HAMILTON.
The Woodman picnic that was held in Hamilton last Friday was in every particular a most enjoyable one, except for the dust that was so awful bad.

The editor attended the picnic at Pottsville on the 15th. It was held in a beautiful grove down on the creek just west of town. There was a good crowd present and the day passed very pleasantly.

The new bridge across Pecan creek near the Crews and Williams' gin will be a great convenience to the traveling public. It will be a fine structure, double track and more in keeping with the needs of the country than the old one.—Herald.

BROWNWOOD.
Mrs. Spencer of Mullin is in the city this week, the guest of friends.

Many complaints come from Coggin Addition to the effect that horses and vehicles are being stolen out at night and used without the consent of the owner.

The new Frisco depot is about completed and it's a regular beauty. There's nothing on the line that compares with the Brownwood depot. It is built of brick, trimmed in white stone.

Little Dannie Lindsey, aged 13, and her brother Rufus, returned last week to the Odd Fellows' home at Corsicana, after a pleasant two week's visit to the families of Brownwood Odd Fellows. The orphans are wards of the local lodge and were sent to the home about two years ago.

It is stated that a man by the name of Phillips happened to a very painful accident Monday afternoon. He was leading a span of mules by means of a wire attached to the ropes around their necks. The animals took fright and started to run, and in the mixup the man's finger got caught in the wire. The finger is said to have been pulled off.—Bulletin.

NEW GOODS COMING!

I have just returned from St. Louis, where I bought largely of

Fall and Winter Goods

And will have my stock complete with seasonable goods for the fall trade. There are still many bargains in the house in summer goods. Everything has been marked down so low as the best grade of goods can be sold, and the fact that you bought at this store is a guarantee that you secured

RELIABLE MERCHANDISE AT A CORRECT PRICE.

We have a very large stock of clothing and will make interesting prices on suits or odd pants for men and boys. Come here and get your complete outfit. We sell everything you need in Clothing, Shoes, Hats and furnishings. Get our prices and you will save money.

And trade where you can get the best goods for the least money. Quality is our Standard bearer. It is not the cheapest priced stuff that is the cheapest. We believe everybody wants value in the goods they buy and if we can prove that we give you better value than you get elsewhere, then why not buy of us? We stand ready to prove our assertion that we give better value for the same money than you can get elsewhere in Goldthwaite, and besides we have a large variety in all departments to select from.

B. A. HARRIS,

GOLDTHWAITE, TEXAS.

Army to our city was the conversion Wednesday night of Davis Mason, one of our city barbers.

L. M. Drake, an aged and respected citizen, died at the home of his eldest daughter, Mrs. Rufus Switzer, at Blanket Tuesday and was buried here next day.

Wednesday morning just after daylight Jim Nunnally came to the home of his father-in-law, Jim Brown, with a single barrel breech loading shotgun. Geo.

Brown had been sleeping in the yard and was sitting on the edge of the gallery dressing when Nunnally approached. The fence is within a few feet of the house and Nunnally from the outside threw his gun down on Brown, and as he did so said, "George I am going to kill you." Brown ran into the house and Nunnally followed, but his (Nunnally's) wife closed the door in his face and prevented him from entering. Brown ran out of the back door for the timber. Nunnally stepped to one side and fired a load of buckshot into Brown's back and he fell. The trouble is supposed to have been over family matters, Nunnally's wife having been separated from him for two or three years; it is said he blamed her father and brother for it. Nunnally is in jail to await the action of the grand jury.—Chief.

LAMPASAS.
W. F. Hale has sold his interest in the ice factory to M. Alford and will return to Belton, his former home.

Mrs. Ford Brandenburg died at Caldwell the morning of Aug. 29. She was here a short time ago and was taken ill while on a camping trip on the Colorado river, but recovered sufficiently to be taken home.

The arbor under which a protracted meeting was being held at Elm Grove, ten miles south of Lampasas, in Burnet county, burned last Friday night after the services. An organ, and the benches belonging to two or more adjoining school houses, were destroyed as well. It is thought by some that the arbor was set on fire purposely, and in the opinion of others it caught from a torch or lighted cigarette. The fire was discovered too late to be extinguished and the arbor and its entire contents were a total loss.—Leader.

SAN SABA.
Assessor Petty's tax rolls show the property valuations of the county have increased $192,793 over 1904.

Dr. A. L. Taylor of Sonora and his brother, Sam D. Taylor, of Goldthwaite, were in San Saba prospecting.

M. Brazil bought the J. B. Moore wagon yard lots on Wallace street from M. B. Bowman for $800.

John Kelley sold his 285 head of stock cattle and leased his 3000 acre pasture until April 15 to S. W. Walker.

Through the untiring efforts of Ed House and others in the McMillin settlement the gates are to be moved from the road on proposed rural route No. 3, and in a short time the route can be in operation.

The Jackson-Reagan Co. has purchased from Elvy Harkins the 30x120 foot lot on the northeast corner of the Masonic building block for $500. This company expects to build a corrugated iron warehouse 30x80 feet on this lot at once.

In answer to the advertisement for bids for "county depository" Ward, Murray & Co. presented a bid to pay 2 per cent on daily balances on the account of the county treasurer. Good temper is like a sunny day; it sheds its brightness on everything. No trait of character is more valuable than the possession of a good temper. Home can never be made happy without it. It is like flowers springing up in our pathway, reviving and cheering us. Kind words and looks are the outward demonstration. Patience and forbearance are the sentinels within. If a man has a quarrelsome temper, let him alone. The world will soon find him employment. He will soon meet with some one stronger than himself who will repay him better than you can.

A man may fight duels all his life if he is disposed to quarrel. How sweet the serenity of habitual self-command. There are people, yes, many people, always looking out for slights. They cannot carry on the daily intercourse of the family without finding that some offense is designed. They are as "touchy" as hair triggers. Do we not find in households refined—many of them—many women who are jealous, exacting and have a temper that will be swayed by nothing? We therefore should form no friendship with persons of a wrathful temper. "He that is slow to wrath is of great understanding, but he that is heavy of spirit exalteth folly."—Selected.

There is a large profit in rightly managing poultry on the farm. Every additional egg laid in a week by each hen is so much gained, and when the flock is large, as it should be on every farm, the number of eggs produced, when each hen only adds one, is large and will pay well for the labor required to properly care for them.—Farmers Advocate.

Something You Ought to Know

About Buck's Oven

It's large, roomy, thoroughly ventilated and has a fine WHITE ENAMEL lining to oven doors and racks as easy to wash off as a china plate.

Oven bottom is built in two pieces to prevent warping, and made without rivets, so that pans cannot "catch" it taking to and from the oven.

No matter what kind of a stove you may need, whether for cooking or heating—whether for the parlor, sitting room, dining room, bed room or kitchen, be sure there is a Buck's trade mark on it.

THE STEEL STAR WINDMILLS

A wood splitter and elevator attracted my attention, and I rather envied them a part of their huge pile of cook-stove wood. They had a conical pile about sixty or seventy feet in diameter at the base and some twenty-five feet high, besides several cords stacked up in other places.

Late in the afternoon one can sit on the shady side of his hotel and have the opportunity of admiring some fine specimens of the equine species, if fine horses have any attractions for him. It was during one of these periods that a couple came along (young man and lady) on fine horses, the young lady using two stirrups and wearing a divided skirt. Once in a great while you might see a steel-tired buggy or surry, but you would suppose its occupants were from the country. Rubber tires "all the go."

Friday at 6 p. m. the Business Men's Club gave us a trolley ride, so we filled five cars for standing room (would have filled several more if many delegates had not left for home.) We started south and traveled about two miles—fully half the time through "niggervilles"—saw many fine houses and also Baylor University. Came back through town and out to Provident Heights, about three miles north-west. Saw the Christian University (Ad. Ren.), the Methodist orphanage and some other public institutions that I failed to learn much about. By the time we got to town again it was supper time, so we left the cars for our respective places of abode.

Saturday morning I was ready to start for home, but my train was not due till 12:10 p. m., so I decided to see more of the city and hired a bicycle for an hour and started west on Austin street. I had not gone far, however, before I wished I had taken some other street, but hoping it would get smoother after a little, I kept on. It must have been kept years ago with a cheap kind of Nickelson pavement, for the whole surface of the ground looked like the decayed remains of blocks of wood set on end. I followed it west on and one-half or two miles, then came back on Franklin street. On this trip I saw several fine churches, and many of the finest residences in Waco. Nearly all lawns are covered with bermuda grass, dotted here and there with flowers and shrubs which add much to the already beautiful homes. I also rode over to East Waco, but found no paved streets of any kind, but there are a good many large stores there as well as in West Waco. I also saw my first street sweeper while in Waco. I suppose it is used only on the paved streets.

Aro lights and electric fans were also new to me, but I got used to them. I hadn't time to visit the cotton and woolen mills and could have spent several days longer there without having seen all that would interest a farmer boy from Mills county.

Leaving Waco about 12:20 we got to Temple in about an hour, and there we had to lay over two or three hours before the west bound Santa Fe leaves. While waiting there I met Mr. Sam Littlepage of Goldthwaite on his way home from a prospecting trip through the Panhandle.

On my return I observed closely the crop conditions along the road and can say we are ahead of anything I saw. Corn was good most everywhere, but cotton was very poor in places. I saw only a very few patches between Waco and Temple that will compare with Mills county cotton. This side of Temple it gradually improves all the way, though I saw some patches that were fully half dead. Other patches were large enough, but were not loaded with fruit as they should have been (work of bill weevils I guess.) Taken all in all, Mills county is a very good country in which to live.

W. A. PAYLEY.

A TRIP TO WACO.

Editor Eagle:

On the night of Aug. 6 I took the train at Antelope Gap bound for Waco to attend the state union. On the way to Temple I met Mr. Dickinson, county business agent of Coleman county.

At Temple we had to lay over about three and one-half hours, and while waiting met with Messrs. Scott, House and Cowan of San Saba county, and Mr. Shuford, county business agent of Burnet county.

Our train arrived at Waco about 4:30 a. m. and there we were met by Z. S. Lee and conducted to a hotel. Now, as to some of the sights a country boy would find in Waco, I will name the most important ones I saw. Owing to lack of time there were many places of interest that I did not visit. The city is on the Brazos, the main portion being on the west side, East Waco being about the size of Goldthwaite. The river is crossed by two railroad bridges and two foot and carriage bridges. The old bridge is a suspension and the new a steel truss bridge, supported only on each bank. It is floored with concrete. Upon the west end of it Sank Messrs. hung the first night I was there. That was one sight I missed, but I saw Sank in the undertakers' establishment next day.

The city hall, where we held our state union sessions, is a nice two-story brick structure, with beautiful concrete walks through the bermuda grass lawns. On one side of the main entrance is a fountain with fish in the pool at its base and on the other side about a five inch cannon. On the lawn we see signs posted: "5¢ fine, keep off the grass."

The principal street is Austin street. On it may be found anything from a news stand, confectionery, bicycle and repair shop, up to Hill's Business college and Sanger Bros.' store, which occupies three buildings of 2, 3 and 2 stories respectively. Leaning against one of the store fronts on the south side of this street one may see a motor bicycle, while on the north side is the automobile house.

Some will notice that the barber shops here are very finely furnished, many of them having from eight to twelve chairs. The regular prices for barber work are: Hair cut, 25¢; shave, 10¢.

Waco can boast of a $265,000 court house that is as near fire-proof as it is possible to make it. It is built of granite, marble and steel, three stories and basement, and on its lawn we read: "5¢ fine, keep off the grass."

The streets are paved with brick and many of the business and dwelling houses are brick. Also the "Katy" depot is built and floored of brick with tile roofing. One of the ice plants has a brick chimney said to contain one million brick, and I don't doubt it.

The avenues of Waco are beautiful, and peculiar, in view of the fact that the hackberry tree is used almost exclusively. There are some few ash and sycamores in some of the lawns, and out in Padgett's park, on Waco creek, are a good many pecan.

I visited Toby's Business college and was shown through by Sam Knight, one of the instructors. They have a well equipped school and seem to be doing excellent work. They have about one hundred students now.

On public day, Aug. 9, we formed in line at city hall and marched to Padgett's park, a distance of about one mile, the mounted police and fire company swelling the procession. Waco has several fire stations, well furnished with teams and tools for fighting fire.

A wood splitter and elevator attracted my attention, and I rather envied them a part of their huge pile of cook-stove wood. They had a conical pile about sixty or seventy feet in diameter at the base and some twenty-five feet high, besides several cords stacked up in other places.

A CENTURY AGO.

Merchants wrote their letters with quill pens. Sand was used to dry the ink, as there was no blotting paper. There were no street letter boxes; letters had to be carried to the postoffice. It cost eighteen and one-half cents to send a letter from Boston to New York, and twenty-five from Boston to Philadelphia.

Less than a century ago rum was furnished at ministers' ordinations, also pipes and tobacco, as Lyman Beecher tells.

Every gentleman—Washington, for example—wore a queue, many powdered their hair.

Imprisonment for debt was a common practice.

Virginia contained a fifth of the whole population of the country.

The Mississippi Valley was not so well known as the heart of Africa now is.

Two stage coaches carried all the travelers between New York and Boston. Six days were required for the journey.

There was not a public library in the United States. A day laborer received two shillings a day.

Stoves were unknown. All cooking was done at an open fireplace.

Many of the streets were unnamed and houses were no numbered.

Three-fourths of the books in every library came from beyond the Atlantic.

"Who reads an American book?" was an Englishman's sneer in the early part of this century.

When a Virginian started on a journey to New York he made his will, and bade farewell to his friends, as if he never expected to see them again.

Beef, pork, salt fish, potatoes and hominy were staple articles of diet all the year round.—The Presbyterian.

We will have preaching at this place next Sunday.

Several of the people from this place attended the Holiness camp meeting at Center City last Sunday.

Misses Lillie and Docia Stark and brother, Arthur, visited at Mr. Singleton's near Mullin last Sunday and report a nice time.

Cotton picking is the order of the day with most everybody. Think it will all be gathered by the last of September.

Walter Stark has a new daughter at his home. W. J. Lindsey also has a new son.

W. J. Stark, wife and five youngest children left for Concho county last Monday week for a ten day's trip; left five older children in charge of the place. S. A. Marlor accompanied them to look for a new home.

Lafayette Stark and family left Monday week for Arkansas. Sorry to see them leave, but we sincerely hope and wish for them much success on their trip and in finding them a suitable home in the far old state of Arkansas.

Chas. Stark's little invalid child has been real sick this week.

Very little visiting is being done at this place just now. Most everybody has business of their own at home.

The singing convention at Cryer was a success and enjoyed by all present. The next place of meeting will be Miller Grove the second Saturday and Sunday in November. Hurry up, Mr. Marion, and send the secretary her secretary book by some nice looking fellow, doesn't make much difference who.

Come on all you able writers and feed the Eagle's craw awhile, and don't let him grow so awful hungry for news items. I hope all of the communities are not any nearer dead than Rock Springs. So lets all pick up a little more courage and say, "I'll try."

FAME WRITER.

AGENTS GLEANINGS.

Editor Eagle:

I've been very busy hustling for orders for books and trees, also putting up Jerusalem cane and attending meetings in Big Valley, Center City, South Bennett and Goldthwaite; besides being with cane balers in "Blow Out," where Hiram Carothers furnished cold soda water, water-melons, salt, pepper and onions to go with the fat beef furnished by Brother Cordell abundantly for me and them too.

Draw a line in latitude from Pecon Bayou to east line of Mills county through Goldthwaite and estimate cotton crop south of this line about 8 acres planted to produce one bale cotton in this county. North of this line will likely make bale to three to four acres, as they received two rains better than we did.

There is very good forage crops already made and prospects for good second to third crops of vane and grass. If we don't gather many bales of cotton perhaps we'll get there with ease.

THE BOOK AGENT.

CENTER CITY.

Editor Eagle:

You ask in last issue for Center City Holiness camp meeting report, also your request last eve—my write up.

Services begun Thursday evening, Aug. 17, prayer, songs, testimonials, etc.; services daily thereafter. Preaching by (our little Brother Benjamin) Rev. B. A. Cordell of the C ranch, Mills county, Texas; postoffice, Antelope Gap. The camp ground contains thirty-five acres land; plenty of dead wood free for all persons attending there; plenty of water for stock in Bennett creek; pure spring water, so plentiful that the thousands of people using therefrom, did not even muddy the spring during the ten day's use. The shed 40x8 feet, very substantially built, like the house in Luke (8:48) So the people came, camped, saw, heard, ate, drank, cried, laughed, sang, prayed, rejoiced and departed peacefully, lovingly. The same board of managers was unanimously elected Saturday afternoon to serve another year; W. H. Fletcher, president; Mrs. F. N. Irwin, secretary, several trustees also.

Adjourned to meet Saturday before first Sunday in August, 1906, and continue in camp over third Sunday in August.

As there were four applicants to preach the gospel of freedom from sin, the Holiness Band called a meeting for Oct. 14, 1905, at 10 a. m. to consider these ministerial necessities and responsibilities.

Everybody is welcome to all of the Center City Holiness camp services, so bring your wives and children, also invite your husband's people to come Oct. 14, Saturday morning to stay until after services Sunday night, Oct. 15. See, hear and know what these "peculiarly cranky folks" teach and do. "Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy and keep these things which are written therein, for the time is at hand." Rev. 1:3.

Oh, how I do wish our beloved orthodox preachers would learn like St. Paul to pray (1st Thes. v. 23) as well as they do v. 25. Thus, first give, second receive.

Do not come to see us for a week or two if you have not had whooping cough and are afraid to take it. We have six children more or less effected with the whooping epidemic.

For books in your family give me your subscription, also for shade trees and fruit trees give me your orders. My residence, South Bennett, come see the trees and taste the fruit, fresh, dried or in jars. References: The Eagle printers, Phil H. Clements, Wait Smith and others.

A WARNING TO MOTHERS.

Too much care cannot be used with small children during the hot weather of the summer months to guard against bowel troubles. As a rule it is only necessary to give the child a dose of castor oil to correct any disorder of the bowels. Do not use any substitute, but give the old fashioned castor oil, and see that it is fresh, as rancid oil nauseates and has a tendency to grip. If this does not check the bowels give Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy and then a dose of castor oil, and the disease may be checked in its incipency and all danger avoided. The castor oil and this remedy should be procured at once and kept ready for instant use as soon as the first indication of any bowel trouble appears. This is the most successful treatment known and may be relied upon with implicit confidence even in cases of cholera infantum. For sale by All Druggists.

REPORTORIAL REVIEW.

Tell the Eagle when you know a local item. Bring your country produce to Hallonquist. Rev. Grove was a visitor from Mullin Monday.

John H. G. Shelton was here from the first of the week.

C. L. Stephens' parents came in from Lometa the first of the week for a visit.

W. O. Brown added his name to the Eagle's growing list of subscribers last Saturday.

Notice—My mill and thrasher will run on the first and third Saturday of each month.—C. A. Head.

A. T. Sellers was here from Big Valley Monday and dropped a dollar in the Bird's claw.

Freighters Notice—I have a 34 heavy freight wagon, practically new, to sell cheap.—D. T. Bush, Caradan.

J. R. Carter of Center City returned Tuesday from a visit to his brother in the western part of the state.

Miss Eddie Kelley returned to her home in Brownwood Tuesday morning, after a short visit to the Eagle editor and other relatives in this city.

A. C. HEARS, Wm. Wilcox and J. A. Curtis delivered 49 head of stock cattle to Lindsey & Frizzell in this city Monday.

The Perry gin will be in charge of Mr. S. B. Howard this season. The machinery has been put in good condition and the gin was started Wednesday.

Miss Lovelace will begin her music class next Monday, Sep. 4, at W. W. Queen's residence. She will be glad to see all who are contemplating taking music.

For Sale—My farm on the Colorado river, 285 acres in tract, 67 acres in cultivation and balance in pasture. All fenced. Apple, pear and peach orchard and pecan grove on place. Good residence 8 room, which was recently built at a cost of $1500. Best pecan, apple, pear and alfalfa land in the county. A bargain for the best man that wants it.—J. H. Grant.

The advertisements in this paper will interest the readers.

P. T. Willis was here from the Friday community last Saturday.

F. L. Hartman of Big Valley brought cotton to this market Tuesday.

The cotton crop in this county will be much smaller than was expected a month ago.

The well in the court house yard was completed Tuesday afternoon. It is 92 feet deep.

Quite a number of Goldthwaite people attended the Holiness meeting at Center City last Sunday.

Every time you send away for an article of merchandise you injure your home town to that extent.

Mrs. Eugene Thompson came in from Temple the first of the week for a visit to her husband's mother and sisters.

Rev. E. J. Isehour has returned to this county from Stiles, where he served as pastor of the Baptist church the past year.

Capt. D. T. Bush has bought the McPherson farm west of this city and the Eagle hopes he and his family will soon become citizens of this town.

The names of most of those who will be candidates for county offices can be given by those who are informed on political matters and movements. It is safe to guarantee that there will be a sufficiency of candidates for all the offices.

H. C. Shelton, who was employed in the Eagle office for several months, left with his family Tuesday night for his home in Roby. His wife having become ill with typhoid fever, it was decided best to take her to the home of her parents and it was necessary for him to go and remain with her.

Joe Taff has bought the Welsh hotel and will hereafter have charge of the house. He is an experienced hotel man and is popular with the people who know him. He was in the business here for a long time and received a liberal patronage and it is safe to predict that his house will be comfortably filled all the time.

ARE YOU ENGAGED? Engaged people should remember that, after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided by keeping their digressions in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown of Bennettville, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once and cured her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." R. E. Clements, druggist, sells and guarantees them at 50c a bottle.

LETTER TO L. DOUGHTY, Goldthwaite, Texas. Dear Sir: As your business is to get people into and out of trouble, suppose you consider their pains. It makes 'em almost as much trouble as money, except of course matrimony. They buy poor paint a good deal; they don't mean to; they don't know any better; they buy without thinking. Bad paint isn't good. It looks good enough for a year; then begins to get rusty, but changes so slowly, one don't notice it. Looking isn't all. The business of paint is to keep a house dry inside, the wood and iron of it; keep it from rotting and rusting. Takes good paint to do it. Good and bad paint are sold at one price or about that. One can't go by the price at all; as with lawyers, the price has nothing to do with goodness or badness and costs are necessary; the painter and sheriff come in for their share. But the probability is that a man, who paints Devree, will come out on top. Yours truly, F. W. Devree & Co. J. D. Urquhart sells our paint.

FINE FOWLRY. Now is the time to start raising your fall chickens. I still have a dozen of S. C. Brown Leghorns and can furnish you eggs for hatching at $1 for 16. I also have a lot of B. Plymouth Rock cockerels for sale at bargain prices if taken soon. Phone 88. N. K. Kees, Goldthwaite, Texas.

BUY OR SELL. When you have anything in the way of hides, furs, beeswax, corn, hay, cotton seed, etc., to sell, or want to buy anything in the way of corn, hay, sorghum seed, millet seed, seed corn, corn chops, bran, etc., don't fall to come around to the F. E. White grain and feed store.

GET OFF CHEAP. He may well think he has got off cheap, who, after having contracted consumption or indigestion, is still able to perfectly restore his health. Nothing will do this but Dr. King's New Life Pills. A quick, pleasant cure. Certain cure for headache, constipation, etc. 25c. R. E. Clements' drug store; guaranteed.

An item that was reported too late for last week's paper was the marriage of W. E. Doggett and Miss Mary Nichols, which occurred Aug. 23 at the home of the bride's father, Mr. J. C. Nichols, in the Caradan community. A fine dinner was served and there were a number of guests present. The ceremony was conducted by Judge H. T. White of this city.

Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once and cured her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." R. E. Clements, druggist, sells and guarantees them at 50c a bottle.

LETTER TO L. DOUGHTY, Goldthwaite, Texas. Dear Sir: As your business is to get people into and out of trouble, suppose you consider their pains. It makes 'em almost as much trouble as money, except of course matrimony. They buy poor paint a good deal; they don't mean to; they don't know any better; they buy without thinking. Bad paint isn't good. It looks good enough for a year; then begins to get rusty, but changes so slowly, one don't notice it. Looking isn't all. The business of paint is to keep a house dry inside, the wood and iron of it; keep it from rotting and rusting. Takes good paint to do it. Good and bad paint are sold at one price or about that. One can't go by the price at all; as with lawyers, the price has nothing to do with goodness or badness and costs are necessary; the painter and sheriff come in for their share. But the probability is that a man, who paints Devree, will come out on top. Yours truly, F. W. Devree & Co. J. D. Urquhart sells our paint.

FINE FOWLRY. Now is the time to start raising your fall chickens. I still have a dozen of S. C. Brown Leghorns and can furnish you eggs for hatching at $1 for 16. I also have a lot of B. Plymouth Rock cockerels for sale at bargain prices if taken soon. Phone 88. N. K. Kees, Goldthwaite, Texas.

BUY OR SELL. When you have anything in the way of hides, furs, beeswax, corn, hay, cotton seed, etc., to sell, or want to buy anything in the way of corn, hay, sorghum seed, millet seed, seed corn, corn chops, bran, etc., don't fall to come around to the F. E. White grain and feed store.

GET OFF CHEAP. He may well think he has got off cheap, who, after having contracted consumption or indigestion, is still able to perfectly restore his health. Nothing will do this but Dr. King's New Life Pills. A quick, pleasant cure. Certain cure for headache, constipation, etc. 25c. R. E. Clements' drug store; guaranteed.

An item that was reported too late for last week's paper was the marriage of W. E. Doggett and Miss Mary Nichols, which occurred Aug. 23 at the home of the bride's father, Mr. J. C. Nichols, in the Caradan community. A fine dinner was served and there were a number of guests present. The ceremony was conducted by Judge H. T. White of this city.

A Texas Wonder. One small bottle of the Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, cures all kidney and bladder troubles, removes gravel, cures diabetes, seminal emissions, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women; regulates bladder trouble in children. If not sold by your druggist it will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle in two months' treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Dr. E. W. Hall, sole manufacturer, P. O. box 82, St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonials. Sold by all druggists.

READ THIS. Lockhart, Texas, Dec. 12, 1902.—Dr. E. W. Hall, St. Louis, Mo. Dear Sir: In 1899 I suffered from kidney and bladder trouble, and less than one bottle of your Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery cured me and I can cheerfully recommend it. Yours truly, S. S. NEWTON.

DENTAL NOTICE. Parties desiring dental work done in the near future should come in at once, as Dr. Wilson will be in San Paba from September 1 to 10.

ARE YOU ENGAGED? Engaged people should remember that, after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided by keeping their digressions in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown of Bennettville, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once and cured her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." R. E. Clements, druggist, sells and guarantees them at 50c a bottle.

(Intended for last week.) CARADAN.

Editor Eagle: We will try to write a few of the latest happenings.

Rev. Hays is conducting a meeting at this place.

Miss Love Brown of Comanche county is visiting Misses Rachel and Nell Caraway.

Grandma Squyres is visiting her son, J. J. Wilcox, this week.

Several of the people of this place attended the picnic at Indian Gap Saturday.

John Long of Miller Grove is attending the meeting and visiting friends at Caradan this week.

Mrs. Harris, who has been sick for some time, is able to be out among her friends again.

Misses Love Brown and Nell Caraway visited at McGirk the first of the week.

Richard Wilcox and Bob Cookran spent a few days on the river fishing last week.

Mrs. Will Page is visiting her parents this week.

Mr. Minor has erected lighting rods on all of his rooms, and they add very much to the looks of his nice building.

Mr. and Mrs. John Philon of Goldthwaite visited Mr. Minor's family and attended church Tuesday night.

Grandma Wicker is visiting in Coleman county.

Much success to the Eagle and its readers.
