VOLUME FORTY

GOLDTHWAITE, MILLS COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, AUGUST 24, 1934.

NUMBER FIFTY-TWO

Cattle Buying Is Resumed

Cattle buying has been resumed in the county on a basis of 450 head per week and they will be received the last three days of each week. An effort will be made to reach the cases where cattle are in need of water first, but the full quota will be taken each week.

A communication from the county agent says: "The government will buy 450 head of cattle per week from Mills county producers. They are buying on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of each week. The appraiser and veterinarian have Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of each week in Hamilton county."

Many cows are reported out of water, and every effort is being made to handle the most distressed cases first. It will be impossible to reach all distressed cases for four or five weeks. Some will be compelled to wait. We hope everyone will be patient. All concerned are making every effort to put in our full quota every week. No one will be considered until the advance agent has inspected his water situation. Over 11,000 head of cattle are waiting for shipping orders.

MOUNT OLIVE REUNION

The Ex-Students and Ex-Teachers of Mount Olive school met Sunday in their first reunion, which was organized a year ago, and will be an annual affair for time to come. The purpose of this meeting was for renewing friendship and living over old school days.

The Mount Olive school district was created on August 13, 1900. School has been taught in three different houses, and has had forty-two teachers, sixteen of whom were present in the meeting Sunday. There were also eighteen other teachers and ex-teachers present, as well as fifteen trustees and ex-trustees, and several hundred students, ex-students and patrons.

The morning services began by singing rendered by the congregation. The devotional services led by Prof. Tolbert Patterson, who was the principal speaker in the forenoon. At the noon hour a feast was spread which was enjoyed by all present.

After the noon hour the meeting was again called to order and we were entertained by Representative George W. Rollins, with a short talk on education, and by a talk by Prof. J. Oscar Swindle, on some of his experiences as one of the early teachers of the Mount Olive school, as well as on other experiences that he has had as a school man.

Singing services were conducted by Prof. and Mrs. Wm. Hugins with a splendid quartet.

Next in line was the introduction of the ex-teachers by L. B. Porter. The first teacher of the school, who is now Mrs. Ben Peak of Lampasas, who will be remembered as Miss Frankie Applewhite, not being present, one of her trustees, J. S. Hodges, still living in the community, was asked to rise, while the crowd cheered. We found that there were also seven present who attended the first school. Each teacher, as his name was called, responded with a talk that was enjoyed by all.

After the speaking, the meeting was called into a business session and new officers elected for another year. The meeting will be held on the fourth Sunday in August, 1935.

ONE PRESENT

MEETING AT CARADAN

The meeting announced to begin at Caradan some weeks ago and was postponed has been announced to begin Saturday night before the first Sunday in September, which will be Sept. 1. Elder Malone will do the preaching. The entire community is invited and expected to take part in this meeting.

Methodist Notes

As announced last week, Rev. J. E. Lovett preached for us Sunday morning. He had a fine hearing and the people had a fine sermon. Bro. Lovett announced that he would be removed from this district with the close of the conference year. This I had suggested as a possibility in my last week's notes. This grows out of the fact that the last general conference passed a law that presiding elders should not serve in that capacity for a longer term than four consecutive years, without an interim of four years in some other field of activity. This law is to be voted into the constitution at the fall conference in order to become valid, but the bishops are disposed to begin its application with the coming conference session. If this plan is observed, this fall four of the presiding elders will retire and new men take their places.

The meeting which Bro. Highsmith held at Pleasant Grove resulted in twenty-two additions to the church and the church as a whole greatly revived. This is doubtless the best meeting that church has had in many years. He is now at Lometa in a meeting with Bro. Mathis. It is to be hoped that good results may be the fruits of this meeting.

The Methodist congregation greatly misses Mrs. Dan Yates in the church services. For some time she has been indisposed. We all trust that she may soon be able to take her place in the Sunday school and church services, where she has always been a faithful attendant and worker.

Bro. Lovett paid our folks the compliment of saying that he thought we had the best singing to be heard in the district. Considering the fact that there are much larger churches in his district we should feel flattered and disposed to give ourselves more energetically to the work of preparation to render a better service. We trust that it may be fruitful of a greater degree of faithfulness on the part of all concerned.

Without investigating the record, I think our Sunday school has had a better attendance during the summer than at any time since I have been attending it, or during the past four summers. This, taking into consideration the intense heat of the summer weeks, is certainly commendable. This is not to be interpreted as saying that the attendance is what it should be. As a matter of fact, it could be greatly improved, and every member and friend of the church should be a contributing factor to this end. There are many of those who are older who could contribute to the attendance to the benefit of the school, and to their own personal welfare. Many there are who were faithful attendants in the past who have retired from the work. Some, to my own certain knowledge, are heavy losers by their negligence. I am sure that there are many, speaking in terms not essentially applicable to the mere local situation, who might stand among the highly respected of our country, had they been faithful to the convictions of childhood and younger life. Yes, I am aware of the fact that there is much criticism of the church people. Much of this criticism is entirely justifiable. This, no one should deny. But after taking into account all the inconsistencies of the church and Sunday school people, you may place them all, the church people in one crowd and the non-church people in another, and it would not take a Solomon to decide which should be considered the more preferable. Come along and give us the privilege of your superior piety. Maybe that in this way the standing of the church people may be greatly improved.

Come to church and Sunday school next Sunday.

J. S. BOWLES

School Opens Second Monday

Goldthwaite school will open for the fall term the second Monday in September, which will be September 10. The time will be two weeks from next Monday and it is believed all will be in readiness for the opening.

Teachers have not been assigned to the grades, but Supt. Smith will make the assignments in ample time. It is supposed however, that those who taught in the school system last term will be given the same grades as those in their charge in the former session.

There are two vacancies in the faculty—one has not been filled and Miss Allen of Lometa declined the position. The board has a number of applications, however, and it is thought there will be no difficulty in securing the teachers needed. Supt. Smith has been doing some special work in the state university this summer, but is expected home in the next few days, to be ready for the opening of school. Several members of the faculty have also been away to summer school and they, too, will return in time to assume their duties at the beginning of the session.

FAMILY REUNION

A family reunion was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Knowles of the Big Valley community Sunday, August 19. A large barbecue dinner was enjoyed by all. After dinner a song was led by E. H. Cannon of Temple. Kodaking of the entire group was then held.

Those enjoying the entire day were Mr. and Mrs. Knowles and family, Mr. and Mrs. Almer Knowles and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Nelson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wilson and son, Mr. and Mrs. Connie Knowles, all of Goldthwaite; Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cannon and family of Temple, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Malone of Los Angeles, Cal., Mr. and Mrs. Leon Baker and daughter of Denton, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Dewbre and daughter of May, Mr. and Mrs. Lehman Knowles and family of Mullin, Mr. and Mrs. George Hall and son, Mrs. Howell Walker and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gunn, all of Georgetown, W. H. Nelson, Miss Laura Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Weaver and son, Wm. Trowbridge, all of Goldthwaite, were friends calling in the afternoon.

A GUEST

SURPRISE PICNIC

At 6 p. m. on Monday afternoon we were asked to take a ride to the country and were taken to a beautiful pecan grove, three miles southwest of town.

To our surprise, whom did we find waiting, but Mrs. Fred Martin and Mrs. Carol Lowrie. A bounteous spread had been prepared. It is useless to say that each did justice to it—like all such occasions, the time passed only too quickly.

We are hoping to be surprised real soon again by these wonderful hostesses.

Those present were Messrs. and Mrs. Jeff Priddy, Henry Martin, C. L. Stephens, Owen Priddy, Fred Martin, Mmes. Lillie Lowrie, Carrol Lowrie, Aileen and Jeanette Martin and Miss Lillie Martin.

COUNTY BOARD

At the last meeting of the county school board the resignation of W. M. Johnston as president was received. E. B. Gilliam, Jr. was elected president to succeed Mr. Johnston.

The next regular meeting of the board will be held in November. It is possible that a called meeting will be held before that time to attend to business connected with the fall term of rural schools.

Making Repairs

Judge Patterson has received a request for estimates on repairs needed on school buildings in the county, with the information that the federal government will pay for the work and a part of the needed material. Judge Patterson has advised the trustees of all schools in the county of this offer and asked them to report all repairs needed to him at once, in order that the estimates may be supplied the educational authorities while the offer of assistance is open to them.

This is a wonderful opportunity for the trustees and patrons of all the schools to get their buildings put in first class condition at a very small cost to their district, at the same time giving work to citizens of their communities in making the repairs.

It is important that the trustees confer with Judge Patterson immediately.

HERE AND THERE

Representative Sam Rayburn of Bonham, just re-nominated for his twelfth term as representative of the fourth Texas district, is regarded as a certain candidate for the speakership to succeed the late Henry T. Rainey, who died this week.

Far-reaching plans to control food prices now rising as a result of drought and crop reduction are being completed by administration agencies. Although the administration at first professed to believe ordinary methods would hold food prices in line, it now appears that extraordinary measures may be taken.

Gold bullion valued at $1,000,000 ($5,000,000) has been recovered by a private salvage firm from the steamer Laurentic, which went to the bottom with a German torpedo in 1917, the London Mail says. Admiralty divers salvaged $5,000,000 between 1918 and 1924 and abandoned the remaining $1,000,000 because the ship had been smashed and buried in the sand.

Dr. John A. Kolmer, professor of medicine at Temple University and director of the Research Institute of Cutaneous Medicine of Philadelphia announces what he said was a successful vaccine against infantile paralysis. Doctor Kolmer said the vaccine's effectiveness has been demonstrated in experiments with monkey, followed by injections into the bodies of himself and a laboratory technician, Miss Anna M. Rule of Nova Scotia. The vaccine, prepared from the spinal cords of monkeys, is somewhat similar, Doctor Kolmer said, to that originally prepared by Pasteur for vaccination against hydrophobia or rabies.

Governor Miriam A. Ferguson Monday issued a call to the Texas legislature to convene in special session at noon August 27, to provide for issuance of additional state bonds for relief, which was the only topic mentioned by the governor in her call. She reserved the customary right, however, to submit such additional subjects as she deemed necessary. The call was issued in conformity with a promise made several days ago to convene the legislature immediately after the August 25 primary election. The legislature will be asked to issue $9,500,000 in relief bonds, the uncollected portion of an issue of $20,000,000 authorized last year at a special election.

ROCK SPRINGS WELL

The Rock Springs oil well was down 660 feet Wednesday night. The drillers lost some time because of a broken cog in the machinery, which had to be repaired at Wichita Falls. It is working right now and drilling is progressing rapidly.

Rental Checks Being Delivered

The county agent's office has received 83 cotton land rental checks, aggregating $3,260, which are being delivered to the farmers in whose names they are drawn. There are 50 more of these checks yet to come and they are expected daily.

The hog-corn checks will be received soon, as it is thought all details have been completed for their issuance. These checks, together with those for the cattle will put a considerable amount in circulation by the sale of cotton.

Bale tags have been received by the county agent and are being distributed on application.

HALF MILLION ROBBERY

One of the largest robberies in history was staged in Brooklyn, N. Y., Tuesday and the robbers appear to have made a clean getaway. The account of the boldness of the robbers said:

A daring mob of machine gun bandits perpetrated a $427,000 armored truck holdup in Brooklyn Tuesday, and police launched an aerial, marine and land search for the robbers.

As the driver left the truck two men, dressed as laborers, who had been standing beside an ice truck, lifted an old automobile seat from the top of the ice truck, and exposed a machine gun which was pointed directly at the armored car.

"Say a word and this spits," one of the bandits warned the driver and the other guard.

At this point two automobiles which apparently had been following the armored car, screeched to a stop. Five to a dozen men, witnesses were uncertain of the exact number, jumped from the two cars carrying half a dozen sub-machine guns.

Two boys 19 blocks from the holdup told police they saw a small speedboat and a white cab in launch pull up at the bay Thirty-Sixth street pier.

A moment later they saw two men run from a lumber yard into the pier. Several men were waiting for the craft and they tossed several white bags into the larger boat and jumped aboard. The bags were believed by police to have contained the loot.

Police airplanes patrolled Jamaica Bay, upper New York Bay. The Narrows and the waters inside Sandy Hook down to Atlantic highlands, N. J. The police believed the robbers were headed for the Jersey coast.

The robbers cleaned out the truck in three minutes, leaving only one bag containing $29,000 in the truck as they sped away in two automobiles.

OFFICERS ACTIVE

The sheriff's department has been active the past several days looking after bootlegging suspects and have also had some cases of theft, such as automobile casings and the like. The last night of the races and rodeo the Woods' service station, on the highway north of town, was robbed of a sixshooter, a shotgun, $30 in money and possibly other articles. The guns have been recovered by Sheriff Bledsoe and his deputies and they are hopeful of bringing the guilty parties to justice.

CAMPAIGN IN McCULLOCH

J. C. Darroch of Brownwood, candidate for District Attorney who will be in the run-off August 25, with Judge A. O. Newman of Coleman, was in Brady last week, shaking hands with his many friends and supporters having visited Mercury, Placid, and Rochelle before coming here. He was to continue to Lohn, Fear Valley, Melvin, Doole, Stacy and Waldrip.—Brady Standard.

Baptist Reminder

Sunday school 10 a. m. Sunday morning.

Preaching 11 a. m. Sunday morning.

B. T. S. 7:15 p. m. Sunday evening.

Preaching 8:15 p. m. Sunday evening.

Our meeting at Big Valley is going well. The people are co-operating splendidly. We have had nine additions to the church so far. I am enjoying working with this fine group of people.

I will be at Big Valley both services Sunday. Bro. Jim Hays, our newly elected moderator, will preach for us again. Our people appreciated Bro. Hays' messages before and I am sure they will again.

Our crowds were above the average last Sunday. Let's make them better Sunday.

REVIVAL AT PLEASANT GROVE CLOSED

The Pleasant Grove Methodist church closed one of the most successful revivals in many years. Rev. W. S. Highsmith, Jr., pastor at Goldthwaite Methodist church did the preaching. This man is a great soul winner and great preacher. The visible results of the meeting showed 18 converted, five reclaimed, shouting and old time power.

Pleasant Grove and vicinity have been blessed by his coming and the great Christian influence, which he left will abide to his memory.

The revival at Center City will commence on Friday night, August 24, (tonight). Rev. J. W. Griffin of Lytton Springs is to be the preacher. Everyone invited.

REV. LEON D. BROWN

COOKERY EXPERT TO CONDUCT SCHOOL HERE

New angles on the age-old problem of preparing the family meals will be presented in Goldthwaite, August 27 and 28, when Mrs. H. E. Loader conducts a free cooking school under the auspices of Texas-Louisiana Power Company. The class will get underway at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. Loader will discuss modern cookery and demonstrate the latest scientific methods in kitchen management. She will introduce a number of new recipes and show homemakers of Goldthwaite how to prepare everyday foods in appetizing ways. Other features of her demonstration will include economy in meal planning, waterless cookery, grilled breakfasts and luncheons, full-oven meal cookery and child feeding.

The school is free to Texas-Louisiana customers and local residents. All are cordially invited to be present.

AN INTERESTING TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Geeslin and sons, Conrad, Ben Davis, Lee Gattis, Campbell and Emzy, returned Friday night from an enjoyable vacation trip to Edinburg, where they visited relatives. Mr. Geeslin reported crops and vegetables looking fine after leaving San Antonio, the fine rains throughout that area leaving the pastures and fields as green as if it were spring time. He said his father's crop prospects were good, having already harvested four bales off six acres of cotton, with nearly one more bale to be gathered later, and that he was now planting 36 acres of cabbage. Things have been dormant since spring, and after the good rains the past month, all vegetation has grown by leaps and bounds. Mr. Geeslin asserted.—Brady Standard.

ABSENTEE VOTING

Absentee voting for the second primary came to a close Thursday. Forty absentee ballots were deposited with the county clerk up to the time of closing.

Higher Price For Cotton

It was welcome news to the cotton growing states Tuesday that President Roosevelt had taken action that assured a price of 12 cents or better for cotton. While the crop is light and the acreage is below the average in Mills county, the assurance of an improved price helps wonderfully.

The report from Washington regarding the president's action said:

President Roosevelt late Tuesday requested the Reconstruction Corporation to authorize loans at 12 cents a pound on cotton, which is in the possession of the producer.

The new plans will represent an increase of 2 cents a pound over the 10-cent loans approved last year. The move is expected in effect to peg the market at the 12-cent figure.

The president's statement says: "To enable the cotton farmers to market their cotton more nearly as it is required for consumption, rather than necessarily at picking time, I have requested the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to make funds available to the Commodity Credit Corporation that will enable it to increase its lending from 10 to 12 cents a pound on cotton, classing low middling or better, which is and has been continuously in the possession of the producer."

"While the Commodity Credit Corporation is still carrying for the producers about 1,000,000 bales of last year's cotton, and the cotton producers' pool has approximately 2,000,000 bales additional, it is worth noting that the still large surplus of cotton will, in all probability, show this year a reduction of about 4,500,000 bales from last year."

TEXAS BIRTH RATE

For the first time in the history of Texas, the United States bureau of the census has published the Texas birth rate along with that of the other states in the union. Last year 107,924 births were registered with the Texas State department of health.

Texas, in comparison with the larger states, ranked first in birth rate, 17.9 per thousand of population; third in number of births filed; and fifth in population. This is the first time comparisons could be made between all the states and Texas is proud of her showing in this first test.

To secure admission to the registration area of the United States it is necessary for at least 90 per cent of all births to be filed with the state department of health. Each parent or relative of a new born child should make sure that its birth is filed with the local registrar.

The registration of birth is valuable to the individual in that a birth certificate may be necessary to—secure passports, prove school age, prove citizenship, prove right to vote, prove legal age for marriage, prove age for military service, prove right to hold public office, prove right to property inherited, prove qualification for jury service, prove age under child labor laws, prove nationality in foreign countries, determine the birth rate in states, counties and cities, establish proof for pensions, insurance, compensation, etc.

COMMITTEE CALLED

Members of the Mills County Democratic Executive committee are hereby called to meet in the court house in Goldthwaite on Saturday, Sept. 1, at 8:30 a. m., to canvass the returns from the second primary election and to transact any other business that may be necessary.

All presiding officers of election are urged to make a report to me of the returns as soon as possible after the close of the polls Saturday.

J. W. BARNES,
County Chairman.

It will pay you to read all the advertisements in this paper.

Judge and Mrs. J. C. Darroch were visitors from Brownwood last Sunday.

Mayor W. H. Thompson and his sister, Mrs. J. M. Hicks, came over from Brownwood Sunday for a visit to relatives.

Mrs. Joe A. Palmer and son and Mrs. Ira Harvey and son were visitors to Brownwood one day this week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Yarbrough spent a part of the week in Dallas, buying goods for their dry goods stores.

County Agent W. P. Weaver and Luther Jernigan attended a hog-corn and wheat meeting at Abilene this week.

J. F. Dennis, one of the good farmers living east of town, had business in the city Monday and made the Eagle an appreciated call.

When you have visitors or know any other local item the Eagle appreciates your reporting it.

J. W. Stewart has returned from a protracted stay at Lorenzo, Crosby county. While he enjoyed his stay in the plains country, he is glad to be at home again.

Prof. G. W. Alldredge and family of Crosby county were here the first of the week to visit relatives. They left Tuesday for Abilene for a visit before returning to their home.

A. M. Hunt, Jr., went to Austin Saturday and remained there with relatives until Sunday, when he accompanied his mother home from that city, where she had been for several days visiting relatives.

Infection is often fatal. Prevent it with Lucky Tiger Antiseptic Ointment. At all Drug Stores. Costs little.

Miss Laura Nelson, who taught in the Mullin school several years and has contracted for a position in the Melvin school the next term, was a visitor in the city last week end and made the Eagle an appreciated call.

O. C. Weatherby and wife came in from their Culberson county ranch last week end for a visit to the Weatherly and Beryl families and to meet with their friends. He reports rain needed in his part of Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Worley from Tyler spent last week end with Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Johnson. Mrs. Worley is their granddaughter and spent most of her childhood days in Mills county. She is remembered by her many friends as Miss Vivian Seaboury.

Editor J. C. White of Brownwood was a visitor to Goldthwaite last Saturday and delivered a speech in the interest of one of the candidates. Mr. White is editor and part owner of the Brownwood Bulletin, one of the best daily papers published anywhere in a town the size of Brownwood. He made the Eagle a short and much appreciated visit while in the city.

Grady Malone was here the first of the week from Los Angeles, Cal., visiting relatives and meeting with friends. He spent a part of his boyhood here, but has been away a good many years. He was a conductor for the Santa Fe running out of Amarillo for a long time, but is now engaged in the same capacity for one of the railroads in the west. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Malone, live in Amarillo, but neither has good health. They formerly lived in Trigger Mountain community.

ROCK SPRINGS

There was Sunday school and church Sunday morning and dinner on the grounds. Church Sunday afternoon and church again Sunday night. Rev. J. R. Davis and Rev. B. F. Renfro conducted the meeting. They had an overflowing meeting Sunday afternoon. Everyone there rejoiced.

If this warm weather continues some seem to think they can not stand it much longer. Some say we won't get any rain before the second of September. I guess it will be better late than never.

The meeting closed Monday night. There will be preaching Sunday morning. Baptizing on Sunday afternoon at four o'clock at the bayou.

This church was well represented in Goldthwaite Friday and Saturday at the Association. The Association will be at Center Point next year.

Rev. Marvin Powledge from Lampasas spent the week end in the Webb home.

Fred McClary died in the Nickols home Sunday.

Herbert Cooke went to Mount Olive Sunday to an all day program.

Jack Robertson took advantage of his few days rest and went to Center City.

Roth Miller Robertson is kept busy hauling water this hot dry weather.

There were lots of people disappointed Sunday afternoon, when they went to the well and found the gate locked and no one at work. They will get back to work Wednesday. We hope not to stop again soon.

Glenn Nickols ate dinner with Homer Doggett and family Monday.

Louie Ponder, Marvin Powledge, Wick Webb and James Nickols enjoyed a 42 game Sunday night in R. C. Webb's home. James and Mr. Powledge think Wick and Louie need to practice.

Mmes. Glenn and Eula Nickols visited Miss Bessie Hutchings last Friday afternoon at Center Point.

OBITUARY

Minnie Hoester was born in Gillespie county, May 5, 1855; was married to Henry Leifeste in Mason county, March 4, 1875. To this union fourteen children were born, seven girls and seven boys, eleven of whom are living.

She was called in death July 12, 1934, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Emma Oltrogge, at Goldthwaite, Texas.

Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church Saturday afternoon, July 14, by Rev. W. S. Highsmith. Children attending the funeral were Messrs Ed Leifeste, Junction; Felix Leifeste, Goldthwaite; Powell Leifeste, Walnut Springs, and Henry Leifeste, Brakes. Mmes. Emma Oltrogge and Bill Fox, Goldthwaite; Joe Taff, Cleburne; Tom Wilson, Sonora; Paul Boehl, Galveston. Two sons, who live in the north were unable to attend. Among other relatives present were Mrs. Wes Leifeste, a daughter-in-law, and Mrs. C. C. Smith and her son, Howard, all of Mason. Mrs. Smith is a sister of Mrs. Leifeste.

Mrs. Leifeste joined the Methodist church in childhood and led a consistent Christian life, an inspiration to her family and friends. The value of such a life can never be measured. Many friends join the family in their sorrow.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 2

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That the Constitution of the State of Texas, Article 16, be amended by adding thereto another Section, Section 61, which shall read as follows:

"Section 61. All district officers in the state and all county officers in counties having a population of twenty thousand (20,000), or more, according to the then last preceding Federal census, shall hereafter be compensated on a salary basis. In all counties of this state the Commissioners' Court shall be authorized to determine whether precinct officers shall be compensated on a fee basis or on a salary basis; and in counties having a population of less than twenty thousand (20,000) according to the then last preceding Federal census, the Commissioners' Court shall also have the authority to determine whether county officers shall be compensated on a fee basis or on a salary basis. All fees earned by district, county or precinct officers shall be paid into the county treasury, where earned, for the account of the proper fund, provided that fees incurred by the state, county and any municipality, or in case where pauper's oath is filed, shall be paid to the county treasury, when collected, and provided that where any officer is compensated wholly on a fee basis, such fees may be retained by such officer or paid into the Treasury of the county as the Commissioners' Court may direct. All Notaries Public, County Surveyors and Public Weighers shall continue to be compensated on a fee basis."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional amendment shall be submitted to vote of the qualified voters of this state and be held on Tuesday, after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1934, at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:

"For the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas, adding Section 61 to Article XVI, abolishing the fee system of compensating all district officers and all county officers in counties having a population of twenty thousand (20,000) or more; and authorizing the Commissioners' Court to determine whether county officers in counties containing less than twenty thousand (20,000) population shall be compensated on a fee basis or a salary basis; and authorizing the Commissioners' Court in all counties of this state to determine whether precinct officers shall be compensated on a fee or a salary basis."

"Against the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas adding Section 61 to Article XVI, abolishing the fee system of compensating all district officers and all county officers in counties having a population of twenty thousand (20,000) or more; and authorizing the Commissioners' Court to determine whether county officers in counties containing less than twenty thousand (20,000) population shall be compensated on a fee basis or a salary basis; and authorizing the Commissioners' Court in all counties of this state to determine whether precinct officers shall be compensated on a fee or a salary basis."

Each voter shall scratch out with pen or pencil the clause which he desires to vote against so as to indicate whether he is voting for or against said proposed amendment.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 16

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 1 of Article 8 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereinafter read as follows:

Section 1. Taxation to be equal and uniform as to real estate and to be equal and uniform as to all reasonable classifications of property; and occupation and income taxes; exemptions; limitations upon counties, cities, etc.

"Taxation of real property shall be equal and uniform. All property in this state, whether owned by natural persons or corporations, other than municipal, shall be taxed in proportion to its value, which shall be ascertained as may be provided by law. The legislature may by general laws make reasonable classifications of all property other than real property for the purpose of taxation, and may impose different rates thereon; provided that the taxation of all property in any class shall be equal and uniform. The legislature may impose a poll tax. It may also impose occupation taxes, both upon natural persons and upon corporations, other than municipal, doing business in this state. It may also tax incomes of both natural persons and corporations other than municipal, except that persons engaged in mechanical and agricultural pursuits shall never be required to pay an occupation tax; provided that Two Hundred and Fifty ($250.00) Dollars worth of household and kitchen furniture, belonging to each family in the state, shall be exempt from taxation, and provided further that the occupation tax levied by any county, city or town for any year on persons or corporations pursuing any profession or business, shall not exceed one-half of the tax levied by the state for the same period of such profession or business."

Section 2. The foregoing amendment to the Constitution of Texas shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held throughout the state on the first Monday in November, 1934. At this election, all voters favoring said amendment shall write or have printed, on their ballots the words:

"For the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas providing that taxation of real property shall be equal and uniform; and that all property in this state, other than that owned by municipal corporations, shall be taxed in proportion to its value as ascertained as may be provided by law; and providing that the Legislature may make reasonable classifications of all property, other than real property, for the purpose of taxation, and that the taxation of all property in any class shall be equal and uniform; and providing further that the Legislature may impose poll tax and occupation tax and income tax and exempting from occupation tax persons engaged in mechanical and agricultural pursuits, and exempting from taxation Two Hundred and Fifty ($250.00) Dollars worth of household and kitchen furniture belonging to each family; and providing that the occupation tax levied by any county, city or town shall not exceed one-half that levied by the State for the same period."

Those voters opposing said proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:

"Against the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas providing that taxation of real property shall be equal and uniform; and that all property in this state, other than that owned by municipal corporations, shall be taxed in proportion to its value as ascertained as may be provided by law; and providing that the Legislature may make reasonable classifications of all property, other than real property, for the purpose of taxation, and that the taxation of all property in any class shall be equal and uniform; and providing further that the Legislature may impose poll tax and occupation tax and income tax and exempting from occupation tax persons engaged in mechanical and agricultural pursuits; exempting from taxation Two Hundred and Fifty ($250.00) Dollars worth of household and kitchen furniture belonging to each family; and providing that the occupation tax levied by any county, city or town shall not exceed one-half that levied by the State for the same period."

Each voter shall scratch out with pen or pencil the clause which he desires to vote against so as to indicate whether he is voting for or against said proposed amendment.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 30

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 16, Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereinafter read as follows:

"Section 16. All land mentioned in Sections 11, 12 and 15 of Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas, now belonging to the University of Texas shall be subject to the taxation for county and school district purposes to the same extent as lands privately owned; provided they shall be rendered for taxation upon the values fixed by the State Tax Board and that the values fixed for school district purposes shall not exceed the values fixed for county purposes on the same land; and provided that the University of Texas from the University Available Fund, shall remit annually to each of the counties and school districts in which said lands are located an amount equal to the tax imposed upon said land for county and school district purposes."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state at the next general election, at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words: "For the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas subjecting the lands of the University of Texas to taxation for county and school purposes, and providing for the payment of said taxes to the proper authorities of the counties and school districts where said lands are located," and all those opposed shall write or have printed on their ballots the words, "Against the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas, subjecting the lands of the University of Texas to the taxation for county and school district purposes, and providing for the payment of said taxes to the proper authorities of the counties and school districts where said lands are located."

FOR REPRESENTATIVE

Bill and I were fishing in the bay. Returning, we found that the boat was overloaded. Bill wanted to reduce the load by throwing out part of my fish.

The main tax load on the automobile is the license fee and the gas tax. All of the license fee is applied to the lateral roads. None of the gas tax is so applied.

Our representative proposes to reduce the license fee and not reduce the gas tax. He wants to throw out part of our fish.

STYLES IN NEW YORK

Shoes and Handbags in Close Style Alliance.

Shoes and handbags have become such close partners in the mode that New York shops are featuring them together. Not only in harmonizing colors are they featured, but in some of the smartest groupings one notes them in exact matching materials, carried out in the same design trims. One smart shoe salon showing a new fall dressy high-throated oxford of gabardine trimmed with very narrow patent leather strippings matching a patent leather heel, displays with it a very lovely handbag of this same gabardine in flat pouch styling, with the same narrow patent leather strippings in similar design—the bag featuring a top composition bar closing extending flush across the top—a very effective accessory ensemble, and one that easily converts a summer costume into one that has a high style fall feeling. One notes also some very lovely shoe and handbag ensembles in combinations of suede and patent, and in some of the crushed grains and lacquered fabrics. As to colors, black and rich browns are the style leaders.

Luggage in Matching Sets Important in Travel Mode.

Every need of the traveler, whatever the port or destination, seems to have been anticipated by designers of smart luggage. Favored for the short trip—week end, particularly—is the small suitcase and hat box ensemble—in matching color and material—these often fitted with a place for cosmetics and toilet accessories conveniently arranged. The practical vogue for traveling light—whether by airplane or whatnot—has created the demand for luggage that is decidedly light weight.

Shirtmaker Frock — A College Girl Favorite.

Among the smart displays in New York shops just now are those with "suggestions for the college girl" with sports frocks colorful and collegiate — new knitted things for almost every campus occasion, including the new buttoned down the back cardigan, and all sorts of new pleated effects in knitted skirts. The shirtmaker frock in silks, synthetics and soft woollens, carried out in plain fabrics as well as in prints, checks and stripes, is a favorite. One notes this styling also in the new silk and synthetic satins for dressy occasions, and often featured with lovely little jackets in contrasting fabrics. Very chic and flattering among such ensembles is the white satin frock worn with hip-length jacket made of the new fall fabrics—a mixture of black wool, this jacket fabric being carried out also in beret and glove sets. There are some delightful new scarf, hat and glove sets in these new fabrics very smart with the white satin frocks.

Red Important in Fall Mode.

The trend toward red in striking new shades grows more important as the fall season approaches. One smart New York collection features vermilion alone and in combinations with navy and black. Outstanding in the collection is a soft woolen frock in vermilion, high necked and buttoned down the back with composition buttons in the same color. A navy blue suede belt gives a smart touch to the costume. Red and blue stripes are featured in other frocks in silk and synthetic crepes.

Blouses in Rich Fabrics For Fall

The dressy suit for the cocktail hour has inspired blouses in a variety of rich new fabrics for the fall mode. Satins and taffetas in silk and synthetic versions with all over designs—including stripes and checks in metal threads—are highlighted blouse numbers. There are new rough dull synthetic crepes—in exceptionally smart stylings—many featuring back buttoning, not only in straight down the back line, but in various new effects, such as diagonal back buttoning and other slants. White and pink tones are favored for blouses worn with the dark suit, but they are noted also in dark colors, including wine, black, vivid red, billiard green and a new greyed brown. For the dark cocktail suit, there is nothing smarter or more flattering than the white satin blouse with gold or silver bandings. The smartest models have high neckline and long sleeves.

Fringe, Cords and Tassels Important in the Mode.

Fabrics are so rich and elegant for fall that there is little need for trimmings. However, fringe, cords and tassels fit smartly into the style picture. They are used in various ways on accessories—particularly hats—as well as on frocks, blouses, gowns, capes and jackets. The deep rayon fringe is noted on some of the smartest crepe and satin evening gowns. Cord trims are featured on smart hats—these often encircling a very shallow crown and ending in a tassel. Some of the new blouses are gathered and tied at the neck with silk and synthetic cords in matching colors.

Style Briefs.

The trend toward peasant colorings in cottons is apparent in the new fall cottons. One notes a clever combination of colors in pink. For example, strawberry pink is combined with bright blue; rose and white is combined on navy—these carrying out the peasant interpretation in color combination.

Berets after a flair in over-size effects—are settling down to the more flattering medium sizes. Some of the smartest are in black velvet accented by a discreet composition trim or lacquered quill. The style distinction of the beret, or of any other hat for that matter, depends largely upon the angle at which it is tilted.

Panel treatment promise to be important in the fall mode. They are noted in new skirts, evening gowns, jackets and blouses.

Black and white combined in silk and synthetic crepes, satins and in big splashy prints is the smartest combination in the high style picture.

The pleated skirt—pleated entirely around in fine pleats—is back in the style picture. A very flattering styling of this kind is carried out in black rayon alpaca and with a matching cape extending to the waist line.

SHERIFF'S NOTICE OF SALE

The State of Texas, County of Mills:

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 11

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That there be added to Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Texas a new section to be numbered Section 2-A and to have five (5) lettered subdivisions and which section shall read as follows:

"Section 2-A. (a) General management and control of the affairs of the county shall hereafter be vested in the Commissioners Court, provided that in the exercise of powers not specifically granted to the Commissioners Court by the Constitution and Amendments thereto, the court shall be subject to the authority of the Legislature of the state and the court shall also be subject to all general laws of the state now in force not in conflict with the provisions of this amendment until such laws are modified or repealed.

(b) All duties heretofore performed by the Clerk of the District Court and the County Clerk shall hereafter be performed by an officer to be known as Record Clerk; all duties heretofore performed by the County Tax Assessor and the County Tax Collector shall hereafter be performed by one officer known as Tax Clerk; and in the counties where the sheriff performs the duties of the Tax Collector he may hereafter perform the duties of the Tax Clerk. The Record Clerk and the Tax Clerk shall be elected to hold office for a term of two (2) years and until their successors shall be elected and qualified. The Commissioners Court shall have authority to combine the office of County Treasurer and the office of County Surveyor, or to combine either, or both, of said offices with any county office. Within the maximum and minimum limits prescribed by the Legislature the Commissioners Court shall have authority to fix the compensation of all county and precinct officers except County Auditor, County Judge and County Commissioners. The Legislature shall fix the compensation of District Judges, District Attorneys, County Judges and the County Commissioners and may provide for a County Auditor and prescribe his duties and fix his compensation and the number and compensation of his assistants. The Commissioners Court shall fix the compensation of and determine the number of deputy assistants and clerical personnel of all precinct officers and county officers except the county auditor.

(c) City and county officers and employees may, in addition to their duties as such city and county officers or employees, be required to perform such other similar duties for cities, towns and districts within the county, or for the county, as may be mutually agreed upon and contracted for between the Commissioners Court of said county and the governing board, or boards, of such cities, towns and districts; and the cost of such service shall be provided for in said contracts and paid by such county, cities, towns or districts into the treasury of the county or city, town or district, as provided for in said contract. All such contracts shall be approved by the Attorney General of this State and such contracts shall not cover a period longer than two (2) years.

(d) The Legislature shall have authority, by general law, to provide for complete forms of county government and organizations different from that provided for in this Constitution to become effective in any county when submitted in such manner as may be prescribed by the Legislature to the qualified voters of such county in an election held for such purpose and approved by a majority of the qualified voters of such county in an election held for such purpose and approved by a majority of the qualified voters in said election. Provided, however, that no such law shall impair the authority of the Commissioners Court to determine the compensation of county and precinct officers other than the county auditor, to fix the number of assistants, deputies and clerical personnel which said officers may employ, nor shall such general law change the present constitutional limitations as to particular and all county purposes; nor shall such general law change the present constitutional limitations on counties to incur public debts.

(e) In any and all cases where provisions of the Constitution of this State are in conflict with the provisions of this Amendment, the provision of this Amendment (Section 2-A, Article IX) shall control; provided, however, should any county adopt a Home Rule Charter under authority of any provisions of the State Constitution or Amendment thereto, this amendment shall not be applicable to such county.

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the electors of this state, qualified to vote on Constitutional Amendments, at an election to be held throughout the state on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1934, at which election each ballot shall have printed thereon the words:

"For the Amendment of Article IX of the State Constitution by adding Section 2-A thereto, giving the Commissioners Court general management and control of county affairs, and au-

HON. CHAS. L. SOUTH

Without ballyhoo or excessive expenditures, assisted only by personal friends and his 18-year-old son, Carl, Judge Charles L. South this week is ending an intensive campaign for congress that has taken him to every section of the 21st district.

In numerous addresses, Judge South stated he would be free to represent all the people to the best advantage because he had made no promises of postoffice appointments or any other jobs. Judge South also reiterated his stand for a protective tariff on ranch and farm products of West Texas and for truth in fabrics legislation.

"If elected, I will go to congress unshackled, not recognizing any master except the people of this district," Judge South said in asserting that he is not backed nor controlled by any special group or interest.

Meanwhile, Judge South's friends were pointing out that he is not a professional politician, but a public servant many times honored; that he served four years as school superintendent of Coleman county; six years as county judge and is now serving his fourth year as district attorney of Coleman, McCulloch and Brown counties. His vote in the three counties in the July Primary was: Coleman, 3468 to 1171 for his three opponents; Brown, 4173 to 1959 for his opponents, and McCulloch, 1813 to 1702 for his opponents. He has refrained from the mud slinging that so often characterizes a political race, his friends point out.

Judge South opposes cancellation of war debts, stating that the United States furnished more than two billion dollars to foreign nations after the armistice was signed. He considers these honest debts which ought to be paid.

Other planks in Judge South's platform follow: He favors the removal of profit from warfare through government ownership of all munitions plants and the universal service plan of drafting wealth as well as manpower during time of war.

He favors a low rate of interest on federal money loaned farmers.

He favors remonetization of silver to aid agriculture and business.

He favors the redistribution of the nation's wealth through conservative income and inheritance taxes.

He opposes issuance of tax exempt bonds.

He opposes entangling alliances with foreign countries.

He would control crime thru closer co-ordination of efforts between federal, state and local officers and through the abolition of county and state line restrictions in the pursuit and capture of criminals.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 21

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 1 of Article 9 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 1. The legislature shall have the power to create counties for the convenience of the people subject to the following provisions:

First. In the territory of the state exterior to all counties now existing, no new counties shall be created with a less area than nine hundred square miles, in a square form, unless prevented by the pre-existing boundary lines. Should the state lines render this impracticable in border counties, the area may be less. The territory referred to may, at any time, in whole or in part, be divided into counties in advance of population and attached, for judicial and land surveying purposes, to the most convenient organized county or counties.

Second. Within the territory of any county or counties now existing, the Legislature may by a two-thirds vote of both houses, create new counties, combine existing counties and parts of counties and abolish existing counties and change county boundaries at will, provided that no new county shall be created with an area of less than nine hundred square miles nor shall any existing county be reduced in area so as to contain less than nine hundred square miles, unless such new county or such remaining county and both shall have a population of not less than fifty thousand, according to the last United States census prior to the date of the creation or change of such county. When any part of a county is stricken off and attached to, or created into another county, the part stricken off shall be holden for and obliged to pay its proportion of all liabilities then existing, of the county from which it was taken, in such manner as may be prescribed by law.

Third. No part of any existing county shall be detached from it and attached to another existing county until the proposition for such change shall have been submitted in such a manner as may be provided by law, to a vote of the electors of both counties and shall have received a majority of those voting on the question in each."

Sec. 2. The foregoing amendment to the Constitution shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held throughout the state on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in No-

The exceptional popularity which Chevrolet has enjoyed for many years has naturally had its effect on Chevrolet prices. Large sales have enabled Chevrolet to maintain consistently low purchase prices, which were recently lowered even further. As a result Chevrolet now offers you the lowest priced six-cylinder automobile obtainable—a big, comfortable car with Fisher Body styling and refinement—safe, weatherproof, cable-controlled brakes—the smoothness and economy of a valve-in-head, six-cylinder engine—and typical Chevrolet dependability. In offering this car, and the Master models, at substantially lower prices, Chevrolet hopes to repay the motoring public in some measure, for consistently placing Chevrolet so high in public favor.

REPRTER

CENTER POINT

Uncle Joe (J. D.) Bryan, who lives upon the mountain, east of Goldthwaite, was telling the other day that he had seen hard times before and knew what want really was.

Mr. Bryan recalled the condition of Confederate homes back in Alabama at the close of the war in 1865, when his father returned from the armies of the south, to find everything in such deplorable state that he resolved that he and his family would remove to the still wild Texas and try to commence life anew. "We started getting ready on April 14, 1865," Uncle Joe said, "but it was May 14 of that same year before we could make ready and get our wagons repaired sufficiently for the trip. When we had started, the band of Texas bound relatives found that it did not possess a single dime to travel on, since we had to buy certain supplies and the rivers had to be ferried some way. We exchanged our milk cows for a large supply of flat plug tobacco, which we used on the trip instead of money. Most of the time on the journey we had nothing to eat save a bread made of flour, salt and water, and we had to use water to wash the stuff down."

Many other hazardous trials befell the Bryan wagon train before it reached Texas on Sept. 6, 1865, so that Uncle Joe said: "Now let us give thanks to God that we are not away out on an uncharted road somewhere, creaking along in an ox-wagon, existing on a water and flour diet."

Center Point should be happy to make a few bales of cotton, some feedstuff and a little scattering of corn this year—for just think how bad it would be if our crops would not have sprouted like some on the plains of the west?

Misses Ruby Brooks and Julia Dee and Eva Fallon visited in the home of Mrs. Lucian Brooks in the latter part of the week.

We regret very deeply the illness of Bro. Edgar Jenkins' brother, and hope that recovery will come soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Steinmann and little daughter, Mattie Jane, visited in the Davis home Sunday.

Miss Evelyn Robbins took supper in the Fallon home Sunday.

Joe Spinks has out two bales of cotton. He thinks he will get three more.

Mr. and Mrs. Browning Roberts of Archer City, spent the week with her father, Edgar Jenkins.

Little Miss Gwendolyn Robbins has been sick this past week, but is well now.

Miss Mary Fallon visited Mrs. Ernest Obenhaus Wednesday.

Jim Long and son were out at their place again recently.

Mrs. Edda Daniel Willington has been visiting her brother, Sam Carroll.

Mr. and Mrs. Omar Hill have been attending church at Mullin. Miss Alva Spinks visited in the Duren community Saturday.

Misses Gladys Perry and Merlene Stark spent Saturday night with Miss Doris Davis.

Miss Doris Newman ate supper with Miss Doris Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fallon and family spent Sunday in the Meyer home.

Mrs. Lucian Brooks and her brother, Mr. Parker, of San Saba, made a pop call in the Brooks home Friday evening.

Miss Ethel Tyson spent one night last week with her cousin Miss Claudia Carrol.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Shelton and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hammond spent one day on the bayou last week fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Omar Hill spent Sunday in Mullin, attending the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Meyer have been attending the meeting at Mullin.

Little Miss Thelma Horton spent Sunday afternoon with the Pearson girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Spinks and children and Lenville Calder of Ridge and Anderson Shelton took dinner with Will Spinks and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bohannon and family of Goldthwaite were in our midst Monday.

Bro. Albert Green of near Lubbock, spent Saturday night in Joe Spinks' home.

Mrs. Jennie Harmon spent Saturday night with Joe Spinks and family.

4-H Club Notes

Several young people met Friday night at the appointed place, the school house, for the purpose of discussing putting on a play in the future, but the group willingly postponed its meeting until this Wednesday night, so it could help Bro. Albert Green, who was preaching Friday night.

Church Notes

Last Thursday, Friday and Saturday the community was blessed with the presence and messages of two unpretentious servants of God, Bro. Albert Green and Bro. Jesse Stephenson from the Lubbock country. The two had just concluded a protracted meetin' at Duren. Bro. Green's old home community. We are hoping that these two brothers will return next year and preach more good old fashion sermons that arise from the heart of the soul.

Sunday School Notes.

Again we are submitting the report of the secretary:

Opening song, No. 116.

Subject: "Amos Rebukes Indulgence."

Prayer—Mr. Stark.

Officers and teachers present, 4; absent, 3.

Pupils present, 37; visitors none.

Verses recited, 35; chapters read, 383; daily bible readings, 2.

Collection, 51c.

Indeed this is very commendable of a little handful of Center Pointers, who are trying to retain their community center of worship. God pity the neighbor who stands aloof and murmurs, "They're letting everything fall to pieces and go to the dogs."

Rather, this neighbor, if he would be true, would say: "God, help me, for I'm letting everything go to pieces and to the dogs in my community."

Truly, the saddest funeral in all the world will mark the death of Christ's Christianity in our little rural centers that march hand in hand with nature beneath the untinted skies and green wood trees for there our fathers and mothers of centuries gone by found Divine solace.

And, too, last Sunday ten young ladies were present in a class in which not a single young man sat. This seems like a challenge to the boys' righteousness. Are the girls of our community more interested in that which is of God, than our boys? It probably won't be long until some boy in this community will be stained with the abominable paint of the criminal, therefore, shall we have to make jail do for youth what our Sunday schools are intended for.

Everybody who possibly can, come out and try to defend your youth by attending Sunday school. All are welcome. The organization is yours.

Miss Julia Dee Fallon and her little folks Sunday school class is going to award a prize at the end of the month to the little boy or little girl, which ever it may be, who reads the most chapters in the Bible with the best understanding.

B. Y. P. U. NOTES

The young folks again put on a "jam-bone" good program. More interest is being shown.

Mr. Horton was chosen president for the organization, and Joe Spinks, vice president. We hope that, and know, these two good brethren will strive to carry on the uplifting influence of the little group.

And, indeed, are we grateful to the visitors who come to assist us. Especially do we wish to welcome Edward Soules and others who were with us.

Many older folks, too, have begun to take interest. If you doubt this statement, just come out yourself and see next Sunday night. You'll be welcomed when you come.

Young folks, if you wish to get into something next Sunday night, get in with us. What we do won't send you to jail.

Following B. Y. P. U. the community singers, reorganized. Miss Julia Dee Fallon was made president and Woodrow Spinks, vice president. Popeye sez: "Why don't cha cum out 'n heer yer own kids sings sum? Maybe it would do yer good."

POPEYE and OLLIVE OYL.

SOUTH BENNETT

There was a small crowd at Sunday school Sunday. There wasn't any singing as several attending the revival at Pleasant Grove, while others were taking visits. Let's all be at Sunday school next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Covington, Henry Blackburn, Jr., and Mrs. Emma Casbeer spent last week end visiting Henry Blackburn and family at Sterling City. Aaron Stacy and John C. Blackburn returned home with them, Aaron having spent two weeks vacation with the Blackburn family. John C. plans to spend a week visiting relatives here.

Evelyn Covington visited relatives at Pleasant Grove last week and attended the revival at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud joined relatives at Goldthwaite Friday, where they all went to the river and enjoyed the day.

Mrs. M. L. Casbeer visited Mrs. Walter Summy Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Cox and baby spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Julia Taylor, at Center Point.

Willis Hill and family spent Sunday visiting relatives at Star. Walter Simpson and family had visitors Sunday, but I didn't learn just who it was.

John Hill made a short visit in the M. L. Casbeer home Sunday morning.

Will Horton visited in the Huff man home Wednesday night and also Sunday.

Mrs. A. G. Blackburn and baby visited Mrs. Tat Perry one day last week.

Vernadine Warren spent Friday with Valeria Stacy. Grandmother Warren also visited Mrs. J. M. Stacy and remained until Sunday in this home.

Mrs. Herman Cox and baby visited Mrs. M. L. Casbeer and children awhile Monday afternoon.

Webb Hill and son, Palmer, of Star and Mr. Karnes, visited John Hill Saturday afternoon.

Bill Jones, Clyde Featherston and Amos Herrington have jobs on the highway.

Mrs. R. G. Blackburn and baby visited Mrs. Bullard at Goldthwaite Wednesday of last week.

Mr. Insall visited B. R. Casbeer and wife awhile Sunday afternoon.

Leroy Stacy visited in the Kuykendall and Shipman homes Friday afternoon.

Mrs. M. L. Casbeer and children visited Mrs. R. G. Blackburn and baby a short while last week.

Several from here attended the meeting at Pleasant Grove last week.

Cicero and Herman Warren and Morgan Stacy fixed the windmill on Mrs. Warren's place last Friday.

Dan Covington and Claud Smith made a business trip to Center City one day last week.

Ab Hill and family spent Sunday visiting away from home, but I didn't learn just where.

Bill Jones took Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Jones and daughter, Miss Florence, to Mount Olive last

DON'T GET MAD

If your paper stops after coming to you a long time without payment of subscription, just bring or send the subscription price and all will be lovely.

Sunday to the ex-teachers and ex-students meeting. Gordon Jones spent Saturday night and Sunday at Mount Olive.

Mrs. M. L. Casbeer and children spent Tuesday afternoon with B. R. Casbeer and wife. Mrs. J. T. Morris and Dorothy spent Tuesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Casbeer.

Mrs. J. M. Stacy and Herman Cox and wife were in Goldthwaite shopping Monday morning.

ANNOUNCEMENT!
Beginning Sept. 1st We Will Sell For CASH ONLY

Owing to the changing of conditions and the fact that we have to pay the wholesale houses cash for everything we buy from them when we receive the goods, we are compelled to do likewise.

We hope that our good friends who have traded with us in the past will understand the situation and bear with us in these times, of which none of us have ever seen before.

OUR AIM IS TO SELL CHEAP

And cheap enough that you can well afford to pay cash.

George Rollins Asks For Second Term

Here are a few of the many reasons you should vote for him:—

He was present at every roll call. His expense as your Representative was less than any other member of the house. He stands for economy. By voting for an amendment to the appropriation bill and fighting for this amendment he saved the taxpayers more than One-fourth million dollars. He was also instrumental in fostering legislation, cutting expenses of government more than Thirteen million dollars.

In his second term he pledges to work unceasingly to further reduce expenses of government.

He will work with whoever is elected governor as long as that governor is right.

He has been a great friend of the rural schools of this state. Through his untiring efforts the rural schools received an appropriation of six million dollars more than they would have received otherwise, which allowed them to run much longer than they would have and longer than they ever did run in the history of Texas. This was accomplished without any additional burden of taxation, and through his efforts the teachers have been more promptly paid than they have been during the period of this depression.

AUTOMOBILE LICENSE

George Rollins was author of the bill passed by the house which would have reduced the automobile registration fee, but this bill was killed in the Senate. If passed it would have enabled the farmers and other people of moderate means to purchase car license where they would be unable to do so under the present license fee law. George Rollins was also co-author of a bill which reduced registration fees on the small trucks to be used on farms, one half.

This is not as low as it should be and George Rollins, when elected this time, will stand for further reduction in these licenses.

OLD AGE PENSIONS AND UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE

George Rollins believes in old age pensions for economy in government and a just measure to be meted out to the old indigent citizens of our state. 29 states now have this law and it is working successfully. Also, more economically than the Poor Farms work. It will increase purchasing power and reduce the burdens of government. George Rollins also stands with our great president on the question of unemployment insurance. President Roosevelt said: "Unemployment insurance and old age pension are coming just as certain as workmen's compensation insurance came." Geo. Rollins therefore, pledges himself to support these great humanitarian measures of government and stands with our president on that platform.

SECOND TERM

George Rollins is entitled to a second term. He served the people honestly and fair and served them well. He never sold out to any interest, but has always voted for what he thought was to the interest of the people as a whole. He is entitled to a second term as a matter of democracy and democratic principles of government. He has conducted a clean, honorable campaign for second term and has said nothing against his opponents, but has brought his campaign to the people fairly, frankly and honestly. He has no apology to make for the bills he supported during his term in office. When re-elected he will devote his time fairly and impartially to the great program of government which the forthcoming two years calls for.

CONCLUSION

In conclusion: George Rollins has always been a democrat; has been free from isms, prejudices and has stood foursquare for the great principles of state government founded by our forefathers. When elected to a second term he will devote all his energies to the furtherance of a great constructive program having for its purpose better homes, better working conditions and better government for the people as a whole.

On the above he submits his candidacy as representative for this district.

"Everything to Build Anything"

MOUNT OLIVE

Sunday was a big day at Mount Olive. It was the date of the annual home-coming of all ex-teachers and ex-students of the Mount Olive school. A fine program was enjoyed by a great crowd of people. There was a large number of ex-teachers present, and many interesting talks were made by them. A full report of this meeting will be found elsewhere in the Eagle, but we wish to make special mention of Bill Huggins and wife being with us, and his Head Bros. quartet. Their singing was fine, and we invite them to come back and sing for us again.

A large number of folks attended the Primitive Baptist association near Stephenville over last week end. As near as this reporter was able to learn, those who went were Mr. and Mrs. Bleeker, Mrs. Jessie Wicker, Betha Wicker, George Ada Cline, Florine Koen and Sam Koen. There may have been others, but this reporter did not learn their names. Almer Neal started, but missed connections and came back.

Bob Harris gave a social for the young folks Thursday night.

The farmers have all been busy this week signing up the application papers for cotton exemption certificates. It seems that most farmers are not in sympathy with this sign-up, but the only suggestion we scribe has to offer is that if you do not like it just reach up and get a hand full of hair and pull it out. But be sure its your own hair, not someone else's.

Miss Mary B. Hodges spent several days visiting with Miss Zella Conway at Caradan last week.

Harry Couch made a trip to Fort Worth last week.

We wish to thank Louis Porter for furnishing the ice water and lemonade for our "blowout" here Sunday. The weather was slightly hot and we certainly did appreciate the iced drinks.

The community was saddened to learn of the death of Mrs. T. A. Yeager Thursday night. She had been seriously ill for several days and her death was not unexpected. Funeral services were held Friday and burial was in Pecan Wells cemetery. This community extends sympathy to the sorrowing families.

Mrs. Lela Harris, nee Yeager, has been real sick for several days. Her new-born baby was buried Monday and she has been dangerously sick herself. We trust she makes a speedy and complete recovery.

Judge John Patterson met the patrons of the school at the school house Wednesday night to discuss the proposition of establishing a school for high school purposes. This school would be conveniently located so as to accommodate the high school grades of Mount Olive, Midway and surrounding communities. A thorough discussion of the project was had, but no definite steps were taken. We understand the entire situation will be laid before Supt. L. A. Woods for his opinion. It seems at present that the tax rendition of the district is not sufficient to support the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Faira Head and family visited awhile in the Frank Poer home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Aldredge of Crosbyton are visiting friends and relatives here this week. They are down on their vacation and also in the ex-teacher's meeting we had Sunday. We are glad to have these folk back with us. Dock, as we call him, is an ex-teacher of our school, as well as an ex-student, and he is still in the teaching profession in Crosby county. Although he has been teaching for nineteen years, he is still a young man, as he started young. He is one of many successful teachers Mount Olive school has sent out.

Misses Jessie Neal and Lois Blackwell gave readings on our program Sunday, which were greatly enjoyed.

We would like to make personal mention of all visitors who came to our gathering Sunday, but there were too many.

Last week in this reporter's letter two lines in a certain paragraph were not printed, which left the paragraph a rather disconnected group of sentences. This omission by the Eagle staff was undoubtedly due to their inability to translate my scrawl.

A party suggested to me that my writings were just a mess. To avoid friction I promptly agreed

SCALLORN

No rain, just dust.

Mr. Dupre and family went to the river and spent the night Wednesday. Their daughter from Kempner is visiting them.

Mrs. W. J. Ford and Miss Marvel and Rachel spent Sunday in Homer Eckert's home.

Mrs. Ora Black and son, Billie, spent several days in Brownwood visiting her daughter, Mrs. Thelma Wright, and other relatives.

Hicks Bledsoe had the misfortune of having his thumb torn from his hand. He was carried to Fort Worth to the sanitarium and was doing fine at the last report. Joe Palmer and Bryan Ware carried him to Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Evans and Mrs. John Crawford spent several days last week with Mrs. Albert Hereford.

Jimmie Cross of Austin is visiting his friend, Miss Rachel Ford this week.

Albert Canady spent several days last week with his mother in Austin.

Mrs. Bucket of near San Benito, spent several days last week with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hines, Fields and Miss Freda and Mrs. Cora Ford attended the Association Saturday at Goldthwaite.

Elza Laughlin and wife attended church at Long Cove on Sunday.

W. E. Stevenson attended the Association meeting Saturday at Goldthwaite.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Morgan spent Sunday afternoon with Aunt Pe' Hufstutler.

Worley Laughlin and family from San Antonio are in this section on a visit with home folks.

Mrs. T. J. Laughlin had all her children and most of her grandchildren with her Monday. They were Webb Laughlin and family, Brown Stockton and family, Ernest Johnson and family, Elza Laughlin and family and Mrs. Lemar McClain and son.

Dutch Smith and family spent Sunday in John Harris' home near Lometa.

Lloyd and Elton Laughlin spent Saturday night and Sunday with Marvin Laughlin.

Bro. Bedford Renfro will deliver us a sermon Saturday night and Sunday, as Bro. Nicholson is in a meeting and can't be with us. Let's all go to church.

Rachel Ford is giving a party Wednesday night in honor of her friend, Jimmie Cross.

with him. But since I have been wondering, and it's barely possible he was correct. But nevertheless, I quoted to him the old slogan that "He who tries and fails is infinitely better than he who does nothing and succeeds."

Woodrow Helms was selling beef in this parts Tuesday. Ye reporter talked him out of a bone and thereby staved off starvation a few more days.

A dance was enjoyed Wednesday night in the Doris McCarty home.

Well, at least this reporter has one person who reads his column. The reporter from Ridge admitted reading and enjoying my reports. Thanks for the compliment. As long as I have one reader I shall continue.

Evidently people here do not go places and do things or I would have more to report. Therefore, I have to fill in the best I can.

From the tree of useless knowledge: A small drinks water once every nine days.

Judge R. A. Luker was in our community Monday, meeting the voters. George W. Rollins was here Sunday meeting the people. We are glad to have them visit us, and believe them both to be honest and capable men.

Black-Draught For Dizziness, Headache Due To Constipation

"I have used Theford's Black-Draught several years and find it splendid," writes Mr. G. W. Holley, of St. Paul, Va. "I take it for dizziness or headache (due to constipation). I have never found anything better. A short while ago, we began giving our children Syrup of Black-Draught as a laxative for colds and little stomach ailments, and have found it very satisfactory." Millions of packages of Theford's Black-Draught are required to satisfy the demand for this popular, old reliable, purely vegetable laxative. 25¢ a package. "Children like the Syrup."

BIG VALLEY

Quite a bit of improvement is going on in the valley now. Mrs. Mitchell has her house repainted and new shingles. J. J. Cockrell is putting a new shingle roof on and Mrs. F. L. Hartman had Bill Hyslop and Orville Hale put a new rubberized roofing on her house this week. It looks like they might think it is going to rain.

Lon Dennard, wife and daughter from Sonora, Sutton county, are visiting his father and other relatives here.

Mrs. J. H. Johnson from Fort Worth is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Carl Woods.

Little Miss Eulena Pearl Cook had the misfortune to swallow a safety pin last Friday. Her parents took her to Temple and had her X-rayed and they found the pin closed. She is feeling no worse over it.

Cecil Cockrell from Comanche has been visiting his uncle, Bob Johnson.

Mrs. Ab Sykes and girls from Winters and Otto Sykes from Ballinger spent a few hours in the Miller home last Friday.

Elton Jarrett from Star is working for Marvin Cook.

J. H. Hale and family spent Sunday with Oran Hale. They have been attending the meeting some.

Mr. Roberts from Star visited in the Cockrell home and attended church Saturday night.

T. B. Oglesby, wife and children are here on a vacation. They are visiting her mother, Mrs. Stephens, who lives on the Oglesby place just across the river from A. N. Oglesby.

There was a family reunion at Mr. and Mrs. Knowles' last Sunday. Several of their relatives, including Mr. and Mrs. Grady Malone and family from California, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Baker and daughter from Denton, Lee-man Knowles and family from Mullin, Mr. and Mrs. Dewpre of May, Connie Knowles and wife, Alva Knowles and wife and family and Mrs. Ernest Wilson and daughter from town were there.

There was a number of invited guests, but didn't get the names.

We are certainly having a good meeting. Have big crowds at night and about 25 of a day. Have had several conversions. Everybody come and I'm sure you will get a blessing out it.

A Liberal Policy

The federal government has certainly exerted every means to help the people during the depression and world wide drouth and the indications are clear that this helpfulness will be continued until prosperity returns to the country. The loans being made for the purchase of feed and seed is one of the most helpful of the policies of our great government. By this plan the farmers can again seed their ground and keep their teams in condition to work. Without these loans the plight of the country would indeed be most miserable. Had the federal government shut up its storehouses against the people in the recent times of need there would have been much suffering, but the needy have been supplied with a liberal hand and every citizen is naturally inspired with a greater spirit of patriotism and national pride because of the help extended the people by our government—the greatest and most liberal on earth.

The fact that government outlay has grown immensely and that the deficit in prospect for the treasury is unprecedented only proves the extent to which the government has gone in extending aid throughout the country. Depression, which increased the need for relief expenditures of one kind and another, intensified the situation. Latest forecasts point to a steady rise in government spending during the current fiscal year. When the last fiscal year came to an end on July 31, the deficit amounted to $4,000,000,000. It is said that government officers anticipate that expenses for the current year will amount to about $10,000,000,000. On the basis of estimated income, that means that we will have a federal deficit of around $6,000,000,000 when this fiscal year comes to a close.

One of the things that has thrown administration figuring out of line is the drouth. A total of $325,000,000 is now available for relief, but many believe that it is not sufficient. It is felt that the government will have to appropriate still more money to help drouth sufferers, and some are of the opinion that at least $800,000,000 will be necessary.

Little Interest Evinced

Very little interest is being evinced in the forthcoming state Democratic convention, to be held in Galveston September 10. While this convention will adopt the platform on which the party will stand in the administration of state affairs the next two years, the average voter has given but little attention to it and many of the delegates selected over the state will not attend. The candidates for the various offices will have already been nominated, which is equivalent to an election, and there the interest has ended. This is a fine illustration of political conditions in the state should the law be changed going away with the primary election and returning to the convention system, whereby a few leaders and expert managers can name the candidates, write the platform and take the entire authority away from the people. The reason for active opposition to the primary election system, as a means of making party nominations, has never been made clear to this newspaper. To be sure there are some objections to the system, the greatest of which is the expense to the candidates. This is covered in some states by the expense of holding the primary being paid by the state, the same as in a general election. There is more expense in holding a primary election than in holding a convention, but the will of the people can undoubtedly be ascertained better by that system.

An Important Duty.

This is the last issue of this paper to be published before the second primary election, which is to be held Saturday, hence this last plea for a full vote is almost necessary. Many people may forget the date for the election and others may think it unimportant or unnecessary to go to the polls and vote, since possibly they have no personal friends on the ticket or no personal interest in the outcome of the election, yet the call of citizenship is an urge to go to the polls and vote. There are several contests to be settled and every citizen is entitled to a share in settling them. Some have said that the private citizen will never realize the benefits or detriments, no matter who is elected to fill the offices, but this is not only a mistake, but is ignoring an important responsibility in making the selections. Many people vote for the purpose of defeating some candidate or some supporter of a candidate, without reference to the candidate's fitness to fill the position. This, of course, is not the proper attitude in the main, but there is a lot of human nature in it, just the same.

Wide Spread Comment

The account of the honesty of two Mills county citizens that was published in this paper some weeks ago, has caused more wide-spread comment than almost any newspaper article ever published in this county. The article in question dealt with the action of two people who paid subscription accounts that could not have been forced had they refused to pay or even remained silent about them. The Eagle was proud of the fine showing made for the county and published the accounts as a matter of county pride rather than personal interest, but the article has been quoted from one end of the country to the other. This week a clipping was received in this office from the Publishers' Auxiliary of Chicago, wherein comment was made on the article. It is a matter of pride for the Eagle that so much appreciation has been shown for the splendid citizenship of Mills county.

Beautifying the Highways

One of the benefits directly traceable to the proposed Centennial celebration is the effort to beautify the highways through out the state. In many localities ladies' clubs and commercial and other organizations have joined in the undertaking and already many improvements can be seen. While not all of the unsightly signboards have been taken down, the old plan of using the roadside as a dumping ground for all manner of refuse from the towns is being abandoned and in some places shrubbery has been planted and flowers will be made to grow. This condition is almost entirely creditable to the Centennial movement and if the state gets no greater benefit from the undertaking the effort will prove a great advancement. Every citizen should be a booster for the centennial.

LIVINGSTONE IN BRONZE

It will be generally accounted that Britain paid the highest honor to David Livingstone by giving his body burial in Westminster Abbey. A black slab in the center of the nave marks the resting place of one who allowed himself so little rest in life. But there are now two other memorials to this famed missionary and explorer. One is the Livingstone museum, into which the ten mill quarters at Blantyre, near Glasgow, where he was born and where he worked as a child, have been converted. There at the age of 10 he began as a "pinner" in the factory, but attending an evening school he prepared himself in Latin, Greek and the sciences for admission to a medical school and for divinity courses in Glasgow university. That is one of Scotland's proudest monuments, telling as it does in its exhibits the story of his life, and illustrating some of the incidents which are remembered in his immortal journal.

There is now another memorial. His figure is to stand in bronze by the side of the Victoria Falls, which he discovered. He had heard from the native stories of a place that "might be supposed to mean 'the seething caldron' out of which came the 'smoke that sounds.'" Yet fact and fiction were so often mingled in their speech that it might be only an imagining of their fear. But on a November day in 1855 on his way down the Zambezi he saw "the strange apparition of five tall columns of vapor, looking like smoke from grass fires," and was soon aware that they were rising from the blightiest seething caldron on earth.

This may be said to be the tribute of the land which he evoked from the unknown. The mists rising from one of the most stupendous waterfalls will be as a symbol of perpetual praise of him who, as has been said, "set a mark upon Africa deeper than any empire builder has ever done," for he not only put this vast realm—a third of a continent—upon the maps of the earth as an explorer and geographer, but was one of the world's greatest missionaries of a gospel which recognizes the moral trusteeship of advanced peoples. In his own life he exemplified what he preached. In Africa he will live even longer than the bronze which remembers him, Bible in hand.—New York Times.

ALL QUIET ON THE YEMEN

The King of the Hejaz has set a wholesome example to the rest of the world. He has made a generous peace. He annexed no territory to which the Yemen had a genuine claim. He imposed no war indemnity on his vanquished enemy. He merely bound his late enemy to be a good neighbor and has likewise bound himself. This doctrine of treating enemies is known in Arabic as "Hilm." It involves the idea that when settlement with an enemy comes, the victor treats him in such a magnanimous way that henceforth the interests of both will be so joined that the fullest co-operation is achieved. To be more specific, both Ibn Saud and Ibn Yahya have undertaken not only to submit disputes to arbitration and to abstain from aiding or abetting any insurrectionary movement in the other's territory, but also to encourage intercommunication and to facilitate commerce.

Ibn Saud began his career as leader of desert Arabs known as the Wahabis, who guard jealously the purest Islamic doctrine. They have been called the Puritans of the Near East. They try to live strictly as Mohammed and his immediate followers did. It has been necessary to admit many modern conveniences such as automobiles and telephones, but they uphold the severe discipline of their faith. The most powerful element of the Yemen, the Zaidis, are not so conservative or straightly orthodox. But great as the religious differences of these two peoples are, they have yielded to the feeling of Arab brotherhood.

The preamble of the treaty pledges the signatories of promotion of the unity of the Moslem Arab nation, raising its prestige, enhancing its dignity and independence. The spirit that is manifest in this relationship might be profitably compared by Christian statesmen, as the Lon-

RIPPLES ON THE ASIAN SURFACE

We need not fear danger of war in the reported anger in Moscow over the alleged mistreatment of its citizens in Manchuria, nor over the dissatisfaction with Japan's monetary offers for the Chinese Eastern railway.

If Japan and Russia clash it will be because their respective factions in Outer Mongolia have come into open conflict for that vast territory, or because Russia has decided that the development of Manchuria has made the control of that country by Japan too great a menace to Siberia and Vladivostok, or because Japan has decided that trouble will come anyway and she had better remove Russia from the Vladivostok area now, if possible.

Nations simply do not fight over the mistreatment of a few individuals. In this case, we can be sure Japan has too much to lose by allowing a senseless clash to bring on war. Nor can we believe that Soviet anger will rise to the point of embroiling two great powers over such an event.

That can come only if the deeper and hidden movements in Asia have brought such a conflict of fundamental interests between the two countries that either or both is willing to resort to war over them. If that should be true, we might see the mistreatment of a score of people provide the spark for the detonation. Not otherwise.—Houston Chronicle.

HEAT INCREASES ACCIDENTS

We haven't heard much about it from the weather statisticians but all the old timer we know say they can not remember when this country ever had such a scorching summer as this one has been. Of course, they remember heat waves, but none of them have been nearly so hot or lasted so long. Many folks can remember heat waves in some localities killing a number of people, but this is the first time in their recollection when we have suffered a nation-wide heat wave of such long duration which killed more than 1000 persons. Undoubtedly this summer will go down in history as the hottest on record. This together with the report that the ice at the north and south poles is melting is added proof that this old world is indeed getting warmer.

And as the thermometer begins to rise so does the accident rate increase. This is the conclusion to be drawn from the accident statistics carefully compiled by the National Safety Council. Many accidents are directly attributed to the American custom of getting away from the city for the week end and vacation. The same urbanite who derides his country cousin as a "rube" goes into the rural area and becomes a "boob." He proceeds to accumulate a dangerous overdose of sunburn, not to mention acute cases of poison ivy; hack himself up with a ax-knife or hatchet; shoot himself or some one else; drink out of the first spring or brook he comes across; dive into shallow pools and many other negligent acts.—Pathfinder.

COTTON AS A FOOD PRODUCT

One thing, and it's a very important one, too, that we believe most people overlook, is that cotton is one of the great food products of the country. Cottonseed oil enters into all our cooking products and a short crop of cotton means less cooking oil. The price of cotton seed has been very low for several years, because there was a surplus of oil as well as lint cotton. The drouth has so curtailed forage crops for animals that there will be an enhanced market for cottonseed meal. We note the price of cotton seed on the Memphis market is quoted at $36.50, which is about double what the crop brought last year. So, the drouth even has its recompense.—Marshall News.

don Times observes, with that of some recent European treaties.

If the peninsula with memories of Araby the Blest, can keep the peace, that will itself be a more precious offering to the world than the procession of the kings of Seba and Sheba ever carried in their gifts of spices, frankincense and gold. May the "Hilm" endure and be extended.—New York Times.

—EDITORIAL COMMENT—

VIEW OF THE NATION'S PRESS ON TOPICS OF INTEREST AND IMPORTANCE

FRANCE'S AFRICAN TROUBLES

The anti-Jewish riots in Algeria, which resulted in twenty-four deaths in the city of Constantine, have deeply troubled France at a time when any kind of colonial trouble is most unwelcome. Moreover, it is a trouble which France takes very seriously.

The North African Moslems are Berbers and Arabs, and inasmuch as the Jews the riots can not be called "anti-Semitic." The trouble originates in the different political status of Jews and Moslems and is intensified by the existing economic wretchedness of the Arab farmers. When times are good the Arabs are content, but when the conditions are bad the Moslem tiller of the soil becomes enraged against the thrifty Jewish townsmen, who are mostly merchants and reasonably prosperous.

The Algerian Jews are distinctly natives. Their ancestors came to North Africa in the days of Roman domination. As a rule, Jews and Arabs have agreed fairly well. French rule has accentuated the racial differences. As the Jews took kindly to the French possession they were collectively made full citizens in 1871. Arabs can become French citizens only by a rather complicated process, and few individuals have desired to avail themselves of the privilege. The distinction, of course, adds to the Arab resentment. The Moslems object to the Jews enjoying privileges which they themselves will make no effort to obtain.

France is, of course, amply able to suppress any uprising in her north African possessions. But nowhere are the sons of Islam more fierce in their devotion and nowhere are there better fighters. A really serious revolt would keep France busy for a long time and would divert her attention from European affairs.

A nationalist Arab movement would affect not only Algeria, but also Tunis, and would spread into Morocco, where the French have done an almost miraculous work of pacification in the last few years. Unless something can be done to alleviate the economic misery of both Arabs and Berbers, the danger is more than fanciful. A murderous outbreak which might seek victims other than Jewish Algerians is the nightmare which disturbs the colonial office at Paris.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

RUSSIAN REALISM

A brief dispatch from Moscow adds to the growing evidence that Russia is slowly but surely taking the steps necessary again to become a nation enjoying free intercourse with the other nations of the world. After many pleas, which she rejected as the lures of the capitalistic spider for the entrapment of the Communist fly, she is now joining the entirely unofficial Institute of Pacific Relations. This in itself may seem a minor step, inasmuch as it entails no governmental pledges, but to those aware of the importance of the institute it is a significant departure for the U. S. S. R.

This institute, which binds no member nations by the opinions it may express, has been in existence since shortly after the war. The United States, Canada, Great Britain, Australia, Japan and China—all have national councils in the institute and send representatives to its biennial sessions of discussion and study. Everything it does is informal and unofficial. But everything in its program is directed toward the forwarding of good relationships between the countries which have a direct interest in the Pacific area.

Several times in the past the institute, whose good work is manifest in its ably edited Pacific Affairs, has invited Russia to establish a national council. But each time Russia has refused, undoubtedly because it has felt in the past that the council is somewhat entangled with the maintenance of capitalistic and imperialistic policies in the East. Whether Russia has now come to realize that this criticism is the bunk or whether it means that the Bolsheviks despair of ending capitalism by the nose-thumbing process is perhaps less important than the fact that Russia is joining the institute. The step adds confirmation to the reports that Russian membership in the League of Nations will not now be long delayed.—Washington Post.

HARDER FOR LICENSE PLATE THIEVES

The method by which Illinois makes it harder for petty and sometimes major criminals who steal motor vehicle license plates is worthy of being copied by other states. Illinois has discontinued the practice of issuing duplicate plates to motorists whose plates have been lost or stolen. Entirely new numbers are assigned and issued at a nominal fee and the lost or stolen plates are in the position of being outlawed and of no standing as authority for operation of a motor vehicle.

The Illinois plan quite evidently was given test before it became a stated policy. And it is said that many thieves have been captured as a result. Certainly no honest owner of lost or stolen plates has been picked up as a suspect after he had acquired duplicate plates in regular order under the old regulations. For the owner is operating his car under authority of spick-and-span new plates of brand-new number whose ownership can not be in question.

The value of the method is more in support of law than in avoidance of embarrassment to unfortunate motorists who have lost their plates or had them stolen. Police who are notified that certain plates are missing know now that they are being used unlawfully and need indulge in no cautious questioning in fear that the plates represent a reissue of an old number. Secretary of state says, under the old plan, that "nine times out of ten the rightful owner of a plate, who had obtained duplicates, was the one picked up instead of the thief." That, of course, contributed to "timidity of pursuit and served to encourage an unholy practice engaged in by the underworld to confuse their trails.

As the matter stands now in Illinois, the user of any license plate reported lost or stolen is fair game for the agencies of law. When a motorist loses one plate or has it stolen, he forwards $1 and the remaining plate and receives a new set and a new number. If both are missing the fee is $2. But the old number is outlawed and of no proper use.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

STORM WARNING

Better Business bureau's warning that the staging of the Texas Centennial in 1936 will bring in advance of it a host of petty fraud schemes designed to separate the unwary from their dollars, is timely. Indeed the average man and woman would do well to consider it a permanent storm warning and to investigate every scheme proposed to them of any kind which involves their prepayment in return for future benefits, whether in the forms of jobs or dividends. No legitimate enterprise objects to investigation. Illegitimate rackets can not stand scrutiny.

With an annual fraud loss running into many millions, it is worth noting that this total concerns only business on which records are kept and court statistics. There is an annual addition to it that escapes tabulation but which, involving only a few dollars to the exploited individual, has an estimated high total. The racket operator is notoriously agile-witted and keeps his mind working on new ways to get money away from the confiding. There are not scores but hundreds of schemes with which he approaches the housewife, the stenographer, the workman or even the unemployed who may have a few desperately needed dollars which the racketeer is not above taking away, if he can.

It is an unfortunate attribute of humanity that it takes its fellow man at his own value. Fraud does not fatten on suspicion but humanity is lulled into security by the smooth talker whose aim is to cash a bad check, sell fake stock or palm off the particular gold brick of his trade on the gullible. It is a safe rule to investigate always. It can cost nothing but time and the saving is worth more than eloquently pictured mines in Golconda or sure paths to riches through the pilotage of the racketeer.—Dallas News.

SELLING THE CENTENNIAL

In this highly competitive world the manifold uses of advertising and smart publicity become the most powerful weapons of progress. The Century of Progress exposition, despite its grandeur, would never have paid for its initial building costs without the extensive national and even international advertising which brought the people of the world to its doors; and if it is less patronized this year than last, although it is larger and offers more attractions, it is undoubtedly because less money is being spent in advertising. Take Sally Rand's word for that. Sally, who has become something of an after-dinner speaker as well as a bubble dancer, told an ad club in Chicago this week that she keeps a graph of daily attendance at both the fair and the Italian Village where she dances and has found that attendance increases on days when advertising appears in the papers. And she added, without incidental humor, that she had one thing in common with advertising men—both knew the value of "white space."

Perhaps this parenthetical reference to Sally's business acumen is an undignified example of the fruits of publicity, but the fact remains that the Texas Centennial will have to be "sold" to the country in the same manner that the World's Fair has been. And this salesmanship will require the use of every known method of publicity. A Texas exhibit at the fair this year, emphasizing the magnitude of the coming Centennial, would have been a splendid advertisement of the state; not only would it have reached thousands of people; but its message would have been directed at this mobile, pleasure-seeking element of the population which is most susceptible to this form of advertising. This great opportunity, however, has been allowed to slip away; and, as I say, no good can come from lamenting our backwardness now—except to offer the important reminder that opportunities like this must not be neglected henceforth. The Texas Centennial, insofar as its character as an international exposition is concerned, will be successful only to the degree that it is publicized, and no more. The people must be alert to every opportunity, no matter how small, and must not be afraid to spend money. The Texas Centennial is not a gamble. It is a sound business proposition which simply requires capital and the exercise of vision and enterprise.—Texas Weekly.

OVERPLANTING

With rains falling once more the United States department of agriculture is looking toward next year. Says Henry A. Wallace, secretary of agriculture: "This year we are off the hot spot in agriculture because of the drouth, but we can easily be on it next year if we over-produce again."

"And if we do we'll go to smash again." The administration's "regimentation" plan, of course, has been under criticism almost as hot as the sun.

"The thing for you to do, whether you are an Old Dealer or a New Dealer, is to get tariffs slashed in half. Those of you who are real Old Dealers and don't want any government interference with private business should take that course."

"If you do not like regimentation, get the tariffs slashed to the bottom. That might restore the buying power."—Temple Telegram.

ITEMS FROM LOCAL PAPERS OF TOWNS MENTIONED

Comanche

Mrs. S. A. Townsend of the Antioch community celebrated her eighty-fifth birthday on Sunday, August 5.

The first bale of 1934 cotton was brought to Comanche Monday morning, August 13, by O. E. Gregg of Energy.

Sam Todd of Comanche has been made manager of the Higginbotham store at Gustine.

Eldon Feril, an aspirant to the county superintendency in the recent primary election, has been elected to head the Beattie school.

O. B. Rose, superintendent of the Gustine school and director of vocational agriculture for the past six years, has resigned his position in the schools and has accepted a position as director of vocational agriculture in the Graham high school.

One of the better farm residences of the county was lost Monday, when the Dan Long home, eight miles east of Comanche, was destroyed by fire. The building and contents with the exception of a small amount of clothing, were a complete loss. The loss was partially covered by insurance. The blaze started about eleven o'clock Monday morning from a spark falling on the roof from the stove pipe of a wood cook stove.

The five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Pruett of Sidney was brought to Comanche Monday for treatment of wounds received, when an attack was made by a dog early that morning. The child, according to Dr. J. O. Lane, attending physician, was painfully bitten about the face and three stitches were required to close the wound. The dog was killed and its head sent to Austin to determine whether or not it was affected by rabies. According to Mr. Pruett, soon after his son awoke Monday morning he went into the yard to play and when he opened the door of an outbuilding, the dog sprang upon him and bit him on the cheek. The animal belonged to Cecil Haynes, a neighbor, and was said to have been, ordinarily, friendly with children.—Chief.

Lampasas

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hart and two children of Llano spent the week end here in the home of Mrs. Hart's father, D. Culver, Jr. They were accompanied here by Mary Hart, who has been here for the past week.

Chas. A. Stapp, who was injured several days ago, when his horse fell with him, is reported to be resting very well at a Temple hospital, but there is practically no change in his condition. An examination shows that his back was broken by the fall.

The fire department was called Wednesday afternoon to the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Lindberg, where a chicken house caught fire. The building was destroyed, but no other damage was done. A burning trash pile nearby caused the building to catch fire.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. White of this city had the pleasure of having all of their children here with them Sunday. The family went to the Lampasas state park, where they spread their dinner and they enjoyed the day together. This is the first time all of the children had been home together since 1924 and they had such a good time that they are planning to have such a meeting each year in the future.

Lloyd Jones suffered a sun stroke Wednesday afternoon and was brought here to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Waggoner, where he passed away Thursday morning at 9 o'clock. He was at work out on the Center City road on a place owned by J. R. Brandon and had been plowing in the forenoon. In the afternoon he and a companion started in a wagon for a load of corn and when he reached the place he was very ill and was brought to town for medical attention.—Leader.

San Saba

Mrs. W. G. Lindsey returned Tuesday from a week's visit with relatives in Goldthwaite.

According to a telephone call from W. J. Millican, the West Texas Pecan Growers association will hold the annual convention in Brownwood on Tuesday, Aug. 28.

Final acceptance was given to the first five miles of highway 81, south of town Tuesday afternoon by both state and federal engineers. This work has been going on eight months, beginning last December 11.

The Baptist meeting at Weilsview, in which Sam D. Taylor is doing the preaching, continues with good results. Up to Tuesday night there had been 17 additions to the church, fifteen of whom came for baptism. Jim West is leading the singing and his wife plays the piano.

F. M. (Frank) McDaniel, wife, their small daughter and their son, Herbert, and wife of Glendale, Ariz., have been visiting the old home, families and their friends the past two weeks. Primarily they were visiting the Mrs. Taylor, of Richland Springs. They left here for the bounding west some 17 years ago and none of them had been back.—News.

Brownwood

Since the July 28 election Judge Davis has been in the annual National Guard camp at Palacios, where he is captain of Company A, a Brownwood company.

Rev. A. E. Prince, former pastor of the First Baptist church of Brownwood, has accepted the pastorate of the First Baptist church at Pineville, La., and will assume his new duties September 1.

Repairs on the damaged flood gate at Lake Brownwood dam will be begun within the next two or three weeks. R. A. Thompson, engineer in charge of this work, stated early this week.

O. L. Davis, who last year served as district deputy state superintendent of a district of ten counties with headquarters in Brownwood, has accepted the superintendency of the San Benito school system, and will assume his duties there on August 20.

Most candidates for county and precinct offices in the July 28 Democratic primary have filed final reports showing money expended by them. Several of the candidates, however, have failed to make these reports, despite the fact that August 7 was the last day for filing them.

Dr. C. W. Gray, who for the past year has been a practicing physician in Brownwood, left Wednesday of this week for Fort Bliss for assignment in the U. S. Army Medical department. Dr. Gray has been named a contract physician for the army but probably will be stationed in a government CCC camp in New Mexico or Colorado.—Banner.

Lometa

Mrs. Pete Jackson of Houston is here visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Windell and son, Charles Day, are spending the week in Glenrose.

R. H. Smith of Eden purchased Spencer Fine's home north of town this week, also his crops and feed.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Gardner and son of Ontario, Calif., are here for a visit with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Reeves and daughter, Nina Joe, of San Bernardino, Calif., have been visiting in the Mont Swain and Bill Page homes.

Lometa received its first bale of 1934 cotton last Saturday. It was brought in by Carl Whitehead and weighed 418 pounds. The bale was not sold, as they have not yet received their tags.

Several herd of cattle belonging to local men were checked this week and the condemned cattle killed and those accepted were painted branded and turned back into pasture.

A double funeral service was held Monday afternoon at the Gobson cemetery at Bend for Dr. Ed Doss and his wife. Dr. Doss died about five years ago at Ralls and his body was brought here Monday morning by the Briggs-Gamble funeral car. Mrs. Doss passed away Friday evening of last week and both bodies were buried in the Gibson cemetery.

The service was conducted by Bro. W. D. Nickols of Ranger, who had known the couple for many years.—Reporter.

Hamilton

C. E. Nelson went to Goldthwaite Saturday on business.

Osteen Patterson left Sunday for Dallas, where he will take a course in window trimming.

The home economics department of Hamilton high school will be under the supervision of Miss Florence Barrett of Lubbock.

The Pugh-Pace Doyle No. 1, being drilled near Ireland, continues to make oil showings. At present the depth of the hole is around 1100 feet.

Friends of Capt. Ed. Swartz, Spanish American War veteran, of Waco, honored him last Thursday evening with a barbecue given in the pasture of Lon McKinley on the Cowhouse. Barbecued mutton was served.

Fire completely destroyed the home of Mrs. Ida Stinson Wednesday afternoon about six o'clock. The oil stove had been lighted in preparation for the evening meal, and Miss Vergie left the room for a few minutes and upon her return to the kitchen the room was filled with smoke and the paper on the wall was on fire. Miss Stinson rushed to the phone to turn in the alarm, but was driven out of the house by the smoke before she completed the call. Neighbors heard the screams of Mrs. Stinson and daughter and reported the fire. The flames had gained such headway before the fire department arrived that the house and furnishings were a complete loss.

Dr. J. E. Butler operated on a horse belonging to Rhet Eldson last week and removed from his shoulder a piece of iron as large around as the little finger and about two inches long. The horse was hit two years ago by a truck and a piece of the door handle broke off in the shoulder. The wound apparently healed, but every time they attempted to work the animal he would run away. Recently the shoulder began to swell and Dr. Butler was called in. The piece of iron had worked down about eight inches below where it penetrated the shoulder at the time of the accident.—News.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 13

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 3 of Article VIII of the Constitution of the State of Texas be so amended as to hereinafter read as follows:

Section 3. Taxes shall be levied and collected by general laws and for public purposes only, and the total amount of revenue which the state shall be authorized to collect during such biennium from taxes, licenses, permits and fees, (except fees paid by students to state educational institutions, and except rentals, bonuses and royalties obtained from public lands and other public property) shall not exceed a sum reasonably estimated to equal the product obtained by multiplying the number of the inhabitants of this state by the sum of Twenty-two and 50/100 ($22.50) Dollars; provided, however, the total amount of such revenue which may be so collected, shall be reduced by the amount of any surplus funds or unexpended appropriations remaining at the close of the preceding biennium.

The expenditures of the state government of funds derived from the sources above referred to shall never exceed during any biennium, a sum equal to the product obtained by multiplying the number of inhabitants of this state by the sum of Twenty-two and 50/100 ($22.50) Dollars, provided, however, that the population of the state (in determining the amount of revenue which may be collected from taxes, licenses, permits and fee or expended from the revenue thus obtained) shall be determined by the then last preceding Federal census, to which population shall be added or deducted, as the case may be, for each year that has lapsed since the last preceding Federal census, the average yearly increase or decrease of the population as shown by said Federal census when compared with the Federal census which immediately preceded said last Federal census. Provided, further, that in case of war, riots, or insurrection, or a state wide calamity caused by earthquake, fire, flood or an epidemic, which seriously threatens the health of the citizens of this state, the legislature shall have authority, by a two-thirds vote of both Houses, to suspend for a definite period this constitutional limitation as to the amount of money which may be collected and expended during the biennium.

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the electors of this state qualified to vote on constitutional amendments at an election to be held throughout the state on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1934, at which election each ballot shall have

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 5, of Article XI, of the Constitution of Texas, be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 5. Cities having more than five thousand (5000) inhabitants may, by a majority vote of the qualified voters of said city, at an election held for that purpose, adopt or amend their charters, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by the Legislature, and providing that no charter or any ordinance passed under said charter shall contain any provision inconsistent with the Constitution of the State, or of the general laws enacted by the Legislature of this state; said cities may levy assess and collect such taxes as may be authorized by law or by their charters; but no tax for any purpose shall ever be lawful for any one year, which shall exceed two and one-half per cent (2½%) of the taxable property of such city, and no debt shall ever be created by any city, unless at the time provision be made to assess and collect annually a sufficient sum to pay the interest thereon and creating a sinking fund for at least two per cent (2%) thereon; provided further, that no city charter shall be altered, amended or repealed oftener than every twelve (12) months."

Sec. 2 The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state at the next general election, to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1934; at which election all voters favoring such proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words, "For the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas, permitting any Home Rule City to alter, amend or repeal its charter every twelve (12) months;" and those opposed shall write or have printed on their ballots the words, "Against the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas permitting any Home Rule City to alter, amend or repeal its charter every twelve (12) months."

YOU USE LESS OIL

WHEN you drive with New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil, you not only give your motor greater protection against wear—you also use less oil.

That was definitely proved in the famous Destruction Test at Indianapolis Speedway. In this test against five other nationally famous oils, in identical cars, five quarts of New and Improved

Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil carried its car 4,729 miles—3,015.8 miles farther than the first oil to fail and 1,410.2 miles farther than the best of the five oils. Convincing proof of lower oil consumption and greater motor protection!

THE GOLDTHWAITE EAGLE

Dr. Em Wilson is here from Corpus Christi, visiting in the home of his daughter, Mrs. R. L. Armstrong, and meeting with his many friends.

L. H. Alldredge and wife of Crosby county were here this week visiting relatives. In another column they are noted as "G. W. Alldredge and wife," which is a mistake in initials.

An eight pound boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Soules who live on the Moline road, August 18.

R. Charley Miller, Moline road, was taken to a Brownwood hospital Sunday, suffering with acute appendicitis.

J. E. Greathouse, who was in a serious condition last week, is much improved and has been able to be about town this week, to the delight of his friends.

Blake Hudson came home from the Temple sanitarium Sunday night and is doing nicely. His friends are glad to have him with them again.

Mrs. W. T. Keese and daughter, Miss Lois, Miss Evelyn Gartman and Mrs. Bedford McBride of Fort Worth accompanied Mrs. E. F. Keese home to Long Beach, Cal. They made the trip in an automobile, arriving in Long Beach Monday, after a very pleasant trip.

EBONY

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert McMullen and their children, Evelyn and Jake, and a friend, Marguerite Calhoun, all of San Angelo, are visiting Mrs. McMullen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Singleton.

Mrs. Arthur Tippen is in a Brownwood hospital very seriously ill with blood poisoning, caused by a small sore on her heel rubbed by her shoe. The place was so insignificant that it became very seriously infected before anyone realized the danger of it. For several days her life has been despaired of, but the last report says there is a decided turn for the better and she seems to be on the road to recovery.

Wayne Roberts had his tonsils removed at a Brownwood hospital last week. Wayne is in a very run down condition and at first did not do well at all, so remained in Brownwood for several days. He was able to be brought home Sunday and is now getting along fine. Wayne is one of our best boys and we hope he will soon be enjoying his normal health again.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Roberts and Charm Whittenburg visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Reid Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ceell Egger and their charming little daughter, Ynell, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Dwyer Sunday.

Fire broke out in Dr. Duffer's pasture Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Thelbert Jones took the alarm to Ebony, whereupon P. R. Reid put some barrels of water in his truck, gathered up all the men and boys and grass sacks available and hastened to the scene of the fire. In a short while they had it out. However, 200 acres of good grass burned. The fire is supposed to have started from a cigarette.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Singleton gave a dinner Sunday celebrating the eighteenth wedding anniversary of their daughter, Mrs. C. H. Griffin. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Griffin and Odell, Gladys and Charles Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert McMullen and children, Evelyn and Jake, Miss Marguerite Calhoun, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Singleton, Mrs. Irene Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Hanna and little daughter, Erva June.

Misses Grace and Faith Norton of Brownwood spent last week with Miss Evelyn Reeves.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Egger and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Williams and children, David and Kenneth, ate dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Egger Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Willis have gone to work on the Cutbert ranch at Jordan Springs.

Delbert Duffer of Brownwood is visiting the Thelbert Jones family.

Friday night most of the community took their supper and went down on the gravel bar near the Dwyer place. After swimming and supper the young folks played games on the bar, while the older people sat in groups and talked. Seventy-six were present. It was a most delightful outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Egger and little daughter, Patsy Irene, of Brownwood came out to visit Mrs. Egger's brother, Hubert McMullen, and family at the Singleton home Sunday afternoon.

Misses Bernice and Lucille Wilmet and Grace Briley ate dinner with Misses Vivian and Earlene Day Sunday after church.

Remember, the meeting begins tonight. Everybody come.

LIVE OAK

Singing at Bethel was well attended Friday night. Everyone enjoyed the fine singing.

There was a large crowd at B. Y. P. U. Sunday night. Let's everyone be present next Sunday, for we are having an interesting program.

Several from our community attended the ex-students and ex-teachers association at Mount Olive Sunday.

Tommie Weathers and family spent Sunday with his father, J. W. Weathers, at Goldthwaite. Averay Manuel and family spent Sunday in the R. A. Stephens home.

Mrs. Frank Denman and children spent Sunday in the Geo. Denman home.

Lucky Tiger Antiseptic Ointment kills Athlete's Foot, Ring worm, Itch, etc. Contains new sensational ingredient. At all Drug Stores.

Vote for Judge John H. Sharp of Ellis County

JOHN H. SHARP

For Associate Justice of the Supreme Court to succeed Judge Greenwood who is not a candidate, he is now a member of the Supreme Court Commission and has filled this position with honor and distinction. He is well qualified for the position.

MARY BOWLES

NOTICE TO FRIENDS

As my expenses have been quite heavy the last few months I would appreciate a special effort on your part to pay your account or a part of it.

You will find me at my home or if it is more convenient for you, just leave the money at Hudson Bros. Drug Store.

Respectfully,
J. E. BROOKING, M. D.

Three Goldthwaite girls, Misses Evelyn Gartman, Geraldine Hester and Lucille Bledsoe, have been placed on the list of those paying assurance fees at Texas State College for Women (CIA) since August 13. This fee indicates their intention of entering the college for the fall session of 1934-35.

Elder Clem W. Hoover, who is engaged in a meeting at Evant, is scheduled to begin a meeting in San Saba the first Sunday in September.

Hicks Bledsoe had an accident roping a calf August 17. His thumb was almost torn off. He is in a Fort Worth hospital and last reports says he is very uncomfortable.

Miss Lois Sullivan has received a commencement card from her nephew, William Ledbetter, who will take his degree from S. M. U. this evening. The exercises will be held in McFarlin auditorium in Dallas. William was a former student of the Goldthwaite schools and has many friends here who wish for him great success in life.

Charlie Smith and his daughters, Mrs. Joe W. Smith of Houston, Mrs. Archie Doyle and her daughter of Lockhart, were visiting in the home of their cousin, Dan Yates, Monday and Tuesday. Monday night Mr. Smith and daughters spent the night in the home of his brother, Monroe Smith of Mullin, who he had not seen for 34 years.

Clay Pulls had quite a serious insect bite Saturday. Thinking that it was a red bug bite he did not obtain medical aid until severe symptoms arose a couple of hours later. He is working on the M. C. Morris farm.
