

THE GOLDTHWAITE EAGLE

A daughter of the Bolivian Minister to Paris, was robbed of a $24,000 pearl necklace Sunday by a thief who invaded her bedroom during her fifteen minute absence.

The city marshal of Nocona, accidentally shot himself in the left breast while attempting to make an arrest late Saturday night. He dropped his gun, which was discharged as it struck the sidewalk. The bullet entered his breast.

A creamery salesman was burned to death, a young woman killed and a customs officer injured fatally when two closed automobiles were converted into blazing infernos following a head-on collision on Galveston Highway near Genoa, eighteen miles from Houston, late Saturday.

A celebration was held at Anderson, Grimes county, last week in honor of the 150th anniversary of the death of Gen. C. Pulaski, killed in the Revolutionary War. About 1,000 took part.

A few nights ago while a farmer near El Paso slept soundly, thieves hitched his team to his wagon, loaded part of his furniture and thirty turkeys and drove the whole outfit across the border into Mexico.

At Fredericksburg, Joe King, who was to have been married Monday and who helped select his bride's trousseau Saturday, shot and killed himself Sunday using the same gun his father used several years ago for the same purpose.

Palo Pinto County voters on Saturday defeated by a wide margin a proposition to authorize a road bond issue of $1,750,000. With four small boxes not reported, the vote stood 1,399 for and 1,461 against and it was doubtful whether the proposition, requiring a two-thirds vote, would receive a majority. Mineral Wells, voted 1,166 for and 99 against.

Two bandits attacked a bank messenger, with gas bombs on the street of Salt Lake City, Thursday afternoon, shot a policeman through the neck and escaped with $32,000 cash.

Two other men were declared to have been in the car when the robbers escaped after they had seized the satchel containing the money.

Official participation by the United States in the world bank now being formed in Europe still is opposed by this government. The United States attitude toward the bank is one of sympathetic interest, but this government will not permit the federal reserve board or the treasury to be represented officially on its directorate, it was said authoritatively.

In New York City, Charles Delos Waggoner, Telluride, Colo., banker, pleaded guilty to fraud when his case was called in federal court Friday. He was sentenced to 15 years imprisonment in the Atlanta federal penitentiary. The charge grew out of Waggoner's clever ruse in obtaining $500,000 from six New York banks to aid the Telluride bank, of which he was president. He had used telegrams with banking code and letters, according to the federal charge, to establish credit in the New York banks, and these credits gave the half million dollars to the little Colorado institution. The Colorado bank later was closed.

Adults Contract Children's Diseases

Adults can, and do, contract many children's diseases. And, usually, they suffer from them much more than children do. For instance, many adults contract worms, an ailment usually associated with children. Sometimes they suffer intensely and take expensive medical treatments, without realizing that worms are the cause of their troubles. Yet, the symptoms are the same as in children, loss of appetite and weight, grinding the teeth and restless sleep, itching of the nose and anus, and abdominal pains. And, the same medicine that surely and harmlessly expels round and pin worms from children will do the same for adults. Use 'Little's Green Vermifuge, which you can get at HUDSON BROS., Druggists

SHOULD INK BE FREE

HOUSTON, Texas, Oct. 12.—Dr. J. E. Diddy of Brownwood president of the State Medical Association, delivered a biting attack on the policies of Texas doctors and advocated use of publicity to spread the gospel of health in an address before the annual convention of the South Texas Medical Association here Thursday.

"May a pious and merciful God either mark us ignorant of our neglected duty or else give us moral energy to about face on our antiquated, silent, life sacrificing, pseudo-ethical foolishness," Dr. Diddy said.

"The same thing that has buried our profession in historical obscurity is keeping medical progress out of modern literature. It is our fear of one another, our tongue-tied policy, false modesty and our inherited antiquated ethical idea that printer's ink is unprofessional and that publicity is bragadocio."

He urged that doctors make speeches, write articles and broadcast to spread the advantages of early diagnosis and the value of physical examinations.

"A thousand lives could be saved by the doctors every year in Texas by such a campaign," Dr. Diddy declared.

He urged the doctors not to be afraid to preach this educational program.

"Let's give the family physician a chance to be useful," he pleaded. "This campaign is right. It is ethical. It is timely. It has stood the test in other states."

Three Houston men were in jail Saturday, charged with robbery by firearms, following an attempted holdup and theft of a $5,150 pay roll, staged on a Franklin avenue street car Friday afternoon. Six hours after the robbery the money had been recovered and the three men arrested and identified as participants in the holdup.

An agent of the United States Department of Justice is in Texas investigating charges made by Representative Wright Patman of the Texarkana district that Texas cottonseed oil mills have entered an agreement to fix prices paid for cotton seed in alleged violation of the State and Federal anti-trust laws. If substance to the complaint is found the department will send other agents to the State for a more extended investigation.

Picking On The Automobile

Taxes are generally raised in the easiest way possible. That is one reason why automobiles and gasoline come to the minds of legislators when they are confronted with the duty of raising revenue for the support of the government and its various departments and institutions. In Texas we pay three taxes on motor cars used for pleasure, or on cars commonly known as passenger cars. We pay an ad valorem tax on the value of the car as we do on other property. Then we pay a tax for license plates which entitles us to use the car without danger of being arrested. But before we can use the car we must buy gasoline on which there is another tax, not a tax on value, but so much per gallon without regard to value.

Now it is said that the users of our roads should pay for them. This is a doctrine with which we agree, although a paved highway benefits many persons who do not use them to any large extent, increasing values of real estate and improving business conditions in town. Granting that this is a correct principle and that highways should be largely constructed and maintained by the users, then by what right has the State of Texas to take one-fourth of the money thus collected and apply it to the school fund?

Farm and Ranch feels at liberty to criticize the law which collects money from a special class for a special purpose and then authorizes the transfer of any part of it to some other fund. The stand that Farm and Ranch has taken regarding the public schools is too well known for anyone to honestly charge us with lack of interest in public education. We believe in supporting the public schools and in increasing their efficiency. We do not believe that it is up to the users of automobiles to be selected as a special class to support them.

A public school system is essential to our form of government. Its support should come from all the people. Because A owns an automobile and B does not is no reason why A should contribute more to the public school fund than does B who probably has more children of a school age than has A.

It is a fair principle of government that all revenues coming from a special tax should be applied to the special purpose for which it is raised. Let us support our schools generously, but do it in an open and above-board manner. —Farm and Ranch.

Protect your credit, you may need help again some time from the man you owe. 2t.

Xylophone Is Favorite Of Radio Listeners-In

DAVE GRUPP

Instrument of Ancient Lineage Records Well on Air

New York City.—The xylophone, a musical instrument of ancient lineage which has staged a comeback through radio, is today one of the most popular instruments for broadcasting.

The sponsor of this statement speaks with authority, for his own musical heritage is ancient, too. Dave Grupp, radio favorite and xylophone enthusiast, comes from six generations of musicians, and all of his seven brothers are well-known musicians.

"The xylophone with its clear melody takes to radio technique as a duck to water," exclaims Mr. Grupp. "It has all the quality and volume of a piano with none of its resonance. The little wooden mallets held in the hands of the player brings forth the clearest and most fascinating of tunes from the wooden keys, with its compass of two octaves. The instrument is able to send out a remarkable radio performance.

"The xylophone is found in all parts of the world, principally among the Russians, the Poles and the Tartars. In Burma it is called the Potala, in Siam the Ranat, in Java the Jambang, in Africa and Guatemala the Marimba. In fact, the Marimba is considered the native instrument of Guatemala, and especially lends itself to music with Latin-American themes and rhythms.

"Siboney," the Cuban dance which is so popular both here and in Cuba, as a foxtrot, is particularly suited for xylophone interpretation.

"The xylophone has been favored by Latin countries more than any other instrument, and its most delightful effects are heard when it plays a tune of the type of 'Siboney,' for which I continually get requests."

THE TAXING POWER

Government cannot go bankrupt as long as it has the taxing power and while the people have anything left to tax. Government units, particularly state and municipal, are levying constantly greater tax burdens on the people.

Bureaucracy tends to launch governments into experiments and pass the costs on to the taxpayers who cannot escape the bill.

Government must be maintained but it must protect from bureaucratic control which extends its activities outside the sphere of governing, encourages inefficiency and adds numberless employees to the public payroll. The taxpayers, to foot all political bills, must be ever watchful and take decisive action when necessary.—Texas Commercial News.

A SUDDEN DEATH

Died very suddenly, in Sacramento City, Calif., Oct. 10, Mr. Barrett Buck, who married Miss Joyce Harison, of Goldthwaite, six years ago, and will be remembered by the people of Goldthwaite, who met him while he was visiting the Harrison family, of this place.

Mr. Buck was a World War veteran, having joined the Canadian forces shortly after the war broke out. When the United States entered the war, Mr. Buck resigned from the Canadian forces and enlisted with our forces and served until the conclusion of the war. After the war he came to the Southwest and engaged in the oil business. He was with the Marland Co. for some years and served in both Texas and South Dakota, for that company. He resigned his position with the Marland last spring and moved to California and was in the employ of a California compa-

From Judge J. Tom Higgins we learn of the death of his aunt, Mrs. M. E. Cox of Mullin, who will be remembered in Lampasas by the older residents as she made Lampasas her home for many years. Mrs. Cox, who was 82 years of age was laid to rest in the Mullin Cemetery, Sunday afternoon and Judge and Mrs. Higgins and children attended the funeral service. Other relatives to attend were Mr. and Mrs. Will Taylor and Mrs. W. L. Trussell of Rumley, Tom Terry of Lampasas and Miss Katie Hart of Austin.—Lampasas Leader.

It will sure pay to read the advertisements in the Eagle this week. In fact, it is a mighty good habit to form, that of reading advertisements in this paper.

SOME NAMES DROPPED

Several names have been dropped from the Eagle's Subscription list this week, because of non payment of subscription. This was not done to offend, but the persons whose names were dropped have made no gesture, statement or avowal that the subscription would be paid. The Eagle would like to retain every name now on the list and those who have heretofore been on the list, but not against the will and wish of those concerned.

When the names were dropped this week a good many dollars were thrown into the wastebasket, so to speak, for the parties all owed several years subscription. This is still a debt. The fact that their names have been dropped did not settle the debt, unless it is the method and plan of those concerned to settle their obligations that way. They owe the amount all right and will con-

WEAK SPELLS

"I WAS SO weak," says Mrs. Josephine Cockcroft, of Baldock, S. C., "that I was not able to do anything."

"At certain times, I suffered dreadfully with pains in my back and sides. My head would hurt—felt like it would split open. Spells of weakness would last for weeks. "I read of Cardui. I sent for a bottle and began taking it. My case was stubborn, and at times I almost lost hope, but I could see a little improvement. At last I began to feel much better. Then I improved rapidly. For the last year I have been in better health than I ever have been before. "I give the credit to Cardui, for after I had given it a thorough trial, I got well."

Orchestra Directors with "It" Are Becoming Millionaires

BEN BERNIE
When you find you have nobody to miss you... Nobody to Kiss you... That's what you'd!

Bernie in Demand Twenty-Four Hours Each Day

With a wave of his baton, Ben Bernie, musical director at the Hotel Roosevelt, dismissed a concert a few days ago of $1,500 a week for a fifteen-minute daily appearance at a local theatre.

Bernie, "Master of Ceremonies," is so popular as a personality conductor that his time is bid for continuously by the smartest hotels and night clubs of the country.

It is not so long ago that Bernie had to leave college to help support his family. Starting out with nothing but his violin, he has made a spectacular success artistically and financially, and has become a devoted public.

At the Roosevelt, one sees passionately devoted New Yorkers who will go nowhere else for their nice music and transient guests to make sure Bernie is conducting before they talk business with a room clerk.

In interpreting popular music to his audience, the Roosevelt conductor is a master in pantomime and harmonious clownishness. It has become the fashion to go to the Roosevelt dining room almost as much to see Bernie, as to listen to him.

"What'll You Do," a new fox trot, is one of his present favorites, and his various interpretations of it brings nightly, other-orchestra directors to watch and listen.

"I especially like a song that tells a story both musically and lyrically," explains Bernie, the "Maestro." "Many songs nowadays tell a fox trot story in tune, and a waltz story in lyric. I like 'What'll You Do' because it tells a fox trot story all the way through."

In Bernie, one gets a surprise package with a vaudeville skit tucked in one corner, irresistible jazz bursting out of the sides, tied up with some of the cleverest and most original wisecracks that ever hit Broadway.

We Salute the Conqueror of darkness

On the 21st night of October, 1879, Edison threw the crude switch that sent the first beams of electric light into a world of tallow candles and wick lamps . . . beams of light that were prophetic of the greatest era of progress the world has ever known. Someone has said the throwing of that switch gave civilization its greatest impetus since the invention of the printing press and movable type.

Electricity has lengthened the days of man . . . given him more time for leisure, for thinking. It has given Industry a tool by which it has lightened the burdens of all Mankind. It is the means by which the common burdens of Womankind have been lifted from her shoulders.

On the 21st day of October we will celebrate the Golden Jubilee of the incandescent lamp. Thomas A. Edison will be feted at a great Birthday Party at Dearborn, Michigan, and all the nation will do him honor.

Universal tribute will be paid to Edison, who has lifted innumerable burdens from the shoulders of Mankind with the invention of electric light and the perfection of ways and means of applying electric energy to domestic and industrial uses. We salute the Conqueror of Darkness!

We want you to know what this policy has meant in the development of the Chevrolet Six—the modern car of universal appeal. We want you to know that Chevrolet has brought within the reach of everybody, everywhere, all the advantages of smooth, six-cylinder performance. Come in today!

CLASS MEETING

On Thursday evening, October 10th, the Fidelis Sunday school class met in the home of Mrs. Floyd Jackson and spent a very pleasant evening.

After business matters were attended to, the class was entertained by some good music rendered by James Jackson, Weldon Jackson, Harmon Frazier and Henry Kemp Dalton.

Tables and dominoes were then brought and a number of games of "42" were played, after which time refreshments consisting of delicious ice cream and cake were served.

Along with her refreshments Miss Mildred Stephens, bride of this month, was surprised by the presentation to her of a lovely serving tray by the class. She was also given a little book of "good wishes," in which each member had written.

It is with regret that we give Mildred up, but seeing no other way out, will have to consent to her going.

In conclusion, will say that the Fidelis Class extends to every girl who is not in some Sunday School, an invitation to join and become a member of one of the best classes in the Baptist Sunday School.

Brown: "Do you think it's cold enough for a coat?"
When cold weather comes, Jones: "Yes, and pants too," are you going to keep warm?

If your home is lined with SHEET ROCK OR CEL-O-TEX you probably won't need any fire at all.

His arm went 'round her slender waist;
She coyly raised her head. "Your form" he said, "is quite divine."
"Of corset is," she said.

Albert Schumann of Priddy is doing a great deal of improving. Preacher Swindle is doing his work.

The freshest things around some grocery stores are the clerks. DU PONT Paint is also always fresh.

Small son: "Papa, what do the mean by college bred. Is it different from any other kind of bread?"

Father: "My son, it is a foot year loaf."

Come in and let us tell you about CERTIFIED ASPHAL SHINGLES.

"They won't make a brick layer out of me," said the hen as she shoved the porcelain egg out of the nest.

Build that goat or sheep shed now and you won't be crying and grumbling because you lost some of your goats or sheep when a cold winter spe comes.

One man who marries oft and never regrets it is the minister.
