CONFEDERATE MEETING

Jeff Davis camp of Confederate veterans met in regular monthly session in the court house Saturday afternoon, with a good attendance.

The adjutant was authorized to draw a draft on the treasury to pay the camp's dues to the national camp and to buy two badges for the delegates to the next reunion.

A committee was appointed composed of J. T. Prater, G. H. Denison, Dr. J. D. Calaway and J. W. Allen to receive subscriptions to the fund for building the Confederate monument on the public square in Goldthwaite. It was decided to erect the monument at a cost of $1080 and the contract was awarded to J. N. Keese of this city, whose design was adopted.

Commander Prater was intrusted to prepare a roster of the membership of the camp for the national register, and forward it to Gen. W. E. Mjckle at New Orleans.

IN PRIVATE LIFE

The men who are willing to take their humble places in the ranks of the army, meet danger, suffer deprivation and sacrifice their business are just as honorable, just as necessary, just as deserving of great respect as the army commanders and the minor army officers. The man who is willing to follow those better qualified to lead than himself is magnanimous and deserves respect. He is willing to do his duty and does not envy his fellow-man who may receive greater honor than himself.

We need more people willing to follow. Too many who are not competent wish to lead and refuse to serve in any other capacity. All of us can not hold office and receive commissions from the state or nation to do certain work. But we can take an interest in country life; we can render our assistance to the teachers of the school; we can support the country church; we can visit the sick and help our unfortunate neighbors.

As citizens we need not make so great a sacrifice as run for office or seek political appointment, but we can take an interest in political economy and social questions. We can render our taxes honorably and pay willingly. We can vote for men of honor and integrity; stand for clean citizenship, co-operate with our county and state officials and be proud of a Christian nation that fosters peace and good will.

Truly the citizen in private life has much to do and his influence is far reaching. He may do more than many in public life.—Farm and Ranch.

OF INTEREST TO THE PUBLIC

Speaking of Quality and Prices, we invite the most skeptical to investigate, examine thoroughly, satisfy yourself as to the quality of jewelry, drugs, sundries, stationery, etc., at Miller's Drug and Jewelry store. You will find that quality counts and you will also find that our prices are equal or better than those offered you by anyone in the United States. Our personal guarantee is back of each sale. When Miller or any of his clerks tells you an article is reliable, it must be so. We deal in quality not cheap goods. If you get it at Miller's it will be reliable, we believe the public wants Quality at a reasonable price, not that they will save money on an inferior purchase.

Quality first at Miller's. You will find they have the stock and you will be pleased with what you buy at Miller's right now and in the years to come—that's what counts (Advertisement.)

SCHOOL MAN COMING

Mr. Cunningham, a representative of the state educational department will be in Goldthwaite next Saturday, Dec. 18, and will go to Democrat to speak in the afternoon on educational matters.

Only two schools of Mills county are now participating in the million dollar school fund. Star receives $500 from the fund and Democrat $250. Other schools can participate if they meet the conditions prescribed by the state board and trustees who desire to have their schools receive an appropriation from this fund would do well to meet Mr. Cunningham here early Saturday morning or see him at Democrat. Of course, Judge Dalton and the county school board can give all the necessary information to those who fail to see the special representative of the department.

The announcement is made that President Wilson and Mrs. Gault will be married next Saturday.

The congress of the United States convened in its sixty-fourth session Monday. Hon. Champ Clark was re-elected speaker of the lower house and Senator Clark of Arkansas was re-elected president pro tem of the senate. Both houses are safely Democratic.

Whether the oil companies have a trust or are all owned by the same combination may not be known by those who have to buy oil, but one thing is certain, the companies all place the same price on their product and when the price is raised it is raised in concert.

The national Democratic convention is to be held in St. Louis, beginning on June 14, 1916. This was the decision of the executive committee at its meeting in Washington Tuesday. Dallas made a strong fight for the convention, but a large majority of the committeemen favored St. Louis.

More revolutions and rumors of revolutions are developing in Mexico, but the influence given the Carranza faction by recognition as the ruling power may enable them to bring order in the country, but many years will pass before the government is on so stable a basis as that established and maintained by the late President Diaz.

The Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco closed Saturday night at midnight, after being open to the public ten months. The management announces that the attendance was greater during the entire time than was expected and the exposition as a whole was decidedly satisfactory and a success from every standpoint.

President Wilson's message to congress was read Tuesday and was the longest and strongest document of the kind the president has yet prepared. The importance of preparedness is especially stressed and the argument shows him to be a clear and deep thinker and that he formulates his policies after mature deliberation.

A comparative statement of the postal receipts of the different cities and states shows that there has been an increase in almost every section. This is one of the surest signs of prosperity among the people, for those of all nations, kinds and occupations patronize the postoffice and such patronage is usually commensurate with the financial and commercial abilities of the patrons.

A man is poor when he has lost the confidence of his friends, when persons who are nearest to him do not believe in him; when his character is honey-combed by deceit and punctured by dishonesty. He is poor when he makes money at the expense of his character, when he does not stand out clear, supreme in his idea. When this is clouded he is in danger of the worst kind of poverty. To be in the poorhouse is not necessarily to be poor. If you have maintained your integrity, if your character stands four square to the world, if you have never bent the knee of principle to avarice, you are not poor, although you may be compelled to beg for bread.—Ex.

The interest in a peace movement appears to be much greater on this side of the 'big pond' than on the other side. Efforts of Henry Ford and others to bring about peace meet with no encouragement from the belligerent nations. No expression has yet been heard from any of the nations involved that would indicate that they wanted peace or would even consider terms on which a settlement might be made. One trouble is that none of them know what they are fighting about, or rather the great masses do not know and the crowned heads are stubborn and will not agree to a settlement except on terms of humiliation for their opponents. At the present time the outlook for peace in Europe is not bright.

HAMILTON

The people of Hamilton are to have the services of Rev. Alonzo Monk Jr., for another year, he having been returned to this place where he has so faithfully and effectively labored as pastor of the Methodist church for the last three years.

The many friends of Mr. W. W. Wall, our honored county commissioner, are all glad to know that after a long siege of suffering and the distress incident of undergoing a surgical operation, his son Walter is able to be at home again from the sanitarium.

One of the most happy and notable events of the season transpired on Thanksgiving day, four miles from Indian Gap, when Mr. George Tieman led to the marriage altar Miss Jennie Kirstein whose home has been in Corpus Christi. The ceremony took place at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tieman, and was performed in German by Rev. Walters, pastor of the Lutheran church.

Ben Beall of McGirk, and Messrs. Jess Tubbs, J. T. Tubbs and John Webb of Star, were in Hamilton yesterday on their way to Glen Rose with Loyd Tubbs, son of Mr. J. T. Tubbs, a young man 23 years old who has been suffering from some stomach trouble for the past five years, and from which the doctors have been unable to give him relief. He is very weak and scarcely weighs 75 pounds. The Herald sincerely trusts the treatment given him at Glen Rose will restore his health. The party went through in Mr. Beall's car.—Herald.

COMANCHE

Claude Chastain and Miss Fay Bryson, of Sidney, were married last Thursday night at Comanche.

At a meeting of the Y. M. B. L. it was decided to place collection boxes in the prominent places about and to have a pot in charge of some competent person on busy days into which coins may be tossed. The object is to give the worthy poor a Christmas present.

The efficiency of the local fire department and especially its Chief, Robt. Graham, saved Comanche a costly fire Wednesday. The building occupied by Floyd Carpenter as a produce house caught from a defective flue and was fairly started when discovered. The city was without water at the time and a high north wind blowing. The prompt work of Chief Graham and the occupants of the adjoining buildings quickly extinguished the blaze.—Chief.

LAMPASAS

J. P. Curran, the veteran theater man, who has been employed with the Harricon shows for several years, is at home and will probably remain here until after the holiday period.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Miller went to Lometa 20th St. to attend the marriage of Mr. Miller's sister, Miss Ruby Miller, and J. T. Reid. The bride is well known here and has a number of friends in Lampasas. Mr. Reid was raised near Lometa and is now teaching in the Goldthwaite schools.

A report comes from near Narman of the roping of a crippled black tail deer, a rare animal in this part of the country in recent years. Henry Wolf is said to have found the deer and roping it cut off the head and left the body in the woods as the deer was poor and the flesh not fit for food. The head carried horns with 25 points, which is supposed to indicate the age of the animal. The head will be mounted and kept as a trophy, commemorating the event.—Leader.

Last Thursday just before noon the barn of Dr. H. H. Taylor was destroyed by fire. By heroic and prompt action the fire fighters kept the flames from spreading to the houses of Dr. Taylor and Mitch Johnson, close by.

Rev. H. E. Draper left with the car of household goods for Austin Wednesday. Mrs. Draper and the children are following today. Bro. Draper is at the head of the department of homes for superannuated ministers for the West Texas Conference and is locating nearer the center of the conference territory.

Francis Lacy, the Negro who was indicted by the grand jury early in its sessions, had a unique experience in the recent district court. This will be remembered as the case in which jewelry and money was stolen from the home of J. E. Odjorne during the fair last July. Francis Lacy, who had been employed as a servant in the Odjorne family was caught with the jewelry in Ballinger. Thru her attorneys she entered her plea of guilty and asked for a suspended sentence. The first jury failed to agree and was discharged after stating that it was impossible to ever agree on a verdict. Early last week a second jury came back to the court with the same kind of a report and was likewise discharged. The third jury of twelve men was given this same plea Saturday afternoon and about 8 o'clock returned a verdict of two years without a recommendation for suspension. The only issue in the case was the question of a suspended sentence. Possibly in all the annals of criminal jurisprudence there has never before been a case wherein it took the third jury to get a verdict on a plea of guilty.—News.

The satisfying result of a judicious use of printer's ink by merchants of a town is no longer a matter for argument or even discussion. The merit of such investment has been established beyond question. There is remaining only the proposition of how much the merchant is willing to invest and where to make the investment. The advertisement pays in proportion as the paper covers the trade territory in circulation.—Hamilton Herald.

REID-MILLER
A simple but beautiful wedding was solemnized in the presence of the immediate families and nearest friends on Thanksgiving afternoon, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Miller, when the impressive ceremony, by Rev. Davis, made Mr. J. T. Reid and Miss Ruby Miller one other couple for life's love-way of happiness.

This was the fitting climax to a courtship beginning in recent college days together. Miss Ruby is the youngest daughter of her family, and possesses those winning ways and a sunny sweet disposition that merit her a host of friends who testify that to know her is to love her. Mr. Reid is an A. B. graduate of high standing and wealth of character. He has those qualities that shall best fit him for a life of service in his chosen work.

The happy couple left on the evening train and amid many congratulations, both verbal and in the form of handsome gifts, for Goldthwaite, at which place Mr. Reid has a position in the High school.

May the best things of life be theirs always.—XX In Lometa Reporter.

LOGE PARTY

The Anoma Class of the First Baptist church held its monthly business meeting with Mrs. J. M. Cooper, Misses Verden and Murphy as hostesses at the home of Mrs. Cooper. During the meeting a box was packed for Buckner's Orphan Home. Several young men had been invited to spend the social hour after the meeting and when the box was packed for the Orphans home very liberally contributed of their means. After the business meeting they all went to the Mission Theatre, where a very good program was enjoyed. Upon returning to the home of the hostess they were very delightfully entertained for the rest of the evening with music and conversation.

The Anoma colors, blue and white, were beautifully carried out in parlor, dining room and library. A delicious refreshment of brown bread, sandwiches and chocolate were served.—Abilene Reporter.

Miss Verden formerly lived in Mills county and is remembered kindly by many friends.

Ollie Burks paid our Sunday school a visit Sunday afternoon.

Miss Flora Beaver is visiting in our community, guest of her cousins, Miss Bertha and Ruby Wrinkle.

Henry Wrinkle returned home Saturday from Haskell county, where he spent some time prospecting.

The writer is informed there will be a box supper at this place Thursday night, December 23, and the students of the school are preparing a program for that date.

If I have failed to get 'your' name just consider it is poor absent minded 'Lillie Dale' and she will try to remember you next time.

Before I close Mr. Editor will you please grant me permission to tell that "Smiling Billie boy" I am so sorry he knocked at the wrong door for his Thanksgiving dinner, for this Lillie Dale was so disappointed, and blue when she thought that had had rejected her invitation and poor Dish Washer did happen to accept the invitation to dine with us and stood door waiter to welcome Billie in and we are so sorry he took the wrong road, but glad to hear he did not miss his Thanksgiving turkey and maybe our loss was his gain, for he said there was no other one to dine at the Thanksgiving dinner where he ate only himself and home folks and we are not aware of the fact that the man who invited Billie to dine with him has such large family so see, perhaps Billie got a larger share of turkey than he would, had he dined with Red Wing, Juanita, No. 7 and 8, Joan, Rain Bow Kate, Dupli-Kate, Uncle John, Dish Washer and LILLIE DALE.

(3)—The plaintiff represents that he and his vendors, immediate and remote, are now and have continuously been in possession of said lands and premises for a long term of years, over, above and in excess of the ten years next last past.

(4)—Plaintiff alleges that he and his vendors J. W. Driskill and A. V. Driskill have been for more than three years prior to the institution of this suit in peaceable and adverse possession of all of said lands and premises under title and color of title and that this plaintiff is now in such possession under such title and color of title and, therefore, any interest, right or claim of the defendants and each of them, if any they ever had, in and to said lands and premises is barred by the statute of three years limitation.

(5)—Plaintiff further represents that he and his vendors, J. W. Driskill and A. V. Driskill, under whom he claims, have for more than five years prior to the institution of this suit had peaceable and adverse possession of all of said lands and premises, cultivating, using and enjoying the same and paying taxes thereon, and claiming under deeds duly registered and that said plaintiff is now in such possession so cultivating, using and enjoying the said property and paying taxes thereon and claiming under deeds duly registered, and that therefore any and all rights, title and interest of the defendants and each of them in and to all said lands and premises, if any they ever had, are barred by the statute of five years limitation.

(6)—Plaintiff further represents that for more than ten years prior to the institution of this suit plaintiff and his said vendors J. W. Driskill and A. V. (7)—Plaintiff further represents that for a number of years over and in excess of the ten years next prior to the institution of this suit, plaintiff and his immediate and remote vendors under whom he claims have had and now have peaceable and adverse possession of said property, lands and premises, cultivating, using and enjoying the same, and therefore, that all and every right, title and interest of all the defendants and each of them in and to said lands and premises, if any they ever had, is barred by the statute of ten years limitation.

(8)—That all of said statutes of limitation and all rights of limitation in plaintiff under said statutes, the plaintiff now pleads in bar of the rights, claims and demands of the defendants and all and each of them.

(9)—Plaintiff further represents that none of the defendants whatsoever herein named and that none of the defendants herein referred to as the unknown heirs of the defendants or either of them herein named have any right, title or interest whatever in, to or upon said lands and premises or any part thereof whatsoever; but that because and by reason of certain defective acknowledgments appearing in the history of said title in the conveyance or conveyances made by some of said defendants and, because of the defective execution of certain of the deeds of conveyances by others of said defendants and because of defective or obscure recitations of the proper and accurate names in the conveyance or conveyances of other of said defendants and because of the defective record of the conveyance or conveyances executed by others of said defendants and because of the omission by others of said defendants to acknowledge their deed or deeds of conveyances, and because of the omission through inadvertence, neglect or mistake of others of said defendants to execute deeds of conveyances at all, although their intention to so execute is manifest, and because of the absence from the record of proper administration proceedings in, to, covering and relating to the estates of others of said defendants necessary to make the records show and disclose the authority of such defendants to execute and convey good, proper and sufficient deeds of conveyance properly conveying title to the properties in and by said deeds intended to be conveyed, and because of various and divers other and sundry omissions of the defendants or some of them to convey their right, title and interest in said property to either J. W. Driskill or his immediate and remote vendors, and because of various other omissions, defects, errors, clerical and other omissions apparent of record in the deed and other records of Mills and Brown Counties, Texas, relating to the title to said properties or a part thereof, said records do not disclose that the defendants and all of them herein mentioned either by name and the unknown heirs of said defendants named parted with or divested themselves of the title to said property, lands and premises and all thereof, and the records in said Brown and Mills Counties, Texas, thus disclose that the said several defendants hereinbefore named and the unknown heirs of the said several defendants hereinbefore named have an interest or claim in and to part ownership of all or some portion, respectively, of said lands and premises, and each and all of which constitute and is a cloud upon the title of the plaintiff and damages and slanders plaintiff's title to said lands, property and premises.

Wherefore, plaintiff prays for judgment for all of said lands and premises and the title thereto against all and each of said defendants and all and each of the unknown heirs of all and each of said defendants and that all claims of right title and interest in, to or upon all said lands and premises or any part thereof in favor of all or either of said defendants or the unknown heirs of all or either of said defendants be adjudged and decreed to be without merit and to be clouds upon plaintiff's title and that plaintiff have judgment removing said clouds and quieting his said title and he prays for costs and all such other and further relief to which he may show himself entitled, both in law and in equity.

Herein, fail not, but have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Goldthwaite this the 22nd day of November, A. D. 1915.

Clerk, District Court, Mills County, Texas.

WONDER OF MECHANISM
Half a century ago there was not a watch in existence capable of meeting the requirements of American railway time service today. Railway time inspection has set the limit of variation from true time for its employees' watches, at 30 seconds a week. This means that the balance wheel shall not vary in its motion to the extent of one vibration out of every 20,000. Taking into consideration the various causes of disturbance to which railway engineer's watch is subjected, the joints and jars, the changes of temperature and the magnetic influence incidental to the proximity of large formations is truly remarkable. That masses of iron and steel, this perfect mechanism that the ingenuity of man has ever produced.—Scientific American

WILD MAN AT LARGE

A Negro or Mexican Acting Strangely in Center City Country.

Mr. E. M. Geeslin discovered either a wild man or one who was acting very strangely near his place five miles north of Center City Wednesday morning, but the man made his escape.

Mr. Geeslin was engaged in repairing a fence at his place when he saw some one crawling thru the underbrush, apparently endeavoring to catch a rabbit or bird. Mr. Geeslin demanded of the man an explanation of his purposes and intention, but instead of giving a reply the man rose to his feet and ran some distance and hid himself in a clump of weeds. Mr. Geeslin followed him and called to him again, when the stranger jumped out of the weeds and ran for the timber. Mr. Geeslin could see him plainly and believes he was either a negro or Mexican, but what caused him to act so strangely is not known. His clothing was very ragged, his sleeves being off to the shoulders and his feet bare. At the place he was first discovered a frying pan and a small sackful of corn were found.

After following the man's tracks for some distance and being unable to overtake him, Mr. Geeslin phoned the sheriff's office and Deputy Sheriff Evans responded promptly and joined by a number of citizens of the community followed the tracks made by the man's bare feet for several miles, but the trail was finally lost.

It is supposed the party is either demented or is an escaped prisoner or fugitive from justice.

LOVE FOR FARMING

Three essentials for successful farming as mentioned by Calumella, a Roman writer of the first century, namely, knowledge, capital and a love for the calling, are as true today as they were when those words were written. In fact, there is reason to believe that with competition keener more importance should be placed in capital today than ever before. Men farm with their intellect more today than ever before in the history of farming. While labor is still a necessity on the farm it is directed by an intelligent brain that reduces strain to a minimum and gets maximum returns. Knowledge is a power in farming as never before. Analyze, if you will, the methods of the men who succeed on the farm and you will find that they knew how to farm. Not only are they familiar with the every-day, practical things that must be done, such as plowing, sowing and reaping, but they know why certain practices are necessary and what to do when unusual conditions make a change desirable. A knowledge of farming creates a demand for implements, machines and other equipment necessary for profitable operations. Capital is needed because the manager is intelligent enough to use it economically and profitably. Capital supplements labor and knowledge masters, directs and supervises both to increase production.

But without a love for the calling there will be little incentive for knowledge and for sufficient capital to operate the farm successfully. There are many failures because the farm manager does not like farming. Many perhaps endure farm life because they haven't sufficient knowledge, training and capital for other business, yet they do not enjoy the farm work enough to pay the price for knowledge and capital. One's love for his work is after all the foundation for success. The desire to succeed is so strong in the minds of those who love the farm and its environments that there is no honorable means of preparation too dear.—Farm and Ranch.

Look over the Eagle's advertising columns and see if the splendid business men represented there do not send messages of importance to the readers. It pays to read these advertisements each week.

Business is good in all lines and a number of merchants have expressed satisfaction with their collections for the season. The people of Mills county practice diversification of crops and mighty few of them are in debt and fewer still are unable to meet their obligations.

Wm. Dennard, one of the leading men of Big Valley, transacted business in this city Thursday and made it convenient to call and renew his subscription for the Eagle. His kind expressions of friendship and appreciation for the Eagle will help us in our work. The good opinion of such men as Mr. Dennard is prized above financial returns at this office.

If you are buying land require the seller to furnish you an abstract of his title, so you may know you are getting a good title. If you contemplate selling your land, have an abstract thereto prepared first, so you will know what kind of title you can make to it, as the purchaser is almost sure to want to know. I have the only complete set of abstracts of the land titles of Mills county and will make your abstracts for a reasonable charge and will help you cure your titles if defective.—E. B. Anderson.

Nervous

"I was very nervous," writes Mrs. Mollie Mirse, of Carrsville, Ky., "had palpitation of the heart, and was irregular."

"On the advice of Mrs. Hattie Cair I took 2 bottles of Cardui and it did me more good than any medicine I ever took."

"I am 44 years old and the change has not left me, but I am lots better since taking Cardui."

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Cardui is advertised and sold by its loving friends. The lady who advised Mrs. Mirse to take Cardui, had herself been cured of serious female trouble, by Cardui, so she knew what Cardui would do.

If Cardui cured Mrs. Cain and Mrs. Mirse, it surely will cure you too. Won't you try it? Please do.

JOE PFLUGER SHOT

Joe Pfluger of Priddy was accidentally shot in the shoulder while hunting in the Eagle Pass country Monday. The ball from a rifle entered back of his left shoulder and lodged in his body. He was rendered unconscious for a time, but later revived and was able to walk two miles, where assistance was secured and he was carried to San Antonio. His wife and mother were summoned from here and left Tuesday morning to be with him. A letter received here by friends states that he is recovering nicely and is now thought to be out of danger. It is understood he will be carried to Temple as soon as he is able to travel and an operation will be performed for the removal of the bullet.

Mr. Pfluger was hunting in company with his two brothers, Lee and Hawley and Chas. Schults, and the accident was occasioned by long range rifles being used. Physicians attending him say the force of the bullet was almost spent when it struck him, therefore, he must have been a great way from the party who fired the shot. His companions accompanied him to San Antonio and remained with him until all danger was passed and have now returned to their homes in Concho county. His wife and mother hope to be able to have him moved to Temple in the next few days.

PRINCE AND PAUPER

I believe it the duty of every man to try to accumulate sufficient money during his younger days to prevent him being a burden to other people when he can work no longer.

But I see no reason why he should want it all—make himself fabulously rich and hold it—when so many worthy but unfortunate men are foundering helplessly in distress and poverty.

At best this life is a swift one, and from youth to age is but a span when we near the end, turn and gaze backward. The king and the pauper go the same route. Both die and both are buried—the one laid in a costly tomb amid much of form and senseless ceremony which he cannot see or hear—while the other is hastily hidden from sight in the bosom of the earth enclosed in a cheap pine box.

Which is better off, the prince or the pauper. To my mind they sleep on an equal footing, so far as their wealth or title is concerned. The only possible difference between the future welfare of two dead men—if there is any—is not gauged by wealth or earthly honors, but by their lives and conduct, or the deeds done in the body.

God is no respecter of persons, nor can He be swayed by the glare and glamor of earthly possessions. Death simply levels up human inequalities. We all go down into the furnace on an equal footing. If there is one cerat of pure gold in our entire make-up rest assured it will not escape the eye of the Great Assayer, but will come out clear and sparkling while all rubbish and dross will disappear forever. That's God's plan—that's right—and I am satisfied.—E. Lamity's Harpoon.

Mr. Will Warren is removing his family from our community to somewhere near Mullin.

Mr. Andrew Smith late of Trigger Mountain is removing his family to our community.

Mr. Earle Karnes and family were callers at Oak Cluster farm Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. Ashton of Duren was the guest of her father in this community one day this week.

COUNTY COURT

County court was in session the first of the week—in fact is still in session, but there will not likely be any more business transacted at this term of the court. The jury was discharged for the term Wednesday afternoon and only non-jury and probate matters can be given attention.

There was only one jury trial in the court, but several pleas of guilty were entered and the term of the court was a financial success for the county.

A number of cases were dismissed because of insufficient evidence to support a conviction.

Geo. Templin writes from Bradshaw to have the Eagle sent to his address. He is principal of the Bradshaw school and is well pleased with the place and the progress of his school.

The way to keep posted is to read the Eagle carefully each week. Those who are careful to read the paper each week are always informed on current events and will not be found far behind on any subject.

B. P. Bell has accepted employment in a blacksmith shop at Mullin and will make his home in that town. He is an expert in his line and he and his family have many friends who wish them success in their new home.

Occasionally a local item is left out or overlooked by the Eagle and even contributed articles have been omitted at times by mistakes, but it is always a source of regret to us to know that such a mistake or error has occurred.

J. R. Senterfitt writes that he has moved to Sierra Blanca, Texas, where he will look after a ranch. His wife's health made the move necessary and the many friends of the family hope she will soon be restored to perfect health.
