GOLDTHWAITE, MILLS COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 17, 1937.

NUMBER SEVENTEEN

TUESDAY IS SANTA CLAUS BIG DAY IN GOLDTHWAITE

Splendid Rains Make Fine Bottom Season

Early Three Inches Falls This Week

Farmers and stockmen are glad to see the fine rain that has fallen almost continuously since Monday night through Tuesday of this week. At noon Tuesday the rain gauge at Goldthwaite recorded 2.80 inches, the first signs of a let-up were seen. The rain and mud has stepped up Christmas buying. O. Scarborough recalled that in 1925 when there was 15 inches of snow on the ground his store had one of the best single day's business in its history. Prospects for a bottom in good, men and women have hesitated to spend, now it is safe to go ahead and shop for Christmas. A big shopping rush is expected to begin Tuesday and last all next week.

Amount of Postage on Christmas Cards

One of the biggest postal problems at Christmas time, according to Postmaster M. Y. Jones, Jr., is to explain to the public the amount of postage required on Christmas greeting cards. This is because several different rates apply. If the card is sealed or if any other writing is typed on the card, besides the names of the sender, the cards require the postage as ordinary letters. The rate is 1c per ounce and 1c per ounce for the first ounce.

Picture Show Has Large Attendance

Attendance records of the Deere Co. were broken by the show who came to Goldthwaite last Monday to attend the picture show at R. L. Steen & Sons. A much larger attendance in a popular section, and a larger turn-out, the representatives stated. The show had been advertised in the Eagle.

Interest Growing in Christmas Lighting

All residences having special outside Christmas lighting displays, lighted between the hours of 7 and 10 o'clock during the week beginning December 20, 1937, and who have filed their intention to enter the contest with Mrs. J. M. Campbell, president of the Garden Club are eligible for prizes. All entries must be made not later than December 20. The contest will close after the night of December 25. Five competent judges have been appointed and several valuable prizes are to be awarded. Basis for Judging the Contest: During the period specified for all home displays to be lighted, the judges will tour the city to view the various displays. Judging will be based not so much upon the size of the display and surroundings, but primarily upon the general artistic effect, originality, ingenuity in using best possible advantage and general conformity to the Yuletide spirit. Mrs. J. M. CAMPBELL, Pres.

The Methodist Church

Next Sunday, being the Sunday before Christmas will be a special day for us. You are invited to two special services. For the Morning Service at 10:50 the High School Glee Club will present Christmas Carols as a part of our program. You will want to hear this fine presentation, which is under the direction of Miss Maggie Marie Hill. For the Evening Service the Goldthwaite Methodist Choir presents a Christmas Cantata, "The Music of Christmas." This will be a beautiful and worshipful service. Don't miss it. Come to Sunday School at 9:54 bring your friends to the Evening Service and worship with us. FRED J. BRUCKS

NAVY WANTS MEN

There is at this time a limited number of vacancies in the Navy for young men who can meet the requirements for enlistment. The requirements are: United States Citizenship, 17 to 25 years of age, be found physically, mentally and morally as a result of examination and thorough investigation. No man who is married or has any person solely dependent upon him for support will be accepted for enlistment in the Navy. Satisfactory references must be furnished from past employers, school officials or persons of good standing in the community who have known the applicant well for a number of years. All first enlistments are made the rating of apprentice seaman with pay of $21.00 per month, after four months service advancement is automatically made to the rating of seaman second class or to a fireman's class with pay of $36 per month. Further promotions and increases in pay come from time to time depending on the merits of the man and existing vacancies. This pay is practically all clear money, as each man receives free medical attention, dental treatment and subsistence. Applications will be accepted at the Navy Recruiting Station, Post Office, Waco, Texas.

SPENDS HOLIDAYS HERE

Mrs. E. T. Keese and little daughter, Francine from Ventura California arrived Friday to spend the holidays with relatives.

Santa Claus to Lead Big Parade Here Next Tuesday

Santa In Person Will Visit Here Tuesday Afternoon

Drilling to Begin on Bayou Oil Well

After weeks of strenuous effort all the obstacles in the way of resuming drilling of the oil well on Pecan Bayou have been removed, and the driller will be back on the job as soon as the weather clears. The bottom hole money is in the bank and will be claimed, it is confidently believed, within two or three weeks. The hole was 900 feet deep when the shut down, which is approximately half of the distance it is believed will be required to reach the pay sand. In the contract it is prescribed that acid treatment will be used if the oil sand encountered does not produce a paying well with out it. Tireless work on the part of Dr. J. M. Campbell and J. V. Cokrum are responsible for the resumption of drilling after what was intended as a temporary shut-down seemed about to become permanent.

Boys and Girls Invited To Bring Him Their Letters

Rain or shine, old Santa Claus has promised to be in Goldthwaite next Tuesday afternoon, to meet all the boys and girls who come to see him and get their letters telling him what they want for Christmas. He suggests that they look through the Goldthwaite stores and fill out their lists from what they see there. Santa Claus promises that he is going to bring better weather with him for his parade, but if the weather man plays a trick on him, he has arranged to hold his reception in the court house instead of on the courthouse lawn, so every little boy and girl who wants to see him, can surely do so. In connection with his visit many Goldthwaite businessmen are offering prizes to those who visit their stores. They will remain open at night after the parade as long as necessary to care for the crowds that are expected.

Short Cut Promised To Star Highway

Mayor H. G. Bodkin, Judge R. J. Gerald, City secretary F. P. Bowman and Supt. A. H. Smith had a conference in Austin Wednesday with the State Highway Department. They were promised that the short cut from the center of Goldthwaite along Fourth street to the new highway near Duke Clements' residence will certainly be built. No time was set for the work to begin. This cut-off was first promised more than a year ago but as the work had not been ordered and the personnel of the state highway department had changed to some extent, it was considered advisable to keep the matter before it.

NOTICE

To all parties having club reports, notices, or ads for the Eagle next week, get them in by Tuesday or Wednesday morning at the latest, as the Eagle force hope to get the paper out a day earlier than usual. Community correspondents are especially urged to send in their letters early.

What Highway Cut Will Mean Here

If the president's recommendation for reduced highway aid to the states is passed by Congress, Mills County will likely lose a $135,000 paving job. According to the state highway department, the paving of highway 7 from Goldthwaite to Star in 1939 depends on a continuation of federal aid. Other projects in this vicinity that will be affected are the paving of highway 66 from Lampasas to the Coryell County line and highway 23 from Brady to the Brown County line.

Huge Eagle Killed On E. J. Ward Ranch

At the PTA-Football banquet last Thursday evening one of the decorative features was a huge eagle with outstretched wings. The big bird had been killed by E. J. Ward on his ranch south of town and was expertly mounted by J. T. Ivey. It measured 6 feet, 4 inches from tip to tip of its wings and was big enough to kill lambs. Mr. Ward and Rev. F. J. Brucks spied the eagle while hunting on the Ward ranch. Mr. Ward shot it and broke its wing and then dispatched it with a stick. An even larger eagle was killed about the same time on the Haby ranch near Brady. It measured over seven feet wingspread and had just dug a piece of meat as big as a saucer out of a lamb when killed.

CIRCLE HAS LUNCHEON

Circle No. 1 of the Baptist Church enjoyed a luncheon Monday, December 13 in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Campbell, a large number of ladies availed themselves of this opportunity to enjoy the hospitality of this home and renew fellowship among these faithful women. After a bountiful meal, the story of our Saviour's birth was told by Mrs. Grover Dalton in a pleasing manner, then came the Christmas Tree which all enjoyed, a fine spirit prevailed, and all present could join in which the writer of the song saying in our hearts "Blest be the tie that binds."

INTERMEDIATE LEAGUE

The League last Sunday was short of members, due to the fact that the Glee Club sang at the Baptist Church. Although the girls were missed greatly, we were glad to have them render their beautiful Christmas Carols where everyone enjoyed them. Monday the thirteenth the league was entertained with a Christmas party in the basement of the Methodist Church. Games of many kinds were played and then the refreshments which consisted of popcorn balls and candy were served. Then came the Christmas tree. What fun there was. The laughing and merry-making as the packages were opened and each person discovered dolls, whistles, fire crackers, horns and various other things that brought laughs and fun. Every one reported a nice time. Our program for the following Sunday deals with the subject: "Great Pictures of the Nativity." Leader Harriet Allen; Scripture, Luke 2:8-18, Edward E. Palmer; Prayer, offering, Talk, "The Birth of Christ," Catherine Epperson; Christmas Carols, Bible discussion, Matthew, 5-6-7, Chapters, Gloria Dyas; Benediction.

APPEALS FOR AID

There are a number of families in and near Goldthwaite who are badly in need of clothing and shoes, Mrs. Myrtle Forthand, Mills County relief worker, has found. She has been visiting them in their homes and knows the need is real and not fancied. In order to help these unfortunate people have a better Christmas, Mrs. Forehand will distribute personally any gifts of wearing apparel, bedding or furniture that are left with her. She states that the articles need not be new or even appear to be new. If there is any use left in them, she will find a place for them. Her office is in the court house. If anyone has something to give but is unable to take it to her office, she will try to arrange to have it called for.

NOTICE

On account of the bad weather my appointment with Old Age Pensioners for Wednesday, December 22, has been postponed to the following Wednesday, December 29. MRS. GRACE BARBER Old Age Pension Investigator

LOAN APPLICATIONS

Loan applications from this county are approved by the regional office and checks delivered to the local office in a record time of 10 days, on the average, according to Walter J. Walker, county rural supervisor, Farm Security Administration. The supervisor reports that this is having a very marked psychological effect on the interest borrowers are taking in making plans this year. "With such service from the regional loan office borrowers realize they will receive the money in time to follow out plans they make. This is in marked contrast to the situation last year, when, as the result of changing procedure and other handicaps, loan dockets would take from three weeks to two months to clear. The local supervisors are confident that a much better opportunity of rehabilitating themselves will be given borrowers this year, due to this speed in passing on loans, and due to the fact that farm and home plans are being made well in advance of planting time. When the last farm and home plan has been made and the loan approved, this county will have approximately 35 families on the program. Of these families 15 will be new in the program this year.

BAKERY CHANGES HANDS

Arthur Ware has traded his ranch for Roy Simpson's Bakery and, as announced elsewhere in this paper, has already taken charge. He is experienced in this line of work having owned a bakery at Sanderson, Texas before moving to Mills County. His family expects to move into town about the first of the year. Friends of the Simpsons are glad that they are not moving away. They will devote their time to ranching.

Baptist Reminder

What shall you do with your "Secret Sins," when Jesus comes again? This will be my theme Sunday evening in the third sermon on the second coming of Christ.

We had a full house Sunday evening. The Glee Club under the direction of Maggie Marie Hill, furnished the music, singing Christmas songs. Our people greatly appreciated its singing. Sunday will be the last Sabbath before Christmas. We will be thinking of going home to spend the holidays. The subject Sunday morning will be "Going Home" come and be with us. FRANKLIN E. SWANNER

Highway Office Loses Two Men

Transfers of highway office personnel have caused the Goldthwaite office to lose two of its staff. E. M. Pritchard has been transferred to the district office at Brownwood, and he and Mrs. Pritchard have already moved there. On Saturday J. Crutchfield and family will move to Brady where he will be in the highway office there.

NOTICE RELATING TO FIREWORKS

The attention of all citizens is called to the fact that it is a violation of the City Ordinance to shoot fireworks of any kind on the streets and alleys of the city of Goldthwaite, in the Fire Zone. This covers all the business district of the City. The penalty for violation of this ordinance is a fine not exceeding $25.00. Owing to the fact that shooting fire works promiscuously creates a fire hazard, and is also dangerous and a nuisance, the Council expects this ordinance to be strictly enforced. F. P. BOWMAN, Attorney

SCALLORN

Since we have survived the extremely cold weather of last week, we are again rejoicing over the pleasant sunny weather. What could be more beautiful or give one more pleasure than a lovely Sabbath morning when the whole world comes together at some designated place to offer tribute and praise to our heavenly Father.

As we are approaching the most glorious time of the year, our Christmas holidays, I wonder if we are planning to make some one happy, besides our immediate families.

Why not look around and see if there's not some person, an orphan child or a sick neighbor whom we could make glad and happy before the new year makes its appearance.

Alva and Tom Ford went over to San Saba Friday to attend the ball game.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hereford of Goldthwaite visited in the home of Mrs. R. D. Evans Sunday.

Rayford Davis left Sunday for Cleburne to spend a few days with home folks.

Alva Ford called on Mr. and Mrs. Ed Evans Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Laughlin and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Laughlin spent Friday in Brownwood.

Mrs. C. H. Black and children spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Black.

Mrs. Ora Black and son, Billie with Mrs. Rayford Davis and son, Pat shopped in Brownwood Tuesday.

Mrs. Cora Ford writes from Del Rio saying she is enjoying her visit ever so much and planned to spend the holidays with her daughter and family.

BIG VALLEY

Sunday was regular preaching day. Sunday morning there were three additions to the Church by letter. They were Mr. and Mrs. Crockett and son. A collection was taken for Buckners Orphan Home and a Little Moon offering. A coop of chickens will also be sent to the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Shuffler were recently called to Dallas to attend the funeral of a brother.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Padgett are proud parents of a daughter, who made her arrival in their home December 7.

A wedding of much interest to the community last week was that of J. A. Starks and Virginia Long, Virginia, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Long, has lived here all her life. J. A. oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Abajah Starks, has not lived here so many years, but has lived in adjoining communities and is well known. Their many friends wish them all the happiness and good luck in their future life.

They left Friday for Hurley, N. M., where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Crockett and family moved from Mullin to the Burnett place. We welcome them into our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Weaver and children dined Sunday in the E. D. Roberson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Long and children from town attended church here Sunday morning and visited relatives in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ezzell of Goldthwaite were guests in the Hugh Dennard home Sunday.

Mrs. Bill Daniels and Mrs. Ira Dewbre spent Sunday in the Wm. Dennard home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Cockrell called on Mrs. Liva Weaver Sunday.

Melvin Doak was a lunch guest of Howard Weavers Sunday.

Granddad Hale is home from a visit to his daughter at Temple.

Mrs. Weaver, Howard and Flora, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Thompson and Mr. Dupuy and son visited awhile Monday night with the W. H. Nelson and Floyd Weaver families.—Blue Jay

Mr. J. S. Smith of Rt. one came in Monday and paid up his subscription to the Eagle for another year having been a reader of this paper since 1894. The Eagle appreciates very highly, these faithful friends of long standing.

PLEASANT GROVE

Well, Christmas is just around the corner and we hope old Santa Claus don't have too many corners to make before he gets here. I have heard it rumored that he has traded his reindeer for a V-8. If he has and he is like many other drivers around Christmas time, one of those corners will just about get him. No, old Santa is too wise an old fellow to take such risk and be sides he will never trade his faithful old reindeer.

I'm supposed to tell who visited who and when. That is, that's what the others say, but I find I don't know of but little visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Berry visited Jewel Oneal of Moline Sunday.

Miss Palmore and Mr. Williams had dinner with Chas. Miller Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hodges of Goldthwaite were visitors in the community Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Miller visited a while in Charlie Miller's home Sunday.

O. Z. Berry moved to his new home Saturday. As most of you probably know, he bought the Irvin place. We hope that Mr. Berry has learned his way around in the house. I heard that when his wife called him to breakfast Sunday morning he had to make the second attempt to find the dining room. Well, it is a large house.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hurdle of Lometa were visitors in the Charley Miller home Sunday evening. They attended singing Sunday night. Syble went back to Lometa with them.

Mrs. Sam Porter has gone to see her father who is ill.

Mrs. O. K. Berry's mother is in the hospital at Lampasas. Her condition is improving.

Charlie Bayley is breaking land for Sam Porter.

Raymond Williams came in from a brief hunt Sunday with one bird. Hunts like this is why we have to have game laws.

Mrs. C. N. Berry shopped in Brownwood Monday.

We expect Novaleen and Troy Berry home in a few days to spend the holidays. It is reported that they are doing well at John Tarleton.

School will turn out here for

NOTICE TO GAME HUNTERS

Before sending your game heads to some far off taxidermist, see the display in front of the Recreation Club at Goldthwaite. All specimens were mounted by J. T. Ivey, scientific Taxidermist. Game heads a specialty. Work guaranteed.

Our guarantee of satisfaction means simply this:

If you are not perfectly satisfied with any tanning, or mounting we do for you we will gladly exchange them or promptly return your money. Our only requests is that you tell us the reason for your dissatisfaction, so we may prevent similar faults in future work. A 50 per cent deposit should accompany your trophies and skins. For best results do not leave your trophies on cold storage too long. Write J. T. Ivey for prices, Goldthwaite, Texas.

CANDIES

Honey will work just as well in candy as it does when used as a term of endearment. It comes in especially handy around Christmas, when one wants to have candy around in convenient corners at all moments, because honey keeps the sweets moist and makes their flavor improve with age.

FOOTBALL BANQUET

To terminate the football season of 1937, the pep squad and the boys, the faculty, and the friends on Thursday night, December 9. While the guests arriving the band, directed by Mr. Damron played a number of selections. After all had arrived, Mr. Smith gave the toast to everyone to find his place at the attractive tables.

They were very artistically arranged with black football helmets for centerpieces and black and gold candles on black and gold covers. Sprigs of gay-colored autumn leaves and sprigs of black and gold berries filled the helmets. Above individual cover was a tiny football. The head table was cleverly arranged as a miniature football field with a goal at each end. Near one goal stood a midget football boy; the other, a midget pep squad girl. Two great birds, representing the Eagle appeared on the table and on the stage.

The most interesting points in the past football season and the fine football spirit of the town and school were reflected not only in decorations but also in the speeches which followed the menu of tomato juice cocktail, chicken and dressing and cranberry jelly, waldorf salad, English peas in potato nests, and pecan pie and cocoa. After the cocktail the high school Glee Club under the direction of Miss Hill, presented two numbers. Then Mr. Clarence McCarver, the assistant coach of Howard Payne College, guest speaker of the evening, delivered a most interesting and inspiring speech on football.

Superintendent Smith and coach Cloninger spoke and then called upon a number of football boys and guests. The president of the pep squad, Catherine Fairman, presented the pep leaders, Jeanette Martin, Joyce Johnson and Mamie Lou Womack, with gifts from the pep squad and each of the girls spoke. Every word uttered revealed an uncanny spirit, and although this season is over, the boys and girls still have the zeal and fighting spirit and the desire to make a successful football team and pep squad.

Although many of them will not be in this school next year they look forward to next season with enthusiasm and hope that there will be an even better team and pep squad than they have had this season.

This wonderful football banquet closed with a number of songs by the pep squad. The guests departed with gratitude in their hearts to members of the P. T. A., the mothers and the teachers who had prepared such an enjoyable banquet.

GLEE CLUB

At the football and pep squad banquet last Thursday night, the Glee Club made its first appearance singing "In the Luxemburg Gardens."

A number of Christmas carols were presented last Sunday night at the Baptist Church. The same program will be given next Sunday morning at the Methodist Church.

The Glee Club also appeared on the program at the Parent-Teacher Association, Tuesday, December 14, singing two beautiful numbers, "O Peaceful Night" and "In the Luxemburg Gardens."

SENIOR NEWS

Tuesday morning the seniors held a class meeting to decide upon something for Stunt Night. A very funny program was worked up, and the seniors practiced Monday night. The show is going to be great, and everyone is invited to be there to cheer for the seniors.

Also at the meeting, Duron Kerby was selected to take Boyd Hunts place as associate editor of the Herald. It seems the seniors have a hard time keeping an associate editor.

CHAPEL PROGRAM
 The Chapel program Tuesday morning was presented by the Girl's Auxiliary of the Baptist Church. Thelma Henry, president of the organization, announced the program.

The first number was a Christmas poem read by Wilda Bledsoe.

The story of Christmas was told by Thelma Henry. The old familiar Christmas carols were sung by members of the Auxiliary to illustrate the story.

At the close of the program the assembly sang "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name."

SPOTLIGHT
 The Spotlight shines this week on blond Isabelle Grelle. Isabelle is well-known among her classmates for her pleasing personality. She has a remarkable talent for writing poems and has written some very good ones.

LIVE OAK

We are having real winter again after such a pretty day Sunday.

George Ballard was a visitor to Fort Worth Tuesday.

Clarence Hill and family are moving to Winters. We hope they like their new home.

Ed Randles and family visited his father, and sister, grandpa Randles and Mrs. Harmon, in Center Point community Sunday.

Grandpa Featherston is visiting in the C. D. Featherston home this week.

Earl Denman and G. W. Simpson have returned from an extended visit in California.

Wedding bells again! Clifford Rose and Miss Lalla Joyce Bachelor were married Sunday, December the fifth. They are making their home in town. We wish them much happiness and success through life.

C. G. Featherston killed hogs last Wednesday.

Ed Randles has just completed a new tank on his farm.

We are glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Roy Simpson back home. He sold his bakery.

Sunday was church day at Bethel. Bro. Ryan preached in the morning and again at night.

Mrs. Will Heath visited awhile in the Featherston home Monday afternoon.

The Jolly Chatter Club will meet Thursday with Mrs. Tom House.—Reporter.

EBONY

This week marks the passing of grandmother Egger, 83, pioneer mother of this community. She died early Saturday morning at her home, and was laid to rest Saturday afternoon by the side of her husband in the White Church Cemetery not far from her home. She is survived by the following: Seven children, Jess, Henry and Ben of Regency, Noah of Dora, Ira, Mrs. Wood Roberts and Mrs. Riede Haynes of Ebony, one son, Will, died in 1920; a sister, Mrs. T. Purcell, known as aunt T., who has lived with her for many years; 25 grandchildren; two great great grandchildren.

Before her marriage, she was Miss Georgia Ann Bailey. She was born in Washington County, March 15, 1854. She married Charlie Egger. They came from Lee County to these parts and settled in this community in 1889.

In February 1894, Mr. Egger died, leaving her with eight children. She knew all the hardships of widowhood and of pioneering in this part of the country. But in spite of her bereavement, out of her thrift and good management she was able to bestow upon each of her eight children 100 acres of land. This she did years ago, keeping only a small tract for herself. She was justly proud of her family, for the Eggers are noted for their moderateness, their clean living, and their freedom from bad habits. As she was devoted to her children so were they devoted to her. They gave her every care. Only a few days before her death, as her daughters-in-law waited on her, she told this writer that she knew she had the best set of daughters-in-law of anybody.

On account of inclement weather, the funeral was held at the house, Bro. Rives from near Brownwood officiating. A host of friends and relatives thronged the house and yard. Seven grandsons, Charlie Roberts, Arl Egger, Clayton Egger, Noel Haynes, R. D. Egger, Orville Egger and Ben Egger acted as pall bearers.

At gatherings we had often seen Grandma Egger, a bent familiar figure, most often dressed in black with her sunbonnet, but in death loving hands wrought a transformation. She lay in her beautiful casket, straight and slim as a girl, clad in a silver gray georgette shroud matching her silver hair, under a blanket of flowers. Thus did her children with hands unstinted make the form of "Mother" what her life had meant to them a thing of beauty.

We are also glad to see Mr. and Mrs. Bob Egger at church. It has been a long time since Mrs. Egger had been able to be out.

A good rain fell her Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Orville Egger have moved into the house on the P. R. Reid farm.

CENTER CITY

We are having plenty of rain and so far we have had more winter weather than usual for this time of year. Most of last week was freezing or near freezing.

Mrs. Alice De Arman died at her home north of Center City December 4 and was buried here. Funeral services were held at the Baptist Church and were conducted by Bro. Swanner of Goldthwaite. She had been ill for some time. Mrs. De Arman was reared in this community and had a host of friends who attended the last sad rites.

Eugene Lucas of Brownwood and Mrs. Chloe Adams of De Leon attended the funeral of their sister, Mrs. De Arman.

Sunday was a very good day and many failed to be at Sunday School. The Methodist voted to wait until the new year to begin their contest with Star.

So all who wish to help be present the three months following. Next Sunday the district singing convention meets here and all are hoping the weather will clear and everything be ideal for the occasion.

Prof. and Mrs. Huggins returned the first of the week from their singing school near Kerrville.

Mrs. Harryman and little son of El Paso visited grandma Collier and Miss Ima last week.

Mr. Arthur Ware purchased the Simpson Bakery in Goldthwaite and he and his family took charge of it Monday.

Walter Simpson and family of South Bennett ate supper with the Oglesby family Sunday.

Nelson Waggoner left the first of the week, after an extended visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Waggoner.

Mr. and Mrs. Medford Langford came in from Arizona last week.

Mrs. Glen Johnson of Wink is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Robertson of the Live Oak Community and his mother Mrs. Ira Aldridge and family.

The rains are delaying progress on the highway. Much work has been done already. The bridge across Bennett Creek is requiring much of their time.

BINGO CONDEMNED BY JEWISH RABBI

Rabbi David Philipson, former president of the National Union of Hebrew Congregations, in a recent statement criticized the use of bingo as a method of raising money by churches and synagogues. He expressed regret that church and synagogue authorities have condoned and employed this method of raising funds.

He added that if religious institutions are so forgetful of their missions as to employ gambling of a minor kind for any purpose whatsoever, who is to withhold the youth to say nothing of their elders, from employing more questionable methods of gambling?

The WEEKLY CONSTITUTIONAL

by MAX BERN

Binding the Union

During the first hundred years under our Constitution, what part did the Supreme Court play in cementing the union of States?

Because it lacked the necessary powers to enforce its acts, the union of States under the Articles of Confederation, almost collapsed. To give it the required strength and to correct other faults, our Constitution was adopted. Under it the States surrendered to the Federal government certain specified national powers and defined the Federal Constitution as "the supreme law of the land... anything in the Constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding."

The States knew from experience that this was necessary to preserve the union. But in actual practice they frequently adopted or changed State constitutions or passed State laws in conflict with the Federal Constitution. When such cases came before the Supreme Court it found such State laws unconstitutional. In fact, during the first century of the Supreme Court's existence, the chief conflicts over Court decisions were not in connection with the Court's action regarding acts of Congress, but in the limitations which Court decisions placed upon State authority.

As time passed it became clear that if different States had been allowed regularly to pass laws in condict with "the supreme law," there soon would have been no supreme law, that is, no Constitution. Chaos would have resulted and the union would have collapsed. Especially by its work during the first century of its existence the Supreme Court was an important factor in preventing this and thus binding and preserving the union.

THEY NEED YOUR HELP

Christmas holidays are "just around the corner." The yuletide spirit reigns supreme. Mistletoe, holly, and the pungent, fresh greenness of new-born Christmas trees will soon cheer millions of homes. Shop windows chock full of all sorts of tempting gifts, bedecked with tinsel and trimmings, are exciting portents of the fun to come.

Adding to the general atmosphere, but in a more serious vein are the tinkling bells of the Salvation Army, and the double-barred cross, emblem of the Anti-Tuberculosis movement, which is so familiar to all of us on the friendly little Christmas seals that ornament our packages and cards. Both of them appear at this time of year almost as magically as Santa Claus himself—and equally as indispensable as agents of good cheer.

Don't neglect either of them! They need your help as do the souls less fortunate than yourself whom they represent, and whom they strive each year to bring within the great fold of gaiety which envelops the nation during the Christmas season.

REMEMBER THE MAINE

Remember back in 1898 the sinking of the U. S. S. Maine in Havana harbor precipitated the Spanish-American War. Now the Japanese have deliberately sunk the U. S. S. Panay on the Yangtze River in China. Will that bring war?

Let's look at this thing coolly and with common sense. Naturally we are indignant at this latest Japanese atrocity. Naturally our first impulse is to "clean up" the Japanese and show them we are not to be insulted with impunity.

But let us remember the Maine. Remember the lives of American soldiers lost in typhoid fever epidemics along the Florida coast. Remember San Juan Hill. Remember the fighting in the Philippines. And what has been the result of it all?

We gained nothing from Cuba. After spending millions in cleaning it up, we gave it back to the Cubans with the result that the people there have been exploited outrageously by their own rulers instead of by Spain as before the war.

We gained Puerto Rico, and what good is it to us now?

We gained the Philippines and after making them worth something have turned them back to the Philippines, which in reality means that Japan will have them.

What good did it do the widows and orphans left by the Maine disaster for us to go to war? What good did it do the rest of the United States?

There have been 64 lives lost in the sinking of the Panay. Before we go to war and lose 64,000 lives, let us remember the Maine.

SAFETY EDUCATION

The only way to avoid the needless waste of life due to traffic accidents is to prevent the accident," reads a warning issue by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

It is not a question of who is right and who is wrong after the accident has occurred," he said. "And automobile accidents never happen merely because of 'bad luck'—there is a definite cause for every one of them, although it is not possible to determine every mishap.

Leaders of the safety movement agree that the most fundamental approach to the solution lies in the education and training of the individual. Safety education includes the training of individuals to avoid accidents to themselves and to prevent accidents to others.

It involves the acquisition of a certain fund of information, the ability to apply this information to concrete situations, and the building up of habits which will make the application of knowledge to situations automatic.

"The dangerous curves and intersections on the highways of Texas are distinctly marked, and automobile drivers can assist greatly in the reduction of deaths from automobile accidents by carefully observing these warning signs.

"Some motorists rely too much on traffic rules and regulations, thinking that if they obey the rules of the road at the time when an accident occurs, no blame can be attached to them. This is not true. The only man who considers himself blameless in case of accidents, when he was obeying the rules of the road, is the one who did everything possible to avoid that accident.

"The consequences of automobile accidents are so disastrous that only when we have done everything in our power to avoid such accidents can we consider ourselves, or expect others to consider us, blameless

A FRIEND from the North had gone to visit a gentleman who lived in the swampy bottoms of Louisiana. There was no netting over the bed and in the morning when the negro came with the water and towels the tortured visitor asked: "Sam, why is it that you have no mosquito bars? Doesn't colonel have any in his room?" "No, suh," replied Sam. "I don't see how he stands it." "Well, suh," said Sam, "I reckon it's dis way: In de fust part of de night, suh, de colonel's most gen'ly so intoxicated he don't pay no 'tention to de skeeters, an' in de last of de night, suh, de skeeters is gen'ly so intoxicated dey don't pay no 'tention to de colonel." Q. How did the Spaniards first hear of the La Salle colony (Fort St. Louis)?

A. About six months after Fort St. Louis was founded, the Spaniards captured a young French corsair (pirate) named Denis Thomas, off the coast of Yucatan, who told them he had learned of the La Salle expedition and colony from one of La Salle's Indian hunters. He described the location of the fort definitely enough to be fixed by Admiral Antonio de Palacios as at the mouth of a stream emptying into the Matagorda Bay.

Q. Where was Ft. St. Louis?

A. The temporary fort was close to Matagorda Bay near the mouth of Garcitas Creek. This was merely a shelter and a more permanent fort was soon built on a bluff about six miles up the creek. There has been much discussion as to the exact location, since all evidence of it has been destroyed, but the consensus favors the location here given.

Q. When and at whose instance was Alonzo de Leon's second search made for Fort St. Louis?

A. In 1687, the Marquis of Aguayo, then governor of Nueve Leon, fitted out an expedition with de Leon in charge with instructions to cross the Rio Grande near Cerralvo, proceed to its mouth and then follow the Gulf coast to the east. After going east for some distance the expedition turned back because of numerous Indians and the difficulty of crossing the streams with facilities at its command.

Q. What led to de Leon's expedition into Texas?

A. In 1688, de Leon then governor of Coahuila, sent a Tlaxcaltecan Indian, Agustin, across the Rio Grande to secure the help of friendly Indians in fighting the Tobosos who were giving him in the case of accident.

"When each individual does all that he is able to do toward avoiding an accident of any kind then and then only will accidents be avoided.

much trouble. De Leon started at once to the place indicated and found a partly demented Frenchman, who gave his name as Jean Gery, seated on a make-believe throne, claiming to be king of the small Indian tribe.

Q. Who was Jean Gery?

A. Gery's statement to the Spanish who took him to Monclova from his Indian throne in Texas, was that he was a native of St. Jean de Orleans, France, and that he came from way up the "Big River," that he had been sent to civilize and rule the Indians, had been there three years, and had been visited by some of his people within the last year. Members of La Salle's colony, captured later by De Soto, stated that Gery did not belong to their group, and nothing more was learned about him or how he reached Texas.

Q. How did Alonzo de Leon finally find Fort St. Louis?

A. In 1689, de Leon headed an expedition that crossed the Rio Grande and found an Indian who said that had been to Fort St. Louis, and offered to guide the Spaniards to the fort. Under his guidance the deserted settlement was discovered. It had been raided and pillaged by Indians, who had destroyed such things as they could not use. The bones of three bodies were scattered over the country.

Q. When, by whom and where was the first Episcopal church established in Texas and who was the first prelate to visit the State?

A. The first Episcopal church in Texas was organized at Matagorda in 1838 by Rev. Caleb S. Ives, who reached there that year. The congregation was visited the next year by Bishop Leonidas K. Polk, the first Anglican prelate to come to Texas.

SANTA FE REVIEW

Following is a review of 1937 and forecast for 1938 by S. T. Bledsoe, president of the Santa Fe System Lines.

There was produced in Santa Fe territory in 1937 a fair wheat crop, good corn and sorghum crops, and substantial cotton crops. The severe freeze curtailed the shipment of oranges and lemons from California and Arizona. Other agricultural products made fair returns. Livestock has done well. Both freight and passenger traffic have shown substantial.

Increases over the previous year until recently when a decrease in freight traffic began and has since been progressing. This decline apparently has been due principally to a decline in building, lumber and manufacand brother.

Walter Daniel and family from town visited his parents Sunday afternoon.

Richard Sowders had business in San Saba Saturday.

Mrs. Landy Ellis' mother, Mrs. Johnson went home Saturday she lives in San Saba.

As I close it is raining from the north and it is really a cold rain.—BusyBee.

turing and to a slowing of the cotton movement as a result of storage under government loans.

The agricultural outlook for the coming year is somewhat uncertain. Much writer is up to a good stand with favorable soil conditions, but is a lack of moisture, and whole the condition of the crop is less favorable than ago at this time. Citrus from California and Arizona the present time promise average yield. The decline in loadings indicate a slack of business so that the forecast of 1938 will be somewhat favorable than for the year closing. However, I believe conditions are sound and there is a restoration ofence there will be a rest of business activity and look forward to substantial improvement as the year ad

Lampasas

The Lampasas people are responding nicely to the request that all Lampasas citizens join the Lampasas Loyalty League. In joining the league, the members pledge themselves to try first in Lampasas when in need of any kind of merchandise. In this way they will give local merchants a chance to stock merchandise wanted if they do not already have it.

William S. Peacock, a long time resident of Lampasas, passed away at 7:30 Tuesday morning December 7, at his home in East Lampasas. Mr. Peacock has been in bad health for several years, but had only been confined to his bed since last Friday.

Mrs. Tilford Bean passed away Saturday, December 4, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Lloyd, at Alice, Texas.

X. A. (Arnold) Bailey passed away Tuesday night, December 7, at 11 p. m. at his home on southwest Lampasas.

Mrs. H. F. Lewis entertained at a family dinner Saturday evening at 6 p. m. in honor of the birthday of Judge H. F. Lewis and the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Martin.

—Leader.

Saturday morning, December 4, death claimed W. B. Hensley, one of the old timers of Lampasas County. Death was sudden and due to a heart attack, as he had been in good health. As was his custom, he arose early Saturday morning and went out from the home of his children, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Moore, down on the creek near by Mrs. Moore became alarmed when Mr. Hensley did not return and about 9:30 found his body some 100 yards from the house. Death had come without a struggle, it seemed.

Edward Harold, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Massingill of Evant died this morning, December 9, at 8:00 o'clock in the local hospital. He was brought here Monday evening suffering with pneumonia and had been sick since Tuesday before.—Record

Comanche

Twenty-two hundred and fifty bales of cotton had been received at Comanche up to Tuesday at noon, according to estimates of local cotton men.

Comanche merchants not only did a bumper her First Monday but whiskey sales in Comanche that day amounted to $433 and beer brought $76. While Comanche is a bone dry county, the sales Monday were entirely legal. The liquor was sold by Sheriff Wid Spivey at public auction and represented the whiskey and beer which had been confiscated by officers of this county within the last several months.

Bidders from Big Spring bought the liquor.

Miss Thelma Coleman of Lometa and Miss Annie Louise Coleman of Goldthwaite spent the week end in Comanche with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Coleman.—Chief.

Brownwood

Nine hundred and sixty-eight letters were picked up here Saturday afternoon by a mail plane from Houston making a test to determine feasibility of establishing daily feeder air mail service to 40 Texas cities.

R. G. Lockwood was pilot of the cabin monoplane which landed at Brownwood municipal airport at 12:30 p. m., to be greeted by post office and Chamber of Commerce officials. Lockwood waited to obtain information on flying conditions south of here and took off for Temple, next stop on his route, at 2:40 p. m. He will go from Temple to Houston.

Results of the test will be announced later. If the test is considered successful, Brownwood will be one of the stops on a daily air mail feeder line.

Brownwood Cooperative Concert Association opened its 1937-38 season Thursday night, presenting Miss Grace Panvini, diminutive coloratura soprano, and Conrad Mayo, baritone, to an appreciative audience in Howard Payne College auditorium. Featured as accompanist with the singers was Eugene Helmer, pianist of remarkable talent.

A purchasing board from the Fort Worth Remount Area will visit Brownwood December 19 and 20 for the purpose of purchasing riding and artillery horses, Major Marion I. Voorhes, officer in charge of the area, announced today.—Bulletin

Practically assuring construction of a million-dollar irrigation project for this section, Brownwood voters in a special election Tuesday ratified by seven to one a contract providing for purchase of water from Brown County Water Improvement District No. 1 by the City of Brownwood.

Found lying unconscious in the hallway of the Bohannon & Steel livestock sales barn on Center avenue shortly after 6 p. m. Wednesday night, Coy McIntosh, 48, Brownwood livestock dealer, died in a local hospital Thursday morning at 6:20 without regaining consciousness.

C.F. Wesner, Brownwood Junior High School principal, was elected director-general of the entire County Interscholastic League activities for the approaching year at a meeting in district court room Saturday morning.—Banner.

Hamilton

The Hamilton High School Bulldogs came to the end of the trail and to the finish of a highly successful football season last Friday afternoon when the Brady Bulldogs trimmed them 26-7 in a game between the district champions of 25 and for the bi-district championship. The Bulldogs were defeated by a better team, one with more man power and also outlucked, but at any rate, they led in one respect, as they managed to out fumble the Bradyites by a comfortable margin.

This is the first season in the history of Hamilton that the high school contingent has come home with a district championship and the home folks showed their appreciation by going to Brady in great numbers to see their boys make their last stand of the season. They were not particularly disappointed, as lots of them felt that Brady packed a little too much ammunition.

Christmas began in Hamilton last Monday, December 6, when jolly old Santa Claus made his triumphal entry onto the square riding in a truck load of bags of sweets, fruits and nuts. He came in from the Polar Regions right down north Highway 66 by the Hamilton National Bank and circled the court house waving greetings to the hundreds of wid-eyed children who were crowded in with their elders to get a real daylight look at Santa.

Preceding the arrival of Santa Claus with his gifts, the Hamilton Lions Club Band gave an open air concert and the locally famous "Clodhoppers" played a number of peppy selections in their own peppy way.

Fred Sanderson, Lometa F.F.A. Chapter President and J. M. Starn local advisor and vocational agriculture teacher, attended the annual Father and son Banquet given by the Goldthwaite F.F.A. Chapter in the basement of the Methodist church Friday night.

Most of the Goldthwaite local members were present with their fathers. Several outstanding business men from Goldthwaite also attended.

The study and Civic Club met in the home of Mrs. Geo. McCaff with Mrs. Johnnie Kring co-hostess.

Mrs. J. L. Buttrill, leader, introduced each speaker with worth while comments on the subject, Women of Today.

This week the Chamber of Commerce and the Study and civic clubs are installing Christmas lights in the business section of town, and when they are up and begin to pay the Texas Power & Light Co. the little Mountain City will take on a holiday hue which will add greatly to the Christmas spirit.

The Chamber of Commerce is offering two premiums for two best decorated windows or yards of homes in Lometa the decoration of course, to carry out the Christmas idea.

Mrs. O. B. Coldwell of Temple came in Monday morning for a visit with her brother, F. A. Stockton, and family. Of course, while here, she renewed for the Reporter for two years.

Sterling Crews continues to improve, in the hospital at Lampasas, and expects to be able to return home in a short time.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

Make a Christmas Picture Book

Let pictures tell the story. Bedtime on Christmas Eve is as important to the story as discoveries at the tree next morning. Amateur flood or flash lamps and supersensitive film put the pictures on a snapshot basis.

PLANNING our Christmas pictures is very much like planning our Christmas shopping. Far in advance we resolve to do it early. Day after day we resolve to do it early. And then all of a sudden the time is up, we can't do it early—and we don't do it well.

So, here's sound advice. Do it now! Get yourself pencil and paper and work out a Christmas scenario, a series of pictures that will tell the whole Christmas story and give material for the pictorial Christmas book you have always wanted to make.

Then, first thing tomorrow, lay in a proper supply of supersensitive film and amateur flood or flash bulbs, so they will be ready to hand when Christmas comes.

Don't skimp in planning your picture series. Remember, it's an occasion that comes only once in a year and even if the children are still young, they are growing up rapidly as far as Christmas is concerned.

You will want at least one picture—perhaps several—of decorating the Christmas tree. If you use a self-timer, the whole family can appear in one picture. Another "must" will deal with hanging up the Christmas stockings. Other pictures can be related to these—for example, the children peeping up the chimney to make sure it is big enough for Santa's entrance. A flood bulb, tucked away in a corner of the fireplace, will give a proper freelight effect.

Then, there should be a pajama picture with the parents admonishing the children to go to bed and be good and stay there. There should be a picture of the children asleep—they seldom are on Christmas Eve but they can at least close their eyes and pretend.

Next morning, a picture of them peeping down the stairway. Joyous snaps as the new toys are discovered. A snap of father trying to put Junior's new train together—or of Junior struggling for a chance to play with it himself. Snaps of the Christmas dinner, the afternoon nap, the new sled getting a tryout... There is material here for a whole album, a book for the years.

Watch your exposures, for these are pictures you do not want to miss. Inexpensive reflectors help increase and control the light. With a box camera at its largest lens opening, you can take snapshots using supersensitive film and two big No. 2 flood bulbs in cardboard reflectors, three and four feet from the subject. For the Christmas tree, which is dark, use three bulbs, or more if it is a large tree and the lights have to be farther back from it. And where possible, try to arrange a balanced lighting, without harsh black shadows, for these especially injure a child picture.

John van Guilder.

CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE

Out at the State Tuberculosis Sanatorium, doctors, nurses and patients contribute annually in the Christmas Seal Sale, according to Roy W. Henson, director of the Sanatorium Bureau of Correspondence, who has served as chairman of the seal sale in that institution for many years.

"Some of the contributions are small, it is true" Mr. Henson said "but the patients here, grateful for sanatorium care to aid them in their personal battle with tuberculosis, are eager to share in the work which the national, state and local tuberculosis associations are doing to wipe out the scourge of which they are victims. Their knowledge of tuberculosis comes from bitter experience, and their pennies for Christmas seals are contributed gladly in the hope that others may be spared that experience."
