JOHN MOGFORD IS NEW COUNTY AGENT FOR WARD COUNTY

AAA ASSISTANT RESIGNS
POST HERE TO GO TO BARSTOW

Having resigned Monday morning as AAA secretary and director for Mitchell county, John Mogford left Wednesday afternoon to assume his new duties as county agent for Ward county with headquarters at Barstow.

Mogford has been AAA assistant in Mitchell county since early in the summer of 1937. Recently he became secretary of the Mitchell County Agricultural Conservation association upon the resignation of B. J. Baskin, county agent, from that post.

Before leaving Wednesday afternoon Mogford said:

"I have enjoyed my stay in Colorado, and shall always think of this place as home. I appreciate the cooperation which I have received from the farmers of Mitchell county, and I attribute Mitchell county's good rating in this district as far as the farm program is concerned to their cooperation. It is my sincere hope that they will continue to cooperate with my successor."

A successor, for Mogford had not been definitely named Wednesday afternoon.

Mogford was accompanied to Barstow by his wife of only a few weeks, the former Mary Eleanor Rogers of Colorado.

THOMPSON ASSISTS IN SELECTING PRESIDENT FOR LUBBOCK COLLEGE

C. C. Thompson of Colorado attended the Texas Tech board meeting which was held in Fort Worth Saturday and which resulted in the election of Clifford B. Jones of Spur as third president of the Lubbock college.

Mr. Jones, 53, succeeds the late Dr. Bradford Knapp, who died in June. He had been a member of the board since the college was founded, and had served as chairman of the board since April, 1927.

Described as "West Texas No. One Citizen," Jones has filled a number of important posts during his career. He became assistant manager at Spur for the Swenson interests of New York in 1911, and in 1913 he became manager. Except for leave taken during the World War and during 1933 as regional advisor for the PWA, he has filled that position ever since.

He is now president of the Spur Security bank, owner of a cattle ranch at Spur, and is serving as a director of four railroads. He holds and has held innumerable high positions in clubs and civic organizations.

WALTER RANKIN PLAYS
FULLBACK ON TECH'S
WINNING RED RAIDERS

Colorado has a special interest in the fast-growing fame of Texas Tech's Red Raiders, undefeated and untied this season, because Walter Rankin, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Rankin and a graduate of Colorado High school, is now playing fullback on the Raiders' team.

Rankin was on the starting lineup in the Texas Tech-Marquette game at Lubbock last Saturday, and his work came in for favorable comment in press stories about the game. Tech was victorious, 21-2.

The victory over Marquette is said to have soared Texas Tech to its "greatest football heights in the history of the institution." The Red Raiders have received a bid to play in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas against an as yet unnamed opponent.

Rankin played star football during his years in Colorado High school.

"FROM EARTH TO MARS"

NEW YORK.—The fanciful possibilities of transportation in the future are to be portrayed at the New York World's Fair 1939 by one of its own exhibits. This is a "rocket gun." By a combination of movement, sound and light, there will be an adroit simulation of the arrival of passengers at the "rocket port," their entry into a cabin-projectile, its emplacement in the gun and then, bang, the sudden and swift departure of the voyagers from the muzzle of the gun for Mars, the Moon, or elsewhere in the ethereal beyond.

ANIMATED MEDICINE CABINET

NEW YORK.—A household medicine chest 20 feet high and 15 feet wide, with a mirror-door large enough to reflect 3,000 faces at one time, is to be a feature exhibit in the Hall of Pharmacy at the New York World's Fair 1939. The cabinet is, in reality, a stage, upon which marionettes 14 feet tall will dramatize the familiar receptacle as the family's first line of defense against disease and infection.

"HAPPY LANDING" AT FAIR

NEW YORK.—A "blind flying" exhibit, portraying the certainty with which a plane pilot may locate his position in the air with reference to the airport he seeks, and be sure of a "happy landing," is to be one of the dramatic presentations in the Aviation building of the New York World's Fair 1939. The device simulates a full-size plane and is mounted several feet from the floor on a universal joint.

SOUTH WILL GET CHANCE TO WORK OUT PROBLEMS

WASHINGTON.—Fairly clear hints are being given by administration officials that, however high they may rate the south as an economic problem, the region will have to lead the way to its own improvement.

This means, these men say, that no effort will be made to thrust upon the southerners any ready-made program of arbitrary readjustment which might be worked out by persons who learned about the south from mammy songs.

Numerous signs have pointed to this course from the beginning. The report of a special committee which pictured the south as the nation's No. 1 economic problem bore no recommendations for a remedy. It simply said, in effect: Here is the worst economic condition in the nation.

Several southerners who worked over the report before it went to President Roosevelt argued that the committee's work ought not to stop there. They urged that another meeting of the committee be called to work out remedies.

They wanted Mr. Roosevelt to include definite legislative recommendations in his message to the new congress. No new meeting was called.

About that time came the formation of the southern conference for human welfare, which established headquarters at Birmingham, which had no official connection with the administration.

When it began its sessions this week, Mrs. Roosevelt was booked as one of its chief speakers, and the president sent a letter.

Southerners are of two minds about how to deal with their problem, but they are in fairly general agreement on such things as a demand for a new deal in freight rates and obtaining more federal money for schools.

HOW PANAMA HATS ARE MADE

NEW YORK.—Just how panama hats are made, woven under water, is to be shown in the Ecuadorian exhibit at the New York World's Fair 1939. Expert weavers are to be brought to the Exposition and they will demonstrate the skill required to make these hats, which runs the cost of the fine grades as high as $100 or more.

CRADLE OF AMERICAN LIBERTY

NEW YORK.—A reproduction of historic Independence Hall in Philadelphia—the "Cradle of American Liberty"—is to be the Pennsylvania State Exhibit building at the New York World's Fair 1939.

YOU'LL LEARN LOTS ABOUT FLORIDA ORANGES

NEW YORK.—The Florida exhibit at the New York World's Fair 1939 is to occupy an area of two and a half acres on the west shore of Fountain Lake, near its head, and is expected to spend a minimum of $250,000 on its elaborate presentation. Its chief display is to be of its citrus industry, showing the growing, picking and packing of its fruit crops.

HOSPITAL NEWS

A former resident of Ranger, Mrs. C. W. Mosely came all the way from Aruba, Netherlands West Indies for her baby to be born at Root hospital last week. The infant, a son was delivered by a Caesarean section on Thanksgiving day at 9:10 a.m. He will be called Lowell Walton. The Moselys have another son who was born by Caesarean section in Ranger a few years ago.

Birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Barry, Jr., on Friday morning at 1:55 a.m. was also by Caesarean section, bringing to three the number of such births at the hospital within a week. The son will be called Thomas Patrick. Mrs. Barry is the former Emily Dulaney.

The first of the three Caesarean babies, Jerry Sue Rees, went home with her mother, Mrs. A. L. Rees of Carr, on Sunday. Jerry Sue was born on Nov. 18.

No serious injuries were sustained by Jimmie Lee Feaster, 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Feaster of near Buford, when he fell from the family car onto the pavement a short distance north of Buford last Sunday. He stayed in the hospital for observation and X-rays until Tuesday. The car was traveling about 40 miles an hour when the child somehow opened the door and fell out.

J. D. Baker, 19, sustained head cuts in an auto accident on Thanksgiving. He received first aid at the hospital but did not remain as a patient.

Tonsils of Joyce Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Campbell of Buford, were removed Saturday.

Miraculously escaping serious injury or death, E. H. Stradley of Burburnett remained in the hospital only three days after being struck across the shoulders and head by a heavy pole which fell several feet while he was working at Butler camp on Sunday. He left the hospital Wednesday.

A group of negroes enroute from the Douglas school at El Paso to play football in Abilene were given first-aid at the hospital about 1:30 Thursday morning. The negroes said they swerved to avoid hitting a man who stood in the center of the highway, causing their car to overturn. All of them were cut by flying glass, and one had a broken arm. They continued on to Abilene after their injuries were treated.

SUIT TO FEDERAL COURT

A suit to clear a land title was removed Monday from the 32nd district court in Mitchell county to the United States district court in Abilene. The petition, styled A. Monroe vs. the California Co., et al, was received here by U. S. Clerk Ida M. James.

The original petition was filed Aug. 16, 1938, and concerns 160 acres of land in Mitchell county.—Abilene Reporter-News.

NEW ENGLAND'S SEAFARING GLORY

NEW YORK.—A typical New England waterfront scene, with a 135-foot sailing vessel lying at her wharf, her masts towering 130 feet in air, is part of the exhibit to be made at the New York World's Fair 1939 through joint participation of New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts and Connecticut.

ONE SUSPECT IS HELD IN CONNECTION WITH KIRSCHBAUM ROBBERY

One suspect was under arrest Thursday morning, according to Police Chief Dick Hickman, in connection with the robbery of M. L. Kirschbaum's dry goods store some time Monday night.

The robber or robbers entered the store through the skylight and broke open Kirschbaum's cash box which was in an unlocked safe. Kirschbaum said the box contained around $100 in cash.

Two suitcases which had been packed full of clothing articles from the store stock were left on the floor when the robbers left via the back door.

SOUTH SAID TO BE FACING A CRISIS

NEW ORLEANS.—A five-point plan of rehabilitation for the cotton industry was advanced in the annual report of the directors of the New Orleans cotton exchange, which was released Tuesday.

The report said that if the present plan of crop control was continued the "South is facing, if not the greatest economic crisis since the Civil war, certainly a readjustment of the most serious magnitude."

It said a solution "may be found" in these "basic principles":

1. Compensation in some manner for the farmer who buys in a protected market and sells in a free market.
2. Continued crop control until the present surplus is reduced.
3. Elimination of the loan and substitution of a plan to allow the farmer to sell his crop at the world price and receive adjusted payments.
4. Compensation for the farmer if, in a year of restricted acreage, his crop is disastrously short.
5. A plan for liquidation of government-held cotton through the cotton trade and not through a government agency.

MILLIONS IN GEMS

NEW YORK.—Five million dollars worth of famous gems and precious stones in fine settings together with perfect examples of the silversmith's art, equal in all, romanticists might say, to a maharaja's ransom, are to be on display at the New York World's Fair 1939. They will be seen in the House of Jewels, now in course of erection in the Main Exhibit Area.

Whatever you buy—let the advertisements be your guide.

ROY WARREN BUYS SHEEP

Roy Warren, Mitchell county tax assessor-collector who did not run for re-election has gone into the ranching business. He bought 325 head of ewes yesterday from P. G. Dabney of Blackwell. The price was $6 for yearling and two-year-old ewes; $5.50 for threes, and $5 for four year olds. Warren has been connected with the cattle business for years, but this is his first venture in the sheep business. He has secured a seven-year lease on 1,400 acres 20 miles south of Colorado. The land is a part of the Wulfjen ranch.—Abilene Reporter - News, "Chousin' Around" column.

HOUSTON TRYING TO KEEP OFFICE OF FCA

HOUSTON.—W. L. Childs, president of the Houston chamber of commerce, said recently steps would be taken to keep the Federal Land Bank and Texas headquarters of the Federal Farm Credit Administration from being transferred from Houston to Waco.

A committee of business men has been appointed to seek improvement of conditions here of which complaints have been made.

A group of Waco chamber of commerce members appeared at the last directors' meeting of the land bank and urged the removal of the bank to Waco. Childs said he understood Waco interests would present a brief favoring the removal at the next directors' meeting.

The original sites of the various land banks were chosen by a committee appointed to act for Congress. The committee no longer exists and further congressional action might be required for moving one of the banks.

The City of Houston has not yet carried out its written promise, given when the bank building was erected, that the block facing it would be beautified as a public park or used for the site of a public building.

Complaints also have been made of poor street paving and inadequate sidewalks in the neighborhood of the bank.

HERE FROM FORT WORTH

Susie Beal Snyder of Fort Worth is visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Snyder. She came from Fort Worth with R. J. Wallace on Wednesday. Mrs. Wallace stayed in Fort Worth to visit Mrs. D. H. Snyder, Sr. and other friends.

HUNTERS NOW AFTER QUAIL, PHEASANTS

AUSTIN.—Texas hunters prepared for their final onslaught of the year this week—this time on quail, Mexican pheasant and fur-bearing animals. Sunrise Thursday saw an army of huntsmen stalk the Southwest brush country and other portions of the state for the tasty Bob White on which the general season will close Jan. 17.

Many counties have special laws on the taking of quail while Andrews, Callahan, Coleman, Ector, Gaines, Haskell, Martin, Garza, McCulloch, Midland, Terry and Yoakum counties have closed seasons. The chachalaca or Mexican pheasant, on which the same season dates apply, ranges in limited numbers along the southern reaches of the Rio Grande.

A shotgun or rifle may be used on either type of game bird with the bag limit on quail set at 12 and on chachalaca 5 per day. Possession limit on the former is 36 and on the latter 10.

The game department warned hunters to exercise extreme caution concerning special laws which apply on some species in certain counties.

YOUNG HOBOES ARE WELFARE PROBLEM

AUSTIN.—The problem of transient children is growing in Texas, says Mrs. Norma Rankin, director of state child welfare services.

A conference of child welfare workers recently considered the situation and subsequently the state child welfare department decided to launch a statewide study to ascertain more accurately the causes and the extent of youthful transiency as well as what should be done in dealing with it.

The conference disclosed that in one of the largest Texas cities 313 boys and girls under the age of 20 and classed as transients were accounted for between January and the end of September this year.

Seventy-three were less than 16 years old, 195 were boys between 16 and 20 and 45 were girls in the 16-to-20 year group.

Some of the children were from various sections of Texas while many had come from other states. Quite a few more were en route to California and Florida.

HAVE SCARLET FEVER

Both sons of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Snyder are confined to their room with scarlet fever. They are in the care of a nurse.

MORE TRAFFIC MISHAPS DUE DURING THIS YEAR

AUSTIN.—Death has marked 185 graves for Texas victims of highway violence during the remaining days of 1938.

This macabre information was posted by state police statisticians recently who warned that December, with its heavy Yuletide traffic and shopping, annually took the greatest human toll of all months.

Besides killing 184, a figure obtained from last year's December toll less 20 per cent, which has been the average reduction per month this year, the traffic experts said more than 1,500 will suffer injuries, a large portion of which will result in permanent maiming or crippling. Director Homer Garrison, Jr., of the state police ordered the full state highway patrol force of 300 to work double shifts during most of the month in an effort to halt the "carnage of carelessness."

He pleaded with motorists and pedestrians to be alert to hazards confronting them with shortened daylight periods, murky and cold weather, heavier traffic and wet pavements.

FARMERS SHOWN HOW VOTE ON 1939 MARKETING QUOTA WILL AFFECT THEM

A table showing how cotton farmers of Mitchell county and the rest of the nation will be affected by the outcome of 1939 quota voting on December 10 has been submitted by John Mogford, AAA assistant for Mitchell county.
 If cotton marketing quotas are in effect in 1939, the table shows, co-operating farmers will be affected as follows:
 They will have a quota equal to the larger of the actual or normal production on allotted acres, plus the cotton that would not have been subject to penalty if marketed in 1938; they will pay no penalty on cotton produced in 1939; they will receive conservation payments and parity payments; they will be eligible for cotton loans.
 Non-cooperators will be subject to penalty on cotton marketed in excess of the quota, will not receive conservation payments if the acreage allotment is knowingly overplanted, will not receive parity payment, and will be eligible for loans only on cotton produced in excess of the marketing quota, and then at only 60% of the rate for co-operators.
 If cotton marketing quotas for 1939 are voted down December 10, there will be no marketing quotas, no penalties, no loans. Co-operators will receive conservation payments and parity payments, while noncooperators will receive neither.

BLAZE OF GLORY WHICH SHOULD HAVE ROUNDED OUT WOLF SEASON FIZZLES AS THEY BARELY WIN FROM SNYDER TIGERS

The blaze of glory with which the Colorado Wolves should have rounded out their 1938 season last Thursday afternoon fizzled somewhat, and they were lucky to carry a 7-0 victory off Cantrill field after their annual Thanksgiving tussle with the Snyder Tigers.

It was the hardest fought battle on Colorado's home grid calendar this season. Thrills were plentiful as the Snyder Tigers threatened to score again and again, only to be held by a Wolf line that couldn't seem to tighten more than 10 yards from its goal line.

The only score of the game was made in the first minute of play on a 75-yard run by Tommy Chadwick, captaining the Wolves and playing his last game for Colorado high. Curtis Wood kicked the extra point.

Colorado did not seriously threaten again during the game. During the second quarter the game moved entirely into Colorado territory, and the Tigers were stopped twice just short of Colorado's line, once at four yards and once at seven. A pass from Keller to Popejoy put the ball within 15 yards of Colorado's goal another time.

Shields, Keller, and Popejoy were Snyder's most potent threats. Clark, substituting at half late in the game, did some star tackling.

Jack Smith, plunging the Tiger line again and again, played consistently good ball for Colorado. Shining on the defensive were Dick Jones, Duff Chesney, and J. W. Hodges.

The Tiger passes clicked, but there was a jinx on the usually effective Chadwick-Chesney aerial combination of the Wolves. Out of seven attempted passes, Snyder completed six for 68 yards. Colorado attempted seven, four of which were intercepted. First downs favored the Tigers, 11-8.

The win clinched second place for the Wolves in 6-B. Eight of Jack Christian's men, Duff Chesney, Curtis Wood, Tommy Chadwick, Dick Jones, J. W. Hodges, Rudel Glover, O. B. Trulock, and Walter Grubbs, were playing their last football game for Colorado High school.

SUPPORT OF HEALTH SEAL SALE IS URGED

AUSTIN.—Widespread support of the Christmas Seal Sale which finances the work of the national, state and local tuberculosis associations was urged last week in the following proclamation issued by Governor James V. Allred at Austin:

"The advent of the Christmas season with all its prospective pleasures brings to mind the joy and satisfaction arising from the ability to make others happy.

"For many years there has been conducted an annual nation-wide sale of Christmas Seals by the National Tuberculosis Association and its affiliated organizations, the proceeds of which furnish the financial sinews that aid and accelerate the triumphant endeavors of the medical profession and benevolent and charitable organizations to curb tuberculosis.

"Confronted as we are with the necessity of continuing this important battle, now that the fruits of victory have been achieved in large measure, as is indicated by statistics compiled by the National Tuberculosis Association and by various public and private instrumentalities which have undertaken in the interest of humanity to suppress completely this preventable and curable disease, to the end that future generations may profit and benefit by the diligent and determined efforts to relegate tuberculosis to the footnotes of medical history.

"NOW, THEREFORE, I, JAMES V. ALLRED, Governor of the State of Texas, do hereby proclaim to all our people THE ANNUAL SALE OF CHRISTMAS SEALS to be conducted from November 25th, 1938, to the beginning of the year 1939, at the same time urging them to lend every support to this great humanitarian endeavor by purchasing these 'seals of health' thus insuring that the benevolent work of eradicating tuberculosis may be consummated."

WHO'S WHO ON THE CAMPUS

Miss Cook

That popular young English teacher whom we all know as Miss Cook was born right here in Colorado. She attended grammar and high school here and graduated from Colorado High school.

She did some work at a junior college and Sul Ross and received her B. A. from Texas Tech at Lubbock.

The first year after her graduation from Tech, she substituted in Colorado schools. She then taught at Westbrook, Colorado Jr. High, and came to the high school this year to teach English.

Miss Cook reads in all her spare time and enjoys it more than any other time—passer. Her hobby along with reading is keeping a scrap book of modern poetry and clippings. She likes picture shows and selects her shows like she does her books. Enjoys radio programs more than picture shows. Asking her if she liked to cook, she said, "No, I'm a cook only in name."

Miss Cook is charming and full of life and fun. There is no question as to her popularity.

Ewell Dearan

Touchdown Toby! Sure, we know he's little, but he's tough as nails. Toby doesn't weigh but 125, but he's dynamite to that other line.

Every time someone mentions Ewell Dearan, somebody asks, "Who's that?" Everybody knows him as just Toby. We used to call him Popeye because he always had one of his eyes squinted up, but he put a stop to that.

Toby is no marvel in his books, but when he knows anything, he knows it. . . for sure. Like most boys who play football, he is exceedingly fond of cats—makes him strong and healthy, he says. Likes hunting, fishing and movies, but football is his real weakness.

WOLVES WIN 7-0

against their own goal post Thursday and held off an angry mob of Tigers for four long quarters.

After a 75-yard touchdown run by Tommy Chadwick in the first play of the game scoring became only a thing of the past.

Snyder made several scoring threats during the last half but they were all stopped by a determined Wolf pack. Shields of Snyder proved that he would be good on anyone's ball club.

All schools have a grudge game! Army has its Navy; Texas has its Texas A. & M.; T.C.U. has its S.M.U.; and Colorado has its Snyder Tigers.

After the final gun the game became only history. The only gladness in the Wolves was that they didn't have to play this bunch again.

THE AGGIES AT WORK

The Aggies started the three day week off last week by going on a field trip to the homes of Jack Long, Lee Roy Thompson, and James Cox. At these homes the boys inspected calves and feeder pigs.

Tuesday the entire day was taken up in the discussion of F.F.A. work. The Aggie Sweetheart contest was also mentioned. The girls' boxes have been made and will be placed in the hall soon. The four girls, Verna Campbell, Joyce Campbell, Doris Flo Doss, and Fannie Fae Porter will appreciate your support in helping one of them win a beautiful navy blue sweater trimmed in gold and a free trip to the Fort Worth Fat Stock show.

Wednesday the second year Aggies borrowed the old C.H.S. bus and started on a field trip to the farm home of Charles Slaton. She shook along to the west river bridge and there that fierce north wind overtook her. . . she froze up. . . That ended the trip.

Monday of this week the Aggies again discussed Future Farmer work and listed their objectives for 1938 and '39. No. 4 seemed most interesting to the boys. Entertain the Future Home Makers. Some other less important ones were: Attend the Fort Worth Fat Stock show, send the president to the National F.F.A. Convention, and attend the Cisco summer encampment.

Tuesday those boys who want to attend the Fort Worth show gave their names to Professor Shillingburg. Also certificates of merits were awarded to last year's Future Farmers: H. W. Venus, Olen Lawrence, Jack Long, O. B. Trulock, Kay Mc-

Carley, Jack McCordle, J. F. McCabe, M. A. Webb, James Nunn, John Nunn, Raymond Uzzle, Waddell Strain, Charles Stevens, Clay Smith (2), Edward Roach, Oscar Roberts, Murrell Blassingame, Thomas Aycock, Quinton Hamrick, and Raymond Fuller.

Those boys listed above, received these certificates by receiving recognition of the fact that while a student of vocational agriculture he attained high degree (85% or above) of knowledge and skill in some project that he had.

THANKSGIVING PROGRAM

In assembly Wednesday evening the students of Colorado High were presented a Thanksgiving program in keeping with the Thanksgiving holidays. The stage was decorated with pumpkins and piemelions while in the center of the stage was a shock of feed, typical of the first Thanksgiving. The setting, with the fine program gave the student body and teachers feeling of thankfulness for the gifts that we have received and enjoyed.

The program began with soft music played by Sara Guitar. Claudia Compton gave an interesting talk on the First Thanksgiving. It was presented in such a way that we all enjoyed it. Next Catherine Slagel presented an original story "Courtship Moderne." It was of the courtship of Miles Standish only it was presented in the modern method of making love. Some of the students picked up new points in that field of work. One of the most enjoyable things was a picture painted by Jack Herrington, while J. T. Williamson showed his skill as a piano player. The picture turned out to be a masterpiece of an early harvest crop at Thanksgiving time. Appearing next was an old man giving the reading, "When the Frost Is on the Punkin", but we soon found that the reader was none other than Lee Roy Thompson. Everyone enjoyed the reading. Mary Turner then made an original talk on "What America Has to be Thankful for Today." This was one of the high lights of the program, which put many of us to thinking. At the end of the program Sara Guitar played "Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow" while the student body stood with heads bowed. We were then dismissed. The student body and faculty are indeed thankful to Mr. Mason and his helpers in presenting such a splendid and appropriate program.

HOME EC II GIRLS SERVE BUFFET SUPPER

The Home Ec II girls gave a buffet supper Tuesday night, honoring their mothers, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Watson, and Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Foster. The guests arrived at 7:30 and visited until they were served. The girls had very attractive table arrangements and decorations. Fruit and oak leaves helped carry out the Thanksgiving idea. The menu consisted of Chicken a la King, Irish potato boats, buttered green beans, pineapple salad, olives, pickles, gherkins, celery curls, hot rolls, plum pudding, and coffee. Bazell McQuerry and Ruth Griffith were hostesses. The mothers all agreed that their time for a vacation from preparing meals was nearer than when school started. Some hinted a vacation Thanksgiving or Christmas. At least we are getting more experience in cooking.

BOOK IN BRIEF

"With Malice Toward None," is a novel of the last years of the Civil War—a period vibrant with the grim drama of desperate warfare and a bitter political struggle.

Some of the characters in "With Malice Toward None": Edwin M. Stanton—Secretary of War. The faithful watchdog that never slept.

Abraham Lincoln—Steadfast through treachery and defeat.

Mary Lincoln—Devoted and loyal to Lincoln.

Tad Lincoln—A joyous, irrepressible son.

These characters and many others help to make this novel one of the outstanding books in the library.

MISS BARRETT ENJOYED TRIP TO TSTA

Miss Velma Barrett attended the Library Division of the T. S. T. A. in Dallas over the holidays. Among the many interesting and educational exhibits offered, she found most interesting the many booths of books arranged by the publishing companies. Here, too, she found many methods of advertising books to read, art exhibits, and a booth dealing with journalism.

She attended the general sessions of the librarians, hearing lectures by Supt. L. A. Woods, Dr. Shores, and other educators outstanding in their lines of library work. She also visited the elementary school libraries, attending a tea at the Bowie school library.

A high-point of her trip was the Mexican banquet given for the library delegates at El Fenix Cafe. There was Mexican music and dancing. Many celebrities attended, among them being Grace Nell Crowell, Dr. Shores, and Supt. L. A. Wood. The speaker of the night was Rabbi Lefkowitz, who spoke of educational conditions in Germany for his people, the Jews.

Miss Barrett states that all this

The minute a modern gas range comes into your kitchen the preparation of three meals a day becomes an actual pleasure. So radically changed in design and performance that most cooking jobs can be carried on without any watching. Click simmer burners prevent boil-overs and retain the health-giving vitamins and flavor of foods. Accuracy of oven heat control permits heavy roasting or baking jobs to be done while you're out of the kitchen. See these new ranges. Install one for easier, better cooking. Terms and trade-in allowance on your old range make one easy to own.

IN AND OUT OF CHS

Several students have withdrawn from school in the last week. Some have moved away, some have things more important than a high school education, others . . .

Marion Carroll, Roland Sackett, Mary Elizabeth Hill, Opal Botvidson, Bryan Rowland.

Van Meadom has recently transferred from Dunn.

THE COOK TAKES OVER THE FARM HANDS

Mr. Shillingburg and Miss Cole plan to exchange classes next week. Mr. Shillingburg is the agriculture teacher and Miss Cole teaches Home Ec.

The members of the classes think this will be very interesting. We wonder what kind of farmers the girls may make, and as for boys, as Home-makers—Well just wait and see.

BRUCE NUCKOLLS ELECTED BEAU BRUMMEL

The H. E. Club sponsored a contest to select "Her Beau Ideal" of the Colorado High school. Each class chose one boy. The Freshman class won the contest. The lucky boy "Her Beau Ideal" of Colorado High is Bruce Nuckolls. His picture will be placed with the other favorites of Colorado High school in the Annual.

Since the band sweetheart and F. P. A. sweethearts are traditional we wonder why "Her Beau Ideal" cannot become traditional in Colorado High school, too.

THAT SAGE IS HERE AGAIN

Cheers, cheers, everywhere! Yes, the second issue of "The Sage" came out heads-up last Wednesday at noon. During the six weeks between the two issues, its popularity was not dulled. In fact, the staff thinks absence makes the heart grow fonder. It might be a pleasant surprise to open the next issue of "The Sage" and find a contribution from you—but, such things do happen.

HONOR ROLL ADDITIONS

We regret that the following names were omitted from the honor roll last week. It is such an easy matter to say that in the hustle and bustle of things the names were overlooked.

Senior—Marie Wallace, 98.
 Sophomores—Billie Tankersley, 91; Peggy Morgan, 89.

CAMPUS CAMERA

Your campus cuties wish to call your attention to the posters on the bulletin board. They are worth your immediate attention. Look at them tomorrow. . . .

Some of the CHS stude (?) have unnecessarily caused their fellow classmates and profs to demote them in estimation lately. The moral they should have learned: Crime doesn't pay even if you memorized the right test. . . .

Well, well, well. What could have happened to the Thompson-Cooper wooing? Evidently, Mackie Loving is chief squaw de luxe now. Or is she?

Harold Jones specializes in buying lamp bulbs for his friends. . . .

The do-you-know-well-I-don't scoop of the week: Why does Mary Hill wear a class pin with K. H. S. on it? The solution might be curly-headed. . . .

Congrats to those who responded to our gossip plea last week. Keep it up. . . .

Anything could happen if: Marjorie Burgess was not cutting gum.

Buster was less his better half, Joyce.

Hazel and Doris May were not in the same bookkeeping class.

Oakley Axtell forgot to grumble in English class.

Lee Brown was not surrounded by a flock of feministic admirers.

Texas History failed to make John J. Smith hungry.

Dook Cox became a Chemistry prof.

There were no six weeks tests.

Clay Mann's name was Sand Mann.

Certain boys and girls are so far behind in everything, they are just now doing Hallowe'en pranks. . . .

The Future Homemakers who trekked to San Angelo last Saturday report a de-lovely time. . . .

Harriet Ann Pritchett does the different again. She religiously uses black—yes, we said black lipstick. It looks elegant too. . . .

Silme Raymond Jones has a Secret Admirer of his irresistible charms. Really, my dear. . . .

To a Campus Camera contributor: Are the writers of this column the dumb sleepers you were satirizing? Put your answer in the little black box, will you? . . .

Guaranteed-not-to-fail remedy for heart throbbings: Just eat a nice size hunk of magnesium. Results are terrific. . . .

Corrections: (Mistakes can happen, you know!) . . .

Your campus cuties have been reliably informed that Murrell and Nina aren't that way. Crockett and Berman ditto. Our sincerest regrets. We'll strive in the future to be more punctual. . . .

M. A. Webb has been faithfully hounding Sarah Pond's trail. Hmm. . . From the little black box: Dear Mr. Mason: We are wondering if the pumpkin mentioned in assembly has anything, to do with a certain signature. . . .

(Signed) The Bats. . . . We believed Harriet Ann Pritchett was slipping two weeks ago. Now, however, he has undoubtedly fallen. Nothing like a great big tackle. . . .

Cootsie Bodine rated a date with Mike Burt Sunday night. (Or was it ratin'?) . . .

Apologies are in order from Buzz Majors to Oakley Axtell. Hint! Hint! Assembly programs have been veddy, veddy interesting lately. Candid shots of last week's programs; CHS stude putting their feet to the nearly-like-Benny Goodman music of the Rhythmeers. . . . Lee Roy Thompson making Wednesday's program worthy of a blue ribbon. . . .

The Campus Camera trends orchids to the Beau Ideal, Bruce Nuckolls. A Tyrone Power even if he is a little bit in the raw. . . .

George Mallard's motto: While the cat's away the rat will play. . . .

Many Frankenstein enthusiasts were at the Palace Saturday midnight. Afterwards most of them were scared iz gootamollys. . . .

Nancy Price was not even within a brassie shot of Colorado during the holidays. Social festivities in San Angelo was the chief reason for her absence. . . .

Flash! Buzz Majors has been squiring Catherine Slagel. Is it just another hello-goodbye affair or ???

We wonder what F. P. T. means! More sizzling sayings about scholastic stude in CHS next week. . . .

BING AND MACMURRAY FORM NEW FILM TEAM

Producer-Director Wesley Ruggles felt that one male star wouldn't be enough to carry the load in his new hilarious comedy, "Sing You Sinners," and so he drew upon the services of two of Hollywood's leading young men, forming the screen's newest team.

They are Bing Crosby, America's king of croon, and handsome Fred MacMurray, who play together for the first time in Paramount's new comedy, which will show at the Palace theatre Saturday midnight, Sunday and Monday, Dec. 3, 4 and 5.

The story, from the pen of Claude Binyon, tells of the uproarious experiences of a madcap California family who are almost brought on the rocks by the irresponsibility of one of their sons, played by Bing, but who are finally carried by him to fame and riches when his nerve and luck prove stronger than any obstacles.

Disgusted with his hometown's inability to appreciate him and determined to make some quick money, so that his brother, MacMurray, can marry his childhood sweetheart, Bing leaves home for Los Angeles, where he proceeds to make a killing at a racetrack. Buying a "swaphop" with his winnings, he sends for his family, but, before they arrive, he trades the "swaphop" for a horse of dubious talents, with whom he hopes to make a fortune at the tracks.

Prominent in the supporting cast are Elizabeth Patterson, the family's long-suffering mother, Donald O'Connor, Bing's kid brother and the boy who rides his horse to victory, and lovely Ellen Drew, who has the role of MacMurray's sweetheart and who finally becomes a member of the madcap family. She is 1938's "Cinderella."

"THE STORM"

Palace—Thursday, Dec. 1

A red-blooded and thrilling melodrama of the two-fisted men who sail the seas, this packs the authentic, salty tang of maritime adventure and, loaded with action from start to finish, can be counted upon to do able duty as tiptop program fare. A trio of screen toughies—Charles Bickford, Preston Foster and Barton MacLane—should do their share, as marquee magnets, in attracting the thrill fans, with Bickford, in particular, scoring a distinct triumph in his screen comeback. Story has Bickford and Foster as rough-and-tumble wireless operators and MacLane as a heartless ship captain who sends Foster needlessly to his death. A counter-plot concerns the feud between Bickford and his young brother, Tom Brown. Harold Young directed.

Players are Charles Bickford, Preston Foster, Barton MacLane, Tom Brown, Nan Grey, Andy Devine, Frank Jenks.

"PROFESSOR, BEWARE"

Palace—Tuesday and Wednesday December 6 and 7

This Harold Lloyd laughfest was worth waiting for. It contains enough hilarious comedy, original touches, pace and comedy to roll up significant grosses. No little credit attaches to the corking comedy support Lloyd gets from such bell-ringers as Raymond Walburn, Lionel Stander and William Frawley. Lloyd himself was never in better form. His well-established facet for thrill-fringed slapstick is renewed along swift lines. By continuously underplaying the comedy, a rare accomplishment, Lloyd manages to develop numerous anti-climatic laugh bits. He gets able romantic support from Phyllis Welch. Lloyd is an Egyptologist who finally gets his big chance to join an expedition but never gets there. Elliott Nugent directed.

Players are Harold Lloyd, Phyllis Welch, Raymond Walburn, Lionel Stander, William Frawley.

"WHERE THE BUFFALO ROAM"

Ritz—Friday and Saturday December 2 and 3

Builing to a smashing climax, this one should prove amply satisfactory to the action-fan trade at which it is aimed. Despite a halting beginning, which can be remedied by a return to the cutting room, this feature, aided by eight songs, rises above its budgetary limitations. Tex Ritter, as the newly-appointed government buffalo scout, goes to Santa Fe to solve the mystery of his mother's murder. In so doing, he brings peace to the frontier town by becoming its fighting marshal, and proving that the local seamen are at the bottom of all the villainy. Incidentally, he befriends Dorothy Short and her brother who operate a freight service. Enough action is supplied to satisfy juvenile audiences especially. Al Herman directed.

Players are Tex Ritter, Horace Murphy, PeeWee Pollard, John Merton, Dorothy Short, Richard Alexander, Karl Hackett.

"BLACK BANDIT"

Gem—Friday and Saturday December 2 and 3

A story with a neat twist and some hard riding make up this western "actioner," which should satisfy addicts of sagebrush specials at which it is aimed. Bob Baker, as a dutiful sheriff, is forced to attempt the arrest of his twin brother who is charged with rustling cattle. In the course of things, the enraged cattleman mistakenly take Bob for his brother and put him behind the bars. The love interest of the piece, Marjorie Reynolds, finally manages to convince the cattleman that they are holding the wrong man. She leads them to the hideout of the outlaws, where Baker's twin brother is killed and all things are rectified, including the love suspense. George Wagner directed.

Players are Bob Baker, Marjorie Reynolds, Hal Taliaferro, Jack Rockwell, Forrest Taylor.

EDITORIAL

Our 2,000 readers of this column will excuse us this week for giving the space to our friend Turner. Read his article and then tell us what he is talking about.

WORDS — WORDS — WORDS

I wish to say in the beginning that Uncle Fred has been tolerant with this writer in allowing him space in the "Column". The Columnist seems to have no difficulty in filling the space allotted to him. The disposition to let others of less ability be heard is commendable.

The average writer of today proceeds with caution lest someone with super-sensitive nerves may become upset. To my mind that is one of the major dangers of the present age. Through criticism our advances have been made. Our George Washington criticized and quarreled with the English George III. The result of that quarrel is our liberty and happiness. Copernicus vigorously differed from the Ptolemaic theory in reference to the solar system of planets. This quarrel resulted in great scientific achievement in favor of the "Copernican Theory" as it is being taught in every civilized country in the world today. It is a regrettable fact that the great scientist suffered the persecution of having his mouth padlocked on the subject of his discovery.

Hiram Luther, the Reformer, got in serious trouble "With the Powers that be." Mr. Luthern won.

O. W. Holmes, M. D. (father of our great jurist O. W. Holmes) became entangled with the extreme conservatist in his efforts to reduce the pain and danger of childbirth. The great Holmes was triumphant. His respect and sympathy for mothers will live on.

The reader has probably discovered the disposition of this writer to justify an attack on "folklore" and conservatism. That is exactly what I am striking at. Every writer who has the hardihood to sever from the well-beaten path, endeavors to justify his action.

The foregoing is a fair example of what some writers present as a way of escape from the danger of being considered morbid. I am now preparing to place an objection to court procedure in dealing with delicate set cases. Just now I recall to mind a blond about eighteen years of age at time of trial, 1927. I consider it significant to mention the fact that the courthouse was wide open to all visitors. The location and names of the people involved will be withheld for obvious reasons. Minute details of this trial will not be mentioned as the reader is apt to feel concerned only about results. Being acquainted with all people connected with this trial caused me to take keen interest in the outcome.

The girl was placed on the stand to give an account of her conduct with the man of twenty-two years. Pain was plainly visible on her brow. With twitching facial muscles she stammered and blundered as questions were shot in her direction in rapid-fire manner. Shaggy-browed counsel for the boy was quick to notice the mental pain endured by the girl and suddenly became more cruel and obscene till she was talking incoherently. The old judge seemed to be perfectly happy and satisfied with the proceedings. The condition of the girl demanded respect and kindness. But instead, calumnies were piled mountain high on her character as two men of doubtful reputation took the stand in defense of the boy who was no doubt guilty.

The visible suffering of the girl caused a ripple of resentment to pass through the congregation. The girl went home disgraced and with a heart full of resentment. The boy came from the trial as quite a hero. Such treatment of girls is sure to beget contempt and disregard for law and order. Language used during this trial is scarcely suitable for the society of cattle, if a premium may be placed on decency.

The judge sat between the writer and a seal as follows: "The Great Seal of the Great State of _____"

When my resentment and astonishment had subsided, I reviewed my notes and decided that the trial should be dated 1300 instead of 1927. On the heels of this trial came a tragedy. An infuriated boy friend of the girl met the "hero" and when he had finished carving with a pocketknife only quick work of a physician saved his life.

All of this happened right here in America. Soon after this trial I submitted the facts for publication in a paper of the same state. And along with acceptance I received the editor's best regards.

If I may descend to my own personal sentiment, it is hoped that articles of this nature may be of value to the public in general in their request for decency in our court of justice. We don't mean to insinuate that court judges need reforming. Only a few of them require good strong American language for their guidance.

In closing I beg to say that this writer is a "World patriot" and to do good is a part of his religion.

The true sentiment of this article is free from vanity.
Westbrook, Texas. W. M. TURNER.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT

A few weeks ago we had an article on Gov. O'Daniel's opposition to capital punishment and this week comes a letter from one of the governor's friends who shows his ignorance of the Bible as he states that "Moses killed an Egyptian and if the law had been literally followed Moses would have been put to death."

For his "enlightenment" and to correct this error we say at the time that Moses "killed" the Egyptian the law which says "Thou shalt not kill" had not been given. Today in our eyes Moses was a murderer. But not so in the eyes of God. Let us not overlook another part of the Scripture which says, "For until the law sin was in the world; but sin is not imputed when there is no law."

There is a law written on almost every page of God's word from Genesis to Revelation which says to "Love good and hate evil." That is what Moses did. Moses looked on the burdens of his brethren, and he saw an Egyptian smiting a Hebrew. Love for his own was the motive that prompted Moses to kill the evil one that was smiting his brother. And God, who looketh on the heart knowing that Moses was willing to lay down his own life in fighting for what he, Moses, knew was right, called Moses to be a leader unto the children of Israel. God knew that Moses was an instrument that God was well pleased to use.

THE JEW

Much is being said in the daily papers about the Jew. It is our endeavor to write this, our views of the Jew.

The poor Jew is coming in for a lot of grief among the bandit nations of Europe. There are several reasons for this. The prophets of old foretold that he was born to be persecuted. That he would be scattered over the face of the earth. That his name would be a hiss and a byword among the nations.

The Jew, while he makes a good citizen wherever his lot is cast, yet, he is obstinate in his traditions. He refuses to go into the melting pot and become a general unit of a country in a social way. As a rule, he refuses to intermarry with none except his own race. He has no relations except among the Jews. This tradition serves to ostracise him from the family ties of all except those of his own people. While he is a good citizen, and is esteemed for his many good qualities in free America, yet, he has no family ties outside his race. He is a Jew. The Jew as a rule, is frugal and thrifty, and as a result, he owns a major part of the wealth of the world. That is the reason he is persecuted by Hitler and Mussolini. They want his money. In fact, they already have it. That is why a Jew is such a bad person in the eyes of those two big bandits. If the Jew didn't have any money, he would not be persecuted and dealt the misery he is receiving.

The world owes much to the Jew. Only for him, Christ, the Savior would be unknown. He gave the world a religion that took the place of idolatry. He gave laws that are eternal in their application wherever justice, equity and liberty are concerned. The laws of this state and that of the United States are mainly based on the Code of Moses.

The American Jew has always been a good, loyal citizen. When Uncle Sam went to war, he was the first to answer the call. In the days of peace, he attended his business and marched in the ranks of national progress.

The Jew is loyal to his adopted country. He did his bit in the World War. In spite of his persecution and his peculiar traditions the Jew will live and be kicking long after Hitler and Mussolini have been eaten by worms and ants.

The Italy News got off this old gag as original:

"Believe It or Not," that was the headline of a dispatch from Cameron, S. C., Monday. The deer, a 250-pound, seven-point buck, was reported to have unceremoniously crashed right into Rev. C. E. Hill's dining room while the family were at supper. Needless to say the family quickly made their exit, leaving the buck monarch of all he surveyed—for a time at least. However, the minister soon returned with a shotgun and bagged his game. This reminds one of a similar incident which occurred at an isolated Negro church on Peach creek in South Texas several years ago when a large black bear (fatigued from being chased for several hours by hounds) deliberately and quietly walked into the Negro church while they were all bowed in prayer. When the brethren and sisters arose to find a big black bear in their congregation, it is needless to say that a number of new window panes were necessary to repair the damage to the church.

This writer has been invited out this week to a Mexican dinner and before the inviter left he said he sure to bring a Mexican.

COUNTRY ROADS WITHOUT RAISING ANY TAXES ANYWHERE OR VOTING ANY BONDS

Well, you may wonder just how that can be done. Well, let me tell you. By establishing a division of U. S. rural post roads and farm to market roads, in connection with the present highway department. While this writer was in Washington the past summer I happened to learn something about how this plan is working in other States and am convinced that it will, if given a trial, work here in Texas. This division has a director whose duty it is to see after these roads just like it is the duty of the highway commissioner to see after the highways; has an engineer who is experienced in building country roads. The highway department has all supervision, receives all monies, makes all surveys, and all the county is out is the right-of-way, and they have to agree to maintain them. The counties can contract with the department to build the roads or the bridges thereon.

Well you say more departments. Well may I ask you name a division or department that is or will serve as many people as a division like this? There is nothing in it that will raise any taxes on anything not even gasoline. Just simply a plan whereby the country roads are allotted a portion of the highway monies that we are already paying. This bill gives a clear definition as to what a U. S. rural post road and farm-to-market road is. Any money allotted to Texas or any other state having such a division, for this class of roads will have to be spent on them. And the commissioners and judges are to be complimented for the resolution passed at their last convention asking Washington to direct 25% of all Federal road funds allotted to Texas to be spent on this class of roads. And I hope it is done. It is estimated that there is 22,000 miles of roads in the state highway system and that ten thousand miles are in a state of depletion, ready for rebuilding and repair, and that department never will catch up with the highway building in Texas or any other state, any curve that you cannot make sixty miles per hour around is too crooked and will eventually be straightened out. So here we go still building highways and the country roads are left to the poor counties to continue to drag or vote bonds to build permanent roads.

NO BONDS, NO RAISE IN TAXES ANYWHERE IN THIS PLAN. And what would be nicer for it to have a starting point right here in Mitchell county? Well, it would be nicer than the chamber of commerce in Colorado. Lorraine, I would like to see their approval to such a plan backed by the school. There is a very necessary for transportation of our school children in a safe manner, get them there on time and safe. Safety first.

About ten years ago a bunch of rural carriers went to Austin and tried to get the legislature to classify rural routes as second class highways and give part of the highway funds for this class, but nothing doing then. But let's all go to Austin this time and get something done. Are you with me? If so contact me. For better country roads. E. E. SMITH.

ROGERS RAMBLINGS

SCHOOL NEWS

Mr. Winter got the marionettes Wednesday night. At any rate they were entirely out of the question when it came time for the curtain to "ring up" on the first act. We do wish to thank those people who were here Wednesday with the expectation of seeing this "great show." We regret very much that they had to exit with as much as a glimpse of the first act, but due to cold weather we did not have the marionette show, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs."

However, next Friday night, Dec. 2 we are going to present in big style "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs." Friends, we do want you to come and see just what can be done with a few old dresses, some apple boxes and a few cans of paint. We promise that this show will be worth your time and most enjoyable for the entire family. We actually have scenes for those who quarrel, those who are timid or bashful, those who cry, those who are in love. You see it all on the stage, and right from the start, dolls from 2 to 3 feet high do the performing. We have good voices for your sake and good seats for everyone. Be sure and be here Friday night, Dec. 2, at 7:30 and for 10c and 15c you'll see a show that will be long thought of and discussed by you and your friends.

The girls and young married ladies of Rogers community have organized a basketball team and last Monday night, Nov. 21, played a ball game at Westbrook, and they are in hopes of playing again Thursday night.

We are wondering why there are so many of our pupils absent today. Could it be the old "Turkey Day" feasting got the best of them?

We regret very much to let our little twins of the school go. J. H. and R. H. Fisher have withdrawn from school because of moving to their new home in East Texas. We hope they will be happy in their new home and school.

SENIOR NEWS
The seniors are still trying to sell annuals, but don't seem to be doing any too well. So everyone please buy an annual from us. It will be well worth the money you spend on it. They are only $1.50 each.

Our sponsor, Mr. Hood, has started work on the school play. Don't work too hard Mr. Hood and neglect the Senior class entirely. Mr. Cox may have the responsibility of seeing by himself now. Since our sponsor is directing the school play we think we should get part of the money taken in.

BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE certainly makes short work of relieving those stubborn old coughs and colds that other cough remedies fail to badge, according to Mr. H. A. Allen. Mr. Allen says: "For years I suffered every winter with a terrible cough. I have had many sleepless nights and coughed until tears ran, and my stomach ached. I started again with the same old cough this year—but after a few doses of BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE my cough was gone." You can't go wrong on BUCKLEY'S—by far the largest-selling cough medicine in all cold Canada. One or two doses and stubborn tough coughs are often on their way. And it's only a few cents at drug stores everywhere. Money back if not delighted. For Sale W. L. Doss, Druggist.

PICKED UP ALONG THE NEWS PATH

There's not a briefer month in the year than December when you've passed the age of waiting for Santa Claus to come and reached the age when you've got to help him get here.

With Thanksgiving behind, we're rapidly acquiring the Christmas spirit, along with the usual Christmas worries and fears. For those who have learned the way life goes, the joyful preparations for Christmas are always linked with a silent, wordless prayer that tragedy and grief will hold off while the Yuletide comes.

Although we aren't acquainted with the Jack Tillsons of Loraine, they have been much in our thoughts since we learned of the tragedy which came to them on Thanksgiving day. You've probably read about how their little 8-year-old girl, Maxine, was crushed fatally while playing on a pile of telephone poles with other small children at 4:30 Thanksgiving afternoon. One of the poles rolled over her, crushing her chest. At 4 o'clock Friday afternoon, less than 24 hours after she had been a happy, whole-bodied child at play, Maxine's funeral was held.

The "something of great interest to Colorado and all West Texas" which this column said last week would be revealed by the end of the week was, as you've probably guessed, the announcement of the marriage date for Frances Jones and Lloyd Croslin. Several women whom we consider connoisseurs in such matters have told us that the announcement tea given by Frances' mother, Mrs. Otto Jones, at her Randerbrook ranch home on Saturday afternoon was the loveliest and most tastefully appointed social affair which has taken place in Colorado and vicinity in many moons.

A special thrill came to Mrs. P. C. Coleman when she saw "Marie Antoinette" at the Palace theater Monday afternoon. Years ago Mrs. Coleman, touring Europe with her daughter, Eleanor, visited some of the historic buildings which were reproduced in the picture.

My goodness, the respect these youngsters don't have for the dignity of their elders! The other afternoon we were walking past a school bus, fondly hoping that we were our usual gracious and dignified self, when a be-freckled and irrepressible young fellow stuck his head out the window and yelled, "Hi, Toots!" Just like that!

You've heard of parties with missing honorees. That's the kind of a picture show party Mrs. J. Lee Jones had for Mrs. J. E. McCleary on Monday afternoon. At the last moment Mrs. McCleary found the moving van unexpectedly at her door, ready to transport her belongings to her new home in Lubbock. Moving vans have no sympathy for social things, so Mrs. McCleary had to miss the party which was her farewell honor! But everybody understood, and the party still honored her, even in absentia, as the Latins used to say.

Although not all of us are Methodists, we of The Record force will miss Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Jameson, who have gone to their new post in the Methodist church at Carlsbad, N. M. They were nice people as a newspaper counts nice people, as well as in other ways. They were always appreciative of whatever publicity the work of their church received, always ready to help us get whatever information we might be needing. It's the plain duty of a newspaper to support all worthy religious activities by giving whatever publicity is needed or indicated. One shouldn't expect spoken thanks for doing a duty, and we don't. But sometimes the things one shouldn't expect to hear are very nice to hear, you know.

By now you probably have your envelope of Christmas seals, along with a letter from Mrs. Bennett Scott, who is chairman of the seal sale campaign. One of my favorite people, Mrs. Scott, and a lot of other Mitchell countians are of the same mind. The cause is worthy, and you can't prove your true Christmas spirit in any better fashion than by paying promptly for the seals which have been sent to you. You don't have to pay, of course, but if you're the kind of person the people who mailed out the seals thought you were, then you will.

This idea of having Colorado businessmen go out to the various communities of the county and get better acquainted with the men of those communities is, to our way of thinking, a jim-dandy. The chamber of commerce, you know, is sponsoring a series of community get-togethers for this purpose. The first one is to be held at Carr on Friday night, and another will be held at Buford on Dec. 20. Instead of asking the men in the various communities to come into town, the Colorado men will go to the communities and meet the community men on home territory. Each Colorado man will have a man of the community as his guest for dinner and the evening. The links between Colorado and the rest of Mitchell county cannot grow too strong, for Colorado is a town that farming has built, and farmers are still the county's most important group of citizens. Unless the order of things undergoes a great change, they always will be.

Here and there at the Snyder Colorado game last Thursday afternoon—there's Mrs. E. V. Montgomery—and now that I've learned who she is, her husband is a builder of highways, you know. Mrs. Don Sivals of Midland and her daughter, Mary Martha, capably squired by nephew Craig Porter. Josephine Chesney, all smart in a black suit-dress with a giant mum on her shoulder and Jack Alexander at her side. A Richardson girl, Mrs. Mike Smith of Sweetwater, and two of her in-laws, Mrs. Jake Richardson and Mrs. Ray Richardson. Joe Cox with that pretty little Opal Burnett. Mabel Earnest Cooper here from TSCW, Denton, for Thanksgiving with her grandmother, Mrs. C. H. Earnest, accompanied by Duncan Hayes of Midland, son of Archdeacon and Mrs. J. W. Hayes. Mabel bareheaded, as usual, but we'd go bareheaded, too, if we had hair like that. The former Etta Fern Harkins from Tahoka with her big husband, "Broadway" Browning. Walter Casey, who lawyered here for awhile last summer with Harry Ratliff, wandering into the game with the wife he acquired after leaving here. They just wandered out this way from Austin, where both are in the University of Texas. Never saw so many mums. And never felt a northwest wind blow colder from the back with the sun shining warmly from the front. Nostalgia of the last game.

At least four weddings, all of which have been or will be properly announced, are slated to take place in Colorado during December, and three of them will be Christmas week.

The Thanksgiving just passed was a very special one for Savannah Sneed, negro house-servant to Mrs. Y. D. McMurry for the past 25 years. Savannah went over to Big Spring for Thanksgiving dinner at the V. Van Gieson home, where Mrs. McMurry spent the holidays. It was Savannah's first trip out of town in 10 years. A wallet containing valuable papers and some money was lost in some Mitchell county cafe by a young member of the marine corps on Wednesday night of last week. There was money in the wallet, but the boy doesn't want the money back. He's anxious to get the wallet because it contained some papers of great personal value to him. His address is in the wallet.

Along with the rest of Colorado, The Record will sorely miss Benton Templeton and his family when they go to Austin to live on January 1—Mr. Templeton's been appointed an examiner for the Texas Railroad Commission, you know. Benton Templeton has always been reticent about publicity on himself, but we are indebted to his sense of news for many a tip which led to stories we wouldn't have knowingly missed for the world. Some of his suggestions are still on our file, and on some happy tomorrow when we have time and the opportunity, we are going to work out the stories based on those suggestions. None of these suggestions have anything to do with the Templeton family or anybody related to it. Incidentally, Mr. Templeton is not forsaking the field of law in taking his new appointment. He's termed an "examiner," but his duties will be those of an attorney.

SEVERAL FROM HERE MAY ATTEND LEGION MEETING AT SNYDER

Several members of the Oran C. Hooker post of the American Legion and of the local Legion auxiliary are hoping to attend the convention of the 19th congressional district of the Legion and Legion auxiliary in Snyder on Saturday and Sunday. The Colorado auxiliary unit is to receive a citation during the convention, which will make those members of the unit who do attend honor guests at a special breakfast, according to Mrs. J. G. Merritt, president.

According to news items sent out from Snyder, the highlight of the two-day conclave, at which approximately 1,500 buddies and their wives are expected, will be the main address Sunday morning at 11 o'clock by Attorney General William McCraw of Austin, at the First Methodist church.

A street parade will be staged through the business district at 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, if the weather permits. A Legion dance will be given Saturday night at the Legion Hut, beginning at 8:30 o'clock.

The American Legion Auxiliary, with Mrs. J. E. Shipp in charge, will give a breakfast at 8 o'clock Sunday morning in the Wilsford Tea Room for auxiliary members.

Luncheon, featured by "son-of-a-gun" with all the trimmings, will be served at the city tabernacle at 12:30 o'clock.

The business session will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Notables who have accepted invitations to attend include Vincent Chiodo of Houston, state department commander; Mrs. W. A. Wyatt of San Marcos, state president of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Fred E. Young of Austin, state adjutant; Jim Wilson of Floydada, 19th District commander; and Walton Hood, former state commander, who will represent Col. Earnest O. Thompson, who cannot attend.

SWEET POTATO RECIPES GIVEN BY MISS CRIPPEN

Merits of the sweet potato as a food, and some favorite recipes for its use, are set forth in the following article submitted by Miss Vara Crippen, county home demonstration agent.

"The sweet potato is the most important vegetable crop in the south, according to R. E. Wright, of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. In Texas alone it has a farm value of three and one-half million dollars annually. It is easily grown, yields a high tonnage per acre.

"Added impetus has been given to the sweet potato in the last decade with the discoveries that they are especially high in vitamin content. They are sources of vitamins A, B, C, and G, standing in about the same rank as carrots.

"They are fine in flavor, easily digested, and highly nutritious. The deep yellow varieties that are grown most abundantly in Texas are among the ones that are moist and juicy in texture, rich in color, and are of especial interest in food value. They have a high fuel value. They contain available proteins and carbohydrates, iron, potassium salts, which bring about a basic reaction in the body balancing the acid effects of breadstuffs, meat and eggs.

"There are varied ways of preparing them so that one should not become tired of them. We should use

SEE how refreshing it is, the way Your Mileage Merchant—here in the paper and at his Conoco station—backs up his statements about Germ Processed oil. It brings you more than an oil-change, because right after it is pumped up from the crankcase like any oil, it does something any oil cannot do. Energized by the Germ Process—patented—it bonds to every working part and stays up lastingly in the form of OIL-PLATING. Even grindstones can scarcely remove OIL-PLATING, so it certainly cannot drain down while your car stands cold—no matter how long. Therefore the instant you want to start up, every engine part swiftly and safely slides into action on its ready OIL-PLATING—the lubricant that plainly can't be held back by any cold; that can't hold back your battery. The quick starts tell you there's no grinding wear in your OIL-PLATED engine. It won't get hoggish with your Conoco Germ Processed oil, another good straight reason for you to change to Your Mileage Merchant today.

different ways, also, because we should have either Irish or sweet potatoes in the diet every day. They may be baked, either in oven or in ashes. They may also be scalloped, using various foods with them for variety, such as apples, oranges, nuts, crushed pineapple, or raisins, marshmallows. They may be candied, served with ham or other meats. Another very delicious way of preparing them is a pie. The recipe follows: 2 cups mashed potatoes, 1 cup sweet milk, 3 eggs, 1/2 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 teaspoon salt, 6 tablespoons sugar, nutmeg, if desired. Beat the yolks of the eggs into the cooked mashed potato, add the melted butter, and the other ingredients. Pour into a pie pan lined with pastry, bake in a moderate oven until the pie is set. Make a stiff meringue of the egg whites and six tablespoons sugar, spread over the top of the pie and bake slowly until a delicate brown. One-fourth cup of coconut may be added to the filling. (Makes one large pie.)
