COUNTY FAIR IN PROGRESS

Commissioners Court Holds Regular Session

Consolidation Voted By Two Districts

Commissioners court was in regular monthly session Monday, with all members present. The session was a busy and important one, but the business was concluded in one day.

A canvass of the returns from an election in Mullin and Blanket school districts showed an overwhelming majority in favor of consolidating the districts into the Mullin district, all pupils to attend the school at that place. By this consolidation about 10,000 acres of land were brought into the Mullin district. The resignation of Will Schultz as constable at Priddy was received and no appointment was made to fill the vacancy.

Official reports were examined and approved and accounts due by the county were ordered paid. The highway money collected for the months was divided to the precincts in the following order: No. 1 received $45.11; No. 2, $4.44; No. 3, $34.11; No. 4, $8.13.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Our annual revival is over and we are looking forward to keeping the spirit of the meeting at high tide. We did not have so many additions—16 in all, but we had a great meeting. Splendid crowds at every service and on the last night of the meeting many had to stay in their cars for the lack of room. The people co-operated with this pastor and the leaders of the meeting in a beautiful way. Every denomination in town manifested a fine spirit through out the services. Allow the pastor through this paper to express to all not only his gratitude, but the appreciation of his church for the courtesies extended.

Next Sunday morning at the regular preaching hour a financial statement will be made of all monies taken in and paid out. We want every member of our church to know and to always know our financial condition. Personally, as a pastor, I have always maintained the open book policy and to my way of thinking it is the only way for a Baptist church to proceed.

Let all the candidates that stand approved for baptism be on hand Sunday morning. Those who joined preceding the meeting, are urged also to be present. The baptizing will take place at the lake Sunday evening at 6 o'clock, and let all those interested take notice and make arrangements to be present.

Now, just because the meeting has just closed, is no reason for staying away from church and Sunday school. Let's do our best to have our average crowds. The rest of the summer we will do our utmost to shorten our services. The thing this preacher wants is that you do not get out of the habit of going to church.

WILL FIX ROAD

Commissioner E. A. Duren of precinct No. 3 this week assured the committee from the Mills County Hunting and Fishing club that he intended making improvement on the road leading to the lake from the Trigger Mountain road, as soon as weather conditions made such work advisable. This is a public road and Mr. Duren has no intention of neglecting it. Although it is in bad shape now, Commissioner Duren will soon have it in good shape.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

Alf Wilson and Miss Elizabeth Brazeal, both of Llano, secured marriage license in the clerk's office one day this week.

SOME MATTERS OF LOCAL INTEREST TOLD

Rodeo Owner Injured May Be Serious

Mr. C. C. Clark, owner of the Rodeo at the Fair Grounds was severely and possibly seriously injured Wednesday night when one of the rodeo horses pawed him in the face. The horse had succeeded in dislodging his rider and Mr. Clark attempted to catch the animal when it reared and struck him on one side of his face, making a severe wound. The injured man was carried to the home of his cousin, Mrs. Y. E. Hoover, Fifth and Hutchings streets, where he suffered all night, but was somewhat relieved yesterday and it is now hoped the result of the accident will not be serious or lasting.

MAKING GOOD

The friends here of the Wells family, formerly of this city and now of Tucson, Ariz., are glad to know of the advancement made by Jack Wells, son of Mr. S. T. Wells. He is first bass in a Bible Institute quartet of Los Angeles, touring the country, and a Tucson paper says in reference to him: "Mr. Wells has just graduated from the Bible Institute. During his senior year he was student body president. Upon his return this fall, Mr. Wells will become director of religious education of the First Baptist church of San Diego, Calif., of which Dr. John Bunyon Smith, is the pastor. Mrs. Wells will be secretary of the church."

PARK OPENED

The amusement and recreation park prepared by the Wesley Workers Sunday school class has been completed and has been opened to the members of that class, where they can meet for recreation and social entertainment. This is a private park and is by no means intended for the public. The members of the class secured the grounds and prepared them by their own labor and expense and it is strictly a private place of entertainment. The general public, or even other members of the Methodist Sunday school, not affiliated with the Wesley Workers class, have no more right on these grounds than they have on any other private property, unless they are invited by authority of the class.

MEETING CLOSED AT STAR

Rev. H. E. Moreland came in Monday from Star, where he held a ten days meeting with good results, there being twelve conversions. He and his family left Wednesday to begin another meeting at China Creek, other meeting at China Creek, San Saba county.

A SERIOUS CHARGE

Charlie Bohannon and his son are being held in the county jail, in default of $750 bond, charged with burglarizing the Magnolia Oil Co. warehouse a few nights ago.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

Alf Wilson and Miss Elizabeth Brazeal, both of Llano, secured marriage license in the clerk's office one day this week.

METHODIST NOTES

The Baptist meeting is now over. Thank God for every heart that has been uplifted and every life that has been converted to the religion of our Christ, as well as every one that has been properly related to life and its responsibilities. May these influences not be over. This writer regrets that he has been unable to attend more of the services, even all of them—"doctrinal" and all. These messages that were wise were helpful to all and should there have been one or a part of one otherwise it should injure only those who are not strong enough to endure. To such I would suggest that you draw near the Lord, who will help you to find yourself and, best of all, to rightly relate yourself to Him and His great work on earth. Do not be alarmed if you cannot be a Baptist, a Methodist or a Campbellite or Presbyterian, but it is time to be alarmed if you cannot be a follower of the Lord Jesus Christ. Not my religion that I desire you to accept, but I am mightily concerned that you receive my Christ.

We look for a great audience at Sunday school and all the services Sunday. The morning message will be on the subject of "The unchanging Christ." Some good old time singing will be characteristic of all the evening services.

Virginia McGirk, Ruth Featherston, Ethel Tyson and Virginia Lambert are at the League Assembly at Kerrville. Judging from the great group of our young people there from all parts of our conference and the high type of leadership (Cullom H. Booth, who succeeded Bishop Kern; Dr. Mumpower, who spent several years in Africa; S. L. Batchelor, L. U. Spellman, a wonderful Dean of Girls and nurse for them, should they get sick, and many others.) The great swimming and play places and lovely dormitory and dining hall overlooked by Mt. Wesley, they should and will have a great time. Next year we must have about a half dozen High Leaguers also at this camp. We must not fail to give our young folks the inspiration that is here afforded. Some of our young need this gathering also and must prepare for it.

Your presence, prayers and hearty co-operation shall be highly appreciated in our services and the finishing out of a great year. May you find much joy in the services of our common Christ.

Yours in His service,
S. D. LAMBERT.

FORMER CITIZEN HERE

John Burelson, an old time citizen of this place, but a resident of Lubbock for a long time, has been here this week meeting his old friends and viewing the sights in the city and country. He is accompanied by his three sons, all of whom live in the same section of the state he is located. Elzie is located in Lamesa and has a prosperous business there, while Jim and Will are engaged in business at Tahoka and are prospering. It is indeed a pleasure for Mr. Burelson's friends of other years to meet with him again and they are glad to know he has prospered in the Plains country.

TRIGGER MOUNTAIN

I suppose there isn't any use in me telling you it was real hot Sunday. I think most everything stood the heat very well, except a few of the chickens and they went to get a drink and the water in the trough was so hot it gave them all the sore throat.

You have heard the old saying, "Accidents happen in the best of families." Well, this morning ye old scribe through carelessness turned over a gallon of molasses. It flowed down the wall, cascaded off the base board and spread out in all directions over the floor. While I cleaned up, I just wondered if it was my off day and I became more provoked, and I thought this real blue Monday and I wouldn't recommend this as the proper way to start the day right.

THE GOLDTHWAITE EAGLE

In open court in Los Angeles Monday, Motley H. Flint, a financier and former president of a bank now defunct, was shot and killed by a man who claimed to have been financially ruined by Flint, who was a man of prominence and ex-postmaster of the city.

The Trinity Episcopal church of Miami, Fla., has been ordered by the court to be sold on August 4, to satisfy a debt and judgment for $145,000. The sale will not be opposed by the congregation. This is one of the few instances on record where foreclosure has been necessary on a church debt.

While the papers were being prepared for the commitment of Ben Richards of Dallas to the "pen" for forging the check on money held in escrow in an election bet, which resulted in the killing of the stakeholder, Richards started for the walls at Huntsville unattended, to begin his three years sentence. The man who did the killing was acquitted.

Representative Wright Patman of the Texarkana district has been named by Speaker Longworth of the House of Representatives, member of a special committee to make a study of the fiscal relations between the Federal Government and government of the District of Columbia. The study will be made in response to a resolution of Congress.

Just a little more than a week until the political campaign will be over and the newspaper waste baskets will not then be filled so rapidly. The Eagle has supplemented its office basket with a couple of bean crates, in order to handle the immense amount of propaganda and free publicity stuff sent out by the various campaign headquarters, augmenting the flood of free stuff by colleges, boards of trade and people generally who crave free space.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has issued instructions to collectors in Texas and seven other community property states, based upon the recent joint resolution by Congress extending the statute of limitation for one year in favor of the Government on the income tax years of 1927 and 1928. The provisions of the joint resolution are applicable to the cases of married individuals for the taxable years 1927 and 1928, where such individuals or their spouses filed separate income tax returns for such taxable years and included therein income which, under the laws of the state, upon receipt became community property.

Though the State Department of Education must reduce the apportionment to the common schools for the coming scholastic year from the present $17.50 per capita to $17 or $16.50—as State Superintendent Marrs has explained—most schools will fare as generously as before, and many will receive more money. The new law reducing the eligible age from seven to six years will add an estimated 100,000 pupils to the enrollment. Besides, the normal increase is about 30,000 pupils annually; so the scholastic population will exceed 1,500,000. A $17 allotment therefore would cost the State somewhat more than $25,000,000. Too, the latest Legislature appropriated $2,500,000 a year for rural aid, the highest allowance on record for that purpose.—San Antonio Express.

JACK WILSON CAR STRUCK BY TRAIN BUT DAMAGE LIGHT

San Angelo, July 10.—(Sp.)—Jack Wilson, El Paso radio station operator, his two children and niece, Frances Wilson, escaped with only bruises and none of the glass in their automobile was broken when the machine was struck on the eastern outskirts of San Angelo by a Santa Fe train and carried several car lengths down the track. The car was damaged badly, one side being saved in.

A blinding dust storm prevented Wilson from seeing the approaching train, which was moving slowly on the same account.

The party referred to here as "Jack" Wilson, is Ewell. He and his family and Mrs. Ernest Wilson and daughter had started for El Paso when the accident occurred. They were able to resume their journey after a few hours delay and their friends here are mighty glad to know none of them sustained serious injury.

SCREAMING GIRL, COLLISION, FIRE ON HIGHWAY IN STORY

J. P. Fallon, 506 Austin street, yesterday reported the destruction of his automobile by fire following a collision with a machine occupied by two youths, who were following a young girl along the Bankhead highway west of Cahoma Friday night.

Driving eastward Fallon said he sighted a young blonde girl running along the highway toward him. She was screaming he said. A Chevrolet sedan occupied by two youths advanced a short distance behind her. The girl attempted to jump on to Fallon's car, he said, but at about the same instant the boy's car locked fenders with his. The girl then ran on past both cars.

The boys backed away from the other car and followed the girl. Fallon was attempting to grab one of them, when he heard an explosion and turned to see his own machine bursting into flames. He saved only his plumber's tools from the car, a Pontiac coupe.—Big Springs Daily.

Mr. Fallon is a son of Mr. J. D. Fallon of the Center Point community and was reared here. The many friends of the family sincerely regret the misfortune to him in the loss of his car.

I did not have strength to do anything. My back ached nearly all the time. I was just in misery. My mother told me I must arouse myself from the sleepiness, and take something to help get my strength back. She had taken Cardui and had been helped, so I decided to take Cardui, too. After my first bottle, I could see that it was helping me. I took four bottles at this time. My strength came back and I gained weight. Pretty soon, I was my old self again. THEN AND NOW

No one who was familiar with the weekly newspapers of twenty-five years ago can fail of astonishment in examining today the contemporary weekly press. A quarter century or more has served to recast the majority of weekly papers, both in appearance and content. Formerly a political year was a season of high tide for the weekly editor. His community was political, his associates political, he was political, and he made his paper political.

Partisanship sometimes took on a fervor which heated every page. Usually there was an opposition organ across the street, if it was a county seat town. And the editors grew vitriolic as the days warmed into mid-summer and the campaign waxed into luridity. Politics then was drama, history, emotion, and it was not uncommon for revival meetings to be postponed until politics could be put aside, after the ballots were counted—or miscounted.

The contrast reflected by the present condition is worthy of comment, perhaps of encomium. The weekly press is not excited over the various candidates and contentions of this voting year, fore space is given to world comment, agricultural experiment and development, highway problems, local improvement, social life. Politics and matters of State and local administration are not ignored, of course. But the attention given them is characterized more by sincerity and discernment than by passion or hyperbole.

In short, the Texas weekly press of 1930 is broader minded and more tolerant, but not less vigilant, than that of three decades ago. Probably the fact that the publishers have larger investments, more durable equities at stake contributes greatly to the difference.—Semi-Weekly Farm News.

RURAL LIBRARIES

Every person should have the privilege of reading the best in classic and current literature. It is pre-eminently necessary, in order to have an intelligent population, that we have a reading population. The Northern States realized this long ago, and have far outdistanced the South in the creation of public libraries. Every small town in the North has such an institution and it is liberally patronized. Not only because of its cultural value, but because it will aid materially in the solution of rural educational problems, the circulating county library should be encouraged.

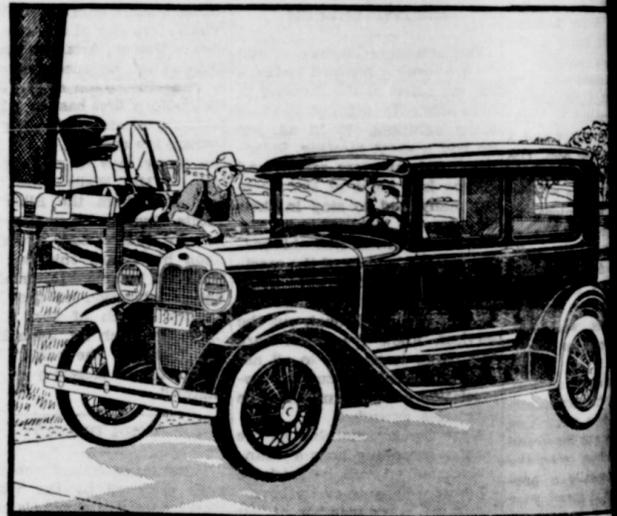

The manner of securing such a library is simple and its cost is very reasonable. The county commissioners in almost every county will vote the funds and employ a librarian if the people show that they really want the library. The first thing to do is to create the desire, and this, we trust, the library advocates in Grayson county, assisted by the newspapers, will be able to do.—Denison Herald.

Grandma Is No Longer Unhappy Back Number

This Generation's Old Folks Have Lots of Fun

New York City.—It is the fashion to call this the era of the younger generation, but Frances Arms, popular vaudeville star, has a different theory. "On the contrary," she points out, "it is far more the generation of the old. No longer is grandma a back number in a lace cap and lavender ribbon. No longer does grandma regard a smoke in the chimney corner as the height of all pleasures to which his age entitles him. "These days, when the family plan a tour, they take the old folks along. Not infrequently, grandpa and grandma are the life of the party. Since they are continually finding new and interesting things to do, they no longer bore everybody to death with repetitions of reminiscences that are too far in the past to interest anybody except themselves. As a matter of fact, they have forgotten a good deal about their past because their present is so much more alluring and exciting. "I am not talking now about the kittenish old folks that none of us really like to see. I am speaking of the sensible, well-served couple who never say die. I find them in audiences all over the country, looking happy and placid. "They are luckier than young people because they have been over the hard road of life and have learned the lessons it teaches. They have a serenity and faith that we may all hope to attain. Best of all, they have learned a form of good sportsmanship that makes them applaud heartily a heart-throbbing popular song such as 'I Never Knew How Wonderful You Were' and they have left off criticizing the youngsters, secure in the knowledge that the splendid new generation will work out its own salvation."

CENTENNIAL THOUGHT

Texas gained its independence from Mexico in 1836. California was ceded to the United States by Mexico twelve years later, in 1848. Within six years we shall be celebrating the one hundredth anniversary of our independence. The centennial of the cession of California to the United States is still eighteen years away. It seems probable that by the time we have reached our centennial of independence, California will have passed us in population. Meantime, California already has passed us in wealth, so that its wealth is now nearly twice that of ours. Texas was won for us on the battlefield. Many of the pioneers of Texas poured out their blood and sacrificed their lives that this might be a free and independent land, and in order that we might do with it what we willed, without interference from Mexico. The Californians have no such heritage of tradition. And yet they have given us a splendid example of trusteeship in that they have done more with the land which they inherited than we have with the land which was purchased for us by blood and sacrifice. Might we not meditate on such a thought as this during the centennial period through which we are passing just now? Might we not ask ourselves whether it is not possible to take our trusteeship more seriously than we have taken it heretofore and dedicate ourselves to a more zealous administration of it in the future?—Texas Weekly.

NOTICE TO WATER CUSTOMERS

Several months ago the City instituted the system of prompt collection of all water rents. This applies to all customers and water bills should be paid at the end of each month.

Hereafter, when bills are not paid by the 10th of the succeeding month the water may be cut off and on second notice will be cut off. The customer will then be required to pay all amounts due and $1.00 for turning on again.

For convenience some customers have been paying by the quarter, but in fairness to all, payments must now be made monthly. Notices will, therefore, be sent out to all customers each month.

Make payments at the City Secretary's office, or if convenient, mail check, which will be given prompt attention.

This order passed by the City Council July 7, 1930. F. P. BOWMAN, Secretary.

SHEPPARD'S REPORT

Prohibition is stronger in the United States today than ever before. Since it became a part of the National Constitution on January 16, 1920, every seat in the Federal House of Representatives has been voted upon four times, and each seat in the Federal Senate at least once, a third of the Senate seats having been voted upon twice. The result is a larger majority for prohibition in both of these bodies at the present than at any previous time. During this period of nearly ten years the American people have made more progress in three fundamental phases of human welfare, to wit, savings, life insurance, and home building, than in all the 131 years of this Republic before the advent of national prohibition. So far as the great majority of the American people are concerned, they have traded the smaller liberty to drink intoxicants and to get drunk for the larger liberty to acquire homes, to save against misfortune and old age, to clothe and nourish their families in decency and comfort.—Senator Morris Sheppard.

TRIAL DIVORCES

Persons obtaining divorces in Texas would be forced to wait at least a year before again marrying unless they decided to remarry each other, under a resolution adopted by the district judges' section of the Texas Bar Association recently held in San Antonio. Under a bill to be submitted to the legislature with the endorsement of the jurists the person in whose favor a divorce is granted will be permitted to marry after a year and the person against whom the decree is granted, after two years. The judges also would prohibit the filing of suits until the parties lived apart at least a year on trial.

Is your conversation effervescent with little real thought back of it?

You want others to like you, you want to add to your popularity.

But you feel that it must be something light and humorous if you increase the number of your friends and followers.

With that idea of being entertaining in mind you probably talk too much and say too little.

The person who desires self-improvement and to expand his or her scope of knowledge hopes to get something worthwhile from those with whom time is spent.

Do you gratify this laudable craving?

Because of your frivolity do you miss many chances of learning?

And not only do you miss opportunities of gaining knowledge, but you are really tiresome to thinkers.

If you would make an effort to leave with every person with whom you have an extended conversation something of value, you would necessarily have to add to your fund of knowledge.—Houston Chronicle.

Stage Is Most Lucrative of Arts, Declares Ziegfeld Follies Star

RUTH ETTING

Ruth Etting, Artist and Actress, Finds Stage a Gold Mine

New York City—The stage is the only one of the arts that pays—says the landlord and the milkman as well as the artist's yearning for fame and a creative outlet.

Ruth Etting, singer, dancer, song writer, star in the new Ziegfeld Follies, speaks with the confidence that comes with the knowledge of a four figure a week contract at hand.

'A painter may paint masterpieces, a musician may be a second Mozart, but the chances are great that the masterpieces may not be discovered until after the painter is buried, and the musician may never have enough money to hire a hall,' declares Miss Etting. 'This is especially true when the artist happens to be a woman. A career on the stage, if the woman is truly talented, brings its reward, both monetary and artistic, while the woman is still young enough to enjoy that reward. The world of the theatre is a rapid moving world, and more or less faithful once it has placed the laurel wreath on a favorite. To a woman who makes good on the stage there are many profitable years in which she may earn further fame.' While the young actress who only a short time ago left her home in David City, Nebraska, is enthusiastic over the stage as a career for women, she warns the modern girl that she must be ready to meet the demands of the stage.

'Few artistic professions demand as much brain and brawn work.

'Perhaps that is the reason for the large salaries. In my own case, every song must be separately studied as each picture must be clear to the audience for both eyes and ears. I am singing a waltz ballad now 'Honolulu Moon' in which the composer has captured the music of the sea, not the angry, ominous, dashing of turbulent waves but the haunting melody of South Sea waters.

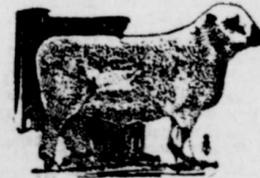

'I try to express a music that is the lullaby, the love song of an island people, the moaning, plaintiveness of the sea that surrounds them.

'This is by no means easy and I worked for weeks before I got the desired effects.

'Stage life is glorious, thrilling, lucrative, but every thrill claims its quota of the hardest kind of mental and often physical endeavor. Well I haven't one regret as yet of my choice of professions.'

Representative Wright Patman of the Texarkana district has been named by Speaker Longworth of the House of Representatives, member of a special committee to make a study of the fiscal relations between the Federal Government and government of the District of Columbia. The study will be made in response to a resolution of Congress.

Just a little more than a week until the political campaign will be over and the newspaper waste baskets will not then be filled so rapidly. The Eagle has supplemented its office basket with a couple of hen crates, in order to handle the immense amount of propaganda and free publicity stuff sent out by the various campaign headquarters, augmenting the flood of free stuff by colleges, boards of trade and people generally who crave free space.

ROADS AND ECONOMICS

The effect of road conditions on the economic life of rural communities has been thoroughly studied by the Cornell University Agricultural Experiment Station.

This study deals with roads under three classifications—hard surface, gravel and dirt. It shows that there were fewer untenanted, habitable houses on surfaced roads than on unsurfaced roads, and that only 13 per cent of farmers served by surfaced roads received no mail delivery for four days or more during the year, while 59 per cent of farmers depending on dirt roads missed mail for this period or longer.

Farmers on improved roads possessed more motor trucks than those on gravel or dirt roads. The number of days farmers on dirt roads could not employ their trucks was more than double the time farmers on hard surfaced roads could not use them.

Of greater importance is the statement that, of farmers on hard surfaced roads, only 12 per cent reported loss in marketing due to roads being blocked with snow, while on gravel and dirt roads 25 per cent and 61.7 per cent, respectively, reported loss from this cause. The estimated loss in dollars varied from $100 to $2,000.

Permanent farm relief will be secured when every state embarks on an intensive farm-to-market road building program. Transportation is said to be the life blood of industry and the same holds true for agriculture.

Plaintiff sues the defendants for the title to, and possession of, certain tracts and parcels of land situated in Mills county, Texas, and described as follows: First tract: The Henry G. Smithson survey No. 189, of 320 acres, and being the same land sold and conveyed to Citizens National Bank of Brownwood, Texas, and Fort Worth Cattle Loan Company, of Fort Worth, Texas, by Soc Martin, on May 27th, 1930, as shown of record in volume 69, at page 503, Deed Records of Mills County, Texas, to which said deed and its record reference is hereby expressly made for a full and complete description of said land.

Second tract: 320 acres of land, out of the Michael Short survey, No. 192, and being the same land that was conveyed by W. H. Martin and wife, Essie Martin to F. S. Abney, trustee, on March 13, 1930, as shown of record in Vol. 67, page 577, Deed Records of Mills county, Texas, to which said deed and its record reference is hereby expressly made for a full description of said tract of land.

Plaintiff in his petition claims title to said tracts and parcels of land, not only by a regular and consecutive chain of deeds and transfers, from the sovereignty of the soil to himself, but also by virtue of the Statute of limitation of 5 and 10 years. In this that he and those whose estate he has, and under whom he claims, claiming said land under deeds duly registered, had had and held, peaceable and adverse possession of said tracts and parcels of land, cultivating, using and enjoying the same, and paying all taxes due thereon, and as they accrued, for a period of more than five years, next before the commencement of this suit; and that he, and those whose estate he has, and under whom he claims, claiming to have good and perfect right and title to said tracts and par-

CLASS RESOLUTIONS

Whereas, it pleased Almighty God to remove from our association and from the walks of men our beloved brother and fellow-member, Mr. Wm. K. Marshall, who departed this life at his home in Goldthwaite on July 8, 1930, at 10:45 p. m., and

Whereas, he was an appreciated and honored member of the Men's Wesley Bible class of the Methodist church of Goldthwaite for more than 20 years, and proved by his words and works that he was a true Christian who had the good of the church and the welfare of humanity at heart at all times; therefore, be it

Resolved, that his presence, counsel and assistance will be sadly missed by the class as a whole and its members individually, and we are deeply grieved because of his going, yet we do not mourn as those without hope, for we have been given assurance by his upright life and a revelation of his inmost thoughts that he sought a city not made with hands and that he had made Him who walked among the Golden candlesticks his companion and friend, and we point the other members of our class and humanity general to his walk and example.

Resolved, that in the removal of Brother Marshall from our circle to that higher and brighter sphere this class has lost one of its most faithful and beloved members—one who was ever true to every claim upon him and was actuated by the highest principles of Christian living. We will miss him in our class sessions and in our associations among men.

Resolved, that we extend to his bereaved wife and sons in our city and to his mother, sister, brothers and other relatives in his home land and other parts of the world our heartfelt sympathy, assuring them that we grieve with them and that we feel and realize that we all have suffered a great and irreparable loss, yet we know that his going was for his good, tho hard for us to bear. We know that he has joined the mighty hosts John saw, who with their robes bright and spotless, are now waving palms of victory and we point his sons and other young men of our community to his splendid example.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be inscribed on a page of the records of our class and that a copy be printed in the Goldthwaite Eagle, and a copy forwarded by our Secretary to his bereaved family here and a copy to his mother in Scotland.

cells of land, had had and held, peaceable and adverse possession of same, cultivating, using, and enjoying the same, for a period of more than ten years, next before the commencement of this suit.

Plaintiff alleges in his petition that the defendants are asserting some kind of title to, or lien on or against said tracts and parcels of land, the nature and character of which, are unknown to plaintiff; that defendants have no valid claim to, or lien on or against said tracts and parcels of land, and have no right, title or interest thereon, or right to the possession thereof, but are naked trespassers.

Plaintiff asks judgment for the title to, and possession of, said tracts or land, and for a writ of possession to same, and for all claims or liens asserted against same by defendants, or either of them, be cancelled and declared of no effect, and that all clouds cast upon plaintiff's title to said tracts and parcels of land, by reason of defendants said claims, and asserted liens, be removed.

Herein Fail Not, but have you before said court, at its aforesaid regular term, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

GREAT MEETING

We have just closed a great meeting at Cherokee, which brought much added strength to the church, both numerically and spiritually. To God be all the glory and honor.

We will begin our annual meeting at Mullin next Friday night, July 18th. Prof. John Sparks of Rhome, Texas, will conduct the music and this Pastor will do the preaching. May the Holy Spirit be in every Christian prayer and in every Christian life. First of all, may the church be stirred and revived and then transgressors will be taught the way of truth and sinners will be converted unto God. May all formalities and selfishness be removed from all of us, and may we give the Holy Spirit the preedence in every service.

Yours for an old time revival,
J. W. STRIPLING, Pastor.

KONJOLA PUT KANSAS MAN BACK TO WORK

"Proved To Be A Wonderful Medicine In My Case," Says Former Sufferer

MR. H. C. SHERMAN

Any medicine that can win more than a million friends in seven years must have merit, and that is exactly what Konjola has done. You wonder why Konjola has become a household word? Well, read what Mr. H. C. Sherman, painting contractor, of Goddard, Kansas, says:

"Konjola proved to be a wonderful medicine in my case. Last July I was hurt in an automobile accident, and was in the hospital many weeks. When I got out, I was in a badly run down condition; had rheumatism in the shoulder, arm and hand, and my stomach was out of order. I suffered terrible pains, and medicine did me no good. The many endorsements of Konjola led me to try it, and six bottles of this wonderful medicine made me able to resume my work. I am feeling better in every way than for a long time."

Konjola's 32 ingredients work together, battling at their very source, the causes of stomach, liver, kidney and bowel troubles, and of rheumatism, neuritis and nervousness.

Konjola is sold in Goldthwaite, Texas, at Hudson Bros. Drug Store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

ANOTHER VICTORY FOR THIS REGULAR STOCK MOTOR OIL

CLOSE ON THE HEELS OF ITS ACCOMPLISHMENT AT INDIANAPOLIS MAY 30, CONOCO WINS 3RD, 4TH, AND 5TH AT ALTOONA AT BETTER THAN ONE HUNDRED MILES PER HOUR

Frank Farmer, in a Miller Special, "placed" third with an average speed of 102.2 miles per hour. "Shorty" Cantlon, in a Miller-Schofield Special, was fourth with 102.5 miles per hour. "Speed" Gardner was fifth in a Miller Front Drive Special. All three used CONOCO Germ-Processed Motor Oil in this convincing demonstration of the qualities of this regular "stock" motor oil. At Altoona, as at Indianapolis, this was the first time that a stock oil had placed so high in the finish of the race.

Indianapolis race; after they had observed its full body and good color as it came from Dave Evans' motor, the word went out that CONOCO Germ-Processed Motor Oil had displayed the qualities necessary to solve the lubrication problems of racing motors. CONOCO had earned the respect of this most skeptical group—and earned it fairly. In view of the Indianapolis results, it was only natural for a majority of the drivers at Altoona to choose CONOCO Germ-Processed Motor Oil for America's fastest competitive race.

And as these cars whizzed around the boards at Altoona on June 14, CONOCO again proved its worth in a field previously dominated by castor blends—a field which other stock oils have repeatedly tried to enter without success! So chalk up another victory for CONOCO

Triangle station. These CONOCO a definite meaning who drives a car. Every claim that when the oil was November. You can expect and economy of ping at the next Station and selling

The Council Board of the AAA took all the necessary precautions to make sure that the oil used was the regular CONOCO Germ-Processed Motor Oil. CERTIFIED TEST No. 2255

No business too large for us to handle, none too small to receive every courtesy and attention.

Goldthwaite, Texas

We say . . .

. . . "There never has been such a motor oil until now"

It's our business to know oils. And when we say that there never has been such a motor oil until now we mean exactly that. For the new Texaco Motor Oil is different from any oil you could ever buy before. It's longer-lasting! It's crack-proof!

And this is why it's different—There were some oils that were dewaxed. There were others that formed no hard carbon. A few others had an exceptionally enduring body..But no one oil had all the desired qualities. The new Texaco has them all! And because it is crack-proof it will not break down under the terrific heat and pressure developed by the modern high compression engine so as to form hard carbon. Naturally it lasts longer.

The new Texaco is manufactured in five grades: C, D, E, F, and G, corresponding in body to S. A. E. (Society of Automotive Engineers) viscosity ratings. The price is 30c a quart (35c for grade G). The correct grade for your car is ready for you. Drive up to any of our stations.
