

THE GOLDTHWAITE EAGLE

VOLUME FORTY-FIVE

GOLDTHWAITE, MILLS COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, JANUARY 13, 1939.

NUMBER TWENTY-ONE

100 MILLS COUNTY CARS GOING TO INAUGURAL

JUST LOOKIN' ROUND

Fine rains have put everyone in a good humor, especially the old timers of this section who have seen some real drouths. Bob Johnson says his cattle are already looking better and rustling harder. He sold several six-month-old, range calves for $25 a head last week. Incidentally Mr. Johnson raises only muley cattle now. He says they feed better and ship better than horned stock, and he's been raising them long enough to know.

C. A. Head from around Caradan has an interesting theory he expects to try out some time. He believes that by building a small dam just above a storage tank, it would be possible to catch most of the mud in the dam and so prevent the tank from silting up. The dam could be cleaned out after each rain. The tank he is using is 40 years old and still holds lots of water, but in the course of time it has accumulated a lot of mud.

First Lieutenant O. M. Conoley, Jr. of the U. S. Marines is out of China after more than a year of thrilling experiences and is in the Marine hospital at San Diego, Calif. An old football injury of his leg has caused him to be hospitalized, and he was sent for surgical treatment. On the way to the hospital he was in a crowded, filthy river boat and his leg became badly infected from an insect bite. Although he suffered greatly, he kept going and coughed his injury from the Japanese officials until he could reach an English doctor in Japan. In San Diego the surgeons wired his jaws together, and he had to live on soup for 24 days. He celebrated Christmas by eating his first solid food. Lieutenant Conoley is the son of O. M. Conoley who owns San Saba Peak Ranch, south of Goldthwaite. He was one of the first football stars at Texas Tech in Lubbock.

Those who saw the fire that destroyed I. Z. Woodard's home last week say that the strong wind caused it to burn faster than any fire they ever saw. Mrs. Woodard had stepped across the street to telephone a friend, leaving the house apparently all right. While she was talking, she learned that her house was ablaze, and she gave the alarm without a moment's delay. The operators at the telephone switchboard notified each member of the fire department immediately, and the fire truck reached the scene within a few minutes. The wind was so strong, the fire could be fought only from the rear, and the few articles that were saved came from the back of the house. The Eagle Editor's family is grateful that the wind was not blowing from the south, as that would undoubtedly have caused the loss of the Stokes home, too.

A visitor to Goldthwaite who came to this country from the west was so fervently thankful that he lives in the home of the free. His name cannot be mentioned for fear it might result in trouble for his aged mother who still lives there. He says that in an Italian town the size of Goldthwaite there would be 100 to 100 armed policemen or soldiers. Not more than two of the citizens would be allowed to possess even a shotgun, and every shell fired from it would have to be accounted for. Newspapers can print only the news the government hands out. People work much harder and longer.

Are You Coming?

Monday night at 7:00 o'clock an important meeting will be held by the Chamber of Commerce at the Court House. Every citizen of Goldthwaite, whether a member of the Chamber of Commerce or not, is urged to attend and discuss a matter of great interest to everyone.

Hog Cholera Reported Here

Dr. Cloud of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission was in Mills county last week to investigate reports of hog cholera. One herd was found which had been infected by hogs imported from a distance. Of the 32 head of hogs in the lot when the disease began its work, only six lived.

Dr. Cloud said there is a great deal of cholera scattered over Texas at this time and that the most effective means of stopping the spread of the disease is for farmers to refuse to purchase hogs except when they are absolutely known to be from clean territory or when the seller is known to be reliable. Dr. Cloud advised that all hogs that have been exposed be vaccinated.

Dr. Cloud spent several weeks here last summer during the anthrax epidemic and is remembered by a great many stockmen. He made considerable inquiry as to plans to be taken to prevent another outbreak in 1939, saying that a worse epidemic might be expected this year unless it is headed off in time. Dr. Cloud advises that all cattle, horses and mules be vaccinated with an interdermal vaccine about May 1, or last of April. If the slower vaccine is used it should be given early in early April.

R. J. GERALD, County Judge

Lampasas Boy Is Page At Austin

Charles E. Stokes, Jr., 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Stokes of Lampasas, is one of 15 lucky boys to be named pages in the Texas Legislature at Austin. More than 800 boys were applicants. He is a nephew of M. Y. Stokes, Jr., of Goldthwaite.

Home Food Supply

Why plan the home garden? First reason, when we take time to plan anything (even a garden) systematically the results will be more satisfactory. We will have a definite plan to go by and will strive to make the most of our efforts.

In making a garden plan, the person working will study the food needs of the family more thoroughly, and will endeavor to meet them as nearly as possible with home garden production. This is good guide to go by. Plan to produce for each member in the family:

Green and yellow vegetables, 200 pounds.

Other vegetables, as dried beans, corn, beets, 200 pounds.

Potatoes or sweet potatoes, 200 pounds.

Tomatoes or citrus fruits, 100 pounds.

If these foods are included in the diet regularly, the family's health will be improved, because vegetables contain minerals, and these are needed to build bones and teeth and to keep the blood and other body fluids in good condition. Vegetables contain vitamins that are needed for body-building, good digestion, and appetite. They help to adjust body processes, and provide protection against infection.

EMMA SCOTT, Demonstrator

Wildlife Board Meets Today

Earl Sanders of Kerrville, the regional game manager of the state game commission, has called a meeting of the Mills County Wildlife Board for 2 p. m. this (Friday) afternoon in the County Agent's office in the court house. All others interested in game conservation are invited.

Boy Scout Troop A Reality

Last Friday night, a number of boys and their parents met at the Court House with the Boy Scout Troop Committee to hear G. N. Quirl of Brownwood explain the Boy Scout set up and after the meeting adjourned the plans for a troop in Goldthwaite were made.

Friday night, January 13, there will be another meeting at the Court House at which time registration will be resumed and the plans completed. The Troop Committee will secure a definite meeting place where the work and the boys will not be molested, neither will they be in anyone's way.

We feel that a great interest is going to be taken in Goldthwaite in this program. It is not what you might call an organization but an educational program for boys and the worthy use of their time. Interest has already been manifested in the form of monthly pledges for the purpose of making possible this worthy work. Mayor Bodkin plans to sponsor an underprivileged boy; by this we mean a boy who would be unable otherwise to become and remain a Boy Scout. This is a worthy idea. There are others in Goldthwaite who have no children who are able to do the same for a boy. It takes such a little to make one happy, why can't we all do more? I feel sure other families will join in and help make possible a Boy Scout Troop in our city.

The Troop Committee consists of W. M. Johnson, Alton Maricle, V. C. Bradford, Dr. T. C. Graves, F. J. Brucks, Scout Master Edgar Furr, Assistant Scout Master H. D. Schulze. These men have shouldered the responsibility of supervising this work and in addition to this are required to pay a fee of $1.00 and monthly dues equal to that of the Scouts. The boys are required to pay a registration fee of 50c and will need a Hand Book which will cost 50c; there will also be a small weekly fee of perhaps 5c. This will be necessary for the buying of a few of the many things that will be needed.

From time to time we intend to keep the public informed on the developments and interest in the Scout work. We earnestly solicit your encouragement and interest. The work is now on its way. Why not join in now and let's show to all the value of this program? Follow the Scout Column for other information.—Reporter.

Troubles Double In Collier Home

Claud Collier, who lives just north of Goldthwaite on the old Brownwood road, is wondering where trouble will strike his family next. Last Saturday his son, Douglas, fell and broke his arm at the elbow. He was taken to a Brownwood hospital to have it set. Monday his daughter, Elaine, was stricken with appendicitis and was rushed to Santa Anna where Dr. Sealy performed an emergency operation at midnight. Both children are now doing well.

Garden Club

The Goldthwaite Garden Club will not meet Wednesday, January 13, instead it will meet Friday, January 20, in the home of Mrs. O. H. Yarborough.

R. L. STEEN, SR. ILL

Dr. Campbell went to Santa Anna Thursday afternoon and carried Miss Kauh's to nurse R. L. Steen, Sr., who has been seriously ill, but was reported some better.

Julia Elizabeth Casbeer Wins 1939 Baby Derby

No other contestants having reported prior to the deadline at noon Tuesday, January 10, the Eagle is pleased to announce that little Miss Julia Elizabeth Casbeer, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Casbeer, Route 2, Goldthwaite, is the winner of the 1939 Baby Derby for Mills county. She and her parents will receive a number of beautiful gifts as offered by Goldthwaite merchants in the Eagle on December 30. She was born at 11:30 a. m. Wednesday, Jan. 4.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Francis of Goldthwaite was born a little earlier in Brownwood, but as the announcement of the Baby Derby limited entrants to babies born in Mills county, the young lady could not enter.

The following participated in the awards to the first 1939 baby: Little's, Hudson Bros., Yarborough's, Clements Drug, Meiba Theatre, The Goldthwaite Eagle, Barnes & McCullough, Gerald-Worley, Randolph Lumber Co., Piggly Wiggly, Farmers & Ranchers Supply House.

Heavy Rainfall Drenches County

Beginning with a 2-inch rain Sunday, a total of five inches of rain has fallen in Goldthwaite this week, and every section of Mills county and surrounding counties has enjoyed as much or more.

Tanks are brim full, streams are running flush, and the ground at last has as good a season as could be wished. Warm weather also aided in making the rains do the most good.

ACA Committee For 1939 Elected

Members of Mills County Agricultural Conservation Association on Dec. 28, elected the following Community Committees for 1939: Precinct 1 and 4 elected J. H. Burnett, Monroe Fletcher and Reide M. Haynes as Committeemen and E. A. Obenhaus first alternate and Eric D. Roberson second alternate committeemen. Precinct 2 elected W. C. McNeil, J. F. Soules, Frank Kerby Community Committeemen and W. W. Head first alternate and Willis Horton second alternate committeemen. Precinct 3 elected J. H. Priddy, R. C. Duren and W. W. Limmer Community Committeemen and Otto Tischler first alternate and A. A. Downey second alternate Committeemen.

L. H. Soules, Roy Simpson and J. H. Priddy were elected delegates to County Convention for purpose of selecting three County Committeemen for 1939. The delegates met and elected J. H. Burnett, chairman, J. M. Geeslin, vice-chairman and R. C. Duren, third member of County Committee for 1939.

Since a County Committeeman cannot serve as both county and Community Committeemen, the election of J. H. Burnett and R. C. Duren as County Committeemen creates a vacancy in Community Committees in Precincts 1 and 3. The first alternates of these communities become a regular member of the Community Committee.

Eagle Quintet Takes Close Victory

The Goldthwaite High School Eagles basketball five edged out the quintet of Hornets from Lometa in the first close game of the season last week. Playing on the Eagles court located on the Goldthwaite High Athletic Field, the Eagles and Hornets were tied 15 to 15 with only a few minutes to play remaining. In that short time, however, the Eagles scored eight points to the Hornets four, thereby winning the game 23 to 19.

High-point man of the game was Brown of Lometa, who sank four field goals and one free pitch for a total of nine points. Renfro and Rose of Goldthwaite placed high on the Eagle quintet with three field goals apiece, Rose sinking one free pitch.

Although the contest was only for practice, both teams were playing hard all of the time, and the many thrills proved that basketball is really the fastest ball game in the United States.

The Eagles have showed much advancement in their few weeks of workouts, and are generally expected to be ready for the Mills County Basketball Tournament to be held at the Mullin High School gymnasium on February 10 and 11.

Small Twister Hits At Moline

A small freak twister struck at Moline, Sunday, blowing the roof off Ector Greathouse's gin, nearly destroying the seed house and lifting the residences of W. A. Cook and Mrs. M. E. Steel from their blocks. No one was reported injured.

Real Hill Billy Being Groomed To Meet Pappy

Nearly one thousand enthusiastic Mills county boosters are expected to be in the motorcade that will leave Goldthwaite early Tuesday morning to attend the inauguration of Governor W. Lee O'Daniel at Austin.

A fine Mills county Angora billy will be carried as a mascot by the local delegation and will be presented to the Governor who has made the name "Hill Billy" famous throughout the United States.

On page two of this week's Eagle will be found a detailed description of the various events that will take place in Austin Tuesday. The most important of these will be the inauguration of the governor in the University of Texas stadium before 50,000 cheering Texans.

Inaugural Invitations

L. E. Booker has received a number of invitations. He is glad to give them to those who are planning to attend.

A letter from Bro. Furr sets our summer meeting date to begin Friday night, July 14, and end Sunday night, July 23.

SOMEbody SAID:
When someone stops advertising,
Someone stops buying;
When someone stops buying,
Someone stops selling;
When someone stops selling,
Someone stops making;
When someone stops making,
Someone stops earning;
When someone stops earning,
Everybody stops buying.
Moral: Don't stop!

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

A LOCAL CAMERA CLUB

Exchange of ideas on picture-taking leads to better pictures and more snapshot fun. Every town should have a camera club.

IN EVERY town where there are several camera fans, there should be a local camera club. Such clubs are of value to anyone who takes pictures and wants to improve his picture-taking.

The camera club brings snapshotshooters together. It enables them to exchange ideas, and swap experiences. They can work together on problems, hear useful discussions, and organize special events such as picture parties, hikes or excursions. Contact with other camera fans helps each member, for there is always something new to be learned.

In the club, one member may know a great deal about taking snapshots at night. He can advise others on lighting, film and exposure for night snapshots. Another member may own a miniature camera, and specialize in "off-guard" snaps or human-interest pictures of children at play. Still another may know something about sports pictures, or flower pictures. Thus, each member can contribute some knowledge which will help all the others make better snapshots.

So popular and practical are camera clubs that, in the past few years, several thousand have organized throughout the United States. Some clubs have hundreds of members; others, four or five. But no matter how small, the club is of value. In many instances, the camera club is part of a larger group, such as a Boy Scout troop or woman's club. Often, the club is able to have regular meetings, rooms, and members "chip in" to make a darkroom with better equipment than each could afford by himself.

Organization of the club is simple. Camera fans simply get together, arrange for regular meetings, and plan a series of programs. Literature and suggestions for program material are obtained from various sources—often from manufacturers of cameras and film, who have special departments to supply material without charge for use. Picture exhibitions or "evening nights" are usually planned, and whenever possible, tours or other special picture parties are arranged. Under the stimulus of these activities, it is small wonder that pictures improve, and the shooter gets more fun and benefit from his camera hobby!

J. Priddy Celebrates Birthday

Last Sunday Jeff Priddy and his wife and self were at 7:40 a. m., for my residence near Brady, attend his sixty-seventh day celebration. On account of inclement weather, we drove into Anna and there took way 16, thus having paved all the way, except about miles. We were fortunate in this route as the rain was all the way after leaving Anna.

Those attending besides our family were Burt and Jay Priddy and their families, Mrs. Chas. Priddy and daughter Anne from and his married daughter, Robt. Guyton of McCamey and his small daughter.

After announcing dinner, I gathered around my brother and presented our gifts and Mrs. Priddy had brought him a wee ferrier puppy and had him in, but at the opportune moment she placed him in a shoe and laid him in his lap and sure as he removed the lid he beheld the tiny canine, he never more surprised, but enjoyed the joke and said: "finest gift of all! I would give a $50 bill for him."

The dinner was sumptuous and very enjoyable. I don't think any artist could surpass it in beauty or variety. At 4:00 o'clock we bade him adieu and came home feeling happy and delighted over the day.—E. O. Priddy.

Chili Supper

The Y. W. A. and their friends met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Moon for an evening of entertainment.

Circle No. 1 Baptist Auxiliary

An enthusiastic group of women met in the home of Mrs. Chas. Rudd, Monday afternoon, for Bible study.

Plans for the new year were discussed and a vote of thanks was given Mrs. Anderson for the lovely luncheon held in her home during the holidays.

Mrs. Chas. Rudd had the devotional.

The meeting was then turned over to our Lesson Leader, Mrs. Marvin Rudd, who led an interesting hour of study on "The Bible," its origin, inspiration and how it should be accepted.

Our next lesson will be Exodus. Read the book, come join us. You will enjoy the hour spent in study, and will help to make Circle No. 1 a success.—Reporter.

Mt. Olive H. D. Club

The H. D. Club of Mt. Olive met with Mrs. Angus Lee, Wednesday, Jan. 4.

Our demonstration Agent, Miss Scott, was with us. She cut two skirt patterns and gave a demonstration on "Food Budgets."

There were only six members present, besides our hostess and two visitors.

Our Vice-President, Mrs. Burks presided.

As the days are so short, and not much work can be accomplished in an afternoon, a motion carried to discontinue our refreshment hour.

Our dues were reduced from 10c to 5c for the coming year, as we have no definite thing in view to pay for. We all have our year books now, and are very proud of them.

The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Tom McArthur on Wednesday, Jan. 18.

RECENT BRIDE

Mrs. Gordon McCann

McCann—Tippen

The first wedding ceremony to be performed in the Methodist Church since the new building was completed, took place Friday night, January 6, at 7:30 o'clock when Gordon McCann of Lometa and Miss Norma Sue Tippen of this city were united in marriage.

The church was beautifully but simply decorated in ferns and white chrysanthemums, and slender white candles burned in tall candelabra. The couple knelt at the altar on a white satin pillow.

Due to the absence of her father who was unable to attend, the bride was given in marriage by her older brother, Forest Wade Tippen of Abilene. She wore a lovely gown of Starlight blue chiffon, fashioned with a square neck, trimmed with rhinestone clips and a full drin-die skirt gathered in tiers. Her finger-tip veil of illusion, also Starlight blue, was fastened to a halo adorned with a cluster of white blossoms. She wore white kid gloves and carried a white Bible from which fell white satin streamers showered with sprigs of white sweet peas. For something old, she wore her grandmother's wedding ring.

The attendants were Mrs. Leslie Clary, of Abilene, who was matron of honor. She wore a frock of tomato red taffeta, fashioned after the bride's gown. Miss Allene Dickerson was bridesmaid and wore a white flowered taffeta frock with full skirt banded in tomato red and green taffeta. They both carried small colonial bouquets of chrysanthemums.

The groom was attended by Roland Windell of San Angelo, as best man, and ushers were Harmon Frazier, who was also a groomsmen, and Bill Tippen, brother of the bride.

The single ring ceremony was read by Rev. Fred J. Brucks, pastor of the church. The wedding music was played by Mrs. John Berry, organist, and "O Perfect Love" was sung, preceding the ceremony, by Miss Maggie Marie Hill.

Mr. McCann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCann of Lometa, was graduated from the Lometa high school in 1929. He later studied at the Worcester Milling school in Boston and in Maine. He is now employed by Henry Stallings and Company of Lometa.

Mrs. McCann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Tippen of Abilene, and is a graduate of Hardin-Simmons University. She is a teacher in the local grammar school.

The couple plan to make their home here as Mrs. McCann will continue her teaching duties. Goldthwaite is indeed happy to welcome this young couple into her midst and may theirs be a happy wedded life.

Following the service, a telegram from the bride's father in Hobbs, New Mexico, was read.

RECEPTION

A reception was held at the home of Mrs. J. A. Hester, Mrs. Alton Willingham presided at the registry, where guests registered in a book painted by the bride's mother. Guests were invited into the dining room by Miss Hill. Mrs. O. H. Yarborough presided at the refreshment table, serving coffee from an antique service. The table was centered with white sweetpeas, chrysanthemums and stock.

Mrs. McCann changed to a cobalt blue frock for the wedding trip, which took the couple to San Antonio and points in Mexico.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were Mrs. W. W. Tippen, Forest Wade and Bill Tippen of Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCann, parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Martin and Margaret Martin, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Stephens and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Will Wittenburg, Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Buttrill, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Edward McAnnelly, Loretta Whittenburg, all of Lometa; Mrs. Clary, Mrs. Maurice Brashear, Katherine Caldwell, Mrs. Willingham, Cassie Williams, J. R. Clark, all of Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Taylor, Tuscola; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stallings and S. C. Lee of Brownwood; Mr. and Mrs. Jim McCann of Lampasas; and Mr. Windell of San Angelo.

er hours for much smaller wages than here. Everything they do is regulated by the government, and everyone stays scared most of the time.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. De Jong and daughter and two friends spent Christmas in Iowa, traveling by automobile. They made the 1,100 miles to Orange City, near the South Dakota and Minnesota lines, in just 32 hours at a cost of slightly more than $9 for gasoline and oil. The return trip was equally satisfactory. De Jong (whose name is pronounced as if it were spelled "De Young") did not exceed 50 miles an hour at any time. Curiously he found that gasoline prices were highest here in Texas, where so much of it is produced, and the farther north he went, the cheaper it became. He only paid 9c a gallon for good, leaded gasoline, tax included, in Iowa, he says. With the exception of 57 miles of gravelled road which he got on by mistake, he travelled the whole distance on pavement.

Production Picks Up As Egg Prices Decline

Some egg producers become discouraged as egg prices go down. This is always the case this time of year. But when we consider the fact that the production always increases as prices decline, it brings the producer more clear money. So the thing every poultryman should do is feed his flock for greater production and be sure of a reasonable profit.

MID-TEX EGG MASH will do the job quickly and economically. Keep your hens on MID-TEX and be sure of more profit.

THEIR DEEDS LIVE ON

Texas, and the Methodist Church in Texas in particular, suffered a severe loss in the recent deaths of Dr. T. F. Sessions of San Antonio and Mr. W. W. Fondren of Houston.

Dr. Sessions as a pastor, particularly at University Methodist Church in Austin and at San Antonio, and in his work for Southwestern University at Georgetown and for the University of San Antonio, had been identified with progressive religious education. He was a scholar and a gentleman in the best sense of that term.

W. W. Fondren was a self-made man and a wealthy man. But his success did not make him arrogant or selfish. Instead he welcomed it as an opportunity to provide for others some of the opportunities that he had yearned for in his youth.

These two men whose earthly careers followed widely different paths will be remembered, honored and beloved for the good deeds they have left behind them.

SUPER-MEN WANTED

Last week Congress convened in Washington and this week the Texas Legislature assembled in Austin. Both bodies are confronted with problems that would vex the wisest head. In Texas a new governor takes office with the promise of higher old age pensions to "everybody."

It doesn't take a fortune teller to prophesy that taxes are going to be higher, that not all the old folks are going to get that $30 a month pension they were promised, that Governor O'Daniel will pin the blame on the shoulders of the legislature, and that the legislators will fight back as they very well know how.

So good times are forecast in Austin. And meanwhile the humble tax-payers will continue to pay and pay and pay.

GENTILES PREFERRED

A tremendous to-do is being stirred up by a Jewish organization over the fact that in New York City, the home of more Jews than any other city in the world, more and more help wanted ads frankly demand Gentiles or Christians or Anglo-Saxons with the evident intention of excluding the Jews.

An interesting sidelight on Jewish character is provided, however, by the disclosure that a Jewish owned and operated hotel in Florida, whose guests are almost exclusively Jewish, has 500 employees on its payroll, but only employs 25 Jews.

RISING TIDE

"My name is Mrs. Frances Renz, I live in the Bronx and I am a widow with two children, a boy and a girl. I never heard of the Oxford Group until I came to work at Calvary House.

"The first evening on the job a young woman came over to me and introduced herself and asked me all about myself. But I just told her a few details. When I was through speaking she said, 'You know, Frances, I think God sent you to us.' This made me feel uncomfortable and I thought gosh what is this I'm getting myself into?

"Then the next day I noticed that all these people were so happy and so sociable. It was different from any other place where I had worked. That night I met another of the group and we talked, and she suggested I read 'For Sinners Only.' That book was the first book I read since my husband died.

"The next morning after my children went to school I got down on my knees and for the first time I really prayed to God. I asked him to show me what plan He had for me and what I could do about it.

"That very day I talked with the same young woman and found myself pouring out my story to her—how when I did find a position I'd come home and all thoughts of my married life went through my mind until I could scream. How I blamed God for taking my husband away from me and how I always asked why? Then how I began going out night, drinking and dancing till the wee hours of the morning. Something I never did before in my life, the drinking end of it. I threw the responsibility of my children on other shoulders.

"My whole philosophy after my husband died was one of here today, gone tomorrow. There was no incentive to my life—nothing to live for—nothing to do. With my children—we got along all right as a family until my daughter said to me, 'Mother, why do you go out so much? You didn't use to drink, why do you drink now? We're lonesome and want someone to talk to.'

"But going out made me forget for the time, although the next morning I woke with a big head and the same memories. One of my neighbors remarked, 'Your children not only lost their father but are losing their mother too.' That sort of made me sit up and take notice. Then, after meeting the people in the Oxford Group I began to realize how selfish I had been. How insecure I felt of any kind of a position. How I really didn't love people. How I was full of self pity that was most of my trouble.

"So that night I made my decision to give my life to God. On my way home I had to stop in the Dairy to do some shopping. The woman there remarked, 'You look so happy, are you getting married again?' But I told her what had happened and how wonderful it was.

"Then the next step was that I had to apologize to my children and share things with them, which I did.

"After I told God He could come in on my life—I went to my first party and refused a drink—they asked me why—I told them—they said, 'When are you going to sell your next Bible? I told them I expected to keep right on with the quality of life I had seen at Calvary and if it actually meant selling Bibles—that was what I wanted to do.

"But the best part is that my children and I have been on a closer basis and fellowship than we ever were before. We have our quiet times each morning. Sometimes the children fall by the wayside but now when this happens, I search myself and find I have another area in my life which I haven't given to God but as soon as I do, things go along more smoothly than ever before. Now instead of enduring the situation at home, I have found the cure for it.

PETER SEES CHRIST'S GLORY

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 17:1-9, 14-18
GOLDEN TEXT—We beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father.—John 1:14.

Service in the name of Christ can be nothing but an empty formality, and a disappointing experience of one's inability really to help anyone, unless it is backed by a vision of the Saviour in all His glory. To Peter, whose life we are studying, there came such an experience as he went with the Lord to the Mount of Transfiguration. We cannot duplicate that day of days in his life in any physical sense, but we may, yes we must, withdraw to that quiet place where we may spiritually see Him whose we are and whom we serve as our transcendent Lord.

1. A Vision of Glory (vv. 1-9).

1. A mountain-top experience (vv. 1-3).
Too much of the daily life and walk of Christians is in the valley. We need now and then to come up to the high places where we may be spiritually renewed. Jesus is ready to take us as He did the three disciples, "up into a high mountain apart." We may not be able to move our bodies, but our spirits may soar to sublime heights with Him. There He will reveal Himself in all His glory.

2. A mistaken attitude (v. 4).

Whether Peter was confused by the remarkable experience, or if it was but another expression of his unfortunate tendency to talk when he should be quiet, we do not know. But he is a representative of those who miss the supreme blessing of such a priceless moment by trying to tell God what should be done. Had Peter's suggestion been accepted by our Lord there would never have been any redemption for the human race. Sin and sorrow would have reigned supreme in the earth, while he and his brethren enjoyed a season of fellowship with Moses and Elias and their Lord.

3. A divine testimony (vv. 5-7).

God spoke and scattered the confusion of men's thinking by declaring the deity of Jesus. "This is my beloved Son," and His supremacy. "Hear ye him." We live in days of theological and philosophical confusion. We struggle in vain to resolve the moral chaos which has resulted from erroneous teaching by any means or by the devices of men. Let us appeal to the Word of God. It is plain, powerful, "sharper than a two-edged sword."

4. A glorious result (vv. 8, 9).

"They saw no man save Jesus only."

II. A Call to Service (vv. 14-18).

Service should never precede vision. Vision is given as a preparation for service.

1. A needy soul (vv. 14, 15).

We live in a world of such desperate need that even the confirmed "all's well with the world" optimists are beginning to see that their rose-colored glasses cannot make them oblivious to its sin and sorrow. The boy was sick; his father was in despair; and these two things just about sum up the need of most of humanity.

2. Impotent Christian workers (vv. 16, 17).

The man brought his son to the place where he had a right to expect help—to the followers of Christ. But he found them without faith to help him. Little wonder then that those around them were still in per verse unbelief. We who profess to follow Christ, and especially those of us who say that we are His servants, should be ashamed of our impotent gestures toward our needy fellow men. There is power with God, power in prayer, power in devoted and faithful service to Christ. Let us claim it!

3. The omnipotent Saviour (v. 18).

Jesus spoke, and the demon departed. The absolute supremacy of our Lord appears not only on the mount of glory, but shines even more brightly in the valley of need. Words do not suffice to describe Him, and yet we must by both word and life proclaim Him to the world as its living Lord and Saviour.

4. A glorious result (v. 18).

"The child was cured from that very hour."

Here is no partial solution, no "hope to help you" effort to meet man's need. Jesus met the boy's full need and at that very hour. Just so we may tell the sinner that he may come to the Saviour with the full assurance that his sin will be put away, and that by faith he will become a child of God.

Four inmates of the San Saba county jail watched W. L. Cates, who was sentenced to two years in the state penitentiary, last November, on a charge of theft of saddles from the Manley ranch, saw his way out of the jail to freedom at 20 minutes of 3:00 o'clock last Tuesday morning and make his getaway. The other four in jail on lesser charges, could also have left thru the same opening but decided to remain. One of the prisoners checked the time of his escape.

The News has been informed, on what appears to be good authority, that unless some ordinance regulating the congestion of traffic, such as double parking, etc., on downtown Wallace Street (our "Main Street") that the State Highway Department is going to move the new Highway (74) three or four blocks south of town and that such a survey is now underway.

Comanche

Mr. Howington, State Representative-Elect will leave for Austin Monday to be ready for the opening of the Legislature, Tuesday. He will represent Comanche and Mills counties of the 104th District.

Comanche's first traffic fatality of the new year came early Sunday morning, January 1, when a car driven by F. F. Coffee crashed into a concrete culvert three miles north of town on the De Leon Highway near the G. R. Pratt farm.

Clifford Harris, 34, of the Mt. Pleasant community was killed instantly. A fractured skull and internal injuries caused his death. Coffee, driver of the car, was rushed back to Comanche where he was treated by local physicians before being carried to a Brownwood hospital.

170 tons of the peanuts that were bought here by the Government and placed in storage have been sold and shipped from Comanche to an oil mill for crushing. The peanuts were sold by the Government for 62c per bushel, a loss of 31c per bushel from the price paid which was 88c plus five cents for storage and handling charges.

Work is now underway on the remodeling of the Dora Greene building located on the Northwest corner of the square and formerly occupied by Walsman's Department Store, and a new Piggly Wiggly Grocery and super market will occupy the building soon. The new Piggly Wiggly will be home-owned by W. H. Thate and will be operated along the most modern merchandising ideas.—Chief.

TO THE PATRONS AND STUDENTS

By the time you read this, mid-term examinations will have been completed. As we have often said to the student body, no student will fail or pass this week. That is a matter that has been attended to all along during the four and one-half month period that is just now ending. From a teacher point of view and from an administrative point of view we had much rather you would all pass, but we doubt if you do.

It is imperative that we exact a certain amount of accomplishment from a student before granting him credit in the subject. Whatever your record may have been this term we urge you now to start at the very beginning to make the best of the second term.

A. H. SMITH, Superintendent.

ENROLLMENT

With the enrollment of Chas. Gleghorn in the freshman class, last Monday, the high school enrollment reached 299. We are sincerely hoping that we may enroll one more student before the term closes. Our enrollment at this time last year was 261. A gain of 38 pupils.

Pat Chandler: "Who, me? You get to worry a lot."
Gloria Dyas: "Well, you find out if you'll pass or fail. 'm falling."
Billie Helen Smith: "When you get through with your exams you have time to ride around, go to town, and have a good time."
Floyd Sanson: "Seems like half over."
Doris Rae Shaw: "You don't have so much class work."
Lucille Sheppard: "It's fun to see if you pass or not."
Duron Crawford: "I don't think there's gon-a be anything funny about them."
Sammy Smith: "I think they're gonna be easy."

EDITOR'S NOTE: After all, we have to forgive the freshman's ignorance.

What strange people! We worry about wasted timber, which will grow again and make no effort to stop the waste of oil which can never be replaced again.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL REPORT

The school body and teachers have returned from a week's rest during the Christmas holidays. Some were away during the week, while others enjoyed the holidays at home.

All the teachers were away. The holidays were spent by the teachers as follows: Mr. Layton visited his folks in Willsboro. Mrs. Stephens visited friends in Corpus Christi and then returned to her home in Brownwood to spend the rest of the holidays. Miss Hill visited home folks and friends in Dallas. Miss Tippen, now Mrs. Gordon McCann, went to her home in Abilene. Mrs. Eigham was a visitor in Belton. Mr. Schulze visited relatives and friends in the Rio Grande Valley. Mr. Edgar visited in Abilene and then returned to his home in Brownwood. Miss Taylor went to her home in Brownwood. Miss Adams went to her home in Marshall. Miss Hair visited relatives and friends in Wichita Falls. Miss Ely visited home folks in Bonham. They have all returned and report a good time.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

As this week has been the dreaded mid-term exam week, we thought it would be very appropriate to ask three members of each high school class the question, "What do you like most about mid-term's?"

Clorie Langford: "I don't know that I like anything about them."
Virginia Ruth Rudd: "I don't like 'em at all."
Glynn Collier: "You get out of classes for a day or two."
Pat Chandler: "Who, me? You get to worry a lot."
Gloria Dyas: "Well, you find out if you'll pass or fail. 'm falling."
Billie Helen Smith: "When you get through with your exams you have time to ride around, go to town, and have a good time."
Floyd Sanson: "Seems like half over."
Doris Rae Shaw: "You don't have so much class work."
Lucille Sheppard: "It's fun to see if you pass or not."
Duron Crawford: "I don't think there's gon-a be anything funny about them."
Sammy Smith: "I think they're gonna be easy."

EDITOR'S NOTE: After all, we have to forgive the freshman's ignorance.

WHAT'S THIS WE HEAR ABOUT

Dyas breaking his glasses? Could it be that little Smith hit him? (And we don't mean Aubrey.)

Why the worried expressions on Dorothy Eunice and Allene's faces all day Friday? For answer, refer it to them. The hint is that they visited the telegraph office. In cidentally, Mark went along also, but for strictly financial reasons.

We call it not doing so bad, or you might call it chump. Anyway, just how many girls were in the car with Sam and Pat at the midnight show Saturday night? Also, we have learned that Pat has a most obliging car. Everytime he takes his hands off the wheel, the car heads for Big Valley. (It ought to know the way pretty well by now.)

There were quite a few phone calls at John's house, Friday night. Mark seemed to be worried as to whether or not a certain person would come and, if she did come, if she would bring along all of her party. She didn't come, so Mark didn't have to divide the three Dr. Peppers and the six boxes of cakes that he confiscated. Which would you have preferred, Mark, your love, or your lunch???

Another under classman who is causing some excitement around here is Eloise Slaughter. She seems to be giving Sam nightmares(?) Mark is getting goo-goo-eyed, too, and even we admit that we would definitely like to become better acquainted with her.

Another of our underclassmen who is giving Sam fits(?) is Aggie Forehand. She is the thump in his heart, and cream in his ice cream. She looks like a heart-breaker to us, and if she is—poor Sam!!

You little animals be good now! (With apologies to Miss Gatlin.)

South Bennett H. D. Club

The South Bennett H. D. Club met Tuesday, January 3, with Mrs. George Hill.

The evening was spent cutting two skirt foundation patterns, and Miss Scott talked about planning the Home Food Supply.

There were 25 members and two visitors present.

The new officers elected were as follows:

SENIOR NEWS

The seniors have ordered several play books, and from these they will take a play to be presented as the Senior Play of 1939. From our class, there can be selected a very talented cast, who will be plenty capable of presenting an hour or so of humorous entertainment.

Final examinations are to be next Wednesday and Thursday, and this fact can be readily seen by the silence that prevails in the senior room. They all seem to be thinking that the world is coming to an end, and that they are unprepared, so to speak.

DIDJA' KNOW? DIDJA'

Last week was rather uneventful, but here are the latest smatterings.

It must be inspiring to have your future mapped out as J. T. does. It is going around that he has his house planned and its location selected, and incidentally, the girl, too!

Someone entered a question in this column that asked, "Why the senior room is so quiet this week?" Listeners wonder if they have suddenly become deaf?

The big question of the week is as follows: "Who is Marfeanne's latest admirer?"

Why did L. H. blush so when she was called teacher's pet, after coming out of a conference with Mr. Rogers?

Virginia Rudd seems very unhappy. Could it be because of a certain boy's absence or just what?

New verse: New song, Oh, Central, now let me see— I want Fisher St, 143

Hello, who's there, A Mr. B? I want to speak to Au-ber-y

What? He's not there. Well, this is me! Guess who, and we don't mean Mark Fairman).

Oh, I must see Aubrey tonight.

CHURCHES

Nazarene Church

In spite of the rain and mud, the Church of the Nazarene is being blessed with a revival that is reaching souls. About 20 professions of faith. Our crowds have been good and victory is ours.

Rev. Berryhill has brought some wonderful messages on such subjects as, "Has the World Gone Crazy?" "The Greatest Question."

We feel that the community as well as the church has felt the effect of this revival.

We regret that Bro. Berryhill could not be here for the entire meeting but we will preach each evening until Sunday night. But so far as we know now, Sunday night will be the closing out of the revival. So come and let us worship Him together and be soul winners for Him.

E. E. DAWSON, Pastor

Wet weather has a devastating effect on the loyalty of many Christians to their religious duty, but in nowise seems to affect their devotion to business or profession, or the appeals of amusement. This wet weather will try your religious loyalty, fellow Christian! A good resolve is that wet or dry, hot or cold, winter or summer, to be in one's place, carrying on as is expected. That is the fidelity that always wins and pays good dividends to him or her who practices it.

All the regular activities and services will carry on next Sunday. We will be looking for you and expecting you.

There is always a ready and genuine welcome for the visitor.

Methodist Church

We are constantly challenged afresh with the task of building the Kingdom of God in our midst. There is so much to be done that we are prone to do nothing. During this year when the Unification of Methodism will be consummated, a nationwide evangelistic effort will be made. Our church is calling upon every member to pray and work to the end that the Kingdom of our Lord may be established in our midst and that the Spirit of Christ shall dominate us in all our actions.

Let us begin now to do our part by making every Sunday a day of real worship and spiritual growth. Come to all the services.
