All Bridge Workers Asked to Feast

All of the workmen who have had a part in building the fine new bridge across the Colorado River between San Saba and Goldthwaite are being invited to attend the dedication of the structure. The Goldthwaite Chamber of Commerce has mailed invitations to all these workers, many of whom are now employed at Bronte and at Canadian, Texas in similar work.

Contributions of sheep and goats and of cakes, cookies and pies are being freely offered, but still more are needed as a record crowd is in prospect. The dedication ceremony will be held Tuesday morning, April 18, and will be followed with a barbecue dinner.

Doughboys Coming. The Light Crust Doughboys, famous Fort Worth radio stars, have accepted an invitation to provide music and entertainment for the celebration and their modern sound truck will be used by the speakers at the dedication.

Farm Leaders To Meet April 7

Farm leaders of five counties will meet in Brownwood, April 7, to discuss new wheat crop insurance plans aimed at a wider coverage of the 1939-40 crop and to receive instructions regarding applications for 1939 wheat price adjustment payments of the AAA.

Robert H. Nelson, district field representative of the AAA, will conduct the meeting, which is to be attended by Agricultural Conservation Association secretaries and treasurers, county committeemen, Extension Service leaders and county crop insurance supervisors of Brown, McCulloch, Mills, Comanche and Coleman counties.

Goldthwaite Seniors Present Play

On Thursday night, April 13, the Senior Class of Goldthwaite High School will present a three-act comedy entitled "Going On Seventeen," by Hilda Manning.

This play, which has within a short time achieved an enormous popularity throughout the country, is an amazingly true-to-life story of a young boy going on seventeen and his efforts to successfully meet all the unexpected problems that come with adolescence.

It is a royalty play, another feature which practically insures its genuineness and success. The cast is working hard on the play in the hopes of presenting it efficiently.

The benefits go to the fund for seating the auditorium. Plan now to attend the show on April 13 in the Grammar School Auditorium.

Trent State Bank Has Fine Statement

The quarterly statement of the Trent State Bank which is published in this week's Eagle reflects, as usual, the excellent condition of this substantial bank. With deposits of $595,636.25 and total resources of $675,624.99, the statement indicates the favorable financial condition of Mills county. President Wilbur E. Fairman and the directors and officers of the bank have been justly complimented on the showing this bank always makes.

Mills County Pupils In Brownwood Today

Mills county will be well represented in Brownwood today at the district meet of the Interscholastic League. Contestants from eight counties will meet at 9:30 a. m. in Howard Payne auditorium for instructions, and then the competition will start. Mills county boys and girls are expected to bring home their share of blue ribbons again this year.

Trades Day Draws Crowd to Town

A good crowd was on hand Monday to see the free bicycle rider performances and to take advantage of the other attractions offered during the day.

Plans are being made to hold an auction on the May Trades Day.

Ex-Soldiers Asked To Join Reserves

Considerable excitement was caused here Wednesday by radio announcements asking former soldiers to join the enlisted reserve. This organization was created last year and is open to any ex-soldier under 36 years of age who has an honorable discharge and is physically fit. He is not required to drill or train, but agrees in the event of war to report for active duty.

For merely keeping the army informed as to his correct address he is paid $2 a month and an additional sum of $3 a month for the time he has been in the reserve if he should be called to active duty. If called, he will receive the rank and pay of his last regular service.

There should be no cause for excitement over this wise provision of the army to secure 75,000 additional trained soldiers in case of an emergency. Most, if not all, of the ex-soldiers in Mills county who are eligible already belong to the enlisted reserve.

New Aldermen Are Elected

In the city election held Tuesday, Dr. T. C. Graves and E. B. Gilliam, Jr. were elected aldermen to fill the places of Walters Hester and Joe Palmer whose terms had expired. They each received 89 votes.

Although not a candidate for election, Neal Dickerson was re-elected, receiving 55 votes to Floyd Blair's 34.

Quiet Elections Are Held Here

Only 43 votes were cast in the school election held in Goldthwaite Saturday at which Marvin Hodges was re-elected and Barton Smith elected school trustee for Goldthwaite Independent School District.

C. D. Bledsoe was re-elected trustee-at-large on the county board. The vote for County Trustee at Large by school districts will be published in next week's Eagle.

Boy Scout News

Each year over fifty per cent of the Scouts, who attend Camp Billy Gibbons earn part or all of their camp fee. These boys are proud of the opportunity to pay their way, and many times relate how they have earned the money. This is only a partial list of "ways and means"—selling papers and magazines, mowing lawns, washing windows, white-washing trees and fences, spading, planting and hoeing gardens and flower beds, washing dogs, washing cars, taking care of the neighbors children, cleaning out fish ponds, running errands, and helping in the neighborhood grocery after school and on Saturday. Remember the dates for CAMP BILLY GIBBONS ARE: JULY 12-19 and JULY 20-27.

Cisco. The largest Court of Honor ever held in Eastland county took place March 31, in the High school gymnasium, with Scouts and Scouters in attendance from Eastland, Cisco, Ranger, Olden, Carbon, and Gorman.

Brownwood. Members and officers of troop 2, Brownwood, hiked to a campsite on the farm of troop committeeman, Bill Snyder. All present helped prepare a very substantial evening meal. After supper a large campfire was built and a Council ring ceremony was held. The night was spent here and the men and boys returned to town early the next morning.

Post Office Sets Records

Two new records were chalked up by the post office at Goldthwaite this week. Yesterday morning the train due at 5:44 a. m. did not arrive until nearly eight. The 38 sacks of mail received on it reached the post office at 7:50 and in just 45 minutes had been separated and distributed by clerks A. F. Marricle and Mrs. Lucille Fairman with the assistance of rural carriers E. E. Faulkner and A. L. Whitaker. The other record was set when the postal receipts of the office for the first three months of 1939 topped all previous records for this quarter.

Outstanding 4-H Club Boys in Mills County

Eual Horton, Star 4-H Club boy, won championship with his hereford calf at the February Show at Goldthwaite in a contest with 45 entries. It might be helpful to 4-H boys who saw this fine animal to know how he fed and cared for it. The following paragraph is taken from Eual's report:

"I began to wonder seriously the first of the year about how I was going to feed my nurse cow and calf. So I broke two and one-half acres of waste land that Daddy didn't intend to work and when planting time came I planted it in cane. When we were putting up silage, a portion of it was ready to harvest, so I harvested it and made about three tons of silage. The portion that was left, matured and I mowed and baled 44 bales of hay for my calf. I fed my cow silage four months of the feeding period."

Eual's record shows: Weight of calf at beginning of feeding period, 550 pounds, market value, $52.10. Total feeding cost of nurse cow and calf, including pasture, $37.70.

Weight when sold, 1,110 pounds Sold for 11½ cents, bringing a total of $127.60. Net profit for his time and investment, $37.80.

Legislative Activities

Both the House and the Senate spent this week in debating proposals to submit a constitutional amendment levying taxes for the social security program. This proposal was killed finally in the House late Thursday. Many took the position that in view of the fact that there is already constitutional authority to levy any taxes necessary to meet this program, it would be unwise to "freeze" it into the constitution where it would be very difficult to change it hereafter. No one denies that the present constitution gives the legislature full authority to levy any kind of taxes needed.

The Senate sub-committee on Finance, of which I am chairman, wrote into the experiment station budget, which is a part of the higher educational institution bill, funds to start the experiment station authorized by the Forty-fourth legislature. This recommendation was approved by the main committee, and the entire bill has received a favorable report. This means that if the senate and house approve the item as recommended and it receives the approval of the Governor, this long needed station will be started this year.

The act, which was introduced in 1935 by Senator Davis, provides that the station be located by the Board of Directors of A&M College "at some point within the limits of Brown, Callahan, Comanche, Eastland, Erath or any other county in the west cross timber section of Texas as may be selected by the Extension Department of A&M College of Texas. Our hard fight is to get the funds for the station, then its location will be up to the A&M College. PENROSE B. METCALFE, 25th Senatorial District.

Methodist Choir To Render Cantata

Happening in the Legislature

There will probably be no action taken on the old age assistance measure for a week or two, as the Speaker of the House has announced that he thinks best to consider some other bills while the House tries to agree on some plan to raise money for the Social Security program.

I will frankly admit that neither the Senate nor the House have accomplished anything worthwhile so far, during this session. There have been to date, 929 bills introduced but in my opinion none have passed of any importance to the general public; I want to be fair with you and would not at this time make a statement to guarantee to you that any legislation of major importance would be passed.

It seems to me that the House has and is acting simple; I feel that regardless of who the Governor might be that we should co-operate with him to the fullest extent possible, and it is an injustice to the public for a member of the Legislature to serve and refuse to co-operate with the higher officials in government. I see no reason why the Legislature or Senate should consume the time allotted us by the law, discussing the character and maneuvers of the Governor of this state. Each member of this body has a service to render to the people of his district and of this State just the same as does the Governor, and I believe that the people of this State have the highest respect for the Governor and for any member of the House or the Senate who acts honestly and exercises his best judgment in the behalf of the people and Governor of this State.

This morning has been taken up by speakers criticizing the Governor and their constituents from the respective districts, but I want to thank the people of my district for the courtesies and co-operation shown me during this session.

FRANK HOWINGTON, Representative, 104th District.

Nazarene Church

The custom of commemorating the resurrection of Jesus Christ has a beneficial effect. Easter's emphasis has been the means of acquainting multitudes with the great fact of divine revelation that Jesus Christ, though crucified and buried, rose again the third day in wonderful triumph over death, hell and the grave.

Let us put forth a special effort to be at Sunday school and church next Sunday and if you are unable to walk or live too far from the church, yet want to come Sunday we will be glad to send a car for you, if you will let us know. We want to see how many we can have Sunday and especially urge you to on this special day.

Sunday school, 9:45. Message, 11:00. Evening Service, 7:00 p. m. Easter program, "The Greater Cross."

Easter Cold Spell

The weather man sent the usual Easter cold spell a little early this year, as the norther arrived at 3:30 Wednesday afternoon and started the mercury tumbling from 80 to around 40 yesterday morning. Freezing temperatures were reported in the panhandle.

On next Sunday evening at 7:45 p. m. the choir of the Methodist Church will render a beautiful cantata. The title is, "The Easter Messiah" and is arranged from the Oratorio, "The Messiah," by George Frederick Handel.

Handel is one of the greatest masters of music of any age and distinguished himself as a composer of sacred music. The "Hallelujah Chorus," the finale of the cantata to be rendered Sunday night, is a favorite among all lovers of classic music. The public is cordially invited to be present. You will enjoy this program.

Sunrise Easter Service

The young people of Goldthwaite and community are sponsoring a Sunrise service at 6:00 a. m. on Easter morning. The service will be held on the mountain top, one mile south of town off to the left from the Lometa highway. This is a service for the public and not only for young people, and everyone is urged to be present. In case of bad weather the service will be held at the Methodist Church at the same time. The following program has been planned:

Trumpets to greet the dawn. Song, "The Old Rugged Cross." Invocation—Elder E. E. Furr. Musical number, "Christ Arose." Scripture, "The Easter Story"—Frank Bowman. Musical number, "In the Garden." Easter Meditation, M. Y. Stokes, Jr. Song, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name." Benediction.

Methodist Church

On next Sunday the Christian world will unite in the celebration of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ. In churches, cathedrals, little chapels and in the great cut-of-doors crowds of devout worshippers will bow in humble recognition of the great Christian hope of immortality.

We urge every Christian to make Easter Sunday a day of worship and devotion. We invite all our members and friends to worship with us, at the services. Let us remember the sunrise Easter service at 6:00 Sunday morning. Then the regular services in the morning. At night our choir will render an Easter Cantata. Come to all the services.

First Baptist Church

Next Sunday is one of the two most important dates of the year: Christmas and Easter; next Sunday being Easter. Reverent souls who have a real appreciation of our holy religion and its Giver will want to go to the house of the Lord and adore the Risen Christ. Special music that emphasizes the facts of Easter will fill the air. Sermons that retell the hope of immortality will be spoken. Surely it is a day to revive all the latent love of Christian hearts and turn the hearts of all others to Him who died and has risen again. There is genuine welcome for all comers.

All of next Sunday's services will emphasize the day and its meaning. Come first to Sunday school and then the worship hour, and come again at night when baptism will be administered.

Sunday school and B. T. U. at their regular time. Remember that Sunrise Hill-top Easter service sponsored by our young people of the town. And while sponsored by young people it is for all. Be there at the first hill south of town just to the left of the highway at 6:30 o'clock and join in a half-hour of worship of the Risen Lord.

Are You A Good Driver?

By a Highway Patrolman

If you operate a vehicle with mechanical defects and yet drive carefully and upon a good road, you are taking chances with your life that will some day put you in a hospital. No one can drive an unsafe automobile safely, regardless of how good a driver he may be. During the year 1938 in Texas alone there were nearly seven hundred persons injured and almost two hundred killed due to the one cause of operating an unsafe automobile. The best of drivers are helpless when operating a vehicle with worn or defective tires, defective brakes, improper lights, defective steering device or other mechanical defects. If you must use worn tires on your car put them on the rear wheels because you can steer your car better with a blow out on the rear wheel than you can with one on the front wheel. A good rule to use when you have a blow out or a flat suddenly is to remove your foot from the accelerator or brake—in other words just take your foot off of whatever you have it on, because you can stop much safer by letting the drag of the motor slow your car down.

Sudden application of the brakes under such conditions is unsafe. It will cause your car to skid and get out of control. Good tires are the best insurance against such hazards.

All cars equipped with adequate brakes if kept in proper adjustment. If your brakes are not in good repair, you are the only person to blame. Why not do your part by protecting your own life with good brakes? Your car was equipped with brakes for one purpose of stopping when necessary, and you know that is awfully important and imperative at times. Better be broke financially and have good brakes than to be broke bodily and spend your money at the hospital.

Good lights are essential to safety, and again this becomes a responsibility of no one but yourself to see that your car has TWO good lights in front and ONE RED light to the rear.

The only means of controlling the direction of a car is its steering apparatus. Frequent inspection, repair and adjustment of this part of your car pays big dividends in safety to the occupants. Adjustment and replacement of worn parts about your car is far better than having collisions and hospital bills.

Properly Equipped Shop. Balanced Parts Stock.

Factory Trained Mechanics. Desiring to give Better Service.

Your car was built to give you satisfactory service. Let us look after it and you will get the service you are rightfully entitled to. Nothing left off that is needed. Nothing put on that is unnecessary. No job too small—no job too large for us to handle efficiently.

(Intended for last week)

In spite of continued dry weather, Spring is changing our drab hills to bowers of beauty. Peach trees have bloomed abundantly. Once more we have breathed the fragrance and beheld the beauty of wild plums along the creek. Corn is up. Gardens are up. Grass is green. Wild geese flew northward Monday.

And what so thrills us farm folk now is finding a new calf or a turkey's nest.

After having to stay in all winter, Grandmother Wilmeth was able to attend church again Sunday. After church she and the others members of her family, her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wilmeth, her granddaughter, Miss Bernice Wilmeth, her daughter, Mrs. E. O. Dwyer, and her step-daughter, Mrs. Nellie Malone, were guests for dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Briley.

Miss Vivian Day went to Abilene this week end to spend a few days with friends there.

Sunday evening Bro. Dawson preached for us. We had a real good service. He will preach every fourth Sunday evening at 3:00 o'clock and Bro. Wade will preach the second Sunday evening at 3:00 o'clock. Let's all try to be present.

Those who called in the Earl Hale home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Dutch McKenzie, A. D. Kirk and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Brooks and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Aldredge of Center city, Calvin Scrivner of Mullin and W. B. Wilcox and boys visited Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilcox Sunday.

Elva Faye Brooks visited Jewel and Martha Pearl Wilkey Monday night.

The ladies of the community gave Mrs. Anderson and Miss Minnie a shower Tuesday evening, before they moved away. They received several presents. Those present were: Mrs. O. B. Bell, Mrs. Arthur Wilcox, Mrs. Tip Roberts, Mrs. Earl Hale and Mrs. Geo. D. Brooks.

Mrs. Anderson and Miss Minnie sold their home and bought one in Goldthwaite. They moved Wednesday. We will miss them as they have been in our community for a long time.

We got very little of this week's showers. Maybe it will try again. Gardens and small grain need rain at this time.

Regency

By Mrs. Alvin Brown

The arrival of warm spring days makes an ideal setting for club meetings. It seemed so to the Regency Homemakers' Club members, who met with Mrs. Charles Roberts last Friday afternoon. Several members were absent because of sickness, but a very satisfactory program was carried out.

Mrs. Charles Roberts gave a very interesting talk on "Homes, the Foundation of Our Country." She said, "Homes can be a haven or a place to hide. The foundation of good government is a good home."

One point, brought out by Mrs. Andy Rowlett in her talk on, "Missions," was: "Now, with our airlines, radios, and many other ways of fast travel and communications, the peoples in the far East and remote Africa have been brought to our door, and the world should be one "Big Family"—with Christ the head of all."

Mrs. Ben Egger and Wade Ann Harbour have been on the sick list this week.

The small son of Mr. and Mrs. Loyt Roberts has been very sick with measles, but is reported much better.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Reid and children were shopping in Goldthwaite last Saturday.

The results of the election for school trustee of this district, resulted in a tie for the two major candidates.

Tom Dennis made a business trip to Talpa last Thursday.

By Mrs. W. W. Reynolds

Rev Smith will preach next Saturday night, Sunday morning, and Sunday night. Sunday school will be at 10:00 o'clock and a short Easter program will follow Sunday school. All come.

Mr. Williams took La Forun Horton and Charles Kirby Gerald to Brownwood to the District Meet today. La Fowen enters in the Three R contest and Chas. Kirby will declaim. We wish them success.

Deward Reynolds, Walter Reynolds, Joe Anderson, and Raymond Williams went fishing last Friday night, but returned with sad faces. They had either eaten all the fish or had thrown them back into the river, because they did not bring any home.

Raymond Williams lunched in the Horton home Sunday.

Mrs. Pope is reported to be some better. We wish her a speedy recovery.

"Kingdom of Heaven" is the subject for prayer meeting next Sunday night. These discussions are interesting. Let us attend.

Everyone enjoyed an entertainment in the McNeil home Saturday night.

Everyone has been enjoying the spring weather, even if it does give them spring fever.

Army Officer Flies To Rising Star

Capt. Curtis Adams, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. John Adams of Houston, arrived by plane from that city late Friday afternoon for a short visit with the families of his aunts, Mesdames C. G. Shults and C. C. Tyler.

Capt. Adams, who is attached to an infantry unit, was on his way from Camden, N. J., to the Panama Canal zone. Upon leaving Camden, Capt. Adams purchased a new Taylorcraft 50 horse power two passenger cabin plane in which he made the flight. The plane weighs only 600 pounds and according to Capt. Adams can almost be landed on a front lawn. He and his mother made the trip up from Houston in a little over three hours, the plane having a cruising speed of about 100 miles per hour.

Capt. Adams, whose father was for several years engaged in the newspaper business here several years ago, spent his boyhood here and is a graduate of the local high school. He was graduated from West Point about 20 years ago and has been in the regular army since that time. He has spent a great deal of his time in South and Central America and speaks Spanish fluently. Three years ago on a vacation visit here he exhibited a number of souvenirs from the Galapagos Islands, including trophies of the head hunters.

Looks Ahead, Doesn't Get Behind
By T. C. RICHARDSON, Secretary
Breeder-Feeder Association

There is still plenty of time to plant early silage crops and summer crops and for any reason not planted at the earliest available date, a place for them should be reserved anyway. However, several factors favor early planting of crops which do not require late-planted silage. The planting can be done before or just after cotton when the time can best be used. If the sorghums are for silage it is usually followed by cotton planting, and row off better after the soil is warmed up. The same is true during the early season, and silage crops should be laid by in time to give the attention to cotton the part of the cultivation.

available. If the second growth is not needed for feed, or is too short to be worth harvesting, it is well worth turning under "for the land's sake" and the next year's crop.

Fifth, early silage can be disposed of before cotton picking time and before dry corn and sorghum grains are ready for harvest, and which conflict to some extent with the cotton picking season. Either extra help must be employed to gather the grain crop at its best or it must take the weather damage until cotton ginning is over.

A French proverb says "he who looks not before, finds himself behind," and I don't know any farm operation in which "looking before" counts in more ways than in getting the silage crop under way at the earliest favorable season. It distributes the labor to better advantage, it makes a way for a fall-sown crop of clover or grain, and it avoids the danger or early frost to which late crops may fall a victim.

If there are those who still question the value or practicability of the trench silo, I have only to quote the slogan of a well-known automobile—"Ask the man who owns one." Almost invariably one year's experience means two silos or more the next year. A great many farmers and ranchmen now store extra feed in the good years and keep a reserve for the poor crop years. Properly ensiled—and that is simple—the feed will keep in perfect condition for an indefinite period. I have seen perfect silage uncovered after nine years in the ground.

Texas now has 262 miles of trench silos and other Southwest states are rapidly extending their use. Like the "fifty million Frenchmen," that many farmers "can't be wrong." The size can fit the farm—that is the number of animals to be fed. A cow can use a six-inch cut of four square feet daily, and a trench two feet deep and two feet wide will feed her two days for every foot of length. A six by four foot trench will feed six head, and so on. An acre of silage or a hundred acres, the trench silo saves the feed in its most palatable and nutritious form.

Brownsville Port Proves Successful

The nation's only port in the middle of a prairie, built at Brownsville, Texas, with the aid of the Public Works Administration and the War Department, is doing fine. Two and a half years after completion 285 ships have called at the port and brought in or taken out more than 200,000 tons of manufactured goods and raw products. Brownsville's port is situated on the flat prairie, 17 miles inland. A canal, 25 feet deep and at present being deepened to 29, leads up to a turning basin as large as three city blocks by four blocks. About the turning basin the special navigation district, which built the port, constructed warehouses, wharves, docks and other equipment with a Public Works Administration allotment of $2,853,000.

Letters of Interest From Mills County Communities

Center City By Mrs. J. M. Oglesby

One item of interest I did not get in my letter last week was the accidental shooting of Roscoe Karnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Z. Karnes at the home of his grandmother. Forgetting the trigger was back, he threw his target over his shoulder far enough that the bullet entered the calf of his leg and lodged in the ankle. He was rushed to a physician where the x-ray showed the position of the lead and it was removed. He is doing nicely.

Rev. Pattillo filled his regular appointment Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night at the Baptist Church. Our hearts were made glad Sunday, morning when our life long friend, J. T. Owens was at his post of duty as superintendent of the Methodist Sunday school. We had an interesting time notwithstanding we missed many who were not there. Also we were very glad of our visitors present. Everybody come and help next Sunday as it is Easter and a fine lesson is promised.

Mrs. Waldeen Lewis and her mother, Mrs. Tom Lasley accompanied by Mes. Riley and Bud Welch are visiting relatives here this week.

Prof. Bertram Geeslin and friend of Eldorado visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Geeslin last week end.

E. M. Geeslin had a light stroke of paralysis at his home in the North Bennett community last week. His many friends rejoice that he is improving.

A number from here attended the funeral of Mr. Kempsey in Lometa Monday.

DeWolfe Amends Vacancy Bill

AUSTIN, March 30.—A land bill now pending before the state legislature would "rob the school children of Texas of their legacy and put it in the coffers of the big oil companies," George B. Wilcox, President of the Texas State Teachers Association, asserted here this week. The bill, titled House Bill No. 9, purports to prevent "land grabbing" but is actually a "land grab," the Association president declared. Wilcox has urged that a substitute bill, prepared by Homer C. DeWolfe, member of the state board of education, working in collaboration with the State Teachers Association and others interested in the cause of education, be considered by legislators. The DeWolfe substitute, he claims, puts a stop to "vacancy racketeering" and protects the permanent school fund by reserving to it the 1-8 mineral interest on lands within five miles of an oil well the same as is provided under existing law.

IT IS EASTER AGAIN

It is a beautiful custom which the young people of Goldthwaite are sponsoring this year, that of assembling before dawn on an Easter morning upon a hillside and there in humbleness of spirit to await the rising of the sun. The Easter sun will rise in glory and illumine the earnest faces of Christians throughout the world this year. In countless houses of worship the glad news, "Christ is risen" will peal forth again, and millions of worshippers will lift up their hearts in prayer to God while they hear once more, some in stately cathedrals and some in rustic meeting houses, the ever-thrilling, ever-heartening, ever-new message of the resurrection of our Lord.

A sober world awaits this Easter day of 1939, a world that is disillusioned and near despair. What can the Easter story bring to hearts trembling in fear of the unknown, to souls that are sick from the injustices and the wrongs that have been heaped upon the helpless and the weak?

To them Easter again brings its message of hope for men and for the world. What despair in our time can match the gloom that shrouded the hearts of that pitiful little band of disciples on Calvary who had seen Him whom they had hailed as very Son of God driven relentlessly to a cruel and ignominious death?

Yet He rose again, and in so rising reawakened hope and faith not alone in the hearts of His contemporaries but for all who came and are yet to come after Him.

The night must precede the dawn. Who knows or even dares to think but that the very blackness of the world today may soon be shot through with the glistening rays of a new dawn and a new day in which the inspiring spirit of Easter may once more dissipate the shadows in the hearts of men?

Join the throng of worshippers on the hillside Easter morning if you can, but no matter where you are, you can turn your face to the east and open your heart to the glorious hope that His resurrection brings.

A SENATOR'S EDITORIAL

It would be difficult to add any clarity to the statement of Senator Pat Harrison on the question of governmental fiscal affairs. Granting that he is qualified as an expert on the subject (he is Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee) his statement is therefore reprinted here. As a citizen and taxpayer, it is worth your while to read; in fact, to memorize:

"The government's fiscal picture must be carefully scanned, and that doesn't mean next year, but now—and it should be done through clear vision and not through colored lenses.

"We are confronted with a budget which calls for over 10 billion dollars in appropriations for the next fiscal year... we have a national debt of 40 billion dollars... taxes are now so heavy that to increase them would add additional burdens upon American industry and the American people. Additional taxes would act as a deterrent to the revival of business.

"I appreciate the difficulty of the task, out if everyone connected with the operation of Government, whether in the executive or legislative departments, will realize the serious fiscal situation confronting us, and counsel together and cooperate in mapping out a plan, and unflinchingly and without political consideration work toward that end, we can accomplish results that will bring hope and encouragement to our people and financial stability to our Government.

"If immediate and unified plans are not laid, and enormous and unprecedented expenditures are continued, with the national debt mounting, economic confusion and chaos are inevitable.

"I have no confidence in the economic philosophy that we must spend ourselves out of this economic disaster."

GOVERNMENT WITHOUT POLITICS

The very quietness of the school elections last Saturday and the city election Tuesday are an indication of the confidence the people feel in their representatives. Without the sound and fury that characterizes so many political campaigns, good men were nominated and elected to the various school boards and to the Goldthwaite city council.

The congratulations of this paper are extended to these new office-holders in the firm belief that they will conduct the affairs entrusted to them with integrity, intelligence, and dispatch.

How Much Does the Employee Get?

SHERMAN ROGERS conducted a survey of his own to find out how much the average employee thinks he gets out of each dollar of income produced by the manufacturer. He spent three weeks talking to 518 men; 86 men believed that they got less than one cent of each dollar; 378, including the 86, thought they got less than five cents. Only four out of the entire 518 thought that they got as much as ten cents out of each dollar.

What are the facts? Statistics compiled by the present administration show that these 518 men were far wrong in their guesses. Out of all the income received and paid out by manufacturers of the United States, the employee received 84 cents of each dollar!

No other system of government equals the American standard of living. For instance, here in the United States, the average man has to work only 3 hours and 26 minutes to buy a pair of work shoes. In Great Britain he has to work 5:14 hours; in Germany, 12:13 hours; in Italy, 39:45 hours.

The average American can buy more shoes, overalls, potatoes, butter—more of everything with an hour's work than in any other country in the world. America gives us more cents out of the manufacturer's dollar and therefore, our buying power per hour's work hits the peak here. Men may have their theories and their dreams but so far the facts prove that Democracy leads the parade!

Texas Postmarks In Curious Album

An Austin man, according to The Texas Observer, has one of the oddest albums in existence. It is made up entirely of postmarks on letters and cards mailed in Texas.

Prinistance, opening this album, you find a section dedicated to the Texas crossword puzzle. Here are some samples.

First day is Munday. Como is almost unconscious. Two places where all would like to go were Utopia and Eden; you want to go there to be Happy or to find Comfort or perhaps find Loving; but to be counted in these plans is the Cost.

Pharr is not near. Shiner is what you put a beefsteak on. Arp is harp with an English H'accent. More than free is Freer.

Then in Texas, we find by turning the page, they call a spade a Spade. What the preacher ties is Knott, and he who gets tied is Groom. Pretty with a cold is Priddy, and someone to tell it to is Sweetie. Peanuts to you, is Gober, and what you do in polite drawing rooms is Converse. The sugary saint is Valentine; what W. Lee wants for Texas is Industry. Most terrible of the numerous puns is this: Weir—almost uncanny. And if you can't figure it out, come see us.

Two things polite people never do, says our collector friend, still using the names of Texas towns for his answers, are Point and Welch. Humble becomes a kind of pie, and over the phrase "that's my baby," is a postmark from Snook, Texas.

Short story about a careless motorist is made up with the names of four towns: Scurry, Allamore Swift and Skidmore.

In Texas, our collector continues, you'll always find Welcome; maybe soon, when the sales tax is enacted, Mills will be more than the name of a town. In the legislature there are Flat-heads and Roundtops; and if you tire of using the word mossback, you might try Grayback. There's a Telephone, Texas, and one you probably won't find in the seed catalogues is Peaster.

Our collector friend hopes that Sweet Home is never Leakey; points out that Lett had a wife who was turned to salt when she decided to Circle Back. When day is done may be either Sundown or Sunset, and Carmine and Orange are listed among the colorful towns. Staple (Texas) of diet in Texas is Frijole likewise Turkey, and of course, Winters never come to Texas because already here. Tarzan is the tree-man, of course, and Blossom is what he picked in the tree.

We assure you that this goes on all night, if you're willing to listen. He's got all the St.'s listed under the Sainly Side of Texas (including Godley and Devine); all the towns named after great men are segregated (including Emhouse); he points out you can go to such far places as Klondike, Italy, Trinidad, Turkey and Athens, to name only a few, without leaving Texas; that you could name your daughter for a Texas town—such as Victoria and Maud and Josephine; or your son, such as Charlie and Fred and Clyde and Dennis.

24 PER CENT IN SCHOOL

Twenty-four per cent of our total population attends school. In England, the figure is only 16 per cent, in France 13 per cent, in Germany 13 per cent, and in Italy 12 per cent.

Communists in the United States making $50 a week are assessed $52 yearly dues, plus $52 for every $10 above $50.

Hidden taxes equal 7 per cent of the retail price of bread, 8.2 per cent of beef, and 18.6 per cent of sugar.

Garner Boomed For President

There is an American tradition to the effect that the Vice-President of the Republic shall be a man who says little and does less—an official with an imposing title and a substantial salary but with few responsibilities and almost no authority. Some years ago a very successful stage farce was written around the idea of a vice-president named Winterbottom who kept wandering about his party headquarters and could find no one who knew or cared who he was. And, in actual history, the vice-presidency has been used more than once to "get rid" of some man whom party leaders thought too troublesome. Roosevelt the first is a case in point—he was kicked upstairs into the vice-presidency because he had made many enemies as Governor of New York, and he very likely would have been doomed to obscurity had not McKinley's assassination taken him to the White House.

"Cactus Jack" Garner seemed to be the perfect stuff of which a run-of-the-mill vice-president should be made. An able congressman, with decades of service behind him, he was known as a hard but unspectacular worker. And when he assumed his position of vice-president, he seemed to fit well into the classic mold. A good disciplinarian and administrator, he apparently took little part in politics. He wasn't often in the headlines. But now, times have dramatically changed, and it is around the genial, plain figure of Jack Garner that much of today's most important political discussion is centering. He has become the great hope of the conservatives in the Democratic party—and the leader of a quiet but unrelenting "rightist rebellion" against the New Deal.

In view of some of the most astute political commentators, the Vice-President is well suited to this new role. In origin, training and experience he is the logical representative of those millions of people of whom little is heard but who nonetheless hold the real balance of power in America—the merchant, the farmer, the rancher, the small town banker and lawyer and doctor. In political philosophy, he might be termed a conservative liberal—he believes reform should be achieved slowly and cautiously without disheartening or discouraging business. He has certain gifts of immense political importance—a nerveless patience (it is characteristic of the man that he is called the best poker player in Washington, where famous poker players abound); a vast knowledge of the techniques of political strategy; a talent for making friends; a winning, "home-spun" personality; a knack for terse, individuality phrased comments on events. The latter is illustrated by a remark he is rumored to have made to the President: "You've got to give the cattle (meaning business) a chance to put some fat on their bones."

It is around Garner that the pro-economy group of Democratic senators has gathered. He is very close to Senator Harrison, who is leading the economy drive on the floor. He is strongly in favor of tax revision—though, like the cagey politician he is, he does his talking in the privacy of his office, and not in public. And it is universally reported that he was largely responsible for persuading the Senate to reduce the WPA appropriation asked by the President, to the tune of $150,000,000. As Time observes, "Extraordinary fact about the Garner Rebellion is that its leader does not for one minute expect to win its Economy objective; at least, not at this session of Congress." He is biding his time, getting in his licks, and planning for the future.

Highly significant is the fact that Garner now leads in all the standard polls for 1940's Democratic presidential nomination. On the debit side is the fact that he is 70 now—an age that is generally regarded as being too old for the telling job of Chief Executive. But he seems to be in the pink physically as well as mentally. A powerful group is getting ready to back him for the nomination, and there's certainly at least a fair chance he'll get it. At any event, he is a force to be reckoned with—Industrial News Review.

Senator Connally Would Deport Alien Agitators

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Senator Tom Connally of Texas has introduced a bill in the Senate to provide for the exclusion from immigration to this country and for the deportation of aliens already in this country who are advocating the making of changes in the American form of government. "Under existing laws, aliens residing in the United States can be deported on certain grounds," Senator Connally said, "and the effect of my bill is to add to these grounds the advocacy by such aliens of changes in the American form of government."

Continuing, Senator Connally asserted: "Subversive and un-American influences being fomented and agitated by aliens residing in the United States are a constant threat to American institutions. These hostile and un-American activities ought to be stamped out and suppressed. This result can best be accomplished by deporting all those who take part in such un-American activities. These foreign and alien agents and incendiaries, whether advocating the establishment of Fascism or Totalitarianism or other foreign "isms" in the United States, or whether advocating that the principles of Communism be substituted for our constitutional Democratic system are both dangerous to our domestic peace and to our representative form of government. Such aliens ought to be deported and returned to the country of their origin," Senator Connally declared, adding:

"The Constitution of the United States protects every American citizen in the enjoyment of free speech, free press and free assembly and all of the other personal guarantees in our bill of rights. I would in no wise restrict or abridge the exercise of these rights by American citizens. Under these constitutional guarantees, any American citizen has the right to advocate any change in the form of government of the United States according to legal and constitutional methods. However, I do not believe that aliens who spend their time in agitating and preaching the overthrow of the government of the United States and the changing of our fundamental, constitutional system should be allowed to remain in the United States and freely ply their nefarious practices, seeking to destroy the government whose protection they claim," Senator Connally concluded.

What Next?

It is tragically ironic commentary on the world we live in that Hitler's new Czech "adventure" came just at the time when the heads of governments were drawing deep breaths, relaxing and saying that the prospects for peace had at last brightened. The ex-house painter likes to do the unexpected—and he outdid himself this time. Further, in the view of some, he may have at last taken the rope that will eventually hang him.

The seizure of Moravia and Bohemia was, legally and ethically, far less excusable than the previous conquest which was signed at Munich. He deliberately violated every promise and guarantee, written and verbal, he had made there. The immediate reaction in France, England and this country was one of anger and disgust. And Mr. Chamberlain made a strong speech at Birmingham in which he said, in effect, that he was through with his policy of appeasement—and intimated that England was ready to fight.

What of the future? Well, as one newspaper correspondent writes, "Imagining the incredible seems to be the best method of prophesy at present.—Industrial News Review."

BUSINESS STILL PERSONAL

Although there are more than half a million corporations in the United States, 80 per cent of our economic activity is carried on by individuals and personal partnerships.

FRESHMAN REPORT

By Dortha M. Wolfe

The freshman class regrets that Miss Gatlin and Mrs. Baker are absent from school although we do get out of classes. We hope Miss Gatlin will recover soon and that Mrs. Baker will soon return, since they are our home room teachers.

The freshman class is aware that second six weeks tests are right at hand and it practically determines whether they pass or fail. We hope they pass for we would hate for a part of our fellow workers to be left behind.

The freshman class has been progressing rapidly and we are very proud of it. We hope to keep our class going and make it the best in school.

We are sorry to say that we have lost one of our fellow classmates, Elaine Lackey.

SOPHOMORE REPORT

The Sophomore class is happy to have Kathaleen Jackson back with us after her stay in San Saba.

Ellabeth Early is absent with a sprained ankle. We hope she is back with us soon.

He suddenly turns up a millionaire, who was just learning the banking business. All plays must have a villain, and this is no exception. Dave Hogan, who plays the part of the villain fits the part perfectly.

These characters, assisted by an adequate supporting cast, and combined into a very mysterious plot, make an excellent play for a senior class.

We believe that our play will be the best that has ever been presented in Goldthwaite.

We invite everyone to come and see the play, which will be presented on Thursday, April 13, in the Grammar School Auditorium. We hope that everyone who possibly can will come and we promise you an evening of entertainment that will long be remembered.

Comanche

S. C. Findley, who lives in Brownwood but holds his membership in the Comanche WOW Camp, was elected Head Council of that order in the State convention held at San Antonio last week. Mr. Findley, active in the order for nearly 40 years, has been a national representative for many years.

C. R. Nichols has been appointed agent for the Santa Fe in Comanche and is expected to take charge within a few days. Mr. Nichols has been agent at Copperas Cove for many years and is said to be an excellent business man and a fine gentleman.

A mad dog was killed on the W. B. Horton farm in the Cross Roads community by Mr. Horton and his son, Leo, assisted by Roy Jones and Tom Lester and his brother. Ownership of the dog is not known.

Mrs. Malinda Francis Helm died early Friday morning at her home in Goldthwaite. Funeral services were held at Taylor's Chapel in Comanche county Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock with Rev. W. C. Cox officiating.

"Aunt Jane" Wilson, who will be 103 years old on the 26th of next May was honored by a number of friends last week when fifteen people including Rev. H. J. Sanders, pastor of the Comanche Circuit, met at the family residence between Sidney and Blanket and held special services.

Miss Wilson who makes her home with her sister, Mrs. J. A. Ward, is believed to be the oldest woman in Comanche county. She was born May 26, 1836, just three months after Texas declared independence from Mexico.

C. P. Harris of Lamkin was killed instantly Friday afternoon when his car collided with an automobile driven by Leon Smith on Highway 40 near Vandalia, Ill.—Chief.

San Saba

J. C. Hewgley, well known San Saba county stockman, has been appointed as authorized representative of Daggett & Keene, Fort Worth livestock commission firm, in San Saba county.

Our hearts bled with sadness last Monday afternoon when at 4 p. m. the last remains of Frank Maas, Jr., were laid tenderly to rest in the city cemetery.

He was born Dec. 17, 1915, and passed away March 25, 1939, at 8:30 on the Conchas Dam in New Mexico, where for two years he had held a responsible position.

M. R. Weatherby of Fort Worth was a business visitor here Tuesday.

Mrs. H. H. Taylor arrived from San Antonio, Tuesday afternoon, to visit relatives and friends a few days here.

The residence lots on West Wallace street, known as the O. B. Sturdivant or the O. H. Whitt property, has been sold during the past few days to Rev. Sam D. Taylor, pastor of the First Baptist church, it is announced. Rev. Taylor has made no public announcement as to what his plans are.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Geslin and family of Center City came by San Saba Sunday and picked up Mrs. Gesling's cousin, Mrs. M. L. Blanton, and they had a pleasant day with Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis of Cherokee.—News-Record.

JUNIOR CLASS

We are glad to report that Magdalene Long returned home the early part of this week, and that she is progressing nicely.

We should like to extend our sympathies to Mary Louise McGirk, a fellow member, who is in the hospital in Fort Worth, and we hope that she can return soon.

We really don't have much gossip to spread on thick this week. This seems odd, considering the fact that several of the G. H. S.'ers were seen with their "whatcha-may-call-ums" during the County Meet and the Track Meet. But what little we do have this time, we'll save for some other week.

Mrs. Carroll Philip (Bunk) Harris, who with her young son, Forest D. Harris, is spending the school months in Lamkin with her mother, Mrs. O. D. Britain, was informed by wire Friday from Vandalia, Illinois, of the death of her husband in an auto accident.

Reports Thursday from the Vickers-Walace Lund No. 1 oil test were that the hole had reached a depth of 3,100 feet, and was drilling in broken lime shells and shale. There is a considerable show of gas, and discovery of oil would not be a surprise to the initiated.

An announcement of large import is made this week that the Central Texas State Singing Convention meets in annual session in Hamilton on April 15 and 16, at which time thousands of visitors will be in this city.

Mrs. Rellis Worley and her attractive baby son, Rellis Earl, are here from Goldthwaite to spend the week as guests in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Pope Gerald, and to visit with other relatives and friends.—Herald-Record.

Lampasas

Mrs. R. J. Paine and Mrs. Geo. W. Gartman were visitors in Brady, Tuesday, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gartman.

Mrs. Lucy Hufstutler was painfully burned on her hands arms and limb late Saturday evening when her home caught fire. She had been cleaning some garments with naphtha and had placed a pan of water on a stove when in some manner her clothing became ignited. She was along at the time of the accident and her calls attracted neighbors who came to her assistance and turned in the fire alarm.—Leader.

A communication from L. C. Eastland, business manager of the Bowen Motor Coaches, states that the Railroad Commission of Texas has set April 14 as the date for the hearing of a petition for a route from Fort Worth to San Antonio. The hearing will be at Stephenville and many people from the various towns along the line will appear to show why a "through bus line" would be advantageous.

A meeting of considerable interest to Baptist in this territory will be held in Lometa Friday, April 7. The San Saba, Mills and Lampasas associations meet there for an evangelistic rally.

Speakers on the program include pastors Sam D. Taylor of San Saba, E. E. Dawson of Goldthwaite, Buren Sparks of Burnet and others.

Mrs. G. C. Barnett and Mrs. Clarence Moses of Adamsville visited at Sanatorium Sunday and Monday with their husbands and report both men doing fine.

Brownwood

Supervisors of CCC selection for the Texas Relief Commission in a tier of counties within the area of enrollment handled by the Brownwood CCC unit, are studying activities and requirements at the two local CCC camps in preparation for the heaviest registrations of CCC enrollees in recent years.

Mrs. Jack Kilgore and daughter, Kathryn, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Kilgore while en route from Luling to Corpus Christi where they will join Mr. Kilgore and make their home. Mr. Kilgore is an employee of the Humble Oil Company.

Brown county 4-H club boys fattened yearling calves brought and auction sale prices, at the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show at Fort Worth, according to County Agent C. W. Lehmburg.

Mrs. Minnie Fisher Cunningham, editor of the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service for past five years, and a member of the organization since 1930, has accepted appointment with the AAA's Regional Contact Section, Extension Director H. H. Williamson has announced.—Banner.

Hamilton

Judge J. B. Pool is a good roads enthusiast, and his efforts with the co-operation of our splendid, wide awake County Commissioners F. Waggoner, A. H. Sumerford, R. W. (Bob) Hancock, and K. W. West, are beginning to be evidenced by the greater activities in road improvement work, especially on the farm-to-market road projects.

I can't pay cash for Jacks, buy gas, pay a man to help, buy tires, come to your place when and as many times as you ask me, then you trade or sell mares and me have to hunt them, so I have decided on a cash proposition, so please don't ask me to bring either Jack or Horse without you have the cash. Pleasant Grove H. D. Club

"Keeping a record of family expenditures helps to spend our dollar to a better advantage," said Mrs. M. D. Crawford, member of the Pleasant Grove H. D. Club which met in the home of Mrs. C. H. Hall Tuesday afternoon, March 21.

Some of the other reasons for keeping a record of family expenditures were: to keep down family arguments, to better ourselves and to keep from slighting anything or spending too much for another thing.

There were twelve members present. We enjoyed having Mrs. W. A. Bayley and Mrs. Mollie Horton as our visitors.

Foal or has not been traded or sold please bring receipt and get your money, less $1.00 for each trip. I can book 35 more mares. I do all I know to prevent accidents, but I will not be responsible for any accident to stock or anyone. Thanks, C. O. Norton, Phone 1614F4, Goldthwaite, Tex.
