FOOD CONSERVATION

United States Food Administration Rules

All kinds of food, especially wheat, meats, fats and sugar should be economically used.

No food shall be hoarded. Hoarding is the holding, contracting, or arranging for food by any person in excess of his reasonable requirements for use or consumption by himself and dependents for a reasonable time. This does not refer to stocks of home grown and canned or preserved food.

All householders who entirely eliminate the use of wheat until the next harvest, about September 1st, should do so.

Householders who are obliged to use wheat should not use more than a total of one and one half pounds of wheat flour or prepared wheat, in any form, per person per week, including the wheat flour in Victory bread and including the wheat flour or prepared wheat in crackers, pastry, macaroni, breakfast and other foods.

Victory Bread is bread manufactured by bakers under the rule of the United States Food Administration. In estimating flour consumption one and three-fourths pounds of Victory bread may be considered equal to one pound of wheat flour.

In buying wheat flour an equal weight of other cereals as substitutes for wheat flour must be bought pound for pound. This is the 50-50 rule. In buying mixed flours, the substitutes in them may be counted so that a smaller proportion of substitutes may be bought with these flours, than with white flour. In buying graham and whole wheat flours, (containing not less than 96 percent of the entire wheat) 6-10 pounds of substitutes shall be purchased with every pound of such flours.

Wheat flour substitutes are hominy, corn grits, corn meal, corn flour, edible corn starch, barley flour, rolled oats, oatmeal, rice, rice flour, buckwheat flour, potato flour, sweet potato flour, soy bean flour and feterita flour and meals.

Householders in towns and cities may not buy more than 1-8 of a barrel of flour or five pounds of sugar at any one time. Householders in the country may not buy more than 1-4 of a barrel of flour or 10 pounds of sugar at any one time. In no event shall any purchaser have more than 30 days supply of either on hand.

Householders should not use more than 3-4 pounds of sugar per person per week. In addition to the above, however, sugar may be used for home canning, and will be available to the householder for that purpose upon his signing a certificate that sugar is desired and will be used only for that purpose.

No wheat flour, or prepared wheat in any form, should be used for any purpose other than human consumption. No wheat fit for human consumption should be used for other purposes.

Meats of all kinds and poultry, and more particularly beef, should be most economically used, eliminating all waste. Purchases of these products should be restricted and the quantity prepared for each meal reduced. Consumption of all meats, including poultry, should be reduced as nearly as possible to 2 pounds per week per person over four years of age.

Fresh milk and milk in evaporated and condensed form and cheese may be liberally used.

Batter may be used for normal consumption. No more ice should be used than is absolutely necessary. Certain modifications of these rules for householders are made by Federal Food Administrators in certain states.

To save transportation local supplies should be grown and used.

These regulations are necessarily subject to change at any time as the needs of the allies and our own needs demand.

WILL H. TRENT,
Acting Food Administrator for Mills County.

KNOCOUT PROMISED

Athonomus grandis, better known as Mr. Boll Weevil, is about to be checked in his destructive and unrestrained career. After a long testing period, it is announced by the United States Department of Agriculture that control, if not eradication, of this arch foe to the South's great staple crop is promised in the near future. Results obtained by the use of poison under field conditions in weevil-infested districts have increased the seed cotton yield per acre from 250 to 1,000 pounds. The poison is applied in various ways, but one report hints that the most effective takes advantage of the bibulous habits of the boll weevil and renders the day and rain drops toxic and deadly. Control of the pest is believed to be in a fair way of accomplishment; if it is assured by further experimentation the output of cotton will be materially increased and millions will be saved to the Southern farmer. While the conclusive tests are under way some entomologist will oblige by discovering a knock-out for the somewhat celebrated pink bollworm.—Evening Journal.

LOCAL ITEMS

REPORTER.

Judge E. B. Anderson spent the first of the week in San Antonio, looking after legal business.

When you have visitors, go on a trip or know any other local item, tell the Eagle and help to make the paper more interesting for your friends and neighbors.

Jim Johnson of Sherwood is numbered among the Eagle's new subscribers.

W. M. Stewart is one of new and appreciated subscribers on the Eagle's list.

Miss Ruby Morris of Brownwood is visiting Mrs. Power and Miss Hortense in this city.

William and Allen Thompson, who have good positions in Fort Worth, are at home for a visit.

Rev. J. D. Simms of Killeen visited his daughter, Mrs. Robt. Littlepage, and family in this city this week.

Miss Rubie D. Hearne has returned from Seattle, Wash., where she spent several months with her brothers and their families and attended school.

W. W. Taylor and wife returned Monday night from Camp Bowie, where they went to visit their son Frank, who was expected to leave with his regiment for France.

Col. L. B. Walters and wife of this city and J. A. Hester and family of Mullin returned the first of the week from an auto trip to Georgetown, Austin and other points.

Friends here of J. F. Slaughter and family of Star were grieved when they learned of his death. The bereaved ones can be sure of the sympathy of all their friends. A more extended notice appears in the Star letter.

A. E. Evans, accompanied by his father and brother returned the first of the week from an automobile trip to Fort Worth, where they went for a visit to Isom and Robert Evans, who are in military training at Camp Bowie.

The Eagle always appreciates communications on local happenings. If one can only write an occasional short letter it helps that much, while if they can send in regularly such splendid letters as come from Star it is so much the better.

Sergeant Willis Hill and Miss Berta Garrett were married at Star Saturday and left on the evening train for Camp Travis, where he is stationed. They are popular young people and have the good wishes of everybody. A more extended write-up appears in the communication from Star.

Mrs. T. E. Bowman of Haskel who is engaged in writing a book entitled Beautiful Thoughts spent Tuesday in this city and gathered some data for her books, besides procuring some kodak pictures of scenery for use. She made the Eagle a much appreciated call and we hope for the pleasure of reviewing her book when it is received from the publisher and feel sure it will be all that its name implies.

TRY IT! SUBSTITUTE FOR NASTY CALOMEL

Starts your liver without making you sick and can not salivate.

Every druggist in town—your druggist and everybody's druggist has noticed a great falling-off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tone is perfectly safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist. Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle costs but a few cents, and if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel.

The Galled Jade Winces.

Because there had been no degree of truth in the various shabby articles printed in the Mullin Enterprise, in a controversy brought on by the Lick Spittle of the commissioners court because of the Eagle having printed the proceedings of the court, the writer of a three column article published in that paper last week applies to himself the term "liar" "liar," "liar," and with the same vapid and senseless untruth that has characterized his mewlings he makes claim that the Eagle applied the term to him and bids for sympathy on that score. Of course he knew the Eagle had not used any such term, but he could not restrain the unconscious aptitude he seems to possess to make an untruth serve when he tries to score a point. The short and ugly term has not appeared in these columns and will not, no matter how far an impediment in his veracity may lead him astray. We state the facts and his distortions of them and leave the results to be computed. We are not responsible for what the results show, but whatever deductions he has made appear to give him no pleasure. They seem to have aroused his animosity, however, for he speaks of his "animal resistance and combativeness" because he says the Eagle's whip of scorpions "sizzles" and burns.

We conclude from his three columns which he devotes to his ill-spelled diatribe that he intends to make the silly proposal that the Eagle take over his beloved "contract" with the "court." Of course there was no good faith in his proposal for he knows, as everybody else knows, that prejudice and not price got him the "contract" and that there was no danger to him in making the proposition with a string to it. It is barely possible that we misjudge his intentions in this matter, yet we do not think so, also we know that nineteen hundred years ago there was a man who carried back the price of his "services" to the "board" that paid it; but even those refused to pay it and he was thirty pieces of silver. We have read that history repeats itself and we leave the solution to the discernment of the readers.

Another statement he appears to make, in the haze of his verbosity, is that he saved the taxpayers $278.00 on the contract of 1917, that amount representing the difference between his price and that charged by the Eagle for the "same job" in 1916. We are not going to use the easy and cheap term of "liar" in these columns and it is entirely needless in this case, altho he openly admitted the aptness of the term in that connection. Such a term is the resort of the fellow whose "animal resistance and combativeness" have been aroused. The public will have some difficulty, however, in determining just how the "neat sum was saved by the court" when the fact is known that the Eagle's entire charge for this "same job" in 1916 was $113.30. Of this amount $40 was for notices of sale of property under execution for taxes. A legal opinion having been secured by the court that the expense of publishing these notices could not be paid out of the treasury the Eagle refused to publish any more of them. The $40 should be deducted, therefore, as that class of publications would not again be included in the contract, and we have a total of $73.30, out of which he saved the county $278.00. He and his masters must be great financiers.

He does not attempt to correct many of his misstatements, but begins to "wriggle" about having favored "a" road law and not "the" road law enacted. His admissions and wriggles certainly convince his masters that the Eagle's charges as to his attitude on the road law was correct and the general public knows he has been proven guilty on every count, no matter how blasphemously he denies it and calls on the Deity to witness for him.

He closes with mouthings about "our boys in foreign lands," but in his ignorance or passion fails to say one word about our noble girls who are also doing their part and are entitled to an equal share of praise. All of them —boys and girls—are entitled to our best efforts and gratitude, but the Eagle can give them full fidelity and attend to his case at the same time, even tho his "animal resistance and combativeness" is aroused thereby.

Thus we are compelled to leave him, with the assurance that the Eagle has not used the "short and ugly" term and with the thought that perhaps he has confused the Eagle's statements with those of some one else, made at some public meeting or some other place in his home town by some one of those "among whom he has spent his life." He will doubtless remember whether or not this has happened.

HOW TO MEASURE MEAT RATION OF 2 POUNDS WEEKLY

Success of Equitable Meat Distribution Rests With Consumer; Plan Based on Patriotism and Voluntary Denial.

It is estimated that $50,000,000 would be required if the nation were successfully placed on a ration system for the handling of wheat flour, sugar and meat, nor would this amount cover the monthly operating expenses after the system were inaugurated. "For this reason," announces the Federal Food Administration for Texas, "we look to the individual for co-operation in observing the ration suggested and to the distributor to see that the quantities suggested are dispensed as nearly in the degree suggested as possible.

The placing of all manufacturers using sugar on a rationing basis has been achieved at a great expense to the Food Administration. Sugar used by manufacturers may only be procured through the possession of a certificate issued by the state headquarters and the quantity is based upon a definite schedule of allotments.

The distribution of wheat flour in Texas, now that the State has adopted a wheatless program, is handled alone in Victory bread, through licensed bakers. Homes and public eating places, until the wheatless program was adopted, were on six pounds per person of flour a month. While difficult to make this rationing complete, the distribution of public through the wholesalers and retailers nearly approximated that quantity when the sum total of wheat flour for Texas was divided by the sum total of the consuming public.

Bewilderment is now expressed by dispensers of meat, both in public eating places and at meat markets, as to how the individual is to be kept within his ration of two pounds of meat per week. Some have suggested a return to meatless days and meatless meals. The United States Food Administration, in announcing the new meat program, expressed an unwillingness to return to fixed meatless meals or days. It is hoped that the American public will conform their purchases, on patriotic and military grounds, to the two-pound ration of meat, just as the majority have done in the purchase of sugar and flour, and that in the general summation the amount of meat consumed nationally a month in the United States, when divided by the people consuming meat, will reflect the two-pound ration.

While no instructions have been issued defining a program, it is thought by the Federal Food Administration that the time has come when public eating places and meat markets should begin to approximate their respective trade in numbers. Every meat dispenser should begin to collate a list of families making regular purchases at his place of business. Families of five would be encouraged to buy not more than ten pounds of meat a week; families of two not more than four pounds a week, and so forth. This is not obligatory, but more and more as the war advances and military necessity demands increasing quantities of meat it would be to the advantage of every meat dispenser to know to a man the number of persons buying of his place of business.

If at the end of each day the meat dealer will divide the number of his customers with the pounds of meat bought, he will know the average purchase for the day in pounds per person; and if at the end of each week he will divide the total pounds sold by the total persons represented in the sales of the week, he will soon be in position to gauge whether or not he is meeting the federal requirements. Such information would be invaluable as the program is advanced to meet military necessity.

All of this detail means additional work, but the present war is a test of the fitness of men in service at the front and in the business world to survive, and out of it the Food Administration believes that lack of business methods will disappear and men will come to know accurately the minute details and elements which make up their livelihood—facts which, because of too much prosperity and extravagance, have almost been obliterated from American life.

STRICTER MEAT CONSERVATION DESIRED BY ADMINISTRATION

Houston, Tex.—The latest but by no means the last word in conservation of beef requests that all hotels and restaurants not place on their menus or serve boiled beef more than two meals weekly; beefsteak more than one meal weekly; roast beef more than one meal weekly. Householders are not to buy more than one and one-quarter pounds of clear beef weekly or one and a half pounds (including the bones) per person.

The new program and plan in which it may be carried out is given in detail in the following telegram received by Administrator Peden from U. S. Food Administrator Hoover:

"The demands for beef for our army and the allied army and their civil population for this summer are beyond our present surplus. On the other hand, we have enough increased supply of pork this summer to permit economical expansion in its use. It will therefore be a direct service to our armies and the allies if our people would in some degree substitute fresh pork, bacon, hams and sausage for beef products.

"We request all hotels and restaurants not to place on their menus or serve boiled beef more than two meals weekly; beefsteak more than one meal weekly, and roast beef more than one meal weekly.

"We ask householders not, under any circumstances, to buy more than one and one-quarter pounds of clear beef weekly; or one and one-half pounds, including the bone, per person in the household.

"The public will realize that the changing conditions of production from season to season, the changing situation in shipping and therefore of the markets available to the allies, and the increasing demands for our growing army, with the fluctuating supply of local beef in France, all make it impossible to determine policies for long periods in advance. We have recently asked for economy in all meat consumption. We wish now to emphasize further reduction of beef by the substitution of pork. It is anticipated that this will hold good until September 15 and the co-operation of the public is most earnestly requested."

WHEATLESS PERIOD WILL END JUNE 15

MERCHANTS MAY THEN
SELL SIX POUNDS PER PERSON PER MONTH.

Houston, Tex.—On account of the Texas wheat crop becoming available within the next week or so, Administrator Peden for the Federal Food Administration for Texas announces that he will withdraw the wheatless period for Texas. On and after June 15 merchants will be again permitted to purchase flour from their usual source of supply and sell to the consumer on the basis of six pounds per person per month, with the required amount of substitutes.

People generally throughout the State are requested to consume as little flour as possible and urged to cut their consumption below the six pounds suggested by the administration.

From available figures, Texas has saved during the wheatless period approximately 75,000 barrels of flour, all of which has reached the army, navy and allied countries.

It will be necessary for the merchant to continue keeping a record of his flour sales, the same as before the wheatless period became effective.

The resumption of the sale of flour does not release the hotels and restaurants who have voluntarily agreed to go wheatless for some time to come.

One can not read the accounts of the doings of the American armies in Europe without a feeling of pride. The many acts of heroism as well as the great success of the American soldiers prove that our confidence has been well placed all the time.

Attorneys for Mrs. Adolphus Busch have filed a protest with the custodian of the alien property against the seizure of the estate of Mrs. Busch, claiming she is thoroughly loyal. They say that her long stay in Germany should not be taken into account and does not affect her loyalty.

The indications are that Clarence E. Gilmore will come into his own in the primary and be nominated for railroad commissioner. He is a fine man who is in every way qualified and the people can be depended upon to right the wrong that was done him by political bosses two years ago.

The work or fight order has been declared to include baseball players as well as men in other lines of business or endeavor. It is not easy to see what claim these players could have to exemption and certain it is the country in general applauds the decision of the provost marshal that the ball players are in the same class with other people and should either employ their time in some profitable and productive employment or go to the front.

From the viewpoint of the farmer at present, the future holds a very cheerful perspective. Every dog has his day and this is applicable to cities and farms as well as to men and dogs. Cities have benefited from the influx from the land, but only temporarily. In the end they have lost. The farm built city owes its prosperity to the country. In return it adds to the value of the farm by rendering a market service indispensable to the land. Often, it is true, the city buys the farmer's products at wholesale prices and sells them back at retail prices. This, though, is not the city's fault. By co-operation this disadvantage could easily be overcome by the farmers themselves. In time it will be overcome. Good roads, automobiles and motor trucks are wiping out city boundaries. Rather, it may be said, these are extending city boundaries, all but the city taxes, to the homes of the country.—Farm and Ranch.

It is said that, surrounding every man, there is a mire of quicksand; he steps into it, is lost and will finally vanish. It matters little if he steps into it boldly, or with soft tread thinking to reach the opposite bank and safely before the treacherous crust gives away, or even innocently—quicksand has no sympathy, pity nor remorse. Unlike the quicksands the human mind and heart hold sympathy for honest error. The people are big enough and great enough themselves to make mistakes and to forgive them in others. All they require to be shown that mistakes are not to be made in fact mistakes and not deliberate violations of good faith. It matters not so much how high a man may lift his voice just so he keeps his feet on the ground. And there is only one ground upon which men may properly stand when seeking the public trust. That ground is truth. Evasions are but quicksands. The more one persists in subterfuge the deeper he is apt to sink in the mire.—Exchange.

SPECIAL TAX FOR MAINTENANCE OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS AND FURNISHING FREE TEXT BOOKS

House Joint Resolution No. 27. Proposing an amendment to Art. 7, of the Constitution of the State of Texas by changing Sec. 3, providing for a thirty-five cent tax levy for the maintenance of the public schools of Texas and providing free text books in public schools of the State of Texas, and making an appropriation therefor. Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 3, Article 7, of the Constitution, be so changed as to read as follows (creating a new section 3):

Sec. 3. One-fourth of the revenue derived from the State occupation taxes and a poll tax of one ($1.00) dollar on every male inhabitant of this state, between the ages of twenty-one and sixty years, shall be set apart annually for the benefit of the public free schools; and, in addition thereto, there shall be levied and collected an annual ad valorem state tax of such an amount not to exceed thirty-five cents on the one hundred ($100.00) dollar valuation as, with the available school funds arising from all other sources, will be sufficient to maintain and support the public schools of this state for a period of not less than six months in each year, and it shall be the duty of the State Board of Education to set aside a sufficient amount out of the said tax to provide free text books for the use of children attending the public free schools of this state; provided, however, that should the limit of taxation herein named be insufficient, the deficit may be met by appropriation from the general funds of the state, and the Legislature may also provide for the formation of school districts by general or special law without the local notice required in other cases of special legislation; and all such school districts, whether created by general or special law, may embrace parts of two or more counties. And the Legislature shall be authorized to pass laws for the assessment and collection of taxes in all said districts and for the management and control of the public school or schools of such districts, whether such districts are composed of territory wholly within a county or in parts of two or more counties. And the Legislature may authorize an additional ad valorem tax to be levied and collected within all school districts heretofore formed or hereafter formed, for the further maintenance of public free schools, and the erection and equipment of school buildings thereon; provided, that a majority of the qualified property tax-paying voters of the district, voting at an election to be held for that purpose shall vote such tax, not to exceed in any one year fifty cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of the property subject to taxation in such district, but the limitation upon the amount of school district tax herein authorized shall not apply to incorporated cities or towns constituting separate and independent school districts.

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the state at an election to be held throughout the state on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1918 at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words, "For the amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas providing for the levy of a special school tax for the maintenance of the public schools of the state and to provide free text books in the public schools of the state of Texas," and all those opposed shall write or have printed on their ballots the words, "Against the amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas providing for the levy of a special school tax for the maintenance of the public schools of the state, and to provide free text books in the public schools of the State of Texas."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the state is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and to have same published as required by the constitution and existing laws of the State.

Sec. 4. That the sum of two thousand ($2,000.00) dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury of the State of Texas not otherwise appropriated to pay the expenses of such publication and election.

(Note—H. J. R. No. 27 passed by the House of Representatives by a two-thirds vote, yeas 108, nays 22; and passed the Senate by a two-thirds vote, yeas 23, nays 4.)

In announcing as a candidate for Congress in this 17th District, I promise the people, if elected to stand by the President in his work to win the war, and support all measures that will strengthen our forces abroad and increase our productivity at home.

When this war is over and victory is ours, and the world has been made safe for democracy, I believe that our boys who return, should be given assurance of our appreciation for their valor; therefore I will work and vote for such laws as will reclaim our arid lands, and will favor giving to our returning soldiers, lands reclaimed by our government upon which to build homes.

All labor is honorable and those who toil in the shops, factories, railroads and farms are justly entitled to have their rights and grievances adjusted, without depriving them of any of their rights. Therefore, I will favor and support a measure for a National Board of Arbitration to end the differences between labor and capital may be justly arbitrated and settled.

I am in favor of such legislation as will restrict and limit foreign emigration and the alien ownership of property.

Kathleen, Fla.—Mrs. Dallas Price, of this place, says: "After the birth of my last child, I got very much run-down and weakened, so much that I could hardly do anything at all. I was so awfully nervous that I could scarcely endure the least noise. My condition was getting worse all the time...

I knew I must have some relief or I would soon be in the bed and in a serious condition for I felt so badly and was so nervous and weak I could hardly live. My husband asked Dr. —about my taking Cardui. He said, 'It's a good medicine, and good for that trouble', so he got me 5 bottles... After about the second bottle I felt greatly improved... before taking it my limbs and hands and arms would go to sleep. After taking it, however, this poor circulation disappeared. My strength came back to me and I was soon on the road to health. After the use of about 5 bottles, I could do all my house-work and attend to my six children besides."

You can feel safe in giving Cardui a thorough trial for your troubles. It contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs, but is composed of mild, vegetable, medicinal ingredients with no bad after-effects. Thousands of women have voluntarily written, telling of the good Cardui has done them. It should help you. Try it.

CONFEDERATE REUNION

A GREAT OCCASION FOR THE OLD SOLDIERS AND THEIR FRIENDS.

Speaking and Other Modes of Entertainment For the Veterans and Visitors.

The thirty-first annual reunion of Jeff Davis camp of Confederate veterans has passed into history as one of the most pleasant reunions the camp has ever held. Early Wednesday the veterans and visitors commenced to arrive at the camp grounds and many were still there yesterday afternoon, notwithstanding the program had been completed.

Judge S. H. Allen of Temple was here to serve as master of ceremonies under the direction of Brother Haralson. Without either of them the reunion would not have been so pleasant and it would be impossible to hold one of these reunions as successfully as this one without one of them.

Rev. A. R. Watson was here from Abilene and delivered a beautiful and stirring address at the memorial services conducted by him and Rev. J. W. Kelley of this city Wednesday afternoon.

Wednesday night the entertainment by the Glee Club was interrupted by a dust storm, but it was fine and those in charge and taking part deserve the high and unstinted praise of the people interested in making the reunion a success.

The first address on Thursday morning was that of Judge M. B. Blair of Belton. This was one of the most appreciated addresses delivered at the reunion and the large audience was pleased with it throughout. The entire citizenship appreciates his courtesy in coming here to deliver this most interesting address.

Judge R. E. L. Knight of Dallas delivered an address Thursday afternoon that made his immense audience know that his reputation as the best speaker of the north Texas metropolis was well deserved. His speech was full of logic, pathos and humor and could justly be termed a gem of rhetoric.

Thursday night the young folks gave an imitation circus and the entertainment was enjoyed immensely by everybody. The door receipts amounted to more than $100, which went to the Red Cross.

District Attorney White of Belton was the speaker for yesterday and his address was well received, altho the audience was not as large as on the previous days.

A number of local people made "talks," but we have attempted only to give an account of the speeches of visitors.

The ladies served dinner and supper each day to the old soldiers and their wives.

Most of the business houses closed from 10 o'clock to 4 each day during the reunion.

Mr. J. C. Darroch, county president of the Council of Defense, perfected an organization of the Council for the various school districts Thursday afternoon at the reunion grounds.

One of the most pleasing features of the reunion was the singing by Prof. — at the class Thursday.

PRIMARY ELECTION

Notice to Republicans and others interested in clean politics.

We are facing a political upheaval such as our state has never before witnessed and it is the duty of every loyal American to do "his bit" to help elect a good clean man as Governor of our state, but in your desire to do this you may lose sight of the possibility of the wrong man securing the nomination, then if you participate in the primary, your hands are securely bound and you must support the nominee, whether he be the man you hoped to see elected or not. This is primarily the cause of so much graft and political wire pulling as we have been having in our state of late years. The remedy is very simple, namely, gain out of the primary and be an independent voter next November. By doing this you can then vote for the man, who in your estimation, is worthy of the office and not have to vote for a man because he was nominated.

This notice is especially written for Republicans, and those who have the principles of the Republican party and endorse its policies, to those we cordially invite your co-operation and presence at the various conventions, notice of which appears in this issue of the Eagle.

Once more remind out of the primary and help us give Texas two years of clean government; Try it just once and watch the results. Yours for clean state politics. R. E. McDERMOTT.

Worth Careful Thought

Do you read the label to know whether your baking powder is made from cream of tartar or, on the other hand, from alum or phosphate?

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is made from cream of tartar, derived from grapes, and adds to the food only wholesome qualities.

Some baking powders contain alum or phosphate, both of mineral origin, and used as substitutes for cream of tartar because of their cheapness.

Never sacrifice quality, and healthfulness for low price.

CORDIAL GREETINGS

To the Lady Voters of Mills County:

As Chairman of the Mills County Democratic Executive Committee, I hereby extend to you a cordial greeting and bid you a hearty welcome into our ranks. It gives me great pleasure to address you as fellow citizens. You have been deprived of your rights for a long time, and perhaps you have not yet realized the full scope of your new field of usefulness. You have had a hard struggle to get in possession of the ballot. Be sure you don't waste it. Perhaps there was never a time when your vote was worth more than it will be in the approaching primary. I am not speaking from a monetary standpoint because I feel sure that your votes are not for sale at any price. Your votes are capable of bringing untold joy or sorrow, not only to yours lives, your neighbors and the present citizenship of our state and nation, but to unborn generations as well. With our nation involved in the most cruel war since the world began and our state facing the greatest crisis since the battle of San Jacinto, it behooves all citizens to do much deep, sober thinking and then govern themselves accordingly.

We have two candidates seeking the nomination for governor. The German American Alliance supported Mr. Ferguson in both of his former campaigns. A few months ago, after a careful investigation by the United States Senate, the German American Alliance was declared to be disloyal to America and in sympathy with the Kaiser. Their charter was annulled and they were ordered to disband. Let me caution you to watch the way the Germans are lining up for Mr. Ferguson in this campaign. Are you Germans or loyal Americans?

As stated above, there are only two candidates running for Governor of Texas. One is William P. Hobby, who approved many of the best laws of our state, one of which was to place the ballot in your hands. Let me beg that you show your gratitude by voting for Governor Hobby. The other candidate is Jim's E. Ferguson, an impeached (expelled) Governor, who has been such an enemy to woman suffrage that he went to the National Democratic Convention two years ago and did his best to get the party committed against woman's suffrage. Now, suppose if Mr. Ferguson was eligible to be Governor and if he could secure enough votes to elect him, and a Legislature that would seat him and a Supreme Court that would sustain him, how long do you suppose you would enjoy the privilege of voting? How long do you think our state would protect your sons, your husbands, your brothers and your sweethearts, who are, soon may be in some of the training camps of our state, from intoxicating liquors and immorality? Mr. Ferguson denies that he was impeached and claims that he resigned. The record shows that about the time he was impeached he filed what he terms his resignation with the Secretary of State. This action on Mr. Ferguson's part was kept secret until the Senate's verdict was announced. It will be well for us to remember that there is a vast difference between tendering a resignation and resigning. A resignation is not a resignation until it has been accepted by the proper authorities. Mr. Ferguson's resignation was never accepted by the proper authorities, therefore, he did not resign.

When election day comes you should not be content with simply scratching the name of Mr. Ferguson, but you should scratch the name of every candidate, who favors Fergusonism. It is doubtful if there ever was a political campaign staged in Texas that was of such vital interest to our state and nation. Texas mothers, as well as the mothers of many other states, have sons in Texas for military training. Along with your privilege to vote comes your duty and responsibility to exercise your right of suffrage and to maintain and perpetuate the clean moral conditions that prevail in and around our training camps.

Great privileges always carry with them added responsibilities. Ladies are famous for their resourcefulness and for doing their work well. The ladies of California polled the deciding votes for President Wilson in 1916 and I believe they will prove themselves big enough to save the Governorship of Texas in the coming primary election.

On July 27th go to the polls and cast your first ballot for what you conscientiously believe to be the best interest of our state and nation. Welcoming you again into our ranks I beg to remain, yours very respectfully,

JNO. W. ROBERTS, Chairman Mills Co. Dem. Ex. Com

MRS. BURNS' LETTER

Here is a letter that is certain to prove of interest to people in this vicinity, as cases of this sort occur in almost every neighborhood and people should know what to do in like circumstances: Savannah, Mo., Oct. 12, 1916 "I used a bottle of Chamberlain Colic and Diarrhea Remedy about nine years ago and it cured me of flux (dysentery). I had another attack of the same complaint some three or four years ago and a few doses of this remedy cured me. I have recommended Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhea Remedy to dozens of people since I first used it." For sale by L. E. Miller & Son. (adv)

STAR SIFTER

Editor Eagle,

Two messengers have visited Star the past week. One the harbinger of joy, happiness and life (Cupid) One the ever present messenger that brings sorrow, tears and desolation (Death)

The 4th of July appeared to be a case of suspended animation or everybody left home to show their patriotism. Our beautiful flag failed to show up in front of the postoffice.

J. C. Fields and family accompanied by J. Z. Roberts and wife returned Monday from a visit to Coleman county. While there they enjoyed a bounteous feast of Cocho river fish and visited Hill Roberts.

Chas. House was an exhibitor of some very fine onions the past week, some weighing over one and a half pounds. The writer appreciates a 44 cal. mess of tomatoes from his garden—another case of what irrigation will do.

J. J. Newton of McGirk was a business visitor Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Campbell paid Indian Gap a visit Sunday to try out their new car. This new improved mail service for Route 1, as Mr. Campbell will use the car for the delivery of mail.

R. H. Patterson and wife accompanied by Grandma Hamilton spent the 4th at Goldthwaite, also attended the revival at the tabernacle.

Thanks to James Wright and Rex Gilson for that fine beef in response to "Sifters" call.

Miss Hattie Barr celebrated the 4th by having a "peach" tint with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hamilton of Center City.

Considering the noise and hot weather in our town turned loose from the occupants of four cars of Hamilton visitors Monday. We were led to believe that the "Moses of Texas" (?) was over there.

Prof. D. A. Benton has moved to a more convenient and comfortable home. He has rented the Siens place on Evans street.

Master Charles Patterson of Goldthwaite returned home Thursday, after a visit to his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Patterson.

J. E. Brooking, our genial M. D., is becoming an adept on vanishing from our midst. After a month's absence attending the Medical Convention and some business matters, he comes home to tell us where he was—Chicago—etc.

"Uncle Bill" Rob's has left on a visit to Oklahoma relatives and friends.

Mr. J. R. Moore of San Saba is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Beal.

The wonderful invention, the automobile—without this modern convenience—Mr. Jim Slaughter, wife and Miss Arie could not have reached Star to attend the funeral of Mr. J. F. Slaughter.

V. D. Slaughter arrived in time to attend his father's funeral at Waco and from Waco to Star by auto. The message reaching him too late for a thru train from Houston.

McGirk's ever popular Mayor A. Hudson was a visitor to Star Wednesday.

R. L. Clements made a business trip to McGirk Wednesday, to waive Mrs. Hudson's electrical side of his engine suffered a collapse.

Mrs. G. B. Barney, one of our home strangers, decided and visited Star Thursday.

With due consideration to the sugar side of Hooverizing, it is "passing strange" that the Star Drug Co. can not get its share of sugar to the extent of serving a few good drinks these hot days.

Mr. Tunliison claims that all efforts to secure a permit is ignored and is keeping the firm in "hot water"—Who's who any way on this sugar?

We are tempted to take Mr. Patterson's suggestion on the political gas mask when you venture out in Star—pretty strong at times—rather fatiguing.

Mr. C. T. Bowman is the heavy weight champion on egg production. The eggs he markets are far above others as to size and one will wonder what strain of chickens does he raise.

Aboard a "bronco cattle chaser" in a mad race after a graying bull yearling down and over hills and rocks and brush, rider and horse made a headlong plunge, throwing the rider a broad side and ripping off saddle leathers.

The rider scrambled on his horse and chased said yearling through a barbed wire fence in the uncertain light of good dusk causing Henry Peck to suspect something was wrong and to call a halt. Taking the rider from his horse he found him to be unconscious of what he was doing. After bathing his face he fainted and was taken to his home by Mr. Peck, remaining in this semi-conscious condition until about 4 o'clock in the morning. At noon the following day he came to town for his mail. The man that gave us this story was Jim Soules. We want that rabbit foot of yours, J. M.

Mrs. Dr. Brooking is prepared for emergencies. She has purchased one of the old reliables—a Ford.

Mortified—Miss Beta Evangelina Gerratt to S. rg. Willis Andrew Hill of Goldthwaite at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Lizzie Garrett, at 4 p. m., July 6, 1918, Rev. A. C. S. officiating. How often we read these simple routine statements intermingled in the maze of news and simple doings of the day, little realizing their importance and the influence over 2,000 loved ones and the entire community that took our breath, (and we blame Miss Beta too) and at the time about all we could utter was—"What?" and it was a big what.

The entire Star citizenship, with the office boy thrown in, congratulated Mr. Hill with that sincerity that is tinged with envy, for he has wooed and won a companion that only the eternal care and vigilance of home and mother can give. And our congratulation with love and best wishes are extended to Beta, Mr. Hill is one of Mills county's most promising and highly esteemed young men, of a family that has always championed that which is right and all that attains to success in life. Sergeant Hill is stationed at Camp Bowie with the 19th Co. 5 B. 165 Depot Brigade. The happy couple left immediately after the ceremony for San Antonio, where they will be "at home" 323 Carson Street.

He died at his home in Star July 5, at 7:45 p. m. John Franklin Slaughter, Mr. Slaughter had suffered ill health for the past six years and though he was suffering one of those usual depressive periods his death came as a surprise to his family and the community. He was truly a pioneer citizen of Star and Mills county, coming to this place during 1872 and has lived here since that time excepting an absence of one or two years. Mr. Slaughter attended first business had been in business here for 15 years. As a citizen, business man and friend he was above reproach. As a husband and father his family knew only those traits of character that comes from a life of love and care. He was born in Van Zandt county July 27, 1851. Surviving him are his wife and six children also Mrs. John Weddill, a sister and two brothers Jim and Bob Slaughter of Dallas. Interment was at Hurst cemetery Wednesday eve. REG. COR.

CALOMEL DYNAMITES A SLUGGISH LIVER

Crashes into sour bile, making you sick and you lose a day's work.

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It is harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.

You tax the kidneys—overwork them—

They can't keep up the "continuous" strain.

They may give out—it may ache and pain;

Urinary troubles may set in.

Goldthwaite people tell you how they get.

J. C. Carlock, farmer, Fisher St., Goldthwaite, says: "I was doing some heavy work and strained my back. At first I had pains in my back and mornings I couldn't straighten up. The pains extended into my hips and limbs. My kidneys became weak and I had to pass the kidney secretions frequently. I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills. The pain in my back soon left and my kidneys were regulated. I haven't needed a kidney medicine since."

TEXAS CONTRACTOR EN-DORSES TANLAC

Robert Schultze of 818 West Poplar street, San Antonio, Texas who has been a resident of that city for more than fifty years and a contractor and builder there for twenty-five years, made a remarkable statement regarding his experience with Tanlac, recently.

"About two years ago," said Mr. Schultze, "rheumatism got hold of me and I lost weight and all the energy I ever had seemed to leave me. I suffered torture with the rheumatism, especially in my shoulders and knee joints, and I couldn't work an hour with out my shoulders giving completely out. I had become irritable and unstrung as a man can be and as nothing seemed to do me any good I had about gotten to the place where I didn't know which way to turn for relief.

"Finally, after seeing the fine results of Tanlac in the cases of some of my relatives, I began using it myself and am entirely free from all pain and symptoms of the rheumatism and am glad to say any 'writable, grouchy' feelings are gone, too. I have gained all of ten pounds and this strikes me as being mighty fine for one of my age. I have as much energy and vim as I ever had and can work all day. Altogether, I'm simply feeling fine and you may know if Tanlac hadn't done me good I wouldn't be talking for it. But it has done the work for me and I don't hesitate to recommend it."

Tanlac is sold in Goldthwaite by L. E. Miller & Son, in Mul-tin by J. R. Clark, in Regency by Keeling & Keeling, in Priddy by G. H. Spiser and in Star by Star Drug Co. (adv)

Card to Voters.

To the Voters of Mills County:

Ladies and Gentlemen:—The duties of my office have been such the past few weeks that I have not been able to make the personal canvas I would have liked to have made. I deemed it more important, however, to exert every effort for the accommodation of the ladies in making it convenient for them to register than to look after my personal interests in calling on the voters and soliciting their support. I will appreciate sincerely the votes and here and now solicit the support of all voters. I will see as many as I can between this time and the election, but can not neglect my official duties to look after my personal campaign. My record is before you and if you elect me again I promise the same fidelity to duty and the same efforts in the interest of county and people I have put forth in the past. Respectfully,
