Prof. Daniel returned Monday from a visit to friends in eastern Texas.

C. W. Lindsey returned Sunday morning from a business trip to Bell county.

W. H. Thompson and wife spent the first of the week here with relatives and friends.

R. H. Patterson and wife of Star visited relatives in this city Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Smith of Lawrence, Kaufman county, is visiting G. W. Stewart and family in Big Valley.

J. C. Witty was here from the Star community the first of the week looking after business matters.

John Brooks of Houston spent the holiday with G. W. Stewart and family in Big Valley and the Brooks family in San Saba.

Subscribers who fail to receive their paper regularly are requested to notify this office. We do not arbitrarily "stop" papers, but give subscribers due notice.

L. H. Alldredge and W. M. Roberts of Caradan have returned to their studies in Denton Normal. They are two of Mills county's most promising young men.

Many theories have been advanced as to the cause of the egg famine and many plans devised for the purpose of restoring this barnyard product to its normal price. Uncle Sam investigated the cold storage monopoly and the housewives the nation over have organized boycott leagues, but the purchasing price to the ultimate consumer continues to increase. Eggs are a commodity whose value is fixed in the hen house and not on the breakfast table nor at the cold storage plant. When Queen Biddy is properly fed and housed, the laying season will be every month in the year and the barnyard will become the distributing center for the world's greatest food product.—Commercial Secretaries.

OUR SCHOOLS

One of the most gratifying conditions of our county is the growing interest in rural schools. Some of the leading people of the nation have come to note that the way to build better national conditions is to create educational fires with the country people and then keep them burning. It is almost surprising that the country people, at any time, have delayed in the thing of vastest importance to themselves until others must urge and persuade.

The State Teachers Association, which met in Dallas a few days ago, was a large affair. Said to be something like three thousand teachers in attendance. Much time was given to the interest of rural schools. Among distinguished visitors from other states was Dr. Claxton, whose speech was directed on a high plain in favor of strengthening county schools. His ideal school is far in advance of what we have at present, but no one will deny the necessity of working along lines of improvement.

Much the largest per cent of people in all laudable professions and enterprises are from the country, and more than half of the children in the United States live in the country, hence the largest planning and chief work, educationally, should be for the building and nurturing rural schools.

So far as I have observed, every leading educator as well as many leaders among other professions, advise consolidation of country schools when it is at all practicable. This seems to be the universal theory. People will come to it as they have time to think and compare and deliberate. We must work more at the foundation.

Let me here wish for the Eagle a good Christmas and joyful New Year. Sam Say, Mullin, Texas.

Prof. Norton made a business visit to Brownwood the first of the week.

Miss Lella Brown of Brownwood visited relatives and friends in this city the first of the week.

Miss Gladys Brown returned to her home in Brownwood Wednesday, after a visit to relatives and friends in this city.

Mrs. Mankin returned to her home in Lampasas Wednesday, after a visit to her sister, Mrs. J. H. Allen, and other relatives in this city.

Albert Long, who is a student in the State University, has returned to his studies after spending the holidays with his home folk.

Rev. J. W. Kelley returned to Lubbock the first of the week, after a visit to his wife and daughters in this city.

Mrs. Cloud and Mr. A. W. Ray's family returned to their homes in Rogers Wednesday, after a visit to S. L. Frazier and family in Pleasant Grove community.

J. G. Staggs and wife of San Angelo spent Christmas with G. W. Stewart and family in Big Valley. Mr. Staggs returned home Monday, while Mrs. Staggs went to San Saba to visit relatives.

Col. Henry Exall died at his home in Dallas Monday, after a long illness. It was hoped by those who knew of his illness that he would recover and the announcement of his death was a sorrow to the people of the state. Col. Exall was a public benefactor and a man who gave much of his time, means and splendid ability for the benefit of the public. He was perhaps best known as the president of the Texas Industrial congress and through his efforts thousands of dollars were given to the farmers in premiums to induce a better class of farming and a more intense cultivation of the soil. He was a Confederate veteran, a lawyer and a great man. Peace to his ashes and repose to his soul.

GOOD ROADS

Keep good roads good. Now is a good time to enroll in the "lift Texas out of the mud" club.

Insanity, indolence, and intolerance abound where bad roads predominate. "In the race that is to the swift", the man who lives on bad roads is not in the running.

It is said that all things come to him who waits. The man who lives on unimproved roads has been getting his the past few weeks.

The tariff has been revised, the currency question is soon to be settled, but the question of bad roads—the greatest of them all—is still with us.

It is impractical to build the gravel roads, then grade them, giving the proper drainage, and after this is done apply the split log drag. Continue the use of this appliance and it will be shown that the more it is used the smoother and firmer the road will become.—Homer D. Wade.

LAMESA.

Editor Eagle: I will give you a few dots from Dawson county.

We had fine crops here this year, fine rains all the year. There have been 200 cars of maize, 2,500 bales of cotton and several cars of peanuts shipped from this place this fall.

I will give the account of the death of my brother-in-law, Obe Thompson, who is well known to the old settlers of Mills county. He died at his home in Coalgate, Okla., Oct. 27, 1913. He was well known to many in that country who will no doubt be sorry to learn of his death.

Very respectfully,
JOHN W. BURLESON.

SCHOOLS REOPENED.

Most of the public schools in the county will resume their regular work next Monday, after two weeks or more of holiday on account of the teachers institute and Christmas.

John Schlee of Priddy was among the visitors to this city this week.

August Braker was here from Priddy Wednesday, looking after business matters.

E. M. Boon was here from Brownwood the first of the week, looking after business matters.

J. A. Neal of the Indian Gap country was among the visitors to this city the first of the week.

The most important thing to be done now is to get your poll tax receipt from the tax collector.

Mrs. John B. Robinson and little daughter arrived in the city from San Antonio Tuesday for a visit to relatives.

Capt. D. T. Bush has moved from his former home at Caradan to the farm he recently purchased two miles east of this city.

D. Albert Trent has had his Chalmers automobile overhauled and repainted and it certainly presents a fine appearance. This is one of the finest cars in the city.

Texas people have always found it more convenient to buy hay than to raise it. Hay is always high in price, but Texas farmers have usually figured that if they were to go in for hay on a commercial basis the price would go down. The same reasoning would apply as reasonably to cotton, but Southern farmers are strangely willing to take chances on cotton that they wouldn't take on any other crop, even if the latter promised twice as much net profit. In fact, some cotton farmers look upon a hay meadow as a field of wasted ground. They figure the productivity of the land in terms of cotton bales, not hay bales. And if there were half a score of Maud Mullers raking the hay the scene would still appeal to such cotton farmers with less force than the sight of a negro pushing a mule up and down a cotton row at the next farm.—Dallas News.

Screen doors and windows and wire screening.—J. H. Kelly

L. E. Booker and wife visited Brownwood Thursday.

We sell sliced ham at our market—Marshall & Dickerson.

Clyde Faulkner has accepted a position with L. O. Hicks & Son in their grocery department.

If your shoes need repairing take them to Bodkin and they will be repaired well. (ad)

Weems & Burks have pretty new furniture to trade for stock, second hand furniture or nearly anything

Mrs. Will H. Trent received a message Thursday announcing the serious illness of her brother-in-law, Dr. Gober, at Beaumont and she left on the night train for that city to be with her sister and the family.

Are you next? Everly's are now next to the post office, the old stand, cheaper than ever. (Adv)

LOST—A Poland-China hog weighing about 75 pounds. Reward for information as to his whereabouts.—J. C. Street.

L. H. Little this week bought a new model Ford automobile from the local agent, J. N. Weatherby. A great many of these popular cars have been sold here by Mr. Weatherby and every Ford owner is a Ford booster. Mr. Weatherby has proved himself a successful salesman, but the fact that he has such a good and serviceable car to sell helps him a great deal.

Over-crowded—Price crowded down to relieve the congestion. Get wise and save money.—Everly's, next to post office. (Adv)

In sending a renewal of his subscription, Dr. A. D. Nelson of Richland Springs was kind enough to say, "I can't get along without the Old Bird." It is encouraging words from such good men as Dr. Nelson that makes our work a pleasure and causes us to put forth every effort to make a paper worthy of the county and the people who favor us with their patronage.

If you intend to buy land be sure and demand an abstract of the title, so you may know its condition, as otherwise you may get a bad title.—E. B. ANDERSON, Abstractor.

Mrs. John Little and children have returned to their home in Hamilton, accompanied by Miss Adeline Little and Messrs. W. T. and Lewis Little, who will remain there several days assisting in taking an inventory of the Little Company's stock at that place. Messrs. L. H. Little and T. F. Toland will go to Hamilton the first of the coming week to spend a few days assisting in taking an inventory of the company's goods.

C. L. Bodkin has moved his hardware and shoe shop to Bodkin, Hurdle & Co's store, where he will be glad to serve his customers. (Adv)

PARCELS POST.

Our Friends and customers in the country are invited to send us their orders for goods of any kind and we will be glad to have the orders filled and forwarded by Parcels Post.

PAST AND FUTURE.

Mullin, Dec. 31, 1913.

Good-bye, old year! Millions of times has 1913 been written, but the old has come and the figure must be changed, to let the world know that time, in his onward flight, has swept out and beyond the so-called unlucky "13" to place himself on the calendar one year nearer the time when the great ruler of the universe will call a halt and figures will no longer be used to tell us where we are.

Somewhere beyond the range of thought and where the finite mind shall have spent its force, we are told that something called Eternity, with no promise of any ending, will have changed the mortal to immortal, and amid the rolling ages we, now little peevish, selfish, sinful beings, will be compelled to fall into ranks on one side or the other to start on this long march through Eternity; and where billions and multiplied billions and then multiplied by trillions and then by quadrillions of ages the end will be no nearer reached than when we first began. We don't use these almost innumerable figures just to be writing or because we think we are springing something new, but with the hope that some heretofore thoughtless one might be caused to stop one time and seriously consider what wonderful beings we are and what wonderful great opportunities to be happily prepared for this still more wonderful journey that has no ending.

As the old year goes out, a blessed new year springs in, springing like a youth from Eternity's breast, a rich and blessed gift of God, May it blossom into more love, more life and more light, causing us to hide dark hate beneath the wings of love, to slay all hatred, strife, and live the larger life. What a heritage to the true and unselfish, the kind and the good and what a heritage it may become to the thoughtless, hate and revenge harboring one, if they will but tear loose from self and wicked thoughts, uncalled for imaginary troubles and swing out in the clear dawn of this new year in a new age. We may nurse our little grievances and our offenses for others until they will grow to mountains of aggravated, willful sinfulness that will eat like a cankerworm and get our real manhood beyond the first principles of right and cause us to defy justice to those we have wronged as well as to the God who made us. Some men think they can confess their wrongs to themselves or in a way to disinterested parties and clear the deck for an honest approach to the offended without a confession to them and thereby pave the way for reconciliation. Alas! alas! No real peace and happiness can come to the offender, when the real man (if any) proposes to try to cover up and ease his conscience without exercising that manhood that he would have exercised toward himself. If conscience has been aroused give it full play and let this cultivated hate and revenge be discarded and the real God-given man in you assert itself and it will guide you along the path to honest and fair settlements, making you and the world better by having unchained and turned loose your own little self-conceited, imaginary pride and grievances and giving to the world real manhood and love instead. Nothing short of honest reconciliation and restitution will stand the test of the judgment. We may join churches and societies, sing in the choir, say prayers, give our means to feed the poor, to try to clear the track and make things right with God; but He thunders it in our ears that His love for man is so great toward His grieved and offended ones that He declares unless you forgive you will not be forgiven by Him. H. C. COBB.

MY SEVENTY-FOURTH CHRISTMAS

Editor Eagle: This was my seventy-fourth Christmas and I have spent these occasions in many different places and it is with a great deal of satisfaction that I try to call them to mind now, for I do not recollect to have ever been sick on Christmas. I never had any difficulty or serious trouble on Xmas, never have been intoxicated on Christmas (or any other time for that matter) and have always thought that Christmas was a time above all others that should be spent as much as possible in a way that would be in keeping with the occasion that gave it being.

My busiest Christmas was at Yorktown, Va., where I had to keep 120 men in camp, keep them quiet and keep them out of trouble, after having given them a ration of whiskey, the Colonel's treat. My noisiest Christmas was in the city of Austin, Texas, occasioned by the mayor's order that the boys be turned loose. All of my Christmases have been the best.

This Christmas had a good beginning. On the evening before it I attended a beautiful wedding at Mr. Crawford's, where his beautiful daughter was married to young Mr. Sullivan. A nice croud of neighbors and friends with a few from a distance and a most excellent supper, all of which I enjoyed. Then with a few of the guests I went to a Christmas tree at my daughter's. It was a little neighborhood affair, and well attended. The tree was beautiful, as the women had sent to Dallas to get decorations for it. It had everything on it from a fire cracker to a jumping monkey. All enjoyed it but the babies. These were so alarmed by Santa Claus, Mr. Ross Gardner, that they had to be taken from the room. After the distribution of the presents, there was music and the firing of crackers and I retired, thinking of things that I had heard before.

Christmas morning was reasonably pleasant. Old Conrade Winkle came up and spent the forenoon with me and we talked much of former times. We had a reasonably good dinner and as it came late we were in good condition to enjoy it.

I have thought much this Christmas of an expression made at the first one of these occasions. It was: "Peace on earth, good will to men." It is an expression of a condition that all must desire. For myself I will say I know I have no ill will for any one and if I have an enemy I do not know it. I have enjoyed this Christmas, and Mr. Editor, I hope you and every reader of your most excellent paper have done the same. D. I. HARALSON.

The Store of Quality

B. A. HARRIS

The Store of Quality

OF THE PAST

of this store we will say but little. It is now history. Everyone knows what we have done--of our mistakes, perhaps, of the successes we have achieved.

Your satisfaction has ever been our unswerving aim, and if we have failed you in any way, come today and tell us where, when and how.

A pleasing promptness in making you satisfied will meet you more than half way.

OF THE PRESENT

of this store you can best judge for us.

Are we meeting with your approval? Are we giving you satisfactory merchandise at prices that are right? Are we serving you in the best manner possible?

Your satisfaction is our ambition--your approval our sincerest desire.

Your opinion of our store service and merchandise values will always receive our most careful consideration.

OF THE FUTURE

you will like to hear, because it means a better store for you.

We are going to be more watchful of your needs, more fully cognizant of the fact that our growth depends on you and our every effort--our entire energy--will be turned toward making this store the store where your best interests are ever forward, both in value and service.

Start the New Year right. Try Everly's West Side store. Cut cash prices. (Ad)

W. M. Miles has moved from Ratler to a farm a few miles east of this city.

Pecans--Bring us all the pecans you have. We want a carload at once.--W. E. Harper.

Cheaper than ever at Everly's. Reduced expresses. See the point? Next to post office. (ad)

For Sale--A good, gentle driving horse and a buggy that has been used very little. For full particulars see me at Brown & Graves' drug store.--L. P. McCrary, M. D.

Stocked to the doors with goods. We must make room. Everly's New West Side Store. (Adv)

J. J. Wilcox of Caradan community was called to Cliff on a few days ago on account of the death of his son's wife. The sympathy of many friends goes out to the bereaved family.

F. N. Irwin is having his two store buildings on Fisher street extended back to the alley, a distance of twenty feet, which will give a great deal more floor room in the buildings, which are to be occupied by Bodkin, Hudle & Co.

Everly's new West Side Store is crowded to the ceiling, next to the postoffice. We never miss a sale on account of price. (Adv)

Dr. W. W. Fowler, specialist in the treatment of diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat, will be in Goldthwaite at Clements' Drug Store next Tuesday, Jan. 6, to give attention to those in need of his professional services. (adv)

A dry, hacking cough is hard on the lungs, often causing them to bleed. BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP is a healing balm that quickly repairs damage in the lungs and air passages. Price 25c, 50c, and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by R. E. Clements. (Adv)

We never miss a sale. We must sell to make room. Come and see, next to postoffice, west side square.--Everly's. (Adv)

NEW YEAR ENTERTAINMENT.

Again the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fairman was opened to guests this week, when the social gaieties of the new year began with an entertainment for the members of the Bachelor Maids club, the honorary members and their husbands and a few of Mr. and Mrs. Fairman's nearest neighbors, on New Year's night.

The entertainment for the evening was a musical program which was delightfully rendered as follows:

- Program:
- Valse Arabesque..... Theod. Lack
 - Miss Edna Lowrie.
 - Traumerei and Little Romance....
 - Schumann
 - Mrs. Frank Rabl
 - The Rosary Whelpley
 - Miss Lora Hudson
 - Vocal Solo... "Until the End of Time"
 - Mrs. J. C. Darroch
 - Convent Bells Dollman
 - Miss Lillie Martin
 - Violin Solo Selected
 - Mr. Kelly Saylor
 - Valse Venitienne Ringuest
 - Miss Nora Hooks, Mrs. Claude Saylor
 - Hungarian Rhapsody, No. 2..... Liszt
 - Mrs. John C. Hicks
 - Reading..... "Naughty Nell"
 - Miss Sophia Martin
 - The Vivandiere..... Ludwig Schytte
 - Miss Lawrence Thompson
 - Impromptu Reinold
 - Miss Nora Hooks

After the program an interesting contest was enjoyed, after which the hostess, assisted by Misses Lillie Martin, Zella Prater and Lawrence Thompson served delicious fruit salad with gelatine and whipped cream, to be eaten with fruit and white cake.

The affair was a most elaborate success in every detail and was greatly enjoyed by everyone present. XX.

STREET TAX DUE.

All persons subject to road duty in the city of Goldthwaite are hereby notified that they can secure a receipt for the road duty due for the year 1914 by paying $3 to me before Feb. 1. On and after that date $5 will be required or five days work on the streets must be performed. Better pay the $3 now while you think of it. J. S. CALDWELL, City Marshal.

OUR FRIENDS.

It is indeed a pleasure to record the names of the good people who favor the Eagle with their patronage and encourage us with their kind expressions of appreciation of our work. Each week a number of the best people renew or enter their names as regular readers of the Eagle. It is gratifying to us to know that these good people appreciate our efforts to publish a paper that is creditable to this--the best county in Texas. Those who have renewed or entered their names this week are:

- Capt. D. T. Bush, Route 3.
- John Schlee, Priddy.
- J. A. Neal, Indian Gap.
- J. W. Hiller, Priddy.
- J. J. Casbeer, Center City.
- H. G. Forehand, Route 2.
- I. K. Griffin, South Bennett.
- L. H. Aldredge, Denton.
- W. H. Wood, Ridge.
- J. A. Curtis, Ratler.
- J. W. Moore, Slide.
- Dr. A. D. Nelson, Richland Springs.
- J. T. Pearcey, Winslow, Ariz.
- J. J. Canady, Route 3.
- B. F. Heaton, Pickens Springs.

CLUB MEETING.

Next Monday night is the time for the election of officers in the Commercial club and all members are urged to be present at the meeting. The club has done great and good work for Goldthwaite and Mills county and more good work is in contemplation for the coming year. Therefore, every business man should take interest in the work and citizens generally are invited to co-operate with the club.

The club has not held meetings regularly during the busy season, because of the fact that a great many business men were so constantly employed during the day that they did not care to exert themselves to attend the meetings at night, unless there were important matters to be given attention, but now there is likely to be sufficient spare time to devote to the public matters and regular meetings are to be resumed.

Every member of the club is urged to be present at the meeting Monday night and assist in selecting the officers for the ensuing year.

DR. BROWN MOVES.

Dr. M. L. Brown came in from Brownwood Thursday to wind up his business affairs, having located in Brownwood for the practice of his profession. The people of Goldthwaite part with Dr. Brown and his family with regret, but wish for them prosperity and happiness in their new home. Dr. Brown has been engaged in the practice of medicine in Goldthwaite for more than twenty years and has had a large practice all the while. He has been a leader in church work and in civic affairs and will be greatly missed by the community. While he still has large property interests here, which will require his frequent visits to this city, his personal interest in public affairs and especially in the business of the church will of necessity be transferred to Brownwood and we of Goldthwaite will miss him sadly. He is a man of the highest character and his influence is always on the side of morality and civic righteousness. As a practitioner he has been most successful and as a citizen he has been progressive and liberal. The people of Brownwood can be sure they have secured as citizens one of the best families of our town.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mrs. John Little and the other members of the Little family desire the Eagle to express to their friends the great appreciation they feel for the many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy extended to them in their sad bereavement. Words are but idle when used to express the deep appreciation they feel for all the kindness to them and for all the courtesies their bereavement called forth from the good people of Goldthwaite and Hamilton. So much sympathy and kindness could not fail to reveal to them the great goodness of the people among whom they live.

OATS FOR SALE

We have oats for sale at our farm in Payne community at 50 cents per bushel, in any quantity. We also have ten or twelve good mules for sale. W. F. HEARNE & SON.

S. L. Caraway was among the visitors from Star one day this week.

A SMALL BLAZE.

Fire was discovered in the dry goods department of L. O. Hicks & Son's store Tuesday night about 8 o'clock and but for the prompt work of those who were near by the fire would have reached enormous proportions. The fire started underneath the shelves near the stove and the blaze was reaching almost to the ceiling when Key Johnson passed by and noticed it and gave the alarm. In a few moments several chemical fire extinguishers were put in action and the blaze was quickly extinguished. It is not known how the fire originated, for there had been no fire in the stove for several hours and the only plausible theory is that some one had thrown a cigarette or cigar into some paper or other waste and it smoldered there until everybody had left the building. The loss to the firm is estimated by them at $1000, which is extremely small as compared with the immense loss that would have resulted had the fire gained headway.

The fire extinguishers recently purchased by advice and through the efforts of the Commercial club undoubtedly played an important part in extinguishing the fire and business men who purchased the extinguishers now feel fully repaid for their investment.

APPROACHING MARRIAGE.

Cards have been issued announcing the approaching marriage of Mr. Edward Geeslin of this city and Miss Margaret Lee Gaddis of Fort Worth, which is to be solemnized in the First Christian church of Fort Worth on the evening of Jan. 11. The announcement of this marriage is not a surprise to many Goldthwaite people. Miss Gaddis has visited here several times and has a great many admiring friends in this city as well as in her home community. Mr. Geeslin is one of the finest young men ever reared in Goldthwaite and it would be impossible to say too many nice things about him or to make complimentary statements about him that would not be true. Everybody honors him highly and all wish for him and the charming lady of his choice a life of supreme happiness.

Bankers in all parts of Texas are uniting in their efforts to have one of the regional banks, provided for by the new currency bill, established in Texas. The city of Houston seems to be the choice of most of the bankers for the location of the regional bank, with Dallas a close second.

This is the last month in which a poll tax receipt can be issued that will entitle the holder to vote in the elections held in this state during the next twelve months. With the prospects of a red hot campaign and a large number of candidates for every office, the voter who is wise will not forget his poll tax receipt.

The announcement that the San Francisco city government and the public welfare committee would provide employment for the unemployed in that city at $1.50 for four hours' work caused a great gathering of unemployed at that point and it is now announced that the plan will have to be abandoned for lack of funds.

The governor of Oregon has sent a young lady stenographer of his office to the mining town of Copperopolis to close all gambling places and saloons that are running in violation of law. The governor states that he has frequently demanded of the local officers that they close these illegal places, but they have failed in the duty and he has commissioned his stenographer to enforce the law.

One of the charges brought against Gen. Villa, one of the rebel chiefs in Mexico, is that he has forced a young American lady to marry him. As she is making no complaint and asking for no sympathy, the objections from others seem to be untimely and out of place. The young woman was cashier in a dry goods store in Chihuahua when the town was taken by the constitutionalists. Villa was so much pleased with her appearance that he sent for a priest and married her at once.

The telegraphers in the employ of the Frisco railroad were expected to go on a strike this week, but the company commenced putting in telephones for use in operating trains and the operators changed their plans. They were granted some of their demands, however, but most of the concessions demanded were denied.

One of the latest additions to the lecture platform is Henry Lane Wilson, former representative of this government in the City of Mexico. He offered to deliver a lecture in Temple, but the Commercial club of that city "turned him down."

The murder of a merchant at Heidenheimer, Bell county, last Friday night completely mystified the officers and the public. He was killed in his store and an attempt was made to burn the place. Several fires were started and the clothing was entirely burned from the dead man's body. A purse containing more than $100 was found on the floor and several dollars were in the cash drawer. The man was not known to have an enemy and he lived alone in the store. A young man of the community has been arrested on suspicion.

Pepper Radford, in discussing modern facilities for the farm, said: The telephone is one of the most profitable business agencies that the farmer can employ. It affords him facilities for keeping in constant communication with the markets, provides a sitting room for the community where the families can assemble and discuss the events of the day, without the inconvenience of travel or loss of time, and in sickness and emergencies, it renders a divine service. The farmers should encourage the building of telephone lines. Local co-operative companies can be formed and country lines built at small expense.—Commercial Secretaries.

POMPEY CREEK (Intended for last week.)

Editor Eagle:

There has been quite a stir in our community. Mr. Dan Curbs and family have gone to Runnels county. Mr. John Carlisle has moved on to his farm known as the Sively place, which he recently purchased.

Mr. George Adams has gone to Zephyr, where he thinks to work in a meat market.

Mr. Marvin Templin has moved nearer to Goldthwaite.

Mr. Melton Carlisle will move on to his farm recently purchased of his father W. H. Carlisle, while his father will move in to the rent house on the same place.

Ed, Carlisle will reside just south of the school house.

Mr. Will Keating took a car load of cattle to Fort Worth recently.

Mr. Elza Smith took a car load of turkeys to Zephyr, where he sold them at thirteen cents per pound.

Cattle have been dying somewhat rapidly of late.

Mr. and Mrs. Wagner were shopping in Brownwood recently.

School was suspended here Tuesday of last week, until after the holidays. The teachers have all been in attendance at the institute at Goldthwaite.

Mr and Mrs. Botz of Comanche and Miss Jessie Johnson of near Democrat, were guests of Mrs. Elza Smith Saturday and Sunday.

There was a dance at the home of Webb Perkins Tuesday night.

Miss Mary Johnson of near Democrat spent Tuesday night with her sister, Mrs. Elza Smith. Mrs. Smith accompanied her home to spend the holidays and attend the Christmas tree.

Mrs. Marvin Templin spent a few days last week with Mrs. Elza Smith.

Mr. John Perkins of the Bayou country, had business in this community, one day last week.

The teachers of our school requested that all the pupils reassemble at the school house the day before Christmas, where they were presented with a token of Christmas remembrance.

Messrs. Tip Carlisle and Webb and Frank Perkins and families all assembled at the home of the latter, where they had prepared a Christmas tree for the children. While they were awaiting the arrival of Santa Claus, Master Clayford and Little Misses Mae, Clara, Gladys, and Blanche Perkins rendered a reading, the little song, "Jesus Loves Me" as follows:

Mae, aged eight:
"Jesus loves me. This I know
For the Bible tells me so.
Little ones to Him belong,
They are weak, but He is strong."

Clara, aged six:
"Jesus loves me! He who died
Heaven's gate to open wide.
He will wash away my sin,
And let his little child come in."

Clayford, aged four:
"Jesus loves me, loves me still,
Though I'm very weak and ill.
From His shining throne on high
Comes to watch me where I lie."

Blanche, aged three:
"Jesus loves me! He will stay
Close beside me all the way.
If I love Him when I die
He will take me home on high."

Gladys, aged four:
"Jesus loves me, this I know,
For the Bible tells me so."
All together:
"Christmas is Jesus' birthday."

Then they sang, "Jesus Loves Me" and "Open the Door For the Children," spent some time in inspecting the tree, and finally, Santa arrived.

The little tots at first were frightened, but Santa spoke encouragingly to them, and offered them candy, and they soon made friends. After the presents were distributed, Santa departed, promising to return next Christmas.

Miss Nobia Carlisle, also, was present.

THE BEST PROOF

Goldthwaite Citizens Cannot Doubt It.

Doan's Kidney Pills were used—They brought benefit.

The story was told to Goldthwaite residents.

Time has strengthened the evidence Has proven the result lasting.

The testimony is from this locality. The proof convincing.

Mrs. Mollie Pierce, Brownwood, Tex says: "For nearly a year I was in misery and physicians did not know what ailed me. They said that I would have to undergo an operation. I suffered from intense pains across my back. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and sent for a box. The third day after I began using them, I passed three gravel stones with great agony. I have had no sign of the trouble since. I am very willing to confirm my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills."

BROWNWOOD.

Mr. Creel Grady and Miss Edna Eugenia Brown were married Monday night at 8 o'clock at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Ed. Harbor.

A beautiful home wedding occurred Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Terrell, of Victoria street. Rev. L. J. Mims performed the ceremony that united Miss Vana Terrell and Mr. C. M. Covey in marriage.

The new opera house that is being erected by the Brownwood Opera House company is now under way, the excavation being completed and the cement work is now under way.

John Flores of Bangs was injured Monday when a shotgun he was carrying in his hand was accidentally discharged, the entire load of small shot passing through the palm of his left hand.

Monday afternoon Jeff Davis and a party of lady relatives from Bangs came to Brownwood to do some shopping, making the trip in W. H. Davis' Case auto. The trip to this city was made without mishap, but upon the return trip trouble developed and, when about three miles from Brownwood, Mr. Davis discovered that the car was on fire, the blaze originating somewhere about the engine. His efforts to extinguish the blaze were fruitless and soon only the blackened machinery stood where the fine car had stopped. The loss is about $1500.—Bulletin.

LAMPASAS

John Brandon had the misfortune to lose his fine German Coach stallion Monday. The animal was sick Saturday night, but had attention from a veterinary surgeon, and appeared all right Sunday, but Monday he died.

Wm. Alexander, aged about 76 years, died suddenly on the morning of Tuesday, December 23, at his home in East Lampasas. His wife awoke in the night and found him struggling and almost before the sons could be notified the old gentleman had breathed his last.

C. C. Yarborough served a number of years as county and district clerk of Mills county, and while employed there and in other business situations, learned the necessity for keeping correct accounts of what came in and what went out. Moving to a farm eight miles south of Lampasas a little more than a year ago, he applied his bookkeeping to the income and out-go on the farm, his wife assisting him in every possible way. They totaled up recently, and he states that the farm, including the poultry sold, the cotton seed, oats, and other products which have been kept for use at home, has brought him more than two thousand dollars.—Leader.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Resolutions Adopted by the Mills County Teachers Institute.

Be it resolved that we, the teachers of Mills County, tender our most grateful thanks to the people of the city of Goldthwaite for the courteous manner in which they have entertained us in their midst. Especially, are we indebted to Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Clements for the cordial entertainment given in their home, and to Cockrum & Rudd and J. S. Caldwell for the refreshments served on the last day of the Institute. We are pleased to note the interest taken by the people of the town in educational subjects in which we are so deeply interested. We also extend our hearty appreciation to Dr. J. M. Carroll, president of Howard Payne college, E. V. White of the University of Texas, B. L. Nance of the State Department of Agriculture, T. C. Yantis and Dr. J. W. McCarver of Brownwood, all of whom so ably addressed us on subjects vital to the educational interests of our county and state.

Resolved further, that we pledge our support to any movement that may be instituted during the year for the advancement of education in Mills county, and especially do we pledge our most loyal support to the Rural School Improvement League now being organized for the purpose of improving the sanitary conditions of the schools of the county; that all teachers enter zealously into the campaign for installing an approved library in every school in the county.

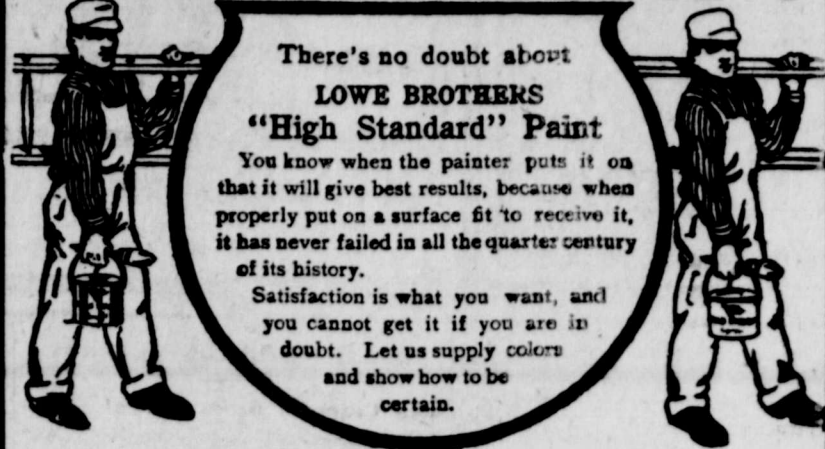

Resolved, that we favor changing the time for the meeting of the Institute from the usual time to a convenient time nearer the beginning of the school year.

Resolved, further, that we earnestly endorse the work being done by the Conference of Education in Texas. Especially do we endorse the educational legislation now being recommended by the Conference. We further recommend that the Legislature revise the institute law, making it uniform throughout the state, and providing that a teacher may obtain credit for work done in any county institute in the state.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be submitted for publication in each of the newspapers of the county, and that a copy of the same be sent to our legislative representatives.

P. M. BOWDEN,
J. FRANK JETER,
T. F. EATON,
Committee.

For Sale—Lumber cheap from building; tables, etc., also.—I. C. Everly Co. (Adv)

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jones returned yesterday morning from Whitney, where they spent the holidays with R. L. Johnson and family.

Reduced prices to make room for the big Everly stock, west side, next to post office. (Adv)

County Clerk Summy issued marriage license Thursday to Coda Kelley and Miss Olye Stephenson.

Hugh McCullough returned to his studies in Howard Payne college Thursday, after spending the holidays at home.

The school board is having the new desks placed in the new high school building and is also having a cement walk built around the new house. The High School department will occupy the new building hereafter.

Two well furnished rooms, suitable for light housekeeping, if desired.—Mrs. Whit Smith.

S. D. Carson, who purposed to move to Southwestern Texas some time ago has changed his plan and he and his family have moved to this city and will occupy the Boon residence, just west of Mrs. Keel's home. They have a hearty welcome to the city.

Have your harness repaired by Bodkin and it will give you better service. (Adv)

W. L. Jones and family have arrived from Hamilton and are comfortably domiciled in the residence recently occupied by Mr. Bodkin and family as a boarding house, on Fourth street. Mr. Jones is the business manager for McKinley-Corrigan Co. at this place.

Dr. J. D. Gober died at his home in Beaumont yesterday afternoon, after a long illness with Bright's disease and complications. He and his family lived here about 20 years ago and are kindly remembered by many friends. The Eagle and other friends of the family extend sympathy to them.

The Eagle editor received a number of presents during the holidays which will long be remembered, but no token was more highly appreciated than was a beautiful neck scarf received from our esteemed and venerated friend, Mrs. Van Glahn of Los Angeles, Cal. It is indeed pleasant to be remembered by one whom we hold in such high esteem and we shall ever think of this remembrance as a priceless gift.

Cards have been received in this city announcing the marriage of Miss Willie Mae Lindsey to Mr. John Willis Locke in San Antonio on Dec. 27. The bride has a large circle of friends here where she formerly lived. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Finis Lindsey, formerly of this city and now of Las Cruces, N. M., and is a grand daughter of Major D. H. Trent of this city. The groom is a traveling salesman for a New Orleans drug house. They will make their home in San Antonio.

J. M. Carroll and wife returned Wednesday night from Lubbock county, where they spent Christmas with Mrs. Carroll's brother, J. W. Moore, and family. Mr. Carroll was well pleased with the country and brought back enough venison to do him until next hog killing time. The snow was on the ground most of the time while he was in that section and there had been a great deal of rain, but the hunting was good and he enjoyed himself very much shooting deer and prairie chickens. He reports that Mr. Moore has a fine ranch and is doing well and is pleased with his location. Mr. Moore formerly lived in the Pleasant Grove community and owned the farm now owned by Capt. I. T. Moorland.

SCHOOL LIBRARIES.

The Farm and Ranch Library—What Does it Mean?

At the Mills County Teachers Institute last week I called the attention of the teachers to the Farm and Ranch Library, explaining the terms on which it may be obtained. All the teachers, as a result, pledged themselves to do their best to secure the library for their schools. This article is an appeal to the patrons of the schools throughout the county to join the teachers in this effort. Why do I stress the Farm and Ranch Library especially? First, because it is a collection of 42 books, carefully selected to meet the reading needs of the public school children from the first grade to the high school. Not only were these books selected with care for this very purpose, but they have been examined, approved and recommended for the purpose by the State Superintendents of several states and by the leading educators of our own state. This fact should remove from every mind any doubt that might be felt as to the great value of the books to our children. This, too, should be emphasized by the further fact that the country is literally filled with books and papers that have a ruinous effect on children reading them. We can't keep our children from reading something. The old problem of finding something for children to read has given away to the new problem of selecting matter for children to read. The list of books above referred to has been so wisely selected out of all the literature available that not only is the child engaged with them reading something, but he is reading something that strengthens instead of poisoning his mind and at the same time is cultivating a taste for the right sort of reading for the future. So much for the merit of the books.

Now comes the question, what do these forty-two books cost. Nothing. How, then, may they be obtained? Farm and Ranch is the best paper I know of for Texas farmers, and I take five farm papers. The great fact is our boys are leaving the farm to crowd the cities and towns. The great anxiety is how will this affect the future strength of our nation? The great cry is "Back to the farm." So long as farm education is absolutely neglected, as it has been in the past, these things will continue so. Farm boys and girls have been tasked on the farm, but have been taught nothing about the work they are required to do. All their training has been in lines leading from the farm into the city. That boy or girl who reads Farm and Ranch through childhood is going to have his or her interest in the farm and farm home life so vitalized as to make him a stronger, better man and her a stronger, better woman, no matter where they live and what they do in later life. Such a course will do more to offset the dangers above referred to than will anything else I know of that is practicable. Then there is Holland's Magazine—a clean, attractive and valuable magazine in any household. Each of these papers costs $1 a year and is cheap at the price. If both are sent to the same address they cost $1.50 a year—75 cents each. This is the proposition: For $25 in subscriptions for these two papers (which means 17 subscriptions to both papers for one year) the whole library of 42 books will be given free as a premium to the school. There are not many school districts in Mills county having more than 17 families. A box supper at the school house some night would net $25. Make a list of all the families living in that district. Send this list together with the $25 to the Farm and Ranch Publishing Company. The books will be shipped at once to the school and both papers will begin at once to come to each family and will continue to come for a year without cost to the family, giving every child in the district both papers to read a whole year. But can this be done? That very thing was done recently in the Pickens Springs school. It is easy; it is cheap; it is a powerful force for good to our Mills county boys and girls. Parents, will you co-operate with your teacher in this move? If your teacher won't lead in the matter will you push it up? If you can't drive him into it, will you get rid of him and employ in his place somebody that cares for your children and their interests? This library and both these papers may be seen in my office by anyone who wishes to inspect them.

Very respectfully,
S. H. ALLEN.

DEATH OF JOHN C. LITTLE.

Again it becomes the sad duty of the Record to chronicle a death in Hamilton, and in this instance the hand fell as a calamity on our fair little city, taking from the bosom of his devoted family, the walks of a busy and successful life, and the association of loyal and affectionate friends, a man young in years and in heart, John C. Little, Strong in the assurance of youth and health, success and happiness, he dwelt in our midst, a man honorable in every relation of life, upright, kind and sympathetic. Over the entire town and county settled a pall of sorrow when the message was borne from one to another that this noble Christian man had been summoned to cross the bar, to lay down the duties of life for the sleep of death when the sun was not half way across the zenith. The life of John Little was an exemplary one; a loving and dutiful son, a kind and thoughtful brother; a true and devoted husband and a wise and tender father to the fond young wife and sweet little children. He was a man idolized in the hearts of those whom he held in the closest relations. A Christian, strong and pure, his good influence was universally recognized and he was accorded the deepest affection and highest esteem of his fellowmen.

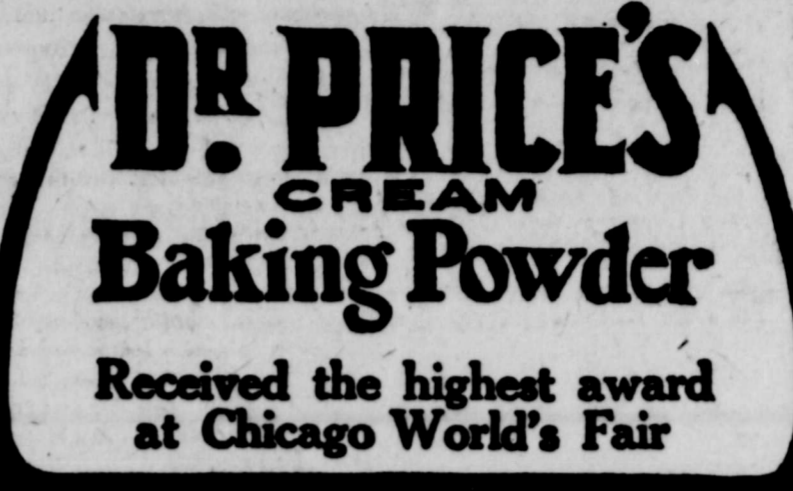

The death of John Little is accredited a distinct loss in Hamilton business circles. A man modest and unassuming, he was broad minded and public spirited and his business genius was given recognition with no sting of jealousy or envy. Truly he was a man among men, well beloved, and the hour is now well nigh too dark for those who will look on his face no more this side the heavenly home to discern the hand of God in the taking away of the noble, happy and useful life. God is a Father of love and His dealings with His children are ever characterized by the tenderness of perfect love, and though now we "see through a glass darkly" after a while, when the mists have cleared away, we will discern His wisdom, mercy and love in calling to this young man to lay down the burdens of life and cross to the other side where there is no more sorrow or pain of parting and where awaits the joyous days of eternity. It may be as the young brother said, "He was the only one of us ready to go."

The tenderest sympathy for the loving young wife, left to tread the wine press of life alone, is given universal expression. The little son and daughter, deprived in babyhood of the tender solicitous love and care of a good father, is cause for sorrow and adoption through love and protection by every man in the brotherhood in this community. The promises of God may be claimed by all those sorrow stricken and Father Time with his busy shuttles will weave a golden woof of these promises which will veil the sorrow and give to those in waiting a rosy vision of that day when all who love shall meet in that "home not made with hands, eternal in the skies."—Hamilton Record.

PLEASANT RECEPTION.

On Tuesday evening at half after six o'clock a number of guests assembled at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fairman, on Parker street, in response to an invitation to renew acquaintance with Mr. Theophilus Fitz, who made his home here until thirteen years ago, and since that time has become quite a well known singer and it was indeed a pleasure for his friends of past years here to be entertained for an evening with songs by him. Only his former acquaintances were invited to share in the evening's entertainment. The program rendered by Mr. Fitz, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. John C. Hicks, was highly enjoyed by all and he received many compliments on his excellent voice.

He left on the late train that evening for Dallas to join his family and from there they return to Denver, Colo.

BACHELOR MAIDS ENTERTAINED.

Friday evening, December 26, the Bachelor Maids were delightfully entertained with a Christmas party, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Hicks.

The reception suit was artistically decorated with poinsettia and holly wreaths. The first amusement for the evening was an Xmas contest. Mrs. O. H. Yarborough received the prize, a box of candy. Messrs. O. H. Yarborough and John C. Hicks, the only men present, were selected to choose for a spelling match. Each person that missed a word was given an Xmas present. The teacher, Miss Dera Humphries, awarded the prize—a stick of candy—to Mrs. Will Little, as she was so artistically dressed. At the close of the spelling match Xmas cornucopias containing holly mints were passed and a conversation game was enjoyed. Mrs. Will Little received the prize—a large cornucopia filled with home-made candy.

We were then ushered into the dining room, where delicious egg nog and fruit cake were served. Souvenirs of the evening were tiny book marks.

After several musical selections the club adjourned, to meet next with Miss Mamie Kelley. A GUEST.

SILVERWARE STOLEN.

Sometime before Christmas Mr. L. E. Miller had a large package of silverware shipped to him by express, to add to his stock for the holiday trade. The invoice reached him all right, but the goods never came and he supposed the shipment had been mislaid until last Sunday when City Marshal Caldwell recovered a lot of the silverware under the Gulf Refining Company's oil house, west of the railroad. The silverware was found by two small boys who reported the matter to Mr. Caldwell. There is no clue to the perpetrators of the robbery, but it is supposed the goods were stolen from the truck on the depot platform or from the express room in the depot. The shipment having been packed in a carton similar to those used in the shipment of liquor, it is likely the one who stole it believed it contained "booze" and when it was found to contain the silverware it was thrown away. Some of the articles originally packed in the carton were missing and have not been found.

MRS. WILCOX DEAD.

Mrs. T. R. Wilcox died at her family home in Center City community at an early hour Monday morning, after a long illness with heart trouble.

Mrs. Wilcox was a pioneer of this section, she and her family having located here in the early eighties. She made her home in Center City community during her entire residence here and she gathered around her a large circle of friends who grieve with the bereaved family. She was a consistent member of the Primitive Baptist church for a long time and her Christian influence was beneficial to the community in which she lived and a help to all with whom she was associated. She was a sister of Mrs. W. D. Alldredge of Ridge and a half sister of Messrs. Joel and George Alldredge of Caradan. She leaves a husband and several grown children, besides other relatives and many friends to mourn her loss.

There was a large attendance at the funeral service and burial in Center City cemetery Wednesday afternoon and the many expressions of sorrow attested to the high esteem in which the good woman was held by all who knew her.

Lame back may come from overwork, cold settled in the muscles of the back, or from disease. In the two former cases the right remedy is BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT. It should be rubbed in thoroughly over the affected part, the relief will be prompt and satisfactory. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by E. E. Clements. (Adv.)

If you are buying land require the seller to furnish you an abstract of his title, so you may know you are getting a good title. If you contemplate selling your land, have an abstract thereto prepared first, so you will know what kind of title you can make to it, as the purchaser is almost sure to want to know. I have the only complete set of abstracts of the land titles of Mills county and will make your abstracts for a reasonable charge and will help you cure your titles if defective.—E. B. Anderson.

Pleurisy pains are located just below the short ribs. Lumbago affects the same region but toward the back. Ballard's Snow Liniment is the remedy in either case. If rubbed in thoroughly. It eases pain, relaxes the muscles and the patient can move about freely and comfortably. Price 25c, 50c, and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by R. E. Clements. (ad)

JOHN C. LITTLE DIES.

His Demise a Shock to the Community that Esteemed Him Highly.

Seldom was there more universal sorrow and sadness in a community than is felt in Hamilton at the sudden taking off of Mr. John C. Little whose death occurred last Friday night at his home in this city. But few of our citizens were aware of his serious illness until the announcement was made that he was dead. He was missed from his place of business but it was generally thought his illness was only of a temporary nature. The attack, however, from which he suffered for but a few days was relentless and the sad end could not be averted. Surrounded by friends and loved ones, he yielded up his spirit to the God whom he worshiped, and with his hand in that of the blessed Savior whom he had faithfully served in life, he passed over the river to rest under the shade of the trees on the other side. Mr. Little was but 32 years old, and was just beginning to realize what it was to live. He had a wife and two sweet children, a boy four years old and a little girl two years old. It was indeed a happy family. But alas! those ties are sundered and with but brief warning all plans for the future are blasted. How sad indeed are the decrees of fate! but how comforting the thought that his short life was not lived in vain. He was a Christian, humbly following day by day the example of the Man of Galilee, and exemplifying in his association with his fellowmen those principles of truth and righteousness that far out weigh all that this world can give. He was a member of the Methodist church, faithful in attendance at Sunday school and loyal to every vow he had taken. As a business man, he had fine judgment and was regarded highly by all his competitors as well as those who were his patrons. As manager of the Little Dry Goods Company he had built up a fine trade in the short time that he had been here, and his house has grown to be one of the leading mercantile establishments of our town. A testimonial, signed by every business man of Hamilton showing the high esteem in which he was held here, and the universal regret felt at his death, has been presented to the broken-hearted wife and other members of the family.

Besides the wife and sympathizing friends present when the end came were the father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Little of Goldthwaite, Mrs. Beatrice Swain of Loneta, Mrs. Walton, Mrs. Toland and Misses Addie and Jewel Little of Goldthwaite, sisters of the deceased and his two brothers, Will and Lewis, Jr., also D. Albert Trent, cousin of Mrs. Little. The remains were taken to Goldthwaite Saturday where the funeral was held Sunday afternoon. Accompanying the remains besides the near relatives were Earnest Mims, of the Little Dry Goods Co., C. E. Horton, Bernard Miller and Robt. King representing the Methodist church, Lee Jones, of McKinley-Corrigan Co's. store, Ivan Austin of the Phoenix Drug Store, James Roddy and Robt. Emmett, on behalf of the Woodmen and the Young Men's Booster Club and Rev. Alonzo Monk, pastor of the Methodist church. The service at Goldthwaite was conducted by Rev. Monk, assisted by resident pastors, and was an eloquent tribute to the triumphs of the Christian faith as manifested in the life and death of this good man.

Beautiful floral offerings were placed on the bier, among them being those from the Home Missionary Society of the Methodist church of Hamilton, from the stewards of the church, from Mesdames McCain and Stuteville and from the Y. M. B. C. of Hamilton.

To the sorrowing wife and dear little children, the mother and father and the grief-stricken brothers and sisters, the Herald would tender its most profound condolence. We cannot express the sadness with which we pen these lines. Our town has sustained a great loss and the sympathy of our people goes out to those who were near and dear to him. He was a man of whom all could feel proud, an honored, upright citizen, a loving father and husband, and an humble, devout and sincere Christian. May we all so live that we shall meet him by and by in the home over there.—Hamilton Herald.

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS.

I will be at the following places on the dates given for the purpose of collecting taxes:

Star Jan. 5.
Priddy, Jan. 6.
Ebony Jan. 7 and 8.
Regency Jan. 9.
Mullen, Jan 10 and 17.

I make these dates especially for the convenience of the taxpayers, but will kindly ask that if possible you call in at the office and pay your taxes, as we are much better equipped to receipt for them and collect your money than we are in the country. Then, again, many times on given dates in the country the weather is so bad that the people can't turn out. So, as the time is short in which to pay your 1913 taxes and a great number of people have not yet paid, I will again ask that you drop in and pay your taxes; avoid the rush, get quicker service and give us more time to adjust and make any changes you may want made relative to the transfer of lands since your rendition was given.

All persons becoming 21 years of age after the 1st day of January, 1913, and prior to the July primary, 1914, are entitled to an Exemption Certificate, free of charge.

Very truly,
E. O. PRIDDY,
Tax Collector.

His Stomach Troubles Over.

Mr. Dyspeptic, would you not like to feel that your stomach troubles were over, that you could eat any kind of food you desired without injury? That may seem so unlikely to you that you do not even hope for an ending to your trouble, but permit us to assure you that it is not altogether impossible. If others can be cured permanently, and thousands have been, why not you? John R. Barker of Battle Creek, Mich., is one of them. He says: "I was troubled with heartburn, indigestion, and liver complaint until I used Chamberlain's Tablets, then my trouble was over." Sold by all druggists.—Advertisement.

BEST COUGH MEDICINE FOR CHILDREN

"I am very glad to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy" writes Mrs. Lida Dewey, Milwaukee, Wis. "I have used it for years both for my children and for myself and it never fails to relieve and cure a cold or cough. No family with children should be without it as it gives almost immediate relief in cases of croup." Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is pleasant and safe to take, which is of great importance when a medicine must be given to young children. For sale by all druggists. (Adv.)

Chronic Constipation Cured.

"Five years ago I had the worst case of chronic constipation I ever knew of, and Chamberlain's Tablets cured me" writes S. F. Fish, Brooklyn, Mich. For sale by all druggists.—Advertisement.

SETTLEMENT WANTED.

My books and accounts are at J. C. Street's store, where all indebted to me are urged to call and settle with Mr. Walter Bayley at once. I have been as lenient as possible with those who owe me, but now I must ask all to settle at once. Do not delay, but be sure to pay before Jan. 1. I must have the money.
