Rev. I. T. Morris left Monday for Corpus Christi to attend the Methodist annual conference.

Mrs. W. W. Taylor of Live Oak community returned Sunday evening from a visit to her son Frank at Camp Bowie, near Fort Worth.

Will H. Trent, G. H. Frizzell and Jas Rahl were at Sweetwater the first of the week as character witnesses in the Gray Burrows case.

W. W. Tippen, cashier of the Mullin bank, was among the visitors to the city this week. He was on his way home from a visit to the Dallas fair.

A. A. Beck, for several years employed as collector by the Commercial National bank, has resigned his position and is now located in Brownwood, where he has charge of the Frisco warehouse—Brady Standard.

Barnes & McCullough have torn away the lumber sheds which they recently purchased from J. D. Bryan at the corner of Fisher and Fifth streets. They have moved the stock of lumber to their yards on the southwest corner of the square and will use the material of the sheds in other buildings.

Those who have not yet taken membership in the Red Cross society are urged to do so at once. The chapter at Goldthwaite or any of the auxiliaries will put forth every effort to secure members and all members will be glad to explain the importance and helpfulness of the organization. If it is not convenient to take membership in any local organization, just send the membership fee of $1.00 to Will H. Trent, chairman, at Goldthwaite, and he will be glad to enroll your name.

STAR NEWS

Editor Eagle:

Still dry over this way. Have not had rain since the last time and I don't remember when that was. Some cotton to pick yet, but mostly all out.

Dr. E. Brooking made a trip to Chicago a few weeks back. Had a big time and looks better since he got back. I guess some more of us need a vacation.

The Child-Welfare League met at the school building last Friday afternoon and report a most interesting meeting. They planned to have a box supper on the 3rd of November. This will be a Halloween festival, and the funds will go to the piano fund. Everybody come and bring your neighbor.

A Red Cross auxiliary was formed last Friday afternoon and will get to real work as soon as we can get instructions. Everybody come and join this society for the sake of the laddies who are fighting at the front for you. Give your name and dues to Miss Robbie Keese.

Mrs. Emmett Hawkins, little Autry Lee, and Mr. Clary's little boy have been real sick for some time, but are reported better at this writing.

We had frost and ice last Monday night. Did you?

Quite a number of our people went over to Hamilton on the 9th to see the boys off. A big crowd assembled from all parts of the county. Everywhere you could look there were people, autos, vehicles and teams. We hope the war will soon end so that all the boys won't get killed. Yet we are mighty proud to see them willing to give up their lives for their country. SUM KID

The Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas is, at bottom, a vocational school. It teaches young men how to do things rather than "dream them all day long." One of the principal instructions at A and M is discipline—not perhaps so much the discipline of one man by another, but self-discipline. Early rising, regularity of personal habits, mental alertness, physical promptness and military drill are accounted there of lasting value to the student, whether in war time or peace time. In addition to these attentions to the student's corporeal prosperity, he is instructed in those arts and sciences which underlie the production of the world's most essential commodities. He is taught not only to admire the graceful lines of a cow, but to doctor her when she falls sick. He is shown not only into the chemical processes which milk undergoes between the cowpen and the churn, but is taught how to make butter. It is borne in upon him that the soil is not only our all-mother, deftly coaxed into yielding richer maternal rewards by loving and intelligent treatment. Students at the Agricultural and Mechanical College are induced to consider agriculture and mechanics not merely as commonplace activities, but as interesting and vital professions. The young men are taught not only to study the analytical aspects of agrostology, but are shown how to raise hay. It should not be understood from this exhibit of practicality, however, that the purely cultural side of education is ignored at the A and M. The idea is to so combine culture with capacity that the graduate shall not be top-heavy with undigested academics nor loaded with materialism.—Dallas News.

THE RURAL SCHOOLS

Colleges, universities and city schools have opened this year in many instances under very favorable circumstances considering the war and its detracting influences. Many young men who should be in college or the university have offered their services to save the nation. Yet most institutions of learning have a fair or excellent enrollment.

It is hoped when the rural schools open that children of farmers will be ready to enter. Labor is so scarce and expensive that many parents will feel that under the circumstances they are justified in keeping the older children to help gather crops or to begin another crop. They will feel, doubtless, in some instances, that so much depends upon food and feed now that the older children can wait until another term of school.

Parents must answer for themselves. No one else is capable of making a decision for parents when they need the help of their children and yet earnestly desire to give them educational advantages.

But the country is in no less need of trained men and women than it is for food and feed. Perhaps when the war is over young men and young women without training may have many difficulties. It is certainly worth a sacrifice if necessary to give the boys and girls a chance to attend school and get every possible advantage for training. Our schools are "bulwarks of liberty." May the time never come when we can not give our boys and girls a chance to attend—Farm and Ranch.

DISTRICT COURT

Only one case was tried in district court this week and that was the case of the State of Texas vs. Waddy Thompson charged with killing Mart Little in Mullin on July 29 of this year. Three days were consumed in the trial of the case, which was submitted to the jury after the arguments Wednesday night. The jury brought in a verdict yesterday afternoon shortly after 2 o'clock declaring Mr. Thompson not guilty.

The court is allowed another week in this county, but this case ended the term of court and Judge Spann left for his home in Temple last night.

ONE THAT COUNTS

It is not one who observes the amenities, but the one who comes instantly to the front when one is in trouble or difficulties who has and deserves our best love.

Not the one who pays a compliment, but the one who upholds our hands.

Not the one who is saying repeatedly, "Now, if there is anything I can do be sure to let me know," but "he one" who without seeming to know it, come in on the homesretch with a boost which warms your heart-strings.

Not the one who gives grudgingly, but the one who gives freely who counts.

It is easy enough to be spontaneous and gracious to those who flatter your vanity, but how about it when the other fellow dares to criticize?

Even if you know he is right and you are wrong, you would like to feel that your friend or neighbor accepts your "say so," instead of weighing the questions for himself.

There is a streak of egotism in most of us.

It is hard not to smile inwardly while protesting openly, when the other fellow pastes you with flattery and compliments.

But it takes hard sense to realize the justice of a decision contrary to your own ideas of right and wrong.—Houston Chronicle

The commissioners court of Tarrant county has appointed a woman special officer to do duty in Fort Worth in looking after young women who are on the streets at night without proper escorts and those who appear on the streets improperly clad. The city of Fort Worth also has a woman officer charged with the same duties.

The question of what will be done with the cantonments after the war has been decided by the war department, officers at Camp Travis believe. They think the cantonments will be maintained. Their reason for thinking so is that although the United States may not keep a large standing army, it will keep universal training which would require all of the cantonments being constructed. In that case there would continually be a large number of citizen soldiers near San Antonio, with the possibility of a large aviation school patterned after West Point, open the year around—San Antonio Express.

French women have presented General Pershing and his forces with a silk United States flag as an evidence of their high regard for this nation and its forces in France.

Already the gubernatorial candidates are appearing and by the time the campaign opens in earnest next spring there is likely to be a list large enough for every policy and belief in governmental affairs to have a representative.

A Mexican charged with murder in Tom Green county last August was shot and killed as he was being taken from the jail to the court house for trial Monday. A brother of the murdered ranchman immediately surrendered to the officers.

Secretary of the Treasury Wm. G. McAdoo, son-in-law of President Wilson, is to deliver an address at the coliseum at Dallas Sunday morning at 10:30. His address is to be patriotic and it is supposed he will deal largely with the matter of the second Liberty Loan.

Declaring she was glad she had done it and that her mother and little brothers had been beaten and abused as long as she could remember, Alice Karlson, 24, of Scotts, Mich., confessed to the killing of her father. She is being held in the Kalamazoo, Mich., jail on charge of murder.

The cases against former Governor James Ferguson and others of his former official family have been set for trial in district court at Austin. Those against the former governor are to be called Oct. 26. He is to answer to nine indictments, seven of which charge misapplication of public funds, one charges embezzlement and one charges diverting special funds.

One of the principals in the kidnapping of the Keet baby at Springfield, Mo., has been convicted and given thirty years in the penitentiary. It will be remembered the child was stolen from its crib in the family home and held for ransom, which would have been paid but for the fact that the kidnappers did not appear at the place designated to get the money. Ten days after the disappearance of the child its body was found in an old well where it had been thrown by those who had stolen it.

Not many farmers with small farms will be able to take in more land in order that they may get the benefit of better prices for food and feed crops. Perhaps most managers of small farms have been tilling every available acre suitable for cultivation and not needed to pasture. But many may extend the depth of their soil by breaking deeper with suitable harrowing and discing to support more plants. Those who increase the area of their soil suitable for holding more moisture and giving up more plant food will be getting greater benefits than if an increase of acres were cultivated. After all we cultivate land for the crops it yields. Such methods of tillage as produce larger crops should be sought rather than more land. There are many farms in the southwest where deeper breaking and better methods of pulverizing the soil is highly desirable. Some managers have not had facilities for doing the kind of breaking and harrowing they knew their fields needed. But with better prices of farm products and with the nation in need of the increase in feed and food there will be an incentive for earlier and deeper breaking even at greater expense—Farm and Ranch.

TEACHERS ENTERTAINED

Last Friday night the doors of Mr. and Mrs. Jo Frizzell's beautiful home on Fisher street were thrown open. The occasion was, that Misses Frizzell, Rosa Keese and Rosa Johnston were hostesses to the non-resident teachers. The rooms were tastefully decorated with flowers and ferns, the color scheme of red, white and blue being carried out.

As the guests arrived they were met by Misses Johnston and Keese. Everybody wrote their names in that little register, which from the very design on the cover indicated the patriotic spirit. After registering we were escorted to the lovely dining room, where Miss Normallee Frizzell presided over the punch bowl with all the grace of a queen.

After listening to several musical numbers by Miss Lucille Frizzell, every one became interested in the game of "Hearts." Miss Ocker scored highest and was awarded first prize. Mr. Ches. Gardner received the consolation.

The next number was the "Automobile Contest." Who ever heard of so many automobiles? Several scored 100 in this contest and drew for prizes. Mr. Lovelace drew high honor and Mr. Faulkner received the consolation prize.

Refreshments of coffee and dairy sandwiches were served. The favors were small American flags.

The social hour was one of merriment. Each guest and hostess recited the first speech he or she ever said. The musical numbers given by various members of the party added much interest to the occasion. So many said, "I never had a better time" and the hour was late when we departed.

Those who enjoyed the pleasant occasion were Mrs. McElroy, Misses Kirkpatrick, Ocker, Harrison, Farris, Anne Johnston, Rosa Keese, Lucille and Normallee Frizzell; Messrs. Price, Gardner, Lovelace, McCullough, Faulkner, Harrison, Goslin and Weaver.

CHARGED WITH TREASON

J. T. Zumwalt, a man about 30 years old employed on the Richards ranch as a laborer, was arrested here Saturday afternoon charged with treason, the crime growing out of alleged seditious remarks regarding President Wilson and the United States Government. The conversation took place in a local grocery store in which Zumwalt is said to have made the statement that he had rather live under the government of the German Kaiser than the United States. The conversation did not proceed very far until Sheriff Wade was notified and he immediately placed the man under arrest and held him in the jail. King for an examination trial. Several witnesses were examined who testified to the truth of his making the statements, and when placed upon the stand he himself admitted it, but said he did not mean anything by it. As treason is not a bailable case at the conclusion of the evidence the prisoner was turned over to the sheriff who remanded him to jail. County Attorney Evans Adkins immediately notified the Federal Authorities at San Antonio, who will likely take action in the case very shortly.—Brady Sentinel.

How Bad Backs Have Been Made Strong—Kidney Ills Corrected

All over Goldthwaite you hear it Doan's Kidney Pills are keeping up the good work. Goldthwaite people are telling about it—telling of bad backs, and how they feel again. You can believe the best many of your own townsmen. They tell it for the benefit of you who are suffering. Your back aches, if you feel lame, sore, and miserable, if the kidneys act too frequently or passages are painful, scanty and off color, use Doan's Kidney Pills, they remedy what has helped so many of your friends and neighbors. Follow this Goldthwaite man's advice and give Doan's a chance to do the same for you.

Joe Taff, Goldthwaite, says: "I was subject to spells of headache for years. When those attacks came on it was hard for me to stoop or do anything. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Clements' Drug Store and they always gave me relief from those troubles."

AN APT COMPARISON

"The farmer who lets his machinery rust and rot, and be scattered about all over the place, is no better than the soldier who lets his rifle barrel get choked with mud and lost his bayonet." is one of John Field's apt statements in an Oklahoma Farmer editorial urging farmers to put their implements in good repair at once and keep them so until used again. "Farmer's are soldiers of the soil now," he continues, "and they cannot afford to neglect their equipment any more than the soldier's of the trenches can."

Certain Improvements Are Necessary

"If there are many—don't try to make them all at once. Decide on the one you need most, then build well—build for future needs as well as the present. It costs less to build big at first than to build and make additions."

TICK FEVER IS RAGING!

Lots of cattle are dying every day. Most people wait till they lose one or two head of good cattle before they have them vaccinated. My advice is to have them vaccinated before you lose any. That is the most economical way—not to lose any cattle are too high for a man to take any chance on them getting Tick Fever. I have vaccinated 150 or 200 head in the last 8 months and none of them have taken tick fever yet, so I think that is mighty good proof that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. The thing to do is to vaccinate your cattle against this dread disease. I can vaccinate them and render them immune for 6 months. If one takes tick fever within 6 months after being vaccinated, I will furnish the medicine free with which to treat it.

PICURIS PUEBLO
Penasco, N. M.

Editor Eagle:

Altho some few weeks have passed since we arrived at this place I shall endeavor to give the Eagle a brief description of our trip from the Colville agency, Daisy, Wash., which was occasioned by a transfer from Colville day school No. 6 to the Picur's Pueblo

The trip was all lovely with many interesting features—now it is understood, of course, that I was in company with my husband and two children. Monday morning, August 27, early and bright we were ferried across the Columbia and by auto stage reached Adky, our station. In time for lunch before train time. Almost the entire afternoon was spent amid scenes that had grown more or less familiar with us during our stay in the "Evergreen State." The train moved into Hillyard-Spokane at sunset, and in order to make better time we spent the night in Spokane, intending to take the Northern Pacific early morning train, which was several hours behind its schedule in reaching the city. This was necessitated by a freight wreck in a tunnel of the Cascades. At 12:30 we were speeding thru eastern Washington and not much time was required for passing out of the state and thru the Panhandle of Idaho. One of the most interesting features of the afternoon was a view of Lake Hayden, which stretched for miles along the railroad. The numerous boats here and there on the water with merry parties rowing completed the scene.

The night's travel was in the mountains of western Montana, passing Helena, the state capital, during the night. Wednesday morning we viewed some of the enormous grain fields of the state. The grain had just been harvested and we judge from the myriads of shocks the farmers of the Yellowstone and Big Horn valleys will have plenty of grain for home use and at least some to share with our soldier boys. At Livingston, Mont., where the railroad leads off to Gardiner, were many tourists on their way to the Yellowstone National Park. The scenery thru here was so grand I won't try to find words beautiful enough to describe it.

Wyoming is quite hilly in some parts and possesses some very rich coal mines. The scope of country we saw in S. Dakota included the noted Black Hills. One thing I forgot to mention, and that was having seen two large eagles near Custer's battlefield in southern Montana. Nebraska can be described as a plain level country or a good part of it at least. In Colorado we saw our first real buffalo. They are large creatures and very odd and awkward looking. I shall now attempt to describe the scenic beauty of the huge mountains backed off from Denver, Pueblo and Colorado Springs, as I am sure those who have not had the pleasure of paying a personal visit to these places, have read much of them. We spent an afternoon viewing the city of Denver, making a visit to the capitol building.

Our journey was continued late in the evening, the night and next day (Friday) until 2:00 P. M. being required to make the run to Embuda, N. M. Shortly before reaching this station we were made to realize that this was a land of real canyons and mountains. The Rio Grande winds its way thru the valleys, where grows many fine orchards and truck patches. Farming cannot be done on a very large scale as the valleys are so narrow, but it seems that the patches, though small, are well cared for and are very productive.

This government school is located in Pueblo village some twenty miles from Embuda, which is reached by daily mail stage.

Perhaps I shall write again sometime and tell of the artist's Mecca, which is not far from here.

Among the drafted and enlisted men from Mills and Hamilton counties we find the names of a number of our dear friends. Some of whom we have knowledge are already in France. May the kind hand of Providence protect them all and restore them to us safely when the war is done. Since writing the above will say that last night shortly after midnight we were startled to see an airplane passing almost directly over our village. The light shone distinctly and it moved rapidly up the valley toward the east, then hovered, as if exploring the country, after which it went much higher and passed on. In the distance the lights of two other machines could be seen. Some suggest that it is spies from Old Mexico. It is reported today that lights from four other machines were seen a few nights previous, from the village of Taos, some twenty-four miles from here. I thought to mention this, as it is something unusual and they were headed toward the Lone Star state. Perhaps the real facts will prove it to be our own dear soldier boys training for service. We hope so.

Success to the Eagle,
PAULIE M. BOLER SWINDLE.

MAKING GOOD

Following is a letter from Mason Goodie to his brother at Star. Mason is quite well remembered in this city as well as at Star, where he was reared. He is now in the navy, as will be seen by his letter:

Newport, R. I., Sept. 12th.
Hello G's:

How are you by this time? I am feeling a great deal better, in fact feel as good as I ever did in my life.

Went over to Portsmouth to the county fair yesterday, saw a competitive drill between the home guard and Reginald Vanderbilt's company. Reggie is one of the multi-millionaires and is of the old Vanderbilt family. The home guard won the loving cup, however. Bad success to Reggie.

After the competition a company of artillery from the regular army came on the grounds and gave us some real drill. It is simply great. They went thru the gun drill to the tune of Yankee Doodle, etc, fine, fine.

The navy is fine, but too crowded. You have to line up to eat, drink, get coffee, get your gun, get your mail, to muster, to buy anything in the canteen, to get your clothes packed, in fact line up for the word. When I get home I will be in the habit of when a doctor is called "I will start getting in line." Line up, also when I get into the kitchen I will grab a plate, cup, knife, fork and spoon and beat it to the canteen or receptacle as convenient, the food before I think.

Well, I must close for this time and write to Bascom. Will write more soon. Wish you the best of luck. Your bud,
MASON

NEEDS MONEY

Those who owe me are urged to make at least a partial payment of their accounts, as I need money and need it badly. Don't pass this notice by as though it was not important, for my necessities are such that I must collect some on what is owing me. If you can only pay part, then do that and help me as much as possible. I will discount all bills liberally where payment is made promptly.—J. D. Calaway, M. D.

METHODISTS DEDICATE CHURCH—BID MINISTER FAREWELL

The members of the Methodist church observed a very joyous occasion Sunday with the dedication of their church and formal release of all indebtedness upon the property, though the event was decidedly tinged with deep regret as the day also marked the last Sabbath with them of their beloved pastor, Rev. J. S. Bowles, who has been here for four years and to whose efforts the happy circumstances of the freeing the church from debt is largely due.

Mr Bowles' departure from the church is with mutual regret, for both he and his congregation have enjoyed the four years of fellowship and work, and it is only in submission to the rules of the church which prohibit more than four years service in one place for a pastor, that he is leaving them for a pastorate in the central part of the state.

Sunday morning the dedication services, with the sermon by Rev. Sessions, the presiding Elder of the district, a beautiful musical program and all the attendant formalities formed one of the most impressive ceremonies in the history of the church.

The edifice was tastefully decorated for the event with many flowers and plants and the music was of highest order with some solo numbers by Mrs. Alberta Kirby which were especially enjoyed.

The sermon by Mr. Sessions was an impressive and eloquent one and the whole affair was one of those pleasing events which characterize the work of the ladies of the Methodist church who were the chief factors in the arrangement and who have borne such a splendid part in raising funds to reach the happy consummation.

In the evening Mr. Bowles preached his farewell sermon and to the audience of his own church there were added the congregations of the Presbyterian, Baptist and Christian churches, which had adjourned services to pay their respects to the departing pastor.

Mr. Bowles spoke feelingly and sympathetically of the bonds between himself and his flock and of his regret at leaving them.

He has been much feted preparatory to his departure a number of dinners and suppers having been arranged in his honor by his friends.

Mr. Bowles goes first to Goldthwaite where he will join his wife and children, who have been summering there, and they will all go together to their new home.—Daily Sentinel, Brownsville, Texas.

C. S. Horton called this week and ordered the Eagle sent to H. S. Horton at Waco.

E. J. Shave, one of our best friends of the Star country, had business in this city this week.

Judge John M. Mathis of Brenham spent the first of the week here in attendance upon district court.

Judge T. C. Wilkerson of Brownwood was among the attorneys in attendance upon district court here this week.

Stop that cough. San-Tox Cough Syrup will do it for you. It's sold at Miller's drug and jewelry store, the San-Tox Store. (Advertisement)

F. I. Sheldon, one of the leading men of the Star section, was a pleasant caller at the Eagle office one day this week.

San-Tox Cold Tablets will stop that cold where others fail. San-Tox does the work. They are sold and guaranteed at Miller's drug and jewelry store. (adv)

The Baptist ladies served dinner Monday in the building recently vacated by Grover Dalton, on the north side of the square. The patronage was liberal and the receipts were very satisfactory to the ladies.

J. J. Johnson of Comanche county brought over a load of apples this week and sold them in this market. He remained for a short visit with his brother, W. W. Johnson, and wife in the North Brown community.

Mrs. Goode, of Star, was a caller at our office Tuesday. She came to inform us that her son, Mason Goode, whose name appeared in the list of those failing to respond for examination before the board here for service in the army, had enlisted in the navy at Brownwood and she had the papers showing this to be a fact. Mrs. Goode said she had given two sons to the war, and could not stand for either of them to be put down as a "slacker."—Hamilton Herald

The fellow who will repudiate his obligations to his country in this supreme crisis of its history will repudiate any other obligation, it matters not how sacred. If he will evade his duty to his government, he will evade any other duty. If he permits "conscientious scruples" to stand between him and a performance of his duty, his conscience will work likewise on any other occasion as well. He will bear watching.—Belton News

EVER SALIVATED BY CALOMEL? HORRIBLE!

Calomel is quicksilver and acts like dynamite on your liver.

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury, quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into sour bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bowels and should never be put into your system.

When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel just remember that your druggist sells for 50 cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and can not salivate.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tone straightens you right up and you feel great. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe.

NOT A SLACKER

Mrs. Dora Goode, accompanied by her son, Fred, was in Hamilton from Star Tuesday and had the patriotic pleasure of witnessing the entertainment of the third contingent of Hamilton county drafted men and the soldier boys from Erath county, who also had dinner here and left on the same special train that transported the Hamilton county men. Mrs. Goode came in to clear the name of her son, A. Mason Goode who she said was listed last week as one of the young men who had been called and failed to report before the exemption board, and the reason for his failure to do so was that he had several months ago as a volunteer already enlisted, having gone and is now in the United States navy at Newport, R. I. Mrs. Goode called at the Record office to make a statement for publication, saying that she could not bear for the stigma, "slacker" to rest on the name of her boy, especially when he was a volunteer and was anxious to get into service for his country in this crisis. Mrs. Goode said further "And I have another son in the service, Bascom P. Goode, who is a clerk in the officers department and is stationed at Mare Island, and he has been in the service for more than a year. And I have three more boys to give to my country if they are needed when they reach an age to be accepted. I love my country and am proud to make the sacrifice. It hurts to give them up, but it would hurt lots worse to have a slacker son. They must die sometime anyhow, and what more glorious than to die for your country!"—Hamilton Record

LET THE MAN HELP

Women are getting lots of advice nowadays. Mere men are telling them how to run their homes, what to cook, what to eat and even what to wear.

They are being told that the war will be lost unless they do certain things and do them now.

A great deal of this advice is valuable. Much food is wasted in our kitchens and upon our tables, but the women are not the only ones to blame. Men usually are rather insistent about what goes on the table both in quantity and quality. They like bountiful portions, plenty of meat and potatoes and are not particular about the clean plate.

The man who goes home unexpectedly for a meal is quite apt to do considerable growling because he fancies he does not get enough to eat. It is a well known fact that most of the cooking is done for the men and that women eat very modest meals when they are alone.

So food dictators, diet specialists, economists and others in authority, please direct some of your advice to the wasteful man. Do not expect the good housewives to try to save food enough for the armies unless husbands co-operate.—Blanco County Record.

SUNRISE BREAKFAST

Saturday morning a jolly crowd took a sunrise walk out to the tank pasture. A camp fire was soon built and breakfast was being prepared. After the brisk tramp, all appetites were keen for the breakfast, which consisted of oranges, broiled bacon, eggs, camp style, toast and butter, coffee, sugar and cream. The quick disappearance of the breakfast proved that there were several culinary artists present. Impromptu readings, songs, and games were then enjoyed. Gathering together skillets, cups, knives and forks the march homeward was begun. Roll call found the following early risers present: Misses Farris, Harrison, Frizzell, Johnson, Keese, Smyth, and Ocker.

REPORTER

Sometimes it looks as if the American people are readier to contribute their sons and nephews and cousins and friends to the war than to lend their money to Uncle Sam at a fair rate of interest and unexceptional security. The way we are hanging back and neglecting and ignoring the Liberty Loan is actually menacing our liberties and threatening our national dignity in the sight of the world. Of course we have the money and the patriot's aid, and the good intention required by us—but we are so appallingly indifferent to the urgency of the matter that we are going about our routine business as if we had all the time in the world. Well, we have not. We have only a few days in which to make good, or to admit that we haven't made good. If we fail, through our tardy indifference, to grant the government the loan it is asking of us, we shall not only stand accused of meanness before our sorrowing allies or jeering enemies—we shall not only feel accused, but feel disgraced. We then will be running around and asking one another why we postponed and ignored and delayed doing so vital a duty and our answers one to another must be that we were sorry citizens, lacking ordinary vigilance and ground-hog generosity. The bottom fact is that the millions among us who could hold take a fifty or a hundred dollar bond imagine that their fifty or hundred dollars "ain't needed." It is needed! Urgently needed! There are, after all is said and done, only a few millionaires. The millionaires couldn't take all these Liberty bonds if they were to put their entire capital into them. It is the mass of the people who own the big money, and the masses must not take up with the idea that their part is one of supineness.—Dallas News.

The new postal regulations provide postmasters shall on and after Nov. 2 see that postage is paid at the rate of 3 cents an ounce or fraction thereof on letters and other first class matter except drop letters. All drop letters, that is, letters mailed for delivery from the office at which posted, including those for delivery by city, rural or any other carrier of such office, are required to have postage paid on them at the rate of 2 cents an ounce or fraction thereof. Postal cards are required to be prepaid 2 cents, and therefore, the 1-cent postal cards must have a 1-cent postage stamp affixed to them in addition to 1-cent stamp impressed on such cards. Post card (private mailing cards) bearing written messages must have 2 cents postage prepaid on them.

Roach Fox writes from Camp Travis to express his thanks and those of the other young men who left a few days ago for training camp for the kindness and thoughtfulness of the people here on the night of their departure for camp. They specially thank Mr. W. C. Dew and the Loyal Girls for the entertainments and provisions made for their comfort and welfare. He is well pleased with army life, but says there is plenty of work and drilling to give all necessary exercise.

Chas. Henderson and family left this week for Leaday, Coleman county, where they will reside in future. His brother, D. A. Henderson, moved to that section last spring and is doing fine. He has made good crops and has good prospects. The many friends here of the Henderson family are glad to know of their prosperity.

Gov. Hobby this week approved and filed with the Secretary of State Senate bill No. 8, by Senator Johnston of Harris county, providing for organization of home guards in the various counties of the state. The bill becomes effective ninety days from date of adjournment of the third called session of the Legislature. The home guard is to be organized with consent of and under direction of county courts, such guard at all times to be subject to orders by the sheriff of the county.

HARRIS-PIERCE

At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. N. E. Harris, Miss Emma Harris and Shelby K. Pierce were married Thursday afternoon, September 27, 2:30 o'clock, Rev. S. A. Rains officiating. The holy rites were read in the presence of a large assembly of relatives and friends of the happy young people.

This marriage was the culmination of a romance begun some eight years ago, but the approach of the wedding day was saddened by the exigencies of the war since the groom will leave with next contingent of soldiers from this county to the training camp at San Antonio. He is the son of R. H. Pierce and was born and reared in Hamilton, where his honesty and upright character has won for him the respect of the entire community. The bride came to Hamilton some years ago from Mills county and has been residing with her mother in this city for several years. She is an estimable young woman who chose, though she must give her husband to the service of his country, to bear his name, and is proud to be a "soldier's bride."

They are at home with Mrs. Harris where the bride will continue to reside.

The Record would join their friends in extending heartiest congratulations, and will trust in the good fortune that will bring him home again—Hamilton Record

If you, reader—you who are reading this—have a kinsman or a friend or an acquaintance in the army and neglect to write to him, or send him books or magazines or little luxuries like smoking tobacco or cigars or candy—if you have kinsman in the army and are too trifling to do your little bits by him while he is doing his big, fine robust duty by his country and your country—if you have a kinsman or friend in the army and only shrug your shoulders when you think of him, then you are not a very worthy American, not a very loyal friend not a very loving relative. You, in fact, are not very much of anything. You are a colorless monotone, about as neutral as a blonde fishing worm and something less than all wool a yard wide. Of course the boys in the camp are not starving. Are not in physical misery. But they are living under conditions very new and strange to them. They are dwelling in a world to which they were born but yesterday, and their contentment under this abnormal condition is largely contingent upon the state of their minds as regards the things they most knew and loved previous to their recent transformation. If the young rookie has reason to believe that those for whom he has always cared, care no longer for him, he is susceptible to that morbidity and temperamental desperation which conduce to the sort of troubles soldiers mostly get into. Let us not in camp remember that we are the forces behind the line. The Russians at the front were systematically betrayed behind their backs. Will Americans be systematically neglected behind their backs? Neglect is a species of betrayal. It is.—Dallas News

A citizen of Coryell county has filed an application in the district court of Bell county for a temporary injunction forbidding the comptroller drawing warrants against the university appropriation and also an injunction forbidding the tax collector of Bell county collecting that pro rata of taxes. The application was filed with Judge Spann here Monday and he set next Wednesday as a time for the hearing in Belton. This will be one of the hardest fought cases, no doubt, ever witnessed in Texas and certainly a more able judge could not have been found to try the case. We of the 27th district feel a pride in the fact that the citizen of a county not in our district selected our judge to try the momentous case.

CALOMEL SALIVATES AND MAKES YOU SICK

Acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver and you lose a day's work.

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when 50 cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone—a perfect substitute for calomel.

It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can not salivate. Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tone, because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tone acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.

BARLEY STRAW SCORES

The editor of Hoard's Dairyman relates an interesting experience with barley straw. A year ago the straw from his barley crop was put into the hay barn where it was protected from the weather. On being bedded with it last winter, the cows ate about half the straw allotted to them.

He reports that never did his stock do better and he believes they derived considerable benefit from the straw. Men with a short feed supply should take note of this experience. When barley straw gives results like these, there is some compensation for facing barley beards at the tail end of a threshing machine.
