GOLDTHWAITE CITY COUNCIL STARTS SAFETY DRIVE

CITY ORDINANCE SETS PENALTIES FOR MOTORISTS

Lions Are Hosts At Group 22 Meet

Last night the Goldthwaite Lions Club entertained representatives of the clubs in Group 22 which includes Coleman, Santa Anna, San Saba, Brady, Richland Springs and Llano as well as Goldthwaite.

A bountiful supper was served in the Methodist church basement, and this was followed by an entertaining program in which each of the clubs represented took part. The Lions were accompanied by their wives who keenly enjoyed the evening.

A. H. Smith, president of the Goldthwaite club, presided. W. E. Whitten, newly elected president of the Brady Lions Club, is the group chairman, but could not attend.

Splendid Rains Aid Crop Prospects

Early Sunday morning an inch and a half rain brought the total for the week to only a little less than five inches. Ranges have already improved and in consequence the price of sheep has jumped $1 to $2 a head with very few now being offered. Before the rain the lack of pasture was forcing many sheep owners to sell.

Every section of Mills county and neighboring counties also have received ample rain for the present.

New Milk Law

A new state law prohibiting the marketing of cream in syrup pails, coffee cans and other similar containers with open seams is now effective and a warning is issued to sellers in order that they may not violate the new ordinance. City, state and federal authorities are urged by government headquarters to assist in the enforcement of the law.

Buyers are forbidden to buy cream unless it is handled in the manner prescribed by the rules and regulations of the Bureau of Foods and Drugs, State Department of Health. The following from the State Department is self explanatory:

Many containers now being used on the farm for holding and transporting cream to market should be discarded at once. Managers and farmers are jointly responsible for undesirable containers being used.

Fruit and mayonnaise jars, jugs and crocks, or other similar containers which cannot be properly steamed and sterilized should also be discontinued.

Rusty containers of all kinds must be discarded and under no consideration should cream or milk be received in containers which have previously been used for handling oil or petroleum products. Regulation cans with sanitary seams can be procured at a small cost. The department asks the cooperation of all persons in eliminating the use of illegal and undesirable containers without the department having to invoke severe penalties on guilty persons.

The consumer of dairy products is entitled to reasonable protection, and both farmers and creamery managers have a responsibility here which they cannot evade.

Drivers Take Notice

Published on page 8 of this issue of The Eagle is the full draft of a new city ordinance which was passed by the city council on Monday night. It is designed to prevent careless driving and parking before a serious traffic accident takes place here.

Fisher street is made a through street and given the right of way for its entire length and all cars must come to a full stop before crossing it at its intersections with First, Second, Third and Fourth streets. A traffic light has been ordered for the Trent State Bank corner and if it proves useful, others will be installed later.

A speed limit of 20 miles per hour will be enforced throughout the city. Parking regulations are set up and double parking is specifically forbidden.

Penalties up to $100 for each violation of the traffic regulations are provided, and the city officials state that they will be rigidly enforced.

While the new regulations apply to everyone, the most flagrant violators of safe driving have been cars and trucks from out of town. By preventing them from monopolizing the main street of Goldthwaite, a very serious traffic hazard will be eliminated.

Baptist Reminder

Our crowd Sunday morning was small on account of the rain. There were several, however, who are always faithful Sunday night we had a good crowd and a good service. We should come back Sunday to our usual attendance. Let every teacher do his or her part. We will have our services as usual. If the weather permits we will have open air services Sunday evening. Our people are enjoying these services.—Franklin E. Swanner.

REV. A. K. BRACKEN TO BE HEARD HERE FRIDAY NIGHT

The Church of the Nazarene gives everyone a hearty welcome to hear Dr. A. K. Bracken, president of Bethany Peniel College of Bethany, Okla., Friday night. He will have with him the college quartet and they will render several numbers that you will enjoy.

Dr. Bracken is a very forceful speaker and he will keep you interested from the first word. Do not fail to hear these splendid workers. Bring your friends.—Joe M. Tyson, Pastor.

Methodists to Begin Meeting

A revival will begin at the Methodist church next Sunday, and continue through Sunday, June 27. Dr. Virgil H. Fisher of the First Methodist church, Austin, will come to us on Monday, June 14, and be with us to the close of the meeting. He is one of the leading preachers in the country, and his ministry will be a great blessing to this entire community. The day services through the week will be at 9:30 a.m. and the evening services at 8:00 p.m. There will be a special young people's service each evening at 7:30 in the church basement. There will be the regular mixed choir, young people's choir and a men's chorus. Everyone in the community is invited.

The Methodist Church

The following is taken from the Rio Grande Evangel: "Why I Go to Church—For my own sake as well as others I go to church. She is my spiritual mother. She taught me my prayers and led my feet into the pleasant paths of the Book of God. She purifies my purposes and prepares me for living. She urges me to do justly, love mercy and walk humbly with my God. When I stumble she steadies me; when I suffer she visits me with her consolations; when I sorrow she has the only word that comforts me; and when I go down through the shadow of death she will light my way home. Therefore I will go to church and suggest the same to all my friends." Jesus loved the church and gave Himself for it. If it meant that much to Him how can we please Him when we are neglectful of the church. "How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation." Our revival begins next Sunday morning to continue through two weeks. Dr. Virgil H. Fisher, pastor of the First Methodist church, Austin, will be with us Monday the 14th. Read special announcement.

Sunday school 9:45 a.m. New life is being seen in this work. Preaching 10:50 a.m. Subject "What Is a Revival?" Young people's services 1:30 p.m. and 7:15 p.m. Preaching 8:00 p.m. Subject "The Seventh Commandment: 'Thou shalt not commit adultery.'"

A welcome to all the services of this church awaits you. Be among those who attend church regularly.—John K. Beery, Minister.

RURAL ELECTRIFICATION MASS MEETING CALLED

A meeting will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday, June 15, in Lake Merritt schoolhouse to receive the reports of committees who have been securing the names of applicants for electric service through the government's Rural Electrification Administration.

A pleasant surprise awaits those who think it will be expensive to connect with the new high line. All any individual will be called on to pay for will be the wiring of his own home, as the administration will bring the current from the high line to his house without expense to the user.

After learning the low cost of the project, practically every resident of Big Valley and Rock Springs has signed an application and other sections of the county are fast joining up. Mrs. M. T. Cook, one of the organizers states. Everyone in Mills county who is interested in securing low cost electric current for his home is urged to attend the meeting Tuesday evening.

A TOUGH CITIZEN

Some fellows can get away with anything. There's one in our neighborhood who does. Morals don't mean a thing to him, he's unmarried and lives openly with a woman he's crazy about, and does not care what the neighbors say or think, he has no regard for truth or law. The duties of the so-called good citizen are just so much bunk as far as he is concerned. He does not vote at the primaries or the general election, he never thinks of paying a bill. We have seen him take a $2 taxi ride without giving the driver so much as a pleasant look, the driver only stared at him and muttered something silly. He won't work a lick, he won't go to church, or fool around with musical instruments. So far as known he has no intellectual or cultural interests at all. He is so indolent he'd let the house burn down and not turn in an alarm, the telephone can ring itself to pieces and he won't bother to answer it. Nobody knows where he stands on the liquor question, as one minute he's dry and the next minute he's wet. But we'll say this for him, in spite of all his faults he comes from a swell family. He's our new baby.—Savoy Star.

Bond Election Set for June 22

Pursuant to a petition from voters and taxpayers of the Goldthwaite Independent school district, an election has been called for Tuesday, June 22, to decide whether or not bonds to the amount of $10,000 shall be issued by the district for local school improvements.

The purpose of the bonds is to finance the construction of sanitary toilets and make connections with the newly opened city sewer system and to provide two additional rooms for the grammar school. The bonds can be financed without increasing either the present school tax rate or renditions, according to Duke Clements, secretary.

There is a mistaken idea, Mr. Clements says, that taxpayers of the Goldthwaite Independent School District are paying for the education of school children living in other districts where the tax rate is lower than here. This difference is paid by the state through its equalization fund, and there is no additional expense to the local taxpayers. Consequently if these other school districts should raise their taxes, the state would pay less from its equalization fund.

$55,894 Is Paid Out In Mills County

With payments under the 1936 Agricultural Conservation program practically complete, the Texas triple A force has certified for payment to the general accounting office 535 Mills county applications, total $55,894.02, according to W. P. Weaver, county agricultural agent.

Total payments for the state are expected to be slightly in excess of $3 million dollars. To date the Texas office has certified for the payment of 182,929 applications totaling $32,482,416.53, figures released by Geo. Slaughter, chairman of the Texas Agricultural Conservation committee, show.

Approximately the same number of contracts have been signed for 1937 payments, according to Mr. Weaver.

OFFER FREE VACATION FOR TWO LOCAL BOYS

Two Mills county boys may have a 30 day outing at Camp Bullis near San Antonio with all expenses paid, L. B. Porter, county clerk, has announced. The Citizens Military Training Corps will pay the transportation to and from the camp, will clothe, feed, train and entertain the boys in camp, and will give them a certificate if their work is satisfactory.

Every year thousands of young Americans enjoy the CMTC camps, and those who attend three of them are given commissions as reserve officers in the United States Army. The number who are accepted is limited, and in many counties a large waiting list exists.

The camp begins July 7. As only two boys will be accepted from Mills county, applicants should see Mr. Porter at once. Applicants must be between 17 and 29 years of age and in good physical condition.

EDITOR ATTENDS MEETING OF TEXAS PRESS GROUP

Mrs. R. M. Thompson, editor of The Eagle is one of the hostesses for the Texas Press Association meeting which is being held in Brownwood on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. She was accompanied to Brownwood by her grandson, Lawrence M. Stokes, and Mrs. J. H. Randolph.

Jack and Mary Going to Fair

They're in again, and this time in person—Jack Benny and the quipping Mary Livingstone, radio's favorites, who will appear July 3, 4 and 5 at the Pan American Exposition in Dallas. In a glass broadcast booth, the No. 1 comedy team of the air will perform in the Cotton Bowl stadium, where 17,000 international fair-goers can sit and watch. They headline the fourth week of the Exposition, which opens June 12.

NEWSPAPER FOLKS TO BE PAN-AM GUESTS

Newspaper people of Texas have received notification from Frank N. Watson, assistant director general of the Greater Texas and Pan American Exposition, that Sunday, June 13, the second day of the exposition, is designated as Texas Press day.

Among other interesting entertainments, stress is laid on the special showing of Cavalcade of the Americas which will give a performance for the press on Saturday night at 9:30. This year's cavalcade will depict in a thrilling manner five centuries of history in the western hemisphere.

The highlights of the Sunday program for the editors and their families is the Pan American Casino, which George Marshall, director of entertainment at the exposition, says is the most elaborate cafe theater in the world. For the edification of the newspaper folk the Casino will present the most outstanding bands and the most famous entertainers of two continents in this Sunday evening program.

SIX PRIDDY BOYS WIN CERTIFICATES OF MERIT

Stephenville.—A. J. Spangler, director of the department of agriculture at John Tarleton College, announced that certificates of merit for agricultural achievements have been awarded from Texas Area IV headquarters to six Priddy boys.

Awards went to the following: Adolph Kvnkel, for butchering; Erwin Gromatsky, for butchering and establishing terrace lines; Victor Schrank, Raymond Schrank, Walter Kluge and Ira Townsend, for establishing terrace lines.

The certificates of merit are degree requirements in F. F. A. In order to be a Future Farmer a boy must earn one certificate and before he can be a Lone Star farmer he has to earn two more.

The degrees are awarded for excellence in 43 types of projects through which F. F. A. trains boys for agricultural leadership. Of 1980 certificates issued from Tarleton since June 1 1936, 20 have gone to Mills county boys. Ten have gone to Goldthwaite F. F. A. members and 16 to Priddy members.

BLUE BONNET CLUB

The Blue Bonnet Club met with Mrs. Warren in an all day meeting the first Tuesday in June. There were nine members present and two visitors, Mrs. Gray and Mrs. George Hill. We enjoyed having those ladies with us. Visitors are always welcome.

We spent the day quilting, embroidering and eating and having a good time. When the noon hour came we all decided Mrs. Warren knew how to prepare a good dinner.

At 12 o'clock we had our business meeting. It was time to elect officers. Those elected were Mrs. Warren, president; Mrs. Claud Smith, vice president; Mrs. Clyde Featherston, secretary; Mrs. Dan Covington, reporter. After the business meeting we all soon finished the quilt and embroidery. Mrs. Warren assisted by Mrs. Featherston and Mrs. Covington served cake, fruit and lemonade.

Our next meeting will be with Mrs. Claud Smith June 15.—Reporter.

Mrs. Dan Covington and Mrs. Scrivner made a pleasant visit at The Eagle office Saturday.

W. M. Johnston, secretary of the Retail Merchants Association, celebrated his birthday Monday, but The Eagle is not at liberty to tell his age; however, we can tell that more than 60 years ago while celebrating his seventh birthday he was in a log cutting contest and while he won the contest, yet he overdid the matter by chopping off his toe.

Alva Ford of Scallorn visited at The Eagle office a few minutes Saturday.

Editor E. C. Lowe of the Lometa Reporter transacted business at The Eagle office Monday afternoon.

Joyce May Weaver of Coleman spent last week with Dorothy Eunice Morris, who returned home with her for a few days' visit. On their way to Coleman they stopped in Brownwood for a short visit with Kathryn Bledsoe.

Mrs. Bill Manning of Long Cove visited in The Eagle office Saturday morning and brought with her the lovely little daughter, Ola Lavon, who is now three months old and is delighted with the world she lives in, if smiles signify happiness for she smiles all the while.

A. B. Cullipher from DeWitt, Ark., arrived Monday morning to visit his son, L. A. Moon, and family. He paid The Eagle a much appreciated call Monday afternoon in company with Mr. and Mrs. Moon and daughter, Lorena Ann. Mr. Cullipher's home is in the great rice district of Arkansas and also in a very fine fishing section.

DOGS ARE BLAMED FOR KILLING STOCK

Austin.—Police dogs, that are also known as shepherd dogs, are said to belle their name in at least some parts of Texas.

Senator E. M. Davis of Brownwood claims they kill sheep and goats as wantonly as wolves. One rancher in his district, he said, lost 100 sheep, and losses in Brown county alone were more than $20,000 in the past twelve months, he claimed.

Davis, sponsor of a house approved bill designed to stop the slaughter of valuable stock by dogs, said present laws were ineffective.

His first attempt to bring up the measure in the senate was disappointing. So many colleagues sent up amendments to exempt their districts that the law would not have applied to but two senatorial districts.

The proposal was to permit counties by a majority vote to require the registration of all dogs and compel owners to pen them at night when most of the killing allegedly occurs.

"You can lay the blame for livestock slaughter on dogs because there are no wolves in Brown county," he said. "One friend of mine has lost 18 registered cattle also to the fangs of uncontrolled dogs. There are a thousand running at random in Brown county alone."

He charged police dogs were the worst offenders and that they kill for sport, not for food.

Advice of Accident Prevention

Curing Speeders

Can reckless drivers be curbed? While this free nation debates the question and casts around for a successful formula, dictatorial Germany has decided to get at the roots of the matter by curbing speed. Knowing the psychology of the wild man behind the wheel, Nazi officials have reached the conclusion the temptation to "show off" is reduced to a minimum at 30 miles an hour.

And so, after a man has been convicted of recklessness, his car is given a mechanical adjustment which prevents him from driving more than a 30-mile rate. Furthermore, the machinery carries a police seal to prevent tampering, and one can imagine that the penalty for violation would be something to remember.—Nashville (Tenn.) Tennessean.

What! Jail the Car?

In California Dr. C. F. Cheverton, president of Chapman College, has suggested to the State Traffic Commission the incarceration of automobiles as a means of punishing violators of the law. John Doe, convicted of speeding, for instance, would not pay a fine, but his automobile would go to durance vile for perhaps 10 days, perhaps for 30 days, perhaps for 60 days.

This may seem like a whimsical suggestion, but there is in it the germ of an idea. If it is wise to disarm a man who seems likely to make harmful use of a gun, would it not be wise to disarm a man who has already demonstrated that he cannot use properly a machine just as dangerous as a gun?—Bangor Maine News.

Safety Control Built In

Car manufacturers now build into automobiles devices that can be locked from the instrument panel controlling automatic governors that may be set at any speed.

restrict the driving speed of irresponsible, inexperienced youthful drivers. The father is supposed to set the governor at 30 or 35 miles, and put the key in his pocket.

The judge can do the same thing. If these control devices were required on all cars, and discretion given for the judge to lock any convicted speeder's car to a reasonable limit for a period of a year, it would begin to ingrain a sense of responsibility in those not yet tagged, and put automatic control on those proved guilty of reckless speeding.—Austin American.

Court Hears All Legitimate Cases

Is the Supreme Court able to keep up with its docket?

As set down in our Constitution and as specified by Congress only certain types of cases may be brought before the Supreme Court. It considers those that are submitted, rejects those that are not warranted and hears the balance.

The Solicitor General of the United States, reporting upon the work of the Supreme Court for the twelve months ending June 30, 1936, states: "It is not surprising to find that the high percentage of denials and dismissals of petitions . . . reached the 1936 term. . . It is quite anomalous to regard the court as congested for the correction of error in every case. . . Many petitions (for writs) . . . are filed which in the light of settled practice merit no consideration. . . Every case argued or submitted at the term was disposed of before adjournment. . . The work of the court is current and cases are heard as soon after records have been printed as briefs can be prepared. . . Prompt hearings and decisions were had in all cases of large public interest. . . It is interesting to note," concludes the Solicitor General's report, "that a greater number of cases were docketed at the last term, a greater number disposed of, and a smaller number carried over to the succeeding term than at any other term since the enactment of the act of 1925, except the 1935 term."

W. E. GARNER DEAD

The community was shocked when the message came that Mr. Will E. Garner had passed away Thursday morning.

He was taken ill Sunday afternoon at his home in the Trigger Mountain community and Monday was brought to town to the doctor. It was thought at first that he was suffering from ptomane poisoning, but his condition was not considered serious however his family decided to take him on to Brownwood to the hospital. There his trouble was pronounced appendicitis so an operation was performed on Wednesday and he failed to respond to the treatment afterwards, and passed away early Thursday morning.

He was one of the early business men in this city, having conducted a lumber yard here many years ago. Later he began handling fruit trees and shrubbery until he built up a large nursery business. He also had a fine farm and orchard in the Trigger Mountain community, where he made his home.

He is survived by his wife, three sons and two daughters. He will be buried Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Services will be at the Trigger Mt. church, interment in North Brown cemetery by the side of his mother, who died in 1920. Funeral services will be conducted by Bro. L. L. Hayes, Bro. Jim Hayes and Rev. F. E. Swanner.

AUNT KATIE WILLIAMS

Aunt Katie Williams was born Aug. 14, 1852, died June 2, 1937, being nearly 85 years of age. She was married to Uncle Tom Williams Jan. 17, 1875. To this happy couple were born three children: Mrs. A. E. Weathers of Rawleigh, N. M., Mrs. F. S. Sheldon of Star, and Miss Alice Williams of Center City. All the children were present at the funeral. She leaves also ten grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

She was a member of the Baptist church for 65 years. She was a very consistent and consecrated Christian. She was always faithful to her church. It could easily have been said of her, "She went about doing good."

The funeral services were held at Center City by Rev. J. C. Wade, pastor of her church. She was laid to rest in the Hurst cemetery. The pallbearers were Martin, Brock and Stacy McCasland, Robert Lee, Joe Langford, and Bill Lucas. The flower girls were Rube Nell Head, Shirley Lucas, Brockie D. McCasland, Billy Gean Mason, Von Dean Lucas, Rosa Christine Lucas, Christine Reeves, Ada Margarite Geeslin. Those attending the funeral from out of the county were Jim Williams from Shive, Joe Williams from Brownwood, Herbert Keith from Brownwood, Festus Teague and family from Brownwood, R. A. Hill from Brownwood and Mrs. G. M. Mason from Stephenville.

When a person like Aunt Katie leaves, we can certainly say with the wise man, "Her candle goeth out but not by night." Her example will live on.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Moreland visited the Garner family at the hospital in Brownwood Wednesday night.

Mrs. Pat Fallon and son, Clell, from Paris, Texas, are visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Faulkner.

In the Gartman home as house guests for the coming week are Miss Fenora Myer of Austin and Miss Susan Ayers of Dawn.

Gib Gilchrist, big boss of the Highway Department at Austin, was in Goldthwaite Thursday visiting with old friends and discussing highways. He was the guest of T. F. Toland and family.

STUDY CLUB LUNCHEON

Mrs. John G. Berry was hostess at a luncheon for the Tuesday Study Club Friday, June 4, at 1 p.m., which climaxed the year's program for the club.

The dining table was laid with a beautiful lace cloth centered with a large reflector on which were the statues of "Wisdom" and "Knowledge." The four outstanding books of the club year were placed two at each end of the table. These were open and miniature figures representing the most important characters were placed upon each book. Beautiful magnolias, cape jasmine and tiger lilies were used very efficiently throughout the house.

Following the luncheon, Mrs. Paul McCullough, as chairman of the program committee, read a most interesting program. Because of a sit-down strike among the performers, the entertainment was ended rather abruptly after the first number.

The club presented Mrs. E. T. Fairman, the outgoing president, with a beautiful fiesta vase filled with cape jasmine.

Miss Adeline Little returned Monday night from a two weeks visit with her sisters and families in Sweetwater and Lubbock.

CLASS ENTERTAINED

Wesley Fellowship Class was entertained with a dinner at the Methodist Parsonage Wednesday night, June 8. The object of this meeting was to reorganize the class into a young people's class.

Mrs. J. C. Evans is to be the teacher. The new officers were elected as follows: president, Sarah Fairman; vice president, Buel Condon; secretary treasurer, Mary M. Bigham; reporter, Gertrude Johnson.

A contest is to be held to try to get new members. We would like to have all the young people of this age in the Methodist church present. The winning side will be entertained by the losing side.

We are going to try to make this the liveliest and most interesting class in the Sunday school—Reporter.

Mrs. Lucille Fairman and children spent Thursday in Brownwood visiting in the home of her uncle, John H. Allen, and family, former district commodity supervisor of district 14 who has recently been transferred to San Angelo in WPA work.

Merlin Faulkner of Goldthwaite returned home from Abilene Christian College the last week of May, having completed the sophomore class course.

ELECTRICITY AT BARGAIN RATES

The present year started with the cost of electricity to consumers at the lowest level on record, according to reliable sources. The average price during the first two months was 2.32 cents per kilowatt hour as compared with 2.45 cents a year ago, a decrease of 6.3 per cent. This decrease in price, however, was more than offset by the increase in the volume sold. Revenues from consumers during the first two months amounted to $378,140,000 this year as against $350,361,000 last year, an increase of 7.9 per cent. The maintenance of this increase during the remainder of the year would result in annual revenues reaching a new high record of $2,221,000,000 in 1937. This would compare with the previous high record of $2,058,000,000 in 1935 and with the depression's low of $1,754,000,000 in 1933.

LIVES IN DANGER

With every day bringing news of distressing highway accidents in every section of Texas, residents of Goldthwaite have cause to be thankful that the grim reaper has spared this community so long.

While some of our own citizens are careless, the greatest hazard that faces us today comes from automobiles and trucks that are passing through our city. Many of them speed through the business section at forty and fifty miles an hour, making it unsafe for our people to shop or transact business.

Sooner or later, this will end in a terrible accident. Let us do something now to prevent it, rather than grieve over it when it happens.

It is unfortunate that we insisted on the main highways traversing our principal business street, thus requiring trucks and trailers to career through our busiest section. Many out of town drivers will resent being forced to slow down. But it is a question of their time against our lives.

We earnestly recommend that our city council take action on this question before it is too late.

HAPPY EVER AFTER

And so they were married. Thus ends the first chapter in the love story of Edward, Duke of Windsor, onetime King of England, and his American bride, Wallis Warfield.

This week they are spending their honeymoon in the romantic highlands of Austria while well-wishers all over the world wish them a long and happy married life.

Will the American woman for whom the sovereign of the mightiest empire on earth surrendered his throne be able to make him feel the price was not too high to pay? Will her two previous unsuccessful marriages rise to plague her, or will the experience she has gained enable her to hold the love of her third husband?

After the honeymoon Wallis and Edward must face a world of stern realities. The real test of their love will come as the couple, already near middle age, grows older.

Whatever happens hereafter, they are starting married life with the whole-hearted blessings of a great section of the civilized world.

May they live up to the expectations of other lovers everywhere.

THE LESSON IS PLAIN

Despite the dubious results of the unicameral, or one-house, legislature in Nebraska, the proponents of this system for Texas continue to agitate for its acceptance. The reason for this agitation is clear. Anyone who has had business in Austin while the legislature was in session soon becomes convinced that lobbying is one of Texas' greatest industries.

As one Nebraska lobbyist frankly admits, the one-house legislature is the lobbyist's paradise. Instead of having more than a hundred legislators to contact, he has only one-third as many. The plan proposed for Texas is to limit the legislature to one house with only 42 members, or twice the number of the state's representatives in Congress.

What would happen then is forecast right now by the anti-racing bill for which Governor Allred has had to call the legislature back into special session. In the house of representatives last session this bill was quickly and almost unanimously passed. But in the much smaller state senate, it went down to defeat. In the special session it again passed the house in record time, but met determined, though fruitless, opposition in the senate.

If we had but one house with 42 members, such a bill would have no chance whatever. That alone ought to be reason enough for opposing such an innovation in Texas.

Or Perhaps He Meant Victims

By IRVIN S. COBB

OUT in Germantown which is a suburb of the City of Philadelphia which everyone knows is located somewhere in Pennsylvania, formerly lived an individual who combined the practice of a somewhat un-romantic calling with a poetic temperament. His business was that of a garbage collector and cleaner-out of sewers and drains. But even in the midst of such prosaic surroundings he was much given to landing his conversations with quotations from the poets. Rarely did an occasion go by without the customary poetic urge, nor was he ever at a loss for some classic reference.

A situation arose one day where his services as an expert drainer were required at the home of one of the famous townsmen of his. A playwright and author called him in to fix the kitchen drain which was very much clogged up.

The official cleaner arrived equipped with the tools of his trade. He removed the cover of the outlet and then for a moment he paused. The job was of such magnitude that even an experienced hand like himself was abashed. Slowly and almost reluctantly he rolled up his sleeves, meanwhile dubiously eyeing the job which confronted him.

He shook his head several times and then finally as he took a deep breath of resolution he turned to the playwright saying, "Well, I suppose I might just as well go ahead. After all, 'to the victor belong the spoils'."

A. The Texas escort appointed by Houston was composed of Gen. Barnard E. Bee, Col. G. W. Hockley and Maj. W. H. Patton. At New Orleans, Santa Anna asked Gen. Bee to endorse his draft for $1,000 to pay his trip expenses. The draft was presented and Santa Anna refused to refund the money. The congress of the Republic of Texas finally repaid Bee.

Q. Who were the "Red Rovers" and by whom were they commanded?

A. The "Red Rovers" were a company of 75 young men from Courtland, Ala., organized and commanded by Dr. John (Jack) Shackelford, who financed them and was their captain. Dressed in red jeans and carrying a red banner, they left Courtland Dec. 12, 1835, arrived at Copano Bay about the middle of January, 1836, and were placed in Fanning's Regiment, which was massacred at Goliad. Dr. Shackelford escaped the slaughter because of medical services he rendered the wounded Mexicans and returned to Alabama in June 1836. Shackelford county was named for him.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

VIEWS OF THE NATION'S PRESS ON TOPICS OF INTEREST

STANDARDS IN ADVERTISING AND IN PUBLIC SERVICE

In sending his regrets that "earlier official commitments" would prevent him from attending the Advertising Federation of America convening in New York (June 20-23) Governor Herbert H. Lehman thus lauded the calling:

"Advertising is an important influence in our daily lives. It introduces to us new commodities and stimulates our desire to purchase old and established articles of consumption. It is necessary to the general well being that advertising be in the hands of men and women of integrity and ideals."

The New York governor's letter to Chester H. Lang, chairman of the Federation's directorate, expressed confidence that the advertising profession perceives its responsibilities and would discharge them religiously. No doubt Mr. Lehman recalled that at its meeting in Boston last year, the Federation commemorated the 25th anniversary of the Truth in Advertising Movement's beginnings in that city. On that occasion, also, the Federation reaffirmed its declaration of principles adopted at Baltimore in 1913 and scrupulously maintained since:

"We believe in upholding the hands worthy to be upheld, and we believe that each and every member owes a duty to this association of enforcing the code of morals based on truth in advertising and truth and integrity in all the functions pertaining thereto."

Perhaps Governor Lehman also recalled what President Wilson said to the Federation's Philadelphia convention in 1915:

"It is one thing to entertain fine principles and another thing to make them work... and I wish very much that truth and candor might always be the standard of politics, as well as the standard of business."

Could the standard to which the War President referred be established and maintained in legislative halls, there would be fewer attempts to impose punitive taxes and unfair restrictions upon advertising and other legitimate business enterprises. —San Antonio Express.

SALVATION ARMY OUSTER

Important news in the Salvation Army last week was an announcement from London that 70-year-old Com. Henry W. Mapp had been "dismissed."

Some time ago, Gen. Evangelina Cory Booth, leader of the World Wide Salvation Army, hurried home to London from an official visit in the East Indies. Shortly thereafter, Com. Mapp, her chief of staff, took to his bed with illness and it was formally announced that he had been relieved of his post because of poor health. Reports persisted, however, that there was more to the story than sickness.

Last week the court had reported against him and the announcement that he had retired because of ill health was changed to dismissal because of personal misconduct. Just what the misconduct charges were, however, remained a secret. —Pathfinder.

WIDENING SOCIAL SECURITY

House and senate committees will open hearings early in June on proposed changes in the Social Security Act. Senator Wagner last week urged that the act's coverage be extended to most of the workers not now included. President Roosevelt, on the same day implied opposition to increasing the social security expenditures, but his opposition was considered as directed at the noncontributory features of social security, rather than to its extension to groups now barred from the contributory benefits. At about the same time, Mrs. Roosevelt recommended that farm laborers and domestic servants be brought under the act.

That not enough people are covered by the old age and unemployment benefits of the act is asserted by almost all groups and persons who have studied its provisions an probable effects. A rough estimate is that about one-half of the working population is not covered. The largest group among the non-included is made up of the self-employed, consisting of owners and proprietors and professional people, these numbering about 12,000,000. The next largest group is that of farm laborers, numbering about 2,750,000, and closely followed by domestic and personal service workers, numbering about 2,250,000. Among the workers excluded from one of the two benefit classes, employees in small establishments, lead with 5,000,000, these being excluded from unemployment compensation benefits only. The total of those excluded from old age annuities or unemployment compensation or both is estimated at 27,000,000, as against a total of 49,000,000 gainfully employed in 1930.

The president's committee on economic security, whose report furnished the basis of the present act, recommended that the old age problem of professional and self employed persons be met at least partially, by a voluntary government annuity system. Congress eliminated from the draft of the act a provision to that effect, this being due, it was understood at the time, to opposition of insurance companies.

The formulators of the act evidently favored restricted coverage at the beginning, lest the administration of the act be overcomplicated at its inception. It was expected that the exemptions would be gradually reduced as more experience was built up behind the act. This has been the history of social security legislation in Europe.

There are, however, problems involved in extensions in this country which were not present in Europe. Groups such as farm laborers and domestic servants are more stable in employment in Europe than in the United States. The migratory habits of many workers, in a country so vast as the United States, make especially difficult the problem of spreading social security coverage to all or almost all workers.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

Fifty-nine per cent of Texas population lives on farms and most of the other 41 per cent depend to some extent on farm-er buying power for a livelihood.

Johnnie McGuire, 3 1/2 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Evan McGuire of Comanche, is in a Brownwood hospital recovering from injuries first believed to have been fatal when he was run over by a 1937 Chevrolet sedan on S. Main Street in front of his father's drug store about 3:00 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Both a front and a rear wheel passed over the little fellow's waist, causing internal injuries. He was rushed to the hospital and for several days his life was almost despaired of.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Sullivan spent several days last week on a visit to Goldthwaite, San Saba and other Central Texas points. The unfortunate accident that happened on the Comanche square last Saturday when a little child was run down by an automobile and seriously injured emphasizes the fact that there is too much fast driving on the square, although this particular car may not have been driven at a fast rate.

One of our leading businessmen this week called attention to the fact that the stop signs at the four corners of the square were not being heeded and that cars and especially trucks were being operated on the square at a dangerous rate of speed.—Chief.

This money is collected each month and a receipt is issued for it. When the amount of money collected equals the cost of the Kelvinator, the Meter-Ator is removed and you own the Kelvinator.

IT'S A FACT! For as little as 10c a day you can own a Plus-Powered Kelvinator—the refrigerator that gives you twice the cooling capacity with half the running time.

You can enjoy it without bothering to mail monthly or weekly remittances or making repeated trips to our store to meet installments. You simply drop as little as 10c a day into the handy little Meter-Ator which we install when we deliver your Kelvinator.

As little as 10c a day and your Kelvinator will soon be paid for. Why, Kelvinator's economy will save you more than that each day. So, why wait any longer? Come into our store and choose your Kelvinator today.

provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed.

The fact that there is now no adequate traffic ordinance and regulation of travel on the third and last reading, and is unanimously adopted by the City Council of the City of Gold-

THE REQUEST

Fill my soul, O visioned
slumber,
With the purest thoughts
there be;
Fill with thoughts, mind not the number,
Thus, my soul, I'll give to Thee.

Take my soul, O visioned
slumber,
To the realm of mystic land;
Where Time and the Muses dwell,
Where firs and the tamarack stand.

Where symbols flash the living truth,
And thoughts, not found in a book,
Give the soul a higher feeling
And the face a nobler look.

Then, my soul, O visioned
slumber,
Will I give, for e'er to Thee;
And in dreams of wider wonder,
Know my life, and infinity.

Newspaper Editors Receive Thank You

At the annual meeting of the National Tuberculosis Association held in Milwaukee, Wis., on May 31 to June 3, the Texas Tuberculosis Association was given fourth place in a nation wide newspaper publicity contest on the Christmas Seal sale for 1936.
First, second and third place went to Minnesota, District of Columbia, and Wisconsin respectively. Honorable mention was given Oregon, Virginia and Arkansas.

The judges took into consideration not only the amount of publicity on the seal sale which appeared in state papers, but also its educational value in the campaign against tuberculosis.
Texas' scrap book contained an imposing array of news stories, articles, editorials, photographs and cartoons of health educational value, all of which helped in the sale of Christmas seals which support the work of the tuberculosis associations. Texas has an increase of about 10 per cent, $11,000, in the 1936 seal sale over the 1935 sale.

Texas newspapers deserve a large share of the credit for the increase in the 1936 Christmas Seal sale and for the continued decrease in our tuberculosis death rate. In behalf of the Texas Tuberculosis Association and its affiliated county organizations, I want to express our sincere appreciation for your splendid cooperation in the tuberculosis program.

Cordially yours,
Nancy Nichols,
Executive Secretary.

JENKINS-HICKS

Miss Ethyl Olivia Jenkins, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Jenkins, was married to Charles Monte Hicks of Brownwood Friday at 8 p.m. in a beautiful ceremony at the University Methodist church.

The ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Edmund Heinsohn, pastor of the University Methodist church.

Mr. Billy Triggs of Cameron sang the nuptial solo, "Because" with Miss Lucille Dickard accompanying at the piano, immediately preceding the Men-delsohn wedding march. "To a Wild Rose" was played softly during the ceremony.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Anice Jenkins, who wore pale blue mouseline de soie with a deep shirred yoke and full skirt with lace insets.

The bride wore pale pink chif-fon with a deep shirred yoke and full sleeves, lavishly trimmed in pale pink silk lace. The ends of the wide pink velvet sash fell the length of the long, full skirt. A shower bouquet of pink rosebuds and lilies of the valley was carried by the bride, and a coronet of lilies of the valley was worn.

The men in the wedding party wore white linen with boutonnieres. Ushers were John B.
Henderson of Cameron and Tom Graves of Austin.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's sister at 2814 San Pedro street. The dining room table was covered with cloth of point Venise lace with a centerpiece of white gladdolas and carnations and can-dalabra of crystal with tall pink tapers. A double ring wedding cake and pink bon bons were served. Mrs. F. R. Kittredge of Enid, Okla., presided over the bride's cake.

The going away costume of the bride was a Carnelian chif-fon suit frock with touches of white with Carnelian and white accessories.

The couple will be at home for the summer in Austin, where Mr. Hicks will continue his work in the University toward his Ph. D. degree.

Mr. Hicks is the son of Mr.
and Mrs. J. M. Hicks and received his master of arts degree in 1935. Miss Jenkins also is an ex-student of the University.

Charles Hicks is a nephew of The Eagle editor and is well known here, as his family lived here for a number of years. He graduated from the high school here and then attended the University of Texas. After receiving his degree there he returned to Goldthwaite and was a member of the high school fac-
