Miller Grove

Editor Eagle:

As we have not seen any news from this community for some time, we are sending a few items for the Eagle's readers.

A nice rain fell here Monday, which will be of benefit to the grain crop.

J. D. Fallon and family visited at the home of Mrs. J. J. Shelton Sunday.

Our Sunday school is progressing nicely. Good crowds attend every Sunday and we hope every family will be enrolled soon.

Miss Agnes Mahan visited the Misses Allie Mae and Beatrice Davee Sunday.

Miss Susie Stark of Rock Springs attended Sunday school and church at this place Sunday evening.

Bro. White of Goldthwaite preached an interesting sermon for us last Sunday afternoon.

The farmers have not done much toward farming on account of the rainy weather.

Mr. Calder and family of Rock Springs have moved into the Miller Grove community.

Last Sunday afternoon Charlie Stark of Rock Springs and Miss Audrey McWhorter surprised their many friends by getting married. The ceremony was performed by Bro. White at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. McWhorter, in the presence of relatives. Immediately after the ceremony they attended church here, where congratulations and best wishes were extended them. We wish for them the best success thru life, but regret to lose Miss Audrey from our community, as she will be missed in Sunday school.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jones visited relatives and friends at Mullin Sunday.

Best wishes to the Eagle and its readers. SCHOOL PUPILS.

If you have knowledge of a local item you should pass it out to the Eagle.

J. D. Evans of Antelope Gap section dropped a dollar in the Bird's claw this week.

Mrs. J. S. Sealy is serving as supply teacher in the school here this week to the delight of her former pupils.

W. M. Miles was here from Lometa the first of the week, meeting with his friends and looking after business matters.

H. O. Porter has accepted a position as traveling salesman for the Austin-Hall Hardware Co. of Brownwood and has entered upon his duties.

Mrs. Mark Leverett and little son returned to their home at Talpa the first of the week, after a visit to W. H. Leverett and family at Caradan.

J. A. Gillespie has purchased the J. A. Allen 2-story residence at the corner of Hutchings and Fifth streets and will at once have the old building torn away and a modern dwelling erected on the lot.

Apparently because the Eagle published articles in the controversy regarding teachings and practices of the Catholic church representatives of two other denominations have sent in data commending the work being done by their sects, presuming evidently that the Eagle had opened its columns to a full and free discussion of dogmas and church differences. This is all a mistake, for the Eagle has no such intention. The controversy carried on thru this paper was unavoidable from the fact that the Eagle could find no quitting place without doing one side or the other wrong, but the idea of publishing such articles for all denominations has not been entertained a moment.

Self Culture Club

The Self Culture Club met in the club room Thursday, Feb. 13.

Among the things done of general interest to the public was the adoption of a room by the club in the Grammar school building of the public school for the purpose of looking after its civic welfare. The numbers from one to seven were placed and Mrs. M. E. Thompson drew number seven, which means that the seventh grade room will be looked after by the club, the club hoping to arouse the interest of the children, parents and general public in matters of sanitation, beauty and cleanliness. In other words, they wish to make the seventh grade room a room in which the pupils will enjoy living during the school term.

The club also agreed to give $50, a dollar each for the members and their husbands, to the memorial fund to be used in honor of the Mills county boys who fought and died for us in the late world war, and to cooperate with any movement put forth to start this work.

It being the regular time for the annual election of officers, the following were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. J. A. Gillespie, president; Mrs. S. P. Sullivan, vice president; Mrs. W. H. Trent, recording secretary; Mrs. J. C. Evans, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Eli Fairman, treasurer; Mrs. J. C. Street, parliamentarian; Mrs. S. A. Lowrie, reporter.

The Eagle appreciates communications from communities.

Sheriff Evans returned Sunday night from Austin, where he had been to return Will Lane to the asylum.

Lee Berry is now employed in Drumright oil field and orders the Eagle sent to him at that place.

Attention is directed to the constitutional amendments to be submitted to the people May 24. If we of this county are allowed an opportunity of voting on these amendments we should be informed on their merits and if we are denied the privilege of voting on them we can at least know the subjects the citizens of other counties are to vote on, as they did in the senatorial contest.

Rev. and Mrs. W. G. Callihan were summoned to San Marcos last Sunday by a message announcing the serious condition of her father, who met with an accident Saturday. His team drawing his wagon broke a singletree and he attempted to cut a stick to replace the broken part when in some way he was struck in the stomach and his bowels paralyzed. He died Sunday afternoon and was buried at Lockhart Monday. The friends here of the bereaved family sincerely sympathize with them. Rev. Callihan and wife are expected home today.

THEY SHALL NOT PERISH WHERE ONCE LIVED JESUS CHRIST OUR SAVIOR.

To save from starvation four million stricken refugees, the victims of Turkish oppression and brutality—

To enable them to become again an industrious, self supporting people, no longer dependent on outside aid—

This is the present program of the American Committee for Relief in the Near East. President Woodrow Wilson realizing that relief must be immediate has asked the United States to contribute thirty million dollars for the relief and restoration of these people.

Of the $30,000,000 to be raised urgently needed though it all is for immediate relief work among a people who are daily dying by thousands, part will be used for the restoration of refugees whose homes, lands and entire worldly possessions have been ruthlessly destroyed by the Turk.

These intelligent, progressive, industrious peoples of the Near East are Armenians, Syrians, Greeks and Persians. They formed the backbone of the economic life of Western Asia, and nothing shows more clearly the incompetence of Turkish ruling than the blind, unreasoning hate that deliberately tried to blot out the once wealth-producing classes of their country.

Western Asia is capable of yielding in abundance all the fruits and vegetables of the temperate climes. Only the stupid repressive policy of the Turks and the antiquated methods of agriculture in use have kept it from becoming one of the granaries of the world.

With modern agricultural machinery and modern methods the country will soon be producing more than enough for its own needs, and this at a time when food will still be one of the most pressing problems for Europe and for America.

You are asked to give, to give generously, to save four million sufferers from cold, hunger, disease, certain death. Never has such a call been made to the humanity of America. But every dollar you give is an investment in the resurrection of a race, an investment that will result in lasting benefit not only to those you help but to America and to the world.

The above is an appeal to every citizen in Mills county. In order to give you a chance to do your duty, I hereby appoint every preacher and every Sunday School superintendent and teacher in Mills county to take up a collection on Sunday, Feb. 23rd, for this noble Christian work.

Let us not be among the negligent on the left hand and have to hear these sorrowful words: "Depart from me ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels; for I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat; I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink; I was a stranger, and ye took me not in; naked, and ye clothed me not; sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not." Shall we have to answer him, saying: "Lord, when saw we Thee an hungred, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto Thee?" Shall we have to answer us saying: "Verily I say unto you, inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me."

But rather let us be on the side of the righteous and do our duty, by helping to see to it that "they shall not perish where once lived Jesus Christ our Savior." Yours truly,

W. E. MILLER,
County Chairman.

Mrs. Joe Sims

Mrs. Joe Sims, who passed away so suddenly Sunday morning, was born Jan. 10, 1854, in North Carolina. She and Mr. Sims married in that State 44 years ago. They came to Texas in 1892. To them one child has been born.

To her husband and child she has always been exceedingly faithful and loyal. She always busied herself with her own tasks and was exceptionally industrious.

At the time of her death she was not a member of any church, but had a confident belief in her God. She at one time was a member of the Methodist church.

She is survived by her husband and daughter Evie and two sisters, Mrs. Harwell and Mrs. Reynolds, and her husband's brother, Mr. Will Sims, and family.

All of them wish to express their sincere thanks for the kindness of all during their sad bereavement.

DESERVES WELL OF THE NATION

(From Uniontown, Pa., Times.)

Not the least of the many elements that have contributed to the winning of the war was the work of the Salvation Army on the battle front, says the New York Herald. It ranks in importance, in the courage and enthusiasm of its members and in the help rendered to our soldiers, with any of the great organizations of mercy that have shared with it the discomfort and danger of trench and field.

The origin of the Salvation Army was as lowly as that of Him whom it serves. Founded in England by General Booth, its pioneer corps of lads and lassies made their first appearance in New York forty years ago, and since then its halls have been planted in nearly every city and town in the country. The sophisticated element in the town greeted them with the same heehaws of scornful mirth with which it is our custom to encourage every sincere and worthy attempt to better us. But those whom they came to help did not laugh, and from the moment of their first meeting down to the present day these faithful soldiers have gone about their duties in the worst quarters of the town unmolested. That first meeting was held in Harry Hill's dance-house in Houston street in the presence of an audience made up of fallen women, roughs, pugilists, thieves, delinquents and sightseers. Down on their knees went the lads and lassies and lifted their voices in prayer to the Most High, and such was their sincerity that the crowd listened in silence and later took up a collection of more than $200 to speed them on their unselfish course.

When that which was beginning then to style itself the "better element" stopped laughing it began to look upon the invasion with the cold eye of disapproval, declaring that the newcomers were "bringing religion down to a low level." They were indeed bringing it down and to levels where it had seldom been seen before. Theirs was a religion that raised up those who fell, comforted and helped the sick-hearted and sought to beat down Satan under their feet. On the battle field they have employed the same methods by which they retrieved souls in New York slums. To the firing line they went with their hot coffee and doughnuts. And there was none to laugh at them there. Truly, the Salvation Army deserves well at the hands of the nation.

SALVATION ARMY RESPECTED

(From Pittsburgh, Pa., Post.)

The universal respect with which the Salvation Army workers in France are held, is attested by sailors aboard American transports carrying wounded American soldiers home on furloughs.

"I have talked with scores of American soldiers aboard the transport on which I am stationed," one said, "and I am amazed at their expressions of love and affection for the Salvation Army. One of these boys, who had lost an arm and leg at the Marne, told me that he owes his life to a lassie who gave him a glass of lemonade just as he was attacked with a fever. The surgeon told him that he could not have survived the double amputation had the fever got him."

"Another wounded boy told me he felt himself slipping into the great beyond when he heard a Salvation Army lassie whispering to him to have faith in God. He said that somehow this awakened within him a desire to live, and after she had given him some lemonade, he began to mend immediately. He told me that he always had been a rough guy, but that now he would be glad to speak a good word for the Salvation Army wherever he went. He's a hopeless invalid now, half of his lung having been shot away, but if praise of the Salvation Army will widen its influence, then he will prove a valuable auxiliary."

MULLIN.

After an extended rest of several weeks we undertook to resume our Sunday school work and church services last Sunday. The Sunday school were conducted with a slim attendance and the good sermon Bro. Vann has had in store for these weeks was delivered to an audience of 7 children and 18 adults. So you see our people appreciate a good thing when they hear it is coming. We made up for this seeming indifference Sunday night when we had two preachers and two auditors. The auditors suggested that we blow out the lights and retire. They were blown, with but little ceremony. We will endeavor to shake the dust from our feet and make a similar effort next Sunday at the Methodist church. All are invited, and if the audience exceeds twenty-five, announcement will be made when the fatted calf will be killed, only those present at the morning service will be expected at the feast when the calf is killed. As a preliminary to this feast of fat things we will have pie next Sunday. Say, Bro. Bob, when you get to the point where you can get up such reports as this of your religious proceedings you will have some news for your paper besides the religious ebbs and flows (mostly ebbs) in Mullin. Rest assured we are glad to have your good paper in which we can make known our successes to the public.

H. T. White has located in Mullin. We extend to him a cordial welcome and trust his choice will prove beneficial to him and the community. Mr. White is a veterinary surgeon who is generally known in the county and we have already been hearing from these who have known him as being truly glad he has returned to Mills county to live.

The last bit in the Tyson well has been gotten out and the casing is being put down, when drilling will be resumed and great results looked for. Mullin has set claim to this well and will stand by it if it should throw salt water 700 feet high and will ask the Brownwood editor not to lay any claim to it when it comes in an oil gusher, for it is strictly a Mullin well.

Our local oil men are on the move and their movements are attracting the attention of oil men in other localities. Be ready for all kinds of pleasant surprises for something is going to happen.

We are certainly living in a fast age, yet in many respects a good one. Fast because nearly every fellow is trying to do some other fellow and good because the way is clear and no one is compelled to walk into the other fellow's net. And good because the same law to be kept both Divine and moral is no respecter of persons. Every man has the right to do or not do, and if right in his decision and determination to do right both laws say "you shall be protected." Neither law will excuse you for doing wrong. Some time the law and evidence are twisted to suit the case and the guilty often go unpunished. Neither law wills it that way, but man is the wicked perverter of right and for money, name and fame do many crooked wicked things. Boy beware! stay by the truth, for truth and right will prevail.

I could tell something, but I won't, for I don't believe in telling everything you know. If I did I would soon be like some others I know—constantly repeating because they told too quick and now have to tell over and over. I may tell the next time. I know you are nearly crazy to know what I am hinting at, but I won't tell you this time so you needn't ask me.

Junior Feast.

On Friday evening, Feb. 14, the Junior class of the Goldthwaite High school gave a feast in the Domestic Science room in honor of the faculty.

The desks were arranged to form a long table, which was beautifully decorated in class colors—white and gold. There was much enjoyment as we gathered around the feast, which did not remind one of the late war, for what the Junior girls can't cook and the Junior boys can't buy is not worth eating.

A toast was given from the Senior class by Prof. Willingham which was greatly appreciated by the Juniors.

Those present were the Juniors and their guests, Rev. and Mrs. W. R. White, Prof. Willingham, Mrs. McElroy and Miss Street.

House Joint Resolution No. 19.

To amend Section 50, Article 3, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, to provide that the Legislature shall have power to give or lend, or authorize the giving or lending, of the credit of the State for the purpose of assisting citizens who are heads of families to acquire or improve their homes; authorizing the State to acquire, improve, sell or lease real estate or assist such citizens to acquire or improve their homes upon terms and conditions prescribed by the Legislature; authorizing the Legislature to create such agencies as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this section; providing that obligations created under this section shall never be taxed; and providing that the Legislature shall have authority to provide a method of securing any deferred payments for lands purchased hereunder, and that such obligations shall be secured in addition to the usual liens by an annual assessment collected as a tax against the land; and providing that the Legislature shall have no power to relieve any person from any obligation entered into under this provision or any statute enacted thereunder; and providing for the classification of lands acquired under this Act, and limiting acreage sold to any one person where lands are classed as agricultural.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

SECTION 1. That Section 50, of Article 3, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, be so amended that the same will read and hereafter be as follows:

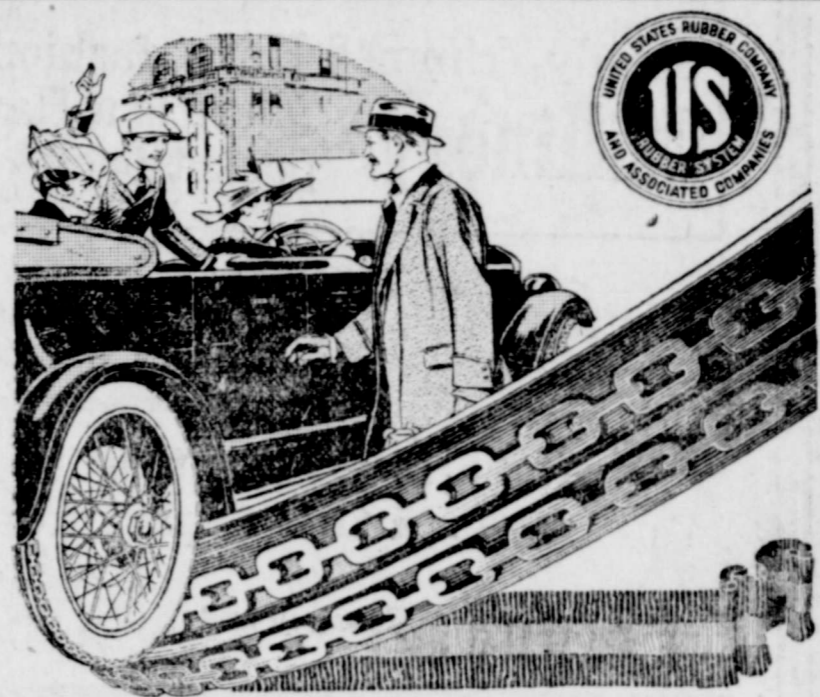

SEC. 50. The Legislature shall have no power to give or lend or to authorize the giving or lending, of the credit of the State in aid of or to any person, association, or corporation, whether municipal or other, or to pledge the credit of the State in any manner whatsoever, for the payment of the liabilities, present or prospective, of any individual, association of individuals, municipal or other corporation, whatsoever, except that the Legislature shall have the power to give or to lend, or to authorize the giving or lending, of the credit of the State for the purpose of assisting native born or naturalized citizens who are heads of families and who will become in good faith actual occupants, to acquire or improve their homes; and for this purpose the State is authorized to acquire or improve, sell or lease real estate or assist such citizen to acquire, or improve their homes upon such terms and conditions and in such manner and subject to such limitations as the Legislature may from time to time prescribe. Provided that no land shall be acquired by the State under the terms of this amendment to the Constitution until the said lands are examined and the value of said lands is appraised and ascertained as to its actual value for agricultural purposes, by a commission hereby authorized, composed of the Governor, Attorney General, Land Commissioner, Comptroller of Public Accounts and the State Treasurer; and their reports shall be available to all prospective land purchasers. The Legislature shall have authority to create by law such agencies as may be deemed necessary to effect the purpose of the Act. Obligations created under this section shall never be taxed, and the Legislature shall have authority to provide a method of securing deferred payments for lands purchased hereunder, and in addition to the usual liens may secure the same by an annual assessment collected as a tax against the land; provided, however, the Legislature shall have no power to relieve any person from any obligation entered into with the State under this provision or any statute enacted hereunder. The terms of this Act shall not apply, or be extended to any person who is not a bona fide resident citizen of the State of Texas and who has not been such citizen at least two years prior to the extension of such aid, nor shall the terms of this Act ever be applied to any lands outside of the State of Texas. Provided further that all land acquired by the State under the provisions of this section for which the State may lend its credit shall be classified as agricultural lands or otherwise, and if classified as agricultural lands, then no more than 200 acres shall be sold to any one person under the provisions herein.

SEC. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State of Texas at an election to be held throughout the State on the 24th day of May, A. TO AILING WOMEN

A Little Sound Advice will Help Many a Sufferer in Goldthwaite.

No woman should consider herself healthy and well if the kidneys are weak. Poisons that pass off in the secretions when the kidneys are well, are retained in the body when the kidneys are disordered. If the kidney and bladder become inflamed and swollen worse troubles may quickly follow. This is often the cause of bearing down pains, lameness, backache, etc. Urine poisoning is also frequent cause of headaches, dizzy spells, languor, nervousness, and rheumatic pain.

When suffering so, try Doan's Kidney Pills, a remedy that has proven effective in thousands of such cases. Let a Goldthwaite woman tell of her experience.

Mrs. Claude Dickerson says: "I have great confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills, as I have used them and they have benefited me greatly. I gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, as I believe they will give good results to any one who needs a kidney medicine.

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Dickerson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

GETTING RID OF COLDS

The easiest and quickest way to get rid of a cold is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This preparation has been in use for many years and its value fully proven. No matter what remedy you use, however, care must be taken not to contract a second cold before you have recovered from the first one, and there is a serious danger of this. A man of middle age or older should go to bed and stay in bed until fully recovered. It is better to stay in bed three days at the start than three weeks later on. For sale at Miller & Son (adv)

Valentine Party.

The ladies of the Home Mission society entertained the members of the Epworth League and their friends at the home of Mrs. Annie Little Friday evening, Feb. 14, with a Valentine party.

The pleasures provided were as numerous as they were delightful and everything conducive to perfect happiness was in evidence. The valentine theme found development in hearts and love missives on every side and the games giving diversion had an added charm because of the date and the beauty of environment.

There was a valentine post-office generously outlined with hearts and presided over by Miss Lucille Conro, who distributed the attractive messages.

Then Cupid was described as coming in various ways, those failing to have an answer paying a forfeit, which was later redeemed by various stunts.

Refreshments of heart shaped cakes and chocolate were served in the dining room, where the table was overspread with a cover of valentine decorations and quantities of hearts made it bright and beautiful.

At a late hour all departed, expressing themselves as having had a most delightful evening and thanking Mrs. Little and the Home Mission society ladies for remembering them on this jolly evening. XX.

Merry Wives Club.

On Tuesday, the 18th, the Merry Wives club met with Mrs. Gillespie. As usual, the afternoon was spent playing 42 and was enjoyed immensely by all.

This being the first afternoon to have our new member, Mrs. L. E. Miller, with us, made the social more pleasant and we were all glad to have her join our merry club.

After a delicious refreshment course we adjourned to meet next with Mrs. W. H. Trent.

Mrs. S. P. Sullivan was the guest of the afternoon.

REPORTER.

HIGH AVERAGE OF DEVOTION IN SALVATION ARMY

In a recent editorial, the Albany (N. Y.) Argus takes occasion to say:

Now as The Salvation Army's work has spread all over the world, there is nothing of an antagonistic feeling among intelligent people, but recognition of the immense good it has done; even those that would personally prefer other methods of religious propaganda have come to see that William Booth was right in his conception that thus churchless people could best be reached. It was after thirteen years of preaching as a Methodist minister that he reached this conclusion and founded the Christian Mission in the East End of London in 1865, which was christened The Salvation Army on Christmas, 1878, and which in ever widening circles has since been doing its work of reclamation. During their joint lives he had an able and efficient lieutenant in his wife, Catherine, the "Mother of The Salvation Army," as she was fondly called. Perhaps the fact has been the most potent single influence in opening the way for the preaching of the Gospel by women.

For though The Army's prime stress is spiritual, like the wise missionary, it sees and uses the avenues of approach in works of mercy and charity and helpfulness to the needy or outcast. The institutions the Kaiser has confiscated were monuments of the fact, but other eloquent testimonials are many. It has reclaimed drunkards literally by the hundreds of thousands. It's centers in slum districts of great cities accomplish vast good that could hardly be done so well by any other agency. Here in Albany, for instance, we see it in the annual collections for the cheer of the Christmas dinner they serve and we have come to know instinctively that it is a blessed supplement to all that the churches and other organized or individual agencies could find to do and that it thus brings to better life many people that would otherwise be overlooked. All kinds of men and women are, of course, found everywhere in life, but nowhere, is it safe to say, is there a higher average of devotion, self sacrifice and desire for service than in The Salvation Army.

AN ESSAY ON BARNES

By Barnes & McCullough

Put a stop to future feed famines by building barns in 1919. Don't let this year go by without having shelter for everything you raise on the farm, in the way of feed stuffs, and a shelter, by all means, for every animal on the farm. Don't leave a single one out, not even the chickens and implements. Let's have a shelter for everything and every thing in its shelter when the bad weather comes from now on. Isn't it a fact that the farmer and stockman who has not sufficient barns to shelter his feed and stock loses enough even these dry years to pay for a barn, then why not let 1919 be the big barn building year, we know we are going to raise the feed. If there ever was anything on a farm that would pay for itself in one year, it is a good big barn.

Barns cost a little more than they did ten years ago, but the stock and crops you protect with the barn is worth a lot more. A good barn on the premises speaks prosperity for the owner. The world is going to call for an unbelievable lot of building material in 1919. Get yours early.

This condition deserves the attention of every man who intends to build at a reasonable cost. We urge you to talk your building problems with us at once. The prospects are good for large feed crops this year. Let's save all of it by building now a place to put it while we can and be ready for the big crop in 1919.

Please let us hear from you when in need of anything in the building line.

Obituary

Teague—Floyd Lavon Teague, son of F. A. and Ruth Teague was born May 11, 1917, and died February 2, 1919. Little Floyd was sick only a few days and his suffering was great, but he bore it like a man. Then God sent angels to bear his little spirit to its heavenly home to be with Jesus evermore. He left a broken hearted father, mother, two brothers, grand parents and other kindred, but dear ones look higher. He will be waiting and watching for us up yonder, where no sorrow ever comes. He was the jewel of the home. The circle broken, the voice so sweet forever hushed, the little pattering feet that hastened to meet papa have ceased to move and the little arms that clasped mamma so lovingly are still. We know the home will be lonely without him, but the Lord knows best. Jesus said, suffer the children to come, and he has gone. Heaven will feel nearer and dearer than ever before. May the Lord strengthen the faith of the bereaved ones as the years come and go, and finally on the banks of sweet deliverance all may be reunited again.

There can be no doubt as to the merit of Cardui, the woman's tonic, in the treatment of many troubles peculiar to women. The thousands of women who have been helped by Cardui in the past 40 years, is conclusive proof that it is a good medicine for women who suffer. It should help you, too.

SALVATIONISTS ARE EXPERTS.

In a recent double column editorial devoted to an encomium of Salvation Army War Work, the New York Evening Journal said:

"The things we are used to seeing and hearing are often the things we notice least. We are attracted by that which is new, and we give it more attention than the more deserving object to which we are accustomed.

"It is because of this trait of human nature that it is easier, sometimes, to get support for a cause that is comparatively less needy than for one that is most deserving—unless we are reminded forcibly of the virtues that belong to the cause which we know so well that we almost forget it.

"With the Salvation Army—that valiant band of sturdy soldiers—we are all familiar. Its splendid and disinterested work for the good of the humble wayfarer who has fallen under heavy burdens has become a matter of course. We think of it with admiration, and subconsciously take it for granted.

Now the public has the opportunity to show its appreciation for all the benefits it has accepted so gladly from this great organization. And, at the same time, the opportunity to give real assistance to that other army—the army 'over there'—fighting for Pershing for the right.

"The work done by the Army is expert work, done by expert workers. Along certain lines no body of men and women can gain such results in the way of reclaiming unfortunate human beings as can those of the Salvationists. They know their subjects and have the confidence of the objects of their ministrations."

WASHED FACES OF 1,500 MEN.

(Topeka, Kan., Capital.)

Probably one of the staunchest supporters of the Salvation Army in Topeka when the "boys come home" will be Walter J. Geisler, former pressman in the Daily Capital pressroom, who has seen the wonderful work of this great organization in France. In a recent letter to friends in Topeka, he relates some of the things which makes him think more of the work which the Salvation Army has been doing for many years.

"Believe me, I never will 'pass up' the old drum on the corner of Sixth and Kansas Avenues again," Private Geisler writes. "Why, one little girl alone washed all the boys' hands and faces as they came through the out-field hospital. There were at least 1,500 and her cheery ways caused many a boy to forget his wounds."

A report by the German minister of finance states the war cost that nation forty billion dollars and adds that the German people do not yet realize the financial situation in which the war left their country.

A large number of students in the Northwestern University in Chicago went on a strike in opposition to compulsory military training. They say the war is over and they can see no reason for this character of training.

Governor Hobby requested the resignation of the board of managers of the orphans' home at Corsicana, who were appointed by Jim Ferguson, but the board replied refusing the request, but it is pretty safe to guess the governor will find a way to jar them loose.

The woman suffrage amendment was recently defeated in federal congress, but another bill having the same object has already been introduced. This second bill goes over to the next session, but it will be kept constantly before congress until it receives favorable consideration.

A pugilistic encounter between Jess Williard, the heavy weight champion, and Jack Dempsey, a middle weight who aspires to the heavy weight championship, has been arranged to take place July 4, but a location for the fight has not yet been secured and it may be necessary for them to go to South America to find a place they can hammer each other without the law intervening.

Senator Dorrrough of Texarkana has introduced a bill in the Texas legislature to protect the people from irresponsible and dishonest organizations in the oil development of this state. All companies are required, under provisions of the bill, to make proof of their solvency and good intentions and secure a permit from the secretary of state.

The present session of the legislature has done more real constructive work and devoted less time to frivolity than any law making body assembled in this state in recent years. True, a great many useless and frivolous measures have been introduced, but they have been given very little attention. It has been the custom among many to speak disparagingly of state legislative bodies, often unjustly, but few will have the temerity to say the present assembly has not been of vast benefit to Texas.

A bill has been introduced in the Texas legislature providing for trial by jury of one charged with "contempt of court." The wonder is that this law has not been enacted long ago, for under the present system a judge can pass sentence on a citizen he deems guilty of contempt, no trial of the cause being necessary. In very few instances has this authority been abused, be it said to the credit of the judiciary, yet the rights of the citizens are not properly safeguarded against the whims of some petty magistrate who, "clothed with brief authority," might seek an opportunity to vindicate his honor as a means of impressing his august dignity upon his admirers.

President Wilson, just before leaving France for home, cabled the congressional foreign relations committee requesting that no further debate be had on the proposed league of nations until he could be present and go over the matter carefully with them. The trouble with the committee members, or some of them, is that they, like many others, attempt to pass judgment on the plan of the league of nations without understanding it in all its details. The plan is evidently feasible, for it attracted the attention and then the endorsement of the foremost thinkers and statesmen of the civilized world.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE STATE CONSTITUTION PROVIDING FOR AND RELATING TO EQUAL SUFFRAGE.

Senate Joint Resolution No. 7. Proposing to amend Section 2, Article 6, of the Constitution of the State of Texas so that it shall hereafter, in substance, provide that every person, male or female, subject to no constitutional disqualifications, who shall have attained the age of twenty-one years, and who shall be a citizen of the United States, and who shall reside in this State one year next preceding an election and the last six months within the district or county in which he offers to vote, shall be deemed a qualified elector; provided electors shall vote in the election precinct of their residence; declaring that the electors living in any unorganized county may vote at any election precinct in the county to which such county is attached for judicial purposes; providing that any voter who is subject to pay a poll tax under the laws of the State of Texas shall have paid said tax before he or she shall offer to vote at any election in this State and hold a receipt showing that poll tax has been paid before the first day of February next preceding such election; declaring that if said voter shall have lost or misplaced such tax receipt, he or she shall be entitled to vote, upon making affidavit that such tax receipt has been lost, which affidavit must be in writing and left with the judge of the election. And declaring that all laws now on the statutes relating to qualified voters and governing and regulating elections shall apply to male and female voters alike; and all laws relating to elections shall remain in full force and effect until changed or modified by the Legislature, and declaring that this amendment to the constitution shall be self-enacting.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

SECTION 1- That Section 2, of Article 6, of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so that hereafter said section shall read as follows, to-wit:

SECTION 2- Every person, male or female, subject to none of the foregoing disqualifications who shall have attained the age of twenty-one years, and who shall be a citizen of the United States, and who shall have resided in this State one year next preceding an election, and the last six months within the district or county in which he offers to vote, shall be deemed a qualified elector; and all electors shall vote in the election precinct of their residence; provided that electors living in any unorganized county may vote at any election precinct in the county to which such county is attached for judicial purposes; and provided further, that any voter who is subject to pay a poll tax under the laws of the State of Texas shall have paid said tax before he or she offers to vote at any election in this State and hold a receipt showing such poll tax paid before the first day of February next preceding such election. Or if said voter shall have lost or misplaced said tax receipt he or she shall be entitled to vote upon making affidavit before any officer authorized to administer oaths that such tax receipt has been lost. Such affidavit shall be made in writing and left with the judge of the election. All laws now on the statutes of this State regulating and relating to qualified voters in both primary and general elections shall apply to and govern both male and female voters, and shall be in effect until such statutes are changed or amended by the Legislature. And this amendment to the Constitution shall be self-enacting without the necessity of further legislation.

SEC. 3- The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to the vote of the qualified electors for members of the Legislature at an election to be held for such purpose on the fourth Saturday in May, A. D. 1919, the same being the twenty fourth day of said month; at said election, the votes shall be placed on an official ballot which shall have printed, or written, thereon the words, "For the amendment to Section 2, Article 6, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing qualifications for male and female voters," and also the words, "Against the amendment to Section 2, Article 6, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing qualifications for male and female voters." All voters favoring this proposed constitutional amendment shall erase the words, "Against the amendment to Section 2, Article 6, of the Constitution of the State of Texas," and those opposing it shall erase the words, "For the amendment to Section 2, Article 6, of the Constitution of the State of Texas," and those opposing it shall erase the words, "For the amendment to Section 2, Article 6, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing qualifications for male and female voters," which said erasures shall be made by making a mark with a pencil, or pen through said words. All ballots cast, as above provided, shall be counted as cast for or against a proposed amendment, and if a majority shall be for the amendment it shall be declared adopted; if a majority of the votes cast shall be against the amendment, said amendment shall be lost. All provisions of the general election laws, as amended and enforced at the time said election is held, shall govern in all respects as to the qualifications of the electors, the method of holding such elections, and in all other respects so far as such election laws can be made applicable.

SEC. 4- The Governor of this State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for such election and have same published as required by the Constitution and Laws of this State.

SEC. 5- The sum of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the State Treasury, not otherwise appropriated, to defray the expenses

"The Days Gone By"

Editor Eagle:

Will you kindly allow me to congratulate you on having such able contributors to your valuable paper as Mr. Cobb, Mr. Harrison and many others too numerous to mention? Kindly allow me to add a few words to Mr. Cobb's article on "The Days Gone By," in testimony of his position.

We have passed our seventy-seventh mile post. Some years ago we visited our old home—the place of our birth, the home of our father and mother—Warner-ton, Washington Parish, La. While there, talking to an old brother who lived on the old Warner homestead, where he was born and raised, in our conversation he spoke of old Dr. Alford, a very prominent man in his day.

Dr. Alford represented the parish in the state legislature and was the man who drove that robbing Louisiana lottery out of the state. He was always called upon at the close of schools, at picnics, "fish fries," etc., for a speech. He was always loaded and invariably would close his speech with a temperance lecture to the boys and young men. He was a man of wonderful influence. On one occasion, when addressing a very large crowd, at the close of his speech he said to the young men: "Let me beg you not to drink whisky," and added that when he was a little boy old Uncle Coalter Warner put a hand on his head and said, "My son, don't you ever drink whisky." "and," Dr. Alford continued, "I have never drank a drop of whisky from that day to this."

Old Uncle Coalter Warner was my father and was a Methodist preacher—a member of the Warner family mentioned by Bishop McTyere in his History of the Origin of the Southern Methodist Church. Hence how forcibly Mr. Cobb's article brought the above to our mind. Those words spoken by our father to Dr. Alford were seed sown on good ground. Like a pebble dropped into the ocean, whose waves go out and on and on and only stop when they lash upon the shores of the mighty deep, so these few words spoken exerted an influence that will never stop until it reaches the shores of eternity.

—Figure with us for lumber and what building material you may need—we can supply you, and —Then you'll have a life-time joy, a HOME.

HERE IS CURE FOR INSOMNIA

English Woman Writer Tells How She Successfully Overcame the Demon of Sleeplessness.

A woman writer in a London newspaper says she has found a cure for sleeplessness. She calls it "Ay-zed" because it has to do with the letters of the alphabet. The title may puzzle Americans that are not aware that "ay" is the sound a Cockney gives to the first letter of the alphabet, and that "zed" is how the English pronounce "z." Here is the scheme:

"Tonight, say, you are wakeful. Review your friends; how many men or women you have known or do you know whose Christian name begins with A? I prescribe Christian names because they are more lovable, and listable, than surnames. You will find that it is like what we are told of drowning—all your life will pass before you in a vision till you sink blissfully beneath the waves of sleep before one letter is disposed of."

Washboard News

Editor Eagle:

As I never see anything from this neck of the woods I will tell a few things we are doing, going to do and have done.

We have been stuck up in the black mud for five weeks. Some of our folks have been talking of meeting to pray for the rain to stop.

We had to suspend our school for ten days on account of rain and mud, and they say religion is suspended indefinitely.

Small grain is looking good. Farmers are planning to plant a big corn crop. You see, we are going to put the feed stores out of business.

Miss Addie Jane Hancock is teaching our school and we think we have one of the best teachers in the county. "By their fruits ye shall know them."

B. A. Howington's family are all able to be up again. He has had several cases of typhoid fever in his home since Nov. 1.

We have had lots of oil talk, but no oil—yet. Leases are selling from $4 to $6 per acre.

Nat Bynum, who has been in Arkansas for several weeks, came home a few days ago.

Rev. L. A. Bagley is in Burk Burnett, looking after business. You see, even our preachers have caught the oil fever.

Olan Barker has secured his discharge from military service and returned home.

Big Ben, we enjoyed your letter. Come again and tell us more about the "nigger." It makes us think of our boyhood days.

HUMOR IN IMPOTENT RAGE

French Peasant Woman's Denunciation of German Artillerymen at Once Ludicrous and Pathetic.

Lieut. J. M. Cavanagh, who was with the first platoon of the Three Hundred and Fifty-third infantry of the Eighty-ninth division to cross the Meuse river in the face of a withering shell fire from the Germans, and who was gassed three days before the signing of the armistice, says the funniest thing he ever saw was in Flanders.

"We were on the Kailly road," asserted Lieutenant Cavanagh, "and there was an old French peasant woman trundling along a baby carriage with an empty chair in it. The Hunns were shelling the road, the shells dropping every few seconds. As each succeeding shell dropped within 100 feet of the old woman she would stop and turn around, shaking her fists at the German artillerymen miles away. Finally a shell came along, bursting about fifty feet from her. She was left standing, but the baby carriage and the chair were blown into nothing. Her hand still grasped the handle of the carriage. Shrieking her rage and despair, she hurled the handle in the direction of the unseen Germans, knelt down in the road, made the sign of the cross and then arose and trudged on, with never a backward glance."

THE IMPORTANT THING.

When my brother was sailing to France, a Chinese cook, who was quite a joker, said to the American soldiers: "Engla's soldier, he stay up all night and look and look for subs, and sometimes he cly, but American soldier, he don't give a damn, he say, 'Glangway, glangway, when do we eat?'"—Chicago Tribune.

More Eggs Tonic

January 23, 1919.

Make your hens lay is my advice—from experience. In January, 1918, I ordered a $1.00 package of Reefer's More Eggs Tonic. Our hens were not laying at all. We fed this bunch of hens, about 50 head, and in weeks were getting from 2 to 3 dozen eggs a day. Also bought another package of More Eggs the first of this month from W. A. Richards and began feeding our hens. They are furnishing plenty of eggs now. I can highly recommend More Eggs to all poultry raisers, as it will surely make the hens lay. Yours very truly, Pyorrhea.

Seventy-five per cent of the people have Pyorrhea Alveolaris (an oozing of pus from the tooth socket.) Specialists tell us that it is often the cause of heart, kidney and stomach troubles, also responsible for many cases of tuberculosis and arthritic rheumatism. Many other diseases are attributed to it, but the foregoing are enough to show the danger of mouth infection.

I am giving, and have been for five years, special attention to the treatment of mouth infection. If you have it you should call on your dentist at once and have it attended to.

WHY PUBLISH IN GERMAN?

Writer Makes Plea for Dissemination of Scientific Literature in the English Language.

It has been the habit of most of our English and American scientists, as well as those in other countries, to publish their discoveries first in German and then (if they get to it) to publish in their own language, writes Frank A. Spragg in Science.

A few years ago, when desiring an English translation of a German four-volume work on the breeding of field crops, the present writer located translators, took up the matter with the publisher and looked for an English publisher. The American publishing houses agreed that the data should be in English, but considered that they would not sell enough copies to pay for the undertaking.

Is it not about time that the English-speaking people see to it that the scientific literature be published in English? Germany has furnished technical data was not able to sell enough copies to make a profit. Can't the English-speaking people do as well?

This vessel, the San Florentino, was built on the Isherwood system of longitudinal framing and was measured to pass both the Panama and Suez canals. The ship's hull is divided into 13 compartments, and has 4½ miles of oil pipes. It is equipped with steam heating apparatus, a refrigerating plant, a hospital and a complete installation of auxiliary machinery. THEY ARE ON THE JOB; "HAND IT TO THEM"

(Editorial Chicago Paper)

A circle of red-jerseyed men and poke-bonneted women standing in the gutter; the blatant notes of a cornet carrying the tune of a rousing revival hymn to the accompaniment of jingling cymbals and a bass drum; a crowd of curious standing about, some interested, others skeptical, others scoffing, but always on the faces of the members of the little band a look of serene confidence, a reflection of the purpose that was in them—to help their fellow men.

Preferably they reached out their hands to the chap who needed it most—the down-and-outer, the out-cast of society to whom none else would turn a helping hand.

If we boasted religious fervor we looked kindly on the work of the little band, stopping for a moment to smile indulgently upon them. "No doubt they are doing good work in their own way," we said and passed on.

If we were skeptics we stopped on the edge of the circle of loiterers and scoffed with our neighbors. But generally we stayed long enough to catch the infection of their enthusiastic spirit, and, whether we "got religion" or not, we went away filled with admiration for the zeal of the little band.

If we were without a friend in the world and things looked black for us, without a bed to sleep in, without the prospect of a meal, we welcomed the hand that was held out to us in true good-fellowship, and, once our bodily hunger was assuaged, we began to absorb the spirit of the Salvation Army and we were made better men.

The war came and with it the need for a helping hand to cheer the fighting men behind the lines.

Slowly the little bands on the street corners diminished in size and the gatherings became less frequent. The Salvation Army was finding a larger scope of usefulness.

The Salvation Army had gone into the trenches. It was hanging on the heels of the fighting men of the allies. Although the smallest of the various auxiliary organizations in France, it was endearing itself to the heart of every enlisted man in the trenches.

When the army moves up the Salvation Army moves with it. Working under shell fire, they establish themselves in huts of the most makeshift character, and almost before the soldiers themselves are settled the Salvation Army, by dint of main force and much Yankee ingenuity, is turning out old-fashioned doughnuts, pies and coffee to serve to the men.

They are the big sisters and brothers of your boy and your neighbor's boy. They deal in practical comfort for the men, and what is more, they are there to "hand it to them." And they do it in a modest, self-effacing way that is at once sympathetic and smacking of home.

ODE TO THE HEN.

Tell me not in mournful numbers that the price of boards is up; that you can't afford a hen house or a bedroom for your pup. You indulge in greivous error in comparing COIN with THINGS; costs should be compared by angles, never in concentric rings. Costs of eggs today remind us that we pay four times the yen; last year twenty cents they cost us, now we pay three score and ten; yet a house to hold those chickens and a place for them to lay, only costs a trifle over what it cost you yesterday. Let us then be up and building hen house, roost and laying nest, and the COST can be forgotten, for the hens and Barnes & McCullough will do the rest. They carry everything to build anything. (ad)

(a) The manufacture, sale, barter and exchange in the State of Texas, of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, or any other intoxicant whatever except for medicinal, mechanical, scientific or sacramental purposes, are each and all hereby prohibited.

The Legislature shall enact laws to enforce this section.

(b) Until the Legislature shall prescribe other or different regulations on the subject, the sale of spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors, or medicated bitters, capable of producing intoxication, or any other intoxicant whatever, for medicinal purposes shall be made only in cases of actual sickness, and then only upon prescription of a regular practicing physician, subject to the regulations applicable to sales under prescriptions prohibited in territory by virtue of Article 598, Chapter 7, Title 11, of the Penal Code of the State of Texas.

(c) This amendment is self-operative, and until the Legislature shall prescribe other or different penalties, any person, acting for himself or in behalf of another, or in behalf of any partnership, corporation or association of persons, who shall after the adoption of this amendment, violate any part of this constitutional provision shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall, upon conviction in a prosecution commenced, carried on and concluded in the manner prescribed by law in cases of felonies, be punished by confinement in the penitentiary for a period of time not less than one year nor more than five years, without the benefit of any law providing for suspended sentence. And the district courts and the judges thereof, under their equity powers, shall have authority to issue upon suit of the Attorney General, injunctions against infractions or threatened infractions of any part of this constitutional provision.

(d) Without affecting the provisions herein, intoxicating liquors are declared to be subject to the general police power of the State; and the Legislature shall have the power to pass any additional prohibitory laws, or laws in aid thereof, which it may deem advisable.

(e) Liability for violating any liquor laws in force at the time of the adoption of this amendment shall not be affected by this amendment, and all remedies, civil and criminal, for such violations shall be preserved.

SEC. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors for members of the Legislature at an election to be held throughout the State of Texas on the fourth Saturday in May, being the twenty-fourth day thereof, A. D. 1919. At said election, the vote shall be by official ballot, which shall have printed or written at the top thereof in plain letters the words, "Official Ballot." Said ballot shall have also written or printed thereon the words, "For Prohibition," and the words "Against Prohibition."

All voters favoring said proposed amendment shall erase the words "Against Prohibition" by making a mark through the same and those opposing it shall erase the words, "For Prohibition," by making a mark through the same.

If a majority of the votes cast at said election shall be "For Prohibition," said amendment shall be declared adopted. If a majority of the votes shall be "Against Prohibition," said amendment shall be lost, and so declared.

All the provisions of the General Election Laws as amended and in force at the time said election is held shall govern in all respects as to the qualifications of the electors, the method of holding such election, and all other respects, so far as such election laws can be made applicable.

SEC. 3. The Governor of the State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and to have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

SEC. 4. The sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the State Treasury, not otherwise appropriated, to defray the expenses of such proclamation and election.
