FIXING OUR ROADS

Secretary E. E. Kirkpatrick of the Chamber of Commerce circulated a petition among the merchants of Brownwood yesterday for the purpose of raising funds to improve the road from Regency, in Mills county, to the Brown county line near Indian Creek.

In order to assist in building a good roadway from Regency in Mills county on the Colorado river to the Brown county line and thereby diverting much trade to Brownwood which now goes to other towns, the undersigned business men of Brownwood agree to contribute the following amounts set opposite our respective names, was the way the subscription list read.

A bad sand bed and several other almost impassible places in the Mills county section of the road leading to Brownwood causes many farmers to go to other markets when they much prefer to come to Brownwood. The Mills county commissioners agree to spend $300 from the fund of that county towards bettering the roadway and it will require at least that much more.—Brownwood Herald.

CITY COUNCIL

The city council met in regular monthly session Monday night and the business for the month was gone over, but no new business was taken up. The matter of installing the water works and other subjects of interest to the city were discussed and the city officials showed they had the municipal affairs well in hand.

NEW PASTOR IN CHARGE

Rev. W. R. White, the new pastor of the Baptist church, filled his pulpit here last Sunday at the usual hours and his sermons were helpful and pleasing to his congregations. He will move here as soon as the present term of Howard Payne college ends.

Miss Zoe Rock visited in Brownwood the first of the week.

Mrs. Cliff Branham returned to her home in Waco Tuesday, after a visit to friends in this city.

W. T. Little and family of Hamilton visited relatives in this city the first of the week.

Roach Fox came in from Temple the early part of the week and has been given the "glad hand" by many friends.

Judge E. B. Anderson made a trip to Ballinger and Paint Rock the first of the week, looking after legal business.

Mrs. S. H. Allen and children have been here from Waco this week and her little son Sam Houston has been sick with the measles.

Miss Gussie Bledsoe will hereafter receive the Eagle at Ricardo, N. M. by order of her brother, A. B. Bledsoe, one of the prominent men of Big Valley.

Mrs. S. B. Lee, nee Mayme Rahl, arrived in the city from Brownsville Sunday afternoon, having made the trip alone in her Dodge car. She came to spend a time with her parents and friends in this city.

Capt. Jack Ball of McGirk, one of the finest old gentlemen in the land and a much appreciated friend of the Eagle, had business in the big town Tuesday and while here set his subscription date ahead, for which we thank him.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the First Baptist church met yesterday afternoon at the church and observed the first session of the week in prayer. A large number of ladies were present and the afternoon was devoted to a very helpful and interesting discussion on "Home Mission Aids" by Mrs. W. A. Moore. Many beautiful thoughts were portrayed by the leader that were fully appreciated.—Brownwood Herald.

THE FARM AND ITS PRODUCTS

Few of us realize how utterly dependent we are upon plants and animals. It is true that we sow, reap and gather crops; breed, feed and market animals, yet few feel their dependence on plants and animals for food, clothing and shelter.

Water and air are all that nature supplies without man's assistance. Plants must be propagated; fields cultivated; crops harvested and marketed; animals must be fed, housed and marketed.

Meat, eggs and milk, our principal nitrogenous foods, are derived from animals; bread in whatever way it is made comes from the starchy seeds of plants produced on the farm; ble oils are of plant or animal origin; most of the staple necessities or luxuries come from plants. Many of the fruits, vegetables, sweets and medicines come from the vegetable kingdom.

There was a time when game could be killed, wild plants taken from the prairie or wood. Now the meat supply must come from domestic animals. Fish are no longer easily taken from the streams, but in some instances streams must be "stocked." Domesticated animal and cultivated plants are our dependence for civilization. The world may not recognize it, but its progress will depend upon the man that tills the soil and produces animals and plants. Men may leave the farm or they may ignore its importance, but they cannot live without its products.—Farm and Ranch.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE

The Methodist district conference will be held in the Methodist church in this city beginning March 27 and continuing two or three days. The local congregation is preparing for the entertainment of the preacher and delegates from other churches in the Lampasas district.

When you go on a trip, have visitors or know any other local item tell the Eagle.

O. H. Yarborough is now the owner of a new Dort car, having purchased it the first of the week.

F. M. Tillman was one of the leading men of Mullin who had business in the city the first of the week.

C. F. Cornelius, one of the good farmers of the county, was here Monday and dropped a dollar in the old Bird's claw.

W. W. Tippen, cashier of the Mullin bank, was among the business visitors to this city the early part of the week.

W. A. Hargett, the popular druggist at Miller & Son's drug store, visited relatives in Moody the first of the week.

Gaither Ball of McGirk, a son of our friend Capt. Jack Ball, was a visitor to the metropolis the early part of the week.

Paul Wenderbush, one of our prosperous farmer friends, was among those who made the old Bird a financial visit this week.

Will Dorsett, formerly of Center City and now of Winters, sent in a renewal of his subscription this week. We appreciate the friendship as well as the patronage of such good men.

Lindsey Thompson was a passenger on Monday morning's train en route to his home in Brownwood from Marlin, where he had been to accompany Dr. M. L. Brown, who went there for the benefit of the baths in the cure of rheumatism.

At a meeting of the school board Saturday night Micees Wallace and Florine Hunt, were elected principals of the school to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Mr. J. Frank Jetz.—Pottsville Correspondent in the Hamilton Herald.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

The Goldthwaite Commercial club met in regular monthly session in the court house Tuesday night with a large attendance.

A report was received from the committee appointed to secure the use of the room in the court house for meetings of the club and a vote of thanks was extended to the commissioners court for the courtesy. W. P. McCullough was selected to express to the court the club's thanks.

The committee appointed to confer with the manager of the light company to install lights in the club room reported the company would install lights for the club free. A vote of thanks was extended to the light company and its manager.

JUNIOR CLASS PARTY

The Junior class of the Goldthwaite High school was entertained by a George Washington birthday party, at the home of James Frizzell on Friday evening, February 23. The house was artistically decorated in the national colors, "Bunco" and other delightful games were indulged in. Miss Sue Nora Berry received first prize, a nice box of stationery, for scoring the highest in Bunco and Miss Bessie Rider received the consolation, a pencil and tablet in the national color combination. Miss Minnie Tuff won an American flag for guessing the most shadow profile portraits.

The class members present were: Sue Nora Berry, Norma Grant, Walter Roberson, Bessie Rider, Maggie Seaborn, Eloise Anderson, Shelly Mayberry, James Frizzell and Barton Kease. Those invited were: Lela Berry, Minnie Tuff, Norma Lee Frizzell and Carl Keese.

A delicious refreshment course was served after the Bunco games. At eleven o'clock we all took our leave after thanking our host and hostess for a most delightful time.

Mrs. Lovelace, another daughter of Mr. Bodkin is expected in Temple today or tomorrow and will come here for a visit before returning to her home in Memphis.

The Mills county special road law was vetoed by Governor Ferguson last Saturday in response to request by a number of citizens who also presented a large petition against the law, which law embodied the plan proposed and advocated by the Goldthwaite Commercial club, the Mullin Pustino's men and others for a year or more. This was the first bill vetoed by the governor during the legislative session.

The remains of Mrs. Charles Ferguson of Lubbock reached Goldthwaite on Thursday night's train and were carried to Pottsville for burial the sad service being held yesterday. Mrs. Ferguson was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Bryan of McGirk, who were called to her bedside several weeks ago, on account of her serious illness. The sympathy of the people goes out to the husband, parents and others of the bereaved family.

IMPORTANT MEETING

A few days ago the school board announced the fact that the school fund had run short to the extent that there would not be enough money to run the school only a few days over seven months. This news was received with keen disappointment on the part of the citizens of the town, for this would mean a failure of promotion for a majority of the pupils, as well as to lose our affiliation with the State University.

At a meeting of the Parent-Teacher's Association and a number of other citizens Monday afternoon, ways and means of raising funds for extending the school to the usual term of nine months were considered. The Parent-Teacher's Association agreed to give all of their funds now on hand as well as all that they might raise during the remainder of the school term for extending the school. Mr. J. V. Cockrum, of the new motion picture show management generously agreed to give all proceeds from Monday night shows from now until school is out for the benefit of the school.

A committee was appointed to confer with the school board to see if a mass meeting of the citizens of the town could be called for the purpose of raising more funds by subscription. Much interest was manifested on the part of all present and showed a willingness to do their part for the good of the school and town. REPORTER

TO SAVE COTTON PRICES

After giving the respective cotton market considerable investigation and serious thought Congressman Hatton W. Summers of Texas has arrived at the following conclusion relative to the acreage this year:

"Nothing could be more unsound than the general notion that the price recorded for last crop was due to the European war. That price was received because of the small crops of 1915 and 1916, and despite European conditions. A 16,000,000 bale crop last year would have ruined the South. Nobody can judge these times; no mind can penetrate the future. The situation has broken away from human control, and into what condition we are drifting no one can determine. In times like these we must not gamble on a big cotton crop, as under present conditions such crop would blight every industry of the South. Present conditions may not obtain when the next crop goes to market, or they may be less favorable, but we do know that we can raise our food in the South. We know that just in proportion as we do so, we will lessen the danger of too great a cotton yield and to that extent increase the probability of a remunerative price for what we do raise. At the same time we would lessen the demand upon the receipts from the cotton crop to pay for the high price of foods which we would otherwise have to buy.

That this conclusion is logical can not be doubted by those who have kept up with foreign distress on account of war. Surely no one expects good prices for cotton should the acreage this year be increased materially and the yield be normal. There is every reason to believe that consumption will not be increased fast enough to save prices, should the acreage be increased.

But forgetting the probable cotton market for a moment, there is no more important question than the food and feed supply of the farm. The farmer's family must have food to sustain life and his animals must be fed. Where is the cash necessary to buy food coming from, if the farm is planted in cotton and prices fall below the cost of production?

Reasoning in another way, if sufficient food and feed are produced we can hold our cotton if necessary till prices justify selling. With plenty of food crops and sufficient feed the South and Southwest could hold a large portion of the cotton crop till peace is declared or until such a time as the surplus is consumed. But if food and feed are to be bought there would be no means for holding cotton, but it would be forced upon the market at what it would bring.—Farm and Ranch,

100 LBS. SUGAR $1.75

This is the attractive headline on circulars being distributed all over this county by a certain northern concern. If you will come in and let me name your bill of Groceries as that concern will do, and buy from me on the same conditions, I can sell Sugar at the same price. Don't be deceived by such advertisements. Buy here, where you can see what you get and get what you want.

Grocery agents went through this county last year and, among other things, sold "African Java" Coffee at 39c per pound as the wholesale price, and then added their "TEN PER CENT" profit, making it cost you nearly 43c per pound. There you got SKINNED again. I sell the same coffee at 33 1/3c per pound and make a profit on it.

And, too, there is something else besides just getting your groceries cheap. You like to know with whom you are dealing. These foreign concerns won't buy your produce, such as Eggs, Chickens, Cream, Etc. I will buy all your Eggs, Poultry, Cream, Meat and Lard, and pay you the CASH for it. DON'T FORGET THAT I PAY YOU CASH FOR YOUR PRODUCE.

R. M. THOMPSON, Editor

The cold wave Saturday and Sunday did great damage to vegetable and fruit crops in the coast country.

A great sensation was developed in New York Monday by the arrest of four men charged with conspiracy to assassinate President Wilson. One of them was found to have two bombs in his possession, but the police express doubt as to the men being guilty of the plot alleged, but rather think they were planning to destroy the Remington arms works of Hoboken and the Tampico, Mexico, oil fields.

A mass meeting of those favorable to prohibition was held in Fort Worth Sunday afternoon and a resolution was adopted requesting the advocates of prohibition in Dallas county to bring on an election at the same time one is held in Tarrant county. This movement was the result of the legislature refusing to submit the question of state wide prohibition to the voters in obedience to the wishes of the majority of Democrats as expressed in last primary.

A rule in the United States senate which allows all the time desired for debate on any question enabled twelve senators to prevent a vote on the question of allowing President Wilson authority to arm American ships for defence against German submarines and the sixty-fourth congress closed without any vote being taken.

The inauguration of President Wilson for a second term took place Monday in the presence of an immense throng, gathered from all parts of the nation. The president, in his address, gave a resume of the conditions that surrounded him thru his first administration and stated that by reason of his experiences he well knew the gigantic task before him in assuming the duties as chief executive of the country.

The price of print paper has been reduced by the federal trade commission or rather a reduction has been promised by the mills and the commission. While the price fixed by this agreement is not as low as that prevailing prior to the European war, it is far below the price the trust has received the last two years. The lowering of this price is not all the reparation that should be made by those responsible for the unlawful combination and unreasonable prices that have been exacted.

The government has uncovered enough evidence in the investigation of the paper trust to justify indictment of the mill operators. It will be hoped that the indictments will not be long delayed, although it is now too late to save the wicks they have made of many publishers. We have contended all along that there was no shortage of paper or raw materials, exactly the conditions as found by the investigating board. Legal action can not come too soon, for the reason that many other publishers are hovering over the brink of ruin, if something is not done at once.—Bay City Tribune.

Recently a merchant of Decatur happened to see a farmer receive a box at the depot and noticed it was from a small order house. He also noticed that the goods were right in line with the same he had carried for years. He immediately approached the farmer and said: "I could have sold you the goods here for less money and saved you the freight." "Then why didn't you do so," said the farmer, "I have taken the local paper for a year and have not seen a line about you selling these or any other goods. This mail order house sends advertising matter to me asking for my trade and they get it. If you have any bargains, why don't you put them in the paper, so we can see what they are"—Decatur News

Plaintiffs further allege that they have title to said tract of land by virtue of the statute of ten years limitation, in that they and those whose estate they have and under whom they claim have had and held good and perfect right and title to said land and have peaceable and adverse possession thereof, cultivating, using and enjoying the same for a period of more than ten years next before commencement of this suit, after plaintiffs cause of action accrued.

GOOD ROAD PUSH

The matter of good roads is a question with no end. As age and time come to any county interest in public thoroughfare will grow in proportion. Really most of us are just alike, but haven't found it out. That is we want better roads, but don't know how to exactly get at it. Some are anxious for the office of Road Superintendent to be created while others are much opposed to the move and still others are indifferent. In regard to an enterprise which touches all the people and one in which all the people are required to co-operate efficiency is gained by cheerful co-operation. Cheerful agreement and cheerful co-operation count for much.

It is also true that people become prepared for advances by slow stages. Construction plans need to be agitated at length. Much argument and time is needed in making new advances in order that people may see things more nearly alike.

Some men are capacitated to think much ahead of the majority. Some naturally think more along lines of public good and consequently think larger and much ahead of most of their fellows. Some men are benefactors. This class of men have been an unspeakable blessing to the country and bring the largest blessing when able to convince people and wait for the necessary following. Wm. J. Bryan thought and thought some years ahead of the masses. He has waited and advocated and lived to see the people entering of late into some of his views of twenty and thirty years ago. Some of us are amazingly slow when it comes to following the other fellow. This in itself is not an evil sign. It is right to understand the whys and wherefores. The idea of taking on to thoughts from some one else just like we take the measles. Take it because he has it.

I remember not long since to have heard a very large statesman express his views about woman suffrage (of course it wasn't Joe Bailey. Don't know what's getting the matter with Joe here lately.) He said "If woman suffrage ever comes to Texas it must come slowly so as to give the people time to prepare for it."

The road question, as I am now thinking, is not a question of deducting from one office to enlarge another. It is a question of more public good for a given amount of money. Faithful service to one's country is larger than a salary. I am greatly in the notion that any of our officers want the best services rendered the people, office or no office.

The thing now needed is agreement in efficiency. The way to get agreement is to agree. Explanation, exertion and time always helps, but at last never brings universal co-operation. I am reminded just here of a good old neighbor of years ago. I mean he was good in many respects. A good neighbor and a splendid worker. He and his wife after living together for years became spiteful and ill and disagreeable with each other. It seemed on a certain occasion that they were about to sever and quit for good. He was heard to say, "I do the best I can. I have worked all my married life like a nigger and no one loves me or even thanks me for it." I said, "Mr. Easter, it may be you need to bestow more thanks. It would help you and her, too." He replied quickly by saying, "I have no time, I have no time for such. Then it's no body's business." Of course I took out and let the condition take care of itself. They both were having a hard time because each neglected that which makes life nappy.

There are those who enjoy the blessings and protection of good laws and seek the aid of a strong government, yet they complain to serve that same government with time or taxes, but they have a hard time. There are those in the churches who seem to see the savory influence of the church and enjoy its moral powers, yet they are trying to ride the church into glory and let others do all the working and paying. These also are having a hard time because they forget the inflexible law. The same inflexible law overlooked by Mr. and Mrs. Easter. A law originated in the long ago and as lasting as duration. That law says, "What measure ye meet to others shall be measured to you again." SAM SAY

GRANTED PETITIONS

Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the Lord delivereth him out of them all.—Ps. 34:19.

We do not offer them a stone
 When our children ask for bread;
 But often when they ask for things
 We say them nay instead,
 We oft refuse them, as we should,
 Tho they plead with baby hands,
 For we would give them naught but good

When good, we understand.
 Our darlings oft we chasten too,
 Aitho it grieves us so;
 For their feet we must stay in the narrow way,
 In the way we would have them go,
 When we approach our God of love
 In his wisdom, He says us nay,
 We feel aggrieved when from above,
 With griefs like children's play,
 And the things we want, we fain
 would wrest

From the Father's loving hands;
 Forgetting that our blind request
 We may not understand,
 Forgetting that our stumbling feet
 He guides from infant days, Oft leads in paths both cool and sweet

And smoothes the rugged ways,
 And when our way is dark and cold,
 By hardships oft beset,
 That "No good thing will He withhold"

Too often we forget,
 We shrink from all that gives us
 pain,
 All sorrows as they come,
 Forget the simple words and plain—
 "The way of the cross leads home,"
 Forgetting that thru suffering,
 Must we perfected be.

To be made like our Lord and King,
 His anguish we must see,
 Unlike the blessed Son of God
 Whose path with pain was strewn Obediently, tho sad He trod,
 The wirepress all alone,
 When we behold the chastening rod
 Held by the Hand Divine,
 We don't submit unto our God,
 Say—"Not thy will, but mine,"
 Forgetting mercies that are past,
 That God is always just,
 That, in not one good thing has He failed

Of all He's promised us,
 With our finite, puerile minds
 How can we know the right
 'Tis just what pleases us that finds Acceptance in our sight
 Could we but know that when our God,
 Grants not what we implore,
 But sends instead the chastening rod,
 He has better things in store,
 Could we believe His watchful eyes
 Are over great and small,
 And tho our God is great and wise,
 He heads the sparrow's fall,
 But when we bend not to His will
 But try our stubborn way,
 Often our Father fainly, still Yet gently says us nay, O God, Thou God of power and might,

Who seek and save the lost,
 First make us right in thy dear
 sight,
 Whatever be the cost,
 And tho the trials be as fire,
 O God we humbly plead,
 Oh, grant us not our blind desire
 But give us what we need,
 And Thou Great God of tender love,
 Oh, Make us as Thy Son, Send what Thou wilt down from above,
 Our God—"Thy will be done."

"Lord Thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations, Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever Thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, Thou art God."—Ps.
 90:1,2.

The legislative investigation committee appointed to take testimony in the charges against Governor Ferguson by Mr. Davis has been busy for several days. Hon. M. M. Crane, ex-attorney general, has been employed to represent the investigators, while Attorney Hanger of Ft. Worth, C. C. McDonald of Austin and John L. Ward of Temple are serving in the governor's defense. The proceedings are not to reach the extent of an impeachment trial, but findings of the investigation are to be reported to the house for further consideration. The proceedings have been pretty lively at times and may grow in interest.

GUEST HONORED

On Tuesday of last week Mrs. O. H. Yarborough entertained the members of the Merry Wives club and a few friends at her lovely bungalow home in South Goldthwaite. The hospitality was planned to honor Mrs. Yarborough's grandmother, Mrs. Pruden, who is visiting here from Van Wert, Ohio. After a pleasant social hour had been spent tables were placed for forty-two—the ever popular game. When the scores were counted Mrs. Carroll Lowrie and Mrs. Walter Fairman held high score for the club members and in the draw Mrs. Lowrie was successful and was awarded the club pin. In the draw for the guest Mrs. Cliff Branham was, fortunate one and received a dainty crepe-de-chene handkerchief.

The refreshment plate carried delicious nut cream and wafers.

The courtesy was very much enjoyed by all present as was also the pleasure of meeting the charming honoree. A GUEST

It is effectual and highly recommended by people who have used it for many years as occasion required, and know its real value. Obtainable everywhere. (adv)

TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

The Mid-Texas Teachers Association will convene in Brownwood Friday and Saturday, March 16 and 17. This is an organization of teachers of this section of the state and has for its purpose the enlightenment of teachers and the general improvement of schools. The two previous meetings have been great successes. The program for this year is a good one and with the entertainment pledged by the city of Brownwood this meeting's success is assured. The railroads have given rates of one and one third fare. The Brownwood Spring Style show is announced at the Lyric Theatre for March 16. Teachers may secure free tickets by writing the Chamber of Commerce of Brownwood. The Mother's conference will be held on the same date, giving teachers and others a chance to attend both meetings.

I believe it will be well worth the time for any teacher or friend of education to attend this meeting of the Association even at the cost of closing school a day to give the teacher a chance to attend both days of the meeting. ROBERT WEAVER.

It should be said in favor of the farmer that he has ceased to grumble. Time was when the farmer was supposed habitually to go to bed angry at Wall Street and get up sore on all the world. That was never true of the farmers as a class, for even in the years of the deepest agricultural depression there were a few farmers, one or two in every community, who were making money at their business. They were wise men who invariably sold more than they bought and took care of the difference. Despite the exorcisated prices of farm products today the same rule holds good now.
Just as it was in 1895, that only those farmers who are selling more than they buy are really prosperous.
The farmer who in the pre-Bryan period, sold $300 worth of produce and bought $200 worth of manufactures was gainer by the sum of $100. Right now, in 1917, the farmer who may this year sell $3,000 worth of farm products and get "shot" of $3,000 will finish the year's operation without a profit. Prosperity for the farmer as for the rest of us is not to be measured by gross income or total outgo, but by the net balance between the two operations. It is not extravagant to say that, with prices as they are at present, any efficient farmer can by keeping down expenses and keeping up sales, accumulate a snug fortune in a short space of time. It can be done. It is being done. There are 10,000 tenant farmers in Texas who each cleared enough money last year to pay for a good little farm. The fact that most of them are buying automobiles instead of farms doesn't alter the case.—Dallas News.

THOMAS ELMORE LUCEY.

Artist and Impersonator in Exquisite Evening of Song, Sketch and Story.
Thomas Elmore Lucey began life with the discovery of terra firma in the Tarheel State ten miles from a railroad station, attended rural schools, picked cotton, chopped the same and
"toted" water from a spring a quarter of a mile away; was considered a prodigy at freehand drawing at eight years of age, began at ten to dream of being "a editor" some day, doffed the spinning frames in an Arkansas cotton mill at thirteen, entered his long dreamed of print shop as devil at fourteen and had his first jingles published although he had been scribbling them for four years (N. B.—He set up his own productions, which accounts for their publication); at sixteen had written a twelve chapter novel, at twenty made his first trip to a large city, at tending the World's fair at Chicago; filled his first Chautauqua date at Talladega, Ala., five years later; became manager of the Alkahest Magazine and helped found the Alkahest Lyceum System
the same year, the next year played his first part on the dramatic stage and since then has been occupied something like twenty hours a day filling Lyceum and Chautauqua engagements, editing a daily newspaper, delivering class orations and commencement addresses, directing choruses in productions and evangelistic meetings, writing and publishing songs, coaching talent, contributing to various periodicals, planting Lyceum courses in difficult fields and dreaming of doing worthwhile things until the final summons comes to him.

While traveling extensively from coast to coast and from Edmonton, Alberta, to Panama, his tastes are extremely domestic, and he dreams of a day when he can revel for an uninterrupted period among the books, curios and relics he has collected on his tours.
His wonderful versatility of talents may have something to do with the wide variety of entertainment features in his programs, varying from original and selected songs, stories, quips and jingles to tragic Shakespearean portrays in costume, lightning crayon sketches in makeup, etc.

PLAINVIEW

Editor Eagle:

Health in our community is very good, with exception of Mr. W. F.
Hearne, who has had the La Grippe and Grandmother Jones has had the La grippe also.

We had a nice rain last week and the farmers are getting ready to plant their corn.

Our school is progressing nicely now with Mr. W. M. Stewart as teacher. We are planning for a concert the last of school, which will be about the last of March.

We have played several match games of basket ball here of late —one with the Moline girls and we came out victorious 6 to 11, the other a mixed game with the Center City boys and girls. They came out ahead 8 to 16.

Our Sunday school has come to life again and we have organized a singing class and have singing every Sunday night. We had a very enjoyable time singing at Mr. Paul Jones' last Sunday night and it was announced that there would be a singing at Mr. J. J. Casbiero's next Sunday night.

Mr. and Mr. T. F. Kensey and son of Ft. Worth are visiting in our community this week.

We are longing for the time when that great banquet shall be at hand. Smiling Billie has been kind enough to give us an invitation and we are preparing for the trip.

A SAD VISIT

S. R. Kerby and family of Comanche came back to Mills county last Friday on the sad mission of consigning to the grave the remains of his little 4-year-old son, who died of appendicitis. The family moved from this county to Comanche county in January, locating a short distance north of the town of Comanche. They have relatives and many warm friends in this county who deeply sympathize with them in their bereavement.

Is daily becoming a household neces-

VEGETABLES LEGAL TENDER

Two transactions were consummated in Goldthwaite Thursday night which prove the stable value of vegetables and indicate that almost any line of business can be conducted on an exchange basis. On the evening mentioned A. L. Gattin appeared at the ticket window of the Dixie theater and tendered two Irish potatoes for a ticket to the picture show. As the potatoes were worth approximately 5 cents each the ticket seller passed out the ticket and took the potatoes. Soon after this transaction A. L. Burk, business manager for the Lanford Co., arrived at the theatre accompanied by a lady and presented two large onions in payment for two tickets. As the onions were worth 25 cents, the ticket seller gave Mr. Burk one of the potatoes together with two show tickets in exchange for them. This was rather an unusual transaction, but shows to what extent local products can be used in co-operating among home people.

STALLION AND JACK

A PAYING CROP

Proposition For growing Cucumbers For Pickle Factory

Mr. W. S. Perkins, vice president and general manager of the Price-Booker Pickle Manufacturing Co. of Houston, came here Monday on invitation of W. H. Linkenhoger, a prosperous and progressive farmer, to look into the proposition of locating a salting station here for cucumbers. He was greatly pleased with the outlook and stated he would make this a salting station if the farmers would build a shed and platform and pledge as much as 75 acres of land to be devoted to the growing of cucumbers. The plan was outlined to some of the farmers and in a short time more than the required amount of land was pledged for the crop. Mr. Perkins stated he would not make any definite arrangements until next Wednesday, when he would expect the assurance that the shed and platform would be built, if this place is to be made one of the company's stations. It is understood that Mr. Linkenhoger has called a meeting of the farmers for 2 o'clock this afternoon to ascertain the amount of subscriptions that can be secured for building the shed and platform. It is stated that $400 or $500 will be necessary for the buildings and there is no doubt that the farmers interested in the matter will readily subscribe that amount for the locating of the station will assure them a good market for their products and it is understood the crop is very remunerative. There is a record of $1015 worth of cucumbers having been grown on a single acre and the pickle company supplies the seed to those who will engage in growing the cucumbers for the market and there is no limit to the amount of the vegetables the company will buy if the salting vats are located at this place.

COUNTY COURT

County court has been in session this week and the term will not expire for two more weeks, but it is not expected there will be any cases tried during the remainder of the term, altho some probate matters will be given attention by Judge Weaver.

The jurors for the week were dismissed Monday and two cases were continued, one on account of sickness of some of the parties interested and one because of the absence of witnesses. There have been a few pleas of guilty in minor cases, but none of them are of public interest. The court appointed M. C. Humphreys, H. G. Forehand and R. E. Eridbury jury commissioners and they are to meet today to draw the jurors for the next term of court.

WHEN BUSINESS PROSPERS

The present commercial and financial condition of the Southwest is the result of safer and better methods of farm management practiced last year. Not only are many individual farmers more nearly independent than formerly, but the business of the Southwest was never in a more prosperous condition.

Crops last year were not large, but the system of farming was safe; diversification that included feed crops and crops for food was the general practice. Prices were good and that is what saved the farmers from disaster.

During the next few weeks we are to determine very largely what crops are to be planted this year and how these crops are to be utilized. The acreage we leave for cotton, the acreage we plant in sorghum, peas, soy beans, peanuts, June corn, sweet potatoes and other crops that require later planting will have much to do with cotton prices and more to do with our independence and thrift next fall. So much depends upon our cropping system this year that each of us should think for ourselves and choose wisely and well. While we are not to farm especially to save the financial condition of the country, we can do it in the way we plant, cultivate and harvest to prosper on our own farms. And it is worth much to be one of many who make the business of the country prosperous as well as ourselves.—Farm and Ranch.

TEXAS.

DEAR SIR:—

Following the custom pursued by us for many years, we wish our old customers, as well as our new, to return any coat made by us during the past season in which the lining has not given satisfactory wear or the fronts have not held their shape. We will be pleased to re-line the garment and put in new fronts, or if this cannot be done, make a new coat free of charge.

Very truly yours,
ED. V. PRICE & CO.

MONUMENT SALE

A nice lot of Monuments and Markers at Close Prices. Can save you 15 to 25 per cent and give the very best material and the highest grade work. How? By eliminating the agent-commission business, which means that amount saved for the buyer. Agents will tell you their firms can buy marble or granite cheaper than your home dealer and make you a better price, which is false and misleading, as we dealers pay exactly the same price for the same grade of stock. Figure with me before placing your contract, as I can save you money—and I guarantee my work. Will take feed or Good Stock in trade.
