CITIZENS OF COMANCHE AND MILLS COUNTIES

When I asked you to elect me as a member of the Texas legislature, I told you that "Common sense is a pretty good substitute for statesmanship."

Some of the vital features of the law are being attacked. Even so, collecting much better, and if the sustain the law, the cost of this tax will be effective.

I have continually opposed further drains on a depleted treasury. Too few legislators seem to realize that spending more than we get leads to disaster.

The enthusiasm of youth leads nations into new paths toward greater achievement, but sometimes caution born only of experience is necessary to keep us off the rocks.

I supported all measures which enable our people to make use of federal agencies to refinance their debts.

MAN THE WEAKER SEX

Some statistics presented by Dr. Allen of the Mayo clinic of Rochester, Minn., makes a good showing for his contention that man, instead of woman, is the weaker. His conclusions show:

The female of the species—despite tradition and Biblical quotation—is stronger than the male, he said. At least, she lives longer and is less often the victim of serious disease.

He cited these findings from 300,000 cases to prove his point in an article in the magazine Hygeia, published by the American Medical association.

More male babies are born dead than female.

Of those that live, more males are deformed than female.

More male children die in infancy than females.

At ten years of age, a boy's life expectancy is four years shorter than a girl's.

Men are more afflicted than are women with ulcers of the stomach, cancer, hardening of the liver, pneumonia, asthma, hardening of the arteries, gout, kidney and urinary troubles, disease of the spinal cord and brain.

There are more widows than widowers.

Women begin to predominate over men at 55 years.

They definitely outnumber males at 75 years.

Twice as many women live to be 100 years old.

The explanation that "men work harder, smoke more, drink more alcohol and live more irregularly as regards food and rest" is not the reason for female "superiority," Dr. Allen asserted.

"The price of maleness is weakness... There can hardly be any other explanation than that the male is handicapped by a lessened degree of vitality that is directly or indirectly the result of a peculiar complex of hereditary factors."

How Calotabs Help Nature To Throw Off a Bad Cold

Millions have found in Calotabs a most valuable aid in the treatment of colds. They take one or two tablets the first night and repeat the third or fifth night if needed.

Second, Calotabs are diuretic to the kidneys, promoting the elimination of cold poisons from the system. Thus Calotabs serve the double purpose of a purgative and diuretic, both of which are needed in the treatment of colds.

A REASONABLE CHARGE

The Eagle, like all other newspapers, makes a reasonable charge for the publication of cards of thanks, obituaries, lodge resolutions and similar articles. This is not a new rule, but has been in effect all of the years of the Eagle's publication. The charge for these articles must be assured or guaranteed by the writers or some other responsible party.

How Calotabs help Nature throw off a cold? First, Calotabs are one of the most thorough and dependable of all intestinal eliminants thus cleansing the intestinal tract of the germ-laden mucus and toxins.

Calotabs are quite economical; only twenty-five cents for the family package, ten cents for the trial package. (Adv.)

STOLZENBACH IS HONORED

Mrs. Norma Frizzell Stolzenbach was honor guest at a Christmas tea given during the holidays by the Sorosis club and Drama Study group of Canton, Minn. Autographed photographs of the honoree mounted on red ribbons embossed in gold bore the following tribute: "Thus be it said to Norma, whom the Drama group delighted to honor: "Our faith in you, our pride in you and the hope we have for our future, find expression in the unanimous opinion of your associates. You have brought more glory to Sorosis and the Drama Study group than any other single individual. You are admired as director, actress, friend and student. We respect the humility with which you approach your art and feel that truly you are a gentlewoman combining all the virtues which all the graces."

Mrs. Stolzenbach recently read for Sorosis Ibsen's "Brand." This was presented in the Trinity Reformed church with 800 guests in attendance. The performance required two hours, and was given entirely from memory. Mrs. Stolzenbach spent last summer in New York making an intensive study of Ibsen and particularly this play. She plans to continue dramatic study next summer.

Mr. J. M. Stacy of South Bennett was an appreciated caller at the Eagle office last Saturday. L. F. Arnold was one of the good men of Moline who had business in the big town Saturday.

Mrs. Hoyt Williams of Mullen, was one of the Eagle's lady friends who called at the office last week end. Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McCullough and two daughters spent last Wednesday in Goldthwaite with their parents.—Hico News-Review.

Mr. C. L. (Billie) Stephens has been confined to his room part of the week on account of illness. During his absence Mr. Henry drove while various members of the high school faculty took care of his classes.

TENNIS NEWS

On Thursday, December 12, the Freshman Tennis Team, Eugene Dyas and Billy Saylor, played the Sophomore Tennis Team, Ray York and Jimmy Fox. The Sophomore team won the match in a set of 6 to 2.

On the first Thursday after the Christmas holidays, at the physical education period, the sophomore team will play the junior team which consists of Jack Hall and Shults Faulkner.

Visitors are always welcome to watch these tournaments and the daily practice games.

EX-EDITOR GIVES G. H. S. THE "ONCE OVER"

I have been asked by the editor of the High School Herald to give my opinion on the changes that have developed the school.

It is quite interesting to note the great difference in the high school this year and the high school of previous years. There is a decided difference in the attitude of the entire student body than I have ever seen before. Very few students loaf time away now as they have done before. The study and class hours have been re-arranged so that the students may be able to acquire the utmost benefit of their studies.

It is also very impressive to note the vast number of new students in G. H. S. this year. The new enrollment is well worth being proud of.

The Goldthwaite public schools have long remained in obscurity with surrounding schools of the same size. Superintendent Smith has done much toward building it up in enrollment. Back your school and watch it grow.

The English class has been making individual projects in connection with their study of a "Tale of Two Cities." The object of their study is to obtain a background for the story, which is a novel of the French revolution. The projects include miniature scenes from the story, sketches of characters, and settings, small, bloody guillotines, and stage coaches.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

Reports have been made that Nolan Hutchison, who has been ill for several months, is in very serious condition. The entire sophomore class regrets very much to know this.

After an absence from classes of three weeks, during which time she submitted to appendicitis operation, Mrs. Delton Barnett is again in school. Her classes as well as the entire student body is indeed glad to have her back in her accustomed place.

NORTH BENNETT

(Too late for last week) I haven't been getting any of the news in for some time, so thought I had better begin the New Year by sending in a few of the latest happenings.

I hope everybody had a big Christmas. I just wonder if old Santa was real good to all those boys and girls that wrote him such nice letters. I hope so, anyway.

BASKET BALL

Last Friday afternoon the Mt. Olive girls went to Big Valley to play basket ball. The scores were sixteen and eight in Big Valley's favor. Although we were defeated we want to play them again.

Thursday the junior boys went to Priddy and were defeated 16 to 4. It was the first match game for all of the boys except one. We plan to do better as we get practice and experience.

The night court at Caradan has been completed and put into service, although some improvements are being planned. We have two night games lined up for the near future.

Tuesday, December 31.—The second, third and fourth grade English classes organized a better English club, which we call The Tell A Tale And Listen; Awhlie Club. The following officers were elected: Max Langley, president; Jack Hightower, vice president; Wilhelmina Wilcox, secretary; Glendon Benningfield, program committee. Our club is to meet every Friday afternoon at 2:45. Besides improving our grammar, we hope to learn how to tell stories interestingly, learn some poems and memory games, and learn some things about the lives of some of the people who wrote stories and poems that we like.

For our first meeting, January 3, we went on a picnic in the woods. After we had popped a dishpan full of popcorn, we all sat around the bonfire and ate corn and told riddles and stories.

We are very sorry to have lost our pupils, Euna V. and Robert Lewis Harris, but we hope they will like their new home and school.

We are very happy to have our new pupils, Mildred and Bobbie Chapman, who are very capable.

That Good
PINEAPPLE JUICE

YOU don't have to give an alibi for a good drink. You have every reason in the world to want it.

Irvin S. Cobb tells the story of a distiller down South who sent a baby-sized barrel of Bourbon to a friend of his, back in the hills. About ten days later, the man returned with the empty container and an expectant look. "Look here, Shep," the distiller said, "aren't you crowding the mourners just a little? It hasn't been more than a few days since I gave you eight whole gallons!" "That's right," Shep agreed, "but Kernel Goodman, sub, you got to remember a keg of likker don't last very long in a family that can't afford to keep a cow."

To Your Health!

However, the good drink we have in mind is not "likker." It's health-giving, sun-ripened pineapple juice which comes in cans and which even the family that doesn't keep a cow can afford. There is no need to mix this juice with other juices or seasoning. Serve it cold, just as it comes from the can, and the flavor is entirely satisfying.

Perhaps, however, you would like to vary it for a lunch or a dinner cocktail. Don't let anything stop you, for it is a delicious addition to other fruits and milk shakes. Even Cobb, who is an authority on Kentucky mint juleps, would no doubt approve the recipe which follows for Pineapple Mint Julep.

water and four tablespoons sugar until the jelly is all melted. Cool. Add two cups of pineapple syrup and the juice of four lemons. Serve very cold with a sprinkling of ice, use ginger ale flavored with the mint syrup from green cherries and then frozen in cubes. This makes six long drinks.

Pineapple Egg-Nog: Put two eggs, two tablespoons sugar and the contents of two 12-ounce cans of pineapple juice into a cocktail shaker or jar, add cracked ice and shake until well mixed and frothy. Serve with a sprinkling of nutmeg on top. This makes four and one-half cups of egg-nog.

Pineapple Milk Shake: Shake together in a glass jar or shaker one-half cup of canned chocolate syrup, one cup of fresh cream and one cup of syrup from canned pineapple. Add one cup water and cracked ice. This fills four large glasses.

Cranberry Cordial: Make a syrup of one cup sugar and two cups water. Add two cups tea, one cup lemon juice, the contents of one No. 2 can of cranberry jelly, one No. 2 can of unsweetened pineapple juice, and six cups of cider. Serve very cold. This makes four quarts.

Pink Lady: Boil one-fourth cup sugar with one-half cup water for about three minutes. Cool. Add one-half cup of raspberry syrup, two tablespoons lemon juice, the contents of one No. 2 can of Hawaiian pineapple juice and one pint bottle of charged water. Serve over cubes of frozen tea. This fills ten punch glasses.

SCHOOL LUNCHES That Ring The Bell

THEY don't creep like snails "unwillingly to school" any more. Watch them. It's a sunny day in September. There's a campus and an athletic field around even the most humble school house. There's a basket ball game to be played before school; there's an orchestra rehearsal scheduled before the nine o'clock bell rings; or there's a marble game tournament to be decided, or something else nice that's very, very important.

Modern educators have seen to that. And they've done a good job of it. They've made school not merely a preparation for life, but a life right now—living in a big, big way.

Give Mother a Hand Mothers, too, have done their part. They have organized Parent-Teacher's associations to co-operate. And they've studied the problem of dietetics, so that the foods which this important generation eats will best equip them for these interesting and healthful activities.

Lunch boxes are no longer carriers of something to merely "hold you over" until the evening dinner hour. They are exciting little adventures in themselves containing good things that you devour. It is easier today than it used to be, to prepare these lunches. There are canned fruit juices and thermos bottles to keep them cold; there are canned sandwich spreads and sliced bread to spread them on. There are even such new foods in cans as Brown Betty, or baked apples. There are wafers or paper spoons to eat these delicious dainties with, so that even

- boys who don't like to carry spoons back home again can enjoy eating desserts and toss away the spoons.
- Hot or Cold? If you live near enough the school, or the school bus, a hot home lunch is better, as a regular thing. But if not, it isn't difficult to prepare a carry-lunch that will rival the home-served noonday meal. Here are some menu suggestions for both sorts:
- MENUS FOR HOT HOME LUNCHES
- I Puffy Omelet with Tomato Sauce Creamed Corn Raisin Bread Cocoa Malted Drink Home Made Cookies Fruit
 - II Clear Soup (with "letters") Corned Beef Hash Fruit Salad Milk
