TIME WILL ROLL BACK 20 YEARS AS WAR VETERANS ANSWER REVEILLE FRIDAY AT 7 A. M.; BREAKFAST, BEAN FEED PLANNED

Time will roll back some 20 years when scores of Mitchell county World war veterans respond to the reveille which will open Colorado's observance of Armistice at 7 o'clock Friday morning.

Sponsored by the Oran C. Hooker post of the American Legion, Colorado's Armistice observance this year will be on a larger scale than in the past several years.

Howard Rogers, post commander, says that all ex-service men are invited to answer reveille and attend both the breakfast and the bean feed to be held by Legion men during the day. Gathering at the Legion hut at 7 o'clock, the group will march to the Colorado hotel for breakfast. The bean feed will be held Friday night at 7:30 in the Legion hut with members of the American Legion auxiliary assisting.

All veterans and their families are invited to attend the bean feed. There will be no charge for either the breakfast or the bean feed. Post Commander Rogers emphasizes the fact that all ex-service men are included, whether Legion members or not. The general public may attend the reveille.

"This is the first time Armistice has been a national holiday," officers of the local Legion post said this week. "In keeping with this new recognition of the day, we want to make our Armistice program one to be remembered by all ex-service men and the citizenship of Mitchell county in general."

CC TO HAVE SEVEN NEW DIRECTORS AS BANQUET IS HELD

SEVEN NEW DIRECTORS WILL BE INSTALLED BY THE COLORADO CHAMBER OF COMMERCE WHEN ITS ANNUAL BANQUET IS HELD AT THE COLORADO HOTEL ON THE EVENING OF DEC. 12 WITH GERALD C. MANN, ATTORNEY GENERAL-ELECT, AS PRINCIPAL SPEAKER.

Twenty-one nominations for these seven posts were submitted this week by the nominating committee, which is composed of the retiring directors: Dr. W. S. Rhode, W. W. Whipkey, J. W. Randle, Joe Smoot, Max Berman, Benton Templeton, and Harry Ratliff.

Those nominated were: W. L. Doss, Jr., L. B. Elliott, Fred Guitler, M. E. Gurney, O. F. Jones, Frank Kelly, J. Ralph Lee, Dr. H. A. Lonsdon, Oscar Majors, Dr. W. B. May, A. L. McSpadden, Jake Merritt, J. B. Mills, Bill Oswald, Jerold Riordan, C. C. Thompson, R. J. Wallace, Dr. J. D. Williams, Bill Brookover, Oscar Price, and H. L. Lockhart.

Ballots bearing these names will be mailed out to all chamber members early next week, according to H. B. Spence, manager, and these ballots are to be returned to the chamber of commerce office not later than 5 o'clock on Nov. 30.

EARLIEST SNOW FALLS HERE AS FIRST HARD FREEZE HITS SECTION

What was probably the earliest snowfall in Colorado's history fell in this vicinity early Sunday night as an accompaniment to the county's first hard freeze.

Skies cleared after the snow fell, and by Monday morning the county also had its first heavy frost of the season.

Temperatures dropped to 27 and 28 degrees early Monday. The miniature blizzard rode in on a norther which struck before dawn Sunday after days of balmy weather.

Nosediving temperatures were experienced again Monday night. Skies were clear all week and the cold wave was steadily dissolved.

A. E. MADDINS QUIETLY PASS 61ST ANNIVERSARY

The sixty-first wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Maddin, well-known Coloradans, passed Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Maddin, who have lived in Mitchell county for 26 years, were married in Hunt county on Nov. 8, 1877.

POTENTIAL OF 89 BARRELS GAUGED BY SCURRY TEST

NEW POOL BELIEVED TO BE INDICATED; THREE OFFSETS ARE UNDERWAY

Potential of 89 barrels was established for Coffield & Guthrie's discovery well four miles west of Ira in Scurry county during a 24-hour gauge last week.

Developments at this well have been watched with considerable interest by Colorado oil men. A number of Coloradans hold surrounding leases, and most of the operators make headquarters in Colorado.

A series of difficulties delayed the gauging of the well for several weeks. Two small shots of nitroglycerin were necessary to break a boulder dislodged by the first shot. A bit was sheared off about 10 feet from the bottom of the well and could never be removed.

The well, known as Coffield & Guthrie's No. 1 Spears & Brownfield, is believed to indicate a new pool. It is located 330 feet from the north and west lines of the SW quarter of section 130-98, H&TC.

Three offsets have already been spudded in. These are W. L. Callahan's No. 1 First National Bank of Snyder, 2340 feet from the north line and 330 feet from the east line of section 129-97, H&TC; Coffield & Guthrie's No. 1 First National Bank of Snyder, 2340 feet from the north line and 330 feet from the west line of section 130-97, H&TC; Obie Bristow et al No. 1 First National Bank of Snyder, 2340 feet from the south line and 330 feet from the east line of section 129-97, H&TC.

LEAVING COLORADO

Jack Mayes, manager of the Colorado Drug store here for the past four years, will leave in the near future to fill a new position in Austin with the Abbott Laboratories of Chicago, Ill.

AMATEUR PROGRAM TO BE STAGED ON MONDAY NIGHT AT HIGH SCHOOL

Amateur talent of Colorado schools will be presented in a program at the Colorado High school auditorium Monday night at 7:30, and the best numbers will be listed on a program to be taken to Abilene in the near future.

Both programs, the one here and the one in Abilene, will be sponsored by the WPA recreational program, which is directed here by Truett Fulcher.

An admission charge of 10 cents will be made to the program here. Fulcher said Wednesday that a full rehearsal of the program will be held Friday morning at 9:30.

CONTRACT FOR NEW SCHOOL BUILDING TO BE LET THURSDAY

BIDS WILL BE OPENED AT HIGH SCHOOL GYM AT 2 O'CLOCK THURSDAY, NOV. 17

Arrangements are in readiness for letting the contract on Colorado's new $133,450 junior high school building on Thursday afternoon, Nov. 17, at 2 o'clock.

Final approval of plans drawn up by the Elmer G. Withers architectural firm of Fort Worth has been given by the PWA. The school is being constructed under a project which also calls for the modernization of two other Colorado ward school buildings within the near future. A PWA grant of $74,250 has been supplemented with $90,000 worth of school bonds issued by the Colorado school board. The bond issue was voted in September by a margin of more than four to one.

The new building is to be located on a block and a half of land recently purchased by the school board from the J. H. Guitler, Sr., estate. The site lies across 12th street directly south of the Guitler home Highacre, being bounded on the north by 12th street and on the west by Hickory street.

Modernistic in design and structure, the building is to be built of all-white monolithic concrete. There will be two stories accommodating 12 classrooms, a modern home economics department, administrative offices, a gymnasium, and an auditorium with a seating capacity of 800. The building will face west, with the gymnasium attached to the northern portion of the main building's east side and with the auditorium running east and west on the south side of the classroom section.

A circular drive will be curved in from Hickory street at the front of the building.

Construction is expected to be underway before Dec. 1 and is to be completed in 210 working days.

W. H. SHELLEY NEW SUPERINTENDENT OF SHELL OFFICE HERE

ILLINOIS MAN SUCCEEDS D. H. LEWIS, WHO IS NOW IN ST. LOUIS

Succeeding D. H. Lewis, who has been transferred to St. Louis, W. H. Shelley of Decatur, Ill., has begun work as superintendent of the Shell Pipeline company's divisional office in Colorado.

Shelley has been working for the Shell Pipeline company 22 years. His wife and 4-year-old son, Jim, are coming from Decatur within the next two weeks to join him. They will occupy the Shell house vacated by the D. H. Lewis family after Mrs. Lewis has completed her move to St. Louis, where Lewis has been for several months. Shelley is staying at present in the Colorado hotel.

The division for which the Colorado office is the headquarters covers most of West Texas and extends into eastern New Mexico as far as Hobbs.

CC DIRECTORS TALK PLANS FOR ANNUAL BANQUET DEC. 12TH

Discussion of plans for the annual chamber of commerce banquet on December 12 took up much of the time when the directors of the chamber of commerce met in regular session Tuesday evening.

Gerald C. Mann, attorney general-elect, will be the principal speaker. Truett Barber, Harry Ratliff, and Benton Templeton are on the program committee.

Walter Whipkey and Dr. R. D. Bridgford have been named by the chamber president, Dr. W. S. Rhode, to be in charge of tickets and other arrangements.

ARVAL COLSON SELLS REGISTERED BULLS

Several registered Hereford bulls were sold recently by Arval Colson to a Florida buyer for cross breeding with Brahma cattle. Colson helped fill out a car of bulls which were being shipped to Florida.

'RED CROSS TIME' IN MITCHELL COUNTY AS ANOTHER ROLL CALL GETS UNDERWAY

It's "Red Cross time" in Mitchell county once more, with the annual Red Cross membership roll call underway since 10 o'clock Thursday morning.

If you have not already been solicited to renew your membership in the Red Cross, you will be in the next few days or sometime before Thanksgiving, according to R. H. Barber, county roll call chairman. He urges each one to be ready to respond when contacted.

The roll call is being carried on by a large corps of workers in all sections of the county, Barber says. Their aim is to ask every citizen to do his part by the Red Cross for the coming year.

"There's no need to remind Mitchell countians of the debt we owe the Red Cross right here," Barber says. "We've always gone away over the top in our membership drives of past years. I'm hoping that we can do the same this year, and I believe we shall."

WATER FACILITIES MEETINGS TO END MONDAY EVENING

INSPECTION OF FARMS IS SLATED TO BEGIN NEXT WEEK

Final meeting in a series which has been held in Mitchell county during the past two weeks to explain the government's newly-launched water facilities program to farmers living in affected areas will be held in Lovaine Monday night at 7:45.

Cold weather cancelled the meeting which was scheduled to be held at Longfellow on Monday night. Longfellow farmers met with Valley View farmers at the Valley View school Wednesday night.

Explanatory talks were made at the Wednesday night meeting by B. J. Baskin, Mitchell county agent; D. C. Lerner, manager of the soil conservation office here; Barney Wise, who has charge of the Colorado Farm Security Administration office; County Agent Ballard of Scurry county; and Floyd Holder, FSA supervisor at Snyder.

Lerner says that any interested and eligible farmer who has missed the meeting in his community is invited to attend the meeting in Lovaine on Monday night.

Inspections in connection with the program will probably be started the latter part of next week on those farms where applications have been made for water facilities work. Lerner says. The water facilities program, which aims to develop all water resources, both surface and underground, will be carried out by the soil conservation service in conjunction with the Farm Security Administration. Land located on the watersheds of Lone Wolf, North Champion, and South Champion creeks is eligible for water facilities development.

YEARS BRING CHANGES IN PERSONNEL OF HARLEY SADLER'S SHOW, BUT HE STILL KEEPS TRACK OF YESTERDAY'S TROUPERS

Passing years bring inevitable changes in the personnel of Harley Sadler's show, which is playing a two-night stand here this week, but Sadler has kept track of most of the troupers whose names were so familiar to Harley Sadler audiences fifteen, ten, or five years ago.

With few exceptions, the names this year are new. That is, to audiences of recent years.

Lew Childre, billed as the "Boy From Alabama," was with Sadler 10 years ago, then graduated into big time radio, which has claimed him most of the intervening years. Childre has a contract to go back on the radio in the near future.

Another member of the present troupe who is back with Sadler after an absence of several years is Wiley Walker, hill billy entertainer. Walker was with the show during the 1930 season.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Silver—they're both of Sweetwater now, but Silver was Stamford-reared—have been with Sadler before.

New to the show, however, are the Layne sisters, Mary and Jeanie, who do acrobatic dancing and singing. They're Williamson county girls.

The juvenile man, Jackie Phillips of Illinois, was with the show last year, as were Don and Myrtle Null. The ventriloquist, 19-year-old Ray Conlin, Jr., is fresh from Hollywood.

From the show as it was 15 years ago Sadler has only Bud Nairn, the character actor, left. Next in line in point of years with the show is Ed Thordo, the doorman, who's been in Sadler service for 10 years.

COLORADO-HAMLIN GAME TO HEADLINE ARMISTICE DAY HERE

KICK-OFF WILL BE AT 2:30 FRIDAY AFTERNOON ON CANTRILL FIELD; GLOVER CAPTAIN

Headlining Armistice day attractions in Colorado and vicinity will be the Friday afternoon game between the Colorado Wolves and the Hamlin Pled Pipers on Cantrill field.

The game, which will be non-conference, will start at 2:30.

Ross Glover, substituting at half for his brother, Rudel, will captain the Wolves for this game, according to Coach Jack Christian. Rudel Glover has checked out for the season, Christian said this week. Glover was kept out of several early games because of a shoulder injury which he received in the Wolves' first game with Monahans. That injury has healed, but recently Glover has been suffering from a bruised leg. He will not play again this season, and he will be ineligible for conference play next year.

There is a possibility that the Wolves will be minus another valuable man if Tommy Chadwick, quarterback, fails to recover from the cold which was keeping him out of school during the early part of the week.

Starting line-up for Colorado is scheduled to be as follows if Chadwick plays: Ballard and Cox, ends; Hodges and Hunter, tackles; D. Jones and Blasingame, guards; C. Wood, center; Chadwick, quarter; Ross Glover and Chesney, halves; Smith, full. Hamlin's starting lineup is listed as follows: Kelly and Sowell, ends; Redus and Morrison, tackles; Barrow and Steed, guards; Elkins, center; Ivy and Dean, halves; Nicholson, quarter; Carlton, full.

BAPTISTS HAVE PLANS READY FOR REVIVAL OPENING

FIRST SERVICE IN 2-WEEKS SERIES SUNDAY MORNING; REV. C. Y. DOSSEY WILL PREACH

Members of First Baptist church have their plans in readiness for the opening of the church's fall meeting Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Preaching will be done by the Rev. C. Y. Dossey of Dallas, state evangelist. The meeting will last two weeks, with services at 10 o'clock each week-day morning except Saturday and each evening at 7:30.

Rev. Mr. Dossey is considered by many to be one of the best evangelists in Texas, according to reports received in Colorado.

"Bro. Dossey has the name of being a sane and constructive evangelist," according to Rev. T. A. Patterson, pastor of the local church. "He seeks to guard against the reception of church members whose hearts and lives have not been changed by an experience of grace. Baptists believe that the introduction of unregenerated people into the church is not only contrary to the scriptures but a sure way to kill the spirituality of a church. One way in which Bro. Dossey seeks to prevent such an event is by the preaching of the truth of the scriptures."

There have been over 200 additions to the local church in the last 15 months. Sunday school workers, led by Truett Barber, superintendent, have set a goal of 500 in Sunday school on the first Sunday of the meeting.

METHODISTS LAY PLANS FOR ANNUAL CONFERENCE MEET

BOARD VOTES TO ASK FOR RETURN OF THE REV. C. E. JAMESON

Members of First Methodist church have been laying plans for the annual meeting of the Northwest Texas Conference in Memphis, Texas, all next week.

The board of stewards voted this week to ask for the return of the Rev. C. E. Jameson for his third year as pastor of the local church.

J. Ralph Lee and Mrs. J. G. Merritt will be official delegates from the local church to the conference. Lee is also a delegate from the Sweetwater district. Mrs. J. W. Shepperd, who died recently, was to have been a third delegate. Mrs. W. W. Rhoads, president of the women's missionary society, is an alternate. Mrs. John E. Watson is making plans to attend.

The Rev. and Mrs. Jameson and others will leave here Monday.

Visits Mrs. Bowen

Mrs. J. L. Bowen had as her guest for a few hours Wednesday her cousin, J. R. Ross of Dallas, who has been with the Hearst magazines for 10 years. He was passing through on business.

ences of 10 years ago remember as Ethel Snow is now Mrs. Charley Myers, and she and her husband live in Riverside, California.

Heffner, long-time Sadler leading man, has been managing a hotel at Sweetwater for several years. Bart Couch, the be-speckled little guitar-picking singer of other years, is working in the Texas Highway Patrol office at Austin.

BOYS WHO DIDN'T 'COME BACK' HONORED IN MEMORY ON THE TWENTIETH ARMISTICE

Twenty years ago when the joyful news of the Armistice rang around the world, Colorado and Mitchell county joined the world in hysterical joy and began thinking of the day when the "boys" would "come marching home."

But there were eleven boys who didn't "come back." Their names are inscribed in a place of honor at the local American Legion hut, and their memory is kept constantly alive by their one-time "buddies" who belong to the Legion post. The post is named for one of those boys, Oran C. Hooker.

These names appear on the "honor roll" of the Oran C. Hooker post:

- Oran C. Hooker
- Junius Merritt
- J. S. Peters
- Bill M. Williams
- Andy Wright
- Sed Wimberley
- R. S. Garland
- Conner Posey
- Arnett Danbels
- John H. Brown

Pauline Jones Is Attendant In Lubbock Wedding

Wearing a slipper satin empire gown of madonna pink, Pauline Jones of Colorado was one of the attendants at the marriage of Mary Ross Edwards of Lubbock to Porter Parris, also of Lubbock, on Saturday at high noon in the First Christian church at Lubbock.

The bride, daughter of former mayor Ross Edwards of Lubbock, had been honored at a long series of prenuptial affairs before the ceremony. Miss Jones attended a number of these affairs. Both the bride and groom are former students at Texas Tech, where Miss Jones received her degree last year.

Miss Jones and the other attendants wore long white gloves and tiny veiled hats made with braids of satin matching their dresses. They carried bouquets of blue sweetheart roses. Attendants besides Miss Jones were Mrs. George Dale, who wore hyacinth blue, and Miss Margery Clevenger of Hobbs, N. M., who wore Bordeaux red.

On Friday evening before the wedding Miss Jones and Miss Clevenger entertained with a dinner in the Hilton hotel Chimes room preceding rehearsal for the wedding. Covers were laid for members of the bridal families at a table which was decorated with white chrysanthemums and lighted with white tapers in crystal candelabra. Gifts wrapped in white were beside the plates of the bridal party members and the bride wore a corsage of white roses.

Attending were Messrs. and Mesdames Ross Edwards, Collier Parris, Weston Parris, Hugh Dunlap, S. R. O'Neal, Aubrey Edwards, George Dale, and Messrs. Jack Drown, Preston Crawford, George Zarafonitis and Vernon Herndon.

Autumn Bridge And 42 Tournament At Country Club Ends

The autumn bridge and 42 tournament at the Colorado club closed Monday night after four evenings of games extending over as many weeks.

R. J. Wallace made high score for men in bridge, receiving a set of ash trays, and Mrs. Walter W. Whipkey made high for women. Her prize was a wooden tray.

Women's high in 42 was made by Mrs. H. E. Grantland, men's high by Ed Moeser. Mrs. Grantland received a wooden tray and Moeser a set of book ends.

Five tables of players finished the tournament, which was arranged by the club entertainment committee composed of Mrs. Chas. Moeser, Jack Helton, J. W. Randle, Mrs. Truett Barber, and Mrs. W. L. Doss, Jr.

Methodist Women Have Prayer Week

With special emphasis on missions in China and New Orleans, women of First Methodist church have been observing a week of prayer in programs this week.

Mrs. J. T. Pritchett led the Monday afternoon program on rehabilitation in war-torn China. Her subject was developed by Mrs. W. L. Doss, Jr., Mrs. Lee Phenix, Mrs. J. M. Doss, and Mrs. N. H. White. Mrs. Johnny Recker had the topic, "Our Stake in China."

The Tuesday afternoon topic was the McDonnell-French mission in Houma, La. Mrs. J. G. Merritt led and Mrs. W. H. Garrett brought the devotional. Topics were given by Mrs. Tom Glover, Mrs. F. C. Shillingburg, and Mrs. L. B. Elliott.

The programs closed with a worship service Wednesday evening. Offerings were taken for work in China and in the Louisiana mission.

Whipkeys Entertain Supper Club Members

Seating their guests at a table centered with chrysanthemums and white daisies at the Colorado hotel at the dinner hour, Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Whipkey entertained the Supper club Friday night.

Places were marked for Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Baskin, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Latham, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Price, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Randle, Mrs. C. A. Wilkins, Mrs. Bert Robinson, and the Whipkeys.

JOHNSON HOSPITAL OPEN TO VISITORS SUNDAY

Open house held at the Dr. Bruce Johnson hospital Sunday was well attended considering weather inclemency of the day.

Guests arriving from 2 to 5 o'clock during the afternoon numbered 173. Registration was presided over by Mesdames Jack and Virgil Walker. Received by Dr. and Mrs. Johnson, guests were shown through the ten rooms of the building. Vases of cut flowers were attractively arranged. Miss Evia Bryan served punch.

Mrs. Foster was awarded first prize money in guessing exact number of guests present. Mrs. John Griffin and Mrs. Dewey Compton whose guesses tied were awarded the second prize which was divided.

At the close of the evening Dr. and Mrs. Johnson discovered they had received many useful gifts to be used in the hospital which Loraine people and community at large are very proud to have erected "at home."

GLEANERS S. S. CLASS MEETS

The Gleaners class of the Methodist church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Hutchins. After the class song, Mrs. B. P. McGowan led in prayer. The devotional was given by Mrs. Tom Bennett using an Armistice theme and quoting from the scripture "Thou Shalt Not Kill." In conclusion she read two poems, one written during the World War by her brother Charlie Thompson and the other "My Task."

Mrs. T. C. Wilson read some Thanksgiving thoughts and concluded with a prayer of Thanksgiving.

The social service committee reported 19 trays, 23 bouquets and 25 visits.

After the regular business was disposed of, plans were made for the Christmas meeting which will be held in the home of Mrs. John Mahon.

During the social hour the hostess assisted by Miss Doris Glass served delicious refreshments of chicken salad, wafers, potato chips, olives and cake with hot chocolate to 13 members and two visitors.

WILLING WORKERS MEET

The Willing Workers Sunday school class met Wednesday, Nov. 2nd, in the home of Mrs. Harold Martin with Mrs. Bennett Blair and Mrs. Lily Bennett cohostesses.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Bruce Johnson. As guest speaker Mrs. Arlie Martin brought a helpful devotional picture "The two stairways of life."

After an interesting business session in which good deeds and kindness to the sick and needy were reported and other work planned, lively games with a suggestion of Armistice were enjoyed immensely.

Lovely refreshment plates of sandwiches, potato chips, pickles, punch and squares of white cake with tiny U. S. flags as favors were passed to twelve members.

GAME CLUB ENTERTAINED

Mrs. K. L. Taylor entertained the Loraine Game club in her home Thursday evening, 84 and various other games and contests featured diversions of the hour.

Refreshments of pumpkin pie with whipped cream and coffee were served by the hostess to the five tables of players present.

The new cars in the Ford Quality Group for 1939 give you a broad choice. Whichever you choose, whatever you pay, you'll get top value for your money. That is true of the lowest priced car or the highest. All have one important thing in common—inherent quality.

Their quality comes from fine materials, precision workmanship, and from the fact that back of these cars is the only automobile plant of its kind—where production processes are controlled from iron ore to finished car—and savings passed along as extra value.

Things are happening in the automotive world this year! Nowhere is the advance more marked than in the Ford Quality Group. See our dealers before you buy any car at any price.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS WALK OFF WITH HONORS IN VOLLEY BALL TOURNAMENT

As a feature of the WPA recreational program being directed in Colorado by Truesdell Fulcher, a volley ball tournament was held for high school and junior high school girls Saturday morning with junior high girls taking all the honors.

There were three teams of girls from each school, and the tournament was held on a best-two-out-of-three basis. Mrs. Pearl Creek coaches the high school girls, Mrs. Dora Ward the junior high school girls.

The first teams playing were the Wolves of high school and the Wildcats of junior high school. On the Wolves team were the following: Gladys Brannon, Dorothy Cooper, Louise Phillips, Joyce Compton, Marguerite Anderson, and Jeanne Dare. The Wildcat team included Bonnie Jackson, Germaine Everett, Pauline Ward, Marjorie Tidwell, Dorothy Jeanne Ware, and Marie Thomas. The Wildcats won the first two games.

The second group of games was between the Eagles of high school and the Panthers of junior high school. Girls playing for the Eagles were Billie Ward, Dorothy Nell Moser, Adeline Ellis, Aileen Forbes, Pauline Lord, Melvia Halkon, Marjorie Lowe, Edna Davidson, and Mognyneta Thompson.

Girls who played for the Panthers were Dorothy Jeanne Ware, Pauline Ward, Dimple Sue Hart, Evelyn Smith, Velma Harper, Doris Fowler, Bonnie Jackson, Germaine Everett, and Eugene Nixon. In this division the junior high girls again took the first two games.

The third group was between an all-star group from high school and an all-star group from junior high school. On the high school team were Jeanne Dare, Joyce Compton, Marguerite Anderson, Mackie Lovington, Edna Davidson, Mognyneta Thompson, Ethel Bodzin, Adeline Ellis, Aileen Forbes.

Players for junior high school were Bonnie Jackson, Ruth Jackson, Sarah Carter, Germaine Everett, Doris Fowler, Dorothy Jeanne Ware, Evelyn Smith, Mary Jane Tilley, Natalie Hanks, Marjorie Tidwell, and Dimple Sue Hart. In this group junior high school also won the first two games.

As a reward for the girls playing on the winning teams, Mrs. Ward and Theda Tye took them on a picnic at Seven Wells Saturday afternoon.

an encampment. We were all proud of it.

Those present were: Nadine Walker, Alma Ruth Collier, Latrice Bassham, Leta Yarbrough, Mavis Webb, Mary Landers, Jeanine Stubblefield, Betty Joe Lee, and Hattie Mae Wiggin.

We are all sorry that one of our members, Jean Brown, had to be operated on and could not be here.

We all enjoyed the meeting and we want Miss Crippen and Miss Lee to be with us again.

CIVIL CASES REQUIRING JURY SERVICE TAKEN UP IN DISTRICT COURT THIS WEEK

Civil cases requiring juries were taken up by Mitchell county 32nd district court as the second week of the fall term opened Monday with Judge A. S. Mauzey of Sweetwater presiding.

The first two days of the week were taken up by A. B. Allen of Odessa vs. D. Selvidge of Hobbs, N. M., suit for $50,000 damages growing out of an automobile collision on highway one near Colorado on Oct. 13, 1937.

A verdict for the defendant, Selvidge, was returned by the jury after five hours deliberation about 9 o'clock Tuesday night. Selvidge was represented by Benton Templeton of Colorado and J. Edward Johnson of Brownwood. Allen's lawyers were Thos. R. Smith of Colorado and L. H. Welch of Breckenridge.

The damage suit of R. B. Lovejoy vs. the Texas Coca-Cola Bottling company was taken up Wednesday morning and was still in progress Thursday noon. This is the second time this case has been tried, a previous decision in favor of the plaintiff, Lovejoy, having been reversed in the higher courts. Lovejoy alleges that his wife's health was permanently impaired when she allegedly drank glass particles in a bottled Coca-Cola on Oct. 6, 1934. He is suing for over $20,000.

Lovejoy's counsel is C. C. Thompson of Colorado, Beall & Neblett of Sweetwater. The bottling company is represented by Thos. R. Smith of Colorado, Ellis Douthit and Harwell of the law firm of Wagstaff, Harwell, Wagstaff & Douthit, Abilene.

Judge Mauzey granted one divorce case Monday. R. J. Christian vs. Berneice Christian. Several divorces were granted last week.

OVER 100 MASONS ATTENDED MEETING HERE WEDNESDAY

TOM BARTLEY OF WACO IS SPEAKER ON ZONE PROGRAM

Over 100 Masons representing 19 West Texas lodges gathered at Masonic hall here Wednesday evening for a zone meeting sponsored by the Grand Lodge committee on Masonic service and education.

The main speaker was Tom Bartley of Waco, grand secretary of the Royal Arch chapter of Texas.

Mitchell Lodge No. 563, with Judge A. F. King as worshipful master, was host for the meeting. R. H. DeLaney had charge of arrangements.

FATHER MRS. JAMESON DIES SUDDENLY AT HIS HOME IN PADUCAH, TEXAS

Word of the sudden death of Mrs. Jameson's father, D. A. Goodwin of Paducah, was received in Colorado early Thursday morning by the Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Jameson of First Methodist church. They left immediately for Paducah.

Mr. Goodwin, a pioneer resident of Paducah, was 85 years of age. He had been in ill health recently, but his death was unexpected. He dropped dead while talking to members of his family. He and Mrs. Goodwin observed their 57th wedding anniversary in February. There are several children in addition to Mrs. Jameson.

Rev. and Mrs. Jameson formerly lived in Lorraine, Snyder, and other West Texas points. Rev. Mr. Jameson has served in the Northwest Texas Methodist conference for over 30 years.

Funeral plans were not known in Colorado Thursday noon.

JACK MAYES WILL TAKE ABBOTT LABORATORIES JOB IN NEAR FUTURE

Within the near future, by the first of the year at the latest, Jack Mayes, manager of the Colorado Drug store for the past four years, will move to Austin to take a job as representative of Abbott Laboratories of North Chicago, Ill.

Mayes will work more than 60 towns in central Texas in his new position. He is expecting a summons at any time, but hopes to remain here until Jan. 1, he said this week. He and Mrs. Mayes and Jackie will live in Austin.

It was announced this week that the Colorado Drug will be managed by C. E. Nesbit when Mayes leaves. Nesbit has been employed in the store for the past 18 months.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL DRIVE UNDERWAY AT 10 O'CLOCK THURSDAY A. M.

Staging a concerted effort to work all of Mitchell county in one hour's time, the annual Red Cross roll call drive got underway from more than a score of focal points in the county at 10 o'clock Thursday morning.

R. H. Barber, county roll call chairman, said shortly before noon Thursday that returns were coming in so fast he couldn't quite keep tab on them, and he believed the county would go over its quota of $550 in a short time.

Colorado High school set something of a record when the entire student body subscribed to the Red Cross 100% before the drive began.

Barber has community chairmen at work in all parts of the county, and each chairman has a corps of workers. The drive will continue until Thanksgiving.

SITE OF ROBY-COLORADO GAME STILL HANGS FIRE; TO BE DECIDED FRIDAY

Site of the Roby-Colorado game on Nov. 18 was still hanging fire this week after Roby and Merkel played to a draw last Friday. The Merkel-Roby game was supposed to decide the site.

Outcome of the Roby-Roby game Armistice afternoon has now been named as the decisive factor in the game's location. If Roby wins, the game will be played in Colorado. If Roby should win, the game will be in Roby, as previously scheduled.

COTTON TOTAL CLIMBS SLOWLY PAST 20,000

Ginning total for Mitchell county climbed slowly past the 20,000-bale mark this week, reaching 20,832, an increase of only about 500 bales since last week.

Colorado gins have received 9,766 bales as follows: Producers, 3,390; Farmers No. One, 845; Concrete, 2,440; Mitchell County gin, 1,533; Browning (now closed down for season), 543; Colorado gin, 1,015.

Lorraine gins reported 5,541 as follows: Lorraine gin, 1,202; Lorraine Cooperative, 1,740; Lorraine Producers, 1,876; Guitar, 723.

Reports from other parts of the county were: Buford, 1,661; Westbrook, 3,084; Valley View, 410 (estimated); China Grove, 370 (estimated).

FUNERAL FOR HENRY VINSON ON WEDNESDAY

Funeral for Henry Roscoe Vinson, 48, tenant farmer for Hunter Looney near Lorraine during the past 15 years, was held from Jones & Russell chapel in Colorado Wednesday afternoon.

Vinson died Tuesday after an illness of pneumonia. He had no known relatives except a brother in East Texas, and the brother could not be located.

Jones & Russell had charge of arrangements.

MITCHELL COUNTY CAST 858 VOTES IN TUESDAY'S ELECTION

Balloting in Mitchell county in Tuesday's general election was about as light as was expected, only 858 votes being cast in the entire county.

All votes cast were Democratic with the exception of 14, which were Republican. No other party tickets were voted in the county.

The county voted for the amendment doing away with the dueling clause in the state office oath.

Harmony Meets With Mrs. Bruce Aycock

The Harmony club met last Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Bruce Aycock at the home of Mrs. A. H. Dolman.

Guests among the three tables of players were Mesdames Jerold Riddan, B. T. Daugherty, P. C. Coleman, Fielding Lee, and Buster Aycock.

A salad course was served. The next meeting will be with Mrs. H. H. Bennett at the home of Mrs. George Plaster.

BAPTISTS ATTENDING GENERAL CONVENTION IN DALLAS THIS WEEK

Several members of First Baptist church are in Dallas this week attending the Baptist General convention of Texas in its annual session.

Among those attending from here are the Rev. and Mrs. T. A. Patterman, Mrs. A. L. Whipkey, Miss Violet Mooser, Mrs. Ray Richardson, and Mrs. Lee Lavender.

All these went down Monday to attend pre-convention sessions of the W.M.U. and the pastors and laymen. The convention proper opened Monday and is closing Friday.

RETURN FROM DEER HUNT

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Lockhart returned last week after a 10-day deer hunt in the mountains of Arizona. Mr. Lockhart bagged a seven-point buck. They hunted most of the time from the Springville ranch of Lynn Lockhart of Phoenix, Arizona. En route home they visited the G. V. Harrisons at Portal, Arizona, and the group spent two days in El Paso.

HAROLD HESTER PLAYS IN THREE DALLAS BANDS

Of interest to Coloradans who remember the Roy Hester family will be this item which recently appeared in a paper at Sherman, where the Hesters now live:

"Playing first-baritone in three bands at Southern Methodist university is Harold Hester, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hester, 303 North Cleveland.

"Hester was awarded a fellowship in chemistry at S. M. U. last summer. He attended Austin college for two years and played in the Kangaroo band for a similar period. He is a junior at the Dallas school.

"Hester will play what is described as the first-chair baritone in all three of S. M. U.'s bands, including the 35-piece swing band, the 100-piece traveling football band and the 140-piece concert band.

"A graduate of Colorado, Texas, high school, Hester is married, and his wife, the former Miss Evelyn Welborn of Gainesville, is finishing her senior year at Austin college.

"Hester's father, Roy Hester, is conductor of the municipal, cadet, Austin college, Woodmen Circle and high school bands, and the city symphony and high school orchestras."

H-SU HAS AN INCREASED ENROLLMENT THIS YEAR

Hardin-Simmons University, at Abilene, founded in 1891, has an increased enrollment for its forty-seventh year, recently begun. The freshman class is the largest in H-SU history, said Dr. J. D. Sandifer, dean of senior college and university heads in Texas, who is beginning his thirtieth year as president at Hardin-Simmons.

The student body enrollment includes undergraduates from 105 Texas counties, thirteen states, and the foreign countries of Mexico and Brazil. Taylor county, with Abilene as county seat, leads with 266 students.

TEN FFA BOYS OF COLORADO HIGH SCHOOL ATTEMPTING TO FULFILL LONE STAR FARMER REQUIREMENTS

Ten Future Farmers of Colorado High school are trying to meet requirements for the Lone Star Farmer degree this year, according to F. C. Shillingburg, vocational agriculture director of Colorado High school and Future Farmer sponsor.

All ten boys are carrying out more than the required three projects, Shillingburg says. Requirements for the degree in addition to the projects include satisfactory completion of two years systematic instruction in vocational agriculture work, membership in the FFA, passing grade in an occupational test supplied by the state staff, earning $200 from supervised farming program, familiarity with parliamentary procedure, ability to hold group discussions, marked attainment in scholarship, ability to hold school office, and others.

Only three boys have attained the degree since vocational agriculture was added to the Colorado High school curriculum. They are R. C. Snively, Raymond Fuller, and Quinton Hamrick.

Jack Long is trying for the degree this year. He is feeding two calves, a gilt, and two pigs, and he will cultivate ten acres of cotton, ten acres of milo, and five acres of kaffir.

Lee Brown is feeding eight barrows, two lambs, and a sow. His field projects include ten acres of milo and ten of cotton.

J. N. Ellis has ten acres of milo, ten of kaffir, five of cotton, and one of watermelons. He also has a calf and two gilts on feed.

A brood mare and two pigs are being fed by J. W. Hamilton, who also has ten acres of milo, ten of cotton, and five of kaffir.

Jay Hooks is feeding a sow, three barrows and two dairy cows, and is cultivating ten acres of milo and ten of cotton.

Clay Smith's projects include thirty Hereford cows, six dry lot calves, a nursing calf, a brood sow, and a barrow.

Waddell Strain has four calves, five Hereford cows, ten acres of milo, ten of cotton, and five of cane.

Ten ewes, ten lambs, a sow, and two barrows are being fed by J. P. McCabe.

LeeRoy Thompson has two calves, a gilt, two barrows, ten acres of milo, and ten of cotton.

Raymond Uzzle has six calves, two range cows, ten acres of milo, ten of cotton, and five of cane.

TEXAS FARM BOYS AND GIRLS TO BE GIVEN JOBS THIS YEAR

AUSTIN—Texas farm boys and girls, jobless between seasons, will be given a chance this winter to put their off-season time to profitable use, J. C. Kellam, State Director of the National Youth Administration, announced today.

During the next three or four months, 2,000 young people between 18 and 25 years of age, who live in rural areas, can be assigned to NYA work projects all over the State. The NYA is cooperating in this way with the general program to improve southern rural conditions, Mr. Kellam said.

More than 11,000 young men and women already have been assigned to Texas NYA work projects this year and the 2,000 who can be added from rural sections will not replace those now at work. As in the case of the 11,000, the 2,000 will be given the opportunity to earn an average of $12 to $14 a month.

"One of the greatest problems faced by rural youth has been the intermittent opportunity for employment. There are jobs when crops are to be planted or harvested, when cotton is to be worked or picked. When these things are accomplished, there are dull seasons, with few, if any, opportunities. It is this slack the NYA is endeavoring to relieve. In short, it is attempting, so far as its funds will permit, to provide the opportunity for productive work and training over the whole twelve months of the year, by filling in the normal, seasonal gaps."

Young men will be assigned to the projects best suited to their individual needs, Mr. Kellam said. Some will be employed in soil conservation work, others will help build community centers and home economics cottages. They will help improve rural schools and playgrounds. Others will be assigned to resident projects providing agricultural training at Texas Technological college at Lubbock, Buchanan Dam on the Colorado river, A. & I. College at Kingsville, and the Luling Foundation Farm.

Young women will be assigned to such projects as assisting county home demonstration agents, working in public hospitals and cafeterias, and to part-time resident projects.

"In all cases, training will be definitely emphasized. We want to assist these boys and girls to be better and more efficient farmers and farm homemakers," Mr. Kellam added.

TO BE OLD, NOT NEW DUST STORMS SAID

WASHINGTON.—Midwest dust storms says J. B. Kincer, chief of the climate and crop weather division of the weather bureau, are not new and droughts may be expected to occur periodically in climates such as that of the United States.

"While we have encouraged dust storms in recent years by unwise agricultural practices," Kincer said, "they always have been bad in the drier sections whenever extensive drought conditions obtained."

Records show that "on April 8, 1899 at Dodge City, Kas., there was dust in the air "so dense that objects could not be distinguished 100 yards off and no one who could possibly remain indoors was on the street."

Again on August 13, 1892 "the wind raised such a cloud of dust that it was impossible to see over 150 feet ahead."

On April 6, 1893, the records showed, "the dust was blinding and was deposited so thickly on office furniture that everything looked as though it were covered by a layer of dirt prepared for a hot-bed."

Study of long weather records has not as yet disclosed a law to justify a forecast of future droughts, Kincer said, but the study "does give an historical background, which warns us that droughts in the future may be expected, just as severe as those in the past."

He added that in the 1890's the drought in the so called dust bowl virtually was as severe as that of the last few years.

"Doubtless when the present drought definitely comes to an end," he said, "there will be a period of years with comparatively heavy rainfall, just as before, and little will be heard about dust storms and the like."

Farm club boys and girls and Future Farmers will live in clover at the Golden Jubilee State Fair, Oct. 8 to 23. A special dormitory has been prepared for them. They will be conspicuous in all Fair activities during their visits. The 100-piece Future Farmer Band will appear on the opening day program, when a monument to Fair founders and the Texas press will be dedicated.

THE COLORADO THAT USED TO BE 25 Years Ago 15 Years Ago

25 YEARS AGO From The Record for Nov. 7, 1913. "You may be disappointed," warned H. C. Doss' front page ad, "if you wait until a norther hits to get your stove put up."

Mrs. Harry Ragan and Mrs. Chester Jones were back after a visit to the Dallas fair. Sheriff J. W. Terry had been in Larissa on Tuesday on official business.

19 YEARS AGO From The Record for Nov. 2, 1923. An easy victory for Al Smith in Texas in the November presidential voting was predicted by R. H. Looney, Democratic chairman of Mitchell county.

The new gas field at Mexia was reported to be booming. Men's suits as advertised in the Burns and Bell ad were short and tight as to trousers, with a length of sock showing between pants cuff and shoe. Derbies were being shown.

Out at Plainview it had been too cold to have prayer meeting on Sunday night, so everybody went to the Rev. A. D. Leach home for a singin'.

Over in Loraine there had been a Halloween party at the Dr. Martin home. Mrs. R. B. Pratt winning a needle work contest. Congressman W. R. Smith was home after a little "fence riding."

15 YEARS AGO From The Record for Nov. 2, 1923. Heavy rains were tying up the cotton harvest. Illness prevented the Rev. J. F. Lewis of First Methodist church from attending conference at Plainview.

From The Record for Nov. 10, 1933. Over 500 had attended the senior play at Colorado High school. Those taking part were Marjorie Taylor, Bud Loving, Opal Alexander, Mabel Majors, Marvin Jackson, Robert King, Polly Bellomy, Sam Wood, Memphis Porter, and Charles Garrett.

5 YEARS AGO From The Record for Nov. 3, 1933. George Slaton, Jr., was reported near death after a crash near Stephenville, where he was attending John Tarleton. Mrs. Dewitt Carey had died in a Colorado hospital from injuries received in a truck-car crash.

From The Record for Nov. 10, 1933. The approaching marriage of Juliana Smith to Charles Donaldson had been announced. In the announcement houseparty were Mary Dixon Smith, Lena Smith, Elizabeth Looney, Mary Belle Brennan, Mary Frances Majors, Ditty Hughes, Alice Spalding, and Frieda Merle Reid.

RETURN FROM GEORGIA Mrs. Hubert Smith returned recently after a three months visit in Georgia, where she used to live. She spent a week at the LaGrange college in LaGrange, Ga., where her husband, the late Rev. Mr. Smith, was once vice-president. Mrs. Smith's trip was saddened, however, because of the death of her brother in Watkinsville, Ga. She received word of his passing three days after she left Watkinsville for San Antonio enroute home.

She spent a week at the LaGrange college in LaGrange, Ga., where her husband, the late Rev. Mr. Smith, was once vice-president. Mrs. Smith's trip was saddened, however, because of the death of her brother in Watkinsville, Ga. She received word of his passing three days after she left Watkinsville for San Antonio enroute home.

WEEK-END IN DALLAS A group composed of Mrs. Lula Mae Carlton, Mrs. R. H. Looney, Mrs. John L. Doss, and Mrs. Otto Jones, all of Colorado, accompanied by Miss Caroline Chambers of Abilene, spent the week-end in Dallas and attended the SMU-A&M game on Saturday.

LUMBERMEN TO ABILENE At least two Colorado lumbermen, R. H. DeLaney of the Rockwell yard and Ray Oxford of the Burton-Lingo yard, attended the territorial gathering at the Hilton hotel in Abilene Tuesday night.

METHODIST CHURCH NEWS

I have been serving the Westbrook church just one year about so as next Sunday will be my last appointment before our Conference meets. Have had a very pleasant year here with the people of this charge. We find it here as we always do wherever we go. Since the world is made up of both bad and good people. But I try to meet all alike that I might win some to the way of life. Am glad to say that we have made many more good friends, and as far as I know have made no enemies. For I try hard to love all. Of course I do not like the things that some do. But that does not keep me from loving the individual.

Would like so much for you all to be with us on our last day here for as you all know we have no assurance of being sent back. Now of course we hope to come back and that is my plan, but who can tell what may happen as I may be put on the rambling list. Hope not though, for I do want to serve you again and that is what I mean (serve) as after all that is what it means.

So do not disappoint us this time. Come and let us wind up the year's work with a house full for both services, morning and evening.

We have a good Sunday school and it has been made so by all who have tried to build it up. Now, don't think that it is a 100% school if you have not been coming for that could not be. But if you will come and take a part and do your best we could have a much better school. So come on and do your bit towards the upbuilding of the work of the church.

Your friend and pastor,
R. B. WALDEN.

THE DORN CHURCH

Let all take notice that we will be with you again for the afternoon service on next Sunday. Let all be present who want to make that a better church center. Come and be with us and this does mean you and you and you.

Your friend and pastor,
R. B. WALDEN.

METHODIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The Methodist Missionary society celebrated their 69th birthday at the home of Mrs. Marvin Dorn with 13 present. A playlet, "We Are Sixty," was given by seven members. A duet was sung by Mrs. Van Boston and Mrs. C. V. Cox. Mrs. Skelton gave a talk on "What the Missionary Society Has Meant To Me." Mrs. Gressett gave a talk on "What the M. S. Means to Methodist Women."

Birthday offering was taken and the birthday cake was cut and served with coffee.

All day week of prayer meeting will meet with Mrs. Leroy Gressett Monday beginning at 10:30.

INTERMEDIATE BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

This is the first report of our Sunday school class. We have a class of seven girls. We urge all girls that are 13 years of age to come and join our class.

Our teacher, Mrs. Lasseter, decided to let each one teach the class each Sunday. Mary Helen Blakeney had charge the first time. We arranged it alphabetically with the first letter as follows: Mary Helen Blakeney, Maxine Ellis, Doris Goodrich, Joan Hines, Christine Kite, Mrs. Lasseter, Helen Ruddick, Bessie Mae Taylor.

Next Sunday Helen Ruddick will have charge. When the last one has had charge we will start with the first one and continue. I (Helen) have a program made out for next Sunday that I think will be suitable according to the lesson. The officers were elected as follows:

Teacher, Mrs. Lasseter; reporter, Helen Ruddick; secretary-treasurer, Bessie Mae Taylor; president, Maxine Ellis; vice-president, Joan Hines; social committee, Mary Helen Blakeney, Christine Kite, and Doris Goodrich.

HELEN RUDDICK.

BLACKWELL DEFEATS WESTBROOK

The Westbrook girls basketball team lost the second game of the season to the tune of 19 to 9. The game was played in the Westbrook gym Tuesday night, Nov. 1. The beginning lineup was Moon, Gladden and Costin as forwards; Smith, Leach, Davenport as guards. Hard-castle, Schaffner, Waggoner and White came in early in the game. Moon was high-point player with 2 field goals and 2 free shots to her credit. The score at the half was 11 to 3 in Blackwell's favor. The forwards said the Blackwell guards were the "tallest bunch" that they had ever seen. Costin acted as captain.

The girls are scheduled to play Forsan Tuesday night and Blackwell again Wednesday night.

Blackwell also defeated Forsan on the Westbrook court the same night that they won over the W. H. S. girls.

SOPH NEWS

We all had a very wonderful and "frightening" time at the Halloween party given at the McKenney home last Tuesday night for the Sophomore class. We wish to thank our sponsor Miss McKenney for the party.

Mr. Cox is managing to keep the study halls very quiet these days by giving demerits four at a time.

Mr. Hood said in literature that he believed everyone enjoyed dressing up, and that Rufus was dressing up lately for a very special reason. Ho hum.

SENIOR NEWS

The Seniors appreciated the invitation from the Junior class to go to the show last Wednesday night. Everyone reported a pleasant evening.

Whimpy has fallen in love at last! Even though Winton Lee is a Senior he had his first date last Friday night to go to the faculty play. Now Whimpy does have something to worry about. The affair between Winton Lee and the Junior girl may strengthen the bond between the Junior and Senior class.

A couple of Senior boys got shot at last week. Wonder why? You fathers will have to be careful with your buckshot, and not so easily disturbed.

MARJORIE JUNIOR NEWS

I'm afraid that the basketball girls and the football boys in our class aren't studying very hard. They seem to have their minds on the games they hope to win this week.

We are very glad to welcome the new students to the Junior class this week, Virginia Beamon from Long Prairie. Bud Moore still says that he is from Roscoe!

FIFTH GRADE NEWS

We have a poem from one of the members of our class:

The Snow
The snow fell lightly all last night,
I really liked it, for it was so white,
So then I slipped, and away I went,
And when I hit I was really bent.

SIXTH GRADE NEWS

We have a poem from a member of our class:

SEVENTH GRADE NEWS

This morning brought us a new pupil, Andrew Rivera. We are very glad to have them with us.

The Library club met last Friday and Edward Lowry was elected librarian for the coming six weeks.

We are all looking forward to Friday. Ah! Another day of freedom! My! My! Can we wait?

We were very shocked and surprised this morning when our teacher came to school with a corsage on. We wonder where it came from? Must have been left over from "one" of the bouquets she received after the play.

We know winter has really come because the snow has begun to fall. I was informed the snow did not fall so soon here. But they must have been mistaken mustn't they?

This is all for this time. Next week we'll give you the lowdown on everything.

LIBRARY NEWS
Mrs. Rosa Ruddick reports that the six sets of "The World Book" were in use last week by the Freshman English class. The issuing of these books alone kept the librarian busy.

Attention to those pupils owing fines are called to the bulletin board on which the names and amount of fines are posted each day. The librarian will appreciate fines being paid at once as new mending material is needed.

Mrs. Ruddick requests the borrowers of these books to take the best care of them as they are valuable. A set of "The World Book" costs the school $86.50.

The assistant librarian, Mrs. Lula Davenport, gave a talk on "The Choctaw Indians" to the third and fourth grade children Tuesday morning. Mrs. Davenport lived among these Indians in Oklahoma for several years and was therefore able to give valuable information on this subject.

LEGION MAKES FINAL PLANS FOR ARMISTICE AT TUESDAY MEETING

Final plans for their observance of Armistice were made by members of the Oran C. Hooker post, American Legion, at their regular meeting Tuesday night at the Legion hut.

Twenty-nine were present, and Howard Rogers, post commander, had charge. The men were reminded of reveille at 7 o'clock Armistice morning, to be followed by breakfast at the Colorado hotel, and of the bean feed at the Legion hut on Friday evening at 7:30.

The regular Legion meeting time is now each second Tuesday night instead of each second Friday night.

OPEN HOUSE HELD FOR HOSPITAL AT LORAINE ON SUNDAY AFTERNOON

From Mitchell County News
Open house was held at the Dr. Bruce Johnson Hospital in Loraine Sunday afternoon between the hours of 2 and 4:30.

Outside construction and part of the interior work has been finished for a few weeks but the varnishing of the interior was not finished until a few days ago. The furniture arrived a few days ago and has been arranged in the rooms. Work started August 12.

The structure is of rock veneer with hardwood floors throughout. It contains ten rooms, four bedrooms with three large enough for two beds each if needed, an operating room, X-ray room, Cystoscopic and laboratory room, bath room, office, linen room, and reception room.

At the present time equipment for major surgery has not arrived but will be added in the near future. Recently, however, Dr. Johnson has added new equipment to his X-ray room and is now prepared to take X-ray pictures of any part of the body. Other new equipment includes a Basal Metabolic Sanborn machine used to take the rate of metabolism of tissues.

CONOCO FIRST AID BOOK MAKES RESCUE POSSIBLE

BIG SPRING.—First aid knowledge gained from the safety manual of the Continental Oil company Sunday brought Mary Elizabeth Davis, 13-year-old school girl, the Life Saving Certificate of the American Red Cross, the President's Medal of the National Safety Council and commendation together with a $150 wrist watch from the Board of Directors of Continental in honor of her heroism in saving her 11-year-old brother from death by asphyxiation last May.

The awards were made in ceremonies at the Presbyterian church here Sunday afternoon, with Mary's schoolmates, members of her family and city officials present.

Mary saved her brother, Vyrion, after he was overcome by gas which had settled in a ravine where he was hunting rabbits with a younger brother, aged 8 years, and a dog. The dog died instantly but the younger brother scrambled clear and fled to the house to call Mary and the neighbors. Mary pulled Vyrion clear and administered artificial respiration for thirty-five minutes while adults looked helpless.

Because the girl's knowledge of what to do was gained entirely from the safety manual of the corporation and instructions from her father, Roy J. Davis, a Conoco employe, the Continental Oil company Board of Directors adopted an official resolution commending her valor and preparedness and selected the watch was presented to her.

The Continental Oil company for some years has been prominent in the encouragement of matters pertaining to safety, breaking the all-time safety record of the National Safety Council last year and being the first major oil company to win all the major department awards for safety in the oil industry in 1937, for which it received the American Petroleum Institute's All Department Award.

YEARS OF ILLNESS RESULT IN DEATH TO NONA WOMACK

Seven years of illness brought death to Benona W. Womack, 51, at his home in Colorado Wednesday morning. He had lived in Mitchell county for 49 years.

Born in Hill county, Texas on Oct. 28, 1887, Womack came to Mitchell county as a 2-year-old boy with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Womack, who were among the first settlers in the Cuthbert section of the county.

Womack was employed by the Texas company for 12 years before ill health forced his retirement seven years ago.

Funeral will be held at the Cuthbert church Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock with the Rev. C. E. Jameson of the Colorado Methodist church and the Rev. H. W. Hanks officiating. Burial will be beside his parents in the Cuthbert cemetery.

Survivors include Mrs. Womack, the former Ira Smith of Callahan county; five children, Elma, Joan, Jack and Glen of Colorado and Harold B., who is stationed with the army at San Antonio; four brothers, Ed and Claude Womack of Colorado, Elbert and Dave Womack of Cuthbert; two sisters, Mrs. Ora Wellborn of Monahans and Mrs. Lesbia Tyler of Olton.

Kiker & Son had charge of arrangements.

MITCHELL COUNTY BOY SCOUT WORK REVIEWED AT DISTRICT MEETING

Work among Mitchell county Boy Scouts was reviewed at a meeting of scoutmasters and scouters of the Colorado district in Colorado last week.

Those present included W. W. Porter, district chairman; Dr. W. B. May and Morris Kirschbaum, Colorado scoutmasters; Baron Smith, Dr. May's assistant scoutmaster; Rev. S. Y. Nixon, scoutmaster for negro boys; J. V. Glover, cubmaster, and Lawrence Snively, assistant cubmaster; H. M. Moore and Hargrove of the Spade troop; Jas. A. Ferguson, chairman of district finances; Al Siles of Sweetwater, executive of the Buffalo Trails council; Jack Penrose, field executive from Big Spring.

Dr. May reported his troop functioning completely on the troop budget plans. Of the 22 boys in his troop 20, one is an Eagle, four are life scouts, and four are star scouts. Out of 28 boys in Kirschbaum's troop 21, 18 attended the Round-up held in May. Two hikes have been held lately with Farris Bass and James K. Polk in charge. There are four life scouts in his troop.

Nixon reported nine negro boys enrolled in his troop. Nine boys have also been enrolled at Spade, Hargrove reported. Glover reported a large turnout and much interest at a recent cub meeting.

A report of the Round-up held May 7 at Big Spring followed. Ferguson made a report on finances, and Siles talked on "Measuring Rods" for scouting.

CHANGES IN DISTRICT 6-B DISCUSSED AT MEET IN SWEETWATER MONDAY

Proposed re-districting of what has been known as football district 6-B was discussed at a called meeting held in the Bluebonnet hotel in Sweetwater Monday night. Coach Jack Christian, Assistant Coach Newby Pratt, and G. D. Foster, Colorado High school principal, represented Colorado.

The State Executive Committee has divided Texas into 16 AA districts composed of schools with an enrollment of 500 or over in high school. Next year Colorado will be in what will be known as Class A, which will be composed of schools having a high-school enrollment of 200 to 499.

Schools having an enrollment of 150 to 199 may be accepted into Class A upon three-fourths vote of the district to which they desire to be added. This district as set up by the State committee is composed of Colorado, Merkel, Roby, Rotan, and Snyder. At the Monday night meeting which was attended by representatives from Loraine and Roscoe, the District 6 committee voted to receive both Loraine and Roscoe into the district for next year, provided they can satisfy the State Committee as to their high school enrollment.

DR. B. F. DULANEY LANDS TARPON AND BREAKS A RECORD

News comes from the Port Isabel Pilot, published in Port Isabel, Texas, that Dr. B. F. Dulaney, who has been visiting in Brownsville for several weeks, recently did some record-breaking tarpon catching off the coast.

A story on the front page of the Port Isabel Pilot read thus:

"Dr. B. F. Dulaney of Colorado, guest of Dr. Jas. A. Rentfro of Brownsville and fishing Sunday from the latter's cruiser, Alice, with Capt. Victor Deigado guiding, brought to gaff five tarpon from 3 1/2 to 5 1/2 feet in length. . . . The five fish were caught in one hour and twenty-five minutes, or at the rate of one tarpon every 17 minutes, a record here for rapid-fire fishing. . . ."

"And, strange but true, Dr. Dulaney had never previously caught a fish over a foot in length. In addition to Dr. Rentfro and Dr. Dulaney, other members of the party were Mrs. Rentfro and Mr. and Mrs. F. I. Jacobs, the latter a daughter of Dr. Dulaney, all of Brownsville."

Another story in the Pilot told of Dr. Dulaney's becoming a member of My First Tarpon club. Mrs. Dulaney is also visiting in Brownsville, recuperating from a recent illness.

CAR OVERTURNS
Roy Farmer and R. L. McMurry escaped serious injury last Thursday when their car overturned as they were returning from Snyder via Roscoe. The mishap occurred, Farmer said, when another car crowded him onto the highway's rain-softened shoulder. The car was not damaged greatly.

JACK SMITH BREAKS NOSE
Jack Smith, fullback for the Wolves and one of the most important players on the team, broke his nose in practice Tuesday afternoon. Unless an adequate face guard can be secured and used, he will not be able to play in the Colorado-Hamlin game Armistice afternoon.

HALEY GUESTS LEAVE
Mrs. A. L. Haley's sister, Mrs. Vesta Callender, and her children from Edgerton, Ohio, left Saturday for their home after a 10-day visit with the Rev. and Mrs. Haley.

HUMBLE TO BROADCAST
Following its Armistice Day broadcast of the only inter-sectional game played by a Southwest Conference team this week-end, the Humble Oil & Refining company will broadcast three important conference contests on Saturday to bring the total of games broadcast over the week-end to four.

The three conference games bring the trio of teams tied for leadership into action against strong competition in the second division, and should leave the conference standings in a more understandable condition.

Texas Christian University, No. 1 team with the nation, meets the University of Texas in Fort Worth. This is home-coming game for the Horned Frogs and a large and colorful crowd is expected. The game can be heard over stations WBAP-WFAA, Fort Worth-Dallas; KPRC, Houston; WOAI, San Antonio. Kern Tips will handle the play-by-play description of the game and Bud Sherman the colorful ceremonies attended on the home-coming. The Humble company's broadcast will begin at 1:45 p.m.

The Rice Institute meets the strong Texas Aggie eleven at College Station, Saturday, and this game will be broadcast by the Humble company over stations KGKO, Fort Worth; KXYZ, Houston; KRIS, Corpus Christi; KRGV, Waco; KABC, San Antonio. Hal Thompson will handle play-by-play on the broadcast, and Harfield Weedon the color. This broadcast begins at 2:20 p.m.

MORE THAN 400 PRESENT AT FIRST
HOMECOMING OF WESTBROOK BAPTIST CHURCH IN SPITE OF BLUE NORTHER

More than 400 people braved a blue norther to attend the first homecoming of Westbrook Baptist church Sunday.

Old friendships were renewed and the church's 48 years of existence reviewed during the all-day gathering, which featured songs, sermons, and a barbecue dinner served in the heated tabernacle.

The morning program opened shortly before 10 o'clock with Rev. E. L. Redden, church pastor, in charge. Mack McMillan led a song service and one of the church's former pastors, the Rev. A. D. Leach of Colorado, led the devotional. A memorial service was held for members and pastors who have passed on. Mrs. E. L. Redden sang a solo.

An 82-year-old retired minister, Rev. N. D. Bullock of San Angelo, who used to travel to the church via horse and buggy from Sterling City for a monthly sermon back in the nineties, preached the morning sermon. Rev. Mr. Bullock and Rev. Mr. Leach were the only former pastors of the church who were able to attend the homecoming.

Beefes for the barbecue dinner were donated by Sheriff Dick Gregory and Conaway Iglehart, both of Colorado. Barbecue sheep, roasted guineas, and other meats were served in addition to basket lunches provided by resident members of the church.

The afternoon program opened with a devotional led by Mrs. Claude Allen of Knox City, whose husband died while pastoring the church several years ago. Dee Moon of Lorraine led the song services. A quartet composed of C. S. Lambert of Lorraine, Mrs. Lee Brown, Sam Bullock, and Leroy Gressett sang with Mrs. W. T. Brooks as accompanist. Leslie McCarra, a member of the church who is preparing for the ministry, talked on "The Vision of Our Task."

The three Westbrook B.Y.P.U. girls who won first place in associational contests recently were presented in their contest numbers by Mrs. Redden. Little Lavonia Redden told a story. Orations were given by Dorothy Taylor and Opal Leach.

Among the more than 400 persons present there was not one who knew the church in its very beginning, although Mrs. C. P. Conaway, now of Colorado, joined the church when it was only about a year old. The only charter member known to be living now is Mrs. A. N. Petty of Westbrook, who was not present.

The church was organized, according to memories recalled during the homecoming, about 1890 in a little schoolhouse which stood in the midst of what is now the Westbrook cemetery, located a short distance southwest of Westbrook. The Rev. J. C. Burkett, who was then pastor at the Colorado Baptist church, assisted in the organization.

For many years the church had services but once a month. Among the earliest pastors were a Rev. Mr. Talley; a Rev. Mr. Simpson, who came over on horseback from Roscoe; the Rev. N. D. Bullock, who then lived in Sterling City.

The present church building was constructed on the schoolhouse site during the pastorate of the Rev. J. F. Wood, who now lives near Abilene. In the fall of 1907 the building was moved nearly a mile to the northeast and placed on its present site in Westbrook.

Among the pastors who served after the move were Rev. Mr. White, now of Abilene and then of Lorraine; Rev. Mr. Hull, who is now dead; Rev. Perry King, now of Clarendon; Rev. W. C. Garrett, then of Colorado and now of Roswell, N. M.; Rev. A. D. Leach of Colorado; Rev. V. W. Tatum, now pastor of a church in Abilene; Rev. B. G. Richburg of Big Spring; Rev. G. O. Summers, who now lives near Clyde; Rev. Charles Burnett, now of Portales, N. M.; Rev. J. E. McDermott, last known to be in Tyler; Rev. Claude Allen, who died while in the service of the church; Rev. Murray Fuquay, now pastor at Fluvanna; Rev. Claude Scott, now of Oklahoma; Rev. Clyde Childers, now pastor at Ozona; and Rev. Mr. Redden.

About 15 years ago the church became a full-time pastorate, and for several years prior to that had been having services twice a month instead of once. Today the church has a Sunday school enrollment of 215 and a church membership of about 300. It has one of the most active B.T.U. organizations in the Mitchell-Scurry Baptist association.

W. T. Brooks is B.T.U. director and is also head of the southern zone of the associational B.T.U. Mrs. Redden, the pastor's wife, is senior B.T.U. leader in the Mitchell-Scurry association, and Mrs. W. H. Brunson is story telling leader. Mrs. J. M. Byrd, a leader among the women of the church, is past president of the Mitchell-Scurry W.M.U.

Harvey Leach is Sunday school superintendent, and Mary Kent is secretary. Mrs. W. T. Brooks is church clerk. Mrs. M. L. Cope is president of the women's missionary society.

Out of the church's membership in recent years have come at least two young men who are now in the ministry, these being the Rev. Mr. Fuquay of Fluvanna and the Rev. J. D. McCullough of New Mexico.

Arrangements for the homecoming were directed by the following committees: Program—Harvey Leach, A. E. Lowry, and W. T. Brooks; lunch—Mrs. M. L. Cope, Mrs. W. E. Donaldson, and Mrs. Foy Castleman; barbecue preparation—Rev. Mr. Redden, Cecil McCullough, and Alfred Taylor; invitations—Mrs. E. P. Gressett, Mrs. A. G. Anderson, and Mrs. W. T. Brooks.

Out-of-town visitors registered were: Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bullock and children, Mr. and Mrs. Will Clinton, Mrs. C. J. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hughes, and Mrs. J. B. Cox, all of Abilene; Mrs. E. H. Hunter of Colorado; Rev. and Mrs. A. D. Leach and children of Colorado; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Redden and children of Sweetwater; Mrs. Claude Allen and children of Knox City; Rev. N. D. Bullock of San Angelo; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Odom and son of Chalk; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Moon and daughter of Lorraine; Mrs. C. P. Conaway of Colorado; Mrs. Hattie Kennedy and sons of Colorado; Mrs. C. B. FOSTER AT ABILENE
MEET DEALING WITH SCHOOL EVALUATION

New ways of evaluating secondary schools to determine whether they belong in the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools were studied at an all-day conference which G. D. Foster, principal of Colorado High school, attended in the city hall at Abilene Monday.

The conference was one of a series arranged by R. N. Sandlin, deputy state superintendent for this district. It was conducted by Dr. M. L. Alstetter of Washington, D. C., field representative of cooperative study of secondary school standards.

High school superintendents and principals from all over west and north-west Texas attended. According to plans discussed at the meeting, schools would be evaluated on a new basis. For instance, the contents of a library would count more than the size of the library under the new check-up system.

Colorado High school is one of the 234 Texas schools belonging to the Southern association, an affiliation which it has consistently maintained during the past several years.

OLD AND NEW MEET IN COUNTY'S WAR ON COYOTES; TRAPPING EFFECTIVE BUT NIGHT-TIME HUNTS ARE MORE COLORFUL

The old and the new have met again in the war on coyotes in Mitchell county, and the old is, as usual, more picturesque, more filled with sport and color than the new, but the new is getting the job done.

Hounds still trail coyotes to their death across the county's rolling acres, and men still gather around campfires to listen to their faraway and lonesome baying under the deep night stars. This is the old way, the picturesque way, and as long as there remains a single coyote in the county such nights of sport will be more than justified by necessity.

The new way is through government trapping. The county's experienced wolfhound runners resent trapping to a certain extent, and quite naturally so, for their dogs are valuable as well as beloved and a trap doesn't know the difference between a dog and a coyote. But they admit that trapping is thinning out the coyotes as their hounds never could.

For instance, E. H. (Zeke) Smith, who traps in the eastern and northern parts of the county, has caught 38 coyotes in the past four months in a limited area north of Colorado. This area extends from a short distance north of Rogers dairy to the C. L. Grable place on the north, and is three or four miles wide.

As one man said, this area of shinnery and sand hadn't been "trapped out since the Indians left it." One woman living in this area lost 30 turkeys to coyotes last year, and another farmer lost 13 out of his flock of 14 turkeys. There had been uncounted loss of chickens.

Smith has just finished the intensive part of his trapping in this area. He finds the signs of the coyotes, then sets his trap for them with a bait which he prepares himself.

Before intensive trapping was undertaken in the southern part of the county a few years ago, the Rensderbrook and other ranches in that area suffered an appalling loss of sheep and lambs because of coyotes. A. R. Fowler has been doing government trapping in that section, and the services of O. W. Cates have been added recently. Those who travel the Sterling-Colorado road past the Rensderbrook report having seen as many as 70 coyote carcasses hanging on the fence at one time since trapping began in earnest.

Good work has been done in the western portion of the county by J. W. Conner. Mitchell county hired one government trapper about five years ago. Two others were added two years ago.

But no trapping accomplishments can minimize the good which has been done and is being done by trained wolfhounds, it is pointed out.

Among those who maintain quality wolfhound packs in the county are W. O. Jackson, who lives south of Westbrook; W. A. Dulin, north of Colorado; Dr. B. F. Dulaney of Colorado; J. C. Ethridge of Colorado; E. H. Winn of Colorado; Pierce Dorn of Plainview; Ira Riggsfield and his brother, who live south of town; Tom Daughtery of Plainview; U. G. Hardison, who lives north of Colorado; Charley Vest, who lives south of Colo-

WESTBROOK'S SIX-MAN TEAM LOSES TO GARNER IN CRUCIAL PSAA TILT

GARNER.—Garner's Hill Billies withstood a terrific last quarter battling to defeat the Westbrook Wildcats, 39-19, here Friday afternoon in a six-man grid game that will probably decide the titlist in the PSAA conference.

Parks Lawley, Marlin Brown, Marvin Daughtery, Sonny Chapman, Johnny Bailey and Houston Smith accounted for the Garner scores while Howard Redwine, Buel Claxton and Sidney Jones were the Westbrook scorers.

The Billies did not punt during the game while Westbrook was forced to punt but once.

Score by quarters:
Garner 13 14 12 0—39
Westbrook 0 7 0 12—19

Starting lineups:
Garner—Chapman, le; Bailey, c; Smith, re; Lawley, qb; M. Brown, hb, and Daughtery, fb.

Westbrook—Jones, le; Claxton, c; Board, re; Redwine, qb; Oglesby, hb, and Moody, fb.

Mrs. Frank Smith spent Saturday and Sunday in Lubbock with her daughter, Edna, who is employed there.

COLORADO GIRL IS A TSCW BEAUTY NOMINEE

DENTON.—Votes of her classmates have placed the name of Miss Neva Lee Kirkpatrick of Colorado on a list of eight nominees for senior beauty page in the Daedalian yearbook at Texas State College for Women.

Four girls will be eliminated from each list of class nominees, but the method of final selection of one beauty from each class and two at large is still being kept secret by Doris Jean Coats, editor-in-chief of the yearbook.

Miss Kirkpatrick, daughter of Mrs. L. R. Kirkpatrick, is a senior student at the college doing her major work in the department of bacteriology.

HERE FROM BIG SPRING
J. H. Greene, manager of the Big Spring chamber of commerce, was a visitor here last Friday.

'BEAU IDEAL' OF CHS TO BE SELECTED THRU
HOMEMAKERS' CONTEST

A "Beau Ideal" contest is to be sponsored for Colorado High school by members of the Future Homemakers club, and class representatives in the contest were selected by the classes Tuesday afternoon.

Dick Lowe Jones will be the senior candidate, Paul Boyd Hunter the junior candidate, Cecil Smith the sophomore candidate, and Bruce Nuckolis the freshman candidate.

The contest will last two weeks. Votes will be a penny each, and anyone may vote. The boy who wins will be pictured among the favorites in the high school annual. Proceeds from the contest will be used by the Future Homemakers for state rally expenses, according to Miss Vada Coles, home economics teacher.

WHO'S WHO ON THE CAMPUS

Mr. Brazil
 The popular person who for two years has tried to instill a knowledge of bookkeeping and shorthand in those who aspire to those heights is Mr. Brazil.
 Mr. Brazil was born in Coleman, Texas. He went to grammar school at Brownlee and high school at Lorraine. After high school Mr. Brazil attended Metropolitan College, Dallas, and the University of Texas, receiving his A.B. and M.A. degrees from the University.
 His first year he taught at Plum Creek and later Lone Star and Sanders. He began his teaching duties in Colorado in 1934, teaching Texas History in Jr. High.
 Mr. Brazil is now head of the Commercial Department of Colorado High School, teaching bookkeeping and shorthand to high school and vocational students.
 Next to eating, Mr. Brazil likes to teach. He likes to read, and his favorite books are historical novels. And, (have I yet hit one who didn't like to travel. Concerning his hobby, Mr. Brazil stated that it probably was keeping the lawn mowed for the last two years. And last, he likes to make things in his spare time like tables and useless knickknacks.

 Mr. Brazil's popularity speaks for itself. All the students like him for his good natured humor and geniality.

Dick Jones

Have you ever heard Dick Jones called "Dickle"? That's because he looks so mild and gentle. Why, his dark brown eyes are so big and soft he looks absolutely harmless! But that's where he fools you, because he's "partly dog-goned tough"! In fact, he plays an important part in our football line-up—guard. He weighs about a hundred and fifty pounds and was captain of the team when we scampered through Post's line. While we breathlessly watch the ball carrier's progress, Dick's right in there clearing the way for them.

Confidentially, Dick is a nut. Anyway, that's the impression he leaves. Last week he gave us his interpretation of how a drunk man gets up stairs. Of course, it was just a demonstration. He likes to hunt, and believe it or not, he's good. Dick was thinking about taking up stamp collecting as a hobby, but he decided to postpone the idea until he became internationally famous!

REMEMBER YOUR MANNERS AS VISITORS BOYS

In Friday's game with the Hamlin Pied Pipers, the fourth non-conference game of the season, Colorado High school and its Wolves extends a welcome to, and are glad to entertain a traditional West Texas friend and rival.

For months the Pied Pipers have had circles around November 11 on their calendars, not because it is a holiday but they have been to Colorado before and they can't seem to forget the hard-hitting Wolves.

We could give you past records of these two teams but in a rivalry like this one, however, the records count little. Each game between the Wolves and Pied Pipers writes its own tale.
 In the Wolf camp the boys wearing the Red and Black are perhaps favored. The Pied Pipers, however, concede nothing. The warriors will settle it after the kickoff.

And to all football fans in West Texas we extend a cordial invitation to see this game. With two weeks practice the Wolves appear to be in top shape for this battle and will be backed by the Colorado High school band, pep squad and some four hundred high school students.

 The game is to be played Friday, November 11, at 2:30 p.m. on Cantrell Field.

JUNIOR HAVE NOVEL ENTERTAINMENT

The class of '40 had a merry time last Friday night, November 4th. Since there was no ball game, the Juniors decide the time was ripe for an autumn get-together, and, consequently, the merry time. Approximately 60 members of the Junior class traipsed to Pecan Grove, where they had one more swell time. The games, under the able direction of "Handsome" Truett Fulcher and the ever congenial Mr. Mason were a great success. The music (?), furnished by the "Royal Mud-Daubers Orchestra," added to the fun of the evening (they hope). Mr. Fulcher auctioned the boxes and the boys seemed to be well pleased with their selections. The money received, $12.60, will go to the Junior class banquet fund.

Noticed Friday night: Geanie playing a toy trombone. Paul Boyd eating the contents of three boxes.

Mr. Smith getting generous with his apples.
 Beulah and her drum.
 Mrs. Watson sampling the lemonade.

Earl bidding high for a certain box with a toy turkey on top.
 Everyone enjoying "Skip to my Lou, my Darling."

Billie Arnold with a huge, huge box.
 Mr. Mason keeping the bonfire going.

Weldon having hard luck with his first box because it didn't have a name and it did contain an onion!
 Freddie crawling on her hands and knees in a certain game.

Bonnie Holt passing candy from her box.
 Miss Swope warming her hands by the fire.

Lee wondering why he wasn't hungry after it was over.
 Inez keeping the singing going.
 Every Junior saying, "Why don't we do things like this more often?"

"THE LONE WOLF" MARCHES ON
 Last week some three hundred students looked at the "little birdie" and were photographed. Also many story telling pictures were made in different departments. Some home economics girls were snapped while rolling out dough for biscuits and washing dishes. Others were cutting out dresses and sewing on the machine. Typists, in the commercial department, paused long enough for a snap of their industrious work and in the bookkeeping class, some students were using the adding machines. Mr. Fraul's chemistry class posed in their lab experiments; the seventh period second floor study hall was actually caught studying, and Mr. Mason's Howl and Sage staff were photographed while busily engaged in the mimeograph room. Another shot was a staged pass by Burl and Tommy on the football field. Watch out Burl, you'll miss that ball!

The Lone Wolf for 1939 has aroused much student interest. It is the purpose of the staff to put out an annual that will be truly representative of C.H.S. in work and play.

HOME EC. INITIATION

Beulah Frances Robinson, president of the Home Ec. club, presided at the initiation service held in Colorado High school auditorium at 7:30 p.m. Thursday. Twenty-nine new members were initiated. The traditional candle lighting service with the girls dressed in white was carried out.

Friday the funny side of initiation was carried out. The girls wore cook aprons and one sock of one kind and one of another. They braided their hair and carried their books in a steamer or bucket. Pictures were made for our scrap book and the annual.

HOME MAKING II GOES MARKETING

The Home Making IIA class went marketing Thursday and visited Piggly Wiggly. Each member had two or three individual questions. There were several class questions to answer.

As a whole, the field trip proved successful. The class found quite a few new and interesting foods on the market.

VOLLEY BALL PRACTICE GAMES

A number of volley ball games were played on the Junior High courts Saturday morning. There were about forty-five high school girls who played.

Three series were played, a series consisting of the best two out of three games. Jr. High won all three series, however two of the series were very close, with high school and Jr. High taking a game each and playing a close third.

The Physical Ed. teachers are proud because so much interest has been shown in the volley ball group. Several teams are expected to be derived from the high school girls.

The boys who are interested in boxing should be glad to know that punching bags, better known as sand bags are being installed in the gym.

Mr. Fulcher and his assistants are doing everything for a better physical body for the youth of Colorado!

BOOK NEWS

The library under the supervision of Miss Velma Barrett has improved considerably in the last year.

The library has received 196 new books this year. These books are fiction and non-fiction. Some of them have been in demand for some time and others are being read for English, history, and home ec. Some of the most outstanding of them are: "A Storm Over Mexico," "A Daughter of the Middle Border," "A Sailor on Horseback," "The Yearling," "Mark Twain's Work," "The Strong Man of China," "Goodby Mr. Chips," and many interesting travel books.

WHAT SHALL I READ?

"Pride and Prejudice" may be a forbidding title to many but girls will read it when they are told of Mrs. Bennets' "crack-brained" efforts to marry her daughters off; how, everytime an unmarried man stuck his head in the door, she was "off to the races," again, saying things far better left unsaid; and how her daughter Elizabeth, who was most attractive, took a prejudice against a proud man whom she later married.

AGGIE INITIATION

Twenty-nine boys, enrolled in vocational agriculture for the first year, became Greenhands in the Colorado F.F.A. chapter by an initiation ceremony held by the second year boys recently in the high school auditorium.

Some of those first year boys will never forget that night, especially those who walked off the stage wiping rotten egg out of their eyes. . . . At least they thought it was egg, anyway it came out of a shell.

Don, how do you like your oyster, raw or cooked?

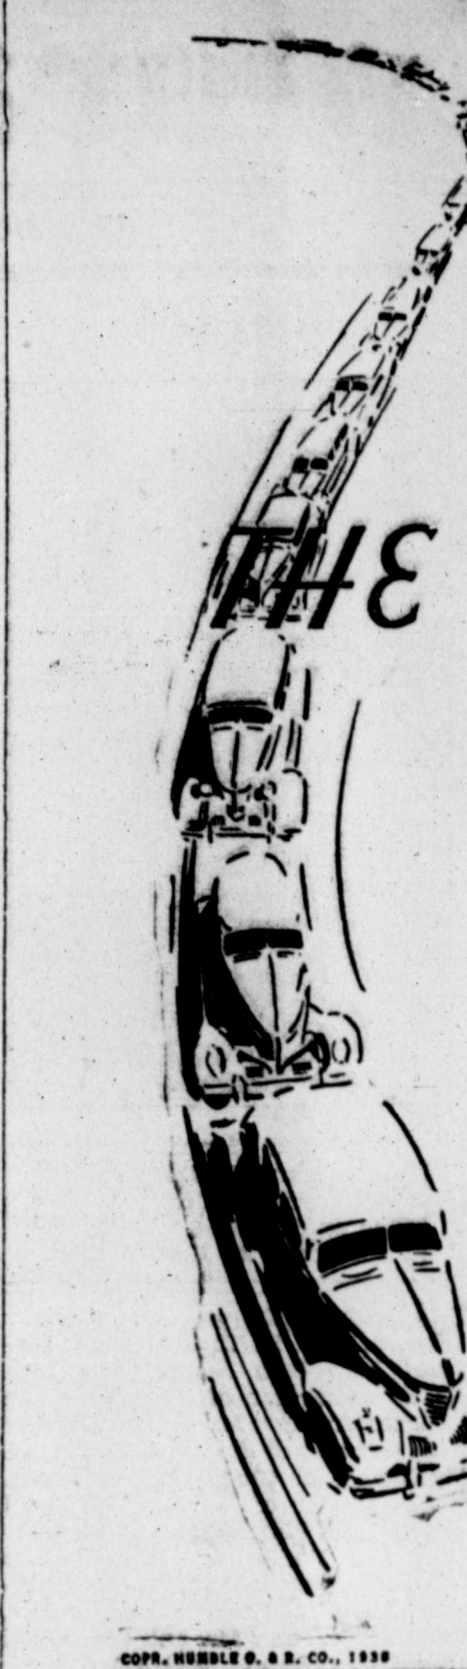

To those boys who were initiated. . . . If you want to know how Jack Long got the scent of a rotten egg in a bottle you might ask Mr. Pratt.

Our second year boys who were absent the night of the initiation ceremony last year were run through a belt line. . . . Let that be a lesson to you, boys.

We invite those fathers and ex-aggies who were present to come again, you are always welcome to the ag. meetings.

HAIL! JUNIOR SPONSORS!

This week the Junior class wishes to publicize their feelings for their class sponsors. We consider them the best! Miss Cook and Miss Swope, whose agreeableness and readiness to back the class in all undertakings are greatly appreciated by each member. Mr. Pratt, "just one of the gang," always ready for fun and a good time. Last, but not least, our pal—Mr. Mason—not only because we like him but for purely selfish reasons. We consider him the under-

AGAIN-NEW CARS

They're with us again—those shining new examples of the automotive engineer's ability to improve an already fine car. Each year, it seems, the automobile industry outdoes itself with increased comfort, economy, efficiency; and the new 1939 models are no exception to the rule. We recommend the new cars to your attention!

We also recommend that you shift the care of your new car to Humble's shoulders. Humble motor fuels, motor oils and lubricants are as modern as the new engines; Humble technicians have already foreseen and provided for 1939's innovations.

So drive your new car to the Humble sign for service. You'll find a station completely equipped and salesmen carefully trained to keep your car running right and looking good. You'll find a friendly, Texan welcome waiting for you, a genuine interest in giving you service with a capital S.

AMATEUR PROGRAM MONDAY NIGHT

Truett Fulcher and Herbert Spence are sponsoring an amateur program in behalf of the PWA recreation program of the county. The program is to be at the high school auditorium on Monday night, Nov. 14 at 7:30. A two-fold purpose is being served: to raise money for the recreation program and to select materials for a radio broadcast in Abilene at an early date. The public is cordially invited to attend this program.

YOU MAY WONDER WHY

You may wonder why your article was not published in The Howl. Well it is impossible to publish articles which are not submitted in time. We wonder why, if you would have them printed, you do not get them in sooner, at least ON TIME.

THE LONE STAR FARMER

To be a Lone Star Farmer is one of the greatest honors that can be attained in F.F.A. work. The American Farmer degree is the greatest honor, but very few boys ever reach this height.

To be a Lone Star Farmer a boy must have made $200 in three years, and he must have it invested in livestock or other means of saving. There must be attained at least two certificates of merit and be enrolled in Vocational Agriculture at least two years.

There are seven boys in second year Agriculture who are striving to make the Lone Star Farmer degree this year. Most of them have at least four projects and the most being six. The boys are: Jack Long, Jay Hooks, J. W. Hamilton, J. N. Ellis, J. F. McCabe, Lee Brown, and Clay Smith.

ENGLISH CLASS STUDIES TEXAS WRITERS

Mr. Mason's fifth period English class at the beginning of the second six weeks started work on a Texas unit in which the literature of Texas was studied. Books written by Texas authors were read and material on Texas authors was obtained by Mr. Mason from the University of Texas Extension Loan Library.

There were general stories, essays and themes of Texas literature read in class, much to the delight of the pupils. Two of the papers to be handed in as a result of this study will be "My Favorite Texas Author" and "Texas' Contribution to American Literature."

CAMPUS CAMERA

What Junior girl has been so affected by Mr. Love Bug that when she checks a book out of the library she takes the card to her desk and leaves the magazine presumably for the librarian to read?

"Play-like" is Chas. Nuckolls favorite chemistry phrase. The fun begins, however, when the entire class—Coach Pratt inclusive—"play-like" with him. . . .

The CHS Homemakers have formally launched their Ideal Beauty campaign. It's something for you boys to work for. . . .

Poets say springtime is lovelime. But it's difficult not to notice the number of new couples blossoming out in spite of snow and northers. . . .

Duff Chesney and "Tiney" Brown put two co-eds in a tight spot Wednesday night by popping in on them after having been refused a few minutes before. . . .

Ann Astell has made a resolution to hold her tongue or rather those fiery words which she uses so confidently and gets away with. . . .

What would we do without that peace loving (!) duet of Burl and Cootsie? . . .

Where did Harvey Hicks acquire the quaint name of "whey-face"? . . .

Our famous quarterback is still beating Grace—Ah, me. . . .

One of our most beloved students in CHS has returned unto us. We hope you are as glad to be here as we are to have you, Catherine. . . .

The social Sophs and a few similar-minded Silmes had an elite affair at Joe Henry Smoot's last Saturday night. . . .

Support those Wolves Friday afternoon rain or shine. . . .

What would we do without the "Frankenstein-Penner" laughter of Dook Cox and Buzz Majors. . . .

Our campus cuties have been looking about and noticed several heart-breaks: . . .

James and Doris have reached an agreement.

Jack M. is not coming home again for sometime. Consequently, Aggie is back in circulation. . . .

Nancy Price and Jimmie Harrison have just called it quits. Late reports say it's only temporary. . . .

The over-the-hedge romance of Betty Whipkey and Alfred Rhode went pffffftt this week-end. . . .

Delmer Thompson's job needed him Friday night as far as a certain Junior girl was concerned. He showed up at the picnic though. . . .

A group of enthusiastic box buyers received an unwelcome shower at the Round-Top Friday night. They were all wet, too, after the escapade. . . .

We wonder just how great a success the juniors' box supper was as some afterwards ate in Lorraine and several cafes in town. Maybe the ones involved were merely living up to the self-explanatory title HOG. . . .

Alfred Maddin and "Tiney" Brown have ingenious methods for collecting lipsticker. . . .

What is an Enjoyable Radio Program Worth to You?

Football games, news stories and other events are brought to your easy chair by the magic of radio, for a cost of less than 1 cent an hour!

Isn't that a small price to pay for an hour's radio entertainment for you and your family?

Other electric appliances in your home work for you just as cheaply. Your reading lamp (150-watts) uses about 1 cent's worth of electricity an hour. That is why we say that electric service is the biggest bargain in your home.

"YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU" CAPRA'S GREATEST TRIUMPH

JEAN ARTHUR, LIONEL BARRYMORE IN ALL-STAR CAST

Hailed as another Capra triumph, Columbia's screen version of the George S. Kaufman-Moss Hart Pulitzer Prize play, "You Can't Take It With You," shows at the Palace theater Saturday midnight prelude and Sunday and Monday, Nov. 12, 13 and 14 with a cast which includes Jean Arthur, James Stewart, Lionel Barrymore, Edward Arnold, Mischa Auer, Ann Miller and numerous others.

"You Can't Take It With You" was produced and directed by Frank Capra from the screen play by Robert Riskin. These Columbia film-makers have been lauded time and again for their "It Happened One Night," "Lady For A Day," "Lost Horizon" and "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town." "You Can't Take It With You," based on the stage success for which Columbia paid $200,000, is said to exceed even the previous efforts of the two brilliant collaborators.

The new film deals with the lovable and perfectly delightful Vanderhoff family, which believes in doing whatever it wants whenever it wants to.

In their old New York home, presided over by Grandpa Vanderhoff, this uninhibited group reveals a heart-warming attitude toward life in a merry melange of comedy, flavored with romance and tinged with pathos.

"You Can't Take It With You" is concerned, in part, with the proud aristocratic Kirbys, as well as with the carefree Vanderhoffs. Kirby's monumental plan to form a huge munitions merger, a move which requires the purchase of all property within an area of twelve city blocks, is halted when Grandpa refuses to sell the Vanderhoff home at any price. The plan of Kirby's son to marry Alice Sycamore, his secretary, is blocked when the boy brings his parents to dinner one night, only to discover the Vanderhoff family engrossed in its various eccentric affairs.

The romance and merry-mad conflict of the two families, coupled with the enjoyable hobbies of the Vanderhoffs and their many friends, is declared to make "You Can't Take It With You" one of the outstanding productions of the season.

Prominent in the supporting cast of the new Capra film are Spring Byington, Samuel S. Hinds, Dub Taylor, Donald Meek, H. B. Warner, Halliwell Hobbes, Eddie Anderson and Lillian Yarbo. Dmitri Tiomkin composed the musical score.

"I AM THE LAW"

Palace—Friday and Saturday
November 11 and 12

Far and wide the best of the endless chain of gang-busting pictures is this Edward G. Robinson starrer in which the virile portrayer of mobster roles is arraigned on the side of law and order as an absent-minded professor who turns militant prosecuting attorney and cleans up the city. Albeit the story differs but little from others of its ilk, and includes some rather extreme situations, it is crammed full of new twists and action, which fact, coupled with a particularly splendid delineation by Robinson, should make the picture a winner all the way down the line. The supporting cast is generally good with a special nod for John Beal, Wendy Barrie and Otto Kruger. Feature is unostentatiously produced and directed by Alexander Hall is of prime variety.

Players are Edward G. Robinson, Barbara O'Neil, John Beal, Wendy Barrie, Otto Kruger, Arthur Loft, Marc Lawrence.

"BROADWAY MUSKETEERS"

An interesting action plot, coupled with better-than-average dialogue and thespic art, highlights this current offering of the Broadway series. Yet, the implausibility of the plot definitely places it in the programmer classification. Chief scene-stealer is little Janet Chapman who convincingly portrays the daughter of Margaret Lindsay, restless mother who leaves her wealthy husband, John Littel, to live a life of glamour with a gambler, and who later repents for her action. Ann Sheridan and Marie Wilson are the orphanage-days pals of Miss Lindsay. The former, a strip-tease artist, finally finds respectability by marrying Littel, while Secretary Miss Wilson uncovers marital bliss with her Milquetoast-like boss, John Farrow directed.

Players are Margaret Lindsay, Ann Sheridan, Marie Wilson, John Littel, Janet Chapman, Dick Purcell, Richard Bond.

LIONS DEVOTE PROGRAM TO TALKS ON RED CROSS ROLL CALL PREPARATIONS

Program of the Lions club Friday was devoted to talks on the annual Red Cross roll call drive which began this week.

R. H. Barber, county roll call chairman, was a guest at the luncheon and made a talk in which he explained the set-up for the drive.

A comparison of the Red Cross aims and purposes with the Lions club code of ethics was given by Archdeacon J. W. Heyes when he explained how the roll call will be carried on in Colorado, beginning at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, Nov. 10. Archdeacon Heyes is Colorado chairman for the drive.

Work which the Red Cross did in Mitchell county during the cyclone of 1923 was recalled by J. H. Greene, manager of the Big Spring chamber of commerce. Greene was secretary of the Colorado chamber of commerce and chairman of the Mitchell county Red Cross chapter at the time of the cyclone. Greene was one of the luncheon guests.

Thos. R. Smith talked to the Lions and praised the work done by Coach Jack Christian and Assistant Coach Newby Pratt with the Colorado Wolves this year.

Guests at the luncheon in addition to Barber and Greene were Adolph Eberle of Sweetwater and Earl Cybert.

Benton Templeton, who had been previously reinstated in the club, was introduced by J. Ralph Lee.

rado; Jack Humphries and brother of Cedar Bend.

One of the county's most enthusiastic coyote hunters was the late Dr. P. C. Coleman, who maintained a pack of valuable dogs at his ranch near Colorado.

Many dogs in packs maintained on Mitchell county farms and ranches are worth as much as $100 apiece, it is said. The dogs require special feeding and special training, and each pack represents quite an investment in time, care, and money.

They are called "wolfhounds" and the hunts on which they are taken are commonly called "wolf hunts," but the truth is that practically all the "wolves" in Mitchell county are coyotes. The sport is even better because of that, as coyotes are noted for their cunning.

The practice is for two or three dog owners, probably more, to get together with their 40 or 50 dogs for a night's hunting. With the dogs in trailers, they usually go by car to some territory where a coyote has been sighted or his signs found. A coyote seldom changes his range, experienced hunters say.

When the scent has been given to the hounds they are released, and after that there is nothing the men can do but build a bonfire, gather around, and wait. As the hounds follow the coyote's trail, their baying increases. Each man knows the bay of his own dogs, and around the campfire there is considerable argument as to which man's dogs are in the lead.

Because they outnumber the coyote, the dogs can always run him to death and kill him unless thrown off the trail by the crossing of another coyote or the craftiness of the pursued animal. One she-coyote in the shinnery-sand area north of Colorado defied the hounds on many occasions by the simple trick of running to a pasture where she knew there were 20 or more mules, and the mules would fight the dogs away until she made her escape. The mules were fighting for their own protection, not hers, however. She was recently caught in one of Smith's traps.

Coyotes have been known to jump in rivers or creeks and swim down them a distance to throw the dogs off the scent.

Nothing will stop a hound on the trail of a coyote or wolf but the sounding of his master's horn, dog owners declare. W. A. Dulin once had two crippled hounds which he tried to leave at home when he went on a hunt one night. When he arrived at the river where the hunt was to take place, a distance of some 15 miles from his home, there were the two crippled dogs, ready to open up with the pack. W. O. Jackson had a dog one time that caught his coyote 54 miles from the starting place. It's unusual for one dog to be able to hold his own with a coyote, but Dulin had one that did this same thing one time.

Wolf and coyote hunts usually ruin most of what might have been a good night's sleep, but those who have the hunting fever never let that stop them, no matter how busy the season may be on their farm or ranch.

There is a code among the owners of wolf hounds—namely, no man ever runs another man's dogs down. All dogs are good dogs when the packs get together.

EDITORIAL

HALLOWEEN

Last week was Halloween and we wrote this article for that week but that subterfuge down at the office failed to set it. What we wanted to say was that so few people, and especially the kiddies, know anything about the history of Halloween.

On that night when goblins and ghosts leer at you from behind every tree, and invisible spectres walk in your footsteps on your way home, just think how this night of superstitions originated.

Two thousand years ago in the days of Nero, when the much persecuted Christians had to worship under cover of darkness on "All Hallow" eve, their biggest congregation of the year the Roman guards all over the city, were startled at various white shapes flitting from tree to tree, and thus the ghost idea was born.

The middle ages with a thousand different superstitions, and wholesale ignorance added fuel to the fire. Witches, devils, imps, spooks and other citizens of the lower world were said to run about on a certain night in the fall. The men of Ireland completed the story as we know it today. They set the actual date, October 31, and claimed that at midnight on that evil night, the dead arose from their graves and walked again over the earth.

Halloween came over to America with the pilgrims and doubtless many luckless redskins were perforated by deadly bullets intended for "hants."

The black cats, bats, etc., of today's superstitions also originated in Europe, and were supposed to be messengers from Hades, pets of the witches, or at any rate symbols of evil. Fearful negro slaves in the South added their store of African nonsense to the remainder of the customary beliefs. However, America contributed the final touch. Roving groups of spooks run wild on Halloween, breaking windows, stealing porch furniture and gates, de-airing tires, harassing and common citizens in general.

WITH OUR EXCHANGES

What The Weekly Papers Are Talking About CREDIT

McKinney Courier-Gazette: Credit is the foundation of our system of life. Do you ride your friendly merchants, who credit you? The man who extends you credit believes in you. Do you break his trust? Too often we find men and women who are glad to acquire needed articles by exercising their credit, and then "sulk and beef" about paying off when they have to be asked to do so. The man who credits you is not only your friend, but he is lenient. Think about his side of the matter, once in a while. By all means be honest with your best friend, who trusts you.

MUSICAL

Denison Herald: Irene Castle, for many years an authority on dancing and dance music, foresees the end of swing music and jitterbug dancing. She thinks the days of swing and its concomitant barbaric dances are numbered and that we shall soon enter an era of soft music and graceful dancing. The sooner this can happen, the better. To those of us who are not particularly interested in dance music or dance steps, but who see in popular music the reflection of public taste, Miss Castle's prophecy comes as a refreshing draught. Other noted musicians and critics have assured the public in recent weeks that swing was on its way out. If this is true, it can mean only one thing—that the pendulum is swinging away from emotional hysteria and back to sanity and decency.

PRINCIPLES OF DRESS

Marian Martin, in Denton Record-Chronicle: When a wife sees her man dashing forth to work she likes to feel that he helps his cause by looking impressive. She doesn't want him to look as though he had been assembled in the dark. She wants him not only well groomed but well put together. Her ideas ran to shirts and ties that are not in open conflict and socks that match his ensemble. If he is dressed in a conservative business suit with tie and shirt in perfect accord she is thrown off her guard when she discovers that he is wearing socks that are fine in the free open space but out of the running in town. She does not want her lord and master laughed at; in fact, she has the same resentment as he at the thought that others may say or think he looks funny. So with the best intentions in the world she tries to straighten him out and get him into some semblance of harmony. I think it is rather natural that a man does not like to be overhauled in this manner, but he should consider that his wife, and indeed all the world and his wife, consider such things important.

COW AND ONION

Bryan Eagle: The Brazos Valley Fair, held for the fourth consecutive year at Waco, has made each year an outstanding record in the Jersey cattle show presented, according to outstanding critics and judges. A. L. Darnell, a leading authority, says the quality on exhibition is outstanding in the Southwest and represents the very finest in the state. If Darnell says so, we know it is true; because he knows his onions when it comes to Jerseys.

HUMAN BEINGS

Jacksonville Progress: The first northern brings a welcome, invigorating relief from the doldrums of dying summer; yet as they become more frequently recurring, carrying the mercury a little lower each time, and heralding the approach of winter in all its blighting grips, they begin to lose their novelty to most people, and hardly has the full force of Boreas made itself felt before many commence to fondly recall shirt-sleeve weather and outdoor activities; the recollections of mosquitoes, perspiration and stifling heat grow dim in contrast with the reality of December and January's icy tears.

ABOUT PHOTOGRAPHY

Gatesville News: One hundred thousand (100,000) mugs have been shot by the Graham Universal Studios, according to Mr. Graham, who is the manager of this studio which has been temporarily located in the Brown Building on the north side of the square. Mr. Graham makes small inexpensive pictures, and says he has made pictures of "not everyone, but almost." Another feature, usually overlooked at this studio is the enlargement made from the photos, and "while you wait."

FORTUNE STAMPS

Plano Star-Courier: If wives would go through their husband's pockets every generation they might find some valuable stamps on the letters he has forgotten to mail. Consider the man who found an 1861 stamp worth $50,000 by merely going through old papers.

MORE COTTON TALK

Brady Standard: Congressman C. L. South has declared it to be unwise to increase the cotton loan from 8.3c a pound to 11c, as proposed by Senator Smith of South Carolina, South believing the lower price will encourage the export market, one which it is essential to nurse. As an alternative to the increase in loan price Senator Smith offered a direct subsidy plan, which Congressman South favors over the former course. And Smith, who is chairman of the Senate agriculture committee, announces he will call his committee together in December to work out a "real farm program," and which Congress will have presented it for action in January.

ABOUT VOTING

Kaufman Herald: County Judge Ben Brooks relates this narrative: It seems that a certain candidate for the office of sheriff in the western part of the state received only 55 votes from a possible 6,000. Naturally, after such a terrific defeat, his friends were greatly surprised to see him strutting down the sidewalks the next morning, accompanied by two businesslike .45s, one on each hip. "Say, haven't you heard," inquired one of the observers (and incidentally one who voted for him), "you didn't win that sheriff's race so why are you wearing those guns?" "I know I didn't win the race, Slim," replied the ex-candidate, "but any man who doesn't have any more friends than I do in this county needs two guns for protection!"

GETTING RIGHT

Washer, in Wichita Falls Banner: The way it is now the honest boss is scared of his shadow and the honest-to-goodness worker is lucky if he has any sort of a job at all. This whole idea of wealth without work, security without saving and prosperity without prudence is as cock-eyed as a Goldberg cartoon.

GOOD NEIGHBORS

Wise County Messenger (Deeatur): We are informed that the Presbyterians, who have been encamping at Joe Wheeler Park for several years, are desirous of purchasing or leasing about ten acres in the park or in close proximity, and will make permanent improvements. In Messenger's opinion, we should welcome these splendid people, and if necessary, the Commissioners Court or the park committee should arrange for the acreage they are seeking. Substantial and lasting improvements are assured by the Presbyterians, and let's assist them in the undertaking.

CHICKEN CULTURE

Pilot Point Post-Signal: They grow quality chickens down at Simpson's chicken ranch, the Pilot learns. Clyde Simpson exhibited his Reds at the State Fair, where his Red took first prize as individual Rhode Island entry, then was awarded first over all heavy breeds. Mr. Simpson has taken many first prizes in the years he has been exhibiting, but this is the first time he has taken first over all. Exhibitor Simpson was born and reared at Spring Hill, has lived all of his life in or near Aubrey. For twenty-three years he has been a druggist at Aubrey, served a year as clerk preceding that time.

EDITORIAL LADIES' MEN

Mabank Banner: Last Monday noon this editor and managing editor had the pleasure of eating dinner with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lewis. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis had been out that morning and caught a fine lot of fish. Of course Jess claims he caught the fish, but we suspect that Mrs. Lewis caught most of them. Anyway, we certainly enjoyed the sumptuous fish dinner, and the next time we see Jess sitting in front of his place of business dreaming we are not going to wake him up.

SHOWER BATHS

Bryan Eagle: There is no need for any person these days to have to take a Saturday night bath one leg at a time when a shower bath can be built for the nominal sum of $215 in any farm home. Proof of our statement can be seen in The End of the Trail, the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Bentley, where Mrs. Bentley and a carpenter built a successful shower for the amount stated above. Below are listed the things that went into the project and their cost: One bucket, 50c; shower nozzle, 75c; bracket, $15c; hinges, 10c; paint, 65c; one-ply board panel from a refrigerator grate, one wire coat hanger to hook the panel against the wall when not in use. We forgot to mention that you did have a tub to stand in. Believe it or not they tell us it works.

FOOD AND INFLATION

Tyler Courier-Times: A United States Public Health Service official, discussing pellagra, says that tenant farmers and sharecroppers, like other folks, must have lean meat, milk and vegetables. He adds that "the cheapest way to accomplish this is for them to produce most of their own food." There's one farm plan that's simple, sensible and practical.

FUSS AND MUSS

Galveston Tribune: The 2,225,000 cotton growers in this country will ballot in a referendum on the new crop control program Dec. 10, and indications are the voting will not be nearly so unanimous as it was last year. American cotton farmers are not getting a great deal of money for their crop and they are not very well satisfied. Secretary Wallace, implacable opponent of the domestic allotment plan, proposes that instead of "dumping" a part of the cotton crop abroad at world market prices, the government buy up the surplus over and above the domestic needs of American mills and distribute the cotton to the needy. The difference between this scheme and domestic allotment is that, under the Wallace plan, the American taxpayers would foot the bill and under allotment the surplus would be paid for by foreign buyers.

STATISTICAL INCOME

Gatesville Messenger: The report of the National Emergency Council on Economic Conditions of the South is enough to give even the most trivial-minded Southerner pause. When one learns that 50 per cent of the families—not in Germany, Czechoslovakia or Ethiopia—but right here in Texas and the South, have an annual income averaging $470, he is likely to be jarred into quick and serious thinking. And the things he thinks are not likely to be pleasant. Uneven distribution of income with relation to the rest of the United States is the biggest one thing wrong with the South today, but it is not, per se, the South's biggest economic problem. The conditions that brought about this unequal distribution are what must be remedied if the South is to find an even semi-permanent economic stability.

UNFORBIDDEN FRUIT

Smithville Times: August Medina, who lives out toward Rosanky, says it certainly does pay to advertise in the Smithville Times. Several weeks ago he had on hand something over one hundred bushels of pears from his large crop of this season. After running an advertisement in the Times a couple of weeks he sold 120 bushels and right now he says more orders are coming in, but the balance of the pears will have to grow a little more before they are ready for market. He reports a very heavy yield of pears this year and has supplied people with these pears from all over this section and even from distant points.

CHURCH AND PAPER

McKinney Courier-Gazette: Dr. C. W. Culp, Shreveport (La.) pastor, who is conducting the First Baptist Church revival in this city, paused in his sermon Wednesday night to heap a world of praise on the newspapers of the city, for which we doff our hats and say "thanks a million." "I've never been in a city where the newspapers have been so good," said Dr. Culp. "They are most liberal with their space to the churches. So often we fail to thank these great agencies for doing good but we just wanted all of you to know that their generosity is greatly appreciated." He declares that McKinney is fortunate in having newspapers which devote so much space to churches, schools and other world-wide institutions. Dr. Culp and the Rev. Henry Ward, the singer at the revival, are holding a most successful meeting at the First Baptist Church and are making a host of friends during their stay in this city.

NEW IDENTIFICATION EXPERT JOINS STATE POLICE

AUSTIN.—W. G. Rogers, veteran Ellis county deputy sheriff and outstanding identification expert, has joined the identification staff of state police.

Rogers is a recent graduate of the National Police academy sponsored by the Federal Bureau of Investigation at Washington, D. C., serving as president of his class. He is also a vice-president of the Texas division of the International Association for Identification.

State police officials said Rogers was employed as a fingerprint expert in the state bureau.

America Swings Back To Old Fashioned Breakfast

More than 17,000 breakfasts are consumed by the man or woman who lives to be fifty or more, and modern America is swinging back to the old-fashioned "hearty" breakfast and away from what amounts to nothing more than a morning tea. These and other facts about American breakfasts were disclosed in a recent survey conducted by the American Gas Association, according to M. O. Chapman, local gas company manager.

A substantial breakfast in from six to twenty minutes is now possible with modern gas ranges because of instant heat available with new type top burners and broilers, the survey showed. A good breakfast and very light lunch during the day is the preferred winter routine.

"America was founded on hearty breakfasts," says one leading food expert. "When a pioneer left the house in the clearing with gun in one hand and plow horse lines in the other, he was fortified for a long, hard day with pork, flapjacks, eggs, potatoes, and hot bread. Concentration of population and the hurry of business life cut short the time for breakfast preparation and consumption and lighter foods became popular. Modern gas cooking appliances, however, now make a good substantial breakfast possible in a few minutes, and modern America is finding such breakfasts better for health and efficiency.

The quickest breakfast that will "stick to the ribs" is one of scrambled eggs, bacon, toast, and coffee made with a gas coffee maker. Many housewives are able to prepare this menu in six minutes with modern gas ranges, the survey disclosed.

Broiler breakfasts are also increasing in popularity because the moment a new type broiler burner is ignited, full temperature is directed upon the rack of food, placed in the lowest position. Toast, plain or French, thin slices of bacon or ham and grapefruit may be prepared quickly. Complete insulation of modern gas ranges retains the heat and even a broiler breakfast may be prepared in complete comfort.

WOMEN IN THE STUDY CLUBS

Hesperian

With Mrs. Jas. T. Johnson as leader and Mrs. E. H. Winn as hostess, the Hesperian club met Friday to continue its study of "Othello." Topics were as follows: "Motivation of Iago's Villany as Revealed in Ten Soliloquies," Mrs. J. G. Merritt; "Shakespeare's Discussion of the Nature of Revenge and Jealousy," Mrs. Rees Jones. A discussion of Acts Three and Four was led by Mrs. Johnson.

A letter was read from Mrs. R. J. Turentine, state president, saying that Mrs. J. W. Randle, Hesperian president, had been placed on the reception committee for the opening event of the Texas Federation of Women's clubs in Austin on Monday evening.

Mrs. James Payne was elected second vice-president in the place of Mrs. Farris Bass, who recently resigned. Plans were made by the club to entertain its friends with a book review during the Christmas holidays. There will be no meeting of the club this week. The Nov. 18 meeting will be with Mrs. Alice Lockhart.

Standard

An interesting and timely discussion of fear featured the Standard club's meeting Friday with Mrs. Lee Carter at the home of Mrs. P. C. Coleman.

Mrs. C. E. Way led the discussion and climaxed it with a paper in which she brought out the following points: "Fear of the Russian Nationalists keeps Stalin in Power. . . . Fear of Hitler's firing squad makes Germans eager (on the surface at least) to give the Nazi salute. . . . It is fear that keeps the Italians on starvation rations still true to Il Duce. . . . The United States is arming as never before through fear. . . . The daily petty fears are job fears, money fear, fear of ridicule and criticism, fear of not succeeding. . . . If we would only remember that today is the tomorrow we worried about yesterday we would spare ourselves much. . . . The greatest fear in the world today is the fear of fear. . . ." The Shakespeare lesson was on scenes three and four of the second act of "King Henry IV." The meeting this Friday will be with Mrs. Coleman.

Self Culture

Completion of their health examinations among Colorado school children and arrangements to continue the county-wide program in Loraine schools and other schools of the county were reported at the Self Culture club's meeting Friday with Mrs. Jim White.

Mrs. W. L. Hester has agreed to take charge of the examinations in Loraine, it was reported. The children examined now are receiving only general health examinations. Dental examinations are to be given later on.

"Glimpses of Historic Virginia" was the lesson topic led by Mrs. C. B. Shell. Roll call was answered with Virginia places or personages. Topics were as follows: "Restoration of Colonial Williamsburg," Mrs. Henry Ford; "Virginia's Colonial Heritage," Mrs. W. D. McClure; "Where Giants Sleep," Mrs. Roy Dozier. Refreshments included sandwiches, olives, cookies, and hot spiced apricot nectar. The club will not meet this week, but will meet on Nov. 18 with Mrs. Edison Wilson.

1921 Study

Studying "Marie Curie, My Mother," the 1921 Study club met Friday with Mrs. C. L. Root as hostess and Mrs. W. W. Rhode as leader. Mrs. C. C. Thompson told of Marie Curie's background and early childhood. "Marie Curie, the Woman," was Mrs. J. B. Rector's topic. Mrs. H. B. Broadbent discussed Marie Curie as a scientist. A piano solo, Paderewski's "Menuet a L'Antique," was played by Mrs. W. C. Hooks. There will be no club meeting this week. Hostess on Nov. 18 will be Mrs. Harry Ratliff.

Zetagathian

Plans for their silver tea and book review at the home of Mrs. Jack Christian on Thursday were completed by members of the Zetagathian club when they met Friday with Mrs. Hunt Guitler.

Mrs. Eddie Pylant resigned as treasurer and Mrs. Clyde Young was elected in her place. The club voted to become 100% in subscriptions to the Federation News. Plans were talked for the annual Christmas dance.

Mrs. James K. Polk reviewed "Marie Curie, My Mother." Roll call was assigned. Refreshments were served buffet style after the lesson. The club is to meet Monday instead of Friday at the ranch home of Mrs. Wylie Kinard.

Shakespeare

Two visitors, Mrs. Bryan Lawless of Abilene and Mrs. B. R. Russell of San Saba, were present when the Shakespeare club met with Mrs. Joe Smoot Friday afternoon.

Mrs. R. O. Pearson led the lesson on current events and Shakespeare's "King John." Refreshments were served after the lesson. The club will meet this week on Thursday afternoon because of the Armistice holiday. Mrs. J. Max Thomas will be hostess.

Junior Self Culture

Ten members were present when the Junior Self Culture club met in the home of Mrs. Dell Barber Tuesday evening with Johnnie Lou Callison as hostess and program chairman. Worlds often mispronounced or incorrectly used were given during roll call. A program on Better English was presented, with Vada Cole discussing "Why Newspaper English" and Sue Motley reading a paper on "Is There An English Language?" The next meeting will be Nov. 22 with Vada Cole.

PICKED UP ALONG THE NEWS PATH

Another week like last week, dear readers, and this would-be-but-ought-to-know-better writer may do what she has long dreamed of doing—namely, go in for some nice, simple profession like sword-swallowing or Houdini stunts and leave to hardier souls such hopeless tasks as that of pleasing the public in the way of news.

To begin with, when only half The Record was off the press we overheard the remark right here in the office sanctum that "there isn't anything in it." That hurt us mighty bad, but it was just the beginning, folks, just the beginning. . . . One of our best friends made virtually the same remark after the whole paper was out—but we did manage to make this one admit that she "overlooked" several little items that she might have read with interest if she'd "noticed" that they were in the paper. . . .

You know how it goes—a week gets crossways, and all you can do is wait for it to end, for it'll be like it is as long as it lasts. . . . Well, last week was like that to its dying breath with us. . . . We were informed by one woman that our taste, if any, is very poor (this was because of something that appeared in The Record some time ago, but it took a week like last week to bring it out.) . . . A well-meant compliment was more or less ruined because somebody—not the one at whom it was directed—put the wrong construction on it. . . . Everything considered, we did well to get out of such a week with our life, and for small blessings we are duly thankful. . . .

It was something of a surprise to Jack Helton to see his pictured countenance looking at him from the pages of a Sunday-morning paper with a caption saying that he had "recently" been installed as president of the Colorado Lions club. . . . That "recent" installation was held some 18 months ago, and since then Jake Richardson has become president of the Lions club. . . . Being in the newspaper business ourselves in our own small way, we can understand how a picture which was sent in 18 months ago could get into an erroneous position like that. . . . But to the average person it's "just like a newspaper."

The town will miss the J. A. Ferguson—"Jim and Ann" to those who know them well. . . . They're leaving Sunday, as you probably already know, to live in Sweetwater. . . . In addition to all the work these two have done with the town's more worthwhile organizations, they've added more than their share of fun and entertainment to many a party and many a program. . . . You could count on them for everything from singing in a Christmas cantata to "going blackface" in some Ruddleick park amateur hour number. . . . Not many people have the knack for wholeheartedness that Jim and Ann have. . . .

Reveille will sound over the town at 7 o'clock Armistice morning. . . . Most of us will do some holiday snuggling back under the covers at that hour, but scores of faithful ex-soldiers will gather at the Legion hut, don their ex-service caps, and see what they can do in the way of marching downtown to breakfast. . . . The marching may not be much, the veterans admit. . . . Twenty years can do a lot of damage to a fellow's ability to "keep step," to say nothing of what they can do to his waistline and his hair. . . .

When Charles Starrett, star of Hollywood horse operas, was being entertained at dinner by the chamber of commerce preceding the Round-up in September, one of the men called on to speak stated that since Starrett had appeared in pictures with such titles as "South of Arizona" and "West of Cheyenne," he should, after his visit here, make a movie with Colorado in the title. . . . Sure enough, when Starrett returned to Hollywood, he made a picture called "Colorado Trail." . . . The picture has been released by Columbia about ten days now. . . . Of course, we know it has nothing to do with our town—just another one of those cases where city and state are confused.

Vivid Armistice memory: The way the old firebell rang and rang that night when the first false Armistice news reached Colorado in early November, 1918. . . . Those were the days when you could phone central and learn "where the fire was." . . . We've often wondered what telephone operator got the thrill of giving out the first Armistice news to all inquirers that night. . . . The thrill must have turned to sickness, of course, when word came that the news was false. . . .

November: Horizons clearing from October's haze to winter's sharp clearness of sky and hill and field. . . . Chrysanthemums. . . . Last roses. . . . Falling leaves. . . . Armistice. . . . Thanksgiving. . . . Turkey. . . . Thoughts of Christmas—how swiftly it comes once it gets started!

Every time we see Harley Sadler—and if you don't know who Harley Sadler is, go stand in the corner—we marvel anew at the way he remembers people and things about them. . . . No wonder the fellow he was campaign manager for last summer went into office! We'll bet that Jim Farley, whose ability to remember tens of thousands of people and call them by name on trigger notice has contributed not a little to his success as National Democratic chairman, hasn't much on our own Harley Sadler. . . . Incidentally, we've never seen this West Texas showman look better than he does this trip. . . .

Newest recruit to the ranks of the pastime-knitters is Mrs. Jim Cantrell. . . . We overheard her telling a friend that she's quit talking since she started knitting. . . . The reason: She says she can't talk without her hands. . . .

What do you think about changing the name of Colorado to Colorado City? According to one man in favor of the change, oldtimers disagree as to whether the "city" was ever a part of the town's legal name, but it was known almost exclusively as Colorado City up until about 1900. . . . For those people who might consider it "small town" to have the "city" attached to the town's name, this man points out that many large towns which have the same name as states add the word to their name to avoid confusion. . . . For instance: New York City, Jersey City, Kansas City, Oklahoma City, Iowa City. . . . Directors of the Colorado chamber of commerce have, as you probably know, already voted to sponsor a move to bring about an election on this matter, and the organization is anxious to know just how Colorado as a whole is reacting to the suggestion. . . . They want to hear from you and you and you. . . .

You've heard of singing that "makes the rafters ring." . . . Well, that's the kind they had at the Westbrook Baptist homecoming Sunday afternoon. . . . It was the church's first homecoming in its 48 years of existence, and it was put over with the enthusiasm which is said to mark most anything the Westbrook Baptists start out to do. . . . The little church, with its stove roaring red-hot against a blue norther that howled outside, was filled to capacity in the afternoon. Everybody had had plenty to eat, everybody had had "fellowship," and everybody sang. . . . The pastor, Rev. E. L. Redden, saw to it that each fellow shook hands with everybody else before the homecoming ended. . . .

ROGERS RAMBLINGS

SCHOOL NEWS

Here's good news, good looking furniture, clothing, "figures" (form building), good mysterious magic, good voices, good scenery, good acting and good seats accompanied by good prices, being displayed Nov. 24 at 7:30 o'clock in the Rogers school building. Are you going to be there? Do you like good entertainment? Do you like to see people two feet high do the acting? Do you think you could be a dwarf? It makes no difference what you "think" about it, just come on out and "know" what you are seeing is a fact and not altogether a fairy tale. We are proud to present "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," for your entertainment. We are more than sure you'll understand, enjoy and appreciate our play, featuring amateur actors and operators. The dolls do the entire acting and entertaining. They will make the announcements and give you a number of laughs. Folk's don't miss this treat which is only three weeks away. Only 10c and 15c.

Seniors of the community and all other patrons we wish to extend a cordial invitation to you to come to our Sunday school each Sunday morning at 10:30. Come and be with us. Read chapters and come to our entertainment. We want you in Sunday school. Come on. Let's have a good crowd next Sunday and let some other department entertain this month.

Everyone is welcome!
Your teacher,
MRS. BYRD.

(Received too late last week)
The Rogers Senior Sunday school class had a hay ride and weller roast Monday night. We rode the hay wagon as far as H. H. Callan's pasture. There we made a fire and after playing games and having lots of fun we roasted our wellers. All loaded on our hay wagon again and started for the schoolhouse where we all met. Every one reported having a grand time and plenty to eat. This was given for the purpose of urging every one back to our Sunday school class.

The Lady's club gave an entertainment for the members and their husbands Monday night in the school house. Forty-two and dominoes were enjoyed by each one. Cake and coffee were served. Mrs. Homer Jameson invited her Intermediate Sunday school class to be with them. The children enjoyed games outside. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Young of Quemado were visitors Sunday in the home of Mrs. Young's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. McMeekin.

Several of this community attended the Sacred Harp singing at Colorado Sunday. Mrs. Cecil Byrd spent the week-end with home folks at Westbrook. Willie Ruth Howell and Claudie Snowden spent Sunday in the Carlisle home.

SCHOOL NEWS

"The spooks have been roaming about this week and they ended up in our room," says Joe Carpenter. "We were glad too, because we had a Halloween party Monday evening."

Monday from 3:15 o'clock until 4 Mrs. Byrd's room enjoyed playing a few Halloween games and having Halloween fun. Our most important Jack-o-lantern was a big pumpkin with his eyes, nose and mouth cut in him. Each one received a fortune from inside the pumpkin, telling him what his fate would be. We ducked for apples from a tub of water in the center of the room. Everyone had a good time and enjoyed apples and candy after the party. We were hoping to have the fifth, sixth and seventh grades for our guests but they were unable to be present. We hope the goblins didn't get you on Halloween night.

The art classes are still very industriously working on their "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs." Believe us when we say, "It is really going to be worth your time and money and our talents." In fact it's a small important "Broadway Sketch" within itself. Don't miss it!

We wish to thank each and every one who took part in our pie supper. We thank those who baked, bought and ate the pies. We appreciate very much having had Mr. Porter of Colorado to auction our pies "away."

We wonder who goes to shows and walks up and down the aisle on people's corns. We are interested in a certain romance. Could it be, or could it be? He knows though. Don't get alarmed folks this isn't the "Keyhole," but it's just it's relative. Watch your step!!!

CARR NEWS

Mrs. W. H. Altenberg of Newgulf, Mrs. E. A. Eikenberg of Bay City, and Mrs. C. L. Wilson of Sealey visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Whitaker last week-end. With them, also, were Mr. and Mrs. George Kerstein of Sealey. Mrs. W. H. Smith of Christoval is visiting her daughter-in-law and granddaughter, Mrs. Dan Smith and

EYE to EYE in your own living room,
Your Mileage Merchant would unblinkingly talk this same good sense about saving your car's battery and oil by changing now to WINTER OIL-PLATING

NO BRASH "sounding off" by Your Mileage Merchant, because he can easily be specific about his patented Conoco Germ Processed oil. It specifically OIL-PLATES your engine for winter... no other oil does. And winter OIL-PLATING specifically cuts down on draggy "starts," battery exhaustion and oil extravagance, for these specific reasons:

The Germ Process adds in to this oil a patented man-made substance that sets up a strong force of attraction between Germ Processed oil and every engine surface it touches. Even the upright surfaces instantly attract and hold Germ Processed oil in the form of lasting OIL-PLATING. This OIL-PLATING can never drain down—any more than chrome plating—during the longest, coldest parking. No question then, about winter OIL-PLATING speeding your starter from the first, because before you've even got out your key, your engine is ready-lubricated by slippery OIL-PLATING. Never letting loose, OIL-PLATING can't shoot out of the engine, but remains a constant help to your oil-level—one of the smartest reasons for changing to Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco Germ Processed oil. Patented—your one way to change to WINTER OIL-PLATING!

Beware Coughs from common colds That Hang On

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your common cough, chest cold, or bronchial irritation, you may get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with any remedy less potent than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble and aids nature to soothe and heal the inflamed mucous membranes and to loosen and expel germ-laden phlegm. Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, try Creomulsion. Your druggist is authorized to refund your money if you are not thoroughly satisfied with the benefits obtained. Creomulsion is one word, ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)

from 9:30 until 10 o'clock in the evening in connection with the Red Cross roll call which opens Armistice, according to information just received by R. H. Barber, Mitchell county roll call chairman.

The story will go thus: In 1886 a drought rakes the Panhandle with famine. On September 8, 1900, Galveston is deluged with death, death and destruction from hurricane and tidal wave. Civil strife rages along the Mexican Border from 1911 to 1915. In April, 1917, America and Texas go to war. September, 1919—400 persons killed, 4,000 homeless from the Corpus Christi hurricane disaster. These are some of the scenes vividly portrayed through characterization and sound effects—but overshadowing the picture of human distress is the story told of mercy, of Texans catching the spirit of the Red Cross and through their membership and volunteer action alleviating and preventing suffering wherever and whenever it may occur.

Thus into the history of "Texas and the Cross of Red" is woven not only Texas' part in rendering disaster relief and war service, but also her participation in such peace-time Red Cross services as First Aid and Life Saving, Public Health Nursing, Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick, and the building of character in youth through the Junior Red Cross.

Concluding the program will be Governor-Elect W. Lee O'Daniel, who will address the people of Texas for three minutes.

Originating in the studios of WFAA, Dallas, "Texas and the Cross of Red," will be broadcast simultaneously over KPRC, Houston, and WOAI, San Antonio.
