CROSS ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP CALL

Annual membership in the Red Cross is what keeps it active. The Junior Red Cross is a program of service for the young people of the organization ready to step into the shoes of the men and women of the country. This year the Red Cross in the east has been busy in the relief of the victims of the floods in the east. In the space of possibly 4 weeks, thousands of families have been put back on their feet. The Red Cross is a national organization that believes that a million new members should be added to the 4 million members who are now helping in their own neighborhoods. The organization is backed by more than 5 million members in every state. FARM NOTES

By W. P. Weaver, County Agent.

Corn and maize covered by the recent flood waters can be saved by means of trench silos. Even when sprouted it can be put into a silo and makes good feed. Corn after being shucked and dried is still a damaged product. Maize heads might be cleaned and made into silage. Wet bundle feed will make good silage if put in before it moulds.

Full feed should be put into the silo. Put a ton of feed into the silo and you take out a ton of silage. A ton put in the barn loses much of its feeding value by drying out. Why waste good feed?

R. F. Daniel, Lake Merritt, finished terracing his entire farm 12 years ago. He says the ditches have filled in and the moisture conserved by his terraces have increased his yields every year. It is noticeable that Mr. Daniel's terraced fields show better yields than neighboring unterraced land. "Had not my fields been terraced," says Mr. Daniel, "they would have been ruined by ditches and erosion."

Ranchmen will be interested in the meeting at San Saba October 6, when V. L. Cory, grazing research specialist, will speak on "Methods of Improving West Texas Range and Pastures." Mills county ranchmen are invited to this meeting. A good attendance should be had, as pasture lands will likely be included in next year's soil erosion program.

Baptist Reminder

One of the most interesting features of our services Sunday was the attendance in the B. Y. P. U. Sunday night. There were 25 young people present.

Our prayer meeting was well attended Wednesday evening with 36 present. There were 12 men present.

Sunday we begin the last quarter in 1936. It would be a fine thing to present the next 13 Sundays in church services. When you fail to attend church services you are the loser. Come and be with us.

FRANKLIN E. SWANNER.

B. T. U. Invitation

Back in the days of our forefathers conditions were different in the land of America. I am reminded in this connection of a lucid description I once heard of a typical village existing at a period long before this nation of ours was dragged into the moulding pot for proper shaping by those fighting patriots and statesmen who began to propel the wheel of political construction after the birth of the nineteenth century. The secret of their success lay in one simple and pure obsession: Faith in a higher power.

From the church-yard on the hill one would have seen a broad valley between two low mountain ranges and in the valley a quiet and peaceful village with narrow, winding streets lined with houses tall in structure with many pointed gables, deep verandas and high windows, each enclosed, as a whole, by yard fences; and outside the walks along the streets tall indigenous shade trees standing concrete in their magnificence.

MARIPOSA CLUB

Mrs. Paul McCullough was hostess to the Mariposa club Saturday, September 26. Mrs. Walters Hester received high score. Mrs. Cloninger received a prize for a novelty stunt after the games.

Refreshments were served to the following members: Mmes. W. G. Saylor, E. B. Gilliam, Jr., G. W. Scott, Rufus McKinney, J. R. Little, R. L. Steen, Jr., Walters Hester, S. Cloninger and the hostess.

Colorado River On Second Rise

Hardly had the flood waters of last week begun to subside and the unfortunate ones whose homes had been submerged in the whirlwind torrent, had begun to attempt restoration of what was left of their belongings when the second alarm was given and high ground had to be sought again.

While the flood did not quite reach the high levels of last week yet it was only a few feet lower.

There was not the great damage done this time as before however, as all who had been affected before had moved everything which could be rescued to higher ground in time to avoid the second flood.

All communication between here and San Saba was cut off again for three days this week.

While the water is still high, it is falling slowly at this time.

FLOOD VICTIMS GET RELIEF SUPPLIES

The supplies which were in stock at the court house here have been used for emergency relief for flood sufferers. Food for use for the local relief rolls had to be furnished immediately after the numerous families were forced to flee from their homes as the high waters approached too rapidly for supplies to be carried out, so it was very fortunate that the county officers had access to the stock of relief supplies.

Roach Fox went to Waco with a truck to haul supplies furnished by the WPA from their warehouse there. After loading his truck with 5,000 pounds of flour and 1,700 pounds of canned goods the Waco traffic police arrested Mr. Fox because his truck while licensed, did not carry a permit from the railroad commission. Mr. Fox explained the urgent conditions under which he had made the trip, but the officers refused to accept any explanation, so he was forced to pay a fine of $40.50. He received $20.30 from the county here for making the trip which left the profit all to Waco. Judge Gerald has been in correspondence with Waco officials and hopes to have the fine remitted.

FELLOWSHIP CLASS PARTY

The Methodist young people's Sunday school class met Friday night at the church for the purpose of electing officers. The guests were ushered to the basement where music was being furnished by Miss Mary Ellen Trent and Julian Evans. Then they all went to the kitchen where refreshments were served buffet style. The dinner consisted of chicken and dressing, cranberry sauce, fruit salad, creamed potatoes and peas, olives, potato chips, pie and iced tea.

After dinner was served many games were played; one a spelling match, was certainly enjoyed by all. We were very glad to have two new members, Mr. Schultz and Miss Ely. The following officers were elected: President, Julian Evans; vice-president, Mrs. Malcolm Jernigan; secretary, Claudia Carrol; assistant secretary, Mrs. Mina Summy; reporter, Mrs. Aubra Hudson; assistant reporter, Miss Ely. Mrs. Evans was unanimously re-elected as teacher.

The following members and guests were present: Bro. and Sister Duke, Mrs. Evans, Miss Love Gatlin, Miss Louella Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. O'Quinn, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Jernigan, Mr. and Mrs. Aubra Hudson, Mrs. Mina Summy, Mrs. Flora Steen, Mrs. Velma Summy, Mrs. Carlos Patterson, Mary Ellen Trent, Miss Ely, Claudia Carrol, Julian Evans, Mickey Johnson, Ben and Bert Patterson and Mr. Shultz.

We wish to thank every one who assisted in making this the most delightful occasion the young people have ever enjoyed.

All members of the Junior Art and Civic club are requested to meet at the home of Miss Beatrice Bledsoe next Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Methodist Notes

If the Methodist, or any other of the church folks failed to have their ardor dampened for last Sunday's services it was purely owing to their lack of imagination. As a matter of fact everything was damp. The repetition of the flood conditions of the preceding week was disconcerting and very discouraging.

Yet, the local people had great reason for rejoicing in the fact that the town is entirely above high water mark and as a consequence we escaped the heart-breaking losses that the people along the lowlands experienced. This, however, does not keep us from the sympathetic spirit that should prevail. In fact I am sure that we all feel the woes of our fellowman, and that this feeling will express itself in a tangible way.

Again our people have been called upon to go to the house of mourning. Three of our valued and valuable citizens have answered the last summons. These were among our elderly people and among the most highly useful and respected.

Mr. A. D. Karnes was for many years a respected county officer, faithful to every trust. Mrs. Slack was one of the noblewomen, one of the pioneer class who spent her life aiding to build up the civilization that we enjoy, and Mrs. Wallace Leverett was known and loved by our people for her good works and kindly spirit. Whenever and wherever the call came for her kindly ministries, you could always depend upon her to answer. Our hearts go out in sympathy to all the relatives and friends.

Many times the writer has felt that these notes were not true to the heading "Methodist Notes." This has not been a mere accident; it was the purpose of the writer that it should be so. But now I want to say some things that are pertinent and applicable to the subject. I should like all local Methodists to give heed.

The conference year is drawing to its close. Four weeks ends the matter, and the pastor will stand before the bar of his conference to answer for himself and for his church. What is to be the record? The Goldthwaite church has always made a record of which any church might well be proud. Will it measure up to this record this year? If it does there must be some faithful work done in these last days. The weather has greatly interfered with the work, and it will be needful that we do some overtime work now.

Personally I feel that the financial interests of the church have been greatly neglected at one point. I feel that most of the financial interests have been cared for by the class of people whom we denominate, those who are in comparatively easy circumstances, while the poorer class have been neglected until they feel that they are not expected to take any part in the financing of the church.

In this a great injustice is done our poorer people. They need to be given an opportunity to do what they can to keep up the necessary expense of their church. When they are not given this opportunity, yea when they are not urged to give what they can give without doing themselves and their families an injustice, they have been sadly mistreated. Let every member, no matter how poor, or how little he or she can give, see to it, yea, demand that they be recognized in the support of the church. It will be a blessing to them to help in this hour of need.

Nazarene Remarks

The meeting closed last Sunday night. We had a good meeting in spite of the threatening weather that continued through the greatest portion of the time. There were fifteen professions during the meeting and two adults united with the church Sunday night. There will be a number more to join the church later.

The annual church meeting will be conducted next Monday night. District Superintendent Henson will be present and will have charge of the meeting. All Nazarenes will be especially interested in this meeting as reports of all of our work during the past year will be given, and all major officers of the church will be elected for the ensuing year. Friends and visitors also will attend this service and hear Brother Henson preach.

Next Wednesday evening the prayer service will be in charge of the W.F.M.S. They will expect a good attendance. All of the Sunday services at the regular hour. You are invited.

CHARLIE HARRISON, Pastor.

NEW COURTHOUSE ROOF

The commissioners court met Wednesday in special called session to canvas the budget. Judge Gerald presided.

Several items of business were discussed and the court appointed Judge Gerald to buy material and have the court house re-roofed as soon as possible, as the heavy rains recently have caused quite a lot of damage to the roof and upper floor of the building. They also voted to make a thorough investigation of the roads and culverts all over the county, which have been damaged by the rains and floods, especially in precinct No. 4, which includes Big Valley, Ratler, Regency and all of the river section.

The Colorado river bridge which connects Mills and San Saba counties had to be pulled back in place as it had been washed several feet out of line and the approach was washed out on both sides of the river.

PROCLAMATION

Notice of all citizens of Goldthwaite is called to the fact that FIRE PREVENTION WEEK in Texas, begins October 5. Let us make an effort during that week to clean up and eliminate all fire hazards. Our city has a good fire credit of 15 per cent due to our carefulness in the past. Keep the good work going. Let every patriotic citizen see that he has no such fire as would take this credit from us. $1,500.00 a year saved to Goldthwaite property owners in reduced fire insurance premiums is well worth a serious effort on the part of each one of us. And on each one of us rests the responsibility of keeping that credit.

A fire is a total loss. Valuable property goes out of existence. It was accumulated by the labor and industry of men, but they cannot re-create it. The loser may collect the insurance, but it is paid out again in larger premiums. Insurance is not something for nothing but is always paid for in full.

Fire can also take life, and a lifetime of carefulness is not too long to prevent that.

I therefore, proclaim this next week, Fire Prevention Week. Give the matter your interest and attention. Help your school children with their inspection sheets. Help keep Goldthwaite safe from fire which when not controlled is uncontrollable.

H. G. BODKIN,
Mayor of Goldthwaite, Texas.

Church Of Christ

Church work moves along in a very pleasing way. Interest is increasing with each service. Despite the heavy rains last Lord's day we had a goodly number present for both services. The best number was present for both the ladies Bible class and the regular mid-week Bible class since I began work with the church. We trust that still greater interest will be experienced.

The regular services of the church are as follows:
Sunday: Bible study, 10 a. m.; worship, 11 a. m.; young peoples class, 6:30 p. m.; preaching, 7:30 p. m. Wednesday: Ladies Bible class, 3 p. m.; regular Bible study, 7:30 p. m.

You are invited to attend each of these services. You will always find a friendly greeting at the Church of Christ.

E. W. STOVALL, Minister.

Hamilton Free Fair To Open October 7

Hamilton, Sept. 30. (SP).—The Hamilton county free fair will open Wednesday, October 7, for a three-day centennial celebration. The street parade will take place at 11 o'clock on the opening morning.

Community booths, livestock exhibits and other interesting exhibits will be featured throughout.

The entertainment will consist of horse races each afternoon; two rodeo performances each day; amateur contest along the Major Bowe's line and public wedding Wednesday night; historical pageant and crowning of the queen Thursday night, and a night football game between Hamilton and Comanche on Friday night. A good carnival will show throughout the celebration.

CHARLEY LANGFORD KIDNAPED, ROBBED

Charley Langford was called from his home here last Tuesday night and forced into a car at the point of a gun and carried two and a half miles from town to a lane where he was robbed of a small amount of cash and thrown out of the car. He started walking back to town and caught a ride in. He reported to Sheriff Hern Harris who accompanied him back to the scene of the hijacking and found no evidence of the crime. However on returning to town, they saw the car and one of the men at a filling station. When Sheriff Harris got out of his car the man jumped out of the car he was in and ran and was successful in escaping. The sheriff took charge of the car and found it to be a stolen car from Kerr county with Mills county license plates on it. Three arrests have since been made.

Local officers are taking every precaution to prevent their escape or any communication between the prisoners.

One suspect has been lodged in the Brownwood jail, one in the Comanche jail and one in jail at Goldthwaite.

Lions to Celebrate In Dallas Oct. 10th

Ten thousand Lions from the southwestern state of Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana will gather in Dallas at the centennial exposition on October 10 to celebrate the twentieth anniversary of the birth of Lions International.

The order was founded at a meeting in Dallas on October 10, 1916, by Melvin Jones of Chicago, now secretary-general, who will return for the anniversary.

In recognition of the event the international board of the civic organization will meet outside of Chicago for the first time. It is composed of representatives from the United States, the Dominion of Canada, the Republic of Mexico and seven Central and South American republics.

The board will meet for two days preceding the home-coming of the four states. It will be attended, in addition, by the Texas district governors, who will plan the entertainment of the thousands of visitors.

On October 10 the Lions will be welcomed to the exposition grounds by Governors Allred, Texas, Marland of Oklahoma, Futrell of Arkansas and Leche of Louisiana, or their representatives. A ceremony in the Texas hall of state where Governor Allred will be the principal speaker.

The Lions will see the University of Texas and the University of Oklahoma football game in the Cotton Bowl, seating 80,000 persons. Arrangements have been made to seat the Lions at a special showing of the historic Cavalcade of Texas.

The international board, having completed its business on the day preceding, will attend the centennial celebration in a body. Invitations have gone forward to every Lions club in the four states to send every member possible to the homecoming.

FLOOD SUFFERERS NEED HELP

Our friends and neighbors have lost all of their crops, poultry, hogs and canned goods. They need help until another crop is raised. The Red Cross is putting on a drive to help these people. If any of the committee fails to see you, send any feed for livestock and canned goods to Fairman Co. or R. L. Steen & Son who will furnish storage until feed, canned good and bedding can be distributed.

Give what you can now to the Red Cross so that our neighbors will get the help they need.

HOTEL MAN VISITS CASA MANANA IN FORT WORTH

Fort Worth, Oct. 1.—"Texans may like their horses tough, but they want their steaks tender." So commented Ralph Hitz, president of the national hotel management, inc., after a recent visit to Casa Manana at the Fort Worth frontier centennial.

Patrons are as fastidious as the epicures of eastern and European metropolises, said Hitz, whose organization operates a group of hotels including the New Yorker in New York, the Van Cleve in Cleveland and the Book-Cadillac in Detroit, as well as Casa Manana, the world's largest cafe-theatre.

More than 6,000 persons partake of food and refreshments nightly at the Fort Worth frontier centennial under the stars at Casa Manana, while watching Billy Rose's gigantic musical revue production.

ROCK SPRINGS

Saturday afternoon at two o'clock Mrs. J. R. Slack was buried here. She has been sick for a long time at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Brent Davee, in town. It is sad to give up our loved ones. When our mothers pass away we have lost our best friend. Mrs. Slack was loved by everyone who knew her; she was a good neighbor and friend. We extend sympathy to Mr. Slack and children and other relatives. It is our loss but heaven's gain. May God's richest blessings rest on each of you.

We also extend sympathy to our friend, Roy Wilkins, in the loss of his grandfather, who passed away in Austin Saturday. Also to the Leverett children in the loss of their mother.

Since I started my letter, our friend, A. D. Karnes, has passed away. I have known Mr. Karnes for a long time. My children and his children were close friends. It makes us sad for our friends to have to leave us. But it is God's will not ours. My family as well as your other friends wish to extend our deepest sympathy to each of you. We also wish for your dear mother to soon be well.

School opened Monday with seven pupils present. There will be three more as the creeks were too high for them to cross. Miss Bernice Traylor is the teacher. We wish for her success.

Harry Boyd and Rudolph Cooke played 42 with Phillip and Shirley Nickols Thursday night. Woody Traylor and family spent Sunday with J. T. Robertson and wife.

Joe Roberts and family spent Sunday in the Nickols home.

E. D. Roberson opened the Big Valley school Monday morning. He and his son and several Mexican children and Robert Lee Gibbons, Greta Traylor, Billie Ruth Daniel and Roth Robertson will all ride in the bus driven by George Bohannon. We wish them good luck on their bad roads.

Mmes. McClary and Nickols spent Saturday morning in the Brent Davee and A. T. Karnes homes in town.

Mrs. John Roberts spent an afternoon last week with Mrs. John Edlin at Center Point.

Phillip Nickols worked for J. O. McClary some last week. Ira Dewbre and Shirley Nickols helped Robert Robertson at Big Valley dip his goats Saturday.

Wick Webb now lives at Williams Ranch. He moved Friday afternoon.

J. O. McClary and wife and John Roberts and wife had car trouble coming home Saturday afternoon from town. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts stuck in the mud as deep as they could so Mr. Roberts had to walk quite a distance to get Duey Bohannon to take Mrs. Roberts home.

Last Friday Mrs. C. H. Ford, who lives in town, celebrated her birthday with her niece, Mrs. Eula Nickols and boys. Mr. Ford and Mrs. Joe Roberts and children also enjoyed the celebration.

Mrs. E. D. Roberson and some of Mrs. Traylor's family went to Brownwood Friday shopping. Beryl Vann Roberts spent Sunday night with his grandmother, Mrs. Nickols.

Mrs. J. O. McClary visited Miss Nellie Dee Cooke Wednesday afternoon.

Christene Traylor spent Saturday night and Sunday with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Robertson.

Harry Boyd and his father had business in Brownwood Saturday.

Roth Robertson read the funny papers in the Nickols home Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Joe Roberts and John and Janette and Mrs. Eula Nickols called on Miss Nellie Dee Cooke Monday afternoon.

J. T. Robertson and wife have received their pension and were glad to get it.

Martin Clark visited with the McDermott boys Sunday afternoon.

Marvin Spinks and family are enjoying a new radio.

James Roberts helped Marion Roberts and son gather corn Friday.

Shirley Nickols and J. T. Stark were Sunday night company in the Webb home where they all played bridge.

Miss Waldine Traylor and J. T. Stark enjoyed a game of bridge with Mr. and Mrs. Webb Thursday night.

J. T. Stark was a visitor Sunday afternoon in the Webb and Nickols homes.

Joe Roberts is helping John Skipper with the phone lines down in Big Valley.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. V. D. Tyson and Miss Ethel from town and Mmes. Faulkner and Mahan and Joe Roberts helped Mrs. Nickols to quilt.

Haskell Gatlin is playing football again this school term. Here is hoping he don't get hurt too bad to live over it.

Phillip Nickols didn't get any cotton picked last week but he has his wagon ready now, and as soon as it is dry enough he will get hands; he is going to have it balled as it is quicker work.

We hate to hear about the high water again. Sometimes we think what a hard time we are having, but some of us are having a good time compared to our friends who are in Big Valley. Some are still having to live in the church. Let's get something together for them, either to eat or wear.

Mrs. Roy Davis and children visited in J. C. Stark's and W. A. Cooke's home Monday afternoon. Joe Almos Davis was in our community Sunday night.

Everybody has been sitting by the fire since Sunday. We are glad to have the sun shine so people can get back to work.

The Eagle is prepared to do job printing of every kind and always appreciates an opportunity to quote prices on anything in the printing line.

SHERIFF'S SALE

The State of Texas, County of Mills,

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a certain execution issued out of the honorable district court of Hamilton county, of the 15th day of August 1936, by L. A. Morris, clerk of said court, for the sum of four hundred and seventy-nine and 30/100 dollars and costs of suit, under a judgment, in favor of W. B. Hurley in a certain cause in said court, No. 3542 and styled W. B. Hurley vs. A. W. Hill, placed in my hands for service, I, J. H. Harris as sheriff of Mills county, Texas, did, on the 25th day of August 1936, levy on certain real estate, situated in Mills county, Texas, described as follows, to-wit: Abstract number 1460, certificate number 1339, survey number 4, original grantee Josie Jones, described by metes and bounds as follows, to-wit: Beginning at the SE corner of section 4; thence N 19 W with east line 950 vrs. to a st. md.; thence S 71 W 475 vrs st. md.; thence S 19 E 950 vrs to a st. md.; thence N 71 E 475 vrs. to the place of beginning and containing eighty (80) acres of land, more or less and levied upon as the property of A. W. Hill and that on the first Tuesday in October 1936, the same being the 6th day of said month, at the court house door, of Mills county, in the town of Goldthwaite, Texas, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4 p. m. by virtue of said levy and said judgment I will sell said above described real estate at public vendue, for cash, to the highest bidder, as the property of said A. W. Hill.

And in compliance with law, I give this notice by publication, in the English language, once a week for three consecutive weeks immediately preceding said day of sale, in the Goldthwaite Eagle, a newspaper published in Mills county.

Witness my hand, this 25th day of August 1936.

J. H. HARRIS, Sheriff Mills County, Texas. (9-18)

CHATTER COLUMN

Well, well, and isn't it a nice day for digging. Get your spade and let us go out in the nice, warm sun and dig up some little worms. Isn't this lovely thick dirt? Oh! Look what we found!

A paste fight took place in the study hall last week. We can't spill much of this, because it is too sticky for us to handle, but we assure you that it compared favorably with the battle of Gettysburg. Look's as if the woods are coming along doesn't it?

We wonder when and if Warren Thompson is going to get over his Lester Moreland complex—and vice versa.

Mr. Stephens gave warning last week that bad weather made him irritable. If appearances mean anything, someone disregarded the hint and Mr. Stephens led with his chin. Anyway, somebody led, and we can't find the other fellow.

We have done some ferreting extraordinary lately and have decided to disclose some of our findings. We will just call them—current love affairs, steady and otherwise.

Just at present the most interesting one is the Katherine Hodges-Freddie Marshall affair. We don't know how long it will last, but it looks good to us—and we ought to know.

And then someone let slip about Mamie Lou Langford. As far as we know, that is swell for all concerned.

This one we will just mention because we don't want to commit ourselves to anything less than one third true. It is Lottie Hester and George Johnson.

Right here, we are as much in the dark as you are. Whose bracelet is Joe Davis wearing? We would like to print that, so if anyone finds out, please tell us. We might even assign him assistant snoop.

There will be more of this next week, so we warn you that you had better be careful about bestowing those fond glances. You can't conceal anything from us!

SANTA FE TRANSPORTS BIG ARMY GUNS

That the government can quickly mobilize for the defense of any part of the country with its most potent artillery, was proven recently when the Santa Fe transported two giant 14-inch railway guns from Fort MacArthur near Los Angeles, to Don, about 40 miles north of San Diego, where they were used in target practice for the first time in eight years. Despite the fact that each gun weighs 365 tons—twice as much as the locomotive that hauled them—they moved at a speed of from 20 to 25 miles an hour with complete safety. The train, including both guns and 14 cars of ammunition and equipment, is shown here as it passed along the ocean near San Clemente. Aside from their two mates in Panama, the guns are the only two modern, long range heavy railroad guns in the United States army.

News In Brief

"When Mr. Hearst consoled Candidate Landon to speak low and little, he was wisely trying to keep his candidate from repeating such blunders as when Landon said that the guarantee of bank deposits 'will completely destroy the entire banking system of the nation.' Mr. Hearst wants his man Landon to talk only in sweet nothings and use weasel words."—Portland, Oregon, Journal. (Ind.)

A flood damage survey in the Colorado, Concho and Guadalupe river valleys was launched today by engineers under the direction of the Texas planning board's water resources committee. Overflows in the San Angelo area did damage variously estimated at from $2,000,000 to $5,000,000. The Colorado river later claimed two victims and caused an estimated $500,000 damage.

The 100 Texas high school students who can write the best essays on "Why Texans Should Eat Texas Grapefruit," will be given a box of the fruit by the south Texas citrus grower's league. The McAllen chamber of commerce will award the boxes and arrange the contest. The plan is arranged for the 1,024 accredited Texas high schools. The best essay in each school will be forwarded to the McAllen chamber of commerce. Essays must be 200 to 500 words long and must be received by the chamber before Dec. 20. Active support of the contest is being given by J. H. Gregory, superintendent of the McAllen schools and president of the Texas state teachers' association. Further announcement of the contest will appear in the November issue of Texas Outlook, official organ of the association.

Mrs. Franklin Delano Roosevelt, wife of the president of the United States and one of the most active women in the American public life today, has been engaged to lecture at the Texas State College for Women at Denton, during the school year as an outstanding attraction of the drama series of the fine arts numbers. She has been booked to be in Denton March 9. Addressing the students in a morning assembly, Mrs. Roosevelt will use as her topic, "Problems of Youth," and in the evening the subject of her lecture will be "Relationship of the Individual to the Community." Both subjects will allow the wife of the president to draw upon her experiences at first hand. She has been a leader in sociological and educational affairs in New York for the past thirty years and is now vice-principal of the Todhunter school in New York City.

"For all the money and effort they are pouring into the 'Stop Roosevelt' campaign, the economic royalists are making a mighty poor showing. Obviously they are suffering from total impoverishment of constructive leadership or thought."—Los Angeles News. (Ind.)

Texas motorists soon will see highway signs every fifteen or twenty miles warning: "If you drink, don't drive. If you drive, don't drink." Authority for the erection of the signs, now used in several other states, was granted by the highway commission last Thursday. The signs are sponsored by the W.C.T.U.

"President Franklin D. Roosevelt is as cordially hated as were George Washington, Andrew Jackson, Abraham Lincoln, Theodore Roosevelt and Woodrow Wilson by those elements whose selfish interests they interfered with."—Worcester Post. (Ind.)

Governor James V. Allred last week proclaimed Oct. 2 to 6 as Rose Week in behalf of the east Texas rose festival at Tyler on those dates. "During this year the nation has been made pleasantly aware of the unusual beauty and fragrance typical of the Texas centennial rose perfected by the rose industry in honor of our centennial celebrations, the proclamation said.

"Col. Frank Knox speaks of returning to the system which says the New Deal has 'undermined.' The only system the New Deal has undermined is the one which was in full operation in 1932. Col. Knox believes in 'cycles' of prosperity and depression. He is trying to create fear but it is fear of a return to the Coolidge-Hoover 'cycle.'"—Louisville Courier-Journal. (Ind.)

A ten-foot wall of water, released from Alberche dam by Spanish government forces, roared down on a column of Fascists advancing on Madrid last week and swept many of them to their deaths. The flood, sweeping down from the lifted dam gates near San Martin de Valdeiglesias, thirty-six miles west of the capital, inundated a Fascist camp to a depth of ten feet. The government resorted to the desperate measure in an attempt to repel one section of the Fascist's drive on the capital. Most of the ammunition was reported ruined, and many of the pack mules were said to have been drowned. The Fascists who escaped were understood to have fled to higher ground to the south. They were reported retreating in disorder.

EVANS

This community was very much grieved when the message reached here Saturday morning that Mrs. J. R. Slack had passed on. She and her husband have lived in this community for many years. She has been in very bad health for several months and was at the home of her daughter in Goldthwaite, when she died. Her remains were laid to rest in the Rock Springs cemetery. We express our sympathy to her family and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Crawford visited the Texas centennial at Dallas over the week-end.

Ernest Ince of Mullin called on J. R. Slack Monday morning. Misses Coleta Fay and June Wigley spent last week at Caradan with Theda Fay Grantham. They attended school while there and returned home Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Weaver and daughter from Brownwood spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. Shanning.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wilcox had the following guests last week: Mr. and Mrs. A. Wilcox, Mrs. Anderson and daughter from Ratler and Mr. and Mrs. I. Allredge of Center City, Raymond Wilcox.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Weathers and children, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wilcox, Jim Cox and Charlie Shanning attended Mrs. Slack's funeral Saturday at Rock Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Zack Patton from Ratler called in the Ashton, Crawford and Weathers homes Saturday morning.

Mrs. Fisher Wigley called on Mrs. J. Davee Saturday morning. Mrs. Knight made a business trip to Goldthwaite Thursday.

A. J. Weathers and daughter, Johnnie, and son, Franklin Dew, called in the Windell home at Ridge Saturday.

The loss from the flood in this community was very small. We want to sympathize with the people in Ratler and Big Valley, who lost their homes and everything.

Will Rape spent Saturday night at Ratler with A. D. Kirk and Harmon Crawford.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Crawford spent Tuesday night in Austin. Everyone was pleased to see how slow and easy the rain fell.

Less Monthly Discomfort

Many women, who formerly suffered from a weak, run-down condition as a result of poor assimilation of food, say they benefited by taking CARDUI, a special medicine for women. They found it helped to increase the appetite and improve digestion, thereby bringing them more strength from their food.

Naturally there is less discomfort at monthly periods when the system has been strengthened and the various functions restored and regulated.

Cardui, praised by thousands of women, is well worth trying. Of course, if not benefited, consult a physician.

RIDGE

On account of rain and high water Bro. Brown was unable to get here Sunday to preach for us.

Several of the ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. Pearl Hollis Friday to help her quilt. They also gave Mrs. Ann Lindsey a handkerchief shower in honor of her birthday.

Mrs. Cummings and sons, D. L. and Sylvester took dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Stanley.

Mrs. Melvin Pafford and children, Melva Joan and Beulah Lois, and Mrs. Annie Curtis spent Saturday night with Mrs. O. H. Pafford at Mullin.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Willis of Santa Anna visited Mr. and Mrs. Will Crowder and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Boyd and baby, Verba Lee, and Roby Cummings called in the Stanley home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Boatright and Charles went to Brownwood Wednesday.

Grandpa Boatright returned Wednesday from an extended visit with his sister near Comanche.

Roby Cummings and G. C. Caulder called in the Kelso home Saturday night.

Mrs. Cummings and sons, Sylvester and D. L., and Charles Boatright called on Mr. and Mrs. Newel Donahoo at Brownwood Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Crowder and children Kenneth and Curtis visited relatives at Ebony Monday night.

Mrs. Cummings received a letter stating that her son, Everett, of Hobbs, N. Mex., was married to Mrs. Maxine Evans about a week ago.

Mr. Powell and Francis made a call in the Kelso home Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Cummings and D. L. and Charles Boatright called on Mr. and Mrs. Herman Boyd and baby Saturday.

Roby Cummings, Edward Boyd and Marion Curtis left for San Angelo Wednesday.

Cleo and Clovis Massey, Edward Boyd and Marion Curtis went to the circus at Brownwood Monday.

REPORTER.

EBONY

Heavy rains fell here Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

There was no church or Sunday school here Sunday on account of rain and swollen creeks.

School re-opened here Monday with Miss Bernice Wilmeth as teacher. Sunshine and a cool, crisp day made it ideal for school opening.

Floods seem to be everywhere this week. Charlie Roberts was unable to get home with the bus Friday night until after dark. He had to wait for the creek to run down.

The Colorado river is high again, and it is feared that it may get as high as it was during its recent disastrous rampage. This and the rain make it hard on the folks who have had to move out of their homes and are crowded up with friends or living in school houses and church houses. The school at Regency is unable to start because flood sufferers are still occupying the school house, and among them is a case of typhoid fever not able to be moved.

But out of all this suffering and destruction comes a ray of hope, for it is rumored that the WPA will rebuild the homes that have been washed away, and those who are destitute will be helped to get on their feet again. Clayton Egger, who is attending Howard Payne college at Brownwood, spent the week-end at home.

Gene Meek of Fort Stanton, N. Mex., and his mother, Mrs. Luck Meek of Brownwood, spent Tuesday night and Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Egger. While here Gene called on several other old friends. Gene is an old favorite of this community, having grown to manhood near here. He taught singing school here and for years worked with the singing class here. He is now employed at the United States Marine hospital in Fort Stanton, N. Mex. He finds his work there very pleasant, and he says the scenery of that country is grand.

As a result of the recent flood, the Regency bridge is gone, stopping traffic which was the life of that little village, and also making it very unhandy for those who have business on both sides of the river. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilmeth moved part of their things to the teacherage at Spring Creek in San Saba county two weeks ago last Saturday. They expected to return the following Tuesday and complete their moving. They haven't been able to get back yet.

Jim Wilmeth and Stanley Reeves report serious damage done to their pecan orchards.

This past week brought joy to most of our old people here. It brought old-age pension checks, we think, to all eligible who have applied.

Gene Wilmeth, who is attending Brownwood high school, spent the week-end at home.

J. B. Jones of Brownwood writes that he will be here next Sunday to preach in the morning, and to talk to the Townsend Plan club in the afternoon.

REPORTER.

CENTER CITY

We are having our first cool spell for this fall. We have had many heavy rains and now we are thankful for the pleasant weather. We have suffered no great loss as reported from so many places. However the creeks were high and impassable for a while. A bridge washed out on the highway east of here. It was repaired Saturday and the heavy rains that night and Sunday washed it away again. Men have been busy repairing it.

Most of the cotton was damaged and some lost. Also some of the feedstuff was ruined.

Our sympathy is extended to all those who suffered such losses on the river. Our community is working to help all we can. A number of the ladies met at the church Tuesday and brought clothing and canned food and sent it to Mr. Fairman to be placed where needed most. A number of quilts are being quilted in different homes this week. Many others who did not learn of this meeting or could not come have prepared boxes and will send them in soon. It is impossible to see all the people, so if anyone wishes to help in any way, please send anything you have to the store or school and it will be sent in. Those who have feed to donate report to Robert Lee.

We regret very much to learn Mrs. Ewell Venable in a Temple hospital. We wish for her a speedy recovery. Her brother, Robert Lee, and family visited her one day last week.

Mrs. Liles is reported on the sick list this week.

Our school began Monday. From the present outlook we will have a very successful term. Mr. Hollis Blackwell, Mr. Vernon Harris, Mrs. Aubra Hudson and Miss Fannie Luckie are our teachers. Let's unite to make this one of the best we have ever had. Mr. Weaver of Goldthwaite was present for the opening and made a very appropriate speech. He also met with a number of the parents who were visitors and gave a unique outline for community work.

On account of so much rain there was no Sunday school or church Sunday.

A number of the leaders of the Methodist church met one night last week at the parsonage to discuss plans for helping the work along. Also for repairing and painting the church. Much was said and plans were made which we hope will soon be put into practice. Delicious punch and cookies were served by Miss Liles and sons, Harold and Edwin.

LAKE MERRITT

The Happy Hour club met with Mrs. C. J. Brown Tuesday afternoon. The ladies made plans to help the flood sufferers. Candy was passed to all present. Mrs. J. M. Baker will be hostess to the club October 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bennett and daughter of San Antonio have been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. L. Stuck.

Mrs. J. M. Ritchie was a Saturday afternoon visitor of Mrs. W. H. Linkenhogor.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Sanderson were Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hutchings. Mrs. Harve Kemp was a dinner guest Tuesday of her sister, Mrs. G. C. Price.

This community was made sad Tuesday by the death of Mrs. Leverett. Mrs. Leverett has made this community her home until a few years ago. Our sympathy goes to her loved ones.

Mrs. W. L. Stuck is in Dallas this week seeing the centennial sights.

Mrs. Hugh Nowell and son were Tuesday guests of her mother, Mrs. N. T. Waddell.

Mrs. F. D. Waddell called on her mother, Mrs. C. F. Brown, Monday.

Juanita Sanderson and Faye Stuck were week-end guests of Millie Frances Hutchings.

I failed to write the news last week because I could not get to the mail carrier. The water was too high to cross.

Those who were compelled to move out of their homes in account of high water were: Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Jernigan and family, A. D. Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. George Brooks and family, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Bell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Griffith and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blair and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Griffin and family. Those whose homes were completely destroyed were Frank Blair and John Smith. There were several barns gone and all of the crops destroyed and baled hay floated down stream. Everyone is trying to return to their home this week.

Mrs. Jim Long and son from Longview visited in the Jernigan home Thursday and Friday of last week.

Mrs. Tas Renfro from Goldthwaite visited in the B. F. Renfro and Langford homes last week.

O. B. Bell's brother and family home Sunday. They etauhtfiao from De Leon visited in their home Sunday. They brought Vera Mae home and took their mother, Mrs. Richard Bell, home. She has been staying down here the past week.

Forrest S. Jernigan from Springfield, Colorado came to see his mother, Mrs. Luther Jernigan, Monday. He returned Thursday.

The Colorado river is backing up all the creeks and the bayou at the time of this writing. Every one here is fixing to move out again.

SOUTH BENNETT

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kerby and children moved into their new home several weeks ago and from all appearances the house has been completed. It is certainly an attractive home.

Mrs. M. C. Morris visited a short while with Mrs. Clyde Featherston recently.

Julius Miles returned home the first of this week after having visited relatives in west Texas for a few weeks.

I want to extend sympathy to the Karnes family in the loss of their loved one. We have lost another good citizen and friend.

Wayne Featherston has been staying with his son, Clyde, and family or some time.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Casbeer and two children, Sybil and Billie Jean, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. H. English at Fort Worth during the week-end. They also visited in Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Casbeer, who spent two weeks with their daughters at that place, returned to Goldthwaite with them. Bina Beth Casbeer visited Mrs. Walter Summy and family during the time her folks were gone.

Evelyn Covington spent day last week with Mr. Featherston.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Sp... a bale of cotton to to... week.

Mrs. M. L. Casber visited Walter Summy Tuesday.

Henry Simpson has a which he bought last week. Travis Griffin got his out last week. Others are it will get dry enough to their cotton picked soon.

We were sorry to learn death of Mrs. Leverett. sympathy is extended to reaved family.

Miss Ruby D. Kuykendall Monday night with Mr. Bedford Kuykendall and son.

Mrs. M. L. Casbeer's short visit with Mrs. Jernigan Friday afternoon.

TALKING THROUGH THEIR HATS

The attempt of Col. Knox, the Republican candidate for vice-president, to frighten the public as to the safety of their life insurance policies and bank accounts got nowhere, because his statements were so palpably false.

Despite the fact that Col. Knox's assertion at Allentown, Pa., that "today no life insurance policy is secure; no savings account is safe," was obviously untrue, there came an avalanche of testimony to refute it.

Life insurance companies borrowed from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation $37,924,000 through March 3, 1933, and paid back up to that date only $2,370,000.

The same thing was true of the banks. Banks and trust companies got loans from the RFC through March 3, 1933, to the amount of $997,094,000 and in the same period paid less than a third or $302,298,000.

BELOW THE BELT

The partisan attempt of the Hearst newspaper chain to link President Roosevelt with Communism is consistent with the fighting methods that Hearst has often used against other people he dislikes.

There is no foundation for the Hearst paper's claim that Roosevelt is Soviet Russia's unofficial candidate and is being supported by American Communists.

If any individual Communists do vote for Roosevelt, their support will not be sought or welcomed by Roosevelt or the Democratic organization.

It is strange that Mr. Hearst, who supported Roosevelt in 1932, has been so slow in discovering the president's alleged Communist ties.

"IT'S A GOOD NEIGHBORHOOD WE LIVE IN"

"Of all the remarks we hear in travelling up and down rural Dixie these days, there is hardly any one more heartening, more refreshing, more inspiring than the simple statement by some farmer's wife: 'It's a mighty good neighborhood that we are living in!'"

So says a leading editorial in the current Progressive Farmer, and adds this comment:

"For a remark that tells a whole lot not only about the neighborhood, but also about the person you are talking to. The person who appreciates living in a good community is nearly always a person who is doing something to make it good.

Pointing out the fact that one of the greatest needs of the rural south is to add community achievement to individual achievement, The Progressive Farmer lists six opportunities for community achievement which may be briefly summarized as follows: (1) Enlist everybody in some farm organization, preferably a national farm organization.

TEXAS HISTORY IS WRITTEN INTO THE NAMES OF TEXAS TOWNS

Someone has said if one should trace the name of every city, town and village in Texas to its source and learn all the facts connected with that name, that person would have acquired an education equal to a college degree.

Texas was named for the Tejas Indian tribe. It is fitting that the capital of Texas where the affairs of state are transacted should be named for Stephen F. Austin, the father of Texas.

Kerville was named after James Kerr, manager of the De Witt colony, who was prominent in the days of the Republic.

There is another town in Texas that people say is named for a woman. This woman and her husband did not get along. They separated and when the time came for them to divide the property, the man said that the property was "his'n" and the woman said it was "her'n."

Muleshoe is a brand of the Muleshoe ranch, this ranch having been settled later by farmers. When its townsite was picked out, the owner of the Muleshoe gave the land for the town and he named it Muleshoe.

Active demand for Texas farm lands and a steady sale of bank-owned farms were indicated by reports of twelve Federal Land Bank fieldmen meeting in Houston last week with officers of the Federal Land Bank of Houston.

According to A. C. Williams, president of the bank, there has been considerable increase in the demand for farms during the first nine months of 1936 in which period 754 farms were sold by the Federal Land Bank of Houston.

Some towns were named for men who were trustees and directors of railroads which had recently been constructed in the country.

Nearly all sections of the state were represented in these sales which were made on the customary Federal Land Bank terms.

In addition to those transactions the Federal Land Bank of Houston, acting for itself and as agent for the land bank commissioner, extends credit to tenants and young farmers about to start out for themselves, to enable them to purchase farms of their own.

open up a settlement in Texas. The founding of Post was the fulfillment of his resolution: Gall and Borden county were named for Gall Borden, who was prominent in early Texas history and who produced Borden condensed milk.

Not all the towns were named for men. Some were named for women. These are Venus, Pandora and Queen City. Venus is an appropriate name as the town is situated in a beautiful valley surrounded by mountains.

The cattle business is represented by the names of many of our towns. Kingsville was named for a Mr. King, who owned a 1,250,000 acre ranch. Sinton, Taft and Spur were named for cattlemen.

Land-owners throughout the country should plant more trees, federal and state forest services are prepared to assist them along several lines, and many species can be obtained at cost if used for windbreaks, shelterbelts and farm woodlots.

Mr. Sudworth particularly recommended 10 species of hardwoods and eight species of softwoods for the southern great plains.

George Washington set an example for his countrymen by planting many species at Mount Vernon. Three pecan trees which he planted on March 25, 1775—according to his diary—still are flourishing.

The Indians liked the pecan nut for its flavor and value as a foodstuff. The Seminoles, who were moved from Florida to Indian territory in 1843, imposed at least $5 fine upon any person who damaged or destroyed a pecan tree.

Another useful tree on the Sudworth list is the honey locust. It not only grows rapidly and yields strong, durable wood, but also produces pods containing considerable sugar.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

VIEWS OF THE NATION'S PRESS ON TOPICS OF INTEREST AND IMPORTANCE

LITTLE WATERS

There is a really big idea behind the program for control of the so-called little waters of the nation's river basins. This program comes logically as the result of thinking through the problem of conservation in a country of vast river systems.

Experience has shown that the big reservoir on the big river is only one part of a successful attack on the problem of flood control and water and soil conservation.

The program to conserve little waters goes to the source of the problem insofar as the streams themselves may be utilized for flood control and conservation.

The problem of flood control and water conservation is as wide and as long as the basin of the river system to which it is applied, and it must be attacked in conjunction with the problem of conservation of soil and native plant life.

PLANT MORE TREES IN TEXAS

Land-owners throughout the country should plant more trees, federal and state forest services are prepared to assist them along several lines, and many species can be obtained at cost if used for windbreaks, shelterbelts and farm woodlots.

Mr. Sudworth particularly recommended 10 species of hardwoods and eight species of softwoods for the southern great plains.

TOMORROW'S FRIENDS

School authorities join the Texas centennial central exposition in asking railroads to grant an intra-state rate of half a cent a mile for school groups visiting the exposition.

Any railroad hesitancy must be based on the fear that the returns will be inadequate. The half-cent rate is not out of line with excursion fares worked up by the railroads themselves.

It goes without saying that the safety record of Texas lines is the best recommendation parents can ask for travel means for the child to the Magic City.

FLOOD AND FIRE

If we still believed that such calamities as flood and fire were sent as punishment for the unjust, many Americans would have to be placed in sinful categories this week.

These calamities, added to the floods and drought of earlier months, make 1936 a dark year for many thousands.

This year's Texas floods are in some places the worst in history. One city is under martial law and in many places refugees are forced to live under primitive conditions.

vided into 30 species; six are found in Continental United States. They range southward to Patagonia, where the local variety is called "algorrobo."

The cedar and Chinese elms are suitable for windbreaks, as they are hardy and grow quickly.

Many kinds of conifers flourish in Texas, including the state long-leaf pine. Several species—like the Chinese arborvitae—are easily planted and will grow with little care.

From October to February, Texans should set out many million young trees, which would attain good size within a few years if planted in soil adapted to the species.

WHERE HELP IS NEEDED

Mrs. Agnes Stephens, superintendent of the state school for girls, recently stated that those who leave a prison under parole or completing their sentence have even a fighting chance to rehabilitate themselves.

This obviously is not the case of the girls or of the reformatory, but of society as a whole. Boys paroled from state training school with little stigma attached to their names, and in instances are able to secure their efforts to redeem themselves.

HARD ON THE DRAMA

Sinclair Lewis' remarks about the American theatre bear a little hard on men like Ed O'Neill, Maxwell Anderson, Philip Barry, George S. Kaufman, Marc Connelly and other men that will readily agree it is the WPA theatre activities have decided to dramatize and produce Mr. Lewis' views about the menace of dictatorship in this country.

REALLY, IT'S A GOOD NEIGHBORHOOD

And all these years, say a dozen years almost, we have been educated to the thought that live in a golden age of American theatre. Not infrequently a voice will be raised claiming world leadership for English-speaking stage.

Really, if the vacation season in the theatre were not drawn to a close of itself, Sinclair Lewis' words might have crossed the Broadway critic's meager four-month summer holiday.—New York Times.

San Saba

County Supt. E. G. Hillman has been named educational director of the teachers retirement movement by the executive committee on the Texas State Teachers association, and is serving in that capacity in San Saba county.

Col. J. R. Polk is planning to be present for the Old Trail Drivers 21st annual reunion in San Antonio on Oct. 8, 9 and 10. He is one of the original members of this old-timers organization and one of the best known members. He has not missed a reunion for many years and looks forward to this annual affair as one of the bright spots in his declining years.

In the scheduled football game between the Richland Springs Coyotes and Lometa high school at Rogan field last Saturday night the Lometans were unable to get to San Saba on account of the high water of the Colorado river and the game will be played at a later date, to be announced.—News.

A factory which will make Venetian blinds is being established in San Saba by G. W. McLaughlin, brother of F. M. McLaughlin, in the building with the McLaughlin Boot & Shoe shop. Mr. McLaughlin has been engaged in this business for 20 years and has the latest machinery with which to operate.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Maulsby announce the birth of a son, Jack Edward, weight 8 pounds, Saturday afternoon, September 19. Shortly after the child's birth, he and his mother had to be moved to higher ground since their home was located on the bank of the Colorado river and became submerged in water Saturday night.

Repairs are being made on the worn places in the street paving of San Saba by the West Texas Construction company.

L. L. Williams of Mullin has a position at the McLaughlin Boot and Shoe shop.

Trench silos will be made use of now more than ever before since feed crops were soaked in the heavy rains of last week. Ross H. Brison, county agent, said the feed was in the right condition to be stored in trench silos, and this would save it.

B. J. Park lost 18 head of cattle out of 30 head that were in the lowlands on his place during the flood. One horse on the place stayed on high ground and was saved.—Star.

Comanche

The Methodist tabernacle, scene of the county-wide Hogg revival in 1927 when nightly crowds of more than 3,000 attended, will be the home of religious meetings no more, or at least for a time. The building was leased last week for five years to A. P. Burks for a warehouse and he has already converted it into a building for that purpose.

Funeral services for Mrs. W. R. Waldrop who died at her home near Comanche on September 17, were held Friday at Siloam cemetery with Rev. Walter Scott and her pastor, Rev. Sterling Isham, officiating.

Otto Schumann, Priddy farmer was exhibiting a stalk of Rowden cotton in Comanche Thursday, with eleven large open bolls and a number of green ones. Mr. Schumann said that he would make three bales from his six acre patch.

Comanche citizens who have almost forgotten how a passenger train looks like, will have an opportunity to have their memory refreshed as a daylight train is now being operated through Comanche over the Frisco. It will be due to flood and a bridge washout.

Mrs. Adolph Niemann of Priddy, died in a Brownwood hospital Sunday morning at eight o'clock following an operation three weeks ago. She had been in poor health for more than 20 years and had undergone several operations. Funeral services were held at the Saint John's Lutheran church at Priddy Monday afternoon with Rev. Kluge officiating.—Chief.

Lampasas

Following a brief illness, Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Jackson, 83, died at her home in the north part of town Monday morning, September 21, 1936, at 7:30 o'clock.

The fall clip of mohair in this section is practically all marketed, only a few clips remaining at this time. The price has been fine all along and now it is bringing 53 and 63 cents per pound. It is estimated that the buyers of Lampasas county, which includes those in Lampasas and Henry Stallings & Co., at Lometa, have purchased close to 750,000 pounds.

Saturday, September 19, 1936, two-thousand and sixty-five voters cast their votes to determine whether the sale of all liquors would be prohibited in Lampasas county. As beer was the only one being sold legally, the vote really determined whether beer would continue to be sold. Of the 2,065 votes cast, 1,162 voted against the sale and 903 for the sale, giving the dry forces a majority of 259 in the county. These votes are not official, but were taken as they have been turned in and possibly the same figures that the official vote will show.

Car thieves were busy Monday night when five tires and wheels were stolen from as many cars here. The unfortunate owners were Sam Dickens, Martin Phelan, A. B. Smithwick, C. A. Baker and a Central freight line truck. George Gartman, jr., went Thursday to Austin where he entered the University of Texas.

Reconditioning of highway 2 in Belton from the Nolan creek bridge to where the new concrete pavement starts at the city limits has been ordered by the highway commission. It was announced last week by chairman Harry Hines.—Record.

Brownwood

While dozens of families moved out of the lowlands along the Colorado river in southern Brown county Monday as the river threatened to repeat the disastrous flood of September 18 and 19, Brownwood residents watched Pecan Bayou reach its highest flood stage since Brownwood dam, eight miles north of the city, was built on the stream in 1933. The Bayou reached the 36-foot stage at 1:15 p. m. and the water was rising slowly.

Water in Lake Brownwood reached the highest stage in the history of the lake Monday afternoon when waters from torrential rains over the watershed Sunday reached the lake and pushed the elevation to the new all-time high of 1,430.2 feet. The spillway is carrying 5.2 feet of water. Two small flood gates in the dam are open, but the big flood gates have not been opened.

Memorial service for Mrs. John Allen Walker, prominent Texas club woman and philanthropist, and long-time resident of Brownwood, was held Sunday afternoon at First Baptist church, with a large number of friends and associates in attendance. A private burial was made in Greenleaf cemetery earlier in the afternoon. Mrs. Walker died July 11 in James-town, New York.

Friends in Brownwood of Miss Waldine Tauch, noted American sculptor and native Texan, will be interested to learn that she is en route to Texas from New York for the formal unveiling of the Gonzales monument which she designed and executed at the commission of the Texas centennial commission. The unveiling will take place early in October and several close friends of the artist in Brownwood expect to attend the event. Miss Tauch first gained widespread publicity in 1915 when as a girl she entered a piece of work carved from butter at the McCulloch county fair in Brady. Members of the Tuesday Study club there recognized her possibilities and provided a year's study for her in the San Antonio studio of Coppini. Since that time she has made rapid strides in her chosen field of art, has continued her associations with Coppini, and in recent years has come to be accepted as one of the leading American sculptors of international note.—Brownwood Bulletin.

Lometa

An item of real news that we overlooked last week in the mad rush, was the fact that Lometa may get natural gas some time in the near future—possibly by winter after next.

And incidentally, we are proud of the boys and girls of Lometa and especially the ones who are doing their best to complete their education. We know of at least 23 who have entered the various colleges of the state, and are sure we missed some.

Due to the high water and other matters to divide our attention, the new highway No. 74 has been given a back seat the last week or two. However, the work has been going steadily forward, and is nearing completion.—Reporter.

Mrs. Winnie May Herington of Mullin is visiting in the home of her aunts, Mrs. Geo. Bohannon, and family.

Mrs. Chas. Frizzell returned from Kerrville Tuesday after spending the week-end with Mr. Frizzell at their new store.

Will Bolter and family of May and Mrs. Wall and family of Brownwood attended the funeral of their sister, Mrs. J. R. Slack Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Peebles and little son from Lexington spent the week-end here with Mrs. Peebles' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Johnston. Clarence Perry, a business man of Lexington, accompanied them on a business deal.

Voyd Lee Doggett, high school senior who had the misfortune to break his ankle two weeks ago while assisting the football team to practice for a game, is improving rapidly and is now able to get around on crutches. However, the weight of the cast on his leg retards his speed considerably.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Martin of Port Arthur spent a part of last week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Potter, and other relatives here. They left on Saturday for their home and Mrs. Jim Kelly accompanied them as far as Houston for a visit to her daughters, Misses Esther and Loraine Kelly.

MR. A. D. KARNES DEAD

Mr. A. D. Karnes, a long time resident of Mills county, passed away at the age of 75 years on last Monday morning at 3:20 o'clock after a week's serious illness. He had been in ill health for several years before his death.

Mr. Karnes was sheriff of Mills county for a number of years and was a prominent man in Goldthwaite until his health gave way.

He leaves a faithful and devoted wife, who is seriously ill at this time, and eight living children, who were all present at the funeral. The children are: W. T. Karnes, Muenster; A. A. Karnes, Post; Mrs. Laceywell, Richland Springs; Mrs. Annie Laurie York, Fort Worth; Mrs. G. D. Carroll, Ellisville; Mrs. Jim Rudd; J. B. Karnes and Miss Clara Karnes of Goldthwaite. There were also 13 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren present.

SUNDAY MORNING MEDITATION

To the brethren, sisters, friends and neighbors of Mills county:

As I sit here, possibly for the last Lord's day for me in this county, I think of many of you and the pleasant association and fellowship we have had together in days passed by and also your kind hospitality shown us in sorrow as well as in gladness. But we have come to the time when we must say good-bye.

When I see that we must part you draw like cords around our hearts. But while we go yonder, we will always think of you.

I am hoping you will, as we will, always be faithful to Christ and his cause. Study the Bible for it is a lamp to our feet and a light to our pathway.

In this day of sorrow, confusion, national and international disturbances, and when atheism and infidelity are so entrenched in the earth, how we need a guide. So let us seek the leadership of the holy spirit, also his interpretation of the scriptures. To the bereaved He comforts; to the weak He will encourage.

The holy spirit empowers us for service, seek him, be led by him. There are several churches in which I have served for the Master. Each of you have my regard. My prayer is that you may walk in the foot-steps of the Savior and in so doing you will go from conquest to victory.

I think of the many gatherings we have had, enjoying the sweet fellowship and then say good-bye. But thanks be to God, there will come a time when we will not have to part any more. As John says, "There will be no more sea, but one eternal fellowship with each other and our blessed Savior and Redeemer."

Let us take courage, the apostle said, "Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard the things God has in store for them that love him."

As we go from you to Stephenville, we covet your prayers and if we meet no more in this world we will meet you in the world to come.

Your brother and sister in Christ,
J. R. DAVIS,
And Wife, LILLIE DAVIS

RUSSELL BROS. BIG 3-RING CIRCUS AND MENAGERIE

Coming To Lampasas Monday, October 5th.

There will be a general exodus of circus admirers from this city and vicinity when Russell Bros. big three ring circus gives two performances in Lampasas Monday, October 5. Doors open 1 and 7 p. m.

"When you have seen one circus you have seen them all" was a remark frequently heard in the past, but nowadays, it seems as if each of these huge tented attractions is different from the preceding one. The Russell circus has a reputation of presenting more actual novel and surprising circus acts than any other show and because of this it claims the motto, "The highest class circus in the world."

This Russell circus is a big show, exhibiting in cities ranging from ten thousand to half a million population and rarely in towns of lesser population. A circus tent crowded for one performance does not meet the expenses of a show of the magnitude of the Russell Bros. circus. The high pay roll of the performance makes it necessary for such shows to go where there is population, so they plan to exhibit only in such spots where they have the chance to get two big crowds.

"Every act a feature" and "A thrill every minute" is the promise of the management of the Russell circus and according to reports, this is one circus which seems to make good its boast.

Two Movie Stars Now With Circus—Reb Russell, all-American football hero, and his beautiful horse, Rebel, both recently from Hollywood, will be seen in action aplenty when they appear with Russell Bros. Circus at Lampasas on Monday, October 5.

MRS. L. W. LEVERETT DEAD

The town of Goldthwaite and all surrounding communities were shocked and grieved on Tuesday morning when it was found that one of our older citizens was dead as the result of a large dose of strychnine self administered.

Monday night she had asked roomers in her home to call her early the next morning, but at 1 o'clock they heard unusual sounds in her room, so rushed in and found her dying. They called a doctor immediately, but it was too late and her carefully laid plans had been carried out perfectly. She had arranged everything in her room in order, had had her hair waved and had dressed herself carefully, then tied herself to the bed after writing two notes which were found on the table in her room.

She is survived by four sons, W. D., R. V., Brownie and Burton Leverett and Mrs. J. C. Long. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock and burial in the Odd Fellows cemetery.

Mrs. Cora Bennett of Brownwood is visiting Mrs. Matt Kyle.
