BUY-A-BALE MOVEMENT

A Plan to Increase the Purchase of Cotton at 10 Cents Per Pound

Cleveland will have part in the "buy a bale of cotton" movement, if plans announced yesterday by Fred W. Greber, secretary-treasurer of the West Texas Telephone Co., of Brownwood, Texas, and member of the executive board of the Brownwood chamber of commerce, are carried out.

Filled with enthusiasm for the movement, designed to offset the havoc in the cotton market created by the European war, Mr. Greber came to Cleveland yesterday. He presented his plans to Munson Havens, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and was assured it would be laid before the chamber board of directors at their meeting late this week.

Mr. Greber's plan contemplates the formation of "One Hundred Bales of Cotton" clubs in Cleveland and, if possible, all other cities of the United States. Members of these clubs would be pledged to buy cotton at 10 cents a pound, or, approximately, $50 a bale.

When the organization of a club is completed and the money subscribed, the $5,000 realized is to be deposited with Secretary Havens. Mr. Havens is to communicate with the secretary of a chamber of commerce or board of trade in the cotton district, to be designated.

The southern secretary who will be in close touch with the farmers of his territory, will know of individual cases of cotton poverty—cases where a farmer has a large quantity of cotton that he cannot dispose of at a price sufficient to warrant sale. This farmer will be given an order for cotton.

"If the farmer has twenty bales on hand," explained Mr. Greber, "and is enabled thus to sell five bales at a reasonable figure, he will realize enough to allow him to live until he can find a market for the rest.

"When the southern secretary buys this cotton, he will store it in a warehouse and send the Cleveland secretary a warehouse receipt for each bale. These receipts then will be forwarded to purchasers and will be negotiable securities, worth their face value, minus discounts.

"Cotton sold at an average of 12 cents a pound in 1913. Sept., 7, 1914, the price was 6 5/8 cents a pound. The government estimates a 14,500,000 bale crop for 1914 as against 14,000,000 bales in 1913."

"Ordinarily, Europe consumes 8,000,000 bales. This year it will take practically none. This explains the drop in price.

Secretary Havens said yesterday Cleveland probably will communicate at once with Memphis, New Orleans, St. Louis and other southern cities to ascertain what part they are taking in the movement.—Cleveland, Ohio, Plain Dealer.

COAL IS SCARCE

Greater love hath no man than to lay down his life for a friend, and the greatest love, it seems to me, ought to be that which saves a friend the fruits of his labors. Every man is responsible to his fellowman. The fire fiend is no respecter of persons; he walks like a pestilence at times. You owe it to yourself that your property is kept in condition, wholly unattractive to fire damage, or its master, the fire fiend. But in greater degree, you owe protection to your neighbor through protection of your self. Fires are easy to prevent. Seventy-five per cent of them have no cause to occur. A little foresight, constant care and steady vigilance will reduce both your fire insurance rates and liability of fire loss. These three are better than all extinguishers ever invented or fire fighting companies ever formed.—State Fire Marshal.

EXHIBITS FOR THE FAIR

Mr. O. H. Robbins, farm demonstrator, is arranging for a display by the Corn Club boys of their products on next Saturday. The exhibits will be made in the court house and if there is a sufficient amount brought in at that time it is the intention of Mr. Robbins to have the same exhibit made at the Dallas fair. The corn club grows corn, cotton, maize, kaffir, etc., and the Eagle feels sure a fine display can be made of the products of the county by the club. All exhibits must be forwarded not later than next Saturday, in order that they may be given a place in the exhibition hall at the fair and Mr. Robbins is hopeful that the corn club will be able to make one of the best displays to be seen at the fair.

HOME MISSION SOCIETY

The Home Mission Society will meet at the Methodist church Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock in regular business meeting. All members please come on time, so that business may be taken up and acted on promptly. Business of importance to be transacted so each member is urged to be present. REPORTER.

E. M. Boon came in from Brownwood the first of the week looking after business matters.

The Embroidery Club will meet with Mrs. J. M. Arnold Wednesday afternoon Oct. 7th at 3 o'clock. All members urged to be present.

Strayed—A dark bay horse, smooth mouth, star in face, about 15 1/2 hands high, may be branded, but not sure as to brand. Will pay a reasonable reward for his return or information leading to his recovery.—Little & Sons.

A. F. Shaw, who spent several weeks here with relatives and friends, left Wednesday night for Lebam, Wash. He expected to stop on the way for a visit with relatives in Oklahoma.

Miss Vashti Power has been in Lometa this week, visiting relatives.

T. J. Laughlin of Antelope Gap was one of the good farmers in town this week and renewed for the Eagle.

Arthur Smith, left for Georgetown the first of the week, to resume his studies in the Southwestern University.

J. W. Hill was here from South Bennett Wednesday driving a new Metz car, which his son Willis recently purchased and it is a beauty.

J. R. Lee, one of the good and prosperous men of the Star country, had business in the big town Tuesday and dropped a dollar in the old Bird's claw.

W. D. Rudd has had his residence moved to the north side of the lot, and is having some improvements made on it which add to its appearance greatly.

Judge John D. Robinson passed through the city Monday in his automobile route home to Belton from a trip to Midland, where he had been to accompany his family for a visit to relatives. He stated he would endeavor to come to Goldthwaite today to be ready for the opening of district court Monday. Judge Robinson is very popular with the people of this county and, in fact, of the entire district and we are all glad when the time comes for him to come to Goldthwaite.

The idea that crops must be marketed as soon as they are gathered is erroneous. Merchants sell their goods when there is a demand for them at profitable prices. Banks lend when there are calls; manufacturers sell when prices justify, hold when prices are low. We are not forced to sell our cotton and we will be foolish when we offer it when prices are ruinous. Let us sell the products that are saleable at good prices and hold the cotton till offered a fair price for it.—Farm and Ranch.

REPORT OF LADIES' AID

Monday was working day for the Ladies' Aid. Each of the four circles met at their appointed places and quilted two quilts, making eight quilts in all. Some of these were Orphan Home quilts, while others were for ladies in town who wished to hire their quilting done.

Let me say right here that the Ladies' Aid meets in their working circles every other Monday and so, with the patronage of the public for all kinds of work, such as quilting, plain sewing, crocheting or other fancy work, baking or any thing that a woman can do, for we have women skilled in all the domestic arts and sciences.

Circle No. 2 gave us a splendid program last Monday was a week ago. There was no reading of papers but lively interesting talks on prominent women of the Bible, much to the delight of those who listened. We are expecting one equally as good by circle No. 3, next Monday for no circle intends to be surpassed by another. — REPORTER.

MR. RATEKIN DEAD

Mr. J. L. Ratekin died at his home in Big Valley community Sunday morning at an early hour, after a long illness, although he had only been confined to his bed a few weeks. His remains were laid to rest in the Big Valley cemetery Sunday afternoon and the sad service was attended by a large number of friends and neighbors of the good man and his family.

Mr. Ratekin was a citizen of this county for about twenty years, having moved here from Missouri. He was a nephew of "Uncle Jimmie" Ewing, formerly of this county and now of Corpus Christi, and the fact that his uncle lived here attracted him to this section from his native state. He was a good citizen and an upright, honorable man who had the confidence and good will of all who knew him. He was a member of the Christian church and lived and died strong in the Christian faith. He leaves a wife and two sons, besides many friends, to mourn his death and to all of them the Eagle extends sincere sympathy.

HOW TO HANDLE THE COTTON CROP THIS FALL

Is a puzzling question just now. It is not our purpose to attempt to suggest ways and means to dispose of it, as the subject in its entirety is far beyond our comprehension. But if in your judgment you should decide it best to hold your cotton off the market a while, you will doubtless want it insured; and in this particular phase of the matter we feel that we are qualified to advise and serve you. Following are a few reasons why we think you should patronize this agency:

The insurance business is not a side line with us—our entire time is given to the study and handling of insurance. We endeavor to keep thoroughly abreast of the times in insurance matters, viz: State laws governing same, rates, policy forms, etc.

Our long experience in the business is another important reason. An inexperienced agent, though perfectly honest, may be the cause of trouble in the adjustment of a loss. From a standpoint of service we are now the oldest agents in Goldthwaite actively engaged in the insurance business.

We represent none but old line companies, all duly authorized to transact business in Texas. We represent 22 such companies, the combined assets of which are more than $178,000,000.00. We can, therefore, easily insure every bale of cotton in Mills county.

All rates of stock companies are the same, but by exercising a little good judgment at the beginning you may be able to save some money. Let us explain to you how this may be done.

While we are directing your special attention to cotton insurance, we wish to remind you that we write all kinds of insurance.

R. M. THOMPSON, Editor

King Alfonso of Spain is making an effort to have the other nations of Europe as well as the United States join in bringing about peace between the belligerent nation.

President Wilson has requested that prayers for peace in Europe be offered by the individuals and by all congregations assembling for worship Sunday, Oct. 4. He was the first to attempt to bring an end to hostilities in the European countries and while his efforts have not succeeded he continues to strive to bring an end to the terrible struggle that has been in progress for more than two months.

The residence of C. H. Dencini in Fort Worth was destroyed by fire Sunday night and $20,000 worth of jewelry was in the list of losses. The family was away from home and the fire was discovered by neighbors. It is supposed the house was robbed and then set on fire by the burglars.

The estate of Richard Sears, founder of the Sears-Roebuck Co., is valued at $25,000,000. He commenced his career as a telegraph operator. He owned several commercial enterprises and was the possessor of a dozen watches, which he sold at a profit. He retired from business some years ago and died Sunday at his summer home in Wisconsin.

Practical education is the demand of the age. In business pursuits and in the trades special education must be given the beginner. The best form is general practical work under the supervision of trained business men or tradesmen. The natural life work of the American girl is to make a home. A crying need for practical education in the culinary and all domestic sciences is felt. How much of this training should be given by the parents in the home is the problem. Our public school system must necessarily be very broad and general in its courses of study, and the conservation of time and room is essential.—Plainview Herald.

If the speculators and spinners can get enough seven cent cotton they will tell the farmers of this part of the country how much cotton will sell for during the next eighteen months. All the speculators want is enough to dictate the price to the rest. That is the real reason why people who are not speculators must buy this distress cotton that is going on the market because the growers are in need of funds immediately. The proposition is not to buy the entire surplus. Most of it can be held by the farmers by the help of the banks. The plan is to take up the dangerous portion which might wreck the market when the time comes; for it to return to normal.—Austin Statesman.

President Wilson's proclamation calling for a national day of prayer on October 4 for the cessation of war in Europe probably is without precedent in this or any other country. But, if so, it is the most beautiful precedent that has ever been set in any nation. There are prayers for peace in our prayerbooks, and days of prayer for the speedy termination of wars have been often fixed by official proclamation in countries engaged in them; but for a neutral nation of more than 90,000,000 of people to get down on its knees and pray for peace in other countries will be one of the most impressive as well as one of the most unusual spectacles ever presented on earth. We believe everybody in the United States will offer up a prayer on that day in the earnest spirit of altruism, which the President's message suggests, and if anything can make a path for peace "where men can see none" we believe our supplication from the heart of a great country can open the door of divine compassion.—The Baltimore Sun.

MULLIN

Editor, Eagle:

When a man who has led an active life is called down by affliction until the little chores performed in the early morning make him pant and puff to maintain his existence and he flops down on the front gallery to look out on the beauties of nature, he takes on an all over h feeling, grabs his pencil and tablet and wants to say something. I am he of whom I speak, so here goes and if some one gets hit just blame Bro. Bob, for he has made a fool of me by insisting that what I say is possible and he is glad to publish my random articles. Now if Bro. Bob, and I are satisfied what difference should it make if others object, just so we don't find it out? I am sure Uncle John, Joan of Arc and the other correspondents will not wage war on us for there is war enough at this time to cause nations to weep and the bravest to shudder at the horrible scenes on the field of battle.

I didn't start out to write about wars and rumors of war, but about the beauties of nature created by God in six days and hung out as a great panorama for the pleasure comfort and happiness of man, and yet how many are unhappy and fail to see but little in the works of Nature, and just listlessly let things wag on? It is this wag on business that arrests my attention and causes me to want to write some of the thoughts that come to my mind. The real cloud's sky, the unusual stillness of the wind, the humming of the machinery of the gin, as well as the wagons coming and going with cotton, the lowing of the kine, the sweet cheery voice of my niece, the gentle step of my only sweet sister, as she skips from place to place to see if things are going right about the camp, and the hope of one day looking upon and enjoying grander scenes and reunions in the sweet bye and bye fill and thrill me with such inexpressible joy that I hardly know what to write; therefore if my article appears a conglomeration of mix ups just blame Bro. Bob, for publishing and not the writer for writing.

The old machine seems to be considerably out of repair and while the Doctor hammers away at what he thinks a weak place others develop that keep your scribe in the class of afflicted mankind. After years of activity no one only those who have tried it, knows how to sit down, fold their hands, submit to affliction's demands and tell the old world to wag on. As my afflictions are doubtless uninteresting to others I will turn away from these and point the gun in range for other game. As individuals, communities, churches and nations we have yielded to the wag-on proposition until it sometimes looks like we have waggged out where God and his claims upon us are ignored and we are trying to run this old world pre-emptive of Him and His commands.

God says to us "Leave your gift at the altar, and be reconciled to your brother." How many do that? How few of us who have not in an unguarded moment said and done things that hurt, that have never been righted? If not, and we are content to let things wag on how are we going to meet them at the judgment? Without forgiveness there is no remission of sins and God declares if we won't forgive neither will he forgive. But few people, (comparatively speaking) are willing to get down off their stilts, be manly and womanly enough to go to those they have wronged in word or deed humbly confess and beg forgiveness; but letting things wag on hoping they will finally right themselves. This letting it wag on practicing and it will right itself, is undermining true character, love, friendship and setting us adrift to wreck our crafts on the breakers of stubbornness, selfishness, grab and gain, with but little thought of responsibility to God and man. Selfishness and unrelenting stubbornness, not only stalks about in the darkness of earth, but under the brightening rays of a noon day sun they stand as invited sentinels to throttle all classes from the minister in the Sacred desk on down the line, claiming as their subject, the innocent child, the loveliest maids, the gray haired strag and mothers of the race; and we hardly hear a voice of warning as to the impending danger that is striking at the very heart of civilization, hanging like a midnight pall across our path and getting ready to burst in all its fury upon those thus possessed, while the "let it wag on" spirit is rocking millions of others in the same cradle to meet the same horrible fate. It is to God and not to man we must make our final report, no matter how things have waggged. To be right with God we must be right with man as far as man will let us. God recognizing man's bent to do wrong and his unwillingness to right his wrongs said "As much as lieth in you live peaceably with all men," leaving us to infer that some men would not let us live peaceably with them. A few of such we have known, and once or twice have seen the cage of their hearts door opened and the infuriated beasts of temper, hatred, cursings, lying, theft, and other damnable things holding possession, while the poor man was completely under their control and God declaring him to be full of rottenness.

We know some women who become the habitation of envy, prejudice, selfishness, pride, deceit, backbiting, pouting and other things which they pampered, nursed and let wag on until their whole being seemed under the control of so many demons. If letting things wag on to get them to right themselves is the proper way some are having a hard time letting them wag.

Now Bro. Bob, if you won't add a post script asking where the speech in this article the writer will promise to try to stick closer to his text next time and let the world wag on.

TREAT ME RIGHT.

Those who are indebted to me should pay me at least a part of what they owe, for I need the money and need it badly. Some who are indebted to me individually and to Dr. Townsen and myself jointly have sold oats and now have the money with which they should pay at least a part of the accounts. I have had sickness and other expense which makes it absolutely necessary that I secure some of the money due me right away. Don't overlook or forget this—I served you when you needed such service and now I am entitled to payment. Think right and act promptly.

Yours Truly,
J. D. CALAWAY, M. D.

I also will agree to hold the cotton for a reasonable time, or until the price reaches 10 cents.

I must urge all who are indebted to me to make settlement where it is possible, at an early date.

Yours truly

L. E. BOOKER,
Clerk, District Court, Mills County, Texas.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

There are many times when one man questions another's actions and motives. Men act differently under different circumstances. The question is, what would you do right now if you had a severe cold? Could you do better than to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended by people who have used it for years and know its value. Mrs. O. E. Sargent, Peru, Ind., says, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is worth its weight in gold and I take pleasure in recommending it." For sale by all dealers. (adv.)

Goldthwaite, Texas

TO THE PUBLIC:

On June 30, 1913, there were 15,283.57 miles of railroad in Texas. Very little has been added since that time. They have 69,259 employes at work every day in the year. These railroads have a capitalization (stocks and bonds) of $31,615 per mile. Their value for taxing purposes as found by the State Tax Board is $31,150 per mile. They are really worth more. The total cost of construction up to June 30, 1913, averaged $39,975 per mile as shown by Table No. 10, page 397, Annual Report Railroad Commission, 1913.

The capitalization of railroads in other countries and the United States as a whole, per mile of road, is as follows:

England	269,496	Spain	88,368
Belgium	189,023	Japan	84,301
France	143,435	Russia	83,496
Brazil	142,080	Holland	82,796
Italy	124,118	Servia	73,373
Austria	120,311	Hungary	69,984
Switzerland	117,953	United States	63,944
Germany	116,666	Texas	31,615

The capitalization of the railroads in the United States is less than in any of the above named countries, and in Texas it is a little less than half as much as the average for the United States.

The bonds of Texas roads amount to only $23,212 per mile. As a rule, no dividends are ever paid on railroad stocks in Texas, and therefore the amount of stocks is without influence, so far as the financial condition of the roads is concerned. The interest on the bonds, however, must be paid in order to keep the roads out of bankruptcy, and as such interest is supposed to be paid out of earnings, the public is interested in knowing that the bonds do not exceed the value of the roads—in other words, that they are not watered. We are glad to be able to state, positively, that there are no watered bonds on Texas railroads. And the same is true as to stocks, taking the roads of the state as a whole.

It costs an immense amount of money to operate the 15,283 miles of railroad in this state, and as you pay the same, in freight and passenger fares, you, of course, are vitally interested in knowing whether the roads are collecting enough, or more than is necessary.

The Annual Reports of the Railroad Commission of Texas show that for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, the railroads of Texas lacked $3,282,493.51 of collecting enough to pay their operating and necessary charges and expenses. For the year ending June 30, 1913, they lacked $1,601,378.31 of collecting enough, and while the figures for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1914, are not all available, enough is known to make certain that the railroads of this state will have a net deficit or loss of about Eight Million Dollars.

In arriving at these deficits or losses, no account is taken of permanent improvements and betterments. These, if considered, would add to the deficits, or shortages.

Thus it is plainly to be seen, and must be acknowledged by all fair-minded men, that the railroads of Texas are confronted by a serious and dangerous situation. Indeed, some of them have been unable to escape Federal Court receiverships, and none of them have the funds urgently needed, and which the interests of the public require.

Every railroad in Texas now in the hands of, and operated by, receivers, was valued, and the amount of the stocks and bonds thereof approved and limited by the Railroad Commission under the Texas Stock and Bond Law. Therefore, it is certain, over-capitalization is not the cause of their financial distress.

We think it is due to you, who pay the bills and need the service of the railroads, to show the above and actual condition of the properties devoted to your use.

We beg to assure you that we are doing our very best to give you good service.

We respectfully and earnestly ask, and desire, your help and assistance in keeping down and preventing all useless and unjust expenses and charges against the railroads. We do this for the reason that you pay the expenses, and suffer the loss of service necessarily resulting when the expenses and fixed charges exceed the income of the roads. You therefore have a direct interest in the matter.

We respectfully submit that it is but fair and just that the railroads be permitted to earn what the law says they are entitled to,—a fair return on the value of the property devoted to your use.

Nothing more is asked nor expected.

Respectfully,

General Managers Texas Railroads

IMMORTALITY

Many doubt immortality who accept just as marvelous a thing, birth, with out a single question. One is as much a miracle as the other, and omnipotence, just as easy. We doubt a life beyond the grave, and yet everything in nature points unmistakably to a life after this one. The flowers die and leafless trees wave their ghostly arms, solemn and shapeless. To all appearances they are dead. But when the spring returns again and the dull brown earth is warmed by the glow of the amorous sun, the roots and the seeds are quickened in the ground, that mysterious thing called life is awakened and the beautiful flowers are born again. The trees take on green foliage once more, and all the world is decked in pretty colors. The bees wake up, the birds begin to chirp and fly about, and tender grasses rear their timid heads in many sequestered nooks and cosy corners in prairie and in field. Life comes stealing forth from somewhere, the trees deserted while the wintry blasts came howling from the north once again are redolent with song and the fragrance of blossoms, white and blue and yellow furnish honey to the hungry winged things that sip the sweets that nestle in their perfumed hearts. The miracle of spring is re-enacted every year, and yet we travel on toward the end, refusing to believe that we behold. What is more wonderful than a little child, that lay beneath it, mother's heart until she loved it into life, and at last it nestled a tiny thing, all pink and dimpled upon her snowy breast a breathing soul? The fact that we are to live again is no greater marvel than the fact that we are living now.—Exchange.

How you admire that lady who seems to be all brightness and cheerfulness, and yet is as busy as the rest of us in household duties with everything to do. Listen, and we'll tell you the reason why she seems to have more time than the rest of us, she wastes no time in fretting; she has learned the true value of things. She never frets and she never scolds. It doesn't pay. Fretting and scolding leave ugly marks upon the face and upon the character. Is everything wrong the day upside down, the fire won't burn, the children out of sorts, a pucked up dinner, and company at the last moment. She does the best she can and lets the consequences take care of themselves. Worry will not help matters; and then she has a secret, a secret that she is willing to tell her friend. Every day at a certain hour she goes to her room and locking the door, has half an hour absolutely to herself. If she is very tired she wrings a towel out of water hot as she can bear and winds it about her neck, renewing it till the weary muscles relax and she can lie down and sleep for a few minutes, arise refreshed invigorated for the rest of the day. Try it, weary mother. Be good enough to your self and those who depend upon you to take time for rest and refreshment.—Exchange.

A world-wide coal famine is predicted this winter. The mines of Europe have been closed by the war which is raging over there, while the foreign coal miners have laid down the pick and shovel, to shoulder the rifle and the bayonet. The nations which are now at war with each other previously furnished 50 per cent of the annual coal supply of the world, and if the conflict continues serious results will be felt on this side of the water on account of the closing of foreign mines. There are many lessons to be learned from the present conflict, one of the most forcible of which is the need for development of our own mining industry. Here in Texas alone our available coal supply is estimated by the United States Geological Survey at 21,000,000,000 tons. The world's yearly coal requirement is a little more than a billion tons and our estimated supply would last the world for a quarter of a century on the present basis of consumption. We produce enough cotton to clothe the world, enough meat to supply the demand of both hemispheres, so why not furnish civilization with fuel and keep humanity from shivering with cold?—Commercial Secretaries.

Almost Impossible to Wear One Out

Its gears and bearings are made of high-grade phosphor bronze, steel and iron—the kind that lasts for years.

All the gears are of medium size. Even the pinion gears are fully two inches in diameter. Consequently they make less than half as many revolutions and are subject to about one-third the wear of the one inch pinion gears in other separators.

Its gears and bearings are entirely enclosed. Dirt, dust and grit cannot get at them to grind them out.

Enclosed parts are more thoroughly oiled. U. S. Separator gears and bearings run continuously in a spray of fresh oil, automatically supplied. (Note spray in picture.)

The bowl parts are of tough rustless Nickel Silver. They wear longer and the bowl does not get out of balance as with light tinned steel devices.

But This Does Not Bother Mrs. Burton, Under the Circumstances.

Houston, Texas.—In an interesting letter from this city, Mrs. S. C. Burton writes as follows: "I think it is my duty to tell you what your medicine, Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done for me.

I was down sick with womanly trouble, and my mother advised several different treatments, but they didn't seem to do me any good. I lingered along for three or four months, and for three weeks, I was in bed, so sick I couldn't bear for any one to walk across the floor.

My husband advised me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic. I have taken two bottles of Cardui, am feeling fine, gained 15 pounds and do all of my housework. Friends hardly know me, I am so well."

If you suffer from any of the ailments so common to women, don't allow the trouble to become chronic. Begin taking Cardui to-day. It is purely vegetable, its ingredients acting in a gentle, natural way on the weakened womanly constitution. You run no risk in trying Cardui. It has been helping weak women back to health and strength for more than 50 years. It will help you. At all dealers.

A LYCEUM COURSE FOR GOLD-THWAITE

I have often said publicly and privately, that Mills county is, in my estimation, the best county in the world; and that Mills county people are the best people I have ever known. But we all have room for improvement. One of the things that we need, deserve and ought to have, is a first class, high grade lyceum course every year. Goldthwaite could easily maintain such course.

The town has the reputation of being one of the best towns to patronize shows. While we have many high grade shows visit us, some that come are corrupting rather than refining in their influence on our people. When a line of high grade entertainments was offered to our town from which to select a course for the coming season, I was anxious to have such course selected and secured, as would entertain and help our people. When the man offering the course could not induce any others to agree to help guarantee the cost of the course, I decided to undertake it myself alone. I selected four numbers to be given one each of the months, November, December, January and March. They are as varied as I could select, the first a noted humorist that will keep these hearing him in an uproar of laughter from beginning to end of his appearance, the second a famed concert company of general persons, the third one of the most eminent lecturers on the platform today, on a subject that is of greatest interest to everybody. The fourth one of the most widely known, most successful, most awe-inspiring magicians in the world. The cheapest one of these entertainments will cost me $50 to the Bureau furnishing it, besides the local expense attached to it. It was not for it my purpose or hope to make any money from this undertaking.

I am sure that our citizenship will be helped by the coming of these entertainers; and that the sentiments and ideals of our children will be ennobled because of them. I shall appreciate the patronage of the friends of such enterprises to the end that I may not suffer any heavy financial loss because of them. To this end season tickets will be offered for sale very soon. I feel sure that most of our people will help to make this undertaking a permanent success by taking a season ticket which will admit the holder to all four of the entertainments for little more than the price of one of them would cost in the city.

I am especially anxious that our school children have the benefits coming from such presentations, and shall make to them a special price and as low as possible not to suffer too great a financial loss myself. Again assuring you that I shall appreciate every one who patronizes these entertainments as a friend of the highest interests our people have.

I am, very respectfully,
S. H. ALLEN.

SEED WHEAT

I have re-cleaned seed wheat to sell to farmers at $1 per bushel and will offer a premium at the next fair for wheat grown from this seed. If one person will take as much as 25 bushels for planting I will buy from him a bale of cotton at 10 cents per pound and pay difference in money. Wheat can be planted to advantage in drills across the cotton rows, using 45 pounds to the acre.

UNION RESOLUTIONS

The following resolutions were adopted by the Mills County Farmers Union in session at Cryer Thursday:

Resolution No. 1: We the members of the Mills County Union Assembled at Cryer Local, Oct. 1, 1914, wish to earnestly protest against the action of the present School Board of Mills county, in appropriating the sum of Ten Dollars for each scholastic pupil transferred from the rural schools to the high school at Goldthwaite. We believe that it is very unjust to the highly taxed Rural Schools to appropriate their special tax money to the upbuilding of the High School.

Resolution No. 2: We favor the State Bank as advocated by Gov. Colquitt in his second call for a special session of the legislature.

Whereas, the impression has gone out that the Farmers Union of Mills county Texas has advised their membership to defer their just obligations, and, whereas, we believe the membership of the Union in Mills county to be composed of honorable men who will meet all just obligations.

Therefore, be it resolved, that we most emphatically deny such report and brand the same as untrue and unjust to the membership.

J. D. RYAN.

WM. BIDDLE.

W. M. FEATHERSTON
Resolution Committee.

A STRANGE CASE

Sheriff Priddy was notified yesterday morning of a strangely acting man on the roadside a few miles beyond Priddy, on the Comanche road. The man was in a hack and had two ponies. He had been at the same place for a couple of days or more, without food or water and was in need of medical attention. Sheriff Priddy and Judge Allen went to the place designated and found the man in a pitiable condition and brought him to town and placed him in jail to await developments. The man gives his name as D. Wofford and tells conflicting stories as to his home or the place of residence of his relative. He first said he lived in Comanche and later claimed Goldthwaite as his home. He is either demented or under the influence of some drug. He claims that a man and woman had been traveling with him up to Thursday, when they left him, but this may be imagination. He is apparently 25 or 30 years of age and seems to have some affliction in the lower limbs that prevents his walking erect.

COTTON RECEIPTS

The receipts of cotton at the yards here have been heavy this week, but the price has been distressingly low, ranging from 6 1/2 to less than 8 cents most of the time.

The receipts at the Farmers Union yard up to yesterday afternoon were 1370, against 1950 for the same date last year. The receipts at the public yard up to the same time were 2085, against 1597 on the same date last year.

W. H. Leverett and wife were here from Caradan yesterday and he made the Eagle a pleasant call. He informed us that one of his mules attached to a buggy ran away with the vehicle yesterday morning, breaking the buggy badly.

Statement of the Ownership, Management, etc. of the GOLDTHWAITE EAGLE, published weekly at Goldthwaite, Texas, for Oct. 1, 1914, required by the act of August 24, 1912.

Name of editor, managing editor, business manager, publisher and owner: R. M. Thompson, Goldthwaite, Tex. Known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages or other securities: None.

(Signed) R. M. THOMPSON.
Sworn to and subscribed before me this Sept. 21, 1914.

(Seal) J. C. DARROCH,
Notary Public, Mills County, Texas.
My commission expires June 1, 1915.

Messrs. Hughes and Newton were here yesterday from McGirk for a coffin for Mr. John Ward's 3-year-old child, who died yesterday morning. The Eagle extends sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mrs. Wm. Oquin was expected home last night from Procter, Comanche county, where she was called two weeks ago on account of the serious illness of her father, whose death occurred the first of this week. Her friends here extend sympathy to her in her bereavement.

The statement of the General Managers of Texas Railroad's which appears in this paper is worthy of careful consideration by thinking people. It is unjust to the railroads to take for granted that they are oppressing the public, and a better understanding of the situation will lead to a better feeling between the public and the railroads. The policy of the General Managers in taking the matter direct to the people in this way is certainly commendable and will have good results.

It is now stated on what is credited as good authority that the differences between Carranza and Villa will be settled and another war in Mexico averted. Those who claim to know announce that Carranza will turn the government over to one who will be acceptable to all parties within the next few days. If he will surrender the presidency he will then be legally qualified to become a candidate for the position at the election to be ordered in the future. An armistice has been arranged between the contending factions and negotiations are now in progress.

Brownwood will likely have the best livestock show in the State outside of the Ft. Worth Fat Stock Show. The Brown county Boys and Girls Baby Beef and Pig Club will have on exhibit scores of Baby Beeves and Pigs which have been fattened and pampered for months.

If you are buying land require the seller to furnish you an abstract of his title, so you may know you are getting a good title. If you contemplate selling your land, have an abstract thereto prepared first, so you will know what kind of title you can make to it, as the purchaser is almost sure to want to know. I have the only complete set of abstracts of the land titles of Mills county and will make your abstracts for a reasonable charge and will help you cure your titles if defective.—E. B. Anderson.

AFTER PASSING YEARS

Goldthwaite Testimony Remains Unshaken

Time is the best test of truth. Here is a Goldthwaite story that has stood the test of time. It is a story with a point which will come straight home to many of us.

J. W. McAlexander, Goldthwaite says: "I couldn't work or ride horseback, owing to intense pains in the small of my back. When I stooped, it seemed as if a thousand knives were going through me. I often had trouble in passing the kidney secretions. I used two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Clements' Drug Store, and am now all right. Whenever I hear anyone complaining of a bad back, I advise a trial of Doan's Kidney Pills. I think it is my duty to confirm the endorsement I give Doan's Kidney Pills some year ago. Since then I have not had an attack of kidney complaint."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. McAlexander had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (Advertisement)

TONED UP WHOLE SYSTEM

"Chamberlain's Tablets have done more for me than I ever dared hope for," writes Mrs. Esther Mae Baker, Spencerport, N. Y. "I used several bottles of these tablets a few months ago. They not only cured me of bilious attacks, sick headaches and that tired out feeling, but toned up my whole system." For sale by all dealers. (adv.)

NOTICE

To Those Owning Me:

If you wish to pay up, you can sell me your cotton at 11 cents per pound (lint cotton) at 3 2-3 cents per pound in the seed. Then to those I am owing: You can have the same cotton at 10 cents per pound (lint cotton) or 3 1-3 cents per pound in the seed, or if you haven't any cotton to sell me, I will take any thing in payment of your account that I can pass on the ones I am owing at a sacrifice. I want to settle my debts; do you? W. D. ALDREDGE, M. D. Ridge, Texas.

HOPELESS LUNG TROUBLE CURED

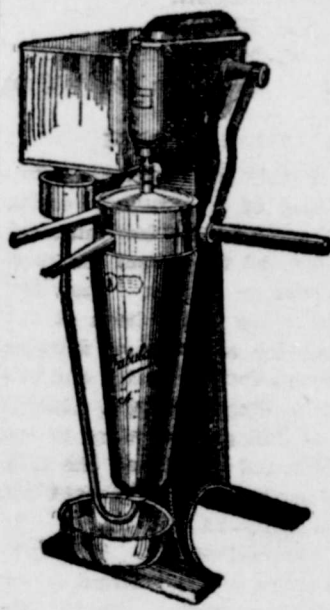

Many recoveries from Lung Troubles are due, to Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. It strengthens the Lungs, checks the Cough and gives relief at once.—Mr. W. S. Wilkins, Gates, N. C. writes: "I used Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey in a case given up as hopeless and it effected a complete cure." Get a bottle of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. If your cough is dry and backing let it tickle down the throat, you will surely get relief. Only 25c. at your Druggist. (adv.)

WHY NOT PUBLISH IT?

When you want a fact to become generally known, the right way is to publish it. Mrs. Joseph Kallans, Peru, Ind., was troubled with belching, sour stomach and frequent headaches. She writes, "I feel it my duty to tell others what Chamberlain's Tablets have done for me. They have helped my digestion and regulated my bowels. Since using them I have been entirely well." For sale by all dealers (adv.)
