School Commencement Programs Attract Large Audiences

A LARGE NUMBER OF GRADUATES

The 1928-29 session of the Goldthwaite Public Schools came to a close last Friday night, with the final exercises of the commencement and the delivery of diplomas to the graduates of the High school.

The past session has been one of the most successful and satisfactory in the history of the school here and the results were decidedly pleasing to all who are interested in the school and the community. Superintendent Newton and his corps of teachers are entitled to the readiest amount of credit for his most satisfactory condition and the people are not slow to express gratitude to them. Nevertheless, the school board, the parent-teachers club, the patrons and the pupils are all creditable for a share in the result. Nothing could be more helpful to a community than a good school system, where all harmony and where good results are obtained from every trade, where every one connected with the system has one and is doing everything for the advancement of the school and in the interest of the pupils. That is the condition in Goldthwaite and great praise should be given every person and influence that has had a part in bringing about its delightful result.

The closing exercises were begun with the baccalaureate sermon on Sunday, May 5, and it was a activity thereafter until the closing night. The early part of the week was taken up with the examinations and on Thursday night the commencement program for the Grammar school was given at the Methodist church, when a large number of the pupils, supervised by Mrs. Joe A. Palmer, principal of the Grammar school, assisted by the teachers of that department, participated in a most interesting program, at the close of which promotion certificates were presented. The program as presented included the following outline.

It was agreed that the first luncheon should be prepared for Friday, May 24, at noon, and Friday night, June 14, should be designated as Charter night. While the committee in charge will outline details, it is now proposed to have a large number of guests, both of home folks and Lions of neighboring towns to be present and take part in the program on Charter night.

The object of Lionism is civic improvement and advancement and it is hoped and believed that many more Goldthwaite citizens will take part in the club and share in its activities. Many of those expected to become members have not yet been approached on the subject, as the organizer could not see them all, while nearly all of those who were solicited by the organizer accepted. Every member of the club, which is not a secret order but a civic club, will solicit and be glad to receive applications for membership.

PROCEEDINGS OF DISTRICT AND COMMISSIONERS COURT

DISTRICT COURT

District court has been in session again this week and while there has been a lot of interest in the proceedings, but few cases have been called.

Court opened Monday morning with Judge DeWitt Bowmer of Temple serving as district judge in the trial of a case in which Judge Brewster was disqualified by reason of having acted as prosecuting attorney in the case when he was district attorney. This was the case of the State vs. Preston Marler, charged with theft. The trial consumed a good part of Monday and resulted in a verdict of not guilty.

The case of the State vs. Calvin Dalton was next called for trial and was still in the hands of the jury when the Eagle was put to press. The taking of testimony was completed Wednesday afternoon and the argument of the attorneys was completed yesterday before noon. The court room was packed during the progress of the trial, many being present from different parts of the county, as well as a large delegation from this city and from the South Bennett community.

The cases of Lee Simpson and Carl Williams have been set for next Thursday and it is understood Judge Bowmer will again preside, as Judge Brewster will be disqualified under the same circumstances as in the Marler case.

The Bradley Weathers case, which was expected to go to trial yesterday afternoon, was continued to Wednesday of next week.

The case of Duke Harmon, charged with forgery, was called yesterday afternoon and after hearing the evidence the court instructed a verdict of not guilty.

Court adjourned yesterday afternoon until Monday, but

COMMISSIONERS COURT

Commissioners court has been in session this week and as the May term is one of the heaviest of the year the work had not been completed at the time the Eagle was put to press, altho the members of the court expected to finish last night or this morning.

In order to prevent the quarantining of the county by the live stock commission it was necessary for a sheep and goat inspector to be appointed and H. M. Weston was named to that position.

The delinquent tax rolls have been checked and approved at this session of the court.

The highway license money for the month was divided as follows: Precinct No. 1 received $180.48; No. 2 received $73.90; No. 3, received $86.47 and No. 4 received $52.43.

The court canvassed the returns of the election of school trustees in Mullin independent district and declared John Guthrie, Willard Mosier, A. G. Weston and J. A. Holland elected.

In the election for county trustees it was found that R. C. Duren was elected for precinct No. 3, while J. M. Spinks and Tom Graves tied for trustee at large. The other precincts do not elect until next year.

The court was busy yesterday going over the tax renditions and will doubtless set a date for the sitting as a board of equalization before the closing of the session.

TELL THE NEWS

The best friend a local newspaper has is the one who sends in most local news and helps to make the paper interesting to its readers.

Judge Brewster will remain in the city until he receives a report from the Dalton jury.

POOR OLD DAD

We hear of Mother in song and story
Nor do we covet her well-earned glory
But the thing that always makes me sad,
We seldom hear of poor old Dad.

The cars are many he has to bear,
What Mother, Bill, Jim and Nell shall wear.

Of food galore he has to think,
For places they go he furnishes the chink.

His style of clothes may not be the best,
But the son's and daughter's must equal the rest.

The countless cares that crowd upon him,
Do you wonder his spiritual light grows dim?

If his purse, his brawn and his mind
Are truly uplifting those of his kind

If they show in their hearts the true spirit of love
Dad has the joy that is born from above.

To him there is no higher joy
Than noble life and purity of his girl and boy.

Not pity he wants; that makes him sad,
'Tis love for the heart of faithful Dad.

Tho' multiplied cares may make him dizzy
For religion he seems almost too busy

He must remember those he loves
Must be led by him to Heaven above.

Sometimes he may be as mute as a mouse,
Our God has made him the head of the house;

Whether he leads them upward or down,
Will be his shame or his crown.

PRIDDY-PATTERSON

The marriage of Ray Priddy and Miss Lillian Patterson was solemnized at the Methodist parsonage in this city Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, Rev. S. D. Lambert officiating and only a few intimate friends witnessing the ceremony.

The marriage was not a surprise to the friends of the young couple, since the fact of the building and furnishing of the residence for them at Priddy was known to a large circle. However, all who know them are glad to offer congratulations and good wishes to the excellent young couple, who belong to two of the oldest and most prominent families in the county.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Priddy of the Priddy community. He grew to manhood at Priddy, where he has the confidence and esteem of all who know him.

The bride is a daughter of Judge L. E. Patterson of this city. She has been engaged in teaching in the school at Priddy since completing her education and holds a high place in the estimation of the people wherever she is known.

The young couple left for their home in Priddy after the marriage ceremony, carrying with them the best wishes of everybody.

METHODIST CHURCH

The usual preaching service may be expected at the Methodist church next Sunday morning on account of the tremendous audience that will by that time be attending the Baptist meeting. Our service is very important for Methodists and we look for a full house. Strangers and visitors are always welcome, but it is hardly expected that we will have many while Dr. Hudson is delivering such fine sermons at the Baptist tabernacle. We are happy to suspend all of our services but the Sunday school and the morning service and we are counting on all Methodists attending the revival meeting in great numbers. Go not merely to listen, but to join in the singing and the praying and otherwise serving the Master. "One is your Master even God" is true today as in the day of the apostles and we cannot afford to desert ourselves otherwise. Answer the call of duty and be where God desires you to be and your life will be happy in its fruitfulness.

Your pastor has heard the evening services thus far at the Baptist tabernacle and will continue to do so when duty does not demand his presence elsewhere. Dr. Hudson's sermons of these evenings have been straightforward, forceful and clear. (God's Message to His People). With a program like this, Methodists or other Christians can hardly afford to fail in co-operation.

S. D. LAMBERT, Pastor.

BUILDING PROGRESS

The contractor on the Grammar school building is making good headway on the new structure and this week commenced the work of demolishing the old building, which has stood on the campus for thirty five years, or thereabouts. Some of the material in this building will be used in the new house and a part of the stone will be crushed for use in the cement for the new building. Indications are that the new building will be ready for occupancy by the time of opening the school in the fall.

PARTY GIVEN TO BRIDE

Miss Lilla Harvey, a bride of the season, was honored at a lovely party given by Miss Mildred Stephens in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Stephens.

Carnations of pink and white carried out the chosen color scheme and made the rooms lovely for the affair. These colors were also noted in the score cards, table pads and the refreshment plate, which consisted of a salad and sweet course.

The hostess presented the honoree with a handsome linen cloth of Madina.

Those enjoying this special occasion were Mr. and Mrs. John Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Frizzell, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Brim, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Steen, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Burch, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fairman; Messrs. Jack Rudd, Paul McCullough, Raymond Little, Blake Hudson, Wever Leigh; Mesdames Mark Fairman, Fred Martin, D. H. Rudi and Misses Norma Frizzell, Vera Berry and Lilla Harvey.

A GUEST.

DON'T BE WASTEFUL

Economy is a most praiseworthy trait and one that should be practiced by everybody, be they rich or poor. Not only is it a duty to one's own interest to be economical, but the example to others is important. This is not to advise niggardliness, but a saving of resources where it can be done without going to an extreme. It has been said that if you "take care of the dimes the dollars will take care of themselves" and this is true to an extent. Even postage and stationery can be wasted and while they cost but little, that amount will eventually reach a considerable sum if it is not watched carefully. Take as an example the habit of writing communications to newspapers—The Eagle and other papers—without letting the publisher know the identity of the writer. That is not only extravagant, but is absolutely foolish wastefulness. Such communications are never published.

EX-STUDENTS MEET

The Ex-Students association met in the high school auditorium Friday, May 10. Twenty four new members (the senior class of 1928-29) were added to our membership and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Mrs. Chaud Eacott.
First Vice President—Mrs. Duke Clements.
Second Vice President—Miss Love Gatlin.
Third Vice President—Mrs. Sparks Biggam.
Sec. Treas.—Mrs. Claude Salor.
Reporter—Miss Virginia Kerfoot.

A PROMINENT VISITOR

Dr. P. C. Ragsdale of Brownwood was a visitor in Goldthwaite Tuesday and was a pleasant caller at the Eagle office. He is an optometrist by profession, but his specialty is teaching a Sunday school class. He has been a teacher of the men's class in Brownwood First Methodist church for 46 years and is known throughout all this section as one of the most able and best qualified teachers in Southern Methodism. He has a very desirable faculty of holding the interest of the members of the class and now has an average attendance of 70 men. The Eagle editor had the pleasure of being an active member of Dr. Ragsdale's class for two years and is still an honorary member of that organization.

REV. G. C. IVINS

REV. M. E. HUDSON

PROF. JOHN M. GARY

REVIVAL IN PROGRESS

The revival in progress at the Baptist tabernacle is one of the most interesting held in this city in a long time. The attendance has been good from the start and the interest is fine. Rev. Hudson did not arrive for the Sunday services, but they were held by the pastor, Rev. Ivins, who laid the ground work for a great revival.

One of the most attractive features of the revival is the song service. Mr. John M. Gary, is director of music. Mrs. Gary, with him and renders wonderful assistance in specials, as well as helps in the direction of music. Mr. and Mrs. Gary were here two years ago, and rendered splendid service and the suggestion has been frequently made that they are even better qualified and sing better than on the occasion of their former visit, which is evidence that the song service is as fine as could be and is appreciated by everybody.

Rev. M. E. Hudson is doing the preaching and those who have heard his strong sermons so ably delivered are fully delighted with them and are united in their praise of Rev. G. C. Ivins, the pastor, for having secured him as a helper.

The services are held each morning at 10 o'clock and each night at 8 o'clock. This will be the regular schedule for week day services while the Sunday services will be held as usual, i. e., Sunday school in the morning, preaching at 11 o'clock, the young people's organizations in the afternoon and preaching again at night.

The people of the town and surrounding country, regardless of denominational lines, are taking interest in the meeting and indications are that the interest will grow as the meeting progresses. Rev. Ivins announced at the outset a desire for the co-operation of all the people and the preacher has emphasized this idea.

Arrangements have been made for the comfort of all who attend the services and a great meeting is anticipated.

TO ALPINE AND BACK

"The End of a Perfect Convention."

Mrs. Genie Griffin DeWolfe arrived in Goldthwaite Monday full of enthusiastic praise for the Big Bend country in general and Alpine in particular, after a week spent on "The top of Texas." Mrs. DeWolfe said: "The 36th annual convention of the Texas Woman's Press Association was the best in both attendance and entertainment of any held in ten years. Alpine has a wonderful setting, one of the most splendid hotels in the State, unusual educational development, being the site of Sul Ross College, and citizenship that shows hospitality eclipsing anything we have yet experienced."

Breakfast was the only meal we had to dig down into our conglomeration of powder puffs, vanity cases, fountain pens, etc., to find the coin to pay for, and as I quit the breakfast habit long ago all my food was gratis.

From the banquet tendered us on President's Evening by the Rotary Club, with its president presiding 'til the old time dance at the court house Saturday night everything was free.

It would take a volume of new adjectives to express and describe the "feast of reason and flow of soul" at each of the affairs tendered us and the only lack we experienced was lack of time for business sessions, which had to be cut short in order to attend the luncheons, dinners, teas, etc., prepared for us. (I would not dare step on the scales after so many enticing desserts.)

The San Antonio Express, in giving an extensive account of this convention gives much credit to Mrs. DeWolfe, who was chairman of the credentials committee for the convention and among other things, says of her:

Genie Griffin DeWolfe, dubbed by Mrs. William Christian "the woman with the fairy tale name," gave her very deep thoughts of science and poetry, to a very attentive audience at the Sul Ross College audi-

AERIAL MAP

To the Editor:

No action has yet been taken with regard to placing our town on the aerial map of the country.

This becomes more necessary each day, as aerial travel, mail and commercial transportation is going forward quite rapidly. The town can hardly afford to remain off this map, as it makes us appear quite indifferent to the great progress and development of this new means of transportation.

How about the Lions' club or the Chamber of Commerce taking up the promotion of this rapidly growing enterprise. All that is needed is a few dollars to put over the job.

The Postmaster's subscription to this enterprise is ready and waiting.

Let's put it over.

Mrs. DeWolfe was wildly applauded when she finished her address with the dedication of "cowboy" poem to Alpine.

Mrs. DeWolfe also delivered an address on Saturday afternoon on "Kinship of Science and Poetry."

She is indeed enthusiastic over the convention and the section of country in which it was held.

HOW APPLES APPEAR

After copying an article that appeared in the Eagle last week regarding the aptitude of apples to move about in a barrel, when hauled over a rough road and the bigger ones come to the top, while the small ones seek the bottom, State Press of the Dallas News takes issue with the position and says:

Here is a case where contention might be carried to the nth degree. State Press admits he doesn't know how far up or down the nth degree goes, but he has seen many references to the nth degree, and supposes it is the ultimate extension of excessive height, depth or distance. Passing that, although it is very interesting, we come back to the apples. Is it in fact possible for the little apples in a barrel to work their way to the bottom when transported from orchard to cider mill over a jolty road? This column will stake its entire ownership of household and kitchen furniture on the issue, and say it can't be done. In filling a barrel with apples, taking orchard run, the little ones and big ones are tumbled in heterogeneously. Every one takes its own space. There are no interstices from top to bottom. It is all apple, from bottom to top. Now, if gravity should by any chance overcome compactness, it would be the big ones which worked from top to bottom. The Missouri farmer mentioned by the Goldthwaite contemporary, being Missourian, probably will have to be shown. State Press would take pleasure in showing him if there were a barrel of apples at hand. As there is none, the Missouri farmer will have to supply it. Let him ship the demonstration barrel, full of demonstration apples, express prepaid and plainly addressed to S. P., and the latter will convince him by showing him that the big ones work down, if any.

CLASS ENTERTAINS

The Fidelis class entertained Miss Virginia Sappington last Friday evening at the home of Miss Lois Sullivan.

Preparations were in order when several members with the teacher arrived to make last minute arrangements.

The feature of the evening was the supper laid ready when the rest of the members arrived.

It was said to be one of the biggest feasts ever prepared by the class. We don't know about that, but we know our teacher is one of the best cooks in the county.

The following enjoyed the occasion: Misses Georgia Frizzell, Vera Berry, Mildred Steph-

It costs very little to recondition a MODEL T FORD

THE Ford Motor Company is making a new car, but it is still proud of the Model T. It wants every owner of one of these cars to run it as long as possible at a minimum of trouble and expense.

Because of this policy and because of the investment that millions of motorists have in Model T cars, the Ford Motor Company will continue to supply parts as long as they are needed by Ford owners.

So that you may get the greatest use from your Model T, we suggest that you take it to the nearest Ford dealer and have him estimate on the cost of any replacement parts that may be necessary.

You will find this the economical thing to do because a small expenditure now will help to prevent costlier repairs later on, increase the value of the car, and give you thousands of miles of additional service.

For a labor charge of only $2.60 you can have your generator put in first-class condition. A new universal joint will be installed for a labor cost of $3. Overhauling the carburetor costs $1.50; steering gear, $3.50; radiator, $7.50. A complete overhauling of the rear axle assembly runs between $5.75 and $7 for labor. An average price of $22.50 covers the overhauling of the motor and transmission.

These prices are for labor only because the need and number of new parts depend on the condition of each car. The cost of these parts is low, however, because of the Ford policy of manufacturing and selling at a small margin of profit.

TEXAS LEGISLATURE

Austin, Texas, May 15. (UP) Time for reconvening the State legislature which must end its second session of the year by next Tuesday will be left to the wishes of the members.

Governor Moody is willing to let them decide whether to come back at once or to take a rest between sessions. Members generally seem to want from one to two weeks between sessions to go home and look after private business.

When this session adjourns next week, the legislature will have been in session 90 days this year. The regular session was 60 days. The first special session apparently is going to run the full 30 days, the maximum for a special session.

The second special session may not last long. There is no minimum time limit. The only provision for special sessions is that they must not last more than 30 days.

If the governor submits only taxation revenue and appropriations, as many members desire, the special gathering may be short. The finance committee of the senate has approved bills ready. The house will have its bills ready either at the opening of the session or a few days later. The only task will be to make the two agree. The chief difference in the tentative bills is that the senate has made larger appropriations in some instances and has made lump sum appropriations for the educational institutions. Where the senate appropriates a lump sum for operation of a school, the house bills specify so much for a professor of economics, so much for another professor, and so on through the list.

Rep. T. N. Mauritz of Ganado plans to re-introduce his income tax, gas tax, intangible tax, insurance tax, and increased sulphur tax bills at the next session. If defeated again, he will seek to get a popular expression on them.

Adjustment of highway funds promises one of the big fights of the second session. While imposed as a registration fee, which properly should be the amount only necessary to pay the cost of registration, number plates and keeping records of motor vehicles, the registration fee is in actuality a big part of the fund used for highway maintenance. How much of the highway funds should come from this and how they should be divided between the state highway commission and the county commissioners' courts have been fought over in recurring sessions of the legislature.

If the legislature is called back for the second special session within 24 hours of final adjournment of this session, it will save the state the mileage allowed all members for returning home and coming back to Austin. If more than 24 hours elapse before the next session, they are entitled to the mileage costs.

A second special session is not unusual. There were four in 1910, the 31st legislature, and four for the 35th and 36th legislatures. Three extra assemblies were called during the 33rd and 38th legislatures. The present body is the 41st.

QUALITY OF TEXAS COTTON CROP

At Austin the other day the Texas Cotton Committee canvassed the problems of all immediately concerned in the cotton industry, from growers to spinners and oil mill operators, and the judgment seems to have been that, of all those which stand in the way of its welfare, that of retrieving the favor Texas cotton formerly enjoyed is the most important. It used to be that the Texas cotton crop ranked so much above the average in grade and staple that it had a preferred access to the markets of the world. Some of that advantage has been lost.

The cause, it seems to be agreed, is to be found in the planting of inferior varieties of seed, especially the so-called half-and-half variety, which yields a short staple. It was stated at Austin that, whereas in 1925 the planting of the half and half variety amounted to 12 per cent of the whole, it had increased to 18 per cent in 1928.

The partiality shown for it by the farmers is due to their belief that it is more prolific than the seed of better variety, and also to the fact that the longer staple does not always and everywhere, in primary markets, command a higher price than is paid for the shorter staple yielded by half-and-half seed.

As to the belief in its greater productivity, the farmers seem to have it credited with much more superiority than it has, to say the least. D. T. Killough, cotton expert of the Texas experiment station service, is reported as saying that experiments at fourteen stations showed that the longer staple came within a few pounds of yielding as much as the half-and-half variety. That testimony is corroborated, and more than corroborated, by experience in the cotton growing contests carried on by The News. There is thus good reason for thinking that, if the inferior cotton is the more productive, it is very much less so than the farmers imagine, and certainly not enough to compensate for its lesser value.

There seems to be no reason why the production of better cotton should entail the production of less cotton. But, even if improvement of the Texas crop could be accomplished only at the expense of quantity, the change would be profitable.—Dallas News.

No trouble to figure your wants and your business is appreciated.

Entered in the Postoffice at Goldthwaite as second-class mail.

President Hoover has selected Dwight F. Davis of St. Louis, former secretary of war, to be governor of the Philippine Islands, according to authoritative reports in diplomatic circles.

Thirteen persons, including four women, their husbands, and five other men, were allowed $500 bond each following a Somervell county dry raid in which six stills and a large quantity of liquor and mash was taken. Their hearings were before A. P. McCormick, U. S. Commissioner in Waco Wednesday.

Former Governor Joseph D. Sayers, died at his home in Austin Wednesday, aged 88 years. He had been too ill for more than a month to go to the capitol, where he served as a member of the state pardon board since Governor Moody's first administration. He was the oldest state official, having been born Sept. 23, 1841. He had served as Lieut-Governor, congressman and governor of Texas.

Eighty-two bodies were recovered and many others were believed dead at Cleveland, Ohio, Clinic Hospital, wrecked by three explosions and swept by fire Wednesday. More than 100 persons were believed injured. Flames which swept the five-story building immediately after the explosions were believed to have trapped many others. It was said 200 persons were in the structure when the blasts occurred.

The Potter county grand jury is hearing testimony in the cases of two women charged with murder Tuesday in the fatal shooting of Mrs. Grace Morrison, of Plainview, who was shot to death in front of a downtown hotel. The women are Mrs. L. P. Stallworth, wife of a Fort Worth and Denver railroad brakeman, and her mother-in-law, Mrs. E. M. Stallworth, both of Amarillo. They are being held in the county jail, neither having made bond. The shooting, which was witnessed by a number of persons, is said to have been the result of the alleged friendliness of Stallworth for Mrs. Morrison.

Still another chapter must be written in the story of Mrs. Rebecca Bradley Rodgers before her connection with the robbery of the Farmers National Bank at Buda in December of 1926 can be settled and a legal "finis" written. After two special venues of approximately 250 had failed to yield a jury for her retrial in La Grange District Judge Jeffrey ordered a change of venue. He said he would announce the place to which the case will be transferred as soon as the defendant's bondsmen arrive. The judge made his decision when he found a jury could not be completed out of the 90 taxmen called. Only three remained and the jury lacked four of being complete.

A continued search was under way through the Trinity River bottoms yesterday for persons still clinging to tree tops from the flood which hit that area Monday. Five bodies have been found. A report from the weather bureau indicated the entire section from Riverside to Liberty along the Trinity may experience a flood menace in a few days. Over this area, a distance of more than 100 miles by the winding river and affecting five East Texas counties, the muddy stream was reported running close to the top of its banks in many places. Near Goodrich, where the five bodies, all negroes, were recovered, the Trinity river and Long Cana creek, still were so high that motor boats were needed to face the swift current and effect rescues.

FARM RELIEF

(County Agent W. P. Weaver)

Grade and Staple Cotton Report

Samples of all cotton ginned at the J. E. Greathouse Gin, No. 2, Goldthwaite, Texas, was sent to the Government for classification and the following report sums up their findings. Staple, 13-16 inches and under — 55 or 11.48%

Staple, 7-8 inches and under, 202 or 42.18%
Staple, 15-16 inches and under, 192 or 40.08%
Staple 1 to 1-1-32 inches and under, 30 or 6.26%
Total tenderable 7-8 to 1 1-32 inle. 424 bales or 88.52%
Total untenderable, 55 bales

This is the classification of Mills county cotton by Government experts and shows that the farmer loses on grade and staple cotton by street selling. However it may be said in justice to the local street buyers that they cannot give correct classification as the higher ups will not accept such. The local buyer is not benefitted by the discrepancy in these gradings but the exporter. Farmers suffer by preferring a system of marketing that penalizes them in this fashion and they are fully aware of it. Farm Relief will come slowly to those that hang on to antiquated systems of marketing their products.

Round Worms in Poultry

Did you know that the simple remedy for round worms is tobacco dust? And did you know it costs only 17 cents per pound, and that one pound is enough to mix with 50 lbs. of feed? Then why not swat the round worms before they infest your young turkeys and hinder development and you have to market No. 2's. Mix tobacco dust with feed in the proportion of 1 pound to 50. Feed the mixture a week or ten days and skip a week or ten days.

Other Poultry Pests

Constantly fight lice, mites and blue bugs. Chicks and the young turkeys cannot thrive if infested with these enemies. Apply louse remedies to the hens and young turkeys and chicks. Watch constantly for their appearance. Treat the walls and coops with carbolinium or some other preparation for blue bugs. Theat the walls of poultry houses and suspend the perches on wires.

Chiggers do much damage to young poultry at this time of year. Watch for them and take prompt measures. Approximately 30 per cent of the turkeys marketed at Goldthwaite last season were graded below No. 1's. The round worm probably caused 90 per cent of this loss. This loss is easily preventable. Fight them now.

WATER CUT OFF

On account of making some repairs in the water mains, it will be necessary to cut off the water all day Sunday, beginning at 8 o'clock. All users of city water are notified that they may make necessary provisions.

FOR THE MATRON

Smart originality of line distinguishes this frock which is especially suitable for the fashionable matron. The fronts of the blouse and skirt are crossed, and the skirt hangs in a cascade at the left side, giving a smart suggestion of flare. The long-waisted effect achieves slenderizing lines. For town and travel, this frock is stylish and practical in heavy flat crepe or seersucker. If a Summer frock for the country club or resort is desired, it is attractive rendered in a pastel shade of crepe-de-Chine, or in a light printed silk. Contrasting trimming-bands and cuffs constitute a smart finish.

It is now 10 p. m. Please excuse me from writing a longer letter.

Good night, FARMER.

SHEEPMEN HOPEFUL
 A report from San Angelo says that the sheepman of Southwest Texas is smiling one day and the next day he is not feeling so well, for the year has brought its ups and downs. It appears, however, that he is in for his fifth year of prosperity. One smile comes from the fine range conditions, although at the first of the month there was a complaint from south of Sonora and near Mason that rain is needed.

COMMUNITY ORGANIZATIONS

Organization of abilities and resources of a rural district is somewhat like building a dam across a river and impounding the water and harnessing it to furnish power.

There are many agencies of the State and county whose function is to be of service to rural people, yet in many respects much of their benefits are not utilized because there is no medium through which those needing these services may be reached. Among the most important of these agencies are those relating to the public schools, industrial and vocational work among the boys and girls, and lastly but by no means least, the services of the State Department of Health.

The community club is the means of connecting rural districts to these agencies which now exist and which are able, ready, and willing to serve, without cost or expense, if only given the opportunity. The community club is the power line, as it were, which connects the State and County Department of Education, the Extension Service of the University and the A. and M. Colleges, and their staffs of specialists, the county agents and vocational teachers and the State Department of Health with the rural homes—Farm and Ranch.

CARD OF THANKS

It is with grateful hearts we express to our friends of Goldthwaite and elsewhere our sincere appreciation for the many acts of kindness and sympathy during the dark hours of our bereavement. We know and realize that everything that mortal hands and hearts could do was done and we are thankful beyond expression of words for all kindnesses and thoughtfulness. May the All-Wise Father reward you all abundantly in our prayer.
MRS. P. G. PALMER and Family.

Harry Allen and family went to Santa Anna Sunday to attend a reunion of the J. A. Allen family. All members of this family formerly lived in Goldthwaite and have many friends here.

MOTHER

(This piece composed and read by Miss Helen Thompson of Big Valley, at Mother's Day program May 12. Please publish in the Eagle.)

It is true to nature, tho' it be expressed in a figurative form, that a mother is both the evening and morning star of life. The light in her eye is always last to set upon the man's day of trial. She wields a power, more decisive far, than syllogisms in arguments or courts of last appeal in authority.

In cases where there has been no fear of God; where his love has been unfelt; and his law outraged, a mother's affection and tenderness has held transgressors by the heart strings and been the means of leading them back to virtue and to God.

Heaven has imprinted in the mother's face something unknown to this world, something which claims kindred with the skies—the angelic smile, the tender look, the waking watchful eye which keeps its fond vigil over her child.

Mother—our first love, a part of our religion!

Nature has set mother on such a pinnacle that our infant eyes and arms are uplifted to it. We cling to it in manhood. We worship it in old age.

Can a mother's love be supplied? No! A thousand times no! By the deep earnest yearnings of our spirit for a mother's love, by the restless, unsatisfied wanderings of our affections, ever seeking an object on which to rest. By instinctive discernment of the true nature of maternal love from the false. By the hallowed emotions with which we cherish in the depths of our hearts the vision of a grass-grown mound in a quiet grave yard among the mountains. By all these we answer no!

Oh, there is an enduring tenderness in the love of a mother to her son that transcends all other affections of the heart. It is neither to be chilled by selfishness nor stifled by ingratitude. She will sacrifice every comfort to his convenience. She will surrender every pleasure to his enjoyment. She will glory in his fame, exult in his prosperity, and if misfortune, and if disgrace settle upon his name, she will still love and cherish him in spite of it, and if all the world cast him off, she will be all the world to him.

Alas! how little we appreciate a mother's tenderness while she is living. How heedless we are of her anxieties and kindness. But when she is dead and gone, when the cares and coldness of this world come withering to our hearts, when we experience how hard it is to find true sympathy, how few to love us for ourselves, how few will befriend us in misfortune—then it is we realize a mother's true love.

The Christian mother especially can deeply plant and genially cherish the seeds of truth in our hearts.

Mothers live with their children as if they were to leave them in a cold and inhospitable world all alone.

They guide the little ones to him who is pre-eminently the God of every one and who has inspired his servants to say: "Though father and mother forsake me, the Lord will take me up."

FELT BAD AFTER EATING

"FOUR YEARS ago, I suffered with heartburn and bilious indigestion. Whatever I ate disagreed with me. Gas on my stomach made me very uncomfortable. My tongue was coated and my color was bad. I needed a good laxative, and so my mother-in-law gave me some Black-Draught and told me to take it. I found it helped me very much, so I bought it for myself. Seems it was the very thing I needed. It is a fine family remedy, and I use it when I need something for constipation. I also give Black-Draught to my children whenever they need something for colds or upset stomachs. Our whole family takes Black-Draught."

Lower, Delivered, Completely Equipped Prices

FOR those who like to be out and going—top down—nothing but blue skies above—Nash designers built three smart "400" Cabriolets.

With the top up and windows raised, they are luxurious closed cars—with the top down and windows either down or up, they are smart open cars. All have a big, comfortable, roomy rumble seat.

The Standard Six Cabriolet is one of the most popular cars in its price field, because it combines the smart open-top motoring vogue with Standard Six performance superiority.

It has a big, high compression, 7-bearing motor for power and speed—"400" steering for the world's easiest driving—Lovejoy hydraulic shock absorbers, for cushioned smoothness over all kinds of roads.

The Special and Advanced Six Cabriolets are distinguished by such "400" features as the new Twin-Ignition motor, Bijur Centralized Chassis Lubrication—press a pedal, your car is oiled—Lovejoy and Houdaille hydraulic shock absorbers.

And, every "400" model comes from the factory equipped with bumpers, hydraulic shock absorbers, spare tire lock and tire cover, at no extra cost. Some dealers, charge as much as $50 or $60 extra for bumpers alone.

Compare these Cabriolets to others, then compare their fully equipped, delivered prices. You'll see the advantage in buying a Nash!

WHICH ARE YOU?

The bones in the body
Are two hundred or more;
But for sorting our people
We need only four.

Wish-bone people:
They hope for, they long for,
They wish for and sigh;
They want things to come, but
Aren't willing to try.

Funny-bone people:
They laugh, grin and giggle,
Smile, twinkle the eye;
If work is a joke, sure
They'll give it a try.

Jaw-bone people:
They scold, jaw and sputter,
They froth, rave and cry;
They're long on the talk, but
They're short on the try.

Back-bone people:
They strike from the shoulder,
They never say die;
They're winners in life, for
They know how to try.

Middle Life
Troubles

"About twenty years ago, my health
was very bad," says
Mrs. Mat Howard,
of Terrell, Texas.
"I was passing through a critical time in my life, and I suffered a great deal. I was not at all strong, and my
nerves got all upset.
I had hot flashes,
and sometimes would get suddenly so faint I could not stand up. My head would whirl, and I could not see a thing. I would have to lie down for hours at a time."
"I improved so much after I had taken Cardui for a while.
I continued the medicine for some months, until I had passed the critical period.
Since then, I have given Cardium to my five daughters. All of them have continued the use of Cardui in their homes.
We have all been better for having taken it."

FORMER PASTOR VISITS

Rev. Joseph Davee, formerly a citizen of this city and now a resident of Brady, has been here this week visiting relatives and friends. He has been active in the ministry for almost half a century and is a most consecrated man who has the confidence of all who know him. He expects to hold a revival or two before he returns to his home.

Work is progressing satisfactorily on remodeling the Harris store building and transforming it into the opera house to be occupied by the Dixie Theatre. Mr. Pence expects to have it ready to move in by June 1 or sooner. The improvements being put in will make it an ideal place for entertainments.

Marion Stephens and wife of San Angelo spent the week-end here in the home of his parents,
Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Stephens.
His sister, Mrs. Meador, accompanied them home and will go from there to her home in Mexico.

T. P. Priddy was here from Priddy the early part of the week, transacting business.
