Mills County Fair A Wonderful Success and Great Benefit

Large Crowds Attend Every Day

Many of those who attended the Fair here last Thursday, Friday and Saturday pronounced it simply wonderful—the exhibits, the arrangement, the races, the entertainment and everything connected with the 1929 Fair.

From the hour of opening last Thursday until midnight Saturday there was not a dull moment on the grounds, yet everything was orderly and pleasant. There was no drinking or conduct offensive to the most refined. Good fellowship and pleasant associations characterized the gathering from start to finish.

In the main exhibit hall there were fine arts, farm and garden products, exhibitions of culinary arts, needle work and other products of domestic science, while the farm and garden products were as fine as will be seen in any exhibition in this state.

The livestock exhibition was far beyond the most sanguine expectation of those in charge and some of the animals will compare favorably in the biggest fairs and will take prizes in competition with animals of their kind. The fact is, there are no better animals anywhere than a number of those exhibited here—bred and grown in Mills county. Some of them have been awarded premiums and blue ribbons at other times and the entire showing was a credit and an advantage to Mills county and this part of Texas.

The farm and garden products prove beyond a doubt the soil in this section will produce as fine crops as can be grown in any part of the world, while the fruit displayed was ample evidence that Mills county is in the center of the finest fruit belt yet discovered.

The entertainment at the auditorium was also a credit to the county and the fair association, as well as to those taking part and contributing to the programs.

The first day's program was devoted to the Confederate soldiers and their entertainment. Local speakers, including Revs. Kelley, Ivins and Lambert, were heard by large audiences and their talks were appreciated by the friends of the old soldiers as well as by the members of Jeff Davis Camp. Lieut. J. H. Dixon of the Camp was presiding officer on that day and everything passed off delightfully.

Thursday night the entertainment by local talent, supervised and arranged by Mrs. John Berry was well up to the standard established and maintained by Mrs. Berry and her helpers in these annual entertainments. There was vocal and instrumental music, readings and other modes of entertainment, not forgetting to mention the interesting portion of the program by the physical culture and dancing class of Mrs. Lon Smith, nee Estel Grundy, of Brownwood. It was all just as pretty and well timed as could be and the immense audience enjoyed every number from start to finish and encored again and again. If there was any portion of the entire three days program more worthy of special mention than another surely it was this part and Mrs. Berry and her helpers have the thanks of everybody.

Friday was old settlers day and Hon. Phil H. Clements was the presiding officer, with Wm. Dennard assistant. There was a good program for the day, including an address in the forenoon by Judge W. F. Robinson of Austin and one in

EVIDENCE OF GROWTH OF THIS CITY AND COUNTY COMING AND GOING OF SOME PEOPLE WE KNOW

Many Improvements Noted

Another evidence of growth and expansion of the business portion of Goldthwaite, as well as the constant development of the town and country, is the installation this week of an additional section of lock boxes in the postoffice. The increased demand for boxes, especially since the raising of the grade of the postoffice, made it necessary to add another section to the service. G. W. Jackson, owner of the post-office building, had the boxes put in position Wednesday.

Work on the new Grammar school building is progressing nicely. The brick work has already been completed and the roof is being put on, after which the doors and windows will be put in, the floors laid and everything will be in readiness for the fall session of school. An inspection of the building shows that the School Board selected plans wisely and the building will be a credit to the town and a great advantage to the school system.

Work has begun on the frame work for the garage building to be erected on the north side of the Saylor Hotel, to be used by the Saylor Chevrolet company. The building will front on Fisher street and extend the entire length of the hotel building, the east portion of the ground floor of which will be used as a display room and office for the Chevrolet company.

The afternoon by Dean Davis of John Tarleton college.

Officers for the Pioneer association for the next year were elected, as follows: P. H. Clements, president; Wm. Dennard, vice president; Mrs. F. N. Irwin, treasurer; Mrs. L. B. Ashley, secretary; L. B. Burnham, T. Robertson, Wm. Uhrbach, Mrs. Eli Fairman, Mrs. Chas. Rudd, H. G. Forehand, J. L. Herrington, J. D. D. Berry and W. D. Marshall, trustees.

Saturday was another interesting day at the auditorium. Homer C. DeWolfe, representative in the legislature from this district and attorney of this bar, was master of ceremonies for the day and he delivered an interesting address in the forenoon and this was followed by a program pleasing to those who gathered at the auditorium.

One of the most attractive features of the fair was the horse racing. Everybody—or nearly everybody—really enjoys seeing a horse race, where the contest is in earnest and there is no gambling or double dealing. As far as could be judged or ascertained by the audience, everything was on the square and there were really some good horses. The track was not sufficient to accommodate all of the racers, but the owners were all satisfied and everything passed off pleasantly. There were some real attractive purses and the Fair association has been complimented from many sources for the liberality in providing the purses and for arranging for the care of the horses brought here, even though the number was far greater than had been expected. A large number of new stalls were built, but these can be used for housing livestock for exhibition another year, as restrictions will be enforced hereafter to prevent such an influx of race horses. A liberal policy will be adopted by the association, yet there is no good reason for allowing more horses to enter than can be accommodated

SPLENDID COPY

The Eagle readers, as well as the editor, are due a debt of gratitude to Mr. W. A. Schulze, son-in-law of Mr. W. P. Weaver, for the complete and well arranged premium list of the exhibits and premiums of the Fair. This copy was prepared, correctly punctuated and arranged for the printer, relieving the editor of that responsibility and at the same time insuring accuracy in every detail. Mr. Schulze proved himself a very capable man in this work and the Eagle editor certainly appreciates his help.

BITTEN BY SNAKE

Bentley, the 12-year-old son of W. D. Clements, was bitten on the finger by a snake yesterday morning, while he and a companion were plum hunting on the mountain east of town. The boys had the presence of mind to cord the finger and the one next to it and by the time he reached home and a physician was called it was found there was no danger from the poison, as the wound had bled freely. The child has suffered very little from the injury, due to his prompt action in binding the finger.

MEETING TO BEGIN

A revival meeting is to begin in the Methodist church Sunday, to continue two weeks, closing Sunday night, August 11. Rev. Alonzo Monk, Jr., will do the preaching. He is an evangelist of wide reputation, having been engaged in evangelistic work for a number of years and held meetings in some of the largest cities in the South. He is quite well known here, having been Methodist pastor at Hamilton some years ago and visited Goldthwaite on one or more occasions. His father, Rev. Alonzo Monk, made his home in Lampasas for a number of years and was quite a prominent minister in the Methodist denomination.

Rev. and Mrs. Monk are at Ralls, on the Plains, but expect to reach Goldthwaite Monday in time for him to have charge of the services Monday night. He will remain until the close of the meeting, but Mrs. Monk will not likely be here but a few days.

Mr. C. E. Dodge, an evangelist singer of note, will have charge of the song service for the meeting, but as Rev. Monk will not be able to reach this place Sunday, Mr. Dodge will have charge of the services Sunday morning and evening, while Rev. Lambert, pastor of the church, is assisting in a revival at Center City.

FINE FRUIT

There has never been a finer fruit crop in Mills county than that now being gathered. The season has been just right for peaches and plums and the orchards are prolific. There was very little hail in the spring time and, therefore, no injury was done the fruit from that source. It is hard to realize the immensity of this crop and its financial value, aside from the satisfaction of having fruit at home, without having to import it. Most homes have their own orchards, while the orchards maintained for market purposes have yielded fine crops this year and the fruit has found ready sale at good prices.

FEED MILL AT WORK

The new feed grinding mill of R. E. & Watson Ross was put in operation this week and has proven a great success. Corn is ground together with the shuck and cob, while Johnson grass and maize are converted into the finest kind of feed by running through the mill and being ground and mixed. This mill is in operation in the Ross feed store and is well worth an inspection by those interested in feeding any kind of stock.

MRS. MCKNIGHT DEAD

A message was received here Monday announcing the death of Mrs. McKnight, of Marlin, mother of Mrs. Wilbur Fairman of this city. Mrs. Fairman has been at her mother's bedside for some time and it had been known for several days that the end was approaching. Funeral services were held in Marlin Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Friends here of Mrs. Fairman and other members of the bereaved family deeply sympathize with them in their sorrow.

REV. ALONZO MONK, JR.,

Who will do the preaching in the revival at the Methodist Church in this city, which begins Sunday.

C. E. DODGE

Song Director

Who will have charge of the Services in the Methodist Church Sunday morning and night and lead the singing for the meeting that will continue the next two weeks.

LODGE ENTERTAINED

The Woodmen Circle ladies are preparing to entertain the Odd Fellows tonight (Friday) in the Odd Fellows hall. This entertainment is looked forward to with pleasant anticipation and doubtless, every member of the Lodge will be present.

A BOLD THIEF

Last Friday afternoon one of the proprietors of a business place in this city had occasion to open the cash register and noted that there were thirteen one dollar bills in the drawer, together with several checks and some five and ten dollar bills. Later the drawer was again opened and it was found that all of the one dollar bills had been removed, while the other bills and checks were intact. The register is so located that one to enter it must go behind the counter and there are several employes in the house. The thief who stole the money must have worked deliberately to take out the bills of small denominations and certainly had no superstition about the number 13.

PROMINENT VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Patterson of Mullin came over to attend the fair and meet their friends. Mr. Patterson is cashier of the Mullin bank and was cashier of the Star bank some years ago. Mrs. Patterson is editor of the Mullin Enterprise, but was a teacher in the Goldthwaite school some years ago.

ROCK SPRINGS

We had very few at Sunday school last Sunday. Only one teacher present.

For some cause, all of my letter wasn't printed last week. Guess I just know too much. The most important part was left out. This is what it was: Mr. John Burnett, our road commissioner, asked me to let it be known that a thief had been along the road, who took everything they could get off with off the grader and they took other things. Mr. Burnett said he surely needed the long handle shovel, and he would be glad if they would return it, along with the other things.

Most every home from this community was represented at the Fair. The Fair was the best we have ever had here. Our town should be proud of the band boys. They certainly played fine, and the program Thursday night was real good. Mrs. Berry never fails to have an interesting program. The program from Brownwood was fine. The speaker Friday morning made a good talk. If every voter could have heard his talk before the last election they would have voted.

Mr. Glenn Gill of Coleman visited Miss Mae McNutt last week.

There was very few at the B. Y. P. U. Sunday night. We have a good program for next Sunday night.

While on the fair grounds I met friends from Menard, Abilene, Plainview, Coleman and lots of people from Mills county.

Mrs. Lula Gatlin and Miss Love and Orby Woody and family from Goldthwaite and Mrs. Bowles from Groveton spent Sunday afternoon on the Gatlin farm.

Those who dined with Landy Ellis and family Sunday were Austin Cooke and children, Miss Mildred Dellis of Big Valley and Mrs. Eula Nickols and Dwight. All reported a good time.

Misses Traylor left Tuesday morning with Marion Robertson and family from Big Valley to see the West.

Mrs. Harvey Dunkle and Claudine and Louise Robertson from Big Springs are visiting J. T. Robertson and family this week.

Mrs. J. F. Pace visited her children in Dallas last week.

Ben Davis and family of Coleman visited in the McGowan home last week-end.

Almos McGowan had the pleasure of caring for the old soldiers again this year.

The summer flu is still hanging on in our community.

Charley Miller and family visited in the Traylor home last week. They live at Plainview now.

Ben Forehand and family attended Sunday school Sunday morning.

Will Harris and family visited in the Webb home Sunday. Some from here attended the moonlight party at E. D. Robertson's Monday night.

J. T. Robertson helped to build the dipping vat at Jno. W. Roberts' this week.

We are needing lots of wind to turn our windmills. We also need a good rain. BUSY BEE.

STUDENT OF JOURNALISM

A recent issue of the Mexia Daily News contained the likeness of Fommie Randolph, a nephew of Mr. J. H. Randolph of this city and a relative of the Kemp family of Mullin. Under the heading of "Our Tommie" the News says: "Tommie Randolph, a member of the Daily News staff, was salutatorian of the high school class and ranking boy of a class of 25 who graduated. He worked half a day and went to classes the other half. He expects to study journalism in college."

THE GOLDTHWAITE EAGLE

W. W. Tullos of Brownwood visited here last week and attended the fair.

The First National Bank had a new sign painted across the front of their building.

Mrs. Pearl Holland visited relatives in Brownwood one day this week.

Everett Holland of League City spent the week-end with relatives in this city.

John Bush and family have returned to their home in Pecos, after a visit to relatives here and at Lometa.

J. D. Walton, one of the good citizens of Center City, looked after business in this city the first of the week.

B. H. Tullos and family of Archer City visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Tullos, and family and attended the fair.

Mrs. Chas. Frizzell visited in Fort Worth this week.

Mrs. C. A. Langford visited relatives in this city this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Browning Roberts of Brownwood visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Jenkins, and attended the fair last week.

Joe Taff, who is now in the employ of the Santa Fe railroad at Cleburne, spent the week-end here attending the Fair and meeting his friends.

Charles Hicks, who is a student in the State University summer school, came home to attend the Fair and visit relatives, returning to Austin Monday.

Dick Burgess has built a second story on the rear of his blacksmith shop, on the east side of the square and will establish his living quarters at that place.

Mesdames. Zulke and Brookman returned to their home in San Antonio Monday, after a visit to their mother, Mrs. Schweining, and their sister, Mrs. Henry Martin, in this city.

Claud Hardman and wife were here from Gustine attending the Fair and meeting their friends. They formerly lived in this county and have agreed many friends who will be glad whenever they decide to come home.

Louis McElroy and his wife and son were visitors to the Fair from Brownwood. They made their home in Amarillo for several years, but have moved nearer home and their friends here are looking forward with pleasure to the time when they are again located in Goldthwaite.

One can hardly look in any direction that new improvements are not seen. Verily, Goldthwaite is improving faster now than ever before in its history. If these improvements continue it will not be long until those who have been away a few years will find it difficult to identify the locations.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bonceer of Brownwood came over last week-end to see the Fair and visit Mrs. Bonceer's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Thornton. While here Mr. Bonceer made the Eagle a short call. He is a linotype operator of skill and was in the employ of the Eagle editor while he was publishing a paper in Brownwood and is now with the Bulletin of that city.

Jesse Rose had the misfortune to turn his car over Monday morning, on the Center City road a short distance east of this city. His mother, Mrs. Will Rose, and a baby were in the car, but no one was injured, altho the car was pretty badly damaged. The accident occurred at a place where some fresh road work had been done and it is supposed that was the cause of the accident.

Five men and one woman were arrested by Sheriff Bledsoe and deputies last Saturday, charged with being intoxicated. They remained in the county bastille until the sheriff thought it safe to release them, when all but one "paid off" and that one gave bond to answer a charge of driving a car while intoxicated. They were all transients and none of them belonged in Mills county. They were arrested in the neighborhood of the school building.

PROSPECTIVE CANDIDATES

AUSTIN, Tex., July 23 (UP)—Adjournment of the State legislature has set free a number of legislative candidates for office and a number of prospective candidates — both in and out of the legislature.

Definite announcements of candidacy for governor have been issued by Lieut. Governor Barry Miller, Dallas; Tom Love, Dallas; Miss Katie Daffan, Ennis; Former Mayor Oscar Holcombe, Houston; T. N. Mauritz, Ganado; and E. G. Senter, Dallas.

Candidates discussed at Austin as "likely" include: Former Governor Neff, R. S. Sterling, Houston; R. L. Bobbit, Larado; Lee Satterwhite, Odessa and Dr. S. P. Brooks, Waco. It is also considered possible that there may be a repetition of a campaign with two Davidsons running for the high state office—Lynch and T. W. Mauritz is running frankly to urge the state income tax which he proposed to the recent session of the legislature.

Neff's candidacy is said to be dependent upon Mayfield's. If Mayfield runs, Neff is expected to do so. Mayfield refused to endorse Neff for re-appointment on the federal railway arbitration board and the $12,000 a year plum went to Former Governor O. B. Colquitt. Neff has denied that he is now a candidate although R. B. Walthall, who was Neff's confidential secretary, has said positively Neff will run.

Neff appointed Walthall on the State Board of Control for a six year term which expires Jan. 1. Walthall is so sure Neff will run that he said he would not be a candidate for re-appointment, but will give his time to Neff's candidacy.

The candidacies of Sterling and Bobbit are also probably each dependent on the other, with the difference that if one runs the other likely will not.

Sterling, who has been chairman of the State Highway Commission, recently said Bobbit was his choice for next Governor. Since then Sterling has repeatedly been asked to run himself. The frowns with which he first met such suggestions are said not to be so deep now.

Candidacy of Former Mayor Oscar Holcombe of Houston also may depend upon Sterling's decision. If Sterling runs, Holcombe would be opposed by his home town papers, probably. Sterling is part owner of the Post-Dispatch of Houston. The Houston Chronicle recently urged Sterling to be a candidate. The Houston Press fought Holcombe and it is believed to have been largely responsible for his defeat as a candidate for re-election at Houston.

Mayor J. Waddy Tate, Dallas has suggested that Mayor Brown of Mineral Wells be a candidate for governor. Brown says he hasn't made any such plans.

Neff's candidacy would likely prevent the running of either Dr. S. P. Brooks of Waco or Cullen F. Thomas of Dallas. Thomas has not been announced but he spent some time in Austin recently and, it is believed here, would like to run if the field clears up.

PRODUCTION INCREASING

The per capita consumption of milk in the United States is now 55 gallons per year against 43 gallons seven years ago. There has been a sharp increase in the consumption of butter and other dairy products. During the same period the increase in the number of dairy cows has only been 144,000. This large increase in consumption has been largely taken care of through the agency of better cows and better feeding.

Not many years ago 4,000 pounds of milk was considered a good yield. Today the average per cow is above 4,500 pounds, many cows producing from 10,000 to as high as 30,000 pounds for the best records.

Dairying is becoming popular in the South and Southwest, but if we are to compete with producers in the other dairy States, better cows, better feeding and better management must be developed.

NEW TAX RESPONSIBILITY

The millions of dollars, much of the money outside capital, now being invested in creamery companies in this state, creates a market that directly and greatly benefits the farmers and cattle raisers. In fact, they have never before enjoyed such a market for their dairy products as they have now.

If the cattle are improved and the farmer and cattle raiser co-operate with those who have invested their money in these plants, the dairy business will soon be one of the leading industries of the state, as Texas is naturally a dairy state, and the farmer and cattle raiser have a lucrative income the year around from their milk and cream. Every one of such plants should and we hope, will make good profits, for the farmer and the cattle raiser will profit in the same proportion as the creamery plant does.

One of the duties that the farmer and cattle raiser owe these institutions is the one concerning taxation. All business institutions including these creamery plants, expect to pay taxes, but they cannot exist and pay taxes to support extravagance and inefficiency. Tax laws have played havoc with the cotton mills in the New England States. Let's prevent a recurrence of such disasters in Texas. A farmer may think that an income tax may not effect him, but if one is passed in Texas, he is liable to sell his milk and cream for less than he gets for it now, while the creamery plants will be forced to sell their products for a higher price and finally many of them might be forced out of business by reason of unnecessary tax laws and unequal distribution of taxes. Hence, it is very apparent to every farmer and cattle raiser that we owe it to this new industry to keep posted on the question of taxation and see that the law does not interfere beyond reason with it, in view of the fact that it means so much to all concerned.—Texas Tax Journal.

MEETING AT CENTER CITY

Rev. S. D. Lambert did not fill his pulpit here last Sunday morning, as he was engaged in a meeting at Center City. He came home for the night service and reported an interesting meeting in progress, which was expected to continue thru the week and possibly longer. Good congregations are reported attending the meeting and a considerable interest has been manifested from the start.

Indictment against Cash involved his testimony that he had seen Mrs. Wilson and Rev. Wallace together in the church while he was doing some repair work there.

Wilson, the convicted man's uncle, was indicted "for trying to get Mrs. Laura Dolbs to testify that she had given permission to Mrs. Wilson to use her home as a place in which to meet Rev. Wallace."

INTO THE WORLD

Sweet boy and girl graduates about the countryside have just received, to the accompaniment of proper professional smiles, those little sheepskins supposed to mean that, in the learned eyes of Whoozis College they are fully prepared to start the campaign for three meals and a daily bed in this toiling world. They are about to begin the so-called battle for success. Some of them think it is already within their grasp. Others, wiser ones, know better.

There are many secrets of success, young ladies and gentlemen; many of them, indeed! There are many recipes for obtaining vast quantities of the world's wherewithal; many ideas tagged and labeled in the experience of successful men.

But, we know of only one safe road to success, only one time-tried and storm-proven method for making good, equally available to college graduates and students in the university of hard knocks, from which one never gets a degree. The recipe is told in but a word. That word is "WORK!" —Houston Press.

INTEREST REVIVED

Interest in the case at Tyler, wherein Rev. Fount Wallace, a Baptist preacher was shot to death on the street of Troup a few months ago, was revived a few days ago when a grand jury indicted Mrs. May Wilson, wife of Lois Wilson, who is under three year sentence for the murder of Rev. Fount Wallace, Troup Baptist minister, and two other persons late Friday for perjury in connection with their testimony at Wilson's trial last April. Others indicted were J. L. Farley, who was constable at Troup in April, 1928, when Rev. Wallace was shot to death, and Edgar Cash, who did repair work on the church where Rev. Wallace was pastor and Mrs. Wilson, choir singer.

A. S. Wilson, uncle of the convicted man, was indicted for attempting to get another to swear falsely. The indictments came as a complete surprise to persons in that vicinity. When Wilson got a three-year sentence last March and appealed his case, Smith county residents expected to hear nothing about the case until the appeal was decided.

The indictment against Mrs. Wilson charged that she swore falsely when she testified that she met Rev. Wallace twice at the home of Mrs. Laura Dabbs of Tyler.

Farley was indicted for testifying that on two occasions he saw Mrs. Wilson and Rev. Wallace remain at the church after the others had left the church and the lights had been turned out.

Indictment against Cash involved his testimony that he had seen Mrs. Wilson and Rev. Wallace together in the church while he was doing some repair work there.

Wilson, the convicted man's uncle, was indicted "for trying to get Mrs. Laura Dolbs to testify that she had given permission to Mrs. Wilson to use her home as a place in which to meet Rev. Wallace."

BAPTIST CHURCH

The Fair has come and gone, and from what this writer can hear and from what he saw, this must have been the best fair in the history of Mills county. Everything seems to have gone on in a quiet way. With the hundreds of people who attended the fair, only a dozen found their way to the city "cooler," and most of them have already sweetened the county attorney's coffee, as well as the justice of the peace, and have gone to parts unknown. These "guys" who visit our county will find out sooner or later that the Sheriff's Department is on the job and that they will have to quit drinking branch water if they stay around here. Some one said to this preacher that they thought most of the Sheriff's force were Baptists, and that they were just a little surprised. But folk, you need not be for when Baptists have to quit drinking "distilled" water, the rest of you had just as well quit, because you are going to have to stop.

I started this little missive merely to ask you who read these notes to come to church, or rather go to church next Sunday, but most of you are not going to do it. Even some of you Baptists will go to the lake. Of course you will not think about fishing. Just go that you may have a little rest after a week of hard work.

Everybody go to church Sunday. Let every Baptist be in Sunday school and at the preaching hour. Remember that the Methodist meeting starts Sunday and let all of our folk get ready to help in any way we can. This pastor confidentially expects for every Baptist that can sing to be in the choir during this meeting. In fact, let's all get in and have a great meeting.

SICK AT HIS STOMACH

"I WAS suffering from stomach trouble in 1917," says Mr. C. K. Nelson, a railroad car inspector now living in Pulaski, Va. "I had a tightness in my chest, a shortness of breath. There seemed to be a heavy weight in the pit of my stomach, and quite a bit of nausea, yet I couldn't vomit. I tried different remedies, yet suffered on just the same. When in West Virginia on a work train, I was in such a condition that I just gave up and came home. I could not stand to work, in my condition. Some one told me about Bleed-Drainage. I started taking it in small doses after meals. It helped me, and I went back to work."

Bleed-Drainage

WOMEN who used a tonic should start BLEED-DRAINAGE in one or two years.

Two divers recently established a new record by withstanding a pressure corresponding to conditions found at a depth of 353 feet. The tests, made in an experimental diving tank, were with the aid of the new artificial "lung." Edward Kolinoski and P. J. Hoy, the divers, said they felt no ill effects from the experience and believed they could safely withstand a pressure equal to that at a depth of 400 feet. Divers established a record of 306 feet in 1915 while salvaging the U. S. F-4 in Honolulu waters.

EASY PAYMENTS GLADLY ARRANGED

Gestures of war continue to be made in Manchuria and Russia, while the capitals of four great powers are busily intent on overtures for peace in the stained Russo-Chinese situation.

Herman Bowles, 10, of Uvalde, broke his right leg above the knee Saturday, the thirteenth time in his brief life that he has fractured a bone. It is the third time his right leg has been broken.

Before adjourning for its summer session the third court of civil appeals at Austin decided in favor of Williamson county in a suit over automobile registration fees that were paid in Bell county. The decision holds the county of the owner's residence is entitled to the fees.

The election April 15 in which the issuance of $400,000 in bonds for road work in Willy county was voted, was declared null and void by District Judge A. M. Kent. His decision was delivered after a week of testimony, during which several hundred witnesses were called, most of them to identify their ballots.

Work will probably be started within the next few days by the Texas and Pacific railroad on a pass under the Dallas pike near Arlington for sidetracks to the new racing track and stables being built there by W. T. Waggoner at a cost of $2,000,000. This spur with the underpass and more than a half million dollars in new buildings should be completed in time for the opening of the first racing meet to be held November 6 to 16.

Port Authorities at Vera Cruz, Mexico, are in the midst of a campaign to break up a group of professional husbands whose oft repeated marriage vows enable emigrant women to land and take up residence in Mexico. The men charge a fixed fee for each marriage, but as soon as the woman has established her residence the husband disappears and never resumes marital relations. Some of the men are said to have married under different names more than a score of times.

The County Clerk of Camp county reports that he sold 147 marriage licenses during the first six months of this year up to June 13, when the new law went into effect. Since then he has not sold one, and has had only one application for a three days' notice, and in that case, when the prospective bridegroom gave the proper notice, the mother of the bride-to-be came in, objected and told the clerk the girl was too young, hadn't finished school, and the acquaintance between her daughter and the young man was too short.

A little elderly woman who for years was a regular gallery patron of one of Mexico City's leading theaters to watch Roberto Soto, 39, the country's most popular comedian, perform, has revealed herself as mother of the actor. Thought died at his birth. Soto's parents parted soon after his birth and he was brought up by his father in the State of Zacatecas, with the impression that his mother was dead. Ill, and sensing the proximity of death, the mother summoned the actor to her modest home and revealed her secret.

David Wark Griffith, noted film producer, and his party checked out Friday night late from a Mineral Wells hotel and left for California. The director made no announcements concerning plans for the proposed picture of the history of Texas. It is thought that he failed to complete any deals during his stay in Texas. It was reported that he would consider the production of "The Birth of Texas" by Miss Betty Blount of Dallas, backed to the extent of $750,000, if a responsible corporation were formed with whom the director might execute a contract. Backers of Miss Blount's picture were organizing such a corporation Friday and Saturday.

WASP WAISTS

Just now the style czars of Paris are prophesying a return of the wasp-waist. Little is needed to make the prophesy come true but loud and continuous reiteration, and perhaps some judicial advice on the part of doctors. Fashion, like the weather, has a way of repeating itself. Thirty or 40 years ago the wasp-waist was in vogue. Thirty or 40 years ago women subjected themselves to all kinds of physical discomfort in order to acquire the wasp-waist while corset manufacturers made huge profits. Now they do it by starving themselves, and who shall say the doctors have had no hand in showing them how? — Tracy in Houston Press.

FOUR CENT GAS

Owners of approximately 1,250,000 automobiles in Texas last week began paying a tax of four cents on every gallon of gasoline purchased—100 per cent more than the former rate. The same statute levies the registration fee on cars, making the tax 50 per cent under present schedule, but this reduction will not become effective until next January. Many inquiries have been received by the Highway Commission and other officials in Austin the past few days from citizens who thought the registration feature also become effective this month. The new gas tax will result in collection of more than $22,000,000 annually for the Highway Department, while about $6,000,000 of it will go to the public school fund, for as an occupational tax, one-fourth of it, according to the Constitution, must be turned into this school fund. In addition the Highway Department will receive $4,900,000 federal aid, giving about $29,000,000 for highway improvements, counting $2,500,000 accruing to the department from registration fees when the reduction becomes effective.

Under the new law, owners of cars taking out license this year will have to pay the present rates. When the new registration arrangement takes effect counties will retain the first $50,000 and in no case will the county apportionment run beyond the $175,000 mark, all above that figure to be turned into highway coffers. In addition the bill gives the Highway Department fees from trucks and trailers. In all the Highway Department may depend upon $30,000,000 yearly.

During the last few days of the legislature, which closed Saturday, legislators stated on the floor of both Houses that they were aware of preparation being made to contest the constitutionality of the gas registration law on account of its double-barreled feature, exemptions and allowing of one-fourth of the gas tax to schools. The contention frequently has been made that tax on gasoline is a direct sales levy instead of occupational, and that granting one-fourth to schools by applying the term occupational is merely subterfuge. Opponents of the bill, when it was being threshed out, declared that the exemptions made the bill class legislation.

The two-cent gasoline tax is replaced by the measure. Should the courts knock it out there will be no gasoline tax whatever, which undoubtedly would cause Governor Moody to re-convene the Legislature, since he has been an advocate of a high tax on gas. The exemptions include farm machinery, airplanes, dry cleaning establishments and stationary engines. What the exemptions will amount to in dollars and cents has never been estimated.

TURKEY CROP PAYS

Texas turkey growers received $10,000,000 for their Thanksgiving shipments in 1922.

TEN GOOD RULES

1. Drive to the right of the road; it's just as good as the left.
2. Slow down when approaching a cross road; it is nearly as dangerous as a railroad crossing.
3. Look out for children. You can never tell what they will do, and you are always wrong if you hit one.
4. Try to help instead of hinder the traffic officer, he's there for your good and he's got a tough job.
5. Be sure your dimmers are really dim; it's no joke driving into a blinding glare, as you probably know.
6. Read and obey the warning signs. They are not put up as ornaments.
7. If you feel you've got to speed—do it where it won't kill anybody but yourself.
8. When making minor repairs, stop where your car may be seen from both directions, otherwise you may stop longer than you anticipate.
9. Speeding around corners is a straight route to the hospital. Don't race past a stopped street car. Some day a jury might call it manslaughter.
10. Use discretion. The fact that you had the right of way won't bring anybody back to life, least of all yourself.—Yeoman Shield.

BURLESON-KYLE NUPTIALS

On Thursday evening, July 18, Mr. Lowell Burleson and Miss Eloise Kyle were united in marriage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Bennett, 607 Melwood Avenue. Rev. A. E. Talbot performed the impressive ring ceremony before an assembly of relatives and intimate friends.

While the ceremony was being read, the bridal pair with their two attendants stood at a beautiful improvised altar on each side of which stood tall white floor baskets filled with pink daisies, gladioli, freesias, and fern accentuating the chosen colors of pink and white. The altar was arranged under an arch formed between colonnades with honeysuckle and fern gracefully entwined with pink maline.

The bride was arrayed in a handsome rose-tan ensemble with accessories to harmonize. She carried a luxuriant bouquet of sweetheart roses en shower. The bride's maid, Miss Rita Hufstutler of Lometa wore a lovely powder blue georgette frock. Mr. Herbert Lewis of Ballinger was best man.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for a short honeymoon in North and West Texas. Miss Kyle is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Kyle of Howard Payne College as a freshman. Mr. Burleson is the son of T. M. Burleson of Brownwood and has attended Howard Payne College for the past several years.

Mr. Burleson was associated with college publications as student manager of The Lasso. He also took part in oratory and debating, being a member of the Pi Kappa Delta forensic organization. He was president of the Texas Cratological Association the past year.

He holds a responsible position with the Eagle Broadcasting Company, and has been assistant announcer here for some time. He will leave in the near future for Roswell, New Mexico, to announce and be manager of a station there owned by this company.—Brownwood Bulletin.

of sheriff was to the effect that the men lifted his roll from his pocket while in a room in the hotel. When taken to the room later by Sheriff M. H. Denman, tables were found set for a game of cards, which setting Fields said was not there previously.

Mrs. J. L. Stubbs, manager of the Texas Hotel, stated to a Bulletin reporter this morning that she had become convinced Thursday afternoon that some men were playing cards in the hotel and was just going to put a stop to it when she saw them leaving the hotel.

It was learned that Fields had cashed a $3,500 check at one of the local banks shortly before he reported his loss to the officers as he stated at the time. One man was arrested Friday afternoon but was turned loose when found he was not one of those wanted.—Brownwood Bulletin.

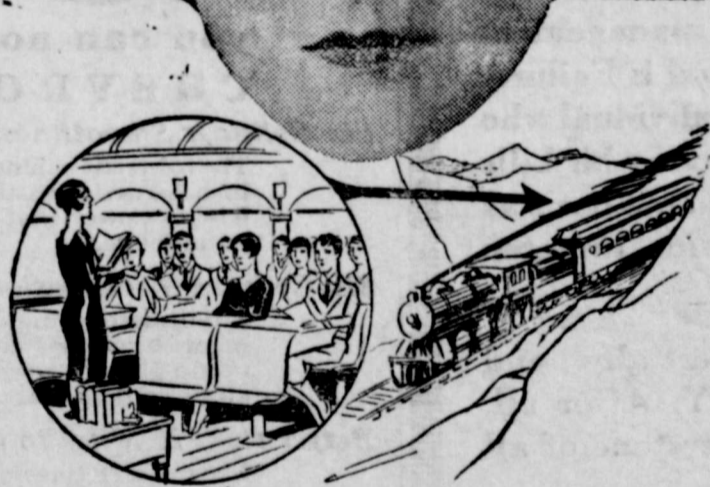

ALLEGED ROBBERY

Officers are still looking for the two men whom Homer Pilets, Bertram sheep man, told the officers and sheriff's departments here had robbed him of $3,500 at a local hotel Thursday afternoon. Field's story to the police and

VITAL STATISTICS

Wink, probably the fastest growing community in Texas, is far behind the average on vital statistics. It had one birth in June and 10 deaths. Harlingen stood even with 13 births and 13 deaths. Houston led with 404 births and 311 deaths.

Teacher of Future Will Hold Classes In Aeroplane

SONIA MEROFF

On how I love to— for— as— Does she love me? of course!

Travelling Schools Will Be Next Step In Education

New York City.—That geography classes of the future will have an aeroplane for a classroom, is the prediction of Sonia Meroff of ballad fame. And Sonia should know whereof she speaks, for she has spent most of her life getting her geography at first hand.

"Mothers may shudder at the thought, but I am sure that studying through travel, beginning with elementary grades, will be the next step in progressive educational methods," she declares. "Indeed, we already have the beginnings of this with our floating universities. What more vivid and instructive method could there be for studying the world's national resources?"

"What more logical manner of teaching history, economics and social problems than that of putting a class on a train routed across country. What more effective manner of teaching civics than a trip to Washington to see the government in action?"

New Consciousness

"Just as radio has put the country in unison musically by letting the isolated farmer hear the newest songs the same night that the blase Broadwayite does, so this travel would develop a social consciousness in the child now impossible."

Miss Meroff is organizing a travelling school of her own for transcontinental group singing.

"In my present vaudeville tour I am singing a collegiate foxtrot, 'Dolores,' she says, "which I got from the publishers as soon as it was printed, yet I found the Middle West and the West, the South and the Northwest all knew it, and no matter where I am, everybody joins in the chorus."

"Transportation has previously been as hard as communication, and now that communication is almost simultaneous, I think we ought to put more thought on transportation and make practical use of it for the coming generation."

Mills County Fair

(Continued from First page) on the track. Horses were brought from Oklahoma and possibly other states, as well as from many parts of this state and it is certain that as fast horses were here this year as will be on any track in Texas.

The fair association is well pleased with the outcome of this year's fair. Financially it was a success and while there was no money to be distributed for private benefit, the bills were paid and some permanent improvements made. Some of the officers, committeemen and other citizens did some hard work and by devoting much time and energy and good business judgment to their tasks made the fair a success. Notably among these are J. H. Burnett, R. L. Steen, Dr. J. M. Campbell, Joe Palmer, W. P. Weaver, S. P. Rahl, S. P. Sullivan, to say nothing of the splendid service rendered by the dozens of other committeemen and citizens, most of whom had already contributed money toward properly equipping the fair grounds and providing premiums and prizes. Those in charge of the various departments and displays are also worthy of unstinted praise for their good work and co-operation and every one deserves special mention.

The community exhibits were good and were decidedly creditable to the enterprising and patriotic people who arranged them and gave of their time and energies in making the displays. They have proved beyond peradventure of a doubt that Mills county is one of the best and most productive parts of the country and that her people are energetic, enterprising and willing to devote their time and talents to the proper display of the resources of the county.

Credit Business

There is a business other than that commonly known institution conducted by the public business man.

The outcome of loose management of credit of the individual is Failure. If all the affairs of the individual who is extremely Slow in paying his bills were conducted on the same basis as his credit, failure would threaten him.

Business is the greatest ally and promoter of HONESTY. After all, is not honesty the cornerstone of all the virtues?

GOLDTHWAITE WINS TWO FAIR GAMES

The Goldthwaite baseball team won two games during the Fair. The game on the second day was rained out.

The first victory was over the San Saba team and was a thriller all the way. The first inning seemed as though old man Hard Luck was still with the locals when it comes to playing San Saba. Four runs had come across the pan due to a hit batsman and a combination of hits and errors. However, after weathering this storm, it was a nip and tuck affair the rest of the way, Goldthwaite getting three runs in third and tied it with two in the fifth. A homer by Heath in the 8th put the game on ice. Clydus Jones, who was on the mound for the locals, and Fuzzy Heath, hefty outfielder and third baseman, were in the limelight throughout the game. Jones held the opposition to six hits and never walked a man. In the eighth inning, with the score tied 5 to 5, two out and the count 3-2, Heath picked out one to his liking and slammed it past the race track for a round trip ticket, scoring McLean, ahead of him. Terry Walker started the pitching duties for San Saba, but was relieved in the 6th inning by Bohannon. In the three rounds Bo pitched, the locals only got two hits, but they were good for the ball game. McLean had beat out an infield hit, and it was then that Mr. Heath hit one for the ladies.

In the game with Pottsville, Goldthwaite ran up against some unexpected strength. The game was finally won by Goldthwaite after eleven innings of heated baseball. Hamilton started for the local and had lots of stuff, but could not control it. He was relieved by Jones in the third. Pottsville had their big inning in the second, when they scored five runs, due to some miserable fielding and worse throwing.

After taking over the pitching duties, Mr. Clydus Jones treated the customers to a well pitched ball game. On the receiving in both games was another player, George Broad, who handled the pitchers well and deserved much credit for both wins. He got in some good work at the bat. The Ray brothers, at first and second, for Pottsville, handled all chances well and were dynamite at the bat. The tie was broken in the eleventh when, with Hamilton on third, Linkenhoger crossed up the opposition, who were playing him for a right field hit, slammed one down the third base line that had a two-base label on it, and sent Hud, scampering home with the winning tally.

The next games scheduled are with Pottsville and Comanche. The baseball team wishes to thank, through this column, all those who so ably assisted in helping put the Fair ball games over. REPORTER

MUST RECOGNIZE AGRICULTURE

Businessmen throughout the country are probably thinking more about agriculture than ever before. They wish agriculture well. Not one of them but what would be glad to see farmers prosper because, they say, "a prosperous rural citizenship insures a better and more profitable business."

All this is true, but the trouble lies in the fact that many business men, far-sighted in the conduct of their own affairs, cannot see beyond today's immediate returns when considering agriculture. They would have the farmer prosperous, but to make him so they are unwilling to give up a single advantage, unfair though it may be, that they have acquired during the years that industry has been protected, pampered, and encouraged. They refuse to make an investment in agriculture that would eventually create a lasting rural prosperity that would be reflected year in and out in better business because of the increased buying power of the farmers.

Take the matter of tariffs. Congress, urged on by great industrial associations, seems willing enough to put a protective tariff on farm products that have export surpluses in this country, but on other commodities which come into competition with American production, directly or indirectly, opposition immediately develops. The same is true in the matter of taxes. Although it is universally recognized that the farmers generally pay a larger tax in comparison with their income than any other class of citizens, any suggestion for the equalization of the burden of Government expense is met with strenuous opposition by organized business.

Recently ex-Governor of Illinois, in an address in Milwaukee, made the following statement:

One way in which the ills of agriculture may be remedied is to change the present methods of taxation. The farmer is being done a great injustice by the existing methods, inasmuch as intangible property escapes direct taxation, while farm land, always tangible property, is made to bear the greatest burden of the cost of Government.

While agriculture, business, and the economist all agree to this theory, I have heard of no chamber of commerce nor any other organization representing business lending its support to the equalization of this burden through a revision of the taxing laws. — Farm and Ranch.

EXEMPTION CLAIM

The State Comptroller's Department is now prepared to receive reports of exemptions from the four-cent occupation tax on the sale of gasoline, according to an announcement by the State Comptroller. Gasoline used for any other purpose than that of propelling vehicles on public roads, streets and highways of Texas is exempt from taxation. Fuel used in farm tractors, stationary engines, air craft and motor boats, therefore, is exempt.

However, the tax must be paid on ALL gasoline. Refunds will be made to those exempt. The tax is placed directly on wholesale distributors of gasoline at the rate of four cents per gallon, but the consumer eventually bears the burden of the tax. The new rate was in effect July 16th, having previously been two cents.

The new law does not make it easy for the consumer to secure refunds on exemptions. Comptroller Terrell has outlined the necessary procedure for the exempted customer as follows:

1. The purchaser must fill out an invoice, at the time of the purchase, giving amount, price, purpose, etc. The regular price is paid for gas. Forms will be supplied by dealers and filling stations.

2. Before the 25th of the month following the month of purchase, the buyer must report to the Comptroller the number of gallons bought and the amount of refunds expected. Claims reported later than the 25th of the following month will not be honored.

3. On receiving the report, the Comptroller's Department will mail the claimant an affidavit-account form, on which will be recorded information as to the amount and use of gasoline purchased. This information must be sworn to before a notary public, and filed with the Comptroller not later than two months from the date of purchase. This document must be accompanied by a filing fee of $1.00, which must be paid each time a claim is filed. These fees will be used to enforce the law.

4. The claim will be investigated, and if considered valid, a State warrant will be issued for the refund. This warrant must be cashed within 60 days.

5. No refund shall be made where gasoline is used later than six months from purchase. Persons believing themselves to be exempted should write to Comptroller Sam Houston Terrell, Austin, Texas.

ELECTION RETURNS

While it is well known that the constitutional amendments submitted in the election last Tuesday were adopted by a vote reaching fully two to one, the returns by precincts in Mills county may be interesting, showing that Mills county voters showed their disapproval by their ballots. Many other counties gave a majority against the amendments, but the larger cities overbalanced the vote in the less populated sections. The vote by boxes in Mills county:

DEMAND FOR COTTON

For years the complaint was made that demand for cotton goods had fallen off because of changes in styles. Now another story is beginning to be told. Textile trade journals report that an improved demand for the goods was a marked development of last year and that the condition is being carried over into the present year, with an even more promising outlook. These goods now, it is stated, have become more stylish. It wasn't a mere chance or the result of whim in any direction. It was the result of a persistent and enlightened effort to fashion the goods so that they might appeal to public taste and to make the fact known to potential buyers. No miracle-working about it, the only wonder being that such a simple idea was not applied long before. If a branch of industry is to prosper under modern conditions it must be alert in applying the methods which have become essential to successful business.—Kansas City Star.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Stolzenbach of Big Spring were here last week-end visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jo Frizell, and attending the Fair.

Run-Down

"ABOUT seven years ago, I was all run-down, worn-out and never felt good," says Mrs. Harry Cantrell, of Cape Girardeau, Mo. "A chair would be more welcome any time than my work."

"I was so tired when I would arise in the morning. Instead of being rested, I felt terrible."

"At last, mother told me to take Cardui, and I did. After the first bottle, I could tell a difference, and when I had taken five bottles the tired feeling was all gone. I felt like a different person, thanks to Cardui. I hope that other mothers will try Cardui. I have been wonderfully benefited by it."

Meeting the public day by day, Hearing the things they have to say, Humoring, catering to every whim;

The Home-Town Merchant, don't you envy him?

Do you realize you pay for a garage whether or not you own one?

He: "Let's go swimming." She: "I don't swim." He: "Let's go bathing." She: "I don't." Oh, shut up.

Yesterday we saw this sign on the back of a flivver: "Do not laugh, girls, how would you like to lose your paint?"

There are some houses in Goldthwaite that could use that sign. If so, remember we have the paint.

What wouldn't we give for the ol' swimming hole, on a day like this?

A house without paint looks like a flapper just fresh from going in swimming.

But we still have our Fords, and cool off, with a ride after dark—provided the darn things don't break down.

Make your car look like a new dollar or two. Use DuPont Auto finish.

Mary had a little lamb, The plot begins to thicken, She sold it to a restaurant, And now they call it chicken.
