STAR LADIES HOME MISSION

We met with Mrs. H. C. Springer on Jan. 5. This was the first meeting of the year, and almost the entire enrollment was present on time—fifteen enthusiastic workers and students.

Prayer by Mrs. T. J. Hamilton, one of the good old songs by all. Then the lesson of twenty-five questions from James to Revelations. This was conducted by Mrs. C. B. Poe. Being so well prepared for the work, she held the concentrated attention and interest of all from first to last.

We especially thank the aged ladies for their presence. It gives us new life to see them marching on to victory, and hope all will come.

After the work was completed we were ushered into the pretty dining room, where dainty refreshments were served.

Next meeting will be with Mrs. F. M. Soules, Jan. 9.

A FORMER MEETING

The Ladies Home Mission met on Dec. 22 with Mrs. B. C. Soules. First we had the regular devotional exercise then a general review from Philemon and Hebrews. Mrs. T. L. Adams conducting the lesson. There seemed a pleasant rivalry among the co-workers and a deep interest in the good work of growing in knowledge.

The officers were elected for another year. We voted our heartfelt thanks to the faithful retiring ones. The new ones are: Mrs. E. H. Patterson, president; Mrs. C. B. Poe, vice president; Mrs. Henry Morris, secretary; Mrs. T. E. Hamilton, treasurer.

Business being completed, we were invited by our hostess into the dining room, where we spent a merry half hour enjoying the refreshments of whipped cream and cake, that gave credit to Mrs. Soules culinary abilities.

Time never halts when we are guests in this hospitable home, and all too soon we bade our hostess adieu, to meet with Mrs. H. C. Springer two weeks later on Jan. 5.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

Important and Enthusiastic Meeting Tuesday Night

The Goldthwaite Commercial club met in the court house Tuesday night with a large and enthusiastic attendance. This being the first meeting of the year it was known that plans for the years work were to be formulated and all appeared to have a determination to make this one of the best years of the Club's existence. President Dew gave a short report of the work of the club in the past and then announced the election of officers to be in order, when the following officers were elected: W. C. Dew, president; R. M. Thompson, vice president; H. G. Bodkin, secretary; O. H. Yarbrough, treasurer.

It was declared to be the policy of the club to assist the farmers and fruit and truck growers in their efforts for diversification and to secure a satisfactory market for all products. Especially was the necessity for hog raising stressed and President Dew announced that the Trent State Bank would supply the funds for the purchase of a carload of brood sows to be distributed among the farmers and stockmen of the county and a committee composed of J. H. Randolph, T. F. Toland and J. V. Cockrum was appointed to list those desiring to purchase these sows and ascertain the number each would purchase and make a report to the club as soon as possible.

H. G. Bodkin and W. P. McCullough were appointed to solicit subscriptions from the business men and property owners to pay the salary of the night watchman for the town another year.

President Dew was authorized to issue a statement through the Eagle to the people of the county setting forth the plans of the club in co-operating with the farmers, stock raisers, fruit and truck growers.

Mr. J. W. Neil, representing the state department of agriculture, was present and made a most interesting talk on co-operation and the work of the agricultural department. He gave some valuable information regarding the depredation of insects on the crops and orchards and stated that his department was able and willing to give assistance to the people in eradicating the insects and other pests. He told of the great destruction of orchards by tree borers and stated that the county farm demonstrator, Mr. O. H. Robbins, was prepared to give all assistance necessary in saving the trees. He announced that he hoped to make a tour of the county, in company with Mr. Robbins, in the near future to give suggestions regarding the best methods of farming.

The club decided to meet every first and third Tuesday night in the future, and by this arrangement there will be another meeting next Tuesday night, to which all citizens of the town and county are invited.

President Dew announces the appointment of the following standing committees:

Membership—W. H. Trent, L. E. Miller, John C. Hicks, B. P. Hurdle, R. M. Thompson.

Roads—L. R. Conroy, J. H. Randolph, J. C. Street.

Diversified farming and marketing—J. C. Street, L. E. Miller, W. Lee Jones, H. G. Bodkin, R. M. Thompson.

Fairs and entertainments—J. H. Randolph, W. H. Trent, Jas. Rahl.

J. B. Demman of Alabama has been among his friends in this city this week. He was engaged in the piano business here a year or more ago and has many friends throughout the county.

Miss Zeola Philan of Ebony, the efficient teacher of the school at that place, writes that she has determined to have the pupils in the higher grades in the school write a communication for the Eagle each week. This is indeed a splendid idea and well worthy of the emulation of other teachers in the county. The pupils will be benefitted by the experience, the community will be kept before the reading public and the Eagle will be helped.

—If you are buying land require the seller to furnish you an abstract of his title, so you may know you are getting a good title. If you contemplate selling your land, have an abstract thereto prepared first, so you will know what kind of title you can make to it, as the purchaser is almost sure to want to know. I have the only complete set of abstracts of the land titles of Mills county and will make your abstracts for a reasonable charge and will help you cure your titles if defective.—E. B. Anderson.

KILLING NEAR GEORGETOWN

Dave Bell of This City Kills Sid Browning Tuesday.

A message from Georgetown Tuesday night to Mrs. D. P. Bell of this city brought the information that her husband, Mr. Dave P. Bell, had shot and killed Sid Browning, a farmer whose home was in the Liberty Hill community in Williamson county.

Mr. Bell left Goldthwaite Tuesday morning for Georgetown and some of his friends knew he was in serious trouble, but its nature was not known until the announcement of the killing was received. Browning was 35 years of age and was married to Bell's divorced wife. Mr. Bell's daughter, aged about 15 years, made her home with her mother and stepfather until a few weeks ago, when she came to make her home with her father in this city. She was here at the time of the killing, but was summoned to attend the examining trial of her father, which is to be held in Georgetown today, and she left for that place last night.

Mr. Bell has made his home in this county for a long time and is held in high esteem and we all feel confident that he will be able to prove justification for the killing, although the exact nature of his defense is not known and is only surmised.

He has always borne a good reputation and has held several official positions here with credit to himself. He is a blacksmith by trade and only recently moved back to this city from Caradan, where he had charge of a shop last year.

CARL WILSON DEAD

Mr. Carl Wilson died at the home of his parents in Mullin Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, following a long illness and his remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Mullin Wednesday afternoon.

Carl Wilson was one of Mills county's foremost young men and was esteemed highly by all who knew him. For several years he was connected with the First State bank of Mullin and for three years he was cashier of a bank at Swenson, having only recently resigned the latter position on account of his failing health. He was reared in Mills county and was a man of irreproachable character and fine business ability. He was a son of Mr. J. H. Wilson of Mullin and a brother of Mr. F. D. Wilson of this city.

The Eagle joins with the other friends of the family in extending to them sincere sympathy.

Frizzell officiated on this happy occasion and a number of their friends and relatives were present to witness the ceremony.

Mr. Johnson is a farmer and stock man and is one of Mills county's most highly esteemed young men, while his bride is a daughter of Mr. R. Varnell of McGirk and has a wide circle of friends and well-wishers. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will make their home at Star in future.

We have been preaching hog culture and pork production for a long time, and now as a result of our labor we must pay what seems an unreasonable price for pork products, and then on top of that we must stand by and see car loads of fine hogs leaving this county for Fort Worth and other packing house markets.

We dropped into a grocery store one day this week and saw the grocery man opening a box of sausage, and making inquiry, we were told that they came direct from the packing house. They were marked up at a fancy price and brought it. Somebody paid the freight on these hogs to Fort Worth and the express on the sausage to Ballinger. We don't know for certain who paid this part of the cost but we are not afraid to say that it was either the man who shipped the hogs, or the man whose table the sausage disgraced. Our marketing system must be rotten; at least tainted just a little. —Ballinger Banner Ledger.

Texas Factory Makes Over Two Thousand Cans Per Hour

Over eight hundred miles of cans were manufactured last year in Texas by The Texas Company to supply the requirements of its business in other countries.

In that huge factory at Port Arthur, Texas, supplied with the most modern machinery and equipment, covering a large area of ground, built of concrete and arranged to give the most favorable working conditions, the busy workmen are making over 2000 cans per hour.

This is merely a small part of the requirements in labor and output necessary for the conduct of a business like The Texas Company, shipping the oil products manufactured in this State to countries all over the world.

Besides these, there are thousands upon thousands of wooden barrels to be made, wagons to be secured, tanks to be built and innumerable carloads of supplies, tools, machinery and equipment.

Even the printing of stationery and supplies is sufficient to keep a number of print shops moving.

Wherever possible all these incidental requirements are filled from Texas factories. The making of cans and wooden cases, the manufacture of wooden barrels and a number of the other items give labor to a large number of Texas citizens, and bring money from all over the world to Texas.

Quality and service are as much a part of the equipment of The Texas Company as they are of its goods, and the Star and Green T emblem of The Texas Company is the sign of this quality. Buy the goods marked with the Red Star and Green T.

The high price of wheat, caused largely by the foreign demand, has caused considerable alarm in this country, lest there be a bread famine. The Chicago merchants association will ask congress to place an embargo upon the exportation of wheat.

A consignment of $3,000,000 in gold from Morgan & Co., of New York to Francisco Villa, the rebel commander in Mexico, was said to have been delivered by the express company in Jaurez a few days ago. The source supplying the money was not made public.

A meeting of the farmers and business men was held in Louisiana a few days ago to devise ways and means for reducing the cotton acreage in that state 50 per cent. Many farmers there are reported to be holding their 1914 cotton for an improved market, which they hope to secure by a decrease of the 1915 cotton acreage.

While England's reply to the protest of the United States government because of the treatment of commerce between this country and neutral nations by the English navy was courteous and in some points agreed to the demands or at least the idea expressed in the protest, in the entirety the reply was not satisfactory to the president and cabinet, according to statements of the Washington reporters.

We have been told of a wealthy man who lives in this community, who is so stingy, that he walks and leads his horse to the buggy so he will not wear out the buggy cushion; reads the Record at the barber shop to keep from having to pay a dollar per year for it; has his wife cut his hair and shaves himself dry to save expenses of soap and has threatened suicide to prevent making a doctors bill in case of lingering illness besides when he goes home he enters the house by way of a window to save wear on the door hinges. We also understand this fellow is a brother to the man who gives his wife 25 cents per week as "spending money" and expects her to feed the family with it.—Clifton Record.

This year I've cut out all the sins that handicapped me in the past; I realize that Virtue wins—the joys of Error do not last. I hope to be so truly good, so steadfast in the cause of right, that to the whole blamed neighborhood I will become a shining light. Admiring folks will to me point and say, in fervent tones, "By Jings, if justice were not of joint, he'd have a harp and set of wings." But I would hate to be so good, in righteousness so nobly strong, so clean and spotless that I could not sympathize with those gone wrong, I'd hate to walk so high a plane I could not feel for Jim or John, or try to soothe away their pain because their folly brought it on. I'd hate to reach those heights sublime where men are ever roasting sin, and when they hand a tramp a dime, must throw a moral lecture in. I'll be as good as I know how, and still be human, like the rest, and if I break my New Year vow you all will know I've done my best.—Walt Mason.

OUTLINE OF WORK

Plans for Commercial Club's Efforts Explained

The Commercial club at its regular annual meeting Tuesday night, took on new life, and in mapping out the new line of work for the new year concluded to make diversified farming and marketing of the crops as well as the produce raised and the encouraging of live stock farming in Mills county its principal undertaking. In order to be successful on these lines it will take the co-operation not only of every business man of Goldthwaite, but the farmers and stock raisers of the county, and we earnestly solicit their assistance and influence.

We believe that only through the combined efforts of the citizens of the county can we accomplish satisfactory results for the good of the county and we firmly believe that every community should have some kind of club or organization that the interest of that immediate section may be taken care of and, too that a representative from that particular club or organization can be delegated to look after such interest abroad or through the assistance of this Commercial club find ready sale for products ready for market. For instance, if the farmers of Big Valley will agree to plant so many acres of melons, and will put our committee in possession of these facts, as well as the time they will be ready for market, it is the purpose of this organization to help locate a suitable place to sell them, and it would probably be necessary to send a member of the growers organization with the shipment to see they are properly sold. Again if a given number of acres should be planted in potatoes or turnips it can be handled the same way, for we have found when the products are to be marketed a place to sell them can be found if raised in sufficient quantities, and when we think of Texas buying from out of the state $134,000,000.00 worth of potatoes and fruit alone besides sending $54,000,000.00 for hogs and $12,000,000.00 for feed and bread stuff, is it any wonder money is scarce? If we continue in this rut conditions will not be better soon. While cotton will not always be as cheap as it is now, by raising on our farm all we can get it will not worry us so much if it is low in price. Whatever disaster may befall, the price will never be high enough that we can trade one pound of cotton for a pound of meat, whereas, if any farmer will prepare to take care of a few hogs he will not find in the fall he is having to haul cotton to town and sell at a price that it will take four pounds of cotton to pay for one pound of the bacon he consumed the summer or spring while he was making his crop.

In this line, also, with the co-operative selling plan we are anxious to adopt and want the farmers and stock raisers of the county to lend a helping hand. If you have surplus hogs to sell and home demand will not take care of them, by advising the secretary of this club, a day can be designated that a car will be shipped, and if you only have one hog to put in the car you will fare as well as the man who has twenty or more, for when the shipment is made up, they will be sent to the Fort Worth or some other market, and your hog sold on its own merits, just as your neighbor's hogs will be sold and we are sure if worked out the plan will be of untold benefit to every citizen of the county.

While, as we say, this is to be our chief slogan, other matters will have the attention of the club and we urge every citizen of Goldthwaite to enroll as a member and lend his encouragement by his occasional presence at the meeting which for the present will be the first and third Tuesday nights in each month. The Commercial club of Goldthwaite should have a membership of at least 200 men, and I am sure if you are interested in the upbuilding of your home county and town, the small amount of outlay for dues will not be felt and if you are only a clerk in some business house you will reap some benefit from the efforts put forth toward the end we are, as citizens, endeavoring to accomplish.

W. C. DEW,
President Commercial Club.

The new year with its many blessings from Him who reigns above has come again and may it find each striving for a betterment in life, by using each moment given us in doing something good.

We are glad to report our Sunday school is progressing nicely. The following officers were elected Sunday for the coming year: Rev. L. W. French, president; Mr. J. W. Spinks, vice president; Miss Johnnie B. Harrison, secretary. A cordial invitation is extended to all who will come and help make this one of the best Sunday schools found.

Rev. Thos. D. Dunn of Waco delivered three excellent sermons for the people, one Saturday night and two Sunday. He is enthusiastic in his work, and all who heard him received a great blessing. All we regret was that every one did not hear his soul lifting words to man. He left an appointment to be here again the second Sunday in February. Come and hear for yourselves.

There has been some sickness in our community, but we are glad to report more serious. Mr. J. S. Conner, who has been confined to his bed for some time is able to be up again. Marion Mills is also improving after several days of illness.

The Williams Ranch Literary and Industrial society meets every two weeks and renders interesting programs. Our next meeting will be Saturday night, January 23. Come and be with us and help build up this community for her old and young people.

Rev. L. W. French will preach here next Sunday at 11 a. m. His subject is "Man" as announced last Sunday.

Some from this place availed themselves of the opportunity of hearing a good sermon and went to Mullin Saturday to hear Rev. Thos. D. Dunn, who preached at that place.

May each enjoy this new year and strive to do your very best in promoting the best interests of your country is the wish of this correspondent.

Wonderful Exhibits From All Lands Show the World's Best Progress

From Beginning to End Magnificent Panama-Pacific International Exposition Will Abound With Superb Educational and Entertainment Features.

By HAMILTON WRIGHT.
THE construction of the vast Panama-Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco was 95 per cent completed three months before the opening day, on Feb. 20, 1915. The early installation of thousands of tons of rare and costly exhibits from all parts of the globe and the participation of forty of the world's great countries have assured a celebration that will be unrivaled in its splendor, magnitude, interest and comprehensiveness.

From its opening until its close, on Dec. 4, 1915, the Exposition will abound with original features collected at an expenditure of many millions of dollars. It will present a cross-section of human achievement. The Pan-

Francisco in a single day, and, far in advance of its opening, the Exposition had created an unprecedented interest throughout the world, and its opening was eagerly awaited.

In keen competitive exhibits there will be presented more than 80,000 single exhibits and groups of related exhibits portraying the results of the world's best efforts in recent years.

This wonderful Exposition, presented at an outlay of more than $100,000,000, celebrates a contemporaneous achievement, the building of the Panama canal, and all exhibits that are entered for competitive award will be those that have been originated or produced since the great Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis ten years ago. The possible exception to this rule will be where earlier exhibits are fare work will, for example, see in the Palace of Mines an exhibit three-fourths of an acre in extent, illustrating the manner in which the largest steel corporation in the world is caring for and plans to still further advance the welfare of its employees. In the Palace of Education they will be interested in a great United States government exhibit.

The great war in no way has diminished the prospect of attendance at the Exposition, and thousands of Americans will for the first time enjoy the educative trip across their native land. After the outbreak of the conflict the number of conventions deciding to meet in San Francisco proportionately increased. One of the most important of the assemblages will be the international engineering

THE MOTHER OF LINCOLN BEACHEY, FROM THE TOWER OF JEWELS, 435 FEET ABOVE THE EARTH, AT THE PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION, WATCHES HER SON LOOP HIS ONE THOUSANDTH LOOP.

When Lincoln Beachey, a son of San Francisco, on the occasion of his homecoming after breaking all world records as a daredevil loop, performed two entirely new and death defying stunts over the completed palaces of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition it was his aged mother who for the first time waved him on to fresh achievements. Mrs. Beachey held a place of honor, 435 feet up in the air, on the tiptop of the wonderful Tower of Jewels. From this aerial she was able to watch every erratic move of her daredevil son. She cried out only once. That was when he wrote the figures "1000" against the clouds, high above the two miles of completed exhibit palaces, significant of the looping of his one thousandth loop.

ama canal is today open and doing business on a far vaster scale than was predicted for it, and the Exposition, which celebrates the opening of the canal, is today revealed as the greatest manifestation of national achievement in American history. Here will be a neutral ground where even nations engaged in warfare will display on a scale never before equaled their progress in the arts, industries and sciences of peace.

Within three months before the opening of the Exposition as many as 2,000 tons of consignments had reached San shown to illustrate the evolution of the processes of manufacture—as, for example, a display of a model of the first cotton gin in connection with the marvelous equipment into which it has evolved.

Many of the displays will be especially adapted to study by the delegates to great national and international congresses and conventions, of which more than 300, embracing almost every phase of human activity, have voted to meet in San Francisco in 1915. Delegates to the congresses interested in social progress and welcongress, at which its distinguished chairman, Colonel George W. Goethals, will preside.

The foreign participation will be notable. The nations are not attempting to show everything that they produce, but will lay especial emphasis upon those products in which they excel. In the Danish display, for example, will be shown products of the Royal Danish porcelain factory at Copenhagen. Japan in her exhaustive exhibit will display priceless works of art, loaned by direction of the imperial household and many of which could not be duplicated. From Italy will be shown historic paintings of the old masters, hitherto never exhibited in America in the originals. From China there have reached San Francisco selections of exhibits collected under the supervision of the governors of the Chinese provinces. Rare silks and satins, carvings, inlay work in the precious metals, exhibits of the transportation methods employed in the old China and the modern methods used in the awakening republic will be shown. New Zealand will make a marvelous exhibit of its rare woods, of its fleeces, of its superb scenic charms. A large number of rare giant tree ferns from New Zealand will be found growing on the Exposition grounds.

The Argentine Republic early set aside a larger sum than any ever appropriated by a foreign nation for representation in an American exposition. The modern cities of Argentina, the schools, churches, libraries, the great live stock and agricultural interests will be extensively portrayed, and the mutual interests of South America and North America will be emphasized in almost every conceivable manner. From South Africa will be shown diamond exhibits and methods of extraction. The magnificent Canadian displays will review not only the widely known agricultural wealth, but will illustrate the scenic charms of the great Dominion, of snow clad mountain peaks, of far-reaching forest, of inland lakes in chains of silver and rushing mountain streams.

"THE END OF THE TRAIL," PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION, SAN FRANCISCO, 1915.

BUGS IN GRAIN

Where the "green bug" is known to be present, the growers are urged to destroy all volunteer grain by pasturing it or plowing it under. In some cases it may be advisable to scatter straw over the places of volunteer grain and burn it. This volunteer grain is the ideal place for the "green bug" to pass the winter and if destroyed now many of the lice will be killed and the food for others will be cut off. If such volunteer grain is destroyed now, the chances are that but a few "green bugs" will be present next spring to attack the growing crop. Very often there is a rank growth of grain around old straw stacks or where shocks of grain stood for some time. Such grain begins growth in the spring before the rest of the field and it affords protection and food for "green bugs" early in the spring. Such places should be destroyed. Some prefer to pasture grain during the late fall and early winter and favorable results have been obtained from such practice. It is next to impossible to control the "green bug" in the spring after it has gained much headway, but it is possible to prevent serious outbreaks of the pest by precautions of destroying the volunteer grain during the fall and winter.

The grain growers of the State realize the danger of another outbreak of the dreaded pest which may be so destructive next spring if the climatic conditions are favorable for its development and the precautions given above have not been carried out. If the lice are now found upon the grain they should be destroyed at once by some of the methods suggested above. If there is any doubt as to the plant louse which is present in the fields, specimens should be sent to the State Entomologist, College Station, Tex.

NATIONAL BANK ELECTS OFFICERS

The annual stockholders meeting of the Goldthwaite National Bank was held last Tuesday in their banking house. All of the old board of directors were re-elected. The following officers were then elected for the ensuing year:

W. E. Miller, president; J. H. Randolph, vice-president; D. H. Harrison, cashier; and Mrs. M. A. Bridgeforth, assistant cashier. The promotion of Haynes Harrison to the position of cashier is a well deserved honor. He has been with the bank since his retirement as assistant postmaster, where he made himself popular with the patrons of the office. He is a Goldthwaite boy and we are all glad to see him making good.

Veneer is used upon buildings, jewelry and people. It can be observed in hotel lobbies, legislative halls, schools, colleges and libraries. It is used extensively in large cities, and it is doubtful if Newport or the suburbs could subsist without it. Veneer comes in various thicknesses. Some achieve it, some are born with it, but in this country scarcely anybody has it thrust upon him, because it is valued so highly that no one wishes to part with it. Sometimes the question is asked as to what is the difference between veneer and the real thing. It is difficult to find the answer, because the real thing is so rare that there is no basis of comparison. Veneer flourishes in all climates. It is no respecter of persons. It is cultivated by college professors, authors and lawyers. It probably reaches its highest state of perfection, however, when exhibited by young girls who have just been graduated from some finishing school—Life.

COTTON POOL A DISASTER

Fort Worth, Texas—Peter Radford, National Lecturer of the Farmers' Union, when asked by a representative of the press if the farmers of the South would apply for loans under the terms of the $135,000,000 cotton pool, said:

"I do not know of a banker in Texas or elsewhere who is willing to lend money to the farmers at six per cent under the provisions of the pool, and I do not think many farmers would care to qualify for a loan. It is to be regretted that the officers of that movement are not frank enough to admit that the failure of the pool is due to inherent defects of the plan. It has not only failed completely, but it has indirectly cost the Southern cotton producers millions of dollars. I think it can be truthfully said that had the plan never been suggested, several millions of dollars would have been loaned against cotton in the South by many banks who subscribed to the fund in good faith, and naturally, with such a pledge becoming a liability they might be called upon to assume, they did not give consideration to making direct loans as the Southern bankers have always done, and as a result the pool cut off the local money supply and forced the cotton on the market. I have no doubt the promoters acted in good faith, but the movement has been a serious disaster to the South."

LOSING SIDE OF MAIL ORDER TRADING

Hans Garbus, a German farmer of Iowa, has written a very interesting story of the losing side of mail order trading:

I regret to say that I was the first in our section to make up a neighborhood bill and send it to a mail order house. Though we got bit once in awhile, we got in the habit of sending away for stuff. We had one of the thriftiest little villages in the state—good lines of business in all the branches, merchants who were willing to help a honest fellow over a bad year, and a county full of people who came twice a week to trade. Our little country town supported a library, high school, band, ball team and we had big celebrations every year.

Gradually our merchants lessened their stocks of goods—for lack of patronage. Finally we began to realize that when we needed a bolt quickly for machinery we had to quit work and send for it, which wasn't so pleasant. One by one our merchants moved to places where they were appreciated, and men of less energy moved in. Gradually our town has gone down; our business houses are 'tacky' in appearance, a number are empty, our school churches and walks are going down, we have no band, no library nor ball team. There is no business done in the town, and therefore no taxes to keep things up. Hotel is closed for lack of travel. Go down to the train when the train pulls in and you will see the cause in mail order packages. Nine years ago my farm was worth $195 an acre; today I'd have a hard job to sell it at $16 an acre. I have awakened to the fact that in helping to pull the town down, it has cost me $5,600 in nine years.—Brady Standard.

CITATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Mills County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon the unknown heirs of Nancy Howard, by making publication of this Citation once in each week for eight successive weeks, previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 27th Judicial District; but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest District to said 27th Judicial District, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Mills County, to be holden at the Court House, to-wit: of, in Goldthwaite, Texas, on the first Monday in May, A. D. 1915; the same being the third day of May, A. D. 1915, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 11th day of December, A. D. 1914, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 1411, wherein R. J. Edmondson is the Plaintiff, and the unknown heirs of Nancy Howard are the defendants and the said petition alleging that Plaintiff, R. J. Edmondson, resides in Mills County, Texas, and that defendants, the unknown heirs of Nancy Howard, are each and all persons whose names and place of residence are unknown and for cause of action said petition alleges:

That Plaintiff is the owner in fee simple of the following described land lying and being situated in Mills County, Texas, being the Nancy Howard Survey No. 5, certificate No. 186, designated by abstract No. 329, containing 160 acres, a brief abstract of which is shown in Volume 9 at page No. 315 of the assessor's abstract books of and for Mills County, Texas, and said land is described by metes and bounds as follows, to-wit: Beginning at the North east corner of the Willaba Boatright Survey;

Thence North 950 varas to a stone mound;

Thence West 950 varas to a stone mound;

Thence South 950 varas to a stone mound in Willaba Boatright's North line;

Thence East 950 varas to the place of beginning.

Plaintiff alleges that for more than ten years next preceding the filing of this suit he has been the owner and rightful possessor of said entire tract of land; that during said entire time, claiming to have a good and perfect right and title thereto, he has had and held and at all times claimed peaceable and adverse possession to said entire survey of land, and still has and holds such peaceable and adverse possession of said survey of land, and for more than ten years next preceding the filing of this suit has had peaceable and adverse possession by an actual enclosure of said entire survey of land, using, occupying and enjoying same for the period of more than ten years and still has and holds said land under said enclosure, and still is claiming and does claim title and right of possession in and to said land and has so held and claimed during said entire time.

Wherefore plaintiff prays that defendant, be cited to answer herein and show, if any, their interest or interests in the subject matter of this suit; that plaintiff have judgment for title and possession of said land; that defendants be divested of all title in or to said land; and that such title be fully vested in plaintiff, and that all clouds be removed from plaintiff's title, thereto, and for general and special relief, in law and in equity.

And said petition is endorsed as follows, to-wit: "This suit is to try title as well as for trespass and damages."

Herein fail not, but have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Goldthwaite, this, the 18th day of December, A. D. 1914. C. D. LANE, Clerk District Court, Mills County. By J. B. Brinson, Deputy.

—If you intend to buy land be sure and demand an abstract of the title, so you may know its condition, as otherwise you may get a bad title.—E. B. ANDERSON, Abstractor.

RAISING HOGS IS A PROFIT

Last week the Hog Raisers' Association shipped in one day $5,000 worth of hogs to Fort Worth markets. One carload belonging to D. J. Noble topped the market. Mr. Noble has an eighty-acre farm. The county demonstrator has been helping Mr. Noble. He sold a bunch of six months old hogs that brought him around $18 per head. They were fattened on peanuts except a few days finishing on corn. He did not have to pay to have them held, picked or ginned. The twenty hogs netted him more clear money than twenty bales of cotton. He does not have to keep his children out of school to get up at 4:00 in the morning and work until sundown at night and come in too tired to eat to take care of them. He is in good shape and can pay his bills and have money. Who has he to thank for this? The President? The war in Europe? He has himself to thank, and nothing else. He used the brain God gave him to get the most from the opportunity that he had. Any man can do as well if he will think and make the most of the opportunity that lays at his door. Comanche Chief.

The silo is a profitable investment for the farmer and stockman, and more of them are needed. The time is coming when there will be many of them in Williamson county because of the advantages and source of revenue derived by using them. The silo is a mortgage lifter.—Granger News.

COUNTY MEETING

Diversified Farming to Be Discussed and Plans Completed

The committee on marketing diversified crops, as appointed by the Commercial Club at its last regular meeting, has set January 28, as the time to perfect this organization throughout the county, and asks every farmer of Mills county to arrange to spend the day at this time here for this purpose.

It is the intention of the men pushing this move to endeavor to have with us on that date Mr. Clarence Ousley, now at the head of extension work for the A. & M. College of this state, as well as some one else who knows what can be done with a system of marketing in a co-operative manner the crops that can be raised in this county.

Begin to arrange now to come to this meeting, and come prepared to spend the day in earnest consideration of these problems. Your neighbor needs your co-operation, you need his. It is a time we all need each other. Don't say it can't be done. It must be done. It is being done elsewhere, and it is going to be done here. Will you help?

Remember the date is Thursday, Jan. 28, 1915, at 10 o'clock, at Goldthwaite, Texas, and bring your neighbor with you. W. C. DEW, President Commercial Club.

STAR

Editor Eagle:

We are still gathering cotton in this community. We raise lots of cotton in these diggins and if we could get a good price for the stuff we would soon be rich. I hope the people will wake up this year and raise some stuff to keep fat and healthful and not raise a lot of junk commonly called cotton.

Harley Williams and family made a trip to Goldthwaite one day last week.

The young folks had a roaring big time at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mills one night last week.

Three of our up to date grocers, Dave, Elvis and Ollie Morris, had business in Goldthwaite one day last week.

John Ward and family of the McGirk community were here one day last week visiting Jim Ward and family.

Miss Fredda Bowman has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Tenney Williamson, at Lipan.

The young folks had a good time at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Campbell last Saturday night. The young folks always have a good time there. Miss Besse Sawyer of Evant was there and rendered some very beautiful piano selections. Mr. Will Gent was there with his violin and rendered some very fine violin selections.

Prof. W. A. Jeter, our efficient high school principal and one of our good druggists, made a trip to Goldthwaite one day last week.

Webb Hill of Goldthwaite bought the old Slaughter place from R. W. Barr a few days ago and is moving in. We are glad to see Mr. Hill moving in. Star is growing brighter all the time.

Misses Joyce Watson and Nellie Griffin were here from the Evant country one day last week.

Our Sunday school was well attended last Sunday morning and quite an interesting lesson was eagerly absorbed. It is hoped that our young people will try to thoroughly digest the lessons imparted in the Sunday school, and judging by the attendance we are getting, they are eating on real well. Mrs. R. H. Patterson's and Mrs. T. E. Hamilton's little folks' classes always make a good report and are the two best classes in the Sunday school. I don't know whether it is because they are better teachers or whether the little folks are a better sort of people. Something is the matter, anyhow, and it is rather galling to see the little tots carry off the prize every Sunday while the older ones stand by and grin.

Roy Baker was here from the Fairview community one day last week.

Frank Spencer, of Franklin, New York, Fred Whitman of Balmbridge and his son Earl, of Oneonta, New York, are visiting Dr. J. E. Brookings and family here. Mr. Whitman is Mrs. Dr. Brookings' brother in law and visited here a few years ago. Mr. Spencer is her brother and he and Mr. Earl Whitman are making their first trip to this section of Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Patterson visited in Goldthwaite last Sunday.

Miss Gennie Putman and her brother were here from the Fairview community one day last week.

Miss Mae Hill, formerly of the Center City community, is now here and is organizing a music class.

Ben Cox and Ollie Manning made a trip to Lampasas with a load of cotton one day this week.

Mr. Editor, perhaps you have never thought of the great resources of this country in a way that anything like showed up the real superiority of this great land of the free and the home of the brave. I shall enumerate a few of the many points of excellence of this community:

In the way of surroundings we have Fields, Woods, Hills, Knowles, and Brooks. If you should desire a shave you can get a Shave all right. Music? Sure! Both Harpers and Fifers! It has been stated that the people of St. Louis have no souls.

This can not be said of Star. We have some good Cooks, and Bakers—lots of Wood. There are not many wolves here. Four pecks make a bushel. We have more than a bushel of Pecks here. Some Tubbs too.

Flats are quite common in the cities but we have both a House and a Flat. We have a Miller and some Mills. Some of our people are quite Witty. The manning of a ship by our sailor boys is a very pretty and interesting sight. We haven't any ships but we have the Mannings all right. Now Mr. Editor, this is given in a spirit of fun and is not intended to reflect upon any one, but to come straight to the point, you must confess that with our Fields, Hills, Knowles, Woods and Brooks, that Star is indeed a Good(e) place to live in.

The Barr of justice is hereby raised and should you ask for Moore I should feel like putting Hunt after you. Come out to see us once in a while. The ringing of the Campbell will not paine your ear. Everything is all Wright in Star. Hurray for Star. STAR REPORTER.

PRECIOUS METALS IN TEXAS.

Precious and semi-precious metals, consisting of gold, silver, copper, lead and zinc produced in Texas in 1912, had a value of $269,798, which is $38,798 more than the output of the previous year. The most important of these minerals is silver, valued at $249,731, or 93 per cent of the total. The actual production of silver in 1912, compared with that of 1911, shows a decrease of 18,327 ounces in quantity, but an increase in value of $24,802, due to the increase in price from 53 cents in 1911 to 61 1-2 cents per ounce in 1912.

The first discovery of silver in Texas is said to have been made more than a half century ago, but the first mining recorded by the United State Geological Survey was in 1885, when 169,342 ounces with a value of $181,196, were produced. Since that date up to the present time, nearly eleven million ounces have been mined, with a commercial value of $7,372,000.

The value of other precious and semi-precious metals produced in Texas in 1912 is: Zinc, $16,422; lead, $2,939; copper, $119, and gold, $63.

TEXAS SECOND IN QUICK-SILVER.

More than a million dollars worth of quicksilver was produced in the United States in 1912, according to a recent report of the Geological Survey, and a large portion of the output came from the Texas mines. The principal quicksilver States are California, Texas and Nevada, and they rank in the order mentioned. The Texas output is 3,320 flasks, valued at $154,413, according to the latest reports.

Prior to the discovery of quicksilver in Brewster county, California furnished practically the entire output of the United States. With the increased production there has also been an enlargement of its uses and during the past thirteen years the functions of this mineral have practically doubled. The Texas product is consumed mainly in the manufacture of explosive caps, drugs, electric lighting and other scientific apparatus and in the recovery of gold by amalgamation.
