Death Calls Member of Eagle Staff

Mrs. M. Y. Stokes Jr.

Funeral services for Mrs. M. Y. Stokes, Jr., were held in the First Methodist Church of Goldthwaite at 2:30 Sunday afternoon following her death in Santa Anna Friday evening. Only ten days before she had been busy at her desk at the Eagle. Her last task was to prepare a printed outline that would assist her in securing the information necessary for writing death notices for the paper. Only one page has been torn from the freshly printed pad upon the desk, and that page was for her.

Although she had not been well for several days, she worked at the Eagle Monday morning, April 11, and that night attended a Sunday School class party at the church. Tuesday afternoon she attended the PTA meeting in the school auditorium where her 11-year-old son was on the program. There she was taken violently ill. Her condition grew steadily worse, and at midnight Saturday she was hurried to the Sealy Hospital at Santa Anna.

While her condition was considered grave, hope for her recovery was not abandoned until Friday shortly before she died.

Thursday afternoon when her husband brought their two young sons to see her, she chatted with them happily for half an hour. Then she began to tire, and a little later slipped into unconsciousness, in which she continued, except for a few brief moments, until the end.

Her last audible prayer was for her children, "Take care of my little boys, and whatever is best be done. Amen."

Friday evening her life began to ebb away as softly and quietly as the shadows that crept down from the mountain behind the hospital. At 7:30 she tried to smile, her features relaxed, the strain and suffering were mercifully brushed away. She breathed once more, ever so gently, and her spirit was gone. All that tender, skillful hands and medical science could do, had been done without avail; now her tortured body was at peace.

That night she was carried back to the home she loved, and there she lay until Sunday afternoon. Following a beautiful service conducted by Rev. Fred J. Brucks at the Methodist Church, she was laid to rest beside her father in Oddfellows Cemetery beneath the little oak tree they both had loved so well.

At the church the music, directed by Mrs. John G. Berry, was as follows: Prelude, The Rosary, Hymns by the choir, Mendelssohn's Consolation and My Faith Looks Up to Thee. Baritone solo, One Sweetly Solemn Thought, by Rex Logan of San Antonio. Postlude, Going Home. The entire chancel was banked with a profusion of exquisite flowers centering about a beautiful cross, entwined with lovely canna lilies, the gift of the church. Members of Mrs. Stokes' Sunday School class of boys and girls served as flower bearers.

At the cemetery the minister read the impressive committal, the casket was lowered and the grave heaped high with fragrant blossoms that typified so well the love and esteem felt for her by her multitude of friends.

Active pallbearers were: O. H. Yarborough, Walter Fairman, Tom Toland, F. P. Bowman, Paul McCullough and V. C. Bradford.

Honorary pallbearers were: W. E. Miller, H. G. Bodkin, R. J. Gerald, W. E. Fairman, Earl Fairman, L. B. Porter, Earl Clements, J. H. Harris, A. H. Smith, W. P. Weaver, Dow Hudson, Dr. J. M. Campbell, W. P. McCullough, John Scholer, Neal Dickerson, Sam Sullivan, Y. E. Hoover, W. M. Johnston, Sylvan Cloninger, R. H. Patterson, Mullin, Rex Logan, San Antonio, R. H. Mayfield, Hutto and Robert Bruce, Ballinger.

Eveyn Lawrence Thompson, or "Lawrie," as her friends knew her, was the only child of the late Mr. R. M. Thompson and her mother, whose name she bore. She was born at Plantersville, Grimes County, Texas, but was brought to Goldthwaite by her parents when very small. She was educated in private schools here and at Daniel Baker College, Brownwood; Southwestern University, Georgetown; and Klidd-Key, Sherman, specializing in music.

In 1922 while living in Lampasas, she married Melmoth Y. Stokes, Jr. of that place. They subsequently lived at El Paso, Brownwood, Ardmore, Okla., Austin, Houston and San Antonio, in each of which places she leaves many friends. Two sons, Lawrence Morrison Stokes, 14 and Melmoth Y. Stokes, III, 11, were born to them, and they, with her husband and her mother, Mrs. R. M. Thompson, survive her.

Mrs. Stokes had a beautiful soprano voice of unusual range and volume. She was a soloist at St. David's Episcopal Church choir in Austin and at St. Paul's Methodist Church choir in Houston, and also sang in the choirs of the churches she attended elsewhere.

In 1931 the family moved to Goldthwaite which has been

Action Asked on Electrification

A committee which included W. P. Weaver and Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Cook started to Waco Tuesday to ask that Mills County's rural electrification program be expedited. They were turned back by heavy rain and bad roads at Star, but hope to complete the trip soon.

Buchanan Dam is practically complete, and cheap electric power generated there will soon be available in this section of the state. Sponsors of the electrification program for this county are endeavoring to have the project approved in time for it to be completed when the power is available.

Welcome Rains Fall This Week

Practically every section of Mills County has been visited with rain this week. Several torrential showers have fallen, including one at Star Tuesday morning and one on the C. O. Norton place Wednesday afternoon. Tuesday night a mild storm ushered in a heavy rain in and around Goldthwaite.

Much heavier rains have been reported in various sections of Texas causing streams to go out of their banks and causing considerable damage to growing crops. An 11-inch rain was reported at Gonzales, and 12-inches was reported at Water Valley near Coleman. Low bridges were badly damaged at Miles. Rains north and west of here sent the Colorado river on a 25-foot rise Tuesday, and 2 3/4 in. fell here Thursday afternoon in 55 minutes.

Emergency Seed Loans Close Saturday

Applicants for emergency seed loans will not be accepted after Saturday, April 30. Mrs. Marie Manuel, who is in charge for this county, asks that all who intend to apply for loans do so this week.

Last Monday Brings Good Crowd to Town

Another good crowd was on hand Monday to enjoy the monthly Trades Day sponsored by Goldthwaite merchants. All features of the program appeared to be thoroughly enjoyed.

Plans for the next monthly Trades Day will be announced soon.

Cold Cookery School Pleases Housewives

The Cold Cookery clinic sponsored by the Community Public Service Company, here last Tuesday was well attended. Mrs. Marie McHenry, who is well known from previous appearances here, gave effective demonstrations of the way to utilize leftover dishes and the proper methods of making canapes, jellied consommes, and other cold dishes.

90-Lbs. of Fish Taken from River

L. C. Williamson and Jim Burdette caught 90-lbs of fine catfish in the Colorado River Tuesday just after the red rise in the river drove the fish to the banks for air. The prize catch was a 26-lb. catfish. The fishermen were kind enough to divide their catch among a number of appreciative friends.

Zone Meeting

Nine members of the Methodist Missionary Society went to San Saba Tuesday, April 26, to attend an all-day Missionary Zone Meeting.

Mrs. Cox, and Miss Anderson of Kerrville district secretary and Publicity chairman respectively, were in attendance, as were delegates from Lampasas, Lometa, Goldthwaite and San Saba. Star and Center City were not represented owing to illness.

The program theme carried out the Aldersgate Commemoration and both morning and afternoon sessions were uplifting and inspirational.

Luncheon was in the recreation room of the church.

The ladies attending from Goldthwaite were: Mesdames Tom Collier, L. R. Conroe, Dan Westerman, Hern Harris, Al Dickerson, J. A. Hester, Marsh Johnson and H. B. Johnson.

National Air Mail Week, May 15 to 21 Is to be Observed

Pasture Field Day—Ranchmen's Picnic

R. R. Lancaster, Extension Pasture Specialist; M. R. Bentley, Extension Agricultural Engineer; W. R. Nisbet, Extension Livestock Specialist and R. E. Callendar, Extension Wild Life Specialist, will conduct a Pasture Field Day, Thursday, May 5.

The discussion will cover identification of pasture weeds, brush and grasses and their relative value for grazing, pasture improvement, the pasture program and game conservation with its relation to pasture improvement.

Ranchmen and Stock farmers are invited to attend and bring lunch. Women cordially invited. A special meeting for 4-H Club boys will be offered in the afternoon.

All ranchmen interested in range improvement should attend.

Methodist Church

We have appreciated very deeply the fine spirit of loyalty that has been so evident in our revival services. Thanks to all.

We also appreciate the large number of visitors that have been in our services. We cordially invite you to continue with us the remainder of the services. Services every night at 8:00 p. m.

Regular services Sunday. Come and bring your friends. Pray for the meeting.
FRED J. BRUCKS, Pastor

Priddy FFA News

The Priddy FFA boys were going to enter several contests at Stephenville which was held April 2, but most of the boys couldn't go.

We only entered one contest—wildlife, by Sam Gromatsky and he won second place.

He went to the contest at A&M College the 18 and 19th of April and won fourth place.

Celebrating the twentieth anniversary of the inauguration of air mail service on May 15, 1918, Goldthwaite will join in observing National Air Mail Week, May 15 to 21.

At the Goldthwaite post office, special air mail cachets will be mailed and business men are urged to complete mailing lists for the letters and stamp collectors throughout the United States will have the opportunity to send self-addressed envelopes to the post office here in order to secure first-day cancellations. In the cachets mailed to philatelists or to persons suggested by business men of the town there is offered an opportunity to enclose advertising matter about Goldthwaite and Mills County.

A second particular of Air Mail Week will be the participation of county high school students in the air mail essay contest. Essays not to exceed 250 words should be written on the subject, "Wings Across America," and should consider the ideas, purposes, and advantages of air transportation as it effects modern communication.

Postmaster M. Y. Stokes, Jr., explains that essays will be judged on originality of ideas, continuity, construction, spelling, punctuation, and neatness. They must be mailed to the State Chairman, National Air Mail Week Essay Contest in care of the local postmaster before midnight, May 1, 1938.

Air Trip Prizes

To the first prize winner from each state will be awarded a round trip by air from his nearest airport to Washington, D. C. There state winners will be guests at a banquet at which prizes will be announced and awarded. The national winner will receive either an air trip to Hollywood and return, or a trip to Miami.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt said in a recent letter relating to the observance of Air Mail Week: "We have seen the service which was begun so modestly 20 years ago with small 80-mile-an-hour planes on a short 218-mile route grow into the world's greatest air-transportation system, with 62,829 route miles over which the most modern planes last year flew a total of more than 70,000,000 miles, transporting not only mail but also passengers and express at speeds undreamed of in 1918.

"With such remarkable growth in these two decades of pioneering we may, with assurance, look to the next decade to bring even more remarkable progress. I shall observe with a great deal of interest the commemorative program, which will bring to the attention of the public the great strides made in aviation and the benefits our people enjoy thru the Air Mail Service."

AS BILL McCRAW OPENED HIS CAMPAIGN

South Bennett

By Mrs. M. L. Casbeer

It is with a sad heart, we write to the Eagle this week. Death came into our town last week and took the life of one of our most loved persons there. In the passing of Mrs. Stokes, we have lost a friend that we cannot forget. Her cheerful smile and sunny disposition was one that will always be remembered. To her husband and boys and to her mother, who is our dear Editor, Mrs. Thompson, whom we all love so well, we will say we sympathize deeply with each of you and share your sorrow in the passing of your loved one. May God's richest blessings rest upon you.

Clyde Featherston and family were guests, Sunday of Elton Horton and family, at Caradan. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. English of Fort Worth spent the week end with their daughter, Mrs. M. L. Casbeer and family. While here they made short visits with the Morgan Stacy family and Clyde Featherston and family. They returned home Sunday morning. Burthel Roberts and wife spent Saturday in the Maynard Roberts home. Mrs. M. L. Casbeer and daughter, Billie Jean, visited in the Walter Weatherby home, Wednesday afternoon.

ter, Billie Jean, visited in the Walter Weatherby home, Wednesday afternoon.

Houston Kuykendall from New Mexico who has been making a visit with his parents at Goldthwaite has visited relatives and friends in this community. Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Stacy had their sheep sheared Saturday afternoon. Mrs. M. L. Casbeer and mother, Mrs. J. H. English, made a visit with Mrs. P. G. Palmer and Mrs. Bateman, Saturday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Simpson from town visited a short while with relatives here, Thursday. Mrs. A. D. Walker and boys from Macon, Mrs. J. T. Morris and Dorothy Eunice, Mrs. Schuler from Brady and Ben Casbeer made visits in the Matt Casbeer home and M. L. Casbeer home, Sunday morning. Mrs. Bill Eckert visited in the Dennis home one day last week. Mr. and Mrs. Leon Johnson visited at San Saba last Sunday. Mrs. M. L. Casbeer and children visited in the Dennis home, Thursday afternoon. Next Sunday is the day Rev. Kerr is to come preach for us. We are also planning to have dinner on the ground. There will also be church Saturday night. Let's all be there that can.

Social Security Payments Made

A total of $2,372.29 has been received since the first of the year by 97 resident of the Austin area as lump-sum payments under the old-age insurance provisions of the Social Security Act it was announced today by Jesse C. Carter, manager of the Austin office of the Social Security Board.

Austin, with 30 payments, led all cities in this area in the number of beneficiaries. The individual payment, $106.31, went to the estate of a deceased worker here at Austin. Other cities in this area where claims have been paid during the first three months of the year, and the number of beneficiaries in each, are: Waco, 18; Taylor, 4; Lockhart, 4; Groesbeck, 4.

Sixty of these payments were made to widows or other close relatives of workers who have died, and 37 went to workers who reached age 65, Carter said.

It was explained that lump sums are being paid to workers in covered employment who have reached age 65 since January 1, 1937, and to estates of workers who have died after having received wages from covered employment since January 1, 1937. In each case, the payment amounts to 3 1/2 per cent of the total wages received from covered employment since January 1, 1937, and up to attainment of age 65 or death.

Workers steadily employed in covered employment during the past 15 months have received wages in sufficient amount that if they now become eligible for a lump-sum benefit, it most certainly is to their advantage to file a claim. For instance, a worker who reaches age 65 after receiving $1,500 in wages from covered employment is eligible to file a claim for $52.50. This sum also would be payable to the estate of a worker who dies before reaching age 65 and after receiving wages of $1,500 from covered

Texas Water Supply Is Endangered

Unless immediate steps are taken to conserve the State's underground water supplies, Texas will be facing a serious shortage of underground water, according to the Texas Planning Board's water resources committee, which is making an exhaustive study of the State's underground water resources.

Some sections of the State already are beginning to feel the pinch of diminishing supply of underground water. The underground water table in the famous Winter Garden area is dropping at an alarming rate and unless drastic conservation measures are taken soon, that area will be faced with a serious underground water problem.

Contrary to popular belief, most of the cities and towns in Texas get their water for domestic purposes from underground sources. In some sections of the State the underground water is replenished almost as rapidly as it is used, but there are other sections where the forces of nature are unable to keep the supply replenished. It is in these sections that stringent conservation measures will have to be taken if the State is to be insured a continuous and bountiful supply of sparkling underground water.

The planning board's water resources committee, under the direction of C. S. Clark, planning board member, and chairman of the State Board of Water Engineers, is studying several conservation measures. Each of the measures, however, provides for the conservation, and orderly use, of the State's precious supply of underground water.

By Mrs. Eula Nickols (Intended for Last Week)

Sunday was a beautiful Easter Sunday. There was an egg hunt at the school house after Sunday school. Twenty were present at Sunday school.

Next Sunday will be church day again as it is every two weeks. I feel sure Bro. Wade will be prepared to preach two good sermons.

Bryan Smith from Atlanta, Georgia was at home with his mother for Easter. We are always so glad to have this young man back home. He reads the Eagle each week, and I believe he really enjoys keeping up with his Texas friends.

Mrs. Eula Nickols attended the club Tuesday in Mrs. Glenn Nickols home in town.

Woody Traylor and wife and daughter, were dinner guests Sunday in the Roberts home.

Miss Johnnie Belle Circle and Mrs. Eula Nickols attended church at the Methodist Church in town Sunday night.

Mrs. Tas Renfro from town, spent Monday in the Renfro home.

J. T. Robertson and Clifton Renfro helped John Roberts work on a tank this week.

Harry Boyd and family from Ratler spent Sunday with his parents.

Harvey Dunkle and wife from McCamey are visiting in the J. T. Robertson home.

Mmes Stark and Renfro are on the sick list this week. Dr. Campbell was called out to see both ladies. We hope they will soon be alright.

Since the sun is shining again, central can ring our telephones some better. If the men don't watch out the ladies may fix the line, as it needs it very bad.

Mrs. J. C. McClary helped Hardy McClary and wife in town to move in W. P. Weaver's house on Fisher Street Friday.

Friday night Joe Davis and family and mother, Landy Ellis and wife, Mrs. W. A. Daniel and Billie Ruth and Philip Nickols and mother went to Star to see Muri Alexander's trick horse. Smoky was highly educated. Mrs. J. D. Hodges from town accompanied the group.

J. T. Robertson and wife and Greta Traylor spent Sunday with Jack Robertson and wife in South Bennett.

Bro. E. E. Dawson and C. L. Stephens from town called in the J. T. Robertson, Mrs. Nickols, Carl Bledsoe's and the Du Bose homes. Friday afternoon it was a hard trip on the preacher, as they got in the mud and he had to push out.

Landy Ellis and Richard Souders had business in Comanche Saturday morning.

Richard Souders and family spent Saturday night and Sunday in San Saba with relatives. They also visited Friday in the Ballard home.

Lorene Bledsoe spent Easter with her parents. She is a John Tarleton student.

Mrs. Eula Nickols visited in the Henry Martin, and Will Marshall and Mrs. Sims homes in town Wednesday afternoon.

J. T. Stark and mother visited Mrs. Ray Davis and children in Center Point Sunday night.

SPRING FOOTBALL IN FULL SWING

Around 25 boys are working out for football daily. New boys out for the first time are showing more interest and looking better, than the six letter men out. Next years team will be a little heavier than last years team.

Friday, April the 29th, next year's team will play the boys who finish this year. The band will be present. If you want to see what next years team will look like, see the game. The game will start at 4 o'clock and will be played on the lot north of the City wells.

The Eagles probable starting line-up will be: Ends: A. Smith, B. Kuykendall; tackles: D. Langford, M. Miller; guards: S. Gerald, C. Hunt; center: G. Carter; Quarter: R. H. O. B. Sheppard; F. B. F. Marshall.

Line-up for the boys who finish will be: QB, C. Davis; HB, J. D. McKenzie; HB, H. Shaw; FB, C. Hill; G, B. Hunt, M. Hodges; T, D. McCasland, W. Miller; E, D. Kirby, H. Faulkner.

We will play our first conference game next year, September 23 with Lometa. September 30, we will play San Saba. The first game of the season next year, will be with Hico, September 16.

her home ever since except for a temporary residence in San Antonio from July 1933 until April 1934. At this time she was appointed acting postmaster at Goldthwaite. She performed the arduous duties of this office with distinction for 11 months when she was succeeded by her husband, the present postmaster.

Mrs. Stokes was an all-round newspaper woman. Following the World War she operated the linotype for her father for a number of months. She still loved the feel of type and only a few weeks ago "made up" the front page of the Eagle in addition to doing the front office work.

She was the Goldthwaite correspondent for the Brownwood Bulletin and the Associated Press and was paid the following high tribute by Mr. Dave Cheavens, State Editor of the A.P.: "We were grieved to read of the death of Mrs. Stokes, whom we had always regarded as a friend of The Associated Press."

"We recall the fine service she always gave, and remember particularly the good work she did on the floods two years ago when she was especially helpful to our staff cameraman. She was one of that small army of fine newspaper men and women, serving faithfully for small pay, who have kept our association to the front in Texas news coverage. Our regret is that we could not always know them personally."

"Please accept the sincere sympathy of the entire Texas staff of The Associated Press."

Mrs. Stokes loved activity. She was a member of the Art and Civic Club, Tuesday Study Club, Garden Club and P.-T. A. of Goldthwaite and the Schubert Music Club of Brownwood. She was an entertaining speaker and gave frequent lectures, usually on garden club topics, illustrated with lantern slides.

She was an enthusiastic church and Sunday School worker. But most of all she was devoted to her family and her home.

Although for the past year her health had been bad and she frequently suffered excruciating pain, few, if any, of even her best friends realized the seriousness of her condition. Her cheerful disposition and radiant spirits gave the impression of vigorous health, and she always did her share or more of everything she undertook.

Since girlhood, Mrs. Stokes had belonged to the Methodist Church. Her trust in God and her confidence in prayer was unbounded. She was a Christian not merely by profession but in deed. She loved to go about doing good, and she brought rays of sunshine to many grief-stricken souls. Her good deeds will live after her.

"Whate'er my God ordains is right;
Here will I take my stand,
Though sorrow, need or death make earth
For me a desert land.
My Father's care
Is round me there,
He holds me that I shall not fall;
And so to Him I leave it all."

Many Attend Funeral From Out-of-Town

Out-of-town relatives present for the funeral, Sunday, of Mrs. M. Y. Stokes, Jr., included Mrs. M. Y. Stokes, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Stokes and Chas. E. Stokes, Jr. of Lampasas and Colonel and Mrs. Warner Carr of Fort Sam Houston; W. H. Thompson, W. T. Thompson and family, Mrs. Bonner Thompson, Judge and Mrs. J. C. Darroch, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hicks of Brownwood; and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hicks of Cameron.

Friends from out-of-town included: From Brownwood, Mrs. I. L. Broadbudd, Mrs. David Camp, Jr., Mrs. Lee Lamkin, Mrs. Ralph Griffin, and Mrs. W. R. Parker who represented the Schubert Music Club of which Mrs. Stokes was a member, Mrs. J. N. Weatherby, Miss Annie Shelton, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Harrison, Rev. and Mrs. Ben H. Moore, Rev. and Mrs. Bransford Eubank, From Lampasas, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Peak, Mrs. A. L. Higdon, Mrs. L. E. Sparks, W. E. Moore, Hardin Harwell, William and Lurline Creekmore, Mrs. Homer Pariss, Mrs. Roy McNeill, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Adams, and Mrs. W. H. Rathman. Wm. L. Lockhart, San Angelo; R. W. Bruce and Robert E. Bruce of Ballinger.

From San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Lesser, Mrs. John K. Beery and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Logan.

As it was impossible to secure the names of all those who came from a distance to attend the funeral, it will be deeply appreciated by the family if they will be given the names of anyone omitted from the above list.

Be an Early Bird!

Start planning now for egg production this fall. The foundation for heavy sustained laying must be laid when the chick is growing. Chick diseases are mostly in the intestinal tract and any irritation or infection of this tract causes it to become impaired for digestive purposes. Sear tissue develops where the irritation exists and this thickens the intestinal walls. In this way the wall loses its efficiency to absorb food material. How can a laying hen be expected to stand up to the strain of heavy production with a crippled digesting machine? This explains why so many layers go light, breakdown or die of other reasons. Coccidiosis in the growing chicks paves the way for a high death rate in the laying flock.

To keep the digestive machinery in good order, keep your chicks on MID-TEX feeds, which are properly fortified with minerals for health protection.

Bring us your POULTRY, EGGS and CREAM. We appreciate your patronage.

THE QUIET TIME

HOWARD J. ROSE
(Of the Oxford Group)

"Be still and know that I am God." Psalm 46:10.

(A few outline notes on the guidance of the Holy Spirit in the life of the individual through attentive prayer.)

- I. The Fact of God's Guidance.
II. The Condition of God's Guidance.
III. The Tests of God's Guidance.
IV. One Method of Receiving God's Guidance.
V. The Results of God's Guidance.

Experience shows that the individual is guided by God, both during the quiet time and throughout the day, in the following ways:

- 1. Through the Holy Spirit in Attentive Prayer (i.e., the unhurried quiet time waiting upon God, by means of:—
(a) The Scriptures.
(b) The Conscience.
(c) Luminous Thoughts.
(d) Cultivating the Mind of Christ.
2. Through reading the Bible and Prayer.
3. Through Circumstances.
4. Through Reason.
5. Through Church, Group or Fellowship.
II. The Conditions for an Effective Quiet Time.
1. The whole-hearted giving oneself to Jesus Christ, the Gally offering ourselves, our souls and bodies in His service. (Gal. 2:20; Romans 12:1-2).

N.B. This entails:—

- (a) The willingness to let go every known sin or inconsistency.
(b) Maintaining right relationships with all men.
(c) The willingness to make restitution for wrong done, if and when guided so to do.
(d) Absolute honesty, purity, unselfishness and love.
2. Seeking God for Himself, believing in the indwelling presence of Christ. (Is. 55:6; St. Matt. 28:20; St. John 15:4).
3. Self-discipline, especially in keeping a regular unhurried time of quiet waiting upon God in a restful, relaxed and receptive attitude. (Psalm 46:10; Matt. 26:41).
4. Absolute trust and obedience to the Will of God and the carrying of it out immediately, as it is revealed by the Holy Spirit. (Pro. 3:5-6; St. John 16:13).

5. A belief in prayer that whatever we ask according to His will and in His name, believing, we shall receive. (Matt. 21:22; St. John 14:13-14).

III. The Tests of God's Guidance.

How can we discover what is the true guidance of God?

- 1. Does it go counter to the highest standard or belief which we already possess?
2. Does it contradict the revelation which Christ has already made in or through the Bible?
3. Is it absolutely honest, pure unselfish and loving?
4. Does it conflict with our duties and responsibilities to others.

N.B. If still uncertain, wait and continue in prayer and consult a trustworthy friend, who believes in the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

IV. One Method of Obtaining God's Guidance.

("Watch and pray." Matt. 26:41).
1. Get into a comfortable position, sit, recline or kneel, whichever gives greatest relaxation of mind and body. Cultivate stillness of mind by an act of will, thinking peaceful and restful thoughts. Have unhurried quiet and sense of leisure, avoiding all tenseness. (Psalm 37:7).

2. Confess any known sin and seek forgiveness through Christ. (1 John 1:5-9).

4. Dedicate the body, soul and spirit to Him for the day. This act of committal entails the bringing to God the belief of the mind, the love of the heart and the service of the will. (Rom. 12:1-2).

5. Pray that the Holy Spirit may take complete charge of the thought life, that only God's thoughts may enter the mind. (Romans 8:26-27; John 16:15).

6. In the attitude of "Speak Lord for Thy servant heareth" wait patiently and quietly, listening for what He has to say, what He has to reveal to us concerning ourselves, what He wants us to

In this motor age of speeding cars, the traditions of the famed Texas Rangers have in part been taken over by those modern knights of the road—the highway patrol.

One day recently, 1,000 young men, many of them college graduates, filed into the state highway department offices to sit for hours over sheets of questions. After the drastic eliminations of physical, mental, aptitude, and training tests, 100 of those young men will be added to the 200 now patrolling Texas highways.

Started 17 years ago in El Paso as a county project, the idea of a road patrol spread through Bexar, Dallas, and Tarrant counties. Then in 1929, the state organized its first highway squad of 50 policemen.

The modern knight of the road with his roaring steed is now a familiar sight on our highways. His training and duties have developed a new type of policeman, an officer far from the old "Hey, where do you think you're going!" school, an officer dedicated to a campaign of highway safety and empowered to put it into effect.

With 2042 new graves dug in Texas last year for the victims of motor madness, the highway patrol has its job cut out for it. Through courtesy where possible and force where necessary, thru accident maps of the roads ridden by death, through perpetual vigilance and strict law enforcement, the highway patrol is out to guard the roads as the Rangers guard the border. Ex.

Carefulness

For want of a nail the shoe was lost; for want of a shoe the horse was lost; and for want of a horse the rider was lost; being overtaken and slain by the enemy, all for the want of care about a horse shoe nail.—Benjamin Franklin.

do in His service, what message He wants us to bear, what piece of work He wants us to do, or what new truth He wants us to learn about Himself. (John 16:13-14).

7. Many find it a real help to write down the ideas and thoughts which the Holy Spirit has caused to arise in the mind. The advantage of this two-fold: it is an aid to concentration and acts as a reminder of duties to be performed, and is of value in checking at the close of the day the thoughts received each morning and through the day. (Jer. 30:2).

V. The Results of God's Guidance.

Thoughts are given by way of:—

- 1. Warnings:
(a) Personal. (Wrong motives, thoughts, actions, etc. are revealed which might become an occasion of sin).
(b) Concerning others. (Insight is given into the difficulties of those one is trying to help).
2. Such action to be taken, instructions re plans, etc.
3. Letters to write.
4. Visits to pay.
5. Thoughts to share with others.
6. Instruction about prayer, praise, what to read, etc.
7. Miscellaneous thoughts and promises.

N.B.—The more general results of the Quiet Time are:—

(i). A first-hand experience of God through Christ, the Bible, prayer and the listening for the voice of the Holy Spirit.
(ii). A Christ-centered and unified life, issuing in joyous, spontaneous, God-directed service.

A PRAYER FOR THE MORNING QUIET TIME

All through this day, O Lord, let me touch as many lives as possible for Thee. And every life I touch do Thou by Thy Holy Spirit quicken, whether through the word I speak, the prayer I breathe, the letters I write, or the life I live. In the Name of Jesus. Amen.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

VIEWES OF THE NATION'S PRESS ON TOPICS OF INTEREST

About Living Longer

The reader probably thinks he would like to know how long he will live. For that reason human beings are always interested in revelations that tend to reveal the causes of death and the habits that tend to prolong life.

Prof. Raymond Pearl, noted biologist, has recently come to some interesting conclusions about longevity. Inasmuch as they are based on a scientific study of data the statements of this scientist are worth passing on, although every reader will "know" immediately that the student is entirely wrong on any conclusion that does not coincide with his or her prejudices.

Prof. Pearl's study reveals that inheritance is a major factor in the achievement of great longevity. It is not surprising that ripe old age is based on a "pretty good egg" at the beginning.

He finds that smoking means a definite impairment of longevity, proportional to the amount of tobacco used. Contrary to some ideas he reports that "no measurable effect of the moderate use of alcoholic beverages can be demonstrated" although heavy indulgence "definitely and considerably impairs life expectancy."

Hard, physical labor, says the professor, whether performed in door or outdoors, has no effect upon life expectancy up to the age of forty, but considerable effect after that age.

In the case of persons dying eventually of diseases of the heart or the blood vessels, his study convinces him that it is possible, even when such persons are in a state of good health, to distinguish the groups that will be short-lived and those which will be long-lived.

Prof. Pearl reports that life tables show a great improvement in the average duration of life in the past forty years but this is due to a great improvement in infant welfare and not to a lengthening of the biological span of human life. In fact, he asserts that "actually fewer persons alive at the age of 70 today survive to the age of 90 than did forty years ago."

Washington

When large corporations need money for modernization and expansion purposes, they issue stocks or bonds which are sold to investment bankers who in turn sell the securities in small lots to the investing public. But this method seldom is open to small companies because security dealers usually cannot handle small issues of stocks or bonds profitably. Consequently, small businesses have had to rely pretty much on their local banks for funds. This has worked a hardship in many deserving cases. The Senate, therefore, last week took up a bill introduced by Senator Carter Glass of Virginia designed to broaden the lending powers of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to include small business as well as banks, railroads and other special industries. The RFC announced it had $1,500,000,000 available to lend upon passage of the Glass bill. Small business forms having good collateral will benefit if this bill becomes law.

Business

The most important business news last week was the election of the Senate Finance Committee in abolishing the undistributed profits tax and making extensive modifications in the capital gains tax. These two moves, which have been forecast in this column for several weeks, will go far toward easing the oppressive tax burden on business. Small companies with incomes less than $25,000 will be favored under the new bill and will pay less than the flat 18 per cent levied upon larger companies. General business continues depressed and earnings for the first three months of 1938 will be considerably under last year. Stock, bond and commodity markets were sharply lower last week. This writer believes that confidence will gradually be built up now that the "war on taxes" has begun in earnest. Better times are ahead of America, not behind it.

MOST of us are familiar with the story of the Irish longshoreman who dropped into a strange bar on West Street in New York for a glass of beer. As he entered, there came to his ears from the back room sounds betokening a free-for-all battle—the crash of bottles, the thud of falling bodies, the splintering of furniture, the outcry of the belligerents.

With an eager light in his eye the newcomer ranged up to the bar. Already he was rolling up his sleeves.

"Tell me, young man," he asked of the barkeeper, at the same time moistening the palm of his right hand, "is that a private fight goin' on back there, or kin anyone take a hand?"

Well there is another story in a similar vein. When the old Celtics of New York played Gaelic Football there was a particular rough team from Fall River which was in the same league. These two teams met at the Celtic Park arena and the game was scarcely ten minutes old when during a very fierce mix-up the ball collapsed. The little knot of players however kept up the battle and the referee dashed over blowing his whistle.

"Here you fellows," shouted the official, "Cut that out, don't you know that the ball is broken?"

To which one of the famous Celtic team made reply, "Aw, to hell wid de ball, let's play without it."

Forgery led with five indictments against one man and two against another. Other offenses for which indictments were returned included two for burglary one for burglary of a residence, three for theft of wool, one for murder, two for the theft of turkeys, one for wife desertion, and one for car theft.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

HOW UNUSUAL!

A picture snapped from inside the house and through a window often proves to be a fascinating bit of work.

IT'S almost unbelievable but it is true that many amateur photographers have the notion that it is only the unusual that is worthwhile snapping. When they travel, a camera is taken along to get pictures of new scenes and new faces but they use it around their homes only on special occasions.

"But," you may say, "I've already made good snaps around the house. What else is there to shoot?"

Nobody can answer that question for you directly. But it's dollars to doughnuts that there are dozens of untouched picture possibilities, and all of them interesting as the ones already in your album.

With such helps as the inexpensive photo-flood bulbs (for which efficient reflectors are available) you can do your snapshotting indoors as well as out. Present-day cameras, films and lights give you unlimited scope for your snapshotting. Today almost any picture is possible—and at any time.

Of all words of praise for the snapshot, the sweetest are these, spoken by a friend:—"Well, would you look at that! I've seen that spot every day for the last fifteen years and I never dreamed it had the makings of a picture like this."

Maybe you've heard these words already! Congratulations!

Watch Your Kidneys!
Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste
Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.
Symptoms may be sagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder may be burning, scanty or too frequent urination.
There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nationwide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!

Senator Connally to Support Amendment

Senator Tom Connally has announced that he will support an amendment to the pending tax bill to provide processing taxes or tariff equalization taxes on cotton to provide additional funds looking to parity payments for cotton farmers.

"The amount available," Senator Tom Connally said, "under the recently enacted farm bill for cotton payments and soil conservation payments to cotton farmers is just a little over one hundred million dollars. This sum is wholly insufficient to offset the loss of income to cotton farmers by reason of drastic reduction of acreage. A tariff equalization or processing tax on cotton goods is justified on the ground that the consumer of cotton goods would pay a small increase in price which would go directly to the cotton producer. If additional funds are to be obtained they must be secured by such a processing tax since the amount available from the general revenue has been limited, as above indicated. The processing tax would also include rayon, a competitor of or substitute for cotton."

New Feature for Rock Garden

"If there is an ugly spot in your yard"—this is Juanita Hitt, of Newberry County, S. C., talking in the Progressive Farmer for March—"try a rock garden."

Miss Hitt calls hers a "friendship garden" because so many of her friends have given plants and bulbs for it. But just let her tell it:

"I began collecting rocks, and my neighbors and friends laughed and said I had gone 'crazy'. There are rocks in my collection from Charleston, S. C., Chimney Rock and Blowing Rock, N. C., Knoxville, Tenn., Stone Mountain, Ga., and from the battlefields near Chattanooga, Tenn. In time I hope to have some from each of the Southern states."

Burning Coffee

During the month of February, Brazil, one of the world's greatest coffee producing countries, burned 721,000 bags of coffee according to a report from the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange. Since last July more than 11,000,000 bags have been burned and more than 58,500,000 bags have been destroyed since the destruction of the surplus coffee crop program started in 1931. This is enough to fill the coffee cups of the world for more than two years.
