VOLUME THIRTY-FIVE.

GOLDTHWAITE, MILLS COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1929.

NUMBER FIFTY-ONE

NEW SCHOOL BUILDING SCENE OF PUBLIC GATHERING

New Grand Piano On Display

On Wednesday night, Oct. 25, the following program was sponsored by the Treble Cleff Club.

Master of ceremonies, D. A. Newton.

Music by orchestra.
Welcome address, F. P. Bowman.

Reading—Virginia Wallace
I Passed by Your Window—
Brahe Ciribin Pestalozzi—Mrs.
Fred Martin

Reading—Mrs. L. J. Gartman

Goldthwaite Progressive Education—D. A. Newton

School talk—Judge Patterson—“Win a Blowing” “Kentucky Babe”—Treble Cleff Club.

On arrival the guests were served delicious punch in office of Mrs. Joe Palmer and then were greeted by trustees, faculty and officers of the P. T. A.

Mr. Bowman's talk was an inspiration to all music lovers, creating a desire to do more in the interest of music in the future. This forward step was Public School Music for our school. This talk was much appreciated by the club.

Mr. Newton's talk in appreciation of the building and the new piano, and expressing the desire other clubs would lead in securing much needed equipment. If the public will follow the leadership of Mr. Newton in carrying forward his plans the future of the school will be assured.

Judge Patterson inspired all to do better work in the future.

At the conclusion a collection was made to assist in payment of the piano. Those present contributed liberally. The amount received enabled us to bring the payment down to three hundred dollars, the original price of the piano being $850. The piano concert—Grand Gulbrausen—which on the authority of the foremost musicians in the best medium priced make on the market, L. J. Gartman, local dealer from whom the instrument was purchased, greatly accommodated the club in sale plan. This being greatly appreciated.

The Treble Cleff Club and joint session and voted to sponsor a new piano for the new school building, which they purchased and placed in the building with the hope that every child's education would be materially benefitted and that they acquire a better appreciation of good music.

The organization appreciates the contributions from friends and solicits co-operation of the public in their enterprise.

“LUCKY STAR”

On Monday and Tuesday nights at the Dixie Theatre, one of the best shows yet seen in Goldthwaite will be featured—“Lucky Star.” It is the first talky in which Janet Jaynor and Charles Farrell star, it being about half talky and about half silent. The story is one that will arouse our interest and hold your attention from its beginning to its close. It is a new show, having recently been shown in all the big cities where it has received most favorable comment. The Self Culture Club will share the proceeds from “Lucky Star” and your presence will be greatly appreciated. Come and bring your friends. You will all thank our lucky stars that you have seen “Lucky Star.” The management of the Dixie Theatre and The Self Culture Club will be most grateful. Remember Monday and Tuesday nights—“Lucky Star.”

LIONS CLUB COMMITTEES TO ENTER UPON DUTIES

Much Helpful Civic Work Planned

The Lions club, at a recent meeting, decided to take on some definite work and authorized the appointment of committees to look after the various details. The ladies also agreed to give assistance and pledged co-operation in the work. It is hoped the committees have been so formed as to prevent over-lapping duties, but should such appear, all members are working to the same purpose and will give the work their careful attention.

Other committees will be formed as the necessity arises and it may be necessary for the chairmen here named to make additions to their committee, but there is no doubt the work will be well done.

These committees are in addition to the standing committees required by the national organization and named at the time the Lions Club was organized in Goldthwaite in May.

Much Activity Among Various Organizations

Ladies Sunday School Class Entertained

On Monday evening of this week, Mrs. R. M. Thompson entertained in a very novel manner, using Hallowe'en suggestions as the chief motif in her decorations. The guests carried out the same idea, coming masked, representing witches or characters from different parts of the world. Black cats, Jack O'Lanterns, clowns, Chinamen and numerous “imps of Satan” mingled in real comradeship for several hours.

It was really a mystery where some of the characters did come from, for when a number of them took their turn at being “guessed at” they were too much for the imaginations or knowledge of the others. The unmasking brought to light the smiling countenances of the members of the Philathea Class of the M. E. Sunday school.

After the merriment subsided they gave their attention to a short business session. The refreshments consisting of grape juice and ginger cake appealed to Chinamen and black cats alike. About thirty members of the class enjoyed Mrs. Thompson's hospitality on this occasion. MEMBER.

CIRCLE NO. 1 MEETS

W. M. U. Circle No. 1 met at the church Monday, Oct. 28 at 3 o'clock, with Mrs. Ivins, president. There was a short business session in which several reports were made, also mention of the box for Buckner Orphans' home, which is soon to be packed and sent in. There were ten present.

We are studying the book, Ann of Avd., which is very interesting. This book has 16 chapters and half of the book was finished and chapters assigned for the next lesson, which will finish the book.

Mrs. Bownan, who is our teacher, is very efficient and capable of teaching this book. She has the questions outlined for the examination.

Mrs. Campbell visited the Don't miss this study. Circle and presented a very interesting plan to the ladies. This circle is for the young ladies and we would indeed be glad to have more present. It will help us greatly and you will be benefitted by coming to these meetings. Come the 4th Monday in November.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday morning was very unfavorable, but we had a splendid attendance at Sunday school, putting us beyond the two hundred mark for the weekly average during the month of October.

The programs that have been put on by the different Sunday school classes on Sunday morning just before the sermon have all been helpful, and entertaining. Next Sunday the T. E. L. class will render their program. These programs do not in any way interfere with our preaching service. They are contributions to our service. Just remember that our services are combined and every moment is utilized from the beginning, with the Sunday school, to the closing of the preaching service.

The pastor is more than pleased with the work of the “Woman's Missionary Society” under the leadership of the president, Mrs. Campbell. Thirty were present in the different circles Monday afternoon, which goes to show the interest that is being manifested upon the part of the ladies. Its true that all the ladies can not join in this work, because of other duties, but all that can should by all means do so, and help make this one of the best organizations fostered by the church.

This preacher would not object if the West Texas Conference for the Methodist church would meet every quarter, if the Methodists would worship at the Baptist church like they did last Sunday. We are always glad to have them, and have their help in our services.

This pastor with his church extends to Brother Lambert, and his estimable family a cordial welcome back to his work for another year. Our fellowship together has been one of joy, and we only wish for him the best years work in the history of his ministry.

This preacher had the privilege of meeting brother W. M. Taylor, who is 86 years, 2 months, and 10 days young. For 35 years he was a citizen of this county, but for the past 6 years residing in Brownwood. It was a joy to talk to this man. For 66 years he says he has been serving the Lord, and still he is not tired, and the greatest joy that he gets out of life now it to sit by his radio and hear the old time songs that he used to sing when he was a boy, and to sing them again in his soul as he hears them sung, also to hear one of God's ministers preach the old time Gospel. The old songs and the old Gospel will never grow old. There is nothing on earth that can bring the joy to a man's soul who has lived for more than four score years, and who has partially lost his sight and hearing, than to know that he is a “Child of the King,” and that he is just waiting for the summons of his Lord, to go to his Heavenly Home.

It is pitiful for men and women to go thru this life, living to a ripe old age and never know the joy that there is in serving God. Doubtless some will read these notes that have passed over the hill, and are marching steadily on toward the setting of their sun, that know nothing about the joys of serving God.

Let this be a reminder to

METHODIST CHURCH

Our annual conference came to a close last Sunday night with the reading of the appointment of all the pastors of the West Texas Conference to their charges, circuits, stations and missions. The appointing of the preachers was but one item of the many great ones at this conference. Missions, Sunday Schools, Epworth Leagues Summer assemblies, educational interests, etc. You may think when reading this, that either the conference ignored, or I left off the principal work of the Church of God, soul saving.

but if you were acquainted with our methods of work you would not only see that all that was done was shot through with that spirit and motive but that the very first item I have mentioned above “Missions” has to do with the appointment of every evangelist and the soul saving program of our church in each individual church as well beyond the local realm. Some years ago I attended a banquet by and for the promoters of a Power and Light company and watched with much interest the attention each man was giving to anything suggestive of progress. This bunch of men from the cities and small towns whose common interest was the promotion of their great work of lightening the burdens of men and doing this in a way that meant an increase financially that would make for permanency in this work would inspire any one. If you have caught the vision of what that means, you are beginning to get ready for the vision of about five hundred men and women from the vast regions of our great conference with the unselfish purpose of bringing in the Kingdom of God in the uplifting of mankind. With nearly three hundred, with no other business or livelihood, than the proclamation of the saving gospel and the upbuilding of the work that was started so many years ago. This conference was great in accord with the vision inspired in us to better do the tasks committed to us. There were an unusual number of changes of pastors to other points. In our own district, Kerrville, Lampasas, Llano and San Saba get new pastors as well as many of the smaller points. Goldthwaite was not thus honored. The conference preferred giving honor to the pastor. Our next conference will meet at Harlingen, which will mean much farther to go but the privilege of seeing the Valley.

We expect a great audience and a gracious worship Sunday morning and night. You are welcome at our church. Our Sunday school will be a help to you, no matter what your age. Our Leagues are doing a lasting work in a beautiful way. Our highest delight is to be of service. If we can't help you, won't you help us?

Yours in His service,
S. D. LAMBERT.

Let everybody go to church Sunday.
G. C. IVINS.

ROCK SPRINGS

Our number was small again Sunday for Sunday school. There was a nice crowd at B. Y. P. U. meeting.

Miss Oneta Traylor brought her friend Miss Jewel Black home with her Friday afternoon. These two young ladies teach at Duren.

Will Stark and wife have been sick this week.
Wick and R. C. Webb and wife went to town to church Sunday and spent the day in the Will Harris home.

Marion Robertson and family from Big Valley spent Sunday with J. T. Robertson and family.

To my surprise Sunday morning there was a telephone call saying I was invited to Mr. Landy Ellis' to partake of the good eats that had been prepared by Mesdames Ellis and Ballard for myself and Mrs. Ballard's birthday dinner. The dinner certainly was fine. Those invited were: Mrs. Nickols, Mrs. Shirley, Mr. and Mrs. C. Ballard, and Mr. Collier Ballard. It is nice to have friends.

Webb and Nickols have been going hunting since the nice rains. They always say they get a chase but it is a “fox” chase.

There has been two nice chimneys built lately, one at R. C. Webb's and one at M. R. Circle on Mr. Jno. Roberts farm.

Abijah Stark got hit in the eye with a limb last week while thrashing pecans.

Mrs. Eula Nickols and Philip and Shirley sat until bed time with Otis and Bess Hutchings last Thursday night at Center Point.

J. T. Robertson and his son Douglas from Lake Merritt made a trip to Santa Anna last Friday. They visited Gus Roush and family while there.

James Nickols spent Saturday night at home.

Mrs. Mary Redford is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Dan Western in the city.

Last Wednesday morning about 9 o'clock the ladies met at Mrs. Nickols' home to quilt a quilt for Buckner Orphans. There were fourteen ladies present, each brought something for dinner and by the time everything was ready to put on the table, there was a table of good eats. They also had hot chocolate and coffee to drink. Mr. J. T. Robertson made his trip to town and back in time for dinner. By 3 o'clock the quilt was out of the frames and ready to hem. We hope the children at the home get as much pleasure using this quilt as the ladies did making it for them. The ladies will send a coop of nice fat hens for their Thanksgiving feast.

George Buchanan and family and his mother and Andy Ellis and family attended B. Y. P. U. Sunday night.

Mrs. Eula Nickols and boys attended the nice program Friday night in the new school building in the city.

The W. M. S. met Monday afternoon in Mrs. Nickols' home with six present. The

FORMER CITIZEN HERE

Pane Kemsy, a prosperous stock farmer of Lometa, in town Tuesday with his family. He was on his way to Coryell county for a visit to friends. Mr. Kemsy came to Lampasas county nearly fifty years ago, and for a time was a stage driver. In 1885 he came to Goldthwaite, bringing stock and vehicles for the first livery business. It was established by Senterfitt & Wright, and the old stable still stands on block eleven on Parker Street. The horses were for a while kept in a brush pen. Mrs. Kemsy is a niece of the late Esquire Roach.

SELF CULTURE CLUB

The Self Culture Club held a very interesting meeting on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 24. Fourteen members and one associate member were present. Mrs. J. A. Hester was leader for the afternoon's study of the dramatists, Henry Arthur Pinero and Oscar Wilde. “The Second Mrs. Tangueray” and “Lady Windemere's Fan” were the plays the club gave special attention to. The life and earlier works of Pinero were discussed by Mrs. W. K. Marshall. “Andrea del Sarto,” a poem by Browning, was read by Mrs. C. C. Saylor. The music was “Anita's Dance.”

meeting was opened with a song and prayer by Mrs. McClary. The leader, Mrs. Nickols read the 20th chapter of Matthew. All commented on the chapter, then attended to their business and were dismissed by prayer by Mrs. Circle.

Shirley Nickols spent Saturday night in the Joe Roberts' home at Bulls Creek.

Mr. Woodie Traylor and family spent Friday night with Mrs. Robertson and Billie.

Miss Ethel McClary spent a few days last week with Mrs. Joe Roberts.

Almos McGowan's nice Jersey cow died last week.

R. C. Webb and wife, Woodie Traylor and family, Mrs. Nickols and James enjoyed a chat with J. M. Traylor and family Saturday night.

Mrs. J. M. Traylor went to Brownwood with Mrs. E. D. Robertson last Wednesday, to see Mrs. Moore who has been very ill but they think she is better.

Joe Huffman and family and Roy McNutt spent Sunday in the McNutt home.

Mrs. Joe Roberts and boys and Mrs. Homer Doggett attended the quilting last Wednesday.

Ray Davis and family from Big Valley, visited Joe Davis and wife Sunday afternoon.

Oscar Gatlin is a busy man. He is hauling wood to town for his mother.

Mrs. Jno. W. Roberts was accompanied to Brownwood last Thursday by Mrs. John Edlin and Mrs. Ed Davis of Center Point.

M. R. Circle is back at his old trade cutting and hauling wood to town.

Homer Circle and wife and Jim Circle of San Saba spent Sunday with the Circle family.

J. O. McClary went to Mr. Woods' sale at Center Point Monday.

We are real proud of the nice rains we have gotten the last few days. BUSY BEE.

THE GOLDTHWAITE EAGLE

Texas has 253 organized counties and one unorganized county—Loving. The unorganized county won't be that way long, as plans are being made to organize it.

Four unidentified Mexicans were blown to bits near Sugarland, 21 miles from Houston, when several cases of dynamite exploded. The four men, members of a dredging crew of the Sugarland Industries, were eating their lunches while seated on cases containing the explosive when it went off.

Texas' wealth is increasing at the rate of $1,400,000 a day or $507,000,000 a year, according to recent announcement of the State Comptroller. Taxable values for the current year are $4,144,446,118, an increase of $169,036,982 over last year. This is the first time in history that Texas' wealth has passed the four billion mark.

With flag flying at half mast, the Soviet steamer 'Lieutenant Schmidt,' carrying the bodies of 86 American officers and soldiers who perished during the Archangel campaign of 1918 and 1919, steamed out of the harbor at Leningrad Sunday for Harve, France. From Harve America's honored dead will be transported homeward by an American battleship with impressive ceremonies.

The Prison Centralization Commission voted 10 to 4, Friday to recommend to the Legislature that a modern, industrialized central penitentiary plant be located on a site within 20 miles of Austin. The subcommittee appointed by the commission to recommend a suitable site near Austin reported that there were several suitable tracts which could be obtained 'at a reasonable cost' without specifying any definite choice.

It is said Mrs. Taylor Rose, former Governor of Wyoming, has very decided opinions on the task she went to Washington to begin—organizing women's activities at Democratic national headquarters. She has christened the subject of her endeavor "the women's arm of the Democratic party" because she refuses to call it a "women's division" or a "women's organization" or a "women's auxiliary." She does not argue women's equality in the political field, but women's indispensability.

Estimating that possibly as much as two-thirds of the cotton crop was still in the hands of the farmers, W. B. Yeary, secretary-treasurer of the Farmers Marketing Association of America, declared in a statement Saturday that it would be "financial suicide to permit further selling at present prices." Yeary estimated that spinners had taken 3,332,000 of the 10,000,000 odd bales ginned and that buyers have not more than 1,500,000 on hand. He also estimated that a third of the crop is yet to be gathered.

Adults Contract Children's Diseases

Adults can, and do, contract many children's diseases. And, usually, they suffer from them much more than children do. For instance, many adults contract worms, an ailment usually associated with children. Sometimes they suffer intensely and take expensive medical treatments, without realizing that worms are the cause of their troubles. Yet, the symptoms are the same as in children, loss of appetite and weight, grinding the teeth and restless sleep, itching of the nose and anus, and abdominal pains. And, the same medicine that surely and harmlessly expels round and pin worms from children will do the same for adults. White's Worm Vermifuge, which you can get at HUDSON BROS., Druggists

PREACHERS PLACED

The annual session of the West Texas Methodist conference, held at San Antonio, adjourned Sunday night, after the reading of the conference appointments by Bishop Moore. Many changes were made among the appointments and quite a few were made in the Llano district, as will be seen by the roster of the district here given:

EAGLES DEFEAT HORNETS

The second team of the Goldthwaite Eagles arrived in Lometa about 4:30 last Thursday afternoon for a football game with the second team Hornets. The game was fast and interesting with both teams doing fine. The Eagles carried the ball over the goal line in the first half for a touchdown and the kick for extra point was good. The half ended with the score, Goldthwaite 7—Lometa 0.

Ten minutes later the teams were in action again. The last half was a tighter game and both teams played fine football. In the third quarter the Eagle fullback carried the ball a long distance for another touchdown. The try for extra point failed. In the last quarter Lometa completed a long pass and carried the ball over for a touchdown. The try for extra point failed and the game ended with the score, Goldthwaite 13—Lometa 6. —Lometa Reporter.

CHRISTMAS CARDS

It may seem a little too early to begin soliciting orders for Christmas Cards, but time gets away pretty quick and before we realize its passage, the coming event is upon us. But what we started to say was that the Eagle office has both samples and stock for Christmas cards that can not be excelled and those who call early and have their cards prepared or laid aside will get the most satisfactory service. Just come and look at the samples and there is not a question about your order being placed.

FIELD NOTES BY THE MISSIONARY

The first thing that I want to say is to correct a mistake that the Eagle or I made last week. The paper has me saying that I feel that "Mullin needs my service." I did not intend to say that, but if I did say it I sure did make a mistake. What I meant to say was that I am willing to go to any church or community and assist them in their work if they feel that they need me.

The second thing that I want to say is that I have ordered one dozen B. Y. P. U. Manuals. I will teach a course in this work to any class in the country that may invite me. I will teach a course in the church at Star, beginning Monday night November 11th. I am a great believer in the B. Y. P. U. work. I feel that our young people should take on new life in their B. Y. P. U. work. The following is an outline of the course that I will teach.

The Purpose of the Modern B. Y. P. U.

- (1) To deepen the spiritual life of our Baptist young people.
- (2) To help them express their Christian experience and training in Christian service.
- (3) To cultivate Christian fellowship among all of our Baptist young people.
- (4) To train them in the principles of Christian stewardship.
- (5) To instruct all of our Baptist young people in Baptist doctrine and history.
- (6) To train them in all essential church activities such as teaching in the Sunday school, in working with the W. M. U., serving as deacons and winning the lost to Christ.
- (7) To create the desire among the young people for systematic Bible study and reading.
- (8) To enlist them in all missionary endeavors at home and around the world.

The sum of all this is consecration, preparation and service. Don't forget the workers' meeting at Liberty, next Monday. Respectfully, W. A. THORNTON.

(The dropping of a line in the communication of Rev. Thornton last week, changed the meaning of his communication entirely, which is very much regretted, but such things will happen in the operation of a Linotype and can not always be prevented, no matter how careful we are or how anxious we are to have everything correct.)

GREATEST THING IN LIFE

What is it? To stick around? To be useful? To do one's duty? Yes, first and foremost to those who are dependent on you—your immediate family. It is not their fault that you are related to them. Your duty to them performed, you may develop yourself as an individual. Your personality, your individuality are next in importance. Is it not in a national sense highly important that we formulate a national philosophy founded on the efficient individual and service for the masses? The concept of Americans by the Europeans, that we are a nation of men and women who are mere dollar chasers, is a mistaken one. We have amassed the most dollars because we have made wealth a by-product of principle, not putting dollar-worship first. The principle of service, better service, more service, has become the greatest thing in life with American industrial leaders. Men who have made millions are generally plain and common as old shoes.

THE POLITICAL COW

Gasoline taxes have increased from an average of only 50 cents per motor vehicle in 1921, to $13 per vehicle in 1928, according to the American Petroleum Institute. It is forecast that the average may be as high as $17 this year. Every state now taxes gasoline, with rates ranging from two to six cents per gallon. Thirty states collect four cents or more and seven states have a five-cent levy. The interest the press of the nation has taken in the war against exorbitant gas taxes is one of the most hopeful signs for future relief. A survey of editorial comment indicates that most editors favor a reasonable gasoline tax, with revenue efficiently and honestly expended for highway building and maintenance. It is likewise the editorial belief that high gas tax rates, diversion of revenue to other purposes than road work and waste and inefficiency in spending the money, should not be tolerated. To levy a tax against such a commodity as gasoline and use the proceeds for general purposes is discriminatory legislation of the most obnoxious type. And the tendency, noted by the newspapers of many states, of wasting gas tax money in building unsuitable and 'political' highways, amount to confiscation of the motorist's property. The general public must co-operate if the gas tax menace is to be effectively opposed. Already rumbles are heard from several states as law-makers plan to further boost taxes during the coming year. Gasoline is in danger of becoming a political cow, to be milked whenever money is needed for some purpose or other.

THE MAN WHO PAYS

A gentleman who owns property, maintains a steady payroll and pays heavy taxes was asked his opinion on a proposed "special" tax measure. Replied, he said: "My opinion will be considered prejudiced because I am not a guest at the county poor farm. Nevertheless, I am an investor and maintain a payroll which helps keep many families in my state. I still have the right to express myself as the power of speech has not yet been legislated or taxed away. Double taxation and all forms of special taxation get farther and farther away from the basic principle of equal taxation and tend to undermine democracy and the constitutional rights of our citizens. Most tax bills today are framed on the theory of expediency; that is, from whom can the most be taken in taxes with the least likelihood of losing votes, and to camouflage as far as possible the continual increase in per capita tax bills required to cover the cost of new and 'progressive' or 'socialistic' legislation which is constantly forced on the people. Economy with the 'other fellow's money' (the taxpayer) is something that the average legislator and law-maker is not in favor of. It is promised before elections but consummation of the promise is seldom seen."

BIDS ASKED

Bids for transporting the mails over Star routes emanating from the post-office at Goldthwaite are now solicited from responsible bidders. All bids must be at Washington, D. C., by Jan. 14, 1930. Apply at Goldthwaite, or any office in the county which is the starting point of a Star Route. A. J. HARRISON,

NEWSPAPERS HELP

Occasionally a business man will decide that the newspaper advertising rates are too high and resort to circulars for his advertising. He fails to consider that the cost in this way is more and the benefits less. It has been fully demonstrated that more than half the circulars distributed are never read, but are thrown away without consideration, and only 25 per cent of them ever reach the homes, while the newspaper is carried to the home and kept read or referred to almost daily. Furthermore, the newspaper is constantly keeping the people who buy goods interested in the merchants of the town through local publicity and support of home institutions, and is a weekly invitation to the citizens of the trade territory to come to its town to shop, and all this is free work, which is not and cannot be done by any other institution. A town without a newspaper would die in six months, and a newspaper without the hearty co-operation and support of the business interests is already the same as dead. No business institution pays its local newspaper as much as it is worth directly to his business. —Grandbury News.

FEDERAL AID

The value of the board's announced program for aiding the cotton farmer lies, of course in the larger loan value which is made available to cotton. The co-operatives have been able to borrow federal funds before this on properly concentrated and warehoused cotton. But they have not been able to borrow so much on a bale. They are now able to obtain from various federal sources, such as heretofore have been accessible, or from the Farm Board direct, loans up to a total of 16 cents a pound, less reductions to cover freight from concentration point to primary markets. This means that the farmer who joins a co-operative may ship his cotton to the concentration point designated by the co-operative and receive immediately an advance of 16 cents a pound. When the co-operative has carried through its full marketing program, selling cotton gradually as the market calls for it, the whole season's production handled by that co-operative is pooled and final settlement is made to individual farmers on a basis of the price received by the co-operative for all the cotton. This price, it is obvious, may be more than the 16 cents already advanced to the farmer, while it can not be less because there is no "come-back" under the farm relief law after the board has loaned the money. If the cotton actually should bring less than the 16 cents a pound loaned by the Government, the Government simply stands the loss.

The influence of the board's action should be exerted in two directions favorable to the cotton farmer. It will relieve him of the necessity of selling his cotton to meet his financial obligations; since he may borrow 16 cents a pound, which is approximately the sum he would receive if he sold it, he can settle his debts as well by taking the loan, and he will still retain ownership of the cotton so that if any advance in price comes he and not the middleman will get the profit. It should also operate to check short selling and hedge selling in the cotton market, due to the open weather producing a heavy movement of the staple from the farms, which have been a factor in forcing prices down.

It is perfectly obvious that cotton farmers everywhere must ally themselves with co-operatives in order to obtain the benefit of the board's action. The use of the co-operatives is now a strong one, whereas formerly it was not always so. The farmer has everything to gain and nothing to lose by joining. There should

WHY WOMEN WORK

Another theory has been exploded by the facts.

Women do not work to earn pin money for clothes and feminine doo-dads. They seek gainful employment either to support themselves or to aid their families — in probably nine cases out of every ten. A recent census by the department of labor conclusively shows this to be the case.

Some 8,500,000 women, of whom 2,000,000 were married, were working in this country when the 1920 census was taken. It is estimated that this number has now greatly increased. It is also believed that many more married women now work for pay at various jobs. Living costs and husbands' failure to earn satisfactory incomes to supply modern demands probably account for such increase.

Obviously, such a condition can not work toward the improvement of the American home. —Houston Press.

BAND AT BROWNWOOD

The United States Army Band concert at Brownwood Saturday afternoon and night will be of unusual interest to music lovers and especially to members of bands and orchestras. This is perhaps the foremost band of America and Rex Gaither and other citizens of Brownwood who have been instrumental in securing its coming to Brownwood are entitled to much credit. A large delegation is expected to attend from Goldthwaite and Mr. Gaither reports that reservations are being made from all of the surrounding towns as well as from the citizens of Brownwood. Two concerts will be given Saturday, one in the afternoon and the other at night. Those who are expecting to attend either or both of these concerts would do well to communicate with Mr. Gaither and secure reservations. While such reservations are not absolutely necessary, since the auditorium to be used will hold a vast throng of people.

not be another bale of cotton sold by a farmer except through a co-operative. Local bankers and merchants, who as suppliers of the farmer's credit would a large influence, should be found co-operating with the Farm Board's program, for it is clear that whatever promotes orderly marketing promotes all interests in the cotton country. The yearly plea for orderly marketing of cotton has failed in the past because the farmer was called upon to assume most of the risk of a falling market. Now the Federal Farm Board is assuming that risk—at least in respect to the present crop. —Star Telegram.

NEW TRACTOR DESIGN

It has been less than ten years since people were saying that the tractor would never meet the diverse requirements of the general farm, but the changes in design of both the tractors and the implements they draw have brought them very near to the realization of the engineer's dream. They are still handicapped in their competition with the horse by the fact that their food cannot be grown on the farm—at least it is not now practical to do so—and Old Dobbin can still find some work even where the major jobs are given to the gasoline giants. You can't very well saddle up the tractor when the cows get out and go chase them in, and no farm boy has been properly reared unless he has learned to ride bareback and get thrown off a horse a few times.

The combine threatens the binder twin industry; the giant plows and drills do away with two or three men each in their operation; the cotton chopper cuts out most of the hoe hands; the corn harvester, the ensilage cutter and the feed grinder reduce the labor of the dairyman or cattle feeder to a boy's task and at the same time give greater returns from the feed crops; the cream separator and the milking machine give one man the capacity of several; and now the cotton picker—yes, there was one being shown this year—promises to solve the Mexican immigration problem and make it unnecessary for the landlord to ask his prospective tenants 'how many children have you got?'

The implement show at the State Fair was an education in farm engineering, but is also had its economic and sociological meanings for those who will think them through. Farm and Ranch.

DESTROYED DOLLARS

Dollars, represented by property, die when fire destroys. Whether the blaze consumes a great tract of forest or a one-acre tract, it means a permanent economic loss. The money invested can never again work to produce profits. It is definitely and literally dead. This is a direct loss. The indirect loss, in waste of time and unemployment, may be even greater. The tax that would be paid on a destroyed building is reassessed against other citizens. The rates charged by insurance companies are determined by the aggregate average fire loss. Every citizen in the community pays for every fire. Something that contributes its share, large or small, to progress and social or industrial development, has been totally destroyed. Instead of an asset, it becomes an expense. These are simple matters, but they are seldom realized. A few minutes' thought must bring home to every citizen the appalling danger of our gigantic annual fire waste. Thrift, industry, saving, hope—fire destroys them in the flickering of an eye. And the bill is charged against the national pocket-book.

Thirty-six cents a pound on fine wool and mohair is being sought before Congress by C. C. Belcher of Del Rio, member of the executive committee of the Sheep and Goat Raisers' association of Texas. The pending tariff bill provides a duty of 31 cents, the same as in the existing law. Mr. Belcher is seeking a corresponding increase in duty on wool waste.

CATCH OUTLAW WOLF

George Ralston and Earl Day of this city succeeded in trapping and killing a notorious wolf in the Ebony community Sunday morning. The wolf was well known over a big portion of Mills and Brown counties, being an extra large and old one. There was a standing reward of $150 for his capture for many months. He left his path strewn with dead goats and sheep. It is understood that the community is organizing a predatory animal club, and do not intend stopping until all wolves are exterminated. —Brownwood Bulletin.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

One of the grandest privileges of men is to worship God in spirit and in truth. John 4: 24. We make an earnest and honest effort to carry out the above inspired injunction in our humble services each Lord's day. We keep in mind the command, Speaking to yourselves in psalms, hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord, Eph. 5: 19. Another command we try to observe is, Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth, second Tim. 2: 15. We follow the practice of New Testament Christians set forth in Acts 20: 7, and upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight. We also exercise the privilege to approach our Heavenly Father in prayer. Pray without ceasing, first Thes. 5: 17. And how well we, as individuals carry out the command "1 Cor. 16: 2. Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come," is a matter for each of us to seriously consider. To my brethren, I exhort you to think on these things and be with us in worship next Lord's day.

Mesdames Meredith Chessler and Hawkins of Brownwood were recent guests of Mrs. Ozelle Robinson.

Hallowe'en Party at the Home of M. E. Casey

One of the most delightful social events of the season was the recent party at this hospitable home.

The lawn and house was effectively decorated with Japanese and Jack o'lanterns to give the spooks a golden opportunity to peep at you when they so desired.

There were lovely Hallowe'en favors. Tables were assembled and the fascinating games of bridge, croconole and 42 absorbed the time and attention of the merry party until the hostess came with several unique contests. In the cake contest Mrs. W. S. Kemp won the high score and received a bread knife and a lovely board with a tinted design.

Mrs. W. C. Preston was made 'happy' with the low and made the house merry with her horn. The genial hostess, whose culinary fame has spread to the four corners of the city served dainty refreshment collations.

Those enjoying this occasion were: Mesdames A. G. Weston, S. M. Casey, H. R. McDonald, S. V. Roberts, W. C. Preston, L. L. Wilson, G. W. Fletcher, S. J. Casey, L. J. Smith, W. S. Kemp, Jewel Ivy, R. H. Patterson, F. E. Leinneweber, W. V. Priddy and Miss Anita Fletcher.

One of the warmest political campaigns waged in any municipality in Texas will come to a head today with an election which will decide whether the city of Cleburne will build its own lighting and power plant. Current for power and light is now furnished from the transmission lines of the Texas Power and Light Company.

The wheat farmer who borrows some of the $100,000,000 available through the Federal Farm Board will be required to pay less than the usual rate of interest, organizers of the new National Grain Corporation say. Although the exact rate has not yet been determined, it was stated by members of the executive committee that 4 per cent was favored by most of the members, but that the rate might be as high as 5 per cent.

In an automobile accident, Mrs. J. S. Cullinan of Houston, was killed and her husband, J. S. Cullinan, was slightly injured Saturday night when their automobile skidded into a ditch on the Beaumont-Houston highway. They were returning from Beaumont where they had attended the intracoastal Canal Association. Mr. Cullinan is widely known in oil circles. He was formerly president of the Texas Company and is one of the wealthiest men in Texas.

Three buildings of the Payne State Penal Farm, two miles northwest of Huntsville, were destroyed by fire of undetermined origin Friday. Loss was estimated at $15,000. The buildings destroyed were the main barracks, the guards' dormitory and the commissary. The Huntsville fire department answered the alarm, but lack of water prevented it from being of much value. The blaze started about 2:45 p. m. Ninety prisoners were confined in the barracks and none of them made escape, but were carried to the walls in Huntsville.

The American Embassy in Rome has been instructed by the State Department to take up with the Italian Government the reported impression of American citizens of Italian extraction into military service. The instructions have not yet been acted upon, however, and it is expected in official circles the matter may be postponed for some time in view of the impending naval conference in London.

Texas will oppose a motion filed by Oklahoma in the United States Supreme Court to indefinitely delay approval of the commissioner's report and findings in the boundary dispute, which awarded Texas 28,500 acres along the eastern edge of the Panhandle. Announcement to that effect was made Friday by Attorney General R. L. Bobbitt, who assumed office since the court returned a judgment in favor of Texas and after the boundary commissioner filed his report exact line between the two States. The report was dated July 15, 1929.

Brownwood Bank Robbed

Last Thursday at 12:15 three unmasked bandits entered the Brownwood State bank, while all employees had gone to lunch except the assistant cashier, whom they forced into the vault and took $7,500 of the bank's funds, making their escape with it. The assistant cashier fired at them with a shot gun as they left the building, the vault being arranged with a "port hole" to be used in such emergencies. He was confident he struck one of them and subsequent developments have made it reasonably certain he was correct.

The report of the gun caused officers and citizens to hurry to the bank and the bank official was released from the vault, but the robbers had made a clean get-away. However, that afternoon a young Brownwood man whose name is given as Bill White was placed under arrest and positively identified by the bank official as one of the robbers. Friday night two men were arrested at Wichita Falls, charged with driving an automobile while intoxicated, and the amount of money found on each of them excited the suspicion of the officers and a further search was made, revealing several thousand dollars hidden in the car driven by the men. Wrappers around some of the money bore the name of the Brownwood State bank and Brownwood officers were at once notified. Two officers, together with O. C. Walker, president of the bank, reached Wichita Falls Friday morning and the money was identified and the prisoners returned to Brownwood. The two men's names are given as Tom Bird Irwin, aged 21, and Dave L. Cates, alias Kimes, aged 24, reported to be a brother of Mathew Kimes, the once notorious Oklahoma outlaw. Kimes had been struck in the leg by several buck shot and had the wounded limb wrapped with a Brownwood paper.

A taxi driver named Raymond Blackburn was also taken into custody. It is claimed he conveyed the party from Brownwood to Wichita Falls and he was also identified as one who took part in the hold-up of W. H. Thompson and has been charged with being an accessory after the act in the bank robbery. Several of the pistols taken from Thompson were recovered from the men arrested.

More than $5,000 of the money was recovered and it is expected that most of the balance will be secured. It is claimed the men have made a clean breast of the robbery and have gone outside of the record to include other crimes of recent commission. Two of the men were positively identified by W. H. Thompson as the parties who recently held him up and robbed his pawn shop of something like a dozen pistols and a considerable amount of money. The mother of White was also arrested in Brownwood and jailed on a charge of possessing liquor and it is said she advised her son to "tell it all." At any rate, the officers say he made a clean breast of everything and his story was substantiated by the other men who were brought back from Wichita Falls. They are all three known about Brownwood, although Kimes claims Borger as his home.

District Attorney Early announced that no special session of the grand jury would be convened, as the regular term of district court will convene next Monday. He also declined to say whether or not he would ask the death penalty for the men.

NEED CHEAPER FEED AND BETTER COWS

Economy in production is the greatest problem of the dairy industry in the South today, said J. H. McClain, extension dairy specialist of the United States Department of Agriculture, speaking before the Southern Dairy Association at Memphis, Tennessee, on October 2. Reducing the cost of feed and increasing production per cow are the main factors in the problem, the speaker said.

"If the Southern farmer is to make dairying a permanent side line to his cotton farming," said the specialist, "he must be able to produce milk and butter fat at prices commonly paid by condensaries, creameries, cheese factories, and dried-milk plants. These prices will be around 20 cents per gallon or $2.12 to $2.80 per 100 pounds of milk.

"Better feeding practices, which give more attention to roughage and pasture, can aid materially in increasing the production and lowering the cost per unit of milk or butter fat. Until the Southern farmer utilizes to the fullest extent the advantages at his disposal for producing legume hays and pasture grasses, his profit from dairying will not be as great as it might be.

"Work of the Bureau of Dairy Industry at its Huntley, Montana, station where fifteen cows completed lactations on roughage exclusively—alfalfa hay silage, roots, and irrigated tame grass pasture—averaging 13,032 pounds of milk and 452 pounds of butter fat—gives a fine index to the possibilities of roughage of the best quality.

"Tabulations of the bureau show that in the Southern States the cost of grain for a large number of cows averages $57 per animal, in Central Western States the cost was $35, and in far Western States it was $24. The production per cow in the latter group, where cost of grain was lower, was approximately 1,000 pounds of milk higher. Feeding good roughage in sufficient amounts will reduce grain cost.

"Along with the problem of better and cheaper feed goes the matter of better cows. This point is forcefully demonstrated by a tabulation of 152,000 records by the Bureau of Dairy Industry comparing butter fat production and income over cost of feed. Cows whose records were tabulated produced

CARD OF THANKS

Our neighbors and friends were so kind and thoughtful of us at the time of our terrible bereavement that we feel grateful beyond words to express. We want to express our thanks to the people of Goldthwaite and Lometa, as well as to our nearer neighbors.

MRS. L. W. BENSON and Children.

from 100 pounds to 500 pounds of butter fat per year. Cows producing 100 pounds of butter fat gave an income over cost of feed of $15; 150 pounds $39; 200 pounds, $63; 300 pounds, $113; 350 pounds, $138; 400 pounds, $164; 450 pounds, $188; 500 pounds $214.

These figures show that for each 50 pounds increase in butter fat production the income over feed cost was raised an average of $24, and the actual cost of the feed advanced only $8. Thus $8 more spent for feed brought in $24 in value of products. Figures from Tennessee dairy herd improvement associations further stress the value of higher production per cow. From 2,921 records it is shown that cows producing 111 pounds of butter fat did so at a feed cost of 35 cents per pound, those producing 203 pounds of butter fat had a cost of 24 cents a pound, and where the production was 291 pounds of fat the cost per pound was 21 cents.

CAN'T SAY ENOUGH FOR IT

"I Feel as if I Could Work 24 Hours A Day Since Taking Orgatone," Says Brownwood, Texas Man

"Orgatone has simply been worth its price to me, because before I started taking it, I was in such a bad run-down condition and was losing my strength and my condition was gradually getting worse," said C. A. Garrett, of 1306 Main Ave., Brownwood, Texas, while talking to the Orgatone representative.

"For over a year," he continued, "I suffered from stomach trouble and nervousness and my appetite was poor and what little I did eat gave me indigestion and I would bloat up with gas and would have fluttering spells. In fact, my stomach trouble was so bad, I would feel miserable after I ate anything, and no matter what I ate and sometimes I would get very dizzy. I had bursting headaches, and was extremely nervous. I didn't rest well at night and felt tired and worn out all the time. I always had a drowsy sluggish feeling and acted lazy, but I just didn't have the pep to do anything.

"So many local people were taking Orgatone, I thought if it could do them good, it wouldn't do me any harm, so I began taking it. I have only taken one bottle and feel just fine. Orgatone keeps me feeling fit and fine and I honestly believe I could work 24 hours a day without tiring. All of my stomach trouble is a thing of the past, and my appetite has increased so I can eat and eat enough and everything agrees with me perfectly. I have more pep and energy than I have had in a long time and I wake up in the mornings feeling refreshed and buoyant ready for my day's work. Instead of my drowsy sluggish feeling I have more strength and have never felt better. I wouldn't take anything for the good Orgatone has done me, and I can't say too much for it. It is one of the best medicines I ever saw."

Genuine Orgatone may be bought in Goldthwaite, at Hudson Bros. Drug Store.

Modern American Music Becomes International Favorite

"I'm Sorry Sally" Current Continental Hit
New York City.—Europe's next generation of musicians will play American jazz as if it were their native musical tongue.
This is the opinion of Maurice Bonnetty, musical director of the Ile de France, most gorgeously decorated and equipped steamer afloat.
"The old line musicians will not play jazz," admits Monsieur Bonnetty. "They will not even try to learn it, but every young musician abroad tries to play it. The generation now growing up all play it. I do not think the coming generation will ever dance to any other kind of music, except occasionally perhaps a Spanish tango or a French waltz."
"This will be the greatest triumph for music in the world's history, and probably the greatest American force for friendship. For if you dance and sing a country's music, you have a happy feeling towards that country."
Mr. Bonnetty says that jazzy American music is best liked in France.
"They like real jazz with lots of pep, the kind that won't let you keep your feet still," he declares. "On the Ile de France, we could not possibly get along without American music for our dance orchestra. People from all over the world always ask for an American fox-trot."
Because of the beauty of its equipment, the Ile de France carries more international critics than any other ship, and for this reason Mr. Bonnetty meets how vivants from all corners of the world.
He explains that a Maharajah from India is as apt to ask for "I'm Sorry Sally," as is an African potentate from Senegal.
"I'm Sorry Sally," the current dancing vogue in Paris, is the type of dance that foreigners delight in because it has the real swing which only an American can write

Run-Down
"ABOUT seven years ago, I was all run-down, worn-out and never felt good," says Mrs. Harry Cantrell, of Cape Girardeau, Mo. "A chair would be more welcome any time than my work."
"I was so tired when I would arise in the morning. Instead of being rested, I felt terrible."
"At last, mother told me to take Cardui, and I did. After the first bottle, I could tell a difference, and when I had taken five bottles the tired feeling was all gone. I felt like a different person, thanks to Cardui. I hope that other mothers will try Cardui. I have been wonderfully benefited by it."

REBUILDING SOILS

Texas investors are reported to be turning their attention to the purchase of Texas farms with a view toward their restoration in fertility and productivity. The process of soil deterioration due to one-crop farming, mostly cotton, has lowered land values to the point where farms again are considered an attractive investment for the man of capital and vision.

Land has always been a primary source of wealth. In all countries agriculture has gone or is going through the same stages, first of soil exploitation because it was cheap; second, resuscitation through an entirely changed type of farming made possible when land values have reached the bottom.

Soil exhaustion has gone on all over the United States. It is not confined to Texas. There are many other fallacious types of single-cropping besides that involving cotton culture. Invariably the way out has been by turning to livestock. This is a sure way to resuscitate land, and with the present outlook for the livestock industry, whether it be dairy farming or the raising of beef cattle, the land owner has some assurance of a profitable return while the process of soil rebuilding is going on.

It was reported recently in The News that men of substantial means are turning to farm land. This is true notably of the black land prairies which have suffered greatly from an excess of cotton raising. These soils perhaps are more in need of organic matter than fertility. The black lands are still rich, but they require a new type of agriculture built around livestock farming.

The new movement means that more or less depleted farms of attractive value will be restored, that farm dwellings will be repaired, painted and equipped with modern conveniences, making them a more fitting habitation for those who dwell on them. Eventually they will bring profits, but the immediate benefit to the farmer and to the soil is self-evident. —Dallas News.

LAW A FARCE

The state highway department has issued orders revoking the license of all headlight stations in the state, and making it necessary for the county commissioners of each county to appoint new stations and requiring them to put the new operators under bond. This step has been taken, according to the department, because of the many accidents in the state said to be due to the blinding headlights and the non-enforcement of the headlight law. The headlight law in Texas has been nothing but a farce since it was passed and put into effect several years ago, and we fail to see how it can be made effective, even though the testing stations are bonded. The law is a weak excuse on the part of the state to regulate headlights, and until a law in which the manufacturers are forced to co-operate in constructing lights and which the police will help to enforce is passed, until then will motorists be the victims of blinding, glaring headlights. —Honey Grove Signal-Citizen

GOOD GRASS BETTER THAN POOR COTTON

Thousands of acres in the Southwest which are planted to cotton every year would yield far greater net returns if in grass with good livestock feeding on it. Good grass is always better than poor cotton.

East Texas, Oklahoma and Southwestern Arkansas have more land planted to cotton that is unsuited to that crop, than any other section of the Southwest. At the same time the rainfall is sufficient to make it easy to procure good pastures and maintain them. Think what it would mean to the farmers of the country if cotton was only planted on land that has at least a fifty-fifty chance of making a profitable crop, and that all other acres were made either into permanent pasture or planted to feedstuffs adapted to it. It would mean a profitable dairy and livestock business, improved soil conditions, more cotton per acre, and less danger of overproduction. It is the cotton produced on poor lands at an expense to producers that loads the market with poor staple and creates a surplus. Why plant cotton on land that never pays expenses when good grass would prove profitable?

In the sections named, native Bermuda can be supplemented with various legumes such as black medic, bur clover, lespedeza, sweet clover, and in localities, white clover. There are such grasses as Angleton, Dallis grass, and carpet grass that will do well in many localities.

If these sections are really in earnest to develop the dairy industry or to engage in the production of other livestock, the first thing to be considered is a proper location for permanent pastures. Then fences must be constructed and gates built in the most convenient places. The underbrush must be cleared and trees trimmed high enough to permit the sun to shine under them. Then, if native grasses are not sufficient to make plenty of feed, other grasses must be started. After a pasture has been properly started it will continue to need attention, but the labor involved is only a trifle as compared with the labor necessary to the production of cotton. Temporary pastures for winter grazing and an abundance of feedstuffs to form a balanced ration are of almost equal importance if one is to make his livestock ventures a real success. —Farm and Ranch.

Public Co-operation Essential

The National Bureau of Casualty and Surety Underwriters has, through its various departments, waged a ceaseless warfare against carelessness. In New York, statistics show that carelessness of pedestrians, whose vision is obscured, is a major factor contributing to traffic accidents. Fifty per cent of all accidents occur at street intersections. An analysis shows that lack of care on the part of the pedestrian is contributing toward the accident problem. In California, as a direct result of safety instructions given in school classrooms, there was a decrease of 42 fatalities among school children during 1928 in the face of a large increase in vehicle registration and an increase of 94 in the total accident death roll. If the public would voluntarily co-operate with the National Bureau in the interest of saving lives and property, more good could be done immediately than will result from the passage of voluminous restrictive or penalizing legislation.

BOLSHEVISM

Religious people should not take Russian atheists too seriously. The atheist seats of learning recently established in the Moscow vicinage are reported to have been capitalized with 52,000 rubles, which means $26,000 in real money. One university with no more capital than that can't go very far, and with three or four to share such a sum none of them can get beyond the howling stage. Atheism is cultivated, propagandized, disseminated, by the political autocrats for the reason that they fear religious institutions. The church was very powerful under the Czars, and the Commissars hope to make atheism equally powerful under themselves. Russian authority is teaching that this world is all there is, therefore it is incumbent upon the individual to get all he can out of it. This they propose to assist by collecting in the form of taxes all the money that formerly went to the church. Just how this helps the "workmen and peasants" is difficult to understand. The standard of living has depreciated under the Bolshevik regime, and the standard of thinking has depreciated under the atheistic administration. Result: Numerous families living in one room, cooking on the same stove, standing in line at the same bakery, sitting in rows at the same theater, drinking their drams out of the same votky jug, whipping the same children, marrying, remarrying, divorcing and re-divorcing the same wife and the same husband—all in the name of Socialism and the new statesmanship which puts all the people on one level, and that the plane of the pig sty. —State Press in Dallas News.

-have you driven a Chevrolet Six?

Have you felt the thrill of its six-cylinder performance—so smooth, quiet and vibrationless that you almost forget there's a motor?

Have you known the satisfaction of its six-cylinder reserve power—ready to shoot you ahead at the traffic light, to carry you over the steepest hills, or to speed you along the highway?

And do you know that anyone who can afford any car can own a Chevrolet Six?

If you have never driven a six-cylinder car, it is impossible for you to form any idea of Chevrolet performance from your imagination alone.

Smoothness! No rumble in the body—no tremble in the steering wheel—no vibration to loosen windows and doors!

Flexibility! Power that flows in a silken stream—and never a trace of "lugging"!

Quiet! Hardly a whisper from the motor. You can drive it for hours without the slightest noise fatigue! But why try to tell you the story when only a ride can give you the facts? Come in. There's a car waiting for you... Now!

PICNIC AT PARK

The Wesley Philathea Class of the Methodist church together with a number of invited friends, enjoyed a wonderful stew picnic and outing on Tuesday night of this week, at the Fair Park. A huge wash pot of Mulligan stew with crackers and hot coffee was served to the crowd of sixty people. The second course served was pumpkin pie filled with pecans.
Before and after the supper old games were played and very much enjoyed, judging by the laughter they caused.
Songs sung by a group of young men furnished delightful music. MEMBER.

NAILS AND STAPLES

Volume Number 1. Friday, NOVEMBER 1, 1929.

Published in the interest of the people of Mills County by Barnes and McCullough.

PAUL McCULLOUGH, Editor

Don't forget Poppy Day, November 11.

We received a letter from Etta Edens, who used to be Etta Langford, she said that she enjoyed our NAILS and STAPLES very much. She now lives in Cottonwood, Arizona. As we have said before, Nails & Staples has as large a circulation as does the Goldthwaite Eagle.

Come down to our yard, and we will tell you something you didn't know about Lumber and Wire.

The young folks class of the Methodist church of this city had a stew Tuesday evening. Mr. John B. Sampley, who is one of our lumber flunkies, said that he enjoyed the evening very much.

Parents who disobey their children are a problem.

The only thing that ever accomplishes anything by just running around, is a circular saw.

Mr. D. D. McBride can tell you whether our circle saw will cut or will not cut.

There's no use trying to joke with a woman.

The other day Jones heard a good conundrum and decided to try it on his wife.

"Do you know why I am like a mule?" he asked.

"No," she replied, "I know you are, but I don't know why."

Him (noticing cow and calf in field rubbing noses in bovine love)—"The sight of that makes me want to do the same thing."

She "Go to it—That's our cow."
