PRIDDY.

(Too late for last week.)

Editor Eagle:

Well, here is another hand full of crumbs for the old bird.

We had a little rain here today. It looks as tho it means to keep us out of the fields yet a while.

Rev. Vann filled his regular appointment here Sunday and gave us a fine sermon.

Vester Horton of Caradan was the guest of D. B. Miles Sunday.

Otis Brazie and family were the guests of John Priddy Sunday.

Mr. Marvin Simpson and wife visited her mother Sunday.

Messrs. Ed. Willis and C. H. Pfleger took a business trip to Melvin the latter part of last week and reported fine crops.

W. E. Garner of Trigger Mountain community was here Tuesday selling buggies.

Misses Minnie McCustian and Ola Dodson visited Miss Alma Barker Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Priddy left Tuesday night en route to Temple, where the latter will undergo an operation.

Well, the oats and barley is fine, but I can't tell you about the cotton, for I can't see it. I will tell you about that later when I get the grass out of it.

Walter Bayley and J. W. Hopson made a business trip to San Saba the first of the week.

John Mark Boler was here from Washboard the first of the week, transacting business.

Rev. J. C. Newman returned home from a visit to his son, Hall, and family at Moody Monday.

The road overseers convention was called off Monday on account of the continued rains and bad condition of the roads.

Dr. an Mrs. Calaway were among the good people who attended the Baptist fifth Sunday meeting and enjoyed being with their friends and former neighbors very much.

R. J. Flowers of San Angelo visited his nephew, J. D. Ryan, and family in North Brown community the first of the week. Mr. Flowers was en route from Florida, where he had been for six months looking after his property interests.

Announcements have been issued for the forthcoming San Saba fair, which will be held August 4 to 7. This is one of the big fairs of the state and is a source of pride for the people of that town and country.

W. F. Harris, son of Mr. J. A. Harris of Indian Gap, boarded the train here Tuesday en route for his home in Hutchinson county, after a visit to his home folks. His sister, Miss Susie, accompanied him home for a visit.

MUST CLEAN UP.

City Marshal Conro is giving warning to citizens whose premises are not in good sanitary condition that they must "clean up" at once, else he will file complaint against them in the corporation court. The heated term is approaching and it is necessary that all alleys, outhouses, barnyards, cow lots, hog pens and similar places be kept in the best possible condition to prevent sickness among the people.

Mr. Conro has taken the work of looking after these matters for the city and if he don't do it, it won't be him. Those whose premises are not in good condition, had better take warning and be quick about it, for the cleaning up can be done as easily before a fine is paid as it can be done afterwards and it surely must be done sometime.

COURTESY CLUBS.

Following the "safety first" movement inaugurated throughout the country by transportation companies, the Mountain States Telephone Company operating in El Paso and other western cities, has gone a step farther and has organized "courtesy always" clubs among the different exchanges on its line. The purpose of these clubs is to promote courtesy among the employees of the company in all its departments and when a special example of courtesy on part of an employee is reported to the management, the employee is given a gold triangle badge and is enrolled as an honor member of the club. Courtesy on the part of its employees is a valuable asset to any line of business and especially is it desirable in public utility or concerns which serve the public. Now that managers have decided to place a premium on courtesy, it is hoped that courtesy will become as noted by its presence as it is now sometimes conspicuous by its absence.

Judge E. B. Anderson and family went to Brady Wednesday for a visit to relatives.

Everybody is making arrangements for the biggest fair the county has ever had and the premium list will attract many displays.

Mrs. Jo. H. Frizzell and little daughter and Mrs. S. H. Allen went to Brownwood Wednesday to attend the commencement exercises of Howard Payne college.

Mrs. G. W. Gartman was a pleasant caller at the Eagle office Monday, having called to renew the subscription of her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Cook of San Saba, for the paper.

Mrs. Lee Jones and children returned Wednesday morning from an extended visit to relatives in Nebraska.

C. E. Strickland has been carrying mail on route No. 3 a part of this week, while C. L. Stephens took a few days' vacation.

Quite a number of Goldthwaite people, including Pastor Newman of the Baptist church, attended the Baptist fifth Sunday meeting at Trigger Mountain and report a most pleasant and interesting meeting.

Mrs. J. P. Grundy and daughter, Miss Mary Lou, returned Thursday from Brownwood, where they attended commencement exercises of Howard Payne College. Miss Estel Grundy, who is a student in that institution, was awarded the gold medal in elocution, which is a source of great pleasure to her friends.

When in need of Groceries see Sam Fisherman before you buy and save money on everything. West side square.

Mrs. A. E. Sherman was painfully burned about the arms and shoulder last Saturday while attempting to burn out a bed of ants in her garden with gasoline. Her waist caught fire and but for her presence of mind in wrapping herself in a blanket that was hanging in the yard, her injuries would have been much more severe. She has been confined to her room this week and is still suffering from the burns, but it is hoped she will soon recover.

RHEUMATIC PAINS

Every last one of them leave. The hurting is gone almost the instant Hunt's Lightning Oil is used. The aching stops so quickly it is really surprising.

PAIN VANISHES

Hunt's Lightning Oil is especially compounded to relieve pain. For Neuralgia and Headaches it is a boon to humanity. For burns, cuts, bruises and sprains it acts as a healing oil, soothing the hurting parts and preventing soreness. Nothing better for chilblains. Rubbed on chest, relieves sore lungs, often preventing pneumonia. Excellent for acute sore throat. We sell Hunt's Lightning Oil in 25 and 50 cent bottles. Call at our drug store.

LAYMEN'S WORK.

In stressing the vital importance of team work in extending the interests of Gospel supply in the rural communities, we should not be unmindful of co-operative agencies, without which any commendable degree of success would be impracticable.

Prominent and fundamental among these co-operative agencies for Gospel extension, is that of literary education as fostered and maintained by our public school system. The teaching element is so vital in Gospel administration that there can be no success without it.

The initiatory service of salvation is "preaching" the Gospel to all the world; but this is followed immediately by teaching them to observe, "all things whatsoever I have commanded you." The school is both the "handmaid" and the "housemaid" of the church and there is not much house-keeping in the church without it.

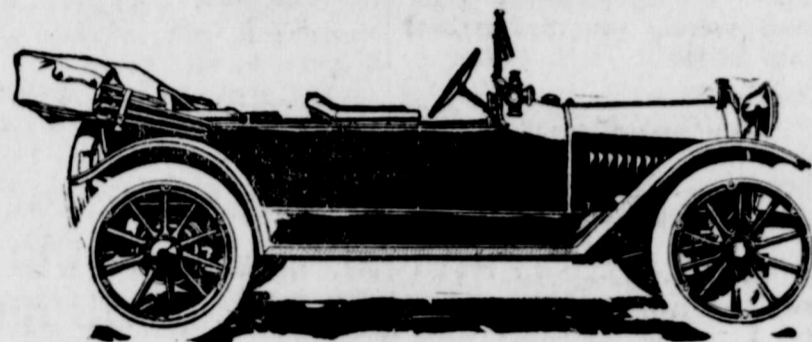

So, while we seek to promote the Gospel in rural communities where there are no organized churches, the school house as the educational center, should be made the objective point for Gospel extension; and the educational interests of the community should be enlisted, and made co-operative in promoting the religious welfare. And when these two interests are alive and mutually co-operative, then they become the most potent factors in the construction of the social fabric. CONTRIBUTED.

COMMERCIAL CLUB.

Large Attendance—Interesting Meeting—Fair Discussed.

The meeting of the club Tuesday night was well attended and the members all appeared to be interested in the subjects discussed as well as in matters for the general welfare of the town and county.

Committees for the various departments of the fair reported progress and these reports proved that all of the committees were active and enthusiastic in their work. The committee on privileges reported several bids for concessions and others in prospect, and the prices offered showed that the public expected the fair to be even a greater success this year than it has been heretofore.

A suggestion was made that the continued rains had made the crops very backward and the exhibits would not be as good or as numerous in July as they would be perhaps a month later, consequently the fair committee was instructed to confer with the old soldiers and ascertain if an agreement could be made to hold the fair and reunion at a later date than the one at first agreed upon.

Committees were all instructed to continue their efforts to make the fair a great success, and in the event of a postponement of the fair, the extension of time would give them more time to do their work more thoroughly.

FIFTH SUNDAY MEETING.

The Fifth Sunday meeting held at Trigger Mountain, which continued for three days, was quite helpful and successful.

The subjects which had been programmed for the occasion were discussed in their order, and since hearing the discussions, it is my mind that these were the kind of discussions we most need at this time.

The weather condition was so unfavorable that attendance from other parts of the county was not large. We are thankful for those who came and brought help and inspiration.

The local attendance was really good, the spirit was fine. I haven't a word to say except that I love for people who show interest for right and good things. The weather kept coming and the people kept going.

On the last day of the meeting a collection was taken for Association Missions amounting to something near forty dollars.

The next fifth Sunday meeting was not located in as much as the county association is to meet at Priday one week before another fifth Sunday.

JUDGE ROACH DEAD.

Judge Matt. Roach died at his home in this city Wednesday night at midnight, after a long illness with heart trouble and complications.

Judge Roach was one of the oldest citizens of the town and county, both in point of years and in time of residence. He was a citizen of the seater-fitter community, in Lampasas county, prior to locating here and filled positions of honor and trust in that county as well as in this county. He was elected commissioner for this precinct in the early days of the county's organization and was one of the officials when the first court house was built. He was possessed of splendid business qualifications and was looked upon as one of the county's leading financiers up to the time his declining health forced him to retire, but even after he withdrew from the business community, some of his clients continued to look to him to transact their business for them. He was a well read man and could discuss almost any subject with interest to his hearers and always took great interest in politics and other public affairs. He always had a kindly greeting and a pleasant word for those with whom he came in contact and was a high minded gentleman in every particular.

Judge Roach was a devoted member of the Catholic church and died strong in the faith. His funeral service was conducted according to the ritual of the Catholic church, the pastor of the church here, whose home is in Brownwood, officiating at the service. A large congregation of friends, neighbors and relatives assembled at the residence and followed the remains to their last resting place in the Odd Fellows' cemetery Thursday afternoon.

He leaves a wife and two nephews and one niece, all members of his household, besides other relatives in other parts of the state and in Ireland and to all of them the sympathy of the people goes out in this sad bereavement.

MEETING TO BEGIN.

Rev. C. E. Hunt of Coleman is to begin a meeting in the Christian church Tuesday night of next week, June 9. Everybody is cordially invited to come and take part in the meeting, also help in the song service.

CLUB MEETING.

Mrs. Randolph's hospitality to the Merry Maids and Matrons Club Tuesday, May 26, has been freely complimented as one of the very pleasurable events of the week. This being the last meeting of the Club year, the guest list included only the members, and business of importance was dispensed with. The remainder of the afternoon was all informal, as each member preferred, yet pleasant, since Mrs. Randolph generates the glad spirit within all who are fortunately her guests.

As a pleasant diversion from the usual passing of the refreshment plate in the home, gave way to a visit to Clements' Drug Store, where, in advance, preparations had been made for the coming and the guests were received as cordially as in the private home.

Beautiful music rose above the merriment during the service of delicious ices and its accompaniment was a pleasing detail to the afternoon's pleasure. The aftermath of iced chocolates, Mr. Clements' courtesy to the favored guests, was further evidence of the welcome given by him, as was also the dainty fans, which were given as favors. A final pleasure of the afternoon was the inspection of the new Fountain with its modern equipments, which has recently been installed. With all, the afternoon was one of continuous pleasure to all participants and the atmosphere of merriment was all prevalent. And Mrs. Randolph is given credit for one of the most delightful meetings of the now waning season.

REUNION AND FAIR POSTPONED

Committees Decided a Later Date More Advantageous.

Committees representing the Commercial Club and Jeff Davis camp of Confederate veterans met Thursday and determined to postpone the fair and reunion to August 11, 12, 13, in order that farm work may be out of the way and farm products sufficiently matured to make a good showing for the county.

The original dates fixed were July 7, 8, 9, but the continued rains made crops very backward and some farmers are just now planting cotton. Corn is small and will scarcely be in roasting ear by July, fruit will not be ripened and the products of every kind will be in much better condition for display at the later date.

TO THE VOTERS.

Perhaps this will surprise you, that I am a candidate for the Mills county treasurer office and hope for your vote and the benefit of your influence in the Democratic primary election to be held July 25. My friends, you know that I have worked with several sheriffs during the district court for years, from Mr. Welch to Mr. Priddy, before the old court house was burned. If I was appointed to be janitor by the commissioners' court, I would have prevented it going into ashes, if I had keys. Is there any fault? Did you ever hear any complaint against me? If I am elected, I will do my work promptly and satisfactorily. But if any wrong thing or letters come to me, I will bring them to Judge E. B. Anderson. He will attend to them according to law. Mr. Wells has kept his office for four years. I say I would want it for a living, for I have a wife.

I will leave this subject to your judgment, wish one and all success and prosperity. Remember me to all. Your true friend, Crop conditions over the state are very bad owing to too much rain in almost every section. No county is in better condition than Mills county and few are in anything like as good condition.

There came near being a genuine tragedy in Comanche a few days ago when two candidates for congress, Hon. Oscar Calaway of Comanche and Judge Hunter of Fort Worth, engaged in a fist fight and the last named gentleman drew a revolver and attempted to shoot his opponent. He was arrested, disarmed and indicted for carrying a pistol and for aggravated assault.

When thinking of the Panama Canal and its attendant benefits, we are reminded that Texas possesses better opportunities for facilitating shipping than any other ports in the world. Probably none other in all the world possess in so phenomenal degree the natural resources for the development of the great commercial mart as those of Texas. By paralleling Texas ports, the distance from the center of the United States to the Panama Canal is less than 700 miles and this distance difference is bound to operate to the advantage of the Texas ports.

No matter how much we are warned of the approach of the death of a loved one or a dear friend, we can not understand its majestic science. It is impossible to understand the cold, folded hands upon the breast where no longer the heart pulses with the fluid of life. The closed eyes and the mu's tongue are not in accord with noise of the busy throng who, intent with the things of life, are in a steady stream, marching on to the same condition of indifference to the tears and sobs of those who hunger for the light of the closed eyes and the clasp of their rigid hand. We do not understand it. We cannot comprehend it. We know that it is a condition that we must all meet, but it is always away off yonder at some distant time, even though its shadows may be close beside us, and its icy hand upon our cheeks.—Selected.

The plans of the peace conference at Niagara Falls may be all right as far as theory goes, but with no way of enforcing the demands or making good the promises of the conference, there can be no settlement of the difficulties in Mexico, by that method. It is unreasonable and unjust to expect Gen. Villa and his victorious army to submit to terms dictated by the bloody assassin Huerta or his representatives. The constitutionalists have the fight practically won for the government of their country, and but for the hope that Huerta has of assistance from the peace conference, there is no doubt he would flee the country, therefore, the constitutionalists have nothing to arbitrate, and if they continue the negotiations a few days longer, they will take the City of Mexico and put to flight the last fragment of the federal army.

Nearly one thousand people perished beneath the waters of the St. Lawrence river last Friday morning when the Canadian Pacific liner, "Empress of Ireland" was rained by a collier, the Storstad, and sank in 90 feet of water in fourteen minutes. The distress signal was given by the wireless and other vessels reached the scene in twenty minutes, only to find the great ship gone, carrying with it to the bottom almost one thousand persons. There were 1367 people aboard the ship and a few of them managed to get away in lifeboats before the great vessel sank. It was an unprecedented tragedy of the sea, in that no vessel of so great proportions ever sank so quickly and notwithstanding it was in sight of land and other vessels were upon the scene in less time than could have been expected. The scene of this disaster was off Father Point, 150 miles from Quebec and the steamer was at a standstill, awaiting the lifting of the fog.

STAR

With the continual downpour of rain and all the creeks up, the Lampasas out of its banks, Bennett creek roaring like a cyclone, and some of the bridges floating to their future destiny, the Star news was all washed away last week and I didn't have anything to write.

Perhaps one of the most important and certainly the most enjoyable occasions of the past few days was Miss Harper's Music Recital last Saturday night. The program was a most interesting one and well rendered and the attendance was large.

Mrs. J. N. Jones of the Evant community died last week at her home. It is not definitely known what was the cause of her death, so I am told. She was a very old lady and leaves many friends.

Miss Gladys Langford and her brother, George, are visiting at their Uncle's, F. N. Baker, and family.

J. W. Hays, bank examiner for this district, had business in Star last week.

It is reported here that H. Kreid who lives a few miles southeast of Star, lost 200 head of sheep and a $150-bridge last week by flood. Mr. Kreid lives about a mile and a half from the junction of Bennett creek and Lampasas river.

A good many of the farmers report loss of grain by heavy rains of late, some being completely washed away and others being blown down.

Miss Ethel Campbell, who has been visiting her aunt in Lyons, visited relatives in Star a few days and left last week for her home in Blackwell. Her brother, R. C. Campbell accompanied her to Goldthwaite.

Miss Pearl Martin of Southeast Texas, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. C. E. Poe, here for the last week.

Our Sunday school is growing very fast. We now have six classes, it having been necessary to divide some of the classes on account of the large number of pupils. A lively competition is going on between two of the young people's classes in chapter reading—the boys and girls being in separate classes and each class striving to read more chapters in the Bible each week than the other.

C. B. Poe and Rolla Livingston purchased the ice cream rights in the Hamilton picnic and were there during the picnic. The rains prevented the attendance that was expected, but it was reported that those who were there had a good time. Mr. Livingston and Mr. Poe report an enormous amount of rain in the Evant community, nearly every one of the culverts between here and Evant being washed away.

Walter Adams, who bought the Jack Smith place, had a very large ditch through his field to carry the water that comes from the mountain above him. The ditch was about 35 feet wide, and from the tops of the banks on each side, appeared to be about ten feet deep. This ditch was washed completely down and the field flooded. It is said that the water stood about a foot deep in the gin at Evant.

Hudson Hamilton accompanied Mr. Poe and Mr. Livingston to Mamliton and back.

The young people enjoyed singing at the hospitable home of F. N. Baker last Sunday night.

Rev. R. A. Gay did not fill his appointment here last Sunday.

The road to Goldthwaite is pretty bad but it is passable. R. C. Campbell made a trip to Goldthwaite in the latter part of the week.

The W. O. W. Band Committee has ordered a few of the horns for the boys, and are expecting them in right away.

Some of the young people attended a party in the Center City community last Saturday night.

Prof. W. A. Jeter has come back with his glad some and happy countenance and his many friends in Star were glad to see him again. He made a trip to Goldthwaite the latter part of last week.

The busy hum of the reaper is apparent where the machines can possibly be used. The grain crop is good and needs cutting and will be harvested as soon as the rains will permit.

Mrs. J. A. Gardner of Evant visited relatives in Star a few days ago.

Reginald, the youngest son of Mrs. Lora Goode, has been quite sick this week with fever.

mal School of Music will be held in Star commencing the first day of July. This is a branch session of the famous Waco Normal and the same advantages will be here that can be obtained in Waco. Prof. B. B. Edmiston and wife will conduct the normal themselves, which fact alone guarantees that the normal will be a grand success. It is hard to realize a small town like Star should be so fortunate in getting the services of one of the best teachers in the state of Texas, if not the United States, but now that it is a fact, those who want to take advantage of this opportunity, had better get busy and get in correspondence with the normal. The tuition is very small—not at all in keeping with the high class instruction that will be given. This is made so by the reason of Prof. Edmiston's being hired by contract price and the directors just charge enough to come clear. This great plan of co-operation and civic pride should at once claim the attention of every music lover that wants real high class instruction for nearly nothing. Those contemplating entering this normal should write the director at Waco, Texas, or Prof. W. A. Jeter, Secretary, Star, Texas. Board can be secured at very reasonable rates at Star. Star is a "Star" place and her people are STAR people. There are no "knockers" in Star when it comes to the betterment of the community and the students that come from other communities will realize the truth of this statement when they stay here a few days. The result is that we are the most contented, happy, and prosperous people in the state. Even this very name of Star is uplifting! STAR REPORTER.

USE OF CALOMEL IS RAPIDLY FALLING OFF.

Fewer People Risking Dangerous Drug—Thousands taking Dodson's Liver Tone Instead.

The use of calomel, which is a poison and a form of mercury, seems to be decidedly diminishing nowadays. Dodson's Liver Tone takes its place so reliably in cases of constipation and liver troubles that its popularity is spreading more widely all the time.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a harmless vegetable liquid. What calomel does unpleasantly—often with danger—for constipation and sluggish liver, Dodson's Liver Tone does for you safely and pleasantly, with no pain and no gripe. It does not interfere in any way with your regular business, habits or diet.

So successful, so reliable, and so popular a remedy has its imitators, naturally. But beware of them. You can easily detect the difference.

Dodson never makes extravagant statements. His Liver Tone has been made from the first to take the place of calomel. He says that it "livenes the liver", overcomes constipation agreeably and makes you feel good. If you are not satisfied completely with Dodson's Liver Tone, R. E. Clements will hand back the purchase price (50c.) to you cheerfully, instantly and without question. Hence you run no risk to health or pocketbook in giving it a trial. (adv.)

COMMISSIONERS COURT.

The members of the Mills county commissioners court met Tuesday as a board of equalization, to hear parties whose property values had been raised for taxation. No protests were offered, hence the session was short. After adjournment, the commissioners court held a called session, at which the following business was transacted:

Returns of the election by Washboard school district No. 33, to reduce the local tax from 35c to 20c, were canvassed. The result was that the vote stood in favor of retaining the 35c tax.

The result of the election in Rye Valley, school district No. 24, to abrogate the 20c school tax was that the tax is retained.

The election in Becker Mountain school district No. 47 to vote a local school tax of 10c carried unanimously in favor of this tax.

The court passed an order instructing the treasurer to pay six of the county bridge bonds, $500 each, of the issue of 1906.

Big Valley school district No. 23 called an election today for the purpose of increasing the present special school tax rate from 10c to 30c.

S. S. CLASS ENTERTAINED

On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Edward Geeslin entertained the members of his Sunday school class with a very pleasant party at their home on Hutchings street. A short business meeting was held during the first hour, in which officers were elected and the name Wesley Comrades was chosen for the class. After the business meeting adjourned, tables were placed for progressing Bible games, each table being adorned with dainty bowls of spring flowers. The score cards for the games were in pink rose design. The games were very much enjoyed by the young people and, after time was called, Mrs. Geeslin assisted by Miss Lawrence Thompson, served delicious June salad and cake. Refreshing orange punch was served throughout the evening. This delightful hospitality was enjoyed by all who were present. XX.

OBITUARY.

Byron Oscar Swindle, the little son of Prof. Oscar and Mrs. Pallie Swindle of Indian Gap, died May 30, 1914, after an illness of nearly a week. He was born Nov. 15, 1912, making an age of eighteen and a half months. We laid the little lifeless form to rest Saturday evening in the Indian Gap cemetery.

To the sorrow of parents and many relatives, Providence has plucked a loving flower from out of a home on which the shadows have fallen deep and painful.

Prof. Swindle and family lived in the Trigger Mountain community only during last school term, where he taught, but the people here know and appreciate him and family sufficiently to extend heart-felt sympathy in this time of bereavement.

It is great for these sorrowing parents to know just how to trust Him who doeth all things well and feel the drawing of His hand toward the home where they shall meet again.

POLICIES AND PRINCIPLES

OF

J. M. ARNOLD OF MILLS COUNTY

CANDIDATE FOR

RAILROAD COMMISSIONER

There has been a great cry for a business man for governor, one that is qualified to fill the office for all the people, but we have not heard the cry for a business man for railroad commissioner. Why? Can any man fill this office successfully? Is it of no importance to us? Have you ever stopped to think that it is one of the most important offices at Austin? All other officers act in accord with one another and shape their policies with that understanding. This office is an executive office in itself and shapes its own policies. Those policies, rulings, and decisions can do more towards the future progress of Texas and its various industries and enterprises than any state office, or it can retard and hold in check those improvements more than any state office. Do you recall the bitter and hard fight its founder, Gov. Hogg, made in favor of the commission and how he prophesied that the rulings and decisions would be looked upon by the public and the railroads as just to both. If you will refer to his state papers, you will note that it was not the intention of those who fought for the commission, to have it used as a preparatory school or stepping stone for higher political honors, but to the contrary, the commissioners were made executive officers, the salary and term of office was made attractive in order that competent men would contest for places on the commission and be satisfied with the honor and other surroundings, and make it impossible for them to build political fences for the future.

A man to make a good commissioner and be useful to those that require the services of that office should not be a politician. For instance, Ft. Worth wanted some special concessions on behalf of the packing house industries. He would not have the moral courage to say NO, if it was not fair to grant their request, because there are higher honors to be gained and it would not be policy to incur their ill will. Can you hope for peace and justice from that honorable body as long as it is filled by men seeking higher honors through their actions while serving as such? The farmers, merchants, traveling and shipping public, as well as the railroads, must look to this commission for relief. You ask each of those interested and they will promptly tell you that all they want is justice and that they are willing for other competitors to have the same. Imagine this great population of Texas looking to this one institution to solve their transportation problems when it is filled with men bowed to politics and inexperience. This is a broad assertion to make. However, if you will listen to common sense reasoning and cast aside your prejudice for a few moments, I will convince you if you are an intelligent man.

Before I present my argument, you should know the duties of the commissioners. The principal duties, as quoted by our government authorities are as follows:

a—It compiles information concerning the construction, cost, rolling stock, equipment, stock and bonds, operating expenses, volume of business, income, and rates of all the railroads in Texas.

b—It regulates freight and passenger rates, and corrects abuses and prevents extortion and discrimination, affecting shippers and passengers.

c—It investigates reported abuses and wrongdoings by railroads and imposes penalties for the same. When the railroads do not pay the penalties assessed against them, it orders suits to be brought in the courts to compel them to do so.

d—It makes rules requiring railroads to post fixed tariff rates, to maintain train schedules, to furnish comfortable depots, and to adopt rules for the operation of the trains so as to conserve the safety of passengers and freight.

e—It regulates the issuance of all bonds by railroad companies and thus protects the people from the over-capitalization of a railroad.

In addition to the above stereotyped duties, there are various other matters coming up for adjustment between the public and the railroads, but it is safe to say that it will require a knowledge of railroad work and customs in order to adjust it fairly between them. Thus you see that every move made by the commission requires the knowledge of the railroad business, and without this knowledge, no decision can be rendered fair to all concerned. If you don't want a fair and just decision, I am not pleading with you. I am pleading with honest men and not those who have axes to grind.

We will apply the test to a few different occupations and businesses. If the government appoints a farm demonstrator for your county, do you want him to be an experienced farmer, a man that has actually done the work from A to Z or do you want one that knows nothing about farming but is considered a very popular man?

If Sanger Bros., Dallas, were placed in shape that all the merchants in Dallas would join together and elect a man as a dry goods salesman for Sanger Bros., would the latter want the most popular man in Dallas, or would they hope for a man that understands the dry goods business from the ribbon counter to the merest detail on the road as an experienced salesman?

You can apply this test to any profession, trade or otherwise and it will prove out the same way. Then why do you elect men to go to Austin that do not know the first and main principle of the work? You will say "Well, he possesses so many other good qualifications that you do not, that we can overlook this one." Let us look into these qualifications. He is a good orator, good mixer, and considered a smooth politician and a noble office seeker. He is a lawyer and a graduate of the University. He is considered an able statesman by some and a failure by others. I am no orator, but this qualification is not necessary. I am no politician, and do not ever expect to be. I am not a lawyer, neither does the office require one, as the attorney general is elected for that purpose. I am no graduate of a University, but I possess the necessary qualifications in an educational way to fill the office with due respect to the dignity of the office. I am no statesman, but the office does not require a diplomat or a noted statesman as the commissioners should work and solve transportation problems and leave those duties to their respective departments. I have always been credited with having common sense, and I know that I possess the practical experience. You now understand the difference between the two men. Excluding lawyers and railroad men, or those who are prejudiced in favor of a University education over a man with the common school education, I will leave the proposition to any five men in Texas, regardless of their profession, to pass upon the qualifications of Mr. Mayfield and myself, and if they say that he is better qualified to fill the office than I am, I will withdraw from the race and allow him to run without opposition. The 20th century way of applying common sense, will not uphold the old custom of restricting the term of office to any certain number, or giving the second term to any one, regardless of the circumstances. The citizens of Texas are not under any obligations to any office holder to reelect him the second time, if they can secure a man that will fill the office better, neither are they under obligation to the men on the outside wanting in to replace the man in office whether he has served one or five terms. I am in favor of a law whether I am elected or not, making it unlawful for a railroad commissioner to fill any office higher than the commission. The argument would probably be advanced in opposition that there were no inducements for them to work and try to make their administration a success. If the salary and honor is not enough to bring out all there is in a man, you had better call him home and try another.

Mr. Mayfield has stated that he will be a candidate for governor next election if successful this term. Do you really expect him to do anything in the next four years that would damage his chances for this race that he is grooming for? Do you think he will go out and seek railroad experience in order to serve you intelligently the next four years, when he cares nothing for the office and shows by his actions that he is only using it as a means of keeping before the public until the proper time. The term of office is six years and your commission would be crippled and require the appointment of a new recruit. If I am elected, I shall never seek an office above the commission, knowing that, if I did, this statement would serve to defeat me. I will be willing to step down at the end of six years, if you can get a man that will serve your purpose better, or I will be glad to serve you eighteen years, if I please the people.

You will hear me called a Socialist when you learn my views upon all questions affecting the commission. There are various and many different localities, industries, manufacturing plants, and other interests that depend upon rates and transportation facilities for their existence. We know that what will apply to the live stock and packing house industries, will not apply to the lumber industries or wholesale enterprises in different portions of the state. Now then, according to the rules that prevent discrimination, a man must be thoroughly familiar with all the different interests and enterprises as well as the railroad business and customs to comply with this ruling.

I am not so wrapped up in my own qualifications, but that I realize that there are many things that I should know in order to be useful to the public. But I shall never cease to make the conditions of Texas and her railroads a close study, absolutely refraining from dabbling with any private enterprise of my own that would detract from my usefulness to the people. If I am elected, I will be out of employment from September until I take up my duties in the following January. During this intermission, I will go to Dallas and Fort Worth and study the traffic condition of those cities under the traffic managers of their respective chambers of commerce, looking into the various industries and rate controversies and traffic problems, and finding out what north Texas needs. I will do likewise with Waco and Central Texas, also Houston and Galveston, as well as San Antonio and the Southwest. By doing this I will have my education completed for a useful commissioner.

You will probably draw the conclusions from this outline that I am preparing for a war on railroads. Such is not the case. I am no railroad fighter. I believe in regulating and not exterminating, co-operating with them when they are right, and not antagonizing for political aspirations. We need more railroads and better railroads. There should be a better understanding between the public and the railroads, and if you ever expect to enjoy this much needed reunion, you will have to accomplish it at the ballot box by placing men in the office that have the moral courage to tell you that he is with the railroads as long as they are right and against them when they are wrong, when they know that it is unpopular and unwise to make a campaign slogan.

If I am defeated, I shall return to my duties as a working man and sleep sound with a clear conscience, knowing that I was right and that the time has not yet arrived to where the people of the Lone Star State are willing to lay down their prejudices and unite on justice. In conclusion I have some recommendations from people who have known me from boyhood that will vouch for my past. You can only judge a man from that record, as you know not what a man will do until you try him. I will be glad to have you make a thorough investigation of my life, and if you can find anything that would suggest to you that I am not worthy of your trust, I do not want your support. However, I know that you will not be able to discover anything but that I am a poor man from the country. All I ask is for you to give me a chance with those who have stated that I was not an opponent. The Hon. Earl B. Mayfield has made this statement, why I know not, as I have never done anything dishonorable in my life and never expect to. I am placing my cause in the hands of the people. If you want to help me with your support, tell your friends. I have no money to buy the office with and, if it takes the price, I am lost.

Respectfully submitted,
J. M. ARNOLD
Candidate for Railroad Commissioner.

What People who know say about J. M. Arnold:

Commerce, Texas, Dec. 8, 1913
TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Having noticed in the papers that J. M. Arnold of Goldthwaite, Texas, will be a candidate for Railroad commissioner of the state of Texas, at the next election, I, the undersigned, without solicitation from him or any other person, take this opportunity of saying what I know about this splendid young man.

When he was a boy, he lived with his father on one of my farms for ten years and I never knew a boy or man in my life of more splendid character than J. M. Arnold. His word was always his bond. During that ten years of his boyhood and during the time he developed into a man, I never knew him to spend an idle hour or do an act unbecoming to the highest type of manhood.

In his desire to get an education, he worked on the farm during the day and studied at nights and during rainy times when he could not be at work. When the crops were laid by in the summer he went to the railroad and worked as a section hand in order to save money with which to go to college. He is a self made man in every sense of the word. He is capable, honest, and true to his word at any and all times.

I have never known any one with higher sense of honor and truer manhood than this man, J. M. Arnold.

Very Respectfully,
D. M. PINLEY.

Goldthwaite Commercial Club
Goldthwaite, Texas, March 24, 1914.
TO THE CITIZENS OF TEXAS:

We, the undersigned members of the Goldthwaite Commercial Club, without regard to politics of any nature, take pleasure in endorsing Mr. J. M. Arnold, of our city, as a candidate for Railroad Commissioner.

We believe that this office, above all other state offices, requires practical, experienced men. As the commissioners deal with experienced railroad men, our representative, in order to obtain justice for us and extend same to the railroads, should be a practical man. Mr. Arnold has served as our railroad agent for the past two years. He knows from actual experience how to serve the shipping and traveling public. He is familiar with all complaints and knows how to adjust them.

The fact that Mr. Arnold has served as an employee for a railroad, makes no difference to those that know him. In our opinion, this is one of the best qualifications he could possess, as we feel sure that he will know when we are entitled to anything and how to obtain it for us.

Respectfully,
J. H. RANDOLPH, Vice Pres.
H. G. BODKIN, Sec.
And a large number of Members.

Goldthwaite, Texas, March 24, 1914.
TO THE CITIZENS OF TEXAS:

We, the undersigned citizens of Goldthwaite, Texas, having a fellow townsman in the race for the office of Railroad Commissioner of Texas believe it is our duty, both to the candidate and to the people he aspires to serve, to make a statement concerning him.

Mr. J. M. Arnold has been serving as agent for the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe railroad company at this place for some time past. We know him intimately; we know him to be a perfect gentleman in every sense, genial, courteous, practical and capable in all his business dealings. Mr. Arnold grew to manhood on the farm, worked very hard to qualify himself for business life and, therefore, knows thoroughly the rights and duties of the railroads. In short, J. M. Arnold is thoroughly trained for the duties of the office of Railroad Commissioner. This fact, coupled with the fact that he is a man who will do his duty, at all times, without fear or favor, to all people—rich and poor—makes us anxious to see him elected to this office.

JUDGE SLATOR FOR CONGRESS.

A Strong and Able Man—Enthusiastic Support All Over the District.

Judge M. D. Slator of Llano has announced himself as a candidate for congress for this district, subject to the Democratic primary. He is a man of fine qualifications and splendid ability and he is being given enthusiastic support in all parts of the district.

Judge Slator was district judge in the San Saba district for a number of years and made the race for congress in this district a few years ago. He is known personally to many of the people in Mills county and all who know him hold him in high esteem.

The San Antonio Express is among the papers supporting his candidacy and that paper has the following to say of him:

"Judge Slator was born in Llano County and has lived in the district all his life. After attending a local school in his home neighborhood, he attended school at Fredericksburg, and in 1887 matriculated at Southwestern University at Georgetown. It was there he had among other prominent ones in the life of the state, Julius Real as a classmate. He graduated at Georgetown in 1887, and in the fall of that year, became a student in the law department of the University of Texas, graduating there two years later.

Hanging out his shingle at Llano, the young lawyer at once began to practice his profession among the people, among whom he had been born and reared. In the fall of 1890 Governor Ross appointed him district attorney. A few months later he was elected to succeed himself. He declined to run again and stuck to his practice until 1898, when he was chosen district judge of the Thirty-third Judicial District. He held that place four years declining re-election. In 1902 he made the race against Mr. Slayden. In that contest he was defeated, but the showing he made was one of which his friends are still proud.

One of the campaign cries against Mr. Slayden is that he is "at outs" with the National Administration, and unable, therefore, to obtain recognition for this district. Judge Slator was one of the first men in the state to espouse the candidacy of Woodrow Wilson, fighting for him in precinct, county and State conventions. His work for Wilson won him recognition at the Houston convention of 1912, and he was chosen elector for the Fourteenth District, being one of the eighteen men in all the State who really voted for Wilson and Marshall.

In addition to being one of the best known lawyers of the district, Judge Slator is president of the Llano National Bank and one of the leading stockmen of Southeast Texas. He is so actively and prominently identified with the livestock interests, that he is regarded as a "really, truly cattleman."

"I was not only for Woodrow Wilson from the beginning, but I heartily endorse his Administration now," said Judge Slator. "But I am not announcing the platform on which I expect to win this struggle just now. Within a short while, however, I shall make known to the voters of the district my position on every issue. I have gone into the fight to win and that is just what I expect to accomplish on July 25. I may add that the enthusiasm that has greeted me on every side today cheers me into the fight with a stout heart. I am blessed with strong and willing friends and I propose doing all in my power to aid them to the end that the Fourteenth Congressional District shall no longer be looked down upon at Washington.

Slator headquarters here will probably be at the Gunter Hotel, where the candidate is meeting most of his friends and holding most of his conferences. The other headquarters, as stated, will probably be Brownwood or Coleman, with the chances in favor of the first named.

S. T. Wells, our popular county treasurer, visited his daughter and her husband at Morgan this week and made a short stop in Temple to consult a specialist.

If you contemplate selling your land, have an abstract thereof prepared first, so you will know what kind of title you can make to it, as the purchaser is almost sure to want to know. FIRM FOUNDATION
Nothing Can Undermine It In Goldthwaite.

People are sometimes slow to recognize true merit, and they cannot be blamed, for so many have been humbugged in the past. The experience of hundreds of Goldthwaite residents, expressed publicly through newspapers and other sources, places Doan's Kidney Pills on a firm foundation here.

Mrs. Robert Urbach, Goldthwaite, Texas, says: "The first symptom of kidney trouble in my case was pain in the small of the back, which gradually grew worse until I had hardly able to move. At night it changed to a dull ache and I couldn't sleep. If I caught cold, it settled on my kidneys making my sufferings worse. The kidney secretions were unnatural. When a friend told me about Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a supply at Clements' Drug Store. They gave me prompt relief."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Urbach had. Foster-Milburn Co. Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (ad)

Coughs and Colds Weaken the System
Continued Coughs, Colds and Bronchial troubles depress and weaken the system. Loss of weight and appetite generally follows. Get a 50c. bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery to-day. It will stop your cough. The first dose helps. The best medicine for Stubborn Coughs, Colds and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Mr. O. H. Brown, Muscatine, Ala. Writes "My wife was sick during the hot summer months and I honestly believe Dr. King's New Discovery saved her life." Good for children. 50c. and $1. at your druggist. (adv)

FAR AHEAD
Of the ordinary face creams, it stands out from the others as noticeably as the sun compared with the moon. In our opinion no other face cream compares with Dike's Peroxygen Cream. For sale at Brown & Lowrie's at 25c the jar. (Adv)

Hot Weather Tonic and Health Builder.
Are you run down—Nervous—Tired? Is everything you do an effort? You are not lazy—you are sick! Your Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, and whole system need a tonic. A tonic and Health Builder to drive out the waste matter—build you up and renew your strength. Nothing better than Electric Bitters. Start To-day. Mrs. James Duncan, Haynesville, Me., writes: "Completely cure me after several doctors gave me up." 50c and $1.00, at your Druggist.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve for Cuts. (Advertisement.)

HORSE OWNERS.
The horse is the principal motive power of the farm and therefore requires the best attention. If he does not thrive or eat well, have his teeth attended to. Bad teeth and improper mastication causes more disturbance than any other trouble; causes acute indigestion, colic and diseases of the alimentaries and many other troubles. A stitch in time may save the worth of your horse. Spend a few dollars on your horse before he gets down or is disabled. Bring your horse to me and have him examined and treated. I will be in Goldthwaite the second Saturday in each month to do all classes of veterinary work. Examination free.—Dr. O. M. Walters Veterinary Surgeon and Dentist, San Saba, Texas.

SPECIAL NOTICE.
The candidates for the various offices of Mills county, Texas, are hereby notified that they must file a written application with me not later than June 13, 1914, requesting their names to be placed on the official Democratic Primary ballot.

For the convenience of the candidates, I have a supply of blanks printed for this purpose. Those desiring the blanks can procure same without extra cost by applying to Mr. R. M. Thompson at the Eagle office in Goldthwaite or to me. If more convenient for the candidates, applications can be filed with Mr. Thompson, who is secretary of the committee.
