PERSEVERANCE

If you cannot use the chisel
And the trowel, don't despair;
You may bear the stone essential,
Or the bed for it prepare.
If you cannot paint the picture
With a master's magic skill,
You may labour in the background,
As the sun behind the hill.
If you cannot be the builder
Or the singer of a song,
You may feel the power of music
While you mingle with the throng.
If you cannot break the record,
Number one to make the pace,
Strive in some way to be useful;
Perseverance wins a place.
Perseverance climbs the mountain,
Plods the deserts' sandy plain,
Braves the jungle of the forest,
Lives when numbered with the slain.

IT'S YOU

If you want to live in the kind of a town
Like the kind of a town you like,
You needn't slip your clothes in a grip
And start on a long, long hike.
You'll only find what you left behind.
For there's nothing that's really new
It's a knock at yourself when you knock your town,
It isn't the town--it's you.
Real towns are not made by men afraid
Lest somebody else gets ahead;
When everyone works and nobody shirks,
You can raise a town from the dead
And if, while you make your personal stake,
Your neighbors can make one, too,
Your town will be what you want to see;
It isn't the town--it's you. --Ex.

MARRIED

J. E. Benningfield and Miss Ida Berry were married at the Methodist parsonage Saturday evening, July 17, Rev. Jesse G. Forester officiating. This popular young couple will make their home in the Pleasant Grove community.

Mrs. Lewis Hudson left Tuesday morning for Ballinger to visit her daughter. Mrs. J. G. Schooler.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Fairman returned Tuesday from McKinney, where they have been visiting their daughter. Mrs. H. A. L. Greenwood, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Randolph, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fairman and Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Thompson and daughter, Miss Lawrence, who have been "seeing California" for the last month, are all expected home today.

Roy Everly returned the first of the week from an extended trip to the Pacific coast. He visited the two big expositions and also spent some time at Seattle, Wash., where his sister, Dr. Everly, is engaged in the practice of her profession.

Mrs. G. W. Evans and children returned to their home at Little River Tuesday after a visit to her sister, Mrs. R. L. Sloan and family at their home across the river at Warren crossing. Mrs. Sloan has been sick for some time but is now recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Leverett and son have been here this week from Talpa on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Leverett, and family in the Canadan community and other relatives in this city, and to enjoy the reunion. He made the Eagle an appreciated call Monday and had his subscription date for the old Bird moved up another year.

The gasoline tractor has come and the supremacy of the mule in Mills county is threatened. This week Messrs. Sullivan, Trent & Allen unloaded at Goldthwaite a "Little Devil" gasoline tractor for H. D. Barrow, with which he intends to do all the plowing on his farm, while last week Mr. Eli Fairman had a "Dull" tractor shipped in for work on his farms. The agency for the latter has been secured by McKinley-Corrigan Co. No doubt other farmers in the county will follow suit and soon it will be Mr. Mule to the discard, as far as heavy work in the field is concerned.

MRS. NORA B. WOOD

Born July 21, 1870.
Died July 19, 1915.

Many hearts were saddened when it became known that the soul of Mrs. Nora B. Wood, wife of Mr. W. H. Wood of Regency, had returned to God who gave it. She had been sick for a long time and a few weeks ago was moved from her home to the sanitarium at Brownwood where she died Monday morning, July 19.

Mrs. Wood was well known in Goldthwaite, having lived here while her husband was county attorney a few years ago. During her long illness the devotion and tender care of her husband and children did much to prolong her life and keep her with them. She was a devoted mother, thinking always of the best things for those she loved; a faithful friend whose thoughtful deeds of kindness will never be forgotten; a conscientious Christian, who faithfully kept her church vows, never faltering in her duty as she saw it--surely for her there is a rich reward in the land of peace and rest.

Interment was made in the Odd Fellows cemetery at Goldthwaite Monday evening, services being conducted at the Methodist church by the pastor, Rev. J. G. Forester. The grave was covered with a wealth of beautiful flowers, tokens of sympathy and respect, and a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends witnessed the last sad rites. Mrs. Wood is survived by her husband, Mr. W. H. Wood, and two children, Miss Anna Bell and Ernest, and to them in their great bereavement the Eagle with a host of friends extends the sincerest sympathy.

POSTAL NOTICE

Upon the recommendation of Postmaster P. H. Clements, arrangements have been made whereby service on the new rural route, No. 4, out of Goldthwaite will be hereafter performed on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. This new arrangement will no doubt be much more acceptable to the patrons of the route than that at present in vogue.

Mrs. W. S. McCall and little daughter returned to their home at Whitney Wednesday, after an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Humphries, and other relatives in this city.

Alvin Priddy came in Wednesday to spend his vacation at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Priddy, and shed the light of his genial countenance upon his friends during the reunion. Alvin is operator for the Santa Fe at Cameron, Texas, and is another of the Mills county boys who have made good.

FIRE LOSS

Tuesday afternoon about 2 o'clock the large barn of G. W. Jackson, on his place south-west of town was totally destroyed by fire. Included in the contents of the barn were fifty bushels of corn, fifty bushels of maize, about seventy bushels of cotton seed and two hundred bales of hay, the total loss being estimated at approximately $1,000. Spontaneous combustion is supposed to have been the cause of the fire. Mr. Jackson carried no insurance.

A FINE LECTURE

On last Tuesday night at the Baptist church, the citizens of Goldthwaite were offered one of the rarest treats in her history. This was a lecture given by Judge Norman G. Kittrell of Houston. The subject was "The Nazarene, or A Layman's View of the Man of Galilee." Judge Kittrell is widely known as one of the most eminent jurists and ablest writers in the South. Better than all these, he is a Christian gentleman, whose life in the service of the Master, is equalled by that of very few men. He is unselfishly devoting his life and energies to the causes that help his fellowmen. When offered remuneration for this lecture service, he declined, saying it was given with the hope that it would be of service to those who heard it. It is an honor to our town and county to be visited by such men, and it is of incalculable benefit to our citizens to have their association and counsels.

Gained Four Days Out of Nine

Over in Oklahoma one of the business concerns using a great many wagons had been considering the question of axle grease.

Apparently no conclusion could be reached from the statements of competitive sellers of the products, so the company decided to make a test.

Two NEW wagons which had just been delivered to the company were selected for the test. To one wagon a competitive grease was applied on both front and rear wheels, Texaco grease being used on the other.

They were set to work. In five days the competitive grease was done, the spindles got hot and a new application was required.

IN NINE DAYS TEXACO GREASE WAS STILL GOOD, SPINDLES IN PERFECT CONDITION READY FOR ONE MORE DAY.

Texaco service on wagons is like Texaco service on anything else, ready to give unusual value to the man who uses it.

Take advantage of Texaco quality by buying the Red-Star-Green-T oils. Made in Texas.

was averted by the use of the SILO. We of the present call ourselves progressive, yet we are wasting more every year than Egypt could produce, because we haven't built SILOS.

Mr. Farmer, would you increase your bank balance. Then stop sending your hogs and cattle to the Northern man to be fattened by him for a profit. He buys your stock, takes them to a climate where expensive shelter is necessary, pays freight on them, feeds them on silage grown on $250.00 an acre land and still makes a large profit.

HUSBAND RESCUED

DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good. I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its helping me, and am doing my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of wonderful success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

Six amendments to the constitution are to be voted on today and it is the duty of every qualified voter to cast his ballot either for or against.

B. Y. Simpson, a Dallas banker, shot and killed himself with a pistol Monday in the barn back of his home in that city. He was fifty years old and ill health was the apparent cause of the shooting.

The editor of the Eagle acknowledges the receipt of an invitation and complimentary ticket to the attractions of the San Saba Fair and Encampment to be held on July 27, 30.

A woman was killed and five persons were injured Sunday at Elgin, Texas, when the rear end of an automobile in which they were riding was struck by a train. The automobile was turned over and badly damaged.

According to a statement by Dr. T. H. Norton of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, a corps of Swiss dyestuff chemists is to be imported to aid in the development of the new American coal tar dye industry. Negotiations are under way with American firms for the establishment of plants in this country.

At San Angelo last week a Ford car won over all other entries in a two hundred mile endurance race over the road between that city and Sonora. The Ford completed the distance in five hours, nineteen minutes and twenty seconds, making an average of forty miles an hour. The second car was a Buick, almost an hour later, and a Car-Nation was third. Out of seven cars entered in the race, only three finished, the others dropping out.

Leo M. Frank, who was saved from the gallows by a commutation of sentence from Governor Slaton, was attacked by a fellow prisoner in the Georgia state penitentiary last Saturday night and had his throat cut. The assailant has been put in irons, but so far has refused to talk. The attack was a vicious one and fears are expressed that the victim may die as a result. If Frank lives, according to the physicians, he will always have a stiff neck on account of the muscles there having been cut. Governor Slaton, in commenting upon the attempt on Frank's life, is quoted as saying: "I do not believe the attack on Frank could be traced to any outside influence working for Frank's destruction. I believe that the criminal mind, aroused perhaps by newspaper reports, was responsible."

Have't you noticed that the good old sun gets up just the same every morning no matter how high the black type grows during the night on the first page of the daily press. Don't you know, as a sensible person, that the troubles that are temporarily disturbing a certain number of people are not one-half as bad as they are hourly painted. Don't you know that it is estimated that not one shot in a hundred being fired in Europe hits anything, but air, trees and dirt. Don't you remember that Europe has been at war before and the world did not go to smash. Now all this is not to belittle or make light of any real trouble. There is trouble of course; in fact there are many kinds of trouble besetting us, one of the chief of which in our judgment at the present time is psychological. A lot of people act as if the world had never been up against anything of the sort before. What rot! Since time began, wars and rumors of wars, plagues and rumors of plagues have been a regular part of the world's program of progress. What is going on does not differ in any essential particular from what has already occurred time and again—the grass grows again, the seed time and the harvests roll around, men work and achieve, prosperity follows fast upon disaster and that which we call history repeats and repeats a ain.—Eagle Lake Headlight

ENTERED INTO LIFE

The hours men and women give in their lives to attendance at funerals are not many. The dead ask little service, little time, at the hands of the living, and that little only from those who have been nearest and dearest to them in life. At the impressive religious ceremonies that mark the passing of a familiar earthly form from the vision of men none are bidden, and those who enter come as a privileged group whose respect and love entitle them to participation in so solemn a farewell.

Funerals are rites weighed heavily with tears—tears of desolation, of sympathy, of bitter sorrow—tears, it may be, of unavailing repentance or unspoken regrets, but tears there are always, and silent thoughts of the one before whose mortal remains the symbolic lights of tapers burn, above whose pulseless heart the wildest of flowers rest. Sometimes the thoughts are gravely mournful that a blossom perhaps of life should lie chilled and dead before unfolding. Sometimes the thoughts lament a wasted life and a bitter and unhappy end of earthly things. Sometimes the thoughts are speculative as to what the inner spiritual life has been of the one whose bark has now put out from earthly shore. Sometimes the cruelty of death in cutting down a life in full vigor of usefulness seems almost to blind the understanding to the reality of the promised crown beyond the present cross.

And then, sometimes, there comes a parting hour strangely different from all of these, one that impresses all who participate therein as an hour triumphant; an hour when temple and priests at God's earthly altar seem transformed into an outer court of waiting, and imagination presses beyond to a heavenly temple where one beloved has triumphantly entered in.

Ten thousand times ten thousand
In sparkling raiment bright;
The armies of the ransomed saints
Throng up the steps of light;
'Tis finished! all is finished.
Their fight with death and sin;
Fling open wide the golden gates
And let the victors in.

Yes, the golden gates have opened wide, a victor has passed in. Those assembled to pay tribute to the dead seem but earthly witnesses to testify to the greatness of such departing soul, and the high sweetness of the voices of vested choir boys seems but the link of music that unites the broken songs of men with the rapturous anthems of heaven. Such funerals are triumphant, and those who come out from them into the world of men come with a light, not a shadow, upon their souls. This is the light that attends the mortal that hath put on immortality, the victor that hath entered in.—Atchison Globe.

TRAVELING MAN'S EXPERIENCE

"In the summer of 1888 I had a very severe attack of cholera morbus. Two physicians worked over me from four a. m. to 6 p. m., without giving me any relief and then told me they did not expect me to live; that I had best telegraph for my family. Instead of doing so, I gave the hotel porter fifty cents and told him to buy me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and take no substitute. I took a double dose according to the directions and went to sleep after the second dose. At five o'clock the next morning I was called by my order and took a train for my next stopping point, a well man but feeling rather shaky from the severity of the attack," writes H. W. Ireland, Louisville, Ky. Obtainable everywhere. (adv)

THE ONLY SAFE WAY

Don't sleep on your left side, for it causes too great a pressure on the heart.
Don't sleep on your stomach, for that interferes with the respiration of that lung.
Don't sleep on your right side, for that interferes with the respiration of both lungs and makes breathing difficult.
Don't sleep on your back, for this method of getting rest is bad for the nervous system.
Don't sleep sitting in a chair, for your body falls into an unnatural position, and you can not get the necessary relaxation.
Don't sleep standing up, for you may topple over and crack your skull.
Don't sleep.

COMANCHE

Mrs. J. H. Kelly and family of Goldthwaite visited Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Kelly here last week returning home Sunday.

Comanche has already shipped some thing like a hundred cars of oats. These all sold for between 33 and 38 cents per bushel.

Mr. H. E. Watkins of the Bureau of Markets of Washington, D. C., has leased the Cash orchard, near Comanche, for two years. Mr. Watson has been in the government service for years. He is a forest and orchard expert and has been all over the Government service.—Chief.

Tuesday night the Marketing Association made another shipment of hogs and cattle, realizing on the hogs $327.88 and on cattle $289.14. One cow netted $75.09 clear of all expenses.

The Old Settlers and Woodmen have come together and have agreed to have a three days picnic and reunion at Comanche. This gathering is to be held in Comanche on August 18, 19 and 20.

A wagon and team belonging to C. W. Oash of the City Wagon Yard, ran away Tuesday and smashed the hind wheel of a surrey belonging to J. T. Last Saturday evening while crossing Wallace street Miss Ethel Walker came near being victim of a serious auto accident. Tom Smith was driving a car and it was right on her before she saw it. In the excitement she grasped the axel or spring and was dragged 40 or 50 feet. The fact that she held onto the car is the only thing that saved her life. She was not injured except for a few minor bruises and scratches.—Star.

Miss Ethel Murray arrived at home Wednesday of last week. She attended school at Boston the past year and had been visiting Miss Reba Wathers at Amarillo for some weeks on the way home.

Judge Kirvin of the Secretary of States office at Austin was here Thursday of last week and approved the draft of the charter for San Saba Oil Company which Matt. F. Allison and Jas. F. Dofflemyer have organized for the purpose of exploiting the San Saba and Richland Springs oil fields.—News.

HAMILTON

Mr. Will Little and family went to Goldthwaite Saturday to visit home folks, returning Monday.

Mrs. E. L. McKinley and four children, Guy, Ermine, and two younger, left yesterday for Clarkdale, Ariz., to visit her brother Creed Taylor.

The Herald is printing an advertisement in its columns each week that has been running continuously without change as to wording or form for over twenty-five years.

The commissioners court this week sold 135 acres of the county farm at $50 per acre. There are no improvements on the part sold. The entire farm consisted of 320 acres, and is situated about three miles south of Hamilton.

Our old true and tried friend, John C. Baskin, from near Energy, was here last Saturday to attend the meeting of Ex-Confederates. He was nominated for commander and would have been chosen without a dissenting voice had he not asked to be excused.

Esq. W. B. McAnelly and his brother George returned recently from their visit to East Texas near Lufkin where they spent their boyhood days. The squire said it had been 40 years since he saw the old place where he had plowed so many furrows, or the old lake where he had hunted and fished when a mere lad, and he said it had all changed so he could not realize it as the same place.—Herald.

J. E. Bruton, who has been farming near Goldthwaite, has sold his crop and farm interests, and will return to the neighborhood of Naruna to make his home.

News came Tuesday that Mrs. P. L. Stuck was quite ill at her home in Mills county, a few miles north of Goldthwaite, and for a time her daughter, Mrs. J. R. FARMERS INSTITUTE STATE MEETING

Austin, Texas.—The Commissioner of Agriculture, Fred W. Davis, has stated that there will be in all probability more than 2,000 in attendance at the State meeting of the Farmers' Institute to be held in Austin, July 27 to 30, inclusive.

An excellent program has been arranged and printed, covering the four days, and is now ready for distribution. Perry G. Holden, an agricultural expert of national reputation, will address the institute, as well as J. A. Kiernan, inspector in charge of foot and mouth eradication for the United States Government. The subject of his address will be "Tick Eradication." Col. Alba Haywood, of San Benito, who gave up the theatrical profession to become a farmer, will present to the Institute his plan of "Unit Marketing."

The authorities of the University Extension Department have been requested by the Commissioner to cooperate in making a success, and Mr. Davis announces the most ready and helpful co-operation in this quarter. The Extension Department has prepared quite an extensive exhibit of interest to farmers, which will be displayed on the University campus during the meeting. The University auditorium will be used as a meeting place.

Governor Ferguson will address the Institute on some subject which he deems of interest. Dr. Elva Wright of Houston will deliver a lecture to the women on nursing.

The Boy Scouts of Austin will act as the reception committee and look after the comfort and convenience of the guests. The Baby Beef Clubs, Egg Circles and Poultry Associations will also attend the Institute, bringing many boys and girls along with their elders. The Blind Institute building and equipment have been requisitioned, and it will be filled with girls who do their own cooking and serving while here. Many of the men and women in attendance upon the Institute will be lodged in University buildings.

Secretary Long of the Austin Chamber of Commerce declares that Austin is ready to accommodate 4,000 guests if it is necessary.

PROTRACTED MEETING

A protracted meeting will be held at Williams Ranch by the Christian church, beginning Saturday night July 31, and continuing indefinitely. Rev. I. A. Dyches will do the preaching and an earnest invitation is extended to the people of all denominations to attend the services, which will be held under the tabernacle. Ideal conditions obtain for those who come from a distance, as there are good camping grounds and plenty of good spring water and it is hoped the people will come out and stay for the series of meetings.

A Delightful Vacation Nearing its Close

When I wrote you last we were in the great Exposition City of San Francisco, seeing the sights and enjoying the surroundings. Since that time the scene has shifted frequently and we are now in Colorado Springs, Colo.

On our last day at the fair we met Mr. L. R. Everly of Goldthwaite, who was en route home from Seattle and stopped to have a final look at the fair, having been there at an earlier date for a more extended visit and inspection of the exhibits. Leaving San Francisco on Tuesday morning we crossed the Bay to Oakland, where we boarded a Western Pacific train for Salt Lake City, Utah, arriving there Wednesday afternoon. This journey carried us through Sacramento, the Capital of the State, and it was surprising to find the great difference in the climate of that city and that of the southern portion of the state. One of the hottest days we have spent was in that section.

We stopped a short time at Oroville, the scene of the first gold discoveries in 1894. Mining is still carried on there on a large scale and there are many signs of activity thereabouts.

Leaving Oroville we passed into Feather River Canon and for more than 100 miles the railroad follows the course of the river and there could not be more beautiful and awe-inspiring scenery in the world. The train passes through 32 tunnels in the 100 miles which gives an idea of the mountains and rugged condition of that section.

Some time during the early hours of Wednesday morning we crossed over the California line into Nevada and the greater portion of the day was spent in traveling the barren wastes of that state. Occasionally a settlement could be seen and there were signs of life in some of the valleys, but taken as a whole it makes a mighty poor impression on the travelers.

Before we reached the Utah line salt beds stretching out like great snow fields could be seen and immediately after crossing into the state we beheld the salt beds at a much closer range, the railroad traversing them for many miles.

The place we most desired to visit in our entire itinerary was Salt Lake City and we were not disappointed in the scenery and conditions we found there. We reached the city by crossing the Great Salt Lake from which the place takes its name. It is a prosperous city with a population of perhaps one hundred thousand (just about the size of Dallas). Among the most peculiar sights to be seen there are the snow capped mountains which are apparently near by, while in the city the temperature is some where near 100 in the shade.

Of course all strangers who visit Salt Lake want to know something of the Mormons and their wonderful temple and we were like all the rest. We knew, of course, that we would not be allowed to enter the temple, but there was no objection to our inspection from the outside. It is a magnificent structure and the Mormons claim the building and furnishings cost four million dollars and required 40 years in building, which may be so for all I know, but it sounds to me like it might be considerably exaggerated. It is said that only about 40 per cent of the population of the city are believers in the doctrine taught by Brigham Young and Joseph Smith. We heard both sides of the story about polygamy, but do not care to discuss that feature at this time, further than to say that our investigations led us to believe that the doctrine on that subject taught by old man Brigham is still observed by many of his disciples. We talked with one man who said his father was a polygamist and that he was one of 24 children. We were shown a man who was said to be one of 87 children of one family, his father having 31 wives and 28 of the sons standing more than 6 feet in height. But stay! we have no quarrel with the Mormons who are welcome to live their lives in their own way.

We left Salt Lake City Friday and reached Glenwood Springs, Colo., a famous watering place, that night. We stayed there until Saturday afternoon, when we proceeded to Den-

A Berry with Three Different Flavors

In Jamaica grows a berry that tastes like cinnamon, cloves and nutmeg. When the natives of that island discovered this berry, being unable to decide on which spice it tasted most like, they compromised the matter by calling it "all-spice." That is where allspice got its name.

Allspice is grown in other places, but the Island where it was first discovered and which named it, still produces the best allspice—for that reason all White Swan Allspice is Jamaica Allspice.

Now inasmuch as it is a certain oil in the berry which gives it its flavor, or rather its three flavors, the drying and grinding and packing of the berry must be very, very carefully handled so as not to let that oil be lost by evaporation. In the matter of White Swan Allspice the greatest care is taken to retain every drop of oilness—the grinding is done by our own process which preserves all the original rich flavor. Finally it is packed in air-tight tins which keep all the good in. Your grocer sells White Swan Allspice—ask for it.

GOOD ADVICE

To the Farmers of Mills county:

It looks as if we were now entering a summer drouth and as the hot dry winds are going to be very damaging to the crop. I would suggest to those who wish to use their opportunities to best possible advantage, that you keep up the cultivation of the growing crop.

The high, dry winds will rapidly pump out the soil's moisture unless a good soil mulch is retained; and in order to keep a good mulch which will help to save the moisture and prevent the crop from rapid deterioration, it is advisable that the cultivation be kept up regularly until it rains or until the crop reaches full maturity.

The soil should be stirred every seven or eight days in order to keep the soil mulch, using such implements as will best suit the condition of the land, usually a small harrow or heel sweeps or scratcher, keeping the soil stirred from two to three inches or deeper if the soil conditions favor it. Heavy black lands usually need a four inch mulch. If the work is in cotton and the boll weevil is in evidence, fail not to attach a brush or pole to the handles of your plow that the punctured squares and possibly weevils will be thrown on to the hot soil, as this will greatly assist in destroying the pest.

If a good mulch is kept up regularly as above stated, it will more than likely prevent the cotton from shedding and help the plant to continue putting on more fruit and also prevent premature opening in the case of a continued drouth; and young corn will fill out and make heavier ears if this work is done well and regular.

Yours most truly,

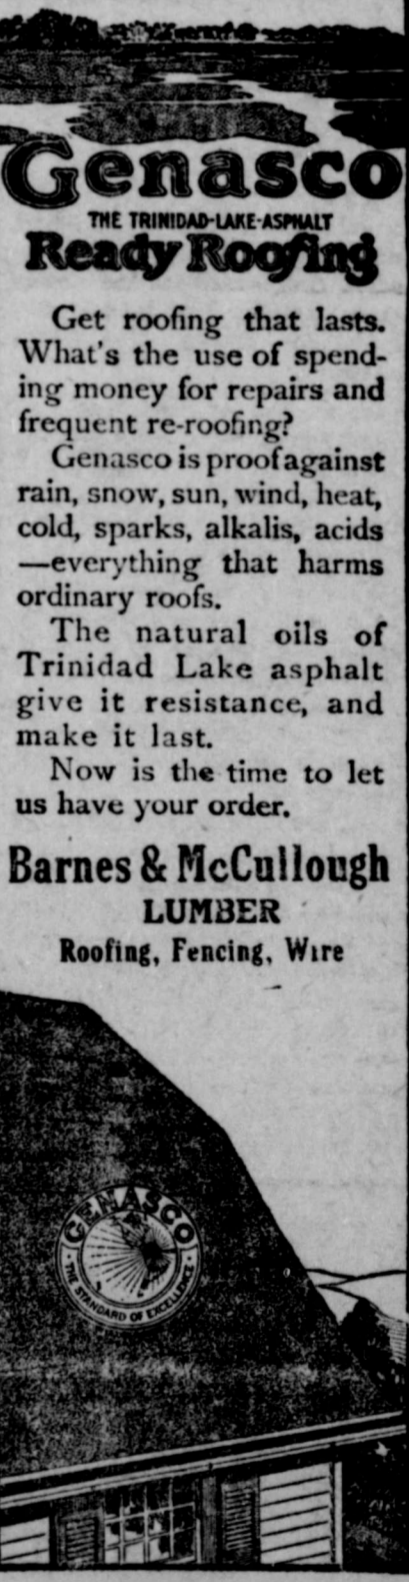

O. H. ROBBINS,

Special Agent, U. S. Dept. of Agr. culture,

NO MORE 10-DAY ROUND TRIP TICKETS

The Santa Fe agent at Goldthwaite has received instructions from his company to discontinue the sale of the customary ten-day round trip tickets at a reduction of ten per cent on the purchase price. The usual periodical excursion rate tickets, however, will still be issued.

The discontinuance of these tickets is not confined to the Santa Fe system but extends to all railroads in Texas. Inconvenience and annoyance in taking up the unused portions of such tickets is assigned as the principal reason for their withdrawal.

Mrs. H. R. Graves was carried to the sanitarium at Temple yesterday morning for treatment for gallstones, from which she has been suffering for some time. In all probability an operation will be necessary, but in any case, it is sincerely hoped by the many friends of this estimable lady that she will be benefited. Her son and daughter, Mr. Andrew Graves and Mrs. Neal Dickerson, accompanied her.

REUNION ATTRACTS LARGE CROWDS

Fine Program Each Day—Good Speaking and an Enjoyable Time For Everybody

The 28th Annual Confederate Reunion Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week was undoubtedly one of the best occasions of the kind ever held in Goldthwaite. The attendance was fully up to expectation and the people appeared to enjoy the occasion from start to finish. Large and attentive audiences listened with appreciation to the various addresses and there was plenty of amusement and entertainment for old and young alike, the merry-go-round, electric theatre, base ball games and other attractions drawing largely upon the assembly all during the days and nights. The programs were well arranged and the events so timed as to avoid conflict and keep "something doing" all the time.

Wednesday was Confederate Day and the old veterans and their friends early began to arrive until there was an unusually large attendance for the opening day. At 10:00 a. m. Jeff Davis camp was called to order and Rev. D. I. Haralson, in his usual happy vein, welcomed the audience gathered to honor the old soldiers. Judge S. H. Allen was called upon and eloquently responded to the welcome. Hon. A. R. Watson then delivered the address of the morning, which was logical, forceful and well received and merits more space than can be given here. The camp re-assembled at 2 p. m. Judge Norman G. Kittrell of Houston, in an address given in his own inimitable way, left a lasting impress on his hearers. When the crowds came together again after supper they were entertained by Goldthwaite's excellent band, directed by Floyd I. Mullin, which rendered delightful music for about forty minutes in honor of the old confederate heroes, without charge. This was followed by a lecture by Judge Kittrell on "The Divinity of Christ," which was a most complete knockout of the modern so-called "higher criticism."

Thursday was W. O. W. Day. The members of that organization assembled at their hall at 9:30 a. m. and marched to the grounds where Dr. Em. Wilson delivered the opening address in a very entertaining and able manner. He told his hearers that the plan and purpose of the day was that everybody should have a good time and feel free to seek it in any legitimate way. Rev. J. C. Forester delivered a very strong and eloquent address on "Fraternalism" at 11 o'clock and music was enjoyed at intervals throughout the day from a victrola provided by the W. O. W. camp. The afternoon was given over to exhibition drills by uniformed teams and a sham battle was staged for the entertainment of the large crowds. In the evening some fine selections were rendered by a vocal quartette composed of Mr. and Mrs. Borah Knight and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Head, to the delight of all who heard them. Then Rev. R. A. Gay delivered an address on "Woodcraft." To those who have ever heard Rev. Gay it is needless to say that his was an excellent address—he delivers no other sort. The W. O. W. program, as published in the Eagle, was carried out in its entirety and the day was voted a great success by all who were present.

Friday was Farmers Union Day and brought many people together at an early hour. Among the speakers present at the opening were J. L. Quicksall of Waco, Hon. Geo. W. Kyser of Austin and Gen. H. D. Askew of Galveston, and at the time the Eagle was put to press there was every indication that the Farmers Union were having a gala day. In many respects this has been the most successful reunion ever held here.

MRS. GIBSON HONORED

Mrs. Jno. C. Hicks entertained with a dinner party on July 21st with Mrs. Jas. G. Gibson of Bangs as honor guest. Covers were laid for Mrs. Jas. C. Gibson of Bangs, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. A. Mrs. A. D. Baker, Goldthwaite, says: "My health was very poor and my kidneys caused much discomfort. Part of the time I had a dull ache across my kidneys and then it turned to sharp, shooting pains. Often, I got very dizzy and headaches came on frequently. I felt depressed and wornout. I didn't use anything for this trouble until I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and I got a box from Clements' Drug Store. Soon the backache lessened and I felt better. I used altogether about one-half boxes and all these ailments went away. I haven't noticed any return of them since."
