

WOLVES TO BATTLE LORAIN BULLDOGS HERE FRIDAY NIGHT

LONG TIME RIVALRY BETWEEN COUNTY'S TWO LARGEST SCHOOLS WILL ADD ZEST TO CONFERENCE GAME

Their battle given added zest by the rivalry which has always existed between Mitchell county's two largest schools, the Loraine Bulldogs and the Colorado Wolves will meet in a Class B conference game on Cantrill field Friday night.

Jack Christian, coach for the Colorado Wolves, says that he will not use Rudel Glover or Burl Ballard in his starting line-up. Both boys are still recovering from injuries sustained in the season's opener at Monahan, although they played in the last two games, and will probably be used at intervals during the Friday night game.

Jack Smith, one of the Wolf stars in the game at Rotan last Friday, has been chosen as Wolf captain for the Loraine-Colorado game.

Speaking of Smith this week, Coach Christian said: "Jack Smith played an outstanding game at Rotan. He was in there from start to finish, and I'm sorry I can't say the same for all the other players."

The Wolves have no game for next week, Oct. 21, but they will play Post here in a non-conference match on Oct. 28.

ONLY TWO MISSING AS C OF C DIRECTORS HAVE THEIR MONTHLY MEETING

Something of a record was established when the monthly meeting of the board of directors of the chamber of commerce was held Tuesday evening with only two directors missing.

The meeting was held in the form of a dinner at the Colorado hotel. Dr. W. S. Rhode, chamber president, presided.

The directors indorsed establishment of a livestock auction ring in Colorado, made plans for the annual chamber banquet, and discussed other matters.

GRADY NEWMAN HEADS MUSICIANS' POST NO. 333 AT SWEETWATER

Grady Newman of Colorado was installed as commander of Musicians' Post No. 333, American Legion, in Sweetwater last week.

Two other Coloradans, R. H. Ratliff and Hall DeGarmo, appeared on the roster of new officers, Ratliff being chaplain and DeGarmo being chairman of the executive committee, on which Ratliff will also serve.

PASTORS AND LAYMEN FROM PRESBYTERIAN CHURCHES IN WIDE TERRITORY HOLD FALL PRESBYTERY SESSION AT THE LOCAL CHURCH

Pastors and laymen from Presbyterian churches in a territory extending from Colorado on the east to El Paso on the west were gathered at First Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday for the fall meeting of the El Paso presbytery.

The laymen, organized as "Men-of-the-Church," held their pre-presbytery meeting Tuesday, beginning with a luncheon at the Colorado hotel. Dean J. M. Gordon of Texas Technological college, Lubbock, president of laymen in the presbytery, was host for the luncheon.

Principal topic at the luncheon was the ministers' annuity fund. Discussions were led by Dean Gordon.

Dean Gordon also presided at the men-of-the-church gathering at the church Tuesday afternoon. Personal evangelism was the general theme, speakers and topics being as follows: "The Men-of-the-Church for Un-churched Men," R. E. McDonald of Lubbock; "How to Present and Put Over Presbytery's Evangelistic Goal," C. W. Wise of El Paso; "The Church's Most Fruitful Evangelistic Field, the Sunday School," C. H. DeVaney of Coahoma; "Laymen's Responsibility to His Pastor in Reference to Personal Evangelism," Rev. R. A. Partlow, superintendent of home missions in the El Paso presbytery.

A general discussion on these topics and on the ministers' annuity fund was led by Dean Gordon. The men-of-the-church session ended with a 6 o'clock dinner served by the women of the church with Jerold Riordan of the host church presiding. A sing-

WATER ENCOUNTERED IN 'ARID' COUNTRY AT EIGHTEEN FEET

Nature played a trick on E. Barber of Spade this week.

For years Barber has been drilling for water on a certain portion of his Spade farm. The result was always one of two things—a dry hole or "gypp" water.

Barber was about ready to give up when along came the range conservation program, allowing $2 per foot for wells drilled with 4-inch casing. He decided to take advantage of the program and go on searching awhile longer.

So last week another well was started. That's all it was to Barber—just another well. No use to even start watching the thing for the first hundred feet or so—and not much use then, Barber feared privately.

This week Barber came into town with a jubilant face, telling a tale that he himself can't quite believe yet—the well got water, excellent water and plenty of it, at 18 feet.

BAPTIST WORKERS ATTEND MEETING AT ROSCOE CHURCH

MRS. A. L. WHIPKEY MADE W. M. U. PRESIDENT FOR ASSOCIATION

More than a dozen members of First Baptist church were in Roscoe Tuesday for the monthly worker's conference of the Mitchell-Scurry Baptist association.

Mrs. A. L. Whipkey of Colorado was elected president of the Mitchell-Scurry Women's Missionary union during the afternoon meeting of the women. Mrs. Ray Richardson was elected as her corresponding secretary and treasurer, and Reba Franklin of Buford was elected secretary.

Principal talks on the afternoon joint program were made by the Rev. T. A. Patterson, pastor of First Baptist church, and Truett Barber, superintendent of the Baptist Sunday school here.

Attending from here were the Rev. T. A. Patterson, Truett Barber, Mrs. M. M. Iglehart, Mrs. G. C. Williams, Mrs. R. A. Blackard, Mrs. Lee Lavender, Mrs. Ray Richardson, Mrs. Dean Phenix, Mrs. A. L. Whipkey, Miss Violet Moeser, Mrs. R. O. Pearson, Mrs. J. Lee Jones, and Mrs. George Slaton.

The next meeting will be with the Fairview church.

NEWEST INSTRUCTIONS ON WHEAT PLANTING UNDER FARM PROGRAM LISTED BY MOGFORD

Newest instruction on wheat planting under the government's farm program were listed this week by John Mogford, agricultural adjustment assistant in the county agent's office.

Mogford said: "Those who have been planting wheat during the past five years, 1934 until 1938 inclusive, may expect to receive their allotments within the next week.

"It was learned Monday from state headquarters that wheat planted in 1939 will not come off of the cotton and feed acreage as had been the case during 1938. Each man who plants more than 8 acres of wheat will be given a wheat allotment. For instance, if a man has 150 acres in cultivation and plants 50 acres in wheat, then his cotton and feed allotments will be made on the basis of 100 acres.

"Anyone who has not been planting wheat during the past five years—that is, anyone who does not have a five-year record—should come to the county agent's office for a detailed explanation of what he can do to keep in compliance.

"A man can plan up to eight acres of wheat and market 100 bushels of his harvest tax-free without an allotment."

WEST TEXAS MASONS WILL CONVERGE HERE FOR MEET SATURDAY

SPECIAL WORK TO BE GIVEN IN ROYAL ARCH, COUNCIL DEGREES; HIGH OFFICIALS TO ATTEND

Nearly 150 Masons from all parts of the 19th congressional district are expected to gather in Colorado Saturday afternoon and evening for a special meeting which will feature work in Royal Arch and council degrees.

Colorado chapter No. 175, with L. A. Costin as high priest, will be host for the meeting, which will open at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon in Masonic hall.

A number of high Royal Arch officials will attend the meeting. These will include Joe X. Newcomb of San Antonio, grand high priest of the Royal Arch chapter of Texas; T. M. Bartley of Waco, grand secretary; F. O. Jones of Littlefield, grand Royal Arch captain; Hugh McClellan of Lubbock, member of the committee on work in the grand chapter.

Jim White of the Colorado chapter is grand marshal.

'PERFECT' RAIN IS RECEIVED IN THIS COUNTY MONDAY

"Perfect" from every angle was the 1.46 inches of rain which fell in Colorado and vicinity early Monday, according to a consensus of opinion among both farmers and ranchmen.

For the past few weeks ranchmen and stock farmers have been clamoring for rain to insure winter pasturage. Farmers with late cotton crops, while recognizing the need of rain on grasslands, have feared that a rain would usher in a long period of damp, cold weather fatal to late-maturing cotton.

The rain which came Monday did not send temperatures tumbling in the expected fashion, and the resulting coolness was entirely dissipated by Wednesday. The sun reappeared and cotton maturity was halted very briefly, if at all.

As far as could be determined, the fall was more or less general over the county. Watering tanks were filled, pastures benefited, and the planting of small winter grains made possible.

The fall brought the year's total to 19.19 inches, already past the 1937 total of 16.73 and the 1936 total of 18.28.

ESTABLISHMENT OF LIVESTOCK AUCTION RING HERE ASSURED

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE IS INDORSING ENTERPRISE; OWNERSHIP AND SITE UNDECIDED

Although the exact location and type of ownership are still pending further developments, a livestock commission auction ring seems assured for Colorado and Mitchell county.

Directors of the chamber of commerce, meeting in monthly session Tuesday evening, voted their indorsement of the establishment of such an enterprise, whether by private capital or through subscription.

Hunt Guitar, who has been working with P. K. Mackey and others on the matter, said Wednesday that an auction ring will definitely be established in Colorado on some site convenient to both railroad and highway transportation. The matter now at hand is to decide whether it shall be established with private capital or through subscription.

Those who are leading the movement for the auction ring point out that a uniform market for livestock is badly needed in Mitchell county, especially by those farmers and stockmen who have but a few head of cattle to sell at any one time. Such stock raisers cannot profitably assume the expense of transporting their animals to an established market center, it is pointed out, and therefore they often sell locally at a price below that which they could command on an open market, such as an auction ring would afford.

COTTON HARVEST BEGINS TO SLOW DOWN AFTER PEAK

RECEIPTS HAVE INCREASED ONLY ABOUT 1,600 BALES IN PAST WEEK

Harvest of Mitchell county's 1938 cotton crop has passed its peak and the slowing down has definitely begun, it was indicated in The Record's Thursday morning check-up at county gins. A total of 15,587 bales was shown.

Damp weather during the first two days of this week doubtless contributed in some degree to the lowered increase of the week. The total ginning receipts for the county had climbed less than 1,600 bales during the past week, as compared with an increase of nearly 3,000 bales for the week before.

Of the 15,587-bale total, Colorado had received 7,638 bales, Buford 1,208, Westbrook 1,942, Loraine 4,399, and other gins, including Valley View and China Grove, an estimated 400 bales.

Colorado receipts were distributed as follows: Producers, 2,750; Colorado gin, 734; Mitchell County gin, 1,201; Concrete, 1,845; Browning gin, 480; Farmers No. One, 628.

Loraine's ginnings were as follows: Loraine gin, 1,018; Cooperative gin, 1,414; Producers, 1,403; Guitar, 564.

CARNIVAL EMPLOYEE DIED IN HOSPITAL HERE EARLY MONDAY

Stricken while the Western States shows were playing here last week, O. E. Creger, 54-year-old employee of the shows, succumbed in Root hospital at 8 o'clock Monday morning.

Creger, who had been in ill health for some time, was admitted to the hospital two days before his death. The body was shipped Tuesday morning to Chicago, Ill., where burial was scheduled for Thursday. He had been with the Western States shows more than 10 years. His mother, Mrs. W. E. Creger of Chicago, is the closest survivor.

Jones & Russell had charge of local arrangements.

FORMER COLORADOAN BUYS BONHAM PAPER

A story to the effect that W. E. Reid, former Colorado newspaperman, has bought two Bonham papers in partnership with Frank Svoboda of Breckenridge appeared in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram last week.

Reid has been working on the Breckenridge American for the past two years. He and Svoboda are to issue the Bonham Daily Favorite and the Semi-Weekly News, Reid acting as editor and Svoboda as business manager.

PLANS SET INTO MOTION FOR CC ANNUAL BANQUET

TRUETT BARBER IS NAMED CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEE TO GET SPEAKER

Plans for the annual banquet of the chamber of commerce were set in motion at the directors' meeting Tuesday evening when Dr. W. S. Rhode, chamber president, appointed a committee to secure a speaker and set a date for the affair.

Truett Barber was made chairman of the committee, with Harry Ratliff and Benton Templeton as his helpers. Date for the banquet will be determined by the convenience of the speaker selected by the committee. It will probably be during the latter part of November.

FIRST APPOINTMENTS MADE BY R. H. BARBER FOR RED CROSS DRIVE

First appointments made by R. H. Barber, Red Cross roll call chairman for Mitchell county, were announced this week.

Barber said that Archdeacon J. W. Heyes, rector of All Saints' Episcopal church, will be roll call chairman in Colorado. Jack Richardson will have charge of the roll call at the Col-Tex refinery.

Other appointments of chairmen in all parts of the county are to be made by Barber in the near future. Barber says he has all roll call supplies now on hand, ready for the opening of the Red Cross membership campaign on Nov. 11. The roll call lasts until Thanksgiving.

Last year Mitchell county over-subscribed its quota of $550. No quota has yet been announced for the county this year.

FINAL MATCHES IN OPEN CITY GOLF TOURNEY DUE SUNDAY AFTER THREE WEEKS OF PLAYING

After three weeks of play the open city golf tournament of the Colorado country club is expected to go into the finals in all flights Sunday.

DEFINITE ACTION IS NECESSARY SOON IF PAVING TO BE DONE

MAYOR SADLER WARNS THAT DEADLINE NOTICE FROM WPA MAY COME ANY TIME; NO UNIT COMPLETE

A warning that definite action must be taken very soon on the WPA residential paving project recently approved for Colorado if the project is to be retained was issued this week by Mayor J. A. Sadler.

"We are expecting to receive a deadline notice on this project any time now," Mayor Sadler said. "Between 140 and 150 WPA employees are tied up pending property owners' action in regard to the paving project. These men have completed the projects on which they have been employed, and no new project approvals can be obtained until some disposal is made of the residential paving project.

"Either we must get some units of property owners signed up and start work on this project, or we must let it be cancelled so that other projects may be approved to give these men employment."

Although a number of property owners have expressed a desire to take advantage of the paving project, which provides for paving and curbing residential streets at a cost of $1.15 per running foot to the property owners, no complete units have as yet been signed up. Under the project terms, the paving must be done in units of 10 blocks each, with no skips.

Arrangements to finance personal loans repayable in easy monthly installments were recently worked out by a special committee to enable property owners to meet their part of the paving expenses. The committee was composed of representatives of the chamber of commerce, the Lions club, and city officials. Details of this financing plan are available at the chamber of commerce office.

TIP FROM COLORADO TRAVELERS FACTOR IN HIJACKERS' ARREST

A tip given to Abilene police by a group of homeward-bound Coloradans Wednesday evening came in for prominent mention in Thursday morning newspaper stories on the arrest of a man charged in connection with an Abilene hijacking and shooting Wednesday afternoon.

Traveling in a 1938 Oldsmobile sedan, four members of the Mills Chevrolet force and Mrs. Joe Mills were coming home from the Fort Worth showing of the 1939 Chevrolets when they were stopped by Abilene police shortly after six o'clock. The four with Mrs. Mills were John Holt, J. H. Moon, L. Short, and J. F. Quinney.

The police explained to them that their car was identical with the one in which the two hijackers were known to have sped out of Abilene after the hijacking, which occurred in the Hilton hotel about 3:30. The hijackers shot John E. Pilkington, prominent Abilene business man, through the back when he attempted to escape into another room.

Mrs. Mills and others in the Colorado car recalled having passed an Oldsmobile-like theirs near Ranger, traveling about 90 miles an hour. Police to the east of Ranger were immediately notified, and the car was stopped in Fort Worth about 7:30. The driver of the car was arrested and held for Abilene police. Search for his companion was continued.

Abilene police warned the Colorado group that they might be stopped several times before reaching home because police everywhere were on the lookout for a sedan like theirs. They came on home without further delay, however.

play Ben Costin Sunday morning in the upper bracket semi-finals of the championship flight. Pritchett won over Q. D. Shepperd before meeting Nix. Costin had defeated Glenn Thomas and L. H. McLarty.

Winner of the Pritchett-Costin match will play Lee Dorn, leader in the lower bracket of the championship flight. Dorn defeated G. L. Christian and Percy Bond in his march to the top. Bond had previously defeated Jake Merritt.

Charles Smith and J. C. Pritchett will meet in first flight finals Sunday afternoon. Smith defeated Jim White and J. Lee Jones, while Pritchett left Luke Thomas and Willis Jones.

The second flight had not been played into its semi-finals Wednesday night. Joe Cox and Buck Geer will play the semi-finals of the upper bracket Sunday morning. In the lower bracket Eddie Moeser is waiting to play the winner of the Buck Wheeler-Walter Whipkey match to determine who will meet the Cox-Geer winner.

Semi-finals in the third flight find Gene Smith vs. L. C. Scarborough in the upper bracket, the winner to meet Orville Cage of the lower bracket. Cage downed Bob Rose and B. D. Smith.

In the women's flight Mrs. Grady Newman defeated Mrs. Walter Whipkey one up on the ninth hole Wednesday afternoon to lead the lower bracket. Mrs. Newman had previously downed Mrs. Percy Bond, and Mrs. Whipkey had defeated Mrs. A. L. McSpadden. Mrs. Newman is to meet the winner of the semi-final match between Mrs. Walter Henderson and Mrs. Q. D. Shepperd in the upper bracket.

If all finals are completed Sunday, trophies and prizes will be presented at the club Sunday afternoon. The winner in each flight will receive a golf bag, and the runner-up will get a zipper carry-all. The women's medalist, Mrs. Walter Henderson, will receive a silver tray. Mrs. Henderson qualified with a 53.

The men's medalist, James Pritchett, will receive a trophy purchased by club members. Pritchett shot a 71.

SEVENTEEN LIONS GO FROM HERE TO ZONE MEETING WEDNESDAY

Seventeen Colorado Lions attended the quarterly zone meeting of Lions clubs in Big Spring Wednesday evening.

The Colorado delegation was the largest at the meeting, being even larger than the representation of the host club. Clubs from Midland, Big Spring, Snyder, Hamlin, Anson, and Colorado were represented.

Ross Covey of Sweetwater, past district governor, was the principal speaker. Joe Pond of Big Spring, formerly of Colorado, was another ex-governor present.

Attending from here were Jake Richardson, A. L. McSpadden, Thos. R. Smith, Dr. R. D. Bridgford, J. W. Randle, J. Ralph Lee, John E. Watson, Dr. Oscar Rhode, Jack Alexander, Fred Cravy, Coy Harris, Clarence Cook, L. B. Elliott, Dr. H. A. Logsdon, Jack Helton, Ford Merritt, and Frank Ramsdell.

Anson was chosen as the next meeting place.

MORE TRENCH SILO MEETINGS SLATED FOR COMING WEEK

Two more trench silo meetings for the county were announced this week by B. J. Baskin, county farm agent, and the county's vocational agriculture teachers, C. V. Cox of Westbrook, F. C. Shillingburg of Colorado, and Ed F. Brown of Loraine.

One will be held at Looney on Monday night, the other at Westbrook on Wednesday night.

The first two meetings of the series were held this week, one at Loraine on Tuesday night and the other at Buford on Wednesday night.

BASKIN TALKS ON SILOS OVER KBST

PRESIDENT AGAIN

Mrs. P. C. Coleman, pioneer Coloradoan who is new president of Colorado's oldest study club, the Standard. She was the club's first president 46 years ago, and is its only surviving charter member.

NEW PRESIDENT OF OLDEST STUDY CLUB IS WOMAN WHO WAS ITS 1ST HEAD 46 YEARS AGO

The oldest study club in Colorado has for its president this year the woman who was its first president 46 years ago.

That woman is Mrs. P. C. Coleman, who took office as 1938-39 president when the Standard club opened its new season at the home of Mrs. C. E. Way Friday afternoon.

None of the women who watched Mrs. Coleman's efforts as the Standard's first president nearly half a century ago were present to watch her take the gavel as the 46th president last week. She is the club's only surviving charter member.

Memories of that first club meeting were recalled by Mrs. Coleman in her message as incoming president, Friday. She has served the Standard as president time without number in the years between her first election and her most recent one.

As president this year Mrs. Coleman succeeds Mrs. R. B. Terrell, who was unable to be present at the Friday meeting. The retiring president's message was delivered by Mrs. R. D. Buchanan, vice-president.

One of the honored members at the meeting was Mrs. C. M. Adams, who is the club's oldest member in point of years in the club. Those point of years in the club next to Mrs. Coleman. Those present praised Mrs. Adams for her loyalty to the club through the years. She has served as president a number of times.

Discussion topic for the afternoon was "Faith," with Mrs. Y. D. McMurry as leader. This topic was applied to the faith and loyalty of Standard club members since the club's long-ago beginning.

The lesson was on Act One and Scene One of Shakespeare's "King Henry IV." Refreshments followed the lesson.

Present were Mesdames C. M. Adams, P. C. Coleman, Y. D. McMurry, J. A. Buchanan, R. D. Buchanan, Leslie Crowder, C. E. Way, Lee Jones, and L. W. Sandusky. Mrs. Crowder is a new member.

The club will meet this week with Mrs. C. M. Adams.

Afternoon Of Sketching For Art Club Members

An afternoon of sketching in the country was enjoyed by members of the Art club Wednesday after they had gathered at the home of Mrs. John R. Colson.

During a brief business meeting they reported 100 magazines collected for the negro school, and exhibited five pictures. Mrs. C. A. Woodell told of the picture reproductions offered by the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, and club members discussed ordering these.

Four members, Mrs. Colson, Mrs. D. M. Logan, Mrs. Woodell, and Mrs. Annie Glover, told of visiting the art exhibit at the West Texas Free Fair in Abilene.

President's Luncheon For Self Culture Club Held Friday At Home Of Mrs. King

In an autumnal setting at the home of Mrs. A. P. King, the Self Culture club held its president's luncheon Friday to open a new year's work.

The luncheon was served at four-some tables, each of which was centered with a bowl of golden cosmos. Place cards were in the Halloween motif. In the dining room a bowl of pink roses and queen's wreath centered the lace-covered dining table.

Mrs. H. G. Whitmore was toastmaster, leading the club collect as an invocation. Origin of the collect was given by Mrs. J. V. Glover.

A vocal solo, "Would God I Were a Tender Apple Blossom," was sung by the club's new member, Mrs. Jeff Jones of near Westbrook. Mrs. James Herrington was her accompanist.

As retiring president, Mrs. Dell Barber was presented next. After her farewell talk, Mrs. John T. Howell, the new president, was introduced.

After outlining her plan of work for the year, Mrs. Howell presented each of the officers who are to serve with her. Each officer received a small gavel. Officers in addition to Mrs. Howell are:

Vice-presidents, Mrs. Roy Dozier and Mrs. Henry Pond; recording secretary, Mrs. C. B. Shell; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. V. Glover; treasurer, Mrs. John Brown; historian, Mrs. H. G. Whitmore; parliamentarian, Mrs. J. Dell Barber; federation counselor, Mrs. L. B. Elliott; rural cooperation chairman, Mrs. A. P. King.

Guests at the luncheon were Mrs. M. H. Sanders; Mrs. C. C. Thompson, incoming second vice-president of the Sixth district, Texas Federation of Women's clubs; Katherine Motley, president of the Junior Self Culture club whose organization the Self Culture club recently sponsored; and the two life members of the club, Mrs. J. G. Merritt and Mrs. H. B. Broadus.

Places were marked for the following members: Mesdames J. Dell Barber, John Brown, Roy Dozier, L. B. Elliott, C. P. Gary, J. V. Glover, J. M. Herrington, J. T. Howell, A. P. King, W. D. McClure, Lee Phenix, Henry Pond, C. B. Shell, H. G. Whitmore, Jim White, Jeff Jones, M. J. Dawson (honorary member), J. B. Pritchett (visiting) and Joe Jackson (visiting). The club's work will begin at a meeting Friday with Mrs. Lee Phenix, Michigan; will be studied first in the club's United States travelogue.

Recent Marriage Of Bill Cravy And Post Girl Written Up In Post Paper

The recent marriage of Bill Cravy of Colorado to Miss Jewel Satterwhite of Post was written up as follows in last week's Post Dispatch:

"Two pioneer Garza county families were united when Miss Jewel Satterwhite, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Satterwhite, and Bill Cravy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Cravy, were married on September 18 in Hobbs, New Mexico.

"The marriage vows, which were not revealed until this week, were read in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Waldrip of Hobbs, at 8:30 o'clock with the Rev. R. P. Kelly, pastor of the Hobbs Presbyterian church officiating with the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Waldrip is a sister of the groom.

"The bride, a popular member of Post's younger set, wore an attractive costume suit of black and white with black and white accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of white gardenias. She has been reared in Post and since her graduation from Post High school and Draughton's Business college in Lubbock she has been active in civic and social affairs. She is a member of the Junior Culture club and Junior Bridge club and is now employed as bookkeeper for the Post Feed and Fuel company. She formerly was secretary to Ira Weakley, county judge.

"Mr. Cravy left Post about a year ago to make his home in Colorado City and was at that time Conoco agent. Recently he has taken over supervision of a Government Road project of that city. He is a former football star of Post High.

"Parents of the couple have been active in the development of the county since its organization. Mr. Cravy who owns a ranch 20 miles northeast of Post was one of the first sheriff's of this county. Mr. Satterwhite has been foreman of Garza county's largest ranch, the Slaughter's U lazy S, for twenty-five years.

"Following the ceremony a wedding supper was given in their honor by Mr. and Mrs. Waldrip. The couple will live in Colorado City. Mrs. Cravy will join her husband there Sunday."

Members Of Local Business & Professional Club Join In Observing National BPW Week

Members of the local Business & Professional Women's club are joining with other clubs all over the nation in observing this week, Oct. 9-15, as National Business & Professional Women's week.

In observing the week, the local club, led by its president, Mrs. M. L. Kirschbaum, is reviewing the history of the organization and its purposes.

The five purposes of the club are to elevate the standards for women in business and in the professions; to promote the interests of business and professional women; to stimulate local and state organizations; to bring about a spirit of cooperation among business and professional women of the nation; and to extend opportunities to business and professional women through education along lines of industrial, scientific, and vocational activities.

Autumnal Motif For Bridgette Party Thursday

Bronze chrysanthemums and autumn leaves lent a seasonal motif to the party which Mrs. W. R. (Jenks) Powell had for the Bridgettes last Thursday.

Yellow daisies were used with chrysanthemums as house decorations. Tallies and scorepads represented autumn leaves.

Guest players were Mrs. R. H. Cantrell, Mrs. Jack Christian, and Mrs. Bill Oswalt. Members present were Mesdames Austin Bush, Bill Dorn, Lester Mannering, Charles Mann, Jr., Jake Richardson, Arlie Taylor, Charles Wyatt, Ace McShan, and A. L. McSpadden.

Mrs. Christian made high score,

Mrs. McShan second high. Supper was served at the Colorado hotel coffee shop after the games. A silver bowl filled with bronze chrysanthemums centered the table.

TREASURE 5,000 YEARS FROM NOW

NEW YORK—Five thousand years from now, archeologists will dig deeply into the grounds of the New York World's Fair 1939, unearth a metal cylinder 7 feet in length and discover within it a "cross-section" of today. Scientists are busy now assembling the varied contents of this receptacle, to include microscopic books, small articles of every day use and motion picture film which will tell people of the 70th century how those of the 20th looked, dressed and behaved.

SOCIETY Publicity Dinner For BPW Club On Tuesday Evening

With the publicity committee, Mrs. M. J. Dawson and Hattie Tankersley, as hostesses, a dinner for the Business & Professional Women's club was held at the Colorado hotel Tuesday evening.

Strips of black and orange crepe paper ran the length of the table center. Orange candles burned in black holders. Halloween horns were favors.

Mrs. Dawson presided and gave a history of Business & Professional Women's clubs in connection with National Business and Professional Women's week. She reviewed President Roosevelt's message in connection with the week.

A discussion of the district five conference in Abilene Friday and Saturday was led by the president, Mrs. M. L. Kirschbaum.

Twenty-one were present, including three visitors, Mrs. Louis Robinson and Sylvia Robinson of Dallas, Mrs. J. D. Williams, Jr., of Colorado.

ABOUT 12 BPW CLUB MEMBERS PLANNING TO GO TO ABILENE

Some twelve members of the Business & Professional Women's club are planning to attend the district five conference in Abilene Saturday and Sunday.

Clyde Garrett, U. S. congressman from the 17th district, and Grace Fitzgerald, woman attorney from Dallas, will be principal speakers. Kate Adele Hill, state BPW president, will attend the meeting.

A banquet will open the conference Saturday evening, and after the banquet there will be a square dance at the American legion hall. The Sunday program will open with a round table discussion at 8:45. The delegates will attend church services en masse at the Central Presbyterian church, returning to the Wooten hotel for luncheon at 12:30.

Those planning to attend from here are Mrs. M. L. Kirschbaum, president; Elizabeth Kirkpatrick, Lillian Pond, Mrs. Rees Jones, Mrs. J. A. Ferguson, Mrs. Leslie Crowder, Jennie Fae O'Neal, Mrs. H. I. Berman, Mrs. Philip Berman, Mrs. J. Ed Richardson, and possibly others.

REBEKAHS AND ODD FELLOWS LEAVE FOR STAMFORD MEETING

Delegations of local Rebekahs and Odd Fellows left Thursday morning for Stamford, where they are attending all-day sessions of the fall convention of district one of the West Texas I.O.O.F. and Rebekah association.

W. W. Porter is president of the association, and as such is presiding at the meeting.

The Colorado Rebekah team had charge of the presentation of the Bible and flag at the morning session, and is also taking part in Rebekah degree work tonight (Thursday).

The team includes Mesdames Floyd Shepherd, Green DeLaney, B. F. Wilson, F. B. Whipkey, Annie Glover, Dick DeLaney, Jack DeLaney, Grace Hastings, Homan Posey, E. B. Ellis, Buster Baker, and Paul Cooper; Ruth Edgerton, Catharine DeLaney, Rhudean Ballard, and Billie Wyatt.

Beta Sigma Phi Sorority Unit Is Formed Here

Formation of a chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, international non-academic sorority, has been in process here this week.

Stella Grace Elliott of Warrensburg, Mo., is here to guide the organization of the unit. She describes Beta Sigma Phi as a "non-academic sorority for young women in the business and professional world." Ages are from 18 to 30.

Installation of chapter officers is to be held Thursday evening (tonight) at the Colorado hotel. Miss Elliott says. The chapter will meet twice a month, devoting its time to self-improvement and recreation. The nearest sister chapter is at Sweetwater.

Group Attending UDC Meeting In Corsicana

Accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Earl Powell, and little daughter, Earle, of Stanton, Mrs. Jack Smith left Monday morning to attend the state U.D.C. meeting in Corsicana this week.

The two women were to get their mother, Mrs. E. W. Bounds, in Fort Worth and take her to the convention. Mrs. Bounds is a past state president of the U.D.C. This is the first, state convention which she has been able to attend in several years.

Little Earle Powell, granddaughter of Mrs. Bounds, is the mascot for the state chapter, and as such has played a prominent part at the convention.

Another Study Course Begun By Methodist WMS

Another study course, this one on "The American City and Its Church," was begun by the Methodist women's missionary society Monday afternoon. Fifteen enrolled for the course.

Mrs. W. H. Garrett led the opening devotional on the beginnings of cities in the Bible. A sketch of the life of the study book's author, Dr. Kincheloe, was given by Mrs. C. C. Thompson.

Study of the first chapter was led by Mrs. W. W. Rhode. She told of "The Skyline of An American City." Mrs. Thompson described the skylines of New York and Chicago, and Mrs. John E. Watson told of the "Institutions and Industries of a City." The distribution of population was discussed by Mrs. E. A. Sifford. The closing topic on "The City, a State of Mind," was given by Mrs. Boyd Dozier.

Mrs. J. T. Pritchett is to lead Monday's lesson.

Former Dorothy Morrison Honored With Shower Given In Setting Of Autumn Golds

Warm golden yellows of autumn were featured when Beulah Frances Robinson and Harriet Ann Pritchett arranged a reception-shower for Mrs. Herb Curry of Iran, the former Dorothy Morrison of Colorado, at the home of Mrs. Dick Billingsley on Monday afternoon from 4 until 6.

Goldenrod, marigolds, and Mexican sunflowers were used to give the home a seasonal atmosphere. Guests were greeted by Cora Mae Bodine.

In the receiving line stood Harriet Ann Pritchett, Beulah Frances Robinson, the honoree, Mrs. Earl Morrison, Mrs. H. H. Curry of Garden City, and Jean Morrison.

Doris Flo Doss presided at the registry. In the house party were Virginia Whipkey, Barbara Jones, Harry Etta Landers, Nancy Price, Doris Richardson, Willie Grace Doss, Freddie Watson, Fae Porter, Ruth Hardison, and Martha Jane Majors.

Accord numbers were played by Mrs. James Payne as-guests arrived. Sara Guitars was presented in two violin numbers.

The gifts were presented when Ann Nix, dressed as an expressman, came to the door with packages for the honoree.

After the opening of the gifts punch and cake were served from lace-covered table centered with a crystal punch bowl around which ivy and marigold were arranged. Martha Jane Majors poured.

Halloween Motif Used At Fidelis Class Meet

Featuring a Halloween motif, Mrs. T. E. Neely, Mrs. A. C. Benson, and Mrs. E. L. Pugh entertained the Fidelis class of First Baptist church at the Neely home Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Grady Beach presided during the business session. Mrs. Pugh said the opening prayer. Mrs. T. A. Patterson the closing one.

Divisions were in charge of Mrs. Dick DeLaney and Mrs. O. V. Cline. Let the advertisements help you make your shopping plans.

'The Country Kitchen' Is 1921 Study Topic

"The Country Kitchen" by Della Lute was first study topic of the 1921 Study club when it met Friday with Mrs. N. H. White, Jr.

Leader was Mrs. J. E. McCleary. The four individual parts were handled by Mrs. U. G. Hardison, who talked on "Character Sketch of the Father"; Mrs. R. P. Price, who had the topic, "Life in the Kitchen"; Mrs. Van Boston, who told of "Favorite Recipes"; Mrs. J. M. Doss, who gave selections from the book.

The meeting this week will be with Mrs. H. B. Broadus.

Retiring Officers Of McCleary Bible Class Hostesses To Honor Mrs. McCleary

Retiring officers of the McCleary Bible class of First Methodist church were hostesses for a Tuesday night class meeting which turned out to be a surprise honor to Mrs. J. E. McCleary, class teacher for 15 years who will move to Lubbock to live on Noy. 1.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. R. J. Wallace, retiring vice-president. Other hostesses were the retiring president, Mrs. J. L. Pidgeon; the other retiring vice-president, Mrs. R. H. Brennan; and the retiring secretary, Mrs. Jim White.

A shower of gifts was presented to Mrs. McCleary after Mrs. Harry Ratliff had "interviewed" her, bringing out the following facts about her life and living:

She was born in Paris, Texas, where her grandfather settled in 1835, and educated in the Texas and Oklahoma schools. She taught Choctaw Indians in a mission school in Oklahoma, and in 1908 married a bank clerk whom she met while getting her checks cashed.

The McCleary family, including Mr. and Mrs. McCleary and their son, J. E., Jr., moved to Colorado in 1924, and soon afterward Mrs. McCleary began teaching what was then called the Young Mothers Wesley Bible class. Later it was renamed for her.

After Mr. McCleary died in 1927 Mrs. McCleary assumed his duties as office manager for the Lambeth, McCleary & Grubbs cotton firm, filling that position eight years.

It was recalled that during her nearly 15 years as teacher of the McCleary Bible class, Mrs. McCleary had been absent on one time when not ill or out of town. She has been a member of the Methodist board of steward for 11 years, and has served as conference secretary of young people's work. She has held every office in the local woman's missionary society.

In addition to all this she has been an active member of the D.A.R., the U.D.C., and the 1921 Study club. For the past year she has been librarian for the Mitchell County Federation of Women's clubs. She writes poetry, and has won a number of district and local prizes for her work.

The class elected as teacher to succeed her Mrs. C. C. Thompson, whose assistants will be Mrs. W. L. Doss, Jr., Mrs. L. B. Elliott, and Mrs. N. H. White.

Other new officers who took charge at the meeting were: President, Mrs. R. S. Brennan; vice-presidents, Mrs. E. H. Winn and Mrs. Benton Templeton; secretary, Mrs. F. C. Shillingburg; treasurer, Mrs. Dick Gregory.

After the gifts for Mrs. McCleary had been presented and opened, the hostesses served a salad course.

Ship And Voyage Theme Featured As Hesperians Have President's Dinner

Featuring a ship and voyage theme, the president's dinner of the Hesperian club was held at the Colorado hotel Thursday evening. Places were marked for 25 members and guests.

The club colors of green and white centered the T-shaped dinner table. The speaker's table was centered with a bowl of roses on a reflector, flanked by crystal candelabra, each holding two white tapers. At either end of the table were bowls of dwarf white chrysanthemums and fern, and a similar bowl flanked by white tapers centered the second table. Place cards were hand-made ships, and a ship motif decorated the booklet programs.

Mrs. Bill Coffey was master of ceremonies. The meeting opened with the club collect by Mrs. A. L. Whipkey, after which Mrs. Coffey introduced the guests.

Popular songs of past years were sung after the main course. Mrs. James Payne was at the piano, and Vara Crippen led. Especially well-received was the "singing with gestures" led by Mrs. Rees Jones.

The message of the president, Mrs. J. W. Randle, included a resume of the work done by the club during the past year and an introduction of the officers who serve with her. Mrs. Randle is now starting her second year as club president. She told of the growth of the loan fund by $50 during the past year, under the management of Mrs. Nat Thomas, first vice-president.

Mention was made of Mrs. Farris Bass as second vice-president, Mrs. Bennett Scott as recording secretary, Mrs. A. L. Whipkey as corresponding secretary, Mrs. E. H. Winn as treasurer, Mrs. S. H. Millwee as critic, and Mrs. J. G. Merritt as historian.

Those who were present said a few words. Mrs. Merritt, as historian, introduced Mrs. J. T. Johnson, the club's honorary life member, who started the club history. Mrs. Randle also introduced the yearbook committee, including Mrs. Bill Coffey, Mrs. Rees Jones, and Mrs. Vivian Shropshire. The last-named was not able to be present.

Two accordion solos were played by Mrs. Payne. Mrs. Rees Jones gave two readings, "The Table" by Weaver and "The Girl That Used To Be" by Crowell. Miss Gladys Miller sang "The Bells of St. Mary's," with Mrs. Payne as accompanist.

"Grab bag orations" completed the program, and the evening was closed with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

Places were marked for the following guests: Miss Mabel Smith, Mrs. John Doss, Princess Martin, Mrs. Jewel Barrett, Mrs. Alice Lockhart, Mrs. E. A. Barcroft, Mrs. J. T. Johnson, Mrs. H. A. Lopsdon, Mrs. S. A. Andrews, and Elizabeth Kirkpatrick.

Members present were Mesdames Bennett Scott, Bill Coffey, J. W. Randle, J. G. Merritt, A. L. Whipkey, S. H. Millwee, J. D. Williams, Jr., John E. Watson, F. C. Shillingburg, Ed Majors, James Payne, Rees Jones, and Bob Trotter; Gladys Miller and Vara Crippen.

ACHIEVEMENT DAY REPORTS HEARD AT HD COUNCIL MEET

By Mrs. C. C. Berry, Reporter
 Reports of achievement days observed by the various home demonstration clubs in the county were heard at the home demonstration council meeting Saturday afternoon at the county courtroom.

Mrs. J. C. Franklin, chairman, and Mrs. Edgar Andrews, secretary, were in their places. Mrs. F. L. Eikenburg reported the Iatan club's achievement day. Fairview's achievement day was announced for Oct. 14.

The treasurer's report showed $30.64 on hand to begin the new year's work.

The women were urged by Vara Crippen, county home demonstration agent, to attend recreational meetings at the Legion hut in Colorado each fourth Saturday. Mrs. Jahew Jameson of McKenzie is recreational chairman.

Six of the seven clubs in the county were represented at the council meeting, those present being Mrs. C. C. Byrd of Rogers, Mrs. W. S. Jenkins and Mrs. C. C. Berry of Fairview, Mrs. J. C. Franklin and Mrs. Tom Daughtrey of Plainview, Mrs. Edgar Andrews of Hyman, Mrs. Urda Vulfjen of Seven Wells, and Mrs. F. L. Eikenburg of Iatan.

Rogers and Seven Wells are newly organized clubs.

AUSTIN.—Twenty per cent of the pedestrians struck by motor vehicles in Texas are killed, state police estimate.

Of 1,238 pedestrians involved in traffic accidents in the first seven months of this year, 209 were killed and 929 were injured.

In order to lower this death rate police urged pedestrians to obey traffic signals, refrain from crossing streets at places other than intersections and to face oncoming traffic when walking along highways.

WESTBROOK LOST TO COURTNEY IN SIX-MAN UPSET GAME FRIDAY

In an upset game played in a high sandstorm on the Courtney stadium, Westbrook's six-man football team suffered its first defeat of the season Friday afternoon, 13-12.

It was the first victory of the season for the Courtney Lions, who had previously lost to Westbrook. The two teams are in the PSAA six-man football district, which also includes Garden City, Sterling City, Forsan and Garner.

The Lions gave away a touchdown lead in the first quarter when Oglesby went over for Westbrook on a short pass, then came back to take a permanent lead when long passes did the trick. Jones plunged over for the extra point that eventually won the ball game after he and Pinkston had collaborated in a classy aerial show. Pinkston tallied the six-pointer and Jones repeated in the second with a dash around right end.

Board tallied for Westbrook soon after the third quarter opened by a fumble in a try for the extra point cost the Croughmen the ball game.

Score by quarters:

Westbrook 0 6 6 0—12
 Courtney 6 7 0 0—13

In other PSAA games played Friday Garner's Hill Billies downed Sterling City 38-6 at Sterling City, and Forsan defeated Garden City's Bearkats 31-0 at Garden City. Forsan is rated as the championship favorite in the district, with Westbrook and Garner as their most potent threats.

Westbrook will play Sterling City at Sterling City this Friday. They will meet Forsan at Forsan on November 11.

NOT PRAYER BUT PREACHING

The usual services continue at the church of Christ with one exception: No longer is the mid-week service to be classed as a prayer meeting, but as a preaching service. On Wednesday evening of each week, Woodie Holden, minister, will preach Christ to all of those attending. Vital questions concerning Christ, His gospel and His church will be discussed. Under the new arrangement, the public is to be impressed with the fact that this service is for everyone, not just a few church members. If there are those who know nothing of Christ or His word, they are to be urged to come. If others are in doubt about Christ, or about what His church believes, they should come. The idea is to extend the field of service on Wednesday evening and make greater the opportunity for doing good.

Plea: Do not miss the Wednesday evening service. Come to bring your friends. You are always welcome at the church of Christ.

TB LITERATURE IS GIVEN TO SCHOOLS

Pamphlets and bulletins containing tuberculosis information are being distributed to schools of Mitchell county by Mrs. Jeff Dobbs, county tuberculosis chairman.

The literature has already been delivered to Colorado schools, including the negro school, and the Buford school. Delivery is to be made to schools at Loraine and Westbrook in the next few days.

CHAMPIONSHIP HOPES OF CHS WOLVES TOPPLED BY ROTAN YELLOWHAMMERS IN WILD OFFENSIVE BATTLE FRIDAY NIGHT

High hopes of a district championship for the Colorado Wolves this year went glimmering Friday night as the game and best-trained team in Colorado High school's recent history went down fighting before Rotan's powerful Yellowhammers, 19-14.

The game was played in Rotan before an estimated crowd of 3,000 fans, of whom a large per cent were Coloradans.

It was conceded before the game that the victor would probably be 1938 champion of district 6.

A lack which Coach Jack Christian and others have feared all along might handicap the Wolves in a crucial battle apparently contributed heavily to their defeat Friday night—namely, shortness on reserve strength. The Wolves led the Rotan team during the first three quarters, then weakened and let them make the winning touchdown in the final quarter.

Score at the end of the first quarter was 7-6 at the second 14-6, and at the third 14-13, always in favor of the Wolves. Rotan made its winning touchdown in the early moments of the fourth quarter, driving from their own 43-yard line.

The game was described by Si Addington, staff sports writer for the Abilene Reporter-News, as "one of the wildest offensive spurs; two class B teams ever staged in West Texas."

Addington's account of the game read in part as follows:

"Here's the story of the scoring in brief: The Rotan team received the kick-off and carried the ball to the Wolves' 40-yard line. Swann fumbled and O. C. Cox, Jr., end for Colorado, recovered. Little Tommy Chadwick and Jack Smith, Colorado aces, carried the ball to the 25 yard line. Smith broke loose over the center, cut back and scored standing up. Cox kicked goal.

"Taking the ball on their 40-yard line in the second quarter after Colorado's Cox punted, the Yellowhammers surged back. A Smith threw a beautiful 25-yard pass to Fleming, end, to put the ball on the 15-yard line. A Smith hit center, did some fancy side-stepping and scored. Swann's plunge for point was no good.

"There was just time for the kick-off in the half, so Ross Glover substituting for his older brother, Rudell, Colorado back, caught the ball on his 10-yard line and scampered the remaining 90 yards for a touchdown. It was a beautiful run. Cox kicked goal and Colorado led 14 to 6 at the half.

"The Wolves punted out of bounds after receiving the third period kick-off and the Yellowhammers started hammering. After an incomplete pass and two plays from scrimmage that netted five yards, Swann scampered 43 yards for a touch. Fleming's kick was good and the score was 14-13 in favor of the Wolves.

"Then came the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Smith and Swann alternated in carrying the ball for the final touch. It took just 13 plays. Swann carried the ball over from the one foot line standing up by smashing off right tackle."

In his Sunday morning column Addington had this to say about the game:

"The wildest and wooliest offensive brand of football that we have ever seen took place Friday night at Rotan. Final score of the Rotan vs. Colorado teams was 19 to 14, but brother it was a game.

"There was not a dull moment in the entire ball game. Angus Smith or Howard Swann of the Rotan Yellowhammers, and Jack Smith or Tommy Chadwick of Colorado Wolves kept a crowd on its feet all through the contest. The touchdown twins on both teams were given support by the linemen, but they wrote their names down in Class B history as four of the best backs it has ever seen.

"The Yellowhammers used a long punt formation exclusively. The point man received the ball on 99 per cent of the plays. The Wolves, coached by Jack Christian, used a modified punt and ran a few plays off the double wingback."

Line-ups:
Colorado—Ballard and Cox, ends, Hunter and Hodges, tackles, D. Jones and Blessingame, guards, Woods, center, Rudell Glover and Chesney, halves, Jack Smith, full, Chadwick, quarter.

Substitutions for Wolves: Clifton Caffey, Sam Majors, Ross Glover, and Walter Grubbs.

Rotan—Fleming and Taylor, ends, Wortham and Day, tackles, Martin and Durham, guards, R. Hargrove, center, Swann and Angus Smith, halves, Jack Smith, fullback, Hale, quarter.

Statistics: First downs, Colorado 10, Rotan 15; yards gained from scrimmage, Colorado 123, Rotan 261; passes tried, Colorado 11, one complete for eight yards, Rotan, five, one complete for 25 yards; punts, Colorado, seven for average of 20 yards, Rotan, three for average of 27.

FIRE DESTROYS HOME AND CONTENTS AT PLAINVIEW

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the J. T. Daughtrey home southwest of town at an early hour Friday morning, Sept. 30. The contents were a total loss, the occupants of the house barely escaping with the clothes they wore.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Daughtrey and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dalton occupied the home. Mrs. Dalton is the Daughtreys' granddaughter. The J. T. Daughtreys have been staying with their daughter, Mrs. Emmett Franklin, in Colorado since the fire, and the Daltons have been staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Daughtrey of Plainview.

A shower of clothing, food, and household goods was given for the two couples at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sheppard last Friday afternoon.

CHRISTIAN MEN MEET WITH J. H. CARLOCK

With his wife and daughter assisting him, J. H. Carlock was host to the men's Bible class of First Christian church Tuesday evening.

Forty-two was played, high score being made by Bob Price and P. K. Mackey, who defeated Bascom Broadus and Mr. Carlock.

Margarita Beights and Olive Warner assisted Mrs. Carlock and Margie Carlock in serving refreshments. Mrs. Carlock was at the piano during a sing-song which closed the meeting, leaders being A. E. Warner and John Smith.

Those present were R. P. Tandy, president; J. H. Carlock, vice-president; Leslie Crowder, secretary-treasurer; John Smith, C. O. McComb, Seedy Davis, Bob Fee, J. E. Whitefield, J. B. Pritchett, Nat Thomas, G. A. Horton, Troy Erwin, Ed Jones, Sr., H. B. Broadus, R. P. Price, W. W. Porter, P. K. Mackey, A. E. Warner, J. M. Page, and Frank Beights.

THREE WHOLE FARM DEMONSTRATIONS NOW UNDERWAY IN VARIOUS PARTS OF COUNTY

Three whole farm demonstrations are now in progress in Mitchell county, according to Vara Crippen, county home demonstration agent.

Demonstrators in the whole farm improvement program are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lowry of Hyman, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Daughtrey of Plainview, and Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Walker of Lorraine.

Both the county farm agent, B. J. Baskin, and the county home demonstration agent, Miss Crippen, cooperate in the whole farm demonstrations. The demonstration on the Daughtrey farm has been in progress two years. This is the first year for both the Walker and Lowry farms.

Whole farm demonstrations are planned over a period of years, according to Miss Crippen. They include improvement of the farm and home as a unit, with the whole family working together under supervision of the agents. In the case of each farm a program has been worked out to fit the improvement needs of each particular family and farm. A system of records is kept to determine progress made.

During their first year as whole farm demonstrators the T. W. Daughtreys at Plainview planted 200 seedling trees to make a windbreak on the west and north sides of their home. They also improved their kitchen and started their yard improvement.

This year they have bought a good strain of White Leghorn chickens and have added a new brooder house to the poultry equipment. They have raised about 80 pullets and plan to add a laying house this fall. Meanwhile, they continue to do yard improvement work.

Beginning their work as demonstrators this year, the Carl Lowrys of Hyman have improved their kitchen and two bedrooms, and have also started on their yard improvement. They plan to improve their poultry equipment soon, adding a new laying house and possibly a poultry yard. The Lowrys also have several hundred newly terraced farm acres and a new tractor on their improvement program for the year.

Interest of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Walker at Lorraine has centered this year on yard improvement. They planted grass in the spring, and now their yard is completely covered. Scores of shrubs have been arranged as a foundation planting around the house. A screen planting on the south and west sides of the yard includes a row of Chinese elm trees and another of Amour River privet hedge, both trees and shrubs being protected by temporary screens until their growth can be well started. More shrubs are to be planted this fall.

A flower garden has been growing all summer on the east side of the house, and by the flower garden is the rose garden.

The vegetable garden is near the rose and flower gardens. Walks have been laid in convenient places in both front and back yards.

House improvements made by the Walkers this year include electric lights, a second-floor bedroom, a window seat, book shelves, and dressing tables. Floors have been refinished and small rugs placed at convenient places.

A frame garden is one of the things which the Walkers are planning for this fall. In it they plan to grow some fresh vegetables the year around.

An inventory of the Walker home and farm was taken at the beginning of the year, and a simple record of expenditures and income has been kept, so that at the end of the year the Walkers will know where they are.

The entire family has cooperated in the improvements made so far, and other improvements will be planned for coming years.

"OULD SOD" OF IRELAND

NEW YORK—A small island outside the shamrock-shaped pavilion being erected at the New York World's Fair 1939 by the Irish Free State is likely to become a shrine for the many Irish-Americans in this country who have not seen the old country for years. The isle is to be an exact duplicate in relief of Ireland. Lakes and rivers will be filled with water brought from such famous spots as the River Shannon and the Lakes of Killarney. The soil itself will come from the fields in the counties of Elre, veritable bits of the "ould sod."

COLORADO MAN IS CHARGED IN HOLD-UP AT COSDEN REFINERY

Charges of robbery by firearms were filed in Big Spring Wednesday against James Earl Hicks of Colorado in connection with a $40 holdup at the Cosden refinery east of Big Spring early Monday morning.

Hicks was arrested in Colorado Monday night by Dick Hickman, chief of police, and Jack DeLaney, constable. A suit of clothes abandoned with his name in one of the pockets was found north of the Cosden plant while officers were investigating Monday.

Colorado officers were notified about 6 o'clock Monday evening, and Hicks was arrested about 9:30 that night at his home in the old M. C. Ratliff place on Oak street, where he opened a radio shop about a month ago. Big Spring officers came for him Tuesday.

Hicks was seen to board a west-bound truck here about 3 o'clock Monday morning. The robbery took place about 5 o'clock, when a lone bandit, masked and wearing gloves, held up Leonard Skiles, night office man at the Cosden plant, and forced him to hand over contents of the cash drawer.

Following the robbery, Skiles was commanded to turn over the keys to his car, but the robber was unable to start it. Failing in an attempt to force his victim to shove the car off, the robber forced Skiles, at the point of his gun, to lay on the floor until he fled afoot. Skiles was able to furnish an accurate description.

Hicks is a former inmate of the insane asylum at Wichita Falls, having been sent there after a minor affray here. Although he has been out of the asylum about two years, he only returned to Colorado about a month ago.

ACHIEVEMENT DAY HELD FOR IATAN-CARR CLUB

Achievement day was observed by the Iatan-Carr home demonstration club last week.

Meeting at the home of Mrs. T. L. McKenney at Iatan, the women inspected her poultry and kitchen equipment, then went to the home of Mrs. Ellis Grant to inspect the kitchen which she has renovated for only $8.00.

Because of the illness of Mrs. Tom Jackson's father, the club was unable to complete its achievement day tour at her home. Games were played at the Grant home, after which refreshments were served to Vera Crispen, county home demonstration agent; Mrs. Sam Wulfjen, of Colorado; Mrs. O. L. Simpson; Mrs. W. W. Jenkins, and Mrs. Emfinger, all of Fairview; Mrs. Van Boston, Mrs. Ira Lauderdale, Mrs. J. E. Skelton, Mrs. Margaret Costin, and Mrs. C. V. Cox, all of Westbrook; Mrs. Lee Coleman, Mrs. T. L. McKenney, Mrs. Miller, and Mrs. Eikenberg.

COMMISSIONERS AND JUDGE KING RETURN FROM NEW BRAUNFELS

Judge A. F. King and two Mitchell county commissioners, Frank Crowner of Lorraine and J. E. Skelton of Westbrook, returned Saturday from New Braunfels, where they attended the annual convention of county judges and commissioners of the state.

Port Worth was awarded the next convention. Resolutions adopted by the body requested:

More federal appropriations for public improvements.

Sterilization of the hopelessly insane, the feeble-minded, habitual and sex criminals.

Adequate appropriations for the state health department's war on venereal and contagious diseases.

Consolidation of existing welfare agencies under one department to avoid duplication.

Appointment of a committee to study county reorganization.

An appropriation of $50,000 annually for rehabilitation of the Texas blind.

An appropriation to aid dependent children, in accordance with the constitutional amendment voted Aug. 23, 1937.

Appointment of a committee to cooperate with the Legislature to obtain tax relief.

Petitioning the United States Department of Agriculture to eliminate the present commodity loan differential "discriminating against irrigated cotton."

Adequate appropriations for funds to purchase the proposed Big Bend National Park area.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Ulysses O'Dell, age 4, was dismissed Sunday after having been hospitalized since receiving a head injury when struck by a truck three weeks ago.

J. E. Disheroon of Ranger, who suffered back injuries when struck by a falling bale of cotton at the compress, is still in the hospital.

After several days as a medical patient, Bradford Lander was dismissed Saturday.

C. W. Burford of Cuthbert was a medical patient from Friday until Wednesday.

O. E. Creger, connected with the carnival which played here last week, was a medical patient in the hospital for two days before his death Monday.

A favorable report is given Mrs. R. B. Wiggins of Route 3, Colorado. She had major surgery on Monday.

Mrs. Scott Mitchell of Colorado has been a medical patient in the hospital since Monday. She is rather ill.

Mrs. H. M. Sanders of Colorado is recovering from major surgery on Tuesday.

Mrs. J. W. Byrd of Westbrook was admitted to the hospital as a medical patient Wednesday.

Much improved from her serious illness of last week, Mrs. B. F. Dulaney was moved to her home Tuesday.

Mrs. E. H. Taylor of Route 3 was admitted Wednesday night as a medical patient.

HERE FROM DALLAS
Mrs. Louis Robinson and daughter, Sylvian, of Dallas are here visiting Mrs. Robinson's sister, Mrs. Philip Berman, and her brother, M. L. Kirschbaum, and their families.

PROMISING OIL COMPANY'S SPUDDING VENTURE AT FAIR ENDS IN A SELL-OUT

Having run low on new complications to keep the headlines sizzling and having decided that their "60 feet, production, or quit" oil test at the West Texas fair in Abilene was destined to be a "quit" affair, anyway, the Promising Oil company of Colorado "sold out" its interest in the much-publicized wildcat last week, just before the fair came to a close.

The test, known as the Promising Oil company's No. 1 City of Abilene Fair Park, was spudded in with much ballyhoo and ceremony on Monday afternoon of last week. A motorcade of 10 Colorado cars, bearing Promising Oil company officials and their families and friends, attended the spudding.

Harry Ratliff, chief legal counsel for the company, made the main speech. Among Promising Oil officials who took part in the ceremonies were Rance Dockrey, president; Jim Cantrill, vice-president; Charles Landau, spiritual advisor; Lay Powell, secretary; Eary Cypert, chairman of spudding arrangements; Frank Kelley, Magnolia land and lease man here; Bob May, land man; and others.

They got their pictures in the papers, as well as a lot of practice in making promises.

But the wildcat was beset with "trouble" from the start, and each new trial made another newsworthy. Legal entanglements, labor trouble, motor trouble, and red bed cavings combined to hinder progress. All the trouble was thoroughly enjoyed by everybody concerned.

The exhibition test was turned over to Paul Murray, head of the Wright-Black Oil company, Saturday night. Murray, who is a driller for the Wheeler Drilling company, and his crew donned black faces and wigs to continue work on the test which represents the Promising Oil company's first actual operation.

With this venture disposed of, the Promising Oil company is now turning its attention on plans for drilling on the Pike's Peak lease which Governor Allred recently signed over to the company, the lease to be good when-and-if Pike's Peak is moved from Colorado state to Colorado, Texas.

PRESBYTERIANS ACCEPT RESIGNATION OF THEIR PASTOR, DR. ELLIOTT

Resignation of Dr. W. M. Elliott as pastor of First Presbyterian church was accepted by the church during a congregational meeting Sunday morning.

The acceptance was voted after Dr. Elliott had earnestly requested the church members to ask the presbytery to dissolve the pastoral relations so that he can accept a call to pastor the Presbyterian church in Saluda, North Carolina. Dr. Elliott submitted his resignation a week before the congregational meeting. His previous efforts to resign have not been accepted.

Dr. Elliott, who first came here as Presbyterian pastor in May, 1908, plans to leave for his new field on or before November 1. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Elliott and Miss Hennie Merriweather, sister of Mrs. Elliott.

With the exception of 10 years spent with churches in Missouri, Texas, and New Mexico from 1912 to 1922, Dr. Elliott has served the local church ever since he first came here in 1908. He is known as the dean of Colorado pastors.

FORECAST HIGHER ON COTTON CROP

The Agriculture department Saturday forecast a 1938 cotton crop of 12,200,000 bales. A month ago it estimated production at 11,825,000 bales.

The crop board reported 6,578,313 bales ginned to October 1, compared with 6,260,971 bales ginned the same date last year. Ginnings to September 1, this year, totaled 1,133,745 bales.

Harvest conditions at the beginning of this month were reported 66 per cent of normal September 1.

The board estimated the yield per acre on 26,449,000 acres to be harvested at 221.1 pounds of lint cotton. The estimated yield was the second highest on record, exceeded only in 1937.

FIFTEEN MITCHELL BOYS ARE ENROLLED IN CCC

Fifteen Mitchell county boys reported in Lamesa last week for enrollment in the CCC, according to Mrs. Bonnie Burt, Mitchell county caseworker.

Mrs. Otto Jones and Mrs. R. H. Looney left Sunday morning to visit in Dallas and Fort Worth until the latter part of the week. Mrs. Jones is spending most of the time with her daughter, Frances, a student in T.C.U. at Fort Worth.

'MOST DECORATIVE' DEALERS

Described as "Our Most Decorative Dealers," the Gracey Sisters implement firm of Colorado received the following write-up under the above picture in the most recent edition of "The Campaigner," a bulletin issued by the John Deere Plow company out of its Dallas office:

"September third not only ushered in a new styled line of John Deere tractors but also marked the opening of the only John Deere dealership of its kind in Texas.

"On that day the Gracey Sisters officially opened their store in a new brick building in Colorado, Texas, displaying a complete line of tractors, implements and repairs salable in their trade area.

"These young ladies are the daughters of R. E. Gracey, John Deere dealer at Roscoe, and under his training Sid and Jane have become very efficient in every department of the business.

They handle every phase of the work except service and direct this department through Service Man L. M. Long.

"Salesmanship, advertising, courtesy, and modern business methods are firmly welded together to insure the success of the Gracey Sisters. System is the foundation of their office.

Repairs are card-indexed for ready reference. To render a repair service second to none, a record of John Deere tractors and implements owned by farmers in the Colorado territory is being compiled, so when a farmer calls for a tractor part the serial number can be easily checked.

"Firm believers in Edison's axiom that 'genius is the ability to do a lot of hard work,' the Gracey Sisters shirk none of the fundamentals of selling, and this, coupled with their natural enthusiasm and ability, will carry them to the success toward which they are striving."

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Jackson, who now live in Sterling City, were visitors in Colorado Saturday and Sunday.

SITE FOR NEW JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL IS BEING CLEANED AND LEVELED

Site for the new junior high school building is being cleaned and leveled in preparation for the beginning of construction within the next few weeks.

City and county machinery and labor are being used with Mayor J. A. Sadler as supervisor.

Elmer G. Withers of Fort Worth, architect for the new building, is at work on plans for the building. He makes trips to Colorado almost weekly to confer with members of the school board on the plans.

The school is to be located on a block and a half of land which the board bought last week from the J. H. Guitler, Sr. estate. The site is located south of the Guitler home, Highacre.

RETURN HOME

Mrs. J. L. Bowen returned home Saturday after a two-weeks visit in Dallas and Royce City. She went down with Mr. Bowen as he was enroute to Fort Worth to buy cattle. He came home early last week.

DAUGHTER IS BORN

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bynum, who live south of Colorado, are the parents of a daughter born Wednesday of last week at their home.

ROSS GLOVER IS TO ATTEND FFA
NATIONAL MEET

PRESIDENT OF CHS CHAPTER WILL LEAVE SUNDAY FOR KANSAS CITY

Ross Glover, president of the Colorado High school FFA chapter, is to leave Sunday morning for the National Future Farmers of America convention in Kansas City, according to P. C. Shillingsburg, FFA sponsor and head of the Colorado High school vocational agriculture department.

In Fort Worth Glover is to board the special Texas train to the convention. The boys will return from Kansas City on Thursday.

It has always been the policy of the Colorado High school FFA chapter to send its president to national conventions whenever possible. Shillingsburg says. The purpose is to get the president better acquainted with the national organization, and at the same time enable him to bring back valuable information to the local chapter.

GARLAND STRAIN IS CHOSEN TO RECEIVE
TRIP TO STATE FAIR

Because of his outstanding two-year record in 4-H club work, Garland Strain of Fairview has been chosen as the Mitchell county 4-H club boy to attend the Golden Jubilee State fair in Dallas next week, according to B. J. Baskin, county farm agent.

Baskin reports that Strain has done work in maize, cotton, and calf clubs during his two years in 4-H work. He will make the trip to Dallas by train Monday, and will stay in the 4-H boys' encampment at the fair grounds during the week, along with other 4-H boys from over the state who will be guests of the state fair association.

Two Mitchell county 4-H girls are guests of the 4-H girls' encampment at the fair this week. They are Dorene Adrian and Dorothy Walker, both of Loraine. They were awarded the trip because of having won first and second places, respectively, in the county clothing contest for 4-H club girls.

TWO MITCHELL COUNTY
GIRLS ARE AMONG 4-H
GUESTS AT STATE FAIR

Two Mitchell county 4-H girls, Dorene Adrian and Dorothy Walker of Loraine, left Monday morning for Dallas, where they are spending most of this week as guests of the State fair association at the Golden Jubilee fair in Dallas, along with some 300 other 4-H girls from over the state.

The girls made the trip with a group of Hudspeth county 4-H girls, all chaperoned by Miss Anna Belle Titus, Hudspeth county home demonstration agent.

According to Vara Crippen, county home demonstration agent, these two girls were awarded the trip because they won the two high places in the county clothing contest. Dorene winning first and Dorothy second. They are staying in the educational encampment building at the fair.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK IS BEING OBSERVED IN SCHOOLS OF COLORADO

Special programs and fire drills are marking the observance of Fire Prevention week, Oct. 9-15, in Colorado schools, according to John E. Watson, superintendent.

The schools carry on their fire prevention program the year around. Supt. Watson says, holding fire drills regularly, writing special themes and making posters on fire prevention. Because this program is carried out, the city gets a 3% reduction on its fire insurance rate.

FUNERAL HELD FOR LORAIN VICTIM OF MYSTERY ACCIDENT

Funeral was held from the Johnson funeral chapel in Sweetwater Sunday morning for John Taylor, 31-year-old Loraine farmer who died Friday afternoon in a Sweetwater hospital from injuries sustained in a mishap that was never satisfactorily explained.

Taylor's death was attributed to injuries sustained from an unknown cause Sept. 26, when he was found in the Texas and Pacific railroad yards suffering a head injury, a dislocation of his hip, and body lacerations. He never regained complete consciousness to give a coherent explanation of the accident.

Taylor had lived with an uncle, W. R. Taylor, in Mitchell county for a year, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Taylor, residing in Mountain Home, Ark. Other survivors are three brothers and three sisters, Everett, Taylor and Mrs. Ada Tripp of Wintunka, Okla., Russell Taylor, Paul Taylor, and Mrs. Maude Tripp, Mrs. Emil Powers of Mountain Home, Ark.

SPECIAL SCREENING OF 'BOYS TOWN' IS PRESENTED AT PALACE

A special screening of "Boys Town," the much-discussed new film with Spencer Tracy and Mickey Rooney in featured roles, was presented at the Palace theater Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Club and civic leaders, pastors, and press representatives attended the showing through invitation of A. E. McClain, local R. & R. manager. All those who attended praised the film highly, calling it one of the best they had ever seen.

The film recounts the true story of work done for wayward boys by Father Flanagan at his Boys Town near Omaha, Nebraska. As the foreword of the picture put it, "There is such a place as Boys Town. There is such a man as Father Flanagan."

WELDON SKINNER IS TEACHING AT POST

Beginning his duties Monday morning, Weldon Skinner of Colorado has been added to the faculty of Post High school. Skinner, who holds a B.A. degree from Hinner Payne college, is teaching mathematics and history. He has been employed as vacation relief at the Col-Tex refinery for several summers.

THREE BOYS PRAISED
 Duff Chimes, Fred and Ross Glover received a very favorable write-up in their old home-town paper "The Terry County Herald." Their football playing is being noticed far and wide.

The Glover brothers left Brownfield before they were big enough to talk much about it or to be interested in football. It seems that at one time Duff's name was on the school roll. He would be nice for other Wolves to receive just prizes in out-of-town papers for their playing. Thanks to The Record, it gives credit where credit is due.

AN EXPLANATION
 Bewful on the side lines discovered why Ross Glover made that 90 yard run for a touchdown. "Fop" Glover jumped the line and ran down the field leading his influence, or was Ross afraid with his family after him?

WHO'S WHO ON THE CAMPUS
 Nowby Pratt

Nowby Pratt was born in Bradshaw, Texas. He attended grammar school there and finished high school in Winters, with the distinction of having been a four letter man. He finished his education in McMurry college. While in McMurry he was a letterman in basketball and football and also a member of the Indian Head Association and the I. H. R.

After finishing McMurry Nowby Pratt was retained there as Prosthodontic football coach. He also coached at Loraine High school for one year before coming to Colorado.

In the two years that Pratt has been on the Colorado High school faculty he has won the heart of every student with his youthfulness, his personality, and his sense of humor. As assistant coach Mr. Pratt has helped build the athletics of Colorado High school to a high point of excellence.

Muri Ballard
 It's a good thing that some people are natural-born "smoozers," because that's why I have this spiky bit of news with which to brighten your lives. While walking across the campus one day last week, I overheard (casualty, of course) some dizzy fish ask a worldly-wise Senior, "Boy, who is Muri Ballard?" After an incredulous rasp, the Senior began:

"Well, Muri Ballard is tall, dark and handsome and he is president of the Junior class. He makes pretty good grades in school—no, he makes awfully good grades for a football boy."

I should like to stress the last three words of that Senior's little speech. Muri has attracted quite a bit of attention since the time he was a Freshman. He plays end and his presence in the game can hardly be overlooked by the opposing team.

Muri plays tennis and basketball and likes hunting and fishing. (He recalls the movie star is Hargo Marx.)

AN EX RETURNS
 Joe Lee again filled his place in front of the red and black ranks of the C. H. S. band Friday night at Rotan. Leading the band from the north end of the field to the south end he exhibited a smart stepping band. Lee who twirled and twined his baton was a member of the class of '38 and also drum-major the same year. Laurels to Joe Lee for his performance and the band's grand exhibition.

BOOKS OF TRAVEL
 There are many of us who would like to travel in foreign countries but find ourselves financially unable to do so. Read the books of travel in the library and you will learn of the travels of others and may feel as though you yourself had been. The following are examples of some of their splendid travel books:

"So You're Going to the Mediterranean"—Clara E. Laughlin. With the increase in Mediterranean travel during the last few years there has come a demand for an adequate guide book to this region. To fill this need nothing could be quite so satisfactory as another of the "So You're Going" books. Here it is—in many ways the best of the entire series. As Panny Butcher says: "Baedeker gives you the facts, but Clara Laughlin gives you facts plus the kind of fancy which makes a difference between a guide for the feet and for the spirit."

"Around the World in Eleven Years"—by Patience, Richard and John Abbe. This book is by children or grown-ups. It is an enchanting story, true and uncensored. If in their inspired innocence the authors have included bits that made the publisher turn pale, still he couldn't keep his chuckles from smothering his consternation. For here is certainly that rarest of finds: A completely artless travel book, fresh and vivid as modern childhood itself. Wise and sharp and mercilessly funny.

"Picturesque America"—edited by J. P. Kane. Contains the natural beauty, grandeur and scenic wonders of America. It also contains hundreds of superb photographs.

EXAMS ALREADY
 It does not seem possible, but the exams for the first six weeks are upon us. That explains many of the long faces and sleepy eyes seen about the campus. Many students seem to think that a last minute struggle will make the desired good grade. All exams will be completed before Thursday that we may be in a good fitting mood to beat Loraine.

HOME MAKING NEWS
 The Homemaking department is proud of the number of new reference books they have been able to add to their library this year. These books include:

"Etiquette Jr.," Clark & Quigley; "Manners for Moderns," Black; "Good Manners," McLean; "Meal Planning and Table Service," Baley (Latest Edition); "It's More Fun if You Know the Rules," Pierce; "Boy Exits Girl," Baker; "Behave Yourself," Briggs & Mitchell; "Social Problems of the High School Girl," Stock & Co.; "Social Problems of the High School Boy," Stock & Co.; "Any Girl Can Be Good Looking," Hunter.

After looking over the list do you wonder why we are proud of these new additions to our list?

ASSEMBLY
 Rev. T. A. Patterson of the First Baptist church in Colorado spoke to the high school students Wednesday afternoon in assembly. The Bible was the subject of the pastor's enlightening speech. We are looking forward to his coming again.

COMING KNOWLEDGE
 The arrival of "The Sage" is eagerly awaited by all! On October 21 you can purchase your first copy. To you who do not know, the contents of "The Sage" will offer to all enlightenment personified. The highest literary ideals of our school will be portrayed.

Doris Richardson is an addition to "The Sage" staff. We look forward with delight to her art contributions. Within "The Sage" will be short stories, poetry, continued stories, jokes, and other student interests.

WOLVES LOSE AND RABBITS WIN
 The Yellowhammers stepped out in front in the last half of the game at Rotan Friday night to beat the Wolves. When the final whistle blew the score was 19-14 in favor of Rotan. The first half of the game was all Colorado's. The Wolves took the ball on Rotan's 40 yard line and drove down to the 25 yard line. Then Jack Smith smashed through the line, snakehipped his way to the goal, and went over standing up. Wood's kicked the extra point and the Wolves led 7-0. Late in the second quarter Rotan scored but did not kick the extra point thus leaving the Wolves a one-point margin. The thrill of the game came seconds before the half when the Yellowhammers kicked to the Wolves. Ross Glover, 130 pound substitute for his brother Rudel, dropped back to his own ten, took the ball on the fly, cut over to the side line and raced 90 yards for a touch.

"Squirt Wood's try for point was good and the Wolves left the field leading 14-6 at the half.

Some three and a half thousand fans saw an entirely different ball club from the one that took the beating the first half come on the field for Rotan. Living up to their reputation Swann and Smith carried and passed the ball as they pleased and in the third quarter Swann galloped 43 yards for a touchdown.

The try for point was good and for the second time the Wolves held only a one point lead. The final score came in the fourth quarter. In thirteen plays the Yellowhammers carried the ball from their own 43 to pay dirt. Swann carried it over from the one-foot line. The game ended a few minutes later before another score could have been made.

The Wolves stay at home Friday to entertain the Loraine Bulldogs one of the weakest teams in this district but remember no matter how weak the Bulldogs are they always play their best ball game against Colorado.

The Jackrabbits took their first game of the season by defeating the Junior High Cub 13-0 Tuesday afternoon. Stars for the "Rabbits" were Ross Smith, Dudley Chesney, California to the east, to hold the interest of the older fans. In most theatres it will carry-the-mail for solid grosses. Jones plays his role in the best western-hero manner, successfully battling Indians, renegade whites and others bent on stopping the mails, and in the end turns a private enterprise into the first government mail service from Sacramento to St. Joseph. Others seen to good advantage are Marjorie Reynolds, Carole Moore, William Arnold and Maston Williams. Drew Ebersson directed.

'IN OLD CHICAGO'

Ritz—Sunday and Monday
October 16 and 17
Stupendous in story, scope and spectacle, this 20th Century-Fox effort easily earns a prominent and distinguished place among the great film epics of all times. A surging and lusty depiction of the rapid rise, destruction by fire and redemption of the midwest metropolis, it provides superlative entertainment for all ages and classes and will blaze its way to record grosses on Broadway, State St. and the Main streets of the hinterlands. In every department the picture approaches perfection while the climactic Chicago fire is probably the most enthralling and spectacular man-made disaster ever filmed. A cast, beyond criticism even to the most unimportant bits is headed by Tyrone Power, Alice Faye and Don Ameche. A triumph for all who had a part in its making. Directed by Henry King.

'RIDERS OF THE BLACK HILLS'

Gem—Friday and Saturday
October 14 and 15
Better than the average western spiced up by the horsing-racing plot innovation which helps make things more interesting. Out side of that, it contains the standard action formula and more than a fair share of hard riding. Photography here helps with some grand outdoor vistas and long distance shots. The story gets going when the Three Mesquiteers capture a wild stallion that resembles Black Knight, a famous race horse that has been kidnapped. They are mistaken for the kidnappers but are cleared by the owner's niece, Ann Evers. For the big race, they enter Mesquite as Black Knight. Mesquite wins and the Mesquiteers round up the kidnappers before they can reveal the deception, which is excused because the money goes for charity. George Sherman's direction is good. Players are Bob Livingston, Ray Corrigan, Max Terhune, Ann Evers, Roscoe Ates, Maude Eburne.

WESTBROOK BOY IN CLUB AT TARLETON

Billy Waters of Westbrook, Texas, was chosen as a member of the John Tarleton College Camera club at a recent meeting of that organization. The club is composed of students who are interested in photographic work. Last year one of its members, Charles Miller, won first place with one of his pictures in the senior division of the Texas Inter-Collegiate Press-Association contest. One of the features of the club is a monthly contest in which each member is required to submit a picture taken and developed by himself. S. P. Davis, chemistry professor, is sponsor of the club.

OLD AGE PENSION SITUATION AT A GLANCE UP TO DATE

The census bureau estimates the number of people in Texas in 1937 who are 65 years of age and over at 282,000, approximately 73% of these or 207,270 are white and 14.7% or 45,454 are negroes and 11.7% or 32,994 are Mexicans.

There were on the pensions rolls September 1, 1938 a total of 113,095 and the State and Federal government paid out in August for pensions $1,561,304 or an average of $13.81 to each pensioner.

The amount paid out by the State for pensions for year ending August 31, 1938 amounted to $9,250,099 an equal amount was paid by the Federal government for the same time, making a total paid out in old age assistance last year in Texas, $18,500,198.

Administrative expenses of the old age assistance law for last year was $903,265. The Federal Government paid $462,504 and the State paid $440,760.

The cost under the universal pension plan, estimating there will be 40,000 including those who own property and those not eligible under the constitution, who will not apply for a pension we have 242,000 who will likely apply. At $15.00 per month or $180 per year would make $43,560,000. Deduct the $9,250,099 now being collected mainly from liquor and cigarettes and we have $34,310,000. Add to this 1,500,000 the approximate amount this fund owes a Dallas bank and 2,500,000 for teachers retirement, $1,500,000 for neglected children and $500,000 for the blind and we have $40,310,000 new money to be raised annually to pay the old folks, and for the three other purposes named.

We can state now that Texas is not able to pay this amount and we do not believe that it will undertake it even if the legislature passes the law because Sec. 48 of Article 3 of the Constitution forbids the legislature to levy taxes or impose burdens on people other than for an economical administration of the government and any person receiving through business channels or from property more than $15.00 per month is not a legitimate charge against taxpayers and no doubt the courts will be called on to decide this fact.

This amount can be materially reduced by the application of proper economies. If these economies are put into effect then the passage of a retail sales tax there will be no serious burdens put on taxpayers. But if this load as shown above together with the amount of taxes wasted by government are to be continued, a revolt by taxpayers is inevitable.

Mr. J. R. Donnell in his letter to readers pleads for a sales tax, says "exempt nothing." But if nothing is exempted that would be a transaction tax, such as the Townsendites advocate. That would not suit those who have been lobbying around the legislature the last several years for a sales tax.

A sales tax is a gross income tax on those having a moderate income, because most of what they earn would go for the things taxed. Not so with those of large incomes, the greater part of which is invested in real estate, in stocks, bonds and other things on which the tax would not apply. Corporations would escape almost entirely, because corporations neither eat, drink nor wear clothes.

A transaction tax would bear on all alike, and much less than 2 per cent would be needed. Such a tax at 2 per cent would yield, on some big days on the New York Stock Exchange, as much as one to three million dollars. Such a tax on purchases of cotton futures on hockie tickets and similar gambling devices in Texas would bring in quite a lot of money. But this is not what the sales tax advocates want.

We interviewed a tenant farmer this week and he gave us a new translation of the 23rd Psalm:

"Cotton is my shepherd; I am in want, it maketh me to lie down beside mortgaged windows; it leadeth my children from the path of education; it restoreth my doubts as to one-crop farming. Yea, though I walk through the valley of starvation, I will fear no evil; for the cow will feed me; the hen and the pig they will comfort me. Cotton prepareth a reduction in my income for me. In the presence of my creditors, it appointeth my head with debts; my expenses run over my income. Surely, without the pig and the hen, poverty and misery shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell on a rented or a mortgaged farm forever. Amen!"

A Michigan editor gets the credit for writing up a complaint to a local school board with reference to "her fine reputation for teaching she bears." The next day the affair's school board met the editor and chased him down the street with a club, screaming at every jump and whack that "never in her life had she taught a she bear."

A few weeks ago a regular old time hobo printer came into this office and asked for a few old newspapers among the exchanges. When asked if he wanted the old papers in order to read the society notes or in order to locate the bath house, he said: "Naw, railroads are so dirty that we want to use 'em on the floor to keep our clothes clean, seek. Give me Republican sheets if you got any. They're softer, the arguments ain't so solid and de facts ain't de odd kind you knocks you silly, and de points don't stick out enough to hurt, see? It's just like settin' on a 'numatic bed, dere's so much wind in 'em."

THE PENSION CUPBOARD

Arthur J. Altmeyer, chairman of the Social Security Board, has reminded Texans of something which they should have been aware of all along but which they tended to overlook during the O'Daniel campaign. This is that the Federal Government will aid Texas old-age pensions only on the basis that it gives help to those of other states—a basis of investigated need.

Mr. O'Daniel has promised to eliminate "snoopers" and to give $30 a month to every Texan who has reached the age of 65 years, whether he needs help or not. But the Federal contribution of $15 a month will be given only to those of proved need. If $30 a month is paid to those not in need, the whole amount will have to come from the state treasury, with no help from Washington.

Thus far, Texas has failed from lack of funds to make full and prompt payment of $30 a month to the needy aged and has done nothing to carry out legislation intended to help blind persons and mothers with dependent children, for whom federal aid is available. These faults should be corrected as soon as possible, and Mr. O'Daniel will have widespread support in correcting them. But if he attempts to give $30 a month to every Texan past 65, irrespective of his need, he will be undertaking a problem of enormous difficulty.—Editorial, Dallas News.

ROOM FOR DOUBT

State Press in Dallas News:
"A kind friend was good enough to furnish this column with a story from Maine, wherein it is related that a citizen of Maine fought a bear and in the tussle it became advisable for the man to leap upon brain and get hold of the creature's ears. The astonished animal ran away with the rider and slid down a steep slope. Meanwhile, the rider managed to draw his hunting knife and stab the carrier. So, in due course, the man of Maine returned with the bear's hide and twelve pounds of bear meat. The winner in that case was said to be the same citizen who once fought a bull moose with a fence rail and who also followed a wildcat into a barn and killed the varmint with a pitchfork. State Press doesn't believe all he reads from Maine. The election returns there always indicate a Republican majority, and such a state deserves to be regarded with some suspicion. State Press, for one, will believe Maine veracity is reliable when that state goes Democratic for once. People who live in snow the year round are not necessarily as pure as the snow."

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

Here are a few items clipped from a paper as published one hundred years ago. The papers at that time carried no ads but used readers like these:

PLEASE PAY UP!

A Tennessee editor recently had an addition to his family and in the following issue he discoursed as follows:

"There are now three boys and three girls at the editorial orphanage—two pairs of threes. Your city editor may have a pass to a brewery, wear a plug hat and be a member of a lot of clubs, but these pleasures are mere trifles as compared with the blessing showered upon a country editor who loves the Lord and trusts his subscribers. Give us the good old country life and we will look after the blessings—so long as they come singly.

Another mouth to kiss,
Two more feet to shoe,
Another reason why you should Pay us all that's due.

Whenever you find a man finding fault with his local paper, open it up and ten to one he hasn't an advertisement in it; five to one he never gave it a job of work; three to one he does not take the paper; two to one that if he is a subscriber he is delinquent; even odds he never does anything that will assist a publisher in running a good paper, and forty to one that if the paper is a good one and full of life, he is the most eager to see the paper as soon as it is off the press.

An exchange says every man owes it to his family to take the local paper. Yes, and a lot too many of the men who take a paper owe the editor. If the shoe fits, grab it.

A western editor has invented an infernal machine which he places in an envelope and sends to those who refuse the paper after taking it for five years without paying a cent. The machine is guaranteed to explode and kill the whole family and the fragments fall back in the yard and kill the dog. Glory certainly awaits that editor when he gets into the Great Sanctum above. He will have an upholstered chair and will be allowed to sit with his feet on the table. Our order is ready for a shipment of these machines.

Man wants but little here below
The thing for you to do
Is advertise until he buys
That little bit from you.

We are letting you in on a good way to make money. Take a dollar bill and fold it several times each way. Then unfold it and you will find it increases. Keep the increase but send the bill to the editor who put you on to the scheme. Then take a silver dollar and drop it on the counter and notice the ring it makes. Send the ring to your best girl and hand the dollar to the editor for your next year's subscription—and everyone will be happy.

A man trying to run a business without advertising is like a fellow winking at a girl in the dark—he may know what he is doing but no one else does.

The man who thinks this newspaper will suspend because he quit taking it is like the man who drinks from the river and then looks along the shore to see how ranch he has lowered the water.

The Democratic party can remain in power only so long as business is good.—Roger W. Babson.

Of our present-day crime-breeding conditions, the most culpable of all is the unthinking American parent.—J. Edgar Hoover.

Premier Benito Mussolini is perhaps the most skillful bluffer in Europe today, and he has bluffed with very poor cards.—David Lloyd George.

YOUR TELEPHONE DOES ITS PART AS A CITIZEN OF TEXAS

As one of the industries of Texas, your telephone company pays its share of the cost of government. It is a heavy share, too. In 1937 its local, state, and federal taxes in Texas totaled more than four million dollars... nearly $12,000 a day.

These telephone taxes were equal to more than a third of the company's entire payroll in the state. They amount to $9.25 for every telephone in service.

Where do they go, these taxes? To build and maintain the streets and highways over which you drive. To furnish you police and fire protection. To keep up your children's schools. To help pay for all the services government gives you.

The telephone company is part of Texas... here to meet this state's need for friendly, dependable telephone service. As part of the state, it has tried to be a good citizen... always ready and willing to pay its fair share of the cost of government.

FUNERAL FOR MRS. CHAS. PUTMAN, SR., HELD AT KIKER CHAPEL SATURDAY

Funeral services were held from Kiker chapel Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock for Mrs. Chas. Putman, Sr., who died at her home Friday afternoon after a lengthy illness.

Born Emily Alice Strickland in Milan county on August 28, 1877, Mrs. Putman had lived in Colorado for nine years. She is survived by her husband and five children: Bill Putman of Wichita Falls, Ed Putman of Colorado, Chas. Putman, Jr. of Shafter, Calif.; Mrs. R. H. Green and Mrs. Bill Hammonds, both of Colorado.

Four brothers and three sisters also survive. They are R. D. Strickland and Charles Strickland of Coleman, John Strickland of Van Horn, and Frank Strickland of Oklahoma; Mrs. W. H. Williams, Mrs. Minnie Bradley, and Mrs. Lou Gorman, all of Coleman.

The Rev. C. E. Jameson, pastor First Baptist church, officiated for the funeral service. Burial was in the Colorado cemetery.

Pallbearers were Jack Helton, Dick DeLaney, R. D. Tiner, J. A. Ferguson, Charles Smith, and R. A. Williams. Kiker and Son had charge of arrangements.

WEATHERFORD—J. C. Kellam, State Youth Director, has approved an NYA Work Project to employ 29 youths in Parker county assisting the county agricultural agent in soil conservation work.

MARY E. PIDGEON HEADS COLLEGE BAND AT TWC

PORT WORTH.—Miss Mary Elizabeth Pidgeon, sophomore at Texas Wesleyan College from Colorado, was recently elected president of the college band, in which she also plays trombone.

The band has played for two chapel programs this year, and it represented Fort Worth at Clifton county fair Friday. On Saturday afternoon the Texas Wesleyan Rams will play the Howard Payne Yellow-jackets in Fort Worth, and the band will lead a parade just before the game.

Miss Pidgeon is treasurer of the Dormitory Council, a student government organization which deals with disciplinary problems in the dormitories. She is also a member of the Susan M. Key Literary Society, the Women's Athletic Association, and the Y.W.C.A. She is a piano student of Miss Katherine Klander and is a resident of Boaz-Eckrook hall on the campus.

The human side of BANKING

BECAUSE we deal in such cold and inflexible commodities as cash, facts and credit, it is perhaps logical to think of banking as being also cold and unbending.

But banking has its human side. The problems of people—real people just like you and your neighbors—enter into almost every action we take and every decision we make. In our daily work we try never to lose sight of this human side of our business.

We think you will like the aura of warmth and friendliness which you will find at this institution.

ADMINISTRATION OF WATER FACILITIES PROGRAM IN MITCHELL COUNTY DISCUSSED AT MEETING HERE SATURDAY MORNING

Plans for Mitchell county administration of the water facilities program of the United States department of agriculture through the Farm Security Administration set-up during 1939 were discussed and outlined at a meeting of FSA and soil conservation officials of the state and district here Saturday morning.

The meeting was held in the newly established Mitchell county office of the Farm Security Administration at the courthouse. Both Mitchell and Seery counties were formerly administered out of Snyder, but the two counties have now been divided.

Barney F. Wise, formerly assistant in the Snyder office, is in charge of the Colorado office. Miss Willie Locke has also been stationed here as rural home supervisor for FSA.

Wise explains that the water facilities program is to be handled through the FSA set-up, although its benefits will not be limited to FSA clients. Soil conservation officials will cooperate with the FSA set-up in the work.

Among those who attended the meeting here Saturday morning were H. N. Smith of College Station, state coordinator in soil conservation work; a Mr. Coyle from the regional soil conservation office in Fort Worth; two workers from the soil conservation office in Washington, D. C.; V. R. Smith, state FSA director from Dallas; Robert Fisher, district rural supervisor for FSA from Eastland.

These officials stated that they will have soil conservation men stationed here to work with the FSA in getting the work started in the near future.

As explained in information submitted by Wise, the water facilities program is restricted to portions of 17 western states, including Texas. Mitchell county lies within the person of Texas to which the program applies.

Only those facilities which, in actual operation, will make possible the storage or utilization of water "for stock or domestic use, or for farm gardens, crop or hay lands, range or pasture lands, or other lands used for agricultural purposes," may be provided under the program.

The intent of the water facilities program is described as the provision of a great number of small water facilities.

The benefits will be extended only to bona fide farm operators whose lands are in actual use for agricultural or grazing purposes, or whose lands may profitably place in such use as a result of the installation of the water facility. Facilities will be limited to lands in private ownership.

Actual workings of the program is described as follows in a bulletin received by Wise:

"The benefiting farmer or rancher shall be required to make the maximum contribution to the cost of the facility that his circumstances permit. The Department will determine the extent of this contribution, in terms of labor, teams, equipment, materials, and so forth. The Department will provide the funds, or labor and materials, which are necessary to complete the installation. In exchange it will take a promissory note at 3 per cent interest together with mortgage on such securities as may be available. The number of years the loan will run will depend on the expected life of the facility, but in no case exceeding 20 years. The Department will not ask reimbursement for its engineering, legal, soils, farm management and other technical services; loan processing or collection services; general supervision, guidance, etc.; that is, it will not expect reimbursement of the cost of general administration of the program.

"Since the objective of the program is to provide facilities to help needy farmers to attain security through putting land to its best possible use, it is essential that an improved farm management plan be worked out for each individual farm served by a Federally-financed water facility. Therefore, every farmer benefiting from the Water Facilities program must carry out a farm plan as a consideration of receiving the financial and other assistance offered by the program. These plans will be drawn up by local representatives of the Department and the cooperating farmer or rancher. They will provide for (1) the application of soil and moisture conservation practices, (2) improved land use, (3) a production plan that provides for payment of loans and operating and living expenses, and (4) sufficient food and feed crops to meet the needs of the family and the livestock. The farmer also must agree to maintain the facility during its useful life, and to meet the repayment schedule for the water facilities loan together with payments against other standing indebtedness, if any. Procedure for modifying the farm plan is provided should conditions change.

"The Soil Conservation Service has been designated as the agency of the government that will build, or supervise the building of, the water facilities. This representative of this agency also will help the farmer or rancher develop the farm plan, and help the operator to determine the proper soil and moisture conservation and other practices included in the farm plan. The Farm Security Administration will handle the loan aspects of the program. The Soil Conservation Service therefore is the agency which will assist the farmer to benefit from the program should contact. However, he may contact the county agricultural agent or the county rehabilitation supervisor who are usually located at the county seat. These men will know which areas are included in the program and whether help is locally available.

INCREASED CHEVROLET SALES AID EMPLOYMENT

The fact that increased sales spell an increase in gainful employment has received heavy stress this past year. Chevrolet is going a step further and demonstrating that even the preparations for selling, if conducted on Chevrolet's scale, can put thousands of people to work, create vast demand for commodities, and spread economic benefits of the most tangible kind. For between Oct. 6 and Oct. 14, is holding a Dealer Preview "convention" of 80,000 persons, climaxed with a banquet at which that number will be served.

The meetings will be nationwide in scope. They will be held in 42 principal cities. Chevrolet dealers, their retail salesmen and other members of their organization will attend. Since the average number at each meeting will be nearly 2,000 this will necessitate engagement of the largest banquet place at each point. The event will rate, in many cities, as the largest undertaking of its sort on the local records, just as the overall project probably exceeds in size anything in the annals of business.

The purpose of the convention is to present to the retail organization Chevrolet's new passenger cars for 1939, which are scheduled for public announcement Oct. 22. Central office executives, aided by field wholesale personnel, will make the presentation, and lay before dealers the company's plans for advertising and selling the product during the months to come.

At the request of W. E. Holler, Chevrolet general sales manager, who worked out the elaborate details of the convention program, Adolph Demmer, catering manager of the Hotel Statler in Detroit, figured out the quantities of various food items which the coast-to-coast banquet will require. A dinner consisting of soup, celery and olives, beef tenderloin and mashed potatoes, green peas or string beans, lettuce-and-tomato salad, coffee, rolls and ice cream, worked out something like this:

Soup, 5,500 gallons; celery, 35,500 bunches; olives, 1,500 gallons. Steers, about 4,000, to supply 192,000 pounds of loin beef. Potatoes, 16,000 bushels, or about 42 tons. Rolls, 240,000, and butter, nearly five tons. Peas (shelled) 10 tons, or about the same weight of string beans. Tomatoes, 200 bushels, and lettuce, 240,000 heads, some 2,400 gallons of dressing being needed as accompaniment. Coffee, 5,500 gallons, requiring four tons of ground coffee. Ice cream, 3,200 gallons, or a little more than 12 tons. Allowing one waiter to 10 persons, it will take some 8,000 waiters and waitresses to serve the mammoth banquet.

Chevrolet believes that the effort and expense of arranging the huge convention will be more than offset by its benefits in the shape of work-producing sales. The pre-views are expected to generate such a high pitch of enthusiasm among dealers and salesmen as to assure volume sales from the moment they make their public bow.

Instant, Economical GAS HOT WATER SERVICE

With today's family needing to work out some sort of time schedule for its daily activities it's little wonder there is a growing demand for greater efficiency in the home. Important to the home's efficiency is its hot water supply. If it is instant, automatic and dependable there will be no delays due to the lack of hot water. And that means one of the new gas automatics like this one pictured.

A STAND-OUT For style and convenience!

This table top automatic water heater is one of the newest models. Being table-high it is as practical as it is smart and efficient. Its porcelain top serves as extra work space in your kitchen. Its design harmonizes with modern kitchen cabinets. It is one of many improved models now available on special low monthly terms with trade-in allowance for your present heater.

PICKED UP ALONG THE NEWS PATH

If a movie has the power to "make strong men weep" and admit it, then it has to be something of a movie, you will admit. . . . This is by way of leading up to a few words on "Boys Town," which was presented in a special screening at the Palace theater Friday afternoon. . . . It will return for a regular run at the theater some time soon, according to A. E. McClain, R.A.R.'s popular manager here. . . . One man said after witnessing the show, "I cried, and I don't care who knows it. In fact, I'm still sniffing."

It's a show without any romantic interest whatsoever, and one can't understand just what it does have to arouse such enthusiasm until after one has seen it. . . . As you probably know, "Boys Town" is the story of a real man, Father Flanagan, and the real Boys Town which he founded near Omaha, Nebraska. . . . Spencer

Tracy plays the role of Father Flanagan, and Mickey Rooney is in the featured boy role—the role of the boy who almost broke the conviction on which Father Flanagan built his life's work—namely, that "There is no bad boy."

The real Father Flanagan is personally known to a couple of former Coloradans who are now visiting here, Ross and Evelyn Daniels of Omaha, Nebraska. . . . Ross Daniels says that he is everything the picture makes him—gentle, beloved, nice-looking, steadfast, patient and modest. . . . "Boys Town" played in Omaha three weeks to standing room only. Ross reports, and long lines stood three deep for hours in front of the theater before every showing. . . . The scenes for the film were shot at the real Boys Town near Omaha, and the city got pretty well acquainted with Spencer Tracy, Mickey Rooney, and other members of the cast while the movie was being made. . . . Ross and Evelyn met Tracy and Ross considers him a "grand fellow."

The whole group of stars, with Maureen O'Sullivan as a special guest, came back to Omaha for the picture's preve. . . . It was a gala night for Omaha, and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Daniels had a ring-side seat. . . . Ross reports Maureen much lovelier in person than she is in pictures. . . . The real Father Flanagan had been to Hollywood in connection with the final arrangements on the picture, and he returned to Omaha with the group of stars and officials. . . . An indication of the kind of man he is may be found in the fact that when all the greetings and the cheering and the spotlighting were over, the real Father Flanagan was discovered where he had placed himself, far in the shadowed background, looking on at the glorification of his "other self."

A woman who hadn't seen Colorado since 1884 was a guest here recently. . . . She was Mrs. J. B. Leggett, who was married in the home of the father of Mrs. Anna Simon and Gardner Harness in 1884. . . . With Mrs. Leggett were her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Hall, and her husband, the Rev. Mr. Hall of Sterling City. . . . She visited with Mrs. W. J. Miller and Mrs. Simon while here.

The acting ability of Elizabeth Arnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Arnett of Lamesa and grand-daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Arnett of Colorado, seems to be carrying her on and up in the Little Theater world, judging from this item which Mrs. W. R. Martin kindly clipped for us from a recent Dallas News: "Word has been received from Mrs. Kathryn Kennedy, director of the Albuquerque Little Theater of Albuquerque, N. M., that Elizabeth Arnett will play the lead in the group's production of G. Bernard Shaw's 'St. Joan.' The production will open on Oct. 27. Miss Arnett, former student at the Dallas Little Theater School of the Theater, played the lead in the Dallas Little Theater's production of Stage Door here last spring. The production was repeated in Albuquerque last summer when the Dallas group had a summer theater there. Mrs. Kennedy saw the Lamesa (Texas) girl's performance in the Kaufman-Perrier play and offered her the role of St. Joan if it could be arranged with the board of directors of the Albuquerque theater."

Summer has definitely "went"—there's Johnny Prude taking down the "It's Cool Inside" sign from outside the Palace. . . .

One of the stories we hope to get around to writing one of these days will be on W. H. Ezell of Route One— with, of course, Mr. Ezell's permission. . . . Benton Templeton, who can spot newstories better than a lot of newspaper people we know, including ourselves, tipped us off recently to the fact that Mr. Ezell lives in a home which he built himself with lumber which he saved from trees off his own land in Wood county. . . . Recently the Ezell barn burned, and it was replaced with Ezell lumber saved with Ezell hands off of Ezell land in Wood county. . . .

Although we have long admired, in our untrained way, the poetry of Princess Martin, we never knew how clever she really is until we attended the Hesperian banquet the other evening. . . . Princess, a guest at the banquet, drew "Gravy" as her subject for a "grab bag oration." . . . In a matter-of-fact manner that exactly fitted what she had to say, Princess held forth on gravies. . . . We fail to recall all the kinds of gravy she named, but we do remember that she mentioned the aristocratic gravy which stays in its place atop the potatoes, the meat, or the bread (depending on where you put it and how closely you follow Emily Post) and the democratic gravy which runs around and mixes with the peas, the potatoes, the meat, and whatever else you happen to have on your plate. . . . Her "oration" practically brought down the house. . . .

The dinner dishes just waited at Mrs. S. H. Millwee's boarding house during the World Series. . . . Every day when she had fed her boarders, she stacked the dishes, made herself comfortable, and followed, via radio, every play in the series. . . . What a combination she is—lover and quoter of Shakespeare, dictionary and encyclopedia for scores who'd rather take her word than Webster's any day, lady of poise and wit, one of the town's best cooks, and, added to all these, a World Series fan. . . .

COURTNEY 13, WESTBROOK 12
The W. H. "piskin tusslers" lost to the six-man football team by the margin of one single point in the game at Courtney Friday evening. This is their fourth game to enter and their first to come out of without the leading score. The game opened with Courtney receiving the ball. Westbrook's touchdowns were made by right guard, Ray Moody, and left quarterback, Junior Oglesby. At half the score was 13-6, Courtney's favor. In the first half Courtney scored an additional point, thereby outscoring W. H. S. boys one point. The boys played a good game and intend to win the game next Friday with Sterling City at Sterling City.

LABORATORY CONVERTED INTO CLASSROOMS

Additional classroom space has been found by transferring the Lab. to an upstairs room. This means a climb for Physics students (the first step upward this year).

The Vocational Ag. boys already occupy a room upstairs built in the old auditorium and the construction of the new one for the laboratory is just completed.

NEW SUITS FOR BASKETBALL GIRLS

New athletic suits are to be presented to all of the girls that play basketball. The suits are to be partially paid for by the girls themselves but they had rather have some new satin (they will shine, mind you) suits and pay for them than to wear the old ones. The lassies interested in basketball this year are working hard. We have about sixteen that practice regularly and take the "ever-dreaded" daily exercises. We are planning to add some trophies to our already large collection.

Our History class is exploring the Great Pyramid of Egypt and we surely are making some interesting discoveries. Kenneth says, "He is more interested in V. A. than the other courses of study." Perhaps it is the promised trip to the Fat Stock Show that caused this change of opinion.

Joyce is a sure enough football fan. (Is it probable, she is interested in one of the players?)

I ask Mr. Hood what the Seniors did last week and he said just as little as they could get by on. What is the matter with Mr. Hood lately? Does he think the Seniors should do more? All right by us Mr. Hood if you can talk Mr. Lauderdale into letting us have more entertainments.

The faculty is planning on having a play soon. They read it over last night and Mr. Hood says it's a scream.

We are planning on the Senior carnival in a big way. We average about five class meet-ings a week!

Mr. Lauderdale is gone again! Most of the Seniors aren't any too sorry. Need we say, I wonder why?

FOOTBALL

The Westbrook 6-man football team ventured into enemy territory Friday afternoon to play its fourth game of the season. Their opponent was Courtney whom they had already defeated once this year. Courtney, however, was a little better prepared than they were at the first of the season and they won the game 13-12.

The starting line-up was about the same as Westbrook has been using except for one change in the backfield. John Hines who has been playing on the second string was put in to take Howard Redwine's place. Those starting were A. G. Board, center, Ray Moody, right end, Sidney Jones, left end, Junior Oglesby, quarterback, Byrl Claxton, half-back, and John Hines, fullback.

The score at the end of the first quarter was 6-0 in favor of Westbrook. Oglesby was credited with the score.

The Courtney boys came out strong in the second quarter to make two touchdowns and one extra point. The scores were made on a trick spinner play and a long forward pass making the score at the end of the half 13-6 in favor of Courtney.

Coach Crouch gave the boys a good pep talk during the half and they came out the last half ready to go. They were able to hold the Courtney boys scoreless during the last half and also to make a touchdown for themselves. This score was given to Ray Moody, right end, on a long forward pass. No scores were made during the last quarter.

Those substituting were Howard Redwine and Boyd Rae Anderson.

LIBRARY NEWS

Among those who play an important part in our school work are Mrs. Rosa Ruddick, librarian, assisted by Mrs. Lula Davenport.

Mrs. Ruddick reported that 624 books and magazines were issued during the week ending Oct. 7. The most popular book is "Green Light," by Douglas, which is one of the fifty new books added to the local high school library this year.

There are 1,000 books and numerous magazines in the high school library. Each room in the grammar school has its own individual library. The jobs of these librarians are numerous, in addition to the checking of the books they have numerous old books to renovate, even to the typing of missing pages.

One of the district supervisors of this branch of WPA work visited here this week. She commended the work of these women highly and gave them some helpful suggestions pertaining to this work.

THE YARD THAT SERVICE IS BUILDING

GETTING BETTER ALL THE TIME

The lanky Longhorn is almost as extinct as the dodo on Texas ranges. Where once he reigned supreme, you'll find, now, a splendid type of beef animal.

The change didn't take place overnight; the rancher didn't announce a "new" steer every year or so. His process of improvement has been continuous, and it's still going on.

The same policy has guided the Humble Company in manufacturing motor fuels and motor oils for the Texas motorist. When it has an entirely new product, Humble announces it as such; otherwise, the search and research for improved quality never ceases—it is continuous from day to day.

This policy has resulted in a steady flow of improved Humble products, definitely second to none in quality, to Texas motorists; and it has made it unnecessary for the Humble Company to use exaggerated claims in its advertising.

We say, try Humble products; performance will convince you. The Texas motorist has said, "You're right!"
