

FIRST CONFERENCE GAME TO BE PLAYED WITH MERKEL HERE

LARGE TURN-OUT EXPECTED AT CANTRILL STADIUM FRIDAY NIGHT; RUDEL GLOVER TO PLAY

The first conference battle for both teams this season will be fought when the Colorado Wolves and the Merkel Badgers meet on Cantrill field Friday night at 8 o'clock.

A large turn-out of fans is anticipated, due largely to the quickened interest resulting from the Wolves' surprise 7-0 victory over Big Spring Friday night. A team in Big Spring Friday night.

Coach Jack Christian says that the two teams will be almost equally matched as to size and weight, both squads being light. He plans to have Rudel Glover, his first-string left half-back, in the starting line-up for the first time since the first game at Monahans three weeks ago.

Duff Chesney, who scored the only touchdown in the Big Spring game, will be captain for the Wolves in the Merkel-Colorado match.

RED CROSS TO HAVE IMPORTANT MEETING TUESDAY AFTERNOON

Officers of the Mitchell county chapter of the American Red Cross are to be elected at a meeting which has been called for Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Dell Barber, present chairman.

The meeting will be held in the Mitchell county welfare office. Barber has been serving as chairman of the chapter since T. W. Stonerod moved to Lubbock in the spring.

A roll call chairman is to be discussed and perhaps named at the meeting Tuesday, Barber says. The meeting will be open to all who have subscribed to the Red Cross in the county.

ABILENE RECTOR TO BE AT ALL SAINTS' SUNDAY

Morning services at All Saints' Episcopal church Sunday will be conducted by the Rev. Willis P. Gerhart of the Abilene Episcopal church.

Archdeacon J. W. Hayes, rector of All Saints', will fill the Abilene pulpit at both the morning and evening hours. The Rev. Mr. Gerhart will fill Archdeacon Hayes' appointment at Stamford Sunday evening.

Archdeacon and Mrs. Hayes will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Whatley in Abilene during the week-end.

MITCHELL CCC BOYS TO REPORT AT LAMESA

The fifteen CCC boys for whom Mitchell county received a call last week are to report at Lamesa on Thursday, October 6.

This information was received this week by Mrs. Bonnie Burt, who has charge of the Mitchell county welfare and relief office where CCC applications are handled.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH HAS A FELLOWSHIP DINNER

Annual fellowship dinner of First Christian church was held Wednesday evening at the church with the Rev. A. L. Haley, pastor, presiding. Various reports were heard and a program was presented.

LOONEY SCHOOL TO OPEN NEXT MONDAY

Opening of Looney school has been announced for Monday morning at 8:45.

All students are urged to be present for registration on the first day, whether or not they will be able to attend regularly for a few weeks.

MERCHANTS WARNED AGAINST CASHING STRANGERS' CHECKS

TWO MEN NOW IN JAIL FOR FORGERIES DURING PAST FIVE DAYS

After picking up two men who are charged with having forged over $50 worth of checks on well-known Mitchell countians in the past five days, Dick Hickman, chief of police, has issued a warning to Colorado business men not to cash checks for strangers without having them properly identified.

Such precaution is especially necessary at this time of the year, with the town full of cotton pickers and other transients, Hickman points out.

The two men he has under arrest on forgery charges are Grady Smith, about 38, address unknown, and Davis Lee Adams of Mississippi. The former is charged with forgery in the cashing of checks on O. L. McKay of near Lorraine. The latter, working under the name of Fred Greer, is charged with forging the name of Chester Jones, prominent ranchman, on a $13 check. All the checks were cashed by Colorado merchants.

COUNTY'S SUBSIDY PAYMENTS STAND AT NEARLY $149,000

MONEY ADDED TO COTTON HARVEST FUNDS; CHECKS ON LATE WORKSHEETS TO ARRIVE LAST

Nearly $149,000 in 1937 subsidy payments had gone into the possession of Mitchell county farmers through Wednesday, supplementing money which is currently coming in from the cotton harvest.

Subsidy payments in the county reached a total of $148,947.23 with checks received at the office of B. J. Baskin, county agent, through Wednesday. This amount covers a total of 1,119 checks.

John Mogford, agricultural assistant in the county agent's office, says that 668 out of a total of 983 regular worksheets have been paid, leaving 315 applications unpaid in this regular worksheet group. The regular worksheet groups includes all those signed up prior to May 13, 1937.

The county has 314 other worksheets, however, that were not signed up until February and March of this year. These sheets carry a 4,000 number, and payment on them is not expected for two or three months because final adjustment and check-ing had to be done on them, just as was done on the ones signed in 1937.

These late worksheet payments will be equal to $44,178.94, it is estimated.

Payment on the 315 regular worksheets still unpaid Wednesday is expected within the next few weeks.

REVIVALIST IS MAIN SPEAKER AT LUNCHEON OF LIONS ON FRIDAY

Featured speaker on the program of the Lions club luncheon Friday was the Rev. H. W. Jordan of Clovis, N. M., who is preaching for the revival at First Methodist church.

Another speaker was L. C. Porter of New Orleans, assistant to the president of the T. & P. railroad. Mr. Porter talked on the railroads and the labor situation.

W. R. Daniels of Abilene, general agent for the railroad, was Porter's companion guest. He was introduced.

Among other visitors recognized was Raymond Mauck of Houston, representative of the American General Life Insurance company, who attended with Clarence Cook.

Jack Alexander of the Col-Tex refinery was introduced as a new member by Walter Whipkey.

SCHOOL MEN TO AUSTIN ON BUSINESS THURSDAY

Roy Davis Coles, county superintendent, and Ira D. Lauderdale, superintendent of Westbrook schools, left Thursday for Austin on school business.

They planned to remain in Austin until Sunday. James Herrington, county clerk, and J. H. Ballard, district clerk, went with them to attend the state convention of county and district clerks in Austin.

LARGE MOTORCADE EXPECTED TO ATTEND SPUDDING OF PROMISING OIL COMPANY'S TEST AT WEST TEXAS FAIR ON MONDAY

Accompanied by a motorcade of at least 20 cars, members of the Promising Oil company of Colorado, Texas, are laying plans to storm the West Texas Free Fair at Abilene Monday afternoon for the spudding and drilling to "60 feet, production, or quit" of the Promising Oil Co. No. 1 City of Abilene Fair Park, on the fair midway at 3 o'clock.

Earl Cyper, who has acted as chairman of arrangements for the motorcade and the spudding, and Rance Dockrey, president of the Promising Oil company, have arranged for the motorcade to leave Colorado at 1 o'clock. Those planning to go should gather at the Keybrook by 12:45 Cyper says. The public is invited.

The Promising Oil group will take along the Colorado Cowpunchers band, directed by Dr. Harry A. Logsdon, to furnish music at the spudding ceremonies—a musical accompaniment being just one of the many unusual features planned for the spudding.

In discussing plans for the spudding this week, Cyper said that Harry Ratliff, legal counsel for the Promising Oil company, will act as master of ceremonies and make the principal speech, which will be an enlightening discourse on all phases of oil activity, both promising and unpromising. Obie Bristow of Big Spring, efficiency expert for the company, will respond to Ratliff's talk. No reason for the response—nor the speech, either, as far as that goes—has been advanced.

Bearing the title of "spiritual advisor," Charles Landau will be a prominent member of the Promising Oil company delegation. Those in charge of arrangements declare there is no significance in the fact that Sheriff Dick Gregory and Mayor J. A. Sadler are also going along.

PLAN IS PERFECTED TO FINANCE LOANS FOR PAVING COSTS

MONEY TO BE AVAILABLE AT SIX PER CENT WITH REPAYMENT IN SMALL INSTALLMENTS

Plans for financing personal loans to enable Colorado property owners to take advantage of an approved WPA residential paving project have been worked out, it was announced this week by a special joint committee which has been working on the matter.

The committee is composed of representatives from the Lions club, the chamber of commerce, and city officials. Dr. W. S. Rhode, president of the chamber of commerce, has been serving as general chairman.

According to the committee's announcement following conferences of the past two weeks, money will be available for personal loans at an interest rate of 6%, repayable in small monthly installments running from one to twenty-four months.

The paving, including curb, is to cost property owners only $1.15 per running foot under the provisions of a WPA project which was approved some time ago.

All property owners interested in taking advantage of the project are requested to inquire at the chamber of commerce office for details.

THIRTY-FOURTH YEAR BEGUN BY THE RECORD WITH CURRENT ISSUE

Another year has been rounded out by The Record, and this week's issue marks the beginning of the sheet's thirty-fourth year of continuous publication under Whipkey ownership and management.

The Record was established by F. B. Whipkey and A. L. Whipkey 33 years ago. F. B. Whipkey, familiarly known as "Uncle Fred," retired from active connection with The Record's publication some 10 years ago, but he still retains his interest in the business and writes the weekly editorial column, "The Columnist."

Although he sold his interest to Walter W. Whipkey, son of F. B. Whipkey, in 1922, A. L. Whipkey is still employed in the mechanical department of The Record office. Walter Whipkey is now publisher and active manager of the paper.

Vocal numbers by the West Texans, girls' trio from Big Spring, and a musical saw number by Earl Cyper will complete the company's portion of the spudding ceremonies. A spudding belonging to the Star Drilling Machine company of Abilene will be used.

The well will actually be spudded by Ungren & Frazier, Abilene independent operators, who will also furnish most of the equipment and tools. Obie Bristow and Jim Cantrill will run the first tower after the well is spudded. Operators from the local oil field will go on with the drilling, intent on fulfilling the contract terms of "60 feet, production, or quit." R. A. (Bob) May, land man for the Promising Oil company, will be in charge of one tower.

Immediate aim of the drillers will be to reach production by Wednesday, the day set for oil men to take charge of the celebration. As a precaution in case of unforeseen developments, two 150-barrel storage tanks will be erected near the drilling site by the M-V tank company's Abilene representative. A control head will be supplied by the Jarvick Manufacturing company of Abilene, when—and if—needed.

Wickwire-Spencer's Abilene warehouse has promised use of cable and some empty spools, on which geologists who are watching the well may sit. D&I Pipe and Supply will furnish casing.

GINNING RECEIPTS PASS HALF-MARK OF ESTIMATED HARVEST

COUNTY TOTAL AT NOON THURSDAY CLOSE TO 11,000 BALES

End of September finds ginning receipts in Mitchell county some 1,000 bales past the half-way mark of the county's estimated total harvest, set by most authorities at around 20,000 bales.

Gins of the county had received nearly 11,000 bales Thursday noon, figures as compiled by The Record at that time being 10,941 bales.

Colorado's six gins had received 5,512 bales distributed as follows: Producers, 2,000; Colorado Gin Co., 538; Concrete, 1,333; Mitchell County Gin Co., 830; Farmers No. One, 461; Farmers Cooperative, 350.

Lorraine's total was 3,224 bales, and that of Westbrook's two gins was 1,120. China Grove gin had received 340 bales, of which an estimated 150 were from Mitchell county, the remainder being from Seury county. No figure could be obtained from the Valley View gin, which had received around 100 bales last week. The estimate used there this week was 150 bales. Buford Producers' gin had received 785 bales.

About 90% of the cotton received now is going into the government loan, ginner's estimate. Prices on the open market range from 8 to 8.25 for the staple. Seed is $21 per ton.

J. D. HARVEY WILL RETURN TO CHURCH HERE JANUARY 1ST

It has been announced that J. D. Harvey of Paducah, Kentucky, will return to be minister of the Colorado Church of Christ on Jan. 1.

Mr. Harvey was minister of the church for 10 years, resigning to go to the New London church three years ago. After a year there, he accepted a call to the Church of Christ at Paducah, Kentucky. Woodie Holden, present minister of the church, will continue his work here until Mr. Harvey's arrival, it is said. Mr. Holden has not definitely announced his plans for the future.

J. E. WATSON AND RANDLE INSPECT MODERN SCHOOLS

SCHOOL MEN SEEK BEST IDEAS TO BE USED IN BUILDING HERE

Seeking the best ideas of modern school construction to be incorporated in the new junior high school here, Supt. John E. Watson and J. W. Randle, member of the school board, spent Tuesday inspecting some of the new structures in the Port Worth school system.

Fort Worth has been having a boom in school buildings during the recent past, it is reported, and many of the structures there are model in design.

Elmer G. Withers of Fort Worth, architect for the new building, is at work on details of its construction. Colorado recently voted $90,000 worth of bonds to supplement a PWA grant of $74,250 to be used for the new building and to modernize two ward schools.

No announcement as to the site of the new building has yet been made.

GAME ASSOCIATION COMPLETES ITS PLAN FOR PLACING SIGNS

LANDS INCLUDED IN COUNTY GAME MANAGEMENT BODY TO BE MARKED; PERMITS REQUIRED OF HUNTERS

Arrangements to place signs on all Mitchell county farm and ranch lands which have been signed up in the Mitchell County Game Management association were completed at a meeting of the executive committee of the association Monday in the district courtroom.

It was announced that the signs will be ready Friday, and may be secured from the office of B. J. Baskin, county agent.

Present at the meeting were E. B. Gregson, vice-president of the association; B. B. Byrne, Sr., secretary-treasurer; O. F. Jones, C. L. Grable, B. H. Gregory, and B. J. Baskin.

The committee approved the constitution and by-laws drawn up for the association. No dove hunting is to be permitted on any of the association lands this year, but permits will be issued by some of the members during the quail season.

No one will be allowed to hunt on game management land without a written permit from the man owning or managing the property, and the issuance of such a permit will be optional with him. Charges per person for a day's hunting shall not exceed $2.50, and making the charge is also optional.

Those securing permits to hunt on a man's land are required to report to him the number of birds killed at the end of the day.

The idea of the organization is not to prevent hunting but to limit it, those in charge point out. By knowing how many birds have been killed on his land during the season, the owner will know when to stop hunting in order to leave enough birds for the next year's supply. Efficient operation of the organization will, in the long run, improve hunting in the county, according to B. J. Baskin.

Those signed up in the association have agreed to supplement cover and food for the game animals on their land.

The association was formed through cooperation of the Texas A. & M. Extension service and the State Game Conservation board. The board is cooperating by promising prosecution of all those who trespass on lands signed up in the association, or who fail to obey hunting rules.

ANOTHER LOCKHART WELL THOUGHT TO BE NEARING PRODUCTION

Another Lockhart Petroleum corporation well, the sixth in the corporation's Howard county field, is believed to be nearing production, according to indications this week.

The well, Lockhart's Heusinger No. 3, was drilling at 2,700 feet Wednesday, and had been logging with the other five producing wells in that area.

Location is 1,930 feet from the east line and 990 feet from the south line of Block 29-97, W32NW.

WOLVES WREST UNEXPECTED VICTORY FROM THEIR ANCIENT RIVALS, THE BIG SPRING STEERS; SCORE IS 7-0

Wrestling brilliant, thrill-packed victory from a battle where only defeat had been foreseen, the Colorado Wolves downed their ancient rivals, Big Spring's husky Class A Steers, 7-0 in the Steer stadium at Big Spring Friday evening.

Captained by Curtis Wood, whose star shone brightly throughout the game, and with Coach Jack Christian's final blessings in their ears, the Wolves went into the fray determined to meet their conceded defeat with all the fight they had to give.

It was plenty. The hundreds of Coloradans who had gone to the game prepared to hide their eyes at intervals, so to speak, found themselves blinking at the resultant display of football tactics. The Steers, outweighing the Wolves an average of 10 pounds per man, turned in an impressive game, but they were no match for the fast and wiry Wolves.

Tommy Chadwick and Duff Chesney, 132-pound right half, were outstanding. It was Chesney who caught Chadwick's long pass in the second quarter and went over for the only touchdown. Wood kicked the extra point.

Walter Grubbs, who went into the game to replace Jack Smith at full-back, was credited with stopping Big Spring's threatened score in the last play of the game. Grubbs, one of the Wolves' lighter players, tackled and stopped Big Spring's 200-pound ball carrier.

According to Hank Hart, sports editor of the Big Spring Daily Herald, the "wrong team was playing Class A football." Hart, who had previously predicted a victory of at least two touchdowns for the Steers; had this to say of the Wolves' game:

"Propelled by a dynamic 14-pound youngster by the name of Tommy Chadwick who combined his triple threat abilities with some smart field generalship, the Colorado Wolves exploded the myth concerning the strength of the Big Spring football eleven by sending the Bovines in mad retreat and coming out with a 7-0 victory in Big Spring's first grid game of the year here Friday night."

"Chadwick started out with the opening gun and led the Wolves in a drive all the way down to the Longhorn nine yard line before the Steer wall stiffened and held. He

RECREATIONAL PROGRAM STARTED BY SCHOOLS AS WPA PROJECT THIS WEEK

The recreational program being sponsored for Colorado by the public schools under a WPA project got underway this week, according to Supt. John E. Watson, general supervisor.

The program is under the personal direction of Trust T. Fulcher of Abilene, graduate of Hardin-Simmons university.

Fulcher will have 14 or 15 assistants in carrying on the program, and he will office at the high school building.

The program will cover school playground activities in the beginning, but will be gradually widened to take in seasonal activities, dramatics, and other recreations.

MAIL CARRIERS WORKING FOR RURAL POST ROADS TO FACILITATE DELIVERY

Marshaled by E. E. Smith, who is a local leader among rural mail carriers as well as president of the Texas Rural Letter Carriers' association, rural carriers of Mitchell county are joining with others over the state in urging the passage of a Texas law for the defining and maintenance of U. S. Rural Postal roads to facilitate delivery to rural boxes.

Smith was in The Record office this week with a copy of a similar bill recently passed in the General Assembly of the state of Georgia.

In Georgia the Rural Post Roads division is operated as a part of the State Highway department. Smith is advocating a similar set-up in Texas.

MANAGERS ELECTED FOR FOOTBALL BOYS WHO ARE ELIGIBLE FOR $300 SUBSISTENCE FUND OFFERED BY THE R & R THEATRES

Class groups of Colorado High school have elected managers, in some cases assistant managers, for each of the football boys who are eligible for votes in the "most valuable" football player contest being sponsored by the Robb and Rowley theaters with A. E. McClain as local manager.

A $300 subsistence fund at the Texas college or university of the winning boy's choice will be the prize. Voting was begun Monday night, 25 votes being given with each paid admission at the R. & R. Palace and the R. & E. Ritz.

The senior class has seven boys on the list of 22 whom Coach Jack Christian has certified as eligible for votes. For each of these the class has elected a manager and assistant manager, as follows: the player being listed first:

Thos. Chadwick—Sam Richardson manager and Barbara Jones assistant; Dick Jones—Hardison Almond and Doris Richardson; Duff Chesney—Jimmy Harrison and Hazel Brook-

METHODIST REVIVAL WILL CLOSE WITH SERVICE TONIGHT

REV. MR. JORDAN'S FINAL SERMON TO BE 'AMERICA AT THE CROSSROADS'

Closing sermon in the First Methodist revival which has been in progress since September 18 will be preached tonight (Thursday) by the Rev. H. W. Jordan, pastor of the First Methodist church of Clovis, N. M.

"America at the Crossroads" has been announced by the Rev. Mr. Jordan as the subject for his final sermon. The Rev. Mr. Jordan took charge of the preaching portion of the revival on Tuesday night of last week. The Rev. C. E. Jameson, church pastor, had opened the revival on the previous Sunday.

Services have been held twice daily during the meeting, and both attendance and interest have grown steadily. The Rev. and Mrs. Alsie Carlton of the Trent Methodist church have been doing special work with the children and young people, and have had charge of the music and singing.

WESTBROOK ADDS A FOURTH SCHOOL BUS

Four school buses are now serving the Westbrook school since the addition of another on Monday morning.

In addition to caring for high school students in the western part of the county, Westbrook now includes all students from Spade and Latah.

over; Rhudel Glover—J. T. Williamson and Ruth Elliott; Curtis Woods—Fae Porter and Louise Pritchett; O. B. Trulock—Allene Bodine and John J. Smith; J. W. Hodges—Virginia Whipkey and Willie Grace Doss.

Eleven of the 22 eligible players are members of the junior class. They are listed below, each player's name being followed by that of his manager:

The three sophomore players will have managers as follows: Clifton Caffey—J. C. Davis; James Paul Cooper—John DeGarmo; Johnny Grubbs—Clayton Henderson.

Royce Smith will be manager for the only eligible freshman, Horace Wood.

Club Women of Town Open Another Year of Study

PRESIDENTS OF THE FEDERATED CLUBS TO BE GIVEN DUE HONOR

Another season of study, play and work will be opened by Colorado's seven study clubs during the remainder of this week and next week. One of the seven, the Junior Self Culture club, will be launching into its first year, having been recently organized under the sponsorship of the Self Culture club.

The four federated clubs, Hesperian, Zetaganian, 1921 Study, and Self Culture, will open their year's work with traditional honors to their incoming and outgoing presidents. The non-federated clubs, including the Standard and Shakespeare, will simply begin their weekly study meetings.

ZETAGATHIAN LUNCHEON
First of the presidential honors among the federated clubs is the Zetaganian's luncheon (Thursday) today. This has been arranged at the Colorado hotel for 1 o'clock. Mrs. Jamie Cook is acting as toastmistress.

Four new members of the club are among those for whom places are marked. They are Mrs. Hunt Guitler, Mrs. James K. Polk, Mrs. Lawrence Christian, and Mrs. Clyde Young. The program is featuring a talk by the retiring president, Mrs. Charles Wyatt, and another by the incoming president, Mrs. Jack Cox. Mrs. Cox will introduce her officers. An additional program feature is a vocal solo by Frances Merle Cooper, with Mrs. James Payne as accompanist.

The Zetaganians will have their first study meeting on Friday, October 7, with Mrs. Eddie Pyland. The club is to continue its study of recent books and plays, which was begun last year.

1921 STUDY LUNCHEON
Final plans for the president's luncheon of the 1921 Study club were made Friday afternoon at a business meeting held with Mrs. Ed Jones, Sr. The luncheon is to be held Saturday at the Colorado hotel with Mrs. Sam Majors presiding. Mrs. A. C. Anderson will be honored as retiring president. Mrs. Johnny Rector is incoming president.

Messages of the two honored women will follow vocal numbers by a quartet composed of Mesdames Rector, W. L. Doss, Jr., Van Boston, and C. C. Thompson. One of their numbers will be "Beautiful Dreamer" by Foster.

The 1921 Study club's course of study will center on contemporary literature, with musical interludes. The first study meeting will be with Mrs. N. H. White on Friday, Oct. 7.

HESPERIANS PLAN DINNER
The dinner for the Hesperian club president will be held on Thursday evening, October 6, at 8 o'clock in the Colorado hotel ballroom.

Hesperian presidents serve two years, and this marks the beginning of the second year for Mrs. J. W. Randle. She will bring greetings at the dinner, which will have Mrs. Sam Wulfjen for toastmistress. Mrs. Nat Thomas will lead the club collect. Songs will be led by Miss Vera Crippen, an accordion solo played by Mrs. James Payne, poems read by Mrs. Rees Jones, and a vocal solo given by Miss Gladys Miller.

The Hesperians will shape final plans for the dinner and for the year's work when they meet in business session with Mrs. Randle this Friday afternoon. At that time Mrs.

J. G. Merritt is to read a history of the club. Opening of the course of study will come on October 14, when the club is to meet with Mrs. Ed Majors with Mrs. Nat Thomas leading a program on "The Man, Shakespeare." The study this year will include "Othello," Shakespeare's sonnets, psychology, book reviews, and better English.

SELF CULTURE LUNCHEON
Before they have their president's luncheon on October 7 at the home of Mrs. A. F. King, members of the Self Culture club will meet in business session at the home of Mrs. W. D. McClure this Friday. They will hear the reading of the club constitution and by-laws. Mrs. E. B. Willbanks will read the club history.

Mrs. H. G. Whitmore will preside at the luncheon next week. Mrs. Dell Barber will give her message as retiring president, and Mrs. J. T. Howell will bring greetings as her successor. New officers of the club will be introduced.

Again this year, as last, this club will feature original programs in its study. Michigan will be taken up at the first study session with Mrs. Lee Phenix on October 14. Mrs. Henry Pond will be leader.

JUNIOR SELF CULTURE
Plans for the study of the Junior Self Culture club, recently organized with eight charter members, are still being worked out. The club's first regular meeting will be on Tuesday evening, October 11, at 7:30 with Mildred Whitaker.

Since most of the members of this club are girls who are employed, it will meet each second and fourth Tuesday evening. Memphis Porter is president.

SHAKESPEARE
Two Shakespearean plays will be studied by the Shakespeare club this year after its season opens on October 7 with a meeting at the home of Mrs. R. O. Pearson. First will be "King John," which will occupy the members until Christmas. After Christmas will come a study of "Timon of Athens."

Mrs. John Arnett is retiring president of the Shakespeare club, and

Installation Of Fidelis Officers Is Followed By Banquet At The Broadway

Installation ceremonies for new officers of the Fidelis class of First Baptist church were held Tuesday night at the church, followed by the annual class banquet at the Broadway cafe.

More than 30 attended the installation, which was conducted by Mrs. Dell Barber. The program opened with a prayer by Dell Barber, superintendent of the adult department. A violin solo was played by Mrs. T. A. Patterson, wife of the pastor.

In conducting the installation, Mrs. Barber delivered charges to each of the following: Teacher, Mrs. A. L. Whipkey; president, Mrs. Grady Beach; membership vice-president, Mrs. E. B. Ellis; fellowship vice-president, Mrs. A. E. McClain; class ministries vice-presidents, Mrs. E. S. Miles and Mrs. James Herrington; stewardship vice-president, Mrs. E. L. Pugh; secretary, Mrs. Ray Richardson; assistant secretary, Mrs. Lon Morgan.

The long banquet table at the Broadway was centered at intervals with vases of pink and red roses, and by trailed the entire center length. Mrs. Richardson, retiring president of the class, presided.

A large percentage of those present were associate members of the class, being workers and teachers who have been taken from the class for positions elsewhere in the Sunday school during recent years. Guests included Dell Barber, superintendent of the adult department, and Truett Barber, Sunday school superintendent.

Mrs. Broaddus And Mrs. C. C. Thompson Attend A Reception

Two Colorado club women, Mrs. H. B. Broaddus and Mrs. C. C. Thompson, were in the houseparty for a reception given in Ranger Wednesday to honor Mrs. M. H. Hagaman of Ranger, incoming president of the sixth district, Texas Federation of Women's clubs.

Mrs. Thompson is incoming second vice-president of the district, and Mrs. Broaddus is a member of the state board. The two women left here Wednesday morning, and were luncheon guests of Mrs. Hagaman preceding the reception. The reception was arranged by two Ranger clubs.

Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Broaddus stopped in Abilene Thursday to attend the all-day club institute of Abilene federated clubs.

Rebekah Lodge Has Initiation Meeting

Initiation of Mrs. Vera Ellis took place at the regular meeting of the Rebekah lodge Monday night. Twelve Sweetwater Rebekahs and ten from Big Spring attended the initiation, in addition to about twenty local members.

Eastern Star To Have Installation

Initiation is planned by the local chapter of the Eastern Star at the first October meeting on Thursday night of next week.

The meeting will open at 7:30. Mrs. A. F. King, worthy matron, urges all members to be present.

MISS OPPENHEIMER TO REVIEW 'MY SON, MY SON' TUESDAY

"My Son, My Son" by Howard Spriggs has been chosen as the book which Evelyn Oppenheimer of Dallas will review at the Colorado High School auditorium Tuesday night, October 4, under sponsorship of the Women's council of First Christian church.

This will be Miss Oppenheimer's second appearance here under the council's sponsorship. She reviewed A. J. Cronin's "The Citadel" for them last spring.

Selection of "My Son, My Son" was made by faculty of Colorado High school. Credit is to be given high school English students who attend and take notes.

The book is high on the nation's "best seller" list, 5,600 copies being published each week to satisfy demands. It is described as a "superb novel of parents and children." Miss Oppenheimer has had to repeat her review of this book at Titcher-Goettlinger's in Dallas several times.

The review will begin at 7 o'clock. Admission will be 50c for adults, 25c for school children.

Six Baptist Circles In Session Monday

Six circles of the Baptist Missionary society were in session Monday afternoon in various parts of the church area.

Circle One met with Mrs. R. O. Pearson and heard a lesson "Things We Should Know" taught by her. Mrs. Dick DeLaney was devotional leader. Five members were present, and plans were made to quilt for Buckner Orphans home next week.

Twelve attended the meeting of Circle Two with Mrs. Green DeLaney. Mrs. Grady Beach was elected to lead a Bible study which the circle plans to take up.

A quilt top for an orphans' box was completed at the Circle Three meeting with Mrs. R. C. Johnson. Eight members were present. Members reported three dresses made for the orphans' box.

With the hostess leading a lesson on "Things We Should Know," Circle Four met with Mrs. O. E. Price. Five were present.

Nine were present at the meeting of Circle Five with Mrs. Elbert Burnett. Mrs. A. L. Whipkey taught the lesson.

Circle Six met with Mrs. Gsmn, having six members present.

Mrs. Boyd Dozier Elected Librarian

Election of Mrs. Boyd Dozier as keeper of the fiction library of the Mitchell County Federation of Women's clubs at the city hall took place at a meeting of the federation following the board meeting Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Dozier, who originally launched the library some 12 years ago and kept it during its first five years, will succeed Mrs. J. E. McClary, whose resignation becomes effective October 31.

Mrs. McClary is resigning to move to Lubbock, where she will make her home. She has been librarian since last October.

ADULT BAU PARTY PLANNED
Members of the adult B.A.U. of First Baptist church are to have a lawn party at the home of Mrs. P. B. Whipkey on Tuesday evening, Oct. 4, at 7:30.

COUNTY FEDERATION BOARD HAD CALLED SESSION TUESDAY

Giving their attention to various business matters of importance, the board of the Mitchell County Federation of Women's clubs was in called session at the city hall Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. J. A. Ferguson, federation president, was in charge.

It was reported that the musical series which the federation has secured for Colorado will be opened at the high school in December.

Announcements concerning the club institute to be held in Abilene Thursday were made by Mrs. H. B. Broaddus. The women stood in silent prayer for peace after Mrs. C. P. Gary had described the war-map picture appearing on the cover of the current issue of the Federated News.

Mrs. Jeff Dobbs, health chairman, said that she has 350 pounds of tuberculosis literature on hand, and she asked the assistance of the women in distributing it. She told of Art club plans for a tea to be held with a program featuring a speaker from Hardin-Simmons university.

The Self Culture club presented the Junior Self Culture club, recently organized with the former as sponsor, for federation.

Work of the trustees toward getting a clubhouse started was reported by Mrs. M. J. Dawson, chairman of the trustee committee, which also includes Mrs. J. G. Merritt and Mrs. J. T. Pritchett.

Local Clubwomen To District Club Institute Today

Clubwomen of Colorado are well-represented at the program institute of the sixth district, Texas Federation of Women's clubs, in Abilene today (Thursday).

Mrs. William Reagan of Cisco is institute chairman. The Abilene City Federation is host group. Among the speakers on the program, which has for its general theme "Club Ethics," are Ethel Foster of Sterling City, district president; Mrs. H. B. Broaddus of Colorado, member of the state board; Mrs. Richard J. Turrentine of Denton, state federation president; Mrs. M. H. Hagaman of Ranger, president-elect of the district.

As incoming second vice-president of the district, Mrs. C. C. Thompson is also a prominent figure at the gathering. Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Broaddus stopped in Abilene for the institute as they returned from Ranger, where on Wednesday they attended a two-club reception honoring Mrs. Hagaman. Both were in the house party for the reception, and both were honor guests at a luncheon given at Mrs. Hagaman's home preceding the reception.

Bridgettes Meet With Mrs. McShan

With only club members present, Mrs. Ace McShan entertained the Bridgettes last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Jake Richardson made high score. Other players were Mesdames Jenks Powell, R. D. Bridgford, Austin Bush, Lester Mannerling, Charles Wyatt, Bill Dorn, and A. L. McSpadden.

A salad course followed the games. Mrs. McSpadden will be the next hostess.

Ethel Sue Dawson Is Party Hostess

A party marking her fourteenth birthday was given by Ethel Sue Dawson Tuesday night.

Pecan cake and ice cream were served to the following: Alfred Rhode, John DeGarmo, Jane Merrill, Katherine Nall, Esther Elliott, Helen Farris, Ruth McQuerry, Lila Mannerling, Betty Cook, Maguena Thompson, and Mary Frances Dorn.

THE COLORADO THAT USED TO BE 25 Years Ago 15 Years Ago

25 YEARS AGO

From The Record for Sept. 26, 1913 A price of 13.75 was making cotton look attractive. An article on the front page of The Record recalled the time in 1845, and again during President Cleveland's administration, when the price went as low as 5 cents, and the time in 1865, right after the Civil War, when it soared to $1.75 per pound. Hubert Toler and W. L. Petty of Lorraine had taken over the Maxwell agency in this area. The Mission study class of First Baptist church had met with Mrs. J. R. Shepherd, Mrs. J. C. Meeks being leader. The next meeting was to be with Mrs. C. A. Pierce.

A lawn party had been given by Mrs. J. Lee Jones for Winnie Vaughan and Bessie Stoneham. Mrs. B. F. Dulaney and Lula Mae had entertained on Friday evening. Vance Phenix took all the guests over in his father's "handsome new car."

H. L. Hutchinson had a big ad on a Hoosier cabinet club for women. J. F. McGill was holding a special removal sale before changing his location to the Hughes buildings on Second street.

Advertised on the Burns & Bell page were men's knitted mufflers that buttoned at the neck like a shirt. Women's messaline dresses. Bear skin coats. Women's sweaters that were nearly down to their knees.

Mattie Coe had still very ill with typhoid fever. Mr. and Mrs. John Vaughan were home from a visit to the Peecos fair. Carlton Homan, enroute to dental college in Chicago, stopped over here to visit friends.

Rev. H. G. Hennessey had resumed his duties as rector at All Saints' after returning from Dallas with his wife. The little daughter of Rev. William Hart, then of Gail, had been brought here for an appendicitis operation.

The Floyd Bealls and Nell Ruth Arnett had spent Saturday in Abilene. Milburn Doss, Reaves Coleman, and Champ Carter had left. Doss to enter S.M.U. at Dallas. Reaves to enter medical training at the University of Texas, and Carter to work in a drug store.

Robert McMurry, traveling for a Houston firm, had spent Sunday here with his parents. Mabel Smith and Annie Gardner had gone to the University of Texas. Leila Whipple had entertained the G. P. C. Lois Whipple and Marie Vaughan assisted in serving.

John Gage had bought Minnie Bellah's home. Dr. Dudley Queen, nephew of Mrs. F. B. Whipple, was new house surgeon at the Scott hospital in Temple. India Goodwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Goodwin of Cuthbert, was recovering from an appendicitis operation. The C. H. Earnest family had attended the circus in Abilene.

county highways. Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Price and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Ingram of Sweetwater had attended the Abilene fair on Wednesday.

Deputy Sheriff R. C. Dale had arrested a car on the highway and from it had taken bootleg whiskey valued at $3,600. A Ford coupe belonging to Neil Guest and belonging to Bennett Scott had been demolished in a collision with the C. E. Way car.

The second annual Mitchell county fair had been proclaimed a "big success." Hazel Costin was crowned queen at an open air dance pavilion operated by the Legion post on the fair grounds.

I. H. Martin, 49, who had died in a brush thicket near Sweetwater while surrounded by a posse, had been buried here. J. L. Pidgeon was in charge of repairs and gas sales at the E. H. Winn garage. Dixon Vector, graduate of Colorado High school, had been awarded a scholarship in journalism at Baylor university at Waco.

Listed on the senior BYPU program that week were Mildred Sanderson, Earl Cook, Mary Terrell, Earl Wilson, Laundry Smith, Dale Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Simpson and son, Horace, accompanied by Jack DeLaney, had spent Sunday in Abilene. Rev. W. M. Elliott and Dr. P. C. Coleman were attending the Presbytery meeting in El Paso. Lila Lee and Lois Wilson had been playing at the local theater in an epic called "Is Matrimony a Failure?"

Harold Beal had died at the White Elephant ranch home of his brother, H. S. Beal. Oil men were quoted as believing that the Mitchell county oil field would be a permanent one.

The Lions club was to meet at the Pullman cafe one each Friday, according to President C. M. Adams.

10 YEARS AGO

From The Record for Oct. 5, 1923 Largest and newest of Colorado's gasoline stations had been opened by Fred Brown. The mother of Supt. Ben S. Peck had died at Waco.

A city park or playground was the chief objective of the Colorado Lions club under leadership of J. Ralph Lee, president. Howard Rogers had sold his interest in the Helpy Selly store to his partner, L. S. Garvin, and Bob Kern was to be employed as manager.

Rev. J. E. McDermott of Dunn had accepted a call to pastor the Westbrook Baptist church. The Colorado Choral club, with Thos. Dawes as director, was opening its eighteenth year. Mrs. F. B. Whipple was the only charter member.

Congressman Guinn Williams of Decatur had spoken here in behalf of the candidacy of Gov. Al Smith for president. Bob Cooper had taken over the J. H. Cooper blacksmith shop on retirement of his father. County girls had received 1,254 bales of cotton, bringing 18.25 per pound.

The London Bridge club had been entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Chester Jones. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Majors, Lea Skope, and Pauline Doremus.

Dresses advertised by Grissom's Associated stores, the C. E. Stone store, and others were to the knees in length and low on the hips as to waistline. Hats were deep-crowned, drawn low over the eyes.

Ella Mae Vaughan of Peecos was here at the home of her parents. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Reese, very ill of rheumatism. A son had been born to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Powell on Friday. Mrs. Lois Prude Bennett was home from Fort Davis.

Mrs. J. H. Greene had visited her daughter, Nelle Harper, in Simmons university. Mildred Mann had been very ill of pneumonia. Mrs. T. W. Stonerod had been visiting Virginia at McMurry college in Abilene.

The Thos. R. Smiths and Nina Laura were leaving soon for the Triennial convention of the Episcopal church in Washington. Mrs. C. H. Earnest was going, too, and she planned to visit Joe Earnest in Washington while away. G. D. Foster was resigning as county superintendent to teach in Colorado High school. Ruby Mc-

From The Record for Sept. 29, 1928 Another batch of checks for plowing up cotton had been received by Mitchell county farmers. The total had gone past $130,000.

Lawrence Westbrook, chairman of the State Relief and Rehabilitation commission, was under fire in a senate investigation at Austin, but relief administration in Mitchell county was commended.

Nelle Harper Greene had been elected to succeed Fannie Smith on the Junior High school faculty. The Bridgettes had met on Thursday with Mrs. Lloyd Mackey, guests being Mesdames R. H. Looney, G. V. Harrison, Bill Scott, E. V. Grantland, Bob Thompson, Clay Smith, Milburn Doss, W. L. Doss, Jr., Ace McShan, Zattye Smith, Edgar Majors, and Isla Taylor of Marshall. Misses Mildred Coleman, Katie Buchanan, and Margaret Argaine.

Funeral had been held for Mrs. T. T. Allison. Roy Davis Cole, principal of Hyman school, had been in town on Saturday. Edwin Chase of Mills Chevrolet had been in Sweetwater on Friday.

The county had received 2,561 bales of cotton. Rod Merritt had sold his equity in the Keybrook to Lester Mannering, who had previously bought out A. L. Whipple.

T. M. Marsh was transferred here from San Angelo as new manager of the Safeway store. Dock L. Self, Westbrook farmer, had died of a heart attack.

More than 125 special days have been designated at the Golden Jubilee State Fair of Texas, October 8 to 23. These include Texas towns and cities, as well as various civic, patriotic and fraternal organizations.

LARGEST FARM SHOW TO FEATURE FAIR'S GOLDEN JUBILEE

DALLAS—Fifty years of successful State Fairs in Texas will be climaxed October 8 to 23 in the Golden Jubilee celebration with the largest array of agricultural and livestock exhibits ever before shown in the Southwest.

Otto Herold, president of the World's largest State Fair, said this week that practically every inch of available space had been taken in the agricultural building, with but little remaining in the livestock and poultry buildings.

Sixty-seven Texas counties, covering the expanse of the State from North to South and from East to West, will be represented in the county unit exhibits. In addition to these there will be a regional exhibit from East Texas, numerous exhibits by individual farmers, and showings by the boy and girl club organizations, and the various farm activities of the Federal government.

Competition in farm exhibits has been eliminated this year. Every county exhibit which passes the standard of a "sifting" committee will receive a flat award of $125 cash. This change was made so that all the counties could be assisted financially in assembling and transporting their exhibits.

In livestock some of the country's outstanding herds will be on exhibit. Every breed of cow, or hog or sheep or goat in the Southwest will be represented. Cleanliness and orderliness has been made the watchword of this show. Attendants will wear white uniforms. They will be housed in an upstairs dormitory with running water. Stalls will be kept scrupulously clean.

WACO—At Hillcrest Memorial hospital in Waco 28 young people assigned to part-time work on an NYA Work Project will assist in hospital services. J. C. Kellam, State Youth Director, has announced.

NEWS FROM THE ROOT HOSPITAL

After remaining in the hospital for 12 days of convalescence, Mrs. Dick Carter and her infant son, Richard Ware, were moved home Monday.

Mrs. J. C. Meek, who has been a medical patient in the hospital, was moved to the Joe Smoot home Saturday.

Mrs. A. J. Hooks is recovering from major surgery on Sept. 14.

Carl Hogue of Route 1 went home Monday after undergoing an appendectomy on Sept. 17.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Longley of Westbrook on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Loving, who recently moved here from LeFors, are the parents of a daughter born at 12:45 noon last Thursday. She has been named Malva Rene. Mrs. Loving is the former Evelyn Stiel of Colorado.

W. A. Scoggins of Gonzales, who is working here on a road project, was given surgery for appendicitis on Saturday and is given a favorable report.

Clarence Oakley, 6-year-old son of E. B. Oakley of Colorado, was given minor surgery Wednesday.

INJURED BY COTTON
J. E. Disherson of Ranger, employed on a construction job at the compress, sustained a back injury when two bales of cotton fell on him Thursday morning. The extent of his injuries was undetermined shortly before noon.

TREATED FOR GUNSHOT WOUND
Lloyd Blackard has been in the hospital since Sunday receiving treatment for a gunshot wound in his side. He is not believed to be seriously injured.

NEGRO GIVEN SURGERY
Charles Lee, well-known negro shine chair operator at the Roy Dozier barber shop, was given surgery for a perforated stomach ulcer last Thursday. He is reported doing fine.

HAS FRACTURED SKULL
A 4-year-old boy who was struck by a truck downtown Saturday night is in the hospital with a fractured skull but is apparently out of danger. The child is the son of Frank C. Odell. The parents are from the valley, and are picking cotton on a farm out on Route 1.

SOUND PROOF ROOM BUILT
Construction on a sound-proof room at the hospital was completed this week. This makes two new units which the hospital has recently added, the other being a glassed-in nursery.

SCURRY POOL OPENER STILL CLEANING OUT; FISHING JOB DELAYS

Delayed by a fishing job, the wildcat Coffield & Guthrie's No. 1 Spars et al. which is believed to be the opener for a new oil pool west of Ira, in Scurry county, was still cleaning out Wednesday.

The cleaning was at 2,375 feet Wednesday, and oil was standing 300 feet from the top of the well. Oil rose 1,200 feet in the well overnight when it had cleaned itself following a nitro shot two weeks ago.

Estimates place its potential production at around 300 barrels per day. When it goes on production, the cold air which was encountered at 1,100 feet and utilized for drilling operations from there on, will be used in the pumping process.

The well is located 330 feet from the north and west lines of the SW quarter of section 130-99, H&TC, on land owned by John Spars and Morris Brownfield of Snyder. Most of the nearby leases are in the hands of independent operators, among them several Coloradans. Developments at the well are being watched here with considerable interest.

ALLAN PAYNE TELLS OF FLORIDA STORM

A letter received here this week from Allan J. Payne, pioneer Colorado merchant who recently moved from Slaton to Fort Lauderdale, Florida, for Mrs. Payne's health, told of the storm which was to have hit his home-town recently.

Payne wrote: "No doubt you have been keeping up with the storm that was to have hit us here, but which when within two hundred miles of us making straight for us, it turned for the north, which was a great relief to us and to those who had seen other such storms here; it was quite a sight to me to see all of the business houses boarding up their windows and doors and most of the residences, so we were prepared for it, except it would have done a great deal of damage to the trees and shrubbery, as that is so thick and so pretty."

"The weather over here is most delightful, and Mrs. Payne is getting along nicely. Our daughter takes us out for a drive most every day, and next she is to take us down to Key West, which is now a through highway all the way."

"I did not see the nice write up you gave me till I got here, which I appreciate so very much, and I was sorry that I could not be with you at this last old settlers reunion, as this is the first time I have missed. Always glad to get the old reliable Record."

Yours truly,
ALLAN J. PAYNE

BARBECUE GIVEN AT LAY POWELL RANCH ON FRIDAY EVENING

With members of the Promising Oil company included among the more than 50 guests, Lay Powell and George Plaster entertained with a barbecue supper at the Lay Powell ranch southeast of town Friday evening at 5:30.

The wildcat test which the Promising Oil company is to spud on the midway at the West Texas Free Fair in Abilene Monday afternoon, was the chief topic of conversation. Charlie Ellis and Finis Mothershead of the Abilene Reporter-News were among out-of-town guests.

NEARLY ALL FIRST MATCHES PLAYED IN CITY GOLF TOURNAMENT AT COUNTRY CLUB

Nearly all first matches have been played off in the city golf tournament which opened Sunday at the country club, and a few second round matches have been started.

In the championship flight for men E. C. Nix won over Joe Pritchett, L. H. McLarty over Grover Williams, Ben Costin over Glenn Thomas, Lawrence Christian over Jimmy Cook, Lee Dorn over Steve Bodine, Percy Bond over H. E. Grantland, Jake Merritt over Walter Henderson. The only match remaining in this flight is Q. D. Shepperd vs. James Fritchett. Critical illness of Shepperd's mother has prevented his playing.

First flight matches gave Willis Jones victory over Sefton Pickens, J. C. Pritchett over John Baze, Charley Smith over Marvin Majors, and Jack Christian over Dr. Oscar Rhode.

Second flight: Thos. Dolman over Shorty Winnett, Joe Cox over Jack Richardson, Buck Geer over Fred Dozier by default, Walter Whipkey over Jake Richardson, Dr. W. S. Rhode over R. H. Barber, Eddie Moeser over Austin Bush.

Third flight: Rex McKenney over

Sherrrod Smith, A. L. McSpadden over Henry Vaught, Gene Smith over H. B. Spence, Joe Mills over Henry Doss, Woodrow Pratt over R. R. Lacey, Orville Cage over Malcolm Mayes, Bob Rose over A. E. McClain, Edwin Pickens over Eddie Pyland.

Women golfers played their first matches Saturday. Mrs. Walter Henderson won over Mrs. R. H. Barber, Mrs. Grady Newman over Mrs. Percy Bond, and Mrs. Walter Whipkey over Mrs. A. L. McSpadden. Mrs. J. E. Watson and Mrs. Q. D. Shepperd did not get to play their match because of illness in the Shepperd family.

An ADDED SERVICE

As an added service to its friends, customers and employees throughout Texas, the Humble Company has again arranged to bring you radio accounts of Southwest Conference football games. Each Saturday afternoon, the Conference games and the more important non-conference contests—as many as four on one afternoon—will be broadcast over an extensive network of Texas stations, so that you will be able to follow the fortunes of your favorite team throughout the season.

Humble urges you, however, not to be content to sit by the fire and listen to the radio; we suggest that you plan to see, with your own two eyes, as many of the games as you can.

On your way to and from the games you see, you are cordially invited to stop for service where you see the Humble sign. Restrooms at Humble Service Stations are noted for their spotless cleanliness; station salesmen are prompt, helpful, friendly—sincerely interested in making your trip more pleasant.

LOCAL JEWS JOIN IN OBSERVANCE OF ROSH HASHONAH (NEW YEAR)

All Jewish families of Colorado closed their places of business Monday and joined other Jewish people of this section in observing Rosh Hashonah, Jewish New Year, with impressive services at the Bluebonnet hotel in Sweetwater, beginning at sundown Sunday and continuing through Monday.

Those who went to the services from here were Mr. and Mrs. Max Berman and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Berman and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Berman and son, Mr. and Mrs. Nat Britton and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Kirschbaum and son, Mr. and Mrs. I. Tucker and son, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Bodzin and children.

The year beginning Monday is number 5,699 on the Jewish calendar. The time of the Jews is counted from their history of the creation of the earth. During this season the Jewish people are reminded that all mankind passes in judgment before their Creator, and are called upon to judge themselves, repent and continue with new resolve in the year that faces them.

The 10 days of penitence will be climaxed by Yom Kippur, Day of Atonement, next Wednesday, on which day all the local Jewish stores will again be closed.

TWENTY-SEVEN FROM HERE TO BTU MEET

Twenty-seven from First Baptist church attended the associational B. T. U. meeting at Snyder Sunday afternoon.

Among the officers elected were C. A. Burgess as choir director and Margery Burgess as pianist. Both are from Colorado. D. V. Merritt of Snyder, former Coloradan, was made associate director, and Mrs. Merritt was elected a group director.

W. T. Brooks of Westbrook was re-elected leader of the south zone. Junior B. T. U. members of the Colorado church gave a Bible drill.

The State Fair of Texas will honor its founders and pay a tribute to the newspapers of Texas for their success in building the "world's largest and most beautiful fair" during its first fifty years, with a monument to be unveiled on opening day, Saturday, October 8, which is also Press Day.

Every newspaper in Texas has been invited to send in a front page of its paper, upon which has been published a story on the community, which will be placed in a metal chest and placed in a crypt under the tablet "acknowledging a debt of gratitude to the Press of Texas."

The monument will stand eight feet tall on a base six feet in height. It will be finished in sand and ground granite. The monument is being executed by Jose Martin and Roual Josset.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

Unusually good crowds were in attendance at both services of the Church of Christ Sunday. Woodie Holden, minister of the congregation, spoke at the morning service on the subject, "Milestones on the Road to Heaven," and at evening on "Conversion." It is to be expected that with the coming of fall weather the attendance will grow at all the services. We invite you to come to the Church of Christ.

The subject for Sunday morning will be, "Milestones on the Road to Hell." Notice the calendar and come to all the services.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Please do not forget to come to the Communion service at 11 o'clock. This is the one service no Christian can afford to miss.

Come and help drive out the vacant pew, which is such an enemy to the progress of the Lord's work.

There will be worship and a sermon at 7:30 p. m. The vacant pews will be there, too. Are you willing for it to take your place?

The Sunday school will begin at 9:45. Jerold Riordan is superintendent.

The intermediate camp will have their vesper service at 5 p. m. All intermediates are urged to come and have a part in this part of the church's program.

The Church of our Lord is the hope of the world. Those who have not yet taken their place in it should do so at once and help it to function to its greatest strength.

MRS. SHEPPERD REMAINS IN CRITICAL CONDITION

Latest reports available on Mrs. J. W. Shepperd, Sr., as The Record went to press were that she is still gravely ill, and that her condition is virtually unchanged.

Mrs. Shepperd has been ill since mid-April having had typhoid fever and complications, resulting in a generally weakened condition from which she has not been able to recover. Her prolonged illness has affected her heart, which has been giving trouble during the past two weeks. Since Saturday afternoon her condition has been, at all times, extremely critical.

WOLVES WREST

Aerial Drive Clicks Howard Hart came down with two passes and Chuck Smith contributed another fine catch to get the local drive in working order...

From that point on Colorado seemed content to defend what they had gained, succeeded as well that Big Spring was never able to pierce the Wolf 29-yard line at any time during the game.

The Bonnet only retained drive came late in the second quarter but bogged down when Coach Murphy sent in four substitutions and Colorado received the benefit of the time-out period.

An outstanding feature in the victory defense was their ability to bat down Fielder's passes. Fairly successful in the first half, the aerial game got completely nowhere after the intermission.

Statistics Show Edges The Bonnet piled up 16 first downs to 14 for the opposition and their pass play advantage resulted in gains totaling 295 yards overshadowing the 171 made by Colorado...

HUGE REVUE BOOKED FOR JUBILEE FAIR

DALLAS—The Jubilee Follies, direct from a season of triumphs in the Mid-West and Canada, will be the attraction in the Auditorium of the State Fair of Texas from opening day, October 8 to October 16.

The cast of 125 persons, including many beautiful show and precision girls, and numerous diversified acts, is under the management of Mike H. Barnes. The show has been acclaimed by critics as outstanding in every city it has visited.

RAINBOW COLORS AT FAIR

NEW YORK—The main transference thoroughfare of the New York World's Fair 1939 is called Rainbow Avenue. Its name comes from the unique color and lighting scheme.

RAIN HELD BY CONTOURS ADDS TO ACRE INCOME

COLLEGE STATION—Each inch of rainfall held on the land by contour rows and level terraces resulted in an extra net income of $3.69 per acre a eleven-year test has shown.

In 1927, at the request of M. R. Bentley, agricultural engineer of the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service, and others, the Agricultural Experiment Station set up at the sub-station at Spur, under the direction of R. E. Dickson, two comparable ten-acre field areas, one of which was terraced and the other with the rows running down the slope.

The blocks consisted of Abilene clay loam soil with a slope of six inches in one hundred feet. The terraces were of the level type spaced at vertical intervals of twelve inches and had the ends closed to hold the water.

Measuring devices installed at the bottom of the slope revealed that there was no runoff from the terraced field while there was a eleven-year accumulated runoff of twenty-three and thirty-six hundredths inches, or an average of two and twelve hundredths inches a year, from the unterraced area.

The terraced field, over the eleven-year period, returned an annual average of sixty-six pounds of lint and one hundred and twenty-three pounds of seed per acre above the yield of the second area. Figured at ten cents a pound for cotton and twenty dollars a ton for seed, the increased yield had an average value of seven dollars and eighty-four cents a year.

The eleven-year total acre gross income of the terraced field was two hundred twenty dollars and eighty-nine cents, while that of an acre with the rows running down the slope was one hundred thirty-four dollars and fifty-six cents. The difference in gross income per acre was eighty-six dollars and twenty-three cents in favor of the terraced area.

Bentley estimated that more than half of the ten and a half million acres of Texas crop land terraced or contoured under the leadership of county agricultural agents to date is of the level type, which is especially suited to the conditions of the Plains country.

RELIEF FUNDS WILL BE EXHAUSTED BY FEB. 1ST

AUSTIN—A $3,000,000 cornucopia of flour, beans, rice, dried fruit and other commodities holds a limited guarantee for 500,000 relief clients. Adam B. Johnson, director of the Texas Relief Commission, said recently.

He said the commission's available funds, the residue of a $20,000,000 relief bond issue voted in the depth of the depression, had been budgeted to Feb. 1, 1939, and unless additional financial aid became available his agency could no longer direct distribution of surplus commodities purchased by the federal government.

He expressed an opinion prospects were not bright since submission of a constitutional amendment was the only method by which the state could appropriate money for relief.

The Legislature convenes Jan. 19, 1939, and authorization of relief funds—provided it was approved by the electorate—would leave a gap of several months between cessation and resumption of commodities distribution, Johnson said.

"It would be nothing short of a calamity if the state loses these commodities," Johnson said.

He pointed out that relief rolls have diminished little, if any, in recent months.

The commission distributes commodities, certifies enrollees from among relief clients for the Civilian Conservation Corps, and determines the qualification of other clients for WPA employment.

CONTINENTAL OIL COMPANY'S PENSION PLAN FOR EMPLOYEES

PONCA CITY, OKLA.—The Continental Oil Company announced recently the establishment of a retirement and pension fund for all of its employees who reach the age of 65 in the case of men and 60 in the case of women.

The plan, according to Dan Moran, president of the company, will be cooperative in character, employees making regular monthly contributions which will be supplemented by a contribution on the company's part. It will provide a minimum benefit of $30 a month, and in the average case the total retirement income including the Federal pension will amount to a figure somewhere between one-third and one-half of the employee's salary. For the other employees the company is providing a benefit in recognition of services already rendered.

CROP CONTROL WOULD BE CONTINUED IN WAR

WASHINGTON—A high agriculture department official said the administration intended to continue in effect its present crop control legislation even if a European war brought a huge export demand for American farm products.

This official said Secretary Wallace would reassert the administration's faith in the existing legislation in speeches to be made this week in the wheat and cotton belts. He will speak at Hutchinson, Kan., Thursday, and at Fort Worth, Texas, Friday.

The secretary was described as believing the present law contained ample provisions for any expansion of production that might be required, and that the legislation would be needed to prevent over-expansion and to bring about an orderly curtailment of production at the conclusion of hostilities when war demand ended.

Officials emphasized that the administration has given no consideration thus far to possible expansion of agricultural production. They said the matter would not be taken up unless war actually developed.

It's got to be good to be advertised.

A real wild west rodeo, with cow-boys, cowgirls, funny clowns, bucking owner of this array of stock, claims to have some of the very best cow mules, wild steers, mustang horses, prizes to anyone who thinks they can bucking buffaloes in the most thrilling a top hand ever had. The Rev. Mr. Fuquay was formerly pastor of the Westbrook church. He was reared in western Mitchell county.

COLORADO PICTURED IN 'TEXAS FROM THE SKY'

Coloradoans learned how their town looks from the sky when two aerial views of the town were printed in the rotogravure "Texas From the Sky" section of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram on Sunday.

One view was taken from the south, looking north, and the other from the east, looking west. Various important buildings and landmarks were numbered and named.

NEW SCHOOL BUS
Another school bus has been added as "a way and means" of transporting the students of rural districts to school each day. This makes four buses for Westbrook schools.

The members of high school have chosen a girl from each class to represent that class in a race for Football Queen. We're not following the tradition of European countries—we are democratically electing our Queen. The chosen Queen will be crowned at the Senior carnival which is set to be given the 29th of October. The Juniors are sponsoring this race. The votes are one cent each.

SPORTS NEWS
The Westbrook six-man football team was called to Garden City last Friday to play its second game of the season. After a long and dusty trip, the players and their few loyal fans arrived at Garden City and the game was started at 3:30 o'clock.

Westbrook got its choice of the kick-off, so they received and the game was on.

At the end of the first half the score was 28-0 in favor of Westbrook. Those making scores were Ogleby 12, Jones 9, and Moody with 1.

The second string was run during the last half of the game and the score at the end of the game was 42-6 in Westbrook's favor. Those in the last half were Jones 6, Ogleby 7, and Beard with one.

Everyone was so thrilled about the victory that they forgot about the distance on the way home. This game was the second one of the season for Westbrook, and the second victory.

SENIOR NEWS
The Seniors had a very good time all day Saturday. Guess what it was? "Heating Maize." Believe it or not, but we went over to Mr. Templetton, who lives south of Westbrook out-close to Shell camp and headed maize.

Yes, our sponsor, Mr. John W. Hood went too, but our assistant sponsor, Mr. C. V. Cox, found some other necessary business which just "had" to be seen about; however he did drop around about quitting time to see how we had done. We have to congratulate Mr. Hood on his interest in the Seniors. It did seem strange to see him heading maize. Ha! He is back to teaching just as good as ever though.

We also want to thank Mrs. Shelton and Mrs. Dockery for the delicious dinner they came over and spread for everyone. They brought some of the best "red" beans we have ever tasted—a big pot full, but they were all gone in a few minutes. We were all plenty hungry. There was also ice cream, tomatoes, and onions, plus what the Seniors brought.

There were a few who cut their thumbs and hands, but outside that we were all okay, and had a grand time.

June Shelton was elected by the Senior boys to represent the class as Football Queen. Good luck, June. Marjorie Hardcastle

JUNIOR CLASS
The Junior class had to give up one of their reporters last week, Earl Neal, but that's all right. We have another one, Gerald Anderson. We hope Earl likes school at Colorado; although we were sorry to lose a good classmate like Earl.

The Junior class elected a girl to represent our class as a candidate for football queen; Ruby Joe Fortune was elected. Come on Juniors, let's put Ruby Joe on the throne.

We are organizing a school paper in our English class. We don't know what we will do without Glynn Hindman to write our short stories but James says he can do as well as Glynn so maybe the paper won't be a failure.

There's a little scandal out about Hazel Gladden and Ramelle Clifton. Say girls, is that the truth?

In Public Speaking we have been having pantomimes. Sometimes we can't tell what the participants are doing especially when they're trimming hedges.

Three boys in our class are on the football squad that won a deciding victory over Garden City, 42 to 6, Friday afternoon at Garden City. We're proud of these boys.

SOPHOMORE NEWS
The Sophomore class enjoyed a picnic at Ruddick Park Friday afternoon. After supper, games were played and later we went to the show. All reported a wonderful time.

Why didn't Junior and Choppie get to the picnic? They said, "It was the football game that detained us." We have had our three week test on Algebra. Did Miss Speights say we could pass on such grades?

The Home Ec class is studying grooming, and some of the girls are thinking of entering the next beauty contest. (Try to imagine such). Junior is a real football star. We are predicting for him a record equalling that of Sam Baugh of Sweetwater.

FRESHMAN NEWS
The Freshman class elected their candidate for the Football Queen, Elizabeth Maine, and boy, can she kick a football. We hope that she will win and are sure she'll run a good race.

The class came to order for a class meeting Sept. 24. The ones on the social committee are Viola Peits, Elizabeth Maine, Sybil Joe Claxton, Bessie Mae Taylor. The social committee has not fully decided on the entertainment, but are planning on a picnic.

The "fish" seem to be getting a great deal of fun out of high school. Or it seems to hear some of the "fish" talk especially do we enjoy basketball practice and gym.

It seems queer in math that two papers should be turned in with the same name on both.

SEVENTH GRADE NEWS
The flower of the Seventh Grade was chosen as our candidate for Football Queen, Neva Jewel Brock, and from what I hear she can really kick the football.

We had a very interesting discussion on science, stars, moons, and suns as we were studying such things.

We were very much surprised when we found out boys use their belts for something besides looks. They are used for book satchels, and etc. This morning Franklin Miller came with his books strapped up and Charles Skelton with his "one" book in his belt so from now on we will all have to wear belts more for use than ornament.

FIFTH AND SIXTH GRADE NEWS
The fifth and sixth grades had a new teacher Monday. His name is Mr. M. P. Chambers. He came in from Spade with the transfer of pupils.

The sixth grade is having an Indian unit. We are bringing everything we can find about Indians.

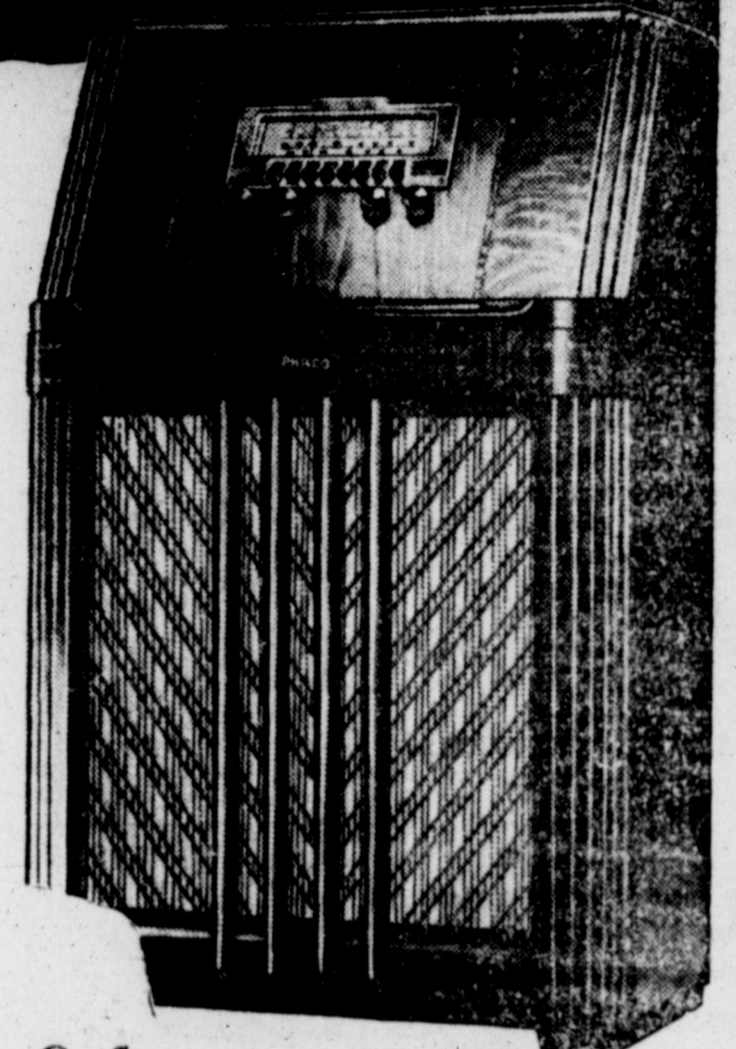

Here is a poem by one of our pupils.

● Reddy Kilowatt has a little lesson to pass along to parents. It is, "Better Light + Better Sight = Better Grades." Now that students are going back to school, Reddy wants them to have every possible help to make their school work easier and their school grades better.

Many tests have proved that proper light will enable students to read longer and concentrate more closely on their studies when doing homework. Also, a good light will eliminate unnecessary eye fatigue which may cause eye troubles.

When making out the list of school supplies for your boy or girl, include a Better Sight Lamp for the study table. You'll find these lamps at electrical stores, at furniture and department stores and other stores which sell floor and table lamps.

ELECTRICITY IS CHEAPER USE THE SAVING TO MAKE SCHOOL WORK EASIER

What better way could you find to use the SAVING you receive from recently reduced electric rates than to provide better light for children, to help them make better grades at school? When school opens, give your child a good light and a quiet place to study, and see if it isn't easier to get him to do homework.

FORMER HEAD OF LOCAL SCHOOLS SUCCEDED IN EL PASO ON SEPT. 20TH

Described by those who remember him as one of the most beloved school men who ever served here, G. P. Putnam, 75, early-day superintendent of Colorado schools, died at his home in El Paso on Sept. 20, according to a front page story in an El Paso Herald-Post received by Mrs. Y. D. McMurry.

Mr. Putnam, one of El Paso's foremost educators and a former superintendent of El Paso schools, had been in ill health ever since he was knocked down and seriously injured by an automobile in March.
Born near Lockhart, Texas, and educated at Baylor University and Sam Houston normal, Mr. Putnam came here as superintendent about 1892. After two years he went to El Paso as superintendent and held that position until 1902. During his administration eight schools were built in El Paso. He served one term as president of the Texas State

Superintendents and Principals association.
After his retirement from the El Paso school's to go in business for himself, Mr. Putnam continued to take a leading role in education. He served on the El Paso county board of education several terms. He was superintendent of the Sunday school of the First Baptist church in El Paso for 22 years.
He was in the grain and fuel business after his retirement as an educator. He organized a milling company and a warehouse company, and aided in organizing the El Paso National bank as one of its directors. He was a director of the El Paso chamber of commerce and of the Y.M.C.A.
Funeral for Mr. Putnam was held from the El Paso First Baptist church with Dr. Jeff D. Ray of Southwestern Theological seminary officiating. Survivors are his wife and one son, Harold F. Putnam of Kansas City, Missouri.

AMERICAN LEGION IS SPONSORING CARNIVAL HERE ALL NEXT WEEK

The American Legion is to sponsor Western States Shows, a carnival company, in Colorado for one week commencing Monday, Oct. 3.

According to press notices of other towns in the state the Western States Shows have the largest and most complete midway on tour this year.

Featuring the most thrilling and newest of riding devices 15 in number among them will be found the new "Skooter" ride where each rider drives their own car around the large arena, acclaimed by press and public to be the most sensational ride of the age; giant Ferris wheels. Yes, they are one of the oldest rides in the history of show business, however the Ferris Wheels have proved the most outstanding ride ever built as people young and old still love the smooth high ride in the air. Tilt-A-Whirl, dual Loop-A-Planes, Merry Mix Up, Octopus and of course the Merry-Go-Round and many others, including five specially constructed kiddie rides for the small children.

Among the side shows we find some of the most unusual freaks and human oddities ever on any carnival midway. Monkey Circus with its 15 ape performers headed by Jocko, smartest ape in captivity, Kyko the strange, she lives with wild jungle-born reptiles 24 hours a day and will not leave them. Featured on this midway of wonders will be noticed above all "Reproduction of Frontier Days." Now the Frontier days celebration is and has been one of the greatest rodeos in the country. Bill Carr has reproduced frontier days in a small way. Those who have seen both rodeos say that Bill should be crowned for being able to reproduce the original. Bill claims to have some of the top hands and contest winners from the Frontier Days at Cheyenne. Frontier Days will give one show each night of the carnival.

Capt. Kenneth Blake will head the bill of circus free acts to be presented each night. Mr. Blaks is known the world over for being the greatest of all fire high divers, diving 110 feet into a small tank of fire.

MRS. WILLIAMS IS JUDGE AT LORAIN

Mrs. J. D. Williams, Jr., of Colorado judged the women's division at the Loraine fair last week-end.

Mrs. Williams was in home demonstration work before she married and moved to Colorado.

The men's division of the fair was judged by R. B. Tate, county agent at Sweetwater.

MRS. FRANKLIN HOME

Mrs. Sam Franklin of Buford, who was among the injured in a California train wreck last week, returned home Friday night. Mrs. Franklin was homeward-bound on the Californian when it crashed into another train, waiting on a siding, as a siding switch was thrown by a panicky railroad employee. A knee injury and shock were the only injuries sustained by Mrs. Franklin, although nearly a dozen passengers in cars ahead of hers were killed or fatally injured. She came on home without assistance. She had been visiting relatives in California for the past six weeks.

LOYCE JENKINS HERE

Loyce Jenkins, one of the "Jenkins Twins," was here from Friday morning until Sunday night visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Jenkins. Loyce and her sister, Louise, are employed as hostesses on the Braniff air lines, flying from Dallas to Chicago on the north and to Brownsville on the south. Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins are hoping to have Louise Jenkins here this week-end.

ABILENE BOOSTERS HERE TUESDAY TO ADVERTISE FAIR

Traveling in three cars and a bus, 35 Abilene boosters stopped in Colorado Tuesday morning at 9:30 in their fifth trip advertising the West Texas Free Fair in Abilene October 3-8.

Officials of the Promising Oil company, which will drill a wildcat oil test on the grounds of the fair during the six days of its progress, met the motorcade here.

Bob Cannon, publicity director for the fair, acted as master of ceremonies during the trip. Mayor J. A. Sadler extended a welcome from Colorado to the group.

Harry Ratliff "promised" that the Promising Oil company would have a large delegation in Abilene both Monday, when the firm's No. 1 City of Abilene Fair Park is slated to spud—and on Wednesday, when West Texas oil men will take over the midway as their special day. Ratliff is legal counsel for the Promising Oil company.

The Colorado turnout was said later to have been the largest received on the trip.

HERE FOR WEEK-END

Rod Merritt, who is taking a course in social security work at Abilene, was home for the week-end.

MORE QUALITY HOGS SELLING AT BETTER PRICES URGED FOR MITCHELL FARMS BY NEWLY ORGANIZED GROUP OF HOG RAISERS

The belief that more registered hogs marketed on a better and more uniform price basis will help solve the economic problems of Mitchell county and West Texas has led a group of Mitchell county and West Texas registered hog raisers to form a permanent organization called the Mitchell County Registered Hog Raisers' association. It is believed to be one of the first organizations of its kind in the state.

Although temporary organization of the association has been set up since last summer, the permanent organization was not completed until Monday night, when a meeting of the association was held at Colorado high school. J. P. Hestand was elected president, T. W. Daughtrey vice-president, and Charles Stevens secretary-treasurer.

Named on an advertising committee were B. J. Baskin, county farm agent; George Slaton, vice-president of the City National bank; Edward F. Brown, vocational agriculture teacher at Loraine; C. V. Cox, vocational agriculture teacher at Westbrook; and F. C. Shillingburg, vocational agriculture teacher at Colorado high school.

Those present at the meeting included H. W. Venus, Clay Mann Smith, Charles Stevens, Truett Hamrick, Rudel Glover, Alvin Smith, George Slaton, J. P. Hestand, B. J. Baskin, Edward F. Brown, Wallace Hestand, Mack Wilson of Loraine, and Shillingburg.

Purposes of the organization are two-fold—to get the best uniform prices for all registered hogs in the county, and to encourage the breeding of registered hogs. Members hope to get surrounding counties to join in the movement. They plan to qualify with the state registered hog raisers' association.

Plans are already underway to get some really good sires in the county.

FUNERAL HELD HERE TUESDAY FOR FRED W. LASKY OF LAMESA

Funeral services were held from First Methodist church Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock for Fred W. Lasky, 64, former Mitchell county who was found dead in a field at his farm near Lamesa early Monday afternoon. The Rev. C. E. Jameson, church pastor, officiated for the service. Burial was in the local cemetery.

Mr. Lasky, who lived in Mitchell county off and on for 40 years before moving to Lamesa two years ago, was last seen alive when he went to a feed field on his farm Monday morning. When there was an unreasonable delay about his returning for dinner, members of his family went to the field and found him lying face downward. He had been dead apparently several hours. Death was attributed to a heart attack.

A brother of the late C. H. Lasky, Colorado financier who died two years ago, Mr. Lasky is survived by his wife, the former Isabel Glover of Mitchell county, sister of the late Ed S. Glover, pioneer China Grove resident; two daughters, Mrs. Marguerite Green of Lamesa and Mrs. Annabel Green of Dallas; three sons, Roy and Frank Lasky of Lamesa, Fred Lasky, Jr., of Fort Worth; a brother, Sam Lasky of Bowie.

Kiker & Son had charge of local arrangements, receiving the body from Lamesa Tuesday morning.

SHILLINGBURG TO GUIDE WORK OF THE LARGEST VOCATIONAL AGRICULTURE CLASS IN HIGH SCHOOL'S HISTORY THIS YEAR

Guiding the work of the largest vocational agriculture class in the history of Colorado high school is the task of F. C. Shillingburg, head of the agriculture department and sponsor of the local chapter, Future Farmers of America.

All 62 of the boys enrolled in Shillingburg's classes this year have paid up the FFA dues. They will carry on the active FFA program which has featured vocational agriculture work since the department was organized some 10 years ago by Doyle Williams, now head of the vocational agriculture department at Denison high school.

Shillingburg came here from Rails to succeed Williams in Sept., 1937. He had been teaching vocational agriculture at Rails for two years at that time, having gone there on his graduation from A. & M.

Erath county, which has contributed so many livestock, dairy, and poultry experts to Texas, is Shillingburg's home. He was reared and educated in Dublin. He was on a champion livestock judging team while in Dublin high school, and he repeated while a student in A. & M., being on the A. & M. team which took first place in the American Royal Livestock Show in Kansas City one year, and then went on to take third place at the world show in Chicago.

This year Shillingburg's boys in Colorado high school already have 46 calves on feed. They are planning to put 80 hogs on self-feeders, carry on poultry projects involving 200 hens, and feed 30 fine wool lambs. Their crop projects will include 310 acres of cotton and an equal amount of grain sorghums.

Among the activities being planned by the boys during the school term, in addition to carrying on their study and projects, is the usual father-mother-son banquet, which is always an outstanding event on the Colorado high school annual calendar.

The boys will send their president, Ross Glover, to the national convention in Kansas City as another major activity. The chapter is always represented at district and area gatherings.

SIX-MAN FOOTBALL TEAM AT WESTBROOK DOWNS GARDEN CITY

Developing into serious threats for honors in the recently formed PSA six-man football district, R. G. Crouch's six-man Westbrook team defeated Garden City's Bearkats 42-6 in a game at Garden City Friday afternoon.

It was the second victory of the season for the Westbrook team. They defeated Courtney last week 14-8. Junior Oglesby, roney half-back, accounted for four of the Westbrook touchdowns in the Garden City game, while Sidney Jones went over for the other two. Jones walked over three of the extra points, while Moody, Oglesby, and Board had one each.

GINNINGS THIS YEAR BEHIND THOSE OF LAST

Cotton ginnings in Mitchell county prior to September 16 were several hundred bales behind the figure for the same period last year, according to a report sent out by the bureau of the census, department of commerce.

Census reports show that 4,309 bales were ginned in the county prior to September 16, 1938, and that 5,065 bales were received up to the same time in 1937.

The Westbrook sextet is slated to meet Sterling City's Eagles at Westbrook this Friday.

The six team in the district are Sterling City, Courtney Garner, Forsan, Westbrook, and Garden City. Tentative plans call for each team to play six games during the season. Forsan is rated along with Westbrook as one of the stronger teams. Forsan downed Garden City 44-0 last week, a score comparable to the one which Westbrook stacked up this week.

PORTER ATTENDS SCOUT BOARD MEETING HELD IN BIG SPRING ON MONDAY

W. W. Porter, director of the Colorado district of the Buffalo Trails council, Boy Scouts of America, was in Big Spring Monday night to attend an executive board meeting of the council.

Reports given at the meeting show that there are now 58 troops in the council, comprising 1,292 members and 292 leaders. The six districts in the council are Big Spring, Midland, Pecos, Sweetwater, Snyder, and Colorado.

The Colorado district was shown to have six troops, 101 scouts, and 16 workers, in addition to one cub pack with three workers.

Porter and other members of the board approved appointment of Jack Penrose of St. Louis as field executive to replace Ed McCurtain, resigned.

LOCAL HEREFORD MEN PLAN TO ATTEND FAIR

Several Mitchell county ranchmen and Hereford dealers have indicated their intention of attending the dairy and Hereford show at the West Texas Free Fair in Abilene next Tuesday.

Harry Holt, staff writer for the Abilene Reporter-News and well known to Mitchell county ranchmen, is superintendent of the Hereford division of the show.

Judging will begin at 9:30 Tuesday morning in the fair's new judging arena. Leading Hereford farms of this area are to have entries in the show.

COUNTY AGENTS ATTEND CONFERENCE ON WHOLE FARM DEMONSTRATIONS

Discussion of whole farm demonstrations were heard by Miss Vera Crippen, county home demonstration agent, and B. J. Baskin, county farm agent, when they attended a six-county conference of agents in Sweetwater on Saturday.

Tyrus Timm, extension economist in farm management, Miss Louise Bryant, home management specialist of Texas A. and M. college, Miss Ruth Thompson, district demonstration agent, and J. D. Prewitt, district farm agent, were in charge.

The group was presented a home-farm demonstration program for the year, planned by the extension specialists.

Meeting with the group and taking part in the program was Miss Isla Mae Chapman, home industry specialist, of the extension service.

The Wiley Walker farm near Loraine is being used for Mitchell county's whole farm demonstration.

MRS. WINFIELD SCOTT'S WILL FILED FOR PROBATE

FORT WORTH—The bulk of the estate of Mrs. Winfield Scott, 73, widow of a pioneer Colorado cattleman and capitalist, was left in her will in a trust fund for her son, Winfield Scott, Jr., and her 11-year-old granddaughter, Winifred Scott.

H. H. Morse, who was manager of Mrs. Scott's properties, and Mark McMahon, Fort Worth attorney, were named trustees. Morse was appointed temporary administrator after the will was filed for probate.

The application to probate the will estimated the value of the estate in excess of $10,000. Cash bequests totaled $18,000.

J. W. RANDLE ATTENDS PIGGLY WIGGLY MEET

While in Fort Worth Tuesday, J. W. Randle, owner of the local Piggy Wiggly store, attended a state convention of Piggy Wiggly owners.

Randle, a member of the local school board, spent part of the day inspecting modern new school buildings with Superintendent John E. Watson. They were seeking ideas to be used in building Colorado's new junior high school building. Mrs. Watson and Mrs. Randle accompanied them.

CLOSING MONTHS OF 1938 FIND COLORADO IN DESIRABLE STATE OF CONSTRUCTION GROWTH

The closing months of 1938 find Colorado in a state of construction growth to be desired by any town.

To be more explicit, it has at least one major building accomplishment in its recent past, another assured for the immediate future. Meanwhile, it has plans definitely underway for still further construction and improvement.

The major accomplishment of the recent past was the building of a permanent plant for the Colorado City Frontier Round-up rodeo. This plant has been valued by rodeo authorities on a par with $10,000 plants in other parts of West Texas.

Its construction was financed by incorporation of the Frontier Round-up association a few weeks before the celebration, which was held Sept. 8, 9, and 10. More than 125 shares were sold at $25 per share. The celebration was one of the most successful in Colorado's history, leaving the association in excellent financial shape, according to reports.

Assured for the immediate future is the construction of a new junior high school building, along with the modernization of two ward school buildings. By a margin of four to one, property holders of the Colorado independent school district recently voted $90,000 worth of bonds to implement a PWA grant of $74,250 for this work. The grant was approved the day before the election was held.

Plans which are occupying a number of the town's building spirits at present revolve around the possible paving of a number of Colorado's residential streets under a WPA skeleton paving project which was approved some time ago.

WHOS WHO ON THE CAMPUS

G. D. Foster was born in Canyon, Texas. Mr. Foster's early education consisted of one year spent in a rural school after which he attended grammar and high school, finishing his high school education at the Canyon High School. Mr. Foster began his college career at West Texas State Teachers College in Canyon from which he graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree. He has attended Texas Tech college during many and several sessions the past few years. Mr. Foster came to Colorado September 13, 1919. He became affilated with the Colorado schools in 1920 and taught in them until 1924 when he became County Superintendent. He held the office of County Superintendent until 1928 at which time he once more took up his chosen profession of school teaching and has been with the Colorado High School since that year.

 During 1937, Mr. Foster was appointed principal to take the place of C. A. Wilkins. Mr. Foster has filled his position as principal most ably and has materially aided in bringing the Colorado High school to its present high standard.

CURTIS WOOD

I guess you've noticed that "Squirt" Wood has been running around lately with practically all of his hair cut off. To see him thusly, you'd think he was a football star—which is just about right. At one hundred and seventy pounds of fighting football flesh, he's a football coach's dream come true. The rougher the game, the better "Squirt" likes it. (Almost everyone has forgotten that his real name is Curtis). But if the going gets too rough, he takes his false tooth to the sidelines and deposits it in the medical kit for safe-keeping.

"Squirt" made a supreme sacrifice for football. He has a passion for peanuts, and he gave them up when he entered training.
 During his career on a dairy, it is rumored that he drank a gallon and a half of milk a day, which is possibly one reason why he is so husky today. Golfing, baseball, tennis, and boxing keep him in shipshape condition the year round.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

The Sophomores met and elected officers for the coming year. They are as follows:
 President, Clayton Henderson; vice-president, Clifton Caffey; secretary-treasurer, Ruth McQuerry.

FRESHMAN NEWS

The following officers were elected by the Freshman class for the coming year:
 President, Bruce Nuckolls; vice-president, Craig Porter; secretary-treasurer, Bill Coffey, Jr.; reporter,

Harold Berman; yell leader, Allen Porter; yell leader, Betty Lou Wood.

FOOTBALL

The Wolves played the most surprising game of the season up to this date against Big Spring at Big Spring stadium Friday night, Sept. 23. Curtis Woods was captain of the team and used a 7-1-2-1 line the first half but changed to a 6-2-2-1 line the second half. The Steers used a regular punt formation and a 6-2-2-1 line in defense. The most outstanding play of the game was the touchdown made by Duff Chesney as a result of a bullet pass by Thomas Chadwick. Junior Cox played an outstanding game on defense and Ross Glover played an exceptional game although he is small. Thomas Chadwick's running and passing gave everyone thrills and thrills. J. W. Hodges played a nice game against the rough size of the opposing team's line.
 Pat Murphy, who is coach at Big Spring, formerly was assistant coach in coordination with Mr. Christian at Abilene High school. Mr. Christian stated he had played with all the officials of the game.
 In assembly Monday afternoon Curtis Wood presented the football played with in the game to Mr. Watson, who cheerfully accepted it saying, "Curtis, you know, you were four years old that other time we beat Big Spring."

COMMENTS ON THE GAME

The following are comments on the great football game played at Big Spring last Friday:

Perfect.—Mr. Watson.
 The boys went in there playing. They made the first three or four plays good.—The last half was luck.—Squirt.
 If they had all died over there they would have gone to the Happy Hunting Ground, they couldn't have done anything wrong!—Mr. Pratt.
 It was a scream!—Coach Christian.
 I'm still up in the air.—Mr. Foster.
 That was a good one.—Ears.
 We got lucky, I'm glad it's over.—Chadwick.
 We had to play! If we had let down, they would have killed us.—Dick Jones.
 Purty rough.—Dooky.
 Just an accident.—Duffy.
 We knew they were not going to beat us bad unless they stomped us.—Hunter.
 All I knew was to get in front of that man.—Grubbs.
 I had it!—Blasingame.
 It was a good game.—Ross.
 It was a hard one, alright.—Dubby.
 Glad we beat 'em.—Buzzie.
 I don't know what to say about that game.—Caffey.
 I lost ten pounds in the game.—Jack Smith.
 That last quarter! I kept looking in the east to see if it had turned red!—Pratt.

PEP SQUAD

The Colorado Pep Squad made a good showing at Big Spring Friday night, also. We are certainly proud of the number that went. From 65 members, 59 went on the Dorn and Seven Wells buses and yelled our boys to victory.

SOMETHING NEW

Thursday afternoon in assembly a new song will be introduced to the students of C. H. S. It is a kick-off song and is sung to the tune of Taps. We request that every one from Colorado attending the game rise and stand during the kick-off song as you do when the school song is played.

The words to the song are:
 Come on boys,
 Take that ball,
 Cross the goal,
 Win this game,
 For our school,
 All is well,
 C.H.S.
 C.H.S.

"THE SAGE"
 Guided by the ideas of superior rulings, "The Sage" has been chosen as the title for your (and I do mean you) high school magazine. The definition of sage conveys everything that this higher type magazine will strive to gain from and for the students and teachers of C. H. S. and those whom they may influence. The task of living up to the title will be yours, along with:
 Editor-in-chief—Nancy Price.
 Assistant editor—Freddie Watson.
 Art editor—Alice Womack.
 Business manager—Harvey Cook.
 Advertising manager—Beulah Robinson.
 Book Review editor—Lucille Dookrey.
 Poet editor—Sara Guitler.
 Sponsor—Juan P. Mason.

COGNITO; ERGO SUM
 On Wednesday, as it is our custom to have one of the ministers of the town speak to us, we heard Archdeacon J. W. Heyes speak on the subject "Cognito, ergo sum," or "I think, therefore I am." It is useless to say that we enjoyed his talk for we always do and we look forward to his coming visits.

BOOK REVIEW, TUESDAY

Tuesday, October 4, we give you the choice of America and England. Evelyn Oppenheimer reviewing "My Son, My Son!" by Howard Spring.
 "I insist that you read the book . . . written at white heat . . . one scene succeeds another with compelling force . . . real, satisfying and fine."—A. J. Cronin, author of "The Citadel."
 "One seldom comes across a novel more immediately satisfying than "My Son, My Son."—New York Times.
 "I read on breathlessly through the six hundred and more pages with no inclination to stop anywhere. All of life is here."—New York Sun.
 This superb novel of parents and children which "all America has taken to its heart" is Miss Oppenheimer's selection for another great review. From coast to coast, this is the nation's best-seller, as each week 5,000 copies are being published to satisfy demand.
 I am sure all of you enjoyed Miss Oppenheimer's review of "The Citadel" last year as much as I did. She has the power to hold her audience spellbound. Her review of "My Son, My Son" by Howard Spring will be at 8 o'clock p.m. in the high school auditorium. Admission will be 25c for students. We advise you to come early if you wish to be seated!

L. SHORTS HERE

Mr. and Mrs. L. Short and daughter are now back at home in Colorado, living in the Paul Miller house. They were transferred from here to Monahans by the Mills Chevrolet company several months ago. Mr. Short was moved back to the Colorado division of the agency early this month.

JOE FRASER HOME

Joe Y. Fraser, postmaster, was back on the job last Saturday after having returned Friday from his vacation at Sierra Blanca.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
 To the Sheriff or any Constable of Mitchell County, Greeting:
 You are hereby commanded to summon Bernice Christian by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Mitchell county, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Colorado, Texas, on the 5th Monday in October, A. D. 1938, the same being the 31st day of October A. D. 1938, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 15th day of September A. D. 1938, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court as No. 5776, wherein R. J. Christian is Plaintiff, and Bernice Christian is Defendant, and said petition alleging that the residence of Bernice Christian is unknown; that suit is brought for divorce, for determination of custody of a minor child and for setting property rights as between plaintiff and defendant; that plaintiff is a resident of Mitchell county and the State of Texas, and has resided in the said State for a period of twelve months, and six months in the said county immediately preceding the filing of this suit; that plaintiff's alleged cause of action is cruel treatment, false accusations of such a nature as to be injurious and humiliating to him before his friends and acquaintances, as well as using often abusive and unbecoming language toward plaintiff.
 Herein Fail Not, and have you before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.
 GIVEN UNDER MY HAND and the Seal of said Court, at office in Colorado, Texas, this 15th day of September A. D. 1938.
 J. H. BALLARD, Clerk.
 District Court, Mitchell County, 10-14-chg.

SOCIAL SECURITY MAN HERE ON TUESDAY TO CONTACT CLAIMANTS

W. O. King, manager of the San Angelo office of the Social Security Board, was a visitor in Colorado Sunday contacting employers and claimants for lump-sum benefits under the Federal old-age insurance provisions of the Social Security Act.

Employers are contacted in an effort to assist them in their social security problems, King pointed out, adding that it is quite essential that employers know their employees' account numbers, in order that their quarterly information returns to the Collector of Internal Revenue be accurate and complete. This is also of much importance to employees if their wages are to be properly recorded by the Social Security Board.

"We find many individuals who are entitled to file claims, yet they do not know they are qualified to receive lump-sum payments," King said. "Lump-sum payments are being made to workers who have attained the age 65 since January 1, 1937, provided they have received wages from covered employment, and to widows or estates of such workers who have died before reaching 65."

In such case, the amount of payment is 3 1/2 per cent of the total wages received from covered employment, beginning January 1, 1937, and up to attainment of age 65 or death. Workers reaching 65 who qualify for lump-sums do not have to quit work in order to receive payment. Any individual eligible to file a claim should communicate with the Social Security Board, 412 Rust Building, San Angelo, Texas.

"The San Angelo office of the Social Security Board also has the responsibility for issuing social security account cards and duplicate numbers," King said. "Workers living outside of San Angelo may mail their applications to us, and the cards will be returned by mail. Application forms may be secured from the post office in cities outside of San Angelo," King said.

Don't put up with useless PAIN

Get rid of it When functional pains of menstruation are severe, take CARDUI. If it doesn't benefit you, consult a physician. Don't neglect such pains. They depress the tone of the nerves, cause sleeplessness, loss of appetite, wear out your resistance. Get a bottle of Cardui and see whether it will help you, as thousands of women have said it helped them. Besides easing certain pains, Cardui aids in building up the whole system by helping women to get more strength from the food they eat.

ROBERT TAYLOR IN "THE CROWD ROARS" AT PALACE

MAUREEN O'SULLIVAN AGAIN OPPOSITE STAR IN SMASHING DRAMA OF BOY WHO FIGHTS HIS WAY UP FROM SLUMS TO FAME IN PRIZE RING

Robert Taylor plays his first prize-fight role in "The Crowd Roars," action-packed story of the modern prize ring, showing at the Palace theatre Saturday midnight, Oct. 1, and Sunday and Monday, Oct. 2 and 3.

Maureen O'Sullivan, who played opposite the star in "A Yank at Oxford," is once again cast as Taylor's heroine in the new picture and an exceptional cast of prominent screen names includes Edward Arnold as a racketeer, Frank Morgan as Taylor's father, an ex-vaudeville "ham," William Garman, Lionel Stander and Jane Wyman.

Based on a story by George Bruce, author of "Navy Blue and Gold," the picture reveals behind-the-scenes activities of the boxing game, with Taylor as a pawn in the shady manipulations of a gambling syndicate.

"The Crowd Roars" offers Taylor in the hardest-hitting role of his career as Tommy McCoy, the boy from the wrong side of the tracks, who fights his way up from the slums to a chance at the light-heavyweight championship.

Three smashing bouts in the colorful setting of Madison Square Garden climax the eventful career of the young fighter, who finds a battle with racketeers more serious than his challenge for the title.

The screen play of "The Crowd Roars" is the work of Thomas Lennon, George Bruce and George Oppenheimer. The picture was directed by Richard Thorpe.

DAFFY RITZES OFF TO RACES

Damon has those Ritzes on the Ritz! In other, and more sober, words, this means that the daffy Ritz Brothers are starred in Damon Runyon's "Straight, Place and Show," which shows at the Palace theatre Friday and Saturday, Sept. 30 and Oct. 1.

The film shows the Ritzes off (as usual) to the races, where they buy horses, sell horses, rent horses, steal horses—in fact they're a little hoarse themselves before the story reaches its 149th, and final, climax of laughter.

Based on a play by Damon Runyon and Irving Caesar, the comic story is spiced by a romantic triangle between Richard Arlen, Ethel Merman and Phyllis Brooks.

The Ritzes play a trio of down-and-out pony track operators thrust into big-time racing when Richard Arlen bestows a thoroughbred on them. In characteristic fashion they build the story up to a series of hilarious high spots topped by their having to ride the competing horses in a race so that their own entry can win.

David Butler directed the film, under the supervision of Darryl F. Zanuck. It is the latest of the Movie Quiz $250,000 contest pictures.

WILLING WORKER S. S. CLASS ENTERTAINS

Last Thursday afternoon, September 22, the Willing Workers Sunday school class met in the home of Miss Isla Bruce, with Mrs. Worth Bruce as assistant hostess.

The meeting was called to order by the outgoing president, Mrs. Edd Williams. The devotional was given by Mrs. Gib Bruce, reading from the first book of Kings, 5th chapter, and commenting very constructively in her own words.

The nominating committee, with Mrs. Lily Bennett as chairman, Mrs. Harold Martin and Mrs. Floyd Griffin as co-workers, reported the incoming officers for the coming year, Mrs. Bruce Johnson, president; Mrs. Harold Martin, vice president; Mrs. K. L. Taylor, recording secretary and treasurer; Mrs. W. R. Martin, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Scoggins, teacher.

Many kind deeds and thoughtful remembrances were recorded and a pleasant social hour was spent sewing, knitting and playing games.

Refreshment plate of sandwiches, pickles, potato chips and punch was served to 15 members and two visitors.

Promotion Day and an installation service for teachers and officers for the new Sunday school year will be observed at the Methodist church Sunday.

LOCAL CIRCLE

The Local Circle met Monday, September 26, in the home of Mrs. K. L. Taylor, with Mrs. Tom Bennett assistant hostess. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Harold Martin. The minutes were read and approved and the report from the treasurer was heard.

In social service work there had been 5 bouquets, 15 trays and 16 visits during the month. Various committees were appointed for the ensuing year.

The devotional was led by Mrs. Lily Bennett, using as her theme, "Character," and as her scripture reading Ephesians, 6th chapter, 10th and 19th verses, stressing some of the wonderful characteristics of Bible characters and also of some great men we have had during our lifetime. Namely, Thomas A. Edison, how he became so great a person.

Prayer was offered by Mrs. J. M. Bruce. "Yield Not to Temptation," was led in singing by Mrs. W. R. Marting. A very appropriate reading was given by Mrs. Harold Martin on, "What to Forget." Mrs. W. R. Martin sang two scriptural songs, "Deep River" and "Swing Low Sweet Chariot," accompanied by Mrs. Taylor at the piano.

In concluding the program the Lord's Prayer was led by Miss Isla Bruce. Several interesting quiz games were conducted by Mrs. Taylor after which refreshments were served to 13 members.

GYM BONDS TO BE VOTED WEDNESDAY

The board of trustees of the Loraine Independent school district posted notices calling an election for the purpose of voting gym bonds. Election to be held Wednesday, September 28th.

LORAINÉ VS ROBY

The Loraine Bulldogs will open their conference season here Friday afternoon, September 30, when they play the Roby Lions. The game is to be played on the new football field at the school house.

Both teams have new coaches this year and are about evenly matched.

EDITORIAL

PRAISE TO THE COLUMNIST

We have received many letters and personal praise about this column. We began this column from an unpretentious beginning, all fired with enthusiasm and ambition to climb the rugged road of journalism and have skyrocketed our course until we occupy the glamorous heights of intellectual pre-eminence.

I sometimes wonder "upon what meat hath this our Caesar fed, that he hath grown so great."

Several years have waxed and waned since we began to scribble smart, smooth, symphonious, super-excellent sayings. We have pursued our pungent, paraphrastic, prophetic prattle until, (some say), we have become a literary aristocrat.

Defi fingers touch the golden harp strings of life and the whole gamut of human experience becomes vibrant, with music, laughter and love.

Fertile imagination and magic pen can take any subject and fabricate a story that is poisoned with wicked darts of sarcasm or embellish it with high-sounding euphonious rhetoric trimmings that rival in beauty of expression and diction an epic of Homer.

I should prefer the gift to enchant untold thousands with a facile pen as we have tried to do these several years than to be vastly rich but blind to the marvelous intellectual and spiritual beauty of God's wonderful universe.

I am weary from this laborious effort to write something about nothing. I am so conjoined up I must quit. If I should say more one of my readers has said he would blast me down with a string of vile invectives that would burn me up.

Some say this is mighty loud self-praise and so it is but I know of no one else more important to talk than myself and especially when no one else will do the talking.

When I reach the end of my brilliant (?) career and my pilgrim feet shall tread the gold-paved streets of the city of New Jerusalem, may these simple words mark my last resting place:

May the Lily be the tombstone
And dewdrops pure and bright
The epitaph thengels write
In the stillness of the night.

PAY YOUR SUBSCRIPTION

Time to pay up for The Record. We have worked hard all the year to give you a good paper, and now we want our pay. Better look out as it is head copping time and come in and pay or you'll get your head chopped off. Talking on this subject "Uncle Bill" at Sterling City said: "It will not be long now until the wind will change to the north and blow cold through a fellow's attenuated britches and sox. You boys who have always stood by me through thick and thin, like a lean tick to a nigger's shin, are hereby reminded that my last winter's britches and sox are now in a dilapidated condition, and I ask you to bring in, or send in the shekels, the bucks, the coin, the dinero, the spondulix of the realm so I can keep my mind on Lee O' and other troubles. You boys know what I mean."

This writer has no sox at all and we are still wearing our summer britches with holes in the set down parts.

We are not foolin' about this, but mean it. Come in and pay up or see "Uncle Fred" on the streets.

BE CAREFUL WITH YOUR COMMAS

One of our nearby editors of one of our exchanges got into trouble by publishing this society item: "Two young men went with their girls to attend the church social and as soon as they left, the girls got drunk." The comma should have been placed after "girls."

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

The man who does not advertise simply because his grandfather did not, ought to wear knee breeches and a queue. The man who does not advertise because it costs him money should throw away a cigar if no one gives him a light. The man who does not advertise because he does not know how, should stop eating because he does not know how to cook. The man who does not advertise because some one told him it does not pay, of course believes the world is flat instead of round because some ancient once held that belief.

Advertising is a great deal like eating. You cannot eat one big meal and then expect to go without eating for the next several weeks. Neither can you advertise successfully by using a medium once and then dropping out of sight for the next three or four weeks. People forget easily in this fast moving world.

THE SALES TAX IS COMING

In letters to readers R. E. Sparkman writes: "The wisest of our citizens, those with no selfish ends to serve, should be called into the counsel of W. Lee O'Daniel, and, regardless of personal views, go deep into the subject of old age pensions in order that every interest in this state, from the most opulent group to the humblest citizen, may have an equal part in the payment of an obligation of which all classes are a part of a common cause."

"The writer has for years insisted upon a restricted sales tax as the most equitable and dependable course for Texas to pursue in a matter of this kind."

"My advocacy of this plan has brought protest from many sources, usually from people who had no other plan to offer except the old cry that natural resources and big business should bear the burden; that a sales tax would be a burden upon the poor. This argument is not sound, for the simple reason that old age pensions relieve the masses of our old people from the burden of poverty and, in relieving the aged, their dependents are likewise relieved of the burden of providing for them and it is just as true that these dependents of our old people constitute the mass of our poor people in this or any other state."

"A tax of this kind, in Texas, should be restricted to the specific purpose of financing these social and economic obligations which have been assumed by the people within recent years."

"If Texas is to pay pensions to the aged, large sums of money must be available at the end of each month. This money goes equally into every nook and corner of our state and is spent by the beneficiaries with their local merchants and professional men and enters to the benefit of every community. The people, as a whole, become beneficiaries and, therefore, in assisting the old people are aiding themselves."

STOLEN POETRY

YOU HAVE TO KEEP GOING
There was a man who advertised
But once—a single time,
In spot obscure he placed his ad
And paid for it a dime.

And just because it didn't bring Him customers by score,
"All advertising is a fake,"
He said, or, rather, swore.

He seemed to think one hammer tap
Would drive a nail clear in;
That from a bit of tiny thread
A weaver tents could spin.

If he this reason bright applied
To eating, doubtless he
Would say a little bite would feed
Ten men a century.

Some day, tho, he will learn that
To make advertising pay,
He'll have to add ads to his ad
And advertise each day.

If you toot your little tooter and then lay aside your horn, there's not a soul in ten short days will know that you are born. The man who gathers pumpkins is the man who plows all day, and the man who keeps it humming is the man who makes it pay. The man who advertises with a short and sudden jerk is the man who bames the editor because it will not work. The man who gets the business takes a long and steady pull, and keeps the local paper from year to year quite full. He plans his advertising in a careful thoughtful way, and keeps forever at it until he makes it pay. He has faith in the future, can withstand a sudden shock, for like the man in scripture, built his business on a rock.

One step won't take you very far—you've got to keep on walking; one word won't tell folks who you are—you've got to keep on talking. One inch won't make you very tall—you've got to keep on growing; one little ad won't do it all—you've got to keep them going.

The man who went out to milk and sat on the stool in the cowshed and waited for the cow to back up to him, was like the man who kept a store and did not advertise because he believed the purchasing public would back up to his place when it wanted something.

A SUGGESTION

Washington lawmakers have just added three or four more kinds of taxes to automobiles. That is all right; we hope they pass a law making it a penitentiary offense to buy or sell a car on credit and requiring a man to be worth $10,000 in cash before he is allowed to drive a car. We will then walk and reduce our weight thirty or forty pounds, which should have been done a long time ago.—Del Rio News.

To which S. P. in Dallas News adds:

Don't be so hardhearted, Mr. Travelstead. Your proposed law requiring all automobile drivers to be worth $10,000 before being allowed to drive would not prevent you from driving whosoever you might choose, but it would eliminate so many of your fellow editors only you and few economic royalists would use the roads. You are naturally too generous to wish such a calamity to befall your brethren of the press. Besides, you might feel lonesome. You do need to lose some weight, Mr. Travelstead, but you wouldn't lose it by refraining from driving a car. You wouldn't, without a car, simply fail and refuse to go anywhere. You wouldn't walk. There were stout gentlemen in the B.A. era (before automobile), and they got that way by refusing to move around. Harnessing the horse and hitching the beast to the buggy was too much work for them. The wife, usually lean and alert, had to harness and hitch while the sedentary husband sat on the shady side of the house and declined to lend assistance. Overweight is not always a sign of underwork, but it is a right good indication. Additional to all above said, why ask the lawmakers to make more laws for the confusion of the people and the puzzlement of the courts? It has come to pass that Congress and the State Legislatures have to be called into extra sessions for the enactment of laws proposed by dazed thinkers whose visions bar them from the recognition of realities. We are not classing you as one of that sort, Mr. Travelstead, just warning you not to become one.

In any line of activity there are essential fundamental truths that must be tenaciously adhered to, or disintegration will eventually destroy the structure. This holds good in religion, government, education, finance, labor and all other activities. Truth is the key word in religion, and unless we "rightly divide the word of truth" we go astray. Justice may be said to be the key word for government; character building in education; honesty in business transactions and faithful service by salaried people. A departure from the fundamentals will destroy any line of activity. One can't take truth out of religion, justice out of government, character building out of education, honesty out of business, without destroying the structures.

Stationery printed at this office continues to give the best of satisfaction. Last week we printed a thousand statements for a man, who has since collected a small fortune from a dead aunt. Two months ago we sold a young man some paper to use in writing to his sweetheart. A month later we printed wedding announcements for them. Last week we printed sale bills for the bride's father, and this week we printed postal cards for the sheriff who is looking for the whole bunch. Another young man stole some of our paper for cigarette wrappers and he is dead. By using our stationery and printing you can collect old accounts, tell fortunes, make rain, change the color of your hair, be successful in business, triumph over your enemies and get elected to office.—Record.

THE HOLDOUTS

Somerville Tribune: Every town has a fellow who knows just how the State, county and Federal Government should be run. He knows just where Henry Ford makes his mistakes, and what should be done to do away with war. The remarkable thing about him is that with all this knowledge he has never been able to make a living for himself and family.

Yes, we got 'em in Colorado and this writer is one of 'em. Why don't Roosevelt dig up that buried gold in Kentucky and redeem all the government bonds? This would put all that money in circulation and put the government out of debt.

A SERMON ON THE DISCOVERY OF LIFE

"I thought on my ways, and turned my feet into thy testimonies."—Psalm 119:59.

What a marvelous description of the Soul's search for and discovery of God. This wonderful truth may be, and often is, expressed in many different ways but this great teacher could find no better way than to simply say, "I thought on my ways." The process of discovering abundant life certainly must be accompanied by serious thought. The prodigal Son was indeed exercising the powers of thinking when he came to himself and resolved to return to the father's house. Every forward step in life is preceded by earnest and intelligent thinking.

Surely the greatest need of the world today is a quiet hour in which to think. In the mad rush of modern life far too little intelligent thinking is done. We need to pause and think on our ways until we come to ourselves. We spend too much time thinking on the other fellow's way and not enough on our way.

The true values of life are not stumbled upon. The great heights are reached only by those who do serious and constructive thinking. We are tempted by our ethargy to let others do our thinking for us. We must think for ourselves if ever we realize abundant life. Notice carefully that David said, "I thought on my ways."

Too few realize the power of thought. The poet has expressed the truth in these lines:

"You are today where your thoughts have brought you,
"You will be tomorrow where your thoughts have carried you."
Then may we be careful in choosing our thoughts for, "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he."

The largest star yet found is 3,000 times the diameter of our sun.

JOE REICHMAN TO PLAY AT WEST TEXAS FAIR

ABILENE—Joe Reichman's orchestra plays for the Texas Cotton Festival's four shows and two dances during the West Texas Free Fair, October 4 and 5.

Reichman's orchestra, featured over Mutual and National Broadcasting systems, is one of the adherents of the swing tempos. Music Corporation of America, producers of 1938 Casa Manana, sends Reichman into the World's Fair next summer to supply music at one of the big musical shows to be presented there.

Jitterbug programs will be one of the main attractions during the matinee performances of the band, starting at 4 o'clock on October 4 and 5. Each night Reichman plays for the Festival shows and dances following.

Bookings were made through MCA's Dallas office.

YOW! WHY DOESN'T POP GET A RUUD GAS WATER HEATER — WITH A MONEL TANK?

Now Enjoy CLEAN AUTOMATIC HOT WATER

From a rust-proof tank Guaranteed for 20 Years!

RUST... that destructive enemy of metal... eats the very heart (the tank) out of many water heaters in certain localities within a few years. Its ravages have been costly. It dirties and discolors the home's hot water supply. It cripples the efficiency of a heater. It sends each year thousands of otherwise good water heaters to the junk heap.

But no more will rust cause such widespread damage to automatic gas water heaters because Ruud now equips its newest model with tank of silvery MONEL—the metal developed by science to resist rust!

For twenty years of clean hot water service automatically controlled go modern with Ruud. See them today!

GO MODERN with MONEL
With trade-in allowance on your old heater and monthly payment plan automatic hot water service was never easier to own.

TWENTY YEAR GUARANTEE
The Monel tank in these automatic gas water heaters is guaranteed by the manufacturer, Ruud, in writing against rust and corrosion for twenty (20) years. Monel is a solid, rust-proof metal clear through. It is not coated, plated or lined.

GOLDEN JUBILEE WEST TEXAS FAIR TO OPEN AT ABILENE MONDAY

ABILENE—In Golden Jubilee regalia, the West Texas Free Fair opens Monday with the greatest week's program in all its 50 years.

Keeping with the anniversary version, the Golden Jubilee exposition offers the most versatile entertainment and exhibit arrangement the West Texas Free Fair has ever presented. There is to be something new in entertainment each day. Ten stupendous events shuffled around over the six day event gives West Texans something to see every day and night.

Heading the Jubilee line-up is six nights of world's champion rodeo, presented by Beutler Brothers; three days of horse racing; The Texas Cotton Festival; drilling of an oil well on the fair grounds; team pulling contests; livestock judging shows; two days, Oct. 3 and 4, of midwest automobile races; Joe Reichman's nationally known orchestra at the auditorium; two big dances; and the Abilene-Sweetwater football game.

West Texas Free Fair officials have made arrangements with the West Texas Utilities company for the use of their broadcasting booth on the fair grounds for visiting town and community delegations.

"Every community, high school, town or organization will be offered opportunity to put on any type program they might desire when they arrive at the exposition," Merle Gruver, secretary said. "We wish to recognize every visitor if possible."

Communities desiring to have special programs during the fair are asked to contact the fair office on the grounds immediately upon arrival or the day before.

The Texas Cotton Festival opens the second day, October 4, with the appearance of Joe Reichman's band on the first afternoon auditorium performance. Coronation is scheduled the following night with Reichman swings furnishing the music. Two dances, the Festival, and the Coronation balls, are Tuesday and Wednesday nights, respectively.

Royal Cotton Parade is slated Tuesday, October 4, all indications point to the longest parade the West Texas Free Fair has ever presented. To date more than 50 floats have entered with two from out of town, Stamford and Stanton. Five hundred dollars in cash prizes are offered in the float contests.

Knox Parr, director of the agriculture and livestock divisions, said Monday that arrangements are under way for the biggest farm show in history of the fair.

Graves Magee, superintendent of the horse and mule show, said that at least a dozen teams have been entered in the team pulling contest, schedule, October 7.

Mighty Sheesley Midway is on the carnival grounds.

Berry-Fee Lumber Co

THE YARD THAT SERVICE IS BUILDING

PICKED UP ALONG THE NEWS PATH

It's positively a "gift," this way we have of missing the exciting spots of life. . . . It's got to be something like that, or we couldn't do it so consistently. . . . Our missing record was maintained in grand style when we decided not to go to the Big Spring-Colorado game Friday night because we "just couldn't stand to see the Wolves slaughtered." . . . If there's comfort in company, tho, we ought to be well-comforted, because a lot of others made the same decision for the same reason. . . .

Even so, Colorado was well-represented at the game, and nobody who was there would have "missed it for the world"—and they didn't fail to rub that little fact into the rest of us Saturday mornins. . . . It's reported that the Colorado crowd went wild and brought home everything but the goal posts. . . . They'd have brought those, but they were steel and therefore a trifle heavy and unwieldy. . . .

Here are the words that Hank Hart, sports editor of the Big Spring Daily Herald, had to eat after the game, having written them into his Friday column: . . . We should be safe enough in predicting a two-touchdown victory (for the Steers), and more if the passing attack clicks to any degree of success. . . . But in fairness to Mr. Hart it must be added that his about-face story on the game in Sunday's paper was so fair to the Wolves that much of it was "lifted" for the story The Record is carrying. . . .

Life is just beginning for the young son of Thelma and "Mack" McSpadden but already he has acquired a nickname. . . . It's "Sandy," and it has nothing to do with the color his hair is going to be or anything like that. . . . He's had it, in fact, since the day of his arrival, which occurred during a raging West Texas sandstorm, that being as you've probably guessed, the wherefore of the "Sandy." . . . As Dee (Mrs. Grady) Newman said, what goes better with McSpadden than Sandy? . . . "Sandy" McSpadden he'll be one of these days, unless he turns out to be a two-listed resener of nicknames, in which case he'll probably use his honest-to-goodness name of Richard. . . .

A life-size and life-like picture of Charles Starrett, the cowboy movie star who was guest of honor during the Colorado City Frontier Round-up, was received by A. E. McClain, manager of the R&R theaters here, Monday morning. . . . It was just from the shoulders up, of course, because Mac would have, quite a time dragging around a full-length life-size portrait of the actor—he was quite a tall fellow, you remember. . . . Starrett promised the picture to Mac while he was here. . . . On the bottom of it he wrote, "When can I come back to Colorado, Mac? Yours and their fan always, Charles Starrett." . . . Pretty nice, what?

Age high among Colorado's hometown-boys-who-have-made-good is Harold Brennan, who's here this week from Houston, spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Brennan. . . . Harold—most of us in Colorado remember him best as "Douga"—holds down a job that is truly a "position" with the Standard Oil company of Texas at Houston. . . . His interest-on-the-side, however, is cattle. . . . Live-stock, it seems, are in the Brennan blood to stay. . . . Success has given Harold polish, poise and something else that must be called "charm" for want of a more masculine term for that certain quality. . . .

This column has been informed by Kaek Price that she knows something we'd "just die" to know, if we only knew what it was—which is rather involved, we admit, but you get the idea. . . . She says, furthermore, that we won't know until "some time between December 1 and Christmas." . . . This time we're telling the truth when we say that your guess is as good as ours. . . . Probably better. . . .

After helping to carve meat at the Promising Oil company barbecue given at Lay Powell's ranch Friday evening Jim Cantrill said that when he goes to barbecues hereafter he's going to insist on a carving job. . . . None of the choice cuts can get away from the fellow who wields the knife, he frankly opines. . . .

Because Colorado's theaters belong to a company which wants its advertising to help others as well as itself, some deserving Colorado High school boy who might not get to go to college otherwise will be enabled to spend at least one year at the college of his choice. . . . You've read about it—the $300 college subsistence fund that Robb & Howley is offering to the boy whom Colorado theatergoers vote the "most valuable" on the football squad. . . . Probably you've already been to the show and cast your votes for the boy of your choice. . . . When advertising advances to such a plane as this, it ceases to be strictly advertising and becomes news—good news. . . .

So many oil field employees have been transferred from these parts to coastal fields recently that Mrs. Ed Jones, Sr., whose son, Ed, Jr., and his family were moved to LaPorte last spring, found an oil article in a recent issue of the Houston Press very interesting. . . . The article deals with a drilling barge now being used on Galveston bay under joint ownership of the Standard Oil company of Texas and the Salt Dome Oil corporation. . . . It is said to be the largest drilling barge in the world, and it is used to drill for oil out in the bay. . . .

Aside from all the discomfort and annoyance, there's something slightly ridiculous about a town of Colorado's altitude and general surroundings being infested with mosquitoes as this town is. . . . If there had been unusual rains, a temporary condition like this might be understandable, but there haven't been rains. . . . The cold facts are these: Mosquitoes have to have water to breed. . . . That water has to be somewhere within a reasonable distance of the infested place. . . . Why doesn't somebody find the hole or holes of water where these pests are coming from, and do something about it? . . . I'm darn good and mad, as you've probably gathered—three a.m. found me swatting mosquitoes after two sprays had failed to get the job done in any lasting fashion. . . .

Rumors which have flown about this week concerning an "abandoned" tot found in a certain Colorado yard Saturday evening have proved to be grossly exaggerated, as rumors usually are. . . . It was even reported that the child, a little girl just big enough to walk but not talk intelligibly, had been taken away to a home for children, after intensive efforts to locate her people had failed. . . . Sensing a "heart interest" story, the writer of this column investigated, only to learn that the child is back with her people, safe and sound. . . . But from sundown Saturday until about 1 a. m. that night, she gave every indication of being an "abandoned" child in all truth. . . . Officers had no inquiries, and none who viewed the child could identify her. . . . It turned out that the child's grandmother thought the mother had her, and the mother thought the grandmother had her. . . . The child was supposed to be at the grandmother's home, two doors away from the yard where she was found and taken in for safe-keeping. . . . It wasn't until the mother came home from an out-of-town trip that the mix-up was discovered. . . . Inquiries at the police station led to immediate location of the child. . . . And there went my "heart interest" story, pouf—just like that! . . .

It's happening again—war, and the rumors of war. . . . A few weeks ago none of us could believe that we could ever again accept even the thought of war. . . . Today we are accepting it. . . . We are saying that Hitler has to be stopped, and we are beginning to believe that war is the only way to stop him, just as we once believed war was the only way to "make the world safe for Democracy." . . . The causes of war and the methods of war change, but human nature stays the same. . . . Soon, if war really comes, we will be caught up into the hysteria that gives war its only glory. . . . We will be singing war songs, devouring war news. . . . We will hate Hitler and Mussolini with the same passion which made us burn the kaiser in effigy up and down Colorado streets a short twenty years ago. . . . We will look askance at those who hold out for peace when war is at hand. . . . That cartoon the other morning showing Hitler as a giant ape monster standing with dripping fangs over Europe carried this writer suddenly back some twenty-odd years to the days when, as a very frightened little girl who wouldn't look at horizons for fear a Hun would loom there, I saw just such pictures of atrocious, helmeted Huns holding mutilated Belgian children in their claws. . . . My child mind longed fervently to destroy those Huns. . . . My adult mind is beginning to long to do the same to Hitler today. . . . Which shows that when emotion gets you started, the mental distance between being a child and being a grownup is practically nil. . . .

This final paragraph is written as "Shep." (Q. D. Shepperd) our linotype operator, keeps watch at the bedside of his mother, Mrs. J. W. Shepperd, Sr., whose death has been expected momentarily since Saturday. . . . If Shep were on the machine, this paragraph about him wouldn't get into the picked-up, because he wouldn't "set" it. . . . Shep is that kind of a fellow. . . . He is also the kind of a fellow who has a job and does it, and most of this week has found him at his place in The Record office, setting copy faster than he ever set before, because when a fellow's doing a job hard he can't think too much about other things. . . . We who know Shep have been able to see and sense his worry and grief, but he has carried it by himself, not asking or allowing us to help. . . . What we're trying to get over is a tribute to Shep for being the kind of fellow worker he is. . . . This office has felt the gloom of Mrs. Shepperd's illness, both because we know her and because we know her son. . . .

CAP McKENNEY IS IN CHORUS AT TARLETON

STEPHENVILLE—Cap McKenney from Westbrook, Texas has been selected as a member of the Tarleton Chorus at John Tarleton Agricultural College, Stephenville, Texas.

The chorus, composed of some 70 of the best singers in the institution, is directed by R. Berton Coffin, professor of Voice and Director of ensemble singing.

Every year the chorus gives a series of public performances in towns throughout Texas. Near the end of school the members plan to give an operetta.

CHARLES CARTER IN THE TARLETON BAND

STEPHENVILLE—Charles Carter, student from Colorado, has been selected as a member of the John Tarleton College Military Band. The band is a part of the R. O. T. C. unit.

The band, one of the most colorful organizations on the campus, has won state-wide recognition in band contests during recent years. For the past two years it has won a first prize at the Battle of Flowers contest in San Antonio. D. G. Hunewell, director of the band, states that he is looking forward to a very successful year.

REV. CHILDERS IN BARNHART MEETING

The Rev. Clyde Childers, former pastor of the Westbrook Baptist church and now pastor of the Ozona Baptist church, is in a revival at the Barnhart Baptist church, according to the Sunday edition of the San Angelo Standard-Times.

The Rev. Mr. Childers, who attends Baylor university, left Westbrook last year. He is well known all over the Mitchell-Scurry Baptist association.

HERE FROM DALLAS
W. P. Nuckolls of Dallas is here visiting his son, M. W. Nuckolls, and his daughter, Mrs. S. S. Churchill, and their families. He came early last week, and plans to go home Saturday.

"Good little bunnies, both of you, to stop and look before leaping this road. Always play safe, because even nice long ears like yours can scarcely hear cars that are powered by Conoco Bronz-z-z gasoline. It certainly sets us a good example, the way it runs and runs without getting all used up."
