County Tax Values Show Stable Condition

Cattle Prices Lower Only Change

The 1930 tax roll has been completed and shows a very healthy condition of affairs in Mills County. While there is a slight decrease in the total valuations in the county, the decrease is caused by the low market price of cattle. The totals in the larger valuations are here given:

33,341 goats	114,740
750 hogs	3,750

Railroad rolling stock	82,110
Intangible assets	230,730

The total of these and all other values rendered $5,613,930
Total values 1929 $5,675,890

DROUTH RELIEF COMMITTEE APPOINTED

Governor Moody and Director Martin of the Extension Service have worked out a plan for drouth relief in 75 Texas counties, including Mills: The plan provides for a committee in each county composed of a banker, a merchant, a farmer, a Red Cross worker and the county agent. These committees will have supervision of all drouth relief work in the several counties. The commissioners court, Tuesday appointed W. C. Dew, Goldthwaite; E. A. Kemp, Mullin; W. W. Head, Center City; W. E. Miller, Goldthwaite, who with W. P. Weaver, County Agent, composes the Mills county committee.

It is not known what plans the committee will adopt, further than to make available reduced rates on feed to consumers and on cattle shipped to better ranges. However, the committee will stand ready to act on other measures if emergencies arise. Reduced rates on feed and cattle may be secured now through the county agent.

The bride was reared in this county and attended school in Goldthwaite. The groom belongs to one of the good families of Lampasas county.

Approved Tax Roll Audit Accounts

Commissioners court was in monthly session Monday and gave attention to much routine business, such as auditing accounts and reports and looking into all county business.

The 1930 tax roll was received from the assessor and approved by the court. This roll showed a slight decrease in values from last year, owing to the reduced values of cattle, but there was an increase in poll tax renditions. The 1929 roll showed 2982 poll tax renditions, while this roll shows 2998.

The highway tax on automobiles was divided to the precincts in which it originated. Precinct No. 1 received $32.31; No. 2, $4.39; No. 3, $37.69; No. 4, $26.98.

METHODIST CHURCH

The Bible speaks of a certain crowded way as leading to destruction. The crowded way leads to destruction because those who travel it do not obey the traffic regulations. One man may fail to obey and offer the alibi that "he didn't see," another may say that he didn't think it so important. No matter what the reason may be for failing to obey the traffic signals, life will be imperiled and destruction will result. The son of one great leader in politics of the east was arrested not long ago for driving a car while drunk. Those who drive or have friends driving on our roads are happy when such menaces are removed. Are we as careful about the things that threaten the lives that are ever on life's great highway? When a life is pinned beneath a mass of wreckage it is then just the right time to wish you had done differently, but too late to repair the damages. For the sake of your own happiness and the happiness of those you love, go to Sunday school and church next Sunday.

We had good attendance at all the services last Sunday and are counting on great crowds next Sunday. If you belong to the Methodist church we expect you. If not a member of our church, a cordial welcome awaits you. Now that the great drouth is broken, come to God's house and join in thanksgiving to Him.

Conference is nearing and we must be diligent. Shall our great church break her long continued precedent of "Out in Full," by going out with a deficit this year? It must not so go out 'till we have done our best. This is God's work and let us work with the consciousness that we are in His sight.

I thank you immensely for the spirit that has prevailed in our work. Now all together for a happy closing of this year's work.
S. D. LAMBERT.

ATTENDS STATE CONVENTION

Jno. W. Roberts returned Wednesday morning from Galveston, where he attended the state Democratic convention and reported an interesting and harmonious convention.

TRIGGER MOUNTAIN

After an absence of about two weeks, will come again to say it is about the same old story. Wet weather and prosperity. Every once in a while some one commits matrimony and goes to see his wife's kinfolks. For the most part, each one pursues the even tenor of his way with little to break the monotony.

Miss Lucille Cunningham of New Berg was in our midst last Sunday to secure a boarding place and to find out when school would open. She will be our principal the coming term.

J. D. Kennedy and Roy Dellis left Tuesday to help gather the fleecy staple.

Walter Robertson went to west Texas Wednesday after some horses for J. J. Kennedy.

Charlotte, Helen and J. T. Crow, who spent their vacation in the home of their grandmother, Mrs. J. W. Dellis, left Friday for Fort Worth, where they will enter school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Nix opened their home Friday evening to the different classes of the B. Y. P. U. Victoria music and outdoor games were enjoyed. Ice cream and cake were the refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lively visited their son at Scallorn Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Davis entertained the young people with a party Saturday night. A large crowd was present.

A number from here attended the singing at Center Point Sunday. We are informed that the county convention will meet with the Trigger Mountain church, which will be the first Sunday in December.

The following families visited in the home of W. S. Cunningham Sunday: R. E. Davis, Geo. Lewis, and Arthur Bryant of Goldthwaite.

THE FARMERS WIFE.

MIDWAY

Health is very good in our community at present, with the exception of Jack Leverett, who has the smallpox and has been quarantined.

Mrs. W. W. Reynolds is still in Dallas with Herman and reports that he is improved quite a great deal.

Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. was dismissed Sunday on account of the meeting at Bethel. Most everybody went and certainly enjoyed it. The meeting closed Sunday night.

A great many people enjoyed the singing convention at Center Point Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. Marion Hazeltine and Miss Ruth Nix and Ernest Awalt brought Joe Anderson home from Mason Sunday and attended the singing convention.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cline, Jr., and Auba Cline left this week for Oklahoma, where they expect to make their home. We regret to lose them and wish them much success in their new home.

Mr. Eugene Gray left Monday for his home in Mason, after a week's visit among relatives.

Nina Hill, Inza and Durward Wright, Floyd Beard were among the number who entered school at Goldthwaite Monday.

Remember that Saturday and Sunday are regular church days and everybody is invited to be present at each service.

Joe Davis' nice saddle horse died last week.

It is three hours since I began this letter and believe me we have really gotten a big rain. Now we are all going to be smiling from "ear to ear." Why not? as we have been wishing for just such a rain for three months. I hope it keeps this up for several more hours and may be it will put out stock water. Went it seem nice once more to wash in rain water. BUSY BEE

BAPTIST CHURCH

Our little city was 45 years old the second day of this month. Some one said that it generally rained on, or somewhere near her birthday. So that has been true this time, but we are hoping that it won't wait until her next birthday to rain again.

I am wondering how many people are living in our town who were living here when she was born. The writer would be glad to converse with any one that was here on that day. Certainly when she reaches the half century mark we will give some interesting history about our town. By that time we will have reached the three hundred mark in average attendance in our Sunday school, and that will be interesting as well as many other things. Oh well, we have five years before the time comes that we must have to give a complete history.

The pastor and his wife and Allen Ross and wife ate dinner in the home of Sheriff Bledsoe Sunday. The sheriff, however, was attending the sheriff's convention in El Paso. Regardless of his absence, we had a real feast. The Baptist state convention met in that historic city several years ago, and now comes the sheriff's of our state going to the same city. That is a long ways to go just to a convention. There is one thing very noticeable about our law enforcement officers and Baptists. They never tell anything.

It has come a little rain and yet most of us still have the "blues" and are talking hard times. Listen: Think of the people of Santo Domingo. Last week a hurricane swept that country and left tragedy behind in its path. Millions of dollars worth of property were reported lost. Last Saturday 4000 people were cremated in one funeral pyre. The American Red Cross is trying to combat infection and diseases that always follow such a disaster. Talk about distressing times. Here are thousands of people without homes, without wearing apparel, without medicine, pure water, food and other things that insure comfort.

Think of it. We ought to be happy. Folk, let's take on new courage. Let's turn our eyes toward the rising sun and thank our Heavenly Father for all His bene fits bestowed upon us.

It seems that Brownwood, our neighbor, is going to enforce the laws, that is the "blue laws" About the only thing a person can buy in that city on Sunday is "Cathartic pills." Some of you fellows that have been going to shows patronize your own show on Saturday and other nights during the week and do like the owner and operator of the Melba go to Sunday school and church on Sunday. Some people in our little town may be "pessimist" and some folk are not doing what they know is right, and the rest of us know it. But after all, I am going to tell a secret. It must not be told: We have one of the best towns between the oceans. We can say the same about the county. So let's prove this to be true by every one going to Sunday school and church next Sunday.

Now listen, Mr. Baptist. Don't let anything but providence keep you away from Sunday school and church. Bring your neighbors with you. Several strangers worshipped with us Sunday. One of them said, "Preacher, I don't think that I have ever worshipped in any church where the spirit of fellowship was better." You can't worship with us and retain the blues or stay in a bad humor. Suppose you try it Sunday.

G. C. IVINS, Pastor.

OIL ON STREET

The residents along North Fisher street have had oil applied to the street this week, which is the second time they have had it oiled in the past few months.

THE GOLDTHWAITE EAGLE

Fire in the Sowell Mercantile Company's store at Brooke Smith, Brown county, last Thursday night did damage estimated at $15,000. The Brown wood fire company made a run to the place and assisted in preventing the spread of the blaze.

Red Cross officials have reported 1,000 persons killed, 2,500 persons injured, 4,700 homes destroyed, 200 homes damaged, and 29,000 persons homeless, as the result of the Caribbean hurricane in Santo Domingo city last week end.

One Brownwood moving picture company has been giving a test to the law forbidding Sunday shows and the manager has been convicted several times, but each time the case has been appealed and the next Sunday the show was opened again.

The estate of Lon Chaney, the movie actor, who died in California last week, was valued at $500,000 and the bulk of it was willed to his wife, while he made a provision for his son and other relatives with life insurance and left a former wife $1, stating she should have that much and no more.

The first legal hanging in the state of Kansas since 1870 was that of Carl Panzran Friday morning of last week, and it took place in the federal prison in Leavenworth. Panzran confessed to the murder of 22 persons, at the same time for which he died was the murder of a laundry man at the prison. Prior to his trial for this crime he wrote a letter to the trial judge demanding that he be given justice, which he said would be the death sentence. He was adjudged sane.

London's largest fire in many years, that which swept through a section of Wapping East End district, has left in its wake damage estimated by the authorities at fully $5,000,000. About 2,000 persons who were driven out of their homes Friday sought shelter in what was left of their dwellings or neighboring quarters. London was amazed at the immensity of the fire-fighting facilities mobilized for the conflagration, seeing for the first time the crews of seventy-five companies in action handling ten miles of hose.

After a bitter court struggle in Berlin, in which echoes of his lost splendor reverberated through the halls of justice, former Kaiser Wilhelm Friday won in his libel suit against a newspaper editor he charged with slandering him. The court decreed that the defendant, Ewald Mendel, editor of the newspaper Morgenpost, must pay a fine of 1,500 marks (about $75) or serve three months in jail. The newspaper had charged that the Kaiser allowed the Krupp Arms Works to furnish inferior munitions during the war because he had a financial interest in the company.

The theory that man is a mistake of nature was advanced in a lecture at Bristol, England, by Dr. H. S. Harrison, head of the anthropology section of the British association for the advancement of science, in his presidential address before the body. Dr. Harrison was at a loss to understand why man ever ceased to be an ape for he believed that he did very well while he was an ape. "Man had already been given the means to earn a livelihood," he said, "and he found himself commanding and inventing luxuries. In producing a new and cunning big-brained animal with hands, nature overshot her mark and we are struggling with the consequences. The brain of the later paleolithic man appears to have been like our own in all essentials and a eromagnon man might today be some skilled mechanic or an able bishop."

IN MEMORY

The following obituary of the late J. T. Weems was published in the last issue of the Christian Advocate.

Rev. J. T. Weems

Rev. J. T. Weems was born August 16th, 1875, and passed to his reward Tuesday at 7 p. m., May 20th, 1930, at his home in Lubbock, Texas.

He was converted and joined the Methodist Church in March, 1895, in Lampasas county. He was licensed to preach that same year and remained a local preacher while attending Southwestern University in preparation of the ministry. He was admitted on trial in 1903 and received his first appointment.

On May 4th, 1904, he was married to Miss Gertrude Nisbet of Goldthwaite, Texas. To this union were born two children, Inez and J. D. Weems.

Brother Weems was an active minister in the West Texas Conference from admittance until 1920, with the exception of four years when due to failing health he was forced to take supernumerary relation.

He served a number of charges and carried the gospel of salvation to many souls, who hold him in grateful remembrance. His enthusiastic life was an encouragement to many, to help them to a higher and holier way.

The last monument which marks his service to the church in this conference, was the building of the Mullin church, after which he was transferred to the Northwest Texas Conference in 1920. He remained active until 1918 at which time he was superannuated. This was the close of his last year's work at O'Donnell.

He was a man of strong convictions, a faithful pastor and a good preacher. His message was evangelistic. His enthusiasm for the work led him to go beyond his physical strength. He had a great desire to serve up to the last. Early in this conference year, he came to his presiding elder and wanted work, but there was no opening at that time. One great tribute that was always paid him was that he was a "Good Man."

After his Superannuation he moved to Lubbock and lived until his home going. He was greatly loved by his brethren of the ministry as well as the laity. From his home at Lubbock, he quietly went to his reward May 20th. His body was carried to the old home at Goldthwaite, where surrounded by his relatives and a host of friends, it was laid to rest. The services were conducted by Rev. G. P. McCollom, pastor of Asbury church, Lubbock, and Rev. J. W. Watson, Conference Sunday school superintendent, assisted by Rev. Claude Ledger, Moran, and Rev. Kelly of Goldthwaite and S. D. Lambert, pastor of the Goldthwaite Methodist church, also Brother Ivins, pastor of the Goldthwaite Baptist church. The Masonic lodge had charge of the services at the grave.

Brother Weems is survived by his companion, Mrs. J. T. Weems, Lubbock, Texas, a daughter, Mrs. Claude Montgomery of Shamrock, Texas, a son J. D. Weems of Crosbyton, a stepmother, Mrs. A. D. Weems of Goldthwaite, a brother, Pat Weems, of Fluvana, four sisters, Mrs. Mary Henderson of O'Donnell, Mrs. Betty Henderson of O'Donnell, Mrs. J. Hicks of Goldthwaite, and Mrs. Grace Weems, of Dallas. Two aunts, Mrs. Clara Weems, and Mrs. Mary Speers of Goldthwaite.

These dear ones are not in doubt. They know where to find their loved one. Brother Weems has gone to his well earned rest, where he awaits our coming. C. A. BICKLEY, P. E. of Lubbock Dis.

ANCIENT FORM OF WAR

The use of an ancient form of warfare in China—a maneuver, in which burning torches were tied to the tails of hundreds of water buffalo and the animals stampeded against defense lines of Changsha—was reported from the Communist beleaguered Hunan capital Friday. Reports said Red Forces surrounding the city collected many hundreds of domestic water buffalo and used fire to goad them into a stampede toward barbed wire entanglements protecting the city.

AGAIN KONJOLA SHOWS WHAT IT CAN ACCOMPLISH

Prominent San Antonio Man Eager In His Praise Of New Medicine

MR. CHARLES OLIPHANT

"I am glad to endorse Konjola to any who suffer at I did," said Mr. Charles Oliphant, well known San Antonio railroad man, 423 Lamar street, San Antonio. "About a year ago I suffered a breaking out on my skin. Little patches of pimples appeared and were called water blisters. They itched and burned severely, and though I tried many remedies I gained only temporary relief. From Konjola I gained what I consider miraculous results. The breaking out disappeared within three weeks after I began taking Konjola. I had kidney trouble, but now the pains in my back and the swelling under my eyes have disappeared also. I feel better in every way and have gained weight I think Konjola is a very fine medicine."

Konjola is recommended over a six to eight week's period and is designed to relieve ailments of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, and rheumatism, neuritis and nervousness.

Konjola is sold in Goldthwaite, Texas, at Hudson Bros. Drug Store, and by all the best druggists in all towns

BUILDING BACK

For a week this writer has been asking business men about the probable future business conditions in Texas. It was a notebook-and-pencil expedition but one of casual inquiry. In each instance the question was directed at the man's own business and not at what he thought of the other man's business. Men interested in banking, insurance, wholesaling, retailing, manufacturing and other lines were included. The men questioned were interested in everything from chewing gum to tractors. They answered directly and naturally, for they had no idea of being quoted. And they won't. The idea was not to work up a reassuring story from business leaders for public consumption, but to answer the question, as far as may be answered by a limited poll directed at each man's business: "How is business in Texas and what is the outlook?"

Of course, there was a wide variety of replies ranging from bright rose to dark blue, but on the average the men questioned were not nearly so much worried about their own business as that of the other fellow. With respect to their own affairs, most of them admitted that business was below normal, but nearly all of them have experienced some recent improvement and are looking for continued improvement. Certainly none of them are ready to commit harikari on the doorstep of hard times.

As a matter of fact, men who have done business in Texas over any length of time have gained great confidence in the ability of business of this state to "come back" promptly. There are one or two factors that work to the disadvantage of economic Texas, notably lack of diversification in agriculture and industry, but there are many more that lend stability in times of general depression. Texas is young, financially, industrially and commercially, and, like all young things, it has great resistive and recuperative powers.—Stuart McCreger in the Dallas News.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Mills County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Ralph McKee by making publication of this Citation once in each week for two successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Mills county, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Goldthwaite, Texas, on the 4th Monday in September, A. D. 1930, the same being the 22nd day of September, A. D. 1930, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 14th day of August, A. D. 1930, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court No. 2317, wherein Maggie McKee is plaintiff, and Ralph McKee is defendant, and said petition alleging:

Plaintiff and defendant are husband and wife, were married August 14, 1927, resided together until May 25, 1929, when defendant left and his whereabouts are unknown. Plaintiff was true to defendant, would have kept his home in a prudent and economical manner, had he given her opportunity, but regardless of his marital obligations, defendant began and kept up a course of unkind, thoughtless, heartless and cruel treatment, which finally rendered their living together as husband and wife insupportable. Defendant violated the law and was constantly fleeing from and evading the officers. When reproached by plaintiff, he swore and cursed and used to and about her the most vile and opprobrious epithets, and became violently angry. He left her for great lengths of time and associated in unlawful manner with other women, and finally left her without money in Dallas, Texas. Plaintiff says she is of a nervous disposition, and the constant struggle to keep track of her husband and keep him out of jail, have made her a nervous wreck and permanently injured her health. Such action of defendant, plaintiff alleges, constitutes such cruel and inhuman treatment, as renders their further living together as husband and wife insupportable.

Plaintiff says they have one son, James Ralph McKee, two years old. That defendant is not a proper person to have his care and custody, but that plaintiff is the proper person to have the care and custody of said son. She therefore prays that she be awarded the care and custody of said child.

Plaintiff alleges she is a bona fide inhabitant of Texas, and has resided in Mills county for six months preceding the filing of this suit.

Wherefore, plaintiff prays that Citation be issued, that she be granted a divorce, and the care and custody of James Ralph McKee, and for such other and further relief as she may be entitled to, including all costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

Herein fail not, but have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Goldthwaite, Texas, this 19th day of August, A. D. 1930.

Young Poet Produces Jazz Form of Verse

GENEVIEVE TAGGARD

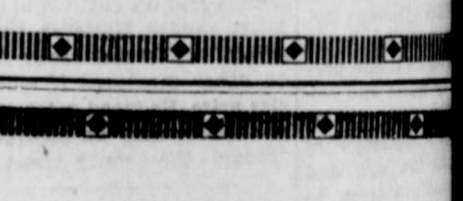

Genevieve Taggard Names Creation "Ad Lib" Metre

New York City.—Ad lib poetry as just made its bow to Manhattan critics. It is sponsored by Genevieve Taggard, most famous of the younger poets of the day. Examples of the new poetry are included in Miss Taggard's latest book of verses, "Words for the Chisel." She admits that the innovation takes much the same place in literature that jazz does in music. "I do not think that I am lowering the standards of poetry at all by comparing it to jazz music," says Miss Taggard. "I like jazz music. I think it has a definite place in the United States and that it will have a still higher place before we are through with it. There is no doubt in my mind but that jazz has affected the rhythm, theme and style of modern poetry. It certainly affected me in the writing of many of my best verses, especially 'The Singing Soap Boxer,' which has been described by critics as a jazz poem. 'I am working on a poem now suggested by a haunting bit of popular music heard at the Ritz the other day—'What Good is Good Morning.' The inspiration from such music is not cheap or tawdry, either. Interestingly enough, Miss Taggard is the daughter of a missionary. She came to New York from Honolulu where she lived as a child. George Sterling, literary critic of the San Francisco Call, speaking of her book, 'For Eager Lovers,' wrote, 'With the publication of her first book, Miss Taggard steps level-eyed into the shining company of Edna Millay, Elmer Yllie and Sara Teasdale, modernists to the heart-core. But for all her kinship with the three, she remains herself, an intense and starchy individuality, and, in my opinion, runs on lighter and surer feet than any of her singing sisters.'"

GREETINGS TO SCHOOLS

State Superintendent of Public Instruction, S. M. N. Marrs has issued greetings and all good wishes to the 1,500,000 boys and girls, to the more than 40,000 teachers and to practically the same number of officials who will engage in the great business of public education during the ensuing year.

"Some one has defined education as the transformation of capacity into ability," Superintendent Marrs said. "The conception of education as a function of the state involves the training of the boys and girls for good citizenship. This includes more than the mechanics of the fundamentals—it is not enough that the children shall be well versed in the common school subjects, but there must be a thorough training in those virtues that contribute to the strength of manhood and womanhood.

"Excellence in arithmetic may be a mark of brilliance, but to be excellent in effort is a mark of character. The school officials during the last few months have been selecting the teachers and no doubt they have met this responsibility nobly and well. This is the most important duty which they are called upon to perform. Certainly the teachers should have adequate academic preparation, but above and beyond all they should have the ability, by precept and more especially by example, to train the children in the finer and nobler things of life. The ideals of the teachers in the public schools, since they deal with immature children, should be on a parity with those of the ministers. Truth, loyalty, honor and service are invaluable traits of citizenship."

Difficult Work
"Education does not mean teaching people what they do not know; it means teaching them to behave as they do not behave. It is not teaching the youth the shapes of letters and the tricks of numbers and then leaving them to turn arithmetic to roguery and their literature to lust. It is a painful, continual and difficult work to be done by kindness, by watching, by warning, by precept and by praise, but above all — by example.

"Ten thousand of the teachers in our public school will have a new experience. They will meet their pupils for the first time. Their success will depend largely upon their point of view, whether they are more interested in the children than in the subject matter to be taught. Will they be time-servers anxious to see each day close or will they, with the true missionary spirit, be so full of love for children that they will wish for longer hours, so that more can be accomplished? The teacher who dislikes children and finds her work to be drudgery should change her vocation.

"Society Depends on Schools"
"In this complex civilization the safety of society depends upon the success of the public schools. I am persuaded that the rank and file of leaders in the field are meeting the full measure of their responsibility. Today thousands of boys and girls will begin the school work of the year. Very few will have the traditional attitude of the snail's pace; by far the large majority will rejoice that the vacation is over and that old friendships can be renewed and new fields explored. Punctuality, regularity of attendance, promptness in discharge of obligations are school virtues to be cultivated. The waste caused by irregularity of attendance should be reduced to the minimum. Youth can render its greatest service to the state and society by contributing to the efficiency of the schools through the observance of regulations and by exercising that kind of co-operation with teachers and students, which in later years will evidence the qualities of good citizenship."

VETERANS FAVOR REPEAL

In its thirty-first annual encampment, the veterans of foreign wars, in session at Baltimore, went on record as favoring the repeal of prohibition and its enforcement laws. It seems the veterans have run out of anything to talk about of a constructive nature and wanted to indulge in a little levity. When any individual or organization imagines this country will ever see the open saloon they are either misinformed as to the public mind or suffering a delusion. The "doggerel" has had its day and will never come back.

The per capita cost of federal prohibition enforcement was given as six cents in a financial summary made public a few days ago by the prohibition bureau.

Plans are being formulated in Dallas for the celebration next Sunday of the thirty-fourth year of Dr. George W. Truett's pastorate of the First Baptist church of that city. Mighty few pastors have held one pastorate as long as has Dr. Truett, who has just returned from an evangelistic tour of South America.

A Cleburne man caused quite a sensation and considerable talk in Dallas a few days ago when he made a round of the banks including the federal reserve, in search of a $10,000 bill. He was unable to find a bill of that denomination in any of the financial institutions of the North Texas city and compromised by taking two bills of $5,000 each.

The "Greater Baylor Campaign" committee of 100 will meet at the First Baptist church in Dallas Monday night, Sept. 15, to complete a plan to free Baylor University of Waco from its indebtedness of $350,000 by the end of the year. If this amount is raised by December by alumni and friends of the school Baylor will be able to claim a conditional $300,000 for endowment from the general Educational Board of New York.

A PUSH

I suppose we all haven't forgotten George Gissing's account of the two brothers, Oliver and Godwin Peak, who had a sharp contention over Oliver's new hat. Oliver had just come in with the hat, which he placed on the table near his gloves. "What is this thing," inquired Godwin, with ominous calm, as he pointed to the piece of headgear? "A hat, I suppose," replied his brother. "You mean to say you are going to wear that on the street?" "Why not?" inquired Oliver. "Can't you feel, burst out Godwin, that it's a disgrace to buy and wear such a thing? Disgrace! What's the matter with the hat? It's the fashionable shape! Godwin turned contemptuously away. But Oliver had been touched in a sensitive place and was eager to defend himself. "I can't see what you're finding fault with he exclaimed, everybody wears this shape."

"Everybody!" replied Godwin with withering disdain, everybody. How can you offer such an excuse passes my comprehension. Have you no self, are you made like this hat, on a pattern with a hundred thousand others?" It is evident that very many people need a Godwin near their side day in and day out. So many think and go and do things for no other reason than that others do the same. If the crowd happens to go in the right way it is all well and good to be with the crowd, but most often the crowd is in the wrong. There are so many who desecrate the Sabbath you say. That is one reason why you should be earnest in effort to redeem the Sabbath from its falling state. Why blight your moral character because others do? Some have for an excuse for trespassing on the Lord's day, a plea of busy week days. They say Sunday is my only off day. Business is so pressing during the six days that one needs a little Sunday fishing or hunting or a ball game. I wonder how comes it that we find men with ten times more press and business during the week than such Sunday breakers and who do not tolerate for one moment that kind of recreation on Sunday and yet them and their business go on fine and healthy. Such excuses remind me of the girl who whirled in the giddy dance until near the coming day and returned home, tumbled into bed and slept off wild dreams, while her indulgent mother did the morning work. In the afternoon, as she arose from her long nap with swollen eyes and headache, the pastor to her parents called. He learning the night's history began to lecture the girl for her health's sake, for modesty's sake and for mother's sake. The girl finally replied, "Now preacher, I just can't see things like you preachers. I have such a monotonous grind each day that I feel I need such recreation occasionally. I think it is good for me."

Everybody knows that she did not tell the truth. What she liked was to feel some man's arm about her sill form and the lower the lights were turned down the better she like it. SAM SAY

An Exact Science That Deals With The Animative Force of God Within

In effect it opens the way for nature to restore perfect health. This life force that surges through the nerves is the great mystery of existence. What it is nobody knows, but that it is everybody knows. It comes from the Supreme Intelligence, because it is an intelligent force. It was intelligent enough to build the human body in the great miracle of the creation of life. It is intelligent enough to repair nerves, flesh and bone when broken. It is this force that causes harmonious function throughout the body, and the lack of its expression in any given organ or gland in one-hundred per cent of time, quantity and quality, is what causes disease, and the lack of its expression in the body as a whole brings about death, whether you have lived your allotted time or not.

There is no disease in man, woman or child that will not yield in time to the influence of the mighty life force that proper adjustments can return fully to the sick. It is the supreme accomplishment in the care of the sick, provided you take CHIROPRACTIC ADJUSTMENTS first when sick.

CHIROPRACTIC deals with the mighty LIFE FORCE that God gave to man. Is man's power above the power of God? Can you find something that man made that can build bodily tissue and bone? Think it over, THERE'LL BE NO REGRETS R. A. SWANGER Doctor of Chiropractic Only

The Goldthwaite merchants are making a special bid for the fall trade and the prices being made can not be equalled in many cases by catalog house or other competition. Goldthwaite has long been known as the best place in which to buy goods or sell produce of all kinds.

Those who need blank mortgages, deeds, notes, etc., can find a good assortment at the Eagle office and they are sold in lots of one to one thousand.

William Glenn Yarborough has been appointed a position in the Texas Railroad Commission office at Austin, in the Motor division and will assume his duties next Monday, Sept. 15. By the arrangement of the schedule of his work he will have time to attend the sessions of the State University and discharge his duties as well. His friends here are delighted over his appointment, while sincerely regretting that it will take him away from Goldthwaite, for he is one of the most popular members of the younger set of Goldthwaite citizenship.

MILLS COUNTY INSTITUTE A SUCCESS

The Mills County Teachers Institute, held in the Junior High School building in this city last Thursday and Friday, was one of the most interesting and helpful to the teachers of this county ever held in the county. Supt. E. D. Stringer, of the Goldthwaite schools, was in charge of the program and Dr. I. I. Nelson of the state department of education acted as conductor. The entire program was interesting to the teachers and visitors and every one taking part in the program was prompt and enthusiastic in carrying thru the parts assigned them.

After two full days of interesting, beneficial work the institute adjourned Friday afternoon and the teachers departed for their various fields of work, to make preparations for the opening of their schools. Some schools opened Monday of this week, some will open next Monday and others have a later date for beginning.

Before adjourning, a committee on resolutions was appointed and reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously and enthusiastically adopted.

Resolutions

Whereas, the Mills County Teachers Institute met in Goldthwaite, on September 4 and 5, 1930. Be it resolved:

2. To the Goldthwaite Independent School District for the use of their building.
3. To Rev. G. C. Ivins and Rev. S. D. Lambert for leading the devotional part of the program.
4. To the Four Raeketeers, Paul McCullough, Herman Rudd, Julian Evans and Bill Yarborough, for the splendid music furnished by them.
5. To Dr. I. I. Nelson, director of the institute, for his inspirational and educational lectures and leadership.
6. To the State Department of Education for its appreciated contribution to the program, through its representative, Mr. S. E. Clark.
7. To Mrs. Fred Martin, Mrs. F. P. Bowman, Misses Rubylee Dickerson, Myrna Miller and those assisting them, for the musical numbers furnished.
8. To Judges E. B. Anderson and L. E. Patterson, Messrs. John M. Scott, R. M. Thompson, J. M. Logan, Ralph Fisher, E. D. Stringer, Mrs. Joe. A. Palmer, Mrs. E. D. Stringer, Mrs. John M. Scott and Misses Sybil Guthrie and Ruth Featherston for the part taken by them on the programs.
9. For the Physical Education program given by the children and Mr. E. D. Stringer.
10. To the Parent Teachers Association, and particularly to Mrs. W. E. Fairman, president, for the courtesies shown the teachers and delicious refreshments served to them.
11. To the management of the City Golf Links and to the Wesley Workers for the use of their golf courses and playgrounds.
12. To the people of Goldthwaite in general, who showed the teachers every courtesy and consideration.

MIDLAND WATERMELONS

An item in the daily papers is of special interest in Mills county, as Dan Long learned the art of growing watermelons in Big Valley: "Watermelons in Midland county are this year making close to 100 per cent more profit than cotton, because watermelon acreage is paying about $100 per acre, while cotton will pay approximately nothing unless prices change. M. D. Long, champion Midland county melon grower, markets a truckload daily from 23 acres. Other farmers are supplementing their farm income from melons."

HUNTING SEASON AND ITS RULES

The hunting season opened Sept. 1, with the dove season. The duck season opens Oct. 16 and closes January 31. The deer season will be on from Nov. 16 to Dec. 31 and the bear season from the same dates.

THE GOSPEL OF JESUS CHRIST, THE ONLY HOPE OF THE WORLD TODAY

The only hope for this adulterous, pleasure seeking, sight-seeing and joy-riding age of this world is the Gospel of Jesus Christ preached with hell awakening and soul saving power. However, it is the most unpopular thing that a preacher can do, for it is not in fellowship and harmony with this fast age. "Woe be unto me if I preach not the Gospel of Jesus Christ." I had rather walk alone with Jesus, and know that in my heart I have preached His word, than to have the friendship of the world, mixed with doubts and fears.

To those of my friends who live in the various parts of Mills county I make this announcement: I will begin a series of sermons at Midway, near Caraday, next Saturday at 11 a. m. and continue until Sunday night following. These sermons will be on the subject of the fundamentals of Christian religion. These messages will be continued each month until all Bible fundamentals shall have been delivered to the church at Midway. I am much desirous that every true follower of Christ get the full benefit of such messages, hence I take this method of inviting you to attend each service. Do not miss a link, for they will, if heeded, establish your going and make you "strong in the Lord and in the power of His might." I have given the strength and powers of my life specializing the doctrines of Jesus Christ. I would be pleased, if God's spirit directs, to have full time pastoral work in Mills county. However, if you demand that

RUPTURE EXPERT HERE

C. F. Redlich, Minneapolis, Minn., nationally famous Rupture Appliance Expert, will demonstrate without charge his unequalled method as Goldthwaite Thursday, Sept. 18, at the Saylor hotel from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Mr. C. F. Redlich says: "The 'perfect Retention Shield' holds the rupture perfectly, no matter what position the body assumes or how heavy a weight you lift. They give instant relief and contract the opening in a remarkably short time. The secret of their success is in their simplicity. An expertly adjusted device seals the opening without discomfort or detention from work. It is practically everlasting, sanitary, comfortable and actually holds ruptures which heretofore were considered uncontrollable."

"IF YOU WANT TO HAVE IT DONE RIGHT—SEE REDLICH."
Doctor J. W. Seaver, for many years in charge of the Physical Education of the students of Yale College, has recorded 75% cures with this system.
Mr. Redlich is internationally known and speaks English, German and Spanish.
Home office, 535 Boston Block, Minneapolis, Minn.

I am a product of Howard Payne I could not serve you, for I am not. I have never visited that school, nor was I ever in the city of Brownwood until several months after being pastor at Mullin. I was once a student in Baylor, but what does it differ what school I am from, just so the spirit of God directs my going. I have always believed that each Baptist church should, under the leadership of God's Holy spirit, choose their own pastors. I enjoy any pastorate that is spirit guided. To all who would enjoy the sermons beginning next Saturday at Midway, we bid you a most hearty welcome. The church at Midway will greet you on that occasion.
God bless and feed the many hungry saved souls in Mills county.

"When I was just a girl of 18, my mother gave this medicine to me, and it did me a great deal of good. I was weak and run-down. After I had taken Cardui awhile, I felt much better. "In 1924, my health was poor. I felt miserable, and hadn't enough strength to do my housework. It took all my willpower to keep up. I was pale and weak. "I got Cardui again and took it. My improvement was wonderful. I can recommend Cardui to others, for my health was so much better after I had taken a course of the Cardui Home Treatment."
