FROM WASHINGTON.

The Secretary of the Treasury has issued another call for the redemption of bonds of the 5 per cent. funded loan of 1881, continued at 31 per cent. from August 12th, 1881. The call is for $25,000,000, and the principal and interest to be paid at the Treasury on the 23d of December next, and interest will cease on that day.

The Secretary of the Interior has decided to re-open for settlement the large tract of agri-cultural land, embracing about 10,000,000 acres in Northern Dakota, withdrawn from settlement by Secretary Schurz. The tract once formed a part of the great Sioux Reservation, but was purchased by the Government from that tribe. Portions have been occupied by the Turtle Mountain Indians, a roving band of Chippewas. Secretary Teller decides the claims of the Chippewas invalid, and reopens the lands to settlement.

For these ends heavy taxes and high tariffs are continued year by year that a large surplus may accumu-late, from which vast appropriations are made, useless offices and an army of officials yearly increased, and assessments levied all round to create a fund to buy up and demoralize the corrupt, the ig-norant and unthinking, until at last liberty falls and corruption and despotism reign supreme.

They rob the Treasury to pay high salaries, that the assessed may pay larger sums, thus taking from the Treasury indirectly, what they soon will take directly, to keep the set of men in power who even in Massachusetts have stood up and own they are engaged in this business. DEMOGRATIO TIOKET.

If there is a man in this country upon whom the Republicans, in and out of Congress, have for years expended their bitterest wrath and their fiercest denun-ciation, it is James R. Chalmers, of Mississippi. He has been denounced constantly by them as the contriver of the brutal massacre at Fort Pillow. His name has been used in every Republican comparing along the days of the airline campaign since the close of the civil war to excite the passionate resentment of Northern voters. Mr. Chalmers recently represented in Congress the Sixth District of Missis-Congress the Sixth District of Missis-sippi, but was ousted by John R. Lynch, the present colored member. Many Democrats gave Chalmers the benefit of their doubts in sustaining his claim to the seat, while many others be-lieved that he was not fairly elected, although he had something of a tech-nical case. Chalmers complained loudly because the Democrats did not filibuster in order to keep him in his seat. It in order to keep him in his seat. It now appears that at the very time

Chalmers was making this complaint he was preparing the way for the course he has since taken. It is alleged that, as the result of cer-tain negotiations with William E. Chandler, Chalmers is now a candidate for Courses in the Second District of for Congress in the Second District of Mississippi against the regular Demo-cratic nominee, and is backed by the power, the prestige, and the patronage of the Administration. It is said that his father-in-law, his brother-in-law, and several of his friends have already been several of his friends have already been appointed to offices. On a small scale, he is playing the part of Mahone, and the Republicans of Mississippi are ex-pected not only to vote for "the in-famous hero of Fort Pillow," as they have been accustomed to describe Chalmers, but they will be required to give up the idea of running a straight to give up the idea of running astraight Republican candidate of their own. Mr. Riddleberger, the author of the repudiation scheme in Virginia, and the man who furnishes the brains and the audacity for Mahone's movement, said, in a recent speech: "We are for Arthur because he is for us." The trading politicians in Tennessee who failed to get office from the Democrats are for Arthur because he is for them. And now comes "the infamous hero of Fort Pillow," who is for Arthur because Arthur, or Chandler, is for him.

William E. Chandler is peculiarly fitted to make bargains with Chalmers and other Democrats in the South, who, having no further hopes from their own party, are quite willing to sell ont to anybody that will buy. But it is a bad investment for the Administratiou. -N. Y. Sun.

seem as if the leader of the movement thinks he can best retrieve the fallen fortunes of his party by staying in Washington and working from here. The figure of the quaintly dressed and physically insignificant looking General is a familiar one about the departments here. Day after day the Senator is to be met with in the offices of the Chiefs of Divisions, traversing the couridors from one to another with the hasty step of a busy man or driving from depart-ment to department, and his energy ap-parently never tires. The most industrious seeker after place could not with greater pertinacity haunt the corridors of one department than General Mahone applicant for a position must needs envy the Virginia Sonator for the second does all of them. But the most favored the Virginia Senator for the ready access he has to the official ears of those in authority. It has come to be generally understood, through the admission of Senator Mahone himself and from other sources, that he means business in his visits to the departments and the official ax and the official pen are wielded the more frequently in dismissal or appointment because of these visits. The Senator has a list of the appointments of Virginians in each department and they stand at his pleasure." What makes the conduct of Mahone still more remarkable is the fact that he is not even a Republican. He is simply an ex-rebel Brigadier from Virginia who sold his vote in the Federal Senate to the Republican party upon the condition that he should be absolute owner of the political patronage of Virginia. Having bought the Federal offices of Virginia he is selling them out to the best advantage for himself and finds it more convenient to keep his auction block at Washington than at Richmond. So disgraceful a spectacle was never seen before in American politics. Even the corruption of the later days of the Roman empire is put to the blush by this shameless effrontery of Mahone and the Federal Administration which sanctions it. - New Haven Register.

flesh. READ PROOF BELOW. FROM COL. C. L. FOSTER. Youngstown. Obio, May 10th, 1889. DR. B. J. KENDALL & Go, Gents:-1 had a very valuable Hambletonian colt that I prized very bighly; he had a large that I prized very highly; he had a large bone spavin on one joint and a small one on the other, which made him very large; I had him under the charge of two veteri-nary surgeons, who failed to cure him. I was, one day, reading the advertisement of Kendall's Spavin Cure, in the Chicago Express, I determined at once to try it, and got our druggist hare to send for it: they ordered three bottles, I took them all and thought I would give it a thorough trial; I used it according to directions, and the forth day the colt ceased to be hame. the forth day the colt ceased to be lame, and the lumps have disappeared. I used but one bottle, and the colt's limbs are as free from lumps, and as smooth as any horse in the State. He is entirely cured. The cure was so rumarkable that I let two of my neighbors have the semaining two bottles, who are now using it

Very re-pecifully. L. T. FOSTER.

Kendall's Spavin Cure.

Kendall's Spavin Cure. Wilton, Minn., Jan. 11th, 1881. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:--Having got a horse book of you, by mail, a year ago, the contents of which perstaded me to try Kendall's Spavin Cuure on the hind leg of one of my horses, which was badly swoien, and could not be reduced by any other remedy. I got two bottles of Ken-dall's Spavin Cure of Preston & Ludduth, druggists, of Waseca, which completely cured my horse. About five years ago I had a three-year-old colf sweenied very badly: I used your remedy, as given m your book, without roweing and I must say, to your credit, that the coll is cultresay, to your credit, that the colt is entire-ly cured, which is a strprise, not only to mysel', but to my neighbors. You sent me the book for the trilling sum of twenty-five cents, and if I could not get another like it, I would not take twenty-five dollars for it. Yours, truly, GEO MATHEWS.

Kendall's Spavin Cure ON HUMAN FLESH.

Patten's Mills, N Y., Feb. 21st. 1878. DR. B J. KRNDALL & CO., Gents:--The par'icular case on which I used your Kenparietiar case on which I had your Ken-dall's Spavis cure was a mahguant ankle sprain of sixteen months' standing I had tried many things, but in vain. Your spavin cure put the foot to the ground again, and, for the first time since hurt, in natural position. For a family liniment it evens a subthing we ever used. excess anything we ever used.

Yours, truly, RRV. M. P. BELL, Pastor of M. E Church, Patten's Milis, N.Y.

Kendall's Spavin Cure Is sure in its effects, wild in its action as it does not blister, yet it is penetrating and powerful to reach every deep sented pain or remove any bony growth or other en-largements, such as spavins, splints, curbs, calous, sprains, swelling and any lameness and enlargements of the joints or limbs, or for rheumatism in man and for any purpose for which a limiment is used for man or beast. It is now known to be the best lin-iment for man ever used, acting mild and yet certain in its effects.

A BRAVE RECRUIT. — Tom was a very good boy, sharp and intelligent, but had the repu-tation of being a coward. Almost anything would excite his nerves or timidity. But he got patriotic when the war began and entered in the three months' service. He was in the skirmishes on several occasions, but was in ho regular battle. He behaved splendidly, and almost blotted out the reputition he had at home. The boys in his company had all con-fidence in him. When Tom returned home he left Some of his old chums who did not go to war edged around him to hear him talk. "Boys, you may laugh and wink?" said Tom, "out you don't know what hard times is; you couldn't spell it in less than three months." "Tell us, Tom, how it was." THE ELIXIR OF YOUTH!

How old age was restored to youthful vigor.

GENEVA, KANE Co., ILL., Sept. 20, 1881.

N. Y .:

Gentlemen-I purchased a bottle of your Burdock Blood Bitters, and saw a request to be informed of its effects. I therefore give yours brief history of my case. I was taken four years since with paralysis, and my case was supposed to be hopeless. I employed a physician until I was able to sit up, when I concluded to manage my own case, as I was so far advanced in life it would only be possible to survive a short time. being now a little over eighty years of age. I tried many remedies, and notwithstanding the persevering use of them, I found no permanent benefit until I used your Burdock Blood Bitters, which I found to suit my case exactly, and I feel rejoiced to have found a medi cine of true worth and so full of life-giving principles Its beneficial effects were manifest from the first, and I now feel almost the vigor of youth again. This is my experience with your Burdock Blood Bitters, to the merits of which I am very ready to give my testimony.

Yours respectfully, D. H. HOWARD. Bold by all Druggists. 1000100
