moyle Quartermaster Depot, 1 each; Camp Hulen, 4; Fort Sam Houston, 6; Camp Wallace, 3; and Camp Wolters, 6. Construction in the southwest is under the supervision of Col. Edwin V. Dunstan, Constructing Quartermaster of the Eighth Construction Zone.

TWO MEN DROWN IN COLORADO RIVER SLOUGH LAST SATURDAY

Ismael M. Long, 28, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Long of Big Valley, and his nephew, Henry Wallace Long, 20, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Long of Goldthwaite, were drowned in a slough on the Colorado River, just across from Big Valley in San Saba County, last Saturday afternoon or night. Their bodies were recovered with grab hooks about dark Sunday afternoon, after an all-day search by over 100 people.

Ismael Long and his nephew, who was living with his uncle, set out about five o'clock last Saturday afternoon to cross a slough near the river, which was on a 35-foot rise, to drive their sheep to safety. They started across the slough on horseback, one with a saddle and the other bareback. Ismael Long was said to have been riding a young, foolish horse that was known to rear up when the reins were pulled too hard. It is supposed that Ismael's horse became frightened by the deep water, reared up and threw Mr. Long off, and that Wallace (known as Woddy) went to his aid and both were drowned. Their bodies were found together. The horses crossed the slough, which was about 50 feet across, and were found the next morning. The water was 20 feet deep where the bodies were found, having risen about five feet from the time they were drowned to the time the bodies were found.

Mrs. Ismael Long cooked supper for the two men, and when they failed to return at dark Saturday night, she became alarmed and tried to start the car to go for help, as no telephone was on the place. Failing to get the car started, she blew the horn for a long time trying to attract neighbors to help in the search. After walking the floor all night, she cooked breakfast for the men and finally got the car started and went for help.

Word reached Goldthwaite just before church services Sunday morning, and a number here and San Saba joined with the people of the community to try to locate the bodies. By noon 18 or 20 men were in boats dragging the slough, which failed to bring results.

R. V. Littlepage and Claude Dickerson, who had been in the boats all afternoon dragging the slough, came back to Goldthwaite for grab hooks, but when they returned the bodies had been found. Vance Cockrell hooked both bodies with grab hooks. E. D. Robertson and Mr. Bynum of Big Valley Community had located the tracks where the horses went into the slough and where they came out, and the bodies were found in the water on a line with these tracks.

The news of this double tragedy spread a pall of sorrow over Mills and San Saba Counties, as both the Longs had lived in Mills County all their lives. Ismael Long was the son and Wallace Long the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Long of Big Valley who moved to this county in 1900. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Long celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary last May 11, and up to that time there had not been a death either among their children or grandchildren.

Double funeral services were held at the Upper Valley Baptist Church last Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, being conducted by the pastor, Rev. C. K. Roberts. Interment followed in the Upper Valley Cemetery.

Ismael Long is survived by his parents, his wife and two children; and by two brothers, Dan Long of Goldthwaite and Ordian Long of Big Valley; and by three sisters, Mrs. Jack Attaway of Como, Mrs. John Jackson of Goldthwaite, and Mrs. Edgar Barrington of Sherman.

TWO-WEEKS' ARMY MANEUVERS COME TO A CLOSE HERE TODAY

The most extensive army maneuvers ever held in Texas were at a close today, after two weeks of field training by 70,000 men of the VIII Army Corps, comprising the streamlined Second Division of regulars from San Antonio, the 36th Division of Texas National Guardsmen from Brownwood, and the 45th Division, Abilene, mostly Oklahoma National Guardsmen. In addition, there were several smaller units and regiments.

The soldiers were divided into Red and Blue armies, the entire 70,000 men being under command of Maj.-Gen. George V. Strong, commander of the VIII Army. Lieut.-Col. P. C. Bullard was chief umpire of the games.

Mills County being located in the exact center of the state of Texas, was used more than any other in the 500,000-acre leased maneuver grounds. Also, landowners here co-operated with the army more than in other counties. Mullin and Goldthwaite cafes and cold drink stands have done a good business from the soldiers this week.

CAPTURE GOLDTHWAITE

Tuesday afternoon, after having undergone an intense bombardment by their enemies—the Reds—with heavy artillery stationed near Mullin, the Blue Army finally overran the Reds, captured important bridges and fords on the Colorado River, and took the town of Goldthwaite. The invaders were received with cheers by the citizens, were served punch at the Methodist Church—together with a sing-song—by the ladies of the Mills County Defense Recreational League, and were given free passes to the local picture show. RATTLESNAKES BAD

Last Friday afternoon, the army maneuvers nearly, the command was fall out for a rest; soldiers being hot and down under the shade of trees. One soldier was bitten by a rattlesnake, and lived only eight minutes.

Another soldier was bitten a rattler, but recovered.

"CASUALTY"

One soldier during the maneuvers was told that he was dead and to lie on the ground dead until the Ambulance Corps came along and picked him up. This was in the morning, and the sun was hot. Later in the afternoon, the sun was hotter and the soldier was hungry, so the fighting having moved on to other localities and thinking he had been forgotten, the dead man arose and walked to the nearest mess hall for chow, reporting to his c.o. He will probably be out of the guard house a week from next Tuesday.

TRIGGER MOUNTAIN OIL TEST DRILLING SINCE LAST MONDAY

Monday morning the oil test at Trigger Mountain being drilled by Geologist Dr. Emil Ott and associates of San Angelo, started drilling again, after a ten-day delay waiting to set casing at 422 feet to shut off water.

Drillers had put the well down another 125 feet by the middle of the week and are still drilling. However, another water vein has been struck and this will have to be piped off when a suitable place is found before much more drilling can be done. Additional pipe is expected to be sent here soon.

MANN'S THE MAN CLUB ASKS ADS BE RUN IN WEEKLIES

Dear Fellow-Mann Supporter: You have kindly indicated your desire to be of help to Jerry in his campaign for the United States Senate. He deeply appreciates your offer.

One of the most important objectives in any political campaign is to secure and retain the goodwill of the press. Newspapers—particularly small country newspapers—exert a powerful influence over their reading public. Most of them are for Jerry and are helping us by running his publicity releases. We want to show our appreciation for their support.

For lack of finances, we have been unable to put on a statewide advertising program with the weeklies. On the other hand, one of our opponents who has unlimited backing has been able to advertise extensively. Therefore, if you can afford to do so, we would appreciate your placing a small ad in some weekly newspaper. Even though it is but one inch in the classified column, it will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,
James Noel, Chairman,
State Mann's the Man for Senator Club.

CONOCO STARTS OVER MILLION DOLLAR CAMPAIGN IN WEEKLIES

Continental Oil Company starts this week one of the largest newspaper campaigns in its history to introduce the company's newest product, Conoco Nth Motor Oil.

According to Will A. Morgan, advertising manager, newspapers throughout most of the United States, including the Goldthwaite Eagle, will receive the major portion of Continental's advertising budget to present Conoco Nth Motor Oil to the public. More than a million dollars will be spent by the company in newspapers during the next six months.

Continental's claim for its new oil include low motor wear, Oil-Plating, more miles between quarts, and a decided improvement in the reduction of lacquer and sludge, accomplished by the discovery in Continental laboratories of a new synthetic, Thiolkene Inhibitor.

Proof of these claims was dramatically illustrated by a daring destruction test carried out in Death Valley, where the hottest temperatures in the United States have been registered. Five identical stock cars, each lubricated with five quarts of a different well-known motor oil, and a sixth car, identical with the others and filled with five quarts of Conoco Nth, were all run over a course in Death Valley until each of the engines was wrecked. The test was run under the impartial supervision of Prof. H. M. Jacklin, who during the academic year is professor of Automotive Engineering at Purdue University.

At the end of the test, the car lubricated with Conoco Nth had run 13,398.8 miles on one crankcase full of Nth oil—73.67 per cent more miles than the closest competitor—161.17 per cent more miles than the first car to fail—and 111.29 per cent more miles than the average of all the other five cars.

The entire story of the Death Valley test will be told, with many illustrations, in the series of advertisements which will appear in this newspaper.

A Letter Received By Mrs. John Keese From Mrs. Tucker

My Dear Friend:

Here is a Mother's Day message from your own child which you will probably treasure more than the average token of the season.

It is an entry in my "Honor To Mother" Contest which has just been concluded, and if I were you I would value highly the heart-deep sentiments your child expressed in voting you "The Greatest Mother in the World."

The judges are Mrs. Grace Noll Crowell, the American Mother of 1938; Aunt Susan, Station WKY, Oklahoma City; Mrs. Isabel Scott, Station WFAA, Dallas; and Miss Irene Bert of our advertising agency.

Sincerely yours,
MRS. TUCKER.

Arlington, Texas, May 8, 1941.

Dear Mrs. Tucker:

I vote my Mother the greatest mother in the world because she it was who guided me, through her tender care and wise teaching, in the better way of life—that of love, truth and honor. She is a Christian mother, and no words can say better for anyone.

She is the mother of six children now grown to manhood and womanhood with families of their own, and each one reflects her Christian teachings. Not alone her children but those of four families of orphan children who lived neighbors to us called her blessed, because of the care and help they received from her. She was always ready to help. Many nights she left us little children and walked over Goldthwaite to set up with the sick and aged and dying. There was never a call for service or sacrifice she was not ready to answer.

When we were small we would gather around her in the evening and she sang to us, told us Bible stories and taught us to pray.

I attribute much of the happiness I know today to the way she taught me to live, a life of service and help to those I come in contact with. Surely she laid very carefully and securely each stone in the foundations of the characters she was building.

Common words just don't express why I think my mother the greatest mother in the world. In these humble but sincere words I have tried to picture how dear she is to me. She is living, for which I thank God. Her address is: Mrs. J. N. Keese, Goldthwaite.

Mrs. Tucker, I deeply appreciate the privilege of paying tribute to my mother and thank you.

Sincerely,
(Mrs.) R. O. Brandenburg,
Rt. 2, Box 4, Arlington, Texas.

Legislative Activities At Austin

By Sen. Penrose Metcalfe
State Senate, Austin

HE LISTS THE ITEMS OF THE LEGISLATURE

The legislature is near its close and most everyone is looking for the items of the legislature. I think we should go home, but for our own reason the commissioning the department bills continues bringing them back to the Legislature and those bills are passed before we leave. The entire legislature is responsible for the few. We have passed a number of important pieces. I will mention a few. I have passed the tax bill and the care of the social program and I have in the old people who Democracy and to believe that they are going to be content with the provisions we have made in an hour like this when our country is calling every man, woman and child and their resources to the aid of our country.

We have succeeded in passing a bill that will raise the truck load limit to 38 thousand pounds gross, which has been a long continued fight. The law as passed, of course, does not suit every individual case, but as a general proposition it puts us in a class with the other states and it was that best we could do under the prevailing conditions. Other bills are aid for rural schools, and the soil conservation bill was rewritten and simplified, the anti-strike law and many other bills of importance. The House has also passed a lot of bad legislation. The House has gone wild in passing a lot of appropriations that I think is bad legislation, and that were not needed in a time like this. Speaking as one member of the Legislature and in view of the undisputed fact that the state is far in the RED at this time and we are confronted with unlimited federal expenditures which are necessary for protection, I think it is the duty of every state to act on a strict economical program and protect the tax payers and individuals to the fullest extent, for we are reaching the 11th hour. We must join hands in the program of defense and economy for after this period is over we are going to be confronted with an awful day.

I had the pleasure and privilege of hearing the Hon. United States Senator, Claude Pepper, from Florida. Senator Pepper once lived at De Leon in 1905 and is one of the outstanding citizens in our United States Senate. He brought the House a wonderful message and gave us much first-hand information. I also had the pleasure of hearing the outstanding news analyst and commentator, Caltenborn. After hearing these two outstanding men, it looks to me as if we in the United States have plenty ahead of us. We may be preparing for sorrow and heartaches in the future.

More Government Jobs Open To Public

As a part of the comprehensive planning for national defense, mineral economists are needed to do research in the fields of minerals, coal, and petroleum. Civil service examinations for these positions are now open. The salaries range from $2,600 to $5,600 a year.

Another examination just announced by the commission is for cylinder pressman for employment in the Government Printing Office and the Bureau of Engraving. Pressmen will be paid $1.32 an hour for a 40-hour week, and the Bureau of Engraving pays at the rate of $10.56 a day.

Full information as to the requirements for these examinations and application forms may be obtained from B. W. Davis, secretary of the Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, or from any first or second-class post office.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Head and little daughter of Brownwood spent the day last Sunday in the homes of his sister, Mrs. Viola Chappel, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dennis.

AUSTIN CHOSEN FOR TEXAS GOOD DRIVERS LEAGUE FINALS JULY 1

Texas state finals for contestants in the 1941 Ford Good Drivers League will be held July 1, at Austin, it has been announced from Dearborn, Mich., national headquarters of the league.

Selection of sites for state finals was revealed as thousands of boys and girls enrolled in the Good Drivers League throughout the nation hurried to complete the required written tests and road tests on automobile safety.

In a last-minute warning to enrollees, league officials said that these tests must be completed and results mailed to the league national headquarters at Dearborn before midnight, June 2.

Boys and girls competing in the good driving contests are shooting at high stakes. Winners in the national contest will be awarded 98 university scholarships amounting to a total of $28,000 by Edsl Ford, president of the league.

From the results of tests submitted by each league member, judges will select 12 leading girl contestants and 12 leading boy contestants in each state and the District of Columbia to compete in state finals. Separate contests are held for boys and girls.

A $5,000 university scholarship will be awarded in national competition to the best girl driver and another $5,000 scholarship to the best boy driver. Ninety-six other scholarships will go to finalists. Runners-up in both the boy and girl divisions each will receive $2,000 scholarships.

YOUTHS ARE WANTED FOR UNITED STATES MARINES

Although the U. S. Marines are offering young men an opportunity to enlist in the Marine Corps Reserve for the duration of the national emergency only, the larger percentage of them are enlisting in the regular Marine Corps for a period of four years, Maj. J. D. O'Leary, recruiting chief of the Dallas Recruiting District, stated today. Since the lowering of the minimum age limit from 18 to 17 years, last month, many young men of 17 have taken advantage of this opportunity of enlisting in the Marines.

An unlimited number of vacancies still exist for enlistment. Marine Corps recruiting stations in the Dallas district are located in Dallas, Abilene, Fort Worth, Tyler and Waco.

Mrs. Mac Horton and children left Friday night for Beaumont to visit for several weeks.

A new York commercial journal recently attributed gains in cotton futures to expectancy of high loans in Washington and to acceptance of bids for 80,000 bales of cotton and 5,270,000 yards of ticking by the Surplus Marketing Administration. The cotton and ticking will be used in the federal cotton mattress demonstration program.

Marriage Solemnized In Home Ceremony

In a quiet ceremony read before a group of friends and relatives, Miss Opal Faulkner was married to Rex Collier on Sunday morning, June 8, at nine o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Faulkner.

As Miss Syble Miller played the bridal chorus from Lohengrin, the bride and groom, attended by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Faulkner as best man and matron of honor, entered the flower-banked living room and took their places before the improvised altar. The single ring ceremony was read by the Rev. E. E. Dawson, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Goldthwaite.

The bride wore black and white sheer with black and white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Faulkner, her attendant, wore rose and white sheer with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations and blue cornflowers.

The groom wore gray and his best man navy blue, while both wore white carnation boutonniere.

Mrs. Collier is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Faulkner and the granddaughter of Mrs. W. L. Faulkner of Goldthwaite. Both she and Mr. Collier were members of the 1940 graduating class of the Goldthwaite High School. After finishing high school she attended Johnson's School of Beauty Culture in San Antonio.

Mr. Collier is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Collier of Goldthwaite. After his graduation from high school in 1940, where he had played in the school band for a number of years, he attended Howard Payne College in Brownwood. There, too, he was a member of the Howard Payne Band.

After a short honeymoon trip to various points of interest in Texas, the young couple will make their home in Brownwood, where Mr. Collier is employed by the Camp Exchange at Camp Bowie.

Communities Are Completing Mattress Projects For Year

These Mills County cotton centers have enjoyed a period of constructive operation since the second order of mattress ticking was received last May 14: Lake Merrit, Payne Gap, Star, Duren, Pecan Wells, Center City, Pompey Creek, Big Valley, Regency, and Center Point. Mattresses have been made in these centers.

These communities will complete their 1940 cotton mattress projects by July 1: Star, Payne Gap, Lake Merrit, Pompey Creek, Center Point, Regency and Scalhorn.

When the third and last order of mattress materials arrives, these communities will resume operation and complete their projects: Mullin, Center City, Big Valley. These will begin and complete: Ebony, Goldthwaite, Rock Springs, Pleasant Grove and South Bennett.

Regency H.D. Club

The Regency H.D. Club was entertained May 30 at 2 p. m. by Mrs. H. L. Egger. The president had charge of the business meeting after which the meeting was turned over to Miss Scott.

"National defense begins in the home," said Miss Scott as she explained to us how important a part nutrition played in the national defense program. She also talked on the value of whole wheat grain foods. Each member was given a pamphlet showing how to plan daily menus so that each member of the family would get the required vitamins. She also gave us recipes for canning wheat and making whole wheat muffins, after which she baked some muffins and she and Mrs. Egger served them and samples of canned wheat along with other refreshments to 12 members and two visitors.

One new member, Miss Jean Edgington, was enrolled. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Edgar Jones June 20, 1941, at 2 p. m.—Reporter.

FDR ASKS JOHNSON TO STAY IN TEXAS ON CAMPAIGN TRAILS

AUSTIN, June 12.—President Roosevelt today had requested Cong. Lyndon Johnson to continue laying before Texas people in the senatorial campaign the vital issues now facing this country.

The President's telegram was in response to one sent him by the congressman offering to return to Washington at once if the President needed him.

The President's telegram said: "I have your telegram of May 31 in which you say that if I as your commander-in-chief need you that you will come at once. I have declared a national emergency because of the seriousness of the present emergency warrants it."

"However, we should not lose sight of our ultimate objective which is the defense of our Democratic way of life.

"The people of Texas, by taking part in the election of June 28 of a United States senator, thereby present a convincing demonstration of our Democratic process at work. In my opinion the people of Texas are entitled to be informed of the issues by the candidates for that office, and I can think of no better way to present the issues than through personal appearances by all the candidates. Therefore I suggest that you stay in Texas during the campaign unless conditions change so radically that your presence in Washington is necessary. If that happens, I will send for you. Please return immediately after election. — Franklin D. Roosevelt."

W. D. Shipman Writes From Calif.

Camp Roberts, Calif.
Dear Editor: June 1, 1941. I have a few lines I would like to have published in the Eagle.

Here are a few of the things a draftee has to go through with: In the 79th Infantry we get up at 5:15 and dress, wash, make our beds, sweep, and mop the floors, and are ready to stand reveille at 5:40. We eat breakfast at 6 and start drilling at 6:30 I mean we drill, too. We average about 10 miles per day. We drill until 11:30, then come for dinner at 12. Then we go back to the drill grounds at 1 and stay until 4:30 and come in and stand retreat at 5:30, and then eat supper at 6. We then clean our equipment for the next day. Our rifles have to be just as clean as an old maid's conscience or we get extra duty, such as KP on Sunday. Then by this time it is time for the lights to go out. Totto is sounded and out go the lights. Most of us rookies are ready for some sleep by this time.

Now that I have told you a few of the things we go through out here in Camp Roberts, why don't some one sit down and let me know a few of the things that are happening in Goldthwaite?

SINGING CONVENTION

The singing convention is still wanting a home the fourth Sunday in this month. We would like for some one to call for the convention. The song lovers of Mills County should not let the convention die. We have the promise of some good quartets if some place in the county will call for the convention. See and talk to your church next Sunday and let me know if you want the convention the fourth Sunday.

Yours in song,

Caradan News— By Mrs. M. W. Wright

The dates of the Daily Vacation Bible School to be held at the Baptist Church at Caradan have been changed. The school will begin on Monday, June 30, and will continue two weeks, Monday through Friday from 10 to 12 o'clock each day. All children from four to 16 are urged to come and others are welcome. The pastor has secured the assistance of an experienced vacation Bible School principal from Brownwood to have charge of the school. He and several others will assist in teaching. The program each day will consist of singing, Bible study, and recreation. Much interest is being manifested, and an effort is being made to secure cars to transport children who have no way to come.

The Baptist revival will begin August 1 and continue ten days. A singer from Brownwood has been secured for the meeting; the pastor, Rev. Holliday, will do the preaching.

Mrs. Raymond Meed and little daughter, Jimmie Ray, of Fort Worth have been visiting her mother, Mrs. W. W. Reynolds, for the past week.

Mrs. Hardcastle and Mrs. Wigley spent Sunday in Pottsville. Mrs. Wigley remained to visit her son this week.

Those who failed to attend church Sunday missed two good messages. Bro. Holiday, the new pastor, is a very earnest speaker. Everyone is invited to hear him each second Sunday.

We were glad to have Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kendall from North Bennett at church Sunday night. Our community has been the scene of much excitement this week. The soldier boys were everywhere and caused as much excitement among the little boys as would a whole regiment.

We are proud of our boys and are glad to co-operate with them in every way possible.

Clements Drug and Jewelry Store has the ideal gift for Dad. Mrs. J. A. Hester spent a few days last week with her son, Walters Hester, and family at Cameron. Misses Jerry and Lottie Bell went to Cameron Sunday and their mother, Mrs. Hester, accompanied them home to Goldthwaite.

To Mrs. L. O. Hicks On Her 77th Birthday

By GERTRUDE E. JACKSON

It's not because you're pretty Nor yet because you're witty, Nor even that you're rich in lands and gold;

It's not because you dress so well, Nor for the charming tales you tell,

Nor any place of eminence you held.

It's for the kind of loyalty So coveted by royalty, That you upon the Dorcas Class bestow;

The love that makes you bear with us,

And every blessing share with us, Which makes you such a friend we're proud to know.

That we, on this your natal day, Sing unto you this roundelay— Devoid of rhyme, and rhythm too, we fear,

But coming from the heart of us, And very much a part of us, To tell you of our love, true and sincere.

May all the days you've shared with us

Be to the years yet spared to us As sea-shells to the sands upon the shore;

And when, according to his word We go to meet our blessed Lord, May we be all together ever more.

—Written by a friend of Mrs. L. O. Hicks.

Sheep shearing is still going on in these parts. Some are shearing their lambs, while some are not through with their older herds.

People are still behind with their farming. We still have plenty rain. Grain is ruining in the field. Most corn is looking good. Gardens are not mudd in this part on account of so much rain. But when we have a lot of rain we have a lot of everything else. When we have a drouth we don't have enough of anything—except dry weather. So let'er rain.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Dalton had for the week-end their son, Henry Kemper, of Abilene. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bradbury, also of Abilene, spent Sunday evening in the Grover Dalton home.

Miss Eunice Roberts of Gilmer spent Friday of last week with her aunt, Mrs. J. E. Greathouse.

Mrs. Sauters was hostess to the Goldthwaite Home Demonstration Club Tuesday afternoon in her home.

The meeting was called to order by the vice-president, Mrs. Burns, in the absence of the president.

The minutes were read and approved and a report from the council delegate was heard. A motion was made and carried that each member donate 25 cents at the next meeting to help pay the expenses of the council delegate to the summer short course to be held in College Station beginning July 13.

After a short recreation period we heard papers read and discussed on flowers, their containers and arrangement, and the kind of flowers most suitable for sick-rooms, bed rooms, etc.

Refreshments were served to six old club members: Mmes. Reynolds, Burns, Lila Crawford, Curtis Long, Dyas, Sauters, and the new member, Mrs. Chappell.

The next meeting will be with Miss Scott in her office July 1.—Reporter.

The Jones Valley Home D. Club

Because of high water, rain and mud I failed to report our last regular meeting. There being so few, we decided to meet again this last Thursday.

We met with Mrs. Ferguson, Miss Scott being able to be with us. We had a very interesting meeting and enjoyed it very much.

We answered roll call with a compliment on our baking which added some fun to our few minutes of recreation.

Good foods and whole wheat was our subject for discussion, in which Miss Scott gave us a very instructive as well as interesting talk. She then baked some of those whole wheat muffins for us all to see and eat, and did we enjoy them! Our next meeting will be with Mrs. George Brooks on June 12.—Reporter.

Chappel Hill News

By Mrs. J. N. Crook

Rain continues to come in downpours. We are afraid the grain is going to be ruined if the rain doesn't stop for a few days. The combines run day and night when it is dry enough to save the grain. The rain makes it bad for our soldier boys that are maneuvering here now. Seventy thousand are supposed to be here and I believe they're all here.

Charles Crook has chicken pox and has been pretty sick for a few days.

Mrs. J. E. Evans has been sick for the past week.

WAR ON THE POLITICAL FRONT

By GEORGE C. HESTER

The recent pronouncement of war aims by the United States and England may eventually prove to be one of the most important steps yet made by the Democratic powers. In a message to Congress in January, President Roosevelt summarized in the following language the four essential human freedoms which we are seeking to make secure for the world of the future:

"The first is freedom of speech and expression—everywhere in the world. The second is freedom of every person to worship God in his own way—everywhere in the world. The third is freedom from want which, translated into world terms, means economic understanding which will secure to every nation a healthy peacetime life for its inhabitants—everywhere in the world. Fourth is freedom from fear which, translated into world terms, means world-wide reduction of armaments to such a point and in such a thorough fashion that no nation will be in a position to commit an act of physical aggression against any neighbor—anywhere in the world."

On May 29, Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden defined England's post-war objectives by endorsing the President's aims and adding: "That is no vision of a distant millennium. It is a definite basis for the kind of world attainable in our day and generation." "Let no one suppose," he said, "that we, for our part expect to return to the chaos of the old world. . . . A peaceful brotherhood of nations with due liberty to each to develop its own balanced economic life and its characteristic culture will be the common object of all of us."

"Our political and military terms for peace will be designed to prevent repetition of Germany's misdeeds. . . . The lasting settlement and internal peace of the continent as a whole is our only aim. The fact that at the bottom of his heart every combatant knows this, is the ultimate source of our strength."

The above utterances, coming from spokesmen of the two great democracies, are "straws in the wind" foreboding considerations of profound significance in the shape of things ahead. The statements reveal that the Democracies are just awakening to one of the most powerful instruments of modern war, which is political warfare.

For years the Nazi leaders have stressed the importance of war on the political front and to that end have perfected a far-flung network of the most scientific system of propaganda, intrigue, and organized subversion known to the history of statecraft. Country after country was either neutralized or rendered helpless by its work. Long before the outbreak of the present struggle these international schemers operated upon the theory that most democracies can be defeated from behind the lines, by merely confusing the thinking of the peoples, by poisoning their ideals, and by destroying their faith and confidence in democratic institutions.

Now there is but one effective counterplan to defeat such methods of warfare. It is a counter offensive on the political front to arouse and unite the freedom loving peoples of the earth into a common ideal and a common purpose.

Few people realize the power of ideals in human affairs. In every great crisis in history there have risen to the surface such slogans and battle cries as best express the basic things for which men are willing to struggle and die. In the throes of the French Revolution, it was "Liberty, Equality, Fraternity." We still recall the ringing commandments of Woodrow Wilson that shattered faith in the Kaiser's dream of "Deutschland Uber Alles" in the old world war. These were things that touched the hearts of liberty loving peoples everywhere and gave them the courage and will to carry on.

But the Democracies at the beginning of this war had forgotten. They had forgotten the importance of ideals and the necessity of continuously pounding upon these ideals in political warfare. As a result they have been outflanked politically.

Moreover, we as a people have as yet failed to comprehend the real meaning of total warfare. We speak of it as if it applied only to industrial and military mobilization, overlooking the more powerful mainsprings of human action.

The dictators have put strength into their systems, but strength without the proper spiritual foundations will fail. What survives this struggle in the end will be something fundamental, something true.

In the words of Adolf Hitler, "Two worlds are in conflict, two philosophies of life. . . . One of these worlds must break asunder."

There is, of course, but one alternative for Hitler's conceived world order. It is a counter offensive on the political front embracing a community of interest for all free peoples, and for those who want to be free. The battle slogan should be "freedom, independence, democracy." After all, some three-fourths of the human race, most of whom are beyond the domination of Nazi war lords, still cherish such ideals.

These are the only political ties that can weld together the vast and diverse peoples into a common purpose. A dynamic exploitation of these ideals throughout the world and by every method possible would constitute the most practical military strategy for the Democracies, and would strike at the most vulnerable spot in the totalitarian scheme of things.

The Democracies cannot continue in confusion. Retreat is impossible and hesitation means disaster. These are days of action—for an offensive for democracy upon the political fronts in every land. This alone can establish faith in a great historic cause such as that which won the first world war and which in the end will be the determining factor in this one.

Eggs 100 years old were recently served to a group of friends by Dr. C. C. Dobbs of the Baylor University, Waco, Chemistry faculty, and all members of the party have lived to tell of it. A salad of the ancient eggs was part of a Chinese dinner prepared by Dr. Dobbs. The eggs had been buried in China and left for years before being dug up and sent to America, he said.

More than one-fourth of the total land area of Texas is now under lease for oil and gas activity.

Alabama became the first state with every acre of farm land in soil conservation districts—legally authorized farmer co-operatives for conservation.

PROGRESS IN WORLD MISSIONS

LESSON TEXT—Acts 13:44-52; Galatians 3:23-29. GOLDEN TEXT—For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.—Galatians 3:26.

"All people" are included in God's plan of redemption. When the angel of the Lord announced the birth of Christ to the shepherds he said, "Fear not: for behold I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people" (Luke 2:10). The invitation is: "Let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely" (Rev. 22:17). The disciples naturally and properly first preached the gospel to the Jews, but the time came when God was ready to send them to the Gentiles, that they too might hear the message of redemption. That historic turning point is found in our lesson. As Paul and his fellow workers proceeded from Paphos on the island of Cyprus to the mainland with their message of Christ's redemption, they met both

I. Popularity and Persecution (Acts 13:44, 45).

In the synagogue of Antioch of Pisidia they were invited to preach, and Paul was blessed in the presentation of a powerful gospel message. Read it in Acts 13:16-41. It met with such a response that the people "besought that these words might be preached to them the next Sabbath" (v. 42). So great was the popularity of Paul's message that the whole city came the next Sabbath "to hear the Word of God." What a wonderful sight that must have been and how the disciples must have rejoiced as they preached the Word.

But wait—there's a worm in that red apple of popularity, and its name is jealousy (v. 45). It caused the Jews to blaspheme as they contradicted Paul's preaching. Jealousy always makes a fool out of the one who yields to it. Yet this green-eyed monster is permitted to go right on destroying, hindering, hurting. In the church and the home, as well as in the social order, we let jealousy come in and wreck friendship, break down reputations, yes, even block the work of God. May someone learn the lesson of our text and turn away from that evil way—right now!

II. Rejection and Acceptance (Acts 13:46-52).

All through the record of Scripture and the history of man to this day we find some rejecting the grace of God—others accepting. Those who reject only prove themselves "unworthy of eternal life" (v. 46) and are themselves rejected of God.

The disciples now turn from the Jews to minister to the Gentiles, even as had been prophesied (Isa. 42:6, 49:6, Luke 2:31, 32). They accepted the word of truth and "were glad, and glorified the word of God." Rejection brought eternal death, but acceptance brought eternal life and joy.

They could not keep the good news to themselves, but had to spread it abroad. A lighted candle begins at once to shine. A redeemed soul longs to bring others to Christ. Persecution continued; in fact, was intensified to the point of physical rejection of the disciples. Were they downhearted? No! For the joy of the Lord filled their Holy Spirit-filled lives. Being filled with the Spirit means being filled with joy, even in the midst of persecution.

It really works! Have you given God a chance to prove it in your life?

III. Neither Jew nor Greek (Gal. 3:26, 27).

This selection from the letter which Paul wrote some ten years later to the people of the area in which he had now preached reveals the same truth, that faith in Christ is primary—and essential—in Christian experience.

In this early life we recognize distinctions based on nationality, sex, social position, and many other grounds. While these are emphasized by most people, they are legitimate and necessary distinctions. But in Christ—ah! there the differences disappear. We are all one in Him (v. 28). This is a lesson which we have not learned even yet, but our slowness of heart and mind does not alter God's truth.

The church is talking much these days about ecumenicity, which in plain words means the unity of the people of the various branches of the church all over the world. All too often, however, the proposed basis of unity rests on a surrender or a partial surrender of what Paul declares to be the essential (the sine qua non if you wish), which is faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. No other unity but that which centers in Him, and a personal relationship to Him, is sufficient either for this life or for the life to come.

Wonders of God
God moves in a mysterious way
His wonders to perform;
He plants His footsteps in the sea
And rides upon the storm.
—William Cowper.

1 FILL LASTED 13,398 MILES—Certified

Then how long is a quart of this great New Motor Oil?

STRAIGHT FROM SIZZLING DEATH VALLEY COMES YOUR ANSWER...

The lock-guarded engines of 6 coupes faced the Death Valley desert with oil exactly up to "Full." Not a drop could be added. The destination of all 6 identical everyday engines was... Death!

Here were 6 high quality motor oils getting the same strictly fair opportunity to show how long they'd let an engine live on one exact fill and no more.

Down in Death Valley—hotspot of the U. S. A.—every car sped at 57 miles an hour, till its oil gave out and the engine smashed. The brand of oil that used up quickest was outlasted 8,268 miles by a revolutionary new oil in this impartial, certified test. This new oil exceeded the average mileage of the other 5 oils by all of 7,957 miles! Certified. This longest-lasting oil in the test, which your car can have today—at popular price—is new

CONOCO Nth MOTOR OIL with its Man-made new Economy aid
The record long life that defied Death Valley comes from a new laboratory creation... man-made... called Thialkene inhibitor. Its action in some ways suggests Vaccination—which puts the right protective substance on guard to keep a trouble from even starting on you.

The trouble aiming to start on motor oils lurks in the engine's normal firing. Filth is formed that tends to start the oil "festering." First one drop spoils—then two drops "catch it"—then four—then sixteen—faster, faster, FASTER. Soon oil stamina is sapped; the engine sputters, and cries for quart after quart... but not when the worst of this "festering" attack is nipped in the bud—inhibited—by the life-giving Thialkene inhibitor in new Conoco Nth motor oil.

Now you'll never rashly exceed the proper oil-change period for your car and driving conditions—any more than you ignore traffic rules just to "get away with it." But Certified Proof from the desert that new Conoco Nth could outlast the other oils in the test by as much as 161%, gives you more than mere hopes of long Summer mileage between quarts. Long the keystone of Conoco success OIL-PLATING comes from another great Conoco synthetic... man-made under the famed Germ Processed oil patent. By magnet-like action, OIL-PLATING is bonded to inner engine parts. Then it can't all drain down—not even overnight—not while you're using Conoco Nth. So OIL-PLATING is on guard against wear in advance!... and helps mileage, as it did in Death Valley. An OIL-PLATED engine is one more economy you get from a change to popular-priced new Conoco Nth oil.

Ebony—
By Clementine Wilmeth Briley

We offer our apologies to the readers of the Ebony news for its failure to appear in print last week. It was written in due time and twice started its journey to the post office. But we had had one of our 1941 model rains, and the bearer stuck in the mud and had to return home. Next day we started it off again, but the bearer was so absent-mindedly busy that it arrived back home in the evening unmailed. Therefore, we will incorporate the news from last week into this letter.

Mrs. P. R. Reid has not been at all well for some time and is having to go to Brownwood regularly for treatment.

-WITHOUT A CLUTCH TO PRESS!

100,000 OWNERS HAVE DRIVEN THEIR HYDRA-MATIC* OLDSMOBILES 300,000,000 MILES without ever pushing a clutch!

No wonder 100,000 Olds Hydra-Matic owners are so highly enthusiastic! In three hundred million miles on the road, they have found new freedom in driving.

Why not join the ranks of "freed" Hydra-Matic drivers! Hydra-Matic, remember, is the only drive in the world that eliminates the clutch pedal completely—the only one that provides fully automatic shifting. You enjoy the world's simplest, easiest method of driving. You thrill to new performance. You get new savings in gas.

No doubt about it, Hydra-Matic's the coming way to drive—come in and try it!

See How Your Home Will Look— BEFORE YOU PAINT!

DuPont Paint Styling Guide Assures You the Colors You Select Are RIGHT!

On the use of the DuPont Paint Styling Guide, the problem of choosing color for interior and home decorative is made easy—and foolproof.

Select your colors from color sheets—get an idea of how the shade will look when over a wide surface. The colored, unsatisfactory selecting paint colors all chips is completely with! This innovation, in itself, makes the DuPont Paint Styling Guide an advanced paint color use today. However, it boasts still another parent overlays let you try how various rooms and surfaces will appear when the color you choose becomes a part of the general decorative scheme. On these transparent sheets are printed designs for completely furnished rooms—living room, dining room, bedroom, kitchen—and a variety of exterior home styles. When these transparent pages are held over any one of the color sheets, the color shows through in the spaces where paint might naturally be applied. Thus, you see the complete decorative effect you want to achieve, before the painter goes to work!

We are extremely proud to be able to introduce the DuPont Paint Styling Guide in this section, to offer our customers the most advanced paint color styling service available today. We cordially invite you to visit our store and ask to see the new DuPont Paint Styling Guide.

HOME CANNING OF WHEAT SUGGESTED BY FOOD COMMITTEE

With the wheat harvest not far in the future the Mills County Food and Feed Committee recommends saving out some wheat for table consumption.
 Grace I. Neely, food preservation specialist of the Extension Service suggests home canning of wheat.

Canned whole wheat may be substituted for rice or macaroni either in soups or when served with meats and gravy. It can be used as a breakfast cereal, served with fresh milk, and for variety with fresh or stewed fruit.

Then there are the many palatable products that can be made from whole wheat flour—piping hot muffins delicious with vegetable menus served at noon equally good served for breakfast or supper. Whole wheat yeast bread, whole wheat crackers, whole wheat coffee cake, whole wheat ginger cake.

Whole wheat products mean a financial saving in food bills and they provide nutritional elements greatly needed in the American diet.

TREATMENT OF CANCER

The cure of cancer depends on the use of some agent which will destroy the cancer without destroying the healthy tissue around it.

No substance has been found which taken by mouth, injected under the skin or into the veins will do this.

From the earliest times the knife has been used (operation) to cut out cancer and the flesh around and beneath it. But if a single cancer cell was left (and cancer cells are smaller than the point of a pin) it came back and grew rapidly. Few surgeons operate skin cancer in this day and time and those who do usually send the patient to be X-rayed as soon as the wound has healed to be sure the cancer will not return.

In the past certain chemicals have been used in the form of pastes or salves which applied to skin cancer will destroy the cancer but they often also destroy large areas of healthy skin and muscle around the cancer sometimes leaving raw places on the face or neck as large or larger than the palm of the hand.
 Many such cases come for X-ray treatment and are harder to cure than if the cancer paste had not been used.

X-ray and rays from Radium will kill cancer without destroying healthy tissue. Practically every cancer on the surface of the body if treated early can be cured by X-ray or rays of radium.
