FROM WASHINGTON.

Wm. F. Salter and Wm. H. Ward have been arrested in Washington at the instance of the Secretary of the Treasury, and committed to jail upon the charge of being engaged in a conspiracy to steal bonds and plates from the Bureau of Engraving and Printing and attempting to bribe the employes of that Bureau to assist them therein. It is stated that the theft of the bonds and plates was for the purpose of using them as evidence in the case of the late Congressman, Chief of the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, conducted his office, and as a means of procuring his removal. Salter represented to the employes he attempted to bribe that he acted in the interest of Benjamin L. Berry, of Pennsylvania, who wanted Col. Irish's place, when Salter would be his Chief Assistant, and he would reward with promotions the men who brought about the removal of Irish. Ward was a discharged employe of the Department. Additional Treasury certificates, amounting to $40,685,000 were sent to New York for the signature of the Assistant Treasurer, making a total sent of $125,000,000. THE EAST.

General Butler has formally accepted both the Democratic and Greenback nominations for Governor of Massachusetts. In a letter to the Democratic committee the General expresses himself in favor of civil service reform; declares against the taxation of the necessities of life, and says the highest duties should be taxed upon luxuries. The letter to the Greenback committee says: "I can congratulate you that hereafter you may lay aside the word 'Greenback' as the designation of your party, unless you keep it in remembrance of the fact that you took it upon you when conferred by your enemies as a title of reproach in behalf of the Greenback or legal-tender note. Your labors are done, and the mission of your party is as completely fulfilled as is the mission of the Republican party, which was the abolition of slavery. The 'Greenback' is now the money of the United States, and is the equal of gold and silver." The committee is referred to an expression of views in the Democratic letter, and the rest of the communication is given to a statement of his devotion to the interests of the laboring people.

THE WEST.

A crazy Frenchman created a stampede on Fourteenth street, New York, one afternoon lately by flashing through the street when it was crowded, and with a pair of sharp-pointed carpenter's compasses commenced stabbing women right and left. His victims were Mrs. Stolzenback, Miss Louisa Checker, Miss M. L. King, Miss Pauline Fieder, Mrs. Thomas Worth and Mrs. Mary Hanley. The latter will probably die. The lunatic was finally arrested by officer Hanley, the husband of one of his victims.

Redmond, for the purpose of lynching him. Officers fired on the mob and killed one man, but the others got off with the murderer. His watch and part of his chain and his pocketbook were taken. He was treasurer of the Coal Exchange of Cincinnati, and attended the annual meeting of the night of the murder. The corporation of Glendale and villages of Hartwell and Wyoming offer a reward of $5,400 for the capture of the murderer, which sum will probably be increased by citizens of Cincinnati.

Knoearschke, a terrible explosion took place by which three firemen named Stolz, Brand and Thiessen were terribly burned, Stolz fatally. The loss to the establishment was $50,000. The explosion was caused by carelessness in handling a broken lantern near the oil tanks.

The County Commissioners of Hamilton County, Ohio, have offered $2,000 reward for the capture of the murderer of A. W. Ross, the Cincinnati coal merchant. The total rewards now foot up $7,400. Three of the mob that broke into the Evansville, Indiana, jail and took out Redman, the wife murderer, were arrested. In the fight that took place the murderer was brained with a sledge-hammer and his body riddled with bullets. The members of the lynching party killed was a brother-in-law of the murdered woman.

Franklin L. Chase, Chairman of the Cook County, Ill., Democratic Committee, is reported to be a defaulter for a sum estimated at from $50,000 to $75,000. Drink, women and speculation caused his downfall. He was a lawyer, and the money had been confided to him by his clients who trusted him without security. Mrs. Norton, widow of Chase's protector, Judge Norton, loses $20,000, and through her the story has come to light.

Officers from California recently passed through Kansas City with Charles Dorsey and J. M. Patterson, who are charged with murder in Nevada City, Cal., some three years since. Dorsey was arrested at St. Louis, where he was engaged in the grain business under the name of Fernel, and Patterson at Union City, Ind., under the alias of Collins, at which place he was a bank director. The prisoners are both reported to be in good financial circumstances and traveled in style, barring their handcuffs. A large reward had been offered for their arrest.

Rev. J. L. Denton, State Superintendent of Public Instruction of Arkansas, jumped from the balcony of Judge Gregg's residence in Fayetteville lately and was killed. Patrick Ford, declares in the Irish World that the Land League has ceased to exist. This, in connection with the closing of the Land League fund, has created quite a sensation in Land League circles, many persons demanding an explanation as to how the money has been spent.

Preliminary inquiries thus far all tend to support Arabi Pasha's assertion that the outrages perpetrated during the rebellion were committed against his will. The Egyptian authorities are guilty of permitting disgraceful indignities to the imprisoned chiefs. Recently one of the chief officers of the Palace entered the cell of Abdul Gaffer, a political prisoner, roused him from sleep, spat in his face and inflicted other indignities on him. The eunuch proceeded to Arabi Pasha's cell and acted in a similar manner, but with great violence. Several officers of the Palace are accused of complicity in these acts.

Montreal was recently shaken up by an earthquake.

The treaty between Turkey and Greece is regarded as terminated.

The late cyclone in Cuba did a great amount of damage. The tobacco crop suffered greatly. Two coast steamers were lost on the South side of the island, but the passengers were saved.

THE LATEST.

The evidence given before the Coroner's Jury at St. Louis, as to the killing of Col. Slayback by Col. Cokerill, was extremely contradictory. Mr. Clayton, who accompanied Col. Slayback to the Post-Dispatch office and participated in the melee, swore that the latter was unarmed, and that the shooting was deliberate. On the other hand, John M. McGuffin, business manager, and Victor T. Cole, foreman of the office, who were present and witnessed the whole affair, both swore positively that Slayback drew a revolver as soon as he entered the room and advanced towards Cokerill, pointing the latter at him. McGuffin further testified that he wrested Slayback's revolver from him in the scuffle that ensued, and produced an ivory handled six-shooter in Court, which he swore was the weapon with which Slayback was armed.

Cokerill's revolver was lying on his desk when Slayback entered, and he had but to reach out his hand and grasp it, which all agree that he did. Col. Slayback leaves a wife and several children. He was born in Marion County, Missouri, in 1838, served in the Confederate army during the war, and has since practiced law in St. Louis, where he attained a high standing at the bar, both on account of his legal acquirements and his natural gifts of oratory. His brother, Chas. E. Slayback, is President of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange. Col. Slayback was the law partner of Col. James O. Broadhead, and the animosity of the Post-Dispatch grew out of the latter's nomination to Congress in the Ninth District, that paper having espoused the cause of John M. Glover.

At Syracuse, N. Y., an express train struck a carriage containing Jno. R. Millonee, aged 27; his wife, aged 34; and Mrs. H. C. Comstock and Mrs. Minnie Burgess, two elderly ladies visiting from Marathon, N. Y. The three women were killed and the man seriously injured.

General Grant, who has been visiting in Philadelphia, says he is taking no interest whatever in the present campaign; that his presence in the State has no bearing whatever on the canvass, and that he is entirely out of politics.

October returns of the yield per acre of wheat, estimated from the results of threshing, foreshadow a product slightly exceeding 250,000,000 bushels, and possibly reaching 250,000,000. The average yield per acre appears to be nearly 14 bushels, on an acreage of slightly less than 37,000,000 acres.

KANSAS STATE NEWS.

The East wing of the State Capital building has already cost the State $450,000, and the interest paid and to be paid on the bonds issued for its construction, it is asserted, will bring the total cost of the East wing up to $610,138. The new West wing when completed will cost $395,000; it is built by direct tax. The West wing is the most modern and handsome in its appearance, more convenient in its arrangements, and is in every way a better building, and completed at one-third the cost of the East wing.

Hannah R. Carter brought suit for $15,000 damages against T. M. Lane, a wealthy citizen of Wichita, and owner of the Douglas Avenue Hotel, charging him with having, during the years 1878 and 1879, held improper relations with her against her will and by force, while plaintiff was a domestic in Lane's family. The jury gave her $6,000. The girl is said to be a perfect wreck.

Hon. Samuel W. Greer, the first Territorial Superintendent of Public Instruction, died recently in Cowley County. To him the State is largely indebted for the excellence of its Common Schools; for the plans he laid down and the laws he drafted, and which were incorporated in the early statutes, formed the basis of the system which has since been built up.

The stock of merchandise of A. D. McMillan & Co., wholesale dealers of Topeka, has been attached by creditors. Liabilities $30,000. Assets nominal.

A couple giving their names as Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, recently stopped at a boarding house in Atchison. Smith soon commenced to lay in his winter clothing by robbing the other boarders, but was caught. His parents reside at Des Moines, Iowa, and his father is a leading doctor of that city, where it is said he also has a wife and two children. It is hardly necessary to state that the name of Smith was assumed.

Joseph Brown, a marble cutter, met a terrible death at Sedgwick City, while attempting to steal a free ride on a freight train. In trying to climb up he fell between the cars, four of which passed over his body, crushing his arms and legs and tearing off his scalp.

A wild-looking man, covered with mud, hairless, and clothes in general badly demoralized, recently appeared upon the streets of Wyandotte armed with a base ball bat. He demolished a street lamp and other things and challenged the whole town to a match game. His first inning was successful, as he made a home run to the county jail. He was crazy.

T. M. Lane, defendant in the case of Carter vs. Lane, just tried in the District Court at Wichita, was recently arrested for perjury on complaint of Hannah Carter.

The following charters were filed with the Secretary of State lately: Ottawa Bank of Trade, Ottawa, Franklin County; Reno Immigration Company, capital stock, $2,000; Jefferson County Mutual Aid Association, at Oskaloosa; Citizens' Bank of Sebatia, Nemaha County, capital stock, $50,000.

In May last, a man and woman took rooms in a fashionable boarding house in Atchison, and were known as Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Warren of Lincoln, Neb. Nothing definite was heard of the man, but he gave his business as claim adjuster of the Burlington and Missouri and Kansas City, Fort Scott and Gulf railroads, with headquarters at Omaha. Both dressed well, the woman extravagantly. It now transpires that they were frauds. The woman is a widow, Mrs. R. H. Mellean of Council Bluffs, Ia., who was rescued from suicide at the death of her spouse by Warren, and lived with him as his wife, he waiting for a divorce from his wife, a woman now left destitute with four children in Wichita. Warren swindled a man at Omaha of $18,400, and being engaged in another little "irregularities" of a similar nature. They have skipped for Oregon.

Articles of consolidation of the following railroads were filed lately: Kansas City, Emporia & Southern, and the Elk & Chautauque, forming the Kansas City, Emporia & Southern Railway Company, capital stock, $3,450,000; the Wichita & Southwestern, the Cowley, Sumner & Fort Smith, and the Harvey County Railway Company, forming the Wichita & Southwestern Railway, capital stock, $3,125,000; the Marion & Nicholson and Marion & Thompson Extension, forming the Marion & Nicholson Railway Company, capital stock, $1,320,000.

Burglars are driving a flourishing business in the Northern part of the State. Recently the safe of Brown & Jordan, at Willis, was blown open and $500 in cash, with notes and bonds, secured. Capt. Robert White's house, near Eden, was entered and $80 secured. A farmer named William Normile, living near Huron, was robbed of $100. At Everest the principal hotel was plundered of nine watches, clothing and considerable quantity of cash abstracted. One watch was taken from the neck of a sleeping lady guest.

Burdette, Leavenworth; G. T., L. Mayo, Leavenworth. J. M. Price, of Atchison, was re-elected Grand Representative to the Grand Lodge. A resolution doing away with the practice of charging members a fee for drawing a letter from one lodge and depositing it in another, was passed.

Shawnee County is entitled to the premium for having the most absent minded citizen. Recently he drove to Topeka, hitched his team, and left to attend to some business, designing soon to return and take care of the same, but forgetting all about the act, he walked home, permitting his team to remain in that position until early the next morning when they were found and recognized by an acquaintance. And this, too, in a community that boasts of having suppressed saloons.

The first train over the Leavenworth, Topeka & Southwestern Railroad consisted of engine No. 17, and passenger coach No. 1. The coach is a very good one, though not equal in beauty to the Santa Fe cars. The engine is light, not being much larger than "Little Buttercup," and is not remarkable for beauty or apparently for strength.

Legislative candidates are plentiful.

ABOARD THE TALLAPOOSA.

I sail the salty seas,
And go where'er I please,
Borne onward at my ease,
By Robberson's post cruiser.
In State affairs I mix,
And delegations fix,
And shape our politics
Aboard the Tallapoosa.

Let Arthur go his ways,
Enjoying nights and days,
If he believes it pays—
I know he is a loser—
While I count up my gain,
Fire a salute to Maine,
And start a boom for Blaine,
Aboard the Tallapoosa.

I fear no day
To lose my place and pay,
Though guilty as they say,
Of what they call non-user.
The President has gone
Direct to Washington,
But work can yet be done
Aboard the Tallapoosa.

'Tis little that I care
For Arthur's country air
And lovely head of hair,
Or all the Stewart crew, sir;
For one who still aspires,
A hand that never tires
Will only work the wires
Aboard the Tallapoosa.

True to my former fame,
I boldly will proclaim
My entrance in the game,
As Brother Blaine's chief trustee,
To show my mighty might,
No matter whom I spite,
And have begun the fight
Aboard the Tallapoosa.

An Imposition Upon the People.

The American people have never been so much imposed upon as by the last Congress of the United States. The work of gross extravagance cannot be denied by the strongest defenders of those who participated in this deplorable business. The steals are familiar to our readers and it is unnecessary to refer to them here. But, however, the great fact remains that these are the appropriations made by a Republican Congress, in which the party has complete control, in behalf of expenditures by a Republican Administration. The party, therefore, must stand the whole brunt of the blame for such extravagance, and if the American people consent to retain it in power on any pretext or for any reason, they will themselves have sanctioned the continuance of the intolerable burden under which they are groaning, and which, if it is not relieved, will assuredly precipitate another financial crisis, limit any bringing them to their senses and force upon them the most ignorant fact that whoever benefits by such extravagance, it is the people as a whole, without regard to party, who are compelled to bear the burden and suffer the loss. Possibly one man in ten gets back more than he contributes to this enormous sum, and it is very certain that about one in a hundred gets back vastly more than he contributes, and profits by the countenance of the burden.

But on nine-tenths of the people the weight of the taxation rests without any compensating advantage, and there must be a sublime trust in human folly on the part of the men who now seek the masses to sustain them in such prodigal extravagance.

It has been shown to the people time and again that this wanton waste of the public funds is chargeable directly to the Republican party. The Administration at Washington, who seems to be conducting the Republican campaign in Georgia, understands this, and they are exercising a great deal of discretion in an attempt to Republicanize the State. The Administration is aware that a straight-out Republican would stand no chance whatever in the old Empire State, hence they must seek to carry out their schemes in a disguise. We say it to the shame of those who lend themselves for such base purposes, that willing tools are found in the Independent candidates.

They are not new enemies to Democracy, but they come in the guise of Democrats. There is no such thing in politics as an independent Democrat. We fully agree with our contemporary, the Marquette Journal, when it says for a man to claim that he is an independent Democrat, is absurd. He may just as well say that he is an independent Methodist, or an independent Baptist, or an independent Presbyterian, or he might go further and say that he is an independent Mason.

The very fact that he claims to be an independent Democrat, and that he is not, and hereby have estranged him from his brethren. A man cannot serve God and Mammon—he cannot ride two horses at one time. Neither can a man be a Methodist and a Baptist at the same time. The moment he says he is an independent Baptist or an independent Methodist, then he attacks and seeks to overthrow his church. In politics there is no middle ground. There are only two recognized parties in this country—Democratic and Republican—no other will rule this Government. You must act in full fellowship with one or the other. Choose sides. The great battle is to be fought. Let every man have the courage and manhood to be a Democrat or a Republican openly and above board. Organization and unity wins the victory. Division means defeat.—Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer.

The Public Undeceived.

It shows a very small degree of intelligence on the part of those members of the Star-route jury who were bound to save Brady and Dorsey from the penitentiary, if they think their verdict will deceive the public. Their evident purpose is to put on a show of righteous dealing with the little thieves, under the delusion that they would be thought impartial in their belief in the innocence of the big ones. They were willing to sacrifice Rerdell and Miner for the benefit of Brady and Dorsey. And Dorsey and Brady would be glad enough to have escaped on such terms. They are like some chiefs of the Italian brigands who have surrendered themselves to the Government on condition of the betrayal and execution of their followers. Under the clear and distinct charge of Judge W. V. Hoar, it was impossible for an honest and intelligent juror to find the subordinates guilty and the principals innocent. Under this decision the case was just the reverse of the way in which Rogersoll, Henkle and the other counsel wanted to have it stated. They wished the judge to rule that all or none of the defendants must be convicted. But under his charge it was impossible to convict Miner and Rerdell without convicting Brady and Dorsey guilty also.

The verdict of the public will not be affected by that of the jury. Nobody believes, nor in the face of the evidence can they believe, these Star-route men will give them little concern. They long since abandoned all hope of convincing the public, or of much caring to convince the public, of their innocence. They have been fighting desperately to keep out of the penitentiary, and although they are not entirely out of danger, yet they have got a reprieve. They still breathe the fresh air outside, and walk about the streets enjoying life, and the luxuries of life, which their plunder enables them to command. They probably still have enough left to make another fight; to fee desperate criminal lawyers; to buy the eloquence of great moral reformers and purchase a juror or two. Or, if they no longer care to risk another trial, they can go abroad and enjoy in foreign capitals the proceeds of their burglaries.

On the whole, even the outcome of the present trial may be set down as a triumph for the thieves, and a defeat of justice. —Detroit Free Press.

The New York Democratic Platform.

The Democracy of New York, in Convention assembled, declare:

1. That whereas the country is again subjected by Republican maladministration to the evils and abuses which afflicted it in 1871, we reaffirm the principles of our platform of 1871, and we demand that the Government be driven from power and the Government of the State brought back for a time to the practice of economy and honesty.

2. We arraign the Republican majority in Congress for its culpable failure to reduce the amount of taxation to the level of the legitimate requirements of Government under an honest and frugal Administration, and we favor such amendments to the Constitution as shall relieve an overtaxed people from all unnecessary burdens and prevent the accumulation of a fund to be lavishly expended in legislation and in support of a horde of useless and idle placemen. In particular, we proclaim our condemnation of the River and Harbor bill, in which, by the multiplication and mutual support of obnoxious provisions, an amendment to the Constitution for the limitation of the Constitution and the depreciation of public morals.

3. In the nomination of the Secretary of the Treasury for Governor of New York, by which, in effect, a candidate for Chief Magistracy of the State was appointed by the President, we see a shocking and oppressive proof of the changing hands of power, and we urge by this flashing sentence, we protest against Federal intervention in State elections, and we repeat our demand for a reform and purification of the Civil Service. And we are further admonished by recent experience of Republican maladministration and the necessity of forbidding by penal enactment the levy of blackmail from dependent officials, and we demand that the State Administration responsible for the unredressed outrages on our foreign-born fellow-citizens and we demand for them, without delay, a reformation to which they are entitled in return for their voluntary allegiance, and which the most liberal and humane Government requires shall be extended to them.

4. We hold the present Republican Administration responsible for the unredressed outrages on our foreign-born fellow-citizens and we demand for them, without delay, a reformation to which they are entitled in return for their voluntary allegiance, and which the most liberal and humane Government requires shall be extended to them.

5. We charge that in this State the Republican party has lowered the level of the public service by its local administration and by the representatives it has sent to the two houses of Congress; that it has invited the Legislature the instrument of a lobby to rob the public and enrich corporations, and has allowed the Governor to exercise the power of pardon in a manner which has done him by custom because he dared to use his veto power to thwart such purposes, in disregard of the rights of the people to control him by the influence of the political and non-voted power.

6. We demand the restoration of the New York State National Guard to the efficiency of which it has been deprived and which made it the representative of the sturdy spirit of the people.

7. In order to restore our merchant marine to its former prosperity, we demand immediate revision and amendment of the laws relating to shipping and the carriage of ocean freight.

8. We favor the adoption by the next Legislature of the resolution of 1882 providing for an amendment to the Constitution for the local self-government of cities.

9. Primary elections, openly and honestly conducted, afford the surest means for selecting the most suitable candidates for public office, thus best preserving a Democratic form of government. We therefore favor the speedy passage of general laws providing against fraud and intimidation at such elections.

10. The public welfare demands that various questions relating to chartered monopolies and methods of transportation should be met and decided, and we are in favor of the adoption of measures to restrict the growing power of such monopolies. They should be subjected to the strict supervision of the State, now provided by law. All unjust discriminations in the transportation of passengers and merchandise should be prohibited. The charges of corporations which have taken the property of private citizens for public use should be limited to the cost of the work, plus a reasonable profit, instead of the mercenary exaction of "all the traffic will bear." The laws should be so revised that such monopolies may be reduced so far as possible, and personal and corporate property made to severally pay their fair proportion of taxes.

11. We approve the submission to the vote of the people of a constitutional amendment in favor of free schools, and we have full confidence they will dispose of it in such a manner as to promote all the great interests of the State.

12. We reaffirm the policy always maintained by the Democratic party, that it is of the first importance that labor should be made free, healthy, and secure of just remuneration; that convict labor should not be employed in competition with the industry of free citizens; that the labor of children should be surrounded with such safeguards as their health, their right of education, and their future usefulness to the community demand; that workshops, whether large or small, should be under such sanitary control as will insure the health and comfort of the employed, and will protect all against unwholesome laboring surroundings; that labor shall have the same right as capital to combine for its own protection, and that all legislation which empowers industry or which enables the powerful to oppress the weak should be repealed; and to protect the interests of labor we favor the collection of statistics and information respecting improvements and the needs and abuses of the various branches of industry.

13. Whereas, the founders of the Democratic party included prominent recourse to fundamental principles, the Democracy of New York again avows their fidelity to those tenets of economy, simplicity and respect for the liberty of the individual which characterized the administration of the Government in the primitive days of the Republic.

CHASE COUNTY DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

Resolved, That we, the Democrats of Chase county, in convention assembled, re-affirm our unswerving adherence to the time-honored traditions of the party, among which are,

First, faithful obedience to the Constitution and the laws of the land;

Second, unalterable opposition to a tariff for protection, insisting, as the Democracy has always done, on a tariff for revenue only;

Third, that gold, silver and greenbacks shall be the only money of the country;

Fourth, opposition to sumptuary legislation; and

Be it further resolved, That, whereas our county expenses are increasing at an alarming rate, we demand of our county officials a more economical administration of the affairs of the county.

WHEREAS, The people living adjacent to herd-law counties are subjected to great annoyance from the incursions of stock from those counties, we, therefore, demand such legislation as will protect the interests of our local stock men.

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to a faithful support of the State ticket, as nominated August 30, at Emporia.

Hon. P. I. Bonebrake, State Auditor, has our thanks for a copy of his third biennial report.

The initial number of the Fort Scott Banner, a five-column quarto, Democratic paper published by the Banner Publishing Co., an exceedingly good paper, has reached this office. Long may it wave, in our hearty desire.

The "American Newspaper Catalogue" of Edwin Alden & Bro., of Cincinnati, Ohio, has reached this office. It is well printed and handsomely bound, and contains a great amount of valuable information to newspaper men and advertisers. From it we learn there are 11,522 publications in the United States and Territories, of which 1,080 are daily, 63 tri-weekly, 133 semi-weekly, 180 Sunday, 8,636 weekly, 19 bi-weekly, 194 semi-monthly, 1,214 monthly, and 12 bi-monthly.

The candidates of the three different political parties of this county are now in the field, and, taking the several tickets, all in all, we firmly believe the Democrats have the most popular team on the track; and, therefore, they should be of good cheer; but, still there is work to be done before the election, and no Democrat in the county should leave a stone unturned to accomplish the election of the tickets when such a golden opportunity is offered. If you never stuck to a ticket before, because you feared it would not win, and you preferred to choose the lesser of evils, stick to it this time, and mark our word for it, so sure as the stars of November roll round so sure will the greater part of the Democratic ticket be elected, if not the entire ticket, if the Democrats only stick manfully to their posts, and do their duty by their candidates.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Pursuant to call the Republicans of Chase county met in convention, at 11 o'clock, a. m., last Saturday, in the Court-house in this city, for the purpose of nominating a county ticket, and were called to order by Henry Brandley, Chairman of the County Central Committee; whereupon J. W. McWilliams was elected Temporary Chairman, and H. Brandley, Temporary Secretary. After which the following committees were appointed:

On Credentials—F. P. Cochran, A. M. Breese, Aaron Jones, Wm. Norton and J. T. Foreacro.

On Resolutions—E. Cameron, E. W. Pinkston, C. I. Maule, G. W. Brickell and Walls Wood.

On Permanent Organization—J. T. Dickson, J. A. Henderson, P. F. Rodebaugh, H. S. Stanley and E. Baker.

On Order of Business—S. Baker, E. Stotte, Geo. Smith, D. Biggam and A. J. Crocker.

A recess until 2 o'clock, p. m., was then taken.

Upon re-assembling in the afternoon, H. Brandley offered the following resolutions, which were referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Resolved, That we endorse the Hon. P. B. Plumb for re-election, as his own successor, to the United States Senate, and request our Senator and instruct our Representative in the State Legislature to use all honorable means to secure his re-election.

2d, That this convention also pledges its nominee for Representative to such legislation as will secure the range of this county to the stock owned and taxed within the township and county where the owner resides, to the exclusion of stock owned and taxed in other counties.

3d, That our nominee for Representative is hereby instructed to work and vote for such laws as will make the Constitutional Amendment restricting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor effective.

On motion, the report of the Committee on Order of Business was adopted.

The Committee on Permanent Organization made the following report: For Chairman, W. G. Patton; for Secretary, H. Brandley; for Assistant Secretaries, P. J. Norton and John S. Stanley. On motion, the report was adopted.

The Committee on Credentials then made their report, which was adopted after a few alterations and amendments had been made.

Hon. E. S. Waterberry, of Emporia, was then invited to address the convention, which he did, in a short speech; and for which a vote of thanks was tendered him.

F. P. Cochran moved to suspend the call of the County Central Committee, in regard to voting for candidates by townships, and that the delegates vote by ballot as their names are called. Carried.

On motion of J. G. Winne, the foregoing vote was reconsidered.

F. P. Cochran moved to vote by school districts.

H. Brandley moved to amend by letting each township delegation take seats together, and vote by ballot.

Mr. Cochran moved an amendment to the amendment, to pass over the unrepresented districts.

E. W. Pinkston offered a substitute, that they vote by school districts, and that the chairman of the township delegations cast the vote of the unrepresented districts. Substitute lost.

The vote was then taken on Mr. Brandley's amendment, instead of on Mr. Cochran's amendment, and it was lost.

Then the vote was taken on the original motion, coupled with the amendment to the amendment, and it was adopted.

The next business in order being nominations, an informal ballot for Representative resulted as follows: W. H. Carter, 42 votes; S. T. Bennett, 34; G. C. Miller, 3; John Williams, 1; total, 80. The formal ballot resulted as follows: Carter, 41; Bennett, 38. The nomination of Dr. Carter was made unanimous.

Dr. Carter was called for, and made a short speech of thanks.

An informal ballot for County Attorney resulted as follows: T. H. Grisham, 32 votes; S. P. Young, 33; O. T. Kelley, 11; total, 76. Formal ballot: Young, 46; Grisham, 32. The nomination of Judge Young was made unanimous.

C. C. Whitson was nominated for Probate Judge, by acclamation.

A formal ballot for County Superintendent resulted as follows: J. C. Davis, 35 votes; C. F. Nesbit, 19; — Perry, 14; — Kinne, 1; total, 71. The nomination of Mr. Davis was made unanimous.

A NOTED BUT UNFITTED WOMAN.
(From the Boston Globe)

MEAS. ABOVE IS GOOD ILLNESS OF Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., who above all other human beings may be truthfully called the "Dear Friend of Woman," as so many of our countrywomen love to call her. She is a woman devoted to her work, who is the mother of a family, and is obliged to keep six lady assistants, to help her answer the large correspondence which daily pours in upon her, each bearing its special burden of suffering, or joy at release from it. Her Vegetable Compound is a medicine for good and not evil purposes. I have personally investigated it and am satisfied of the truth of this.

On account of its proven merits, it is recommended and prescribed by the best physicians in the country. One says: "It works like a charm and saves much pain. It will cure entirely the worst form of falling of the uterus, leucorrhoea, irregular and painful menstruation, all ovarian troubles, inflammation and ulceration, fibroids, all displacements and the consequent spinal weakness, and is especially adapted to the change of life of women."

It permeates every portion of the system, and gives new life and vigor. It removes faintness, flatulency, destroys all craving for stimulants, and relieves weakness of the stomach. It cures Headache, Dizziness, Nervous Prostration, General Debility, Sleeplessness, Depression and Indigestion. That feeling of bearing down, causing pain, weight and backache, is always permanently cured by its use. It will at all times, and under all circumstances, act in harmony with the law that governs the female system.

It costs only $1. per bottle or six for $5., and is sold by druggists. Any advice required in its use, and the names of many who have been restored to perfect health by the use of the Vegetable Compound, can be obtained by addressing Mrs. P., with stamp for reply, at her home in Lynn, Mass.

For Kidney Complaints of either sex this compound is unsurpassed as an abundant testimonial show.

"Mrs. Pinkham's Liver Pills," says a writer, "are the best in the world for the cure of Constipation, Biliousness and Torpidity of the liver. Her Blood Purifier works wonders in its special line and bids fair to equal the Compound in its popularity."

All must respect her as an Angel of Mercy whose sole mission it is to do good to others.

Kansas Products at the St. Louis Fair.

The following communication appears in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat of October 6th:

None of the exhibits at the St. Louis Fair are perhaps attracting so much attention as the collections of agricultural products from the Northwest and from the State of Kansas, the latter being exhibited by the Land Department of the Kansas Division of the Union Pacific Railway Company, and the former by the Northern Pacific Railway Company. Great crowds daily throng the building in which these displays appear, to witness the marvelous collections of grasses, cereals, fruit and vegetables—especially those from Kansas. A few weeks ago the Union Pacific Railway Company made a display of Kansas products at the State Fair of Minnesota, in competition against three strong corporations in the Northwest, and carried off to Kansas the blue ribbon and medal, and this fact makes the competition now at St. Louis very interesting. The defeat in their own territory was too much for the Northern Pacific people to bear, and clashing under it they appeared at St. Louis determined to regain what they had lost, but the gentleman who led the army of retaliation did not seem to comprehend the strength and number of their enemy's resources, else they would not have risked another engagement. But out of the contest the people who are in search of cheap farms in the West can learn a valuable lesson. The greater variety and the superiority in general of the Kansas products in comparison with those of the colder climate and protracted winters secured for the Kansas display, the second time within a few weeks, the first premium, and as there were at St. Louis but two competitors, the second premium—a silver medal—as a consequence went to display No. 2.

That Kansas is a wonderful State, all people must admit; that in both its paragonage and in praise, more has been said of her than of any other State; but when her prizes are recounted the summing up presents a most favorable result, and proves beyond question, that an agricultural State she has no superior and but very few, if any, equals. Beginning with the Centennial; her exhibit there was the best. Then in 1873, at the Cincinnati Industrial Exposition, she took first prize, and at the St. Louis Fair, the following year, the first premium was awarded her. In 1881, she was first at the Illinois State Fair, and at the Atlanta Cotton Exposition, in the same year, she was declared the victor, and during the present year she has taken three first premiums, and has not yet met with a single defeat, although strong efforts have been made to beat her. Some people may think that it was fool-hardiness for the Union Pacific to go up into Minnesota with Kansas products and contend against three strong rivals, and also against patriotism and prejudice and expect to gain any glory by the effort. Upon reflection every person who has a knowledge of the climate of the two regions, must see at once the great natural advantage possessed by the great central State.

To a casual observer, an array of large bunches or sheaves of wheat and oats, all nearly of the same variety, may appear attractive as the display of a great variety of smaller, but superior samples. This is what catches the eye at first; but when the two displays are at our fair, of useful wild grasses Kansas presents seventy-five varieties, while the Northwest has not one-fourth of that number. In wheat, oats, rye, barley and some other cereals, Kansas shows over 200 different kinds, while her rival has comparatively but a few. In corn the variety and quality from Kansas are so superior that it is useless to attempt a comparison, and the same also applies to fruit. The Kansas display embraces over 300 named varieties of apples, peaches and pears, some of which are of unusual size and quality; also thirty-five varieties of grapes. There are stalks of corn eighteen feet high, and of brown corn twenty feet; also rice-corn, sorghum and hemp, of great growth; one pumpkin of 180 pounds, and a great variety of vegetables. There are forty kinds of Irish and sweet potatoes.

The cultivated grasses are an attractive feature of this display, especially the millet in about six varieties, some of which is nearly eight feet high. There are some fine specimens of timothy, Hungarian and white and red clover, also alfalfa, which frequently yields three crops in one summer and makes fine fodder. There is also a fine collection of coal, stone and marble, and about seven or eight different kinds of wood. Kansas people must certainly feel proud of her fine record, for in agricultural displays she stands to-day without a peer. The millers of the Northwest are buying large quantities of Kansas No. 1 hard winter wheat; they find it to be the best for export flour.

An Interesting Incident.

An interesting incident, says the New York Commercial Advertiser, occurred the other day in the Western Union Telegraph office. A number of gentlemen interested in stock operations were clustered around the tape, elbowing each other anxiously to read the quotations. A little man with a black beard entered and approached the tape, which he could barely reach. A big, burly, good-natured fellow in the crowd took him by the sleeve, and pattingly saying, "You are a little fellow, and we'll let you in," shoved him into position. The little man smiled and looked at him through the corner of one eye, glanced at the tape, thanked his new-found friend and retired. An amused bystander stepped up and said, "Do you know who that is?" "No," said the other carelessly. "Well, that was Jay Gould."

During the recent trip of the steamer Serva a slight leak occurred in one of the steam-cylinders, causing a peculiar whistle, rising and falling with the pressure of the steam. Mr. Thomas Bailey Aldrich inquired of a fellow-passenger what was the cause of the mournful sound, and being informed replied: "Is that all? I thought they were killing the donkey engine."

An advertisement for a husband appears in the Fulton (Ky.) Fultonian, and the editor vouches for the advertiser as modest, sincere, pretty and only seventeen. But she is penniless.

Olive Culture in California.

Ellwood Cooper, of Santa Barbara, the leading olive-grower of California, says that he has trees eight years old that have produced two thousand gallons of olives to the acre. This would be equivalent to 250 gallons of oil to the acre, and the oil finds a ready market at $5 a gallon. The yield of one acre would thus be $1,250, which for a hundred acre ranch would be a pretty fair income. But the figures are not represented to apply to any but the very choicest trees and an uncommonly good year. But even computing the profits of olive culture at as low a figure as one-tenth, a twenty-acre ranch would support a family very comfortably after six or seven years of waiting. One of the great advantages of olive culture is the fact that irrigation is not needed. In a climate where there is often such a scarcity of rain as in California, this is a matter of much importance. The olive tree also grows very old. There are trees in Asia Minor that are known to be over 1,200 years old, and are still in full bearing.

In considering the profits of fruit culture, however, the danger of insect pests, disease and over-production must be kept in mind; and these are usually passed by without mention in glowing descriptions of southern California. -Exchange.
