The election at Strong City, last Monday, was quite exciting; but, with the exception of one fight, it passed off very peaceably. The following persons were elected: C. I. Maule, Mayor; Wm. Rettiger, Mr. Martin, L. P. Santy, Wm. G. Emsie and G. K. Hagans, Councilmen; H. C. Prim, Police Judge.

John D. Minnick is clearing the ground at his brick yard north of this city, preparatory to resuming the making of brick. It is true, as has been said, this brick yard is south of Strong City, and so is Texas south of that city. "Honor to whom honor is due," is a good idea to be followed through life.

The election in this city, last Monday, passed off very quietly, there being but one ticket in the field. The following is the vote: For Mayor, J. P. Kuhl, 65 votes; For Councilmen, J. D. Minnick, 56 votes; J. S. Doolittle, 54; J. W. Ferry, 58; M. A. Campbell, 58; R. I. Pratt, 56; scattering, 6. For Police Judge, M. H. Pennell, 65.

An exchange tells us of a farmer, who, in experimenting with sawdust on potato hills, used in one patch of potatoes one quart of sawdust to the hill and none in another. The sawdust hills yielded twice as much as the others, and the potatoes were larger and smoother. It is now about time to plant potatoes, and it might pay to try the experiment, on a small patch at least.

The preliminary trial of Dr. Theodore Blenkner, on the charge of bigamy, has been going on before Justice Miller, at Strong City, ever since Monday morning, and it will, probably, be concluded today. The testimony introduced against the Doctor has been altogether documentary and circumstantial, but of such a nature that he will, probably, be held for trial at the next term of the District Court.

The concert at Music Hall, on Wednesday evening of last week, given by the ladies of the Congregational Church and the friends of that Church, for the benefit of that Church, was well attended, and was quite a success. The "Broom Drill," performed by twelve young ladies, dressed in red, white and blue costumes, and armed with brooms, dusting pans, etc., was a very entertaining and amusing part of the programme.

Mr. Lewis, editor of the Prohibitionist, and Mr. Campbell, late Chaplain of the Penitentiary, lectured in the Methodist church, last Tuesday night, on temperance, to a right good sized audience. After the speaking six memberships ($10, each) of the Temperance Alliance were taken, the object of the Alliance being to furnish means to prosecute offenders against the prohibition law, and to prosecute city and county officials who fail to see the law enforced.

The remains of parties buried near the Catholic church in Strong City have all been removed to the Catholic cemetery near that city. A substantial stone wall is to be built around the grave yard, and an elegant stone cross is to be erected in the middle thereof. The cross will be the gift of Messrs. Dave and Dennis Rettiger, and I will, no doubt, be a piece of workmanship that will do credit to those gentlemen and be an ornament to the cemetery.

The Marion County Democrat says: "It may be that 'Democrats can't read,' but they buy goods, groceries, boots, shoes, etc., just the same as other people. A merchant stands in his own light, who refuses to advertise in a local paper, simply because the editor thereof does not wear the same political label as himself. All local papers help to build up the town in which they are published, and anything which tends to build up the business and progress of a town should be encouraged, irrespective of political, religious or creed."

Sunday afternoon, as Mr. J. G. Hornbarger, of Emporia, was going up South Park, to buy grain, and when near Mr. Jesse Mann's his team ran away, throwing him into the barbed-wire fence near Mr. Mann's house, and cutting him from his nose to a point on his neck, about two inches below his right ear, and laying the flesh wide open. He was taken into Mr. Mann's and medical attention was sent for, when Dr. Walsh, accompanied by Messrs. E. Cooley, M. A. Campbell and C. H. Carswell, repaired to the scene of the accident, and the Doctor dressed the wound. Mr. Hornbarger's family was telegraphed to, and his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Berge, arrived here, Monday morning, and took him to Emporia, Tuesday. When Dr. Walsh and party were returning to this city, Sunday night, the team was trotting along an old, traveled road, near Mr. Jas. Austin's, and, all of a sudden, they were brought to a stand still by a barbed wire fence that had lately been put across the road and the road changed, and Mr. Cooley's team was right badly cut up. This shows that when a road is vacated and a barbed-wire fence is put across it there should be something to give warning of that fact at night; and we believe it would be a good idea to put boards on the posts across the road. This wouldn't cost very much, and it might save a man's friends and neighbors a great deal of money.
