Know This Woman!

Although it's the business of a newspaper to find out the Record staff wasn't able to contact a single person who could throw any light on the identity of the woman in this story which appeared in a recent Sweetwater Reporter under a New York dateline.

NEW YORK—Mrs. Mary Whelan Preu Currier, 29, a divorcee, formerly of Colorado City, Texas, now of 434 East 52nd Street, New York, and Edward M. Warburg, 31, of 37 Bekman Place, New York, procured a license to marry here today in the Municipal building. The couple will be married on December 6 in the apartment of Constance, 1040 Park Avenue, New York. Judge Samuel Rosen will perform the ceremony.

The bride was born in Colorado City, the daughter of Frank Preu and Jessica M. Landon Preu. She was previously married to Richard Currier from whom she was divorced in Manchester, N. H., in April, 1938. For her bridal attendants she has chosen Miss Wendy Iglehart and Mrs. W. Reed Vreeland.

Mrs. Warburg was born in White Plains, N. Y., the son of Mrs. Felix M. Warburg. He was graduated from Harvard in 1930. In 1933 he founded the American Ballet, of which he was a director and producer for four years. Since then he has been active in the fields of philanthropy and education. Paul Warburg will be best man for his brother.

Westbrook Couple To Marry Dec. 22

WESTBROOK—Miss Margaret Lassiter announced the approaching marriage of Emma King to Samuel Rees at a luncheon given at the Oasis Thursday noon with Mrs. Tom Benson in charge of arrangements. The bride was laid with lily and a centerpiece of carnations. The bride was in a white gown with a blue sash and a white veil. The bridesmaids were in white gowns with blue sashes. The groom was in a dark suit. The ceremony was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Ellwood, on December 22, 1939.

Miss King is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Ellwood. She was born in Westbrook, Texas. She was graduated from the University of Texas at Austin in 1937. She is now employed as a stenographer in the office of the county clerk. Mr. Rees is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Carlock. He was born in Westbrook, Texas. He was graduated from the University of Texas at Austin in 1935. He is now employed as a teacher in the Westbrook school.

Marriage Of George Otis Witten And Mary Frances Mackey Took Place Sunday

A wedding of wide interest took place at 9 o'clock Sunday morning when Mary Frances Mackey of Colorado City became the bride of George Otis Witten of Colorado City and Washington, D. C., assistant secretary to Congressman George H. Mahon.

Simplicity featured in all wedding arrangements. Only members of the immediate families witnessed the double ring ceremony, which was held by Rev. Eugene Haley of Colorado City at the home of Miss Mackey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Mackey. Only out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Mackey of Midland.

There were no attendants and no music. An altar arrangement of white mums and ivy covered the mantle and was flanked by white tapers in white glass candelabra. White mums and greenery were also used elsewhere in the home.

The bride's dress was a tailored number in heavenly blue sheer wool. A band of the material crossed stitched, formed the collar and was used with machine buttons down the front edge of the dress. The stitched bands also used for a bow set shoulders at the neckline and for cuffs on the long, puffed sleeves. Her shoes and shoes were in dark brown, all gloves in burnt sugar.

Harriett Keeney of Connecticut Chooses Ranch Anniversary For Wedding at Renderbrook

Complimenting with the fiftieth anniversary of the purchase of the Renderbrook ranch by her great-grandfather, the late Col. L. L. Ellwood, the marriage of Harriett Keeney of Somersville, Conn. to Willard Francis Pinney, also of Somersville, took place at the Keeney home on the sixth Saturday afternoon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Keeney of Somersville. Mrs. Keeney is the daughter of the late W. L. Ellwood, one of the heirs of the L. L. Ellwood estate. The Keeney family arrived at the ranch from Somersville early last week.

The ceremony was held at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon by Rev. Rodney Gibson, Jr., pastor of the First USA Presbyterian church at San Angelo. Wedding music was given by Pauline Jones, Smiley, white chrysanthemums and magnolia fern were used for the altar arrangement and for house decorations.

Attending the bride was her sister, Mrs. Fred Irving of Pittsburg, Pa. The bride entered with her father, who gave her in marriage. Robert Keeney, brother of the bride, attended Mr. Pinney.

The bride wore pink pearl satin, skirted at the waist and at the shoulders with a V-neckline. Her long veil of white illusion was caught about her head with orange blossoms and fell over the train formed by her skirt. Her bouquet was of white roses, valley lilies, and stephanotis. Mrs. Irving wore rose pearl satin repeating the design of the bride's dress. She carried blue delphinium and pink roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Pinney left after the ceremony for a wedding trip to Carlsbad Caverns and the Davis she wore an orchid. For going away she donned a fitted tweed coat in brown and heavenly blue.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for a wedding trip which was to include stops at Dallas, Shreveport, New Orleans, Mobile, Ala., Tallahassee, Fla., and other points before they swing north through the Carolinas and Virginia to be in Philadelphia for the Army-Navy game on December 2. They will be at home December 10 at 3903 Buckingham community, Arlington, Virginia, from which place Mr. Witten will carry on his duties in Mr. Mahon's office in Washington.

Only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Mackey, well-known Colorado Cityans. Mrs. Witten has lived in Colorado City since 1931. Prior to that the Mackeys lived in Abilene. After graduation from Colorado City High school she attended Texas Technological college at Lubbock, having been a sophomore there last year. She belonged to Las Chaparritas.

Mr. Witten is the son of Mrs. Roxie Witten of Colorado City. He has been assistant secretary to Mr. Mahon for the past four years. Reared in Colorado City, he attended Park college at Parkville, Mo., before going to Washington. Since going there he has attended George Washington university whenever his duties permitted.

mountains. They plan to be back at the ranch for Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Pinney is a graduate of Smith college. Mr. Pinney is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Pinney of Somersville. He is in business at Somersville, where he and his wife will make their home.

A number of out-of-town guests attended the wedding. Among them were Dr. and Mrs. S. G. Bonney of Denver (Mrs. Bonney is E. P. Ellwood's sister), Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chappell of New London, Conn.; Mrs. Herman Handy of Longmeadow, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Zellner, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard McClellan, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Eisenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Bass Arnett, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Arnett, and Judge and Mrs. R. C. Hopping, all of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Leland Henderson of Dallas; Mrs. Rodney Gibson, Jr., of San Angelo.

From the Renderbrook Ranch were Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Ellwood and son, William Perry; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Crossin, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Boatright, Melvin Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Lock, Tommy Garner, Clyde Bucklew, P. C. Smith, Ralph W. Carter, Shim Swan, Mr. and Mrs. Bob McClellan, Mr. and Mrs. Shorty Northcutt, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Ansvorth and three daughters.

House guests at the ranch for the wedding were entertained at breakfast Saturday morning by Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Ellwood, and at lunch Saturday noon by Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Jones.

A housewarming was held at the Keeney home Saturday night, serving both as a celebration of the ranch anniversary and a housewarming for the recently completed Keeney-Chappell home.

Statement On Water Facilities Project Is Issued By A. B. Kyle

A. B. Kyle, head of the soil conservation service here, has issued the following statement on the water facilities project in Mitchell county:

The Water Facilities Project officials at Colorado City are ready to cooperate with farmers and ranchers in the Champion Creeks and Lone Wolf Draw watersheds who need Water Facilities and soil conservation practices on their farms and ranches. Both landowners and tenants are eligible.

When we say water facilities, we mean drilling of wells; buying and installing storage tanks, windmills, and windmill towers; construction of stock tanks; installing pipe to the house, garden, and stock troughs; installing small irrigation systems; repairs for wells, windmills, towers, etc.; and other ways of making water available for farm use.

Loans are made through the Farm Security Administration for a period of 5 to 20 years, and bear interest at the rate of 3%. Movable parts of the facility, livestock, equipment, etc., are acceptable as security. Collateral to cover the amount of the loan is all that will be required.

The Soil Conservation Service will furnish technical assistance for planning and installing water facilities, making surveys and maps of the farm, running terrace lines, and other phases of the program that are required to conserve soil and moisture without any cost to the farm operator.

If you are interested in the program or would like to have someone come by your farm and explain the program more in detail, please make application at the office of the Water Facilities Project, the Farm Security Administration, or the County Agent's office.

RECEPTION AND POUNDING FOR REV. AND MRS. SHEWBERT
Thursday evening at 7 o'clock the congregation of the Methodist church honored their returning pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Shewbart with a reception and pounding, expressing their love and fellowship. The reception was held at the church and it was decorated with huge bouquets of vari-colored chrysanthemums placed among Autumn foliage, red berry vines and mistletoe. "Welcome" lettered in Autumn leaves was behind the pulpit, the work being done by the Young Married Womens class.

Guests were greeted at the door by Steward John Mahon and passed down the receiving line in which stood Rev. and Mrs. Shewbart, Mr. Plez Beatty, Miss Isla Bruce, Mrs. Tom Bennett, Mrs. John Marshall, Mrs. Homer Richburg, and Mrs. Otis Muns.

Mrs. John Mahon, Ruby Jo Marshall, and Jane Meadows presided at the punch bowl, which was surrounded by wine and gold chrysanthemums on a lace spread table. Members of the Young Peoples class assisted.

Miss Isla Bruce, president of the Womens Missionary Society, greeted the honored guests and congregation and Mrs. W. R. Martin arranged the program which was begun by a lovely piano solo, "Whispering Hope" by Kent McGowan; "The Ladies Aid" was cleverly read by Helen Bennett and followed by a delightful piano selection by Wonnola Martin. A fitting tribute to Mrs. Shewbart was read by Mrs. Bruce Johnson. As she gave the poem, "The Winning Way" Mrs. K. L. Taylor played the charming Second Sonata of Mozart and Mr. Ed Williams gave a most sincere and glowing tribute to Rev. Shewbart. Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Taylor sang a beautiful duet "I Have A Little Cottage" accompanied by Wonnola Martin.

Mrs. Ed Williams then presented a Bible quiz and a "What Do You Know About Your Church?" question box. Introducing Mr. Plez Beatty.

PILGRIMS OF 1939

The still chill of a November morning, 378 years ago, gave no indication of man's feelings. Silent men, with flintlocks shouldered, and pale women, their cowls drawn close, slipped silently through early winter's snow. And there were smiles on their faces—smiles of thankfulness for a haven that responded to their diligent toil so munificently.

Perhaps of the streamlined twentieth century come by our comforts too easily; perhaps we fail, at times, to evaluate our ease of self-provision. But the "pilgrims" of 1939 are likened to those of 1621—all consummately appreciative of past blessings—all surpassingly confident of their hopes in the future.

Yours for a Beautiful Thanksgiving

Double Thanksgiving Will Tone Down Holiday Comings and Goings Somewhat

Toned down somewhat by the fact that aunts and cousins, parents and friends living elsewhere in the state probably observed Thanksgiving last week and will be having "just another day" this Thursday, the usual homecomings or homegoings among Colorado Citizens and Mitchell countians this Thanksgiving may be a little under par, but there will still be enough of it to make news.

Here to remain over Thanksgiving in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hill are Mrs. Austin Bush and children of McCamey. Mr. Bush will join them for the holiday. Mrs. Bush's aunt and Mr. Hill's sister, Mrs. S. N. Petty, came from McCamey with Mrs. Bush and the children but soon boarded a train for Dallas.

Witnessing the Aggie-Texas University game at College Station will be Mr. and Mrs. Walter Whipkey, daughter Betty, and daughter Virginia, whom they will pick up in Waco, Virginia, a student in Baylor, will return with the Whipkeys after the game for the week-end at home—her first homecoming since school opened.

The double Thanksgiving played tricks on the Bill Coffey family. They were expecting to have Mrs. Coffey's sister, Mary Clark of Dallas, for the holiday. It turned out that she meant the first holiday and she was here in the Coffey home from Thursday until Sunday morning.

Thinking that they would be tripping to Fannin county this Thursday, the R. P. Prices had their Thanksgiving dinner last Thursday. Now they aren't going on the trip—and their turkey has already been eaten.

Nat Thomas doesn't know exactly where he and his family will spend the holiday, but will be "somewhere" and they'll eat out, he says, so that Mrs. Thomas will be able to join in the holiday.

Dr. Kermit Wilson, will visit his wife at Herford over the holiday. She is working there until he gets his chiropractics practice established here.

Eating turkey at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Watson will be daughter Mae and son Maurice from A.C.C. the Barney Alsbrooks from Midland (Mrs. Alsbrook has been here for several days recuperating from an illness), and the Harold Watsons of Colorado City.

Rod Merritt, who has a district job with the NYA with headquarters in San Angelo, is the only Thanksgiving guest expected in the J. G. Merritt home, where Mr. Merritt continues to be ill much of the time.

Mrs. Bonnie Burt will have her son, Mike, home from A. & M. for the holiday. Most of the other A. & M. students are also to be home.

Joining the throng at College Station for the Aggie-Texas game will be Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Doss, Jr., Robert Brennan, and Lea Swope.

If there are Thanksgiving guests in the Randolph McEntire home at all, they will probably be Mrs. McEntire's mother, Mrs. R. L. Lowe, Sr., and her brother, R. L. Lowe, Jr., and his wife, all of Sterling City.

The Lester Mannerling family was making plans early this week to spend the holiday with Mrs. Mannerling's sister in Seagraves.

Thanksgiving dinner will be served by Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Rattiff for the Harry Rattiff family and the Ed Majors family.

The E. S. McCords plan a quiet Thanksgiving without guests, but their daughter, Mrs. H. A. Pendleton, Jr., of Wichita Falls is due to arrive Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob May and son will spend Thanksgiving with his parents at Hamlin.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Harkins will be their daughter, Mrs. Broadway Browning and her husband from Tahoka, and Mrs. Harkins' mother, Mrs. Ella Eoff of Merkel.

Ted Hale will be home from A.C.C. for Thanksgiving with his parents, the Jim Hales.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Latham and children will spend Thanksgiving with his sister, Mrs. D. L. Rose, at Albany. Later they will go on to draws are here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Black.

Gypsy Ted McCollum spent the week-end in Coahoma visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burr Brown.

Mrs. R. E. Bennett and Mr. and Mrs. Jackson were last Thursday visitors in the home of Mrs. Gertrude Looney of Abilene.

Dallas and Fort Worth for the week-end.

Because their son, Robert, won't be home from Lubbock until Saturday, the R. R. Lacey's will not have their Thanksgiving dinner until Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. James Lupton (Annetta Lacey) will be on hand from Midland.

Mrs. D. M. Logan and Mary Louise will spend Thanksgiving with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Rawlins Clark, in Dallas. They will accompany Mrs. Logan's sister, Mrs. J. A. Boykin, as far as Fort Worth.

In the John R. Baze home for the holiday will be Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Holman and daughter, Jerry Joan, of Austin and Mr. and Mrs. Riggs Shepperd of Stanton.

Feasting time for children of Mrs. R. P. Hargrove in her home will be Friday rather than Thursday. Present will be Mr. and Mrs. Paul Holden and son of Big Spring, R. P. Hargrove and family of Chalk, Ross Hargrove and family of Spade, and the C. C. Eudys of Colorado City.

Nelda Garrett of Coleman will be an out-of-town guest in the home of Mrs. W. H. Garrett for Thanksgiving.

Hazel Brookover, student in Baylor university, will be home from Waco for Thanksgiving holidays with her parents, the Wm. Brookovers.

Last Sunday was Thanksgiving dinner time in the Sam Majors home. They had their daughters, Mrs. Ned Nickson of Roswell, N. M., and Mrs. L. G. Mackey of Midland, for the occasion, along with Mr. Nickson, Mr. Mackey, and young Graham.

Mrs. Harriet Conaway Kennedy and sons of Lubbock are coming for Thanksgiving with her mother, Mrs. C. P. Conaway, and all of them may go on to Abilene for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lupton will have all but one of their children around their Thanksgiving table Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. James Lupton will be here from Midland, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Morgan from Sweetwater, Mr. and Mrs. John Borden from Borden county, and the Clyde Youngs and infant son of Colorado City.

In the M. E. Gurney home for the holidays will be daughter Virginia from TSCW, Denton, and son Harry from Coleman. Virginia will have a guest, Beverly Cork of Texarkana, who will also visit Doris Wynne in the T. A. Wynne home.

Vera Crippen, county home demonstration agent, will spend the holiday week-end with her sister in Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Christian and Judy plan to leave after the Snyder-Colorado City game Thursday afternoon for Thanksgiving with Mrs. Christian's sister, Mrs. C. D. Hall, and husband at Childress.

Among those who had their Thanksgiving last week-end is Mrs. Leon Jenkins, who flew to Odessa and spent the first holiday with the Don Tels.

Deer hunting at Sonora will fill the Thanksgiving week-end for Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Kyle. Mr. Kyle is head of the soil conservation service here.

Out-of-town guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Rankin for the holidays will be a daughter, Mrs. Frank Blackwell, and her husband and children from Cement, Oklahoma.

Coming home from the University of Texas for the holidays with her parents, the Jim Bodines of Buford, Lucille Bodine will bring as her holiday guest Tommy Bear of San Antonio. The whole family, including Mr. and Mrs. Sefton Pickens, will have Thanksgiving dinner with Mrs. Bodine's mother, Mrs. Narcia Terry.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Smith and son of Midland were here Sunday for one Thanksgiving dinner with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Warren, then went on to Sulphur Springs for the second Thanksgiving with Mr. Smith's parents.

Turkey-feasters at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Nesbitt will include Mrs. Nesbitt's mother, Mrs. L. Faber, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Jolley, all of Sweetwater.

Gathered around the board at the George Plaster home will be the following: Mr. and Mrs. Bill Doch and children, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Winnett of Oklahoma City, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Plaster and children, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Boney and children of Abilene, and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bennett.

AN IMPORTANT DATE ON THE AMERICAN CALENDAR

THANKSGIVING

THANKSGIVING brings a host of happy thoughts to mind—it makes anyone feel good to reflect on the progress that this country has made since that first Thanksgiving Day 318 years ago. And to each of us individually, there is some one thing for which we can feel personally thankful.

THEN to make Thanksgiving one of the best holidays of the year, there's

WE WILL BE CLOSED ALL DAY THANKSGIVING TO COMMEMORATE THE HOLIDAY

PENNEY'S

J. C. PENNEY COMPANY, Incorporated

the happiness of the day—the relaxation, the fun . . . and the glorious feast. Turkey and all the trimmin's top off the day perfectly.

J. C. PENNEY COMPANY is joining in the general Thanksgiving—we, among other things, being thankful for a host of loyal customers. May we wish everyone of you an extremely pleasant holiday!

Terry will be Mr. and Mrs. Bill Farmer, Dr. Truman Terrell, and O. R. Riddell and a friend from Fort Worth. These and Mrs. J. R. Terry and family of Floydada will be gathered with local members of Mrs. Terry's family for Thanksgiving dinner.

Out at the F. L. Eikenberg home near Iatan—or maybe near Carr—Thanksgiving guests will be Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Fields of Snyder and Mrs. Eikenberg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Whitaker of Coahoma.

Hazel Costin of Odessa and Bertie Thelma Lipps of Monahans will come home together for Thanksgiving, visiting in their respective homes.

In the Roy Dozier home from out-of-town will be Elizabeth Taylor from TSCW, Denton, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Taylor and young son from Wichita Falls.

Thanksgiving dinner at the H. A. Cook home will be deferred until Sunday, when the Gilbert Quinneys and Juanita Cook will be here from Lubbock.

Completed by the presence of daughter Ruth from John Tarleton and son Marion from A. & M., the U. G. Hardison family will join Mr. Hardison's mother, Mrs. D. R. Hardison, and Louise Hardison for Thanksgiving dinner. There's a possibility that Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hardison and young daughter of Fabens may be on hand, dividing time between the Hardison home and that of Mrs. Hardison's parents, the A. C. Meltons.

Most of the colleges and universities over the state are taking Thanksgiving holidays this week-end, which will mean the homecoming of scores of Colorado City young people. But it will also mean that others will be spending the week-end with friends and roommates elsewhere—in fact, an accurate check of college homecomers is practically impossible.

Hyman Unit Of County Agriculture Body Meets

By Mrs. Harry Hyman, Secretary
The Hyman unit of the Mitchell County Agricultural association met on November 24 in the Hyman schoolhouse, Frank Andrews, the president was present and opened the meeting.
Mrs. Andrews announced that there would be a meeting of the Cooperative Extension work in Agriculture and Home Economics at Colorado City of the Colorado hotel at 7 o'clock Monday night.
Members of the club present were Mrs. Andrews, Mrs. Andrews, Mrs. Martin Jackson, and Herman Minor and Mrs. Averett, besides Mrs. Hyman, the secretary-treasurer.

Messrs. Sweatt, Herman and Lee Minor furnished some interesting music. Mrs. Sweatt accompanied the singing with her guitar. They sang, "Lamp Lighting Time in the Valley," and "The Valley of the Moon."

Mrs. Sweatt accompanied Herman Minor on the harmonica for several songs which the audience heartily enjoyed. Some of them were old time melodies.

The next on the program was an old time spelling match; Mrs. Andrews and Mrs. Sweatt, being the leaders with Mrs. Hyman giving out the spelling. Nearly everybody took part until only about a half a dozen or so were not able to be spelled down.

when the meeting was turned over to the "pie supper," which was held to raise money to help get better lights in the church. Some twenty or more pies were sold and the sum of something over $15.00 was gotten.
Mr. Frank Andrews was a first class auctioneer and Mr. Sweatt kept account of the money. The pie bringing the highest price was 95 cents and was made by Mrs. Sweatt and bought in by Mr. Sweatt.
Everyone enjoyed the pie supper and hoped that another one would be given in the not distant future.

celebration held here in August; securing of three large conventions for 1940—the Sixth district of Texas Federated Women's clubs, West Texas Press association, and West Texas Chamber of Commerce managers; sponsors sent from Colorado City to three large rodeos in this area; maintenance of a Soil Conservation office; planting of thousands of rose bushes, shrubs and trees in the county through mass ordering which made possible low prices and wide distribution.

Close of this year finds the town and county with two long-sought major developments well underway. Move to secure a recreational lake in the county has been worked along to the share-selling stage, as has the campaign for a livestock auction ring.
Also underway are plans to make the most of the Christmas buying season for merchants of Colorado City.
Last but not least, the town that was Colorado this time last year has now become Colorado City.

Swine Production Essay Contest Won By Loraine FFA Boy

Contest Sponsored By Westbrook FFA; Eight Gilts Are Given

Announcement was made this week that Marvin Heights, Loraine FFA boy, has won first place in Mitchell county's first swine production contest, sponsored by the Future Farmer chapter of Westbrook High school.

Second place went to Herbert Mearse, also of Loraine, third to Leon Moore of Westbrook, and fourth to Leon Duke of Loraine. These and four other boys who rated among the high eight will each receive a registered gilt, winners being given their pick of the gilts in the order of winning. The second four boys are John Hines of Westbrook, C. E. Butler of Westbrook, Henry Feaster and T. W. Daughtrey of Colorado City.

Boys winning gilts must sign contracts to feed them for a year under either FFA or 4-H supervision and show them in a county-wide breeding stock show to be held in the spring of 1941.

Winners were determined through essays written on "How I Would Manage and Care For a Swine Production Project" and through averages of the past semester's grades in all school subjects.

Funds for the purchase of the gilts were raised by public subscription with C. V. Cox of the Westbrook FFA in charge.

The winning essay and names of contributors to the gilt fund will be published in an early issue of The Record.

Texas Tech Exes Have Banquet, Name Officers

Ex-students of Texas Technological college, Lubbock, began their second year as a local organization by banqueting at the Colorado hotel Saturday night and electing new officers.

Controversy Over Old West Bridge Which Once Spanned River Settled

It's been more than 15 years since the old wooden and steel bridge which used to span the Colorado river in West Colorado City was torn down to make way for the present modern structure of concrete and steel.

Most Mitchell countians have probably forgotten the old bridge, and certainly they have forgotten to wonder what became of it—if they ever did wonder.

But only this week a suit involving the steel parts of that bridge was settled in court here. When the bridge was torn down the county had plans to use it for a bridge across the river some ten or twelve miles northwest of town, between Cuthbert and Fairview. The steel parts were hauled to that site and placed on land belonging to J. B. Moore.

Year after year they lay there. Some time ago the county decided to use the steel for repairing bridges elsewhere in the county. But Moore refused to allow the steel to be moved, claiming the materials by right of limitation, or a long period of peaceful possession.

The county sued, and the suit was settled by agreement, the county paying a stipulated amount to Moore to regain possession of the material.

A son, Edward Lynn, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hill at 1 o'clock Friday morning. He weighed eight pounds.

Soil Conservation Checks Received To Date Total $31,000

Soil conservation checks on the 1939 farm program received to date by Mitchell county farmers have reached a total of $31,000, according to information received at the county AAA office.

This total represents 186 checks, and is approximately one-tenth of the total soil conservation payment due in the county.

Fiftieth Anniversary Of Ellwood Ownership Of Renderbrook Ranch Observed Saturday

An anniversary of prime importance in the cattle history of Mitchell county and West Texas passed Saturday when the Renderbrook (Spade) ranch of southern Mitchell county rounded out half a century of operation and expansion under Ellwood ownership.

The ranch was bought Nov. 25, 1889, by the late Col. I. L. Ellwood of DeKalb, Ill., one of the inventors of the barbed wire which changed the history of West Texas' cattle empire back in the eighties. His partner in the barbed wire business was J. F. Glidden.

Marking the ranch's 50th anniversary as Ellwood property was the wedding there of Col. Ellwood's great granddaughter, Harriet Keeney of Somersville, Conn., to Willard Francis Pinney, also of Somersville. The wedding took place in the recently constructed Keeney-Chappell home at the ranch, and a housewarming was held there Saturday night after the wedding to further celebrate the ranch anniversary.

The home was built for the families of Mrs. R. Leland Keeney of Somersville, Conn., and Mrs. Frank Chappell of New London, Conn., granddaughters of the late Col. I. L. Ellwood and daughters of the late W. L. Ellwood, one of the heirs of the Ellwood estate.

Other homes are maintained on the ranch by E. P. Ellwood, son of the late Col. Ellwood, and E. P. Ell-wood's son, another I. L. Ellwood. The E. P. Ellwoods divide time between the ranch and their home in DeKalb, Ill., while the I. L. Ellwoods live in both Chicago and DeKalb what time they are away from the ranch. The old ranch headquarters house is occupied by O. F. Jones, ranch manager for the past 27 years, and his family.

The Renderbrook is one of the few ranches of this section which has grown larger and stronger with the passing years. It was a leader in the vast cattle empire of half a century ago and is still a leader today. Driving onto the Renderbrook acres under a native stone arch on the Sterling City road some 23 miles south of Colorado City, one can travel eastward 26 miles to the Robert Lee road without ever leaving Renderbrook land.

Still serving as ranch headquarters is the house which the ranch founders, the late Capt. D. H. Snyder and J. W. Snyder of Georgetown, built in 1882. Near this house are the famous Renderbrook springs which gave the ranch its name and led to its founding. They still yield an abundance of excellent water which is lifted to the ranch homes by two windmills.

The springs got their name during the early seventies when a Capt. Renderbrook, stationed at Fort Concho, was killed near them. Later a man named J. Taylor Barr erected the first ranch headquarters there, building it of chittum poles with a windbreak of buffalo and cow hides.

When the Snyders bought and really founded the ranch in 1882, they retained the J. T. Bar brand for a year. Later they bought the "lazy" OB brand from an Andy Long of Sweetwater.

The famous Spade brand came to the ranch the year Col. I. L. Ellwood bought it. To stock the ranch Col. Ellwood bought the Spade brand of cattle from a J. F. Evans, known as "Spade" Evans, a rancher on Saddle Creek in Donley county. The brand dates back to July 11, 1883.

In the beginning the ranch consisted of approximately 130,000 acres. Today it includes 250 sections (160,000 acres). Twelve years ago 22,000 acres comprising the old HS ranch of the W. T. Scott estate were added, and at the same time the ranch bought 10,000 acres from Lay Powell.

Sixty sections of Renderbrook land are fenced for sheep raising. The ranch began running both sheep and cattle back in the days when a cattleman considered sheep a disgrace. It fenced its lands when the rest of the cattlemen were wasting energy fighting for open ranges. It stocked shorthorn cattle when other ranchmen were still clinging to the lanky longhorns.

In such facts as these may be found the key to the ranch's continued growth in a land where many such domains have been beset by failure. It is a vast and picturesque combination of the best in the old and the new.

Farmers To Vote Dec. 9 On Marketing Quotas For Use In 1940 AAA Program

Faced with a tremendous cotton surplus, 800,000 Texas cotton farmers are invited to go to the polls, December 9 to cast their votes in a South-wide referendum to decide whether cotton marketing quotas will be in effect for 1940.

In setting a national marketing quota of approximately 12 million bales during the marketing year beginning August 1, 1940, Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace pointed out the quota was mandatory under the Agricultural Adjustment Act when total supplies reach 107 per cent of normal supply.

The supply of cotton on hand August 1 amounted to 25,500,000 bales, according to the Department of Agriculture, or 140 per cent of the "normal" supply of 18,200,000 bales.

Unless the cotton farmers themselves vote for continuance of quotas, they will not be in effect next year, Wallace said. The quota for 1940 is the same as for 1939 which was approved by 84.1 per cent of the producers in the referendum last year.

Regardless of the outcome of the referendum, conservation phases of the Agricultural Conservation program will be continued.

Of the producers voting, at least 75 per cent must favor continuance of the marketing quota for it to remain in effect.

"Marketing quotas are meant to supplement the conservation program by assuring farmers planting within their acreage allotments their efforts to adjust supplies will not be nullified by non-cooperators," George Slaughter, chairman of the State Agricultural Conservation committee, pointed out.

If marketing quotas are in effect, a non-cooperator will be required to pay a penalty of three cents per pound on all cotton sold in excess of the marketing quota set for his farm, Slaughter explained. Farmers planting within their acreage allotments will be able to market a tithe cotton without penalty.

In a recent opinion, Federal Judge James V. Allred of Houston declared marketing quotas were legal in the first suit to reach the courts testing their legality.

George Mahon Is 'Love Feast' Guest At Big Spring Postal Workers Banquet

From the Big Spring Daily Herald

Postal workers of the 19th congressional district congregated in Big Spring Saturday night for their annual banquet and get-together, and had as honor guest and principal speaker their representative in congress, George Mahon of Colorado City.

Admittedly a "love feast," the affair took on the aspects of an old-time friendship revival as everybody praised everybody else and honors were passed around so promiscuously that nobody got slighted. And there were about 200 at the gathering in the Settles hotel.

Mahon himself spoke briefly and informally—as did everyone else on the program—and dwelt with his usual oratorical charm on such diversified subjects as friendship, how to grow old gracefully, the challenge of governmental service, West Texas as the greatest country on earth, Americanism and peace. And he welded those topics together with anecdotes and a winning manner so that he had an eminently fitting address.

Mahon slyly admitted he liked the back-slapping, and hoped it would be resumed "in the hot summer days of 1940."

He lauded the postal workers—and all groups of employees were on hand—for their efficiency and devotion to service, and asserted "if my only task in congress had been the recommending of many of these people, I would feel I had ably spent my time."

He reminded his audience that they were representatives of the U. S. government in their own communities, and that that constituted a challenge to them to serve the people honestly and faithfully.

Nat Shick, host postmaster, was in charge of opening formalities, and J. H. Greene, chamber of commerce manager, served as master of ceremonies. He had a joke pointed at each speaker he introduced, and in turn was on the receiving end of several gags.

The visitors—and they came from all corners of the far-flung district, despite inclement weather—were welcomed by District Judge Cecil Collings, and the response was by W. E. (Happy) Smith, postmaster at Tahoka. The postal groups voted, at the conclusion of the meeting, to meet next year in Smith's town.

Short talks were made by Alex Caldwell of the postal inspection service, Dallas, and C. C. Thompson of Colorado City.

Attending from here in addition to Mahon and Thompson were Joe Y. Fraser, Eddie Moeser, and Sam Thompson, Margaret Lassetter, postmistress at Westbrook, and her assistant and LeRoy Gressett also attended.

Jackrabbits Defeat Big Spring's Junior Team In Final Game

Led by Royce Smith and Finis Shurtliff, the Colorado City Jackrabbits, Baron Smith's junior football team, defeated the Big Spring junior team 21-12 on Cantrill field at Colorado City in their final game of the season Friday night.

In a previous game the two teams tied, 19-19. Smith made all three Jackrabbit touchdowns. Lewis Latham, captain, also played a good game at halfback. The score was 6-0 in favor of Big Spring at the half. Big Spring scored in the first and third quarters, Colorado City in the last two quarters.

Starting lineup for the Jackrabbits: Dudley Chesney and Tom Machia, ends; Dick Gregory and John Doss, tackle; Craig Porter and Larry Dorn, guard; Chas. Sellers, center; Tommy Ratliff and Lewis Latham, halfbacks; Finis Shurtliff, fullback; Royce Smith, quarterback.

Substitutes were Edwin Bodine, Wayne Weeds, Truett Hamrick, Bradley Redman, Dudley Bush, and Bernice Williams.

Ten Westbrook Wildcats Lettered In Six-Man Football This Season

Ten members of the Westbrook Wildcat squad, which recently won the six-man football championship in district 12, have received letters, according to Bill Pletcher, coach.

Letters were earned by the following: Pete Hines, Rufus Jackson, Bud Moore, Gerald Anderson, and Calvin Boston, all linemen; Red Davenport, Junior Oglesby, Bryl Claxton, Pete Lambert, and James Skelton, backs.

The school will lose Hines, Anderson, Boston and Skelton by graduation.

Former Colorado Citizen Is Dead

An account of the death of John A. Nutt, 69, pioneer West Texas cattleman, in Big Spring on Saturday appeared in the Sunday issue of the Big Spring Daily Herald. Mr. Nutt lived in Colorado City from 1890 until 1896 as representative of the J. M. Hall cattle company.

While here he was married to Belle Hank. They moved to Pecos in 1896, and later lived in San Angelo and Odessa. He moved to Big Spring in 1921 as manager of a fuel business. Survivors include Mrs. Nutt, a son, and two daughters. Funeral services were held Sunday at the First Methodist church in Big Spring.

Funeral Held For I. L. Hardin Infant

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hartsfield, in the Lowe community for Louise Hardin, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira L. Hardin.

The infant lived only a few minutes after birth at 12 noon Friday. Survivors in addition to the parents include a brother, Arlandee, age 7, and a sister, Vada Edna, age 5. Rev. A. D. Leach officiated for the service. Burial was in the Spade cemetery. Kiker & Son had charge of arrangements.

FIRE SUNDAY

The fire alarm shortly after 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon resulted from a blaze in a negro shack back of the Jack Wright home in West Colorado City. Damage was slight.

ATTEND ACC HOME COMING
Hubert Watson accompanied his brother-in-law, Barney Alsbrook of Midland, to Abilene for the ACC homecoming during the week-end.

Sister Of Mrs. L. L. Machia Succumbs

Mrs. L. L. Machia was called to Sterling, Ill., early Saturday by the sudden death of her sister, Mrs. H. H. Wood. Mr. Machia and Tom took Mrs. Machia to Fort Worth and she caught an early morning plane from there to Sterling. She had not returned home Wednesday.

Mrs. Wood was also the daughter of Mrs. Ella McCune, who arrived less than a week before her death for a visit in the Machia home. Mrs. McCune had lived with Mrs. Wood before coming here. She is over 80 and was not able to make the trip back to Sterling when her daughter died.

HOME FROM H-SU

Among Hardin-Simmons university students home for the holidays last week-end were Theda Howell and Frances Merle Cooper.

West Side Convention To Meet At Fairview

The West Side Singing convention will meet at Fairview Sunday, according to Geo. Sweatt, president.

The latest Stamps and Baxter song books are to be used. Those attending are urged to bring their books and a basket lunch.

Well, well, are the basketball players feeling good this week after the tournament at Divide Friday and Saturday. After playing Lawn Friday evening and being victorious the girls got to go back Saturday. The first game they played was with Blackwell, and Blackwell won by one point. The score was 21 to 20. The girls really played a good game; they had plenty of shots to win the game, but as they could not make the free shots we lost the game. After taking defeat with a smile we were entered for a third place winner with Roby. In this we were victorious and won the beautiful trophy which is 9 to 11 inches high.

Small basketball were given to the players who played the best and there happened to be one from Westbrook, three from Highland, first place winner, two from Blackwell, second place winner, and two from Roby who did not win any place. The player from Westbrook is Florence McCollough, a senior of high school.

Some of the girls seemed to get their knees skinned and bruised, but say Skippy what did you do with that tape after the game with Roby? Did you write your name on it?

Now Proxie, you and Shaffer had better be careful how you break those boys' hearts; they might not ever beat regular again.

Now Junior you and Gerald should not be looking when a girl is making the boys keep their tongues in their mouth. They might not know you are looking.

Say Shaffer, what is the idea of telling the boys all the girl's names? They might not want them to know their names.

Now Van, what do you need with a picture; it won't do you any good. Say what became of that picture; did you happen to lose it? I bet you never.

Now Coach, just because a car horn

Santa Claus Parade To Include Laugh-Provokers

honks that is no sign for you to jump up and run to the door as if there was a fire. Reckon it could be Rog's and Helen.

Now Valere, don't try to find out who might be going with other people or you might get fooled. Do you suppose you saw Ginie Sunday night?

Dolly, where did you get that ring you are wearing? Could it be a birthday present?

The basketball girls will play Byron Tuesday night so come on all you people and see that game.

Here is hoping everyone a nice Thanksgiving vacation during the holiday.

SIXTH GRADE NEWS

We have two new pupils this week which makes twenty-six on roll. We are glad to have them. We are changing our schedule. We paid our dues and joined the Red Cross. We get out of school Wednesday at noon for Thanksgiving. The sixth grade gave Mr. Widner a surprise last week. We are going to sell magazines to make up money to get our pictures in the annual.

SENIOR NEWS

Everyone seems to be in quite a good humor this morning, not knowing whether they passed on 6-weeks exams, and getting out of school Wednesday at noon for Thanksgiving.

Now I can't say that about Floyd Leach for he does look rather downhearted this morning. Floyd, someone said you ran out of gas Sunday night. Is that right, or did the car just go dead?

Florence, I guess you feel honored, now that you have a basketball to wear. But, did you deserve it for you really guarded old "Goober." I'll say we're all proud of you. And say Florence, maybe we'll come out on top next time we go to Highland, as you talked up to the referee at Divide last week-end.

Someone said "Smitty" had a new name one of the bus drivers gave her. I just wonder if it could be "Number 9."

Don't forget to turn in your 75c for the annual; remember that Dec. 16th is the dead line, and also every annual you buy you get 150 votes to put on your favorite candidate for king and queen of the "Cactus."

The Senior boys say Miss McKinney is "sort" of putting them through the works for the football banquet. I just wonder if they can remember what she is teaching them until December.

Well, this is Skippy signing off till next week.

SOPH GAB BOX

The Sophomores are very blue this week. Those exam papers were not so good. Maybe we will do better next time.

Our class is planning on a skating party for Wednesday night. We may not have such a nice Thanksgiving after the skating party. We wonder why?

Everyone vote for our annual queen and king. They are Elizabeth Maine and Lowell Duke.

Friday we had our pictures made. We haven't received them yet. Maybe it is for the better! Virginia, what football player are you planning to give one to?

Lowell seems to be a great attraction, especially to Bessie. We wonder if that's the reason she hurries home from dinner.

Tuesday night the Soph class sold popcorn and peanuts. We made a profit of $215. Sybil managed to get Mr. Fletcher to give an extra cent. Good for her! We really have some competition. The Fish are to sell also. Come on Sophs! The war has begun.

Here's hoping no one eats too much dinner Thursday. Happy Thanksgiving to everyone.

HOME ECONOMICS

This week has been a very busy one for the Home Ec. girls. We have been reviewing for exams.

The girls are to have a 90 hour project. This project may be cooking or refinishing. Plenty work ahead, eh girls?

Our exam was plenty hard. Ruby, what did you call it?

Well, girls, help your mother with dinner Thursday. Use some of these new dishes we have been studying.

10TH GRADE NEWS

Well Juniors, how did you come out with those six weeks exams. Boy we had some high "falutin" grades, didn't we, especially in History. I mean English. Well that's enough for the exams let's see if we can't win some ones repetition.

Rufus, what's this we hear about your getting in at 10:30 Sunday; that is pretty early isn't it? Or should I say pretty late?

Joyce, we're all wondering who that good looking football boy is you are going to the banquet with, or are you going?

Junior, what were you doing in Colorado Sunday? We don't think you had any business down there. But no matter what we think, you were down there anyway. Cause I saw you. Chippy, how was the show Sunday night? Why don't you tell us something about it? Vallere, could you see out of your black eye?

No, just one more thing, Miss Speights is looking for company pretty soon and when he comes let's give him a hearty welcome.

Luck be with you folks till we meet again.

Goldwyn's "The Real Glory" Stars Gary Cooper In a Drama of Adventure, Action, Romance

Cooper, Leeds and Niven Get Thrill-Packed Roles in New Spectacle Drama

Starring Gary Cooper, and with Andrea Leeds and David Niven heading an unusually important cast, Samuel Goldwyn's new adventure drama, "The Real Glory," which will have its premiere showing at the Palace theatre on Saturday midnight, Sunday and Monday, unfolds a thrilling and exciting tale of the Philippine Scouts and their heroic bravery at the conclusion of the Spanish-American War, when the Philippines were overrun by insurrectionists and religious fanatics.

The central theme of "The Real Glory" revolves around the exploits of the scouts, who became a constabulary on the island and rallied to their support loyal natives and peaceful Moros. The Moros, a tribe of unorthodox Mohammedans, had retreated to the hills and jungles of the Sulu Kingdom to wage a fierce religious war against the remaining American troops.

Henry Hathaway, who directed Cooper in "Lives of a Bengal Lancer," directed "The Real Glory," and the supporting cast is headed by unique players, among them Broderick Crawford, Reginald Owen, Kay Johnson, Vladimir Sokoloff, Russell Hicks and Henry Kolker. For the first time in his career, Cooper plays the role of a doctor, who comes to this distant outpost for medical experience. He remains to help the Army quell the rebellion and establish lasting peace. Miss Leeds in the role of an American visiting her father, also stays on—not to win the war, but to win a trip to the altar on the arm of Gary.

For weeks a corps of 500-odd workmen, most of them skilled craftsmen, labored to complete a replica of a regular army post in the Philippines for this Goldwyn picture, and the results are startling. The space occupied by the set comprised six acres, and 40,000 square feet of asphalt were used for a lagoon 400 feet long and six feet deep, containing 1,500,000 gallons of water. This vast body of water wasn't static for a minute for a pumping plant was set up to maintain a natural current in the stream and a six-inch head of water tumbled constantly over a six-foot waterfall. Ralph Angel, Goldwyn's construction chief, superintended the job, working from official War Department photographs made during the Philippine occupation. He didn't miss a detail.

Jo Swerling wrote the screenplay for "The Real Glory," and it is being released through United Artists.

Thrilling Adventure Story And Fast Moving Romance In "Man In The Iron Mask"

With Louis Hayward and Joan Bennett playing the top roles, Edward Small's new romantic drama, "The Man in the Iron Mask," which will have its premiere showing at the Palace Theatre on Friday and Saturday unfolds a thrilling and exciting tale of 17th Century romance and adventure in an era when extra-

Hayward is seen as harsh and vain, cruelly taxing his subjects until they are on the brink of starvation and ruin. As Philippe, he is seen as a brave and understanding son of France, wishing for the honor and welfare of his country. The story reaches a smash climax when Louis realizes that Philippe is his twin genes and excesses ruled the court of France. The central theme of the story revolves around King Louis XIV and his twin brother, Philippe, who at his birth was whisked away to the province of Gascony and brought up secretly as a commiser under the guidance of the famous Musketeers.

Warren William, Joseph Schildkraut, Alan Hale, Miles Mander, Bert Roach, Walter Kingsford, Marian Martin and Montagu Love, featured in support of the stars, portray the parade of characters in this fast-moving, tensely pitched drama. Warren Williams plays the swashbuckling, beloved role of D'Artagnan, with Alan Hale and Miles Mander impersonating the other two musketeers in the trio devoted to Philippe.

Hayward plays the dual roles of King Louis and Philippe, while Joan Bennett appears as the lovely and gifted Maria Theresa of Spain, imported to marry the cruel and sadistic monarch and to thus preserve the peace of Europe. As King Louis, brother, Louis fears that events may lead to dethronement and decides he must do away with such a possibility. He takes the most sinister method at hand—the dread iron mask. Philippe is encased in this monstrous contraption and condemned to life imprisonment in the Bastille. But the Musketeers who also know the secret refuse to see Philippe die in this horrible way. How they outwit Louis and his ministers concludes the story, which is based on the famous novel by Alexander Dumas.

"The Man in the Iron Mask," directed by James Whale from the screenplay written by George Bruce, boasts some of the most lavish sets ever built in Hollywood. Some forty odd settings, including the King's Palace, his hunting grounds at Fontainebleau, the streets of Paris, the torture chambers of the Bastille and an ancient French Cathedral, were constructed under the supervision of John DuCasse Schulze, Mr. Small's famous art director. "The Man in the Iron Mask" is being released under the auspices of United Artists.

BAYLOR UNIVERSITY NEWS

That football is not overemphasized in the American college, but instead fills an important niche in extra curricular student activity for the uniting of school spirit and bringing publicity and financial returns to the institution was agreed by Baylor University students in a "Student Opinion Forum."

The Forum was composed of five men students, three of them members of the Baylor football squad, one a law student and the other a ministerial student.

It was contended that football, as possibly the most important of all extra-curricular activities, serves only as a pastime and "excess energy outlet" for the students who normally would be kept poring over their studies without recreation. In turn, the public is aided in the same way.

"Anything that brings a school so much revenue and so much favorable publicity throughout the nation cannot be over-emphasized," the law student said.

The bowl game idea was praised and the group looked to their becoming even more numerous in the future.

Football aids the player, the grid-sters pointed out, in building physique, promoting sportsmanship and in training him for a possible career in athletic coaching.

Joe College, Baylor University's aging black bear mascot, has pulled a lot of straw into his den and gone to bed for the winter—unaware that a big surprise will await him when he awakens next March.

For then he will have company, another black bear much younger and more playful than himself.

The new bear, gift of Elmer Benson of McAllen to the Baylor chamber of commerce, actually will be a successor to old Joe, for Joe's 11 years are making him a bit cross and weary . . . too much so for the stunts asked of a college mascot.

Benson's donation is only one and a half year old, already trained for several tricks and anxious to learn more from the Baylor student body. A new cage is being built on the campus for him.

Lack of sufficient training in high schools, lack of ability and willingness to apply themselves and difficulty in adjusting themselves to college life are the main reasons why students fail in college, Dean E. N. Jones of Baylor university advised recently.

The situation of poor backgrounds cannot be blamed on high school administrators or faculties, Dr. Jones hurried to say. Since all high school students do not attend college, it is impractical to train for that alone. Too, many high school students preparing for a non-college career later change their mind and enter college.

English, mathematics and foreign languages are the subjects in which most college freshmen are the weakest, the dean stated. Taxing outside assignments of the working students also take a heavy toll.

There is no higher percentage of failures in Baylor this year than in previous years, he said.

Now that the two Thanksgivings are past we give here a short history of these eventful days.—By May S. Wyehe in the Dallas News.

THANKSGIVING

Which Thanksgiving are you going to celebrate this year, the 23d or the 30th?

One having no personal interest in the matter might experience feelings of amusement, or even amazement, that such a small thing should matter so much. Dear, dear, wouldn't it be grand if we could all get together on this, and have all our prayers, feasting or fasting—as the case may be—and our holiday games and accidents at the same time? A divided Thanksgiving seems so odd, doesn't it?

STARTED IN 1621

Looking back in history, we find the first American Thanksgiving celebrated in October of the year 1621 by the Pilgrims at Plymouth, Mass. A quaint old account records the event: "Our harvest being gotten in our Governour sent foure men on fowling, that we might after a more especial manner rejoyce together. They gathered in the meetinghouse some halfe an houre before nine aeloeke with psalm-singing, prayer, and a sermon. Then came merry-making to the creatures, the poorer being invited of the richer."

The account also states that many of the Indians were there; amongst the rest "their greatest Chiefe, Massasoit," and that the pilgrims had "greate store" of turkeys and other good things.

The next year was not so good, but the harvest season always brought thought of thanksgiving, celebrated at different times with feasts or fasts, prayers and endlessly long sermons in unheated churches.

Yet, though Thanksgiving was not always the carefree festival of fun, football and family gatherings at grandma's, as we keep it today, it has always been more or less a happy occasion.

It was not until 1636 that we find a record of Thanksgiving such as we keep it today, as a regular holiday.

In the course of the Revolutionary War, the Continental Congress appointed, Dec. 18, 1777, as Thanksgiving Day, in consequence of the surrender of Burgoyne.

FIRST PROCLAMATION

In the first year of his office, President George Washington issued a proclamation recommending that Nov. 26, 1789, be kept as a day of national thanksgiving for the establishment of a form of government that made for safety and happiness. Here is the first Thanksgiving proclamation:

"Now, therefore, I do recommend and assign Thursday, the 26th day of November next, to be devoted by the people of these states to the service of that great and glorious Being, who is the Beneficent Author of all the good that was, that is, or that will be.

"That we unite in the rendering unto Him our sincere and humble thanks for His kind care and protection of the people of this country throughout their becoming a nation—for the single manifold mercies and for the favorable interpretation of His Providence, in the course and conclusion of the late war."

This proclamation was read by town criers to the people of New England, gathered in front of town taverns or at their own doors.

Thanksgiving was almost exclusively a New England institution for years, celebrated with religious services in the meeting houses, the services often taking the form of a political address, followed by a gathering at the old home of the scattered members of families. The day gradually became a custom in the Western and Southern States, each appointing its own day.

In 1864, President Lincoln issued a proclamation in which he "appointed and set aside" the last Thursday in November as a day of national thanksgiving "for the defense against unfriendly designs without and signal victories over the enemy who is of our own household."

Since Lincoln's time, it has been a custom for each President to set aside the last Thursday in November for a like festival, so that Thanksgiving Day is now as firmly fixed as the Fourth of July itself.

HARVEST FESTIVALS OLD CUSTOM

Although our Thanksgiving Day is wholly an American institution, celebrated in our own noisy-American way, harvest festivals have been known since the beginning of civilization. Long before the landing of the Pilgrims it was customary in Old England to hold special days of fasting and prayer in times of peril and disaster, and to celebrate the harvest season by feasting.

If we would pull down the old history and read anew the courageous story of the Pilgrims, and how they came to have the first Thanksgiving, we would, no doubt, forget about small differences, such as which Thursday.

Going a long way back, across the Atlantic to Old England in the little town of Scrooby, we find the people much troubled because they are being denied the right to worship God in the way they thought right. The English King had said they must attend the English Church. In that day it was quite the custom for rulers to dictate church affiliations to their subjects. But these people rebelled, and were called Separatists.

So they left England and went to Holland, where they had heard all people were allowed to worship according to conscience. But, after they got to Holland, they found other difficulties. They were farmers mostly, and it was hard for them to make a living as the Hollanders did. Then, they feared their children would forget their mother-tongue and that they themselves would forget the English language. So they decided to join some of the English colonists in America, the New World.

So the good ship Speedwell took them back to England, and there with the aid of Capt. Miles Standish they borrowed money to fit up another ship, the Mayflower. On these two ships 102 men, women and children set sail for America Aug. 15, 1620.

The Speedwell soon developed a leak and had to turn back, but the Mayflower went bravely on.

The trip over was not an easy one. One man was washed overboard but was rescued. Another died at sea. One child was born and christened Oceanicus because he was born on the ocean.

There were no cows on board, but there probably were some chickens and goats, and there were three dogs.

The ship lost its course, and it was by accident that the Pilgrims landed on what is now the New England coast. They had received permission from the English King to join the English colony in Virginia, which had been settled some years before.

On Nov. 20, 1620, the Pilgrims awoke to the shout, "Land! Land!" Captain Standish knew it was not Virginia, but said they must land as the weather was too bad for further sailing at this time.

PILGRIMS SIGN COMPACT

On Nov. 21, 1620, the night before they were to land, the Pilgrims met in the cabin of the Mayflower, and signed The Mayflower Com-compact, as a means of governing themselves. Forty-one of the Pilgrims signed this compact while the Mayflower was still at sea, cruising off Cape Cod in search of a harbor.

The Mayflower Compact is believed by some to be the first written agreement ever made providing for the government of the people by the people.

One would think every man, woman and child would have rushed into the shallop and set foot on land at the earliest moment. Not so. Captain Standish and some of the good fathers got into the shallop and scouted for quite a while to be sure of a safe harbor for the good ship. Standish had a chart that had been made by Capt. John Smith which told him Plymouth harbor was near and that it was safe.

During this scouting visit, they discovered a basket protruding from a snowbank. Jewels and gold, they thought. Not so. It was corn, Indian maize, the first they had ever seen. And it was this corn that more than likely kept them from starvation, for they ate it and saved seeds for planting.

The first thing the women did was to get some fresh water and wash their clothes.

Soon the men were busy cutting down the trees and building a house, while the women lived in the house on the ship. By and by, they were all housed in comfortable cabins.

VISITED BY INDIANS

The Pilgrims had heard stories of the Indians. Naturally they were afraid of what these savages would do. So one day when an Indian walked into their log house, the father grabbed his gun. But, to their great surprise the Indian addressed them in broken English: It was Chief Samoset, who had learned a few words of English from Squanto, a brave who had been captured by the Spanish and taken to Spain, from whence he had fled to England, and had learned to speak English fluently.

This friendly approach was very pleasing to the Pilgrims, and Squanto was invited to see them. He told them about his visit to England, and how all his people had died of a great pestilence while he was away so that now he was very lonely. It ended by Squanto coming to live with the Pilgrims. Squanto taught them how to hunt and trap and lure animals, and to plant little fishes as fertilizer for corn and pumpkins, which probably had something to do with the bounteous harvest they celebrated later.

When we think of all this, and how when spring came, after many of the Pilgrims had died, including Rose, the wife of Miles Standish—not a Pilgrim went back to England with the Mayflower, but stayed and laid the foundation stones of this great free country which we now own and enjoy, we ought not to ask, "Which day shall we celebrate?" But we should say both days.

FIRST THANKSGIVING

Our rural ancestors, with little blest,
Patient of labor when the end was rest,
Indulged the day that housed their annual grain
With fasts and off-rings and with thankful strain.

Was Alexander Pope, when he penned these lines in his Imitations of Horace, thinking with the Sabine Farm's erudite and poetic laird on an old Roman custom or on a day observed by Pope's own agrarian forebears? Either would have served the purpose, for there are few agricultural peoples that have not had significant feasts to commemorate the gathered harvest. That first Thanksgiving Day in Plymouth Colony obviously harked back to a custom that these simple, devout people had known overseas before civil war and persecution obscured the bright day of the English countryside.

The ancients may have had their rites to propitiate Pomona and coax from her cornucopia a good yield. With canny thought, they celebrated when the harvest was a reality. Our Plymouth Pilgrims fell in step. They were a religious people and certainly did not spare their worship through the lean months or the first hard winter, but their first Thanksgiving Day was not alone for political safety in a new land but for a gathered and bountiful crop.

Essentially the day is for thanks from the tiller of soil but circumstance enlists his urban brother in celebration as the requirements of the traditional groaning board furnish better markets for wholesalers and retailers, assuring one of the three big fall and winter days for the vegetable and market trade. Its purveyors will not hold against tradition-upsetting Mr. Roosevelt that by declaring the nation's Thanksgiving Day a week earlier than customary, he has practically assured two celebrations.

Even the Federal Government refuses to be hidebound by the date, if this may be determined from the fact that Federal Judge William H. Atwell polled a petit jury at Wichita Falls and agreed to abide by their preference for November 30 in adjourning court. Of course, the college world, with its football schedules long since fixed for the final Thursday, will have to pass up the first 1939 Thanksgiving Day for the second.

He to whom we give thanks will not mind. He is accustomed to the vagaries of an errant human race. But for the ubiquity of His forgiving heart, we would have little for which to be thankful.—Dallas News.

Idea!

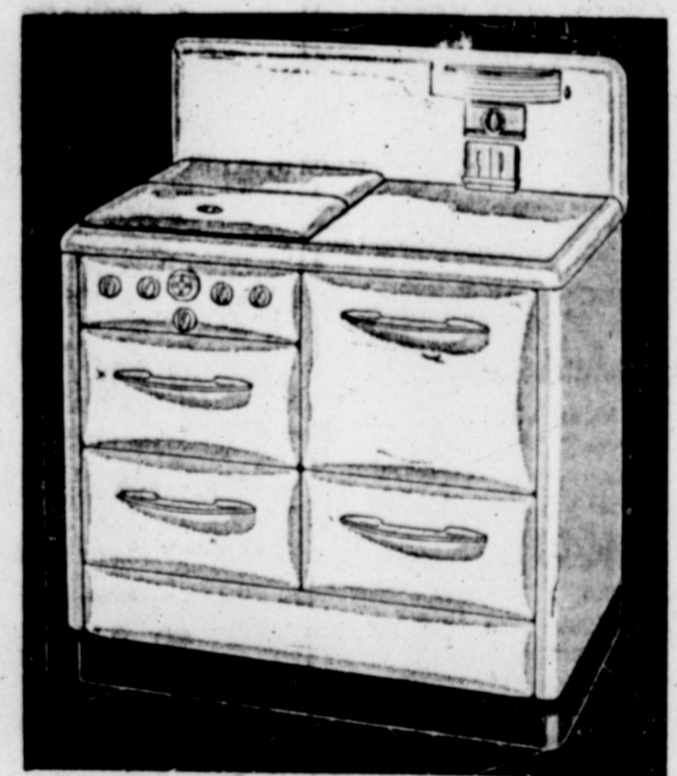

At long last the idea hits his husband perplexed over what to give his wife for Christmas. He finally thinks of the gift that is beautiful, labor-saving and the gift most desired.

Action!

So he leaves his office for this most desired gift in a hurry to buy while special Fall Sale terms are in effect. He ends up at a gas company office to find a big display of many different models and decides on one best suited to his family's needs.

The Result!

"A Merry Christmas" every day in the year for Mother

Now he knows no gift for wife will be more, helpful, more labor-saving than the glistening automatic gas range he selected for delivery just before Christmas. He knows now that one of these new gas ranges bring just as much efficiency and labor-saving into the kitchen as do modern office equipment. He knows that one will save on his food as well as his fuel bills. And he knows that he has the gift for his wife that will say "Merry Christmas" every day for many years.

PRESENTING:

REVEREND T. A. PATTERSON
Reverend Patterson received his Master of Theology degree from the Southwestern Seminary in Fort Worth. He came to Colorado City some two years ago to preach at the First Baptist Church. He had been pastor of the First Baptist Church at Hollis, Oklahoma, previous to this time.

I should like to echo Oliver Goldsmith's sentiment, expressed in his "Deserted Village," as he described one village preacher:
"But in his duty prompt at every call,"

He watched and wept, he prayed and felt for all."

Reverend Patterson is leaving on December 10, to preach in Fort Worth. It is with sad hearts that we see him go—this noble man in the most noble walk of life.

COLORADO BEATS BIG SPRING

Last Friday night the Jackrabbits won 20-12 over the Big Spring Yearlings. The game was very exciting all the way through. The score at the half was 6-0 in favor of the Yearlings. In the last half the Jackrabbits really went to work on the Big Spring lads. With good blocking and good running Royce Smith, the outstanding fullback for the Jackrabbits, crossed the pay dirt stripe three times and he went over again for two extra points. He made the Jackrabbits' 20 points. The Big Spring boys certainly did fight back, but they just couldn't stop Royce and the other members of the Colorado club.

TO A SENIOR GIRL

There she stood a glorious sight,
Her hair like the rippling waves of golden moonlight.
So quiet and still in the shadows deep,
While the charms of nature rested in sleep.

She stood so erect in deep repose,
She shown with charm like the red, red, rose.

I know not when nor from where she came
I only know her by sight not by name.

But these little things make no difference to me,
For I know I was the one meant to see.

This gorgeous angel sent from above
To commemorate the immortal, Goddess of Love.

THANKSGIVING FOR TEACHERS

Many of the teachers take advantage of the four Thanksgiving holidays and go on a short vacation. However, we find that some are resolved to stay at home. Mr. Foster, Mr. Shillingsburg, Mr. Pratt, Miss Smith, Mr. Brazil, and Mr. Cline are among this group. Mr. Foster may do a little hunting, and Mr. Brazil is going to try to get over to his mother-in-law's for turkey dinner. Mr. Watson and Mr. Mason are planning to attend the T.S.T.A. meeting in San Antonio. Miss Oliver is also going to San Antonio. Mr. Wheeler is going back to his old haunts in Santa Anna and Albany, and Mr. Smith is to take in Richland Springs and Austin. Mr. Christian is going to Childress, and Mr. Rose is undecided. He may go to Meridian. Miss Miller is going to Odessa to visit her sister, and Miss Cook plans to go to Lubbock for at least one day. Mrs. Pell tells us that she is going to attend the H.-S. U. homecoming. Thanksgiving

PRaised FOR BRONCHIAL COUGHS

Acts Like a Flash Makes Breathing Easier

Spend a few cents today at any good drug store for a bottle of Buckley's CANADIOL Mixture (triple acting)—take a couple of doses at bedtime—feel its instant powerful purgative action spread thru throat, head and bronchial tubes. It starts at once to loosen up thick, choking phlegm—soothe raw membranes and make breathing easier.
Sufferers find Buckley's gives quick relief from that persistent, nasty, irritating cough due to colds or bronchial irritation. But be sure you get Buckley's CANADIOL Mixture—the largest selling cough medicine for coughs due to colds, in cold winter Canada. Contains no sugar so can be taken by diabetics. Over 10 million bottles sold.

TOMMY RATLIFF proclaims that two hearts are better than one. So he's doing something about it. An overheard lament of some boy-studies of CHS was "We crave new faces. After all, there's no oomph to a water hoel!" Curiosity killed the cat—and ye reporters are near the grave. Whose ring dons BETTY COOK'S finger? IDA LEE HALL has a similar ailment which stumps us. O. B. BULLOCK, JR. was hum for a day last week-end. 'Tis rumored he didn't even call 47-w during the brief stay. LOUISE PHILLIPS was scorted by a Roscoe out-ofowner Sunday. The Jackrabbits were victors again! They plowed over the Big Spring second-string Steers Friday. Despite their red noses and frozen anatomys, active fans of the future Wolf pack were elated with the success. BETTY GRUBBS sports a Snyder class ring. Reliable our man Fridays exclaim he's a red head. Wonder why NINA QUINNEY likes Physics and sixth period American History so mucho mucho. After a green capule and a snort of an aspirin, we recovered from the following didjaknow. If you are troubled with the same symptoms, beware. It was on-a night last week that JANE MACHIA was squired by CHARLES NUCKOLLS and ditto for ALICE WOMACK and JIMMIE BARNES. Partic studies have been literally holding their breath till Thanksgiving. That is when all the collich aggregation flock back, you member. Sunday night JANE BRANNON seemed to be gassed by the fumes of a fading (Maybe) romance. LOUGENE SHAW tagged JOHNNY GRUBBS hook, line, and sinker—for a short while. FRANCES HENDERSON'S chasis has been seen accompanied by SIDNEY MEEK, a part of Loraine. Betscha SUE LANDERS' blood is curdling too. Saturday night marked dates of JANE MERRILL with TED HALE and JOSEPHINE HALE with JOHN J. SMITH. Are these pedigreed heart-mances? JACK SMITH has acquired four eyes and two of them aren't black, either. S'pose "DOC" RHODE has derailed his humptenzillion CHS affairs for a Westbrook Hedy Lamarr? The last game of the season is scheduled for Thanksgiving Day at Snyder. It should prove interesting evens we will probably be so turkey-stuffed that our yells will just wheeze. The band has been tooting "Hold That Tiger" for weeks. Just remember that he who underestimates others overestimates himself. Just remember. . . .

Gains Shown In 10-Day Chevrolet Sales Period

DETROIT—Substantial gains over the preceding 10-day period and the same 10-day period in 1938 were reported by Chevrolet for the first 10 days of November. It was revealed at central office here, with the announcement that dealers had sold at retail 29,693 new passenger cars and trucks. This figure is 14.5% greater than the same period in 1938 and 10.9% higher than the 1939 period ending Oct. 31.

Even though a general strengthening of the sales graph was apparent throughout most of 1939, sales figures thus far in the 1940 model year have been substantially in advance of those reported for the 1939 year, with truck sales up 57.7% over last year and used car sales up 13.9%.

The 29,693 figure for Nov. 10 is 2,916 sales greater than the 26,777 reported for the period ending Oct. 31, and 3,766 more than during the same period last year. Total truck sales were 6,145 as against 3,896 during the first 10 days of November last year. Used car sales totaled 35,386 as compared with 31,048 in the same period last year.

ILL AT WATSON HOME

Mrs. Barney Alsbrook of Midland, the former Elizabeth Watson, has been ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Watson, for the past several days. She will probably remain for some time yet.

NEWS FROM JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

NOVEMBER

November turns the leaves all red. And scatters them all around
November brings the snows that come
And covers up the ground.

November brings Thanksgiving Day. And we go to grandfather's farm
November is the month that's best,
For happiness and charm.
Audaine Matlock

MR. JOHN E. WATSON

A man familiar to all students of Colorado City schools is our own superintendent, Mr. John E. Watson who was born at San Marcos, Texas, and finished high school at Blanket, Texas. Mr. Watson has attended Howard Payne college at Brownwood, Texas, the University at Austin and Texas Tech at Lubbock. He has received a Bachelor of Arts degree. Mr. Watson was in the World War from 1917 to 1919 where he served with the Rainbow division. He was in five major battles. Golfing is his favorite sport. Mr. Watson is president of the Lions club and chairman of the Board of Stewards of the Methodist church.

He is interested in making Colorado City schools better for children of Colorado City. Mr. Watson is a very understanding man and he is always ready to help any students he can in any way.

AUTUMN

When the squirrel stores up nuts
In the hollow trunks of trees,
Then Jack Frost and his helpers are Painting Autumn leaves.
With squirrel whiskers for their brushes.
And paint from the evening sky.
Each little leaf gets a brand new dress.
Before the Fall months die,
When the White Birch leaves are painted.
And the Oak is at its best.
Then, until the Winter comes,
Jack Frost can get some rest.

THANKFULNESS

Turkey is only one of the many things for which I am thankful on Thanksgiving. I am thankful that I am an American citizen and do not live in war-torn Europe. I am thankful for my school building and all my nice teachers. I have many "common" things to be thankful for such as food, clothes, shelter, and air. I have much more to be thankful for than millions of children all over the world. Therefore, I am thankful.
Juanice Elliott

ASSEMBLIES

Friday, November 10, we had one of our best assembly programs which was presented by Dimple Sue Hart, Frances Reynolds, Adeline Ruth Cooper and Mr. Haley. Dimple Sue Hart gave a poem entitled "Give Peace Again," then she talked on Armistice Day. Frances Reynolds gave a talk on "Peace Palace," and Adeline Ruth Cooper gave a talk on the "Ancient Dead." At the last Mr. Haley made a very interesting talk on Armistice Day.
We sang a few songs and went to our rooms.
Fay Franklin

Rev. H. H. Black was with us in assembly Wednesday, Nov. 15th. Mr. Haley led us in prayer. Rev. Black read a portion of First Psalms. He very interestingly presented some facts about the verses.
Hugh Jean Nixon

In observance of National Book Week the "Ancient Order of Book Worms" presented the entire assembly with the play "The Prickly Prince." The characters who were in this play were as follows: Prickly Prince—James Wells; Queen—Joan Mills; King—Arnold Andrews; Miss Nagg—Martieta Church; Ned—Leland Graves; Nelly—Leona Light; Tom Sawyer—R. A. Hutchins; Penrod—Bob Moore; Huckleberry Finn—Lloyd Pond; Corporal Corey—Creighton White; Bears of the Blue River—Tom and Baller, Herber Allmond, Harvey Griffith; Hansbrinker—Jimmy Lee Howell. "The Book Characters" persuaded the Prickly Prince that books are beautiful, interesting and thrilling.
Willie Nell Grisham

Monday, Nov. 20, the pupils enjoyed a style show given by the sewing class. Twenty girls modeled their house coats and one girl modeled her play suit. They all were very pretty, and showed the girls had worked very hard on them.
The Freshmen had their class meeting and we worked on our yells.
Reeda Bell Franklin

Rev. Haley was our entertainer on Wednesday's assembly, Nov. 22. He entertained us with a few of his magic tricks. We still wonder how he does them.
Hugh Jean Nixon

YEAR BOOKS AND SCRAPBOOKS
Miss Lovelace and the Homemaking girls have finished their yearbook except for typing it. The yearbook consists of programs such as teas and parties planned for the year. It also contains the color schemes and flower of the club. They will keep a scrap book in which they will put all articles which appear in "The Tattler" and the Colorado Record. This scrap book is a thing we will be proud of for a long time.

Margaret Cary

CLOTHING CLASS

The sewing class has at last finished and carried home their house-coats. It will be but a few days before they start making dresses. If the girls do as well on their dresses as they have on their house-coats they will make very good seamstresses.
Lougene Shaw

CHATTER

That knocking is here again. It comes around regularly every six weeks.
Who is the boy with the expensive orange fur on his cap?
Wonder if Carlton Fuller is going to have his negatives developed?
Why does a certain brunette in 7B always jump when some one says, "Weldon?"
Who is it in 7B who smokes a pipe?
What would Doyle do without his clay in Miss Price's room?
I wonder why the seventh grade girls have been making artificial finger nails?
Seems as if "Curly" got his permanent cut off.
May I have your picture please?
Is a very often repeated request just now.
Ask Fay Franklin why she was so angry Monday morning?
Who says, "Get out a clean sheet of paper and put your name on it" and "There are more ways of killing a cat than choking it to death on hot butter."
What about this smoking? Does it pertain to boys alone? Remember the truth will out.
Miss Lovelace gets a laugh from the girls in Homemaking when she says, "Well, all right!"
Last week Mary Jo Oliver carried a snuff box in her pocket. We wonder if it is true that she thought it might cure her cold.
The Tattler staff asked a number of the Junior High students what they were thankful for. These are some of the responses:

I'm thankful for my parents, brothers, sisters, my teachers, a school to go to and all the pleasures I have.—Dorothy Fortenberry.
I am thankful I got my glasses in time.—Jack Simmons.
I am thankful that I am getting education to as I grow older I can get good jobs.—Paul Mackey.
I am thankful for my home and parents and that I live in America.—Billie J. Dorn.
I'm thankful for everything I have.—A. L. Benson.
I am thankful that Columbus risked his life and found a place to live besides Europe.—Jimmy Pickens.
I am glad to live in America and enjoy the nice things of life.—John Dahlem.
I am thankful that we are at peace with the world.—Mary Frances Montgomery.
I am thankful for my brother's life and the people who saved it.—Herbert Allmond.
I am thankful that I am an American and that we are not in war.—Sylvia Morfan.
I am thankful for such a beautiful school and nice things to work with.—Alice Parquhar.
I am thankful I passed my English test.—L. A. Herrington.
I am thankful I have a good bus to ride to school in.—Preston Morris.
I am thankful that we live in a country of liberty and peace.—Max Caswell.
I am thankful that this is a free nation and not ruled by dictators so that we are free to worship and do as we please.—Charles Trickey.
I am thankful for the earth and all that God has given us in it.—Marie Howell.
I am thankful for the conveniences, my family food the people I have to associate with and a peaceful country.—Mary Jo Oliver.
I'm especially thankful that the United States is not in war.—Donald Montgomery.
I am thankful to have such a nice school to go to in the year of 1939-1940.—Eldon Grisham.

Wishing everyone a happy Thanksgiving.—The Editor.

PICKED UP ALONG THE NEWS PATH

One of the most impressive, enjoyable and certainly one of the largest things which has happened in Colorado City or Mitchell county in a long time was the dinner given for business men and women of the county Monday night by farmers and their wives. . . . It was impressive because it showed that the line which once divided town from country just isn't there any more, and because it showed that Mitchell county folks, town and country, have a solidarity they didn't even suspect of themselves. . . . It was enjoyable because nothing was long enough to be tiring, because the service moved off swiftly, because Cliff Day is an interesting speaker—

At the risk of having all the men say, "Just like a woman" we're going to tell this one on Mrs. Bob May. . . . While back she went to a horse show in Fort Worth. . . . One of the animals shown was Anacacho's Reuben, sire of most of the P. K. Mackey and Frank Kelley two-year-olds now being trained at the Frontier Roundup barn. . . . Being something of a horsewoman herself and being married to one of the town's most enthusiastic horsemen, Mrs. May naturally noticed Anacacho Reuben's beauty and spirit—but the thing she was most concerned about was the fact that he was ridden by Clark Gable in the movie, "Gone With the Wind".

From THE LION'S ROAR: "Joe Mills' theme song since he got that sandy land farm near Dublin is 'The Peanut Vendor. . . . Bob Bathe's fraternity pin, it is rumored, has gone back to college—but this time it's in a female seminary. . . . Nobody cut 'up more than Earl Bibby at the 20th meeting. . . . It's a good thing that ducks can duck—Dave Bridgford, Harry Logsdon, and Dale Warren have been gunning for them. . . . Mac McClain showed the picture 'The Rains Came'—but they haven't. . . . Our sympathy for Boyd Dozier. His thumb, injured at his shop, is sorer than that of a coast-to-coast hitch-hiker. . . . Clarence Nesbit must believe in Santa Claus. He's got one in his store window already, shaking his head and saying 'No'. . . . Have you noticed how many Lions there are in the Cowhand orchestra—the two Harrys, Lewis Elliott, Boyd Dozier? . . . The game Judy Foster had at high school last Monday night between Colorado City (on other side of the tracks) and Brady was one game not called on account of darkness. . . . Charlie Thompson, Charlie Adams, and Joe Smoot, dyed-in-the-wool Democrats, celebrated 'Frank's giving' last Thursday by closing. They'll close this Thursday, too, in honor of W. Lee."

Don't let any matter of dress keep COLDS Cause Discomfort For quick relief from the misery of colds, take 666 LIQUID, TABLETS, SALVE, NOSE DROPS you from attending the chamber of commerce banquet next Wednesday night. . . . The affair is being described as "semi-formal," and we've heard of at least one woman who thought this meant she'd have to attend in an "evening" dress or not at all. . . . What it really means is that you can come as you like—in formal dress or in street dress. . . . Speaking from several years of banquet-going experience, we'll assure you that there'll be plenty of both kinds. . . . Varied and interesting have been the reasons offered by local deer hunters for their buckless returns, but the prize goes to Jeff Curry for this one: "Those bucks just wouldn't come up close enough to the fire for us to get a good shot at 'em."

Although she's in her early eighties, Mrs. Ella McCune, mother of Mrs. L. L. Machia, recently flew here from Chicago for a visit in the Machia home. . . . Her visit has been deeply saddened by the death of another daughter, Mrs. H. H. Wood of Sterling, Ill. . . . Mrs. McCune had been making her home with the latter daughter before coming here. . . . She was not quite equal to flying back to Illinois with Mrs. Machia for the funeral. . . . The first native cedar we've seen downtown this season is that which is being used to decorate the awning of the Colorado Drug. . . . No doubt about it—Christmas is a-coming. . . . Some time ago we carried a story to the effect that our feeble "Welcome to Colorado" sign was to be repaired, repainted, the word "City" added, and the whole thing neonized. . . . You'll notice that none of these things have materialized, but there's a reason. . . . Investigation has revealed that neonizing the present large sign will alone cost nearly as much as a new sign. . . . Look-alikes: Clarence Hornberger and Al Jolson (without blackface).

Death of E. McCurry's mother at Gatesville recently broke up a five-generation group which included the mother, Mr. McCurry, Mrs. Oren Lippis of Colorado City, her daughter, Mrs. Audra Redwine, and the daughter's son. . . . A picture of the group was taken when they visited in Gatesville last summer. . . . Of interest in Mitchell county was an article and pictures appearing in the Sunday Dallas News concerning the century-old Scott home at Scottville, Harrison county, Texas. . . . The home was built by the late Col. Wm. T. Scott, for whom Scottville is named. . . . Col. Scott supervised the building of the Texas & Pacific railroad from New Orleans to El Paso. . . . This fact alone would make him important to Colorado City and other railroad-born towns of West Texas, but he has a greater claim to importance in Mitchell county. . . . As part of his reward for helping with the building of the railroad, he was given several large blocks of West Texas land. . . . His son and namesake, W. T. Scott, Jr., drew for his inheritance the block which lay in Mitchell county. . . . It became the HS ranch. . . . Both father and son are long since dead, but the son's wife is still very much alive—she's Mrs. Minna Scott (Harry) Hyman, and she still lives on a part of the land which was the inheritance of W. T. Scott, Jr., from his father. . . . Accounts of the wedding of Richard Snyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Snyder of Lubbock and nephew of D. H. Snyder, Sr., of Colorado City, to Nell Boyd of Midland and Lubbock appeared in daily papers of this section Sunday. . . . The wedding took place Sunday afternoon in Midland. . . . IN SNYDER HOSPITAL Mrs. O. W. Cline is in a Snyder hospital this week recovering from major surgery which she underwent Saturday morning. Her condition is said to be favorable. Her mother, Mrs. Foster of Greenville, has been attending her. . . . ENLISTS IN ARMY Wm. Leonard Neff, Jr., of Colorado City has enlisted in the army and has been assigned to the motorized infantry at Ft. Sam Houston in San Antonio.

Names were drawn for a Christmas party when the Self Culture club met Friday with Mrs. H. M. Sanders. Plans were made to buy fruit for the club's adopted schools at Christmas time. Mrs. J. T. Junior Hesperian Colonial homes were discussed at the meeting of the Junior Hesperian club with Mrs. Lucille Wilkins Friday afternoon. Twelve were present, with Mrs. Howe Mayse as leader.

Individual topics were: "Description of a Typical Colonial Home," Mrs. W. R. McEntire, Jr.; "Colonial Furniture," Mrs. M. O. Chapman; "Old China," Mrs. Truett Barber.

A letter accepting membership in the club was read from Mrs. James Beal. Baby spoons were voted to Mrs. Charles Mosser's son and Mrs. Chas. Brazil's daughter.

Plans were made for contributing baskets of fruit to needy families at Thanksgiving. The club's next meeting will be with Pauline Jones on December 8.

Shakespeare

Thanksgiving poems were given in response to roll call at the Shakespeare club's meeting with Mrs. Fielding Lee Friday.

Mrs. Joe Smoot was leader for roll call, the lesson on Richard II, and for the naming and sketching of favorite authors. The club will not meet this week but will meet Dec. 8 with Mrs. Harry Logsdon.

1921 Study Club

India was the 1921 Study club topic at the home of Mrs. J. M. Doss Friday afternoon with Mrs. J. T. Pritchett as leader.

Topics were given as follows: "Taj Mahal and Other Architectural Marvels of India," Mrs. Ed Jones, Sr.; "The Holy City of Benares," Mrs. H. B. Broadus; "Delhi, the Capitol," Mrs. Chas. C. Thompson; "Does the Good Out-Balance the Evil of British Rule in India," Mrs. Van Boston. The club does not meet this week but will meet next week with Mrs. R. P. Price.

Zetagathian

Studying music of America, the Zetagathians met Friday with Mrs. Turner Hibbits. Mrs. Skeet Harkins was leader. Famous composers were during roll call. Mrs. T. J. Goss, Jr., discussed "Mountain Music." Mrs.

Chas. Wyatt "Cowboy Songs," Mrs. Sefton Pickens "Negro Spirituals," Mrs. James K. Polk "American Opera," and Mrs. Jack Cox "Modern American Music." The club will not meet this Friday but will meet Monday instead for a book review by N. H. White.

that goes into this Germ Processed oil to effect the close union or bond between the oil and the engine parts. Like chrome-plating on the bumpers, OIL-PLATING in the engine can't drain down every time the car stands, and therefore OIL-PLATING isn't waiting to be restored "from scratch" every time you start up again. How different from oils that can only flow fast! Surely OIL-PLATING must beat them to it. In advance of any flow, it's there! This drain-proof slippy

5 to 8 minutes isn't "such a much" unless your cold engine is straining that long without prompt lubrication. And how much worse when you figure that less than a dozen cold starts a day threaten all of an hour's lubrication delay. In the course of the Winter that could exceed 90 hours of risky slow-motion oiling . . . that's what—90 hours! Let's be sensible and not just hope blindly that 90 hours or even half that won't hurt. The way to avoid the worst chance of harm is to change today to OIL-PLATING. Automatically your engine becomes OIL-PLATED as you drive from Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station with a fill of his Conoco Germ Processed oil—patented. The basic patents cover the use of a rare man-made substance
