GOLDTHWAITE, MILLS COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, APRIL 18, 1930.

T NATIONAL BANK OF GOLDTHWAITE IS ROBBED

Good Rains Fall In Some Parts of County

Crops Greatly Helped As a Result

Rain has fallen over a good portion of Mills county during the past week and prospects are now more hopeful than for the past several weeks. While the rains can not be classed as "heavy," there was considerable moisture and growing vegetation was greatly benefited, while in many sections there was sufficient rainfall to put the ground in condition to bring up corn and cotton. The small grain was helped more than any other crop, for the continued drouth had prevented growth of the grain and it would not have held up much longer.

The rainfall was very light in Big Valley and in the section between there and Goldthwaite, while in the Mullin and Caradan sections the precipitations was heavier than in other parts of the county.

Many parts of the state were visited by rains the early part of the week and from every section come reports of benefit and hopefulness.

A BAD INJURY

Mrs. Ed Minor of San Angelo was a visitor to W. O. Holland and wife in this city Sunday and reported Mr. Minor now conscious and rational, with strong hopes for his recovery. He was injured in an automobile wreck between San Angelo and Carlsbad a few weeks ago, when the driver of a large car ran into and wrecked his car, throwing Mr. Minor out so violently that his head was broken and it was necessary for the physicians to remove sand and gravel from the wound. Mr. Minor remained unconscious for several weeks and his sister, Mrs. Holland, expressed no hope of his recovery when she returned from the hospital, where she was called to see him immediately after the injury was inflicted. He was kept in San Angelo for some time, but is now in the sanitarium in Temple. He has many friends here, having spent his boyhood in this county, and all who know him and the other members of the family sincerely hope for his complete recovery. He is a son of Mr. F. B. Minor and was reared at Caradan.

MR. AND MRS. EDWARD GEESLIN ENTERTAIN

The Goldthwaite teachers who attended the Mid-Texas Teachers Association at Brady last Friday were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Geeslin throughout the day. At the noon hour the teachers were taken to the Brady Country Club. After the afternoon session of the association we were escorted to "The Home Beautiful," now the Geeslin home, where we enjoyed a tete-a-tete. At six o'clock we assembled at a prominent Brady Cafe. Here we were served a three course Mexican dinner. It brought to mind the days of old for the Goldthwaite teachers to again be entertained by the Geeslins. Those enjoying this hospitality were: The Goldthwaite faculty; Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Parker and son, Harry Baxter, and Miss Myrna Miller of Brownwood; president of the Brady school board, Mr. Hall, and wife; and vice-president of the Brady school board, Mr. Bernard Whiteman, and wife.

COMMISSIONERS COURT HAS BUSY TERM

Accounts and Reports Were Examined

Court was in session the first of the week, transacting considerable routine business and some special matters received attention.

The county line school district at McGirk was authorized to issue $800 in bonds, to make an addition to the school building.

A second class road was granted in the Caradan community, connecting the John Neal road with the Center City road.

The tax collector's rolls were checked up to Feb. 1 and found correct.

Official reports were examined and approved and accounts against the county were audited and allowed.

Highway money collected was divided to the precincts as follows: Precinct No. 1, $156.62; No. 2, $82.44; No. 3, $120.60; No. 4, $48.62.

A DELIGHTFUL ENTERTAINMENT

One of the most pleasing programs ever presented in the school auditorium was that of Miss Gladys Thomson's expression and physical education classes Tuesday evening. Altho the weather was threatening the early part of the evening, a large audience assembled and all were delighted with the renditions by the pupils and the show of careful and efficient training by their teacher. Miss Thomson has a large class of children and young people and her experience in the work and her talent in training and imparting the instruction is recognized and fully appreciated by her patrons. The large audience on Tuesday night, despite weather conditions and other interferences proves the high regard in which the teacher and her work are held by Goldthwaite people. Every number on the program is truly worthy of special mention, because of the general excellency of the entertainment.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

The work last Lord's Day was very satisfactory. The Bible Study hour was well attended. A large crowd for the preaching hour Sunday morning also good crowd at night. 37 young people attended the Young People's Class Sunday evening. There were 72 at prayer meeting last Wednesday evening. We had an interesting study in the eighth chapter of Acts. The prayer meeting is very encouraging. Make it a point to be with us next Wednesday evening. We are very anxious to have a record crowd next Lord's Day. Let each one make it a point to bring one with you next Sunday.

Bible Study begins at 10 a. m.

Preaching at 11 a. m.
Young People's Class meets at 7:15 p. m.
Preaching at 8 p. m.
Ladies Bible Class at 3 p. m. each Wednesday.
Prayer meeting at 8 p. m. Wednesday.
You are welcome in our services. E. S. FITZGERALD

METHODIST CHURCH

The meeting at the Methodist church is going fine. The attendance is good and getting better. By the end of the week we expect a full house and for the Sunday services we expect all available standing room taken. While the outward appearance is indeed gratifying, the real worth is the revival that is astir in the hearts of our people. The Cottage prayer meetings are well attended and wonderfully interesting and inspiring. About ten such meetings have been held, I have heard. Only six or eight have been in their reports. Several more of these meetings will be held during the week.

Next Sunday is Easter Day and we are looking for a great Sunday school. At the conclusion of the Sunday School the baptism of infants will be attended to. Mothers will do well to follow the example of Hannah and the mother and the grandmother of Timothy and the nameless multitudes who in the days ago gave their children to God. Do not heed the suggestions of Pharaoh, who urged that only the grown-ups go out to serve God, but be like the children of Israel who said, "We will go with our young and our old."

Sunday services will be characterized by great music that will add to glory and honor that should well up on that great day. The preacher feels keenly the importance of this day as being the crowning festival of the church, commemorating the victory of our Christ over death and a foretoken of that continuing victory of his church as it lives the new life. Come early so as to find seats at these services, 10:50 Sunday morning, 7:45 Sunday night.

The League are taking due note of the meeting.

Yours in His service,
S. D. LAMBERT.

A BIG WAREHOUSE

L. W. Stephens of Lometa, representing Henry Stallings & Co., was here Tuesday looking after the progress of building the big warehouse by his company, on the site of the Par. The old building has been torn away and the new warehouse will take its place, covering 40 x 140 feet of space. Stallings & Co., will use the warehouse to store grain, while W. W. Tippen of Lometa will occupy a portion of the space for storing wool and mohair. It is proposed to complete the building within 30 days, to be ready for the grain crop. And the company will also handle pecans.

ATHENS CLASS SOCIAL

Monday evening, April 14, the Athens Class was entertained in the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bowman.

The Class showed that they were "A-1", as usual, by being there, in spite of the rain. Mr. Bowman proved that he was efficient in more than one line, by giving each of us a free shoe shine before we entered the house.

We were met at the door by Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Cockrum, who passed dainty hand made score cards. They then ushered us into the dining room, where we were served delicious punch by our charming hostess, assisted by Mrs. Tate.

A color scheme of red and green was carried out in a decoration of pot plants and cut flowers. The dining room was especially beautiful.

The Class was then called to order for a short business meeting and we thoroughly enjoyed a talk by Mrs. Cockrum. Prayer was offered by R. V. Littlepage, devotion was led by Mrs. Floyd Jackson and our Sunday school Superintendent, Mr. Tom Toland, talked on class business.

Business over, the social hour began by matching the verses on our score cards. Several games of "42" were played, after which a delicious ice course was served.

We were honored by several guests: Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Helm and Miss Harrell.

Everybody be at Sunday School Sunday. There is always something of interest to hear.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Answering an inquiry as to the difference between a pessimist, and an optimist, the pessimist believes that everything was ordered for the worst. That we have more pains than happiness; there is no good in anything or anybody and the world is growing worse every day. The optimist takes the opposite view. He sees some good in most everything and in most everybody. He lives on the sunny side of life. He has a desire to be a helper. He wants to live and let live. He recognizes his own rights and gives the other fellow his rights. The pessimist is a disorganized, disgruntled, dissatisfied, human being, seeing no good in anybody but himself.

Personally we would like to tell you just how many we had in Sunday school Sunday, but some are tired of seeing the number, so we have decided that as long as we go far beyond the two hundred mark as we did last Sunday we would not give the number. But listen! We had better keep that two hundred mark and above it. If we don't we are likely to get our superintendent started and if you get him out of humor he will quit driving a "Ford." He is getting down now in his class and let's keep him there by everybody going to Sunday school. Next Sunday is Easter Sunday. Begin right now to make preparations to be at Sunday school and church. We had splendid congregations at every service last Sunday. Let's duplicate next Sunday morning and add 37 to Sunday school. Remember that we worship with the Methodists at night.

Remember that it is just three weeks until "Mothers Day." Let's begin now to make ready for one of the best services of the year. Many of us will have our mothers with us this year for the last time on mother's day. Let's make it a happy occasion at our church. Let's make it so interesting that folk from all over the county will come. Those of you who will have visitors that day bring them to church. Those of you who will be visiting go to church wherever you are. It has been 15 years since this pastor has had the privilege of spending mother's day with his own mother, but he has spent that day with hundreds of other mothers, trying to bring a message that would be helpful, and to this end he will work toward that day, trying to have a message that will be helpful. We urge that our singers begin to look forward to that day, preparing a message in song that will be appropriate and helpful.

In response to a petition of the Lions club at Bastrop, the city commission agreed to build a new city hall and fire station. The building is badly needed.

The Mid-Texas Teachers Association, in the meeting at Brady Friday and Saturday, decided to meet next in Brownwood. C. H. Hufford of Coleman was chosen president of the organization. There were 700 teachers present.

The sheriff at Avon Park, Fla., levied upon several trains and a section of railroad track of the Atlantic Coast Line last week and refused to be moved until the railroad officials agreed to pay the tax of $40,000 due his county.

Twelve convicts made their escape from Eastham state farm near Huntsville late Saturday. Some were soon recaptured and it is not likely the others will be out for long.

Fire in a poultry house in Slaton Sunday afternoon destroyed twelve thousand baby chicks.

Favoring elimination of economic waste, humanitarian practices in providing reasonable methods for rehabilitation of prisoners and building from within in securing efficiency through applying the merit system for promotion, Lee Sims, new manager of the Texas prison system, has assumed his new duties.

A report from Mexico says bandits attempted to wreck and rob the train on which J. E. Bristow, the San Angelo oil man held for ransom and released last week, was being brought out of that country. Truly it can be said that Mexico will never be ruled until it is ruled the "Diaz way" by an iron hand without mercy or humanity. The Mexican will not bear kind treatment and that country is a menace to the civilized world.

The trial of John Brady, the Austin lawyer who stabbed to death a young lady stenographer in that city last November, has been transferred to Dallas on a change of venue on motion of the defense, unopposed by the prosecution. Brady was tried in Austin for the crime and a no verdict was reached, since the jurors favoring the death penalty, two a life sentence while the twelfth man wanted to turn him loose. His second trial has been set for May 5.

The little town of Brady, located about 70 miles west of this city, has staged another bloody tragedy. This time two of her citizens shot each other to death on the public square Tuesday afternoon. This tragedy is said to have been the aftermath of another, where one of the principals in this one shot to death a brother of the other participant in Tuesday's tragedy. Both of these men shot true and a bullet pierced the heart of each of them.

There will be an increase of approximately 140,000 scholars in Texas for the next school session of 1930-31, it is estimated by S. M. N. Marrs, superintendent of schools. This will be the largest increase in any year in the history of the State school fund apportionment. It is due to the addition of more than 100,000 new names by a law which scales the scholastic minimum age from 7 to 6 years. That is to be added to the average normal increase of 2 or 4 per cent. There are in round figures 1,400,000 scholars this year, and with 140,000 added the total next year will be 1,540,000.

MR. COBB'S LETTER

Dear Brother Bob: We never know what is going to happen until we are often called to face some great disappointment or some wonderfully, unexpected happy uplift, which takes all our physical, and mental powers to balance us on a plane where we can really know we are actually our real selves.

For the last three days we have had one of the largest gatherings of Christian women workers in our city it has ever been your Scribe's privilege to sit by, with a little handful of men (as mute as mice) and watch the proceedings of a well organized body of intelligent church women dispatch the business of the West Texas Woman's Missionary Conference. It was so interesting the old Scribe just laid aside his daily rounds of trying to work and was present at every meeting. There were just a few men at a time in every business meeting, but the pressure of having to keep their say out of affairs was so great they came and went at their will. One time, during a business session, a former president of the conference found 10 or 12 preachers scattered through the audience and after some effort on her part succeeded in lining them up, marched them down the aisle in front of the congregation and introduced them to the president and delegates. They looked quite humble and like the sheep before the shearer was dumb they opened their mouths, but acted as though they felt they were in the presence of an august body who knew what they were doing. As a looker on we decided they guessed about right and doubtless had been sufficiently trained at home to know what was what and when not to butt in.

We have been thinking, reading, writing and dreaming about the church of the living God as the largest and best institution this side of Heaven for the uplift and Christianizing of the world, to get the Bride ready for the coming of the Bridegroom, and after attending this great women's gathering we became thoroughly convinced if there was not something done to awake us from our slumber that when it is finally announced, "Behold the Bridegroom Cometh" the women will have the Bride adorned and going forth with songs of gladness and triumph to present her to the Bridegroom as they lead the way and beckoning to the men to come on.

It was such a great occasion and both the guests and hosts so elated over the conference having come to Corpus Christi, it would take more space than you could allot to a full description of the happenings in and out of the conference room, as either the business or social features of the occasion would take all your space for the next 2 or 3 issues of your good paper, so we will say for the benefit of those not present, it was well worth the time, and cost to be permitted to be here.

We were delighted to meet Mrs. S. D. Lambert and Mrs. R. M. Thompson of Goldthwaite, Rev. and Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Wilson of Mullin, and to have them for our guests the last day of the conference. While all of them were practically strangers except Mrs. Thompson, their having come from Mills County delegates to such a conference to such a city and with Bro. Bob's good wife and friend of the writer to introduce them, I was soon acquainted and so elated, was almost ready to throw my cane (my constant companion) aside and play young again.

I have examined my communicative resources and find they are not sufficient to tell you half. I will wind up by saying I don't think I ever witnessed a more earnest body of Christian workers, who did their work nobly and on time and when dismissed for their recreation and social hours were equal to the occasion, all to the real pleasure of those to whom they came with this great conference. Come again.

A SECOND RENDITION

Miss Cherryblossom was presented in the school auditorium Thursday night, and the attendance was practically as large as upon the occasion of the first presentation of the very delightful musical comedy drama several weeks ago. Many of the audience had seen the former program, but attended the second time with as much interest and pleasure. The members of the cast were even more proficient on this occasion as on the former presentation and the audience was delighted. The receipts were very gratifying to the Ex-Students association, sponsors of the play, and will be used for the benefit of the piano fund, as were the receipts from the first program.

Famous Organists Receive Larger Salary than President of U. S

JESSE and HELEN CRAWFORD

Jesse and Helen Crawford Responsible for Organ Development

New York City—The organ has improved more in the past twenty years than it had in the previous two thousand, and its epic period of evolution began, strangely enough, not in great cathedrals but in the humble nickleodeons of the West.

Jesse Crawford, and his wife, Helen Crawford, of the Paramount Theatre in New York, are the outstanding examples of cinema pianists who have risen to positions of prominence until they now play the two largest organs in the world, and command a combined salary larger than that of the President of the United States.

Crawford met his wife while they were both playing in a theatre in Chicago, and for this and other reasons he delights in recalling the old nickleodeon days, and his stories show how closely the development of the modern organ is related to the progress of the motion picture art. "Years ago when the only music in cinema houses was the piano some enterprising firm got out what was called 'an orchestra unit,'" says Crawford, "The theatres bought these with the idea of substituting them for an orchestra. As a matter of sequence, the piano player took over the job of playing the organ. If he was an earnest musician he worked from better job to better job, always giving to the musical world a more intimate knowledge of the organ and its adaptation to modern music."

"This has had its effect on the music, too. Many of our most popular songs have influences of organ tones. 'Sing Me a Baby Song,' by the inimitable Walter Donaldson, is one that is particularly organ-like and no matter how often I play it I always get requests for more. Many dance orchestra directors have commented to me on this fact. "Musicians from time immemorial have tried to emulate organ tones in their compositions but few have succeeded. Donaldson, who is perhaps the greatest living song writer, has captured this tone quality in this new foxtrot and left a musical imprint for future generations to argue about."

"I HAVE used Black-Draught as a family medicine for a good many years," says Mrs. Sallie Laughrun, of Huntedale, N. C. "I have found it an excellent remedy for constipation and the troubles that follow it. "I give Black-Draught to the children when they are constipated, and it is not long until they are running around again."

CENSUS OF IRRIGATION

Irrigation canals dug in the days following the Spanish Conquest are still being used to water farms and ranches in New Mexico and Arizona, according to facts revealed by the Census of Irrigation now being taken in connection with the 1930 decennial census of the United States. Other old ditches opened amid great hardships by the Mormon Pioneers in Utah are reported to be still operated much as in the time of Brigham Young.

In certain parts of the Southwest remains may be seen of irrigation ditches which were dug by an unknown race many years before Columbus discovered America. More recent canals in use by the Indians during the sixteenth century are still supplying water to the farms of the region, according to census officials.

During the past ten years, however, many of the antiquated irrigation systems have been discarded, new methods employed, and more land opened for cultivation. The 1930 census figures will reflect not only the progress made by individual farmers, who have undertaken their own projects and have their own water supply, but they will also show what the United States Bureau of Reclamation and other national and local governmental agencies have accomplished.

A census of irrigation was provided for in the same law which called for the 1930 decennial census, but it is being taken in only 19 Western and Southern States and was begun earlier than the censuses of population and farms.

Statistics to be made available from the census of irrigation is practiced in the United States, and the methods used in the various sections of the country.

Jazz Replaces Gambling . In Spanish Casinos

VINCENT LOPEZ, FAMOUS LEADER OF THE CASA VINCENT LOPEZ ORCHESTRA

Vincent Lopez Lists New Conquest for American Music

New York City.—A new stronghold for jazz is reported by Vincent Lopez, famous orchestra leader, also known as the sheik of the radio, who has just come back from Spain. "In Spain," declares Mr. Lopez, "the government has abolished gambling, and American jazz has risen to take its place. In all the Spanish casinos, the roulette tables and wheels of fortune have been supplanted by the saxophone and banjo. "At first it was assumed that the casinos would have to close. What good would they be since gambling was forbidden? Some of the casino owners were making ready to face the inevitable and shut down. "Then, one of their number, as a sort of desperate last measure, without much thought that it would amount to anything, hired a group of American jazz boys who were making their way

Prompt Payment

Prompt payment of obligations are the seeds from which spring golden crops of good will and public confidence.

By keeping your charge account in good condition through punctual payments each month, you are adding materially to your credit standing among those with whom you do business.

IN PAYING your bills promptly you are tilling the soil for a harvest of reputation and confidence. Steadfast and unerring effort directed toward that goal will inevitably yield the reward of good will and independence.

If your credit is healthy, you made it so; if it is unhealthy the chances are you have no one to blame but yourself, when it comes to your own credit standing — you are the doctor.

It takes money to run a business. The merchant can't pay his expenses with good intentions. He can't buy new merchandise with good intentions. "Did you hear about the chain store that helped the starving children?" "NO." "Well you never will."

BANK ROBBERS

that driven by the robbers, was found west of Priddy and two men tracked across a field for about two miles, where they entered the brush. The entire section where the robbers were supposed to be hiding was immediately surrounded by officers and an all night watch was maintained and a thorough search is being carried out in every direction, but up to the time the Eagle was put to press the robbers had not been captured.

The abandoned car, which was found in a pasture southwest of Priddy, was identified as one stolen from W. A. Bell in Brownwood Tuesday afternoon and was returned to him. About four miles further north the men tied $713 in silver in the leg of an old pair of trousers and hid it under some brush. This was all of the silver taken from the bank except $36. It was recovered by the officers and returned to the bank.

The men were seen by a lady living in that section at 4:30 Wednesday afternoon going down the mountain on the north side and were headed north.

It is only a matter of time until the men will be captured, as officers have a good description of them and it is believed they are well-known characters who are known to officers in some of the surrounding counties. If they are captured they will have to answer to the law which makes the robbery with firearms punishable by death, if a jury decides to inflict the extreme penalty, while the Bankers Association of Texas has a standing reward of $5,000 each for dead bank robbers.

KILLS A PAIR OF BIG RATTLESNAKES

Warren Davs, an employe of the Schenecker Produce Company was exhibiting today two rattlesnakes that he killed between Lometa and Goldthwaite about 4 o'clock this morning. The larger of the snakes measured five feet and three inches long and the smaller was about eighteen inches long. The larger had seventeen rattles and the other had three.

Mr. Davis said that he ran over the smaller of the snakes with his truck and after backing up to see if he killed it he found that it had been mashed by the truck. While looking at it he said that he heard a noise and when he looked around the large snake was coming at him with its head about a foot off the ground and its tail also elevated. It was only about four feet off with mouth open when he saw it. He said that he jumped and got a rock with which he killed the monster diamond back, which is considered one of the most poisonous snakes in the United States. — Brownwood Bulletin.

C. B. SMITH

C. B. Smith was born in San Saba county, Texas, September 3, A. D. 1879, was married to Miss Sallie Trowbridge Dec. 28, 1907. To this union was born five children. Three died in infancy. C. Ellis and Letris W. survive him. Brother Smith obeyed the gospel Sept. 1, 1928, and departed this life April 14, 1930, being 50 years, 5 months and 11 days of age. Was buried at Lower Big Valley April 15, at 4 p. m. The splendid floral offerings and extra large crowd which attended the funeral bespoke the high esteem in which he was held by all who knew him. His going was not unexpected by his family and friends and when he was told that he was nearing the end, it did not excite him in the least and he spoke his farewell message to members of his family in a business like way, without emotion or excitement. He did not fear to go. Brother Smith died with the Christian hope to stay him, and why should he fear the future. He had been in declining health for several months, but was very cheerful all along, and looked forward with pleasure to the time when the gospel would be preached in his community. In this respect his hopes were not realized, but others should see that his desires in this respect should be carried out. The writer tried to speak a few words of comfort to his sorrowing wife and children and relatives just before his body was laid away to await the resurrection. I close with Paul's language, "That ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope."

CONDITIONS IN CHINA

Shanghai, China, Jan. 30. Dear Editor, Here comes a letter from this land of "make-believe." This is Chinese New Year, but the government would make believe it is abolished and forbids its celebration. But it IS Chinese New Year. Fire-crackers boom as of old. People in their "go-to-meetin's" greet their friends with "Kong-hsi fah-dzai"—"Congratulations and abounding wealth." Stores are closed, Nanking's order is ignored. You can't change 1000-year old customs of 450 million people in a night. But this is not the only make-believe. Nanking makes-believe China is unified. It "ain't." China is split into smithereens. Chang Fa-kwei in Kwangsi is fighting Nanking. Yen Hsi-shan has Shansi and Chihli and rules well. Chang Hsueh-liang lords it over Manchuria. Tang Seng phi keeps a hornet's nest buzzing in Honan. Vong Yoh-dzi-ang sways Shenzi. Szechuen goes its own way, and other rebels keep the Capitol on "pins and needles." Yet Nanking has repeatedly reported each of these discordant ones overcome or won over. But it is only make-believe to hood-wink the world. Chiang Kai-shek is the "conqueror of the North and the unifier of China." But what he seems to have done was done mostly with Russian brains and capital until he took Nanking. After that the rest was won by squeezing money from people in the rear of the "fighting lines" and buying enemy commanders in front. There was hardly one worth-the-name battle fought. It was mostly victory by purchase and buying of victory takes the gloss off the glory. If Nanking had the money now she could purchase all her present enemies. But what's the use? Soon there would be swarms of other enemies. It's profitable to be an enemy of Nanking. China had to humble herself before Russia for Russian officers could not be bought. But in China the "itching palm" is conspicuous. Remember this and you can understand much about the wars in this "squeezed-greaser" land. China is getting worse and worse. Property rights are gone. Life is unsafe. Business is paralyzed. Freedom of the press and speech has vanished. Loyalty and obedience are not. Liberty is dead. Bandits abound. But Nanking makes-believe all is "as fine as pie" and issues reports. Among officials there are doubtless sincere ones who would put things right but the make-believes predominate and block every move for the good. But don't judge harshly. Most officials are sons of the laboring class and of the new-money-rich. They are young inexperienced. They pay great attention to trivial things and neglect great things. If in our Washington it's said, "He that is without SIN among you, let him first cast a stone," can we condemn heathen China? We hope that some day China striplings will tire of "playing house" and will get down to horse sense. But I'm getting away from the New Year. Gambling is everywhere. Superstition is rife. Money is wasted that might relieve famine suffering. Every temple is crowded with people offering incense, candles, paper money and prayers to all the gods. They pray most for wealth. That prayer is not make-believe. They want wealth, and they worship the god of wealth with all their hearts. Every home has one made of wood, mud or of paper, but he is "Dzai-zen" all the same. When business gets poor in China they say the god of wealth has gone to America. The paper Dzai-zen is interesting. The god's throne is a big ingot of gold set with jewels. Mountains of gold are at the god's left and Silver Hills is at his right. In front of him is a great bowl of jewels. On Silver Hill is the money tree a shake of which will shower you untold wealth. Over Dzai-zen's head is "Foh"—blessedness. All around are his servants ready to carry wealth to those whom the god favors. This god is very amenable to flattery and he who flatters best gets most. But

"NO MEDICINE EVER HELPED ME AS DID KONJOLA"

Tulsa Lady is Enthusiastic About New Medicine, "Best In The World," She Says

MRS. G. I. CRABAUGH

"No medicine ever helped me as did Konjola," said Mrs. G. I. Crabaugh, 739 Quaker street, Tulsa. "For more than nine years I had trouble with my stomach. Gas accumulated after meals and I bloated terribly. The pains and pressure often made me short of breath and dizzy. Constipation was another of my worries and I became an almost daily user of cathartics. I had terrible headaches and my general condition badly run down.

"I am delighted with the results I obtained from Konjola. Before I had finished the second bottle my constipation had been relieved and my stomach greatly improved. As I kept on with this great medicine my general health improved until I am feeling better today than I have in a long time. I have an excellent appetite and eat heartily without distress. Even neuritis which attacked me occasionally has been totally driven from my system. I cannot say too much in praise of this great medicine.

Though Konjola works quickly, six to eight bottles are recommended as a fair trial. Although many people are benefited within a few weeks, the longer period is best.

Konjola is sold in Goldthwaite, Texas, at Hudson Bros. drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns through out this entire section.

Thin, Pale, Weak

"I HAD been through a bad spell of sickness which left me very weak," says Mrs. Virginia Spruce of Stapleton, Va. "I was pale and felt lifeless, and my strength did not return. I spent most of my time on the bed. I was very nervous, and the least thing upset me. I did not have strength enough to lift a broom. At times I would have had headaches, which would hurt me until I could hardly see. Someone asked me why I did not try Cardui. I had read of it, so I thought I would see what it would do for me. It was really remarkable how I came out. My strength returned, and my health was better than it had been in years. I gained in weight about ten pounds. My color was good, and I ceased to suffer from headaches. I have told my friends about Cardui because I was benefited after taking it."

it's wise to choose a SIX!

There is one sure way to get greater value in a low-priced car today—choose a Six!

This greater value is instantly obvious when you drive a Chevrolet Six. You notice first of all its greater smoothness. There is no tremor in the steering wheel—no rattle in the floorboards—no rumble or drumming in the body.

In addition to the finer performance of its six-cylinder motor, the new Chevrolet gives you truly remarkable economy.

Its six-cylinder smoothness saves the entire car from the strain and wear of vibration. This, of course, lowers the cost of maintenance and assures a longer-lasting, longer-satisfying automobile.

From the standpoint of operating expense, Chevrolet is equally economical. No other automobile consumes less gasoline and oil. No other shows a lower expense for tires. And no other car costs less for maintenance.

Because of its modern engine Chevrolet also assures a high sale value.

Chevrolet gives you fully-enclosed weather-proof, 4-wheel brake modern fuel system—with gasoline tank mounted in the four long semi-elliptic springs mounted lengthwise in the chassis for car travel. It gives beautiful Fisher bodies in combination hardwood-and-steel channel-steel frame. And it gives you a full ball bearing steering mechanism.

Before you decide on any car, low-price field, see and drive Chevrolet Six. The more thoroughly you investigate, the certain you are to conclude it's wise to choose a Six—for performance . . . and for economical transportation!

 Now perhaps you are afraid that irreparable damage has been done by this gritty, diluted oil. But by acting instantly you can counteract any injury to pistons and cylinders. Drain today—then refill with Texaco. This quality oil, clean, clear, golden pure, provides the extra stamina required to make slightly worn parts function smoothly and coolly.
 On bright new cars this oil preserves the faultless surface of moving parts. It keeps them agile, fleet, after other cars show signs of growing old. Over the worn parts of old cars Texaco forms a golden sheath of sturdy oil that makes action smooth and quiet.

 Texaco and notice its clean golden color as it enters your crankcase.
 That color is your guarantee that you are giving your car more than

*There is another equally important reason for draining your old oil. Not only is it diluted and dirty, but very likely it is Winter grade. And for hot weather driving your engine demands Summer grade oil. The makers of your car — the dealer who sold it to you — the manufacturer's service agent — all make this an important point.

WOOL AND MOHAIR CLIPPINGS

The mohair men are now receiving their 33c and 43c per pound, as was represented to them when we signed them in the American Wool and Mohair association, and the only expense is their membership dues. All of the talk about never hearing from their mohair has dissolved in thin air and now we wonder what will be told next.
 We are now receiving another shipment and will ship the second car within the next week. All of those who still have their mohair on hand are invited to investigate and if you want to take advantage of the present advance of 30c and 40c, bring in your mohair. We are also receiving wool for shipment under the same conditions of the mohair and advancing 21c per pound on same. We are ready to serve you in any way we can and the Association, thru the Federal Farm Board, guarantees the advances as mentioned, regardless of what the wool is sold for on the markets of the world.
 The association is yours if you will take advantage of it and we believe that you owe it to yourself, your town and community to help the Farm Board help you.
