JESSE LOWE ANNOUNCES FOR COMMISSIONER OF PRECINCT NO. FOUR

Jesse Lowe this week authorized the Eagle to announce his candidacy for Commissioner of Precinct No. 4, subject to the action of the Democratic primary in July.

Mr. Lowe announces for re-election, he having efficiently and satisfactorily served the people of that precinct for the past year. He, consequently, feels that, having thoroughly familiarized himself with the duties of the office and the conditions and needs of the various roads in his precinct, he is now able to be of better service to his constituents than were he a new candidate for the office.

Mr. Lowe has built some fine roads within the past year and states that he is now in a position to build better roads.

He requests the vote and influence of all his friends in his precinct and assures them that should he be elected, he will do everything in his power to satisfactorily conduct the duties of the office.

A Message To All Gold Star Mothers

MRS. ELIZABETH N. BUSWELL, of Boston, a Gold Star mother who recently returned from France as a member of the second group of the Good Will Delegation, sends this message to all Gold Star Mothers:

"Let me tell every American mother who wears the Gold Star—as two of us Good Will Delegates did—not to worry for fear her boy's grave in France is not properly tended. I want you to realize that the graves of our boys in France could not be better or more lovingly cared for if you tended them with your own hands.

There are no signs of neglect. The cemeteries are simply beautiful. They are having such care as can only come from gratitude and devotion. In time the white wooden crosses will be replaced with small stones of uniform design each bearing the name and regiment of the soldier sleeping beneath."

Mrs. Buswell and the other Gold Star mothers, Mrs. Anna Chambers, of Cincinnati, were accorded special honors everywhere. The Good Will Delegates decorated the graves of American soldiers in all the cemeteries visited.

MILLS COUNTY CREEK NAMES.

Bulls Creek is a tributary of Colorado River. It has its source at Goldthwaite and carries most of the flood waters that fall in the city. It was first called Turkey Creek from the great number of wild birds of that name. Early land surveyors in making field notes of lands surveyed by them would call for Turkey Creek. In about 1860 Ambrose Bull, his family and slaves came from Arkansas and built homes three miles southwest of this town at the springs known as Bulls Springs. This was the first settlement made in the neighborhood and the creek soon took the name of this pioneer family. Owing to the fine water and other conveniences this place became a famous camping place for travelers and stockmen. At the dry season it afforded the only water between Elliotts Creek and Williams Ranch.

Prescotts Creek drains the country west of Goldthwaite and empties into the Colorado just below the Big Valley. It received its name from another pioneer who made his home in the "upper part of Lampasas County" in the late fifties. The family erected a log cabin not far from where John Hendricks now lives, and some of the family remained there till about 1880. One of the sons resided in Kimble County a few years ago.

An outlaw named Longley killed a negro at Prescott's corral just after the Civil War.

Assurances have been received from De La Huerta, the Mexican revolutionists' leader, that he had definitely abandoned his projected blockade of the port.

COURT UPHOLDS PATENT SALE

U. S. Suit Against Chemical Foundation Dismissed by Judge Morris.

CONSPIRACY CHARGE FAILS

Conduct of Chemical Foundation Praised in Use of Former German Patents for Benefit of American People.

Wilmington, Del.—In a sixty-two page decision which swept away every one of the Government's major contentions as being without basis in fact or law, Federal Judge Hugh M. Morris dismissed its suit to set aside the sale of seized chemical and dye patents by the Alien Property Custodian to the Chemical Foundation, Inc. The decision rebuked the Government for including in the bill of complaint a series of conspiracy charges unsupported by evidence at the trial and refuted by the defense as well as by documents filed by the Government.

In declining to compel the Foundation to restore the disputed patents, numbering some 4,700 and bought for $271,000, from the Government, Judge Morris held there was no evidence bearing out allegation of a conspiracy by American manufacturers to effect a monopoly through the Foundation. The court ruled that there was no evidence of fraud or deceit practiced on President Wilson, Mr. Polk, Under Secretary of State; Attorney General Palmer and other high officials of that Administration.

Garvan's Course Upheld

The opinion praised Francis P. Garvan, president of the Foundation, and his trustees, as having met the most severe of tests in their conduct of the Foundation—"the test of actual trial." They were declared by the court to afford, through their high integrity and unquestioned patriotism, a thorough assurance of loyalty to their trust. "It has kept the faith," said the court of the Foundation's work.

Judge Morris found without merit the Government's contention that the criminal laws were violated in that Mr. Garvan, as Alien Property Custodian and thereby a public trustee, sold to himself as president of the Foundation the patents in question. He had acted by direction of President Wilson and his acts, supervised by the President under the latter's wide war powers granted by Congress, could not be brought to court. Congress had not delegated legislative powers to President Wilson, as maintained by the plaintiff, and the courts could not pass judgment on the wisdom or lack of wisdom of Presidential war acts.

Judge Morris recited that although Colonel Thomas R. Miller, present Custodian, who had approved two of the sales involved, verified the complaint, in his testimony he admitted that he could not enumerate any of the facts alleged to have been withheld and suppressed from him.

"In view of this testimony and the obvious fact that the power to charge persons with fraud and conspiracy is a weapon with which serious remedial injury may be done to innocent persons if such charges are lightly made, it is difficult to understand why the specific charges to which the foregoing testimony relates were made," wrote the court. "Yet the remaining like charges were equally lacking in evidential support. In fact, at the argument, the plaintiff seemed no longer to press these charges against the persons alleged to be conspirators, but it sought to have the charges sustained as against the officers of the Government who formulated and carried out in the public interest the plan of sale. While I know of no case where by implication of law the duty of clearing itself from imputed fraud rests upon the defendant, yet the defendant has met even this burden."

Holds Wilson Had Full Power

While the Trading With the Enemy Act at first merely authorized custodianship of German properties in this country, it was later amended, recalled the Court, to give power of sale under such conditions as the President, in the public interest, should determine upon. In effect, this made the President, as agent of the nation, possessed of powers as broad as though he were absolute owner of the seized properties. Under the provisions of the act, the President was empowered to make any conditions of sale he considered necessary in the circumstances.

The sales in dispute were not made by the Custodian in his capacity as a common-law trustee, but under the extraordinary powers devolving upon him as the President's representative, under the act. "Because of the unusual powers vested in the President by the act, no means follows that the Custodian, acting under supervision and direction of the President, may not do so," held the Court. "Obviously, the primary purpose of the act was the protection of the nation, not the benefit of the enemy. The trust was for the benefit of the nation—a public, not a private trust. The statute requires the President to consider the public interest. Public interest is not a synonym for money."

In this relation Judge Morris quoted from President Coolidge's message to Congress on the Muscle Shoals problem, that "while the price is an important element, there is another consideration even more compelling. . . . If this main object (low-priced nitrates for farmers in peace and the Government in war) is accomplished, the amount of money received for the property is not a primary or major consideration."

Referring to German-owned property, the court said:

"Much of this property was not innocently held or held solely for trade and commerce. Information acquired by German-owned companies had been transmitted to Berlin, and there indexed and made available to German competitors and the German Government. The files of one company were filled not with business papers, but with pan-German literature. It was a distribution centre for propaganda in this country."

Upholds Confiscation of Patents

Judge Morris pointed out that when America entered the war she adhered to the international convention forbidding poison gas, "but it soon became apparent that America would be fighting on disastrously unequal terms unless she should make use of all the dread weapons being used against her by the foe. When Germany persisted in her attempts to destroy her opponents with poison gas in contravention of all international agreements, she made it manifest that America's future safety lay in America's chemical independence. The amendment to the act was passed in the darkest days of the war (allowing the sale of seized properties). It was thought Paris was about to fall and the Channel ports be taken." These were the circumstances, said the opinion, "which impelled Congress to grant the President the broad powers of almost absolute ownership. It was the intent of Congress to subordinate mere property rights to the welfare of the nation."

Of the value of the patents sold, Judge Morris held, in accordance with the testimony, that while Dr. Carl Holderman, a German, asserted the Haber patents were worth $17,000,000 to the Germans, "the evidence is overwhelming that they were and are without substantial affirmative value to American citizens. Had these patents been sold to Americans at public rather than private sale and only the net proceeds paid to their former enemy owners these owners would have suffered an almost total loss in the value of their property."

Praises Work of Foundation

As to allegations that the sale was not to obtain a fair value, but to promote the interests of the chemical and dye industries and that the transaction was in legal effect granting a subsidy to private industry, the Court commented, "this challenge to the motives of the officers making the sale is supported. I think, neither by the facts nor the law. Mr. Polk determined the public interest would be best served by a wide use of the inventions covered by the patents. If the property was sold under terms and conditions that assured its being devoted to the public use it matters not what benefits or detriments may have flowed as incidents therefrom."

"The property is in the keeping of men who have in its management no selfish interest to serve and whose devotion to the public interest has been established," continued the opinion. "No better plan for devoting the property to public use has been suggested. The plan has stood the most severe of all tests—actual trial. The defendant has kept the faith. This it has done, not only by granting licenses in furtherance of the purposes for which it was chartered, but also at its great expense, by distribution of books and pamphlets showing the national necessity for practical development of chemical science in America. If, perchance, those heretofore engaged in the industries have derived an incidental advantage from the plan, that incidental result cannot invalidate a transaction fully consummated in the public interest. The same charge would lie against the validity of every tariff act. . . . The sale was in effect to America and its citizens, not to those then engaged in chemical and allied industries."

Judge Morris ruled that if the executives entrusted by Congress with power of sale acted within the scope of that power "their acts are not subject to judicial nullification or invasion by the courts to

LAW MAKES NATURALIZATION SIMPLIER FOR OLD WAR VETERANS

District Clerk Mrs. Etta Keel has received the following communication from Raymond F. Crist, Commissioner of Naturalization:

To all Clerks of Courts exercising naturalization jurisdiction:

Please refer to circular letter of this Bureau dated August 4, 1919, advising in regard to the naturalization by means of certain expeditious proceedings of honorably discharged aliens who served in the military or naval forces of the United States during the World War.

Provision for naturalization by means of such expeditious proceedings was made by the Act of Congress approved July 19, 1919. This law authorizes the naturalization of World War veterans of the above description without complying with many of the usual requirements for naturalization, such as a declaration of intention, proof of five years residence in the United States, payment of the customary $4 filing fee, and the usual 90-day wait from the date of filing petition to the date of final hearing. As a condition to naturalization under this special statute, the applicant must appear before a Naturalization Examiner with his honorable discharge and two identifying witnesses for preliminary examination.

Particular attention is invited to the provision of the act of 1919 that its benefits will continue in force only for a period of one year after the return of all of the American troops to the United States. The one-year period will expire on March 3, 1924, by reason of the fact that the last of the whether the public interest required the property be sold otherwise than under the statutory conditions prescribed and to set aside the sale should the judgment of the court be different from that of the President would be a judicial nullification not only of the President's act but also of the act of Congress conferring on the President the power to determine what the public interests required. What the public interest requires depends upon the conditions existing in the nation. Courts do not understand the 'state of the Union' and as, I apprehend, are not equipped to ascertain it. . . . The statement of the reasons actuating the President does not make his act any the less an act of discretion. It is conceded the President cannot be brought into court to substantiate his reasons. The statute does not require him to disclose to the purchaser the evidence upon which his reasons were based. The statute does not limit the Executive in the assignment of reasons to such as may be supported by legal evidence or by facts available to the public."

American troops were returned to the United States on March 3, 1923. After March 3, 1924, honorably discharged World War veterans will have to comply with the usual requirements for naturalization, in the same manner as aliens in ordinary cases.

Ex-servicemen in this locality who wish to obtain advantages of this act before its expiration should get in immediate touch with the nearest U. S. Naturalization Examiner so that the necessary arrangements may be made for that purpose, and so that he may vote in the elections this year.

Of Interest to Santa Fe Patrons

Have you compared after-the-war prices of what you buy and sell with those of a pre-war normal year—say, 1922 with 1915?

Santa Fe System Lines have made such a comparison, and you will be interested in the result:

The Santa Fe System sells transportation only, but buys steel, fuel, lumber and all kinds of building and construction material; and is a very large user of labor.

The Santa Fe System received in 1922, $1.45 for hauling the same amount of freight the same distance that it received $1.00 for in 1915, and $1.60 for hauling a passenger the same distance it received $1.00 for in 1915. Or, combining freight and passenger, it received $1.50 for the same service it received $1.00 for in 1915, the increase being 50 per cent.

The Santa Fe System paid $2.11 for the same quantity of fuel that $1.00 paid for in 1915; $1.77 for the same quantity of materials and supplies, other than fuel, that $1.00 paid for in 1915; $2.22 for the same number of hours of labor worked in 1922 as $1.00 paid for in 1915. Aggregating all operating expenses, it paid in 1922, $2.05 for the same number of hours worked and same quantity of materials and supplies as it paid $1.00 for in 1915. It paid $2.90 in taxes in 1922 for every $1.00 paid in 1915.

Santa Fe System employes received an average annual compensation in 1922 of $1.81 for every $1.00 received in 1915, and the cost of living of such employes was $1.62½ in 1922 for every $1.00 in 1915.

Freight rates and passenger fares cannot be reduced until taxes and the cost of operation are reduced.

Cost of operation cannot be substantially reduced until the price of labor and material is reduced. And the price of labor and material cannot be reduced until the cost of living is reduced.

Editor Eagle:
The new year found us all back in school, teachers and pupils, and are moving along nicely with our school work.

No Sunday school last Sunday; some sickness and cold weather the cause.

Miss Wilma Miller has been very sick this week. She is suffering from a severe cold and tonsillitis. We all hope she will soon be able to be back in school with us.

Some measles scattered around but none in the Valley yet that we know of.

A few weeks ago the girls' basket ball mysteriously disappeared from the school house. We have been hoping they took it just for fun and would soon return it, but it has not been brought back yet. We would sure be glad to have it returned.

The school has their indoor baseball now and are getting along fine playing baseball.

Otto Sykes and wife from Ballinger are in the Valley visiting relatives, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Sykes and Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Reed.

Floyd Sykes, who has been attending school at Winters, came home last Saturday. Think he means to stay with us.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Forehand have moved out near Stanton to take up ranch life. We regret very much to have these good people leave us. We hope they will like their new home.

Quite a number of the Big Valley people went to Brownwood Sunday to hear Bro. Truett preach. All enjoyed the sermon and thought it well worth the 40 mile drive.

The young people were entertained at the school house last Friday night. Every one had a most enjoyable time.

Bro. Walker will preach for us Sunday and Sunday night.—Whimksy.

CHURCH.

We have but little to say about the services last Sunday. We had Sunday school, two preaching services and the B. Y. P. U. The crowds were as small as the weather was cold, but not as small as we have seen on cold days. The B. Y. P. U. crowd was as large as usual. The fact of the business the B. Y. P. U. is becoming the liveliest organization of the church.

Next Sunday morning we are going to start something. The future only will reveal how far it will go or succeed. Come out and see what it is. If you do not like it, do your best to kill it on the spot. If you like it, help to make it go.

The Church needs your presence and prayers as much as your money. The subject for 7:15 will be "Beginning at Home."

American Food Package
Kin of Sufferers in Germany
Opportunity To End Distress

TO many of those persons of German extraction who now make their homes in America, Germany is still visualized as a land of plenty, with bountiful food supplies and healthy inhabitants. They are unable to convince themselves of the changes wrought by years of stress.

Germany has undergone a metamorphosis (terrible to contemplate). Undernourished men and women twitter to their daily toil—when there is work to be had—and the children are as those of another and less sturdy race. Bloom has gone from young cheeks and the rickety laughter of childhood has given way to piteous appeals for food.

America has interested herself in the suffering population of Germany. A committee headed by Major General Henry T. Allen is co-operating with the American Friends Service Committee (Cockers) to see that the mouths of Germany's children receive nourishment. And now, the urge of humanity has moved the American people to take further steps to alleviate her distress. General

Allen's committee has provided an agency whereby any resident of America may send food to distressed relatives or friends in Germany. It is a food package department. This bureau, upon receipt of $10, will send to any individual in Germany a package consisting of 119 pounds of nourishing food—more than could be purchased for an equal sum in Germany and some of it unobtainable at any price over there.

This package consists of 49 pounds of flour, 25 pounds of rice, 10 pounds of sugar, eight pounds of cooking fats, three pounds of cocoa and 24 tins of evaporated milk.

Imagine what it will mean to a starving person in Germany to receive this assistance!

The packages will be sent upon application, in person or by mail, to the American Committee for Relief of German Children, Room 925, 42 Broadway, New York City.

This is an opportunity not only for Americans of German extraction to succor distress but for everyone to respond to a plea from a stricken people.

CORPUS CHRISTI, TEX.

To whom it may concern:
 This is to certify that the old year of 1923 slipped silently away and the first thing we knew we were writing 1924 with now and then using the eraser to rub out 1923 which in spite of us, slip up, on the point of the pencil. With the going out of the year 1923 many sad thoughts came to us of departed friends, among whom was a brother we dearly loved, and quite a few others who bid fair to live longer than some of us who still hang on by the brittle threads of (sometimes) a very uncertain existence.
 Notwithstanding these afflictions, trials and disappointments that have placed all of us somewhere on the string, the good things of life have very largely outweighed the bad, so we think we should take courage, take a new hold on life with much gratitude in our hearts to Him who has held out hands full of blessings which He has held in reserve to fulfill the many promises to those who trust Him and are willing to move out, to meet the future with the hope of a better life, as we go forward in anticipation of a reunion some time, somewhere, with those who have gone on before.

Through the Eagle I wish to express my sympathies to all who have passed under the rod of sorrow and bereavement and extend to all my appreciation of their remembrance of me during the holidays, and wishing every one a happy prosperous new year. The good people are not all dead and I am sure many of them live in Mills County. May God's richest blessings be meted out to all. As I write many of your names come to my mind and I would love to name you one by one, but space and a disturbance of the patience of the editor warns me to desist.

We have been having rain until the roads were impassible and the farmers failed to get in their usual truck crops that have heretofore furnished the people east and north of us with early vegetables. We have had two frosts, a very light skin of ice with natural gas being piped all over the city, furnishing the people fuel and lights at less than half what it has been costing. We have had the promise several times of severe winter weather.

But when the lowering clouds from a northern clime, hovered over our Southland and as if with thoughts sublime, seemed to say, "How can we afford with our chilling breath send these beautiful gardens and flowers an untimely death?" So they folded their wings and poised at God's command and withdrew their chilling breath from this fair Southland.

Perhaps wondering if our people would give God the praise for his wonderful blessings given out in so many ways. The weather may vary predict and the north winds put on their show.

But when they reach the land of flowers the warmth meets the blow.

And the children go out barefoot in the street.

While those further north battle with the ice and the sleet.

I thank you for your patient hearing. If you want any more just sing it yourself. Success to all.

H. C. COBB.

BE RID OF THAT ACHE.

If you are a sufferer with lame back, backache, dizziness, nervousness and kidney disorders why don't you try the remedy that your own neighbors recommend? Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. N. B. Allen, Goldthwaite, says: "I was so bad off with kidney trouble I couldn't get out of bed without help. The pains I endured were severe and I had headaches, that were so bad I could hardly see. It felt like pins and needles going through my head, and I was so nervous I jumped at the least noise, and everything irritated me. I got so dizzy at times everything turned black in front of me and I had to catch onto something, as I was afraid I would fall. I had trouble with the action of my kidneys, which was irregular and my hands and feet swelled twice their size. I went through this suffering until I heard of Doan's Pills and got some at Clements' Drug Store. After I had finished the first box the swelling went down and my back started to get strong. My kidneys were regulated too and five boxes of Doan's entirely cured me."

The Bright Side

The Customer Had One.
 "Yes, sir," said the barber, "my poor brother Jim has been sent to an asylum. He got to brooding over the hard times, and it finally drove him crazy. He and I worked side by side, and we both brooded a great deal. No money in this business now, you know. Prices too low. Unless a customer has a shampoo, it doesn't pay to shave or hair-cut. I caught Jim trying to cut a chap's throat because he declined a shampoo, so I had to have the poor fellow locked up. Makes me sad. Sometimes I feel sorry I didn't let him slash. It would have been our revenge. Shampoo, sir?"

Teacher—"Johnny, what are the two genders?"
 Johnny—"Masculine and feminine. The masculines are divided into temperate and intemperate and the feminine into frigid and torrid."

"Lost your job as a caddy?" said one boy.
 "Yep," replied the other. "I could do the work all right, but I couldn't learn not to laugh."

Settled for Life.
 "Oh, my good man," said the democratic pastor to the indigent looking individual sitting on a bench, "I think we could find a place for you in church work."

"Thank ye, sir," replied the other, "but I already have no place in church work."
 "And what is that?"
 "I'm one of the poor and needy."

Old Lady—"Can't you do something to stop those dogs fighting?"
 Urelin—"Not until I see if me dog's goin' ter get licked."

Proctic Justice.
 The chairman of the gas company was making a popular address. "Think of the good the gas company has done," he cried. "If I were permitted a pun, I would say in the words of the immortal poet, 'Honor the light brigade.'" At this point a consumer jumped up with the shout: "Oh, what a charge they made!"

The boat had suddenly stopped, when a passenger rushed up to the captain and said, "Why has she stopped?"
 "Too much fog," replied the captain, "can't see the water."
 "But," said the passenger, "you can see the stars overhead."
 "Yes," said the captain, "but we ain't going that way unless the boiler busts."

Lawyer—"Well, what shall we ask for—trial by judge or jury?"
 Client—"Take the judge, doc. I've done plumbing for nearly everybody in this town."

A Sad Case.
 I have to have a job, am man 32 years old, intelligent but married. Phone Travis.—Classified ad in the San Antonio Express.

"Johnny, you've been fighting again and lost all of your teeth."
 "Naw, I got 'em all in my pocket."

First Steno—"The idea of your working steady eight hours a day! I would not think of such a thing!"
 Second Steno—"Neither would I. It was the boss that thought of it."

"What is the surest cure for love at first sight?"
 "Second sight."

ROCK SPRINGS.

Editor Eagle:
 It has been a long time since we have fed the old bird.

From some cause we failed to get any news to the Eagle during Christmas. I think everybody had a fine time. We had lots of entertainments all through Christmas week.

Mr. J. H. Hale moved from Rattler to W. J. Stark's farm. They gave a singing Sunday night. Sure had some good singing. We hope to have more through this year.

Mr. Earl Davis lives on Mrs. M. E. Faulkner's place. We are glad to have all of our new neighbors in our midst.

Mr. J. T. Robertson made a flying trip to Dallas last week. Mr. Joe Roberts and family visited in the Nickols home Saturday night and Sunday.

Paul Templin fell from a wagon load of wood Saturday and broke his limb just above the ankle. He was taken to Brownwood to have it set. We are glad he is home and doing so well.

Mr. Darius Ledbetter and family visited her mother, Mrs. Montgomery, last week.

Phillip Nickols spent the week end with J. A. Stark down on the Bayou.

Rev. J. R. Davis spent Sunday at Mr. J. T. Robertson's.

There wasn't any Sunday school, prayer meeting or B. Y. P. U. Sunday.

Mr. J. C. Stark and family have moved back to their farm. We are glad to have our old neighbors back too. Mrs. Stark is with her daughter, Mrs. Ray Davis, who was very sick last week. Our school is progressing fine. We had a dandy program Christmas, also a Christmas tree and a real Santa Claus, who brought candy to all the little fellows. The tree was real pretty; had everything on it from a box of snuff to a great big doll who said mama.

Glenn Nickols has gone down on the border with Carl Moreland to buy hides for Mr. Hugh Moreland of Goldthwaite.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Lowe spent Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Eula Nickols.

Mr. J. W. Roberts has been real busy canning meat and turnips. All the farmers are plowing. We will try not to wait so long again to feed the old bird.—Xyz.

News 25 Years Ago

FROM THE GOLDTHWAITE EAGLE, JAN. 28, 1899.

Mullin.—Dr. Kirkpatrick has been sick for several days, but is better now. Mullin is on quite a boom now. Three new houses are going up and there are not enough houses here to supply the people who wish to have here and take advantage of our school. Henry Bros. have bought an interest in the building formerly used as a beer saloon and have moved their stock of dry goods and groceries into it. Young Robert Huffman, near the Bayou bridge, who was so severely burned a few days ago, is thought to be improving, and chances for his recovery are better.—Dewey.

Sunday morning between 4 and 5 o'clock the familiar alarm "fire" was heard over the town and the people awoke to see the railroad depot in flames. The building and contents and one car were destroyed.

P. G. Palmer of Antelope Gap was a visitor to the big town Thursday.

J. H. Mullins lost a very fine black mare from colic Wednesday night.

The Fifth Sunday meeting at Big Valley commenced yesterday evening and will continue over tomorrow.

Rev. Johnson preached at Mullin last Saturday night and Sunday.

Postmaster James of Regency was in town yesterday.

Home Butts was a visitor to this city from Mullin Wednesday.

Mrs. W. H. Thompson and sons of Brownwood arrived in the city yesterday for a visit to relatives.

The grip is still going the rounds and very few families have escaped it entirely.

Rev. Evans preached a powerful sermon to the young people Sunday night.

J. C. Street has been at Star a part of this week attending to some business.

Asa Hufstutler was one of the Mills county stockmen who attended the Galveston convention.

Elder W. P. Marrs and family left Sunday for Stephenville, where they will reside in future.

Dr. Beasley has returned to Center City from his farm in Navarro county.

W. H. Trent, cashier of the First National Bank, has just purchased a typewriter and has it in position on his desk.

Last Friday afternoon the clothing on Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Cockrum's two-months-old baby caught fire and it was next to a miracle that it was not burned to death.

Monday night Mr. H. A. Watson who lives about two miles north of the city, had the misfortune to lose about three hundred bushels of corn and a neat hog by fire. The corn was in a barn on the Will Wells place.

Mrs. Earl Webb and twin boys returned to Ranger last Monday, after a two weeks' visit with relatives and friends here.

Perfect Accompaniments, too, on the Gulbransen

Soft and sweet, and in perfect time, is the accompaniment played on a Gulbransen.
 A mere striking of notes would be out of place. The accompaniment must be gentle and dainty—delicately shaded—with here and there a dash of brilliancy to add color to the performance.
 Playing accompaniments is a good test of an instrument—and one that when you make it, will increase your admiration of the Gulbransen.
 What nimblest fingers do in playing the piano, and gaining expression, you do with a music roll and the sensitive "pedal-touch" of the Gulbransen. This is so completely true that a new name is used to distinguish the Gulbransen from ordinary player-pianos. It is "The Registering Piano."
 Please think of it, and investigate it, as such—as a piano that registers your exact touch, your time, your expression.
 Think of it, also, as the only instrument that gives you the protection of the price branded in the back; as the original and only instrument with simple, complete Instruction Rolls that show a method of correct playing.
