VOLUME THIRTY-NINE

GOLDTHWAITE, MILLS COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, APRIL 14, 1933.

NUMBER THIRTY THREE

Relief Committee Adopts New System Required By State

ALL UNEMPLOYED MUST REGISTER IN ORDER TO GET WORK GARDENS REQUIRED

Relief application blanks have been received this week by the Mills county relief committee, together with complete directions or handling relief work in the county. The forms have been prepared by the Texas Relief commission of which Col. Lawrence Westbrook is the director. Complete information must be secured from every person applying for work, and detailed records must be made and forwarded regularly to Austin by the committee.

Who Is Eligible

To be eligible for work relief, man or family must be in actual need of the necessities of life. The questions which the state requires the committee to ask of each applicant include the following: Name, address, age of self, wife and children, amount of earnings of each member of the family, names of relatives able to assist applicant, amount of savings, insurance, pensions, compensation. Ownership of home, furniture or automobile. Names of references.

The intent of the law providing the relief money from Reconstruction Finance Corporation relief funds is to relieve suffering and distress. It is not provided in order to do any particular kind of work. Accordingly a community, although needing work on its roads or school grounds, will have no claim for any part of the relief money except for those of its citizens who are in need of food.

Gardens Required

Every applicant for work relief must agree to plant and cultivate a garden to supply himself and family with vegetables. Instructions received only this week from Austin lays down the positive policy of NO GARDEN—NO RELIEF. J. J. Cockrell, committee member representing Big Valley and the southern part of the county, has prepared the following list of vegetables which should be planted at this time: lunch beans, beets, mustard, lettuce, okra, blackeyed peas, cabbage, tomatoes, onion slips and sweet potatoes. The committee is authorized to furnish the necessary seed for any family unable to buy seed as soon as the applicant has his garden ready to plant.

Kind of Work Provided

As the money for relief work will be deducted from the state's highway allotment from the federal government, the bulk of it is being spent on the roads. So far all of it in Mills county has been spent in fencing the new state highways. It is probable that a limited amount will be available for other public work in communities too far away from the highways to benefit from the work on them. To secure a work project, a community must satisfy the committee that it is for the public benefit, is needed, and, preferably, will result in permanent benefit to the community. The community group seeking the work project must also agree to provide a foreman or overseer, all tools and wagons or trucks needed, buy all the materials and supplies required, and, if necessary, furnish transportation for the workers to and from the job.

Small Amount Available

In keeping with instructions from the governor and the director of the Texas Relief Commission, Mills county has applied for only enough relief funds to

Unemployed Men Must Register to Get Work Cards

The following announcement is made by request of the Mills county relief committee:

Hereafter no relief work will be assigned anyone in Mills county until he has been issued a numbered work card. To get such a card, the applicant must register with the member of the committee living nearest to him and present full information to show his need of relief.

Following are the members of the committee authorized to receive applications for work and the time they may be seen.

John A. Allen, Goldthwaite, at the court house all day Monday.

J. J. Cockrell, Big Valley, Monday.

L. L. Adams, Star, Monday.

R. F. Swindle, Priddy, Monday.

S. J. Casey, Mullin, Monday.

Those who do not register Monday will have to wait until the next registration date is announced, so it is important for all who can register Monday to do so.

These registrations are different from the registrations made by the state highway department recently. A separate application must be made by all desiring work from the relief committee.

Red Cross Elects Officers for County

A meeting of the Red Cross society for the county was held Monday, at which time S. P. Sullivan was elected county chairman and Rev. J. S. Bowles, vice chairman. Mrs. John G. Berry is the secretary-treasurer.

It was announced the supply of Red Cross flour had been exhausted, except that already assigned.

POSTAL PAY CUT NOTICE RECEIVED

An order signed by President Franklin D. Roosevelt was received by the local postoffice Monday, the first official advice received locally that salaries of employes had been reduced 15 per cent. The chief executive had computed the cut on a basis of the cost of living for six months prior to June 30, 1928, and for six months ending December 31, 1932. The reduction will apply between April 1 and June 30, 1933. After June employes face a possible reduction of 25 per cent in personnel, it was said.

Another order instructs all postmasters to discharge any members of their families who may be working in the post office and employ in their places, deserving citizens with dependents to support. This order does not concern the Goldthwaite postoffice, however, as Postmaster McDermott has no relations on the pay roll.

City May Ask R. F. C. For Aid In Securing Gas

Chamber - Commerce Working on Plan To Secure New Projects

By direction of the city council of Goldthwaite, request has been made of the advisory engineer of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation office at Dallas for information and application blanks dealing with self-liquidating loans from the R. F. C. to cities for constructing public works. If the terms of the R. F. C. can be met, the city will endeavor to finance a municipally owned natural gas distribution plant in this manner.

Survey Being Made

At the same time, W. C. Dew, president of the Goldthwaite Chamber of Commerce, has received a request from the president and directors of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce for a survey of the requirements of Goldthwaite in the way of public works provided the money can be made available. Some of the enterprises suggested are gas plants, sewerage systems and sewage disposal plants, street paving, swimming pools, libraries, auditoriums, etc. Only enterprises which can be made to pay for themselves out of the revenues received will be approved by the R. F. C. for loans.

Huge Sum Available

Under Title 2 of the relief act, one and a half billion dollars has been made available, through the R. F. C., for self-liquidating projects, and of this amount about eighty million dollars may be used in Texas. So far only one or two Texas applications have been made because of the red tape required in making them. The West Texas Chamber of Commerce is now planning to assist cities and counties in preparing their applications and in assembling the voluminous data required by the R. F. C. before loans can be made.

A FIXED RULE

As announced in the Eagle a few weeks ago, no personalities or impugning of people's motives will be published in these columns in the discussion of the school tax or any other question, either in paid matter or free publicity. The Eagle gives a reasonable amount of space for the discussion of any question in which the public may be interested, but if personalities are to be used the Eagle's job presses are available for printing such matter in circular form, but under no circumstances will any such articles be accepted for the Eagle's columns.

CHORAL CLUB

Friday, April 14, the Goldthwaite high school choral club will go to Belton to defend their title of the loving cup that they won last year. The club must win the cup three years in succession before it will be their property.

The club will sing the contest song, "Spain" sometime Saturday. The trio that will enter the contest also consists of Floyce Ailene Dickerson, Charline Brim and Mary Ellen Trent.

Everyone support your club.

Fate of Tax To Be Decided On Saturday

Retention of $1 Tax or Reduction to Fifty Cents Is Issue.

The election to determine whether or not the special school tax in the Goldthwaite district shall remain the same or be reduced will be held Saturday, April 15, and the Eagle is instructed by the presiding officer of the election to say that only qualified voters who are property taxpayers in the district will be entitled to vote in this election, which will be held in the district court room.

Resolutions Adopted Against Dry Repeal

Following resolutions were adopted at a mass meeting in Goldthwaite Monday night.

Whereas, we are opposed to the repeal of either our national or state dry amendment, or the modification or the weakening of our dry laws, but are for their retention and better enforcement.

Therefore, be it resolved by this mass meeting of the churches of Goldthwaite, that we respectfully and earnestly petition our state senator and representative to vote against the repeal of our dry laws, but are for their retention and better enforcement.

Resolved, further, that copies of these resolutions be sent to both our state senator, W. C. Woodward, and representative, George W. Rollins, at Austin, and a copy furnished our local papers with a request that it be published.

The following officers were elected to have charge of this campaign: County chairman, J. J. Cockrell; vice chairman, Rev. J. S. Bowles; secretary-treasurer, W. E. Miller.

Advisory committee: The pastors of the churches of Goldthwaite: Clem Hoover, S. O. Hammond, J. L. Bates and the pastor of the Baptist church when one is selected.

TEMPERANCE CAMPAIGN

To the Citizens of Mills County: We are now at the opening of a campaign for the betterment of our county. If the citizens allow our prohibition laws to be destroyed it will most certainly be greatly to our detriment. We can not afford to allow the old saloon or the sale of liquor to come back to our community and yet this will be the result if we, as citizens, are in any sense indifferent to the cause.

It is the desire of those in charge of this campaign to visit every community in the county and talk matters over together in order that we may prevent the return of the saloons. We appeal to you to co-operate with us.

It is our desire to send competent speakers to your community to speak to you. Please notify us and we shall be glad to send these speakers at any time and to any place. Get in touch with any one of the following: J. J. Cockrell, chairman of the county, Goldthwaite, Texas; J. S. Bowles, vice chairman, or W. E. Miller, secretary.

J. J. COCKRELL, Chairman.

FREAKISH WEATHER

Yesterday afternoon a heavy shower fell in Goldthwaite for half an hour. It was followed by one of the most severe dust storms of recent years. A fog of dust filled the air and hung over the hills, and the unclouded sun appeared a pale silver disk. A brisk norther followed which carried the mercury down to 34 degrees. Frost damage in town was prevented by the moisture from more rain during the night.

No Jobs Sold Blanton Tells West Texan

Democrats Will Not Sell Appointments He Declares.

A Nolan county applicant for a postmastership who promised 10 per cent of the salary to Democratic national headquarters and a $500 campaign contribution to Representative Thomas L. Blanton if the congressman would have him appointed, has received a hot letter from the fiery Texan.

"Your proposal is an insult to me and to the Democratic party," Judge Blanton wrote the job-seeker. "Anyone who would propose such a bribe is wholly unfit and disqualified to hold public office. The people want officials who won't offer bribes to others, and who can't be bribed themselves. Though $25,000 was spent by various interests in my district against me last year, not a dollar was contributed to my campaign. I still owe the bank a balance for money borrowed to enable me to make it, but I will pay it with honest money, not with bribes. I have helped to pass a law cutting my salary $1500, cutting my allowance for clerk hire $750 (which I am paying out of my own pay, as my clerks with dependents are not able to lose it), cutting my mileage 25 per cent, and cutting my allowance for office expenses 25 per cent, and I have practically nothing left each month after my expenses are paid, but I am not for sale. I can't be bribed."

Raps Republicans

"Last year I denounced the Republican practice of selling post offices. I pledged that it would be stopped. No person in my district will pay anything to anybody for any appointment. I promptly showed my letter to President Roosevelt. It astounded him. He is the head of our Democratic organization. He will permit no contributions to be received in return for appointments. He will allow no offices to be bought."

Club Reports

ART AND CIVIC CLUB

Mrs. Lewis Gartman entertained the members of the Art and Civic club and other guests at her home last Thursday afternoon.

The program on "Music" was led by Mrs. Jacob Saylor. Roll call was responded to by "American Musicians." Mrs. Roy Rowntree spoke on "Music in the Home." Mrs. Fred Martin read a very interesting and humorous paper on "The West Parish Choir in the Sixties—As Seen and Heard From a Corner Pew," which was written by a cousin of hers at the age of 80 years. Mrs. Claud Eacott read the poem "Grit."

Three beautiful hooked rugs, which Mrs. L. E. Miller very kindly loaned the club, were on display. The rugs were made by a niece of Mrs. Miller, in Oklahoma, and were certainly a work of art.

Two musical numbers by Evelyn Faye and Louise Gartman and two numbers by the Schubert club were much enjoyed by all. The hostess, assisted by her daughters, served a delicious salad course.

MERRY WIVES CLUB

An enjoyable afternoon of bridge was made possible on Tuesday when Mrs. Foster Brim entertained members of the Merry Wives club and other guests. After a series of games, high score for club member went to Mrs. Chas. Frizzell, and Mrs. W. C. Dew won high for guest.

Legion Votes Confidence In Roosevelt

A vote of confidence in President Roosevelt and of support to the government was unanimously passed at the regular meeting of the Harry F. Edmondson post of the American Legion Tuesday night. A copy of the resolution is being mailed to the president. This action was taken in response to the requests of National Commander Johnson and Department Commander Nesbitt, who pledged the support of the legionaires in their organizations to the president.

Commander Nesbitt is to speak in Brownwood Friday night, April 21, and a number of legion members from Mills county are planning to hear him.

John Weaver, R. H. Chandler and G. W. Chancellor were appointed to raise funds for the American Legion junior baseball team which plays its first game tomorrow in San Saba.

War Pictures Shown

Moving pictures taken by army photographers on the battle fields of France during the world war were shown. Many of the legionaires recognized landmarks around which they fought in 1918.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

On Monday, April 10, the annual home-coming and reunion took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Martin, when the family celebrated the ninetieth birthday of their mother, Mrs. Sophia Schweining, lovingly called "Grandma," by many friends.

On Friday and Saturday the sons and daughters with their children and grandchildren began to arrive from different parts of the state and some from other states. This annual birthday celebration is always a joyful occasion to the entire family and the aged mother, who was presented with gifts of every description—flowers, fruits of all kinds and much wearing apparel.

A perfectly wonderful dinner prepared by her devoted and capable daughters was served to thirty-four relatives and five guests.

In the afternoon, as is the custom, other guests came in to wish Mrs. Schweining a happy birthday and for her sake, the Lord's supper was administered, as she is unable to attend church services. Revs. Hammond and Bowles, each gave beautiful prayers and passed the sacrament to the aged lady first, then to all the family and guests, after which very inspiring talks were made by both ministers and several beautiful hymns were sung. Later two lovely birthday cakes, presented by Mrs. F. D. Webb and Mrs. M. Y. Stokes, jr., were brought into the room, sliced and served with punch.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Emil Zuhlke, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Brockman from San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schweining and daughter, Erna, Roosevelt, Mrs. Wm. Lemoin and baby, Marilyn, Laredo; Mrs. Otto Thiers from Roosevelt, Alfred Schweining of Sonora, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Lange of Mason, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Schweining and

A federal engineer representing the Bureau of Public Roads, was here Wednesday and approved the new survey of highway 7 from Goldthwaite to Mullin, after a careful inspection of the route. As the road from Mullin to the Brown county line has already been approved by the federal bureau, the county is now assured of a federal aided highway from Goldthwaite to Brownwood.

Money Appropriated

The first step towards actual construction of this road was also made this week when the state highway department appropriated $1050 for the final survey and preparation of construction plans. The county is required to fence the highway, and this work will start at once. As soon as the construction plans have been completed and approved, it is expected that clearing and grubbing of the new right of way will begin. Meanwhile Mr. Hunn is making preparations for clearing and grubbing the right of way for state highway 81 between Goldthwaite and the Colorado river as soon as the first appropriation, which was made last week, has been received here.

Commissioners Hold Two Day Session

Commissioners court was in session Monday and Wednesday of this week. The returns from the school election at Ebony were canvassed, showing the special tax was reduced by a vote of 27 to 23.

The returns from school trustee elections in the county were canvassed and results declared. J. M. Geeslin was re-elected member of the county board from the county at large and R. C. Duren was re-elected to the county board from precinct No. 3.

The highway money was divided to the various precincts. No. 1 received $365.32; No. 2, $126.46; No. 3, $309.89; No. 4, $166.89.

The court audited official reports and transacted other routine business.

THE PECAN SCHOOL

Get ready for the big day at Center City next week. Keep this event in mind, for you can't afford to miss it. The Center City folks expect their friends to be on hand.

Now get this. Your Center City friends will furnish meat and coffee and you are expected to bring bread, cake, pie, pickles, vegetables—oh well, you know what you took to the Big Valley picnic and all agree it was a great spread. So bring a contribution to the lunch and all will be happy at the noon hour.

A number of noted pecan experts will be there to assist our local talent with the instruction. All the vocational and agricultural classes in this section will attend. County agents of surrounding counties will come. It will be a great day.

Everybody invited. O.G.H.

BONUS BILL DROPPED

Congressman Patman, sponsor of the soldier bonus bill in Congress, states that the legislation will not be pressed at this time as the indications are that the senate would not give it enough votes.

Clinton DeWolfe of San Saba was a business visitor to this city last Friday.

Misses Conner and Spinks of Center Point were pleasant callers at the Eagle office last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dew, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Gober visited Brownwood last Friday afternoon.

Joseph Bowles, who is a student in Southwestern University at Georgetown, spent Sunday at home.

Miss Oma Smith of Mullin was in the city shopping Saturday and made the Eagle an appreciated call.

Walter Campbell, one of the good men of the Mullin section, made the Eagle an appreciated call Saturday.

Cam Williams and family of Brad, Parker county, were here last week end, visiting Mrs. J. L. Erving and family.

Walter Glenn Saylor returned to Austin Sunday to resume his studies in the University, after a week end visit at home.

Hugh McCullough and his wife and daughter were here from Hico Sunday, visiting relatives and meeting with their friends.

Burch is prepared to clean and press garments for any member of the family and takes orders for made-to-measure garments. See his samples for spring clothing.

J. A. Allen and wife and Harry Allen and family spent Sunday in Brownwood, where they met other relatives and enjoyed the day together.

King Childress and family of Stephenville were here last week end visiting relatives—the Morris family. He has improved his fire alarm patent to include a burglar alarm.

M. Y. Stokes, jr., and family visited relatives in Lampasas Sunday, returning home Monday morning. They report a heavy hail storm at Lampasas Sunday afternoon.

It is to every citizen's interest to patronize the home dealers in his community, for they help to pay taxes to support the schools and government, as well as give assistance to those who need any sort of help.

Miss Grace Baxter and her sister, Mrs. W. W. Linkenhogor, entertained at their beautiful ranch home, "Sunny Dale," honoring Miss Elizabeth Hopkins, an April bride, with a miscellaneous shower.—San Saba Star.

Miss Blanche Burkett of Mullin, who is a student in John Tarleton college at Stephenville, came over last week end to visit home folk and attend the inter-scholastic meet. While here she made the Eagle a much appreciated call.

As a result of the school trustee election held at the City Hall in Hico on Saturday, April 1, H. N. Wolfe and H. E. McCullough, were selected to fill the places vacated by Lee Rainwater and S. J. Cheek, whose terms of office had expired and who did not stand for re-election.—Hico News-Review.

Mrs. Elmer Horton of Scallorn was a visitor to the city Saturday and called at the Eagle office. She was preparing to leave for a visit to relatives in Beaumont and Lake Charles, La., to spend some time for the benefit of her health. She was accompanied here by her sister, Miss Aileen Huffman, and Miss Annie Harris, both of this city.

METHODIST NOTES

This week in Methodist circles has been rather active for some of us. The pastor has been about as active as could well be. Sunday morning he preached to a large audience. The music for the occasion was said to be up to the best and the sermon was pronounced by competent judges to be better than the music.

This scribe went out to Caradon and preached in the new church recently erected by the Baptist people at that place. This was one of the services connected with the series of services for the dedication occasion.

A large audience was present, and the people were very charitable toward the visiting preacher, in that they listened with much patience to a rather dry sermon for a rather long period.

Well, if you never had the experience, you should go out to Caradon and partake of the hospitality of those good people. You would at once be impressed with the fact that their generosity was up to the best traditions, and that those good women were of a high class order in the culinary art. The people were even generous enough to invite the scribe back at some future time. The invitation is accepted, I hasten to say.

Immediately after the dinner hour, this scribe was rushed back to town to assist at the funeral service of an old friend of a quarter of a century ago. So you see there is always a note of sadness in every joy.

One of the highest compliments to the deceased that has ever come my way was from the lips of my wife. In our itinerating over Texas and parts of Arkansas we have had, at various times, occasion to refer to the generosity and kindness of the people of this town. I think this subject was never mentioned that my wife did not say "that among the finest people in all her knowledge when it came to caring for the sick Mrs. W. R. Hester took a front seat in her estimation." I plant that flower on the new-made grave of this saintly mother, who helped to make this a good country in which to live.

Monday was a memorable day. It was the anniversary of the birth of another Texas pioneer, Mrs. Schweining. This was the ninetieth birthday of this good woman. For thirteen years her family have been coming from various parts of the country to celebrate this annual occasion. All her large family was present except one son in far-away Oregon. Some of these sons and daughters are themselves no longer young, but they were there with joyful hearts for the occasion.

The Methodist pastor, assisted by this scribe, administered the sacrament of the Lord's supper to those present, and with Mrs. Stokes at the piano, an hour was spent in singing. Not least of the interest in the singing was a number rendered in German by the family. The birthday cake was cut, refreshments were served and all went away to await the next birthday party.

Monday night was a great occasion at the Methodist church. A large audience assembled to hear and see the pageant put on by Dr. Atticus Webb of the anti-

SCALLORN

We have had fine rains, some hail, but not enough to hurt anything.

Bro. Aaron Shaw filled his regular appointment. There were large crowds out Sunday.

Mr. Hereford and sister, Mrs. Allen of Lometa, attended services Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Hines and daughters, Misses Freda and Greda, spent Wednesday evening in the home of Frank Eckert.

Joe and Leonard Whittenburg and their families spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Morgan.

Grady Easley and family are spending a few weeks in the Elza Laughlin home.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Elliott spent Sunday in Long Cove with Mrs. Tom Conrad and family.

The neighborhood had quite a scare one evening last week. The little son, 3 years old, of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Eckert, wandered off in the pasture and was gone a couple of hours before he was found.

The dance at W. J. Ford's Saturday night was enjoyed by a large crowd. They served cake and hot chocolate.

Dutch Smith and family spent Sunday in the home of John Harris, near Lometa.

Miss Cecil Joe Kuykendall spent Sunday with Misses Freda and Greda Hines.

Mr. and Mrs. Townsen and others spent Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hines.

Mrs. Cora Ford and son, Fleming, spent Tuesday night in the home of Webb Laughlin near Lometa.

There were about twenty-five in Sunday school Sunday. We would like to see about that many more in Sunday school every Sunday.

REGAINS SPEECH AFTER SEVEN YEARS

William McNorton, truck farmer living near Thompson Falls, Mont., recently regained his speech after seven years of silence. McNorton, who at one time gained notice for his religious practices, attributed loss of his voice to the Lord's chastisement.

saloon league, assisted by citizens of our county. It was very entertaining and instructive and thoroughly enjoyed by all.

I had nearly forgotten to say that Dr. Everett of Sterling City, a former pastor of the Baptist church, had charge of the funeral service of Mrs. Hester. It was refreshing to renew the fellowship of Dr. Everett, who was a fellow pastor here a quarter of a century ago. Dr. Everett could not resist the pressing invitation of the pastor of the Methodist church to preach for him Sunday night. Some of our good Baptist friends, asked the doctor why he did not preach from his old pulpit at the Baptist church? The answer was characteristic of the doctor: "Well, the Methodist's need religion about as much as do the Baptists, which is not saying much." Selah.

Go to church and Sunday school next Sunday and aid in making this the best town in Texas. This end will not be difficult. We stand about the top anyway, in my estimation.

Says Her Husband Lost 16 Pounds in 4 Weeks

"I have never found a medicine that 'peps' you up like Kruschen Salts and better still, leaves you 'pepped up.' I take it two or three times a week—not to reduce but merely to feel good and clean. My husband took it to reduce, he lost 16 pounds in 4 weeks." Mrs. E. A. Ferris, Washington, D. C. (December 29, 1932.)

To lose fat and at the same time gain in physical attractiveness and feel spirited and youthful, take one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning.

A jar that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle at any drugstore in the world but be sure and get Kruschen Salts the SAFE way to reduce wide hips, prominent front and double chin and again feel the joy of living—money back is dissatisfied after the first jar.

BABY SMOTHERED TO DEATH BY CAT

In Baug-en-Bresse, France, a cat unconsciously smothered a baby by taking a nap directly on the child's face. Little 26-day-old Marie-Therese Poncet was sleeping soundly in her crib, when the feline leapt into the cradle, stepped softly over the baby and curled up on the infant's face, smothering it to death.

A TONIC Laxative

CONSTIPATION, with the annoying symptoms that usually come with it, cuts down organic force and disturbs normal health and well-being. A thorough cleansing of the digestive tract is of great assistance in the removal of sickening constipation symptoms. When excessive accumulated waste matter disturbs and strains the muscles of the large intestines, rendering them temporarily unable to perform their wave-like evacuating movements, Theford's Black-Draught is useful in stimulating them to activity, which, again started, should continue regularly until some future disturbance interferes. In this way, Theford's Black-Draught is one of the TONIC laxatives, tending, as it does, to establish a regular habit of evacuation.

Mrs. Bessie Insall made a pop call on Mrs. McConal Friday evening.

Mrs. Buster Oneal spent Sunday with her folk, the Renfro family.

It is near Easter and a cool norther is on hand at this writing. EX-REPORTER.

CONFEDERATE BILL PROVES TO BE GOOD U. S. CURRENCY

In need of money, a woman appeared at a Houston jewelry and antique shop with 13 bills. She had come to sell a package of old Confederate bills that she had had for years.

The antique dealer offered her 10 cents each for 12 bills, but declined to buy the thirteenth.

"I was afraid of the bill you laid aside," the woman said. "It was so old."

With a smile the dealer took the woman to a bank. The cashier handed her ten $10 bills for the old bill. It was in United States currency, and for 40 years had lain hidden away with the Confederate bills.

SOME PUSH

One day recently I had to help my wife wash and as everybody knows, that doesn't create the best mood. Under such conditions the mind will naturally ruminate and wander into everything but the tantalizing job. I wouldn't attempt to tie the past onto the present, but to ramble about in the past is to discover present industrial progress. I said, "Wife, you suppose the people in our old state still use the battling stick with which to cleanse their clothes?" "Oh no," she said, "Dh no. A person doing such fogysm now needs treatment for a simpleton." The battling stick or paddle was used in those other days to strike the heavy blows after the garment was brought from the hot suds and placed on a bench constructed for the purpose. Each blow with the paddle made a loud report. Made as much noise as some of our politicians and more helpful to the average family. Really, parents those days took spells sometimes of battling the children's clothes while the clothes were still on the children. That is old-timey, too. The further back one goes the more fogysm is discovered. It's a human tendency, and often a weakness to suppose that the generations before us were inferior to ourselves.

Who dare say that all the fogysm and glaring nonsense has been left behind? Along with some good things there is much this hot air springing up from Austin and Washington—some of which is more or worse than fogysm.

It is almost astounding that our nation has made such progress in scientific lines, mechanics and its application and some other important fields. The thing that counts more is to keep the home morally clean and noble. Keep the dirt out of the home clothes. SAM SAY.

The Eagle gives a pound of coffee with each $1.50 subscription while our supply of coffee lasts.

TO THE TAXPAYER

Shall we, in our search for a relief from this burden of taxation, tear down all that we have built up and destroy the most vital part of our community—the school? Our school is undoubtedly, the life giving factor of this town; without it, we must, as a town, eventually disintegrate and finally perish. It is the nucleus around which all our business is built. To cut down its functioning ability is equivalent to cutting off our nose. Is that equitable?

The advantages of an affiliated school go deeper than the exemption from college or university entrance examinations. An affiliated school of nine months duration gives a child a more thorough knowledge of the course of study prescribed by the state department of education than does a school lasting three or six months. Because of the high standard of this school work, good reports have always been sent back by our students. Could this be said if we run on a three or six months basis? Certainly not and the reason is obvious. These examinations cost a dollar each and the total cost of ascertaining a child's college eligibility would be sixteen dollars.

As has been shown, it costs more to keep a criminal in the "pen," despite our governor's efforts, than it does to keep a child made to indicate that without an education, the average child was destined to become a criminal; merely to call attention to the fact that the future "backbone of the nation" should have as much done for him as is being done for the enemies of our social structure.

There has been a great deal of tumult and shouting about the teachers not getting a cut in salary. They are contributing their last month's services gratis. Isn't this a cut of considerable size? In most instances it constitutes a cut of ten per cent. In others, more than that. They are doing cheerfully and willingly, and furthermore, I haven't heard a grumble from one of them about the proposed cut for next year. So much for the teachers, but do give a dog his dues.

The three dollars which each teacher pays to the Texas Teachers' association, does not go, as has been said, to a lobby fund. Part of it is used to edit a teacher's magazine, which always contains articles on the newest and best methods of presenting material to the students. Part of it goes to secure leading educators as speakers for teachers' institutes. The association tries, of course, to get measures passed which will raise the standard of the profession. Doctors have their medical association, which costs $15 yearly. Lawyers do not need such an association, though there is one, because a good many of our legislators are lawyers. May one ask, incidentally, what better word than lobbying would fit, what is being done down on the streets in an effort to lower the school tax? What merit will we derive from the glory of the setting sun if we lose, through selfishness or panic, the most important center of our town and cheat our children of their birthright?

We know not what tomorrow holds for us, but we must come out of this with three things: Our government, our schools and our souls. A SUPPORTER OF GOOD SCHOOLS.

President Roosevelt has asked congress to put the Muscle Shoals power and nitrate plant to work and to create an agency to do flood control and forest conservation work in Tennessee.

Dr. Carl C. Gregory, former pastor of Travis Park Methodist church at San Antonio, died Sunday night in Macon, Ga., from a self-inflicted bullet wound. He had suffered a nervous breakdown recently.

Violent winds did some damage in Navarro county Sunday night. The roof of a negro church at Rice, 10 miles north of Corsicana, was ripped off, and the congregation scattered in all directions.

RECRUITED WORKERS HAVE GOOD APPETITES

"They have great appetites." This was the word that has come from army camps where the first recruits of the civilian conservation corps have been sent for two weeks of conditioning preparatory to moving into forest work camps.

Important part of the whole duty of man is to drink beer. "Solemnly, newspapers discuss the day on which beer drinking may begin. Fear is expressed that in New York a misunderstanding of the Legislature may delay beer's arrival by a whole week. What a calamity. "That men up to their necks in depression, with the world topsy turvy, should concentrate, heart, mind and soul on a glass of beer, shows how much they amount to."—Arthur Brisbane.

GOOD TO EAT

BAKED TOMATOES
Six slices bread, 1 1-2 cups drained canned tomatoes, 6 slices crisp bacon, chopped, 1 cup grated American cheese, 1 1-2 cups medium cream sauce.
Remove crusts from bread and toast it. Place in bottom of a buttered baking dish. Add tomatoes and bacon. Melt the grated cheese in the hot cream sauce and pour the sauce over the toast and tomatoes. Bake in a hot oven 400 degrees, about fifteen minutes.

PANTS FOR WOMEN RIDICULED BY MEN PARADING IN SKIRTS

Aroused by reports that their womenfolk might soon be wearing pants, more than 100 business men of Battle Creek, Mich., took part in a protest parade, dressed in everything from Mother Hubbards to the latest in slinky evening gowns. A debonaire touch was added to the affair by the liberal, if somewhat unskillful use of rouge and lipstick by the marchers, who were also equipped with very large and very black cigars to dispel all doubts as to their masculinity. No casualties were reported.

Thousands of Women Have Taken Cardui on Their Mothers' Advice

It is an impressive fact that many women have said they learned of the value of Cardui from their mothers.
What stronger evidence of her confidence in a medicine could a mother have than that she advises her daughter to take it?
Cardui is given the credit for relieving so many cases of womanly suffering that it is widely and favorably known. Druggists, everywhere, sell it.
If you are weak, run-down, suffering monthly, take Cardui. Take it for a reasonable length of time and try it thoroughly. As your health improves, you will share the enthusiasm of thousands of women who have written to say, "Cardui helped me."

Lovely Easter Basket For The Table

A delightful, shimmery Easter centerpiece, in the form of a colorful basket filled with eggs is one of the newest ideas for those who delight in attractive table decoration. It also forms a charming feature for a children's party. The lid of a hat box forms the bottom of the basket. For the lining, stretch a 30-inch strip of yellow crepe paper and then crush it a little at a time with the fingers. Paste the inside of the lid generously and pat on the crushed paper.
Cellophane, in four 2-yard strips, is cut as follows: two blue strips made so one will be 4 1/2 inches wide, one pink strip, 5 inches wide and one yellow 5 1/2 inches wide. Fold the 3 inch blue strip the long way until about 1 inch wide, stir the crease over a knitting needle and paste this ruffle around the edge of the lid. Gather one long yellow ruffle the same way and apply it a half inch from the upper edge of the lid. Gather the pink strip and paste it on a half inch below and the second blue strip a half inch below that.
Braid three strips of the blue, yellow and pink material for the handle which is of wire about 35 inches long. Perch a chick on top of the handle, and fill the nest with crepe paper moss. Cellophane is used to cover the Easter eggs.

Nix! Too Much Light There for Our Business!

Plenty of light may not be an absolute guarantee against house-breaking, but it is one of the best kinds of protection you can have.
Burglars are more afraid of light than of law. They shun lighted homes because light indicates that folks are up and about. The chances of detection are too great to risk.
Turn on the porch lights and have plenty of light inside when you go out at night or when you are at home alone with the children. And when you retire for the evening, leave a light burning where it can be seen from the street.
Such illumination will provide a real measure of protection at negligible cost. A small-wattage lamp can be burned all night for less than the cost of a stick of gum. Come in and let us tell you more about it.

This Light Keeps Prowlers Away!

The chances of loss by robbery are reduced to an absolute minimum when front and rear yards, alleyways and store interiors are brightly illuminated with floodlights like the one shown on the left. Installations can be made for as little as $5.00 and the cost of operation is but a few cents per night.

Mrs. Hale, who was very sick Sunday, was better at last report.

Mrs. J. J. Cockrell is very sick at this writing. Hope she will be better at the next writing.

The Cockrell boys and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dennard attended the drama-trial at Goldthwaite Monday night. They reported it very fine.

Those who have not seen "Mammy's Little Wild Rose," see it at Priddy Thursday night by Big Valley's little theatre.

Mmes. Bob Robertson, George Robertson and T. P. Reed were visiting at Morgan's and Cockrell's Friday.

Sunday is preaching day. Everyone come out and show your new Easter bonnets.

The young folks enjoyed a party at Mr. Mitchell's Saturday night.

Mrs. Dupuy has been suffering from an infected hand.

Several of the ladies enjoyed a quilting at Mrs. Hugh Smith's Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Ruth Featherston spent last week end at home.

Big Valley friends are extending congratulations to Jake C. Long on the occasion of his marriage to Miss Athelyn Garrett of Star, which happy event was solemnized last Saturday night at the home of Rev. Jo Frizzell, the officiating minister, in Goldthwaite. Floyd Sykes and wife accompanied the happy young couple to the minister's home. Jake is one of our appreciated young men. He is at present employed in B. F. Geeslin's store in Goldthwaite. His bride is a daughter of Mrs. R. W. Garrett of Star, and we of Big Valley hope for the pleasure of meeting with her frequently in the future.

THE POINTER

Published every week by pupils of the Center Point School. Editor Adeline Spinks

At last we've come back, after about two weeks silence. But as the editor has been suffering from an injured foot, no one has attempted to write.

CHAPEL

Chapel program was rendered by the senior room Wednesday morning. The primary room will present the next program.

SPRING

Adeline Spinks
And now that spring has come And brought us great relief, We'll all have much to do, Because 'twill be so brief, And boys and girls in school, Are in a "prison" now. They want to be outdoors, Since spring has made her bow. Ten months in school is far too much.

As all the people know, The boys and girls should study plants,

And see the green things grow. To study books so long, When they could learn more in a day.

By some experience outdoors, Is throwing time away. No place is there more void of cheer,

Than in a dark school room, Where light divine has had no chance.

To drive away its gloom.

JOKES

W. C. and Johnnie were driving home from a big city one night, after having a very pleasant time.

"W. C.," said Johnnie, "I want cha to be careful. First thing y' know you'll have us in the ditch."

"Me?" said W. C., surprised. "Why, I thought you was a' drivin'."

R. E.: "Are these shoes worth repairing?"

Shoemaker: "Oh yes, I can put new soles and heels on them and also new uppers. The laces seem to be all right."

"Edna, you were a long time coming. Didn't you hear me calling?"

"No, ma'am, not 'till you called the third time."

It was a dark night and Neal was lost. Presently he saw a sign on a post. With great difficulty he climbed the post, struck a match, and read, "Wet Paint."

LOCALS

We regret that the following pupils are still having to miss school on account of whooping cough: Norma Lee Harmon, Dorothy Lee Hoffman, Buddie Lee Sutherland, Charlie Clyde Tetterill and Hayne Conner.

Willard Davis visited school one day last week.

Mrs. T. Brody was also a visitor one day last week.

THE MOUNTAINEER

PRIMARY ROOM

Everything has its good points you know, and the advantage we can see in a track meet is that we do not have to attend school on that day. We are sure proud of the work our school did at the meet—just wait a few years and we will take off some prizes.

We are now planning on an Easter egg hunt for next Friday afternoon. We would be glad to have the folk who are too small to attend school to come and hunt eggs with us. Today we are making Easter rabbits and baskets of eggs.

INTERMEDIATES

These pupils are very well pleased with the showing made by our school in the track meet. Our school won several places.

Spring seems to affect our playing at recess more than it does our studying during book period. It is rather hard to stir up a game of any kind at recess. And we have five weeks to go yet.

We seem to have nothing special to report this week. But we might tell you about our mascot for this room, if a room has such. We have a certain mouse which comes out daily and does some mouse gymnastics for the pupils.

And I might add that the pupils never fail to see him. Some have suggested a cat to remedy the situation. This reporter has heard of cats and cats, never has he heard of a schoolhouse cat. But we do not want to give you the impression that this school is infested with mice. We have only one as far as we know.

Myrl McCarty was absent the first of the week.

Our teacher says he intends to bring a jigsaw puzzle to school for the pupils to pass the time away solving it. He tells us that anything which exercises the brain helps to develop it.

We are all looking forward to our egg hunt Easter. We expect the hunt to be well represented with pupils and eggs.

NONSENSE

A test paper of one of Mr. Poer's history pupils gave the information that the civilized war began in 1861.

"And what did Paul Revere say at the end of his famous ride?" asked Mr. Poer.

"Whoa!" answered a pupil.

And now with apologies to Mother Goose, we burst forth in rhyme:

Old Mother Hubbard
Went to the cupboard
Just to quench her thirst.

But when she got there,
The cupboard was bare;
The old man had been there first.

The above took place since beer came back.

BETHEL

Several of the boys from here spent Saturday night at the river and reported a good catch.

Guests in the S. T. Harwell home Sunday were Jess Harwell and family of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Harwell and little son, Fred McDale and Mrs. E. J. Key of Dallas.

Mrs. Lee and R. A. Parker visited Mrs. G. W. Denman Sunday.

Mrs. Homer Denman and little daughter, Leota Joyce, spent the day with their mother, Mrs. W. E. Rose.

Those who visited in the R. A. Stevens home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Parker of Lott, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Parker of Waco, C. A. Hill and family, V. T. Stevens and family, Tom Stevens and family, William Barrington and son, G. W. jr., A. F. Reynolds and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Stevens and little daughter, Thelma Leona, J. F. A. Manuel and family, Mrs. Maude Parker and daughter, Ethel, and Miss Theata Bullard. After everyone had enjoyed a good fish dinner they then assembled in a room to listen to C. A. Hill and son play music, which was enjoyed very much.

Mrs. Maude Parker and her daughter, Ethel, visited Mr. and Mrs. Roy Harwell Monday afternoon.

Lois Miller has gone to San Angelo to visit her parents. Mrs. Cummings and family took dinner with Mrs. Joe Curtis, jr., Sunday.

Lee Ola Kelso has gone to Indian Gap to visit her sister, Mrs. V. H. Howington.

Those who ate dinner in the Freeman home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Kelso and children, Jack and Alvin Atkinson and James Seale.

Elwin Curtis, James Seals, Marietta and Jack Atkinson and Beatrice Curtis took supper in the Kelso home Sunday night.

Archie Ketchum spent Saturday night at Ebony with his father, who is very sick.

Beatrice Curtis is on the sick list this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Powell and her daughter, Frances, sat until bedtime in the Kelso home Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burches and little daughter of Brownwood visited Mr. and Mrs. Charley Kight.

FORMER CITIZEN DEAD

The remains of Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Hester, wife of the late Mr. W. R. Hester and mother of Mr. J. A. Hester of this city, were brought here for burial last Sunday afternoon and interment was made in the cemetery at this place, after funeral services in the Baptist church, conducted by Dr. W. B. Everett of Sterling City, a former pastor of the church at this place, assisted by Rev. S. O. Hammond and Rev. J. S. Bowles of this city. A large congregation attended the services, both in the church and at the grave, while the floral offering was most elaborate and beautiful.

Mrs. Hester and family lived here a long time, but moved to Brownwood after the death of her husband some years ago. Her death occurred last Saturday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Baylor Lewis, in Brownwood.

Mrs. Hester was universally esteemed wherever she was known because of her kindness and helpfulness. The announcement of her death brought sorrow to all who knew her here.

She was the mother of nine children, four of whom survive. They are: Mrs. J. C. Willford of Snyder, Mrs. Baylor Lewis and B. R. Hester of Brownwood, and J. A. Hester of Goldthwaite. She is also survived by one brother, Dallas Hickey of Oklahoma. She also leaves fifteen grandchildren and seven great grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

She was the granddaughter of Frank Dillard, one of the heroes of the Alamo massacre.

Active pall bearers at the funeral here Sunday were: Dow Hudson, R. E. Clements, Duke Clements, Claude Dickerson, O. H. Yarborough and Kelly Saylor.

EBONY

Mrs. Belvia Carlock of Dallas was buried here Sunday. Mrs. Carlock was a granddaughter of Uncle Arch Ratliff, deceased, one of the earliest pioneers of this community. On account of the death of her mother, she came here a sixteen-months-old babe to the home of her grandparents.

She grew up here, but for many years has lived in Dallas. She is the youngest of four children, the first family of C. I. Welch, all of whom with their father and mother are buried in this cemetery. She is survived by her husband and a daughter, Miss Edith Carlock, of Dallas, her step-mother, Mrs. Charlie Welch, of Rising Star; a half brother, D. Welch, of Rising Star; three half sisters, Mrs. Ola Jackson of Brownwood, Mrs. Edessa Griffin of Wichita Falls and Mrs. Philen of Fort Arthur, an aunt, Mrs. Mabe Warlock of Fort Stockton, and an uncle, H. G. Ratliff, of Indian Creek. A host of friends here and friends of the family attended the funeral.

Miss Evelyn Reeves of Mullin High school spent the week end with homefolk.

Weldon Hinesley was enrolled in the primary room of our school Wednesday.

J. J. Honea of Brownwood shook hands with many old friends here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lovelace and family of Brownwood visited the Allen Lovelace family and attended the funeral of Mrs. Carlock here Sunday. Mrs. Lovelace and Mrs. Carlock had been desk mates at school at Indian Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Russell and children visited Mr. and Mrs. Mack Egger at Regency Sunday.

Mrs. Tom Ratliff of Brownwood attended the funeral of her niece, Mrs. Belvia Carlock, here Sunday. Mrs. Ratliff was a pioneer resident of this community, but moved to Brownwood years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Arie Egger of Ridge spent Saturday night with Mrs. Egger's sister, Mrs. Will Crowder.

Mrs. Ben Egger and children, R. B. and James Oran, visited Martell Crowder and his mother Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reynolds and family visited Mr. Reynolds' mother, Mrs. Gus Reynolds, Sunday afternoon.

J. R. Wilmeth, Mrs. Nellie Malone and Gene Wilmeth made a trip to Brownwood Monday.

Many friends greeted Bud Ratliff her Sunday, recalling many pleasant memories of the days when Mr. Ratliff was one of our most prominent and most helpful citizens.

CENTER CITY

After reading the many interesting news letters from other communities, it makes me feel real lazy in not sending news from here more often. The fact is, it is really a busy time for all and I can't "fly" about like Busy Bee, to gather news and, therefore, the weeks go by and no word from here.

There was no church Sunday. Good crowds attended the Sunday schools. In the afternoon, quite a number went to Star for singing and report a well spent afternoon.

Bro. Brown and wife of Mullin were in our midst Monday. Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Walker made a business trip to Hamilton Monday.

On account of track meet last Friday the P. T. A. meeting was postponed until today. (Friday.) All are well pleased with the honors the pupils won at the track meet. All did well and we hope they win again in the district.

An interesting debate, "Resolved, that capital punishment should be abolished," was heard at the school last Thursday morning. Miss Clara Blackwell and Eula Belle Chappell were on the affirmative side, while Billie Johnson and Alfred Carter were on the negative. All did well and with a little more practice for these boys, we think they might win next time. The affirmative won.

Roscoe Lumpkin of Waco visited his brother-in-law, Talmage Chapman, and family last week.

Walter Simpson and family and Mrs. Chester Head and little son visited in the Oglesby home Sunday. In the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Head made a short visit there.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Johnson visited their daughter, Mrs. John Walton, and family Sunday.

Many are looking forward to the 21st, when the pecan school will be held here. The committee has decided to meet at the George Byrd orchard, second place north of the school building.

Mrs. Batchelor and Miss Lula of North Bennett visited Mrs. C. M. Head last Saturday.

Joe Langford, John Carter, Jr., and J. M. Olesby attended the lodge meeting and dance at Star Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Head visited Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Geeslin Sunday afternoon.

Miss Pearl Casbeer of Lometa visited home folk last Friday night.

Mrs. Viola Chappell was a business visitor to Goldthwaite Tuesday.

WASHBOARD

On Wednesday, April 19, 1933, at 8 o'clock P. M., the eighth grade of Washboard will present the play "A Poor Married Man." The play is a farce comedy in two acts and the scene is laid in a college town. The cast is as follows:

Prof. Wise—C. W. Hein—A poor married man.

Mrs. Ford—Hattie Noack—Some mother-in-law.

Tole—Clara Hoppér—Her charming daughter.

June Graham—Helen Senger—A little freshman.

Dr. Matthew Graham—Carl Senger—A country physician, age 54.

Billy Blake—Alfred Vessel—Popular college boy.

Jupiter Jackson—Albert Hopper—A black trump.

Rosiland Wilson—Pauline Hoberthz—A college reporter.

The play promises many good laughs and an enjoyable evening for all who will attend. The admission will be five cents for all school children and 10 cents for adults. All your support is appreciated. We hope to see you at the Washboard school, Wednesday, April 19. Everybody welcome. REPORTER.

The Missionary society of the Methodist church will meet with Mrs. Mayfield Monday afternoon at 2.30 for the Voice program.

Mrs. Earl Pearce, who underwent an operation in a hospital at German some weeks ago, was able to be brought home this week and is getting along nicely.

A. J. Priddy of Brady was a visitor in the homes of his brothers in this city one day this week.

take care of those actually in need. If an average family is making as much as $10 a month or its equivalent in food and necessary supplies, the instructions do not allow work relief to be granted to it. A still smaller income will disqualify a single man. Preference will be given to men with dependent families when work is assigned. The rate of pay for all work has been set at $1 per day.

Work Cards Required

After this week no men will be given relief work unless they have filled out their application blanks, have been passed on by the committee and have been issued work cards. All unemployed who have not yet registered, should do so Monday.

THE SEA GIVES UP ITS DEAD

Almost daily the grim searchers along the wave-swept New Jersey coast are finding battered bodies from the giant dirigible Akron's valiant crew.

But it is safe to guess that fear had no place in those thoughts. Regret, of course, when they realized that death was near and sorrow for loved ones left at home, but the traditions of generations of seamen were in their blood, and they went to Davy Jones' locker fighting and unafraid.

American sailors who, in the days of sail, barehanded fought the shrouds whipped by the icy breath of the nor'wester were of this dauntless breed. American seadogs who sailed their creaking barks around Cape Horn into strange Eastern harbors and home again.

The Akron is gone, but the Macon still flies. It is true that three of the great dirigibles have been lost in tragic accidents, but how many sailing ships foundered and sank in the days of sail? How many steamships have been lost with all hands aboard? How many airplanes have borne their pilots to untimely graves?

It has always been so. Long, long ago when Greece was young an unknown poet wrote these lines for a monument upon the rock-bound Aegean coast:

"A shipwrecked sailor, Buried on this coast, Bids you set sail, Full many a gallant bark, When we were lost, Weathered the gale."

BUSINESS LOOKS UP

Although not yet far enough along to be measured in dollars or pounds or per cent, there can be no doubt that business conditions throughout the nation are looking up once more.

In many sections of the country home building has taken a decided spurt. More construction has been started than for the past several years. Lumber prices have increased because of the demand for building materials.

In many other directions there may be noted indications of an improving trend. Undoubtedly the gains in some of them will not be held. In others they will. Prosperity will not come back like a surging torrent. Instead it will creep back little by little, gaining here and losing there but averaging a little better all along the line.

Confidence is returning with the improvement in sentiment. Business ostriches are withdrawing their heads from the sand and peering about once more. Hearers are spending or banking their cash. Relief measures for the country's greatest business—farming—are bringing benefits even before they have been enacted into law.

Patience is still required, and more than anything else unflagging industry. This is the time to which men will some day look back and say, "The big opportunities came in 1933."

DEAD OR PLAYING 'POSSUM?

The sales tax was killed the other day in the legislature by an adverse vote on the question of printing the bill. Great was the rejoicing thereat. But while this particular bill, the most iniquitous of all, has been killed for the present session, it has a blood brother still nestling in committee. Some day, who knows, this new sales tax bill may be brought forth and dusted off and sent out for another vote.

An income tax measure is now holding the spotlight in Austin. If it is passed, there will doubtless be no further demand for a sales tax. But the advocates of the sales tax are the very people who are fighting the income tax the hardest. They are the corporation lawyers who object to the law taxing those who are making money, in accordance with what they make, but favor a law taxing everybody, rich and poor, according to what they have to spend.

We still believe that the soundest method of meeting the present crisis is to continue lopping off of expenses, mostly in the form of salaries. A good start was made in reducing the salaries of district judges. If every employe of the state receives a similar reduction, if a few thousand unnecessary employes are given vacations without pay, if fewer automobiles are used for joyriding, if, in short, common sense business methods are applied to the government's business, the state will be able to balance its budget without resorting to either a sales tax or an income tax.

But if our solons are unable to vote nay to huge appropriations, let them seek the money to meet the deficits they create from those still able to make money and to pay.

The sales tax appears dead. We hope it is not merely playing possum and waiting for a more opportune time to slip in to the people's pocketbooks.

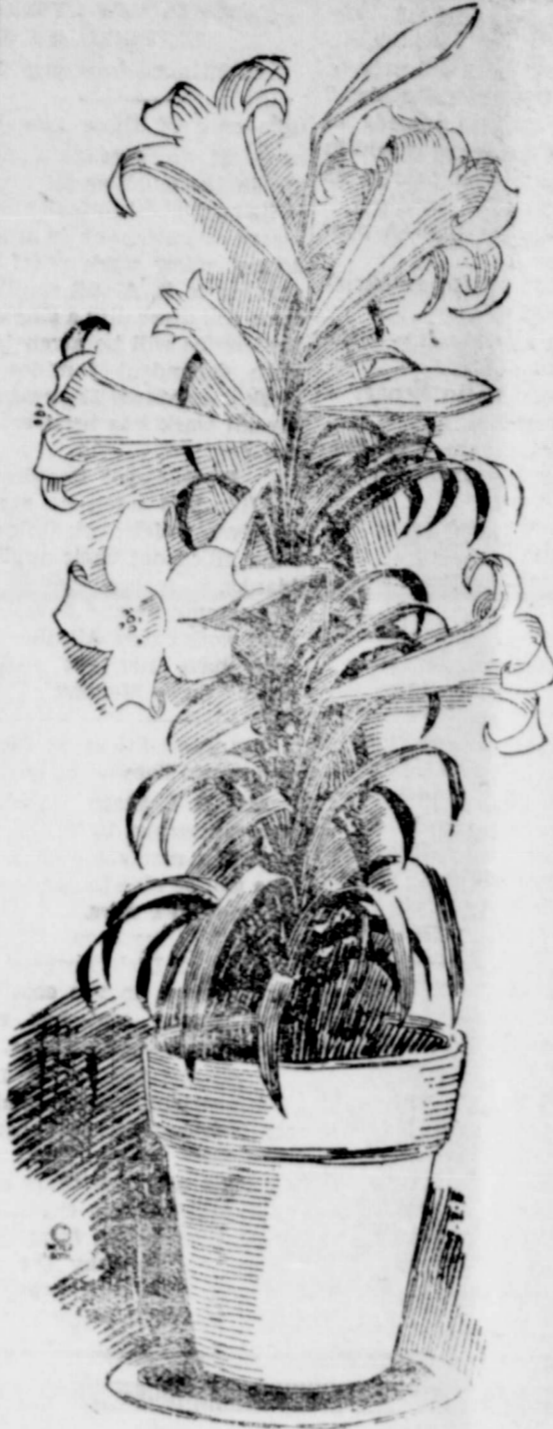

THE BLARNEY STONE

Irish courts have ruled that he who would kiss the famous Blarney stone must do so at his own risk. Those who essay the dangerous feat and fall never live to complain, but now their relatives must not sue the owner of the castle.

But this is not surprising. Kissing the Blarney stone to gain the gift of gab was ever a dangerous adventure. Perhaps those who fall and fall to their death upon the stones below are really better off than those whose lips touch the blackened stone and who then live long after to brag about their feat.

For all the power the magic stone endues, there is none apparent besides that which intrigues the kisser into telling tall stories of what he has seen and done.

And as far back as the memory of man extends, talking too much has been one of the petty vices of mankind. How much better it would be if we could find the talisman that taught Silent Calvin Coolidge how to seal his lips and guard his tongue that we might offer its potent charms to a talked out world!

EASTER, AGAIN

In the high vaulted ceiling of a Gothic church, the misty shadows of early dawn still linger. In the stained glass eastern windows, the variegated colors take on life. The organ peals, the kneeling congregation rises and joins in the triumphant psalm, ages old, "Christ is risen."

In a humble cottage Easter morning creeps in while the care-worn mother sleeps. A sunbeam kisses her weary eyelids and wakes her for another crowded day. From her face the sunbeam strays to the smiling lips of a little child. And to mother and child alike comes the surging hope of a new day and the satisfaction of an age-old faith that repeats in every manifestation of nature the lesson that "Christ is risen."

That first Easter brought new faith to a disillusioned and doubting world. The lesson that it taught has been repeated time and time again. Once more, in 1933, to those who have ears to hear, comes the chant of a heavenly choir to offer hope to a weary and sorrowing people.

The Easter lily bursts into bloom once more. The swelling buds of forest trees, the fragile tendrils of the growing plants, the rosy sunlight over rooftop and hill remind us once more that Easter celebrates the risen Christ.

In the blessed story there is hope for the hopeless, peace for the sorrowing, faith for the old, and inspiration for the young. It is Easter time once more.

THE REALM OF SCIENCE

EARTH POPULATION

In less than three centuries the population of the earth has nearly quadrupled. Up to 1900 the rate of increase was accelerating, but since the turn of the century the rate of increase slackened, although of course, there are millions more on earth now than in 1900, writes Watson Davis in the Texas Outlook.

The best estimate of the earth's population is 1,820,000,000 as of 1929. Dr. Walter F. Willcox, Cornell's professor of economics and statistics, arrives at this figure after an extensive study of earth population, past and present, reported in an extensive research into international migrations just published under his editorship by the National Bureau of Economic Research.

Asia, with the teeming hordes of China, is the most populated continent, with 594,000,000, or over half of the earth's inhabitants. Incidentally even for the present time it is most difficult to fix a reliable figure for China's population, due to the lack of census data and the turmoil of the Orient.

Europe has 478,000,000 persons on 3,800,000 square miles and is the most densely populated continent. Asia's population lives on a continent of 16,700,000 square miles.

North America, with a population of 162,000,000, outranks Africa's 149,000,000, although it is slightly smaller in area. South America has 77,000,000 and Australia and Polynesia together are credited with 9,000,000.

There is now more American Indian blood in the Western hemisphere than there was in 1650 when 13,000,000, practically all Indians, lived in the New World. One estimate is that the present number is 26,000,000, of whom two-fifths are in Mexico and about half in each of the two continents.

KEEPING UP WITH TEXAS

THE STATE OF PANHANDLE

A Kansas correspondent of the New York Times has discovered that there is considerable agitation in the Panhandle for secession from the state of Texas. This will doubtless be news to Texas and the Panhandle. Nevertheless, the idea is one which intrigues the interest, says the Houston Chronicle.

The new proposal to create a new state would take the three counties in the Oklahoma Panhandle and unite them to the 50 odd Texas counties.

The new commonwealth, if organized, would have a distinct community of interest. Gas and wheat are the chief products around Amarillo. The greatest natural gas fields in the country lie almost at the door of the West Texas city which would be the coming capital. And the wheat fields stretch clear across the line into the Oklahoma Panhandle.

The proposal to segregate the folks in the Panhandle from the rest of the state might strike a responsive chord in the breasts of some Texas politicians who have observed with disgust how rapidly the leaders of Northwest Texas are coming to the fore in state affairs.

However, the correspondent of the Times, who has discovered that the northwest counties of Oklahoma and Texas "may organize a new commonwealth," should hold his breath for a while longer.

A GROWING RATE MENACE

Houston must speedily rally her forces against growing freight rate discriminations, apparently finding their basis on the curb placed on highway transportation in the state.

Texas has the strictest trucking laws in the southwest. Much of the effectiveness of trucking competition with rail transportation has been eliminated by the legal provision that no truck shall carry more than 7000 pounds of cargo.

Much may be said for this law, both as to establishing equality of regulation between roads and trucks, and on grounds of safety; but it is developing a railway rate situation detrimental to every Texas city and all Texas shippers—a situation about which the people must speedily be informed.

It appears now that the railways are steadily offering rates to meet the truck competition in Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana, and the barge-line competition on the Mississippi; but Texas, having curtailed truck competition with the roads, is given none of the benefits of these lowered rates, but actually is being made to suffer because of them, since Texas business firms and Texas commercial centers are put at a business disadvantage with firms and cities in other southwestern states.

For instance, the rate on coffee from Houston to Oklahoma City, all rail, is 45 1/2 cents, whereas the rate by barge and rail from New Orleans is 39 cents. The rail distance from Houston is 464 miles, while the combined rail and river distance from New Orleans to Oklahoma City, can be hauled up the river and then overland for a greater distance than separates Houston and Oklahoma City at a total cost less than that of hauling it overland directly from Houston.

The railways make the New Orleans rate because they must meet the competition of the river barges up the river, and of trucks across Arkansas and Oklahoma.

Similar discrepancies are to be found on many commodities affecting many points in the southwest. It seems certain now that reduced cotton rates between Shreveport and New Orleans, forced by truck competition in Louisiana, will divert much North Texas cotton from Houston to New Orleans this coming season unless an equalization can soon be effected.

Similar instance after instance can be cited, until the evidence seems conclusive that the railroads generally propose to meet the competition of the trucks, not to mention that of inland waterways, in all of the states surrounding Texas without giving Texas any of the benefits of the reduction; thus not only relatively overcharging all our shippers, but turning business at a wholesale rate from our ports and market centers.

Our course in the situation should be quite clear. We must inform the road managements that they must either give Texas cities all the benefits of these various southwestern reductions, else we must lift the state restrictions on truck transportation and allow the commercial truck lines to force the rail rates which will be to our advantage.

There can be little talk of the academic equality of regulation between different forms of transportation in the face of such unfairness as is now demonstrated. There remains for us, if reason will not now prevail, nothing but retaliatory measures to enforce justice. — Houston Chronicle.

"COST OF LIVING" STILL TOO HIGH

Although the cost of living in 1932 declined 23 per cent from the 1929 level, a further decline is in prospect, according to the Alexander Hamilton Institute's current bulletin, which points out that the drop in the cost of living is out of line with the much greater drop in wages and wholesale prices. Says the Institute:

"The cost of living in the United States declined 9.4 per cent during 1932, according to figures compiled by the Bureau of Labor Statistics at Washington. This decrease reduced the cost of living to a level 22.9 per cent below the pre-depression peak reached in December 1929.

"Factory wage rates have been reduced by approximately 26 per cent since 1929 as compared with a decline of 23 per cent in the cost of living. In the depression of 1921 wages declined 11.1 per cent as compared with a drop of 23.2 per cent in the cost of living and a drop of 45.3 per cent in wholesale prices. In other words, these three factors became stabilized at the end of the depression with the cost of living level half way between the wage level and the wholesale price level.

"From the standpoint of wages therefore, it is apparent that the cost of living must undergo further deflation. There is evidence that the wage level is now at the bottom and that wholesale prices will reach the bottom at a level about 40 per cent below the 1929 peak. With wages 9 per cent below the peak and wholesale prices 40 per cent below the peak, the cost of living should be 33 per cent below the peak, or 13 per cent below the present level.

"Such a reduction would mean a decline in the cost of living index from the December, 1932, figure of 132.1 to 114.8. Since the various items which compose the cost of living did not start the decline from a uniform level in 1929 and since they did not decline uniformly, it is evident that some items will decline more than others. In the case of food, some recovery is in order."

HERE is an unusually attractive example of a modern dining room, modern in its use of reproductions of early American furniture, and also in its choice of modern materials for its decoration. The drop leaf table, ladder-back chairs, cupboard sideboard from a design dating back to the middle of the 18th century, give an authentic charm to the room. They are here seen against a background of wall panels papered with rural American scenes.

Mural art of white is used as a wall covering the woodwork and trim being finished in white. Dulux, which is used as a finish on the wood, and the duco finish on the maple furniture express the trend of contemporary methods and at the same time are in keeping with the period of the room. The carpet is in three colors, peach, raisin and copper, in harmony with the general tone of the room and is permanent with sun-fast dyes.

George Washington, looking down from over the quaint clock of the mantle shelf, would be intrigued by the successful adaptation of modern chemical finishes to furniture and wall designs that were popular in his day and, because of their beautiful simplicity, will be used for many years to come.

ATHENS SOCIAL

Although Old Man Winter was still with us—in a mild form—the Athens class, with their families and guests had an old-time bacon and egg fry at the Fair Park, last Monday evening.

By 8 o'clock everyone was busy with the meal cooking the bacon, the meat and coffee and the ladies preparing the table with bread, pickles, pickles and cakes.

Everyone enjoyed this outing immensely and we felt especially honored by having Bro. and Sister Ivins and Mr. May of White-ought as our guests. We are always glad to have them with us, and hope they are back again soon.

Let's everyone come to Sunday school next Sunday and keep our class up to the highest standard.

REPORTER.

CARD OF THANKS

We sincerely appreciate all the kindness shown us and the sympathy expressed for us during the illness and after the death of our beloved mother. The people of Goldthwaite, Brownwood and other communities could not have been kinder or more helpful and we are indeed grateful to them for it all. Especially do we appreciate the beautiful floral offering for the funeral and the kind attention of our friends at that time.

CEMETERY ASSOCIATION

The Cemetery Association met Tuesday afternoon in the rest room of the court house for a business meeting, as the time is drawing near for Decoration Day—so the association will ask for bids to clean up the grounds and fill up sunken graves, so as to have everything in readiness.

The president asks that anyone desiring to bid on the work, first go and look the grounds over, to see just what is to be done, then send sealed bids to Mrs. E. B. Anderson on Monday, April 17, or Tuesday, April 18.

We also ask all citizens to either pay dues to the association or clean their lots and alleys and fill sunken graves, as our funds are not sufficient to clean up the entire grounds.

We very earnestly ask the people who use the water to close the hydrants carefully for very frequently they are left open and the water all drains out. Also the wheelbarrow that belongs to the cemetery has been misplaced or borrowed, and as it is absolutely necessary, but rather expensive, it is hoped that it can be located.

The second Sunday in May will be observed as Decoration Day, for flowers are more plentiful about that time. Every one responded so readily last year in making beautiful with flowers the City of the Dead, that it will be observed again this year.

MORE ABOUT OUR SCHOOL

As to reports that apportionment of $8 per capita, keep in your mind that no one knows or can know what the per capita will be until complete census of scholastics is in the hands of the superintendent of public instruction, which will be some time in the future; and besides if the Hughes Bill passes there will be more than $16 per capita.

What difference with us whether appropriation is $8 or $16, when we are now so prosperous that we now have a school secretary, who is paid a salary of $120 per year, beginning in May 1932, something unheard of in Texas in a school of this size.

As to contract with teachers, bear in mind, that no fixed salary has been made in any contract, besides the board knows it is futile to attempt same under present conditions until apportionment is made.

ROCK SPRINGS

There was Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. as usual Sunday.

This community wants to extend its deepest sympathy to John Hester and family of Goldthwaite, Baylor Lewis and family of Brownwood and Clyde Williford and family in Snyder, in the loss of their mother, grandmother and great grandmother, who passed away in Brownwood last Saturday morning. Her remains were laid to rest in the Odd Fellows cemetery Sunday afternoon at Goldthwaite. Bro. Everett held the funeral services.

Last Saturday morning Mrs. John Hester called me to see if I could go to Brownwood to the bedside of Mrs. Betty Hester, who was very low in her daughter's home, Mrs. Baylor Lewis, so I went and stayed until Sunday afternoon. It made me so sad to think our old friend had come to the end of her life. This family and our family have been dear friends for fifty odd years. I can sympathize with each of them in their loss. May God's blessings rest upon all of you.

Several from here attended the program at the Methodist church Monday night.

The W. M. U. met Monday afternoon with Mrs. J. R. Davis.

Don't forget we will have our church day the fourth Sunday and singing in the afternoon.

Bro. J. R. Davis went to Coleman county last week end. His grandson went to do the driving.

Shirley Nickols traded a horse to Delton Barnett for a hound dog and two setting of eggs to boot.

Nellie D. Cooke spent the week end at home.

Woody Traylor and family made a pop call in the Nickols home Sunday night. They were trying their new car they had gotten from Marion Eckman.

Mmes. Nickols and Roberts and children from town visited in the Nickols home Friday afternoon.

August Kauhs from Bulls Creek had business in Brownwood Monday, so he took Ethel McClary and Mrs. Nickols. They all went shopping. Mmes. Doggett and Nickols, also had business in Brownwood the same day.

Howard Duey and wife from Rabbit Ridge sat until bed time in the Cooke home Monday night.

J. T. Robertson and wife spent Saturday night and Sunday with his mother and brothers and families in Big Valley.

Mr. Hammett and family from Ranger attended Sunday school and spent the remainder of the day in J. C. Stark's home.

Duke Clements at Goldthwaite and Mrs. Nickols got their goats sheared last week.

Glenn Nickols and Miss Eva Cook from town motored out to his mother's Sunday afternoon.

We hope this cool spell will be our Easter spell, so everyone who has new Easter clothes to wear, can doll up next Sunday and be comfortable.

NAZARENE REVIVAL

Rev. J. L. Bates, pastor of the Nazarene church, reports the revival which commenced in his church last Friday night is proving of interest and good congregations are attracted to the services. Evangelist B. A. Fox of Brownwood is assisting the pastor and is doing the preaching. He is giving a series of lectures on the Genesis account of creation. His subject last night was "The man born before his father was born and died before his mother died and buried in the heart of his grandmother." The golden and silver line through the Bible. Sunday morning he will preach on the first resurrection or the rapture of the saints. Sunday night the subject will be the millennium and final overthrow of all evil. Everybody has an invitation to the services. The meeting will continue through next week.

FLOUR FREE

The Eagle has arranged for a limited amount of Hoff's Best flour, which will be given as a premium with subscription payments. With every $1.50 paid on subscription, either new or renewal, a 12-pound sack of this excellent flour will be given absolutely free. The subscriber has a choice of the two premiums, either this flour or a can of Admiration coffee. These premiums are not given where subscriptions are taken in combination with other papers. The Eagle has quite an attractive list of the clubbing offers, either with other newspapers or magazines.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

The American Legion Auxiliary met in regular session on Tuesday night, April 10. There was a good representative body of members and a number of visitors, who came for the purpose of seeing the war pictures that were real and taken in the world war. Some of the boys present saw some of the very ground they were over in the world war.

Everyone present enjoyed the pictures very much and we want to thank Mr. M. Y. Stokes, Jr., for his service in securing these films for our benefit.

The auxiliary voted on a date for a coming party to be held April 28, of which there will be a notice in next issue.

PRESIDENT.

DEDICATION SERVICES

Dedicating our new church to the Lord at Caradan last Sunday was greatly enjoyed by all. Bro. Jim Hays, our pastor, preached for us Saturday morning at 11. We changed the name of the Midway Baptist church to Caradan Baptist church. Bro. Trav Sparkman preached for us Saturday night. Bro. Bowler of Goldthwaite preached Sunday at 11. Bro. Joe Benningfield led devotional at 2 p. m. Bro. Nicholson of Goldthwaite preached the dedication sermon at 2:30. We enjoyed all these great sermons and enjoyed so much to have these men of God with us. Each one is looking forward and trusting to have them back with us in the near future.

We would be glad to have a preaching service at the church house each Sunday in the month. At present we just have the second Sunday of each month. We have Sunday school every Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Had a good report last Sunday. Let's all make it even better next Sunday. We had quite a number of visitors with us Sunday who we certainly enjoyed. All you good people come and be with us again.

Miss Laura Petsiek, who is teaching in Brown county, spent the week end at home and attended the dedication services.

Mrs. Lillian Otis, Jr., and Jennie Mae Reynolds of Longview spent the week end with home folk and also attended the services. Their father, W. W. Reynolds, accompanied them back to Longview Sunday evening.

There will be a play at our school building Friday night. Everyone is invited to come.

Mr. Reed made a visit to Gustine Wednesday.

Mrs. Wright and family visited in the home of their daughter, Mrs. Morgan McNeil, this week end and attended the services Sunday.

Bro. Joe Benningfield phoned some one of us and told us he will preach at the church house one Sunday out of each month.
