

The Goldthwaite Eagle.

VOL. 22.

GOLDTHWAITE, MILLS COUNTY, TEXAS, AUGUST 21, 1915.

NO. 1

TWENTY-SECOND YEAR

With this issue the Eagle begins the twenty-second year of its publication and celebrates the passing of the mile post on Time's highway by placing a new heading on the paper.

The present management has been in charge of the business all of the time since the establishment of the paper, with the exception of ten months at the beginning, and has tried with every succeeding issue to improve the paper and make it a benefit and a satisfaction to its patrons. How well we have succeeded let the record show: We have made a paper that is universally recognized as one of the very best county papers in the state; we have a circulation that is superior to almost any paper published in a town of the size of Goldthwaite or a county of equal population with Mills county and we have secured these subscribers without personal solicitation or the aid of premiums. We could tell of other features and facts the record reveals, but it is only necessary to say that the paper has a percentage of which it is extremely proud and a record for fair dealings with its patrons that makes the business as permanent as it is pleasant.

It shall be our aim in the future as it has been in the past, to give the people who patronize us the very best service of which we are capable and to make a paper that will be a credit to Goldthwaite and Mills county.

ROCK SPRINGS

(Too late for last week).

Good morning Mr. Editor and readers.

Things are progressing somewhat this week, as we have a very fine singing school going on at this place now, taught by Prof. Shelton of Democrat. We have a large class attending this school and we find Mr. Shelton to be a very fine instructor.

Sunday school, singing and B. Y. U. were very interesting Sunday with good crowds.

Some of the people of Rock Springs are attending the meeting at Big Valley this week.

Grandpa and Grandma Stark received the sad news that their son Lafayette's wife was dangerously ill at her home in Coe, Ark. We hope this reaches the paper, news will be received of her recovery.

Miss Zela Barker and brother of Comanche are visiting their uncle, Mr. Hammett, and family this week.

Mrs. Morris Traylor is visiting at Coleman.

Mrs. Minnie Stark left for San Sabo Tuesday to visit her mother.

Rev. Joe Davis returned home Monday from Merces Gap, where he has been assisting Bro. White in a meeting. He reports a great meeting with 21 conversions.

Mrs. Lee Harvey and children, who have been visiting Mr. Cook and family returned home Sunday.

Mr. John Lee and wife of Gustine visited Mr. Charles Stark and family this week.

Mr. J. C. Stark and wife and Mr. Austin Cooke and wife went to Indian Gap Thursday.

Claude and Will Godwin and families are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin.

JENNY LIND.

MEETING TO BEGIN

Rev. Clark of Mullin was here Monday on his way home from filling his appointment at Big Valley and informed us he would begin a meeting last night near the Bledsoe place, on the river, in Big Valley. This will be a camp meeting, where there is plenty of nice camping room and an abundance of water. Everybody has a cordial and pressing invitation to attend the meeting and all who will camp are invited to do so. Rev. Clark expects to do some of the preaching, and will have other preachers to assist in the work.

VALUABLE INFORMATION

College Station, Texas.

Most of the parasites which effect hogs can be prevented simply by keeping the pig lots sanitary and giving the hogs wholesome food," says Dr. R. P. Marsteller, professor of veterinary science at the A. & M. college. The hog falls an easy prey to many parasites which breed in filth, and mire and mud. If you must have a hog wallow—personally I am opposed to them—keep it filled with clean water and do not let it become the breeding place for parasites of all kinds, as well as mosquitos. Two diseases are transmitted to human being from the hog—trachina and tape worm—both of which are developed from parasites. Methods of fighting the various parasites which effect hogs may be obtained from Dr. Marsteller.

The importance of subjecting every cow to be purchased for the dairy herd, or if only one cow is to be kept by the farmer, to the test for tuberculosis, is being stressed by J. W. Ridgway, professor of dairy husbandry at the A. & M. college, and by the veterinary science department at the college. While tuberculosis is not so prevalent in cows in Texas as in other States, nevertheless, dairy herd owners, who are maintaining large herds, are finding many cows which "react" when the test is applied. The possibility of the transmission of this disease from cows to human beings by use of the milk, together with the serious losses occasioned by ravages of the disease in cattle, should make the man who is on the market for cows, careful to see that the cows he buys are tuberculosis free.—Director of Extension, A. & M. College.

A GOOD MEETING

Mr. P. L. Stuck of North Brown was in to see the Eagle Monday and told of a most interesting revival held in his community for ten days by Rev. Robinson, pastor of the church. The meeting closed Sunday night and there were about thirty conversions recorded for the ten days and twenty-three additions to the church.

Mr. Stuck also told of the splendid Sunday school at North Brown. They have about eighty members with five organized classes and the interest in the work has been good all summer.

Ernest Cooke and wife returned to their home in Winters the first of the week, after a visit to relatives in the Rock Springs community.

R. W. Barr, one of the county's leading men, was here from Star Monday transacting business and made the Eagle an appreciated call.

W. H. Thompson and wife and son W. T. Thompson, passed thru the city Sunday en route to Brenham, after a short visit to relatives in Brownwood. They made the trip in their auto.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Miller left Tuesday evening for a visit to the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco and will also visit other points in the west before they return.

A SUMMARY OF THE MODERN CLASSICS

G. W. Graves made a business visit to Brownwood Tuesday.

Chas. Rudd made a business visit to Fort Worth the early part of the week.

T. J. Williams of Long Branch had business in the metropolis one day this week.

S. F. McBurney, night operator for the Santa Fe at Zephyr, visited in this city Sunday.

H. A. Sykes was here from Big Valley one day this week, looking after business matters.

H. F. Butts was among the prominent visitors to this city from Mullin the early part of the week.

C. H. Pfluger and family have moved from Priddy to Eden, where he will operate a gin the coming season.

A large number of Goldthwaite people attended the funeral of Mr. R. F. Long at Big Valley last Sunday morning.

Mrs. H. R. Graves returned Friday night from Temple, where she had been in the sanitarium for treatment for several weeks.

Wm. Campbell and wife returned to their home at Blackwell the first of the week, after a visit to relatives here and at Star.

J. O. McLarey returned Tuesday from a visit to Galveston. He left the island city before the excitement over the storm had spread to any considerable extent.

Joe Peck and R. H. Patterson were among the visitors to this city from Star the early part of the week.

J. C. Burdett of Big Valley was one of the good men in town last Saturday and he took advantage of the opportunity to renew the subscription of his son T. J. Burdett at Montague for the Eagle.

Elias Hooks and family and J. W. Godwin and family returned to their homes in Miami county this week, after visiting and attending a family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Godwin, in the Rock Springs community.

Claud Godwin and family returned to their home in Fort Worth the first of the week, after spending several days and attending a family reunion at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Godwin, in the Rock Springs community.

Thos. T. Nichols returned home Monday evening from Detroit, Mich., where he had been as a delegate to the national letter carriers association from the state association.

When I read the poetry of Elizabeth Barrett, it is as though the veil that hides immortality from mortality were lifted by a wind out of Eden. When I read a page of Shelley, it is as though a planet inhabited by spirits had wonderously veered from its orbit so near our earth that I can catch the gleam of the shining vesture, and hear, as soul sings to soul, the notes of the spirit-hymns, ere it all dies into the light of common day. When I read Rossetti, it is as though human blood ran in spirit veins, and the hands in which it pulsed caressed me. I find under the hand of Keats mere written words made into living music, and beauty to exist as a sentient being. I am fetched aloft by Byron upon the wings of the Morning as of old. Upon the open scroll of Swinburne I find the alembic words of passion and of joy that change

"Dross of body and dregs of spirit,
Into sanctities rich and strange."
The merest breath of Landor blows for me ambrosial preludes, and slays all base hopes and scorns and fears. When I enter the Hall of Song and hear the mighty voice of Morris, I seat myself, unabashed, coequal with the Great, upon a throne of gold, as after battle and the victory of battle, and hearken to the noble harping. Upon any page of Henley I find flaming and bouyant words that sign me brother and lover of my race—that hearten me to live a man's life, tried and true. The living, breathing, voice-valved lines of Robert Louis Stevenson exalt me to brotherhood and high endeavor as would his hand-clasp and his smile. I find in Browning the highest and intensest expression of human emotion and divine love the human heart can attain to or endure. No most fragmentary thought of all my great poets but steads me in my heart's sorest need.—Extracts from article "Texas Poets: of the Smaller Fry" in "Akade" by Leonard Doughty.

Ernest Cooke and wife returned to their home in Winters the first of the week, after a visit to relatives in the Rock Springs community.

R. W. Barr, one of the county's leading men, was here from Star Monday transacting business and made the Eagle an appreciated call.

W. H. Thompson and wife and son W. T. Thompson, passed thru the city Sunday en route to Brenham, after a short visit to relatives in Brownwood. They made the trip in their auto.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Miller left Tuesday evening for a visit to the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco and will also visit other points in the west before they return.

DUNK HARRIS DEAD

The people of Goldthwaite learned yesterday with deep and abiding sorrow of the death of Mr. J. Dunk Harris which occurred Thursday night at his home in Dallas.

Mr. Harris lived in Goldthwaite for a long time and was identified with the town's best interests from its beginning. For a number of years he was engaged in the mercantile business at this place and later became interested in banking. A few years ago he retired from business and later moved to Dallas, where he resided until the time of his death, with the exception of a short time spent in Plano. No man ever lived here who was more universally esteemed and none ever had more true friends among the people of Mills county. He was broad-minded and liberal-hearted and was ever ready to give aid to those in need and many of the pioneer settlers of this section remember with love and gratitude his many acts of kindness and helpfulness to them.

A good man has gone and truly he will be missed by all who knew him or were associated with him. He leaves a wife and one son, besides other relatives and to all of them the sympathy of the Mills county people is extended.

The funeral will be held from the depot this morning at 9 o'clock and burial will take place in the Odd Fellows Cemetery, the services being conducted under direction of the Masonic fraternity.

RECOMMENDS CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY

"I never hesitate to recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Sol Williams, merchant, Jesse, Tenn. "I sell more of it than of any other preparations of like character. I have used it myself and found it gave me more relief than anything else I have ever tried for the same purpose." Obtainable everywhere. (adv)

The first bale of 1915 cotton brought to this city was grown by Fred Carpenter on J. C. Street's farm, known as the Costly place, about five miles east of town. It was brought in about midnight last night and will be ginned at Fairman's gin this morning.

C. W. Lindsey has traded his residence property in this city to M. H. Fletcher for the McPherson home place at Portales, N. M., and expects to move there next week. He and his family have a great many friends here who regret their departure very much, but hope for them the best of fortune in their new home.

Mrs. R. A. Gay received a message Thursday bringing the sad information that her sister, Mrs. J. D. Bedford of Amarillo, had died that day in Manitou, Col., of ptomaine poisoning. Mrs. Bedford had been in delicate health for several years and she and her daughter had been at Manitou for some time in the interest of her health. The friends of Mrs. Gay and family deeply sympathize with them in their bereavement.

RESOLUTIONS

We, your committee to whom was entrusted the duty of preparing a suitable memorial expressing the sentiment of the Goldthwaite Lodge, No. 694, A. F. & A. M., in regard to the loss it has sustained in the death of our beloved brother, Brother D. T. Bush, respectfully report that his whole Masonic life was characterized by simplicity and purity; that he leaves an example worthy of imitation. Brother Bush was ever mindful of the feelings of others and continually practised the tenets of his profession.

Brother Bush was born in Jefferson county, Tenn., December 17th, 1850, was made a Mason in Center City Lodge, No. 558, A. F. & A. M., November 29th, 1890, admitted, and was a member (Charter member) of Mullin Lodge, No. 806, A. F. & A. M., in 1893, dismissed from Mullin Lodge and affiliated with Goldthwaite Lodge January 22nd., 1910, died May 14th., 1915, and was buried with Masonic honors in the I. O. O. F. Cemetery at Goldthwaite, Texas, May 15, 1915.

Resolved, that in the death of Prother D. T. Bush, Goldthwaite Lodge has lost one of its true and trusty members, the community a good citizen, and his family a beloved husband and father, and be it further resolved, a copy of these resolutions be furnished the bereaved family, a copy spread on the minutes of Goldthwaite Lodge No. 694, A. F. & A. M., and a copy furnished the Goldthwaite Eagle for publication.

Goldthwaite, Texas, August 28th., 1915.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING

Rev. J. R. Davis of Rock Springs received a message last Friday night informing him of the death of his son, Harley, who was killed by lightning in San Angelo that afternoon about 6:30 o'clock.

Young Mr. Davis made his home at Coleman and was in San Angelo en route to Knickerbocker to see about some cattle he owned. He was between the Orient depot and roundhouse walking with a friend, when the bolt of lightning struck and instantly killed him. His companion was stunned but not seriously injured. Mr. Davis was known to a number of people here, having recently visited his parents at Rock Springs. He leaves a wife and one child, besides a number of other relatives.

Rev. and Mrs. Davis and two young sons boarded the train here Saturday morning to go to Coleman to attend the funeral and be with other members of the grief-stricken family.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire through the columns of the Eagle to express our thanks and appreciation to friends and acquaintances for the many kindnesses and favors shown Louie during his illness.

You have indeed been faithful in this trying hour, your words of cheer and hope have been a comfort and solace to us. Had it not been for your willing service and the watchful care of our Father, we should have been helpless. May He who knows and understands our hearts help you to feel the gratitude that is ours for you. God alone can heal our loss, but you have been an instrument in His hands.

For the beautiful floral offerings we are indeed thankful, knowing that they come from loving hearts and realizing the message they convey, we are made sincerely appreciative.

In loving gratitude,
MR. AND MRS. L. E. MILLER

THE GULF STORM

Great damage was done in Galveston and all along the gulf coast by a storm the early part of the week. The wind reached a velocity of 92 miles per hour and heavy rains fell all over the coast country. Telegraph and telephone wires were rendered useless and in many places the lines were destroyed, while railroads were damaged by high water and the loss of small bridges and track. Galveston was of course the heaviest loser and it is estimated that the property damage at that place exceeded that of 1900, while the loss of life was not great—perhaps not more than a dozen when the facts are known. There was considerable loss of life at Texas City, Virginia Point and other places in that section and it is probable the total loss of life as a result of the storm will be more than 100.

The storm covered a large area and its effects were felt as far north as Dallas, while there was considerable loss at many inland points, including Houston, Waco, Victoria and other places.

BOY INSTANTLY KILLED IN COMANCHE

N. L. Jr., the 11-year-old son of N. L. McBrayer, was run over and instantly killed by an automobile in Comanche Monday afternoon. The accident occurred on South Main Street about two blocks west of the county jail and about three-thirty in the afternoon. Robert Robison was driving Dr. Vaughan's car on its return trip from Brownwood. According to all of the occupants, on coming in sight of the boy, about one hundred yards in front of them, they signaled and the boy started across the road in front of them apparently perfectly cool. The car also turned to go in front of the boy, thinking that there was no danger. However, the nearer they approached the more frightened the boy became, until directly even with him he seemed to literally dive in front of the car. The car stopped and occupants rushed back and picked up the body, which was perfectly lifeless; the skull being crushed.

A coroner's inquest was immediately held and a verdict of accidental death was given.—Comanche Chief.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of R. F. Long wish to express in words through the Eagle their heartfelt gratitude and thanks for the many acts of kindness by their good neighbors and friends in the great trial they have just passed through, that of surrendering their loved one from this life to the great beyond.

Each kindly thought, each word of sympathy, each lovely flower, and each beautiful deed shall live in our hearts through this life. May Heaven's smile rest upon each of you.

MRS. R. F. LONG,
MRS. L. J. LONG,

HOLD ANNUAL REUNION

The Cunningham family reunion was held last Sunday, August 15, at the regular meeting place in the park near Uncle Aaron Cunningham's farm. It was a smaller meeting than usual. Many who had never missed a meeting were not able to be present. Of the three hundred and thirty-six members of the family only one hundred and thirty-nine were present. Since the last meeting there has been six births and two deaths in the family.—Comanche Chief.

FIRST BALE FOR SAN SABA

The first bale of cotton ginned at San Saba for the season was brought in Tuesday morning by Rube Senter. It was raised on the Curry farm 8 miles below town and was ginned at the Farmers' Union gin. A. J. Gatlin bought the bale, which weighed 450 pounds, and paid 9 cents per pound for it.

Mr. Gatlin also carried around a premium list and a $41 premium list was presented for the first bale.—San Saba News.

WANTS YOUR GINNING

I have taken charge of the Perry gin, better known as "Grandma gin" in Goldthwaite and will appreciate the patronage of the farmers of this section. Some improvements have been made that will make it possible to expedite the business and I feel that the splendid reputation this gin has made in the past will justify the expectation of a liberal patronage the coming season. I promise every accommodation and courtesy within my power. Respectfully,

FRANK RAHL,
Manager Perry Gin.

THE CLERK GUARANTEED IT

The San Angelo people must be greatly alarmed over the prospects of a war with the Mexicans. A report was sent from that town the early part of the week that some of the citizens had reported seeing airships sailing over the town on several occasions.

It is rumored at President Wilson's summer home that another wedding is to take place in the white house in the near future. This time Miss Margaret Wilson, oldest daughter of the president, is to be the bride of a prominent business man of Chicago, who is also interested in social welfare work.

The hanging of C. A. Meyers at Fort Worth has been delayed by the court of criminal appeals until his sanity can be ascertained. It is not denied that he shot and killed Superintendent Montague of the Fort Worth Terminal, and the cause for the deed was that Montague had fired him.

It was stated by ex-President Taft in a speech at St. Louis this week that he believed this government should intervene in Mexico and that he was preparing to recognize the Huerta faction when his term expired. This statement gives us another cause for being glad that Woodrow Wilson was elected president of the United States in place of Mr. Taft.

The Department of Agriculture has in its possession at Washington a pair of cotton gloves and a pair of cotton socks into the manufacture of which no machinery has entered. The cotton was grown from long staple Columbia seed sent out by the department a year ago to a farmer in South Carolina. When the cotton began to ripen, about October 1, three pounds of it were picked. The seeds were picked from it by hand, and knitted from it a pair of socks and a pair of gloves. Such instances as this are encouraging evidence of the fact that progressive farmers wives have not entirely lost the useful handicraft of their mother's time.—Holland News.

The shoe shop at Huntsville penitentiary, is to make footwear for the inmates of the eleemosynary institutions of the state. Formerly shoes were made only for the inmates of the prisons. This seems to be a move in the right direction. The manufacture of convict goods is always opposed when the product is put in competition with the product of free labor, but an arrangement of this kind is different. It amounts to the same thing to the people as taking something out of one pocket and putting it in another, except that heretofore the custom has been to take the money out of one pocket and put it in the pocket of the shoe manufacturer who probably lives up north.—Temple Telegram.

I love the simple life, my family and friends I like to look into the human heart and contemplate its varied emotions, to feel its longings, to know its sorrows, to share its ambitions and its hopes. I enjoy the fields where balmy breezes blow, the prairies where fragrant flowers grow, the brooks where purling waters, flow and sparkle glint and gleam from every running ripple. The sweets of woodland solitude appeal to me, where nature's lavish prodigality is written in the beautiful green leaves, in berries, nuts and juicy fruit, and in the sunbeams that creep through leafy crevices and warm the vines and grasses growing gracefully in the protecting shadows. The songs of the birds, the cricket's chirp, the squirrel's hasty scramble up a tree, a rabbit hiding in the brush, a red-bird calling to his mate, the cooing of the timid dove, the caw of the noisy crows, and all the birds that chirp and sing and feed from nature's bounteous hand are things that interest me when we are tired of the toil and strife in the city's mart. I love to gaze up at the myriad eyes that twinkle every night, and feel that God is good and kind and pure, and not a single living creature escapes His gracious love. I see His thoughtfulness in the wonderful orb that lights the day, and hear His tender voice in waves that sing far out at sea, and break in splashes on the pebbly beach.—J. R. Ransome, Jr., in Cleburne Enterprise.

The last of the summer months should be a time for canning, preserving, drying and conserving the products from the orchard and the garden. On most farms there will be a surplus of these foods and the problem is to save them for future needs. The "truck patches" have been a factor in the cost of living this year. More peas, Irish potatoes, sweet potatoes, watermelons, cantaloupes, beans, cucumbers, cabbage, onions, etc., have been planted this season than usual. It is to our credit that we have made use of a favorable opportunity to plant more crops for home use than has been the custom. Let us save these products. Some of them will need preserving, picking and special processes for safe keeping. But this will be the most important work on the farm because it will be the means of saving a surplus, much of which would have been wasted. This work should not be left to "women and children." They may, and doubtless will, do their part, but the manager and his hands should have a part in saving the surplus. This work is of sufficient importance for all to have a part in it, and if necessary, at the expense of other farm work.—Farm and Ranch.

A good beginning has been made in diversification by planting a larger acreage in corn, wheat and oats this year. It will soon be time to sow wheat and fall oats. The preparation of the land should be done early. Let no backward step be taken in grain growing. Every farmer with stock should sow oats. Wheat is also a good crop to grow while prices are fair and the demand likely to be great. There are no good reasons for buying bread with cheap cotton, for placing the responsibility for meat upon our neighbors in Missouri, Kansas, Iowa and Nebraska. Let us make our farms feed us and our livestock.—Farm and Ranch.

In some communities and sections they have inaugurated "Pay-Up Week," which is working admirably for everybody and the occasion is likely to become an annual event to be celebrated. And why not? Only a small per cent of the outstanding obligations of the people of a community would have to be represented in ready cash in order that all might pay their debts. It has frequently been demonstrated that one man paying his debt will enable his creditor to pay, then that creditor pays others and on the endless chain goes. Inaugurate the "pay up week" sometime during or after the harvest time in every community and urge everybody to settle up their outstanding obligations during the week and a great benefit will result.

We now have the season in the ground and there is every reason to believe we will make a fairly good cotton crop. The cotton acreage was materially reduced in this county this year and the total receipts will not likely be as large as they have been in former years.

LOMETA

Mrs. T. F. Scott has returned from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Henry Rahl in Goldthwaite.

Just before going to press we learn of the wedding of Miss Mazie Buttrill and Mr. Fred Wittenburg, the wedding having taken place at Uvalde August 8.

John F. Stockton was bit on the hand by a rattlesnake early Monday morning. Dr. McKean was called and administered the usual antipodes and at last reports Mr. Stockton was rapidly recovering.

The Methodist meeting that has been in progress at the Baptist tabernacle for the past ten days closed last Sunday night. The preaching was done by Rev. C. C. Bell of Crovton and his sermons have occasioned an unusual amount of favorable comment among our people.—Reporter.

HAMILTON

Dr. Hobdy has sold his residence to Mr. Joe Smith and moved to his farm west of town.

Judge H. A. Allen, brother of S. R. Allen of this city, died at his home in Henrietta last Friday after a short illness of acute indigestion. The deceased was for many years a resident of Hamilton.

Last Monday evening, about 6 o'clock as the sun was approaching the western horizon the soul of Mrs. Helen M. Holland, mother of Mrs. S. D. Felt, left its earthly tenement and was wafted home on wings of light.

The first bale of 1915 cotton was placed on the market in Hamilton Wednesday. It was raised by John Jeschke, who lives near Shive, was ginned at Gordon's gin and was bought by Wm. Connelly & Co. at 8:50. The bale weighed 585 pounds. A premium of $30.75 was paid Mr. Jeschke, which added to the $49.70 proceeds of the sale made the bale net him $80.45.

The commissioners court has had a very serious problem on their hands. The county has owned a fine farm of 320 acres for many years. They paid $10 an acre for it and last month they sold 135 acres of it at $50 an acre. There are now less than a dozen paupers on the farm, but they have to be taken care of. The question before the court has always been what is the best thing to do with the farm to make it pay.—Herald.

COMANCHE

Andrew M. Drummond died at his home in the Mercer Gap community last Saturday, August 7, 1915, of Bright's disease.

The Texas Bonded Warehouse Company of Comanche has been organized and chartered with a paid-up capital of $6,000. The new company has bought the old Farmers' Union warehouse building.

Mrs. T. P. Kelley left Tuesday for Houston in response to a telegram that her sister, Mrs. T. W. Enloe, was not expected to live after an operation had been performed upon her.

Uncle Dick Cunningham (R. T.) is only 71 years past, but has two great-grand children. He and Mrs. Cunningham, who was Miss Lititia Wright, were married October 24, 1864, and hence celebrated their golden wedding last year.

Wallace Cunningham was in to see us a few days ago, and informed us he was moving from the farm to Newburg, and will help the boys from now on. He has strained his strength from overwork and overheating, and finds it necessary to abandon the severe test of farm labor.

Miss Marty Riley, daughter of the late W. B. Riley, of Comanche, was married to Mr. C. A. Donnell last week at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Chas. Hefflin at Luling. Mr. Donnell will be remembered as the polite and obliging Western Union telegraph operator who served here several months and left here to take a similar position in Gonzales a few weeks ago.—Vanguard.

SAN SABA

W. C. Knutson and family passed thru town Monday on their way home from a visit to relatives in Mills county.

A. F. Scott and family have moved to Sheridan, Colorado, going back with J. R. Bradley and family, who were here on a visit.

J. W. Miller of Horse Shoe Bend on the Colorado river was in town Saturday and informed the News that his son, Jeff, was shot by his wife at Sherman on Monday, July 26, Jeff had married a Sherman lady. He was working at a restaurant and the wife walked into the restaurant and shot him down. A letter from the county attorney on August 4 stated that the wife was held to await action of the grand jury without bail. Jeff was the father of one child, a boy five years old.

One of the most shocking messages ever brought to this city was that last Tuesday just after noon announcing the sudden death of Frank Baker at his ranch near Rochelle. From the best information obtainable it seems that he and a force of hands were rounding up cattle preparatory to dipping. He was bringing an unruly cow back to the herd. In some way the horse ran over the cow and fell, throwing Mr. Baker violently against the ground. He raised himself to his knees but fell back and died in a few minutes without uttering a word.—News.

BROWNWOOD

Announcement is authorized today that the Lyric Theatre has been leased for a period of one year to J. C. Stevens of Austin, who will take charge of the new opera house here on August 23.

The voters of the Blanket road precinct Saturday defeated the proposed road bond issue by a majority of two to one. Only 204 votes were polled, while the total voting strength of the precinct is almost twice that number.

The first bale of cotton to be gathered in Brown county for this year was that of J. W. Lynch, who lives in the Bangs-Trickham community. He gathered the bale last week, but arrived in Brownwood too late to have it ginned Saturday, but early Monday morning the first hum of the gin was heard and as the result Mr. Lynch holds the distinction of bringing in Brown county's first bale of cotton. This bale was sold Monday afternoon to the Terry Cotton Company at ten cents per pound. It was classed as strict middling.

The growth of the recently organized Belle Plaine Avenue Baptist church has been so rapid since its organization five weeks ago, that additional room for the Sunday school and the audiences who attend the preaching services is imperatively needed. At a congregational meeting during the past week, it was unanimously decided that a new church be erected, on the two lots owned by the congregation at the side of the present building, and members of the congregation are now soliciting contributions to the building fund.—Brownwood Bulletin.

LAMPASAS

T. E. Hamilton and family, of Star, Mills county, spent Sunday here, the guests of P. Y. Childre and family.

Rev. Z. V. Liles has gone to Johnson City, where he will be engaged in holding a protracted meeting for the next several days.

Prof. and Mrs. W. W. Hart have gone to Smithville, where their home will be for a time, at least, Mr. Hart having the superintendency of the city schools there.

Mr. and Mrs. Field Senterfitt will leave this evening for the great attractions at San Francisco and San Diego, California, and expect to be gone for three or four weeks.

Mrs. Annie Baker has purchased from Mrs. W. W. Allen the home which Mrs. Allen bought of J. H. Andrew some months ago, and the Baker family moved into the residence Monday.

Miss Zoe Vernor is at home from San Angelo, where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. B. Whittenburg. Little Joe Ben Whittenburg came home with her to spend a time.—Leader.

J. E. Landers of the Shaw Bend section was a visitor to our city Saturday.

County Clerk Bill Ellis returned Monday from Austin, where he had been to get a bridge bond for $1,999 approved. The bond was approved and the court sold it to the court house sinking fund.

Matt F. Allison received a message from P. M. Faver Tuesday announcing a ten million foot gas well had been brought in in San Patricio county, near Corpus Christi, and on land adjoining that of Messrs. Faver and Allison and other San Saba people.—Star.

LEO FRANK MURDERED

Leo M. Frank who was convicted in Atlanta, Ga., on a charge of having murdered a young girl in a factory where he was superintendent, was taken from the state prison Monday night by a mob of criminals and murdered. The prison officials appear to have made little or no resistance to the mob and no report of the act of the outlaws reached the public until the prisoner had been carried 100 miles and hanged. In reference to the murder the Dallas News says:

The twenty-five men who took Leo Frank from the Georgia prison farm and hanged him are both anarchists and murderers. They are anarchists in that they defied the authority of the State and they are murderers in that they have taken a life which had not been forfeited according to a decision reached by legal process. It argues nothing to say that they believed Frank deserving the fate they meted out to him. It was not for them to pass judgment on him. In passing and executing judgment they put themselves in an attitude of rebellion against the Government of Georgia. The position of Georgia is even more unenviable now than it was when it seemed likely that it would permit the execution of one concerning whose guilt there was large room for doubt. That stigma now attaches to it, and with deeper hue than if it had permitted his execution in legal manner. The stigma can not be wholly removed in any case. The world will continue to think of Georgia as a State which has permitted the execution of a man concerning whose guilt the evidence was so far from conclusive that the Governor was moved to intervene in his behalf. But if the stigma that has been put on Georgia can not be wholly removed, it can be made less black by hunting out and hanging the men who have murdered Leo Frank. The most that Georgia can ask is that the world suspend judgment as to the degree of its culpability until it shall have had time to deal with the murderers who have defied its authority.

New York was treated to an interesting sight the other day when Sperry, in his stabilized flying boat, swooped across the bay and circled around a big harbor dredge.

To our people in the windows of our New York office, this performance had an interest aside from the spectacular. Sperry was using Texaco Motor Oil; the dredge was using Texaco Crater Compound—and to complete the circle, the very building in which our offices are situated gave another instance of Texaco service.

For in this carefully-run power plant, one of the largest isolated plants in New York City, Texaco Engine Oils lift the friction load and keep the big bearings cool.

Do you wonder we were impressed?

Here were Texaco Products used on land, and water, and in the air—used on the light, powerful engine of the aero—on the heavy Corliss engines and dynamos downstairs—and as a protection against wear and salt water on the cables of the dredge.

In each case we were able to meet the condition with a lubricant exactly suited to the purpose. We can do the same for you in engine room, mill, or machine shop, on tractor, or in harvester—wherever oil is needed. There is a Texas Company agent near you. Let him tell you which oil you need.

TRIBUTE OF LOVE TO RILEY LONG

Many friends are in sorrow, Big Valley in tears and a noble hearted brother sleeps beneath wreathes of beautiful flowers. Verily if every one whom he had befriended were to place a flower upon his bier, our golden-hearted friend would sleep beneath a wilderness of roses. "Behold how they loved him," are the words that came to the writer as he saw them linger at the casket to get the last view of the remains of one who had been so dear to them. My feelings cannot be expressed in words when the announcement of his sudden death came, but the shock touched a spring that unlocked the past and there came in speaking panorama before me the many mountain peak experiences when this kindhearted and unselfish friend had touched my life with cheer and blessings. Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen among us. When a towering tree falls from its place in the forests a great space is left which it will require many years to fill. Great trees and noble lives are not the product of a day, but of long and patient years.

In the death of Riley Long we are experiencing a sore and a personal loss, but it is a loss sweetened with a deep and a holy gratitude. If our good deeds become angels to watch our pathway and accompany us into the Heavenly home, what a glorious convoy must have brightened his entry through the gates into the city of God.

In no place outside of his own family will his absence be more deeply felt than in his church, which was dear to him. We are here not only to express our sense of personal and public loss and to tender affectionate condolence to a bereaved family, but to thank God for such lives and to gather afresh the impulses of noble living.

We properly celebrate achievement, we congratulate success, we lay corner stones in hope and then exult over the finished structure. By the same token this good will, which applauds right living before men, should rejoice when that living reaches to fullness in the presence of God. Let us rejoice because his life, which was so beautiful among men, has entered the glorious fellowship of the spirits of just men made perfect. His life, a beautiful combination of faith and works, a conscious toil coupled with and unflinching sympathy for all things human and reverence for all things Divine.

He gives a gentle blow, and so releases

The spirit from its clay,
From sin's temptations and from life's distresses

He bids it come away.
It rises up and from its darksome mansion

It takes its silent flight,
And feels its freedom in the large expansion

Of heavenly air and light,
Behind, it hears time's iron gates close faintly

It is now far from them,
For it has reached the city of the saintly

The new Jerusalem.
A voice is heard on earth of kinsfolk weeping

The loss of one they love,
But he is gone where the redeemed are keeping

The mourners throng the ways, and from the steeple

The funeral bell tolls slow,
But on the golden streets the holy people

Are passing to and fro,
And saying, as they meet, Rejoice! another

Long waited for, is come,
The Saviour's heart is glad, a younger brother

Hath reached the Father's home.
A FRIEND.

OIL ON STREETS

The oil purchased some days ago by the city council to be used in sprinkling the streets has arrived and the sprinkling is now being done. This is an experiment with the council and if it is successful and satisfactory as it is expected, a great improvement will be made in the dust situation before another summer. It is much cheaper to sprinkle with oil than water, when the continuous expense of sprinkling is considered and it is likely oil will hereafter be used exclusively on the streets.

A BIG MEETING

The revival conducted at Pleasant Grove for ten days by Rev. Ryan, pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. J. T. Weems of this city, closed Sunday night. This was one of the most interesting and beneficial meetings ever held in that community and the large number of conversions proves that good and efficient work was done by the preachers and the Christian people at that place. A number of converts were baptized Sunday afternoon and an immense congregation attended this service.

Rev. W. B. Holland is holding a meeting in his church at McGregor. They have already had eight professions and the interest is growing...

... Rev. A. R. Watson assisted Brother Carter of Carbon in a meeting at that place last week. There were a number of professions and two additions by baptism. Bro. Watson is in a meeting at North Bennett this week. Rev. H. P. Wilsford has resigned the pastorate at Eden and is now open for pastoral work elsewhere. Brother Wilsford has been in this section some time and has been doing splendid work with all the churches that he has served and we sincerely hope some good church in this section will immediately lay hands on him. His good wife is a real helper with him wherever he labors. They will remain with their work in Eden till after the 2nd Sunday in September.—Central Messenger.

Presiding Elder Cowan came in from Lampasas yesterday and went over to Pleasant Grove and Star. He will likely return to this city Monday.

Kidney Troubles Attack Goldthwaite Men and Women, Old and Young

Women worry, can't do daily work. Men have lame and aching backs. If you have any form of kidney ills

You must reach the cause—the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys—Have brought relief to Goldthwaite people.

Goldthwaite testimony proves it. Mrs. S. P. Rahl, Goldthwaite, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills for some years and the results they have given have proved that they are a medicine of great merit. We always have Doan's Kidney Pills in the house. Another of the family has been benefited just as much as myself by this medicine."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Rahl had. Foster Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (adv)

DESPONDENCY DUE TO INDIGESTION

"About three months ago when I was suffering from indigestion which caused headache and dizzy spells and made me feel tired and despondent, I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets," writes Mrs. Geo. Hon. Macdon, N. Y. "This medicine proved to be the very thing I needed, as one day's treatment relieved me greatly. I used two bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and they rid me of this trouble." Obtainable everywhere.

B. P. Goode was here from Star last Saturday and made the Eagle an appreciated call. He showed us samples of his popcorn and it is fine. He has twenty-five acres in this corn and the yield has been abundant and the price is very satisfactory.

Some of the enterprising citizens of Goldthwaite are anxious for the people to celebrate the town's birthday on Sept. 3 with an old settlers reunion or some similar gathering. The idea is a good one and the Eagle would be glad to see plans perfected for such a celebration. The attention of the Commercial club is directed to the suggestion.

While attending the San Saba County Fair one day last week, we had the pleasure of seeing what we believe to be one of the largest steers in this state. The animal was raised by J. H. Burnett of Mills county. The steer is 5 years old, stands 18 hands high, measures 16 feet in length and weighs 3,250 pound and is what we would term some steer—Llano Searchlight.

—If you are buying land require the seller to furnish you an abstract of his title, so you may know you are getting a good title. If you contemplate selling your land, have an abstract thereto prepared first, so you will know what kind of title you can make to it, as the purchaser is almost sure to want to know. I have the only complete set of abstracts of the land titles of Mills county and will make your abstracts for a reasonable charge and will help you cure your titles if defective.—E. B. Anderson.
