrations. Mrs. W. R. Oswald is executive secretary. Charles Moerer treasurer, and Jewel Barrett publicity chairman. Included on the executive committee are Earl Gunn, Mrs. Hodge, Walter Whipkey, Jack Helton, Ms. Thompson, Mrs. Ferguson, Floyd Quinney, and Jake Merritt.

LOCAL LIONS READY TO ENTERTAIN ZONE MEET FRIDAY NIGHT

Members of the Colorado Lions club have everything in readiness to play host to brother Lions from all over Zone 5 in a quarterly zone meeting at the Colorado hotel Friday night, beginning at 7:30.

More than 100 Lions from Colorado, Midland, Big Spring, Snyder, Hamlin, and Anson are expected to attend the meeting, which will be held around a banquet table. Frank Farmer of Snyder, chairman of Zone 5, will preside.

Judge Omer Burleson of Anson is to be the principal speaker. One speaker is to be provided by each club. Entertainment features are in charge of the Colorado Lions club. Dr. R. D. Bridgford of the Colorado program committee says that magic tricks and chalk drawings by the Rev. A. L. Haley of Colorado will be featured.

The Colorado Lions club is foregoing its usual Friday luncheon and will attend the zone banquet instead, according to President Jack Helton.

FOUR FROM HERE TO COLORADO WATERSHED HEARING ON TUESDAY

Among representatives of eight counties attending the Colorado river watershed hearing in Big Spring Tuesday were Carl Blasig, manager of the Colorado chamber of commerce; B. J. Baskin, county farm agent; Judge A. F. King, and W. W. Porter.

It was brought out at the hearing that range lands in the watershed have lost a third of their livestock-carrying capacity and that crop lands have been seriously damaged by wind and water erosion during the last several decades.

Baskin and other county farm agents addressing the meeting expressed the belief that contour terracing will overcome most of the difficulty on crop lands and that spreader terraces will aid the grazing lands.

LITTLEFIELD VISITOR READS ON PROGRAM AT LIONS CLUB LUNCHEON

Readings by Mrs. Noel Woodley, of Littlefield, visitor in the home of the Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Jameson of First Methodist church, were featured on the program of the Lions club luncheon last Friday.

MITCHELL'S UNEMPLOYED TOTAL SHOWN TO BE HIGH IN CENSUS OF NOVEMBER

There were 378 totally unemployed people in Mitchell county in November, according to a report recently released from Washington, D.C., on results of the national unemployment census of some 60 days ago—Nov. 16-20.

This number topped that for any surrounding county. Sterling had 3 unemployed, Scurry 183 unemployed, and Howard county 332 unemployed. Mitchell county's census showed 87 employed on WPA and other emergency jobs, and 319 employed part time and wanting more work.

Scurry county had 121 employed on emergency work and 218 employed part time and wanting more work. Howard county had 133 on emergency jobs and 417 partly employed and in search of steadier jobs.

STREETS HERE TO BE RESURFACED IN THE NEAR FUTURE

Resurfacing of nearly all unpaved streets in the principal residence section of Colorado is to be undertaken in the near future, according to Mayor J. A. Sadler.

Sadler and other city officials are working with R. D. Buchanan, surveyor, in working out an application for WPA funds to be used in this work, which will probably require several months for completion.

Gravel is to be used on all streets needing resurfacing, and clay will be mixed with the gravel in several instances, Sadler says.

All residence streets were graveled a few years ago, but erosion has carried away much of the surface. During recent rains a number of streets were almost impassable.

SISTER MRS. RIORDAN DIED LATE FRIDAY IN HOSPITAL AT ODESSA

Death claimed Miss Mattie Hutton, sister of Mrs. Jerold Riordan of Colorado, in an Odessa hospital Friday night. Miss Hutton had undergone major surgery on Thursday.

Mrs. Riordan had been in Odessa with her since Monday.

Miss Hutton made her home with another sister, Miss Mittie Hutton, teacher in the Odessa schools. The two had visited here in the Riordan home frequently and the deceased woman was known to many Coloradoans.

Funeral services for Miss Hutton were held in Georgetown Monday afternoon. Mr. Riordan joined Mrs. Riordan for the funeral. They returned from Georgetown late Tuesday.

Miss Hutton was reared in Georgetown and made her home there until she moved to Odessa with her sister two years ago. Her father, the late Dr. M. C. Hutton, was Presbyterian minister in Georgetown for a number of years. Her three sisters, Mrs. Riordan of Colorado, Miss Mittie of Odessa, and Mrs. T. F. Wylie of San Antonio are her only immediate survivors.

MRS. MAX BERMAN UNDERGOES SURGERY

Major surgery was administered to Mrs. Max Berman of Colorado in the Santa Rosa hospital at San Antonio Tuesday morning. Reports are that she is recovering satisfactorily.

Mrs. Berman entered the hospital shortly after attending the funeral of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Marcel Josephson of Snyder, on Monday afternoon. Mr. Berman, Mrs. H. I. Berman, and Phyllis Berman have been in San Antonio with her this week.

HD RECREATION GROUP WILL MEET SATURDAY

Changed from the Legion hut to the high school gymnasium, a meeting of the recreation committee of the Mitchell county home demonstration council will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, according to Vera Crippen, county home demonstration agent.

CITY EXPECTS GOOD CREDIT RATING ON LOW FIRE LOSSES

Purchase of a modern new fire-truck with the latest firefighting equipment is expected to further lower the insurance rate. The truck was delivered in September.

Another contributing factor to a low insurance rate will be the attendance of two Colorado volunteer firemen at the state firemen's training school in College Station last summer.

Largest fire loss in Colorado during 1937 was the blaze which did approximately $2,000 worth of damage to the Gem theater.

CLAY AND GRAVEL WILL BE USED; WPA FUNDS ARE TO BE SOUGHT

PIPE BEING RUN FOR RE-ACIDIZATION OF SCURRY COUNTY WELL

Pipe was being run this week for re-acidization of the Robinson Bros. No. 1 Martin in Southwest Scurry county. This test has attracted considerable interest in Colorado because surrounding leases are held by Jim Cantrill, P. K. Mackey, R. A. May, and others.

The test, located in section 147, block 97, H. & T. C., was treated with 1,600 gallons of acid late last Wednesday but the treatment was not satisfactory. Rain during the week-end prevented routine completion of the first pumping test. The well made 25 and 30 barrels a day after being shot with 300 quarts of nitroglycerin a week before the acidization.

DALLAS MAN IS NEW MANAGER OF THREE R & R THEATERS HERE

A change in the management of the three Robb & Rowley theaters in Colorado was announced Monday by officials of the R & R company, who were here from headquarters in Dallas.

A. E. McClain, formerly assistant manager of R & R theatres in Oak Cliff, Dallas, is the new manager here and has already assumed his duties. McClain succeeds Sherman Hart, who has been manager since the three theaters, the Palace, the Ritz, and the Gem, went under the R & R banner.

McClain was assistant manager of the Oak Cliff theaters for nearly two years. Prior to that time he was assistant manager of R & R theaters in Sherman for three years.

He has been in the show business all his life, he says. Before becoming associated with Robb & Rowley five years ago McClain was with the Griffith Amusement company, which owns a chain of theaters in Oklahoma, West Texas, and New Mexico. While with this company he was stationed in Duncan, Altus, Oklahoma City, Pampa, Tex., and other towns. He was born and reared in Tryon, Oklahoma, doing his first theater work in his brother's show there.

McClain and his wife are temporarily at home in the Colorado hotel. She belongs to the Baptist church and he is a member of the Christian church.

FFA BOYS RUN TERRACE LINES ON 800 ACRES IN VICINITY OF COLORADO

Terrace lines have been run on 800 acres of Mitchell county farm land within a 10-mile radius of Colorado by Colorado High school FFA boys since the Christmas holidays, according to F. C. Shillingburg, head of the vocational agriculture department and FFA sponsor.

All terraces were run on water level in order to conserve the rainfall, Shillingburg says.

In addition to running terrace lines the FFA boys have culled 2,000 chickens since the first of the year. They found an average of 30% culls in each flock, and they advised the owner of each flock to cull four times a year.

INDEPENDENT TEAMS DECIDE AGAINST A CAGE ROUND ROBIN

Original plans of independent senior cage teams of Mitchell county interscholastic league to play a round robin of games to determine the county champion were changed late Wednesday.

The teams—Roscoe, Loraine, Colorado, and Westbrook—have decided to meet in Colorado Tuesday night at 7 o'clock and draw for opponents. Two games will be played that night, and the winners of the two will play for the championship on Tuesday night, Feb. 8.

FEW CASES ARE PENDING FOR FEBRUARY COURT TERM

Few cases are pending the February term of district court here, according to J. H. Ballard, district clerk.

The term is to open Monday morning, Feb. 21, with Judge A. S. Mauley presiding.

JUNIOR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE FORMED TUESDAY EVENING

A Junior Chamber of Commerce was organized at a meeting of 25 young men at the Colorado hotel Tuesday night. Another meeting will be held next Tuesday night, February 1, at 7:30 o'clock at the hotel to elect officers and to perfect a permanent organization.

Eddie Plyland was chosen as temporary chairman until the next meeting, when the regular officers will be elected. A nominating committee composed of Harold Bennett, chairman, Pete Warren, Bernice King and Gene Smith was appointed to prepare the official ballot for the next meeting, with the instructions that two candidates be proposed for each office and that opportunity be given for additional nominations from the floor.

A resolution was adopted "that this organization consider itself the young men's division of the Colorado Chamber of Commerce, and that the utmost harmony shall exist between the senior and junior divisions, and that the manager shall coordinate the work program of both organizations." Carl A. Blasig, manager Colorado chamber of commerce, who will also serve as manager of the junior chamber of commerce, addressed the meeting and pointed out the functions of a young men's organization and the benefits to be derived from the work of a young men's division.

Blasig stated that the junior chamber of commerce will manage its own affairs, but that the work program of the junior and senior organizations will be carefully coordinated in order not to have any duplications in the activities of these two groups of civic workers. He said that there many worthwhile work programs which the junior chamber of commerce can efficiently handle, which will redound to great benefit to the community.

"An organization of this kind affords an opportunity to develop their talent and to prepare themselves for future responsibility, business and civic life," Blasig said.

The age limit for membership is set at 18 to 30 years.

The following young present: Willie Landau, Paul B. F. King, Fred H. Cra Russell, Bob Vaught, John Joe Gunning, Joe Cox, Harriet, Gene Smith, Sam Charles Crocker, Grover W. Porter Richardson, P. J. Walter Rankin, Roy Miller, Jim J. Goss, Jr., August Armstrong, J. C. Shillingburg, Regal Port, Eddie Plyland, Charles Root and Marvin Majors.

NEW HARLEY SADLER COMPANY WILL PLAY 4 TOWNS EACH WEEK

Harley Sadler, well-known West Texas showman, announces that he is beginning this week a new circle stock company, playing two nights a week in each of the following four towns: Abilene, Big Spring, San Angelo, and Sweetwater.

Sadler will bring a new show each week, playing Monday and Tuesday nights at Abilene, Wednesday and Thursday nights in San Angelo, Friday night in Big Spring, and Saturday night in Sweetwater. He will play auditoriums in each of the towns.

MALE CHOIR TO SING AT BAPTIST SERVICE ON SUNDAY EVENING

A choir composed entirely of male voices will be featured on Sunday evening services at the First Baptist church, according to Chester Thomas, choir director.

About 35 voices are to be included in the choir. There will be numbers by a male quartet and probably a bass solo as special features.

Mrs. E. L. Latham will accompany the choir at the organ and will play organ numbers for fifteen minutes preceding the beginning of the service proper at 7:30.

Methodist Women Of District Here For Training Day

Nearly 150 Methodist women from churches over the Sweetwater district are gathered at the First Methodist church here today (Thursday) for a Training Day session.

The meeting began at 10 o'clock this morning. Among the prominent women present are Mrs. C. M. Randal of Seymour, president of the Northwest Texas conference missionary society; Mrs. C. A. Bickley of Abilene, vice-president; Mrs. Billie Bryant of Stamford, superintendent of study in the district; Mrs. E. B. Bowen of Stamford, superintendent of young people's circles.

Mrs. J. G. Merritt of Colorado, conference secretary, is among district officers attending. A covered dish luncheon was served at noon.

Valentine Motif At Mrs. Snyder's Bridgette Party

Forecasting Valentine in her arrangements and favors, Mrs. Dudley Snyder was hostess to the Bridgettes last Thursday afternoon.

Guests among the three tables of players were Mrs. Bob Scott, Mrs. I. L. Ellwood, and Mrs. Ledger Smith. At the tea hour Mrs. Dick Carter and Mrs. Blue Goodwin came in.

Mrs. Jake Richardson made high score. Mrs. Lester Manning low. Each guest received a valentine box of candy as a favor as the salad course was served.

Monday Night Club Meets With Norreds

Host and hostess to the Monday Night club this week were Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Norred.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Ledger Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. McCord, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ramsdell, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Lewis, Mrs. Nyle Mickle, and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Anderson.

The Andersons made high score, the Lewises low. A salad course, including three kinds of salad with hot spiced punch, was served at the close of the games.

Art Club Gives Program At County Federation; Health Unit Approved

An exhibition of Art club pictures and the voting of a resolution to sponsor a campaign for the establishment of a health unit in Mitchell county were outstanding items at the meeting of Women's clubs Tuesday afternoon.

The Art club exhibition was conducted by Mrs. Jeff Dobbs, a number of pictures being shown and discussed. Mrs. Dobbs gave some early history of the club.

The resolution in regard to the health unit was read by Mrs. Carl Blasig in behalf of the 1921 Study club, which worked up the resolution and submitted it to the federation. The federation voted to sponsor the campaign for establishment of the unit, which involved the hiring of a health nurse for the county.

In the illness and absence of Mrs. J. A. Ferguson, president, the meeting was presided over by the vice-president, Mrs. L. B. Elliott. Mrs. Ed Jones, Sr., recommended that a county institute for club women be held at the Colorado hotel before the district meeting in April, and the federation voted in favor of it.

Twenty-four members for the Federation library during January were reported by Mrs. J. E. McCleary, librarian. She also reported that the Lions club had given $10 for the purchase of new books, and that six books had been given by the Hesperian club, five by Mrs. R. H. Looney, and five bought. Mrs. McCleary also outlined plans for book reviews to raise additional money for new books.

Mrs. J. W. Randle reported for the Hesperian club, Mrs. H. B. Broadus for the 1921. Mrs. Jeff Dobbs for the Daughters of the King, Mrs. Wylie Kinard for the Zetasathian, Mrs. H. G. Whitmore for the Self Culture, Mrs. Jeff Dobbs for the Art club, Mrs. Leslie Crowder for the Business & Professional women, and Mrs. Chester Berry for the Fairview club.

The whole farm demonstration being carried on at the T. W. Daughtrey home in the Dorn section was discussed by Miss Vara Crippen, county home demonstration agent.

Methodist Circles Unite For Meeting

All Methodist circles met together Monday afternoon for a monthly business session and a program on "Gifts That Buy Salvation."

Mrs. W. W. Rhode, president, was in charge as the meeting opened with the singing of a hymn, "I Give My Life For Thee," and a devotional led by Mrs. C. E. Jameson.

Topics were "The Missionary Dollar and the World" by Mrs. J. M. Doss and "The Dollar Invested in Education" by Mrs. R. H. Looney.

A letter from the council telling of conditions in Snyder was read by Mrs. John E. Watson. Mrs. J. W. Shepperd reported receiving the literature for the work and Mrs. C. C. Thompson reported on the study course, "Out of Aldersgate."

Mrs. J. G. Merritt reported as social service chairman, Mrs. W. H. Garrett as spiritual life chairman, Mrs. F. C. Shillingburg as supplies chairman, and Mrs. Jim Manly as chairman of children's study. Mrs. Manly told of studying with the children each Wednesday afternoon.

Circles reports were given by Mrs. E. H. Looney for the Ferguson circle, Mrs. Thompson for the circle of Mrs. Hubert Smith, Mrs. Shillingburg for the Arnett-Wulfjen circle. Each circle had 10 present at the meeting. Mrs. Eddie Pyland told of the organization of a young women's circle.

Plans were discussed for the district training day meeting on Thursday.

Rilla Thompson And Sweetwater Man Wed

The following Abilene Reporter-News account of the marriage of Rilla Thompson, sister of C. C. Thompson of Colorado, to Clifton Gage of Sweetwater will be of considerable interest to friends of the Thompson family here.

Marriage of Rilla Thompson and Clifton Gage of Sweetwater took place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. K. L. Taylor in Loraine Saturday morning. The Rev. C. E. Jameson of Colorado read the service. Nuptial music was given by Mrs. Taylor.

The couple took their vows in front of an improvised altar of fern, lighted with candles. The bride wore a dress of black crepe with printed bolero and sash.

Out-of-town guests present included the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, an uncle and aunt, Mrs. Graham, and the bride's aunt, Mrs. Cora Hall, all of Sweetwater, Mrs. Tommy Long of Roscoe, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bennett and Mrs. C. C. Thompson of Colorado.

A reception was held, after which the bride and bridegroom left for Sweetwater, where they will live.

The bride is a daughter of C. M. Thompson, a pioneer of Loraine, and a sister of Judge C. C. Thompson of Colorado.

Wednesday Club With Mrs. Hovis

Hostess to the Wednesday club was Mrs. Henry Hovis, whose only guest was Mrs. Austin Bush.

High score was made by Mrs. Clay Smith, second high by Mrs. Tom Marsh. Refreshments were served at the coffee shop. Mrs. Sherrod Smith is the next hostess.

Hollis Ellis Has Birthday Party

Twenty-seven little guests were entertained by Hollis Ellis on his eighth birthday, Jan. 18.

Boys received candy pipes as favors, and girls received suckers dressed as dolls. Cake, punch, and popcorn balls were served.

1921 Club's Health Resolution Is Copied

A copy of the 1921 Study club's health nurse resolution which was adopted by the Mitchell County Federation of Women's clubs after it was read by Mrs. Carl Black at the federation meeting Tuesday, afternoon is given below.

RESOLUTION FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A COUNTY HEALTH NURSE

WHEREAS, our health, that of our city and of our county, is of first importance.

WHEREAS, we need professional aid in combating the social diseases which exist not only in adults, but in an alarming high rate among our school children.

WHEREAS, the children of our city and county need regular inspection for the purpose of safeguarding their health.

WHEREAS, Mitchell county leads the state in its tuberculosis rate.

WHEREAS, Mitchell county has a lamentable high stillborn rate.

WHEREAS, the children of Mitchell are our greatest assets;

WHEREAS, the maintenance of a full time health department is even of greater importance than the necessity of maintaining a whole-time fire department, since the material consumed in the conflagration of communicable diseases is of much greater value than that consumed in disastrous fires, and since human life cannot be replaced.

WHEREAS, our lives, that of our children, our health and our happiness are at stake.

BE IT RESOLVED, that we, the 1921 Study Club, assembled in regular meeting on Friday, January 21, 1938, do respectfully urge the members of our County Federation to petition the proper authorities for the full-time employment of either a full-time health unit or a county health nurse.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we pledge our wholehearted cooperation to our city and county health officials, and to all authorities who are working toward better health and sanitation conditions in our county.

Mr. and Mrs. Son Powell and Mrs. Curtis Erwin and son Curtis, Jr., spent the week-end in Colorado. They went down to see Mrs. Lay Powell, who is leaving soon for Marlin for the benefit of her health.—Stanton Reporter.

Ed Dickenson and J. C. Sale are in Colorado this week to buy bulls for their herds on their ranches, northwest of Stanton.—Stanton Reporter.

G. Granville Johnson, a Lubbock druggist 19 years but who has been in Abilene since 1931, has purchased and assumed management of the Lubbock Hotel Drug, Inc., according to announcement Wednesday. Johnson, well-known as a druggist in this section, has returned to be in charge of the Lubbock store. He was associated continuously with the drug business here 19 years, having been interested in what are now Wylie's Drug store and the Lubbock drug store. (Johnson is the husband of the former Mary Arnett of Colorado.) Lubbock Avalanche-Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Powell had four couples as their guests for a buffet supper last Saturday evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Riggs Sheppard of Courtney; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Haley, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Jones and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kelly of Stanton.—Stanton Reporter.

Johnny E. Smith, sports editor of the Monahans News, was in Pecos Sunday visiting with friends.—Pecos Enterprise.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ruhlen of Lamesa have been here for the past few days visiting with Mr. Ruhlen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ruhlen.—Pecos Enterprise.

W. S. (Bill) Cooper, former editor of the Colorado Record, moved to Pecos this week to become special agent for the West Coast Life Insurance Company.

Cooper was with the Colorado paper 14 years and was connected with the Breckenridge Chamber of Commerce for several years. He once was president of the West Texas Press Association and served on the board of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce six years.

E. L. Hines of Houston, the insurance company's general manager for West Texas, and E. V. Grantland of Colorado, supervisor of agencies in West Texas, came here in connection with establishment of the agency. Hines and Cooper attended and spoke at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon Tuesday, and Hines was host at a dinner for a group of business men that night.

Cooper will cover a large territory centering at Pecos. His daughter, a school student, is expected to join him here soon.—Pecos Enterprise.

Retiring church indebtedness of over $9,000 three years before notes were due was celebrated in special ceremony at the First Baptist church in Stamford Sunday, of which Rev. P. D. O'Brien is pastor. Besides retiring church notes before they were due, a rarity in church annals, the First Baptist church has also paid $1,200 to missions since Rev. O'Brien has been pastor. He came to Stamford from Colorado last year, succeeding Rev. Sam Morris, formerly pastor there.—Abilene Reporter-News.

COFFEY RHYTHM BAND PLAYS AT ASSEMBLY

Ten kindergarten pupils composing Mrs. Bill Coffey's Rhythm band played on the assembly program at Junior High school Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

LOCKHART TEST HAS ENCOURAGING FLOWS

The H. L. Lockhart No. 1 A. R. Heusinger, just across the Howard county line on land leased by Lockhart from Bob Scott, is said to be showing up encouragingly. George Rinear is driller.

The test is said to have encountered shows at 1,315 and 1,445 feet. At 1,475 feet it had a considerable amount of free oil, and at 1,630 feet had a gas show.

It is located 330 feet out of the SE corner of section 67-29, W&NW, and is four miles southwest of the Snyder pool production.

OLDSMOBILE SALES MANAGER IS NAMED

The appointment of Mr. R. L. Myers as assistant general sales manager for Oldsmobile, in charge of the eastern half of the United States, was announced recently by D. E. Ralston, general sales manager.

Mr. Myers assumes his new position with a background of 23 years experience with General Motors, more than 12 of which were in its automobile divisions. For the past four years Mr. Myers has been manager of Oldsmobile's Atlantic Region. Prior to that he was regional manager for the Buick-Olds-Pontiac Sales Company on the Pacific Coast. It was stated that Myers will transfer his headquarters from New York to Lansing and will assume his new duties immediately.

In announcing the appointment of Myers to his new position, Mr. Ralston stated that Myers will join H. A. Trevelyan and G. R. Browder as assistant general sales managers in the Oldsmobile organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Jay, Mrs. Roscoe Dobbs, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Plaster, Frances and Verna Plaster had been to San Angelo on Sunday. A boy had been born to the Emmett Tilleyes on Sunday. The Fred Jones' were having a new home built. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Tunnell were building a new home, so were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller and J. O. Wolf. Mrs. Roy Dozier, Mrs. J. G. Merritt, and Jesse Stell had attended a missionary meeting in Loraine. Willie Grace Doss had chicken pox. Mattie Dorn of McMurry had spent the week-end at home. Mrs. Walter Stoneham, Mrs. Jeff Dobbs, Mrs. Raymond Murphy, and Sue Roberts Stoneham had spent the week-end in San Angelo.

Lloyd Pribble had resigned his position with the Magnolia company here and was going to work for the Condon Petroleum company in Big Spring. Garrard Hargrove, son of Mrs. R. F. Hargrove, had been transferred by the navy from the Philippine Islands to Seattle, Wash. W. W. Porter and Judge C. C. Thompson were announced for county judge, T. J. Coffee, A. S. Mauzey, and Fritz R. Smith for district judge, Ed Womack for tax assessor, Robert New for tax assessor. The Rev. Dr. W. Morgan, who had resigned as pastor of the First Baptist church here, had accepted a call to Winnsboro.

Raymond Jones was holding many offices at Oklahoma university. Loyce Price had been in a play at T. C. U. Stewart Cooper, Jr., had celebrated his fourth birthday with a party.
The Laugh-a-Lot bridge club had met with Mrs. Austin Busch, those present being Mesdames Charles Mann, Dewey Tidwell, Jake Richardson, Culver Thompson, Ed Jones, Jr., Toddy Landers, Bill Dorn, and Clyde Haney. Eleanor Thomas, Mary Broadbudd, Laury Smith, Lena Smith Mann, Edna Mae Powell, Margaret Sandusky, Clippie Bennett, and Virgie Powell.

Keeping Up With Mitchell Girls At TSCW

By Nina Laura Smith
Laura McKenney of Iatan, a senior, was one of six girls in a clothing class who helped to conduct a clothing clinic to aid T.S.C.W. girls to select the proper clothes for various occasions and types of personalities. The clinic had 300 "cases" on one day alone. Miss McKenney is moving out of the home economics practice cottage this week back to Rusk Hall. She has lived there for six weeks.

Mable Earnest Cooper was one of the violinists in the T.S.C.W. symphony orchestra which played in assembly for the first time this season. This orchestra is the only full symphony orchestra in a woman's college in the United States, according to Dr. William E. Jones, director of the music department.

Erna Lou Merrill had a birthday Wednesday. This might have been just like some of the others except for the fact that she nearly threw away five dollars. She received a birthday card and put it idly away, not knowing that a bill was inside the folds. When she received a letter from her mother inquiring why she had not mentioned the present, Erna Lou hurried to the forgotten envelope. She won't allow her age to be told, which proves there is no such thing as freedom of the press.

The mouse, subject of last week's hunt, did not want to be partial; he and some of his descendants also visited Travis, home of Walene Stevens of Loraine and Mary Alice Gunn of Cuthbert, and Lowry. One blanket in a Lowry closet was particularly appetizing to Brother Rat.
One of the first formal events marking the close of the first semester at T.S.C.W. was the formal dinner closing the Spanish dining room, attended by Frances Elliott and Nina Laura Smith. The highlight of the dinner was a Spanish gypsy dance and a talk about the customs in South America by Alicia Ibarburu of Montevideo, Uruguay.

On Friday night, St. Agnes' Eve, a formal dinner was given in the regular dormitory dining rooms in honor of Mrs. L. H. Hubbard, wife of the president of the college. This was one of the rare and impressive occasions when everyone wore white.
College attractions in the auditorium this week were the famous Joos European ballet, in exile from Germany, and the Children's Theater presentation of "Heidi."
Final examinations for the first semester at T.S.C.W. begin January 28 and last for one terrible week. A hint as to the approved methods of studying might be useful to high school students. There are two schools of thought on this subject. One holds that the best way to insure success on an exam is to go to a picture show the night before, while the opposition says that a romantic novel or juicy mystery is in order. Neither side offers a money-back guarantee.

There has been much comment among the Mitchell county girls about the remarkable improvement in the Howl, published by students of Colorado High school. Perhaps the writers do not realize how much it helps ex-students to keep up with the news of their friends. More power to you!

STONEROADS RETURN
Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Stoneroad, Jr., returned late Friday after a vacation trip to San Antonio, Monterey, and other points. Mr. Stoneroad, who resigned as president of the City National bank over two weeks ago after 37 years' in the banking business in Colorado, has not yet made any announcement concerning his plans for the future. In resigning as president Mr. Stoneroad retained his place on the board of directors of the bank and his other interests in the bank.
Mrs. Clarence Gross has been ill with flu this week.

NO PLANS

To date no plans are reported underway here for the staging of a President's party as usually held on January 29.

LOCAL CIRCLE

The Local Circle of the M. E. W. M. S. met Monday, Jan. 24, in the home of Mrs. G. A. Hutchins assisted by Mrs. Clyde Smith.

The Circle sang "Work For the Night Is Coming," accompanied by Mrs. Kirk Taylor at the accordion. Mrs. Earnest Meadows brought an inspiring devotional the basis being 1st Samuel, 1 to 20, wherein Hannah is shown as an ideal as she dedicates young Samuel to God since God sent the little boy in answer to prayer. Two clippings "Motherhood" and "Be Patient With the Boys," further emphasized her beautiful theme of "Gifts of God."

Prayer was offered by Rev. Scoggin who was a business visitor. Mrs. Taylor rendered an accordion solo, "Have You Counted the Cost."

Routine business was transacted. Rev. Scoggin presented a place for the beginning of a new church building but no definite action was taken except the carrying of a motion by Mrs. Clyde Smith that no funds contributed by the local circle be spent until further action could be taken by the circle. Rev. Scoggin and the church body.

Twenty visits, nine trays, three bouquets constituted social service activities.

Social hour brought a Bible quiz conducted by Mrs. Clyde Smith, a refreshment plate of sandwiches, sweet and sour pickles, gold cake, potato chips and hot tea.

Those present were Mesdames W. S. Thomas, Harold Martin, J. M. Bruce, C. J. Martin, W. E. Honea, John Marshall, Clyde Smith, Ed Williams, Kirk Taylor, W. E. Dickenson, Scoggin, C. F. Glass, Earnest Meadows, C. W. Palmer, Marvin Martin, Roy Edwards, Misses Isla Bruce, Fannie Jarrett, Rev. Scoggin and Gene Williams.

The local circle will meet Feb. 24 with Mrs. John Marshall and Mrs. Marvin Martin entertaining.

POLLYANNA CLASS MEETING

Misses Iona Callahan and Gwendola Mearse were hostesses to a number of their girl friends who are members of the Pollyanna S. S. class last Thursday night. Several business matters were discussed and LaVerne Scown was elected first vice-president of the class. Several games were enjoyed during the social hour and delicious refreshments were served.

Those present were: the teacher, Mrs. R. E. Bennett, Misses LaVerne Scown, Betty Johnson, Doris Mahoney, Elizabeth Hock, Opal Narrell, Margaret Jarrett, Frances Riden, Maggie Jeter and Mrs. A. Callahan. Doris Mahoney and Opal Narrell are to be hostesses for the February meet. There were several who had perfect attendance records for the past month.

LOLITA MARTIN FETED

Lolita Martin was surprised by a group of friends with a birthday party. And it was a surprise! Lolita thinking that she was going to a show in Colorado was met at the door by a group of friends which startled her by yelling "Surprise!" After the guests were received and while Lolita was overcoming her surprise, tables and chairs were brought in and the fun began. Small, red valentines tied with gold string and a little basket of candy hearts were placed at each person's place.

Games of "42," "Monopoly," "Cata-gore," and "Cootie," were played. Prizes were red heart-shaped suckers. After the nice gifts had been shown, refreshments of hot chocolate, sandwiches, and cookies were served to 10 guests.

About 11 o'clock the guests expressed a good time and left Lolita trying to figure out how it had all happened.

Out-of-town guests were Walter Grubbs, Ruth Elliott, and Ruth Harrison of Colorado.

GAGE-THOMPSON

Clifton Gage of Sweetwater and Miss Rilla Thompson of Lorainé were quietly married here at the K. L. Taylor home Saturday morning, Jan. 22. Rev. C. E. Jameson of Colorado officiated using the ring ceremony.

Mrs. K. L. Taylor, sister of the bride played the wedding march as they entered the beautifully decorated room where rites were performed in the presence of a number of relatives and friends.

The bride was becomingly dressed in black crepe with accessories of black. She is the daughter of C. M. Thompson of Lorainé and the late Anna Margaret Altman Thompson. A graduate of Lorainé High school she attended McMurry college holding position in Colorado later. She was operator at the Lorainé telephone exchange at time of her marriage. The groom is a young business man of Sweetwater where they will make their home.

Out-of-town relatives present were Mr. Gage's grandmother who resides in Sweetwater, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, and Mrs. Graham of Sweetwater, Mrs. C. C. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bennett of Colorado; Mrs. Tommy Long of Roscoe.

Following the wedding which took place at 10 o'clock Saturday morning Mrs. Taylor served punch and cookies.

COOKING SCHOOL

Despite cold weather Tuesday an interested number of ladies attended motion picture cooking school presented at the Riatio by the Mitchell County News which proved to be instructive educationally as well as interesting. A number of Lorainé business men are cooperating with the newspaper in giving away free merchandise during the three-day showing Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Gifts are also to be given away on Saturday.

DRESS SHOP MOVED

The Devine Dress Shop owned by Miss Anna Bess Wilkerson was moved Friday from Dr. Martin's building to the Fairbairn building next door to Dr. Johnson's office.

MOVED INTO PARSONAGE

Rev. Mr. Godfrey and wife of Clint, Texas, moved into the Baptist parsonage here Tuesday. The pastor will fill the pulpit at the Baptist church Sunday morning and night.

BROTHER OF A. B. SMITH DIED

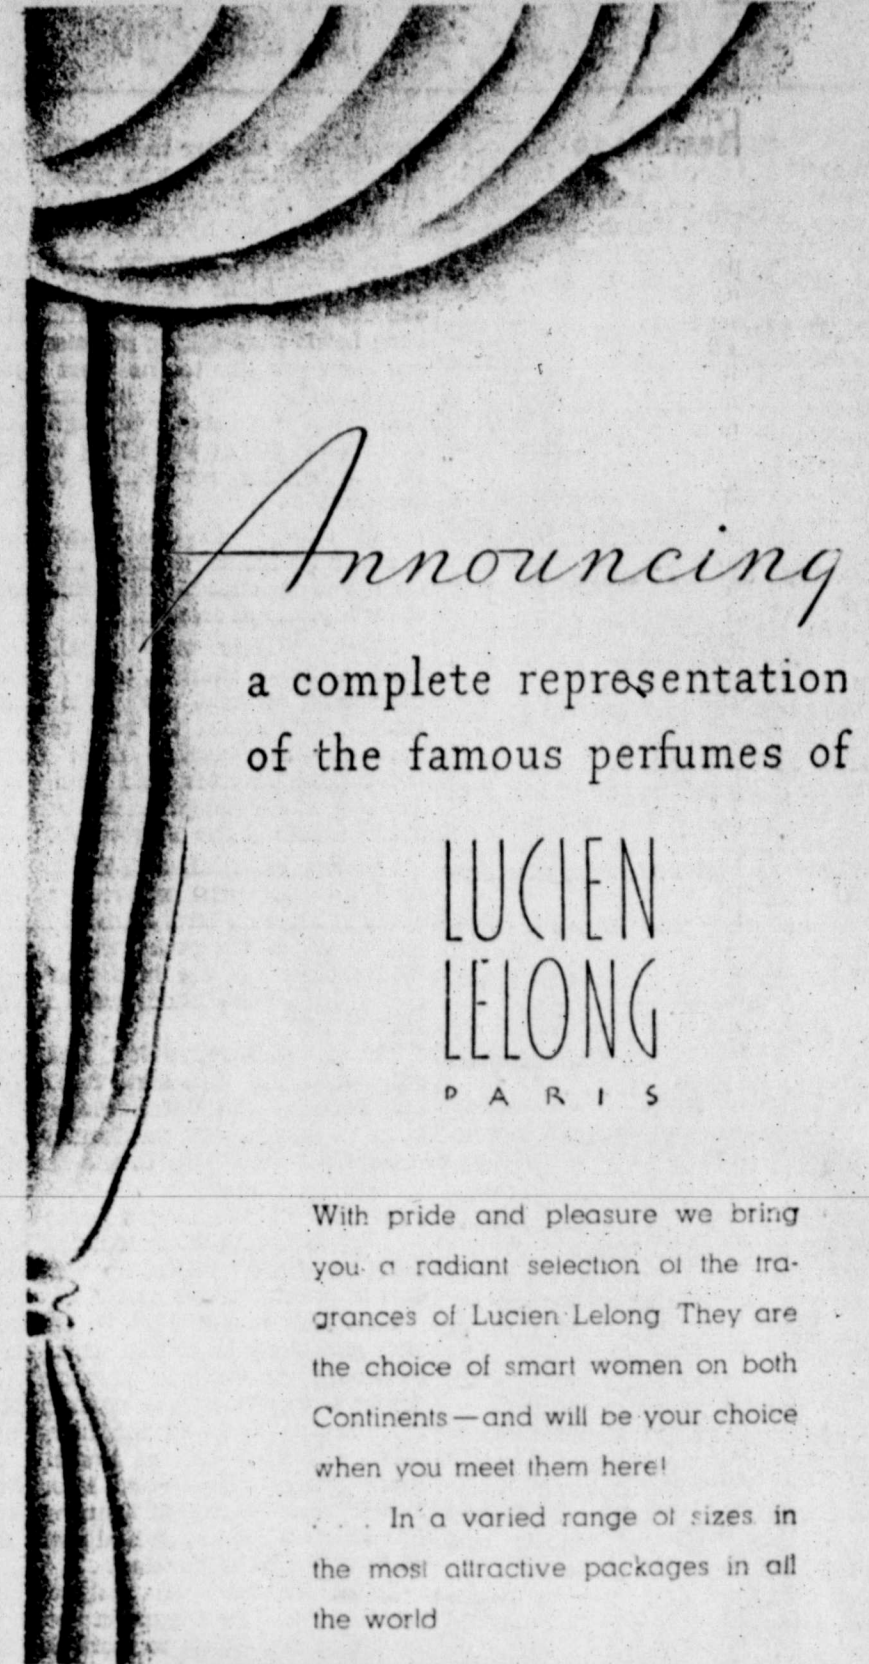

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Smith and son Clyde Smith attended funeral of Mr. Smith's brother, J. H. Smith, of Talpa, Monday afternoon, who died in a Coleman hospital.

SISTER OF MRS. STEWART DEAD

Mrs. W. L. Stewart went to the bedside of her sister at Wichita Falls Sunday who died there Sunday night. Burial was made at Commerce, Texas, Tuesday evening.

With morning came the repair crews

A winter rain, falling slowly from leaden December skies, froze to telephone poles and lines. Hard on its heels came the wind. Ice-laden wires snapped and poles splintered before the blast.

Night found scores of towns throughout the storm region handicapped by crippled telephone service.

But...with the morning came the repair crews. Hastily gathered from regions untouched by storm, by a management long familiar with such emergencies, they poured into the stricken area with trucks, tools and materials. Day and night they rushed the work of reconstruction.

One advantage to you of the Bell System's far flung organization is this: When disaster flattens the telephone system that serves you, men and money and materials are instantly available for the prompt repair of the damage. Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

Hours Named For Five Showings Of Dental Health Puppet Show In County On Monday

Definite hours for the five showings of the Morrey-Towse Dental Health Puppet show in Mitchell county schools on Monday were announced this week by Dr. R. D. Bridgford, Colorado dentist.

The show is being brought here under sponsorship of the State Department of Health, in cooperation with the State Department of Education and the Good Teeth Council for Children in Chicago. It first won notice during the World's Fair in Chicago.

The first two Mitchell county showings Monday will be at the Junior High school auditorium in Colorado, one show beginning at 8:45 and the second at 9:30. The show will then be taken to Loraine and staged in the high school auditorium there at 11 o'clock. Westbrook's show will begin at 1:45 Monday afternoon and Buford's at 3 o'clock.

All these shows will be open to the public, and pupils of the county's rural schools are being urged to attend the showing nearest them. Roy Davis Coles, county superintendent, is making arrangements for attendance by rural school students. No admission is to be charged. The show requires about 45 minutes.

According to a bulletin sent out in advance of the show, it is a piece of visual health education that has been arranged under the approval of nationally known leaders in the fields of dentistry, medicine, and elementary education.

"It is dramatized with music, voice, and humor," the bulletin says, "bringing out four fundamental points in dental health in such a way that it is not only entertaining, but makes lasting impressions on the minds of the school children as to the value of dental health. It is presented by Wilson R. Cromenewett and Miss Ruth Snow, both of whom are highly trained in dramatics and puppetry."

The plot of the story concerns the trials and tribulations of Little Jack who could not go to the circus with his sister, Joan, because he had toothache. Through the cooperation of his mother and the friendly family dentist, Jack's toothache was relieved and he was taught how to care for his teeth to prevent toothache; how dental disease affects the general health of the body, as well as that of the mouth; he is told of the importance of the right foods, exercise, home care, and dental care.

The supporting cast in addition to the dentist, Jack's mother, and sister, Joan, are Toni, the fruit peddler; the milkman; Toni's son; and Jocko, the monkey.

The show was given last year in approximately forty counties of Texas to some four hundred thousand pupils, teachers, and parents, and is scheduled to cover an even larger portion of the State this year. It has been shown to several million children in other parts of the United States, and both pupils and teachers are loud in their acclaim of its value.

RUNAWAY OKLAHOMA GIRL STOPPED HERE AND RETURNED HOME

A lone figure which Chief of Police Dick Hickman spotted as she tramped along the highway west of town early Wednesday morning turned out to be just who he thought she was—14-year-old Gwendolyn Gattin, who had been missing from her home in Altus, Oklahoma, for 10 days.

Hickman took the girl into custody and got in touch with her parents, who came here and got her late Wednesday. The parents had not known whether the child was kidnapped or what had happened to her. Her description had been broadcast all over Texas and Oklahoma.

THEATRE NEWS

"ADVENTUROUS BLONDE"

Palace—Thursday Only, Jan. 28
A thoroughly engrossing murder mystery yarn, although one from the modest budget bracket, this third in the Torchy Blane series is topnotch entertainment. Not a trick in production, direction or adaptation has been overlooked. Audiences will love it. In her now familiar role as Torchy Blane, Glenda Farrell gives her usual glib, insouciant portrayal, while Barton MacLane, Anne Nagel and Tom Kennedy win honors for their supporting roles. Miss Farrell and MacLane, about to be married, are framed by reporters on other sheets and sent on what is intended to be a phoney murder story. The joke, however, becomes grimly realistic when the phoney corpse is found to be quite dead. Torchy scoops the town, but fails to keep her wedding date. Frank McDonald directed.

Players are Glenda Farrell, Barton MacLane, Anne Nagel, William Hopper, Raymond Hatton, Tom Kennedy.

"LIVE, LOVE AND LEARN"

Palace—Friday and Saturday
January 28 and 29

When a picture offers romance, comedy, fine production and a well-liked cast, its boxoffice success is inevitable; and exhibitors will find this to be the case here. It has everything necessary to audience enjoyment and appreciation. Montgomery, as the penniless, slightly insane Greenwich Village artist, has never been better. He has a charming and able foil in Rosalind Russell, who marries him for better or for worse and finds that it is, for the most part, worse. The plot is complicated when Montgomery gains sudden fame and fortune, becomes entangled with the Other Woman—Helen Vinson—and is brought to his senses only through the strenuous efforts of Miss Russell and his alcoholic pal, Robert Benchley. Excellently directed by George Fitzmaurice.

Players are Robert Montgomery, Rosalind Russell, Helen Vinson, Robert

Benchley, E. E. Clive, Mickey Rooney, Maude Eburne.

"THE AWFUL TRUTH"

Palace—Saturday Midnite, Jan. 29
Sunday and Monday, Jan. 30 and 31

If this isn't unanimously voted the brightest, smartest comedy of the current season, it will, at least, be in there for a photograph finish. Its principal ingredients are: 50 per cent laughs and 50 per cent boxoffice appeal, and it will score with staggering grosses in all of its showings, because once audiences learn of the overwhelming quantity of superlative entertainment it offers, every potential patron will want to see it. The entire cast is splendid, with Irene Dunne and Cary Grant attaining a new high for comedy portrayals. Ralph Bellamy also shows a marked aptitude for parts in the lighter vein. It is the screenplay by Vina Delmar and Leo McCarey's inspired direction which, however, garner the lion's share of the credit for an almost unparalleled hit.

Players are Irene Dunne, Cary Grant, Ralph Bellamy, Alexander D'Arcy, Cecil Cunningham, Esther Dale, Joyce Compton.

"MAKE A WISH"

Palace—Tuesday and Wednesday
February 1 and 2

An idyllic story, obviously designed as a vehicle to afford an opportunity for Master Bobby Breen to display his vocal wares—which have never been better—this is, as a direct consequence, somewhat limited in its audience appeal. It will be great stuff with the juveniles, with dyed-in-the-wool Breen fans and with music-lovers generally, but it will require pressure selling before it can hope to attract universal attention from the fans. Composer Rathbone, who uses incidents in the boy's life as the basis for an opera, Breen insists that his mother Marion Claire, meet Rathbone and the two fall in love. The score of the opera is lost—Breen and his mother rewrite it—she sings the leading role—and all ends happily. Kurt Neumann directed.

Players are Bobby Breen, Basil

"SOPHIE LANG GOES WEST"

Ritz—Tuesday and Wednesday
February 1 and 2

Sophie Lang's army of admirers will be disappointed in this, her latest adventure—if it can be called an adventure. Without the story, cast and general production excellence which has characterized her previous films, this one suffers by comparison. Poor boxoffice returns may make the title more truthful than poetic. Gertrude Michael and Barlowe Borland hard, but with little success to stretch out a very weak story concerning the theft of the world's largest diamond. What little action there is, centers around a Hollywood movie studio where the jewel is used in a publicity stunt which ends when the gem is stolen during a fake robbery. Robert Cummings, seen in an obscure part, gives the outstanding performance of the film. Directed by Charles Reisner.

Players are Gertrude Michael, Lee Bowman, Sandra Storme, Larry Crabbe, Jed Prouty, Robert Cummings, Barlowe Borland.

INTERCLASS TOURNNEY OPENED BY COLORADO HIGH SCHOOL TUESDAY

The first inter-class tournament which Colorado High school has had in several years is now being sponsored by the junior class as a money-making venture.

The tournament opened Tuesday when the juniors defeated the sophomores 21-14 in a fast, well-played game. The seniors are to play the freshmen Thursday, and winners of this encounter will engage the juniors on Thursday of next week for the school championship.

Sophomores and the losing team in the senior-freshman tilt will play Tuesday for third place. The games are reported to be creating an intense rivalry between classes. All games are played at the regular assembly period, 2:15 to 2:45, and eight-minute quarters are used. Nickel admission is charged.

The winning class team is to be matched against a faculty team on some date yet to be named.

Line-ups are as follows:
Seniors: Smith, Williams, Payne, Farquhar, Simpson.
Juniors: Woods, Jones, Chadwick, Richardson, Harrison, Lacey, Smith, Williamson.

Sophomores: Ballard, Cox, Walker, Glover, Brown, Chaney.
Freshmen: M a n n, Henderson, Grubbs, Caffey, Davis, Watson, Smith, Feaster.

Faculty line-up: Pratt, Coffman, f., Wheeler, c.; Shillingburg, Christian, g.; substitutes: Watson, Foster, Brazil, Mason, Winchester.

WOLVES DOWN ROSCOE FOR SECOND TIME IN LEAGUE SERIES PLAY

For the second time since the district 6-B basketball series began in December the Colorado Wolves defeated Roscoe on Roscoe's court Tuesday night. The score was 25-22. Roscoe was in the lead once during the first quarter, the score at that time being 6-5. Colorado led 16-13 at the end of the half.

Tommy Chadwick was high point man for Colorado, making seven points.

B. J. Baskin, county farm agent, is now at work lining up 4-H club boys of the county for their projects of the year.

Monday he met with three clubs, Buford, Valley View, and Lone Star. Buford had 33 present, Valley View 12, and Lone Star 25.

Baskin went to Dorn and Conaway on Wednesday, lining up 11 boys at Dorn and 12 at Conaway. Thursday he is meeting boys at Loraine, Bauman and Westbrook, and on Friday will be at Spade, Hyman, and Fairview.

The boys will be allowed to choose their own project club from an offering of maize, cotton, pig, lamb, and calf clubs.

TAKEN TO DALLAS

Friends of the P. D. O'Brien family, now of Stamford, have heard that they took one of the twins, Richard O'Brien, to Dallas last Saturday to have him examined for some kind of knee trouble that has made walking difficult and sometimes impossible for him since shortly after Christmas. Mrs. Hugh Millington and other relatives here had received no word from the O'Briens Thursday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Billingsley left Thursday morning for a trip to Dallas.

RANGE CONSERVATION COMPLIANCE PAPERS FOR 1937 COMPLETED

Compliance papers for the 1937 range conservation program in Mitchell county were completed last week by B. J. Baskin, county farm agent, and forwarded to A. & M.

With their compliance established, ranchers of the county have already started signing their applications for grants on the 1937 program.

MRS. RICHARDSON IS IN CHARGE PIGGLY'S DELICATESSEN NOW

Mrs. Ed Richardson began work this week as head of the delicatessen department of Piggly Wiggly's. For a number of years Mrs. Richardson has been dietitian at Root Hospital here and her ability as a cook is well-known to most Coloradans.

BASKIN HELPS RUN TERRACING LINES

One hundred and thirty acres belonging to D. R. Smith south of Loraine were marked with terracing lines by B. J. Baskin, county farm agent, last week.

Baskin has also run terrace lines on 50 acres for J. H. Everts at Cuthbert.

OF ALL ILLNESS
CAUSED BY WHAT YOU EAT

MAYBE you can't smell or taste the spoilage; but does that mean it's not there? A noted Eastern hospital says: "70% of ALL ILLNESS is caused by what you eat or drink!" Why does so much of this illness come in winter? Well, remember this: it's always summer in your kitchen. At 70 degrees or higher, food and milk spoil fast. And milk is most dangerous just before it tastes sour!

Your family deserves the protection of Servel Electrolux—the Gas or Kerosene refrigerator—winter and summer. NOW, Servel Electrolux is the one refrigerator which supplies steady, unvarying cold. And it won't dry out meat and leftovers. Nor will vegetables. Servel Electrolux is different from all others—a different kind of refrigerator. It has no moving parts. Nothing to wear. No noise—ever. A tiny gas or kerosene flame takes the place of all machinery—and operates here for as little as 3 cents per day! A small down payment puts Servel Electrolux in your home; savings pay the rest. Why not start them NOW?

LONG ILLNESS OF MRS. JOSEPHSON ENDS IN DEATH

SISTER OF THREE COLORADO MEN BURIED IN SANTONE MONDAY AFTERNOON

Death closed a long illness for Mrs. Lena Berman Josephson, 30, of Snyder, sister of three Colorado men and herself a former Coloradoan, in a San Antonio hospital Sunday morning at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Josephson, wife of Marcel Josephson of Snyder, had been in the hospital since mid-October. She had never been entirely well after undergoing a serious major operation over a year before.

She was the only sister of Max, H. I., and Philip Berman of Colorado. These men and their families, together with her husband, were called to her bedside Thursday for the last time. Previously all had made several trips to San Antonio, her condition having been serious for some time.

Daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Sam Berman, Mrs. Josephson was born in Seguin, Texas, on October 15, 1907. After graduation from Seguin high school she attended the University of Texas two years. She came to Colorado with her mother in 1926, and made this her home until her marriage to Marcel Josephson on June 9, 1928. At that time Mr. Josephson lived in San Antonio, and they made their home there for three years after marriage. They had lived in Snyder since 1932.

In addition to her husband and three brothers, Mrs. Josephson is survived by a daughter, Sandra Jean, age 6.

Funeral services were held from the chapel of Hagy and McCollum in San Antonio at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon. Rabbi David Tamarkin of Agudis Achim synagogue officiated. Burial was in the Agudis Achim cemetery beside Mrs. Josephson's parents.

Attending the funeral from Colorado in addition to the Berman families were Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Kirschbaum and Mrs. Nat Britton. A number of Snyder and Sweetwater people were also present.

HAVE YOU PAID YOUR POLL TAX?

The urgent appeal that Mitchell countians remember their poll taxes before the too-late line rolls around at midnight Monday was issued Thursday morning.

Only 1,374 poll taxes had been paid up to Thursday morning. This number is less than half what Mitchell county's total should be, according to Roy Warren, tax assessor-collector.

WOLVES TO PLAY LAST HOME GAME OF LEAGUE ON THURSDAY EVENING

The last home game which the Colorado Wolves are to play this season in the double round robin league of district 6-B will be Thursday night (tonight) when they meet Sweetwater in the Colorado gym.

The Wolves still have one game to play in the league, that one being their return game with Merkel on Merkel's court. This game was postponed Monday night by Merkel for the third time.

THREE COLORADOANS TO SWEETWATER BANQUET

Three Coloradoans were among representatives of some 25 West Texas towns attending the all-civic banquet of the Sweetwater Board of City Development on the roof of the Bluebonnet in Sweetwater Monday night.

Representing Colorado was Truett Barber, president of the Colorado chamber of commerce, and Carl Blasing, secretary-manager. They were accompanied by Mrs. Barber. Barber made a brief talk.

CONOCO GIVES CREDIT TO NEWSPAPER ADS FOR BEST YEAR IN HISTORY

Giving due credit for the best year in its history to the heavy use of newspaper advertising, the Continental Oil Company today announced that its 1938 advertising expenditures for newspaper space will be increased by 17 per cent over the 1937 expenditures.

Continental during the coming year will allot to the daily and weekly press about 66 per cent of all that is to be spent on consumer media and will place advertising in approximately 1250 newspapers. The new advertising will continue to deal with Conoco Bronze Gasoline and Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil and the action of this lubricant, due to the presence of a product of the research laboratories, in forming an abnormally tough film that stays on metal surfaces even while the motor is idle, instead of draining off.

The new campaign, which has been carefully checked for reader response in selected test areas at Colorado Springs, Colo., and in Richmond, Va., will also stress the position of local Conoco dealers as "mileage merchants" who are independent of the company and must deal with the customer on the basis of their own ability and standing in the community they serve.

EIGHT WOLVES AT ASSEMBLY MONDAY

COACH CHRISTIAN MAKES PRESENTATION; SEVEN OF JACKETS TO SENIORS

Eight Wolves who have played their last football game for Colorado High school were presented with jackets during assembly period in the high school auditorium Monday afternoon.

Presentation was made by Coach Jack Christian. The garments were bought by the athletic council. This year, instead of giving sweaters, the council gave wool jackets with leather sleeves, the body of the jacket being black, the sleeves and the letter red, carrying out the Wolves' fighting colors.

Charles Carter, captain of the Wolves for the past season and a senior, received a jacket with three stripes and a star; Glenn Churchill, senior, received one stripe; Quinton Hamrick, senior, one stripe; Joe Smallwood, senior, one stripe; Ernest Smith, senior, one stripe; Van King, senior, three stripes; Dale Simpson, senior, one stripe; Boone Jackson, who has reached the end of eligibility for high school football, two stripes.

R & R OFFICIALS

'Promising' Oil Co. of Colorado is Now
Promising to Drill Well on Pike's Peak

That Promising Oil company "gang" has broken into print again! Now the ambitious leaders in the aforementioned company are even going the Governor of Texas one better. It will probably go down in history that all the governor did was to win Pike's Peak from Colorado—it was the Promising Oil company that really made the hunk of real estate a paying proposition.

For the Promising Oil company is now promising to do no less than drill an oil well on the peak when—and if—it gets to Texas.

News stories on this latest venture of the famous (?) Colorado organization appeared in prominent places in the Abilene Reporter-News, the Sweetwater Reporter, and other dailies of this section last Sunday. A copy of one of the stories follows:

"An offer to lease Pike's Peak for oil and gas exploration, with the promise to drill a well at least 50,000 feet deep, has been made Governor James V. Allred by the Promising Oil company of Colorado, Texas.

"This peak was recently acquired by the governor of Texas in a football wager from the governor of Colorado.

"Included in the ten-year agreement is the promise to pay the governor a five-eighths overriding royalty interest to be applied to the Old Age Pension Fund, thereby alleviating the state's major financial headache.

"We are going to spud in this test just as soon as Governor Allred completes his job of moving his Pike's Peak acreage into Texas, President R. T. Dockrey and General Counsel Harry Ratliff of the Promising Oil company declare. "Since we know that this is going to be a tough job we have promised to pay a $1 per year delay rental until the peak will have been transferred to its new location," Ratliff states.

"The Colorado chamber of commerce has unanimously endorsed the project with the suggestion that the governor move Pike's Peak to Colorado, Texas, and place it on the eastern rim of the Permian Basin. "We need some oil on this side in order to balance the amount taken out on the western side of the basin," chamber of commerce officials declared.

"The Promising Oil company, organized at a barbecue on August 1, 1936, is Colorado's latest industrial enterprise. Thirty-five prominent business men, cattlemen, and oil men of Colorado, Big Spring, San Angelo and Midland are among its stockholders—if there were any stockholders. This the company officials deny, claiming that the Promising Oil company neither a corporation nor a partnership; that they have no capital, preferred or common stock; that they have no assets, offsets or backsets, but are merely a promissory concern dealing entirely in futures, particularly in things of the distant future.

"The company has its headquarters in a room surrounded by offices of lawyers, oil officials and cattlemen on the second floor of the City National bank building. The equipment, all of it borrowed from members, consists of a domino table, a set of dominos, several chairs, two spittoons and a table containing second hand copies of the "Oil Weekly" and the "Oil and Gas Journal." The official records, consisting of a ledger and a Black Draught almanac and a fish calendar, are kept in the nearby office of the general counsel, who acts as the chief oracle of the organization, or whatever it is.

"The Promising Oil company started its career by promising to pay the janitor for cleaning its domino preserve and it is still promising to do so. Then it bought an oil lease adjacent to a wildcat test and promised to pay for the lease but the hole came in dry before it could fulfill the promise. Since then it has made a lot of promises, which it promises to make good.

"The funds of the company are raised by staging a barbecue and charging each member five dollars a plate, which all of them promise to pay. The surplus—if any—is used for buying oil leases in unproven territory, because that is the only kind they can afford to buy. So far they have purchased two oil leases of which their oil scouts, who are members of the company, have promised oil production.

"A few days ago an oil well, promising to flow 140 barrels a day, was brought in a quarter of a mile from the one leased, resulting in a $1,200 cash offer on the company's two hundred dollar investment.

"Now it is promising to sell this lease just as soon as someone promises enough for it to pay for drilling the 50,000-foot well on Pike's Peak, provided Governor Allred signs the lease and succeeds in moving the hill to Texas."

PICKED UP ALONG THE NEWS PATH

Found out that the plane which I noticed flying southward last week probably belonged to an oil man and his wife from Mount Pleasant, Michigan. . . . They were going to Sanatorium to visit a friend, Mrs. C. M. Cantrell, sister of Mrs. Frank Ramsdell of Colorado. . . .

This space paid for (or at least charged to) John E. Watson, superintendent of schools, and the Rev. C. E. Jameson, pastor First Methodist church. . . . They know why—see if you can get them to tell you. . . . In other words, "is my belief they'd rather pay for this space than to have it filled with certain sentences that would fit in beautifully right along here. . . .

Did you know that there used to be a city ordinance about steamboats whistling on the Colorado river? Somebody ran across it in some old city council minutes that I mean to write a story about some of these days. . . . Maybe there was enough water in the Colorado along here at one time to make steamboats a possibility, but it's hard for this generation to imagine such. . . . Incidentally, I wonder what the city forefathers who made such an ordinance about a little steamboat whistle would do about the shrieking of today's trains as they thunder through town. . . .

It isn't considered good form to boast, we know, but we of The Record are supposed to believe in advertising and how are you going to know that we've been getting a lot of compliments on our new type and makeup unless we advertise the fact? Seriously, we are deeply grateful for the kind things that have been said about the appearance of the "dressed-up" issues last week and week before. . . . Wendell Bedichek, managing editor of the Abilene Reporter-News, was good enough to write last week: "Certainly do like your new head type. I think it has done wonders for The Record." . . . Johnny E. Smith, who is now one of the owners of the Monahans News, wrote: "The front page of The Record looks 100% better."

One man whom I've never heard any other Colorado man call anything but "a prince of a fellow" or something meaning about the same—Frank Kelley. . . . The first Coloradoan, so far as I know, to ever get his name in The American Magazine—the Rev. A. L. Haley of First Christian church, who rated a paragraph on the "It Takes All Kinds" column of that magazine this month. . . . Incidentally, that paragraph brought him a letter from a young man in one of the Dakotas wanting to follow in his footsteps. . . .

Speaking of water in the Colorado river, residents of some 30 years ago will vouch for the fact that there used to be enough for Jerold Riordan to dive off the south bridge. . . .

See by the daily papers that we're to have a new nickel, one with Jefferson on it instead of the good old buffalo. . . . I feel a wisecrack coming on, because I'm sure the Jeffersons will be just as hard to catch as the buffaloes have been. . . . They tell me that some C. I. A. girl wrote a story on Mrs. S. H. Millwee of Colorado, describing her as a quoter of Shakespeare and the classics while going about the business of being the best cook in Colorado. . . .

Friends of Mrs. Leonard Orynski, former Coloradoan, notice from the Dallas News that she takes quite a leading part in Little Theater work in Dallas. . . . When Blanche Yurka was guest performer for a showing of "Lysistrata" by the Little Theater of Dallas this week Mrs. Orynski entertained for her after the show. . . . Speaking of shows, Joe Earnest tips me off to the fact that Joyce Hodges, new leading girl in George M. Cohan's new play, "I'd Rather Be Right," was a high school pupil under Raymond Jones when he taught in Des Moines, Iowa. . . . Incidentally, Joe also tipped me off to the paragraphs about Mrs. Orynski and to this additional squib: Giuseppe Ben-tonelli, the famous opera singer who was plain Joe Benton when Raymond Jones was his friend in Oklahoma university, has just inherited $120,000 from a woman art patron in Chicago. . . .

Mrs. R. B. Terrell has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Terrell in Sweetwater for the past several days. She was reported ill during the week-end.

RECORD AFFORDS OPPORTUNITY FOR WRITERS

The enthusiasm of the Howl staff greatly surpasses all preceding staffs. So much of this is due to the encouragement given them by the Colorado Record. The Record has shown increasing support in the amount of space they have given the staff each week for their news. The Howl Staff does not wish to infringe on their generosity, but to express their appreciation for such opportunity to do their best in this project in journalistic efforts.

FRESHMAN NEWS

The Fish are all happy that they have passed their first half-year in C. H. S. (those who have!). They are ready to start anew and really work. They have all grown to like their work and are glad to be members of the C. H. S. student body.

Those who were exempt enjoyed their holidays: Phyllis Berman entertained at a "get-together" on Thursday afternoon. What happened to that half-dozen oranges and half-dozen tangerines? When the party was over there were some lemons and sausage missing, and the ice box had been raided!

The Weaving club consisting of Phyllis Berman, Lila Mannering, Betty Whipkey, Marian Britton, Blanche Motley, and Mary Price is in the making. The club meets on Friday nights at the different homes of the members. The members have been working on sweaters, and pl-lows, but they are now ready to create a new interest.

Mary Price.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

The sophomore class voted in a recent class meeting to attend each game of the Interclass Tourney one hundred per cent if at all possible.

Mixing business with pleasure, we intend to take advantage of the generous offer of the junior class and are working toward that one-half of soph gate receipts. The weather: Yesterday: Chilly; Today: Chilly; Tomorrow: Swing; wide the pearly gates. I can't stand that stuff three days straight. Sympathetic sophs are saving pennies for the pencil-peddling juniors. Trouble is a patriotic affliction. It makes the eyes red, the hair white, and the feelings blue. Essie Louise Gray went for a shirt spin on the new firetruck last Thursday noon. Whatta thrill!

Remember Jean Morrison is soph candidate for band sweethart. Advice for a speech: Have a good beginning and a good ending, and keep the two as close together as possible. Freddie Watson, Buster Slaton, and Jack Long have been appointed assistants to Beulah Robinson, campaign manager for Jean Morrison. Basketball definition: technical foul—the wrong technique. Seen most often in semi-dark places. Mr. Coffman reports that the coathangers are rapidly piling in. Bushels of orchids to Ada Neal, Doris Montgomery, and Wallace Kirby for being swell sophomores. Definition:ymph-personality. "It" and what have you. Most necessary. Among sophomores sponsored by business firms in the Best-Dressed Colorado Girl Contest are Nancy Price, Harry Etta Landers, Harriet Ann Pritchett, Beulah Robinson, Doris Flo Doss, and Jean Morrison. Second thoughts are best only when they arrive on time. Hazel Laster, who formerly attended school at Dunn, has enrolled as a sophomore. Said one little boy to another: "How old is Miss Brown?" Replied the other: "I dunno, but she must be pretty old."

I heard she taught Caesar. . . . Bernice Barr, Doris May Grant, and Lillian Swarty are among other recently enrolled sophs. . . . Drop your pennies in the box marked "Jean Morrison." . . . Basketball definition: tie ball—What is done when the ball comes unloosed. . . . Fire prevention themes and posters have been occupying the spare moments of the English 2 students. . . . Nina Katherine and Billie True are doing all right with Weidon and Harold. . . . Spring is almost here, with sandstorms and violets already appearing. . . . Or had you noticed?

Catherine Slagle.

IN AND OUT OF C. H. S.

Many of us were slightly disillusioned last week when old Grandfather clock went back on us. We have always felt that it would keep perfect time forever, just as it has in the past. Regulating the clock caused unnecessary bells to ring. But build your trust back in in Grandfather clock because it is once more the perfect example for watch setting.

A geometry student questions Miss Yates:

"Miss Yates, did you ever run up against a mathematical problem that stumped you?"

Miss Yates reflected a moment, then answered:

"Yes, I have. I could never figure out how, according to the advertisements, 85 per cent of the dentists recommended one brand of toothpaste, 92 per cent recommended another brand, and 95 per cent recommended still another brand."

Well, dear classmates now you can breathe a sigh of relief. Why? If you aren't awake yet, the mid-term exams are over. I feel more like giving a war whoop, but some of your well-refined failures may only sigh and wait until the finals come so you can fail them too. I believe, with a promise of better grades the teachers might calmly ignore all "ancient history" and start you out with a new leaf. All you guys and gals get a little "umph" behind you and start dunno, but she must be pretty old.

SINGERS INTEREST

Whew! A sigh of relief comes after the mid-term exams. Now we have nothing to worry about until the finals.

The Choral Clubs are blending their voices together in the hymn "Bring To Me Only With Thine Eyes," "Sylvia," and "Marchetta."

Something new has been added to the club. An added attraction? Yes! It is the Double Trio consisting of two high sopranos: Joy Levens and Frances Merle Cooper; two second sopranos: Lucille Goode and Aleene Bodine; and two altos: Betty Hodge and Mary Frances Smith. Mrs. Moser works with the trio every Monday. They are learning "Little Orphan Annie" and "Songs My Mother Taught Me."

HOWL STAFF MEETING

The Howl staff met Friday morning at 8:30 in Miss Barrett's room. At this meeting the articles for the paper were discussed and written. Plans for school magazine, which is to be published this week, were made. Those present at the meeting were: Marjorie Burgess, Catherine Slagle, Mary Price, Virginia Whipkey, Willie Grace Doss, and Geneva Campbell.

Geneva Campbell and Billie Blackwell were appointed business managers of the Howl Magazine.

The staff adjourned to meet again Friday morning at 8:30, Jan. 28.

Geneva Campbell.

AGRICULTURE NEWS

Last Friday night, the boys, with the help of the home economics girls, sponsored a picture at the Palace theater, featuring Mae West in "Every Day's a Holiday" and also an added attraction, a Popeye comedy. The clubs received fifty per cent of the ticket receipts taken in.

The first year F.F.A. boys have been finishing the interesting study of terracing and have been running terracing lines on the farms of the local farmers.

The third year boys have finished the study of sheep and outside of class they have been working on various teams in the study of livestock, dairying, terracing, meat identification, chapter conducting and public speaking.

Billie Blackwell.

BAND NEWS

The second semester has started off with a bang for the C. H. S. band. It seems that every member is resolving to make a much better band for high school this last half of the school term.

There were eleven exempt in the band this mid-term. Those were: Doris Richardson, Joe Lee, Ruth Griffith, Ruth McQuerry, Roeburta Hamrick, J. T. Williamson, James D. Wulffen, Jimmie Harrison, Willie G. Doss, Anna Don Snively and Theda Howell.

There were many who made a grade of 80 and above. There were reported no failures who couldn't bring the grade up during the second semester.

Last Friday morning the band marched through town carrying a banner which read "Help Us Select a Band Sweetheart." Kathryn Hodges, Lila Mannering, Louise Pritchett and Jean Morrison marched with the band which was led by Drum Major Joe Lee. The four girls just named are the candidates voted from each class in C. H. S.

Francis Watson.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS

The homemaking girls are supporting their contest to the fullest extent, the proceeds of which will help finance a worthy cause. Each girl who is to represent a merchant has been preparing for the event and has a secret desire to be the lucky winner.

The H. E. classes have begun new problems for this semester. The cooking classes have started sewing and the sewing classes have started cooking. The change in work is proving interesting to those involved.

The Vocational Agriculture club and the Home Economics club are cooperating with each other in an effort to raise funds for the trip to the Fat Stock Show.

Freddie Watson.

VICTORIES FOR WOLVES AND RABBITS

Playing Roby at Roby Friday night, the Wolves hung up another victory in the double-round robin being played by 6-B teams. This brings Colorado's standing in the league to second place. Colorado has lost three games, while Roby, in first place, has lost two.

The Colorado quintet got off to an early lead, which was held until the final whistle. Score by periods was: first quarter 12-1; half, 14-3; third quarter, 18-7; ending, 24-17. Starting lineup: Smith, Cox, f.; Ballard, c.; Woods, Chadwick, g. Earnest Smith was high point man, accounting for thirteen of Colorado's 24 points.

At Roby the Jackrabbits also came out on top in a fast, exciting game which they won in the last thirty seconds of play. The final score was 27-25.

The Wolves had a game scheduled with Roscoe at Roscoe Tuesday night. They next encounter Sweetwater here Thursday night.

Catherine Slagle.

PRESENTATION OF JACKETS

Coach Jack Christian, Monday, presented red and black jackets to senior football lettermen. The jackets are awarded only to seniors eligible for letters who have passed three subjects. "No sweater," stated Coach Christian, "has ever been withheld on this account, showing that Colorado High athletes are of a high scholastic standard."

Colorado High school is endeavoring to standardize this award, presenting each subsequent year jackets instead of sweaters as has formerly been done. In addition several rules concerning how the lettering player shall use this award of honor, his jacket, are to be drawn up and adopted.

Seniors receiving jackets were: Ernest Smith, Dale Simpson, Van Kline, Quinton Hamrick, Glenn Churchill, Joe Smallwood, Boone Jackson, and Charles Carter, captain.

FAIRVIEW PTA HAS SIXTEEN PRESENT

By Floy West, Reporter
 With Mrs. Ed Strain in charge the Fairview P. T. A. met Thursday, January 20, with 16 present.

An interesting program "What the School Should Mean to the Child" was given under the direction of Mrs. Lon Strain.

Music for the hour was given by Rhythm Band.

It was decided that the P. T. A. sponsor a pie supper Thursday evening, February 10, at the community house.

WOMACKS THANK FRIENDS

Ed Womack said this week that she and Mr. Womack are sincerely grateful for the shower of gifts left at their home by friends, many of them as yet unknown, when they returned from the hospital in Abilene recently. Mr. Womack underwent four operations while in the hospital. He is said to be doing fairly well at present.

VISITS IN ABILENE

Mrs. Ernest Keathley went to Abilene last week to visit her sister, Mrs. J. H. Ball, whose husband, Dr. J. H. Ball, was buried Jan. 20. Mrs. Keathley returned home Sunday.

HOW TO GO TO SLEEP

Hold eyes wide open. Sleep comes quickly. If bladder irregularly wakes you up do 2 things. 1. Alkalize excess kidney acids. 2. Gently flush out waste. This helps relieve the irritation that wakes you up, causes scanty flow, frequent desire, burning or backache. Get 25c worth of green tablets containing buchu leaves, juniper oil, etc. Just say Bukets, the kidney evacuant, to any druggist and get a good night's sleep. Locally at J. L. Doss Pharmacy, and Colorado Drug Co. 2-18-c.

Beware Coughs That Hang On

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold, or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with any remedy less potent than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble and aids nature to soothe and heal the inflamed mucous membranes and to loosen and expel the germ-laden phlegm.

Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, try Creomulsion. Your druggist is authorized to refund your money if you are not thoroughly satisfied with the benefits obtained from the very first bottle. Creomulsion is one word—not two, and it has no hyphen in it. Ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)

There is one best way
TO CHOKE IN WINTER

Through no fault of your own, during past winters, you may have formed a bad habit of "too much choke." Perhaps your gasoline absolutely demanded overtime choking—harmful and wasteful. No need to continue that way with Special Winter Blend Conoco

Bronze. You could scarcely keep it from starting quickly, even if you wanted to. But you'll take pride in your skill, you'll save gasoline, and you'll make sure of topnotch starting speed, by using your choke—and Conoco Bronze—in this approved way:

(You may want to tear this out and keep it in the car for the next few days)

- | | |
|---|---|
| Leave ignition OFF.* | Wait for two or three engine revolutions. |
| Keep clutch pedal clear down. | Now switch on the ignition. |
| Open hand-throttle about one-third. | Be ready to let up on starter. |
| Pull choke out full, if not automatic. | And you'll know you can promptly begin to push in the choke, as you hear the steady powerful firing of your Special Winter Blend Conoco Bronze. |
| And then—but not before—operate your starter. | |

Official Reports

—on banking show an impressive feature of business recovery.

THE report of the Comptroller of the Currency of the United States for instance, shows that there are about 16,000 banks in active operation under the supervision of state or federal banking authorities. Their capital totals more than three and one-half billion dollars and their surplus and reserves amount to over four billion dollars more. Their total deposits have increased in a year to forty-six billion dollars, and their aggregate resources have increased to sixty billion dollars.

In reports furnished the American Bankers Association the supervisors of banks in the various states also confirm similar forward trends in their jurisdictions throughout the nation.

These facts and figures show that strong currents of public confidence are aiding the turn toward general business recovery.

FISHES FUN

All the Freshmen reported a good time at the show Monday night. There was about half of our class that went. Later on we are going to have another entertainment with the money from the play.

In public school music several of the pupils are going to make different things. Louise and Valerie are going to make Chinese Chimes. Virginia and Geneva are going to make stick phones and Myrlene and Elihan Chinese Chimes also.

THE SEVENTH GRADE

Mrs. Lambert taught our room Wednesday on account of Mrs. Cope being ill.

Mrs. Walter Lyle gave a poem in reading class Friday. Imogene Eikenberg and Syble Jo Claxton visited our room Tuesday.

We received our English notebooks Monday.

The following conversation was held between Miss McMurtry and Maxine in history class:

Miss McMurtry: "What treaty closed the war?"

Maxine (snapping her fingers): "Oh, let me answer it!"

Miss Mc: "Alright, Maxine you tell us."

Maxine: "The treaty of peace."

Mrs. Cope has started moving the furniture again with her head.

JUNIOR NEWS

The Juniors are again proud of one of their members and his ability to play basketball. Sydney Jones was one of the five boys to whom individual trophies were given at Coahoma last Saturday night for outstanding playing.

Mr. Hood is ready to begin another play. The people in his study hall the second period in the morning had better be good because he is none too sparing with demerits after a hard night of play practice.

After it had been raining for several days Mr. Hood came to the study hall rubbing his knee. He said, "My rheumatism tells me there is going to be some wet weather." He plays safe in his prophecies by predicting rain after he sees it.

SENIOR NEWS

The report cards were issued Thursday afternoon. Some of them looked all right, while others didn't look so good. We hope everyone does better next time.

J. K. Bolin's hair has got curly lately. It is very attractive and becoming.

How could we get along without Modena Elliot's friendly giggle. We just couldn't, I guess.

Alfred doesn't seem to like to ride with a certain Junior boy and two red-haired girls. We wonder—why?

What's this we hear about some of our Senior boys spending a pleasant week-end together? How could they have so much fun housekeeping? I thought boys hated that job—but maybe I was mistaken.

Why did Mr. Crouch look so funny when he walked in English 4 class Monday and saw Miss Speights erasing her name (with Mrs. attached) so quickly. Why did Miss Speights blush so much? We'll often wonder—and maybe sometime we'll know.

FROM THE NEWSBOX

Mattie Blanche has a very popular boy friend, so the soph boys say. We wonder who he is? Why don't you disclose your secret, Mattie?

It seems like Floyd likes a twin at Coahoma. You had better watch out, Floyd, because when you take one, you take both.

Mr. Hood seems to have had a hard time getting his noodles to go down. He told his world History class an incident which happened at a dinner with one of his professors. He was trying to get the noodles to go down, he kept on watching the professor since he was doing very well. Mr. Hood suddenly blew his noodles all over the table and professor in trying to follow his example. His face seemed to have turned so red in class when he told us about that, we wonder what it looked like when he made the mistake.

SYDNEY JONES MAKES ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM AT COAHOMA

Sydney Jones added another trophy to his string of individual trophies when he did such outstanding playing that he was placed with the all-tournament team at the invitation tournament at Coahoma Friday and Saturday, where the boys took part. However, all of the boys did outstanding playing, but just not quite good enough to defeat Ackerly in the second round of the tournament. Holding a lead until the very last, when Ackerly suddenly came from behind to win the game by one point.

The girls also lost by one point in the second round of the tournament to Coahoma. This was a very close game from the very first with the Westbrook girls finally being eliminated. The score was 17-18.

BASKETBALL TEAMS ORDER SWEATERS

Those people who have taken part in basketball this past season have at last gained a reward for their efforts. The teams ordered sweaters for themselves. The sweaters are to be gray with purple letters set on white. The sweaters will have stripes around the arms for each year of service in this high school.

The boys who lettered were: Sydney Jones, J. K. Bolin, Leecroy Clifton, Alfred Taylor, Leslie Bessinger, M. L. Cope, Earl Neal, A. G. Board, and Billie Waters.

The girls who lettered were: Jennie Lee White, Iris Costin, Helen Moon, Nita Bess Daniels, Florence McCullough, and Geraldine Eikenberg, forwards; and guards, Opal Leach, Ruth Smith, Elizabeth Young, Oieta Dackel, Billie Bob Waggoner, Annabel Colebank, and Dorothy Taylor.

The sweaters will be in in about two weeks.

PARKINS IS SCOTLAND'S GINGERBREAD

The Gingerbread Man is a character beloved to all children, both as a storybook character and as a tasty cake. In Scotland, Gingerbread is called Scotch Parkins. Although it is not cut as a "Gingerbread Man", it has the same delicious ginger flavor.

Scotch Parkins contains the following ingredients:

- 1/4 lb. butter 1/4 oz. ginger
1 lb. oatmeal 1/4 oz. caraway seeds
1 lb. molasses 1/4 cup milk
1/4 oz. pepper 1/2 teaspoon soda
Rub butter into oatmeal. Warm molasses and add to mixture along with pepper, ginger and caraway seeds. Stir in milk into which soda has been dissolved. Beat mixture well and bake in greased tin. Cut into rounds when cold and serve.

WOMEN IN THE STUDY CLUBS

Hesperian 1921 Study Club

Industries of Great Britain were given during roll call at the Hesperian club meeting with Mrs. Bill Coffey Friday afternoon.

Topics on the program dealt with Great Britain. Mrs. F. C. Shillingburg being leader. Mrs. J. G. Merritt gave a "General History of Great Britain." Mrs. Coffey "The Constitutional and Political Relation of Ireland and Scotland to England." Mrs. Farris Bass "The British System of Government," and Mrs. Rees Jones "Reforms From 1917 to 1937."

It was announced that Mrs. S. H. Millwee will continue her custom of giving the club $5 to be presented as a prize to the honor graduate of Colorado High school this year. This prize has been given by the club for many years, and during recent years Mrs. Millwee has always been the donor of the $5.

Mrs. Vivian Shropshire and Mrs. Bennett Scott were appointed to visit the Coleman school. Mrs. John Watson and Mrs. J. D. Williams the Seven Wells school. Mrs. Nat Thomas made a report on the student loan fund. Plans for the yearbook were discussed, and it was decided that definite study course topics will be selected next time. Half-year grades were given out.

Mrs. Thomas will be hostess to the club this week.

Self Culture Standard

Four topics dealing with rail transportation were delivered at the meeting of the Self Culture club with Mrs. W. D. McClure.

The program had been arranged and was led by Mrs. John T. Howell, wife of the T. & P. agent here. Railroad oddities were given during roll call.

"Trains of Yesterday" was the topic for Mrs. J. V. Glover. Other topics were "Railway Terminals" by Mrs. C. P. Gary, "Railroad Equipment" by Mrs. Gale Billings, and "Railroads of Texas" by Mrs. Dell Barber.

Two visiting members, Mrs. J. B. Pritchett and Mrs. Benton Templeton, were present. A sandwich course, cake, and coffee were served. Mrs. E. B. Willbanks will be the next hostess.

Zetagathian

Inviting their "mother" club, the 1921, to be their guests, members of the Zetagathian club arranged a review of Vaughan Wilkins "And So Victoria" at the home of Mrs. Mary Lee Brown Friday night.

UNICAMERAL LEGISLATURE

A unicameral legislature is a one house legislature. Nebraska has this system and pronounces it a success. There is no question of the fact that the next legislature will submit a constitutional amendment asking for a one-house legislature. This writer is in favor of the unicameral plan and it will pay you to read up on this subject so that you may vote intelligently when the amendment is submitted.

"Would the one-house legislature remedy the evils of the present two-house system?"

A great majority of those writing me think it would. Others while admitting the deficiencies of the present legislature ask pertinent questions about the unicameral (one-house) legislature. Senator George Norris of Nebraska, father of the unicameral plan, has answered these questions in a speech printed in the Congressional Record.

The questions given below are typical of those letters to me. The answers are those of Senator Norris as taken from his speech.

1. Isn't the one-house legislature more representative of the people than the present system?

"The adoption of a one-house legislature is a progressive step toward greater democracy. The idea of the present two-branch legislature was copied from England. One of these branches—the House of Commons represented the common people the other branch—the House of Lords—represented the aristocracy, men of wealth. The original idea was that the monarchy needed a house of lords to protect one class against the inroads of another. It has no place in a democratic form of government where class distinction has been abolished. The great wonder is that it has been maintained so long in a democracy like ours.

"The two-house legislature must be condemned as out of date and permitting the control of legislation by special interests which through the instrumentality of shrewd paid lobbyists are able to defeat the will of the people at every session of a legislature consisting of two houses."

2. Isn't it easier for the lobbyists to control a one-house legislature than both the house and senate?

"The reverse is absolutely true. The professional lobbyist would find his occupation gone, because his success depends upon his ability to assist the unworthy legislator to make such a record that his constituents cannot easily determine just what it is. This is also shown by the fact that in any attempt to adopt a one-house legislature, the proposition is always bitterly fought by trusts, monopolies, lobbyists, and special interests.

"In a one-house legislature, where one member of the body has the right to secure a roll call on every vote, it is impossible for anything to be done in secret. Every act of the legislature and every act of each individual must be transacted in the spotlight of publicity.

"In a two-house legislature, with its necessary conference committee, all kinds of opportunities are offered to perform public business in secret and to cover up the record so the people will not know just who is to blame for the defeat of good laws or for the inclusion of jokers.

"In a one-house legislature, the faithful servant would find his record understood by his people, and it would be impossible for the unworthy legislator to cover up his tracks. No legislation will take place in the dark. There will be no item of legislation without a public record. Legislative matters will be so simplified that the ordinary person will see through them and understand them perfectly. The people would be able, without any difficulty, to punish and reward according to the record."

3. What are the evils of the free conference committee under the present two-house system and will the unicameral plan remedy such evils?

"A bill to become law in a two-house legislature must pass both branches in exactly the same form. Where there is a disagreement between the two houses, it is referred to a conference committee. This committee is more powerful in all matters referred to it than either house.

"Its meetings are held in secret; there is no such thing as a roll-call vote; and there is no record of its proceedings. A bill, once referred to a conference committee, cannot become a law unless it is agreed to by a majority of the conferees representing each house.

"Thus, it is within the power of the committee, in secret and without a record vote, and without any public record whatever, to absolutely prevent legislation, and to kill or to modify, at its pleasure, any proposed legislation within its jurisdiction.

"If a report is agreed to, it is then reported to the house and to the senate, and the bill thus reported cannot be amended. It must either be accepted as a whole or rejected in its entirety. Thus, members of the senate and the house are compelled, without an opportunity to offer amendments, to vote for or against the conference bill as a whole. In order to get the good they must accept the bad. If they think the bad predominates, then, in order to reject the bad, they must likewise reject the good.

(Note: The outstanding example of this evil occurred in 1933 when the free conference committee tacked on to the departmental appropriation bill the rider authorizing race track gambling which had not been considered.)

"It must be understood in considering this question, that special interests, corporations and monopolies are not as a rule interested in securing the passage of legislation. They are almost universally interested in preventing legislation—which in one way or another regulates their activities and prevents injustice by means of monopolistic control.

"In order to prevent passage of legislation it is not necessary to control both the house and the senate. It is only necessary to control one house, or to control the conference committee, or to control members of the conference committee from either house.

"Nothing of this kind could happen in a one-house legislature for there will be no such thing as a conference committee."

4. Would the unicameral system be less expensive to the taxpayers than the two-house system?

"There are a hundred different ways and means by which the one-house legislature will be much less expensive than a two-house legislature. We would increase the individual salary of the member and yet in the aggregate save a great amount of money in salaries alone. Logrolling, delays, and deadlocks (which are expensive procedures) between the two houses cannot occur."

What do you think?

Roosevelt is the first man to be elected president who has the courage to come out against corporate wealth and stand for a square deal for the masses. The same bunch who reduced the old-age assistance from $30 to $15 raised the salary of the governor from $4,000 to $12,000 per year. Many of these old people are as highly educated as is the governor, and all as far as I know as honorable. Talk about discriminatory legislation, we have it in Texas.

Mr. W. E. Tumlin, Marshall, writes in his letter:
"I favor the establishment of the unicameral legislative system in Texas like the system recently adopted in Nebraska. This one-house system in Texas should consist of not more than forty members apportioned to forty districts on a population basis. The constitutional qualifications of members should be such as to insure men and women of character and maturity. The members should be paid a reasonable salary in keeping with the responsibilities of their position.

"A body of mature, intelligent men and women such as the unicameral system would guarantee, would quickly enact the reforms I have indicated. Our present cumbersome system grows more inefficient as the days go by. The cost of Government, thanks to the boards and bureaus created for personal political purposes only, by the present system, has grown to be so stupendous as to appall all thinking people who have any interest in, or regard for, the welfare of the State. Millions can be saved each year to the people; and the tax burdens reduced, if the unicameral system should be adopted in Texas.

"I am willing to stump the State in support of the candidacy of any responsible candidate for Governor who will make the adoption of the unicameral legislative system in Texas the dominant plank in his platform. Along with civil service reform, there is nothing more important in my judgment, in Texas, than the establishment of the unicameral legislative system; because, in my judgment, graft and political skullduggery will fade out before it, like the dew before the morning sun."

NOW WHAT

Superintendent J. E. Watson before his class this week offered some criticism of this column on our using the word "recrudescence."

The word was not misused. The English language has many odd, peculiar, idiosyncracies. In using the word the display of verbal pyrotechnic may be construed as an esoteric and erudite exegesis, and these remarks may be classed as excursus, but if anyone on the sideline should happen to ask it appears to be nothing more than an exfoliation of periphrasis as unintelligible as the exhortations of a Muezzin. Extrinsically the two are homologous and smack of the dilettante. We have the world's best vademecum to consult and critics should be careful.

It is discouraging, however, when one cannot express himself in quotidian terms without suscitating a longomachy, when through predilection, otherwise taciturn individuals resort to sesquipedalia verba in communicating with each other. Of course to those afflicted with wordblindness, this fastian may seem acidulous or obfuscated, however our natural verecundity and facility of expression should not subject us to attacks by slubberdegullions who would cast such churlish aspersions as those contained in the foregoing circum-bendibus paralogism.

Our ubiquitous critic would have us believe that our communications are producing an effluvia, but their concurrence in the gest is apodixis of the very aberration they would anathematize.

So far as this column is concerned there shall be no elucidation, no recidivation, nor tergiversation, but always profluent transition and amelioration in etymological confabulation.

THE PRIMARY TEACHER

A little boy came home from school and told his mother that the teacher, Pearl Traylor, had called him a "seurvy elephant." The mother confronted the teacher the next morning and demanded an explanation. The teacher indignantly denied the accusation that she had ever called the little boy such a name, had never associated those two words in her mind. It was all a mistake, then remembering that the little chap had been very mischievous that day, she had, in reproving him, called him "a disturbing element."

We doubt if the little boy was much crestfallen, or if the mother was entirely subdued. If the teacher felt vindicated, it must have been because she had the last word. Vindication is often a matter of the last word. Saying which we now ask why the teacher of the primary class addressed polysyllabic remarks to her primary pupils. To call a 7-year-old a disturbing element, or a seurvy elephant, as the case might have been, was to apply a mature terminology to an immature group. This leads directly to the question of whether an elephant may have seurvy. What is seurvy? It is a flaking off of the outer integument, like the scalp. Dandruff is scalp seurvy. Elephants seem to have it, for every elephant is scarce of hair, not baldheaded exactly but bald all over. Hardly enough cover for a flea in case a flea was bold enough to attack an elephant. Moreover, just what did teacher mean by saying Billy-boy was a disturbing element, granting that she didn't say seurvy elephant? In every school there is a disturbing element, sometimes among the students, sometimes among the faculty, sometimes among the school board members. It is that way in politics, business, the church. The disturbers we have always with us. They are not altogether bad. They operate against too much placidity, too much somnolence, too much self complacency. The alarm clock is a disturbing element, but without it we might miss a golf game or a bridge party.

In collecting up on subscriptions the past few weeks we heard many complaints, such as "the paper's no count," "I never read it," "You never get anything right," "Stop my paper," "There's nothing in it," "I don't like your style," etc. When we stop to think that The Record is the best local newspaper published in the West it suggests the following:

WHEN THE PAPER DOESN'T COME

My father says the paper he reads ain't put up right;
He finds a lot of fault, too, he does, perusin' it all night;
He says there ain't a single thing in it worth to read
And that it doesn't print the kind of stuff the people need;
He tosses it aside, and says it's strikely on the bum;
But you ought to hear him holler when the paper doesn't come.

He reads about the weddin's and he snorts like all getout;
He reads the social doin's with a most derisive shout;
He says they make the papers for the women folks alone;
He'll read about the parties, and he'll fume and fret and groan;
He says of information, it doesn't have a crumb—
But you ought to hear him holler when the paper doesn't come.

He is always first to grab it, and reads it plumb clean through.
He doesn't miss an item, or a want ad—that it true;
He says they don't know what we want, the darn newspaper gise;
"I'm going to take a day some time and go and put them wise;
"Sometimes it seems as though they must be deaf and blind and dumb."
But you ought to hear him holler when the paper doesn't come.

WOMEN RULERS

From one of our exchanges we reproduce the following:
"Some sort of expert in New York predicts that women will ultimately boss the world, including their husbands. One wonders when that bird was hatched. He certainly exposed his ignorance on the trend of current events. Petticoats have been bossing the world ever since the old cow jumped the moon. So far as husbands are concerned—well, wives abolished husbands' rights long before the Civil War. Since the wife reads this column the writer refuses to comment further."

We take issue with the above writer, inasmuch as the wives of this community read this column. The assertion that petticoats are bossing the world reveals the inadequacy of the writer in any discussion of woman's part in public responsibility. Don't you know there are no petticoats? In these days the underskirt, if any, is now called a "slip." Post yourself man, before you immerse yourself in a subject that is too deep for your present height. As for women ruling the world, they don't and they won't. They probably could make a better job of it than the men have made, but they don't want to waste time in rulership. The man are so egotistical in their political thinking they allow their ambition to exceed their information. The first thing a man thinks about in the way of reform is to pass a law, not to obey a law already passed. Men in high office try to make friends among the common people by taking our responsibilities from us and putting them upon that vague entity called the State,

FORD OFFERS TWO NEW CARS and keeps their PRICES LOW

THERE are two new Ford cars for 1938—the De Luxe and the Standard—differing in appearance, appointments and price—but built on the same dependable Ford chassis. Both bring you the basic advantages of a V-type 8-cylinder power-plant—smooth performance and compact design. The De Luxe Ford has the 85-horsepower engine. The Standard Ford provides a choice of 85 or 60 horsepower. Both new cars are economical to operate. The Standard, with thrifty "60" engine, costs less to run than any other Ford car ever built. And both new cars are priced low. Low price, like economy, is a Ford tradition. Ford founded the low-price field 30 years ago and keeps Ford prices low. The De Luxe Ford costs slightly more than the Standard Ford, but provides more style with extra room in the closed sedans. Both cars, in proportion to price, represent unusual values. Both are built to the same high standard of mechanical excellence. There's a dealer near you.

or the Nation, or the Government. If all of us were led to understand that we should suffer or prosper in proportion to our personal merit in devising ways and means we should have ham and eggs for breakfast oftener than we now have crusts and complaints.

W. W. Porter subscribes and pays for three Records each year and in paying up this week he said, "I'll take a chance. Taking a chance appears to be a good old American custom! The Pilgrims took a chance when they landed at Plymouth Rock to carve for themselves a new destiny. The Fathers of the American Republic took a long chance when they knocked the chip off England's shoulder and embarked on a long and bitter war for independence. The westward course of empire was marked by chance-taking. One has only to read the biographies of the great and near great in the history of America and Texas to become convinced that chance-taking has played an important part in this nation's development.

PRECAUTIONS AGAINST SMALLPOX ARE URGED
AUSTIN.—Texas is faced with the probability of local smallpox epidemics if precautions are not immediately employed, declared Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. "Last year there was not a single death from smallpox in Texas, while last week over thirty cases and two deaths were reported.

"Smallpox epidemics would never occur if everyone, and especially children, could be effectively vaccinated. The lack of vaccination causes the present menace of this disease. Modern safeguards have removed every legitimate objection to vaccination. The virus is made from calves and, consequently, is incapable of transmitting human blood diseases.

"A primary vaccination with one successful re-vaccination will, as a rule, protect throughout life from the milder forms of smallpox, but this is not true in the severer types of this disease. Therefore, be vaccinated and re-vaccinated at least every seven years, so that you will have the greatest protection possible and the least chance of being sick. Re-vaccination should also be done after each time you have been near a known case of smallpox, for you know that the old vaccination pro-
