IT PAYS TO PAY CASH

A COMPREHENSIVE SHOWING OF AUTUMN STYLES. "If it's new, it's here" is the motto of this house, which stands out strong and true, and speaks volumes to all who fully appreciate novel and attractive merchandise as exemplified in the line that we carry. Even if you do not desire to buy at present, it's worth your while to visit our store and see the great profusion of styles and the way in which they are carried out in the leading fall colorings. Our assortment is large enough and varied enough to satisfy the most exacting. Details will be made from time to time, but the whole showing is in its scope and can not be covered by any amount of type talk. The most we can say is come.

You'll find our Men's Clothing the highest standard of merit. Not a word of advertising, but it is a fact, and we ask nothing better than that you should put us to the proof. We are especially proud of our lines. "Clothes with character." The foremost fashions find their showing here. Not the ordinary creations that smack of the sweat-shop, but the highest grade of workmanship and the style that bespeaks those that proclaim the stylish dresser, $8.50, $10.00, $12.50, $15.00.

Young men should investigate our excellent line of suits. Solid blacks, overplaid and other designs, double and single breasted, sizes run up to 36, $7.50, $8.50, $10.00, $12.50

THE BARRY SHOES FOR MEN. If every shoe sold was as honorable as this shoe it would naturally be time lost to tell you. But they are not. Some have shoddy insoles, pieced heels all smeared over with black, poor eyelets that you can't tell from good when new, inferior thread used in the upper seams called hand-sewed, when every seam is put in by machine. These are some of the earmarks for cunning dishonesty. You will not find it so with the Barry. They are snappy, fit perfect and come in all the toes, tops and buttons. $3.50, $4.00 and $5.00.

EBONY.

Editor Eagle:

The Methodist meeting at this place closed last Sunday night a week ago. The weather was favorable most of the time and there was good attendance and good interest all the while. On the last Sunday of the meeting there was quite a number from a distance present. There was dinner on the ground and every one seemed to enjoy the services unusually.

Miss Willie Beavers went to Brownwood Friday of last week to resume her studies in the high school there. Miss Willie is in the ninth grade this year and only lacks one year after this of graduation. She has many friends here who are glad to see her climb up and who wish for her a pleasant year at school.

We learn that H. G. Ratliff intends to move to Brownwood this fall in order to send his children to school. Mr. Ratliff certainly has a most promising family who should have the advantage of a good school, but we well know that no other one man has done more for the up building of our community than Mr. Ratliff and it but natural that we should dislike very much to give him and his family up.

Miss Tollie Chamberlain, who has visited for some time at the home of Mr. Jim Tippen, returned to her home in San Saba county last Saturday.

Miss Ada Bratton from Elkins spent several days in our community during the Methodist meeting.

Several bales of cotton have already been ginned at Ebony.

Quite a number from Ebony attended the singing convention at Elkins last Saturday and Sunday. All who went came back in a most jubilant mood.

We feel safe in saying shall hold pleasant memories of the event.

The next convention will be held at Indian Creek on the second Saturday and Sunday in November.

Miss Eddie White left yesterday for Brownwood, where she will likely stay some time. Miss Eddie is one of our girls and we dislike to give her up.

WASHBOARD.

(Intended for last week)

Editor Eagle:

The gentle rain is pouring with mighty force, vivid flashes of lightning, followed by heavy peals of thunder are now in charge of the atmospheric climes.

Sister and I (for one of my sisters is making me a welcome visit at this writing) have just been engaged in a series of song down stairs; all at once a vivacious thought came o'er me, that I should be gathering material for the old Bird, for truly 'tis always a source of enjoyment for this maiden.

Mr. Editor, very frequently I hear such nice compliments concerning your paper, certainly it meets my approval.

Indian Gap has been blessed with protracted meeting for almost two months.

Baptist, Methodist, Holiness, Christian and Union meetings have been held here this summer. The Union meeting is being conducted at this writing by Mrs. Sweeney of Waco, assisted by Mrs. Patterson of Oklahoma City. These ladies are very sweet and influential. Mrs. Patterson furnished music on the autoharp and organ. She sings beautifully. I, for one, shall always remember the inspiration of her sweet songs and the influence of Mrs. Sweeney's daily talks. I must not forget to say that our dear Mrs. Stoddard and Miss Fanny Armstrong, whom every one loves, also helped in the meeting.

The medal contest by six little boys took place last Saturday night. The house was, as before, beautifully decorated with large artificial flowers and cedar. Before an immense audience these little men spoke wonderfully well. Master Callen Gerrells won the medal for having delivered the best oratorical recitation.

The mothers meeting convened at the home of Grandma McCalob Saturday afternoon. It was said to have been a rare success. Everybody present received a lovely pair of booties, presented by Miss Fanny Armstrong.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson of Comanche are visiting friends near the Gap.

Amos James and family of Gustine were the guests of P. T. Wall's family the latter part of last week.

Among those who went to Galveston Saturday from here were Albert Staton, Elmer Mitchell, Clarence and Melvin Rea.

Robert Gainer, after spending some time in this part, left last week for his home at Snyder.

Miss Helen Staton has returned from a few weeks visit in Throckmorton county. She was chaperoned by some senior friends of Energy.

W. F. Swindle and Charley Conner are prospecting in the west.

Ben Fortune and family have returned from an extended visit with friends and relatives in Tom Green and Runnels counties.

Robert Swindle and family left Saturday for Scurry county, where they are to make their future home. After traveling but a few miles they attempted to drive down a very steep hill, which resulted in the wagon turning over. It was heavily loaded, but I think nothing was seriously damaged.

Mrs. J. Boler of Temple has returned to Mullin, after a few weeks visit with friends and relatives in this part.

Oscar left last Sunday for F., where he will stay this winter.

Last Friday night Mr. and Mrs. Porter Morgan gave a delicious ice cream supper, complimentary to Miss Bessie's nineteenth birthday. She was the recipient of several nice presents.

Grandma Fortune of Montague county is visiting her children at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Christie of Brownwood spent a few days last week in our midst.

Mrs. J. P. Mitchell's sister-in-law of Burton is visiting her at present.

While Mrs. Annie Conner and Mrs. Montague were driving few days ago the horse became frightened and ran away, turning the buggy over. Mrs. Montague's arm was broken and Mrs. Conner's baby was injured, but not seriously.

Roy Pierce has contracted to gather R. F. Swindle's. Wonder if he means to stay all alone?

MULLIN.

Editor Eagle:

Well, here we are again, but to tell the truth we are very badly disfigured in doing some real heavy work (the fact of the business is that is something we dodge more than anything else is work.) We got hurt and are feeling a little worse for wear.

We have been having some ideal cotton picking weather up this way and the way the fleecy staple is coming in is just delightful, especially to the man who is able to own a few acres of that money making machine called cotton.

John Hancock, who is holding a position with I. C. Everly Co., moved his family to your town this week.

Miss Maude White has been quite sick this week, but we are proud to say she is much better at this writing. Miss Helen Kerfoot has been taking her place at the school this week.

Mrs. McDonald, mother of our gin man W. S. McDonald, is here on a visit this week.

J. A. Gentry, a former citizen of Mullin, visited friends here several days this week, guest of Frank Tillman and family. He left for his home Tuesday.

Bennett Wood, who now lives at Temple, came in Tuesday evening and will spend a few days here before going back.

Judge Dalton came in from California Wednesday evening. The Methodist revival closed here Sunday night, after a successful two weeks. There were 23 conversions and 22 accessions to the church. I was in hopes it would last a week longer, so that they could get a few more, as they have only made a start on the vast amount of sinners in this neck of the woods.

J. J. Cox of Temple was called here on account of business Sunday night. He was accompanied by his stenographer, Miss Laura Moon. They returned to Temple Monday evening.

W. D. Fisher, who has been confined to his room for the past two weeks on account of bad health, was reported very much worse the first of the week.

Contractor Hughes, who has been here the greater part of the summer, left for Goldthwaite the first of the week, where he has been awarded the contract of the Everly building.

Say, Mr. Editor, what do you think, why the farmers are going to buy booze to give the Boll Weevil. Now, won't I be in it, just to think it will be used for the benefit of destroying us, but I will show them a trick. That will be where I will shine, a little boll weevil and a big jug of booze.

As soon as prosperity is reported in a country don't the "knight of the grip" get around. There have been a big bunch of them up our way since my last and they all seem to land in order. My, how I wish I was not a boll weevil.

Walter Johnston, one of our boys, is down in your city this week keeping books for Ernest Strickland.

A. C. Compton visited friends here since our last.

Miss Phillips, who has been visiting P. W. Bolton and family for the past two weeks, returned to her home at Santa Anna Wednesday evening.

Well, as news is scarce and I am worried by the bugs, and as this may likely find the smooth path to the waste basket I will ring off for tonight. Success to you and your many readers.

BOLL WEEVIL.

MC'GIRK.

Editor Eagle:

We will try our hand again this week with our pen, although news is scarce.

We have been having plenty of rain out in this vicinity of late. We are sorry to report that Capt. Jack Ball is down with typhoid fever and is quite sick. We hope he will soon be able to be up.

Miss Valla Kinsey has returned from a visit to her brother, Floyd at Fort Worth and reports a very pleasant time.

Ed Gerrells of Evans was in this part one day last week.

Luther Watts, John Perkins, W. H. Tully have started their hay baling and are doing a fine business.

J. W. Campbell and Leslie Fisher were transacting business in Goldthwaite last Monday.

A. Hudson went to Brownwood one day last week to place his daughter in college at that place.

I will close now and write often from now on.

STAMFORD.

Editor Eagle:

Having fallen into that state of mind that we designate the "blues" and realizing that the best way of dispelling it is to "do something for somebody quick," I now gather up my little tray and proceed to feed the old Bird a few crumbs. No, no, old Bird you need not fear of eating too much of this food, it is a very light diet and hasn't enough brains in it to injure the most delicate appetite.

We are having plenty of rain in this part of the world, so much that all in town are indulging in a little rest and quietude, but in the vast cotton fields the boll worms are finding plenty to do.

Cotton is not so good in some parts of the country as it was thought to be. The boll worms have damaged it considerably. We talked with one farmer a few days ago who said they had ruined about 90 acres of cotton for him, but he yet had some as good cotton as he had ever seen.

Only one gin is running here at present. It has ginned several bales.

The Reunion passed off very nicely. Think everybody had a grand time as there was plenty of entertainment. As you scribe looked in the faces of the old gray headed veterans and heard them tell of their heroic deeds and the many hardships they had to endure during the war, she was made to weep. We realize the fact that those poor old soldiers will soon cease to have reunions here, but me thinks, at the "Last Roll Call" they'll be there clothed in immortal glory, with Jesus as their Captain marching under the banner of everlasting peace.

T. N. Morgan is having a neat addition built to his residence in the western part of town.

Mrs. Meyer of Brenham is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. Frederick Kennepley. We had a pleasant visit from them Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Duncan are the parents of a fine boy at their home.

Mr. Maron is on the sick list this week.

Mr. Tom Singlin is confined to his bed with slow fever.

Messrs Bill Scawberg and Clements drug store.

Ehner Cunningham made a trip to Lewders one day last week.

Wake up! ye Priddy correspondents and give us some more interesting letters.

Will the Canadian -writer please come again?

Success to all.

MRS. O. L. MASON.

BIG VALLEY.

Editor Eagle:

Cotton picking is the order of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Grumbles of San Saba visited relatives here Saturday and Sunday.

Will Young has purchased a new trap.

A. J. Alvis and G. A. Jarrett are on the sick list. We hope for them a speedy recovery.

Singing at J. W. Young's Sunday evening was enjoyed by all present.

Several more in our community have taken phones and will get them in about two weeks.

If this escapes the waste basket we will come again.

LETTER TO J. M. SKAGGS.

Goldthwaite, Texas.

Dear Sir: Now, may be, you can't get the goods; if you can, your fortune is made.

Cotton cloth—they call it muslin in some parts—at about the usual price per yard, but wider, twice as wide as some, and better wears better, keeps white and whole a surprising time in all sorts of wear.

You could sell that cloth for hundreds of miles; there'd be no limit.

A yard goes further; one buys less yard. Wears longer; one buys less often. It always looks right till well worn-out. No one customer buys so much of it, but think of the number of customers!

May be you can't get it in cloth; but you can in paint: Devoe. Devoe is as if it were wider; a gallon goes further, you buy less gallons; you pay for less gallons; you pay for painting less gallons—as if one paid less for making a garment of that wide cloth—and it keeps its fresh look and sheds water till you have forgotten how old it is.

It isn't true in cloth, but it is in paint: the less you pay, the better it is; for the goodness of paint is reckoned by gallons; less gallons, more goodness. Goodness in paint is strength. The stronger a paint, the less gallons it takes for a job and the longer it wears. Yours truly,

F. W. DEVOE & CO.

MRS. CLEMENTS DEAD.

Mrs. Elizabeth Clements died last week, at the home of her youngest daughter near Cherryvale, Kas., after a few hours illness. The announcement of her death brought sadness to the hearts of great many people in Goldthwaite, where she lived for several years with her son, Hon. P. H. Clements, and her daughters, Mesdames. Milly Hutchings and C. W. Ford. She was 77 years of age and has been a member of the Methodist church 60 years. She was the widow of Mr. Wm. H. Clements, who died in 1889. Besides her son and daughters here, she leaves three daughters in Kansas and two daughters and one son in Indiana. She left here a few months ago for a visit to her children in Kansas and Indiana and was to have returned to this city to spend the winter. Mr. Clements was arranging to go to Kansas to accompany her home when the message came that she was dead.

The sympathy of many friends goes out to the sorrowing relatives.

COTTON PICKING.

The ladies and children of the Baptist church are arranging for a cotton picking at Mr. Tullis' farm north of the city next Wednesday and all who wish to accompany them and join in the picking are invited to do so. They will start early in the morning and stay all day, carrying their dinner in picnic style. They will be paid for the cotton picked and the proceeds will be used to buy a carpet for the aisles in the Baptist church. This is indeed a novel and pleasing plan and will afford much enjoyment for those who join the party.

EASTERN STAR.

There will be a called meeting of the Order of Eastern Star in lodge room in Goldthwaite next Monday night, Sep. 17, for the purpose of installing the officers who were not present last Saturday night, and transacting such other business as may properly come before the meeting. All members are requested to be present.

Cox has taken the matter up with the railroad company to secure the necessary location on the railroad right of way near Gatlin & Geeslin's gin, but no definite conclusion has yet been reached.
