GOLDTHWAITE, MILLS COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1936

FOOTBALL RIVALS TO MEET AGAIN ON NEW FIELD IN SAN SABA TONIGHT AT 7:45

The most famous tradition in high school football is the Goldthwaite and San Saba rivalry. These old rivals will meet again on the new San Saba field on Friday night, October 30 at 7:45. The Eagles have won six of their games this year and the Bulldogs have won none. It is expected that the Eagles will prove themselves as the better team. They have been beaten by the Bulldogs in their last two games.

SEWER CONSTRUCTION STRIKES SNAG

Goldthwaite's new sewer system, now 98 per cent completed, cannot be completed unless additional funds are forthcoming. Five thousand dollars worth of sewer bonds which have already been issued and approved cannot be sold without the aid of the PWA and appeals from the city government to PWA headquarters in Fort Worth have not been acknowledged. If these bonds can be sold, they will permit the completion of the work practically as originally surveyed. If not, no one seems to know just what will happen.

Democrats See Sweeping Victory

Jubilant over favorable developments during the past few days, state leaders in the Democratic national campaign this week pushed forward their plans for a sweeping victory along two fronts.—a Texas contribution of $250,000 to the Roosevelt-Garner fund, and a mammoth Democratic majority at the polls. Three $10,000 contributions, a $5,000 donation, and smaller contributions from thousands of loyal Texas Democrats poured through state campaign offices here to national headquarters at New York for use in carrying on the Democratic campaign in doubtful states. These rapidly increasing donations to the party's "war chest" pushed the Texas total well over the $100,000 mark last week-end, and Roy Miller, state director, predicted the state's quarter-million-dollar quota will be raised before election day November 3. Jesse H. Jones, Houston capitalist, publisher, and chairman of the Reconstruction Finance corporation, authorized announcement by Director Miller of a $10,000 contribution from him and Mrs. Jones. Announcements of $10,000 contributions also came from Mrs. Clara Driscoll Sevier, Democratic national committeewoman from Texas, and Mrs. W. L. Clayton, wife of the Houston cotton factor. Mr. Clayton himself, who a short time ago announced he would support President Roosevelt for re-election after previously criticizing the New Deal, authorized announcement of a $5,000 contribution from him. From every section of the state also came contributions in varying amounts by Democrats with no less party fealty but with more moderate means. Additional Texas counties daily were exceeding quotas set for them by the state campaign organization. Among the new ones were Lynn county, with a quota of $604; Liberty with a quota of $874; and Fannin with a quota of $1696 quota. Oldham, San Patricio and Potter county Democrats also reported they had exceeded their quotas early this week. Mills county's quota of $300 has not yet been reached.

Mrs. Cook at the steering-wheel, we had the privilege of getting a pretty good view of the city which is to be our home. So you may see we have already received a royal reception and are among our friends, both old and new. We expect to return to Fort Worth this week, but we shall never forget our friends here, some as true as God ever created. J. S. BOWLES.

BIG INCREASE SHOWN ON NEW TAX ROLLS

Taxable values on the Mills county tax rolls for 1936 total $4,290,315, compared with $4,234,131 for last year, a net gain of $56,184, but as the intangible assets of the Santa Fe railroad company declined $21,545 from last year, the gain in real values amounts to $77,729. Horses and mules and automobiles made notable advances from the renditions of last year, and this year the value of automobiles in the county exceeds that of horses and mules by $1,500. Although there was a decrease in the number of sheep rendered their value has increased 17 per cent. The complete summary of renditions follows:

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Dutch McKenzie opened her home Friday to the friends of her little daughter, Greta, to help celebrate her fifth birthday. Each little guest brought a package containing a gift for their honoree. The evening was spent playing games, but the most enjoyable event was cutting the birthday cake, which contained five candles. Mrs. McKenzie and Mrs. Jack Johnson served refreshments to the following guests: Billie Burl Johnson, Norma Ruth and Carlene Featherston, Delpha Reese Blackburn, Alvin Ray, Anita and Marjorie Nell Dennis, Bobbie and Sonny Boy Calloway, Jerry Dean, Bonnie Bob and Gene Long, Dorothy Nell McKinly, Tommie Sue Ross, Patsy Gene Nelson, Bonnie Fern Doggett, Elaine Lockley, Billie Leverett. As the guests departed, wishing her many more happy birthdays, they were presented with a balloon by Greta, their honoree. XX

MERRY WIVES CLUB

Mrs. Marvin Hodges entertained the Merry Wives club and a few friends Tuesday of this week at her home on North Parker street. Fall flowers created a decorative note throughout the house. In contract Mrs. Ed Gilliam as club member and Miss Lucille Conro as guest won top score and received attractive trophies. At the conclusion of the games a dainty salad course was served. REPORTER.

FLOOD CONTROL ASSOCIATION FOR MILLS COUNTY

Responding to a call by A. D. Kirk, eighteen citizens met in the commissioners' court room last Saturday and formed the Mills County Flood Control association, and elected A. D. Kirk, president; J. H. Burnett, vice-president; and W. P. Weaver, secretary-treasurer.

This organization is auxiliary to the Central West Texas Flood Control and Conservation association recently organized at Ballinger with a membership from 10 counties along the upper Colorado river. The purpose of the organization is to secure a part of the government appropriation for building dams to hold back flood waters of the various tributaries to the Colorado. This effort should appeal to every citizen of Mills county, for the recent destructive floods affect the interest of every citizen, directly or indirectly. All citizens are urged to attend the meetings of the association and help in this worthy effort. W. P. WEAVER, Secretary.

Baptist Reminder

A teacher asked her class to spell the word, "success." The first girl that tried it said that she could not spell it. A boy ten years old walked to the blackboard and said, "The way my dad spells success is 'w-o-r-k.'" We all dream of success, some think of it as wealth, some in terms of position, some as a station in life, some as fame, some in contentment, and some in terms of human service. Emerson said, "Success is happiness with a sense of progress." After all we might say, I think the boy was right. Don't you? Dr. T. C. Gardner says, "Most people fail in Christian life because of laziness, indifference, lack of systematic, well planned work." I was pleased to hear the fine report of our services Sunday. I understand that Bro. McCullough brought two fine messages. We were glad to welcome into our church fellowship Mr. and Mrs. Henry. Professor Henry is our new vocational agriculture teacher. This is a fine way to start married life, and a school year as well. This makes nine additions in the last month to our church. Come and be with us next Sunday. I will preach at both services.—FRANKLIN E. SWANNER.

SELF CULTURE CLUB

Thursday, October 22 was book review day for the Self Culture club with Mrs. W. E. Miller and Joe A. Palmer hostesses. In spite of the dreary weather outside there was beauty and good cheer within the club room. Masses of roses, ferns and potted plants were artistically arranged about the assembly room where Miss Love Gatlin, one of our talented high school instructors, reviewed Lloyd C. Douglas' newest inspirational book, "White Banners." Miss Gatlin is always good, but this time she surpassed herself. She held the interest of her listeners throughout the long story of the book. It was indeed a literary feast. Miss Mary Ellen Trent rendered a beautiful piano solo. Mrs. J. A. Hester gave criticisms of Loyd C. Douglas and his writings. At the conclusion of the program a social hour was enjoyed. The guests included the members of the Tuesday Study club, Art and Civic club and Mrs. V. C. Bradford, J. J. Stephen, H. B. Caudle and Self Culture club. XX

TOO MUCH RAIN IS COMPLAINT NOW

Yesterday marked the seventh consecutive day of rainy weather for Goldthwaite and Mills county. More than four inches of rain has been registered on the government gauge at Harry Allen's, while considerably more is reported from various sections of the county. Roads range from bad to impassable.

The highway to San Saba is full of chug holes standing in water, the Brownwood highway is the roughest since construction work was completed last year, and the Waco road is almost impassible in places. County roads are in still worse condition. Mail carriers working from the Goldthwaite post office are having to detour and back track in order to make their routes, D. Hartman and A. L. Whittaker on routes 2 and 3 have traveled 20 and 30 miles more than their route for this reason. Sewer and paving work in Goldthwaite are at a standstill, and the city's streets are for the most part in worse condition than the country roads. But old-timers are not complaining. They point out that a better season is being laid by the slow rainfall and predict a bountiful crop yield next year and plenty of stock water in consequence.

Nazarene Remarks

The recent rains and cold weather has affected the attendance at all of our services some. Especially at Sunday school last Sunday. While we had a reasonable attendance considering the weather, yet I am wondering if all the absentees had a legitimate excuse in staying away. In other words, would you have missed school or failed to have gone to your work if it had been a week day? Well, why not come to church then? With next Sunday, our assembly closes. All new teachers and officers will take charge the following Sunday. While a number of these have been re-elected, some of them are new. The old ones have wrought well during the last year, and the new ones face their task with zeal, courage and confidence, yes and faith, for greater victories next year. Come worship with us Sunday. Charlie Harrison, Pastor.

COMPLIMENTARY PARTY

Complimenting Miss Norma Weatherby of Brownwood, whose marriage is to take place on November 7, Mrs. S. E. Cloninger entertained with bridge Wednesday afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. Luther Rudd. Lovely dahlias adorned the rooms where tables were appointed for games of contract bridge. Mrs. D. W. Alderman and Mrs. A. L. Whittaker received linen guest towels for high score and high cut prizes respectively. The honoree gift from the hostess was a beautiful white marble base table lamp. A delicious salad plate was served on trays centered with fall flowers to Mrs. Walter Fairman, Rufus McKinney, V. C. Bradford, Gilford Scott, Marvin Hodges, Kelly Saylor, A. H. Smith, Raymond Little, Paul McCullough, Walter Glenn Saylor, A. L. Whittaker, Joe Weatherby of Brownwood, Roy Taylor of Brownwood, C. H. Evans of San Angelo, D. W. Alderman of El Paso and the honoree Miss Weatherby of Brownwood. Members of the house party who did not participate in the games were Mrs. Norman Weatherby of Brownwood, Mrs. Frank Taylor of Hamilton, Mrs. John Berry, Mrs. J. D. D. Berry and Mrs. Luther Rudd. VICE PRESIDENT ASKS CASH AND VOTES

Breaking his usual campaign silence Vice-President John N. Garner this week directed a personal appeal to Texas Democrats for funds with which to carry on the presidential campaign and for votes to give his home state an overwhelming Democratic victory. Vice-President Garner predicted President Roosevelt's reelection by a majority that "will satisfy the most enthusiastic Democrats." "What concerns me most is what Texas will do," he said. "We must maintain our fine Democratic record. To do that, we must raise our quota of $250,000 and see to it that every loyal Democrat goes to the polls and votes." He expressed thanks to members of the campaign organization in Texas "for the fine and effective service they have already rendered," and urged them to continue their efforts until election day. "If they will, I am sure the entire amount of our quota will be raised," he said. "I cannot help but feel that every loyal Democrat will be glad to contribute if given the opportunity to do so. I ask our committeemen to give them that opportunity by contacting them personally." Mr. Garner also pointed out the importance to Texas of the large Democratic vote, explaining that representation in national conventions hereafter will be measured by that vote. "Every Democrat, therefore, should consider it a solemn duty to go to the polls," he said. R. F. Crum of Santa Anna, representing the State Democratic Executive Committee and Committeeman E. E. Murphy, San Angelo, were in Goldthwaite yesterday to assist in securing contributions for the Democratic campaign fund.

TUESDAY STUDY CLUB AT E. T. FAIRMAN HOME

Members of the Tuesday Study club met in luncheon session with Mrs. E. T. Fairman Saturday, October 24. The program preceded the luncheon. Mrs. Norman Locks, guest artist, rendered two vocal numbers. Mrs. Fairman then introduced Mrs. Harry W. McGhee of Brownwood, who reviewed Charles Morgan's, "Sparken-broke." Low bowls of yellow chrysanthemums and yellow tapers in silver holders formed decoration in the reception suite. A tempting three-course luncheon followed the program. Reflectors laden with fall fruits and vegetables formed the centerpiece for the tables. Hal-lows' en place cards marked covers for 18 guests.

FORMER GOLDTHWAITE MAN SEVERELY BURNED

H. D. Beaver, a former resident of Goldthwaite, is expected by hospital attendants at Colorado City to survive severe burns received when a bucket of burning gasoline, hurled by a fellow workman on the Stubblefield farm near Colorado City, struck him. The occurrence was accidental. Working on a car, the other man noticed the gasoline he was using to clean parts was in flames. He threw it as Beaver walked up.

Hallowe'en Parade to Start 2:00 p. m. and Open Carnival

The Goldthwaite Parent-Teachers association will hold their annual Hallowe'en carnival at the court house in Goldthwaite Saturday beginning at 11 o'clock Saturday morning. A number of booths will be open during the noon hour, at which lunches may be bought at a moderate price, and at 2:00 p. m. the Hallowe'en parade will march through town and disband at the court house, after which the carnival will be in full swing. Several of the school classes will have their own concession booths and these will help to add to the joy and fun of the gala occasion.

SAN ANTONIO BOOSTERS DUE HERE THURSDAY

Representatives of 75 San Antonio business firms will be in Goldthwaite at 10:35 Thursday morning on the annual good will trip of the San Antonio Chamber of Commerce. The visitors will proceed from here to Lometa and Lampasas.

COMPLIMENTARY SHOWER AND FORTY-TWO PARTY

The Wesley Workers Sunday School Class complimented Mr. and Mrs. John Patterson with a forty-two party and miscellaneous shower Friday in the recreational hall of the Methodist church. The rooms were attractively decorated with giant dahlias and ferns. After five spirited games of forty-two, Mr. Neal Dickerson presented the shower in a Model Home Plan. John and Lizzie ushered the guests through the home and displayed the many beautiful and useful gifts. An ice course was served about sixty guests.

BAPTIST AUXILIARY

Mrs. Marvin Rudd was hostess to Circle No. 2 last Monday afternoon. There were eleven members present. Mrs. Fred Martin read the devotional. Mrs. Goodby taught the lesson, which was very interesting. The Circle is assisting in preparing a box to send to the orphans' home. We want to extend a special invitation to the ladies of our Circle, who have not been attending regularly to come and study with us. We feel sure you will enjoy it. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Luther Rudd. The hostess served a lovely salad plate and coffee. REPORTER.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. Forrest B. Renfro entertained her little son, Owen Bedford Renfro, Monday afternoon with a birthday party. Little Owen Bedford celebrated his first birthday. Various games were played and everyone seemed to enjoy the afternoon. There were eleven guests present. Cake and ice cream were served to the following: Anette, Billie Ray Armstrong, Anette, Mary Beth Renfro, Billie Joe, Voda Mae, Melton Lewis Chapman, Florie Bell Petri, Mae Bell Cox, Danie Howard Saylor and the honoree, Owen Bedford Renfro. A GUEST.

THE NEWSPAPER

A newspaper always is advertising its town. No business so serves the community as a whole. By its very nature, it must tell constantly of its city to the community and the better that paper, the greater influence it is for good to its town.

The advertisers use it because it reaches the people through a medium that the subscriber thinks enough of to pay for. They use it because they have a business message that the public wants to read, and they get results. Yet there are three results to newspaper advertising. First, direct results. Second, indirect results from name publicity causing buyers to think of your store when they do want something in your line. Third, the advertising revenue makes possible a better paper, which in turn makes a better city.

Newspaper advertising is the foundation of all advertising. First, expenditures should go there as the best investment provided in a single cost coverage. Some other forms are good, yet the records show them to be supplementary to the paper. ALL great successes in merchandising lines use newspapers, with all other forms secondary.—Economic (Wis.) Enterprise.

News In Brief

The earliest snow in 35 years fell in southwestern Oklahoma last Thursday as the Panhandle reported a trace of snow and subfreezing weather. Temperatures were below freezing in some points. Rains fell in the northern part of the state.

More than a million officials and party watchers probably will be required to man the election machinery in about 122,390 voting precincts when the nation marches to the polls November 3 to choose a president. With estimates of the vote running from 41,000,000 to 45,000,000 there are about 2,200 more voting districts than two years ago.

Surgeons removed a two-inch nail Wednesday of last week from the lung of 3-year-old Benjamin Moubett, Jr., of Glendale, Ore. The boy inhaled the nail October 1. The Temple university hospital issued a statement that his condition was good.

Major Willie Ray, 76, known as the original Buster Brown, and for more than twenty years a circus midget, died unexpectedly at his home near Hornersville, Mo., last Wednesday. Major Ray became connected with a circus in 1886 and made eighteen world tours. He was born in Perry County, Tennessee, April 22, 1860. He had been a resident of Dunklin county, Missouri, the last 20 years.

J. A. Whittenburg, 79, who left home at the age of 12 with $13 in his pocket and amassed a fortune estimated at one time at $72,000,000 was buried in Canyon, Texas last Tuesday. He died Monday from injuries suffered when his automobile collided with a freight train in Amarillo Friday night.

Congressman J. P. Buchanan, chairman of the appropriations committee, promised Tuesday of last week to seek a congressional appropriation at the January session to provide for a comprehensive survey of the Colorado river watershed as the basis of developing a flood control program for the entire river, at a hearing held in Austin by Colonel E. H. Marks, chief of army engineers.

Secretary Roper said Wednesday of last week, "We are entering upon one of the most extensive upswings in the history of our country." Praising activities of the administration, Roper said in an address before the National Business Show that thanks to New Deal policies, in great part, national income has steadily increased and this year it is estimated at $60,000,000,000 (billions).

United States Senator James Couzens, independent Republican of Michigan, died Thursday of last week after undergoing an operation to relieve uremic poisoning. He was 64 years old.

Uniformed soldiers at Fort Sam Houston and other army posts within the Eighth Corps Area can no longer "thumb" rides from passing motorists on the highways, it was announced last week at corps area headquarters, Fort Sam Houston. The order, originating from the adutant general's office in Washington, explained that the action of enlisted men hitch-hiking while in uniform was "unmilitary" and a discredit to the uniform as well as being detrimental to the standing the army enjoys with the civil population.

The Newark Star Eagle said in one of its editions last week that it had learned on good authority American interests may buy from German builders two dirigibles similar to the Hindenburg and enter the trans-Atlantic transport field.

Frank Provost, 23, was sentenced to 180 days in jail and fined $500 after he pleaded guilty to striking his one-month-old daughter so hard she was sent to the hospital in Los Angeles last week.

Seventeen-year-old Dorothy Pugh, who said she had been paralyzed for three years, walked and danced one day last week and announced one application of hypnotism had cured her. She said she had been hypnotized by Dr. A. E. Gibbs, a young practitioner, at Dagenham, near London. Miss Pugh said she had been in six London hospitals and was considered incurable.

LADY, YOU NEED THREE TIMES AS MUCH LIGHT FOR DARNING!

I. E. S. BETTER SIGHT LAMP

- Wide opening at top throws light to ceiling, eliminating shadows.
- Glass bowl softens light, prevents glare.
- Wide shade plus extra height of lamp spreads light over wide area.

If the mere thought of darning socks gives you a headache, cheer up! For "more light" is coming to your rescue. Scientists say it's perfectly natural that darning should be more tiring than reading printed book. There's so little contrast between the sock and the darn that you may demand many times more light. And that's where the new scientific Meter comes in. It not only measures accurately as a thermometer measures temperature, its dial tells instantly how much your eyes need for any given seeing task. We'll be glad to insure your lighting one of these new Meters without cost or obligation on your part. Phone for an appointment.

ANNOUNCE HALLOWEEN QUEEN

Next class meeting Friday, October 23, the seniors will elect their hallowe'en queen. It is believed that a girl will grace the throne at the next week. Every girl in the class is suggesting a big way. Voting in the race and, also, playing at the senior booth will give the seniors a great deal of fun. We can depend on all of you to help elect Miss Queen and to help our every way.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

October 25, the sophomore class elected Helen Reid for hallowe'en queen. This is a very popular girl in the sophomore class. She is to see her crowned. You cast your vote by placing a "Helen Reid" at the meeting. Mrs. Hatchel had to replace our reporter, Otha Wnialar, who was absent in the short time. Helen has been with us as a capable teacher and a friend, so she is heartily congratulated by the sophomores.

Senior class met Friday for the purpose of electing a candidate for the hallowe'en queen. Catherine Fairman, with all of the backing her. In addition to the electing of a candidate, the publicity committee also met, to help her in her campaign. Those appointed were: Faulkner, chairman; Larson, Omar Harvey and Larson. The committee are backing Catherine most of their ability. We hope that the people outside school as well as the school will see fit to back your candidate. We are your help. Don't fail to come and vote for her and let's see her hallowe'en queen.

THE SOPHOMORES

A successful person is who does not try to do his own importance. About his work in a steady and is seemingly un- of his great deeds. Just a little tadpole, to be a frog; just the tall, to wag the dog!"

FRESHMAN NOTES

Meeting Friday, October 23, Bledsoe was chosen as freshman candidate for hallowe'en. Your support is appreciated.

F. A. MEETING

Friday, October 20 the chapter of Future Teachers of America met. A discussion of "Father and Son," which is to be held in the gymnasium. At the banquet expected that about 200 will be present. All the bringing their fathers and family out-of-town guests.

EAGLES PLAY ARMADILLOS

At 7:45 o'clock on Friday, October 30 the Goldthwaite Eagles go into action against the San Saba Armadillos. It is a conference game and is expected to be one of the best games of the season, for Goldthwaite and San Saba are traditional rivals. As long as we can remember, the annual scrap with our neighbors across the river has been the game we most wanted to win. It seems that the boys fight harder, the girls yell louder and look prettier, and there is just a little more general rejoicing when we beat San Saba than at any other time.

We have not predicted the outcome of a game for sometime now, but we have something to say about this one. The Eagles have played four games this season, losing two, and winning two by a large margin. The boys have had two weeks of rest and are rarin' to go. The fact is this: We believe that we can win this game. We might even go so far as to say we are definitely optimistic about the score. We realize that the boys are going out against tough competition, but we know our Eagles have the right stuff in them, and we have faith in their ability to win.

But we want the support of the town to be more clearly shown. We want to see the merchants, business men and officials of Goldthwaite over at San Saba Friday night. They should show the team that they are backing it, that they realize and appreciate its efforts. This town is proud of its school, its pep squad and its football team. Let the townspeople get out and express their pride!

EAGLES VS. ARMADILLOS

One of the most looked forward to football games of the 1936 season will be played between the Goldthwaite Eagles and the San Saba Armadillos Friday night, October 30 at the new San Saba football field.

The Eagles and Armadillos are old rivals and though the Armadillos beat the Eagles 33 to 6 last year, the Eagles firmly believe that the San Saba team cannot beat them this year.

Both teams are certainly going to have to struggle, for if either team wins this game, they will have to be a good team.

The Armadillos have won 60 per cent of their games this year and the Eagles have won 50 per cent of their games, but San Saba has played one more game this season than the Eagles.

The game will be called at 7:45 p. m. Friday, October 30.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL GOSSIP

Last Wednesday, October 21, a very enjoyable chapel program was presented. Miss Stanley was the director and author of the play. It was named, "The Land of Smiles." A few of the fifth and sixth grade pupils assisted in the presentation of the play. They were Bobbie Fairman and Dorothy Nell Rudd. We enjoyed the play very much and hope that Miss Stanley will write another for her pupils to act out soon. We all hope our new pupils will soon (if not already) get acquainted with the other pupils and to the methods of school.

The first senior entertainment went over with a bang! Saturday night, Mrs. Gartman and Louise entertained the class with a hallowe'en party. All the guests were cleverly costumed even to the extent of being misrepresented.

Physically Nourished Women — They Just Can't Hold Up

Are you getting proper nourishment from your food, and restful sleep? A poorly nourished body just can't hold up. And as for that run-down feeling, that nervous fatigue, — don't neglect it!

Cardui, for lack of appetite, poor digestion and nervous fatigue, has been recommended by mothers to daughters — women to women — for over fifty years. Try it! Thousands of women testify Cardui helped them. Of course, if it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

CHATTER COLUMN

We find that we are not the only ones who like to snoop around in other people's business. It seems that almost a dozen kindhearted persons are willing to assist Jimmie Frizzell in obtaining a new girl friend. They assert that his old one is two-timing him. But habits—particularly bad ones—are hard to break.

We understand that Jeanette Martin, who is going with all the boys, is trying to pick out one for a steady. There are a good many likely-looking candidates, Jeanette. We hope the others survive the downfall of their hopes when you finally choose the lucky one.

Eureka! We have solved the mystery of those queer sounds that float through the building during classes. They are the echoes of Elwaine Doggett's new boots just ringing down the stairs.

The "Purple + Gang" is in danger of immediate extinction.

The house was effectively decorated to carry out the theme of hallowe'en. Everyone took part in the games. Two of the most outstanding features of the party were the mock murder case and the mysterious fortune teller. Delicious refreshments of sandwiches, pumpkin cookies and hot chocolate were served. After untangling themselves from the confetti bestowed upon them by the hostess, the guests departed with spirits of hallowe'en.

THIS WEEK IN TEXAS HISTORY

Week of October 25
 1693—Mexico abandoned her Texas mission on October 25 because of the hostilities of the Indians.

1835—The General Council of Texas issued a proclamation to the United States on October 26 for help in the war for liberty from Mexico.

1835—The Americans and Mexicans engaged in a battle Mission Concepcion of October 28.

1842—The barge "Star Republic" arrived at Galveston on October 25. It was the first packet between Texas and New York.

1842—Colonel W. S. Fisher surrendered to the Mexicans under General Ampudia at Mier on October 26.

The Eagle is prepared to do job printing of every kind and always appreciates an opportunity to quote prices on anything in the printing line.

The citizens of this high school are not frightened by menacing notes; neither are they intimidated by verbal threats. The entire staff of this paper is united in a determined drive to annihilate Aubrey Smith, the instigator of these crimes.

Mr. Stephens, for the first time this semester, was stuck in a mud-hole on his bus route Monday morning. We suspect that the effects of the senior party still lingered with our dignified professor Reilly, last Saturday night he brayed like a donkey.

Omar Harvey says that now that he has Helen Reid "sewed up" he can start trading again.

EVANT GYMNASIUM READY

James D. Carter of Evant states that the gymnasium of that place is now ready for use. Basketball coaches who want to play match games there are asked to contact Mr. Carter and he will be able to advise them of open dates on which their games may be played.

The Eagle appreciates communications and items of public interest, but they must be for the current issue—not forgotten items sent in after one or more issue dates have passed.

RED RIVER FREE BRIDGE TO BE OPENED OCT. 27

A large crowd of state officials and other visitors is expected at Denison October 27, when the Colbert free bridge across the Red River north of Denison will be formally dedicated to Judge Jake Loy of Sherman, author of the Texas free bridge bill. Members of the state highway department will be conspicuous at the placing of a bronze tablet on the Texas end of the bridge, the plaque to carry the house bill number that paved the way for the free bridge and other data. Following the ceremony there is to be a dinner, served by the directors of the Denison chamber of commerce.

OIL-PLATING DONE HERE

CONOCO

(BUT BE SURE YOU READ ALL THE OTHER WINTER OIL ADS, TOO)

You will find most of the emphasis these days, on oil that flows freely.

Well and good. You SHOULD use your correct Winter grade, but... You can see that the more freely any oil flows, the more freely it FLOWS DOWN OFF the pistons, cylinders, and other parts when you stop.

Then in starting up cold, where is mere free-flowing oil?

It is waiting to be pumped up on the job. And even in much warmer weather than this—according to engineering opinion—those oil-starved waits can cost you more engine wear than all the rest of your driving!

But this Winter with free-flowing Germ Processed oil, you can have your engine Oil-Plated! ... much more than a change to OUR Conoco Germ Processed oil... really a change to unbroken Winter lubrication for YOUR engine. It may stand cold for hours—days—weeks. Yet the slippy Oil-Plating formed only by patented Germ Processed oil, will always be UP IN ADVANCE. Pistons slip easy. Starter spins. Oil-Plated engine obliges—and lives the good life, on a stingy diet of Conoco Germ Processed oil. Continental Oil Company

Saturday night and Sunday morning was too bad for church.

We are going to miss Brother Bowles piece in our paper. It will be hard to find someone to take his place. We wish for them all kinds of good luck in their new home.

W. P. Weaver and Clint Petty sure got the publicity in the Farm & Ranch and Eagle. You can't keep a good man down. Mr. Weaver is a good county agent and Mr. Petty is a good farmer.

Miss Bernice Traylor just had four at school Friday. It rained too much for some to get there.

I enjoyed the paper last week it had lots of news in it from everywhere in our county. Keep your news coming.

Mrs. Landy Ellis was lucky Saturday afternoon in town, she got the Piggy Wiggly groceries.

Dwight Nickols and wife and Kathlene Clements from town spent Sunday evening in his mother's home.

J. T. Stark and Shirley Nickols played bridge in the Webb home Saturday night.

Philip Nickols and Mrs. Glenn Nickols took Homer Doggett and family to Coleman Wednesday morning.

Miss Johnnie Belle Circle has a bad arm. She might have been bitten by a spider.

Arthur Wilcox from Ratler spent Tuesday night with W. A. Cooke.

E. D. Roberson and family and Mrs. Landy Ellis spent Saturday night and Sunday in Brown county with F. W. Chadwick and family.

Mrs. L. B. Porter from Amarillo is visiting the Nickols family.

Walton Daniel was meeting his friends the last two Saturdays in town. He spent a while in California.

Earl Davis and family visited with Mrs. Faulkner and Mahan Sunday afternoon.

Marion Robertson and family spent Sunday afternoon in the Traylor home.

Mrs. Joe Roberts cooked dinner for her mother and brothers and Mrs. L. B. Porter, Monday. Her mother wasn't feeling so well is why she prepared the dinner.

Mrs. John Roberts spent Saturday afternoon with Miss Circle.

Glenn Nickols and wife and Shirley Nickols from town spent Saturday night and Sunday with his mother and brother.

Herbert Cooke and wife from Pecan Wells spent Friday night with his father.

Mrs. Eula Nickols helped her aunt, Mrs. Ford, in town to quilt Wednesday.

Horace Cooke from Star spent Saturday night with his father.

Glenn and Shirley Nickols went hunting Sunday night. Shirley saw a fox but the dogs were not near enough.

V. D. Tyson, James Nickols and J. T. Stark played 42 in the Webb home Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd and sons are enjoying a visit from their son and wife this week.

Phillip Nickols helped Clabe Locklear with some cattle Monday morning.

J. O. McClary and wife had business in Brownwood Wednesday.

Shirley Nickols couldn't work at the gin the first of the week, so he was at home helping Phillip to haul wood.

Kathlene Cockrum is liking her work at the central office fine. We feel sure she will make a good hello girl.

Martin Clark visited in Joe Roberts' home Sunday afternoon.

Mmes. Glenn and Dwight Nickols spent Friday afternoon with their mother-in-law and helped her piece on her snake quilt.

Woody Traylor and wife and Marion Robertson were Monday morning visitors in J. T. Robertson's home. The men helped Mr. Robertson get a load of wood.

John Roberts and wife visited with Mrs. L. B. Porter in the Nickols home Monday afternoon.

The rain fell mighty fine, but how glad we will be to see the sun shining again. BUSY BEE.

SOUTH BENNETT

The rains we have been getting are certainly beneficial to the new broken land and grain that has just been sowed, however, we are getting some real cold weather along with it.

Mrs. Walter Simpson spent a short while visiting with Mrs. Willis Hill one morning last week.

Valeria Stacey visited in the home of her sister, Mrs. Clyde Feathreston, Friday night.

Slick Blackburn spent Thursday visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Covington.

Jack Griffen of Live Oak visited in the Travis Griffen home Monday.

Our school bus is running on schedule time, although this muddy weather makes it difficult. Tuesday morning it got stuck and also ran out of gas, causing it to be late that morning.

News seems to be scarce this week, as it is awfully cold and muddy to go places, and I know I have failed to collect all the news. ROSE BUD.

EVANS

We want to express our sympathy to Mrs. N. King and children in the loss of their husband and father. Mr. King was well known in Mills county and every one knew him to be a genuine citizen. His remains were laid to rest in Zephyr last Thursday evening. Mrs. King and family appreciate the kindness shown them during their sorrow.

Allen Weathers of Houston spent Wednesday night with his brother, Ashley. Mr. Weathers was on his way to Roy, New Mexico. Mr. Weathers accompanied him and they plan to stay about ten days. They left early Thursday morning of last week.

J. J. DAVIS

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon for J. J. Davis at Prairie. He was an old-timer of the Pompey section and lived to the ripe old age of eighty years.

Survivors are the wife, eleven children, 54 grandchildren, 34 great-grandchildren. Among those from here who attended the last rites were: Mrs. J. L. Chancellor, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Chancellor.

SCALLORN

Rain, rain. It has been raining nearly constantly since Thursday and we have a fine season in the ground now.

Flemming Ford and wife have been up to Mrs. Kelly's most of the week, while he is at the sanitarium in Temple with his wife. The doctor doesn't think Mrs. Kelly has any chance to get well. All her children are with her in Temple.

Dutch Smith and family spent Sunday afternoon in Mr. and Mrs. Cicero Warren's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Laughlin attended the show in Goldthwaite Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Olson of Hamilton spent a while with Flemnig Ford and wife Saturday morning.

Mrs. Frank Hines, Miss Greda, Mrs. Ora Black and Mrs. Ida Stevenson attended the woman's meeting in Goldthwaite last week.

Billie Helen Smith spent the week-end with Adelle Casbeer.

Homer Eckert and family are on a visit with Mrs. Eckert's parents in Arkansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Evans are enjoying their radio this rainy weather.

News is scarce this week and the weather has been so bad no one could visit or go anywhere.

REPORTER

HOT TAMALES SUPPER

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Horton were host and hostess at a delicious hot tamale supper last Monday evening.

Guests enjoying the supper and several games of progressive 42 were: Frederick Smith of Bishop, California, Miss Katie Frances Fulton, city, cousins of the hostess; Mrs. T. C. Wrinkle of Beaumont, sister of the hostess, O. K. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Horton, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Taylor and daughter, Loretta, the host and hostess and two sons, Allen and Herbert Davis.

W. P. WEAVERS RETURN

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Weaver returned Friday from an extended visit in Arkansas in the following cities, Huntsville, Hindsville and Avoca. They also spent a few days with their daughter and son-in-law in Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

They were very fortunate in having nice weather, with the exception of the last two days. The rain interfered somewhat, although they enjoyed a second visit to the centennial in Dallas.

ZORA BROYLES KELLY

Mrs. Zora Broyles Kelly, wife of W. N. Kelly, died in a Temple hospital on Tuesday morning, October 20. She is survived by her husband and six children, one son having preceded her in death in France during the war.

The surviving children are as follows: Mrs. Hoshall Kelly Sharp, city; Mrs. Vineta Clark, of Hamilton, Mrs. Ruth Davis, Niagara, Wis.; Mrs. Frieda Benkoski, Houston; Roy E. Kelly, Wausaukee, Wis.; Ray B. Kelly, Dunbar, Wis. Fourteen grand children and two great-grand children. All the children were at her bedside and had the privilege of talking with her before she passed away.

Her remains were brought to the family home four miles south of Goldthwaite and on Wednesday at 12:30 funeral services were held at the church of Christ in Goldthwaite, after which the funeral party left for Hamilton where interment was made in the city cemetery there.

Elder Early Arceneaux, a friend of Mrs. Kelly's family for many years, officiated at both services, here and at Hamilton.

In July 1931 Mrs. Kelly went to New York and sailed with the company of Gold Star Mothers to France where she visited the grave of her son who died there during the war.

The many friends of the family here and elsewhere mourn with them in the loss of their beloved one. Her sweet smile and soft voice will be missed, but the influence of her beautiful Christian life will be a comfort to her family and friends until they are reunited in eternity.

BARBARA STANWYCK AND ROBERT TAYLOR CO-STARRED

Barbara Stanwyck and Robert Taylor form the screen's newest romantic team in "His Brother's Wife," which comes to the Melba theatre this week.

Taylor, regarded as the most sensational box-office draw since Clark Gable first leaped to fame, comes into his newest leading role following such hits as "Private Number," "Small Town Girl" and "Magnificent Obsession."

W. S. Van Dyke, the man who made such outstanding pictures as "San Francisco," "Rose Marie" and "Naughty Marietta," directed "His Brother's Wife."

"His Brother's Wife" tell of a young scientist about to embark on his first scientific expedition. On the eve of leaving New York for the tropical jungle, Taylor, the young scientist, goes on his final fling and meets Miss Stanwyck in a gay gambling casino.

For ten days their romance progresses and Taylor decided to forsake the expedition in New York and marry Miss Stanwyck. He is dissuaded from doing so by his brother, and he accompanies Hersholt into the jungle to trace the cause and find a cure for fatal spotted fever.

Meanwhile, to avenge herself,

Miss Stanwyck marries Taylor's brother and forthwith deserts him. The young scientist's love for the girl lures him back to New York—to find her married to his own brother.

To solve the marital puzzle, Taylor takes the girl back to the jungle so that the brother can divorce her. When the divorce is granted, Taylor renounces the girl and orders her to return to New York. The spotted fever campaign is successful and Taylor and Hersholt believe they have reached a solution to their scientific problem.

The two scientists need a volunteer willing to be infected with the disease. The girl suddenly inoculates herself and the young scientist fights desperately to save her life—and their love is reborn.

The story has been placed in two extremely interesting yet contrasting settings—the gay, happy night life of New York and the sordid and suffocating heat of a dense South American jungle.

The settings were designed by Cedric Gibbons. Lawrence Weingarten was the producer.

Little Joe Proctor Karnes is getting along as well as could be expected after having his tonsils removed.

Jack Burns is at home from Corpus Christi. He is recuperating from an appendicitis operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hancock of Big Wells spent the week-end with her father, R. L. Armstrong, and family.

ROCK SPRINGS

Saturday night and Sunday morning was too bad for church. We are going to miss Brother Bowles piece in our paper. It will be hard to find someone to take his place. We wish for them all kinds of good luck in their new home.

W. P. Weaver and Clint Petty sure got the publicity in the Farm & Ranch and Eagle. You can't keep a good man down. Mr. Weaver is a good county agent and Mr. Petty is a good farmer.

Miss Bernice Traylor just had four at school Friday. It rained too much for some to get there. I enjoyed the paper last week it had lots of news in it from everywhere in our county. Keep your news coming.

Mrs. Landy Ellis was lucky Saturday afternoon in town. She got the Piggly Wiggly groceries.

Dwight Nickols and wife and Kathlene Clements from town spent Sunday evening in his mother's home.

J. T. Stark and Shirley Nickols played bridge in the Webb home Saturday night.

Phillip Nickols and Mrs. Glenn Nickols took Homer Doggett and family to Coleman Wednesday morning.

Miss Johnnie Belle Circle has a bad arm. She might have been bitten by a spider.

Arthur Wilcox from Ratler spent Tuesday night with W. A. Cooke.

E. D. Roberson and family and Mrs. Landy Ellis spent Saturday night and Sunday in Brown county with F. W. Chadwick and family.

Mrs. L. B. Porter from Amarillo is visiting the Nickols family.

Walton Daniel was meeting his friends the last two Saturdays in town. He spent a while in California.

Earl Davis and family visited with Mrs. Faulkner and Mahan Sunday afternoon.

Marion Robertson and family spent Sunday afternoon in the Traylor home.

Mrs. Joe Roberts cooked dinner for her mother and brothers and Mrs. L. B. Porter, Monday. Her mother wasn't feeling so well is why she prepared the dinner.

Mrs. John Roberts spent Saturday afternoon with Miss Circle.

Glenn Nickols and wife and Shirley Nickols from town spent Saturday night and Sunday with his mother and brother.

Herbert Cooke and wife from Pecan Wells spent Friday night with his father.

Mrs. Eula Nickols helped her aunt, Mrs. Ford, in town to quilt Wednesday.

Horace Cooke from Star spent Saturday night with his father.

Glenn and Shirley Nickols went hunting Sunday night. Shirley saw a fox but the dogs were not near enough.

V. D. Tyson, James Nickols and J. T. Stark played 42 in the Webb home Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd and sons are enjoying a visit from their son and wife this week.

Phillip Nickols helped Clabe Locklear with some cattle Monday morning.

J. O. McClary and wife had business in Brownwood Wednesday.

Shirley Nickols couldn't work at the gin the first of the week, so he was at home helping Phillip to haul wood.

Kathlene Cockrum is liking her work at the central office fine. We feel sure she will make a good hello girl.

Martin Clark visited in Joe Roberts' home Sunday afternoon.

Mmes. Glenn and Dwight Nickols spent Friday afternoon with their mother-in-law and helped her piece on her snake quilt.

Woody Traylor and wife and Marion Robertson were Monday morning visitors in J. T. Robertson's home. The men helped Mr. Robertson get a load of wood.

John Roberts and wife visited with Mrs. L. B. Porter in the Nickols home Monday afternoon.

The rain fell mighty fine, but how glad we will be to see the sun shining again. BUSY BEE.

SOUTH BENNETT

The rains we have been getting are certainly beneficial to the new broken land and grain that has just been sowed, however, we are getting some real cold weather along with it.

Mrs. Walter Simpson spent a short while visiting with Mrs. Willis Hill one morning last week.

Valeria Stacey visited in the home of her sister, Mrs. Clyde Featherston, Friday night.

Miss Ruby D. Kuykendall spent a few days this week with Mrs. Bedford Kuykendall.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Casbeer and children visited in the Walter Jones home at town Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Jones is still quite ill.

Aaron Stacey spent Thursday night and Friday with Henry Simpson.

Bedford Kuykendall and Travis Griffin have gone into the wood business it seems, as they have sold quite a bit lately.

Mr. Phil Morris an old-timer, who has lived between this community and town for many years moved last week to Arkansas. We are wishing him success and happiness in his new home.

M. L. Casbeer and family were guests in the Willis Hill home Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Walter Simpson visited with Mrs. Oscar Simpson near town recently.

Hammond Bodkin visited with Harve Miles who lives on Mr. Bodkins' place, one afternoon last week.

Mrs. Bedford Kuykendall spent Monday in the J. S. Kuykendall home.

Slick Blackburn spent Thursday visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Covington.

Jack Griffin of Live Oak visited in the Travis Griffin home Monday.

Our school bus is running on schedule time, although this muddy weather makes it difficult. Tuesday morning it got stuck and also ran out of gas, causing it to be late that morning.

News seems to be scarce this week, as it is awfully cold and muddy to go places, and I know I have failed to collect all the news. ROSE BUD.

EVANS

We want to express our sympathy to Mrs. N. King and children in the loss of their husband and father. Mr. King was well known in Mills county and every one knew him to be a genuine citizen. His remains were laid to rest in Zephyr last Thursday evening. Mrs. King and family appreciate the kindness shown them during their sorrow.

Allen Weathers of Houston spent Wednesday night with his brother, Ashley. Mr. Weathers was on his way to Roy, New Mexico. Mr. Weathers accompanied him and they plan to stay about ten days. They left early Thursday morning of last week.

Miss June Wigley spent Monday night with Jeanette Jernigan at Crawford's Mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Moody M. Bennett and son attended Nathan King's funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Crawford spent Thursday in Austin.

Miss Joyce Wigley spent Monday night with Neta Earl Hale at Crawford's Mill.

Miss Theda Fay Grantham spent Monday and Tuesday night with the Weathers girls.

Mrs. King and children are spending this week in Mullin.

Mrs. Scribner is still with her mother, Mrs. W. B. Wilcox.

Miss Coleta Fay Wigley was the guest of Veta V. Horton Monday night at Caradan. MUDDY WEATHER.

BIG VALLEY

It has been so rainy the past week I am afraid I failed to get all the news. Maybe people have stayed home! At any rate there has been plenty of rain. Also we can understand that old man winter isn't far off.

An item which was omitted last week was the marriage of Miss Adelle Bynum to John Swinney who lives near Priddy. We wish for them much happiness and success in their life's journey together.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Burns and children went to Coleman Saturday to see her sister who had been injured in a car accident.

Mrs. George Robertson has returned from a visit to relatives in Oklahoma.

ZORA BROYLES KELLY

Mrs. Zora Broyles Kelly, wife of W. N. Kelly, died in a Temple hospital on Tuesday morning, October 20. She is survived by her husband and six children, one son having preceded her in death in France during the war. The surviving children are as follows: Mrs. Hoshall Kelly Sharp, city; Mrs. Vineta Clark of Hamilton, Mrs. Ruth Davis, Niagra, Wis.; Mrs. Frieda Benkoski, Houston; Roy E. Kelly, Wausaukee, Wis.; Ray B. Kelly, Dunbar, Wis. Fourteen grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. All the children were at her bedside and had the privilege of talking with her before she passed away.

Her remains were brought to the family home four miles south of Goldthwaite and on Wednesday at 12:30 funeral services were held at the church of Christ in Goldthwaite, after which the funeral party left for Hamilton where interment was made in the city cemetery there. Elder Early Arceneaux, a friend of Mrs. Kelly's family for many years, officiated at both services, here and at Hamilton.

In July 1931 Mrs. Kelly went to New York and sailed with the company of Gold Star Mothers to France where she visited the grave of her son who died there during the war.

The many friends of the family here and elsewhere mourn with them in the loss of their beloved one. Her sweet smile and soft voice will be missed, but the influence of her beautiful Christian life will be a comfort to her family and friends until they are reunited in eternity.

BARBARA STANWYCK AND ROBERT TAYLOR CO-STARRED

Barbara Stanwyck and Robert Taylor form the screen's newest romantic team in "His Brother's Wife," which comes to the Melba theatre this week.

Taylor, regarded as the most sensational box-office draw since Clark Gable first leaped to fame, comes into his newest leading role following such hits as "Private Number," "Small Town Girl" and "Magnificent Obsession."

W. S. Van Dyke, the man who made such outstanding pictures as "San Francisco," "Rose Marie" and "Naughty Marietta," directed "His Brother's Wife."

"His Brother's Wife" tell of a young scientist about to embark on his first scientific expedition. On the eve of leaving New York for the tropical jungle, Taylor, the young scientist, goes on his final fling and meets Miss Stanwyck in a gay gambling casino.

For ten days their romance progresses and Taylor decided to forsake the expedition in New York and marry Miss Stanwyck. He is dissuaded from doing so by his brother, and he accompanies Hersholt into the jungle to trace the cause and find a cure for fatal spotted fever.

Meanwhile, to avenge herself,

Miss Stanwyck marries Taylor's brother and forthwith deserts him. The young scientist's love for the girl lures him back to New York—to find her married to his own brother.

To solve the marital puzzle, Taylor takes the girl back to the jungle so that the brother can divorce her. When the divorce is granted, Taylor renounces the girl and orders her to return to New York. The spotted fever campaign is successful and Taylor and Hersholt believe they have reached a solution to their scientific problem.

The two scientists need a volunteer willing to be infected with the disease. The girl suddenly inoculates herself and the young scientist fights desperately to save her life—and their love is reborn.

The story has been placed in two extremely interesting yet contrasting settings—the gay, happy night life of New York and the sordid and suffocating heat of a dense South American jungle.

The settings were designed by Cedric Gibbons. Lawrence Weingarten was the producer.

Little Joe Proctor Karnes is getting along as well as could be expected after having his tonsils removed.

Jack Burns is at home from Corpus Christi. He is recuperating from an appendicitis operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hancock of Big Wells spent the week-end with her father, R. L. Armstrong, and family.

ROOSEVELT LANDSLIDE

All indications point to another sweeping Roosevelt victory at the polls next Tuesday. Despite the millions of dollars that have been spent to besmirch and defeat Roosevelt and despite the hundreds of thousands of former Republican office holders who are out to regain their jobs, the president's re-election is certain.

HIS DUE SHARE

It's a far cry from the day when the average farmer raised his produce, sold it for whatever he could, and knew nothing about organization.

Today the up-to-the-minute producer belongs to an agricultural selling co-operative. His co-operative management, elected by the members, helps to better producing methods. It studies markets, existing and potential. It makes its voice heard in legislation.

FEW WANT THE DOLE

The fear has been expressed that the government old-age pensions, which have been endorsed by both major parties, would be a blow to the life insurance industry.

But serious students of the question doubt that it will—for two reasons.

The first reason is practical. Neither party has gone on record in favor of big pensions—both favor rather small payments, that would simply provide for necessities.

Secondly—and this reason may be the most important—the American citizen doesn't want to be a pensioner unless he has to. He inherited the individualistic character of the pioneers.

Whether we have government pensions or not, men will still invest against the future in life insurance and other savings programs.

WHEN WE WENT TO WAR

A good many prominent writers, including the highly paid Arthur Brisbane, are finding it popular now to sneer at the motives which caused the United States to declare war on Germany in 1917.

Those of us who are old enough to remember the circumstances, which led up to the declaration of war by the United States, well know that it was the ruthless policy of unrestricted submarine warfare proclaimed by Germany on February 1, 1917 which was the immediate cause of our severing diplomatic relations two days later and declaring war on April 6.

It may be the popular thing to sneer at the reasons for America's participation in the world war, but had America not joined the Allies when it did, the history of this nation would have been far different and far sadder.

AFTER FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

The official ending of Fire Prevention Week—which was observed between October 4 and 10 this year—should certainly not bring to an end to the public interest and enthusiasm the week created.

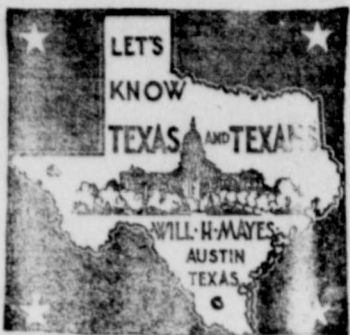

We should regard the week not as a seven-day matter, but as a fit starting point for a personal campaign, participated in by every citizen, that will run the 365 days of the year.

In a number of past years, fire loss has dropped sharply during the week for a short period thereafter. Then it has risen again to the "regular" level. In other words, we applied the lessons learned when they were fresh in our minds—but forgot them almost as soon as New Year's resolutions.

Every property-owner can easily carry on a year-round campaign against fire. At regular intervals he should inspect his heating plant and electric wiring. He should not permit the accumulation of old newspapers, clothes and general debris.

There is certainly nothing difficult about such a program. It takes little time and costs next to nothing in money. And it may save your home and your life.

A household motto should read: "Regard every week as Fire Prevention Week."

In this column answers will be given to inquiries as to Texas history and other matters pertaining to the state and its people. Address inquiries to Will H. Mayes, Austin, Texas.

Q. Do any other states than Texas permit consolidation of city and county governments? F. G.

A. Several states have such laws. It is not a new movement even in Texas. As much as 50 years ago the Galveston Progressive association was discussing the consolidation of the city and county government there for greater economy and efficiency.

Q. Where and when was there a Fort Ewell in Texas? K.G.D. A. It was on the Nueces river about 40 miles southwest of "Dog Town," now Tilden, and was the only stage stand between that place and the Rio Grande; it was established in 1852 and named for Captain Ewell of the United States dragoons.

Q. Who published "Texas Siftings" and what became of it? A. It was published by Alex E. Sweet and J. Army Knox, first at Austin, and then at San Antonio, after which it was moved to New York and died. It was a much quoted, but rather radical humorous paper.

Q. How did (a) Sealy, (b) the Brazos river, (c) San Felipe, get their names? V.R.K. A. Sealy was named for George and John Sealy of Galveston, officials of the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe Ry.; (b) Brazos river was originally named Brazos de Dios, meaning "Arms of God," by De Leon expedition of 1689, and so called because of its many tributaries; (c) San Felipe was first named San Felipe de Austin, July 16, 1823, for the Patron Saint Felipe and Stephen F. Austin.

Q. How is the battle of San Jacinto ranked among the decisive battles of the world? N.B. A. Cressy in his "Decisive Battles of the World," places it as sixteenth, because of the large territory reshaped as a consequence of the Texas victory.

TEACHING CHILDREN CENTENNIAL SONGS Texas children, and grown folk as well, should learn the popular Texas songs.

"The Texas Centennial Song Book," compiled by the Public School Division of the Texas Department of Publicity for Centennial Celebrations, with introduction by John A. Lomax, noted compiler of Texas Folk Lore and Music, contains 29 best known Texas songs with both words and music.

"American people are peculiar," says an exchange, adding that "the more one does for them the less they think of him and the more they expect of him."

To prove this point, the contemporary cites the following case. Much of the opposition to the Roosevelt administration is from people who have benefitted by the New Deal.

It is important to read the advertisements in the Eagle. They all carry a profitable message.

PRAYING GUN MAN

The late Captain John H. Rogers, who was Ranger captain for many years and also United States marshal in San Antonio, was a cool headed, deliberate marksman, says a special writer in the San Antonio Express.

He never shot unless he was forced to and then he made the first shot count. He was one of the rare types of two-gun men, that is, he could shoot accurately with either hand.

This served to his advantage sometime around 1860 at Laredo in the smallpox riot when several men were killed.

Captain Rogers was shot through the right shoulder but went into action with his left hand, firing accurately. To show how cool he was he has been known to walk right into men threatening to shoot him and without drawing his gun, arrested his man.

Many years afterwards I asked Captain Rogers how he felt facing that gun. "When I heard the shooting I went down there," he said "and somebody on the way told me who it was that had done the shooting and how he had gone in the saloon and defied anybody to arrest him.

But John Rogers walked right into the muzzle of that gun and arrested his man. He never hesitated a split second.

"After all," as one wise man said, "the editor always has the last word."—Mill Valley (Calif.) Record.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

VIEW OF THE NATION'S PRESS ON TOPICS OF INTEREST AND IMPORTANCE

"STOP MY PAPER!"

"Stop my paper!" That is not an unfamiliar cry in every newspaper office. It is heard at times even in the Eagle office. Usually it is caused by a subscriber's moving away or by inability to pay the small annual cost of the paper.

If it is a case of pique the paper is stopped promptly. But if it is a case of hard times it is stopped very reluctantly and if possible not at all. The biggest number of stops because of piques during one week was two. Such stops do not injure or affect a paper, because it is a poor newspaper man who cannot get each week enough new names on his list to more than offset such losses.

The pique-stop is usually caused by something the paper said. Its object is probably to injure the paper and so get back at the editor. This object is practically never achieved. The only one injured is the reader, who deprives himself of the only way that he can get home town news.

The best way for a reader to deal with the situation is frankly to inform the publisher what the objectionable matter is, for the publisher is eager to learn and will usually co-operate. He knows he needs lights on local matters and it leaves a better feeling all around.

"After all," as one wise man said, "the editor always has the last word."—Mill Valley (Calif.) Record.

TIME TO ADVERTISE

Every wise merchant nowadays knows that he should advertise his business the year around—whether he be in the dry goods, furniture, grocery, theatre, or even the ice and soft drink business.

If there was once a doubt that advertising pays that doubt long since has become obsolete.

However, merchants have learned that some times of the year are better than others for advertising purposes. For during certain months institutional advertising, or the good will kind, is the best. At other times, like the present, it is best to use plenty of space and clear, concise messages.

During the next few months merchants, as a whole, can expect to get the major part of the 1936 business. Just this week a prominent economist predicted that the 1936 Christmas season will be the greatest since 1929.

That business is not going to be equally distributed among all the merchants. Not by a long shot. In the first place, some shops are larger than others. In the second place, some shops are more popular than others. In the third place, some shops are better known than others. And in the fifth place, some shops have been advertising more—and will continue to advertise more—than others.

In this day and time it is necessary to hustle for business. No longer does it come into your shop voluntarily—just because the merchant might be popular, or a good fellow. People are looking for quality and price and they do not always take the time to look up their friends when doing their buying. The people are impressed with a certain advertisement and if their friend does not advertise that friend likely will be forgotten.

Of course no newspaper can guarantee that any place of business will remain in business if that firm purchases advertising space. The many angles to a business that advertising is a just recall the stores gone by the wayside of past few years. How then advertised their Then look on the other picture. How many stores now in operation been fairly consistent? There may be a question to both questions average will certainly be dominated in favor of store managers who have foresight to tell the world their businesses.

Business life is a struggle. The wisest man uses newspaper advertising to assist him to succeed. Democrat-Voice, Coleman

EDITOR POPULAR

From now until after the election in November the newspaper editor will be tremendously popular, if he is to be judged by the mail received daily—mail, giving commentary of candidates, a claim to stand for and long to serve the public is very flattering because of personal sacrifice. This emphasizes the value of a newspaper as an advertising medium. But flatly not pay the grocer or the doctor, to say nothing of the expenses of publishing newspaper. However, publishers are not alone in attempting free publicity and others, attempting columns of advertising in guise of news. Some of the best stationery the good copy paper, other is always room in the basket.—Butler County Press.

Hamilton

Fire, discovered at three o'clock Thursday morning in the rear of the second story of the Harelik rent property on the south side of the public square in Hamilton, threatened for a while the entire block of business buildings. The blaze, which it is conjectured had origin in defective electric power wiring, was raging in the office department of Attorneys Allen & Allen, and the abstract office of Clem V. Allen, a south upper story section of the business structure, occupied entirely by offices.

Santa Anna

Homer Doggett of Coleman was a surgical patient in the hospital Thursday and Friday. The Nazarene Young People's Rally was held at the Whon church of the Nazarene last Friday, October 16. It was a great day in which a spirit of Christian fellowship prevailed. Brooksmith, Brownwood, Goldthwaite and Whon were represented. Goldthwaite won the banner.

Lometa

Roland Windell is this week opening up an enterprise that has long been needed in Lometa—about six years in fact. It is a check cashing and change making establishment. He has his headquarters in the old bank building, where he has on hand ample funds to cash all checks, and make change.

San Saba

Estimates on the cost of constructing a Colorado bridge on highway 81 and grading four miles were ordered by the Texas highway commission at their meeting Monday when a group of San Saba chamber of commerce officials met with the commission in Austin. Since the recent floods on the Colorado river the bridge on highway 81 has been repaired and opened to traffic after being closed for nearly a month.

Brownwood

Howard Payne college has announced the completion of plans for an enlarged department of extension. The new work will be under the direction of Mr. Joseph T. Fielder, for many years a teacher in the Shanghai Baptist college in China and more recently professor of English in the Plainview high school.

Bringing the total of highway paving in Brown county to 94.07 miles, the asphalt surfacing on seven miles of the Brownwood-Cross Cut road, north from Brownwood, has been completed and is open to traffic.

Funeral services for Mrs. Bessie Nora Epperson, 52, who died at her home near Regency on October 14, were held at the Regency cemetery on October 15, with the Rev. H. Christian officiating.

"It seems very likely that the Brown County Water Improvement District can qualify for federal assistance and the control of flood waters," stated Chester Harrison, chamber of commerce secretary who has recently returned from a hearing held in Austin Tuesday at which interested persons presented their views concerning control of floods on the Colorado river. Lieutenant-Colonel E. H. Marks, corps of engineers, United States army, conducted the hearing. Nearly every county along the Colorado river was represented by delegations. The Central Texas Conservation and Flood Control association, composed of 10 counties in this immediate section, sent representatives from each county, who presented briefs showing that the total damage caused by the recent Colorado flood is almost $5,000,000.

'THE DEVIL DOLL' OFFERS SCREEN'S STRANGEST STORY

'The Devil Doll,' new M-G-M thriller, coming to the Melba theatre, is a spectacular demonstration of the limitless range of the modern screen.

The picture is based on the startling fantastic novel, 'Burn, Witch, Burn,' by A. Merritt, distinguished author of mystery stories, from a screen play by Richard Schayer and Garrett Fort.

The story tells of a scientist, gone mad in his efforts to discover a means of shrinking the atom. He conceives the theory that if all living creatures might be reduced to one-sixth of their natural size the world food supply would be adequate for all.

A banker, convicted unjustly of a crime, escapes from prison and acquires the mad scientist's uncanny secret. Returning to Paris, the banker employs his knowledge to murder the schemer who had him unjustly imprisoned.

Parrymore portrays the wronged banker who slinks into Paris armed with his dreadful secret. He disguises himself as an old woman and pretends to operate a shabby doll shop.

The first of his enemies to become a victim is transformed into a tiny human 'doll' who is used as a tool to paralyze another and eventually force a confession from the third.

As a result of a mishap in his plans to kill the third conspirator, the ex-banker arouses the Paris Surete. Disguising himself, he conceals his identity from a daughter who has grown up to despise him as a criminal.

EYE TEST FOR HEART DISEASE

Analysis of diseases of the heart and circulation by examinations of the eye, which is regarded by physicians as the window to the entire body, was described last week before the American College of Surgeons.

Dr. William Thornwall Davis of George Washington university, Washington, D. C., said examination of the eye by looking directly into it reveals the first sign of hardening of the arteries and clues to the occurrence of other heart troubles.

'Ninety-six per cent of all cases of hardening of the arteries show characteristic changes in the blood vessels inside of the eye, all of which can be seen readily by direct examination,' he declared, and many persons who have the disease in its early stages are now being found and as a result 'can be cured or the disease arrested.'

The disease may reveal itself by inflammation or congestion in the tiny blood vessels at the back of the eye near the point where the optic nerve enters, he said, and the eye specialist can examine these vessels directly, measure their changes and report to the general physician the nerve specialist or the surgeon exactly what trouble he will find with the heart or blood circulation.

BLUE BONNET CLUB

The members of the Blue Bonnet club met with Mrs. Kemp October 20. We spent the evening piecing on a beautiful quilt; the colors red, white and blue. After the business meeting the club gave Mrs. Kemp a friendship quilt top. We decided we would piece each club member a friendship quilt.

At our next meeting our recipe will be a salad.

Mrs. Kemp, assisted by Mrs. Featherston, served refreshments. Our next meeting will be with Mrs. Will Blackburn November 3 in the afternoon.

THE GOVERNOR TELLS 'EM

Governor Allred was unequivocal in his personally delivered message to the legislature Wednesday. He removed all legal doubt of consideration of old-age pension deliberation at this session. The governor submitted the proposal and urged it in no uncertain terms as both necessary and just.

The governor pointed out that in his campaign with old-age pension as one issue, he had advocated matching the assistance proffered by the federal government to the oldest. He is right in asserting that this takes the form not of pension for age but of federal aid for those who have attained years in need. Mr. Allred is justified in his belief that in electing him, the people of Texas endorsed a sound old-age assistance plan and that the legislative enabling act far exceeded the requirements of a good plan. As a result, Texas is confronted with a situation in which it has not money enough in sight to pay all of the pensioners who must be declared eventually eligible under the law.

The remedy is quite clear. By passing this week an amendment which will restrict to eligibility those who can qualify under the federal old-age relief act, Texas will have the number of its pensioners materially reduced. That action will solve much of the embarrassing problem of financing the old-age pension fund.

Jimmy Allred was no politician Wednesday. He delivered his address in person and stood resolutely for a plan which will allocate a good deal of the gimmie-gimme vote but will help to save Texas from a serious financial disaster. -- Semi-Weekly Farm News.
