Fine Rain Falls Early This Week

Beginning Sunday a fine rain of nearly two inches fell in this section early this week. Ranges have been greatly benefitted and the supply of tank water increased. All signs point to a fine season being created for next year's crop.

Oil Well Drilling Stopped By Rain

After being halted temporarily by the rain, drilling of the well on Pecan Byou has been resumed this week. Exact figures on the depth reaches are not available, but the bit is in the shale, which would indicate that it is close to the half way mark.

Road Construction Going Ahead Fine

Construction work on highway 7 towards Star was interrupted by the rain Monday and Tuesday of this week, but started again Wednesday.

The big shovel is now located 3 1-2 miles from Goldthwaite and additional carpenters have been on the job in order to keep ahead of the shovel with the building of forms for culverts and bridges.

The Eagle is printing most of the paper early this week in order to join the other business houses of the town in celebrating Armistice Day in a fitting manner. The co-operation of its advertisers and correspondents in getting their copy in early is very much appreciated.

LOMETA FUTURE FARMERS BROADCAST

The Lometa Future Farmers Broadcast over station KNEI, Brady, Texas, Nov. 6 at 4 p. m., featured trench silos for the agricultural part of the fifteenth program. The program was introduced by the Future Farmer March played on the piano by Syble Miller. The ceremony of opening the meeting was rendered by the following officers and members: Fred Sanderson, president; Weldon Turnbo, acting vice-president; M. F. Kirby, secretary; Douglas Brown, treasurer; Thurman Head, reporter; J. H. Starr, adviser and vocational agriculture teacher; L. D. Petty, member; and Syble Miller, piano accompanist.

M. F. Kirby made the address and announced the musical numbers on the program which were in the order following: Blue Eyes, Under the Double Eagle, The Quilting Party, and The Waltz You Saved For Me. The numbers were played by Weldon Turnbo, violin; Thurman Head and L. D. Petty, guitars and Syble Miller, piano.

After the last number, the Lometa Future Farmers rendered the ceremony for closing the meeting which ended their program.

FINE PERSIMMONS

Mr. J. J. Cockrell, brought the Eagle Editor some very fine persimmons which were raised on his fruit farm in Big Valley.

OBSERVE TWENTY-FIFTH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

One of the largest crowds ever assembled in Mills County for a like purpose was that gathered together at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Tischler on Sunday, Nov. 7, to help them observe and celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary. It was indeed a testimonial of the high esteem and honor this family is held in by their whole community. A real spirit of hospitality and well-being pervaded the whole gathering and long will those who attended remember it.

Mrs. Tischler's parents, are Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stahnke, Mr. Tischler's parents are Mr. and Mrs. G. Fischer. Both families were prominent in the development of the Priddy community. Mr. and Mrs. Tischler were married in the Zion's Lutheran Church at Priddy and are now members of the St. John's Lutheran Church of the same place. For the past twenty-three years they have lived on the home place of his parents and are considered one of Mills County's most valuable farmers.

Many beautiful and servicable gifts were received. A sumptuous feast was served and all enjoyed the repast thoroughly.

CONTINUES STUDIES

Henry Dalton of Goldthwaite has returned to Draughon's Business College, Abilene, to complete his accounting course.

Eagles to Play Strong Gustine Team Today

The Goldthwaite Eagles will play the Gustine High School football team this afternoon at field which was established early in the season at the water works lot.

Although Gustine is a Class C team, they have one of the strongest teams in this section of the state. The Comanche Indians who beat the Eagles 19 to 0, barely defeated the Gustine team 13 to 0, and Gustine beat Star by a large score.

As this promises to be one of the best games the Eagles have played, everyone is urged to attend and give the home team plenty of backing.

"OH PROFESSOR"

"Oh, Professor," a three act musical comedy play will be presented Thursday and Friday nights, Nov. 18 and 19 at 7:45 p. m. at Star in the school auditorium under the sponsorship of the P. T. A. with 38 local people taking part.

Oren Soules will take the part of Steve Crandall, the leading man of the production, a bashful college boy.

Bob Davis (Elsworth Karnes) is Steve's roommate and second leading man, a good looking boy and popular with the ladies.

Gordon Williamson will assume the character of Professor Bangs, the title role of the play. He portrays a nervous, eccentric middle-aged teacher of Botany, who is always running after some young girl.

Naomi Boykin will enact the role of Mrs. Bumboard, middle-aged college matron and widow whose main object is angling for the professor.

Avonelle, daughter of Mrs. Bumboard an able assistant in her mother's campaign is ably played by little Nelda Ruth Poe. Lena Bell Hill has been cast as Wilhelmina Davis, Bob's sister and leading lady. She disguises as a Spanish dancer and plays a part full of pep and vivacity.

As Helen Bainbridge, Virginia Clover will carry the second lead, playing opposite Bob Davis. Dave Davis (Cress Steele) is Bob's brother who disguises as a Spanish dancing girl and passes himself off as such with huge success.

The part of Chink, the Chinese servant, will be taken by Elwyn Jeter, who is vevly, vevly Chinese.

A featured number in the play will be the "Butterfly Chorus" with eight men as "Flowers" led by the Professor as "Butterfly."

The chorus girls are as follows: Lois Black, Lo Dell Boykin, Ina Rickel Viola Collier, Rosa Lee Sheldon, Gloice Howard, Ruth Arnold, Ina Beth Soules, Lula Mae Neighbors, Irene Stevens, Rexine Clifton, Mina Dee Gent, Alice Beach.

With such a carefully selected cast and supported by excellent singing groups, "Oh, Professor" must needs be one of the most fascinating evening's entertainment that has been offered to Star and the neighboring towns.

POPULARITY CONTEST

This contest is sponsored by the P. T. A. in connection with the play, "Oh Professor." Any child getting the most votes and one to the sponsor of the winner. See the poster with the score in Star Cash Store. The winner will be announced from the stage during one of the interludes. See Mrs. Bernice Fields, for information concerning the contest.

P.-T. A. REPORT

In spite of inclement weather a good number were present at the third meeting of the Goldthwaite Parents and Teachers Association meeting.

Mrs. T. C. Hatchett had charge of an interesting program. She was assisted by Mamie Lou Womack, Billie Saylor, Luther Tyson and Catherine Fairman.

Following the program a short business meeting was held. The First Grade mothers acted as hostesses.

KELLY SAYLOR ILL

Kelly Saylor was hurried to Temple Monday morning where an emergency operation was performed for appendicitis and stomach trouble.

He stood the operation fine and was doing nicely at last report.

BOB COCKRUM HURT

Bob Cockrum had his arm badly crushed last week when his car was sideswiped by a truck close to Snyder. He was taken to a hospital in Snyder. His arm can be saved but it is likely to be stiff.

They were to set the arm Wednesday and it is hoped he will do well and soon be able to come home.

RECEIVED ANNOUNCEMENT

The Eagle Editor received an invitation this week to the wedding of W. G. (Bill) Yarborough and Miss Virginia Williams of Gilmer which will take place on Friday November 19th. All of Bill's friends are sure that he has chosen wisely and the Editor joins them in wishing he and his bride much happiness and prosperity through life.

Wednesday night the citizens of Goldthwaite enjoyed watching an Army parade forty miles long, as all four columns of the Army's proposed infantry division marched through the town on their way to Mineral Wells for a sham battle Friday.

The troops had spent Tuesday night and Wednesday in bivouac at Lometa, San Saba and Richland Springs. At Goldthwaite they again divided, and one column of infantry and artillery turned off toward Evant on its way to Walnut Springs, while the main body went to Stephenville by way of Comanche.

There were no horses or mules or marching men, everyone being transported in cars or trucks. The men were on the alert to protect themselves from a simulated air attack by two squadrons of 18 planes each from Barksdale Field, La. After reaching Priddy, 18 miles north of Goldthwaite, orders were passed down the line to extinguish all lights, and the 700 cars and trucks traveled the 21 miles to Comanche in darkness with not as much as a lighted cigarette to betray their position to the enemy air planes.

The flyers released magnesium flares, however, which lighted up the country for miles around and with their aid located the moving column and swooped over it spraying it with a coffee colored distillate to represent gas and machine gun bullets.

Captain M. Y. Stokes, Jr., Goldthwaite postmaster, was ordered to Fort Sam Houston Sunday to participate in the week's march. He is assigned to the Intelligence section of the division general staff.

The soldiers are getting plenty to eat—an average of five and one-half pounds of food per

HIGHWAY BEAUTIFICATION

The progressive state highway department is carrying on a road beautification program which should receive the support of all.

Few states of the nation can boast the attractive roadside parks found throughout Texas, established and maintained by the highway department for the convenience of the traveling public. These beauty spots are equipped with picnic tables, benches and barbecue pits where travelers may pause for lunch. There usually is a well, or a cool spring, nearby.

There are 365 such roadside parks in Texas.

An occasional flower garden, well cultivated, is to be found along Texas roads, creations of the highway department.

Trees are being planted along the highways. In the Houston division, which comprises eight counties, 6677 trees and 10,000 shrubs were planted along the roads last year, and the year. More than 2000 pounds of flower seeds have been planted by the department. A nursery recently was established in Montgomery County to provide trees and shrubs for the department.

Ultimately, if plans of the department are carried out, roads across the prairies will be lined with beautiful trees.

MEETING PLACE OF CULTURE

Within the borders of Texas may be hidden links in the history of our earliest ancestors, according to archaeologists. Texas is in the heart of a great North American triangle whose corners are the Maya-Aztec section, the Pueblo area and the mound-builder area. Since these three great cultures found a common ground in Texas, many hints as to their inter-tribal relationships are being found and studied today.

A poorly nourished body just can't hold up. And as for that run-down feeling, that nervous fatigue, — don't neglect it!

Cardui, for lack of appetite, poor digestion and nervous fatigue, has been recommended by mothers to daughters — women to women — for over fifty years.

Try it! Thousands of women testify Cardui helped them. Of course, if it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

SELF-TIMERS

You can take a picture of the family picnic and be in it yourself by using a self timer.

THE question is often asked, "Is there any way that I can take a snapshot of my friends and include myself in the picture?"

There certainly is a way and a simple one. Use a self timer.

A self timer is a most fascinating little gadget and almost human in its operation. It is an inexpensive accessory that fits over the metal button, or plunger, at the end of the cable release, which you press to take a snapshot with a folding camera. It cannot, however, be used unless the camera is fitted with a cable release.

Here is how it works. First you locate your subject in the finder and at the same time plan the space you will occupy when you step into the picture.

Suppose you want to take a picture of a group on a picnic or at the beach. You will have to have the camera on a tripod, table or something solid. Locate the group in the finder—and be sure you can see the spot you will occupy or you may be among those missing when the prints are returned.

When the lens aperture is set at the proper opening with the correct shutter speed, the same as if you were going to snap the picture yourself, set the self timer for the length of time it would take you to get to your place in the group. Slip the self timer over the button at the end of the cable release and press the little releasing lever on the timer. It starts buzzing away, you rejoin the group and then—click—it has taken the picture and you're in it.

You can purchase a self timer attachment from almost any store that sells photographic supplies. They are not expensive and last a lifetime.

Some cameras have self timers incorporated in the shutter construction, so if you have this type of camera and have never used the self timer you have missed a lot of fun and picture taking opportunities.

DOGS ON THE DECLINE

Are Texans turning back on "man's best friend?" Figures show that there are around 600 fewer dogs in this state now than in 1935, when there were less than in 1934.

Counting mongrels, lapdogs, watchdogs, sheepdogs and all varieties there were only 3900 of them in 1936. Either a great number of grouchy neighbors are getting out the poison kits or owners don't rate their pets worthy of a license any more. Or perhaps their ancient feline enemies are finally getting the upper hand.

Muscular Rheumatic Pains

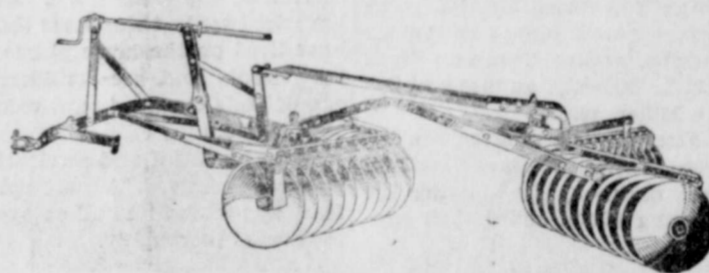

It takes more than "just a salve" to draw them out. It takes a "counter-irritant" like good old Musterole — soothing, warming, penetrating and helpful in drawing out the local congestion and pain when rubbed on the aching spots.

Muscular lumbago, soreness and stiffness generally yield promptly.

Better than the old-fashioned mustard plaster, Musterole has been used by millions for 30 years. Recommended by many doctors and nurses. All druggists. In three strengths: Regular Strength, Children's (mild), and Extra Strong.

TO EVERY WORKER:
If you are unemployed or partly unemployed and are seeking work, please fill out this report card right now and mail it before midnight, Saturday, November 20, 1937. A stamp is needed.

BUILD WELL WITH LUMBER

The essential qualities of a home, and which determine how it shall be built, are: First, protection from heat and cold; then comfort, convenience and ventilation. Appearance, durability, low first cost and upkeep are factors, too.

Wood is the universal and most accepted home building material. All builders understand building with lumber. It is easiest to work, lowest in first cost, and imparts to the structure a natural, home-like appearance.

Lumber is nature's provision for our comfort. It conducts neither heat nor cold, and an occasional coat of paint will brighten and preserve it indefinitely.

Before you can build well with lumber, a wise selection of design must be made. Examine our many plans of distinctive homes before building.

BULLDOGS

Goldthwaite Eagles showed strength Friday night by defeating the Burnet by the heavy score of 51 to 19. This score was made by the heavy score of 51 to 19. This score was made by the heavy score of 51 to 19.

PEP SQUAD

Only a very few members of the pep squad attended the Burnet game last Friday. Those of us who did not attend rejoice over the great news and commendable reports of those who were fortunate enough to find a way down there. We regret that we had to miss such a grand game, however, we realize that it was almost impossible to take the entire club in busses that distance.

THE SPOTLIGHT

The Spotlight shines this week on Christine Denman. Christine is sixty-six inches tall, weighs 105 pounds and is nineteen years old. She is fortunate in having pretty blond, curly hair and an even disposition.

ADOLESCENT ANTICS

News of the week: Fred Marshall had his hair cut. Mr. Peterson should write a book on "How to Trick Hard-Working School Teachers out of 50¢ at a Ball Game." He pulled the same trick twice, but it won't work again.

Goldthwaite plays her last major game next Friday and I think we should close this football season with a victory! How about it, Eagles? Shall we beat Llano?

ATTENDANCE REPORT

The following analysis of attendance in high school for the first report period should be of interest to those who are concerned about the efficiency of the school.

P. T. A. PROGRAM

The following program was given by the high school students at Parent-Teacher's Association Tuesday afternoon.

ADOLESCENT ANTICS

News of the week: Fred Marshall had his hair cut. Mr. Peterson should write a book on "How to Trick Hard-Working School Teachers out of 50¢ at a Ball Game."

There were 132 absences recorded during the period. This is slightly less than two percent, meaning that we had an attendance record of 98 per cent. The 132 absences were distributed for causes as follows: Work 38, sickness 61, missed bus 8, attending funerals 9, miscellaneous 16.

During the same report period there were 12 tardies, seven of these were excused and five were not.

EXTEMPORANEOUS CLUB

The Extemporaneous Club, sponsored by Miss Love Gatlin, met for the first time about 3 weeks ago and planned a one-act play. This play, "Setting the Nation Right," was staged at the Hallowe'en Carnival on Tuesday, Nov. 2, the club met with about sixteen members present and chose two officers: president, Jean Goosby and reporter, Oleta Henry.

Will you, as parents, kindly help us keep as good report as this throughout the entire year. Each day of absence, no matter how good the reason may be, takes away just that much from the efficiency of the school.

SOPHOMORE SMATTERS

Tuesday morning the Sophomores had charge of the assembly program. The program was kept lively by the master—or, suppose we say, mistress of ceremonies, Wilda Bledsoe.

Then, as the climax of the program, Harriet Allen related incidents in "The Bear Story." We are glad to hear that he made a "straight A" card the first six weeks of school.

GOOD MORNING CLUB

Tuesday, November 2, the Good Morning Club met and elected Euna V. Barnett as advisor of the club. It was decided to charge 10¢ every time a member was tardy, but it was amended that for anyone who had a very good excuse for being tardy, the rule would not be in effect. It was also decided that a person must pay 25¢ if he was absent without an excused permit. It was also voted that the Good Morning Club be limited to Seniors only. There had to be some few pennies returned after the latter motion was made. At the present census, the Good Morning Club has fourteen members. The meeting places have not been decided at the present.

GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club has been meeting every Monday and Wednesday for its regular practice and after school, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, for its special practice. The club has been working on "In the Luxembourg Gardens," and "O Peaceful Night." At the next practice, we will begin two new numbers, "Vesper Hymn" and "London-derry Air."

FRESHMAN GOSSIP

Come on students and let's see if we can either be on time for school or have a good excuse. Mr. Cloninger has heard these excuses of the clock being slow, had to run on errand, or a train across the track, so much that he is becoming doubtful of some student's truthfulness. There is no doubt that some times a student cannot help from being late but when the same students are late two or three times a week, something must be wrong. See if you can get up a bit earlier or do your morning chores faster because it is very confusing to have a great number of tardy students running in and out the home rooms. If you have to be late, please have a new excuse for it would be pleasing to Mr. Cloninger's ears to hear one.—Junior Reporter.

ROCK SPRINGS

There was Sunday School Sunday morning with several present.

The birthday party was fine in the Nickols home Friday night. There should have been several more present but some didn't find it out. Listen for this celebration again next year. There were people there from Goldthwaite, Ratier, Big Valley and Washington, D.C. It wouldn't have been a party if the game of cards wasn't played.

Some one will wonder why Mrs. Duke and Mrs. Dintin makes mistakes but that one either name it was Mrs. Harvey Dunkle. I guess every body wasn't my mistake.

It has been a long time since church day out here as there was five Sundays last month. So come to church Sunday morning and Sunday night.

WOMEN'S VOTE FOR NEW FASHION SWEEPS THE WHOLE COUNTRY

It looks like a "landslide" for the new cosmetic fashion inspired by Adrienne Livingston of New York!

Miss Livingston created Adrienne Scientifically Harmonized Cosmetics in response to a definite need of smart women for cosmetics that would really blend with each other, with the complexion, with the costume.

Miss Livingston well knew that with the antiquated make-up of yesterday, there was no hope, however ravishing a costume ensemble, of attaining "harmony from head to toe."

So she was inspired with this new fashion idea... cosmetics scientifically harmonized to eliminate error—to build a complete beauty ensemble.

But even Adrienne herself is amazed at the instantaneous, overwhelming success of her cosmetic ensembles.

Overnight the vogue for Adrienne Scientifically Harmonized Cosmetics has taken the country by storm.

Everywhere women are asking each other not "Have you tried Adrienne Cosmetics?" but "Which Adrienne Ensemble are you wearing?"

Right there is the keynote of this new mode's popularity. Your own Adrienne Cosmetic Ensemble is scientifically blended for your special type. You choose each Cream, Lotion, Powder, Make-up Aid and Bath Accessory so that all will work together in harmony to give you new charm.

Once you've used your own Adrienne Ensemble, you'll never again be satisfied with anything less than the perfect harmony it gives you.

Each Adrienne Cosmetic was perfected by leading scientists to eliminate any flaws... tested by 291 women in actual use... and then dressed in packages styled by the famous designer Gustav Jensen.

In this full perfection, Adrienne Scientifically Harmonized Cosmetics were ready for American women.

Then Adrienne wondered how she might reach the women for whom she had created her cosmetics... smart women in towns and rural communities as well as in cities. And where she might be assured that volume production would be great enough to make prices right.

Recall Stores! The Recall guarantee of tested quality fitted her cosmetics exactly. Distribution through 8,690 stores would keep prices within reach of every purse... because in Recall Drug Stores there are no in-between profits to boost prices.

And so it is that Adrienne Scientifically Harmonized Cosmetics took their place among other world-famous Recall Products.

After All, a Friend Is a Friend

By IRVIN S. COBB

A LITERARY man who had achieved much fame in Russia and was unable to withstand the popularity that came suddenly to him, made overtures to the vodka habit and became a pronounced dipsomaniac. Because of his eminence his friends overlooked his thirst and were frequent visitors at his home. One evening he blew in with a strong tide sloshing about in his person and found an admirer chatting pleasantly with his wife.

The good woman made some mild remark to her recreant mate, whereupon the great author burst into a violent denunciation of all women in general and wives in particular. After this brief introduction of well-chosen words he went to work on what was intended to be a series of abuse. In the midst of his harangue he seized an ashtray and buried it at the lady for a climax. Although a good writer, he was a bad shot and the missile intended for her smote the guest on the head and drew a gush of claret.

"My God!" exclaimed the stew with all the favor of true Slav, "I have wounded my friend. I swear by the name of the Little Father that my sole intention was to kill my wife."

SEATTLE PAPERS INCREASE RATES ON SUBSCRIPTIONS

SEATTLE, Nov. 1.—The Seattle Times and the Seattle Post-Intelligence today increased the price of their papers because of increased costs in materials and labor and an almost unprecedented rise in the cost of newsprint.

The Post-Intelligencer announced the new rate of $1.15 for daily and Sunday monthly subscriptions and a boost from 65 cents to 75 cents in the daily rate. Street sales remained unchanged at five cents daily and 10 cents Sunday.

The Times increased its daily and Sunday monthly subscription price from 90 cents to $1.15 and the daily alone from 60 cents to 75 cents. Daily street sales were increased from three to five cents.

HOWARD PAYNE COLLEGE

Congressman C. L. South of Coleman spoke in chapel today previous to his leaving for Washington. South is Congressman for the largest congressional district in Texas and was introduced to the largest college student body in his congressional district by O. E. Winebrenner, dean of men at Howard Payne College. His talk was centered around the character that one builds in life. Quoting Vice-President John Garner, he said: "When I find a person who will not tell the truth or who is dishonest in any respect, I find that I want to have nothing to do with the person." No matter how many good things you do in life, people will remember you by your character and whether or not you were a good man," he said.

MULE AND COLT SHOW HELD

More than 100 farmers attended the mule and colt show at Goldthwaite Saturday.

The show was sponsored by C. O. Norton who offered premiums on colts sired by his Jack. This Jack has won a number of blue ribbons at fairs this fall.

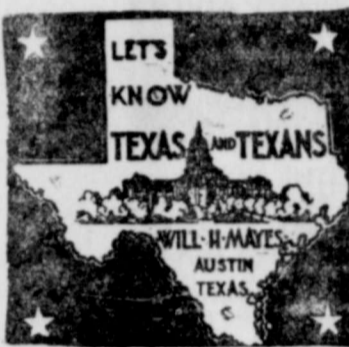

70 colts were entered and made an excellent showing. Mills County is fortunate to have such a fine individual as this Jack. County Agent N. E. Seudded of Comanche judged the show and awarded the following prizes:

W. L. Henderson, first, $12.00
C. M. Bramlett, second, $10.00
Ray Nowell, third, $7.00

Mr. Norton is to be commended for this progressive move and it is hoped that Saturday's exhibit will lead to a County-wide Mule and Horse Colt Show next year.

DOGS ON THE DECLINE

Are Texans turning back on "man's best friend?" Figures show that there are around 600 fewer dogs in this state now than in 1935, when there were less than in 1934. Counting mongrels, lapdogs, watchdogs, sheepdogs and all varieties there were only 3900 of them in 1936. Either a great number of grouchy neighbors are getting out the poison kits or owners don't rate their pets worthy of a license any more. Or perhaps their ancient feline enemies are finally getting the upper hand.

In this column answers will be given to inquiries as to Texas history and other matters pertaining to the state and its people. Address inquiries to Will H. Mayes, Austin, Texas

Q. How are the funds subscribed for the purchase of land for the Big Bend National Park being handled?

A. The Legislature has designated the Texas State Parks Board as custodian of funds raised in this way. Subscribers should give only to those having authority to receive and transmit them to the Parks Board.

Q. How were the "necessities of war" distributed in Texas during the period of the Civil War?

A. There was a Military Board at Austin that purchased such necessities as guns, ammunition, gun caps, cotton cards, rough foods and other necessities and sold them on requisition to the counties of the State, through which they were apportioned to the people according to their needs.

Q. Was there a Fort Davis in Texas other than the military fort of that name in the Davis Mountains?

A. During the Civil War family groups to the number of about 125 built a stockade on the east bank of the Clear Creek Fork of the Brazos River in what is now Stephens County, as a protection against Indians. This enclosure of pickets was called Fort Davis. It was about 375 by 600 feet in size and was divided into small lots on which the families built rough temporary homes. Other forts of the kind in the same section were Fort Hubbard, Fort Clark and Fort Owl Head.

Q. What percentage of Texas lands is in farm and ranch woodlands?

A. A recent survey shows slightly more than 25,000,000 acres, or about 18 percent, in woodlands. Cash returns from forest products cut and sold on farm woodlands in 1934 were $1,684,000, ranking eighth in the list of all farm products sold in Texas.

Q. What drastic steps did General McKenzie take to stop Indian raids into Texas from the Fort Sill reservation?

A. General McKenzie correctly reasoned that Indians would not make raids except on horseback and that it was better to kill their horses than for the Indians to slaughter white people. So, he captured and killed some 1,500 of their horses in Tule Canyon in 1874 at what came to be known as "McKenzie's Bone Yard."

Q. How early did Texas take steps for elementary public education and in what way was this done?

A. When the constitution of

Q. What distribution was made of the effects of the Mexican Army captured at San Jacinto?

A. The property was ordered sold and the enemy's military chest divided among the officers and men of the Texas Army as partial compensation for their services. The amount so divided was $18,184.87 of which $3,000 were by the troops awarded to the Navy.

Q. When and by whom was Laredo established?

A. Laredo, on the north bank of the Rio Grande del Norte, and about 10 leagues above the village of Dolores on the south bank, was settled May 15, 1755, by Thomas Sanchez, under authority of Joseph D. Escandan, who held a grant covering that territory, issued in 1746.

Q. What induced Thomas Sanchez to select the Laredo site for his settlement?

A. He gave as his reasons, that the section was well adapted to stock raising, that it afforded an abundance of fish and game, that it was reasonably free from Indian raids and that it was near a good river ford. He also stated that he had inspected proposed sites along the Neches and had found them unsuited for settlement.

THE ARMY MARCHES ON

The soldiers that passed through Goldthwaite this week constituted the largest number of United States soldiers in one place in the entire United States at this time. Normally there are around 6,000 infantry and artillery troops at Fort Sam Houston. The other 4,000 that passed through Mills County were assembled from New Jersey, Georgia, West Texas, Colorado and Wyoming in order to have a body of troops large enough to practice with.

Modern wars are fought with millions of soldiers. Yet there are many officers and men in the United States Army today who have never seen more than a few thousand together. There is something in the actual presence of the troops that shows whether the paper problems with which the officers have been training are practical.

It is easy to figure that the 10,000 men who passed through here will eat nearly 28 tons of food a day. It is something else to assemble the supplies, rush it to the units, and have it tastefully prepared while on the march.

The big guns in the division can fire a ton of shot in 20 seconds, and the rifles and machine guns can put out 100,000 shots every minute. While practically no shots were fired in the recent maneuvers, the trucks hauled enough boxes filled with sand to equal the weight of the shells that would be required in actual combat.

The training of the division this fall does not mean that the United States is about to go to war. It does mean that those at the head of the Army realize that the best way to keep this nation at peace is to maintain an Army that the rest of the world will respect. With the other armies of the world using modern machines in their armies, the United States cannot afford to continue to march its men on foot and haul their supplies with horses and mules when trucks can do the job better and 15 times as fast.

It makes all of us feel safer in this insecure world to learn that Uncle Sam's doughboys have not gone to sleep on the job.

POLITICS AND HUMAN MISERY

It is sad but true that the aged pensioners of Texas are being used as a political football by politicians big and little. Take the recent tax session of the legislature, for example. Governor Allred declared that if taxes were not raised to the tune of fifteen million dollars a year, the old folks would not get their pensions.

The taxes were not raised, and he was quick to point out the results. The old folks were told they had a cold and hungry winter ahead.

Then the board of control figured where they could raise enough money to pay the pensions until February. That made the situation look a lot better.

Next in line was a statement that 10,000 pensioners were to be ruthlessly cut off the pension rolls, and the question is raised as to whether this action is really necessary or is threatened by those who predicted calamity in the event of failure to raise the taxes.

Texas sorely needs some statesmen to replace the politicians. Salaries of office holders have been tremendously increased, but the same fellows draw the pay.

But even if we cannot get statesmen who will state the facts without exaggeration or bias, it is too much to hope that we can put a stop to this cruel practice of first raising the hopes of the aged unreasonably high and then dashing them to the ground with the change of the political wind? Human misery should not be made the football of ambitious political hirelings.

NEW ROAD BADLY NEEDED

The following article appeared in a recent issue of the Temple Daily Telegram:

"A truck driver coming in dizzily off the world's twistiest highway from Lampasas stopped to get his battery changed and explained that he'd worn it down from honking his horn at his own tail light."

There is a very great need for a new highway on 53 and, thank goodness, Lampasas County is going ahead with its part in constructing one. The completion of the road is now up to Bell and Coryell Counties.

It may be that the people east of us do not care so much about a good road in this direction, but Lampasas County does and is expecting these counties to get in line and see that the other end of the road is put in shape.

The road in its present state, is not only crooked but has many narrow bridges that are really dangerous to the traveling public.—Lampasas Leader.

One of the objectives of the National Committee for Religion and Welfare Recovery is to educate and inspire the general public to give to their favorite philanthropies more nearly the Biblical tithes, or if possible, the full 15%. This educational stewardship program is not in the interest of any one religious faith or benevolent organization. It is designed to be of equal value to all, and for the welfare of the general public and of the nation.

LESS POWER WITH GOVERNORS ON CARS URGED TO CUT TOLL

Lincoln, Oct. 30.—Prof W. F. Welland of the University of Nebraska mechanical engineering department believes excessive horsepower is the reason for mounting traffic accidents and sudden death on the highways. As a remedy he proposes: First, put governors on automobile engines to reduce the maximum speed; second, reduce engine power, thereby increasing safety and economizing on operation costs.

"We have tried to educate the driver," Welland explained. "We have improved our highways, enforced traffic regulations and we have even begun to talk safety, all without satisfactory results. The fact still remains that automobile power plants are continuing to grow larger. Hand in hand with this vicious program marches death.

"I propose two solutions. First, I would suggest a governor on the engine to control maximum speed.

"Secondly engine power must be reduced. Who, may we ask, has demanded an 82 per cent increase in engine power in the last ten years? We simply must remember human nature can not be changed. If speed and power are there, some persons will want to use it."

He said he believes the public "really wants" safety and economy—"40 miles per hour and 30 miles to the gallon.

Welland's recommendations came as he reported a study correlating automobile fatalities with the sharp increase of engine power. His graphs showed an almost exactly parallel rate of increase between the two factors.

No human being can handle an automobile safely at 60 miles an hour, the Nebraska engineer said, "under any existing conditions. And no amount of traffic legislation, improved highway design and more efficient safety education will ever make the driver think faster or help him react more rapidly."

As part of his "slow up" program, Welland advocated a years driving instructions for high school students to teach them limitations of the automobile and of the human being.—Houston Chronical.

MIGRATORY FAMILIES

The replacement of human labor by machinery is doing something to Texas that is going to have to be remedied, and at an early date. The situation right here in Cottle County serves as a good example. Land owners now find it possible to work hundred of acres of land with one tractor, which no longer makes it necessary for them to have tenant families on their farms. The same status exists elsewhere and as a result, these families are set adrift—homeless with no job and forced to go from place to place where seasonal crops will offer temporary labor.

So large a number of Texas and Oklahoma families have migrated to California that the state is building sanitary camps, with organized labor, where families may remain at a cost of ten cents a day, and if they cannot pay the dime, they may work it out. The federal government is financing the camps through the Farm Security Administration. The camps are being built chiefly for Oklahoma and Texans because these states rank respectively first and third in the number of those crossing into California. The last available census on migrants entering California by automobile in need of manual employment during the 12 months period ending June, 1936, included 13,984 Oklahomans and 6,885 Texans. These are not hobo laborers, but dispossessed families.

Families are flocking to California because of the crops that require a huge army at harvest time. Twenty acres of hops require 500 men to harvest it. Thirty men can do the regular labor in a 2,000 acre peach farm but it takes 200 to 250 additional at pruning time, 100 more at thinning time and 1,000 more at picking time. This is the flame that draws the dispossessed families to California, but the state is becoming over-run and many of the families are being thrown on their home state.

Texas is experiencing this situation now. Hundreds of foot-loose laborers have been available in South Texas the last few months because it is the cotton-picking season and more laborers are needed at that season. The situation is likely to become prevalent over the entire state where machinery is used on a large scale, resulting in the moral and physical health of the community being touched to the point that it will become necessary to set up sanitary camps as California is doing. To say the least, the state is rapidly facing the time when it will be forced to do something more than talk about the hordes of migratory farm families who are flooding the highways.—Paducah (Texas) Post.

MEETING PLACE OF CULTURE
Within the borders of Texas may be hidden links in the history of our earliest ancestors, according to archaeologists. Texas is in the heart of a great North American triangle whose corners are the Maya-Aztec section, the Pueblo area and the mound-builder area. Since these three great cultures found a common ground in Texas, many hints as to their inter-tribal relationships are being found and studied today.

HOW OLD ARE YOU ON THE INSIDE

The following trenchant lines are taken from "The Silver Lining" the house organ of the Port Huron Sulphite and Paper Co. No matter what your age, you can profit by them.

Never mind how many wrinkles Father Time has painted in your face. Never mind how many gray hairs he has put in your head. The important thing isn't how old you are on the outside, but how old you are on the inside. A man's real age is determined by the youthfulness of his spirit.

At 85 Dan Beard one of the founders of the Boy Scouts is still active in the work. Benjamin Franklin helped write the American Constitution at 80. A man over eighty years old recently rode a bicycle from California to Detroit. Justice Holmes wrote important Supreme Court decisions after he was 90. Tintoretto painted his famous "Paradise," a canvas 74 by 30 feet, when he was 74. Goethe completed "Faust" at 80. And we've just read about a man who was arrested for speeding at the age of 83.

As long as we are alert and vital in spirit we are not old. As long as we are joyously looking forward and enthusiastically starting new things we are still young.

Stay young on the inside and forget your birthdays!
