STAR SPARKS

(Regular Correspondence)

Editor Eagle:

A general "family fuss" from the Eagle for being silent the past two weeks was accepted as a "comp." with due appreciation. Will try to win another compliment, but don't think the "silent act" will win again.

Your correspondent has suffered from an "overdose of confidence" in frail humanity to deliver the Star news. They failed to mail "copy" at Goldthwaite.

Our certified blue-streak thermometer joined the aviation squad Wednesday, 19th, and made a record flight for its first summer skyward trip. Our last glimpse of it in its reckless flight brought on symptoms of vertigo, for it reached 114 (in the shade). Said thermometer does not belong to the Ananias club, either—Jack Shave said it was correct.

The Star "school senate" selected, after pondering over the many worthy applications, the following efficient and highly recommended teachers for the coming school term: Prof. Ira Neighbors, superintendent (Professor Neighbors has spent his teaching life in Mills, Hamilton and Runnels counties); Miss Beulah McMurray (Pottsville), primary; Miss Hattie Lee Ewing (Cleburne), intermediate. The fact that Misses Beulah and Hattie were selected is an assurance that we will add another successful term to Star's school record.

We are pleased to have with us again J. W. Bradley of Runnels county, who is visiting with his daughter, Mrs. Frank Soules.

Charlie Moore and family were visitors recently at the Fort Worth army camp to see their son, Orville, who is soon to leave for France.

Grandma Hamilton does not know how very much pleased we are to have her home again after her visit to South Texas.

Lant Adams and family are at home again after several months absence contracting in the Brownwood oil belt.

Mrs. Ira Neighbors is reported on the fever-patient list.

Mrs. W. I. Hawkins, nee Miss Clyde Cathey, of Bennington, Okla., is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Jim Witty.

R. L. Clemons conveyed Master Joe Tumlinson on a trip sometimes known as fishing. Joe couldn't understand why they had to stand in the water so long. Got foundered (?).

Frank Gummelt, another Star boy, left Sunday to join the colors.

J. H. Randolph took dinner with our popular gambist Tuesday on his way home from Marlin.

Mrs. "Hud" Hamilton and that fine baby boy are home again after a visit of several months to Sour Lake, where Mr. Hamilton is employed.

Henry Morris and family have returned home. He has been farming on the Colorado river.

We must report again some real news:

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Reeves of Center City are entertaining the sweetest and prettiest little lady—she came June 4.

Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Harper have admitted to life membership in their home two of the finest boys. They decided the membership question June 5.

Mrs. Shave says that Frank can't find a suitable name for the only and fairest little girl to be found in Texas. She insisted on being named on June 9.

We regret to announce the following on the sick list and if help is needed in any form—only a hint is necessary:

Mr. and Mrs. Fulton Henry have a very sick child—fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Row may need relief and rest—they have two children both suffering with fever.

Will Gent's little boy, Nathan, who has been sick for five weeks, is improving and is able to sit up.

Mrs. Will Boykin, while on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Frank Soules, became ill.

Mrs. John Hunt has been sick for several days.

This extremely hot weather is causing and may cause more sickness. Care as to diet and over-exertion, also fresh cool water, is a great safeguard.

Mrs. Bettie Paine is visiting with an only sister, Mrs. Maggie Craig of Ozona, Texas. She will remain thru the summer.

Will Rickel left for Austin Wednesday as a government student in mechanics, which is to place him in selected or special war duty.

The editor of the Mullin Enterprise was a flying business visitor the past week.

The threshing machines are in full blast, with a very short grain crop.

We have a rake, hoe and shovel drouth and your correspondent will take up the study of botany and the latest agricultural hints, so that she may describe and enlighten you on the proper care of front yard, side yard, back yard and vacant lot "weedums" and their wonderful effect on the delicate nerves of the eye and proboscis.

The tomato garden on Frank Soules' ranch is proof of what can be done in this section by irrigation. It is a prize-winner and loaded with fruit.

Chas. Moore is at home in the Bill Poe residence, which was vacated by Joe Williams, who has moved on the Harper farm.

Steve Manning had the misfortune to lose four very fine farm animals, caused by a home-applied stock dip. It appears that the dipping vat is the safest and less expensive when death to stock is considered.

Jim Slaughter and wife of Dallas are the guests of his brother, J. F. Slaughter, and family. Jim always brings a streak of sunshine and his visits are enjoyed by all.

Rev. A. C. Searcy is happy in the return of his wife from southern Texas muchly improved in health.

A dust-laying shower Wednesday eve brought relief from the most depressing heat of the past week.

It is about time for some good citizen to slaughter a beef for the steak and roast furnished Starites.

Oscar Bolinger, son of Joe Bolinger of San Saba county, is reported among the killed on the western front in France. He was reared in Hanna Valley and is kindly remembered by many friends in that part of the county. He enlisted in Brownwood early in the war.

Dana Everly this week shipped his goods to Seattle, Wash., and expected to leave for that place last night. The Everly Co. was in business here twenty-five years and owns much valuable property here and we hope to record the return of the good family to this city at no far distant day. They are kindly remembered by many friends throughout this section.

FROM the flower gardens of all the world, from India and France, Guiana and England, the Holy Land and Italy, were gathered the fragrances that go into the making of Jonteel, the New Odor of Twenty-six Flowers.

Two young daughters of Postmaster General Burleson have entered the service of the country as yeomen in the navy. They are Texas girls and are now making their home in Washington.

The death of John L. Terrell, United States marshal, occurred in Fort Worth Saturday, just two months after his appointment to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Capt. Bill McDonald.

It was a great victory the Italians won over the Austrians, capturing many prisoners and guns, as well as driving the enemy back on the run. There are many indications of an early victory for the allied powers.

President Wilson is said to be enthusiastic in favor of the federal constitutional amendment granting equal suffrage. The great work women have done and are doing in helping to win the war has had much to do with securing for them their political rights.

The first bale of Texas cotton for the season of 1918 was sold at Galveston Friday to a New York and New Orleans firm for $675. Half of the proceeds were given to the grower of the cotton and half went to war relief. The cotton was grown in Starr county.

It is announced by treasury officials that a great many indictments are to be sought against persons and corporations guilty of making false reports to avoid war tax. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are expected to be secured by a careful inspection by officials.

The school for auto mechanics, which is being conducted for the government at Camp Mabry, near Austin, by the University of Texas is said to be large enough to accommodate 6000 students. The buildings are being erected at the expense of the University and will cost $600,000.

A most distressing accident occurred at the aviation field at Fort Worth a few days ago which resulted in the mutilation and later the death of a baby. The little one was with its parents in a car when an aviator ran his machine against a wire fence and a roll of the wire was caught and dragged across the car tearing out the baby's eyes and otherwise injuring it so badly as to cause its death a few hours afterwards.

Doubtless a transatlantic flight of the airplane will be undertaken before long and he would be a rash prophet who would predict that it will not succeed. But one may believe this much and yet be highly skeptical of the report that before long we shall be sending our airplanes to France under their own power rather than in crates packed away in holds of ships. Of course that method of transferring them from the point of production to the point of service would economize shipping space; but, one must think this economy would be more than offset by the impaired condition of the airplanes when they had landed in France after a 3,000-mile flight. Hasn't some one told us that the life of a fighting plane is only fifty hours of existence in the air and of the bombing plan's on to twelve weeks? It could hardly be profitable to spend machines of that low durability in so exhaustive a flight to save shipping space. But such a flight by a few of them might be worth while, since the spectacle would deeply impress the minds of the German people with a sense of what they will experience when our airplanes begin to fly in flocks over their cities. —Dallas News.

Any man who tells it that the obligations of the United States, whether in the form of bonds, thrift stamps or paper money, are dependent upon the winning of the war by this country and its allies—any man who attaches any sort of "if" to these securities—may safely be set down as unfriendly to this country. He is certainly either unfriendly or abnormally stupid. In the first place, the war is going to be won by this country and its allies. It is going to be won exactly to the extent that President Wilson has proclaimed, i. e., to the extent of establishing a just peace and the safeguarding of democratic peoples intent upon peaceful industry and free commerce. There is not the remotest doubt about that. But, putting that certainty aside and assuming the contrary view point for the occasion, the security of the Nation's bonds and kindred obligations is absolutely invincible. Every dollar of principal and interest will be paid exactly when due. This continent is the richest in the world, the safest from invasion, the most self-sustaining. Every sea could be closed to American ships, and America still flourish, for we have within these dominions everything necessary to fruitful agriculture and successful manufacture. We are, in every respect proof against both starvation and suffocation. The world knows it and our enemies recognize it with bitterness.—Dallas News.

The wrecking of a circus train at Gary, Ind., last Saturday morning in which a large number of people lost their lives appears to have been caused by criminal carelessness. The circus train was going onto a side track when another ran into it from the rear. Most of the circus people were in their bunks and were nearly all killed and to add to the horror of the situation the wreck took fire.

A mill and elevator at Sherman burned Monday morning at an early hour, entailing a loss of $150,000, which was largely represented in corn and grain of other kinds. This was the second big grain fire in that town within a few weeks. A woman was arrested in connection with the investigation of the cause of the last fire.

The ladies who expect to vote in the July primary will have to register in the tax collector's office between this time and July 11. Those who fail to register will not likely be allowed to vote. The attorney general says it is the safest plan anyway.

Butler Evans, who is in the Santa Fe telegraph school at Brownwood, spent Saturday and Sunday with his homfolks. He has progressed so well with telegraphing that he is now ready to take a position with the railroad company.

Clothing manufacturers have determined upon a very meagre pattern for men's wearables for the balance of the time of the war. Trousers are to be extremely short and the coat is to be a little better than a vest, while the vest proper is to be eliminated.

Reports of internal disturbances and of want and misery in Austria and Germany have much evidence in their support. The wonder is that the people of those countries have been able to exist so long on their resources.

A car was taken at Weatherford by joyriders Sunday night and abandoned at Camp Bowie. A note was found in the car which read, "Thanks. Keep your car locked hereafter."

Officers are keeping a watch on pool halls and other gathering places of loafers in cities and arrests are being made under the "work or fight order."

Will Rahl was here Saturday visiting relatives and friends. He is preparing to take a position as traveling salesman. (adv)

The Doctor Away From Home When Most Needed

People are often very much disappointed to find that their family physician is away from home when they most need his services. Diseases like pain in the stomach and bowels, colic and diarrhoea require prompt treatment and have in many instances proven fatal before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. By having it in the house you escape much pain and suffering and all risk. Buy it now; it may save life. For sale by L. E. Miller & Son. adv

Chronic Constipation.

Perhaps you never thought of it, but this disorder is due to a lack of moisture in the residual matter of food. If you will drink an abundance of water, eat raw fruits and take lots of outdoor exercise, you may be able eventually to overcome it entirely. In the meantime use the most gentle and mild laxatives. Strong and harsh cathartics take too much water out of the system and make a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Tablets are easy to take and most agreeable in effect. Give them a trial. Sold by L. E. COULD HARDLY STAND ALONE

Terrible Suffering From Headache,
Sickness, Backache, and Weakness,
Relieved by Cardui, Says This Texas Lady.

Gonzales, Tex.—Mrs. Minnie Philpot, of this place, writes: "Five years ago I was taken with a pain in my left side. It was right under my left rib. It would commence with an aching and extend up into my left shoulder and on down into my back. By that time the pain would be so severe I would have to take to bed, and suffered usually about three days. I suffered this way for three years, and got to be a mere skeleton and was so weak I could hardly stand alone. Was not able to go anywhere and had to let my house work go. I suffered awful with a pain in my back and I had the headache all the time. I just was unable to do a thing. My life was a misery, my stomach got in an awful condition, caused from taking so much medicine. I suffered so much pain. I had just about given up all hopes of ever getting anything to help me."

One day a Birthday Almanac was thrown in my yard. After reading its testimonials I decided to try Cardui, and am so thankful that I did, for I began to improve when on the second bottle. I am now a well woman and feeling fine and the cure has been permanent for it has been two years since my awful bad health. I will always praise and recommend Cardui. Try Cardui today. 28 78

MRS LINMAN HAS GAINED 27 LBS. BY TAKING TANLAC

"I Now Enjoy Better Health Than I Have in Years"
She Declares

"I now enjoy better health than I have in years and I can't refrain from letting my friends and other know how thankful I am for what Tanlac has done for me," said Mrs. E. M. Linman of 2310 Chester St., Little Rock, Ark. recently in one of the most remarkable statements yet published in connection with the "Master Medicine."

"In the winter of 1916," Mrs. Linman continued, "I was taken with a severe cold and all the winter I continued to go down. I had no appetite, kept losing weight and in March was completely broken down. I couldn't sleep for coughing and had to sit up in bed most all night. I was extremely nervous and weak, felt tired all the time and everything I ate soured on my stomach. I lost off nineteen pounds in seven weeks and was getting worse so rapidly that my family and friends, as well as myself, saw no hope for my recovery."

"My husband brought home a bottle of Tanlac in June, 1916, and after I took about half of it I began to eat and my food stopped souring on my stomach after finishing my first bottle I could eat anything at any time without it hurting me in the least. At the end of my third week I had gained five and one half pounds and had improved until I was able to take a trip to Texas. My husband sent me my Tanlac by mail and I kept taking it and picked up from three to four pounds every week until all my troubles were gone and my weight was increased from one hundred and thirteen pounds to one hundred and forty—making an actual gain of twenty-seven pounds. I don't only give Tanlac credit for my splendid condition, but I really believe it has saved my life and my family and my friends all agree with me."

Tanlac is sold in Goldthwaite by L. E. Miller & Son, in Mullin by J. R. Clark, in Regency by Keeling & Keeling, in Priddy by G. H. Spiser and in Star by Star Drug Co. (adv)

ANIMALS TO SAVE FEED

Many farmers do not keep animals enough to consume the by-products and the products that would be of little profit or entirely wasted, without livestock. For this reason, the wasted crop adds considerably to the expense of crop production.

On some farms Johnson grass, sedge and other grasses are militantly attacked with the plow and the hoe till summer drouth comes to help finish the work of destruction, then they gives out and more must be bought to sustain the animals.

On other farms the corn stalks are left in the field to wither and die till too late to turn them under, then fire continues the destruction of feeding nutrients and fertilizing constituents. Forty per cent of the feeding value of the corn plant is saved if the entire plant is put into the silo. Even the shredded stover when cut and cured at the proper time is worth much to those who keep animals to consume such products.

For lack of fencing materials many grazing areas can not be utilized. Separate fences, too, are often lacking so that it is impractical to glean the grain fields with livestock. Orchards, too, are sometimes planted in ever crops, legumes for instance, but the grazing can not be used for the want of fences.

We must strive to utilize all of the grazing and conserve the feed in every way possible if we are to increase the supply of human food. Animals properly cared for will enable us to reduce waste to a minimum.—Farm and Ranch.

HIGH COST OF POLITICS

Of especial importance is the article in this issue of Farm and Ranch "High Cost of State Government" by Hon. E. G. Senter our staff correspondent at Washington. Every citizen of the Southwestern states who has given any thought to the cost of state government must be astonished at the money required to maintain the various departments. Taxes have increased at an enormous rate in Texas.

This is especially true of the service are the people getting for this enormous expenditure? Are these increased expenditures justified? Must the various state departments be increased in such extravagant manner?

We are in war and the nation is struggling for its existence. Yet the people are paying taxes to maintain departments and commissions, boards, divisions, etc., many of which have not yet justified their existence. The cost of war must be paid in the life blood of our citizens and in money, labor and other sacrifices. Is it not time, while we are discussing economy, saving and sacrificing, to reduce expenses of state government? Politics should be dismissed and a business system substituted in the management of our state government and various institutions.—Farm and Ranch.

MRS. WEBB DEAD

Mrs. D. W. Webb died at the family home a short distance east of this city, on the Payne road, Monday night and her remains were carried to Big Valley Tuesday for interment in the cemetery at that place.

Mrs. Webb had been ill a long time and her death was not unexpected by those who knew of the seriousness of her illness. She is survived by her husband and child and other relatives who have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

The funeral services at Big Valley were attended by a large number of sorrowing friends in that community as well as from her home community.

MEETING CLOSED

The revival services held at the Baptist tabernacle for two weeks closed Sunday and Rev. Day and Mr. Farr left on Sunday evening's train for Granbury, where they were scheduled to begin another meeting Monday.

Great and lasting good was accomplished by the series of services at this place. Not only were there many conversions and restorations, but the churches were revived and built up. Rev. White, pastor of the Baptist church at this place, certainly made a good selection when he secured this splendid team of Christian workers to assist in the meeting.

Baptism was administered at Lake Hull Monday evening at 7 o'clock and Rev. White immersed a large number of those who united with the church during the meeting. The solemn and impressive service was attended by a great many people of the town and surrounding country.

Death Angel's Visit

Again has the black plumed messenger of death invaded the home of one of our neighbors and called for the beloved wife and mother. Again has the entire community been overshadowed with sorrow, while sadness like a mantle has spread over the town and surrounding country.

Sunday morning at an early hour the spirit of Mrs. A. J. Harrison took its flight to brighter realms, and the sorrow caused by her going extended far beyond the home circle or community bounds. Mrs. Harrison grew to womanhood here and it was here she spent her life, which was filled with loving deeds and acts of kindness. It was here her Christian influence was exerted and her devoted life attracted the admiration of others and inspired those who were associated with her to have an increased faith and confidence in the Christian life, because of her devotion and faithfulness.

Mrs. Harrison became ill less than a week before her death occurred and her condition was not known to be serious by many of her neighbors and friends until the announcement of her death was made. The great congregation which assembled at the home to offer consolation to the family and mingle their tears with the tears of the bereaved ones was a great testimonial to the memory of the good woman, but this testimonial was greatly increased by the mighty throng that attended the funeral services at the Baptist church and followed the remains to the city of the dead. The church was only large enough to accommodate a part of the congregation which assembled at 7 o'clock Sunday evening to attest their grief and sympathy, while the procession from the church to the cemetery was perhaps the largest ever seen in this town, more than a hundred cars besides other vehicles being necessary to convey the people.

Words of assurance of sympathy for the heart-broken family are unnecessary, for assurances have already been given that Goldthwaite mourns sincerely and sympathizes to the utmost with the heart-broken husband, children and other relatives.

The Doctor Away From Home When Most Needed

People are often very much disappointed to find that their family physician is away from home when they most need his services. The right way to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. By having it in the house you escape much pain and suffering and all risk. Buy it now; it may save life. For sale by L. E. Miller & Son. (adv)

Mr. Bonner Dead

Mr. A. K. Bonner of the Caradan community died at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning of ptomaine poisoning and his remains were interred at Long Cove Wednesday evening.

Mr. Bonner was in Goldthwaite Monday, apparently well and hearty. When he reached home that evening he complained of feeling badly, but retired and slept well all night. Tuesday morning about 10 o'clock he became quite ill and a physician was summoned and the trouble was pronounced to be ptomaine poisoning. He continued to sink rapidly and was soon in a stupor from which he never aroused.

He was 32 years of age and lived in this section most of his life. He was a good citizen and had the friendship and confidence of all who knew him. He was a brother of Mrs. W. A. Bayley of this city and had other relatives in this section.

The bereaved wife and baby and other relatives have the sincere sympathy of everybody.

REPRESENTATIVE T.M. WHITE
Submits his Record in the Legislature, Meets the Issues Presented by his Opponent and Asks for the Cust mary Second Term

To the Voters of Hamilton and Mills Counties, composing the 94th Representative District.

Having served the people of this district for one term in the Legislature, covering the regular and four called sessions, and having announced as a candidate for reelection, I deem it proper at this time to state clearly my record as your Representative.

I was especially interested in a few measures which were stated during the campaign two years ago. I made a fight during that campaign for the retention of the Robertson Insurance Law, which became effective in 1907, and the voters of this district, as well as the voters of the state, by a large majority, sustained that law.

I advocated an amendment to the Warehouse and Marketing Law, which in substance was passed by the Legislature.

In the campaign of 1916 I stated that I hoped to be of some service in providing ample appropriations for sufficient buildings to care for the insane of the state who were confined in the county jails. I was a member of the committee having this legislation in charge and we provided for a white asylum which was located at Wichita Falls. I believed it proper to separate the negro insane from the whites and I think it is generally conceded that, through the efforts of George Terrell of Cherokee county and myself, more than any other members of the Legislature, the negro insane asylum was located at Rusk in Cherokee county and is now being built. By using the old penitentiary buildings, which were practically abandoned, the state saved $250,000 worth of property, which was going to waste, in converting the old buildings and grounds into a negro asylum.

Candidates for the offices of representative and governor for the past twenty years had pledged themselves to take the insane out of the county jails and I am glad to have had some part in redeeming that pledge.

At the regular session of the Legislature I think the record of my votes will show that on all measures of general importance I voted to the best interest of the people of the state. It would be impossible to enumerate each of the more than 1,000 measures upon which the members of the Legislature were called to vote, but the newspapers carried a record of the proceedings and the people, generally, know my position on these measures. I voted for reasonable appropriations for the eleemosynary and educational institutions of the state. I refused to be a demagogue and be niggardly with the tax money of the people of the state in taking care of the unfortunates of the state or with the educational institutions of Texas, which in my judgment are the hope of the future greatness of our people. I supported the rural school appropriation bill and also the appropriation for the state University. After a careful examination of these bills I believed them to be adequate, but reasonable.

Upon my record alone I ask for the usual second term. Realizing that it was impossible to satisfy all the voters of the district by each vote that I cast, I studied the measures of general importance carefully and voted for what I thought and believed to be the best interest of the state.

During the second and third called sessions of the 35th Legislature, articles of impeachment against the Governor of the state were voted by the House of Representatives and sustained by the Senate. The Governor was impeached and judgment written barring him from again holding office in Texas. It became my duty as a member of the House to vote on the twenty-one articles of impeachment which were presented, ten of which were sustained by the Senate. After having heard and carefully weighed all the testimony and having studied the constitution and law of the state and heard the arguments of counsel both for and against, I voted against the articles of impeachment. In deciding my vote upon this important matter I took into consideration three things: The facts; the law and my conscience and acted as I believed under my oath of office was my duty and the record of impeachment has now become history of Texas.

It would have been impossible for any man in the Legislature to have voted so as to satisfy all the people of Texas, and I did not take into consideration whether or not my vote would be popular, but did my duty as I saw it. For a member of the Legislature to have done otherwise would have been a violation of his duty, his conscience and his oath. I do not claim to be infallible in my judgment, but I do claim the right to exercise my judgment according to the dictates of my conscience and my oath; no other sort of man would be a safe representative.

During the regular session of the legislature I had some correspondence with a few men in the city of Goldthwaite with reference to a special road law for Mills county and as a consequence of that correspondence, Hon. E. B. Anderson of Goldthwaite, an eminent lawyer and a splendid citizen of that city, who had been my personal friend and supporter and in whom I had and now have great confidence, prepared a special road law for Mills county and brought it to me at Austin in person and stated to me that, in his judgment, eighty per cent or more of the people of Mills county were in favor of such law. On this statement coming from such a source, I told Mr. Anderson and his friends, who were active in the support of this measure, that I would have it passed and signed by the Governor. The measure was passed but before the Governor signed it a number of citizens of Mills county whom I then believed and now believe to be able and conscientious men, brought a petition to the Governor asking him to veto the said road law, because a majority of the people of Mills county objected to the same. These men represented to the Governor and to me that the petition was signed in good faith by more than three-fourths of the voters of Mills county, and with my consent the Governor vetoed the bill. It was my plain duty to carry out the will of the majority and I did it. As soon as this action was taken those citizens of Goldthwaite who were active in the support of this measure, and their friends became very much displeased with my action and determined then to defeat me for reelection in case I asked for the usual second term; and carrying out their determination in reference to this matter I am now being opposed for reelection by the Hon. J. C. Darroch of Mills county. No one knowing the facts in the case can deny that my action with reference to the special road law was responsible for candidacy of my opponent. In a statement to the voters of this district, made by Mr. Darroch, which appeared in the papers of the district last week he lays down two propositions as issues in the campaign, upon which he must stand or fall and in order that the people of the district, to whom the office belongs, may be fully advised, I want to set forth these two propositions and see if the record made by me as your representative will bear out his statements.

The first statement which he has elected to make an issue is as follows:—using his own words: "My opponent in this race has shown himself to be one of Ferguson's steadfast supporters." To this issue I make answer with my record on the subject and leave it to the voters of the district to decide whether that record or Darroch's statement is true. It is a fact so patent that every informed voter in the state of Texas knows that Governor Ferguson was elected to office and pledged to prevent any legislation on the subject of prohibition, either for or against. His administration was, therefore, opposed to the submission of an amendment to the constitution of the state providing for prohibition and was pledged by pre-election statements on this subject. About the first question after I entered the legislature was submission. This district had registered its vote against submission in the primary of 1916 and a great many Pro's as well as Anti's in the state had argued for years that it was the duty of a Representative to vote upon this subject according to the majority in his district. Therefore, it would have been exceedingly easy for me to have taken that view had I been the "Steadfast supporter of Governor Ferguson" as my opponent charges that I am and few men would have questioned my loyalty to the prohibition cause had I voted against submission under the circumstances. I, however, had always believed that it was a state question and that my vote should be controlled solely by the majority vote in the state at large and I promised the voters of this district that I would adhere to that principle if elected, therefore, I cast my vote in favor of submission every time the issue was voted upon in the Legislature, notwithstanding the gross misrepresentations made by my enemies in the district on the subject.

Darroch says I am the steadfast supporter of Governor Ferguson, but the record disproves his statement. Will you accept the record or do you prefer to accept Darroch's statement?

The Legislature passed what I believed to be an adequate and reasonable appropriation for the support and maintenance of the University of Texas. I supported that appropriation bill, carrying out my well known views on the subject of education. Governor Ferguson vetoed this appropriation and in his call for the second special session of the Legislature asked for another appropriation bill to be passed. The bill remained in the committee for many days and upon my resolution the bill was ordered out of the committee and we tried to get a vote on the measure, but the Legislature refused to pass the bill until after the impeachment, at which time the University appropriation bill was passed for practically the same amount set out in the bill passed at the first called session. I supported and voted for the appropriation. Had I been the "Steadfast supporter of Governor Ferguson" as Mr. Darroch says I am I would have voted against that bill. The record disproves his statement. Will you accept the record or the statement of my opponent?

In a controversy which arose between Governor Ferguson and the regents of the University, some of the regents were removed and others appointed in their place. Believing, as I have always believed, that the educational and eleemosynary institutions of the state should be free from politics, I supported and voted for the measure which has now been written upon the Statute Books of Texas making it impossible for the Governor to remove a regent of the University and providing that such regents must be impeached for cause same as any other state official. Will you accept the record as to my steadfast support of Governor Ferguson's policy in this matter or will you accept the campaign statement of my opponent on the subject?

The second remarkable statement and issue set out by my opponent is to the effect that this district ought to elect a representative who will stand squarely behind Governor Hobby and his policies. As to this second issue I wish to call attention to the following: During the fourth called session of the Legislature Governor Hobby submitted, on his own motion and upon the request of a majority of the members of the Legislature several measures now known as Hobby's policies, intended for the purpose of facilitating the carrying on of the war. These measures are set out in the campaign literature of Governor Hobby, now being distributed to the voters of the state as follows: "Votes for Women"; "Army Camp Dry Zone"; "Majority Vote Primary"; "Only Citizens Allowed to Vote"; "Aid for Supreme Court"; "State Wide Prohibition"; "Protecting Women Workers"; "Investing Sinking Funds in War Securities"; "Teaching Patriotism in Public Schools"; "No Liquor to Soldiers"; "The Loyalty Act"; "Protection to Soldiers Against Vice"; "Reclamation of Lands." I voted for each one of these measures which have become a law and the records show this to be a fact and it seems to me that this record ought to satisfy my opponent, Darroch, on the subject of the Representative of this district supporting the policies of Governor Hobby, which were for the best interest of the state. In my humble judgment I have supported more constructive legislation along the lines above mentioned than it would be possible for my opponent to support should he be elected and remain in the Legislature for 10 years; for the very good reason that the opportunity will, in all probability, not present itself. On this issue will you accept the record of my services or will you accept the bare campaign statement of my opponent?

I have tried to make the issues chosen by my opponent so clear that no voter need be in doubt in casting his ballot. It, therefore, appears that there is but one or two issues left upon which my opponent can ask the voters to refuse me the customary second term. One is that "HE" wants to go to the legislature; the other issue he does not state in plain words clearly enough for me to be positive about, but if his language means anything at all, I must infer that if he is elected and James E. Ferguson should be nominated and elected, he would vote against what he terms the seating of Ferguson. That is a proposition which the Legislature can not finally settle, no matter who is elected from this district. I presume he means that in such event he would refuse to sanction the announcement of the vote by the speaker of the House and the declaration of the result thereof, as provided by the constitution of our state.

The State Democratic committee has charge of the party machinery in this state and I have been advised by the ex-secretary of that committee that it is probable that the majority of the committee favors Governor Hobby in this election; but on the 10th of June in the city of Waco this committee, by a vote of 26 to 3, placed the name of James E. Ferguson upon the primary ballot and the same was certified with the names of the other candidates to the various county chairmen. It is reasonable to suppose that this committee elected to try the issues involved before the people of Texas. Those who participate in the primaries of this state will be pledged to support the nominee of the party in the November election and I am sure, as a Democrat, my opponent will carry out that pledge.

I now state for myself, that when the majority of the voters in the Democratic primaries have expressed their will, and the candidate for the office of governor has received the highest number of votes at the November election, if I am elected to the Legislature I will consider this majority vote instruction to me to sanction the counting of the vote and the declaration of the result as registered at the polls, for I can not and will not refuse to obey instructions of the majority of the people of the state of Texas registered at the ballot box. If my opponent should take the same view of this matter as I do then he is left without any issue upon which to run save that "he wants to be elected to the Legislature." In case he takes the opposite view of the case and refuses to obey the instructions and defy the will of the people as expressed by a majority thereof, he becomes in fact a Czar and would establish a principle in Texas against which the best blood of America is now being given. In the event that my opponent shall advance the theory that, regardless of the majority vote in the primary and general election, he would have all the members of the Legislature vote against declaring the election of the Governor, to whom he was personally opposed, because he believed him to be constitutionally ineligible, I then desire to cite him and the voters of this district to the precedent set by Governor Hobby himself when he signed the State Wide Prohibition bill; he stated he did so because it expressed the will and wisdom of the majority of the members of the Legislature and in deference to their will he signed the bill, believing it to be unconstitutional, stating he would leave that for the courts of the state to decide. Surely Mr. Darroch had those opposed to my reelection would not ask me for higher authority than Governor Hobby on a subject like this; and I would consider the instructions direct from the ballot box more powerful and more direct than the instructions from the representatives of the people. Therefore, I shall carry out the will of the people registered at the ballot box and leave the question of eligibility for the courts to decide which will be done regardless of the action of the Legislature and every lawyer of the state of Texas of his own ability to agreed on this question. Therefore, it can not be an issue and will not be an issue except with those who oppose me on personal grounds.

I have always believed in the wisdom and good judgment of the voters of Texas, and in supporting the measure giving the women the right to vote in the primary election I reposed confidence in their ability and judgment to know and to do the right and I will do now, in view of my opinion on this subject, seek to control a single vote in this district for any man now running for office within this state. First because it is improper and second because I refuse to become a demagogue and ride into office on the coat tail of any candidate for state office. I decline to become a partisan in the race for Governor. I expect to vote as I believe to be for the best interest of the state of Texas and I consider that same right to all other voters.

My experience as a Representative has taught me one positive lesson; that is that the man who goes into the halls of the legislature with a gubernatorial collar around his neck destroys his usefulness to the people of Texas. My record shows that I refused to do this and I will refuse to be bound hand and foot by wearing the collar of any candidate in this election. I prefer to be left free to exercise my own judgment and to carry out the will of the majority of the people of the state of Texas.

If elected to a second term I shall use my best efforts in the interest of the people of Texas.

Respectfully,
T. M. WHITE.

EVER SALIVATED BY CALOMEL? HORRIBLE!

Calomel is quicksilver and acts like dynamite on your liver.

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel just remember that your druggist sells for a few cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to eat and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and can not salivate.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tone straightens you right up and you feel great. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't grip

HOW WOMEN CAN VOTE

What are the limitations on women voting?

There are four conditions to meet:

Age—She must be at least 21 years of age.

Residence—She must have lived in Texas for the last year and in the county six months.

Citizenship—She must be an American citizen.

Registration—She must register with the county tax collector between June 26 and July 12. Some collectors will send out deputies on this work and some will have but one office, at the court house, for that purpose.

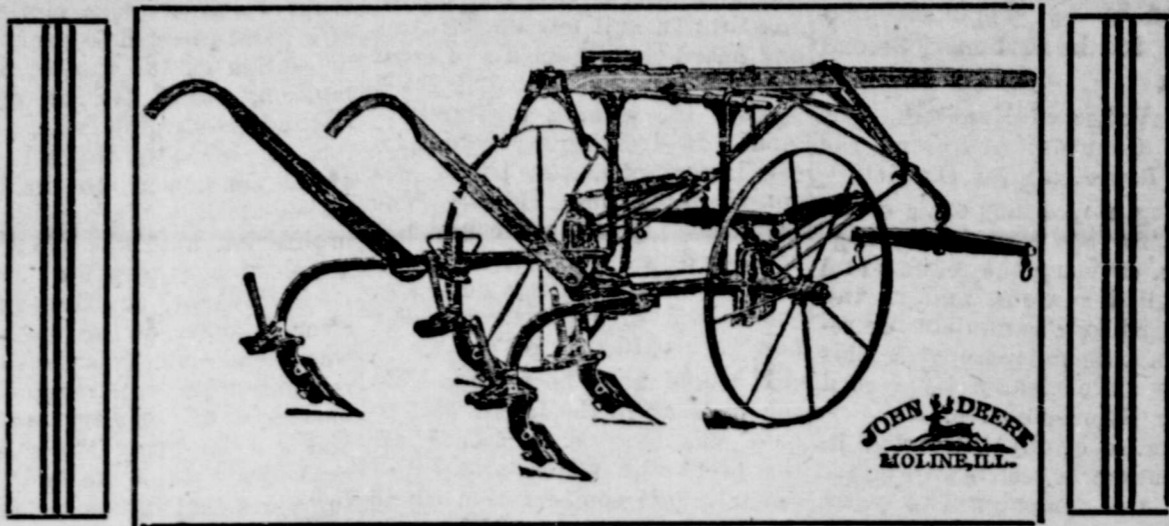

Who are American citizens? Those born in America, those who become twenty-one years of age after their parents were naturalized, those who took out naturalization papers and those who married men who are American citizens.

How and when do women register? Not earlier than June 26 or later than July 12, by filling out blanks, giving certain information as to age and residence, to the tax collector. If the tax collectors or deputies visit the home, the registration may occur there, if not the women have to go to the office of the collector or the court house and secure their certificates of registration. There is no cost whatever for registration or voting. A poll tax is not required for voting this year.

When and where will women vote? July 27, 1918, at the same place men of their precinct vote.

How are ballots prepared? Women present their registration certificates and receive their ballot, slips of paper with names printed thereon and go to a booth where, in secrecy, they mark out, with a black lead pencil, the names of all except the persons for whom they wish to vote. Election judges will not permit aid to be given in preparing a ballot unless the voter can not read or is physically incapable of preparing the ballot.

Warning: If a ballot is mutilated, torn, marked or erasures made on it, do not deposit it with the election judge. Ask for another and mark it correctly. Then hand it to election judges. He will place a number on the ballot, which should be folded so he can not see how the person voted. He will then deposit it in the ballot box. Remember, a blue pencil mark or hole in a ballot is sufficient to cause the counters to throw out the ballot and not count it.

By eliminating the agent-commission-business, which means that amount saved for the buyer.
