NUMBER EIGHTEEN

AT THE METHODIST CHURCH

Mr. Editor: I would not have you think that I love the Eagle any the less because I do not write often. I am certainly proud of the Eagle. It is a good paper, in a good county, in a good state.

The Methodist Church is starting out for a great year. Our congregation was up to the standard Sunday. We have received nine members since conference—more to follow. Our offering at Sunday School Sunday morning was $234.46. Our Christmas tree was a beauty loaded from the top down; there was many a glad heart. The pastor was not forgotten. Thanks to all.

Rev. Bynum says that a new car speaks louder than any words, such as "I like your preaching," "I am so glad to see you," "I certainly love you," and such like expressions. I desire to say to those good Baptists. You have done a noble act. Your pastor appreciates it, and it speaks louder than words to the people. When he passes your door in his new car, you will be glad to say: "There goes our PASTOR." When a church loves their pastor and proves it by their works, the public will love that church. No greater calamity ever befell any church than for one of the Tight Wad family to join it. I am glad to know that there are so many good people in Mills County as there are in any county of the same size in Texas.

The Methodist Church is starting in the new Conference year with a determination to make this the greatest year in the history of the church. Our church accepted their part of the $10,000,000 to be raised in the next five years as an endowment for superannuated preachers and their widows. Our church is awaking to the fact that the preacher is the one underestimated and poorly paid man, and are beginning to make good. Let the good work go on. JOSEPHUS LEE, Pastor.

A DELIGHTFUL PARTY.

One of the pleasantest affairs of the holiday season was the entertainment of the Congenial Club and guests by Mesdames V. R. Parker and George Gartman at the Gartman home, with 42 as a diversion.

Attractive house decorations of holiday nature made the affair of great charm, with the woodland foliage, poinsetta clusters and soft shaded lights in Christmas hoods, while jolly Saint Nick from the dining table smiled his approval. Favors for each guest were dainty sprays of holly and poinsetta.

After the games, in which Mrs. J. A. Gillespie scored high, a delicious refreshment plate was served to the following: Messrs. and Mesdames Frany Taylor, I. O. Harvey, J. A. Gillespie, J. M. Campbell, W. E. Miller, Marvin Rudd, Floyd Mullan of Marlin, Robt. Weaver of Lometa; Mesdames Virgil Jackson, Chas. Prizzell, Bina Oquin, Carl Keese, Lucille Morris, Misses Emily Anderson, Lucille Gartman, Eleanor Roper of Dallas, and Raymond Little.—A Guest.

CEMETERY ASSOCIATION.

The Cemetery Association will meet Monday afternoon at 4:30 at the court house. Mrs. Campbell will receive bids for cleaning the cemetery.

BYE VALLEY.

Editor Eagle:

We had such merry Christmas I'll just have to tell you about it. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hufstutler had a bountiful Xmas dinner the 25th, with all their children and families present.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Wrinkle and son, Mrs. Beaver and Ora and Grandpa and Grandma Wrinkle were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Wrinkle Tuesday, the 25th.

The dance at Coleman Burnham's Wednesday night was a joyous celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Q. MaGee had their dinner Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hufstutler and family, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Hetherly and Mr. and Mrs. John Hetherly and Adrian and Lorena as their guests.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Burnham, L. B. Jr., Leslie Burnham and wife and daughter spent Xmas day in San Saba with Paris Johnson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Hetherly came in from Breckenridge to spend the holidays with home-folks.

Little L. T. McBurnett Jr. came home from Brownwood to spend Xmas with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wrinkle. L. T. is staying with his daddy, going to school now.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hetherly gave a treat to this community Thursday, 27, in the form of an oyster dinner with heaps and heaps of goodies to go with them. Those enjoying it were Mr. and Mrs. Q. MaGee and four children, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hufstutler and family, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Burnham, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Hetherly, Mr. and Mrs. Wrinkle, L. T. McBurnett Jr., and L. B. Burnham Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Blake Forehand and family, Mr. C. T. Karnes and Mr. and Mrs. Wellie Saylor and Consoella. It was a bountiful dinner and a dance afterward enjoyed by more than a large crowd. Three cheers for Xmas and Mr. and Mrs. Hetherly. We couldn't do without them.

Most of our young people went to the dance at the Ware Ranch Friday night and had another big time, and another at Joe Morgan's Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Burnham saved their dinner until Sunday, 30th. Theo. Burnham and family, Paris Johnson and family, Leslie and Coleman Burnham and families were their dinner guests.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Karnes had a glad surprise dinner Sunday, prepared by their daughters and families, Mr. and Mrs. Blake Forehand, Mr. and Mrs. Wellie Saylor and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reid. Mrs. Karnes was rather "put out" when she thought she would have to cook beans for all but there was quite an excitement when they brought great baskets of dinner from the cars. Those enjoying the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. John Hetherly, Clifford, Adrian and Lorena Hetherly, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wrinkle and L. T., all the Karnes grandchildren and daughters and husband. Cleve Karnes and wife of San Saba couldn't be here.

The dance at Monday night held Xmas more. That is all so far.

CANDIDATES TO ANNOUNCE.

The Eagle has received the announcement of several candidates for public office this week, but on account of space these will not appear until next week.

It would be appropriate here to re-state that in political campaigns where those seeking office are of high character and there is no doubt of their satisfactorily fulfilling the duties of the office, the Eagle is absolutely neutral, leaving the voters whose privilege it should be, but seldom is, to select their choice for office. The Eagle believes that it is the purpose of a county paper to print the news, unbiased and full, without withholding or favoring any side.

Consequently, readers of the Eagle may expect the news concerning the coming election without favor to any candidate.

WHY PAY CHAMBER DUES?

Because I have pledged to do my part toward the support of the organization.

Because the other man pays his. Because the more promptly I pay my dues the better results I can look for.

Because I do not wish to accept community welfare gratuitously or as charity.

Because the Chamber of Commerce is the mainspring in making our city what we want it to be.

Because the Chamber of Commerce is active, alive, and doing things to make my city a better place in which to live and do business.

Because I owe it to myself, my family, and my business to pay my dues.

Because the Chamber of Commerce needs it.

Because Goldthwaite needs the Chamber of Commerce.—Secretary Chamber of Commerce.

GOLDTHWAITE BAPTIST CHURCH.

We had a good Sunday School last Sunday morning. There was no preaching at the morning hour on account of the pastor being at Liberty. Bro. W. T. Sparkman preached at the evening hour. At the close of the service we made him a love offering of about $16.50. Bro. Sparkman pleased the congregation with his progress in the ministry.

The Christmas program and tree was the very best. Many complimented the program, and Santa Claus was no disappointment. He brought the pastor and family, the Superintendent, and the Pianist a dandy rocking chair apiece. He has our deepest thanks. Then at the close the good old fellow had all the children that did not get a present to come to the front, and he opened up a big sack, and gave them apples, oranges and candy.

The pastor will preach at 11 on "The Kind of Men and Women the Lord Uses in His World Program." LISTEN. At the evening service we are going to show you something that many of you may have not seen in many days. Now we want you to hear this message first hand. You will never get it as it will be unless you are present. This sermon will be different from any message that we have ever preached. Members of the church and others are invited to fill the house.

Protect Your Hens

The well housed flock is the only profitable one. Feed alone will not enable a hen to produce profitably. She must have a clean house, free from damp and draughts.

The hen, like any hard worker, is entitled to a good night's rest. The injury to the flock caused by roosting in draughty or ill ventilated places is disastrous. No amount of feed will keep a flock producing if the roosting place is not comfortable and sanitary.

Let us furnish plans for a better hen house. We have many designs that will please you—and the hens.

We are always glad to give you our suggestions about lumber and building materials most suitable for your construction.

Prater passed away of Death into that glory. Life that is eternal. Faithful toiler, thy work all done. Faithful soul into glory gone. Beautiful life with its crown won.

God gives thee rest. Rest from all sorrows, and worry, and fears, Rest from all possible sighing and tears, Rest through God's endless, wonderful years— At home with the blest.

While the transition from earth to eternal reward must indeed be an occasion of unspeakable joy to one who has so lived that when the summons comes they have the blessed assurance of a loving welcome into an eternal home, it is always a time of sorrow for the loved ones left behind. Such was the condition when the end came to the beautiful life of Mrs. Ida Elizabeth Prater—a life filled with deeds of helpfulness and loving kindness. She was a devoted wife and mother, a kind and true neighbor and above all, a Christian whose life and example was helpful to those among whom she lived, and a benediction to the world that was made better because she lived in it. Truly, we of Goldthwaite who so long enjoyed her friendship and appreciated her example for good that was so beneficial to all about her can say with all confidence that "None knew her but to love her—none named her but to praise."

All during her illness, while her gentle spirit bore with patience the suffering, friends in this, her old home community, as well as the now-made friends in the city where she made her home in recent years, breathed silent prayers for her recovery and anxiously awaited tidings from her home and bedside and when the sad information was given that she had passed away, many were the expressions of love and tender sympathy for the devoted and faithful husband, and the loving daughters and other relatives, not forgetting that those outside the family circle with whom she had been associated had also suffered an irreparable bereavement.

Mrs. Prater, nee Montgomery, was born at Pittsburg, Camp County, Texas, May 21, 1855, and was married to Mr. J. T. Prater in that county June 27, 1871. Early in their married life they moved to Center City, then Hamilton County, where they lived for a long term of years and from that place they came to Goldthwaite, where they lived 26 years. In 1918 they moved to Austin, where Mr. Prater has since been employed in the State Comptroller's department and where they have a wide circle of friends.

Besides her husband, she leaves five daughters: Mrs. Myra Clark for friends to look at her face and pay their her memory.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Fairman home by Rev. Josephus Lee, pastor of the Methodist Church, of which denomination Mrs. Prater had long been a devoted and consecrated member. Rev. F. A. Tippen, pastor of the Baptist church, assisted with the service, at the conclusion of which the remains were transferred to the cemetery, followed by one of the longest processions of sorrowing friends ever seen in this city, testifying as it did to the esteem and affection in which the noble wife, mother, neighbor and friend was held by the people of this community and surrounding country, and in the procession and audience were many from other cities and communities.

At the conclusion of the solemn burial service, the grave mound was piled high with cut flowers and surrounded with pot plants, many of the beautiful wreaths and other floral formations coming as testimonials of love and friendship from people of Austin and elsewhere. It was indeed one of the most elaborate as well as one of the most beautiful floral displays ever seen in the Goldthwaite cemetery.—A Friend.

SELF CULTURE CLUB.

The Self Culture Club met Thursday afternoon in the club-room, which had been made real festive-looking in keeping with the Yuletide season. On entering each was bid "Merry Christmas" and graciously requested to register by Mrs. W. E. Miller, then given a boutonniere of poinsettia and fern.

Mrs. J. A. Hester was leader of the program, the lesson-study being "California."

Mrs. J. C. Evans read a most instructive paper on "The History and Educational Institutions."

Mrs. E. B. Anderson made us feel as if we had indeed made a trip to the Golden State in her talk on "The Scenic Wonders of California," and Mrs. R. M. Thompson's description of the Busch Sunken Garden was very beautiful.

As a diversion from the regular routine, the leader then passed pencils and cards for a contest on fruit, which was instructive as well as mirth-provoking.

Delicious refreshments were served by Mesdames Hester and Miller. We were glad to have with us again Mrs. F. I. Mullan of Marlin, a former member, also Mesdames R. M. and E. P. Thompson and J. C. Mullan.—Reporter.

Wednesday. Mr. and D. D. Trigger will speak at 11 a. m. and at 3 p. m. Sunday.

The Baptist Laymen's Association of Mills County is planning to have an all-day program in the near future. The program will be arranged and definite announcement will be made later.

County Missionary R. W. Bynum will preach at South Bennett Sunday at 11 o'clock, Plainview at 3 p. m., and Live Oak Sunday evening.

W. C. Krempin and family moved this week from Coryell County to the D. D. Kemper farm. Mrs. L. R. Hendry has been quite sick this week at her home here.

Mr. J. M. Harris of the Canadian community has been seriously ill this week, but is much improved at this writing.

Webb Perkins and T. J. Renfro of Pompey Creek community were in town Tuesday.

The good people of Mills County showed their appreciation of the Missionary, R. W. Bynum, by presenting him with a new Ford car for Christmas. Rev. Bynum is known and liked by people in all sections of Mills County.

Rev. Josephus Lee, pastor of the Goldthwaite Methodist Church, was presented with a new 1924 model Dodge car Christmas by members of that church and others. Dr. Lee is a man liked by all who know him, and probably has not an enemy in the world.

Miss Ruby Granger, a teacher in the schools at Brady, was a visitor at the Methodist parsonage during the holidays.

Miss Elsie McKenzie returned to Stephenville this week where she is attending John Tarleton College.

Miss Barbara Cryer, who is teaching in the Stephenville school, spent Christmas with her parents here.

Mrs. M. J. Leverett and granddaughter, Miss Mary B. Vaughn, left Saturday morning before Christmas for Houston and Galveston to spend Christmas.

DON'T DELAY.

Some Goldthwaite People Have Learned That Neglect is Dangerous.

The slightest symptom of kidney trouble is far too serious to be overlooked. It's the small, neglected troubles that so often lead to serious kidney ailments. That pain in the "small" of your back; that urinary irregularity; those headaches and dizzy spells; that weak, weary, wornout feeling; may be nature's warning of kidney weakness. Why risk your life by neglecting these symptoms? Reach the cause of the trouble while yet there is time—begin treating your kidneys at once with a tried and proven kidney remedy. No need to experiment—Doan's Pills have been successfully used in thousands of cases of kidney trouble for over 50 years. Doan's Pills are used and recommended throughout the civilized world. Endorsed at home. Ask your neighbor! Read Goldthwaite testimony.

Mrs. L. O. Stephens says: "I highly recommend Doan's Pills

as they have brought me a great deal of relief when my back has been sore and lame and my kidneys have been sluggish. I have bought this medicine at Hudson Bros. Drug Store and gladly recommend Doan's to sufferers of kidney trouble.

Price 60c. at all dealers. Do not simply ask for a kidney remedy, get Doan's Pills—the same Mrs. Stephens had. Foster-McBurn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Helps Those Hard Coughs.

The danger of "flu" is its tendency to develop pleurisy and pneumonia. Stop your cold before it reaches this danger point, and for the cough, and painful wheezy breathing, take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Fine also for bronchial coughs, tightness in chest and troublesome night coughs.—Adv.

FIRST HOLIDAY SEASON RECALLED BY AN EARLY SETTLER OF MILLS

The first holiday season celebrated in Goldthwaite was years ago. The village at that time had less than 500 people and was not quite four months old.

There were no church nor school buildings and no fit place for public meetings. But the children must have a Christmas tree. George Baylis offered a room about twelve by twenty feet and located over his saloon. There the tree was prepared and the occasion celebrated with the usual amount of noise and hilarity.
 Charles Beaty personated Santa Claus.

The small room was soon filled to its full capacity, but men were not wanting in gallantry and their motto was "women and children first." They quickly, gracefully and hastily made their way down stairs, where Mr. Baylis had provided seats in evident anticipation of their coming.

It had been raining. The streets were a sea of mud. There were no sidewalks and no lights. The good mothers with the aid of lanterns lead their children through the thick darkness to the little home stuck around in the brush.

Some of the husbands and fathers were left in the rest room, leaning upon the bar, winking at themselves in the back mirror and singing in bacchanalian glee,
 "We won't go home till the morning."

Such was the first Christmas in our city. Has there been improvements? Yes, as to the place of meeting and the nature of the rest rooms. But the same Holiday spirit prevails.

FAMILY REUNION HELD AT STAR ON CHRISTMAS DAY

The return of Miss Clara M.
 Bowman from Los Angeles, California was the occasion of a family reunion at the home of C. T.
 Bowman of Star on Christmas Day. Those present were Mrs.
 C. G. Campbell and daughter of Rotan, Texas; J. W. Williamson and wife and five children of Stephenville, Texas; S. V. Williams and wife and five children from Zephyr, Texas; J. E. Peck and wife and four children from Goldthwaite; F. P. Bowman, wife and three children from Goldthwaite, and Clara M. Bowman of Los Angeles, California. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shave and sons of Star.

An informal but delicious turkey dinner was served to the jolly crowd of 32 people. After dinner the men took to the field in search of quail and rabbits, but returned by the time the dishes were done and got in most of the kodak pictures.

This was the first time in fourteen years that the family of Mr.
 and Mrs. C. T. Bowman had all been together at Christmas. They have drifted far apart, and the crowd when brought together represented four different counties and two different states. Six children and eighteen grand children were present.—A Guest.

Perfect Accompaniments, too, on the Gulbransen

Soft and sweet, and in perfect time, is the accompaniment played on a Gulbransen.

A mere striking of notes would be out of place. The accompaniment must be gentle and dainty—delicately shaded—with here and there a dash of brilliancy to add color to the performance.

Playing accompaniments is a good test of an instrument—and one that when you make it, will increase your admiration of the Gulbransen.

What nimblest fingers do in playing the piano, and gaining expression, you do with a music roll and the sensitive "pedal-touch" of the Gulbransen.

This is so completely true that a new name is used to distinguish the Gulbransen from ordinary player-pianos. It is "The Registering Piano."

Please think of it, and investigate it, as such—as a piano that registers your exact touch, your time, your expression.

Think of it, also, as the only instrument that gives you the protection of the price branded in the back; as the original and only instrument with simple, complete Instruction Rolls that show a method of correct playing.

He may have units to entitle him to a standard institution; but he carries a streak that doesn't belong in the halls of learning. The only excuse is that he is yet a young cub—and young cubs will play. In that case, he is not yet ready for advanced education and ought to be debarred until he acquires a certain degree of balance, perspective and sense.

As the result of a little joke sprung by medical students of a university, the other day, it is possible that two freshmen of another university will carry scars on their faces throughout life. It was all in the regular course of a football pep celebration. School officials are said to have been painted on the faces of the overpowered boys in chemicals.

A Texas newspaper carries a report of four students who got enough brutal treatment at a State college and returned home. One little padding apiece, according to the item, had not sufficed. Repeated thrashings had been inflicted. The cause of education, as a result, lost four promising recruits who had made exceptional records during their courses in high school.

It is time for every one connected with colleges and universities to demand a clean-out or a clean-up. They should make known that the Dark Ages of education are past, that enlightened standards of good sportsmanship involve square conduct on the part of upper classmen, that true democracy among students does not imply mob license or group cowardice. Hazing has been tried in the court of long experience, and has proved itself to be without tenable justification. It has long since ceased to be amusing. It is an Achille heel for the arrows of the enemies of higher education. Students and alumni who love their school, and authorities who are solicitous of public support, would do well to rise up in arms against this evil, which works so quietly and so corruptly.

In the eyes of folks at large—and they, after all, are an important jury—hazing appears to wear too many whiskers and to wave a flag tinged with red. The verdict entitles authorities to use the iron fist, and assures them that the press and the public will give support to drastic measures.—Farm and Ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Street and family have moved to Lubbock, Texas, where Mr. Street is engaged in the cotton business. Mr. Street left the early part of last week, and Mrs. Street Thursday night. The Street family have resided in Goldthwaite for many years, where Mr. Street during all that time was one of the leading merchants, stockmen and cotton buyers of Mills County. Friends from every section of Mills and surrounding counties will regret to learn of Mr. Street's decision to make his home elsewhere, but best wishes and a cordial invitation to return to Goldthwaite will follow them.

WORD OF THANKS.

Water family, including laws and grand children to give expression to what they feel for the acts of kindness and goodness of their friends in the Austin and elsewhere on the occasion of their recent sad bereavement. Words are but feeble vehicles to convey the sincere appreciation of every member of the family for the tender sympathy and the acts of friendship of those who did their utmost to give consolation and to lift the veil that enshrouded the hearts of husband, daughters and other members of the family. Not only was this sympathy expressed with words and deeds but the lovely floral offering was a tender expression of appreciation of the beautiful life that had gone out into eternity and we would fall far short of human appreciation were we not overwhelmed with gratitude. — The Prater Family.

WAR GUN IS ASKED FOR MILLS COUNTY

If a bill introduced in Congress by Congressman Thomas L. Blanton is passed, Mills County will be given a war gun by the Secretary of War.

RAILROAD WRECK.

On Dec. 24 about 10 o'clock a. m., eleven freight cars were derailed one mile southeast of Mullin, where the highway crosses the Santa Fe track. The exact cause of the accident is unknown.

The cars that were thrown from the track were loaded with lumber and cement.

Fortunately no one was hurt in the wreck.

All section crews between Brownwood and Lometa were immediately brought to the scene and by ten o'clock p. m. the wreckage was removed sufficient to let the passenger trains pass.

However, before the wreckage was all removed, one man, Fisher Wigley, suffered a severely crushed limb.—Mullin Enterprise.

A WIDE-AWAKE CHRISTMAS PRESENT.

On Christmas night about ten o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. Wright were aroused by the cries of a baby and found on their porch a lovely baby boy about two or three months old. He is the popular baby of the town and the recipient of many useful gifts, as Santa forgot to leave a big wardrobe. However, the baby, Jack Stanley, he is now called, is happy and care-free with an appreciative smile for his foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Eaton, and turning the pages of some thirteen or twenty years we prophesy Jack thinking it a lucky Christmas of 1923 when Santa gave him such a splendid gift with the love of Mr. and Mrs. Eaton and their two children, Earl and Edith, who adore the little fellow. Jack is now blessed with the sunshine of love and a happy home.—Mullin Enterprise.

WEDDING BELLS.

Shortly after Santa Claus had jingled his merry bells at the Baptist Church on the night of the 24th of December, a young couple came to the pastorium and were united in marriage. Mr. G. D. Eddy and Miss Lilla Dempsey were the couple that made the wedding bells ring on the beautiful Christmas eve. Rev. F. A. Tippen said the words that made them husband and wife. The editor and their friends wish them a happy voyage on the sea of wedded life.

DAVENPORT-LEDBETTER.

Mr. H. S. Davenport and Miss Pearl Ledbetter were quietly united in the rites of matrimony Wednesday afternoon at the Baptist Pastorium, Rev. F. A. Tippen officiating. Mr. Davenport is the son of J. W. Davenport, and the bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Ledbetter of the Nabors Creek community. They will make their home two miles north of our city.

The Eagle and their many friends wish them happiness and success.

W. W. Condon and family this week removed to Abilene, Texas. Mrs. Condon had gone several weeks ago and the household goods were taken overland last week. The Condon family had resided in Goldthwaite for many years, and friends will regret their departure.

J. L. Ervin last week bought the J. C. Street residence here and is now busy moving into it. Former Mayor W. Lee Jones bought the Ervin home and will reside there. These are two of the city's finest residences.

WORLD'S NEWS IN BRIEF.

Unseat Mayfield?—The contest to unseat Senator Earle B. Mayfield of Texas was formally launched in Washington Thursday afternoon of this week, when the Senate passed a resolution authorizing an investigation of the Texas Senator's election. The resolution was passed after an hours bitter debate, during which Republicans and Democrats charged that Mayfield was being forced to go to trial without knowing the charges against him. Senator Spencer, chairman of the subcommittee which will conduct the investigation, announced he will hold a preliminary hearing on the Mayfield case next Tuesday morning. The resolution was probably one of the most sweeping ever enacted in the Senate.

MRS. J. T. PRATER DEAD.

Mrs. J. T. Prater, who had been seriously ill for several weeks, died at the family home in Austin last Friday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Prater, while visiting her daughter, Mrs. Walter Fairman, and other relatives here some time ago, became dangerously ill but had improved to such an extent that she was able to return to her home.

Her remains were brought to Goldthwaite on the Saturday night train and carried to the Walter Fairman home. Funeral services were held there Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Josephus Lee, pastor of the Methodist Church here, conducting the services, assisted by Rev. F. A. Tippen, pastor of the Baptist Church. The remains were laid to rest at the Odd Fellows Cemetery here; the number of citizens paying the last respects testified to the high esteem in which she was held here.

Hot Weather Forms Ice in Coal Mine

During the summer, ice is mined from a coal pit located in an eastern state. Cold air seeping through earth fissures in winter cools the rocks to a temperature far below freezing, but no ice forms because the atmosphere is too dry. At its depth the heat of summer cannot reach the vault. During warm months, the shaft becomes moist, and when coal was being dug there recently, it is said, the miners had to remove three or four car loads of ice every morning before they were able to get to their posts. As a result, the working was abandoned as a source of fuel, leaving it entirely free for use as a natural refrigerator.

Hunters Snowshoe Over Mud to Stalk Sea Game

Skis and snowshoes are used by fishermen and hunters on the islands of the North Sea to enable them to walk over the wet and slippery mud that covers the ground most of the year. With these it is possible to travel miles over the soggy ground, inhabited by sea-dogs and water fowls, much of which otherwise would be impassable. First the natives strapped big wood boards to their feet, but later it was found that the footgear used to traverse the snowdrifts was more efficient.

It is a difficult matter to catch a moth with the hands as it flies through the air. However, if the hands are moistened, the moth can easily be caught, as the nearness of a wet surface seems to have a paralyzing effect.

Artist in Diving Suit Paints Sea's Depths

Fishlike birds, and castles of coral, have been painted by an artist who, with weighted palette and a diver's helmet, has walked through the tideless lagoons of the South Seas amid forests of seaweed. On the canvas, cliffs rise sheer, mountains seem to jut at a vast distance and, in one scene, the sky stretches behind a great peak, a horizon line which is, in fact, a beach cutting across the watery heavens. The painter's work under water is done on calfskin. Fish swim about the artist while he is at work to catch the bits of detached paint. Some of these sea denizens are dangerous, among them being the tiger shark, the octopus, and the ray, giant cousin of the stingray, whose weapon is his weight—a ton and a half.

Mistletoe Is Pest in South, Festive Twig Elsewhere

While mistletoe generally is favored as a yuletide decoration, it is regarded as a pest in the Southwest, and for the past 12 years scientists have been studying a way to exterminate it. Government experts call the green spriggy white berries, an "insidious and destructive disease," because it finally

How to Clean Tools

To keep tools clean and bright rub a little mercurial ointment over them, which will form a moisture-resisting coating. Mercurial ointment is also known as blue butter. It is somewhat poisonous, so should be handled carefully. Another good mixture to keep tools from rusting is made by taking six parts of lard and one part of resin. Heat these together slowly until the resin is melted. The mixture should be heated in the open air in case of fire, and benzine added in about the proportion of one pint of benzine to half a pound of the mixture. When cool, the mixture can be rubbed lightly over the bright-steel articles. Tools thus treated will resist the corrosive action even of salt water.

Effective Method of Pulling Tree Stumps

In pulling stumps a team and one or two long chains will do the work effectively if arranged correctly. The greater the distance the stumps are apart, the easier they can be pulled.

When two stumps are situated close together, loop the chain around each stump and hook it. Twist it by means of a lever to get it as tight as possible, and hook the team on as shown. In case there is no other stump to hitch to, dig down so as to expose the main root, and after fastening one end of the chain, wind it around the stump, and under the root,

C. M. BUR
GOLDTHWAITE,

IN MEMORIAM

Travis Ross, son of Mrs. Ross, March 9, 1893, County, Texas, his parents to whom a mere reared at Pleasant Grove, converted at a meeting of the Methodist Church at this place when only twelve or thirteen years of age, and gave evidence of a regenerated life. He loved the Lord and delighted to tell of His goodness and mercy to him. While a mere boy he was stricken with epilepsy. His devoted father did everything to have him restored to his normal condition. He employed the best physicians he could get, and finally took him to a sanitarium at Temple. All efforts failed, and he was advised to place him at Abilene, where they were prepared to treat and care for those in his condition. At last his reason reeled, and finally was completely dethroned. A few days before his death it became necessary to perform a surgical operation on one of his feet, perhaps for a cancer, from which operation he gradually failed, till the end came on December 7, 1923.

His mother died when he was about two years old. He with two sisters and a brother was left to the care of the father, who exemplified all the love, patience and gentleness that could have characterized any devoted mother. Travis was our special friend, for we had known him from childhood's earliest hours. When young his intellect gave promise of one who was destined to make his mark in life. But when this sad affliction came, Travis seemed to realize what it meant to him, but as long as his mind permitted he would tell of his desire to worship God, and be submissive to His will. How sad it was for the family to give him up, but God knows best and His will shall be our will. He gave in love, he takes in love. Bless his holy name. He never leaves nor forsakes us, and by His grace the loved ones can meet him in the sweet by and by, where parting is no more.

Travis leaves a father, Mr. J. T. Ross, a good kind stepmother, Mrs. Dewey Ross, and a little half brother, Forest Ross, and a sister Mrs. Elam Berry, all of Pleasant Grove, and one brother, and dining artistically decorated colors. Elaborate arrangements of the chosen flowers were in evidence.

Covers were laid for the following guests, other than club members: Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Toland, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Jones, Mr. and Mrs. John Berry, Misses Myrtle Harrison and Lura Oquin.

Mrs. Luther Rudd, our retiring president, was presented with a handsome hand-painted vase, by the Central Embroidery Club. The presentation was made by Mrs. Earl Clements.

Following the dinner a number of interesting games of forty-two were enjoyed.

R. E. Ross, and a sister, Mrs. Hugh Moreland of Goldthwaite. His body was brought from Abilene to the home of his sister, Mrs. Moreland, in this city, and on the 9th of December a large crowd of friends followed his remains to the Pleasant Grove cemetery where his body was laid to rest beneath a bower of beautiful flowers placed on the grave by loving hands.

With Travis the conflict fought the victory won and he has entered into rest. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Shaw, of the Methodist Church.

Written by request.

J. F. Richardson called on us this week and said he expected to be a candidate on the populist ticket for public weigher this year. He is an industrious worker and is likely to make it interesting for the nomination. He presented the Eagle with some as fine radishes as we have ever seen.

Barton's Gold Mine.

A. M. Barton reports the discovery of a gold mine on his farm a few miles from Goldthwaite. The Eagle made mention of this discovery two weeks since, and considerable interest has been manifested in the subject. If the mine proves to be as rich as Mr. Barton has been led to believe, it will be a grand thing for this section. We are informed that the ore has been assayed by men of some experience who have pronounced it good, and Mr. Barton is now endeavoring to have the matter thoroughly investigated.

Dr. A. W. Barton, druggist, desires us to publish the following extract from a letter of Chas. M. Gutfeld, of Reedley, Fresno county, Cal., as he handles the remedy referred to and wants his customers to know what a splendid medicine it is: "It is with pleasure I tell you that by one days use of Chamberlain's Cough remedy I was relieved of a very severe cold. My head was completely stopped up and I could not sleep at night. I can recommend this remedy." A cold nearly always starts in the head and afterwards extends to the throat and lungs. By using this remedy freely as soon as the cold has been contracted it will cure the cold at once and prevent it from extending to the lungs.

New Hotel.

N. S. Jackson has opened a first class hotel in the King building just across from the depot. Mr. Jackson is an experienced hotel man and his table is supplied with everything the market affords. His rooms are fitted up neat and comfortable and every attention will be given to his guests. The house has been repaired and furnished within and the public will find the place in good order. Mr. Jackson has made rates reasonable for all guests. Guests will receive as good accommodations here as they will at hotels charging much higher rates. His rates to regular boarders are very liberal and he will no doubt receive a liberal patronage.

DON'T DELAY.

Some Goldthwaite People Have Learned That Neglect is Dangerous.

The slightest symptom of kidney trouble is far too serious to be overlooked. It's the small, neglected troubles that so often lead to serious kidney ailments. That pain in the "small" of your back; that urinary irregularity; those headaches and dizzy spells; that weak, weary, wornout feeling; may be nature's warning of kidney weakness. Why risk your life by neglecting these symptoms? Reach the cause of the trouble while yet there is time—begin treating your kidneys at once with a tried and proven kidney remedy. No need to experiment—Doan's Pills have been successfully used in thousands of cases of kidney trouble for over 50 years. Doan's Pills are used and recommended throughout the civilized world. Endorsed at home. Ask your neighbor! Read Goldthwaite testimony.

Mrs. L. O. Stephens says: "I highly recommend Doan's Pills as they have brought me a great deal of relief when my back has been sore and lame and my kidneys have been sluggish. I have bought this medicine at Hudson Bros. Drug Store and gladly recommend Doan's to sufferers of kidney trouble.

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mrs. Stephens had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Helps Those Hard Coughs.

The danger of "flu" is its tendency to develop pleurisy and pneumonia. Stop your cold before it reaches this danger point, and for the cough, and painful wheezy breathing, take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Fine also for bronchial coughs, tightness in chest and troublesome night coughs.—Adv.

Severe Indigestion

"I had very severe attacks of indigestion," writes Mr. M. H. Wade, a farmer, of R. F. D. 1, Weir, Miss. "I would suffer for months at a time. All I dared eat was a little bread and butter. . . consequently I suffered from weakness. I would try to eat, then the terrible suffering in my stomach! I took medicines, but did not get any better. The druggist recommended and I decided to try it, for, as I say, I had tried others for two or more years without any improvement in my health. I soon found the Black-Draught was acting on my liver and easing the terrible pain.

Thedford's BLACK-DRAUGHT

"In two or three weeks, I found I could go back to eating, I only weighed 123. Now I weigh 147—eat anything I want to, and by taking Black-Draught I do not suffer.

Have you tried Thedford's Black-Draught? If not, do so today.

$100,000 PEACE PLAN PRIZE AWARDED

Advocates Entering World Court and Cooperation With League Without Full Membership at Present—Suggests League Membership Be Opened to All Nations and Provides for Development of International Law.

The American Peace Award brought forth 22,165 plans and many thousands of letters. Since many of the plans were the composite work of organizations, universities, etc., a single plan often represented the views of hundreds or thousands of individuals. The content of these plans is therefore an index of the true feeling and judgment of hundreds of thousands of American citizens.

These plans come from every group in American life. Some are obviously from lifelong students of history and international law. Some are from persons who have studied little, but who have themselves seen and felt the horror of war—or who are even now living out its tragedy.

But among them all are these dominant currents: that, if war is honestly to be prevented, there must be a face-about on the part of the nations in their attitude toward it; that by some progressive agreement the manufacture and purchase of the munitions of war must be limited or stopped; that while no political mechanism alone will insure cooperation among the nations, there must be some machinery of cooperation if the will to cooperate is to be made effective; that mutual counsel among the nations is the real hope for bringing about the disavowal of war by the open avowal of its real causes and open discussion of them; and finally that there must be some means of defining, recording, interpreting and developing the law of nations.

Statement of Jury of Award

The Jury of Award realizes that there is no one approach to world peace, and that it is necessary to recognize not merely political but also psychological and economic factors.

The only possible pathway to international agreement with reference to these complicated and difficult factors is through mutual counsel and cooperation which the plan selected contemplates. It is therefore the unanimous opinion of the Jury that of the 22,165 plans submitted, Plan Number 1469 is "the best practicable plan by which the United States may co-operate with other nations to achieve and preserve the peace of the world."

It is the unanimous hope of the Jury that the first fruit of the mutual counsel and cooperation among the nations which will result from the adoption of the plan selected will be a general prohibition of the manufacture and sale of all materials of war.

The Question to Be Voted Upon

The substantial provisions which constitute the plan selected by the Jury of Award, and upon which the vote of the American people is asked, are hereby submitted by the Policy Committee as follows:

I. ENTER THE PERMANENT COURT

That the United States adhere to the Permanent Court of International Justice for the reasons and under the conditions stated by Secretary Hughes and President Harding in February, 1923.

II. COOPERATE WITH THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS, WITHOUT FULL MEMBERSHIP AT PRESENT

That without becoming a member of the League of Nations as at present constituted, the United States Government should extend its present cooperation with the League and propose participation in the work of its Assembly and Council under the following conditions and reservations:

Safeguarding of Monroe Doctrine

1. The United States accepts the League of Nations as an instrument of mutual counsel, but it will assume no obligation to interfere with political questions of policy or internal administration of any foreign state.

In uniting its efforts with those of other States for the preservation of peace and the promotion of the common welfare, the United States insists upon the safeguarding of the Monroe Doctrine and does not abandon its traditional attitude concerning American independence of the Old World and does not consent to submit its long established policy concerning questions regarded by it as purely American to the recommendation or decision of other Powers.

No Military or Economic Force

2. That the only kind of compulsion which nations can freely engage to apply to each other in the name of Peace is that which arises from conference, from moral judgment, from full publicity, and from the power of public opinion.

The United States would assume no obligations under Article X in its present form, or under Article XVI in its present form in the Covenant, or in its amended form as now proposed, unless in any particular case Congress has authorized such action.

The United States proposes that Articles X and XVI be either dropped altogether or so amended and changed as to eliminate any suggestion of a general agreement to use coercion for obtaining conformity to the pledges of the Covenant.

No Obligations Under Versailles Treaty

3. That the United States will accept no responsibilities under the Treaty of Versailles unless in any particular case Congress has authorized such action.

League Open to All Nations

4. The United States Government proposes that Article I of the Covenant be construed and applied, or, if necessary, redrafted, so that admission to the League shall be assured to any self-governing State that wishes to join and that receives the favorable vote of two-thirds of the Assembly.

Development of International Law

5. As a condition of its participation in the work and counsels of the League, the United States asks that the Assembly and Council consent—or obtain authority—to begin collaboration for the revision and development of international law, employing for this purpose the aid of a commission of jurists. This Commission would be directed to formulate anew existing rules of the law of nations, to reconcile divergent opinions, to consider points hitherto inadequately provided for but vital to the maintenance of international justice, and in general to define the social rights and duties of States. The recommendations of the Commission would be presented from time to time, in proper form for consideration, to the Assembly as to a recommending if not a law-making body.

Author's Name Not to Be Revealed Until After Referendum

In order that the vote may be taken solely upon the merits of the plan, the Policy Committee, with the acquiescence of Mr. Bok, has decided not to disclose the authorship of the plan until after the referendum. The identity is unknown to the members of the Jury of Award and the Policy Committee, except one delegated member.

Investigate Before Building

An economical way to build is to be certain of the material that goes into the construction of your home. See that you have dependable lumber. Time wasted by the carpenter in re-working "bargain lumber" often offsets the saving you make in the original purchase. In addition you may not have lumber that will stand the test of time. To be certain of having uniformly dependable material let us furnish Long-Bell trade-marked lumber. We will be glad to offer you our many plans of beautiful and inexpensive homes, and our building aid and service, developed in years of building experience.
