Mr. Evans was in his eightythird year and had become very feeble and when he contracted a cold a few weeks ago it took a firm hold on his frail constitution and he gradually grew weaker WE HAVE TWO MAKES until the end came, and old age can really be assigned as the OF RIDING PLANTERS cause of his death.

Mr. Evans was universally oved and honored by the people of Goldthwaite, among whom he had lived for fourteen years. He came here from Grimee county, to which place he immigrated from Florida after the civil war. We who knew him well feel that we have lost a friend whose place it will be hard ofill. He was a man of wide experience and it was indeed in teresting to hear him tell of events of long ago. He leaves a widow and three sons, Mesers. I H. J. C. and W. A. H. D. GARDNER.
Mr. H. D. Gardner died yesterday morning at his home one mile west of this city. He suffered some time with the measless fered some time with the measles and it was a relapse of that disease that caused hie death. Mr Gardner was a pioneer set-ler of this section. For many years he lived in the Nabors Creek community, but recently he moved to the Carroll place west of town. He was a good man, a valued citizen, a devout Christian and a faithful member f the Baptist church. He was tiked by all who knew him and his death called forth many expressions of sorrow and great sympa hy is felt for his grieving wife and children.

The body will be interred in the Shaw Bend cemetery. The funeral procession will leave the family residence this morning a 8 o'clock.

AT THE REPORT OF THE PARTY OF T

GOOD SINGING.

The Meneley quartette entertained a fair siz-d audience in the opera house Thursday night. The singing was very good and the impersonations were fairly good, but nothing to brag on There is no doubt, however.

that the audience was much larger than it would have been had it been known that the manager of the quartette intended to make prohibition talks between the songs. While his work may be beneficial to the cause of prohibition, it was hardly fair to those who did not advocate his side of the question to induce them to attend a lecture without giving notice that the subject would be introduced The gentleman may have believed that the people here understood his line of work and that his entire audience was in sympathy with him, but if he did so believe he was badly mistaken. Even the most ardent advocate of prohibition would not have advised the lecture without giving the opponents notice of the character of the entertainment.

PHYSICAL HOUSE-CLEANI

A Thorough Cleansing of the System Now is the Surest Protection Against Spring and Summer Sickness.

No good house keeper ever neglects Spring cleaning. With plenty of soap and water, hard scrubbing and scouring, sunlight and air, she soon gets rid of all rubbish, J. C. Street has been looking after musty odors, germs and microbes, and the dust and business matters in the Indian Ter- dirt that have accumulated during the long winter months. But when the house has been put in order, and the premises cleared of all old plunder and trash, the great majority of house keepers feel that Spring

Physical house cleaning should begin with the blood. It must be purified and strengthened, and when a stream of pure, rich blood is turned into all the nooks and corners of the system, the rubbish and disease-producing poisons are washed out, and the congested channels and avenues of the body are opened, and Physical house cleaning is made thorough and complete. S. S. S. cleanses the blood of taints and poisons and expels the waste and rubbish from the system. It is to the system what soap and water are to the house. Nothing

Derangements of the teeth of the horse very frequently lead grave difficulties, both local and constitutional. The teeth ofte become decayed, holes form in them and toochache is a commo occurrence. There is no such thing as blind teeth, as is ofte termed, it is either a rotten or a long tooth. Ninety per cent of the horses that are fed condition powders to recuperate the health, need nothing but their teeth repaired.
